PROTEST ON CHINO DEAL COVERED UP?

Borah Asks Letter of Conferees Be Made Public.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, July 10.—Under a resolution introduced today by Senator Borah, President Wilson would be asked to send to the senate a copy of a letter declared to have been written by General Tasker H. Bliss, Secretary Lansing and Henry White, protesting against the decision of the peace conference regarding Shantung.

The resolution, which went to the foreign relations committee without debate, also would ask for information as to any attempt on the part of the Japanese delegates to the conference to "intimidate" the Chinese delegates.

Hold Troops, Warns.

Washington, July 10.—President Wilson conferring with newspaper correspondents at the White House indicated that he was extremely gratified that the treaty of peace had been ratified so promptly by the German national assembly.

President Wilson also indicated he felt trade relations between Germany and the associated nations should be resumed at the earliest possible moment, for without trade Germany could not meet the reparations demanded of her.

It was made clear the president felt troops should be maintained in Germany until the Germans had complied with all of the military terms of the treaty. It was pointed out there were several million veteran soldiers in Germany and munitions sufficient for them to operate.

FRANCIS? NAW! CHARLEY? YES; HERE'S LATEST

Francis X. Bushman says he can't get a job because of his matrimonial troubles. And Escanaba doesn't claim him as a former resident.

Mrs. Charly Chaplin, she's "some" big star in the movie game, and the wife of a million-dollar star. Escanaba claims her as a former resident.

Charlie Chaplin, Jr., was born a few days ago at Los Angeles. Now, just what claim is Escanaba going to hang over the head of the latest comedian to enter this world?

Two Thirds Of Vote to Ratify Treaty--Wilson

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, July 10.—President Wilson is understood to take the position that a two third majority will be required to adopt any senate reservations in ratifying the peace treaty. The impression of opposition leaders in the senate has been that only a simple majority would be required.

Start Canvass to Sell Ball Tickets

With the decision to play all games at home excepting the one scheduled for July 20, the Escanaba ball club committee in charge of arrangements for the big dance party to be held July 21 at the Coliseum today started a canvass of the city to sell tickets for the dance, in order to establish a fund to be available for bringing other clubs to Escanaba.

Fred Olmsted and Richard Flath will cover the business district of the city and inasmuch as no donations have been asked business men this season and no such plan is contemplated, it is believed the sale of tickets will be generally good.

Practically every Sunday has been booked by Manager Sharp, he announced today, so that Escanaba fans are assured of some good baseball for the balance of the summer. Tedeschi, who had a trial with the White Sox, will hurl for Iron Mountain when the Iron Rangers oppose the Escanaba team next Sunday. It should be one of the best games of the season.

The best feature of this season's club here is the fact that all are home boys and no large salaries are paid out to make a deficit in the funds.

FIRST STEP TAKEN FOR MILL HERE

Conditions Favorable For New Industry in This City.

Pending estimates on the cost of erecting a plant here and the expenditure to be incurred in securing adequate machinery to start operation, nothing further will be done regarding the proposed erection of a woolen mill here. This decision was reached at a conference of a Commercial club committee this afternoon.

Pleased With Town.

"I'm very much pleased with your city and I have been treated royally during my visit here. From every standpoint the outlook for the success of a new business here is excellent," declared R. M. Weichert, Luck, Wis., with whom the Commercial club committee is dealing to procure a woolen mill for this city.

Mr. Weichert visited a number of sites in Escanaba during the day in company with L. M. Beggs, B. J. MacKillican and T. J. Riley, committee in charge of making arrangements to get the woolen mill as an added industry of Escanaba.

It will be a matter of 30 days before any definite action is taken, declared Mr. Riley. Until all estimates are submitted and reviewed there will be little more done. The actual cost of erecting a wool mill here, together with the cost of installing machinery, will be known when figures are obtained.

From all indications, Mr. Weichert is more than pleased with the situation and all now hinges on the proper support to be given out by Mr. Weichert or any of the committee members, however.

