

BRITISH RETIRE SLOWLY; LINES STILL HOLD

TWO LARGE GUNS MAKE PARIS HITS

Twenty-four Shells Reached Paris Saturday and 27 On Sunday; Intervals As Often As Nine Minutes.

TEN MINUTES IN FLIGHT

It Is Estimated Curve Traversed at 120 Miles and That Height Reached Was Fifteen Miles.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Paris, Mar. 25.—The long range bombardment of Paris was resumed at 6:30 o'clock this morning, but was interrupted after every second shot. After a brief interval two more shots were fired. The bombardment again was suspended at 9:10 o'clock.

Paris, Mar. 25.—An American corporal of Marines was seriously wounded in the chest by a splinter of a shell which fell during the Saturday bombardment of Paris.

His life probably was saved by the deflection of the splinter by a cigarette case in his pocket. He is the only known American victim of the bombardment.

The Matin, French newspaper, says one of the shells struck a church in the suburbs. Several persons who were attending the Palm Sunday services were killed.

Twenty-four shells reached Paris on Saturday and 27 yesterday. The intervals between shots were reduced to from 15 to 20 minutes on Saturday to an average of nine minutes yesterday.

On two occasions there was an interval of only one or two minutes. Shells fell at 9:15 and 9:16 o'clock and at 1:45 and 1:47 o'clock. This was accepted as confirming the theory that at least two guns were firing.

The time of the flight of shells was estimated at 10 minutes at the least. The curve traversed at 120 miles, it is further estimated, and the maximum height attained was 15 miles.

Col. MacArthur Is Among Injured, Is Pershing's Report

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Washington, March 25.—General Pershing's casualty list contained but thirteen names today. One died of wounds, three died of disease, three from causes unknown, one man was severely wounded and seven slightly wounded.

Col. Douglas MacArthur, chief of staff of the Rainbow division, was severely wounded.

Col. MacArthur formerly was War Department censor here and recently was decorated for bravery.

MIRROR BULLETINS ALL DAY YESTERDAY

While No Extra Was Issued the Public Were Informed of Condition at Front.

Throughout Sunday The Mirror received bulletins relative to the condition at the front. The first one told of the discovery of the "Monster gun" and of the Sunday bombardment of Paris. The Associated Press sends bulletins of everything of importance and after the Mirror goes to press these are posted in the window of the Western Union Telegraph office and copies given to anyone who wishes them.

WILL NOT EXTEND TIME FOR TAX PAYMENTS

Washington, D. C., March 25.—The impression common in some parts of the country that there would be a further extension of the time within which income tax and excess profits tax returns might be made has been reflected in correspondence of the internal revenue bureau, and Commissioner Roper has found it necessary to remove all expectation of such section by announcing no extension is contemplated.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Compher, 316 South Oak street.

More Men Killed, So Hindenburg Gets Cross of Gold Rays

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Amsterdam, March 25.—Emperor Wilhelm at the German main headquarters on Sunday conferred the iron cross with gold rays on Field Marshal von Hindenburg and the grand cross of iron on General von Ludendorff.

The emperor also gave various decorations to departmental chiefs. Included in the special gifts from the emperor were signed photographs, with the dates of the mighty struggle, March 21 to 23.

Formidable Offense Expected any Moment By Italian Officers

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Washington, March 25.—A formidable Austro-German offensive in Italy as soon as natural conditions permit is forecasted in official dispatches today, which say Austro-German divisions continue to arrive without interruption and are taking positions on the front.

Austro-German artillery is receiving reinforcements, the dispatch says, while new aviation camps and additional ammunition depots are under construction.

Military officers at Rome think the offensive will break into two great actions—on the Franco-British front followed by an Austro-German drive on the Italian front. Germany has sent fresh contingents to the Italian fronts.

TRENCH RAID AT CUSTER ON TODAY

Men Are Getting Experience in Real Work at Big Military Contention.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Camp Custer, Mich., Mar. 25.—Going over the top, bombarding and mopping up, men of Camp Custer staged a trench raid under the supervision of Lieutenant Burton and Allied officers today. Trench mortars and French one-pound guns barked viciously and cleared the trenches for the attack.

Regimental commanders with staff and field officers were interested witnesses. Shortly after the attacking party left their positions and penetrated the enemy lines, moppers-up followed. Laden with grenades, they advanced close on the heels of the first wave and blew up all enemy positions.

Explosion followed explosion and the entire landscape was blotted out by smoke from the mortars, small field pieces and bombs. It was the most realistic presentation of actual warfare conditions yet staged at Camp Custer. Other "battles" will be staged later so that each organization in camp can have the experience.

