Refuse Recount; Box Not Sealed

Peder Pederson is Supervisor of Bay de Noc as Recount Board Decides

T. E. Strom, attorney for George Peterson, announced late this afternoon that the question of a recount in Bay de Noc will be taken to the circuit court as a result of the refusal of a recount today. The recount board included T. E. Strom, A. H. Ryall, and H. J. Rushton. A. H. Ryall represented Peder Pederson.

The board appointed to make a recount of the Bay de Noc ballots for supervisor in Monday's election this afternoon refused to make the recount on the ground that the ballot box was not properly sealed. No seal had been placed on the lock of the box, and on this account the recount was refused.

The refusal of the recount leaves Peder Pederson supervisor from Bay de Noc township. The return made to the county clerk gave Peder Pederson 64 votes and George Peterson 64 votes.

The contest at Bay de Noc between Peder Pederson and George Peterson came about when the returns from the election board to the county clerk gave the former 66 votes and the latter 64, thus declaring Peder Pederson elected by a margin of only two votes. A recount is also pending in Bark River township, where Helmer Bruce was declared to be elected supervisor by a narrow margin.

The last recount of the election will be the one involving the city treasurer's office on Monday, when a review board appointed by council will decide whether W. H. Yockey or Arthur Mayou was elected. The latest figures on the race placed Yockey in the lead by 33 votes.

John McLeod, aged 81, a former Ford River resident and well known through Delta county, died yesterday after a seven years' residence at the county poor house, without clearing up the mystery which surrounded him as to wealthy relatives he is known to have in Canada.

He had persistently refused to disclose anything concerning his relatives, and after his death yesterday it was found that he had destroyed all personal papers bearing on the matter. The body has been removed to Oliver's undertaking rooms, where it will be held for a few days pending the appearance of friends or relatives.

FIRST STATEMENT IS LIE TOLD FROM FEAR, SAYS GIRL ON STAND

ALICE BOGREN SAYS DOCUMENT BEARING HER SIGNATURE IS NOT RELIABLE

CASE IS CONTINUED TILL MONDAY

Third Day of Hearing to Start Next Week—Chief Tolon on Stand Today

Claiming that statements made over her signature implicating Mrs. Florence McKenzie were made because she was "scared," and wanted to get away from the locked room in which she was being questioned, Alice Bogren, recalled for re-examination in the hearing being given Mrs. McKenzie on a charge of pandering, this morning first said that she had never made the statements offered as evidence, and then that the statements were lies which she had told to get away from her questioners.

The statements in question were made in a document which Chief of Police Tolon says the girl herself dictated under his questioning, and which the girl admitted this morning bears her signature.

Says Men Were Barred

Under examination this morning the girl said she had worked at Mrs. McKenzie's house on Market street, also at the Commercial Hotel between the dates of Jan. 1 and March 24. She said that several times men had come to the back door of the McKenzie house, but swore that they had never been admitted. She also swore that she had never been upstairs in the house.

The girl said that she had not been paid for working for Mrs. McKenzie, but admitted that Mrs. McKenzie had bought her clothes which Mr. McKenzie, she said, paid for.

"Where did you get the silk stockings you were wearing yesterday?" she was asked.

"They weren't silk," was the reply. "I had silk stockings, but I bought them myself."

The witness said she had slept in the McKenzie house three times since March 24, and one or twice before that time.

Chief Takes Stand

No cross-examination was made, and Chief of Police Tolon was placed on the stand. He testified that he knew of the McKenzie house, and said that reports had come into the police station concerning it.

The case, which was in progress all day yesterday, was adjourned at noon today and will be taken up again on Monday morning.

ESCANABA INCLUDED IN PLANS FOR BALL LEAGUE THIS YEAR

UP TO FANS TO GRAB OPPORTUNITY

Six-League Circuit Offers Chance for Escanaba to Have Baseball Once More

Is Escanaba going to have a real baseball team this year, in a real honest-to-gosh league? Will there be crowds out at the old ball park this summer greeting the strike-out victim with "Who're yuh wavin' at?" and yelling their heads off when a three-bagger cinches the game?

It's up to the fans. The opportunity is about to present itself, according to a dispatch from Green Bay, including Escanaba in a circuit which will also have Green Bay, Sheboygan, Marinette-Menominee, Oshkosh and Fond du Lac. Get busy, you fans! Don't wait for Mrs. Opportunity to take a sledgehammer to your door. Go out and meet her half-way. Here's the latest dope on this league thing.

