WANTS AD SPACE CURTAILED

(By Associated Press)
Findlay, O., April 25.—The Findlay Republican has mailed letters to all its advertisers asking them to reduce the size of their advertising space. The action was taken, it was stated, because of the scarcity of printing paper, which has advanced a hundred per cent in price during the last year. It is now about four cents a pound in large quantities.

Owing to the increase in the price of gasoline, the charge for scows will be raised this year, though it is not likely that there will be any increase in passenger rates.

One saloon license application, that of Edward Johnson, was refused by council last night, and all others were granted for another year. ### SHAFROTH UPHOLDS SUFFS IN SENATE

COLORADO SENATOR SAYS MEN WON'T RECOGNIZE RIGHTS OF WOMEN TO LIBERTY

(By Associated Press)
Washington, April 25.—Woman suffragists flocked to the Senate galleries today to hear Senator Shafroth, a Democrat of Colorado, who urged the adoption of the Susan B. Anthony amendment.

In the formation of the republic, he declared, new principles of government had been put forth, one of which was that all men were created equal in rights and that man is entitled to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

"While men accept these," said the senator, "as applicable to all men, many refuse to recognize them as applicable to women. They cling to their power like the monarchs and aristocrats to theirs. The invoke the divine right of sex as the monarchs asserted the divine right of kings."

LEAGUE PROSPECTS ARE VERY DUBIOUS

(By Associated Press.)
Sheboygan, April 25.—Prospects for the organization of the proposed Wisconsin-Michigan baseball league are said to be exceedingly dubious. Sheboygan was ready to enter had the other cities come in as proposed, but Appleton and Oshkosh declared positively they would not enter this year, and the subject will probably be dropped until fall, when efforts will be made to organize a league for next year. Sheboygan will play independent ball this year.

Bridges at Twin Cities Menaced

FLOOD SITUATION AT MARINETTE AND MENOMINEE WORSE WITH RISE IN RIVER LEVEL

The flood situation at Menominee and Marinette assumed more serious proportions today with a further rise in the Menominee river. Jammed logs above the dams are holding back an enormous pressure of water, and the overflow is threatening the paper mills on the Marinette side and much property on the Menominee side. It is feared that if the logs are dislodged and sent over the dams, the resultant wave will sweep away both of the Marinette-Menominee bridges, below the dam.

Flood conditions at Marinette and Menominee are the worst ever known as a result of an unprecedented rise in the Menominee river. The facts about the flood are thus summed up:
Two brick walls of wood sawing room at Paper Mill No. 2, Menominee side, collapsed.

Flooded district just east of paper mill marooning families in twenty homes. Folks were driven out and had to carry furniture to second floor.

Menominee end of Hattie street bridge threatened. Sand bags were piled up there to prevent concrete abutments from being washed out. Portion of Ogden avenue near the M. R. Brewery dynamited to permit outlet for flood waters.

GERMANY SOCIALISTS STRIVE TO PREVENT BREAK WITH AMERICA

LABOR PARTY AND SOCIALISTS THROW INFLUENCE INTO SCALE FOR UNITED STATES

GERMANY WILLING FOR CONCESSIONS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, April 25.—A report from Ambassador Gerard at Berlin outlining the results of the long conference he held yesterday with Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor, over the American note, was expected at the state department today.

Mr. Gerard is understood to have already reported that strong political influences are at work in Germany to prevent a rupture between that country and the United States. Labor leaders and socialists are represented as being particularly averse to a severance of diplomatic relations.

The ambassador is said also to have reported that there were strong indications of Germany's willingness to make some concessions.

SANDSTROM GETS $2364 IN DAMAGES FROM SOO

Gladstone Man Wins in Suit—Blanchard vs. Veneer Co. Taken up Today

John Sandstrom, of Gladstone was awarded $2,364 by a circuit court jury last night for the death of his son, who was killed while playing on log piles on a Soo line lot in Gladstone. Escanaba is to have an evangelistic campaign, with a huge tabernacle and an evangelistic party along Billy Sunday lines. The campaign is to last for six weeks, and will be held here from Sept. 10 to Oct. 22.

