GARDEN BAY RAIL SALE CONFIRMED

Judge Overrules Any Objections Made by Ewald.

Refusing to sustain the objections of Charles F. Ewald to the sale of the Garden Bay railway property, which was placed in the hands of a receiver recently, Circuit Judge Richard C. Flannigan this morning confirmed the sale.

Judge Flannigan held a special session of court at the courthouse this morning to dispose of several matters which have been pending since the recent court session which came to a close a week ago.

Sold at Public Sale.
The Garden Bay railway property was sold at a public sale at the courthouse several weeks ago under the direction of William Bonifas, receiver. In overruling the objections of Mr. Ewald to the sale of the property, Judge Flannigan pointed out that Mr. Ewald failed to show where he had been injured by the sale, inasmuch as it was apparent that the public sale brought as much for the property as would have been obtained at a private sale.

Attorney Carey appeared for Mr. Bonifas and Attorney Joseph F. Cuddy for the Garden Bay railway.

At the time of the sale the stockholders of the railway were given until July 16 to enter objections, but inasmuch as all arrangements for confirmation or disapproval of the sale had not been concluded during the session of court last week, the matter was left pending until the return of Judge Flannigan today.

Kahrunen Is Not Sentenced.
August Kahrunen, Marquette county man who pleaded guilty to the charge of importing liquor into Delta county, failed to put in appearance. Consequently, plans to pronounce sentence were deferred and the sentence was postponed until the next term of court.

It was explained that Kahrunen, in ignorance of the law, believed a cash bond of $500 he had given to the county clerk was sufficient and that he left here immediately after pleading guilty. The cashier of the Marquette bank where Kahrunen procured the bond, notified Prosecutor Strom that he was unable to locate the man but that he would be notified as soon as possible.

Kahrunen conducts a boarding house in Marquette county, the exact location of which could not be learned.

Decree Divides Land.
In a decree given today Judge Flannigan divides the land contested for in the suit of Louis LaBranche against M. Perron. The suit was based on a land contract. Mr. LaBranche resides at LaBranche, Mich. Attorneys John O'Hara and George Barstow were here from Menominee today to finish the case, the case having been started in Menominee county.

CIRCUS LIFE IS TOO STRENUOUS, TELLS LAD WHO QUIT HERE

A telegram from Livingston, Mont., to the sheriff of Menominee county cut short the life of Dallas Allen, 14, with the Al G. Barnes circus. And the boy was happy to think it did.

A boyhood dream of adventure, the attraction of the dazzling lights and the Babylonian glamour of the far fetched animals and men of the big top had a strong attraction for the boy, son of G. W. Allen. A month ago the Barnes circus visited in Miles, Mont. When it pulled out, young Allen with it as a member of the working crew.

Homesick But Brave.
He stuck with the company for a month in spite of homesickness and the shattering of his dreams by the hard work which soon took off some of the allurements of the arena. Upon arriving in Menominee Sunday his longing for home overcame his determination to stick it out at all costs. A telegram was dispatched by him to his father asking him to aid him in returning to his home.

The telegram was immediately answered by the boy's father who requested Sheriff Duquaine to take care of his until he was able to send the money to Menominee for the boy's transportation back home. The boy was taken to the county jail of Menominee where he was given food and lodging until the money has arrived for his keeping and transportation. The funds are expected to arrive in the city soon after which Dallas will no doubt be glad to return to his home.

Asked if he thought the circus life was a hard one, the youthful follower replied that it was.

Plenty to Eat.
"The men get good treatment and we get lots of eats," he said, but the work soon becomes monotonous. "I'll be tickled to death to get back home," he yelled.

RACE RIOTS CONTINUED; ONE KILLED

Sporadic Firing Kept Up Until Early Hours.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Washington, July 23.—Sporadic firing in some Negro districts continued until early this morning but the major casualties in last night's clashes between whites and Negroes consisted of only one white man killed and another probably fatally wounded. Both were members of the defense guard and were shot by a Negro.

An all night rain and the presence of 2,000 heavily armed soldiers, sailors and marines doing duty with 700 police and several hundred home defense guards acted as a deterrent to mob violence.

