THE GOVERNMENT AND THE FARMER.

In his message of January 31 to the farmers of America, President Wilson points out the great governmental agencies and instrumentalities in the field of agriculture.

Our Department of Agriculture, he states, is the greatest practical and scientific organization in the world and its total annual budget of four to six million dollars has been increased during the last four years more than 72 per cent. Its staff numbers 18,000 and includes many highly trained experts.

The banking legislation of the last two or three years, the President shows, has given the farmers access to the great lendable capital of the country and through the Federal Reserve banking system and the Farm Loan banking system farmers can obtain the credit, both short and long term, to which they are entitled and which it is imperatively necessary should be extended to them to enable them to perform adequately the tasks the country now requires of them.

The President touches on another aspect of the relations between the farmers and the Nation—"The toll, the intelligence, the energy, the foresight, the self-sacrifice, and devotion of the farmers of America will, I believe, bring to a triumphant conclusion this great war."

VALUE IN LITTLE THINGS.
From waste paper alone one railroad last year realized $5,000. Pins, pens, nails, old brooms, bottles, tin cans and worn-out machinery of all sorts are gathered up along the line by all the railway companies and turned into money. Even the ashes are sold or utilized for improving the roadbed.

These things seem small to command the attention of a rich railroad company. But it must be remembered that the railway company is rich largely because it looks after the little things.

The greatest corporations in the world are not above taking care of even the fractions of pennies.

Waste forms one of the most important questions in economies, not alone for railroads and big manufacturing plants, but for every household.

It is impossible, of course, for any very great sum to be realized in the saving of waste in a household. And yet the usual waste of any home is relatively far greater than that of a railroad.

We think it mean and miserly to look after the little things. And for that reason, more than for any other, human life is cursed with poverty and pauperism.

There is less meanness in a poor man's saving a penny than in a rich man's saving a million.

Those 200,000 defective gas masks may not serve in the trenches, but they will do fairly well to use when Mother gets to cooking turnip, cabbage and onions in the kitchen.

The people who fussed so because sugar has been scarce, are the grandchildren of the sturdy old timers who were perfectly happy if they could get molasses on their bread.

Having bought at a church food sale for 50 cents a cake that took 50 cents worth of material and 75 cents worth of labor, many people feel proud of their generosity.

It is not necessary for the newspapers to run puzzle departments now, as the draft questionnaires and income tax returns supply the principal needs in this line.

The German strikers are confidently and graciously assured by Kaiser Bill that they won't sugar any more after they are dead.

THE THEATRES

AT THE DELFT.
The famous picture "On Trial" will be shown again today at the Delft theatre. It was shown to good crowds both yesterday afternoon and evening. "On Trial" was one of the most vivid and life-like portrayals of a big murder trial ever put on the stage. It ran a year solid on Broadway, had a run of five months in Chicago and created an equal sensation throughout the country from coast to coast. Dramatic critics proclaimed it an innovation in theatrics. The play opened with a court room scene. Robert Strickland was on trial for the murder of his erstwhile friend.

AT THE STRAND.
Miss Olive Tell, one of the most widely acclaimed of the Charles Frohman stars who kept Broadway blazing during later years of the great manager's career, is just as popular in photodrama as she was on the speaking stage. Miss Tell is now playing through Mutual-Empire picture plays, to approximately a million Americans a day, whereas in her Broadway triumphs she could not play to more than 10,000 a day via the speaking stage. In "Her Sister," one of the most striking of the Frohman successes in which Miss Tell was featured, the young star has a superb photoplay vehicle.

DELTA CHAPTER IS IN LEAD OF MARQUETTE

During January the Local Chapter of the Red Cross Lead Marquette by 6,160 Pieces.

During the month of January the Delta County chapter of the Red Cross shipped 6,160 more pieces than the Marquette chapter, according to figures prepared by J. E. Byrns, secretary of the local chapter. In a Marquette paper yesterday was published the result of the work of the Marquette chapter during the month of January.

