THE WAR A YEAR AGO TODAY

March 22, 1915. Russians captured Przemysl with 125,000 men. Austrians shelled Montenegrin positions. British steamer Concord torpedoed. Allied airmen dropped bombs on Mulheim.

(By Associated Press) Washington, March 22.—Senator Sherman of Illinois today introduced a resolution authorizing and directing President Wilson at once to call for 50,000 volunteers for service in Mexico. Under the rules the resolution will lie on the table until tomorrow.

San Antonio, Texas, March 22.—One of the aviators missing from the aeroplane squadron which went to join General Pershing's column has landed somewhere south of Casas Grandes, according to a dispatch received here today. His name was not given.

Columbus, N. M., March 22.—Wireless communication with the advance column of the American expedition at Casas Grandes was restored today. Several messages, all in code, were received, but none gave any word of the two missing lieutenants of the army aero corps. The search for the two men has been continued.

Kentucky Sails Secretly Galveston, March 22.—The United States battleship Kentucky, which arrived here yesterday and put to sea under sealed orders yesterday afternoon, sailed before it was possible to make delivery of coal and supplies which had been ordered. There are persistent rumors that the Kentucky sailed for Tampico, but no confirmation of this report could be obtained today.

Fort Sheridan Men Leave Chicago, March 22.—The first squadron, Fifth U. S. Cavalry, left Fort Sheridan today for Mexico in two trains.

Turk Heir Who Killed Self Was Italian King's Cousin

ITALIANS ARE ASTOUNDED TO LEARN THAT THE HEREDITARY PRINCE OF MOHAMMEDAN NATION WHO RECENTLY COMMITTED SUICIDE WAS RELATED TO VICTOR EMMANUEL — WAS DECORATED WITH ITALIAN ORDER OF ANNUNZIATA.

(By United Press) Rome, March 3 (by mail)—The recent suicide at Constantinople of Jussuf Izzedine, the Turkish hereditary prince, developed that he at one time in the past was decorated with the Italian order of the Annunziata. The disclosure came as such a surprise to the great bulk of Italians that an official explanation had to be made. The Order of the Annunziata is not only the highest honor the king of Italy can bestow, but it ranks as one of the oldest and highest orders of knighthood in all Europe. There are only thirty-three of the decorations, and upon the death of a member, the gold collar, which is the insignia of the order, has to be returned to the king who can then confer it on someone else. Each person who receives the decoration is elevated to the relationship of a cousin of the king of Italy. When, therefore, it became known that Jussuf Izzedine had been a cousin of King Victor the Italian public wanted to know how it had come about. It developed that the order had been conferred on him in 1872 by King Victor Emmanuel, the Second, cash turned into his personal treasury. Amongst the lot, there happened

Big Crowd At "Wet" Speech

Delft Theater is Filled at Windle Address—Audience Asks Questions

The Delft Theater was crowded last night for the address of C. A. Windle, who spoke for two and a half hours on the "wet" side of the local option question, discussing not only the arguments of "wet" versus "dry" in general, but also many of the local issues which have been injected into the campaign.

In the earlier part of Mr. Windle's speech, interruptions from the audience added zest to the meeting. "Do you believe in woman suffrage?" shouted a male voice from the audience not long after the address had started. "Certainly I do," came the response from the lecturer. "I think women have the right to and I think they have a right to go to war, but I don't want my wife to do either. They have a right to dig a sewer if they want to, but I don't want my wife to do it."

In a few minutes a woman's voice called out "Give just one logical reason for the saloon." "Show me a man who wants a drink and I'll show you one logical reason," was the speaker's reply. "Show me two men who want a drink, and I'll have two logical reasons."

On Majority Rule Later on Mr. Windle was speaking of majority rule, asserting that majority rule is not right in cases where the majority is not concerned, such as in the abridgement of individual liberties, and declaring there should be a legal and well-regulated way in which a man who wants a drink can get one. "How are you going to have the places regulated if the majority isn't to rule?" came a query from the audience.

"The majority shouldn't deny a man a drink," replied Mr. Windle, "because that doesn't affect the majority. But regulation does affect the majority, therefore the majority should decide that."

