Improve Positions Along Line and in Mountains and Add to Capture of Many Prisoners.

PEACE MOVE IS MADE

Vienna Issues Statement That Italian Losses Were 150,000, Including 50,000 Prisoners.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Washington, June 26.—Now that the Piave line is again intact, the Italians on the mountain fronts have begun operations to improve their positions there. On the northwest slope of Monte Grappa between the Brenta and the Piave the Italians have gained considerable ground and have taken more than 1,300 prisoners. The Italian gain on Monte Grappa is most important as the mountain range is the key to the terrain between the Brenta and the Piave and dominates the hills which lead south to the Venetian plains. On these heights the Austrians met failure in their attempts ten days ago to reach the plains from the north. In recapturing the west bank of the Piave the Italians added 1,600 prisoners to the already large number taken from the enemy.

VIENNA CLAIMS CAPTURE.

Vienna officially places the Italian losses at 150,000, including 50,000 prisoners. It admits retreats across the Piave from Montello to the Adriatic but says the Italians did not press the retreating Austrians very closely. In the efforts on the mountain front, it adds, the Italians were completely repulsed. Apparently Germany has given up hope to reach a decision on the field of battle if the speech of Dr. von Kuehlman is to be taken as an indication. He is said to have declared that peace must come from negotiation and said that the arrival of overseas forces on the front made this necessary.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE.

"The patriotic traveling salesmen of Michigan constitute the secret service of the Food Administration," said George A. Prescott, Federal Food Administrator for Michigan, today "I have just had a letter from a man who travels out of Kalamazoo telling of a serious abuse of the sugar regulations. As a result any hotel that encourages sugar consumption may find itself without a sugar supply, unless the practice is stopped.
 "The report that came to me from a salesman, was of the waste due to carelessness or downright treason. This office appreciates the valuable service that has been rendered by the patriotic traveling men. It has been a source of no little encouragement, and the means of detecting many violations of the regulations that might otherwise have gone undetected."

SHEEP NOW FROLIC IN GREEN PASTURES

Big Shipment That Passed Through Here Yesterday Is Turned Loose On Grazing Land at Alfred.

Forty-five carloads or 12,000 sheep, are now grazing on the fertile pastures of southern Marquette and northeastern Dickinson counties. This is the first great influx of sheep as a result of the "More Sheep, More Wool" campaign which the Upper Peninsula Development bureau has been conducting during the last six months. The big shipment passed through Escanaba yesterday.

J. L. Grey, of Buhl, Idaho, is the owner of these sheep, the vanguard of what is expected to be a mighty shipment from the west to Cloverland. The sheep came through from Idaho in excellent shape and attracted great attention all along the way.

In addition to the 45 carloads of sheep there was one carload of camping outfits like those used in the west for herding purposes and one carload of horses used by the herders in real western "Cowboy style." Ten expert sheep herders came in with the animals.

All day yesterday the sheep were unloaded at Alfred and immediately there was a rush for grass and clover. The sheep paid no attention to the crowd of curious folk who watched the unloading operations or to the great change in geographical positions. They were interested only in the green food before them.

"Some grass," was the expression of one tall and lanky "Cowboy." "Some grass. What a feast for the famished. Believe me, Jake, these sheep are facing the greatest banquet they ever dreamed of."

Eight thousand of the 12,000 will be kept in Cloverland this winter and many of them will be sold to farmers and other grazers. The others will be shipped to the Chicago market.

"Cloverland looked good to me on my first trip here several weeks ago," said Mr. Grey. "But it looks much better now after I have been west and compared it with the dried-up pastures there. You have a great country, greater than you dream of. We western fellows will be here in force. Just watch our smoke."

SALVATION ARMY PICNIC JULY 3
 Society Invites Kiddies of City to Assemble at Hall and Join Party to Romp in Park.

The Salvation Army Corps of Escanaba is planning its annual picnic and general big time for the children of the city, July 3. The program was planned by Captain and Mrs. Olofson, officers in charge of the local work here, and will consist of games, a picnic dinner, and refreshments with ice cream.

Captain Olofson states that plans are being made to accommodate at least 200 children, and a general invitation is extended to every poor child in the city, regardless of color, faith or nationality, to meet at the Salvation Army hall, 1212 Ludington street, at 9:30 a. m. July 3, to go to the picnic grounds. The picnic will be held at Ludington park.

FLAG OF HUNGARY WILL NOT FLY IN DETROIT PARADE

Delegation Requests City Officials to Grant Permission to Carry National Emblem On July 4.

Detroit, June 25.—The flag of Hungary will not float over the marchers in the Fourth of July parade to be held in Detroit this year.

This, in spite of the efforts of representatives of the Hungarian colony of this city to have the emblem of the House of Hapsburg represented among the flags of the allies.