R-34 Continues to Make Progress for Flight Over Ocean

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, July 10.—The British dirigible R-34 had covered 630 miles 12 hours after she left Roosevelt field on the return trip to England at 11:56 o'clock last night, according to a message received at the navy department late today. Major Scott reported that the R-34 was "making for London and that all was well."

New York, July 10.—The British dirigible ship R-34 is well on her way home after a stay in America of 86 hours following the first nonstop trans-Atlantic flight of a lighter than air ship. Taking the air at 11:56 o'clock last night at Roosevelt field, Mineola, L. I., the big dirigible passed over New York last night, remaining in sight of dense Broadway crowds for five minutes before heading south over lower Manhattan and disappearing in an easterly direction at 1:16 a. m.

For more than an hour the naval communications office sent wireless reports of weather conditions at sea to the R-34 and the wireless stations at the Mineola flying field were in communication with her until 4 a. m., when the R-34 radio operator requested that further weather reports be sent from the Bar Harbor, Maine, station.

FIRST TRUCK WILL LEAVE CITY EARLY MORNING AUGUST 1

Schedule for Freight Service It Outlined at Meeting of Company Here.

Subject to revision, the first schedule for the Upper Peninsula Motor Transit company was drawn up at a meeting of officers and directors of the concern held last night. With two trucks already purchased, the company expects to be able to start the truck service throughout Menominee and Delta county on August 1 as first planned.

Greeted With Approval.

The plan is being greeted with approval through the county and especially is the enthusiasm at Garden strong, declared one man who returned from Garden last night. As soon as the roads are in good condition, Garden will be furnished with transportation facilities that will be even better than the old railroad service afforded the east end of the county.

Although it is the first venture of its kind in the peninsula, it has proved a big success wherever tried out and officers of the company are not concerned regarding difficulties that will have to be overcome. In addition to freight service, it is also planned to haul passengers as soon as the company becomes established in its routine work, said one of the officers.

Schedule is Outlined.

The schedule drawn up at the meeting last night follows:
Leave Escanaba 7 a. m., Gladstone 8, Rapid River 9, Esnign 9:30, returning at once and arriving in Escanaba at 12 o'clock noon.

Leave Escanaba 1 p. m., Ford River Switch 1:30, Bark River 2, Harris 2:15, Nadeau 2:45, Spalding 3, Powers 3:30, Nadeau 4:30, Carney 4:45, Bagley 5, Talbot 5:15, Daggett 5:30, Stephenson 6, Ingalls 6:30, Wallace 7, Birch Creek 7:30, Menominee 8 p. m.

The return trip will be made according to the following schedule: Leave Menominee 12 noon, Birch Creek 12:30, Wallace 1, Ingalls, 1:30, Stephenson 2:00, Daggett 2:30, Talbot 2:45, Bagley 3:00, Carney 3:30, Nadeau 3:45, Powers 4:45, Spalding 5:15, Wilson 5:30, Harris 5:45, Bark River 6:00, Ford River Switch 6:30, arrive at Escanaba 7:00 p. m.

PRESIDENT IN APPEAL TO SENATE

Indispensable for New Order Set Up in World.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Washington, July 10.—President Wilson in presenting the peace treaty with Germany to the senate today declared that "a league of free nations had become a practical institution" to which the framers of the treaty felt obliged to turn "as an indispensable instrumentality for the maintenance of the new order it has been their purpose to set up in the world."

The "most skeptical" of the peace conferees, the president said, had turned more and more to the league as the discussion progressed in seeking solution of the problems that arose in framing the terms of the treaty itself.

"First Substantive Part."

"The fact that the government of the league was the first substantive part of the treaty to be worked out and agreed upon," the president said, "while all else was in solution, helped to make the formulation of the rest easier."

Mr. Wilson said the agreement on the covenant had given the conferees a feeling that their work was to be made permanent and that the most practical among them "were at last the most ready to refer to the league of nations, the superintendence of all interests of which did not admit of immediate determination of all administrative problems which were to require continued oversight."

"What had seemed a council of perfection," said the president, "had come to seem a plain council of necessity. The league of nations was the most practical hope of success in many of the most difficult things to be attempted."

Cheering Greeted Wilson.