The speaker's replies to his questioners were the signal for much applause. Attacks The Journal The audience's interest was stirred further when Mr. Windle took up a pile of copies of The Escanaba Journal, the local option organ, and began making replies to various arguments in that publication.

Mr. Windle took up a considerable portion of his lecture with references to the scripture, reading portions from both the Protestant and Catholic bibles, and going into the meaning of the original Hebrew and Greek words which are translated in the Bible as "wine." The speaker declared that the Bible nowhere advocated prohibition, whereas the Koran, the Mohammedan guide, did advocate it.

MAYORS HERE FOR U. P. LEAGUE WILL DISCUSS WATER PLANT PROBLEM

EXECUTIVES OF MARQUETTE SOO AND MENOMINEE WILL ADDRESS GATHERING

MUNICIPALITIES MEETING POSTPONED

Delegates Arrive Late in Day, and First Meeting is Held This Afternoon

As a side issue of the meeting of Upper Peninsula mayors here today for the formation of the Upper Peninsula league of municipalities, Escanaba is to get the benefit of the experiences of three cities on the question of public ownership of water supply. A mass meeting of citizens has been called in the city hall tonight at 8:00 o'clock, when Mayor M. B. Lloyd, of Menominee, Mayor P. H. Begole, of Marquette, and Mayor Sherman T. Handy, of the Soo, will address the meeting. All three of the executives have had experience with the water question in their respective cities, in each of which a long fight for municipal ownership was brought to a successful conclusion.

The decision to call a mass meeting, in order to take advantage of the experience of the three mayors, was made late today, after a conference held with them by Mayor MacKillican. The meeting of the mayors on the subject of a municipalities league did not begin this afternoon till 4:00 o'clock, owing to the fact that the Iron Mountain delegates did not arrive until 3:30, on account of the fact that their train was late.

The delegates assembled shortly after 2:00 o'clock and listened to an address by Mayor Lloyd of Menominee, who told of the fight his administration had made for municipal ownership—a fight which was crowned with success about three months ago. Mayor Lloyd was introduced by Mayor Handy, of the Soo.

The work of organization was taken up when the remainder of the delegates arrived. A meeting was originally called for 10:00 o'clock this morning, but it developed that a great many of the officials who intended to be present were unable to get here before this afternoon, so that the time of the first session was changed to 2:00 o'clock this afternoon.

Mayor Lloyd of Menominee, Mayor Begole of Marquette and Mayor Handy of the Soo, three of the men who have had a leading part in the movement, were in town this morning, and went over the situation with Mayor MacKillican. The Crystal Falls representative was also here this morning. The other delegates arrived on late morning or early afternoon trains.

STEEL PLANT OFFERS TO CUT ARMOR PRICE

Bethlehem Co. Despite Senate Rebuff, Renew Offer to House Committee

(By Associated Press) Washington, March 22.—When the House naval committee today received the Tillman bill providing for the erection of a government armor plant it also received a proposal from Bethlehem Steel Co. to cut the price of armor from the present figure of $425 a ton to $375 a ton. This proposal was previously made to the Senate naval committee and was ignored. In the face of the threat, made after the Senate committee refused to entertain the proposal, that the price of armor plate would be raised, the company's renewed offer caused considerable surprise.

The offer was made by the president of the Bethlehem Steel Co., who said that if the bill went through, private plants worth $20,000,000 would be rendered worthless.

OSHKOSH NORMAL IS DESTROYED BY FIRE; TEXAS TOWN SWEPT

STUDENTS AND PROFESSORS FIGHT FLAMES WHICH DESTROY SCHOOL BUILDINGS

8,000 ARE HOMELESS IN PARIS, TEXAS

Damage in Great Fire is Estimated at $5,000,000—City is in Ashes

(By Associated Press) Oshkosh, March 22.—The main portion of the Oshkosh State Normal School was completely destroyed by fire of unknown origin early this morning. The damage is estimated at from $150,000 to $160,000.

Professor H. R. Fling sustained a dislocated shoulder when he leaped from a second story window in the library building. The buildings burned carried $96,000 insurance with the state insurance department.