Work On Ford Garage Will Be Started Soon

J. B. Moran Has Returned From South and Says Building Will Be Completed Soon.

Work will soon be started on the Ford garage and will be rapidly pushed to completion. It was necessary to suspend operations last fall owing to the sudden arrival of cold weather. J. B. Moran, who has spent part of the winter in Florida with Mrs. Moran, arrived home this morning and says he is anxious to get the new building completed in the shortest possible time.

Neither Lenroot Nor Davies to Quit Race

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Milwaukee, March 25.—The proposition of the Wisconsin loyalty legion to have either Davies, Democratic nominee, or Lenroot, Republican, withdraw from the senatorial race was dropped today because the campaign has gone too far.

MISS IRENE BARRAS MUCH BETTER TODAY

Word from Mrs. Barras which was received in the city today says that her daughter, Miss Irene, who was operated upon for appendicitis last week is getting along as well as can be expected. Mrs. Barras will probably remain in Chicago until her daughter is well enough to come home with her.

DEATH ENDS LONG ILLNESS OF WELL KNOWN ESCANABAN

James P. Cleary Died at His Home Late Saturday Afternoon After Long Illness.

HOPEFUL TO THE LAST Made a Brave Fight to the Last Moment and Was Cheerful at All Times.

James P. Cleary died at his home at 522 Campbell street Saturday afternoon, about 4:00 o'clock, after a long illness and brave struggle to overcome the inevitable, for the deceased was afflicted with cancer.

When about a year ago, it was discovered that he was so afflicted everything was done to check and perhaps cure the ravages of the disease. Specialists were consulted at different places, but it was always with the same result that there was little hope for recovery.

Nevertheless, Mr. Cleary continued to hope for the best and while the members of his family knew that the end was near, he never for a moment lost his cheerfulness and would continually say that he was feeling a little better.

Even the intense suffering which accompanied the disease did not cause him to complain and in spite of everything, he would be cheerful and say that he hopes soon to regain his health. His death has put an end to a long period of further suffering, from which there is no relief within the knowledge of mankind.

Last Saturday is the three third death has visited the Cleary family within four months. On December 3 Mrs. Owen Cleary, his mother, died. John J. Cleary, a twin brother of the deceased, passed away on Christmas day.

Was Fifty Years Old.

Mr. Cleary, with his twin brother, John J. Cleary, were born Jan. 30, 1868 at Clarkburg, Mich. He came to Escanaba with his parents when but a babe and had continuously made this city his home since that time. After completing his education in the common schools here, he completed a college course at Terre Haute, Ind.

His first position was as bookkeeper for the Conway Lumber company at Nausinway. Later he came to Escanaba and was employed as bookkeeper for Stack & Cleary. With his brother he later purchased that business which they conducted as a partnership until 1909 when the Cleary Brothers company was incorporated.

Mr. Cleary was secretary and treasurer of the Cleary Brothers company, owner of the Strand theatre and a stock holder in the Escanaba Traction company; the Escanaba Pulp & Paper company; the Escanaba Wood-Fibre company and other local industries.

Prominent in Societies.

He was a member of the Escanaba Elks and of Delta Division No. 1 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

In addition to his wife and two sons, Kenton Cleary and James P. Cleary, Jr., he is survived by one sister and one brother, Miss Mary Cleary and T. A. Cleary.

Funeral services will be conducted over the body at St. Anne's church at 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning. Interment will be in the family lot at St. Joseph's cemetery.

MANY FRIENDS COME TO ATTEND FUNERAL

Funeral of the Late James P. Cleary Will Be Attended By Many People.

When the news of the death of James P. Cleary had become known, the family received scores of telegrams of sympathy and many of the senders stated their intention of being here for the funeral. Among them were: J. W. Doner, Antigo; J. A. Doner, Green Bay; T. J. Kavanaugh, Antigo; J. M. Hartnett, Chicago; M. J. Doyle, Menominee; John Power, Chicago; Thomas Dundon, Ishpeming; James F. Corcoran, Crystal Falls; John D. Mangun, Marquette; James Reilly, Marquette; M. C. Scully, Marquette, and several others who were not sure whether they would be able to attend or not.

Kenneth C. Parton, of 324 South Georgia street, spent the week-end at Kaukauna, Wis., visiting friends and relatives.

RETREAT IS ORDERLY ON WHOLE LINE

Germans Fail to Force "Break Through" As Franco-British Forces Slaughter Onrushing Forces.

GERMANS USE CAVALRY

Enemy Succeeds in Forcing Way Across Somme and the Canal at Ham, But British Counter Attack.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Paris, Mar. 25.—The French on Saturday took over a sector of the battle front, the French war office announced.

British Army Headquarters in France, March 5.—German cavalry in small numbers has been in action but thus far they were used merely to harass the British in effecting a withdrawal.