A delegation of Hungarians approached city officials with the plan. They said they desired to have the flag of the Hungarian monarchy in the parade as befitting the nation which gave them birth.

There was an instantaneous uproar from the officials. They did not know whether they were angry at the suggestion itself more than at the impertinence that prompted it. Whatever the cause, they were angry, and showed it.

The Hungarian delegation became uneasy and, seeking to make the request easier to grant, suggested that the Hungarian flag be flown side by side with the Stars and Stripes.

The anger of the city officials, which up to that time had been held within polite bounds, now became unmistakable. No words were wasted. Their faces clearly showed what their answer would be.

The Hungarian delegation withdrew.

FIGHT TO FINISH WRITES CHAPLAIN

Detroit Man Now in France Writes Home That Each German Put Out of Fight Is Step Forward.

Detroit, June 25.—The cold realization that it is a fight to the finish, with intelligence and endurance destined to win, occupies the mind to the exclusion of all else, writes Chaplain William A. Atkinson, of this city, in a letter to his wife from his place in France with the Thirty-second division. The division is made up almost entirely of former Michigan and Wisconsin national guardsmen, and when it left Camp MacArthur, Texas, for service overseas, Chaplain Atkinson went with it.

Many interesting side lights of life—and death—in Mars' playground, are recited by the chaplain.

"It is fight, fight, fight—that is all," he writes. "And it is fight the German. We are concrete here in our fight—not fighting abstractions. We kill Germans here—not militarism. Before they get us we are going to get as many individual Germans as we can. We are not out to 'get' Kaiser Bill and his special gang. To us here in the sight of blood and wounded each German is a member of Kaiser Bill's special gang."

"No one in the United States can convince a soldier here that anyone will love the Germans after he has seen the atrocious methods of cruelty practiced by the Germans. Over here we love the Germans so much that I can't find anyone who is going to take any chances with any of them—nor have we any desire to be taken prisoner."

Chaplain Atkinson concludes with the statement that the opinion is widespread that a "new order of things," not only in politics and economics, but in religion as well, must be the result of the war.

Lansing, Mich., June 25.—When the Republicans of Michigan meet in state convention, sometime in the latter part of September, 1,437 delegates will be entitled to seats. This store does not carry any garments into the next season.

We hold these Clearance Sales a full month before most stores do, so that women who buy now get the best choice and can get a full season's service out of the garments they select.

The variety being much larger now, affords choosing from the better grades.

The price of every Spring and Summer Garment in our stock will be reduced so low as to compel its sale for this

Clearance

The reduced price will be shown on a special price tag. Garments will be removed from the stock cases and displayed in the aisles to facilitate the work and make selection as easy as is possible.

Garments can not be sent on approval, nor can they be charged.

Any alterations or fittings will be deferred until after the sale.

We advise out-of-town customers to attend this sale in person, as it will be impractical to fill mail orders during the four sale days.

Sale opens on Thursday, June 27th, and ends Saturday, June 29th.

Hundreds of Suits, Coats, Dresses, Summer Furs, Separate Skirts, Blouses, Kimonos, Petticoats, Muslin Underwear, Corsets, Millinery, Waists, Frocks, Sweater Coats, Sleeveless Coatees, etc., etc., will all be marked so low in price as to compel their immediate sale. Reductions range 20, 30, 40 per cent and in some cases 50 per cent from original prices. Profits are for these three days forgotten, and even the cost to manufacture is disregarded. It is the sale which comes only once each season, and includes every garment up to the best grades. There is nothing reserved.

NOTICE !!

All our odds and ends we have taken across the street, at 1011 Ludington Street, and will conduct a sale there which begins July 1st. Everything will be closed out regardless of price. Don't miss this great opportunity to buy high-grade materials practically at your own price.

AT THE STRAND.

Glady Drockwell has few equals among photoplayers as a portrayer of emotional roles and in "The Devil's Wheel," the William Fox photodrama which will be shown at the Strand theatre tonight she appears at her best. As the beautiful young French noblewoman whose force of circumstances places among the wild denizens of the Paris underworld, her acting thrills. As a sharer of her father in a successful system for winning at roulette the young French girl is spirited away to an Apache den in the Mont Marte. During the struggle which takes place at the time of her abduction, she is struck on the head with a resulting loss of memory. She forgets all her past, becomes a leader among the criminals, through her ability to win at gambling, and falls in love with the head of the gangsters.

Money Is Man !

Money is man and will be so for a good while to come. To gain money man will go through no end of danger, hardships, hard work and slight of the hand work. There's no money like the money honestly earned and there is no bread like the bread we worked for ourselves on such fundamental principles respecting all comers is built.
