UPPER PENINSULA DELEGATION LEFT SUNDAY FOR WEST

Eight Representatives of Cloverland On Their Way to Salt Lake City to Talk Sheep Raising.

ON A DEVELOPMENT TRIP

George M. Mashek and C. R. Hutcheson of This City Are Delegates to the Conference This Week.

(Special to The Mirror.)
Chicago, Ill., Jan. 14.—Eight Cloverland men left here last night via the Overland Limited for Salt Lake City where they will present to Western grazers the possibilities of Upper Michigan as the ideal place for sheep and cattle raising. Six of these men are representatives of The Upper Peninsula Development Bureau which is behind the movement to increase the supply of sheep and wool in the Middle West.

J. M. Longyear, one of the wealthiest men in the Middle West and a man who has had more to do with the upbuilding of Cloverland than any one person, came here from Boston in order to join the party in its educational trip westward. Mr. Longyear contends that the Upper Peninsula of Michigan affords excellent opportunities and for that reason will assist in carrying the word westward. John R. Van Evera of Marquette has joined the party and will lend his assistance. "We are not selling land," said Leo C. Harmon, president of the Bureau today. "We have asked the land men

SEVERAL KILLED IN TEXAS TRAIN WRECK

Five soldiers, a woman, two girls and a baby were counted among the dead according to a report from Bremond, near the scene of the wreck. One man of a dozen or more injured also died shortly after the derailment. "Ten, twelve or fourteen dead and possibly twenty injured," was the report received at the Southern Pacific general offices from the dispatcher at Hearne. The dispatcher reported that a portion of Train 17 crashed into Freight engine 465 with a caboose standing on the siding and that four or five passenger coaches were piled up. The steam pipes of the switch engine burst and scalded the passengers.

ARMY SUPPLIES BURN IN A MYSTERIOUS WAY

Million Dollars Worth of Food Consumed by Flames in Washington in Early Morning Blaze.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Washington, Jan. 14.—A quantity of army supplies, including $1,000,000 worth of food, was destroyed, the quartermaster's warehouse was ruined and several other buildings damaged by a blaze at the Washington Barracks, occupied by the engineering troops.

A large part of the city's fire fighting apparatus was called to fight the blaze, which was given impetus by the explosion of a quantity of gasoline, stored in one portion of the big warehouse. After hard fighting for an hour and a quarter the fire was extinguished. A limited quantity of clothing and shoes was burned.

MAIL SERVICE HAS BEEN RESTORED ON THE C. & N. W. ROAD

Three Mail Trains, the First to Reach Here From Chicago Since Last Friday, Arrived Today.

Train service between Escanaba and Chicago was resumed today, although the mail trains leaving Chicago last evening were many hours late in arriving here this afternoon. By tomorrow, local Northwestern officials believe, the train service will be almost normal for this time of the year.

Train 404, the early morning mail train, reached here about 1:30 this afternoon, bringing in the first Chicago mail since Friday afternoon. This train left Chicago at 9:30 last night and fought a stiff battle all along the line, until Green Bay was reached.

Train 221, due to arrive here at 8:25 in the morning, came in about 4 o'clock and Train 217, due to arrive at 2 o'clock in the afternoon was four hours late.

Train service on the Northwestern branches out of here was resumed on schedule today.