The League Plan

Green Bay, April 7.—Manager Bob Lynch left on Wednesday for Sheboygan, where he will make another effort to interest the baseball men of that city in a league. Lynch already made one trip to the lakeside city, but could not get any degree of satisfaction out of his visit, and it is expected that this will cinch matters. Sheboygan naturally belongs to this circuit, and should the men behind baseball there, especially Billy Liebel come through with a team, it is certain that the circuit could be formed here without much trouble. With Sheboygan, Green Bay, Marinette-Menominee, Escanaba and Oshkosh and Fond du Lac from the valley it would be possible to have an ideal league.

The next two weeks will be extremely busy ones for the magnates here as the question of summer ball will be decided. Now is just the time to get it all over with, as a delay of a week or two might be fatal to the plans. Sheboygan is one of the few remaining cities which still must be heard from before anything very definite can be done. Lynch will return here within a day or two, it is said at headquarters.

VAUGHN LECTURE IS PUT OFF TILL FALL

Plans Made For Extension Course Speaker Here Are Brought to Halt by Telegram

Plans made by the city medical society for the entertainment of Dr. V. C. Vaughn, of the University of Michigan medical school, were brought to a halt last night when Superintendent F. E. King, of the public schools, received a telegram from Dr. Vaughn saying that unforeseen circumstances had made it necessary for Dr. Vaughn to postpone his visit to Escanaba.

The medical authority was to have delivered an address here on April 13 under the auspices of the University Extension system. The telegram stated that the lecture will be postponed until fall, and said that a letter would follow explaining the circumstances which have prevented the extension lecture course program from being carried out on schedule.

MEETING IS POSTPONED

Owing to the inability or several members of the school board to be present yesterday afternoon, the program was not carried out as planned by the Mother's clubs yesterday afternoon at the Franklin school. The board will meet a committee at the Franklin school Tuesday night and plans for the Fresh Air school will be discussed.

Presbyterians Hold Big Meet

OVER 100 MEMBERS ATTEND ANNUAL GATHERING—OFFICERS OF CHURCH ELECTED

One of the most successful congregational meetings and banquets ever held at the First Presbyterian church was held last night when more than a hundred members of the church and congregation were present.

The members of the Ladies Aid society prepared the banquet and it was served by several young ladies from the Christian Endeavor society. The tables were prettily decorated with cut flowers.

Following the serving of the banquet the various reports were given and the election of officers was held. The Rev. R. S. Brown acted as toastmaster. The first number on the program was a selection given by the quartette composed of Mrs. A. C. Barras, Miss Zilla Shaw, Kenneth Morrill and C. R. Price. They responded to an encore by singing "My Highland Laddie."

Miss Carrie Shaw delightfully sang "Beloved is the Word." C. R. Price sang "Sweet Afton" and received some well merited applause for his encore "It's Nice to Get up in the Morning."

Reports Encouraging

The reports of the organizations and branches of the church were most encouraging. The treasurer's report given by C. M. Thatcher showed the finances of the church to be in good condition. Other reports were given by C. F. Jacobson, W. G. Thiek, Mrs. C. R. Henderson, George Wright, Mrs. C. J. Jacobson, Mrs. Anna Spangler, Mrs. Harry Work, Miss Edith McNaughton, George Perrin and Joseph St. Louis.

At the election of officers the following were elected to serve during the ensuing year; W. G. Thiek, superintendent of the Sunday school, C. R. Price assistant superintendent, George Wright, treasurer, Miss Valaska Eske secretary; Miss Sadie Jaegers assistant secretary, C. M. Thatcher and A. J. Young were re-elected to serve as trustees. Dr. W. Elliot was elected as elder for one year, George Wright and C. F. Jacobson as elders for three years.

At the close of the evening the Rev. Brown and Mrs. Brown were presented with a set of Haviland china by the members of the Ladies Aid society of the church.

MAYOR CANDIDATE IS ACQUITTED IN TRIAL

James Pederson, Marinette Alderman and Executive Candidate, is Freed

Marinette, April 7.—"Jim" Pederson, erstwhile candidate for mayor of Marinette, was found not guilty by a jury in Police Judge C. C. Dally's court yesterday afternoon on a charge of shipping fish not properly labeled. The jury was out only a few minutes before bringing in a verdict in favor of the defendant.

A second jury which tried Ole Mickelson, another Marinette fish dealer on a similar charge yesterday afternoon, disagreed after remaining out two hours, and was discharged by the court. The second trial of the case against Mickelson was ordered before a jury in Judge Dally's court this afternoon.

The arrest followed a seizure of fish shipments by game wardens in Green Bay. Small-pike were found in the boxes which were labeled perch, according to the wardens. The defense of the Marinette men was that they did not know of the presence of the pike in the boxes of fish.

