NINE HOUR RULING GOES INTO EFFECT IN ESCANABA TODAY

Stores, Barbershops, Saloons, Lunchrooms and Offices Are Obligated to Be Open Only Nine Hours a Day.

The nine hour opening provision in the fuel administrator's order will be in effect here today for the first time and chaos reigned generally. No two different lines of business had the same opening hours and trade was at a loss to know when to find the business places open.

From now until March 25 the fuel order by State Administrator Prudden will be in effect and all lines of business will be restricted to nine hours a day.

Most lines of business have agreed upon similar opening and closing hours, although there are exceptions to the rule. Some of the grocery stores are open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., others open at 8:30 and close at 5:30 and still others open at 9 and close at 6.

The saloons were opening on different hours. Some were closed all morning, while others were opened at the usual time and closed late this (Continued on Page Four)

SELECTED TROOPS AT CAMP CUSTER MAY BE THERE UNTIL JUNE 1

Major General Parker Believes They Will Be in Training There Until June at Least

Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 22.—General Parker, commander of Camp Custer cantonment, is inclined to believe that the select forces here will be in training until June at least. He pointed out that intense cold, lack of equipment and constant arrival of new men has delayed the work somewhat. The temperature went to 39 degrees below zero in the recent cold spell.

WILL COOK THEIR MEALS ON SLEEPER

Roy Estensen and Wilfred Carlson are Fitted Out with Large Amount of Provisions for Long Trip.

When Roy Estensen and Wilfred Carlson, both of this city, who have enlisted in the "peace corps" of the United States army, leave this city tonight for Vancouver, Wash., they will carry enough food to supply them for three days and four nights.

Here are the provisions purchased for the two men by County Clerk Peppin today, and which the men will take with them on the trip:

Two pounds bacon, two pounds ham, two dozen eggs, one pound of cheese, one pound of butter, four loaves of bread, one pound lard, two pounds crackers, two pounds cookies, two cans tomatoes, one pound sugar, two cans milk, half a dozen lemons, one pound of onions, quarter pound of tea, pound of coffee, dozen each of oranges, bananas and apples, salt and pepper.

The local board donated four packages of Camel cigarettes. When the boys leave St. Paul they will occupy a tourist sleeper along with a number of other men enroute to Vancouver and they will have facilities for cooking their meals in the car. The government pays their transportation and allows them $6 each for food on the trip. By purchasing the food and allowing them to cook it on the way, plenty of food can be provided for $6 each, whereas if they bought their meals enroute the allowance would not furnish food enough for the trip.

THE AIM OF THE ALLIANCE.
Those whose knowledge of England is based on very old impressions and who therefore hear the more readily to the whisper of German propagandists that we are allied with an empire more imperialistic than Germany as it is—such persons need to be reminded that for generations there has been a Tory England and a Liberal England, and that the latter, since the four war, has completely shorn the former of its power, after making amends for that Tory war by setting the conquered free and winning their hearts as well as their loyalty. Liberal England would ere now have also done full justice to the Irish but for the Ulster revolt, the Sinn Fein rebellion and the waywardness and strife of the Irish themselves in the midst of a desperate foreign war; for the moss-back Tories of the House of Lords have been made to surrender the power they wielded for seven centuries.
Attention should be called also to the significant enthusiasm of England's great Liberal majority which greeted President Wilson's address on the aims of and the settlements to follow this war, dominating statesmen uniting with labor leaders in its praise.

"That Tablespoonful of Duffy's Keeps Us Young, Mother"

"We are nearing the allotted 'three score and ten' but are still strong and healthy, active and happy. Duffy's has certainly done wonders for us.
If you could sit at some of these thousands of family tables, and hear the praise and credit given Duffy's Malt, you would be convinced that this excellent stimulant promotes health and prolongs life.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is both food and tonic. Unprejudiced physicians say so, and prescribe Duffy's in homes and hospitals. It has the virtues of a medicine without the disadvantages of a drug. It acts directly upon the stomach—often called "the seat of life"—to assist digestion and assimilation of food. In this way the body gains strength daily to ward off little ills and to reach the perfect state—Health.