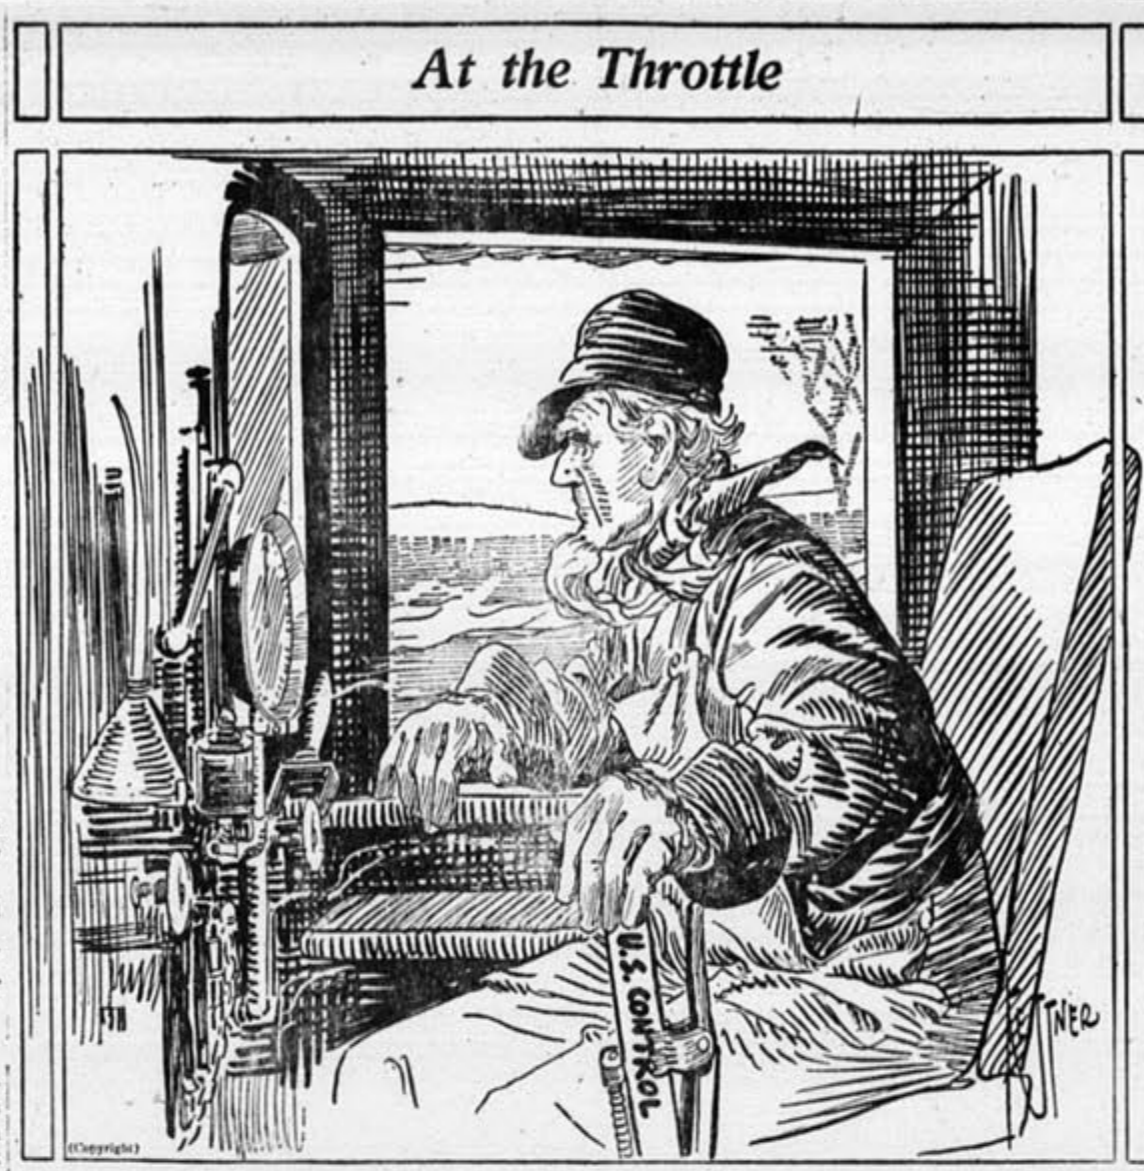

On the Soo Line the train schedules have not been so badly disarranged.

STORES CLOSED ON WEDNESDAY NIGHTS TO CONSERVE FUEL

Hardware Men Have Already Taken Action and Other Merchants Will Be Asked to Follow Their Lead.

ONE CHURCH TAKES STEP

St. Joseph's Church Will Have Only High Mass in Church Building During the Week Days.

The Delta County Fuel Administration, through W. J. Clark, chairman, today requested the merchants of Escanaba to close their stores on Wednesday evenings in order to conserve fuel.

Hardware dealers of the city at a meeting Saturday night decided to close their places of business hereafter on Wednesday evenings to effect a saving in fuel and lights, and the fuel administration desires that all other merchants follow along the same line.

The fuel administration has appealed to the merchants in a patriotic manner, asking for their cooperation, and it is expected there will be no disposition on the part of the merchants to do contrary to the request.

Hardware stores of the city have been open Wednesday evenings in the past for the convenience of their customers, but the dealers have decided that the customers will bear with them in the patriotic movement, and the fuel administration believes that the customers of the other stores will act likewise.