WETS WILL CONTEST SUPERIOR ELECTION

Superior, Wis., April 8.—Blasphemy charges on the fact that the "yes" votes cast in the blank spaces of the voting machines on Tuesday exceeded the "no" votes by 103, the wet forces today decided to contest the election and claim a victory by 77 votes.

Returns made to the city clerk by the election board show the dries in the lead by 26 votes, and a certificate to that effect will probably be sent to the city commission by the clerk when it meets on Monday to canvass the vote.

GARRANZA OFFICIAL SAYS U.S. SOLDIERS SHOULD BE REMOVED

OFFICER OF DE FACTO GOVERNMENT SAYS TROOPS HAVE ACCOMPLISHED MILITARY TASK

MUST HAVE MORE MEN OR NEW LINE

If U. S. Can't Ship Over Railroads, More Men or Shorter Line is Needed

Washington, April 8.—Secretary Baker stated most emphatically late today that there is "absolutely no basis of any kind" for reports that preparations are under way for the withdrawal of the American forces from Mexico. He said the American troops are rapidly pushing south, and that the orders to General Funston after the Columbus massacre were unchanged.

El Paso, Texas, April 8.—The American troops have accomplished the object they had in view in destroying the military power of Villa, and should therefore withdraw from Mexico without delay, is the view expressed today by a well known member of the Carranza government, speaking unofficially.

Want More Troops

San Antonio, April 8.—Facing the apparent hopelessness of getting permission to ship stores over the Mexican railroads from El Paso to the troops in Mexico and recognizing the inadequacy of the present system of supply, army officers at headquarters are virtually convinced that some alternative must be found.

If two or three times the number of troops now operating in Mexico are provided, the present lines from Columbus to Sataveo, some 300 miles, could be maintained, but unless the punitive force is increased many officers regard it as imperative that a new short line be established.

Object Not Accomplished

San Antonio, Texas, April 8.—The object of the American expedition into Mexico is not completed, in the opinion of officers at General Funston's headquarters. Though Villa bands have been defeated in two engagements, it is pointed out that the units of his command have not been broken up, as indicated by reports that his force is still in considerable strength south of Chihuahua.

STYLES VS. TOBACCO IS DEBATE SUBJECT

An interesting debate was held by the Senior girls of St. Joseph's school on Friday, on the subject: "Fashions Do More Harm to Humanity than Tobacco," with the negative side victorious, according to the verdict of Father Erasmus and the Sophomore class.

The affirmative side of the question was taken by Misses Alice Harvey, Florence Casette, and Alice Charlebois, while the negative side was upheld by Misses Catherine Kintziger, Margaret Jaeger, and Olive LaFave.

MAN WHO CHASED VILLA

Maj. Frank Tompkins of the Thirteenth United States Cavalry, is the man who had the first brush with Villa at the raid on Columbus, New Mex., and who with a small force of cavalrymen followed the Mexican bandits across the border, killing over 100 Mexicans. Major Tompkins was stationed with the border patrol at Columbus at the time of the raid.

Russ Nobles Sent to Siberia For Retaining German Names

(By United Press)

Petrograd, April 8.—Premier Sturmer is about to change his name. He will adopt his wife's—Pantin. Sturmer is a German name; Pantin is Russian. That's why. Many Russian nobles with German names have been sent to Siberia because they refused to change them.

Ex-Procurator of the Holy Synod Sabler recently made a similar change. So did Councillor of the Empire Neidhardt. So have many other Russian dignitaries, civil and military, who bore German patronymics.

OCEAN FREIGHT RATE CLIMBS; WHEAT RATE SHOWS 900 PER CENT

SHIP SHORTAGE CAUSES INCREASES

(By Associated Press)

Washington, D. C., April 8.—In a letter to Hon. Joshua W. Alexander, chairman of the House committee on the Merchant Marine and Fisheries, Dr. E. E. Pratt, chief of the Bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, department of commerce, calls attention to the rapid rise in ocean freight rates from American ports. A special point is made of the remarkable rise in the rates on grain, one of the principal American exports. This increase from New York to Liverpool in the last two years has been about 900 per cent, while the increase in the rate on flour has been 500 per cent and the increase on provisions only 400 per cent. The more rapid increase on grain is accounted for by the fact that in ordinary times grain is carried at especially low rates because of its desirability as ballast and because it can easily be taken on and discharged.

The shortage of ships that has led to the remarkable increases in shipping rates is attributed to the following causes in the letter to the committee: (1) The elimination of the tria-Hungary; (2) the withdrawal of merchant ships of Germany and Austro-merchants for military and naval purposes; and (3) the loss of ships through submarine and mining operations.