The closing of pool rooms, moving picture houses and other places where crowds of Negroes might gather helped in keeping order.

Revised figures for the period of disorder showed five dead and at least 60 killed last night and went into drydock for repairs. After being thoroughly overhauled, the sub will leave for Marquette, Manistique and Escanaba.

The submarine UC-97 was one of the 161 B-boats Germany surrendered to the allies after the signing of the armistice last November. She is inferior to the G type of submarine, discarded by the United States some time ago.

The craft is 191 feet long, 18 feet 10 inches beam and draws 12 feet 3 inches of water. At present it is capable of making 10 knots. When it was in condition it was capable of making 7½ knots an hour submerged. While in the Soo, however, the U-boat will only run above water the deteriorated condition of the craft not permitting submerging.

Beside its gun, which has a range of 10,000 yards, the boat has three torpedo tubes. She is equipped with six mine tubes with a capacity of 18 mines.

She began a tour of the lakes this spring in company with the chasers. Almost all ports of consequence on the lower lakes except Lake Michigan, have been touched. The boat has been at Alpena, where she was laid up for several days. From there it stopped at Cheboygan and Mackinac Island.

America to Sign Bulgarian Treaty

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

"Y" BUILDING IN ESCANABA MEETING WITH MUCH FAVOR

Many Business Men Appear to Be Enthusiastic Over Plans for Structure.

That there is a strong sentiment here in favor of a Y. M. C. A. building is the report of A. I. Pecker, member of the Michigan state force of field workers of the Young Men's Christian Association. He is here to revive interests in the plans made several years ago to erect a "Y" building in this city.

Mr. Pecker, representative of the Y. M. C. A., has visited a number of prominent business men who are strongly in favor of the project.

Whether enough interest can be aroused to put on a campaign here in the interest of the "Y" has not been ascertained thus far.

It was pointed out that not only would the building add to the beauty of the city, as present plans call for a modern structure in every respect, but it would be invaluable in many other respects.

It is likely that Mr. Pecker and the upper peninsula representatives of the "Y" will remain here for several days in order to establish whether or not it is advisable to carry out the plans. Announcement probably will be made soon.

Ben Madalia Here From Army Service

After a year of service in the American army, Ben Madalia, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Madalia, arrived here this morning. He was discharged at Camp Grant, Ill., 24 hours after his arrival there from Camp Merritt, having landed in New York July 8.

Madalia went over to France with a tank corps, first landing at Liverpool from where his unit was sent to a training area. For a period he was in a rest camp and later with a large number of tank corps men was transferred to a motor transit organization, which delayed his return to this country several months.

Madalia was at Bordeaux for about three and one half months. He likes the service but, like all other soldiers is glad to get back to the United States.

10 SHOT IN MEETING OF SOCIALISTS

Berlin Politicians in Big Riot Hurl Chairs and Bottles.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Berlin, July 23.—Ten persons were shot during disorders late yesterday which attended the breaking up of several Majority Socialist meetings by communists and spartacists who had been smuggled into the building by fellow radicals.

In the trades union building where the biggest of the Majority Socialist meetings were held, chairs, beer bottles, glasses and even tables were flung about in a successful attempt to break up the gathering. The communist agitator responsible for the uproar jumped on the stage which Erich Kuttler, editor of the Vorwaerter, was speaking, and made a counter speech.

The hall instantly was transformed into a bedlam which increased as the opponents began to throw glasses and seized chairs with which to belabor each other. Suddenly shots were fired. Some ten persons were wounded, including Kuttler.

The audience tried to lynch the shooter, who was saved by hospital helpers. Government troops had to quell the riots in other halls.

50-Ton Machine to Be Installed For Paper Mill Here

One fifty-ton news print paper making machine will be installed in the building of the Escanaba Paper company now under construction. It was announced at the meeting of directors held here yesterday. It was estimated that the building will be under cover within 60 days. Work is progressing with rapidity and no delay has been occasioned by lack of material.

Other plans of the company were discussed yesterday and given approval at the meeting here. Several matters are now pending and will come up for decision at a later date.