Premier of Russia Has Returned to the Capital; Trotsky's Propaganda Is Worrying Germany.

(Associated Press War Summary)
Russo-German negotiations at Brest-Litovsk apparently have been broken off temporarily and the possibility of final breaking off is not unlooked for in Petrograd. The armistice on the eastern front has been extended to February 18, while it is expected that the conferences will be resumed at Warsaw.

Nikolai Linine, the Bolshevik premier, is again in Petrograd and is reported to be taking a more important part in the negotiations. There is some dissatisfaction in Petrograd with the way in which Foreign Minister Trotsky has handled the negotiations. Trotsky's campaign of propaganda among the German soldiers is said to be growing in effect and German military authorities are doing all in their power to check it. Meanwhile German political and military leaders are

ALSATIANS WILL NOT BECOME GERMAN, SAYS AN ALSACE DELEGATE

National Culture Is French, Not German, He Says, and That History Has Made the People French.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Paragand, Dec. 14.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The Alsace-Lorraine situation from a national point of view is laid before the Escanaba public in an article published here by the Alsace delegate, George Veil.

"I myself am a walking example of our people's attitude," he says. "I am a social democrat and therefore in principle am opposed to war.

"Before the war I was one of the many Alsace-Lorraine politicians who were content to limit our national program to an autonomy within the boundaries of the German Empire. From this it must not be gathered that we had forgotten that in 1871 our right as a nation to self-definition had been violated by Bismark. No, we were

WALDSTROM EXHIBITS OLDEST PIECE MONEY

A Penny Made in 1678 Is Proudly Shown by Advertising Man of the Fair Savings Bank.

This seems to be the time for exposing to the public gaze, coins of more or less aged vintage. One man says he has a penny over a hundred years old; another claims to have one over 150 years old, but it remains for J. Willard Waldstrom of the Fair Savings Bank to produce the oldest money in the city.

He has a penny made in 1678 and further; it has been in the Waldstrom family most of that time. The Waldstrom family are noted in Sweden for their saving habit and it is said that none of them for generations have wasted their money. Each one saved all he got and sewed it up in a deer skin bag and gave it to his son.

The bag of money made by the first member of the Waldstrom clan was never opened until recently and then only to pick out an old coin.

When Willard came to this country his father gave him several sacks and told him to add to them and then pass them on to his son with the same advice. Willard is the last of the great tribe of Waldstrom and is noted locally as being a man with a very small family, which is the reason he risked opening the bag of coin sewed up by the founder of the family.

S. O. S. CALLS FROM THE TEXAN HEARD BY OTHER VESSELS

American Vessel of 14,000 Tons Believed to Have Collided With Iceberg or With Another Steamer.

CREW OF 43 INTO BOATS

Other Steamers Reported to Be Racing to Her Aid, But It Is Feared That They Are Too Late for Assistance.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
An Atlantic Port, Jan. 14.—Agents of the American steamship Texan of 14,000 tons today received advices from the naval department that she is sinking at sea. The location was not given.

The naval authorities did not state the cause of the vessel's stress, but it is reported the vessel was rammed amidship in a collision with another.

Messages received from another port said that the steamer arriving here today reported that at 4 a. m. it picked up a S. O. S. from the Texan reporting that she had been struck amidship and that she was sinking. The last message from the Texan was "Goodbye. No More." The message did not give the location of the ship or how she was damaged. There were 43 members of the crew aboard.

The ship which brought word of the plight of the Texan reported that she endeavored to get in touch with the latter direct, but that she was unable to do so. The vessel picked up a message to or from the Willamette saying: "Go to the assistance of the Texan." In the absence of definite word regarding the ship's fate, it is expressed by shipping officials, that the Texan may have encountered an iceberg.

It was said that the steamer that picked up the Texan's S. O. S. was hurrying to assist her and that the crew of 43 men had taken to the boats.

The Texan left recently from an American port with a cargo of nitrate for a French port, agents of the vessel said.

WIS. LEGISLATURE CONVENES FEB. 19

Number of Problems Will Be Taken Up at Special Session of the Law Making Body Next Month.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Madison, Wis., Jan. 14.—Governor Philipps' formal call for a special session of the Wisconsin legislature to convene on February 19 at 2 p. m. was made public today.

Financial matters, the temporary appointment of a United States senator and braden of the absent voters' law, a more stringent social disease statute, stronger provisions for punishment of persons for inciting rescussions and sedition, a law permitting the manufacture of skimmed milk cheese when it is properly labeled, are among the most important of the seventeen reasons for the call.