When the president entered the senate chamber escorted by a committee of senators, the crowds in the galleries rose and cheered for a minute in disregard of the senate rules. The president, mounting to the vice president's seat, spoke briefly with Vice President Marshall as the cheering continued, punctuated with "rebel" yells.

This morning the parents received another wire, this one from the Salvation army. And it was sent paid, not collect. Madalia will go from Camp Merritt to Camp Custer to be discharged.

MICHIGAN SHERIFF OUT OF JOB; LONG LITIGATION AT END

Monroe County Official Ousted Following Charges He Sold Confiscated Booze.

Lansing, Mich., July 10.—With Governor Sleeper ordering the removal from office of Sheriff Bairley, Monroe county, at long standing case was brought to an end. A general denial of charges preferred against him by officers of the food and drug department, who charged Sheriff Joseph J. Bairley before Governor Albert E. Sleeper with malfeasance of office was made by council for the accused.

Sold Confiscated Booze?

It was alleged by the state authorities that the Monroe officer sold confiscated whiskey, which was purchased from him by an operative for the department, it was claimed; that he did not give zealous aid to the state authorities in enforcing the prohibition act; that he did not properly guard confiscated liquor entrusted to his care and that he permitted at least one prisoner to escape.

C. A. Braconier, an inspector for the department, testified before Governor Sleeper that on March 29 he bought from Sheriff Bairley 50 quarts of whiskey, paid him $50 on the county and that a member of the department's force later borrowed from Bairley the money exchanged, which was in marked bills. The sheriff, it was also testified, helped Braconier to "safely get the liquor to Detroit," where the purchaser turned it over to the department.

Often Drank Together.

Braconier also testified that Bairley and he often drank together, the sheriff furnishing the liquor. He denied an intimation that in testifying against Bairley he was merely "trying to get even."

It was also alleged that a woman prisoner turned over to Sheriff Bairley by the state officers "disappeared" and that there was no record of her entry to the Monroe county jail or her discharge.

Mrs. Harry Broad Dies Early Today; Funeral Saturday

Illness extending over a period of six months was brought to an end at 5 o'clock this morning when Mrs. Harry Broad, 1216 Third street, peacefully passed away. A complication of disease hastened death.

Born in Chicago 45 years ago and married to Mr. Broad during the world's fair in Chicago, 1893, she came to this city to make her home twenty-six years ago, living here ever since that time. During her residence here Mrs. Broad gained the esteem of many Escanaba people and was generally recognized as a woman of a beautiful character. She was an ardent worker in the Christian Science church, being a charter member of the Escanaba institution. With her husband, Mrs. Broad lived to see Escanaba grow from an old fashioned little town to the present prosperous city.

In addition to the husband and one son, Robert A. Broad, who is home from Principia Military school at St. Louis to spend the summer months, she is survived by one sister, one brother and mother, Mrs. Robert Hastie, who for the past several years has made her home with the Broad family. The sister, Mrs. Homer Glasgow, of Clarinda, Tex., has been here for the past three months and was at the bedside of Mrs. Broad when death occurred. William Hastie, brother, who resides in Chicago, was notified this morning and probably will reach here soon.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home, with only relatives and close friends in attendance, at the request of the family.

TO DISCUSS PARIS PACT LATER DATE

Intimates Refusal to Ratify Would Cut the French.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Washington, July 10.—President Wilson plans to submit to the senate today only the treaty containing the covenant of the league of nations. The proposed supplementary treaty under which the United States would agree to go to the aid of France in case of an unprovoked assault on that country by Germany will be presented separately at a later date. Mr. Wilson is preparing a separate address to the senate explaining this agreement.

The Germans have from one to four months in which to deliver all material except that sufficient for the reduced army provided for in the peace treaty, and the president believes American troops should stay on the Rhine until the material is delivered.

League in All Treaties.

Discussing the peace negotiations at Paris, President Wilson let it be known that the league of nations covenant will be in every treaty negotiated with Versailles, including that with Bulgaria, with which country the United States never was at war.

In response to questions regarding the Fiume situation the president pointed out that the treaty of London provided that Fiume was to go to Croatia and that Italy did not lay claim to the city when the treaty was signed. The president made it clear that demobilization of the American army would depend upon the speed with which the military conditions of the peace treaty were executed by Germany and the treaty was ratified by the various governments.

