

YOU CAN ALL GIVE

SOMETHING

Owing to the magnitude of the work, the solicitors did not finish Saturday and the time will be extended for a few days this week.

The office of the War Relief Association is in the Escanaba National Bank building. The first payments are due on March 1, but subscribers can pay in advance for any length of time they prefer.

All remittances or any communications relative to the Association should be addressed to H. W. Reade, Secretary. Subscribers are asked to pay all assessments with check, which will be more convenient.

We invite any and all persons in the county to join in the Association whether they are wage earners or not, and if the subscription amounts to $1.00, it automatically makes the subscriber a member of the Red Cross.

No one wants to be slighted.

No one wants to be a "financial slacker."

If our solicitors do not see you, it is not because we do not want your money. We are all working together to win the war and no man cares to have his name omitted from the list.

All we ask is ONE CENT out of each dollar you earn. How very little that is compared with the satisfaction you will have in giving it.

The causes for which the funds of this Association may be expended are:

A.—American Red Cross. B.—Y. M. C. A. C.—K. of C. D.—Military relief American Red Cross. E.—Civilian relief American Red Cross. F.—Any special call which may come with the endorsement of the President, and which is for distinctive war purposes. G.—Any call that in the opinion of the Executive Committee will advance the early and successful termination of the war.

We, the undersigned men of Delta County, ask your support and active co-operation to accomplish this worthy object:

MEN'S CLASS GAVE AN ENJOYABLE PROGRAM
 Lincoln Program Featured Gathering of Members of Class of the M. E. Church Last Night.
 An excellent Lincoln day program was given last evening by the Men's class of the Methodist church at the church. The gathering was well attended and the various numbers on the program were greatly enjoyed.
 The program was a fitting one for the occasion, the addresses being on Lincoln and his life. The first address was by Professor P. A. Lint, who spoke on "Lincoln the Boy." The subject of "Lincoln the Man" was taken by C. E. Lewis. F. L. Baldwin spoke on "Lincoln the President" and Rev. Frank Cookson on "Lincoln the Martyr."
 Musical numbers were interspersed throughout the program. Frank Compher sang a solo which was greatly appreciated; Misses Ethel and Clio Dewey gave an instrumental duet, which was well received and Mrs. Guy H. Ramsey entertained delightfully with a waltz. Musical numbers were also furnished by Judson's mandolin orchestra.
 After the program a social session was enjoyed in the church parlors, where refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

 The whole history of Flanders, until it passed by marriage into the possession of the dukes of Burgundy is filled with stirring deeds and rapid growth. Through all the centuries Flanders has kept itself in the front rank of attention by the great struggles that have swept back and forth across its territory.
 When the ruling count would find no adequate scope for his energies in his own country or if the spirit of adventure lay hard upon him he would go off on a crusade as did Count Robert II who wrought so valiantly in the first crusade that he was given the proud title of The Sword of Christendom.

EPWORTH LEAGUE HAD MEETING ON TUESDAY
 Dr. Durgin of Bishop Henderson's Staff Presided at Meeting at Gladstone Yesterday Afternoon.
 Ten members of the Epworth league society of the Methodist church and Rev. Frank H. Cookson were present yesterday afternoon at a meeting at Gladstone, at which Dr. Durgin, leader of the Epworth League work of the Detroit area of the church, and a member of Bishop Henderson's staff, presided. Dr. Marvin, superintendent of the Houghton district of the M. E. church, also attended the meeting.
 The session in the afternoon was in the nature of a roundtable at which Epworth League matters were discussed by the leader and by the local members. Last evening Dr. Durgin gave a lecture which was well attended and much enjoyed.

How "Honest Abe" Settled a Lawsuit
 While Abraham Lincoln was in Springfield a fellow lawyer, who was mainly supported by the other lawyers of the town, became indebted to a wealthy citizen for $250.
 The rich man directed Mr. Lincoln to bring suit. Lincoln was unwilling, but his client insisted.
 Finally Mr. Lincoln said, "Well, if you are determined, my charge will be $10." The client paid the money at once.
 After his departure Lincoln went out of the office, returning in an hour with an amused look. Asked what pleased him, he said: "Well, I brought the suit against — and then hunted him up and told him, 'I gave him half of my $10, and we went over to the squire's office, where he confessed judgment and paid the bill.'"
 Mr. Lincoln added that he saw no other way "to make things so generally satisfactory."
 When Lincoln Expected Defeat.
 On Aug. 23, 1864, Lincoln wrote the following with his signature appended:
 "This morning, as for some days past, it seems exceedingly probable that this administration will not be re-elected. Then it will be my duty to co-operate with the president elect so as to save the Union between the election and the inauguration, as he will have secured his election on such grounds that he cannot possibly save it afterward."
 The above illustrates Lincoln's unassuming manner, as did his remark when told of the certainty of his re-nomination:
 "I don't quite forget that I was nominated by a convention that was two thirds for the other fellow."
 The Lincoln Highway.
 The Lincoln highway connects twelve states and is laid out between New York and San Francisco as directly as possible. Its length is about 3,284 miles. It runs through Trenton, Philadelphia, Lancaster, Chambersburg, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Chicago, Omaha, Cheyenne, Reno, Nev., and Sacramento.

HERE'S A MAN You Should Know--
Our .... CONSTRUCTION FOREMAN
 He's the man—and the only one—who should do the electrical work—all of it—big or little—everywhere.
When you're sick—you send for the doctor. When you have to go to law—you hire a lawyer. When you have wiring to do—don't let a jack-of-all-trades or your chauffeur do it—get a good electrical contractor. It's cheaper and more satisfactory in the end.

New Buildings—and Remodeling
 On new work—home or factory— you, of course, have an architect and electrical engineer. They know how to plan the whole building—including the electrical work. You would not have a rule-of-thumb builder do your planning.
 These specialists will see to it that a reliable contractor does the electrical work.
 When remodeling—or extending wiring—get the advice and service of these men. They know how.

Electrical Appliances
 This is the electrical age. You should have electrical conveniences in the home—and motor drive in the factory. You should have the maximum service from that most modern and tireless of servants—ELECTRICITY
 All electrical appliances—in the home or factory—require insulated wire behind the push button and socket. It is hidden—but it is there—and very important, too.

For more than 17 years connected with the electrical industry