The announcement of the coming campaign was made this morning, when it was stated that Dr. J. S. Hamilton, a noted evangelist of the middle west, with a party of seven or eight people, will direct six weeks of special meetings here under the auspices of the Protestant churches of the city.

Plans have been laid for the erection of a tabernacle which will seat 2500 persons, though the location of the proposed building has not yet been announced. Committees for various phases of the work are now being selected, and will be announced later.

Dr. J. S. Hamilton is one of the foremost evangelists of the country. He is rated as one of the six evangelists who come next to Billy Sunday in campaign successes. He has been conducting similar campaigns with great success at various points of the Middle West, his latest place of operation being Shelbyville, Indiana, where it is reported he "turned the town inside out."

OREGON TO ASSURE SCOTT THAT MEXICO CAN CONQUER VILLA

CARRANZA WAR MINISTER WILL SHOW PLANS FOR POLICING NORTHERN MEXICO

WILL RENEW WITHDRAWAL REQUEST

(By Associated Press)

El Paso, April 25.—Assurances that the de facto government of Mexico is prepared to cope with the Villa bands in northern Chihuahua is expected to be made by General Obregon, minister of war of the Carranza government, at his coming conference here with Major General Hugh F. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, and General Funston.

General Obregon, it was learned in Mexican official circles here today, will develop plans for policing the northern Mexican country in detail with the hope that they will prove acceptable to General Scott. Should the plans be deemed adequate by General Scott, the de facto government is expected to renew its request of the American government that the American troops be withdrawn from Mexico.

Obregon on His Way

Father Scalds Child to Death

IRONWOOD MAN, INTOXICATED, THROWS HOT WATER AT WIFE AND KILLS DAUGHTER

Ironwood, Mich., April 25.—Bemoaning day and night his horrible fate and driven almost to insanity, Anton Gulan is in jail here under bonds of $5,000 for the death of his two year old daughter, Katherine.

Gulan had recently been fined for assault and battery after having beaten his wife. On Wednesday he went to his home slightly intoxicated and renewed the family row.

Throws Hot Water

Suddenly he grabbed a kettle of boiling water and dashed it at his wife. She escaped but the water landed on Katherine and her four year old sister, Agnes, both were literally cooked by the steaming water. They screamed with pain and rushed from the house.

Both the father and mother than forgot their difficulties and carried their children into the house. Katherine died in her father's arms but Agnes will recover. Gulan attended the funeral on Saturday and loudly cried out the words that he did not want to kill his girl and that he did not know what he was doing.

The man who is 31 years old was bound over to Circuit court under a charge of manslaughter. He is a pitiful sight as the result of his mental strain.

BAD WEATHER BRINGS DISASTER FOR BOATS ON MAIDEN VOYAGES

UNFAVORABLE CONDITIONS ON LAKES CAUSE FIVE FREIGHTERS TO GO AGROUND

J. P. REISS ASHORE NEAR GREEN BAY

(By Associated Press.)

Detroit, April 25.—Unfavorable weather conditions prevailing over the Great Lakes are giving many lake freighters making their first trip of the season considerable difficulty, according to reports received here. Since Sunday five strandings have been reported.

The most serious of the mishaps is the stranding of the Collingwood, down bound with grain from Fort Williams. She is still ashore off Whitefish Point, despite the efforts of two steamers to release her.

The Zenith City, with coal for Milwaukee, went ashore at Nine Mile Point, Lake Huron, on Sunday night. She is leaking slightly forward. The steamer Luron from Chicago for Port Huron with grain is resting on sandy bottom at Pyramid Point, Manitowish Passage, Lake Michigan.

The John P. Reiss, which was reported aground on Long Sand Point, near Green Bay, was released this morning and reached her dock. The G. J. Grammer, up-bound with coal, which grounded at Russell Island, St. Clair river, was released yesterday.

It will probably be necessary to lighten the cargoes of those vessels which are still aground in order to release them.

COLLECTION OF DELTA COUNTY HISTORY WILL BE AIM OF NEW BODY

DELTA COUNTY PIONEER AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO BE FORMED ON MAY 18

FATHER F. X. BARTH HEADS MOVEMENT

Prominent Men Seek to Preserve Data as to Early History of Delta County

The Delta County Pioneer and Historical Society will be organized at a meeting to be held at the Carnegie Library on May 18, as the result of a call issued by Father F. X. Barth, G. T. Werlup, John P. McColl, and F. E. King.