The 600 students will be distributed among the churches and will be able to continue their studies. The gymnasium and industrial building were saved by the firemen, who were handicapped by a strong wind. Students and members of the faculty assisted in fighting the flames, which were not brought under control until shortly before noon.

The older portion of the building, which was the original unit, and three additional units were destroyed, and also the science building. The original unit was established in 1871.

Paris, Texas, March 22.—A conservative estimate of the number of persons made homeless in last night's fire was 8,000, made early today by Mayor McCuiston.

Although the city is without food supplies there is little suffering, and an optimistic view of the situation is being taken by the citizens. Estimates of the monetary loss place it at $5,000,000, though it is impossible to obtain an accurate accounting. An unusual fact in connection with the blaze was that no lives were lost and so far as has been reported there were no injuries.

Daybreak shows the city, which was yesterday a thriving population center of north Texas, a bed of embers, with fires still burning in some sections and only one third of the city untouched by the flames. Brick walls, blackened with smoke, are being razed by dynamite today to avoid possible danger.

Paris, Texas, 3:00 p. m.—A statement issued by the mayor this afternoon placed the damage at between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000. The number of known deaths is three.

Council Holds March Session

COMMITTEE NAMED TO ENTERTAIN VISITING MAYORS—CHARGES TO BE PROBED

The city council last night appointed a committee of aldermen and citizens to look after the comfort and entertainment of the mayors and city officials who are today meeting here for the purpose of forming an Upper Peninsula league of municipalities. The committee includes Aldermen Cuthbert, Hodson, Pryal, City Attorney H. R. Dotson and J. E. Byrns, Herman Sallinsky, T. J. Riley, E. C. Voght and G. T. Werline.

A committee was also appointed to investigate the charge made by Alderman Edward Smith, candidate for mayor, concerning the course followed in regard to the trunk line sewer. The report of the committee will be used as a guidance when the board of public works asks council to accept and approve the sewer.

The council accepted the report of Burns and McDonald, the engineers who made preliminary plans and cost estimates for a municipal water plant, and ordered paid the company's bill of $1,750.00.

A petition for the grading of Stephenson Ave. from Hartnet Ave to Ore St. was referred to the street committee and that city engineer, with instructions to obtain an estimate of the cost.

ANOTHER VENUS FOUND

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Minn., March 22.—Ruth Pulrang, 11 year old school girl, is just about as near physically perfect as the Venus like Swarthmore and Wellesley coeds. She has never been sick, her parents said today.

Here are her measurements, which Minneapolis school physical culture experts pronounce perfect: Head, 20 1/2 inches; neck, 12 inches; chest, 30 1/4 inches; left thigh, 20 1/2 inches; right thigh, 20 1/2 inches; left calf, 11 7/8 inches; right calf, 11 3/4 inches; left ankle, 7 3/8 inches; right ankle, 7 1/2 inches; left wrist, 5 7/8 inches; right wrist, 5 3/4 inches; left forearm, 8 1/2 inches; right forearm, 8 inches; left upper arm, 9 3/8 inches; right upper arm, 9 1/4 inches; reach, 55 3/4 inches; height, 58 1/4 inches.

"Ruthie's" day is carefully planned by her parents who are outdoor sport devotees. She rises at 7:15, drinks a glass of hot water, eats a light breakfast and hikes to school. From 4 to 6, she enters just as energetically into outdoor play. She never gets more than two pieces of candy at a time and never eats ice cream or drinks soda fountain drinks, except as an occasional desert. She goes to bed 8:30 every night.

SOLDIER TALKS TO WIFE FROM TRENCH

(By United Press)
London, England—Even the telephones in the trenches play tricks once in a while, according to an officer just back from the front. This officer was in charge of a telephone at an advanced post. He was talking to another officer at another post when the line went wrong. After many moments of silence the instrument buzzed loudly and he heard a sweet female voice demand, "Number please?" Exasperated at what appeared to be a bad joke, he asked for his home number in London. Another short pause and another female voice was heard. It was his wife in London. Joyous greetings were soon interrupted by other voices which explained that the trench line had become crossed with the main headquarters line connected with London.

MICHIGAN SUFFRAGISTS MAKE CAMPAIGN PLANS

Anthony amendment. Mrs. O. H. Clark, of Kalamazoo, president of the Michigan association, outlined plans for suffrage work in the state.