Early this morning the Germans again hurled a great number of infantry regiments against the British line at Erville, but at the latest reports the enmesh of the troops was unable to force a way through the intense artillery barrage maintained by the British who slaughtered the Germans as they advanced toward the guns.

Heavy battle also proceeded today on the British right flank where the enemy succeeded in forcing its way across the Somme and the canal south of Ham. The Allies were delivering counter attacks with the purpose of pushing back the invaders across the waterway.

British Army Headquarters in France, via Associated Press, March 25.—A further advance yesterday by Germans at some points along the battle front is recorded.

American Engineers again have been in the throes of the conflict in which they have done excellent work in transportation. The presence of the American Engineers on the battle front has been long known. They have been praised for their gallantry in action.

The main thrust on the British right flank Thursday morning was south of St. Quentin. The enemy used a division for every 2,000 yards, approximately one German division against every British battalion. The purpose of this massed attack was to acquire more high ground.

To the extreme right of the British army the enemy crossed the Oise at two places. One body of troops came out of La Fere and another crossed at Mol, turning south to form a junction with the La Fere group. The battle rages continuously in the lowlands of the Oise. Vendul was held by the British until 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Just west of St. Quentin the British were forced to fall back, but clung to several strongholds.

South of St. Quentin strong British redbouts made gallant defense and it was nightfall before the last of them with their machine guns had been relieved.

The end of the first day found the British behind St. Quentin at Canalun. Friday morning the enemy renewed the assaults with increasing vigor and after desperate fighting near La Fere succeeded in getting across the British side.

The Germans are bringing up artillery in the most able manner behind "shock" troops. German preliminary bombardments were terrific and the infantry outnumbered the British eight to one in most cases.

Mrs. E. Berge, of Brampton, spent the week-end with friends here.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ALL FOOD DEALERS.

W. Kennedy, commissioner at large for the Michigan Food commission, wants every grocer, butcher, whether wholesale or retail, to get him at the city hall this evening at 7:30. This will include the bakers as well. This meeting is very important and none of those interested should absent themselves from it.

President Wilson Congratulates Haig

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Washington, Mar. 25.—President Wilson today cabled Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, congratulating him on the British stand against the German offensive and predicting a final allied victory. The president's message said:

"May I not express to you my warranted admiration for the splendid steadfastness and valor with which your troops have withstood the German onslaught and the perfect confidence all Americans feel that you will win a secure final victory."

SUMMARY OF BATTLE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS WAR SUMMARY)

France has thrown the weight of her forces into the great battle on the west front and the British and French armies are now battling together against the onslaught of the common enemy in its desperate attempt to break through.

The British armies are holding fast along the lines of Somme and also north of Bapaume. Field Marshal Haig reported today. The Germans in the latter section reached the British trenches at only one point and there they were immediately ejected.

Assaults elsewhere are piling up a great loss for the enemy. One of the Somme line bodies of German troops which succeeded in breaking their way across the river, were driven back to the easterly bank. On both sides of the Bapaume the German attack was resumed.

Heavy Fighting at Noyon.

The greatest danger point at present appears further south where the Germans have driven through a width of regions they devastated in retreating in 1917. As the Paris war office statement today reports heavy fighting near Noyon, this town itself is some ten miles west of Chauny in the region where Berlin yesterday reported the repulse of Franco-American reserves.

The German advance probably has been checked north of Noyon. The wedge into the allied line is evidently a deep one as the French troops report they are contesting for the heights north of Oise. The Oise at this point runs southwest past Chauny to the south of Noyon.

Persistent attacks and the lavish use of artillery have not enabled the Germans to break through the British defense, and after four days the greatest offensive blow in northern France has not yet been brought to a decision.

British Fight Big Odds.

The fighting program centers near Bapaume and Perrone where the French and British lines join. Field Marshal Haig's withdrawal was executed in a manner described as masterly. Great success attained is credited to small units, sometimes outnumbered eight or nine to one, which held the Germans at periods despite the big odds.

The British made a few counter attacks, but those were successful.

British efforts now are centered on withdrawing and permitting the enemy, at the same time, to wear itself down. The fighting Sunday reached the old battlefield of the Somme from which the Germans retreated a year ago.

Bapaume is the key position between Arras and Albert and Berlin reports that a "gigantic struggle" is being made for its possession. Perrone is being claimed but heavy fighting is taking place around it.

Advance Here Ten Miles.

On the south where the struggle has not halted for many hours the Germans have reached Chauny, an important point of the Oise river, southwest of Oise. Here the advance has not been so great as directly west of St. Quentin where the progress of the Germans is estimated to have been more than ten miles. Success at this point along the Chemin des Dames would menace Compeigne, on the road to Paris. Compeigne is 20 miles southwest of Chauny.