Delta county has heretofore made no effort to preserve the records of the early days of the county, and historical data is passing with the death of every pioneer, with no written record to hand down to future generations.

The above men, who are interested in a movement to preserve the history of Delta county, its beginnings, and the pioneers who made possible its growth, plan to organize the Pioneer and Historical Society "for the purpose of collecting and preserving historical, biographical, and other information in relation to Delta County."

The Society will apply for a charter and will become an incorporated body. Its work is worthy the highest measure of commendation and support from the citizens of Escanaba and of Delta County.

RAIN HALTS ACTIVITY FOR CLEAN-UP WEEK

Householders Wait Till Back Yards Drain Before Starting Out With Rake and Hoe

Clean-up Week activity is proceeding slowly, owing to the fact that a more-or-less steady down pour has made it impossible to do much back yard raking without the aid of a canoe. With clear weather for a few days, however, it is expected that householders of the city will have plenty of work for the city's teams when the latter start operations along the alleys, probably next week.

No definite announcement has been made as to whether a holiday will be declared for the schools to assist in the clean-up work, and this matter will be decided by the board of education. Meanwhile, the rain won't affect the cellar or the basement.

London, April 25.—German battle cruisers appeared off Lowestoft today. The local naval forces engaged them and in about 20 minutes they returned to Germany pursued by our light cruisers and destroyers, says the official British report.

On shore two men, one woman, and a child were killed by the bombardment from the Germans. The material damage seems to have been insignificant so far as is known at present. Two British light cruisers and a destroyer were hit but none of them was sunk.

Lowestoft is on the North Sea coast about 100 miles northeast of London. It is almost opposite The Hague.

Library Notes

More Books to Read Aloud

The most serious problem in selecting books to read aloud, comes when the convalescent begins to weary of fiction—not because there are no other interesting books, but because tastes differ so widely. Rarely does one find two people who agree as to their favorite poem or essay. A person who loves a delightful book of travel may have no interest in biography, and one who loves out-of-door books may lack all interest in the average literary essay.

Most old favorites have been omitted here, and the list has been compiled, almost entirely, from the works of contemporary writers. The list is only suggestive! no attempt has been made to present a complete list.

Ted Meredith Again Showing His Heels to His Rivals

JUDGING by his wonderful performances recently, Ted Meredith, the University of Pennsylvania's crack middle distance runner, will establish some new world's records before the season is over. In New York recently on an indoor track Ted showed his heels to Bingham of Harvard, went the distance of two and two-fifth miles in the remarkable fast time of 55 minutes and 55 seconds. A week later in Philadelphia at the Meadow Brook games he traveled 900 yards in 1 minute and 21.25 seconds and came in a second of equalling the outdoor record for the same distance held by Ed Baker.

Bresnahan Made Good Move in Signing Stovall.

COBB HIGHEST PAID PLAYER

Stovall's Great Outfielder Will Receive More Salary Than Any Other Player in League—Fans Will Hear From Sisler, as Limits Never Lived Up To.

George Stovall is not going to be idle coming season. Roger Bresnahan signed the former Federal league player to play first base for the Philadelphia Nationals. In fact, Bresnahan has found work for six or seven players who were with the defunct team last season, and these, in addition to the players who are under contract to the Cleveland American baseball club, will give him quite a team from which to pick his team. Stovall and Bresnahan will add a lot of strength to the Toledo team. Both have proved excellent hitters in that city, and besides, Stovall and Bresnahan are still stars in their respective positions.

Bresnahan recently ended his career as manager of the Chicago Cubs. It may be a blessing in disguise, for chances are that if he can gather a team about him at Toledo, his town, that city will support him better than any it has ever had. Stovall has not had baseball for a number of years, and there is sure to be a remarkable revival of interest there, which is likely to make Bresnahan a busy man.