No plank is in the call to permit fusion of parties and this subject is not specifically mentioned because of the strict constitutional which provide what a special session may be called for and it is doubtful whether there will be a bill introduced to legalize it.

NOW, ALL TOGETHER, SING!

"They're Wearing Them Higher in Hawaii" bids fair to become an international anthem—for the duration of the war.

The situation is dangerous and desperate indeed when high government officials go poking their fingers into the women's fashions.

One of those "shortages" the newspapers are always talking about has hit the wool market and the men are all in a flutter for fear women will put so much in their spring suits that there won't be any left for khaki uniforms and army blankets.

And then, just as if patriotic women wouldn't take care of that little war job themselves, up pops Monsieur Jasserand, French ambassador to the United States, suggesting to the Paris designers that "Economy be the watchword for 1918 dresses." He further suggests that "no more than 4 1/2 meters (five yards) be allowed to each costume." So, what those spring gowns—especially for—hem—plump ladies—will be easy to see.

The Paris designers agreed to the suggestion of Monsieur Jasserand with alacrity and are reported to be having a ripping time with full skirts they had already designed and cutting up scandalously in their frantic efforts to make two costumes grow where only one grew before. Tubes, hobbles, riflebarrel and macaroni skirts may

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

appear in our midst any day.

With your kind permission we will paraphrase that popular ballad and join in singing, "They're Wearing Them Higher in Wartimes."

"MIGHTY BY SACRIFICE."

The hundreds of thousands of men who have gone to the front have offered to make every sacrifice of personal interest, personal comfort, and even life itself. Thousands of them, perhaps hundreds of thousands, will yield upon foreign soil "the last full measure of devotion" to the cause for which all true Americans stand. While those men are making sacrifices of that character, those of us who remain at home should willingly make any sacrifice that may be necessary, to aid them in winning upon the field of battle.

If the abandonment or curtailment of some needless lines of enterprise shall be found necessary, large financial losses will result. Much as such losses may be deplored, we must keep in mind that they are small as compared with the sacrifices made by the men who offer up their lives in the trenches of "over the top." The man engaged in needless work will be wise if he prepares to adjust himself to the emergencies which confront the nation.

PROTECTION AGAINST U-BOATS.

The plan to operate all ships under naval rule is one that should be put into effect without delay. It is well known in competent circles that the greater part of our losses by the submarine have been through neglect of naval instructions by skippers of merchantmen. These men, in many cases grizzled seafarers, scorned the written orders delivered to them by stripping lieutenants, with the almost invariable result that their ships were torpedoed.

It is a common assertion in naval circles that no captain of a merchantman who followed the instructions of the navy and kept in touch with his convoy has lost a ship. With the commanders and crews of the merchantmen taken into the naval reserve force it will be possible to enforce naval discipline among them and to secure obedience to orders. This, carried out in all our overseas operations, will still further diminish the effectiveness of the German U-boat.

Crystal Falls, Mich., Jan. 14.—A number of mines on the Menominee range are effected by the dissolution of the well known mining firm of Corrigan, McKinney & Co., of Cleveland, and the organization of the Kinney Steel company, which has taken over all interests of the former company. One of the first mines opened by the old company was the Crystal Falls mine near here, but in succeeding years the company acquired the Tobin, Great Western, Lincoln, Dunn, Odgers and Kimball mines in this district; the Tully, Blair and Michaels mines near Stambaugh and the Colby mine on the Gogebic. The company at one time operated mines on the Marquette range.

small sack of letters was strapped, constituted the "fast mail." The dog train started from Marquette early in the morning and the first night was spent in the woods, generally in a hole dug in the snow, into which the young mail carrier and his dogs crawled for the night.

One afternoon, when Mr. English had returned to Marquette, he was accosted by Peter White who asked him if he could get a letter to Houghton before noon of the second day following. The letter was the execution of an option which was to expire at noon on that day and Mr. White was anxious to become possessor of the property for which he had an option. He told Mr. English that he would pay $100 to get the letter through. The "special delivery" job was accepted and the next morning the messenger started on the 110 mile jaunt, accompanied by but one dog. All that day man and dog ran over the snows and early the next morning the last few miles of the trip were started. Houghton was reached shortly after 10:00 o'clock and the important document delivered. During the three or four years he carried the mail, Mr. English says that he never carried firearms of any kind. He says he never happened to see any wild animals on any of his trips, but that lynx tracks were in evidence frequently.