The intensity of the struggle is shown by the announcement that British aviators on Saturday brought down 54 air machines. The British loss was only nine.

At Mannheim, Berlin claims, Franco-American detachments aided the British in the fighting on Saturday, but the identity of the American units has not been learned.

Now Claim 30,000 Prisoners.

Berlin also announces the capture of Ham between Perrone and Chauny, and claims the number of prisoners taken by German forces has been increased to no less than 30,000.

In the region of Noyon and on the right bank of Oise the heavy fighting with the Germans is in progress.

The battle continued with great violence. On the whole front a powerful attack was delivered by the enemy yesterday afternoon and evening at Bapaume, but it was repulsed. At one point the Germans reached the trenches but were immediately thrown out and driven back with great loss.

BULLETIN

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) London, Mar. 25.—Emperor William and Field Marshal von Hindenburg visited Perrone on Sunday evening, according to Berlin advices forwarded from Amsterdam by the Exchange Telegraph. The German losses in the battle of Bapaume were described as "comparatively heavy."

Rome, March 25.—There has been remarkable aerial activity over the lines on the Italian front, the war office announced today. Eight enemy machines were brought down. There has been liberal artillery battering at various places on the Brenna.

Berlin, March 25.—The Germans now stand north of the Somme in the middle of the former Somme battlefield, says today's official statement. Bapaume was captured in night fighting.

In the evening Neuse was taken by storm, the statement adds. British and American and French forces were driven back through pathless wooded sections. More than 45,000 prisoners and 600 guns have been captured, the statement says.

Guisbard and Chauny were captured in the evening.

Violent fighting developed for the possession of Comblies and the heights west of the town. The enemy was defeated, the statement says.

Bapaume is on the northern part of the battle front where the British line for the most part has held. It is one of the larger towns on the fighting front from which a number of roads radiate. Official statements of Sunday night said a gigantic struggle was in progress for the possession of the town.

London, March 25.—The British counter attack between Neuse and Ham, a Reuter correspondent at the British army headquarters reports. The French also were in action.

North of Bapaume, he stated, the Germans were attacking in considerable force at dawn but did not remove the British barrage. The Germans, the correspondent says, are relying on sheer weight of numbers in their attacks, relieving their tired troops by fresh divisions which are pressing forward without avail.

The enemy all day yesterday and through the moonlight last night kept up his hammering of British positions, but the British resisted stubbornly. The Germans employed small bodies of Uhlans, mainly as scouting patrols, it is added.

London, Mar. 25.—Fresh attacks by the Germans have developed to the northward and southward of Bapaume, the war office announces. The British repulsed powerful attacks yesterday afternoon northward of Bapaume. They drove back to the eastern bank of the Somme bodies of German troops which had crossed the river between Licourt and Brie, south of Perrone.

London, Mar. 25.—The inhabitants of Cairo, Egypt, were informed officially last Thursday that a hostile airship had been observed over the coast. The inhabitants were warned of a probable air raid.

Washington, Mar. 25.—Failure of military rulers to hold the German people has caused the rulers to resort to the desperate battle test to maintain their supremacy, says the War Department weekly military review in commenting on the great German assault on the west front.

TEACH GERMAN IN SCHOOLS IS URGED BY COMMISSIONER

P. P. Claxton Says We Are Not at War With German Language or German Literature.

ONLY GERMAN GOVERNMENT

It Is Believed That He Echoes the Views of President Wilson in This Matter.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, Mar. 25.—"The United States is not at war with the German language and literature," P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, declared Tuesday in the first official pronouncement of the federal government on an issue that has wracked university regencies and boards of education in all parts of the country.
Dr. Claxton, replying to an inquiry from Dr. Robert L. Slagle, president of the University of South Dakota, declares that he does not agree "with those who would eliminate German from the high schools and colleges of the United States at this time. He strongly intimates that he has consulted President Wilson and is expressing the views of the president and his cabinet.

No Hymn of Hate.
Associates of the president declare the commissioner echoes a sentiment which the president has frequently voiced when he says in his letter: "For our own sake and for the sake of the future of the world, let us hope that we may finish this task for the establishment of freedom and the safety of democracy without learning to chant any hymn of hate."
Dr. Claxton says: "It is, of course, desirable now and always is that nothing should be taught in any language in our schools or elsewhere that would tend to create a spirit of disloyalty to our country or to the American ideals of freedom and democracy. But the fact that we are now at war with Germany should not, I believe, affect in any way our policies in regard to the teaching of the German language in our schools.