Directors who attended the meeting here yesterday include George H. Mead, John G. Southland, R. G. Corwin, Howard S. Taylor and W. N. Hurlbut, Dayton, O., and E. J. B. Schurbing, Madison, Wis.

Rumanians Are Offered Terms By Bolshewiki

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
London, July 23.—A bolshewik delegation has arrived at Kishineff with an offer of peace to the commander of the Rumanian Dincer troops on behalf of Nikolai Lenine, bolshewik premier, according to a Berlin government wireless dispatch.

Lenine offers to cede Bessarabia to Rumania on condition that Rumania shall prohibit Ukrainian citizens and bands of Admiral Koltchak, head of the all Russian government at Omsk, from crossing the Rumanian frontier.

An armistice the last eight days has been concluded on the Bessarabian front.

SKUNKS MUST NOT BREED IN CITY, DECREE

Residents of Escanaba must not breed skunks within the city limits. So decreed Dr. W. A. Cotton, city health officer, after a visit to the Parker Crose home on Birch street following complaints filed by several residents who live in the vicinity of the Crose home.

According to the parties complaining, Crose had about a dozen skunks and was breeding more with a view to selling their skins. One woman living near the Crose home declared she had to close her window at night because of the obnoxious odor from the skunks.

The city health officer spared no time in getting to the Crose home this morning after the complaints were received at the city hall and Crose assured him that the skunks would be disposed of within 24 hours time. Crose declared, however, that the skunks gave out obnoxious odor except several nights ago when, in his absence from the home, boys in the vicinity poked sticks at them and errored the animals.

Reward Offered As Result Car Theft, Subsequent Damage

A reward of $50 was offered jointly today by S. M. Johnson and O. E. Anderson for the arrest and conviction of the parties who stole the Johnson automobile, a Buick, from the vicinity of the Fair grounds yesterday afternoon and deserted it after they met with an accident near the Kingsley farm at Danforth.

The automobile was badly as a result of the accident. Unable to make the turn apparently, youths drove it into a ditch and ran into a stump before it came to a halt. The engine was moved from its base otherwise damaged, and both front lights were smashed. It is estimated an expenditure of several hundred dollars will be required to competely repair the machine.

Another reward of $10 was offered by Mr. Johnson for the arrest and conviction of the person who stole a raincoat and chain jack from the automobile.

Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Anderson are convinced that Escanaba youths were responsible for the theft and subsequent damages to the car. Police officials this morning were inclined to believe outsiders attempted to steal the car and take it to another city. However, some developments were expected to be forthcoming. A thorough investigation by the police authorities was in progress this afternoon.

PAGE WON'T APPROVE OF PEACE PACT

Another Republican of Senate Tells His Objection.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Washington, July 23.—Senator Page, Republican, Vermont, frankly outlined his objections to the peace treaty to President Wilson at the White House today and told the president he would not approve it.

Washington, July 23.—Conferences with Republican senators on the peace treaty and league of nations covenant were continued today by President Wilson. Senators on the visiting list included Newberry, Michigan.

Condition Is Improved.
Mr. Wilson's condition continued to improve today and it was expected that within a few days he will have entirely recovered from the effects of an attack of intestinal trouble.

Inquiry at the White House today concerning public reports that the Shantung provision of the peace treaty was President Wilson's personal solution of the affair, brought the statement that no comments would be made.

Senators who have discussed the Shantung situation with the president said they have not been given to understand that the president proposed the provision as a solution of the problem, but that he had been unable to convert Japanese delegates to any other view.

The senators said they had been told Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau represented to the president that they were bound by agreements of their governments with Japan and that if the Japanese were to be converted to any other solution the president himself would have to undertake the attempt. It was futile, the senators said they were told.

Folks, You Gotta Pay Laundry Man A Better Price

Declaring that increased cost of material and increased wages have forced him to make the change, Manager E. A. Grabowski, of the Escanaba Steam laundry, yesterday announced an increase of 15 per cent for laundry work to be done at the institution here will be necessary. The increase takes effect immediately.