Shows Detailed Reports.

The letter is the most complete report on the subject of ocean freight rates that has yet been published. It includes detailed reports from the bureau district offices in New York, Boston, New Orleans, San Francisco, and Seattle, as well as data compiled at the bureau in Washington. A study of the many tables of rates reveals some interesting variations in the rates from different ports.

In January, 1914, the rate on grain from New York and Boston to Liverpool was 4.1 cents per bushel; one year later the rate from New York to Liverpool was 18.3 cents and from Boston to Liverpool 13.2 to 15.2 cents per bushel. In January, 1916, the rate from New York to Liverpool was 40.6 cents per bushel and from Boston to Liverpool it was 34.5 to 36.5 cents. From these data it appears that the rate on grain from New York to Liverpool was, in January, 1916, about ten times as high as in January, 1914, while the rate from Boston to Liverpool was only about nine times as great. In January of the present year grain could be shipped from 4 to 6 cents per bushel less from Boston than New York. The higher rate than New York. The higher rate from New York is probably due to the long delays and high demurrage charges resulting from the present congestion at the port of New York.

Advances Everywhere.

The advances in rates from New Orleans to European ports have been fully as pronounced as the increases from New York to the same ports. At both New York and New Orleans the rate on cotton shipments to Liverpool has been increased about 900 per cent in the past two years, but it is still far cheaper, as far as the ocean rate is concerned, to ship cotton from New York, in spite of its congested condition, than from New Orleans. On January 1, 1916, the rate per 100 pounds of cotton was $2.25 from New York and $3 from New Orleans.

The cost of shipping other commodities is considerably higher at New Orleans than at New York. To ship wheat from New Orleans to Glasgow, on January 1, 1916, cost 54.8 cents per bushel, while the rate from New York to Liverpool was 40.6 cents.

Dr. Pratt makes an interesting comparison between the rates on specified commodities from New York to Liverpool and between Seattle and Hongkong. The rate on sack flour from New York to Liverpool increased in the period between January 1, 1914, and January 1, 1916, from 15 cents per 100 pounds to 90 cents, whereas the rate on the same commodity from Seattle to Hongkong increased during this period from 25 cents per 100 pounds to 75 cents. On January 1, 1914, the rate on flour from New York to Liverpool was 10 cents per 100 pounds less than the rate on flour from Seattle to Hongkong, but on January 1, 1916, the rate from New York to Liverpool was 14 cents more per 100 pounds than the corresponding rate from Seattle to Hongkong.

Baron Hahn and Count Fablen, who were marshals of nobility respectively at Mittau and another Courland district, have been asked to resign their positions and leave for districts not in a state of seige.
Baron von Mirbach, marshal of nobility at Dvinsk, Major Pfeiffer of the same place, Count Kayserling, Barons Meyendorf and von Heyking, who held high posts under the czar, and many noblemen of the Baltic provinces, have actually been sent to Siberia for the duration of the war.
All business either wholly or partly owned by Germans and, in some cases by Russians of German descent, have been closed, compulsorily wound up or placed under government control.
Land ownership or tenancy by Germans or Austrians has been prohibited and even in cases where such ownership has continued for generations, the land is to be disposed of voluntarily or at public sale.
A number of Russian towns bearing German names have either asked that they be given new ones or have already effected changes. A list of the more important is as follows:
Old German name, Schlussemburg; new Russian name, Orshesk; Peterhof changed to Petrovvar; Oranienbaum to Rambov; Reval to Kolyvan; Ekaterinburg to Ekaterinograd.
In many towns and some entire provinces the use of the German language in the streets has been prohibited under severe penalties. Most of the secondary schools have eliminated it from their curriculums.

Easy & Practical Home Dress Making Lessons

Prepared Especially For This Newspaper by Pictorial Review

Blue is essentially a spring color and it is more fashionable than ever this year. This tailored costume is carried out in fine men's wear serge. Today's dressmaking lesson features the jacket, which is made with a yoke and trimmed with straps, which may be omitted, if desired. As the collar is convertible, the front of the coat may be buttoned high or rolled back to form revers. In medium size the dress requires 6 1/2 yards 54-inch material. If made separately, the coat calls for 2 3/4 yards of serge.

As this is a model that will be used for pongee, taffeta, faille and other fashionable fabrics this season, it is well to study well the method of cutting it. Notice how the back of the coat and back of the yoke are laid on the lengthwise fold. Opposite these sections, in the direction of the selvege edge, are placed the front, front of the yoke and lower sleeve sections. Continuing along the upper row are the pocket and cuffs laid on a lengthwise thread. In the center are pocket and skirt section, while on the bottom row are the under-facing and belt.