Wars On Germany.
"The United States is at war with the imperial government of Germany and not with the German language or literature. The president has tried to make it plain that we are not at war with the people of Germany as a people—that we have in our hearts no hatred or bitterness toward them. After the war is over, intercourse with the German people will be re-established, probably not immediately and fully, but our relations with them will no doubt be more important as the years go by. Germany may even yet become one of the leading nations for the preservation of the peace of the world.

"The culture value of the German language and literature and the writings of Lessing, Goethe, Schiller and a host of other poets and of novelists, historians and essayists, remain the same as they were before the war, and it is too great for us to lose out of our life, national and individual. The value of the scientific and technical writings of the German people will no doubt continue to increase.
"Last of all, we cannot as a people afford to put ourselves in the attitude of regarding as evil everything about any people with whom we may happen to be at war."

IMPOSSIBLE TO SEND TOO MANY DRESSINGS

No Matter How Hard Red Cross Works to Supply Them There Will Not Be Oversupply.

Startling as it may seem, it is true that French surgeons at times were forced to operate upon wounded soldiers without the use of anaesthetics or surgical dressings.

This information was given by Mrs. Benjamin G. Lathrop, director of the Paris depot of the American Fund for French Wounded, in answer to a question as to whether her organization and the Red Cross were not being oversupplied with hospital materials.
"It is impossible for American women to oversupply the Red Cross with surgical dressings when there are 4,000 military hospitals in France which need our help and in addition the civilian relief stations, and the new American army hospitals."

"When the Germans invaded France in 1914 they occupied, and still hold, the main manufacturing districts of the country. With most of their factories lost the French had to turn to the United States for hospital supplies. The enormous number of wounded exceeded their facilities and it is true that some operations were performed without anaesthetics or surgical dressings.
"Rubber goods especially were scarce. Gloves made of French rubber split as soon as the surgeons tried them on. Hot water bottles broke at the first filling. In time we got enough rubber goods from the United States to improve the situation, but there is still acute need for all that possibly can be sent over there."

Detroit Will Spend Million To Be Clean
Detroit, March 25.—The city of Detroit is going to spend more than a million dollars keeping itself clean during the next fiscal year.
Street superintendent John Knight has estimated street cleaning alone will cost that much.
The city is now employing 500 men, 684 double teams and four single teams, besides the sixty "white wings" in this work.

ALL HELP TO WIN WAR

When a man of small income uses some part of it to subscribe to the Liberty loan, his contribution to the national power is immediate. He uses less wheat and meat, and there is more for our army and our allies. He postpones the purchase of clothing, and there is more wool to keep our soldiers from freezing in the trenches. He manages on less fuel, and there is more coal for the munitions works and ocean transports, says New Republic. When a rich man invests of his income in the loan the result is less direct. He refrains from buying paintings and statuary; he builds less lavishly. All this releases few products for use in war. But the purchasing power he places at the government's disposition represents an additional demand for labor in the production of war goods. By virtue of this added purchasing power the government can induce more men to work, some men to work longer, others to work harder. Rich and poor alike must serve the loans, if the government is to have at its command the goods and service required to win the war.

High faith and indomitable courage, in the last analysis, will always be the final arbiter in the struggle of a superior against an inferior civilization, says Scientific American. The magnitude of the German preparations is the exact measure of their military failure. They should have won. Had the conditions been reversed; had the allies—France, Great Britain, Russia—conceived against Germany a similar foul conspiracy of conquest and subjugation, and had Germany been caught as unprepared as they, it is our firm believe that the allies would have succeeded where the Hun failed, and that within the year the allied standards would have been borne through the central arch of the Brandenburg Tor and down the Unter den Linden.

Superstition is still a very powerful element in this world's affairs and a way has been found to influence the Mohammedans with regard to the British occupation of Jerusalem. It seems that there is an old prophecy that the liberator of Jerusalem would enter it on foot and represent Allah and God, says Milwaukee Wisconsin. General Allenby entered Jerusalem on foot and his name with a little manipulation can be made to represent Allah and Nebb, the Arabic for God. It is supposed that this will have a great influence upon the Arabs and the Mohammedans generally.

It is said that a revolution among the German masses is impossible, owing to their lifelong training in servility to autocracy and the iron discipline of militarism. But hunger and cold are great arguments for any cause, however seemingly hopeless.

When you find a good many things out of whack at the same time, and prices high and things scarce, you may know that the fad of depending upon others to do what one ought to do for himself is causing lots of inconvenience.

Since mother has taken to knitting for soldiers the titular head of the house says that many of his socks celebrate feetless day.