Mr. Grabowski says he is justified in asking the increase as the cost of material and labor has advanced all the way from 100 to 1,000 per cent, but a 10 per cent increase having been effective since war conditions made it extremely difficult for many concerns to conduct their business on a pre-war basis.

In further explanation Mr. Grabowski declares that Escanaba's laundry prices are still below those charged in other upper peninsula cities, including Marquette. As compared with a total increase of 25 per cent here, Milwaukee is getting 45 per cent.

BLAME AMERICANS FOR CEDING WEST PRUSSIA TO POLES

Boersen Zeitung Says It Was Due to Mistaken Facts in Books by Yankees.

Berlin, June 30.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.—The Boersen Zeitung asserts that West Prussia was ceded to Poland by the Peace Conference because of "a mistaken and incorrect scientific book published in 1917 by the American Geographical Society containing an article entitled 'the boundaries of language and nationality,' by Leon Dominatitan. The German newspaper avers that President Wilson was influenced by the "innocently false information of this article" which, it says, declared that Dantzig was ten percent Polish and that the present Polish corridor and neighboring East Prussian was purely Polish.

The Boersen Zeitung declares that, on the contrary, Dantzig is less than five percent Polish. The newspaper disputes the Polish character of the corridor. It declares that it is certain that the article referred to was used in fixing the boundaries.

No. Sign, Tourist Is Lost in the City

Because Escanaba has failed to provide signs along the road leading into Escanaba, one tourist spent considerable time today trying to find the proper street to take to get to the heart of the city. Tourists numbering an average of ten a day are coming into the city.

Doctor Tells How to Detect Harmful Effects of Tobacco

Try These SIMPLE TESTS

New York: Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital, says. Many men who smoke, chew or sniff incessantly and who are seemingly healthy are suffering from progressive organic ailments. Thousands of them would never have been afflicted had it not been for the use of tobacco, and thousands would soon be well if they would only stop the use of tobacco. The chief habit forming principle of tobacco is nicotine, a deadly poison which, when absorbed by the system slowly affects the nerves, membranes, tissues and vital organs of the body. The harmful effect of tobacco varies and depends on circumstances. One will be afflicted with general debility, others with catarrh of the throat, indigestion, constipation, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, lack of will power, mental confusion, etc. Others may suffer from heart disease, bronchial trouble, hardening of the arteries, tuberculosis, blindness or even cancer or the common affliction known as tobacco heart. If you use tobacco in any form you can easily detect the harmful effects by making the following simple tests. Read slowly one full page from a book. If, in the course of reading your voice becomes muffled, hoarse and indistinct, and you must frequently clear your throat, the chances are that your throat is affected by catarrh and it may be the beginning of more serious trouble. Next, in the morning before taking your usual smoke, walk up three flights of stairs at a regular pace, then stop. If you find that you are out of breath, your heart beat is forced, trembling or irregular, you may be a victim of functional or organic heart trouble. If you feel that you must smoke, chew or sniff to quiet your nerves, you are a slave to the tobacco habit, and are positively poisoning yourself with the deadly drug, nicotine. In either case you have just two alternatives—keep on with the self-poisoning process irrespective of the dangers and suffer the consequences, or give up the habit and escape the dangers. You can overcome the craving and stop the habit in a very short time by using the following inexpensive formula. Go to any drug store and ask for Nicotol tablets, take one tablet after each meal, and in a comparatively short time you will have no desire for tobacco, the craving will have left you. With the nicotine poison out of your system your general health will quickly improve.

Note.—When asked about Nicotol tablets, one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful remedy for the tobacco habit; away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to every dissatisfied customer, and we would not permit the use of our name unless the remedy possessed unusual merit." Nicotol tablets are sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all up-to-date druggists, including the Hill Drug Store and the Mead Drug Co.

CHOCOLATE FROM 'S' 'AMERICA PROVES' 'CURE FOR BLIND'

Proper Nourishment Is Only Cure of Strange Malady; Yank Food Does It.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
New York, N. Y., July 23.—How American Chocolate is proving a sure cure for blindness in the case of hundreds of children in Poland is the story brought back by Jacob Billikopf, who just returned to America after a stay of several months in that country, where he went to investigate the conditions for the American Jewish Relief Committee.