The regular pay for carrying the mail was $70 a week during the winter months. In the summer time the mail was carried by boat.

Alsations Will Not Become German, Says An Alsace Delegate

(Continued From Page One) willing to limit our demands for the sake of peace, that was all. We know that we could be reunited to France only at the price of war and we wished to avoid that.

He further explains the reason why the people of Alsace-Lorraine do not wish to and cannot become Germans. "Our national culture is French, not German," he says. "The German state that by descent, in language and in history, we are Germans. This, however, is untrue, or only partly true.

"Admitted that the great majority of our population is a mixture of German and Celtic races, as is also the case of a good part of the population of north and west France; admitted also, that a considerable part of the population speaks in the Alsatian dialect, which is a branch of the German language. Nevertheless, our history has removed us far from the German root and has made us French.

"During the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries we were utterly separated from Germany and took no part in the formation of the new Germany which was forming under the banner of Prussia. The new Germany became a stranger to us, while France drew nearer and nearer to us.

"The great French revolution finally decided our national character. The entire population of Alsace-Lorraine was caught by the revolutionary movement. The Marseillaise was written in Strassburg and sung for the first time by Rouge-de-Lille at the house of the Mayor of Strassburg."

The fire department answered the call sent in and found the fire briskly burning within the kitchen and the house filled with dense smoke. The department soon had the fire under control with chemicals.

After Mrs. Donovan was removed to the home of her sister, Dr. J. J. Walsh was called and made an examination of her injuries. It was found that she was suffering from a broken finger on the left hand, some severe cuts on the left forearm and an injury to her left leg, which appears to have been caused by a blow from some heavy piece of the stove. She was not burned and her condition this afternoon was reported as quite favorable, although it was not known just how bad she was injured on her left leg.

The fire in the stove was started an hour before the explosion occurred, and it is supposed that the water pipes leading to the water front were frozen, prohibiting the circulation of water, which soon turned into steam. This is the first accident of the kind reported this winter, although several occurred last winter.

Upper Peninsula Delegation Left Sunday For West

(Continued From Page One) to remain at home because we are on a development trip. To be sure, we have 250,000 acres of land to offer these Westerners but we are not going to sell it. We have these propositions to show the grazers that we mean business and that the Cloverland people will make every concession in order to get them interested. If we can only get the Westerners to visit us we believe that we can convince them that this is the place for them." George M. Mashek, Cloverland's grazing expert, will be able to give actual grazing experience to the Westerners. He went into sheep raising as an experiment and now considers it his chief business. He admits freely that he has made money at the business. Charles R. Hutcheson has been the man who convinced the land owners that they should put up their lands under the terms which Cloverland is offering. G. Sherman Collins, representing the bankers, Roger M. Andrews of the governor's staff and George W. Rowell, Jr., were also on the train.

Joseph A. Jeffrey, land commissioner for the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic railroad, and W. H. Killen, land commissioner for the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie railroad, will leave from Duluth and Minneapolis respectively for Salt Lake City. These are two of the most active men in Cloverland boosting and their railroads are ones which have backed every effort in advancing the country.

Stores Closed On Wednesday Nights To Conserve Fuel

(Continued From Page One) A movement for conservation of fuel in the churches has been started by St. Joseph's church. Hereafter on week days no mass will be said in the church, excepting high mass. Instead mass will be said in St. Joseph's auditorium, which must be heated each day for school purposes.

It may be possible that other churches in the city will make some arrangements for the conservation of fuel. Chairman Clark of the fuel administration said this morning that the wood supply in Escanaba is adequate and that several dealers are prepared to furnish wood to any who ask for it. The price is high but there is not a scarcity of this kind of fuel.

Because of Lack of Coal, Big Industries Close and Employees Take Shovels to Clear Off Tracks.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 14.—The huge packing plants of Armour & Co. and Swift & Co. were shut down today because of inability to obtain coal. Employees armed with shovels were set to work clearing the tracks entering the stockyards. Hundreds of cattle are reported to have perished on stock cars because the roads were unable to move them. Later in the day several other packing houses were to have closed down. A force of 10,000 men was set to work shoveling off the tracks so that coal could be rushed into the yards. The killing plants were under restrained operation. It was said that all the plants would resume full operation tomorrow.