JAPS TO USE SEAWEED AS COTTON SUBSTITUTE

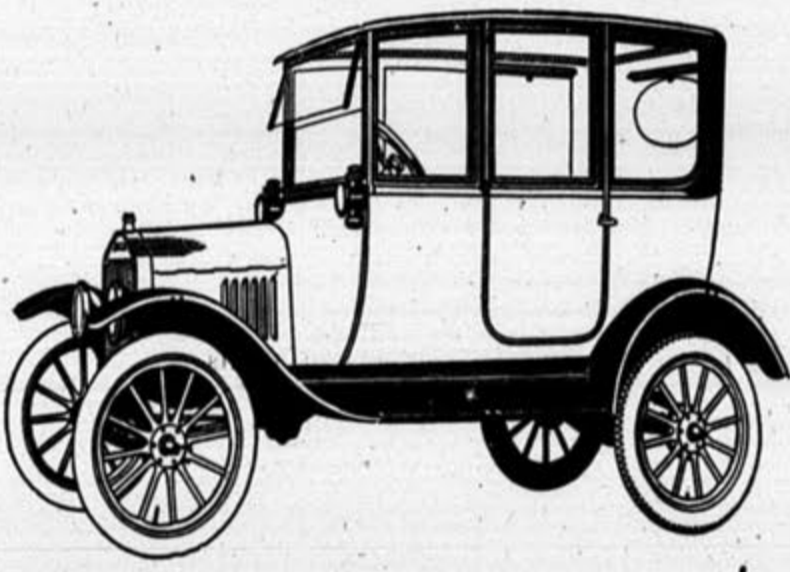

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Tokio, March 25.—The discovery of a practical substitute for cotton was announced today at the annual meeting of the Federation of Marine Industries. The announcement was made by K. Hamada, vice president of the Lower House of Parliament who said that the discovery was made in December in the Tokio Fibre Laboratory in the course of experiments on seaweeds.

The variety of seaweed is known as sugamo or gomo guma. It abounds in Japanese waters and hitherto has been used as a fertilizer. The method of extracting the fibre is simply to boil the weeds in lye and then in water mixed with rice bran after which the released fibre is bleached. The whole process is so simple as to be easily possible for fishermen and farmers living near the sea.

Mr. Hamada claims that the fibre in every respect is better than cotton.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

FANTASTIC TALES IN SWEDISH NEWS

Pro-German Newspapers in Sweden Publish Things to Hurt Allies Position.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Stockholm, March 25.—The pro-German newspapers in Sweden are printing fantastic stories regarding conditions in America. This propaganda is designed obviously to awaken hostility toward the Entente Powers and the United States and to offset the effects unfavorable to Germany caused by the sinking of Swedish ships and by the Luxburg affair.

The Nya Dagligt Allehanda prints an alleged interview with a Swede lately returned from America. According to this unidentified voyager American soldiers are committing suicide by the hundreds through fear of submarines; American provision shops are being plundered and the proprietors lynched by the masses; Swedes are faring hard in America, due to the Luxburg disclosures; the homes of 59,000 Germans in New York are being watched by the police and the inhabitants searched in the streets every time they leave their houses, and American newspapers "not owned by British capital" have disclosed that "the American Embassy in Budapest had been hoarding bombs."

WOMAN'S CLUB ELECTION HELD ON WEDNESDAY

The Woman's club will hold election of officers Wednesday afternoon at the city hall. Other matters of importance will come before the meeting and a large attendance is desired. Mrs. W. J. Kennedy, first vice president, will preside in the absence of Mrs. Barras. The meeting will open at three o'clock.

Red Cross Notes

Announcements of Meetings of the Various Classes Working for the Red Cross and Other Notes of Interest.

By Mrs. I. G. English. The Wednesday Auction club has presented the Red Cross with a complete layette for a French or Belgian baby. Many other layettes are in process of making and will be donated by individuals and clubs. This is the most appealing work to women and many are eager to do their bit in this way.

The evening classes at the Red Cross rooms will be held as usual this week. The only changes that have been made in the surgical dressings classes are the shorter hours, and even this is only temporary. The shortage of gauze at the Central Division Supply Station will be relieved very soon and the work of making the dressings will proceed as before, with an added impetus, owing to the period of rest that has been enjoyed by the workers.

The work of collecting clothing for refugees will be extended for a few more days to give everyone an opportunity to give to this most worthy cause. When it is realized that for three years these unfortunate people have had nothing new, the condition of their clothing becomes apparent. All sorts of serviceable clothing is welcome, and shoes that are not badly worn are especially so. The fact that half-soles cost $7.00 the pair in Belgium, makes the sending of shoes in need of this form of repair, useless.

The Red Cross has been awarded the following named women who have completed 32, 72 and 128 hours' service:

THE THEATRES

AT THE DELFT.

It is a well known fact that directors are reckless creatures when it comes to realism. Nothing is too realistic for these gentlemen who send automobiles hurtling over cliffs and beautiful girls leaping from trains with the greatest sang froid.