If the coat is desired without straps cut off the straps as indicated by small "o" perforations. If desired with strap in belt only cut off the lower rounded end of strap on small "o" perforations.

Trimmed with inlaid collar and cuffs of faille or white cloth this jacket is as smart a model as has been shown this season.

Pictorial Review Jacket No. 6657. Sizes, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust. Price, 15 cents. Skirt No. 6499. Sizes, 16 to 20 years. Price, 15 cents.

YANKEE OWNERS GENEROUS.

Have Spent $165,000 For Players—Big Year For New York.

Colonel Ruppert estimates that he and Captain Huston have spent approximately $165,000 for baseball players since they purchased the Yankees. "When we bought the club we made up our minds that we were going to have a real team," said the colonel. "We have been willing to purchase any player we thought would be of assistance in building up the Yankees." The result of this policy is apparent. Not since Jack Chesbro made his famous wild pitch that cost the Yankees the championship and gave it to the Boston Red Sox in 1903 have the Yankees stood forth with as bright prospects as they do now. The acquisition of Lee Magee and Frank Baker have helped to change their prospects.

PILOTS OF THE NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUBS FOR 1916

TY COBB PERFORMS UNIQUE FEAT.

Here is another of the unique things to be credited to Ty Cobb. Twice last season the Georgia Peach made two hits and two runs in a single inning. A St. Louis expert who keeps tabs on all the odd things that happen in baseball tells us that Ty made a single and a triple off Bill James of the St. Louis Browns in the eighth inning of a game played April 28 and again in Philadelphia on Sept. 22 made a single off Bush and another off Eyles in the seventh inning of a game with the Athletics. Some other players did this double trick once, but Ty Cobb alone repeated.

MATHEWSON BOOSTS E. PLANK

"Is a Master Workman," Says Giant Pitcher.

Eddie Plank is forty-three years old, and his attempt to "come back" in the American league next season will be interesting. So will Mordecai Brown's work in the National, and likewise Matty's. Speaking of these three ancients, Mathewson recently said:

"Plank is a master workman, and he's older than I am, although I don't figure a pitcher's age on earth as much as I do by the period he has been in harness. Eddie and I have been in the game about the same length of time. I'm thirty-six, while Mordecai Brown believes he's 'somewhere around forty.' If these two old men get by next season I can't reason out why a young man of thirty-six years shouldn't prosper. My arm and shoulder feel better, and I went south early to get in shape leisurely."

RUCKER HAS BEST SLOW BALL

Brooklyn Nationals' Star Hopes Possesses Wonderful Twister.

Ball players in the National league admit that Napoleon Rucker of the Brooklyn is in a class by himself when it comes to delivering a slow curve. Rucker's arm went back on him three years ago, and he lost his speed. But he retained the gray matter in his head and began to develop a new delivery.

In time he mastered control of the slow ball, which, batsmen say, is harder to hit than a speeder.

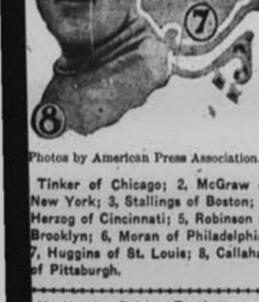

Rucker soon was able to put the ball over the middle or corners of the plate at will. He studied the weak points of the opposing hitters till he knew just what would fool them. Last year Rucker's pitching was confined entirely to slow balls. He did not deliver a fast one all season, and his arm as a result gradually became stronger. The famous southpaw is beginning another campaign with the Brooklyn.

In the practice games he has shown up well. His arm is in excellent shape, and he is prepared to resume the task of serving up the "teasers."

Matty Not All In, Says Tenney.

Fred Tenney, ex-king of first basemen, is one who doesn't believe that Christy Mathewson is all through. "Matty has a greater combination of control and brains than any pitcher that ever pitched," said Tenney. "If his arm is gone then he'll find some way to fool the batters with his feet. But he'll find the way out, whatever it is."

Jones a New Thought Demon.

Fielder Jones is a new thought demon. He doesn't seem to believe anything that is accepted baseball doctrine. Just now he is scoffing at the "quick thinker in baseball." There isn't any such animal, or if there is he isn't any good for practical purposes, according to the Jonestan theory. The comeback manager explains great ball playing by instinct.

AUTOMOBILE QUERIES AND ANSWERS

By L. K. Edwards

Can you explain how the power developed by the engine and the speed at which the car runs are affected by manipulation of the spark and throttle levers?