Mr. Wilson feels that the United States must play a generous part in the reconstruction of Europe, but he believes this should be accomplished by establishing some sound basis of credit, rather than by direct government.

Present Pacts Separately.

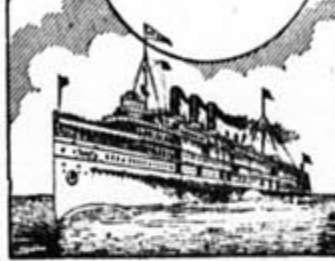

Mr. Wilson's purpose to present the peace treaty and the agreement with France separately was disclosed today at a conference with press representatives. It was intimated that his time thus far had been devoted entirely to preparing his address on the treaty with Germany and that opportunity had been lacking to complete a similar explanation of the proposed pact with France.

Mr. Wilson let it be known to correspondents that the treaty with France was designed for the protection of France until such time as this special guarantee would no longer be needed because of the protection to be afforded all nations by the league of nations. Mr. Wilson has the impression that the French people would be cut to the heart if the United States would fail to approve the special treaty. He does not believe there would be any difficulty recognizing such an act of aggression by Germany as would necessitate American aid to France under the pact.

Salvation Army to Open Old Saloons?

The Salvation Army, which has spent for years in the saloon districts of the country, does not expect to find its field narrowed to any great extent. On the contrary, a number of old saloon buildings in the state may be utilized to take the place of the saloon.
Plans for the Salvation Army here are so far unannounced, but it has been intimated that a number of buildings will be taken over here.
In some cities rest rooms, meeting halls, general offices in one large building and gymnasiums, employment bureaus and boarding houses are established in other buildings.

MATERIAL BENEFITS IN TRIBUNE'S MIND BY URGING BATTLE?

Tiffany Blake, Chief Editorial Writer of Tribune, Tells What He Knows.

Mount Clemens, Mich. July 10.—Tiffany Blake, chief editorial writer of the Chicago Tribune, on his third day of testimony in the Tribune defense explained the Tribune's regret at the expulsion of Count von Bernstorff from the country by saying he believed the count was working in the interests of peace for the United States. The Tribune had highly praised the count's "services" to this country.

Under cross-examination by Ford counsel, Mr. Blake testified that the Tribune had consistently argued for war with Mexico while it discouraged and opposed war with Germany. "In spite of the president's warning and ultimatum, the Tribune continued to declare that the submarine issue was not an adequate cause for war. We did not believe it was a sufficient ground for war."

"You were taking the German position, were you not?"

"We were not."

"You were taking the position that Germany wanted this country to take, were you not?"

"We were taking the American position."

"Admitting for the present that you may have believed your position was best for the United States, it was the position Germany hoped we would take, was it not?"

"I don't know."

"But we did eventually go to war with Germany on that very issue, didn't we?"

"No. When we went to war the president broadened the whole question by telling us the war was to make the world safe for democracy."

"Well, even on this broader ground, did the Tribune ever argue for war with Germany?"

"No, we did not."

"When the president ordered the guard to the Mexican border it looked as if the Tribune had won the desire it expressed in the editorial, 'We ought to take Mexico, didn't it?'"

"Yes, for a time it did."

"And when you found that Henry Ford still stood in your way you chose the worst term at your command to stigmatize him," said counsel.

"What did the Tribune mean by the expression, 'Fate holds a ripe apple to our lips in Mexico, and bitter fruit in Flanders.'"

"Did you have in mind the material benefits which would accrue to the United States?"

"Well, we don't live in the clouds, and—"

"I am not asking you to discuss or defend the expression, just interpret it. Did you have material benefits in mind?"

"Certainly. We are not hypocrites."

"We meant we would get wealth out of attacking Mexico?"

"Yes."

"Now your editorial goes on: 'If we win in Germany, what do we win?'"

"Yes, what do we win?" interjected the witness.

"Blessed if we know."

"Continued the editorial: 'And blessed if we do know.' called out the witness. 'We don't know even today.'"