Cobb will be the highest salaried player in baseball the coming season. In view of his loyalty to organized baseball during the recent battle with the Red Sox, but Cobb never made any effort to desert the Detroit team and as a result he is to be rewarded.

Speaker drew $10,500 during the season of 1914 and 1915, but he has signed for half that amount. The reason is that if Cobb plays as well this season as he did last he will contract at his present salary.

Baker threatened to leap to the top unless his demands were acceded to by the Red Sox, but Cobb never made any effort to desert the Detroit team and as a result he is to be rewarded.

Let any club owner in the minor leagues find that his team has a chance to finish well up in the race or to win a championship if he can do so by landing one or two players, and he will find a way around any salary limit in a jiffy. Ironclad rules to prevent breaking the salary limit have been made by various leagues, but they were broken when the races for the pennants tightened up.

In the early days of the now defunct Tri-state league a favorite scheme to break the salary limit rule was for the manager of the club to bet a player a certain amount that the manager could shake five sixes in one throw of the dice. The manager always lost, the player got his money and the dear old rule wasn't fractured.

JOSH DEVORE BACK AGAIN.

Veteran Outfielder Likely to Get Regular Berth With the Phillies.

Judging by the manner in which Josh Devore has been performing in the spring practice games, it looks as if the veteran will be a regular on the Philadelphia Nationals. Devore is the original Finnigan of the National league. Probably no other player in the major leagues has been traded from one club to another as this present member of the Philadelphia Nationals. Devore originally started his major league career as a member of the Giants several years ago.

In 1913 he played with three clubs—New York, Cincinnati and Philadelphia. He was a member of the world's champion Braves in 1914, and last season and this year finds him again in Philadelphia. He still has hopes of completing the circuit of the eight clubs before he is through with baseball.

REMINDER FOR JOYCE, WHO BECOMES CRITIC.

Scrappy Bill Joyce, a picturesque and rugged figure of the diamond in his day, isn't altogether pleased with baseball as it is just now.

"The players do not try to learn all the points of the game, as in the days of old," he says, "but simply try to get by."

This leads one of the veteran New York scribes to observe:

"In a game at the Polo grounds in the days of old Jake Beckley, as Joyce was running to first, jabbed the latter in the chin with his elbow, and Bill in retaliation picked up the ball and slammed Eagle Eye full on the most prominent promontory of the dome. That is one fine point of the game the absence of which from present day playing is not a reason for reprimand."

LAJOIE SURE OF BERTH; MACK PRAISES VETERAN

Nap Lajoie will be back on the Athletics' middle sack this season. Connie Mack made this statement when asked concerning reports that Malone will play second base.

"Lajoie isn't all in yet," said Mack. "He played fine ball for me last year."

The Athletics' manager went on to point out that, though Lajoie has been playing major league ball since 1890, he batted .280 and fielded .962 in 110 games last year. Eddie Collins and Del Pratt were the only regular second basemen who outbatted him.

LARNED NOW A GOLFER.

Former National Lawn Tennis Champion in New Branch of Sport. William A. Larned, the former national lawn tennis champion, is now in the sporting limelight as a golfer.

WILLIAM A. LARNED AS A GOLFER.

Larned recently captured the Lakewood tourney at Palm Beach, Fla., when he defeated G. Wayland Smith 3 up and 1 to play. The match was a disappointment, for both golfers stumbled through it from start to finish. The first hole was Larned's in 5 to 6. The next two were halved in 4 and 5, the champion without any brilliant play getting the next three, so that he had Smith four down at the sixth. Smith had him back to the final score at the turn, the homeward round being a seesaw proposition in which both men frequently passed up good opportunities.

Larned intends to compete in various tournaments, and many who have watched him play are of the opinion that it will be only a short time before he makes the best bet up and take notice.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S LIFE STORY AS HE TOLD IT

(This is a continuation of Charlie Chaplin's life story. It was written by Harry C. Carr, who recently achieved fame as a correspondent for the Los Angeles Times. No contribution to "movie" literature has created so much interest among film fans as this simple, straightforward account of the life history of the world's most famous comedian.—Editor.)

CHAPTER II.

I don't remember ever having had any definite ambition to go on the stage or of being attracted to the life. I just naturally drifted onto the stage, just as the son of a storekeeper begins tending to the counter.