In the territory where the Polish armies are fighting the Bolsheviks, and in the various large cities of Poland, there are today thousands of children who cannot see at all in the sunlight, Mr. Billikopf says. All day long, and until twilight comes to relieve them, they are afflicted by a constant twitching of the eyelids.

Called "Hen Sickness."
Their disease, which broke out during the period of the German occupation, was named huenkerkrankheit, or "hen-sickness," by the German doctors. It was induced by starvation, resulting when malnutrition had lasted so long that it not only affected the bones of the children, but prevented the development of the muscles of the eyes, it is said.

The disease becomes total blindness in aggravated cases. Its only cure is proper nourishment. But it takes a long time to overcome huenkerkrankheit, because of the terrible condition in which the children of Poland are today.

Anything more pitiable than the sight of a group of little children unable to see, and not understanding their pain, cannot be imagined, Mr. Billikopf says. In Vilna, his own birthplace, he visited one of the institutions where American aid had already come, through the American Jewish Relief Committee. The children were in the courtyard, behind the hospital. They were not running about and playing, as normal children do, but lying still on mats on the ground. There was no talking and laughing among them. They were the only altogether silent group of children that he had ever seen Mr. Billikopf says.

As he entered, with the doctor in charge of the institution, the children turned their eyes upon the two. Then it was noticeable that they were entirely unable to control the action of their eyelids. Some of them were able to keep their eyes open for only a few seconds at a time. Other, already partly cured, were in a less serious condition.

American chocolate, because of its nutritive properties, is the best prescription for the disease, according to the physician in charge of these children, a Polish Jew. The arrival of food from the United States had checked the disease, he told Mr. Billikopf. A total cure can be effected in most cases, if America continues to send help to the children. At present, the number of candidates for the chocolate treatment is far in excess of the chocolate on hand.

Another tragic sight, Mr. Billikopf says, was that of hundreds of child-beggars, who crept like infants through the streets of Warsaw, Vilna, and other large cities, because they had not the strength to stand upright.

THEIR "LIFE" BELTS LOADED WITH BOOZE

Bulky Figures of Two Young Women Aroused Suspicion of Policeman.

Their unusual appearance, which indicated that they had grown wonderfully in avoidpols since they left the city the day before, attracted the attention of Patrolman McIntosh of the city police department to two young women of Charleston, W. Va., as they stepped from a passenger train at the local station. The policeman was suspicious that the two women had a lot of liquor in their possession, and he sent them to police headquarters for investigation.

Chief Charnock ordered that the women be searched at the Central station, and they were found to have a total of 17 1/2 pints of liquor on their persons. The women had life belts of bed ticking, with pockets, each large enough to hold a pint bottle. The belts were strapped around the waists, with bands running over the shoulders.

The women were held under bonds of $500 each for their appearance before the grand jury. They furnished the bonds.

To the Woman Who "Never Has Any Luck Putting Up Fruit and Berries"

How even a Beginner can be Sure of Perfect Results in Making Jams, Jellies and Preserves

Good home preserving is now easy to accomplish. Even the housewife who "never has any luck" with all sugar preserving can put up fruit perfectly if she will first make her preserving syrup with 1/2 Karo (Red Label) and 1/2 sugar—instead of sugar alone.

By this method you can always have the finest, most delicious jams, good clear jellies, and preserves with a rich, heavy syrup. Karo is a fine, clear syrup, with a natural affinity for the fruit juices.

It blends the fruit with the sugar, doing away with one of the great difficulties of putting up fruit at home, and just about cutting the work in half.

You can depend on it that fruit put up by this method will never grow tough or "candy" in the glass.

For Cooking, Baking and Candy Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes us Karo instead of sugar. It is a bit of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

FREE The experienced housewife as well as the beginner will find unusual interest in the new sixty-eight page Corn Products Cook Book. Beautifully illustrated—and suggestions guide for preserving, etc. It is free—write us today for it.

THE BATTLE OF 1920.

Foremost among the issues of the campaign of 1920, will be that of economic well being.