"Then maybe you want to go back to your old position against war with Germany—"

"Is that what you mean?" asked counsel.

"We were against making war on the submarine issue alone."

"Did you know that the saying about embroidering the term murderer across the soldiers' breasts was not Henry Ford's but originated with Jane Addams?"

"I didn't know it then, and I don't believe it now," said the witness.

"Well, the interviewer who gave currency to that expression has so testified," said Ford counsel.

"Miss Addams is opposed to war, too, isn't she?"

"Very much opposed to war." The Tribune has nothing against people who are opposed to war.

"We are opposed to war ourselves."

"Oh, that's what every militarist says. The kaiser said that, too, didn't he?"

"Did you know that Mr. Ford was the first person in the United States to offer himself, all his factories and possessions and all his skill to assist the government in the event of war—"

"Did you know that?"

"I did not know that."

A National business magazine tells the story of success in the business of an American woman. She began with a capital of $65, and now is worth hundreds of thousands.
Nearly every American-made doll wears hair manufactured in this business woman's shop or by machines she invented.
Truly it is a remarkably story of a remarkably successful woman. We admired the way she climbed to business success until we came to this paragraph.

"So she summoned some of her former women employes who had married. Many of them found it necessary to earn extra money. Children and new work keep them at home during the day; but they eagerly responded to a chance to work at night from six until eleven."

And then this business woman's success didn't look like success to us. It is hard to call it success when one thinks of the mothers who have to leave their homes, their babies, after a hard day's housework, to work from six to eleven in a factory. It may be profitable for the business woman. It is unprofitable for the mothers and babies.

We read on:
"Most of these women workers speaking of the mothers who toil in the factory from six to eleven are of foreign birth—chiefly Finnish, Bohemian and Slavic."
Now then, let us ask ourselves this question.

Has this practice of working foreign mothers in America from six to eleven at night anything to do with the readiness of the foreign element in this country to arise in revolt at the behest of the agitator?

The Milwaukee Sentinel throws a scare into many readers by publication of an article headed "Shoes are going up." Among other things a representative of a shoe house is quoted as saying, he declares "within the last 50 days prices on high grade shoes have jumped $2 to $3 wholesale and consequently next fall retailers will be obliged to sell them as high as $22 and $24 a pair. No real good foot of class will be had at less than $12 to $15. In the past ten days alone shoes have advanced $1 a pair, due to the extreme scarcity of certain leathers."

But there seems to be no great scarcity of animals sacrificed for leather.

Congress has been passing appropriation and other bills that failed in the filibuster last March, and some of these were signed by the President in the high seas. But even though the session is several weeks old there are some matters of legislation of first importance that were all ready to "close up" when the filibuster was started that were not emerged from the legislative hopper thus far. No wonder Noah Webster put "filibuster" in the freebooter class.

Escanaba's councilmen showed they were "on the job" when they extended an invitation for the American League post of this city to meet at the city hall any time it desires to hold meetings. Escanaba's post of the American Legion is going to be a strong body in the near future, but right now it needs a helping hand to get started.

Brampton and other places of Delta county once in a while boast of some pretty strong biting mosquitoes, but none is as bad as one place in England where a young woman was bitten on the nose and died four days later. Evidently London mosquitoes carry the sting of death.

Withdrawal of Mex Troops Opens Way For Train Wrecks

Laredo, Tex., July 10.—Withdrawal of troops from bandit-infested regions in central and southern Mexico to campaign against Villa in the north has led to a new wave of train wrecking and railway destruction in that republic, according to stories printed by Mexico City papers received in this city.

The most striking feat of the rebels was the capture of a train from Mexico City to Puebla at a point only a few miles from the latter city by the forces of the former federal general, Cirilo Arenas, who revolted about a year ago. One hundred of the several hundred passengers were seized as hostages, among them an American, Charles Chapman. They were driven for hours on foot over rocky trails to the headquarters of the rebel chief-tain. Later they were released without being held for ransom and made their way safely to Puebla. The bandits' loot is estimated at 100,000 pesos.