But the latest "atrocity"—according to winsome Vivian Martin at least, was when her Paramount director, Frank Reicher, suggested her removing a part of her beautiful curly mass of hair in order to better take the part of a newboy in "The Trouble Buster," her latest picture, which is to be shown at the Delft theatre to-night and Tuesday.

"It will make it grow, you know," began Mr. Reicher, tentatively—but by that time Miss Martin was safe in the seclusion of her own dressing room whence she declared she would not emerge until she had Mr. Reicher's affidavit to the effect that she could keep every single blond curl.

Wednesday and Thursday

On Wednesday and Thursday the Delft theatre will present Mme. Petrova's first picture produced by the star's own company. Its title is "Daughter of Destiny," and the story recounts the heartaches and triumphs of a beautiful American girl who unknowingly becomes involved in a maze of international intrigue.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION EXPENSE

FREAK EXEMPTIONS FURNISH HUMOR IN "LONE STAR" STATE

A List of the Claims Made by Some of the Men Would Make a Very Funny Story.

BIG FEET ARE REJECTED

Two Negroes Are Rejected Because the Government Could Not Afford to Buy Shoes.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Dallas, Tex., March 25.—While some exemption boards have been weighing the claims of objectors to military services who had revived long forgotten dependents, at least two Texans will not serve because they have received honorable discharges because the army decided it would put too great a strain on the United States Government to keep them in shoes.

The recruits recently were discharged from Camp Travis at San Antonio because of the high price of leather. Both were negroes from the Texas bottoms and both were valiant in their wishes to "get" the German Emperor. If either could have stepped on him, it would have ended the war. Each would have worn shoes number 15 if the army could have supplied them. It estimated that shoes would have to be made to order for them at a cost of $20 a pair and so they were sent back to the farms.

Some of the exemption claims have been freakish. In Dallas, a fearful claimant pictured the suffering of his grandmother if the support were removed. An investigation proved she had been dead twenty years, and in the opinion of the board members, it was the first time the objector had thought of it. He was arrested and is still in jail.

Only a few Texans now ask exemption on conscientious grounds. Training camp customs are becoming familiar to persons in all parts of the state and the "conscientious objector" knows he is sure of a safe, if not savory, job with the kitchen police.

A Dallas negro, suspicious of the virtue of written claims, took his evidence with him. When called before the board, he herded in seven children and his wife, and professed a perfect willingness to serve in the army if the board would promise to take care of his family. He was granted exemption.

Another Dallas man asked the board members to read a packet of love letters in order to convince them of the acute suffering his wife would undergo if he left her to serve with the colors. The board was visibly affected and was weakening rapidly when an investigator brought in word that the man had married after the first call and that the letters had been made to order by a dutiful and obedient wife.

Miss Lillian Hoyler Is Hit By Automobile

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hoyler Met With Accident in Chicago Last Week.

Last Thursday, while Miss Lillian Hoyler, who is attending the National Kindergarten college in Chicago, was crossing the street to board a street car, she was struck by an approaching automobile. The force of the car threw her to the pavement and she was badly cut about the face. She was taken to a hospital and it was necessary to take several stitches over her left eye and upon her chin. Outside of the cuts and bruises, there were no other injuries and it is reported she returned to her studies this morning.

Frederick Engdahl Falls From "Bike"

Hand Was Cut and Face Scratched But Otherwise He Was Not Hurt By Fall.

Last Saturday afternoon while riding on his bicycle, Frederick Engdahl took a bad fall from his bicycle while trying to dodge an automobile. His hand was cut and one side of his face scratched. Mr. Engdahl, who is about 75 years of age, said this afternoon that he would have been badly hurt if he had been an old man.

Osborn and Warner Out For Smith Toga

Two Former Governors Will Try Titles for Senatorial Honors This Fall.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Mar. 25.—Two former governors, both Republicans, will wrestle for William Alden Smith's discarded toga in this spring's senatorial campaign.

Former Gov. Chase S. Osborn, Sault Ste. Marie, has formally announced his candidacy. Fred M. Warner, Farmington, has made no formal announcement, but is said to have decided definitely to enter the race. It is reported he will officially toss his hat in after the third Liberty Loan campaign.

In 1910 Warner opposed Osborn's candidacy for governorship. Osborn had supported Warner warmly in the 1908 campaign, and is said to have been greatly disappointed when in 1910, Warner picked his lieutenant-governor Patrick H. Kelley for the place.

"GAS SHORTAGE" TALK IS HARMFUL

Local Merchants Regret Pessimistic Utterances of Habitual Alarmists.

Business men seriously interested in the government's efforts to preserve public confidence and stimulate a more general feeling of optimism, have no sympathy for "gasoline shortage" alarmists.