The power developed by the engine must necessarily depend on the number of explosions charged in the cylinder; hence if you open the throttle more there will be more gas in the cylinder and therefore more power. Advancing the spark permits the explosion to take place early in the stroke and, by allowing the motor to take advantage of the expansion of the burning gases, gives a higher mean effective pressure.

What is meant by three point suspension, and of what advantage is it?

Three point suspension means the suspension of the power plant at three points making a triangular layout. The advantage is that racking of the frame or twisting of the side members has a minimum tendency to impose strains on the motor supports.

When I throttle down the motor of my car for two or three minutes and then open the throttle the motor seems to choke and sometimes will stop altogether. Can you tell me the trouble?

Your trouble is in the carburetor. Would suggest your trying a new auxiliary air valve spring. Also inspect float and float valve and note if same work freely and properly.

The other day I started to operate my car after having had it in the garage for four months, during which time the battery ran down. A man told me that it would do no harm to the electrical end to go ahead and run the car without having a battery in it to take care of the current, saying that if I had no battery to receive the current it could not generate any. Later on I met another man who said that I should not run my car a mile without a battery in it because by so doing I would burn the wiring out of the dynamo, because I was generating current and that without the battery there to receive it would put my electrical apparatus all out of commission. Which opinion is correct?

In the first place, you were wrong in leaving the battery in the car for a period of four months, during which time the battery was allowed to run down. The battery should have been given an extra charging at occasional intervals in order to keep the specific gravity up to the standard, which is between 1.275 and 1.300. In laying up the storage battery for the winter it must be remembered that the battery as used for electric starting and lighting or for electric lighting only is strictly an electrochemical apparatus and requires a certain amount of care whether idle or in actual service. Therefore if the car owner will bear this in mind and follow the directions given herein he should have little difficulty in keeping the battery in good condition during the winter months. If the battery is always filled to the proper height and kept fully charged within the limits of the standard 1.280 to 1.295 it may be safely considered as being in healthy condition. Every car owner should have a hydrometer syringe to use in determining when the battery is fully charged, and it will also be found convenient to use in filling the battery with water.

Inspect the battery once every two weeks and take a gravity reading of the electrolyte with the hydrometer syringe to determine the strength or capacity of all cells, after which fill each cell to the level of the inside cover with pure distilled or clean rain water. You should run the engine for a period of two or three hours, as necessary, until the gravity has reached 1.280 in all cells. The engine should be operated at a speed equivalent to a car speed of fifteen to eighteen miles per hour. You may find it impossible to charge the battery on account of the necessity of placing the car in storage. In this event, if alternating current is available, a small vibrating rectifier can be used. This can be attached to the wall and connected to any standard lamp socket. Charging the battery overnight, or twelve hours every two weeks would be enough. If you do not want to be bothered with the care of the battery while the car is not used you may send it to the nearest battery service station, where it can be treated for dry storage, providing it is in healthy condition when sent.

What can I do to the lining of my brakes to make them hold when they are glazed, with the wire showing through the fabric?

Evidently your brake linings are badly worn out. The best thing to do is to have the brakes relined. There is practically nothing you can do to linings that are badly worn out except to replace them.

In adjusting valves should there not be just enough room for a piece of paper to slip between the tappet and the valve stem, and is it necessary to look at the timing of the motor?

You do not have to pay any attention to the timing in adjusting valves. The timing cannot be altered except by changing the position of the cam shaft with relation to the crank shaft. This is done by altering the mesh of the

SOME GOLF BUG

One of the surest harbingers of spring in many communities is the development of the golf bug after its hibernation. And a unique turn in the development of this insect at Ishpening is thus chronicled by The Record:

"Inky" Wangberg, the hustling clerk in the F. P. Tillson Drug company's store, has got the golf fever. He isn't in a class with Vardon, Ray, Oulmet, and Bob Gardner, but he's got the fever just the same, and when it comes to the purely commercial side of golf, i. e., the selling of golf clubs and golf sticks, etc. etc., "Inky" is right on the job. He has got a golf link fitted out in the back of Tillson's store, and it is 'some links.' The green is represented by a carpet. The carpet is not green, but the idea is there all the same. There is a golf cup, labeled by 'Inky' No. 4 green. We would suggest that he discard the '4' and substitute '19' in its place, for all of the paraphernalia for the nineteenth green is on exhibition.

"In the first place there is an umbrella. This may be a rather shady thing to say, but we venture the assertion. There is a bottle of seltzer hard by. Of course, seltzer is used only occasionally on the golf links, but when a tired and weary wielder of the niblick and the brassie reaches the nineteenth hole he sometimes feels like a bottle of seltzer. To the south of the seltzer bottle, and under the umbrella, reposes a bottle of Pluto water. Enough said. Next there is a 'split' of Red Raven Splits. This is sometimes essential in golf playing."