PLAN PERKINS MEETING

The farmers of Perkins will meet at the town hall on Friday, March 31st, for the purpose of completing the arrangements to get the cheese factory started in that community. The C. A. Straubel Wholesale Cheese Co., of Green Bay, Wis., which is to assume management of the factory, will be represented by W. A. Austin. All farmers who are interested in the enterprise should attend.

Miss Nell Coons has accepted a position at Greenlaw's store.

WHY not give your lad the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary. Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. Now the most modern Unabridged—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort. So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will yet find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to leave, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert B. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature, Yale Univ. April 28, 1911.

SEEK BIRD PROTECTION

(By United Press)
Winnipeg, Man., March 22.—Game preservations in Manitoba, North Dakota and Minnesota was argued here today by the Audubon society. Declaring that it represented "the 96 per cent of the population that does not shoot prairie chicken," the society asks for laws protecting the bird whose eggs, it says, have largely been destroyed by frost. The protection of plover, woodchucks, snipes and sand pipers would save American agriculture $80,000,000 a year the society says, because these creatures live on seeds and insects.

A large percentage of the net results from the contest will go to the Charles church of this village. Both these young ladies are hustlers and result will no doubt be a neat sum for the church as well as an extended subscription list.

Western states have led in growth, Washington heading the list, with Oklahoma, Nevada, North Dakota and New Mexico following in the order named.

The bureau's estimates are based on the rate of increase between the 1900 and 1910 censuses.

The population of New York state will be 10,273,575 on July 1 next, according to the estimate. The bureau gives the following estimates for the state: July 1, 1915, 10,086,568; Jan. 1, 1916, 10,120,971; July 1, 1916, 10,273,575.

Based on the average annual increase in New York state between 1900 and 1910, it is assumed that the increase in population is 93,403 every six months. According to this computation, the population of the state will be 10,227,293 on Jan. 1, 1920.

It is estimated by the bureau that there is an increase of 808,907 in the population of the United States every six months, or an annual increase of 1,617,804. The census estimate is that the population of the country is increasing at the rate of 4,433 a day, 184 every hour and 3-1-15 persons every minute.

ENGLAND CALLS ON WOMEN.

Four Hundred Thousand to Mobilize and Take Men's Places on the Farms.

The London Daily News announces the government has decided to organize a recruiting campaign for women to work on land. It is proposed armlets be issued to women willing to undertake farm work and that they be entitled to wear special uniforms.

Every village will be canvassed by women's committees, as it is considered essential that an army of at least 400,000 women be mobilized. All who volunteer will be registered and given uniforms and uniforms which will consist of coat, skirt, stout boots and gaiters.

Already more than 250,000 men have been withdrawn from agriculture, and it is anticipated 100,000 more will be called. Practically only shepherds, plowmen and others indispensable will remain.

To Avoid Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means no hair. Get, at any drug store, a bottle of semo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is sure and safe, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is semo, for it is pure and also inexpensive. Zeno, Cleveland.

ESCANABA'S WILLING

The possibilities inherent in the gathering of Upper Peninsula mayors and city officials here today for the purpose of forming an Upper Peninsula Municipalities League are so evident as to deserve the interest and approbation of every citizen.

There are many problems which are common to all municipalities, and the movement to establish closer relations among the cities of Cloverland should enable one city government to profit by the laborious and sometimes costly experiences of the others.

Cloverland's motto, "What Helps One Helps All," is exceedingly pertinent in regard to this movement. Aside from the individual activities of the U. P. cities, there should be concerted action in those affairs of the Peninsula which affect the welfare of all her cities.

The purpose of today's gathering is to "get the ball rolling"; to draft the

COLLINGER BABY OF NORTHWEST IN $50,000 DAMAGE SUIT TODAY

St. Paul, Minn., March 22.—The Bollinger baby of the northwest was in district court here today. John Henning is complainant in a suit for $50,000 damages against the Twin City street railway company. Henning alleges his child, now four years old, is a hopeless defective because the street car company permitted castrating, sweating and rowdiness on one of its cars on which Mr. and Mrs. Henning were passengers a month before the child was born.