With both my father and mother, however, it was a definite intention to put me on the stage. I can't remember when the talk of this began. It always seemed to be a fact generally understood in the family that I should be an actor. I can remember how carefully my mother trained me in stagecraft. I learned acting as I learned to read and write.

I don't remember when I began regularly as a professional, but I remember that I was already working on the stage when I had a narrow escape from drowning.

I remember that I was on tour with a show called "The Yorkshire Lads." It seems to me that I could not have been much over five or six years old; but I suppose I must have been a year or two older. Two or three of the boys of the company were throwing sticks into the River Thames and I slipped into the stream. I can remember how I felt as I was swept down the river on the current. I knew that I was drowning, when I felt a big, shaggy body in the water near me. I had just consciousness and strength left to grab hold of the fur and hang on, and was dragged ashore by a big black woolly dog which belonged to a policeman on duty along the river. If it hadn't been for that dog, there wouldn't have been any Chaplin on the screen.

I don't remember anything about the show I was acting in at that time. I suppose I must have been acting or singing at intervals during those years, but the first show I have any very definite recollection of was a piece called "Jim, the Romance of Cocaine," by H. A. Saintsbury, who is a very famous playwright on the other side.

His First Real Hit.

This was my first real hit on the stage. I had a part called "Sammy, the newsboy," and I will have to admit that between the part and myself we made a terrific hit.

I got some fine notices from the big London newspapers, and from that time I began to go ahead.

I liked playing a regular part much better than I did vaudeville work. It seems to me that I had made up my mind at this time to become a legitimate actor. I don't remember that comedy appealed very much to me, either. I think my parents both had the same ambition for me that I had for myself. My vaudeville work with them was only incidental. Both parents being in vaudeville, it was very natural that I should occasionally be used in one capacity or another in the show. This is the almost invariable fate of children of the vaudeville. But, as I remember my mother's training, it was all looking toward a career for me as a legitimate actor.

The next important part I remember, after appearing as Sammy the newsboy, was in "Sherlock Holmes," in which I had the part of Billy. I toured all over England in this part and did well.

Oh, Charlie! 'Fess Up.

After this I began to encounter what Americans call "hard sledding." The worst period in the life of an actor who starts as I did is the period between boyhood and maturity. I had a hard time getting along then. I was too big to make boys' parts convincing, and too small and immature to take men's parts.

I will reserve for another chapter my real start as a grown-up actor. It seems that the story of nobody's boyhood is complete without the account of his boyhood sweethearts. I am afraid I have nothing thrilling to tell in this regard. I was not the type of boy who was very strongly attracted to girls in real life. I was too busy with the people of my games of "pretend." Most of my boyhood sweethearts were wonderful creatures of my day-dreams. I have a vague recollection of certain wonderful charmers of my own age; but it is not quite clear in my own mind which were the real little girls and which were the dream children. The little boy-girl flirtations never appealed to me. The young ladies available did not live up to the standard of grandeur set by the young ladies that I imagined.

If, in some way, I have relegated to the mists of unreality some little girl whom I really adored and whose name I have forgotten, to her I present my profoundest apologies. I will fall back on slang and say that she was a dream anyhow, which ought to square it.

Finds Hard Sledding.

After he became old enough to be a "regular actor," Charlie Chaplin didn't find the going very easy.

The irony of his fate was that, after all his training by his mother for the career of a legitimate actor, the only direction in which he really scored was in rather rough comedy. His success, however, was in the quaint touch that he brought to what had formerly been pointless horse play.

Chaplin tells his friends that he knocked around from pillar to post on the stage in England—sometimes in one job, sometimes in another. He says that he was glad to eke out a bare living. Most of the time he was working in burlesque and pantomime. He describes his success in the pictures to the early training that he got under the great English pantomimists.

About 1910, Fred Karno put on a variety act called "A Night in a London Music Hall." It concerned the adventures of a very badly educated young swell in a box at a music hall. The stage was set for a miniature music hall with the boxes at one side of the stage. The tipsy young swell sat in one of these boxes. He tried to "queen" all the beautiful ladies on the music hall vaudeville bill. Several times he climbed over the edge of the box into the miniature stage. Most of the time, he was either falling into or out of the box. The swell had to do about a million comic "falls" during the progress of the sketch. I was very funny and ended in a riot of boisterous mirth.