This followed close on the heels of the capture of six well known residents of Mexico City at a picnic resort known as the Desert of the Lions, not more than a dozen miles from the capital. The captors, former followers of Zapata, sent the women of the party back to Mexico City for a ransom of 2,400 pesos and released their captives when the money was delivered.

More than 100 followers of Pedro Gabay are reported to have been killed when federal forces recaptured the town of Chocomaen, state of Vera Cruz.

The Excelsior tells of the murder by bandits of the millionaire, Enrique Langenschein, son of the German consul at Guaranajuato. Langenschein met death at the hands of rebels fleeing from Michoacan into Jalisco, who caught him on his ranch near Lake Chapala.

With but few exceptions retail stores of this city were closed this afternoon to permit employes to enjoy a half holiday. HAD TO SEE HUSBAND Woman Who Was Refused a Ship Passage Stowed Away.

"I just had to see my husband, and so I stowed away," was the explanation of Mrs. Mary Joy, stowaway wife of a machinist working at the Union Iron works in San Francisco, to Purser George F. Roberts of the Matson Navigation company's liner Lurline, which arrived there after a 7 1/2-day trip from Honolulu.

"I went to the Pacific Mail company office in Honolulu, and they told me they were booked solid for a year, and the Matson office told me they were booked six months ahead, so I just left," she declared.

Six hours out she was found under a bed by Roberts. At first she thought that the ship's officers were going to make her work her way or put her in irons, but she offered Roberts $80, the price of the passage, which he accepted, and led her to a cabin which happened to be vacant.

Her husband, Al B. Joy, a former machinist in the navy from whom she has been absent one month, met her when the vessel docked at pier 82.

Man Weighs 744 Pounds.

David McGuire, seventy-four years old, of Silver Lake, Wis., has the reputation of being the world's largest man. He weighs 744 pounds and stands six feet seven inches in height. It is not very often that he stands or walks, however, as the giant has too much weight for his limbs to bear with comfort.

Recently a specially fitted wagon drawn by a single horse broke down under his weight. Five farm hands strained their muscles to assist the giant back in the wagon.

Agents for circuses have made many efforts to secure the services of the fat man. But he has turned down their fabulous salaries, preferring to live quietly on his big farm.

Japan Is Having Labor Troubles

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Tokyo, July 10.—Labor troubles are taking place in Japan. At a gold mine in Shizuoka prefecture, 100 miners went on strike recently and armed with pickaxes and shovels, radded the residences of the mine officials and destroyed or damaged the buildings and furniture. The local police force suppressed the rioters. The cause of the trouble is dissatisfaction over wages.

Over 1,000 women and girls employed in a big silk factory at Uyeda have gone on strike for higher wages. Similar occurrences are reported from various parts of the empire. One cause of the unrest is the scaring of rice, which is now higher than last summer when the country was involved in serious rice disturbances.

OUR BIG TWIN DOLLAR DAYS

Friday and Saturday

Another Dollar Doubling Demonstration

Everybody remembers our last Dollar Day Sale as the great bargains that were offered that day could not help but make an everlasting impression. The buying public quickly realized the importance of this sale, the news spread like wildfire around town, consequently our store was crowded as never before from early in the morning until night.

It is our constant endeavor to outdo our previous efforts from year to year and to do this offer bigger and better attractions than ever before.

Our page and a half of Dollar Bargains demonstrate more forceably than ever before, that when offering real bargains no store in the country can outdo the Fair Savings Bank.

Beating All Former Records

This is exactly what we are doing in this sale, therefore, we are not questioning the success of this two-day big event. It's up to you to be here early and get your share, as in some cases the quantities are limited. If you can, come Friday, as many of the smaller lots will be exhausted in a hurry, although quantities are very generous in every lot advertised.

Get One of Our Big Price Lists. Ask for One Entering the Store.

Two days instead of one. At the suggestion of customers living in the rural communities and in neighboring towns, we are making this event not only an Escanaba day, we are extending its scope, making it an all Cloverland and in particular Delta County event, giving all readers of Escanaba and Gladstone newspapers an equal chance to attend.

Come Either Friday or Saturday. Plenty of Dollar Bargains for All