The greatest threat to prosperity today lies in Socialistic agitation and in conflict between labor and capital. Every fanciful and illusory idea with which Europe is rocking today, is being echoed in this country by the parrots of bolshevism.

The present administration has experimented with Socialistic ideas. It will of course claim that when it took over the railroads, wires and other private business, it was done purely for military reasons. But prevailing Democratic sentiment was that they would operate those utilities so efficiently that the public would never let them go back to private hands. The inglorious failure of this dream is now obvious, but the American people have a big bill to settle for it.

The threat of socialism is a constant wet blanket on enterprise. Business men will not proceed with their ventures and keep labor well employed, if they are led to feel that the government is soon to take over private business and dominate everything with fussy and hampering regulations. There needs to be a party in control at Washington that has faith in individual initiative and ambition, rather than in socialistic undertakings.

The business men are the ones who can best settle labor difficulties. They realize perfectly that labor must be contented and happy and satisfied, before prosperity can exist or enterprise be rewarded. If the country will cut out mere politicians, and put Republican business men on guard at Washington, the commercial interests of the country will go ahead with confidence, keep labor busily employed, and there will be economic prosperity for everyone.

RAILROAD PROBLEM

In the discussion of the railroad problem now before congress, says Robert S. Lovett, president of the Union Pacific system, it seems safe to assume that the following propositions are too clear to require or admit of argument:

- 1. That it is necessary for Congress to enact, at the earliest date practicable, legislation required to develop and continue to provide the railroad facilities which the country must have.
2. That the county has definitely made up its judgement against the ownership and operation of the railroads by the Government.
3. That public opinion overwhelmingly favors the continuance, by private ownership, of competition in service and facilities furnished by railroad carriers.

He declares that many of the weak roads are weak because they serve territories which, for various reasons, afford but little traffic, sparsely settled, poor in agricultural or other production—but which nevertheless are giving the service which the traffic justifies.

FORD CASE IS IN ELEVENTH WEEK

MANUFACTURER TAKES STAND AGAIN AND EXAMINATION IS RENEWED BY TRIBUNE.

LEGAL POINTS ARE ARGUED

Counsel for Both Sides Spend Half of Day's Session Debating Questions of Law-Jury Excused.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., July 23.—The eleventh week of the Ford-Tribune libel case opened yesterday, but the examination of Henry Ford was adjourned for two hours while counsel argued points of law. Ford counsel contended that Tribune attorneys were indulging in the needless repetition of questions while Tribune counsel answered that the questions had been repeated only as often as was necessary to test the witness' credibility.

The question then broadened until it included the advisability of evidence relative to the war work of the Ford Motor company. Horace K. Teney of counsel for the Tribune contended that Henry Ford's conscience had been pricked by the criticism made of him by the Tribune and that his changed views upon preparedness and munitions making were due to a change of heart subsequent to the Tribune's attack. The main question brought up by Ford counsel was the method and duration of cross examination as practiced upon Mr. Ford. They contended that preparedness had been ruled out as an issue by the court but had been introduced in many ingenious ways by Tribune counsel.

Practically every interview Henry Ford has given in the last five years has been dug up and read to him again. They have ranged from very lengthy interviews in Eastern magazines to column-length interviews in Los Angeles newspapers. Always accommodating newspaper men, Mr. Ford has been interviewed in every city he ever visited or where his train has stopped. Tribune counsel has endeavored to recall to his mind each individual interview. Naturally the witness could not always recall the incident or the conversation.

Mr. Ford tried to make it plain, as the examination went on, that he was not against all war, but that he was for war when the United States became involved, because he believed it to be a war to end war.

In answer to a carefully laid train of questions asked by Tribune attorneys, Mr. Ford said that whereas he had once opposed war and believed the country adequately equipped for defense, he had reached another conclusion when the United States broke off relations with Germany. He did not think he was mistaken in his previous views, but the changed conditions brought a change of duties. "I never called any person, any individual a murderer; it was the system, the war system that was murderous," said Henry Ford.

Mr. Ford will continue on the stand for several days.