Take a tablespoonful of Duffy's in a half glass of water or milk before meals every day for a month. Watch the result carefully. You, too, will become enthusiastic, and continue its use regularly.
Be sure to insist on Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Authorities will tell you that no other is as pure—no other is made for medicinal use only. It has a record of 60 years of purity and wholesomeness.

Sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY. Beware of imitations.
NOTE Get Duffy's from your local druggist, grocer or dealer. If he cannot supply you, write us. Send for useful household booklet free.

We are allied only with modern liberal England, and the alliance is not merely against predatory German autocracy and militarism but against imperialism of the harmful sort everywhere. It has for its end a world safe for that very free government with the consent of the governed which our own Thomas Jefferson so ably championed a century ago.
Extravagant and wild assertion in any cause tends to defeat its own ends. Those who go so far as to bewail the alleged fact that the gallant French army was "ruined by drink" from the outset might be reminded that when Grant was accused of inhibiting too freely Lincoln humorously inquired as to the brand of whiskey he used with a view to the stimulation of less successful generals.
The grim execution of some half dozen convicted Teutonic persons in the Tower of London ripped the German spy system in England up the back, and nothing short of the same heroic remedy will ever do the business in this country.
When the chaplain of the House of Representatives prayed that the nation might be united "in the bonds of patriotism" he seemed to forget to include the stamps of thrift.
By this time we ought to know the

Why You Are Not Paying 30 Cents for Sugar

In April 1917 the cables told of a plan proposed by Herbert C. Hoover, then in London, which he described as "a plan by which the Allies can consolidate under one head the whole purchasing of food staples from our market, and not only will competitive bidding be abolished, but by co-operative buying on our side we can arrange the proper balance between the rights of producers and consumers."

This plan was favorably received by the sugar refining industry, which had been on a war basis almost from the beginning of the European War.

The war had brought the Allies into the Cuban market, resulting in severe domestic and international competition with no increased supplies. Naturally prices of refined sugar, both to the American public and to the Allies, rose under this forced draft.

Domestic sugar refiners, since the outbreak of the European War not only have safeguarded the United States supply but have maintained the lowest sugar prices in the world.

This brilliant record is due largely to the fact that sugar refining is in the hands of large business units, with an excess of refining capacity sufficient to supply all domestic needs, and so far all demands of foreign countries.

In the spring of 1917 there was a serious attempt at the disorganization of the sugar refining industry, following a long series of attempts at destruction of sugar ships.

Accompanying these incidents were widely circulated sensational reports predicting a sugar famine and sugar shortage, causing widespread apprehension.

At that time, even with the assurance of ample supplies on hand, retail sugar prices rose in some sections to 20 and 25 cents a pound.

The efforts of the American Sugar Refining Company to allay public alarm, to check hoarding, to accept a price less than that which it could easily have secured, and to distribute its product fairly and evenly among the trade, were of real public service.

While there were great supplies of sugar in far-away Java which ordinarily would have gone to Europe, yet the necessity of saving ships became so great that Europe turned to Cuba for even larger supplies than previously.

It takes a cargo ship 150 days to make a round trip between England and Java, while a round trip between England and Cuba can be made in 50 days.

Under these circumstances and seemingly to avoid paying proposed United States war taxes on refined sugar the European Allies purchased in Cuba the sugar which ordinarily would have come to the United States in the fall months.

These conditions, and especially the necessity of saving ships,

In war time and at all times it is our aim to safeguard the interests of the public we serve.

American Sugar Refining Company

"Sweeten it with Domino"
Granulated, Tablet, Powdered, Confectioners, Brown

led the United States and the Allied Nations to urge upon the sugar industry the adoption by voluntary agreement of the original Hoover plan, under the authority of the Food Control Act, passed August 10, 1917.

The cane-sugar refiners and the beet-sugar producers unanimously agreed to the Hoover plan as a patriotic act in the interest of the American people and as an aid to the Allies.

This is the significance of the appointment by the United States Food Administration of the International Sugar Committee to which the Allies send representatives for England, France, Italy and Canada, and to which the United States contributes three members.