DEEP SNOW HINDERS LOGGING OPERATIONS

Hard Crust Halts Skidding, Though With Roads Good Hauling is Going On

Crystal Falls, March 22.—The deep snow, coupled with the very hard crust that makes it almost impossible to skid, has virtually put an end to logging operations in this locality. What is true here rules in almost all of the logging centers in the upper peninsula. Logging operations, excepting hauling and loading, are now at a stand still.

A local logger in discussing the subject says that while the deep snow retards logging, it is not so fatal to the work as the hard crust that formed on the snow some few weeks ago. This crust is so hard and sharp that horses cannot be driven off on new logging stretches without first having the skid road broken by tramping. A horse would cut himself all up if he attempted to break a new road through the woods now.

Hauling is good. Snow roads today are like ice roads and the fellow who has his logs skidded is having no trouble at all getting them to the landing. It is where the logger is cutting and skidding from the stump that the snow and ice causes the greatest trouble.

Walter Webster and Roy Williams of Marquette have returned home after a brief visit here.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

London, March 22.—Even baby carriages fail to escape the new traffic regulations laid down by the authorities on account of anti-Zepplene darkness orders. Perambulators are listed as "vehicles," hence every "pram" at night must carry a white light "fore" and a red light "aft."

ARMY TRAINING FOR COLLEGE BOY

President of University of Illinois Before House Committee.

POINTS TO MUTUAL BENEFIT

Asserts That Plan Would Secure Large Number of Well-Trained Officers Who Would Remain on Active List For Years—Would Be Under Federal Control.

Dr. Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois, appeared before the committee of the house on military affairs the other day and urged the adoption of his plan for securing a sufficient supply of adequately trained officers for the enlarged military force of the nation.

This consists, in brief, of the establishment of a four years' military course in each of the land grant colleges, now more than fifty in number, at least one in each state and one in Hawaii and Porto Rico.

The advantages of such a plan as that, according to Dr. James, are:

First.—It would secure a large number of officers, running into thousands per year, instead of scores now turned out by West Point, even should it be doubled or even tripled in size.

Second.—It would secure a well distributed corps of officers, corresponding in number, roughly speaking, to the population.

Third.—It would secure well trained officers, combining military and civil training.

Fourth.—The officers would be trained in schools in which the civil rather than military ideas prevailed, and this is the kind of training especially suited to the reserve officers of our national force.

Asks Aid For University.

The specific requests presented by President James on behalf of the trustees of the University of Illinois are:

First.—That more officers be detailed for such work should be in sound physical and moral condition.

Second.—That these should be officers in active service and not those on the retired list.

Third.—That officers detailed for such work should be in sound physical and moral condition.

Fourth.—That the federal government should be authorized to furnish proper supplies and equipment for the use of the cadet regiments as in the opinion of the war department should be used.

Fifth.—That these cadet regiments should be regenerated into national reserve through a special organization of land grant colleges and in which the federal authorities should deal directly with the authorities of these institutions.

'SOFT DRINK' VENDERS IN IRON CO. JAILED

Sheriff Sets Trap and Catches Men Whose Stock Contained Hard Drinks

More difficulty in Iron County is reported by the Crystal Falls diamond drill, which says:

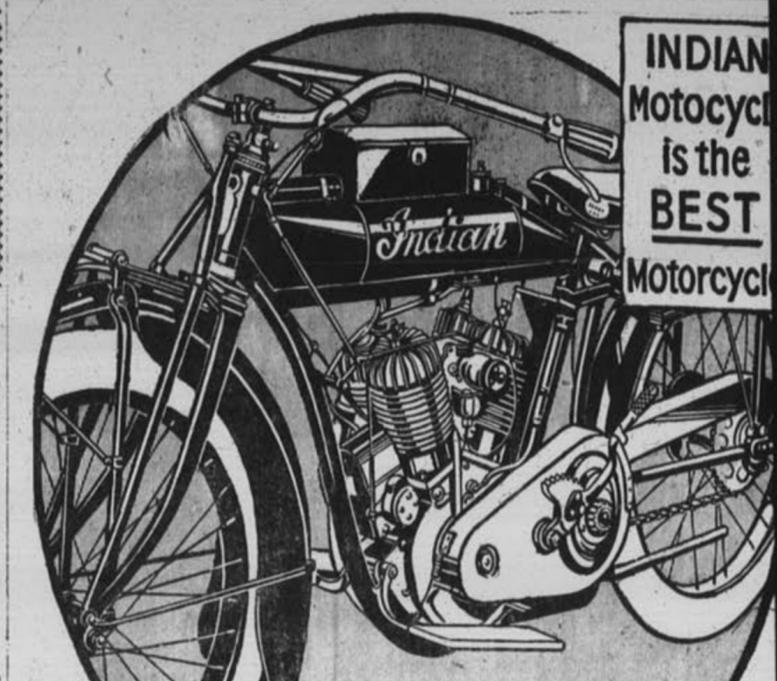

"Sheriff Sensiba pulled off a 'fooler' on some of the west side soft drink places. The Hanhold saloon had been raided four times and each time Mr. Sensiba was unsuccessful in getting hold of any of the booze which current rumor said was being sold there.

"Last week Mr. Sensiba left the county and a lot of fellows thought that "When the cat's away The mice can play."

"But, Mr. Sensiba had set some traps to catch the mice and one of them that got his foot in it was the Hanhold place. Mr. Sensiba made all arrangements for certain raids before he left and his instructions were followed to the letter. As a result there is no longer any merry 'Ha Ha' issuing from the Hanold soft drink parlor, it's all weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth.

"Another place that is reported to have been smashed is the Otto Olson place. Mr. Olson paid a fine of $400.00 last term of court and it is reported that he immediately sold his business to some other fellow. That fellow had an awful hole kicked in his profits by the sheriff."

Coffee Facts

Read what the 19th edition United States Dispensary (page 253), the guiding authority for chemists, druggists and physicians, says about the drug, caffeine, of which there is about 2 1/2 grains in the average cup of coffee:

"Given in large dose to the lower animals, caffeine produces hurried respiration, restlessness, slightly lowered, followed by a markedly elevated temperature, tetanic and clonic convulsions, progressive paralysis, and finally death from paralytic arrest of respiration."

Although man is stronger and more resistant, it is a well-known scientific fact that caffeine, in coffee, is a frequent cause of headache, nervousness, biliousness, heart flutter and many other ills.

Not at one large dose, but by little doses repeated regularly does this subtle, habit-forming drug get in its work, and, sooner or later, many coffee drinkers suffer.

Before that time comes, suppose you make a personal test—quit coffee ten days and use

Teacher Spends $40,000 in Educational Work.

Seventeen Boys and One Girl Are Prepared for Life's Battle by This Man—All Are Now Prospering.

Everett, Wash.—F. D. Mack, teacher in the central school, has spent about $40,000 in educating 18 students—17 boys and one girl—in the last 16 years, according to a story he reluctantly told to a newspaper correspondent.

Living on his school salary in a modest way, both in Minnesota, his former home, and in Washington, he has earned the money to send students through universities by writing short stories and magazine articles. He has paid out between $2,000 and $3,000 on each of his "children."

Some of the youngsters were orphans and some had one parent, but all were eager to learn and were handicapped by lack of money.

The 13 boys who are alive are all actively engaged in the business professions to which Mack educated them. Two are druggists, one being in St. Paul and the other in Los Angeles. Two are instructors in the University of Minnesota, where they were graduated. One teaches mathematics and the other is an instructor in German.

This latter young man plans to be a physician, and last year married a girl who wished to go to Germany to get her master's degree, so he and his bride sailed for Germany to continue their studies, only to be turned back by the beginning of the war. Mack sent him through normal school, the University of Minnesota and Harvard, where he received his master's degree.

A young man who chose to be a broker received his education at the University of Illinois. He started out to be an architect, but changed his mind and took a commercial course. He was graduated four years ago and is now in Minneapolis, engaged in the lumber brokerage business. He is the best money-maker of the "family." In his four years out of college he has made $40,000.

A mining engineer who was educated at the University of Minnesota is now working in a mine at Butte, Mont. A banker received a thorough commercial education and then Mack set him up in business in a bank at

REUNITED AFTER 13 YEARS

Search for Shaving Soap Brings Two Brothers Together—Both Now Wealthy.