In England, the part of the tipsy young person was taken by Billy Reeves, a well-known comedian who is now with the Universal film company. The sketch made such a hit that Karno finally decided to send it over to the United States. Reeves proved to be a riot here and Karno organized and sent over a No. 2 company to tour the western states. Charlie Chaplin was employed to head the No. 2 company. His salary was $30 a week.

Extols Junius Brutus Booth. A theatrical man, in an appreciation of Junius Brutus Booth, declares that "intellectually he stood above any actor of his own or any other time." In justification of this praise these claims are made: Booth had a knowledge of seamanship (acquired as a midshipman), was an expert printer, had studied law and medicine, was an acute theologian, and spoke eight languages fluently, besides being "the greatest actor who ever spoke the English language."

President Wilson's habit of taking his problems into solitude and arriving at a decision after several days of reflection is in strong contrast to the slam-bang style of the nation's second perennial presidential candidate.

He who wants to persuade should put his trust, not in the right argument, but in the right word. The power of sound has always been greater than the power of sense.

social foundation." If the presidential contest this year comes to be a contest of impressionism versus reflection, and of "the power of words" versus "the power of sense," there is no doubt as to who will have the advantage in popular favor.

THE SALOON SITUATION
Escanaba's saloon situation is left virtually the same as before by last night's action of council. The number of saloons in the city, 58 last year, is reduced to 55 this year—a difference not sufficiently large to change the situation.

CLEAN COMMUNITIES HEALTHY

How Death Rates and Long Life Come From Such Towns.
Filth in itself cannot generate disease, but in the long run, barring unusual exceptions, low death rates and long life always come with records of clean communities.
The "Clean Up and Paint Up" campaign is, after all, a housekeeping job, and for that reason every housekeeper should co-operate with the town officials in making the town spotless. Nothing pleases one more than to have a visitor say what a beautiful town you live in. Why not make your town the cleanest in America? It's easily done. Have harmony reign and all work together and you will be surprised at the result. Now, let us all pull together for a spotless town!

CLEAN UP TIME

If at the end of ten days there are still some who have not filed their expense accounts, it is the duty of the clerk to notify the prosecuting attorney, who then takes steps to notify all delinquents that they must file their expense accounts within twenty days from that date and failing to do this the candidates or parties are subject to a fine of not more than $1000.

Candidates Fail to File The "wets" were not alone in failing to file election expenses. Many of the candidates for office in the elections also filed no expense accounts, and the Republican party filed no account. Many candidates filed accounts showing that they had no campaign expenses. The accounts filed are as follows:

BAND SCORES SUCCESS; ATTENDANCE IS SMALL

Military Band's Concert and Dance Shows Organization Has Not Lost Old Skill

Notwithstanding the fact that the Military Band last night gave what attendants claim was the finest concert it has ever presented, a comparatively small number of people attended the concert and ball which opened the post-Lenten season at the Orpheum last night. The slim attendance at the affair last night will not cause the band a financial loss, however, owing to the large number of tickets sold in advance, but not used on account of the inclement weather. The concert program proved to be all that was promised, and was enthusiastically applauded by the hearers. The dancing program which followed was equally effective, and drew demands for repeated encores.

CRYSTAL FALLS MEN SUED FOR LOST BEER

Mayor and Marshal Sued for $5,000 For Beer They Dumped Out After Seizure.

A capias warrant will be issued within a few days for Mayor Muns and the city marshal of Crystal Falls to answer to a suit for $5,000 as the result of trouble which arose over beer seized and dumped into the gutter. M. J. Doyle of Menominee is the attorney for the prosecution. The trouble arose over the seizure and dumping of beer which was delivered by Carlo Carlotta to Edward Hergaard. The men were arrested but found not guilty of the charges against them. Mr. Doyle demanded payment for the beer which he did not get. Later he got into a verbal row with the mayor and marshal of Crystal Falls and now a new suit is on. The new charges include damages for the lost beer, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution and for the indignity of being placed in jail.