Upon the success of the operation of the International Sugar Committee under the directions of the Allied Governments, acting for practically half the civilized world, will depend the readjustment of the world's sugar markets.

This plan is full of promise to all the nations party to the convention.

It is an assurance that sugar, although comparatively cheap in view of war conditions, will not by reason either of competitive or speculative activity be increased in wholesale price.

Sugar will become stabilized in price with sufficient profit to producers, refiners and merchants to maintain and stimulate production and to cover the cost of refining and of distribution.

The marketing of Domino Cane Sugars in cartons and small cotton bags by this Company has helped amazingly during the pinch of the fall months in giving a wide distribution among the retailers of the reduced sugar supplies.

While a barrel formerly was the unit of the grocer the same amount of sugar put up in cartons and small cotton bags can now be divided between two or more grocers and so serve a larger number of people and prevent hoarding.

It will be necessary for grocers and consumers to watch carefully their distribution and purchases during the approaching period of readjustment. The refineries are now starting up and supplies of raw sugar coming forward, but it will take weeks, and possibly months, for the return of normal conditions.

Housewives can aid in conserving the sugar supply by buying these package sugars.

Selected Troops At Camp Custer May Be There Until June 1

(Continued From Page One) sion for instance, has been in camp since September and has not completed the seventh week of training along the lines laid out by the war department.

About 9,000 men who are needed to bring the division to war strength will not be available until the middle of February, General Parker said.

Day after day lately, thousands of men have been kept busy fighting the snow. In some places drifts were piled so high that nearby buildings were not visible. Roads had to be cleared, lanes had to be shoveled and spaces around the barracks swept. For a time only a part of the parade ground was available for drilling but the determined efforts of the entire division finally made maneuvers possible.

One source of keen satisfaction to officers is the fact that the heating plant made good during the fearfully cold weather. Many of the pipes leading to various buildings are exposed and builders of the cantonment were criticized for this alleged defect. During the coldest days the barracks were warm and it was necessary, at times, to open windows on the lee side of these buildings.

Sentence Reduced General Parker, commander of Camp Custer cantonment, has reviewed the sentence of 10 years imprisonment at Ft. Leavenworth, which was imposed upon Private Lloyd H. Wood, of Jackson, convicted of desertion. General Parker reduced the sentence to two years imprisonment, with dishonorable discharge.

Canteen Are Busy. The tremendous business done by army canteens has been reflected by reports just made public at Camp Custer cantonment. The camp exchange council operates the canteens and the purchases and sales are carefully audited to give the men the benefit of reduced prices. There are twelve canteens at Camp Custer and their average monthly business totals about $175,000.

Men Back At Work Monday, Says Swiss Reports To London

(Continued From Page One) Reports from Switzerland mention arrests in peace demonstrations in various places. Clashes between hungry civilians and soldiers are reported, while in some instances the soldiers have refused to fire on the demonstrators when ordered.

At Graz, where the trouble is acute, the soldiers abandoned their loaded machine guns to the rioters.

(Associated Press War Summary) Austria-Hungary will continue to strive for a general peace, but on the terms previously announced. This is the answer of the government to the leaders of the discontented workmen said to have been delivered by Dr. von Seydler, the Austrian Premier. Emperor Charles desires to end the war as soon as possible. There have been no new peace enunciations and the labor leaders are told that the continuance of the war rests with the entente allies who refused the peace offered by Count Czernin.

All plans for territorial aggrandizement as the result of the war were disclaimed by the premier. Other ministers have promised electoral reforms and modification in the army service laws. The labor leaders have called upon their comrades to resume work, but the latest reports indicate that the strikes are still in progress with disturbances at some places. The resignation of most of the members of Von Seydler's cabinet is reported by Berlin newspapers, but there is no official confirmation. Count von Tokgenburg, minister of the interior, it is said, has asked to form a cabinet. Almost complete military inactivity persists on the fronts in France and Italy. The Bulgarians were unable to enter the advanced French trenches at one point, from which they were thrown out immediately by the Greek troops.