The report showed that 17,428 surgical dressings of all kinds; 601 hospital supplies, patients and refugee, and 1,745 knitted articles, a total of 19,774 had been shipped by the Marquette chapter in January.

During January the Delta County chapter shipped 22,796 surgical dressings of all kinds; 1,566 garments, hospital supplies, patients and refugee, and 1,572 knitted garments, a total of 25,934. The report of Mr. Byrns shows that Delta county led Marquette by 6,160 pieces in the month.

REVIEW OF THE WORLD WAR AND OTHER HISTORY MAKING EVENTS OF YEAR 1917

Entrance of United States Into Conflict Outstanding Development of Past Twelve Months; Political Upheaval in Russia Affects Struggle; British and French Smash Teuton Lines on West Front; Austro-Germans Drive on Italy.

INDUSTRIAL AND ECONOMIC

Industrial unrest was apparent in the United States throughout 1917, largely as a result of war conditions and in spite of efforts made by the government, aided by leaders of organized labor, to prevent strikes which would delay the nation's war preparations.

Early in the year a nation-wide strike of the skilled railroad employees, which had been averted in 1916 by the passage of the Adamson law, providing indirectly for an increase in wages, was again threatened, owing to the fact that the placing of the Adamson law in operation was delayed pending a decision by the United States Supreme court on its validity.

Serious troubles were precipitated in the Arizona copper fields July 1 when the miners struck. Disorders were reported from several points and on July 12 the people of Bigbee, Ariz., deported 1,200 members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who it was charged had fomented the strikes in the copper mines.

A serious tie-up of all shipbuilding plants in the country was threatened in August and September. Machinists and boiler-makers in Eastern shipyards went on strike August 21 and 25,000 skilled mechanics and other workmen struck in San Francisco September 17.

Leaders of organized labor in the United States took a decided stand throughout the year in support of the government preparations for war and against antiwar propaganda. At the annual meeting of the American Federation of Labor in Buffalo in November, union labor pledged its solid support to the government in the prosecution of the war.

The railroads of the country faced another crisis during the closing months of the year when demands were made by the four brotherhoods for wage increases averaging 40 per cent, affecting, directly and indirectly, approximately 2,000,000 railroad employees.

Labor troubles of the year were closely allied with economic developments, growing out of the increased cost of living in the United States. In order to prevent further increases in prices government regulation of many industries was undertaken as a war measure.

On May 19, President Wilson selected Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the Belgian relief commission, as head of a food control board, and later, on August 11, following the passage by congress of a food-control bill, Mr. Hoover was made food administrator.

On August 21, President Wilson issued an order fixing the basic prices for bituminous coal in the producing districts of the country.

On August 23, President Wilson appointed Dr. H. A. Garfield fuel administrator for the United States. On August 30 the United States wheat committee fixed the basic price for the 1917 crop at $2.20 a bushel.

MEXICO AND UNITED STATES

The friction between the United States and Mexico, which had threatened for two years or more to result in open warfare, began to disappear early in 1917 and when the attention of the people of the United States was focused upon more important matters by the entrance of the United States into the world war, the Mexican "crisis" faded from the public view.

Despite the failure of negotiations with the Carranza government President Wilson ordered the withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico and on February 5, General Pershing and his troops marched out of Mexico after having been in that country almost a year.

On March 11, General Carranza was formally elected president of Mexico. From this time on conditions in Mexico became more tranquil and there were evidences that President Carranza was succeeding in restoring order in the republic. It was not until late in the year that Villa again became active.

POLITICS IN FOREIGN LANDS

A spirit of unrest was apparent in many widely separated countries in 1917, leading in some cases to revolution and civil war. The revolution in Russia, resulting in the abdication of Czar Nicholas and the forced abdication of King Constantine of Greece were events closely allied with the war.

Disturbances in China, including an attempt to restore the monarchy, were influenced partly by the war. Conditions in China were unsettled until June 30, when under the influence of monarchists, Yuan Tung, Manchou emperor, announced his resumption of the throne of China.