St. Paul.—Charles McKee of Ray, N. D., was sent to room No. 322 when he registered at the Hotel Sherman the other day. Desiring a shave, he unpacked his grip. But his shaving stick was missing.

"Have you got any shaving soap?" he asked a man who was issuing from room 324.

"Sure," was the answer. They entered room No. 324 and turned on the light to look for the saving soap. McKee looked at the other man critically.

"What is your name?" he asked. "R. E. McKee of Shakopee, Minn.," was the answer.

"I'm your brother Charley," the North Dakotan said.

The two had not seen each other for 13 years. They were raised in St. Paul and separated after their parents died. Charles went to North Dakota, where he owns a half-section of land. R. E. McKee went to Shakopee, where he owns a section.

In the past thirteen years they had not corresponded. Unknown to each other, each had amassed a fortune.

BURIED AT SAGINAW

Saginaw, Mich., March 22.—The charred bodies of the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidt, who were burned to death Friday noon, were buried in two coffins in St. Andrew's cemetery. Cecelia and Catherine, 2 and 3 years old, were in one casket, and Raymond, the oldest of the four, and his baby sister, Frances, who was found clasped in his arms, were in the other coffin.

The mother is prostrated and is still in a serious condition. A movement has been started to raise a fund to aid the unfortunate family, and several hundred dollars have already been subscribed.

SAYS AIRMEN SHOULD HAVE CAUGHT VILLA

Grand Rapids, March 22.—Thomas W. Henoist, French aviator, who is in America buying aerial apparatus for the French government, declared here today that if the United States had the proper aerial apparatus the hunt for Villa would have been over in two hours.

"A squadron of 100 aerial scouts could have been sent out, armed with bombs, and once Villa had been found they could have killed him and his band with ease."

Benoist, who will return to Europe in a few days, gave a talk this noon before the Grand Rapids business men's military aviation corps.

"In times of war Grand Rapids furniture factories could produce 100 aeroplanes a day," he said.

FORTUNE WAITS FOR GIRL

All Trace of Her Was Lost When Records of a Society Were Burned.

Spokane, Wash.—Somewhere in the inland empire is a little girl between eleven and twelve years of age, for whom thousands of dollars are waiting. A widespread search is now being made by Mrs. Lena Johnson of Elmira, Idaho, a distant relative, who has the fortune in trust.

Disowned by her parents, the mother took the little girl when a baby to Mrs. Johnson, who was a relative, and asked her to find a home for the child. Mrs. Johnson brought the baby to Spokane in 1904. A few weeks later a home was found by Dr. Mary Latham, who was then head of the Spokane Children's Home society. The home was that of a farmer living somewhere near Spokane. A year later all of the records of the society were destroyed by fire.

In their old age, the parents of the mother of the little girl repented of their attitude against their daughter, and when they died some time ago left their money to the child.

OKLAHOMA DELEGATES TO BE UNINSTRUCTED

(By United Press)

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 22.—Even the most astute politicians in the state admitted that the result of the Republican state convention, which opened here today, could best be expressed at present by a big question mark. There was no "native son" element in evidence, and what sentiment previously had been expressed was about equally divided between Roosevelt, Hughes and Borah. An un-instructed delegation appeared to be the most probable outcome.

TURK HEIR WHO KILLED

 grandfather of the present king and the founder of modern Italy. The conferring of the decoration was said to have been through a mistake, easily explainable by the fact that Jussuf Izzedine, who only a mere boy then and that nothing was known personally about the Turkish royal family of Osmanli, except that it was the reigning family.

Prince Jussuf, however, is known to have been very fond of the decoration and thereby hangs another tale. Upon the death of Murad V, Abdul Hamid, in ascending the throne, took possession of all the decorations which had been conferred upon his predecessor, sold them, and had the ed to be also the gold collar of the Annunziata belonging to Prince Jussuf, and which under the rules of the order would have to be returned to King Victor upon the prince's death. Prince Jussuf was very sorry to have his uncle steal his decoration and acordingly in 1909 sent a special representative to Rome to have a new gold collar of the Annunziata made for him, Italy being at war just now with Turkey, it is doubtful if even this one will ever find its way back to King Victor's hands.