MENOMINEE CHARTER READY

Menominee's new city charter, which has been under construction for many months, is at last nearly ready to go to Governor Ferris for his approval. E. C. Eastman, a Marinette attorney who was employed to make the final draft of the charter after the charter commission had decided what was to be in it, has finished his work, and all that now remains is for the council to approve the draft before it is sent on to Lansing.

The new charter is to provide for a city manager, with the last word in city affairs resting with the mayor and a council which will be elected at large, instead of by wards.

What has become of the old timer who used to get out on nice spring mornings and plant a few trees and make a few flower beds. Well, he isn't on the job any more, and his son is kicking because the city government is not spending more money beautifying the town.—Marquette Chronicle.

PERSHING INTERVIEWS THE NEWSPAPER BOYS

El Paso, Texas, April 8.—If General Pershing and his flying column should capture Francisco Villa today and Villa should ask the general what he was going to do with him, Pershing probably would, probably, counter with: "Well, Villa, what do you think about it?"

"War department isn't giving out much. San Antonio, says you're to have charge, though." "Your information pretty reliable?" "Sure. How long is it going to take you to catch Villa?" "What do you think about it?" "I'll swap opinions with you. Six months."

SALT LAKE MEET WILL END TOUR

(By United Press) Washington, April 8.—At the conclusion here tomorrow of the convention of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, the "flying petticoat squadron" of 36 nationally known suffragist orators from non-suffrage states will scout Chicagoward on the first leg of their nation-wide tour of appeal to the men and women voters in pro-suffrage states.

This $50,000 stump-speech tour of the whirlwind girls will, it might be said, be a sort of suffragist cry from Macedonia. They will be on the jump for 36 days, visiting 24 western cities. Their motto will be "Fifty-fifty or Fight! You Vote for Us and We'll Vote for You!"

Chicago is to be the first stop for the delegation. The party will leave Washington tomorrow and reach Chicago Monday afternoon. From Chicago they will go to Kansas City, thence to Topeka, where Governor Capper and state officials will be waiting for them; then to Wichita, Kan., Denver, Colorado Springs, Williams, Grand Canyon, Prescott and Phoenix, Ariz.; Los Angeles, San Francisco; Reno and Carson City, Nevada; Sacramento, Cal.; Salem and Portland, Ore.; Seattle and Spokane, Washington; Great Falls, Helena and Butte, Montana; Pocatello, Idaho, and Ogden and Salt Lake City, Utah.

April 15, half of the delegation will visit Cheyenne, Wyo. This plan also will be followed on May 9 at Boise, Idaho.

At Salt Lake City a convention will end the trip. The convention is slated to be "the largest and most spectacular ever held in the interest of suffrage." The party will return to Washington, May 17.

Plans for the tour are simple and direct. The delegates are to go right out in the home of suffrage, in the suffrage states, and organize every feminine voter. The consolidated voters, the plan is, will all vote together. And they won't vote for anybody, for dog-catcher, sheriff or president, who won't vote to give the rest of the women of the country the ballot.

Although the delegates are to be apportioned by states, one each from the thirty-six benighted, medieval non-suffrage states, these members, famous among suffragists for their speeches, are declared to be sure winners: Miss Ella Reigel of Philadelphia, in charge of the expedition; Mrs. Helena Hill Weed, who has charge of the schedule of meetings; Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, head politician of the Union; Miss Anna Constable of New York; Mrs. Rogers of New York; Mrs. Nina Van Winkle, of Morristown, present of the New Jersey Woman's Political Union, and Mrs. Florence Bayard Hill, of Wilmington, chairman of the Delaware branch of the Union.

It will be about the first occasion on record where committees struggling along in the dark—as the suffragists frankly admit the thirty-six states mentioned above—have sent missionaries to progressive, enlightened sections. They won't go on a strictly missionary trip, though! they plan to declare war on backsliding politicians and see that they climb on the bandwagon or get rolled under its wheels.

Ferguson Will Not Report to Athletics. Charley Ferguson, the University of Michigan pitcher, who is regarded as ranking next to George Sisler as a star, will not report to the Philadelphia Athletics, having decided to forsake baseball for the practice of law in his home town of Wayne, W. Va.

Knabe Boosts Catcher Wilson. Otto Knabe speaks a good word for Catcher Arthur Wilson, recently secured by the Pirates. "Wilson will help the Pittsburgh club a lot," he said. "He is a hard hitter and a willing worker. In addition to this Wilson is a cracking good thrower."