Civil war in Cuba threatened to disrupt that country during the early months of the year. The rebels were badly defeated in several engagements and on March 7, Gomez, their leader, was captured. The rebellion was stamped out quickly after the capture of Gomez.

Great Britain continued to wrestle with the Irish problem throughout the year. The Irish nationalists, on March 7, demanded immediate home rule and marched out of the house of commons in a body.

On July 25 a convention proposed by Premier Lloyd George and representing all factions in Ireland met for the purpose of drafting a home rule constitution for Ireland.

Some misunderstandings between the United States and Japan over far Eastern matters were cleared away by the signing by diplomatic representatives of the two countries on November 2 of an agreement by which the United States recognizes the fact that Japan has special interests in China because of its proximity but guaranteeing the territorial integrity of China and the maintenance of the open door policy in that country.

Druggist Recommends Fine Kidney Medicine

I know that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a splendid medicine in cases of inflammation of the bladder and inactive kidneys. Have good results from its use in cloudy urine; hence, it must be good in cases of stone in bladder. I am very favorably impressed with the medicine and want to recommend it.

Very truly yours, A. P. COLLINS, Druggist, Oct. 8, 1916. Potteryville, Mich. Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You.

Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Escanaba Daily Mirror. Regular medium and large size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or limbs, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

SIXTEEN BELOW ZERO IS REGISTERED TODAY

Mercury Touched Same Low Spot as Yesterday Morning—Friday Will Be Warmer, is Predicted.

Sixteen below was the official figure of temperature in Escanaba this morning. The mercury at 7 o'clock stood at the same place as yesterday morning at the same hour and there was but little difference in weather conditions otherwise. The day opened clear and in the first hour, from 7 to 8 o'clock, the mercury went up only one degree. However, as the forenoon progressed it became warmer.

Another cold night, although possibly not as cold as last night, is promised for tonight. By tomorrow the temperature will be on the incline, as the storm which passed over Tuesday, leaving zero marks in its wake, is well to the east of this part of the country.

With the rise in temperature predicted, Saturday should be a fairly mild day, according to the weather bureau, and indications are good for a spell of mild weather.

It is seldom that the temperature is recorded the same on two consecutive days, but many strange things have occurred here this winter, and it occasions no surprise.

Some of the below zero temperatures last night, as reported to the weather bureau, are: Alpena, 14; Calgary, 20; Chicago, 4; Duluth, 20; Green Bay, 14; Havre, 32; Houghton, 10; Huron, 22; Marquette, 14; Milwaukee, 8; Montreal, 14; Moorhead, 22; Port Arthur, 20; St. Paul, 16; Sault Ste. High Grade Watches Should Have High Grade Repairing.

The finer and more expensive the watch, the more skillful treatment it should receive at the hands of the repairer.

Anybody almost can understand a dollar watch, but with high priced railroad watches, for instance, it is different.

Which prompts us to print here the fact that our Repair Department is fixed to put into perfect running order any watch, however delicate its mechanism.

Let us also suggest just here that every watch should be brought to our Repair Department at least once a year to be examined and if necessary cleaned. It's economy to do this.

DOMESTIC AFFAIRS

The Danish West Indies, purchased from Denmark for $25,000,000, passed under the jurisdiction of the United States January 27, and were renamed the Virgin Islands.

Serious race riots in East St. Louis, Mo., July 2, resulted in the killing of more than 20 negroes and two white men and a heavy property loss by fire. The riots were followed by prosecutions by state officials and a congressional investigation.

Soldiers of the Twenty-fourth U. S. infantry (colored) started a race riot at Houston, Tex., August 23, resulting in the death of 15 whites and several negroes.

Interest in the general elections on November 6 was centered in New York and Chicago, where Socialist tickets were defeated by large majorities. Judge Hylan, Democratic nominee, was elected mayor of New York over fusion, Republican and Socialist candidates.

In Milwaukee, Wis., November 23, ten policemen and a woman were killed by the explosion of a bomb found in a church and taken to police headquarters. Thirteen negroes, convicted by court martial of participating in the race riots at Houston, Tex., August 23, were hanged at San Antonio, December 11.