"GYPSY ENCAMPMENT" REHEARSALS STARTED

Miss Helen Sine of Chicago is Here to Direct Big Home Talent Production

Miss Helen N. Sine of Chicago arrived in Escanaba yesterday and immediately started the rehearsals for "A Gypsy Encampment," which will be presented at the Delft theatre on May 4th, under the auspices of St. Stephens Episcopal church. "A Gypsy Encampment," is one of the most wonderful home talent entertainments that has been staged during the past two seasons and never fails to draw big houses. Miss Sine is the young woman who put this on at the La Salle hotel for The Tuesday club, which is composed of many of the leading Chicago women.

While the date of May 4th seems to be giving but a short time to rehearse and prepare this production, Miss Sine stated today that with the talent she has found in Escanaba, there will be no trouble in putting the piece on in much shorter time if it was necessary.

There are over 200 people in the cast and the costuming is said to be wonderful.

APPEAL IS MADE FOR MEN BLINDED IN WAR

The thousands of French, Belgian and British soldiers who have been blinded in the European War are in a pitiable condition, according to an appeal of American bankers, philanthropists and business men, through the B. F. B. Permanent Blind Relief War Fund, 590 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

The appeal was issued locally, today, by F. H. Van Cleve, president of the First National Bank, who is Sub-Treasurer of the Fund in this locality and who will receive all local contributions.

Unable to work at former trades, these numerous blinded war-victims cannot support themselves and their families. Their governments, overburdened with more immediate problems, are able to do very little for them, the appeal states.

Six months' training, on the other hand, the bankers, business men and philanthropists say, can educate almost all of these thousands of now useless blind men in practical, paying trades, in which they can support themselves and at least partially support their families.

Curious Old Watch. An old French watch, square in shape, which is so arranged that every step of the owner helps to keep the spring tightened, is the property of a man living in San Diego, Cal. This watch is described in the World's Advance, as the only watch in the world that winds itself. It keeps perfectly accurate time, and has worn out several good cases in its day. A key is provided for the watch, to be used when the owner is ill or unable to walk about.

Enthusiasm. Enthusiasm is always connected with the senses whatever be the object that excites it. The true strength of virtue is serenity of mind combined with a deliberate and steadfast determination to execute her laws. That is the healthful condition of the moral life; on the other hand enthusiasm even when excited to representations of goodness, is a brilliant but feverish glow which leaves only exhaustion and languor behind.—Kant.

Spring Coat Of Taffeta Or Serge.

ning coat of men's wear serge. Or, it may be developed in taffeta. The proper trimming is striped silk, used on the collar and cuffs. The coat may be worn loose or with a belt onto which large pockets button. There is a choice between two styles of collars for the neck finish, the high funnel design or the turn-over collar.

In medium size the coat requires 2 1/2 yards 54-inch material, with 1/2 yard striped silk for the trimming. It is quickly made and looks exceedingly stylish when finished. The first step toward putting the coat together is to close the underarm and shoulder seams as notched. The large "O" perforations indicate the center front. Next, adjust underfacing to position underneath front corresponding edges even. Face collar and sew to neck edge as notched, center-backs even, and if coat is desired with open neck, or with collar standing up, leave collar free forward of large "O" perforation.

The large "O" perforation in the pockets indicate front edge. Adjust to position on coat, lower and side edges along line of small "o" perforations in front and back, and leave the extensions free above small "o" perforations to fasten on belt.

Next adjust belt to position on coat, center-fronts and center-backs even, and bring small "o" perforation at upper edge of belt to corresponding perforation in back at underarm seam. Large "O" perforation in belt indicates center-front. Lap the pointed ends of pocket on belt matching single and double small "oo" perforations, and close with buttons and buttonholes.

Close sleeve seam as notched. Turn under edge of cuff on slot perforations lap to small "o" perforations, notches even; stitch 1 inch from folded edge. Sew to lower edge of sleeve as notched, single small "o" perforation in cuff at sleeve seam. Sew sleeve in armhole as notched easing in any fullness.

The deep cuffs are trimmed with buttons of the coat material.