Collins Greatest Ever, Says Rowland. "Eddie Collins is a great man for a ball club," a fan remarked in the hearing of Clarence Rowland, White Sox impresario. "Eddie Collins is a great man for anything," Rowland replied, "and one of the greatest I ever knew."

Let the Players Think, Says Fohl. Lee Fohl, manager of the Cleveland club, believes in allowing players to do their own thinking, and it is his contention that no man can pick up "baseball sense" if he is bound by orders from the bench.

AT THE THEATRES

THE DELFT. In "Rags," the great story of a girl's rise from the lowest strata of life to a position of social importance, through which she finds it possible to marry the man she loves, whom before she thought too far above her, Mary Pickford, for whom the story was especially written by the noted novelist, Edith Barnard Delano, finds a typically effective characterization.

Pickford's "impersonations. "Little Mary" herself is the crowning glory of the subject, and the manner in which she illustrates her emergence from the sordid world into which her father's drunkenness places her, is worthy of the art of a Bernhardt. Her portrayal of "Rags" becomes much more than the display of a winsome personality, but as the story advances to tense climaxes and grows in dramatic interest, Miss Pickford transforms herself from a charming little character of moods and whims into an actress of true power and effectiveness. In the main, "Rags" provides Miss Pickford with a part of large emotional possibilities, in many ways reminiscent of "Tess of the Storm Country" and her more recent triumph, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," and she acts, as she did in both these glorious successes, with force and sincerity. In fact, these two subjects and "Rags" will probably be recorded as Miss Pickford's great trinity of triumphs.

WOULD KEEP HOUGHTON BOYS FROM ENLISTING. Houghton, April 8.—Attorney Joseph P. Hambitzer yesterday forwarded to Secretary of State Lansing at Washington a formal request in behalf of Eugene Ferguson, a Houghton man, whose two minor sons, Eugene, aged 18, and Wilbur, aged 16, have joined Canadian regiments and intend to fight in the European war. The boys joined without the consent of their parents, who do not want them to fight and are making every effort to have them sent back to this country. Mr. Hambitzer has also written congressman W. Frank James and he will aid in attempting to have the boys' enlistment annulled.

CHICAGO ACTRESS TO APPEAR HERE MONDAY

Woman's Club Guests Will Hear Eleanor Van Valkenburg in Reading

The Escanaba Woman's Club has prepared a rare treat for its members and guests for Monday night in the appearance here of Eleanor Van Valkenburg, who will give a reading from James M. Barrie's famous play "What Every Woman Knows."

Eleanor Van Valkenburg is in private life Mrs. Morris Brown, wife of the manager of The Little Theatre, in Chicago, which stands for all that is best in dramatic art and is under the patronage of the Drama League there. Only the highest class attractions are looked at that theatre and it speaks well for Miss Van Valkenburg's ability, that she has appeared there frequently.

The play is a whimsical satire and is woven around the character of Maggie Wylie, "The Woman Without Charm," who becomes her husband's inspiration, although he refuses to realize or admit it. This part was one of the most successful characterizations of Maude Adams.

St. Joseph's School auditorium has been secured for this event and the program will begin at eight o'clock Monday evening. It has been decided owing to the size of the hall, to allow each club member to invite two guests without charge. No admission fee will be asked.

Animals Allow Men to Approach Without Fear—Deep Snow Made Hard Winter

(By Associated Press)

Tower, Minn., April 8.—Victor Ekholm, employed at an exploration camp on Rice Bay, nine miles up the lake, reports that while coming to Tower he met a large herd of deer in the road. There were 20 or more of the animals, some of them only half grown.

When Ekholm appeared the deer were disposed to hold the road rather than take to the snow. Several stepped aside to let him pass, and these he approached and petted. The deer were tired and weak, and had been "brushing" on the tops of trees felled by loggers during the winter. Others were trembling and wet.

The deer have become very tame this winter, as when they are near men the wolves let them alone. The woods are dotted with wolf-slain deer.

AUTO MEN ORGANIZE; MAY STAGE EXHIBITS

Automobile dealers of the county met at the office of J. H. Loell last night and formed the Delta Automobile Dealers' Association, including every motorcar dealer in the county, with the purpose of establishing better relations among the trade.

Plans for an automobile show to be held in Escanaba this spring were discussed, and a committee was appointed to consider the advisability of holding such an exhibit on April 20, 21, and 22. Another committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws, to report at the next meeting.

 "Isn't that a Bouguereau?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle as they stopped for a moment to look at the new pictures. "Oh, my no," replied her hostess; "it's a lion. But I told you when he brought it home that it looked a good deal more like one of them things you mention."