Fair Store is Thronged at Demonstration of Latest in Styles

A great crowd of women attended the first spring style show of the year at the Fair store last night, when the establishment held a reception and display. So great was the crowd that the attendants were divided into three sections for admission.

The latest in gowns, hats, suits, and coats was shown by eight young ladies in promenade, while Olmsted's orchestra furnished music. This afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock Miss Dorothy Eckles and Miss Kathleen Connahan entertained at a concert in the suit and cloak section of the Fair store and will entertain again between 8 and 9 o'clock tonight. Eight young women acted as models last night, showing the hats, gowns, suits and cloaks to good advantage.

BRAIN FOOD FAILS

Diet to Overcome Drowsiness in Classes Given Up.

Hungry Girl Students Raid Sweets Shops—"Feeds" Off the Campus Blast Professors' Dreams of More Intellectual College.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—When Vassar professors got together recently to discuss the reason for pretty drooping heads and eyelids that just wouldn't stay open during afternoon classes, they reached the conclusion that the girls ate too much for luncheon. Since something had to be done to improve scholarship, they decided to attack the evil at its base—the field of supplies. The edict went forth. Thereafter, it was announced a week ago, luncheon was to consist of one course, with soup sometimes thrown in for good measure. Potatoes went first, in the belief that the absence of spuds would increase the list of honor students. 'Twas not to be. So all side dishes vanished next, followed by sweets. That was the last straw. Corned beef and cabbage was the first day's menu. When the second day's luncheon loomed the girls faced salmon salad. The third day offered slices of meat, olives and cubes of cheese. And then—aye! and then—the following day the tables were decorated with a large, lone dish of stewed oysters. The girls decided they had had enough brain food. The one and only topic of conversation at the luncheon table as long as the luncheon lasted was the luncheon. Pickles began disappearing from nearby shops and the proprietors, suddenly saw visions of much bloated bank accounts. The girls went to the housekeepers and protested. "We're starving," they said. "We've got to have more to eat or—"

The ultimatum was carried out last week. When through with the meals provided by the college the girls sought bake shops and lunch counters. Candy stores ordered unusually large quantities from the manufacturers. The girls came in more sleepy than ever.

Authorities of the college decided to ease up a bit. The experiment, which was supposed to last a month at least, was cut short recently, when Miss Eleanor Leslie, president of the senior class, announced that the old, old, old of hearty luncheons would be restored immediately.

When the news floated over the campus it caused an outburst of rejoicing almost unprecedented. Today the tables were decorated with pot toes and the little sweets that tickle the palate. The shopkeepers wept bitterly as their balloon of hope was punctured.

But, it was learned from authoritative sources, the persons responsible for the limited diet have not given up the plan.

FINLEY FUNERAL HELD

The funeral of Robert Finley was held at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church this morning. The Rev. P. J. Smith officiated. Interment was made at St. Joseph's cemetery.

Dr. Osier on Tuberculosis

Sir William Osier, one of the foremost of living medical men, formerly of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, and now Regius Professor of Medicine at Oxford, says in his "Practice of Medicine" (1907), on page 2491:

"The healing of pulmonary tuberculosis is shown clinically by the recovery of patients in whose sputa elastic tissue and bacilli have been found. In the granulations, products and associated pneumonia a scar tissue is formed, while the saner caseous areas become impregnated with lime salts. To such conditions alone should the term 'healing' be applied."

Many eminent medical authorities have testified to the efficacy of lime salts in the treatment of tuberculosis, and the success of McKim's Alternative in this and allied throat and bronchial affections may be due partly to the fact that it contains a lime salt so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated.

Widespread use of this remedy in numerous cases of tuberculosis—many of which appear to have yielded completely to it—justifies our belief that it is worth a trial, unless some other treatment already has succeeded. It contains no opiate, narcotics or habit-forming drugs. We make no promises concerning any more that reputable physicians give promises with their prescriptions, but we know of many cases in which it HAS HELPED.

Your druggist has it, or can get it, or you can send direct. Beckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.