"In the first place," said one loyal merchant, "those who persist in giving the public the impression that there is a shortage, or that one is imminent, are stimulating pessimism. Nothing pleases our enemies more than to hear of 'shortages.' Nothing is so disconcerting to the public."

"In the second place, there is no gasoline shortage. Furthermore, there is no immediate prospect of one. Although the price has risen slightly, as everything else has risen, the government has not yet considered it necessary to place a limitation on its use. The government realizes that the gasoline used in the operation of motor cars, for example, is almost entirely for the cause of greater personal efficiency."

An official of Dodge Brothers, Detroit motor car manufacturers, recently expressed a similar sentiment.

"The automobile owners all over the country, I believe, are responding to the spirit of conservation," he said.

"They are taking more and more of their purchases home from the stores, thus relieving the retail delivery services of thousands of huge burden each month."

"They are using their motor cars to go to and from their business, and to make business calls of every character. Salesmen and others travel from town to town in their motor cars, many of them using automobiles regularly over stated routes."

"Thus the passenger automobile is playing its part in conserving the nation's resources. It is releasing men for other duties. It is taking some of the burden from the railroads, the interurban trolley systems and city street railways. Trolley companies in several cities have taken numerous cars out of the service, and there is no doubt that the growing use of the motor car is at least partially responsible. Every trolley car that is taken out of the operation means less power consumed, and that in turn means less coal burned."

"The passenger automobile is a national economy, as well as being a utility of the first order. The gasoline it consumes is more than compensated for in the labor, the time and the coal it actually saves."

GERMAN MILITARY CONGESTION.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

New York, March 25.—There was great congestion on the railroads in Germany the latter part of January, according to a Wolff Bureau dispatch dated Koblenz, January 28, published in German newspapers received here. The dispatch said it was due to unfavorable weather conditions and the partial suspension of navigation.

A STAGGERING COMPLIMENT!

"You read the Bible," declared Billy Sunday in a Chicago sermon, "that you must be redeemed. You pass it by, you doubt it, you don't believe it; at least you don't act as if you did. 'Yet, you read a dispatch in your daily newspaper; it's marked 'By The Associated Press' and you take it for Gospel truth, for you know it's so, and have no doubts whatever. 'Why can't you place the same credence in the word of God?'"

Old Prescription For Weak Kidneys

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that so many people claim, it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the Escanaba Daily Mirror. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

"Camouflage" Butter Is A Waste Of Time Says G. A. Prescott

Mixing Butter With Milk to Double Quantity Is Only Fooling Yourself He Says.

Lansing, March 25.—Commercial devices for mixing milk with butter to make the latter go farther is camouflage and should be regarded with caution and used only with the full knowledge that the sale of the resulting product as butter is unlawful," says Food Administrator George A. Prescott.

"To make a high-class butter having satisfactory keeping qualities," a dairy specialist of the Food Administration points out, "good buttermakers remove the buttermilk by thorough washing. If the housewife mixes milk of any kind with butter, except of course for cooking or immediate use, she is simply undoing what the skilled buttermaker has taken pains to accomplish. Such a product soon becomes sour in warm weather and wastes the butter it contains."

Where the housewife wishes to "extend" butter by incorporating milk, cream or other liquids with it, waste may be prevented by mixing just enough for a day's requirements, and for such quantities a rotary egg beater or even a spoon is sufficient equipment.

Any mixing process is of course purely mechanical, adding nothing to the food value of the ingredients and because of the excess moisture contained in the merged product, it is officially known as adulterated butter. It may be lawfully used in private families, but heavy penalties are attached to its sale when offered as "butter."

The results of butter merging are largely psychological. To the eye the process appears to have converted milk into butter. But war-time economy suggests that the milk and butter be consumed separately in the usual manner, allowing the digestive system to do its merging in the natural way.

THE PATH OF THE HUN

By Clinton Scollard of The Vigilante. Only a ravaged garth Where the grass runs wild, And an old bent woman there With a little child.

Only a shattered tower Bereft of its bells, Where, with its sealed lips, Gray silence dwells.

Only the creeping wind And the shrouded sun; Only the pale gloom;—this Was the path of Hun!

WHEAT FOR DUCK BAIT

30,000 Pounds of it Owned by Wealthy Men Seized.

Thirty thousand pounds of wheat belonging to "wealthy men of Portland, Seattle and other places" has been seized by agents of the federal food administration, according to announcement made by W. K. Newell, acting food administrator, for Oregon.

The wheat was found in storehouses on game preserves along the Columbia river, and was being used to bait wild ducks. No one would give the names of the owners.

Sportsmen were requested by the food administration before the opening of the wild duck season not to use wheat as food for ducks.