DAVIS WILL ATTEND INSURANCE MEETING

Director and Agency Manager of the Northern Assurance Co. Goes to Detroit This Evening.

F. D. Davis left for Detroit this evening to attend the annual meeting of the Northern Assurance company of which he is a director and agency manager. The Northern is the second oldest and largest life insurance company in Michigan and has just closed the most successful year's business in its history.

To President C. L. Ayres and Dr. J. W. Glover, of Ann Arbor, actuary of this company, is due the credit of originating and submitting to the government the plan for soldiers and sailors insurance, which was later adopted by congress. Dr. Glover, for many years at the head of the department of insurance of Michigan University, has long been considered one of the leading insurance men of the United States.

President Wilson has now appointed him to be chairman of the Council Committee of the War Insurance Bureau of the United States. Mr. Verne S. Ticknor, a graduate of the Insurance Department of the University and secretary of the Northern Assurance company, has been appointed to be assistant to the Deputy Director of the War Insurance Bureau. Both of these men have been relieved by the University and by the Northern Assurance company and are now in Washington directing the affairs of the War Insurance Bureau.

This bureau in the past four months has put in force for the American soldiers and sailors over four billion of insurance and is the largest life insurance company in the world. This insurance is what is known as renewable annual term life insurance with installment payment and disability features. This insurance is compulsory on the part of all soldiers and sailors for a certain minimum amount and optional for an additional amount up to $10,000.

GUARD REGIMENT TO START "ACROSS" SOON

The 125th U. S. Infantry of Which Company L, Formerly Stationed Here, is a Part, About to Leave. "We go very soon."

That is the word received in this city from members of the 125th U. S. Infantry, stationed at Camp MacArthur, Waco, Texas. It was contained in private messages received by relatives of several of the local men, and it confirms the belief that the 125th will soon be en route for France. If indeed, it has not already left.

Further confirmation of this belief comes from the fact that many members of the regiment have sent home all of their excess belongings and are already on their toes for the long journey.

The 125th contains many Escanaba and Delta county boys who enlisted while Company L was stationed here during the summer in command of Captain Oscar Falk. The company has been expecting orders to move for some time.

SUFFERING SEVERE INJURY TO HER EYE

Miss Ida Byers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Byers, 314 South Oak street is suffering a severe injury to the right eye as the result of being struck with a small piece of iron Saturday. While shaking a coal stove, the shaker broke and a small piece of iron pierced the ball of the right eye. The injury is very painful and Dr. Boyce, who attended here, is not sure that the eye can be saved. The young lady is confined to her home.

BROTHERHOOD BRANCH IS ORGANIZED HERE

Swedish Lutheran Men Form Branch of Organization for Church Work Among Soldiers and Sailors.

A branch of the Lutheran Brotherhood of America was organized at a meeting of the men of the Swedish Lutheran church of this city. The brotherhood will co-operate with the national organization to the fullest extent of its ability to further the religious, moral and social well-being of the soldiers and sailors of the United States, who are members of the Lutheran churches, at the army camps and cantonments as well as on the battlefields.

Officers were elected as follows: Rev. C. A. Lund, president; Albin Carlson, vice president; Roy Carlson, recording secretary; Algot Dahlberg, corresponding secretary; E. W. Nelson, treasurer. Committees were selected as follows:

Program committee: Eric Palmer, Victor Anderson and Emil Stenstrom. Membership committee: Edwin Anderson, Howard Johnson, C. W. Carlson, Fredolf Carlson, Andrew Swanson, Rudolph Larson and Carl B. Johnson.

The object of the brotherhood is: (1) To lead men into fellowship with Christ and the church; (2) To promote the spiritual, intellectual and social welfare of its members; (3) To quicken the activity and increase the efficiency of the congregation with which it is connected; (4) To give to men in every condition of life, especially in times of trial, the stimulus of Christian comradeship and the inspiration that comes from association with men of kindred aims.

Buildings are being erected at the army camps and cantonments throughout the country and at the front. The first building has been completed at Camp Dodge at Des Moines. The building has a seating capacity of 1,000 and cost $20,000. The Lutheran Brotherhood has the same privileges in the camps and cantonments as is granted the Y. M. C. A. and the Knights of Columbus.

The local branch will hold a meeting once each month at which time a program and business meeting will be held. The meetings will be held on the first Sunday evening of each month.