Previous to Mr. Ford's reappearance on the stand special articles and editorials from the Tribune were introduced. In these the manufacturer was described fairly and with a sympathetic understanding.

The day's session was two-thirds gone before Mr. Ford took the stand again. Then the pounding to which the witness was subjected all last week was renewed.

"What is anarchy?" asked Tribune counsel. "War is as bad a condition of anarchy as I know of," retorted Mr. Ford.

He would not say, on suggestion of Tribune counsel, that either anarchy or war existed at the time of the Mexican trouble.

It was not anarchy because a government existed; it was not war because war had not been declared.

"It was just what I said the other day," declared the witness. "It was a riot."

To all questions concerning his attitude towards militarism Mr. Ford declared firmly: "All I can say is that I was against a large army for aggression."

The Stories the Dewdrops Told

(Written for the United States School Garden Army, Department of the Interior)

Part 1. Dolly Meets the Bald-Headed Fairy.

Dolly felt very cheerful and happy this morning. She was neatly-dressed. Mothermine had given her a loving pat as she ran through the hall. Maria was trotting at her heels.
"I wonder what Fairy I shall meet today," thought Dolly, as she went into the garden. It had become a very happy place for the little girl. She did not know how much she was learning, but she had grown to love her Fairy friends dearly.
She had walked quite a way into the garden before she saw a Dewdrop Fairy. She had learned how to look for them, and was not surprised when she saw one perched on the top of a very slim stalk or leaf. He looked as though he might tumble down any minute, because the top of the leaf was so small that it was almost a point. But he was very little. He wore a white coat and knee trousers and green stockings and shoes. He had a little light green cap.
"Good morning, Miss Dolly," said the Fairy.
He was the first who had called her "Miss". Dolly felt quite grown up.
"Good morning, Mr. Fairy," she said, as polite as he.
"I suppose you were looking for me?" he said.
"I was looking for a Dewdrop Fairy. I am sure you are one."
"Oh, yes, I came to see you this morning because our Queen told me you were a young lady who liked to hear about all the vegetables in the garden. I don't think we have met before. But perhaps you have noticed me."
"How could I notice you if we had not met?" asked Dolly.
"Well — perhaps your nose — but never mind," said the Fairy. "It is very warm for this time of the year.

Don't you think so?" And he took off his cap.
Dolly almost gasped. He was quite bald! Not a hair on his head! And his head was white—just as white as could be.
"Oh," thought Dolly. "He hasn't got a hair on his head—he hasn't any more hair than—an onion. Oh, I believe he is an Onion!"
"Of course, I am," said the Fairy. Dolly had forgotten they could read her thoughts.
"I am sure it looks very nice and—and cool," she said.
"Oh, I am cool enough—to look at," said the onion. "But I am good and warm inside, as you will soon find out when you eat me."
"Eat you!" cried Dolly.
"Of course. That is what we are for isn't it? I am sure my plant is not very beautiful, although when it is in seed the tops are quite pretty. But we don't go in for looks as much as some plants—the peas for instance. But we are very useful."
"I like spring onions," said Dolly.
"Yes, in the spring we haven't any heads."
"How dreadful—no heads!"
"You know that. We are just straight little stems then. But after a while we get heads, and they are good ones."
"Oh, do some of you have red heads?"
"Yes. And those are the best kind to keep all winter. But any of us are pretty good for that."
Dolly had heard a great deal about onions because her brothers, Bob and Billie, were soldiers in the United States School Garden Army. Both boys were helping to raise a garden, and onions were among the first vegetables planted.

London, July 23.—Sir Eric Drummond, the first Secretary-General of the League of Nations, is a man in the early forties, of about middle height, with alert, rather humorous eyes and fine features. He is exceedingly witty, a most excellent companion and can sparkle at a dinner party as effectively as he can draft a clause of a treaty.

Sir Eric is said to possess an astonishingly complete knowledge of the United States and for some years was recognized authority in the Foreign Office to be consulted on American affairs. He is said to have a gift for international politics that has served his country well in several crises.

"Hello" Girls Quit; Window Covered Up

Booneville, Ind., July 23.—The strike of nine telephone operators employed here by the Southern Telephone Company of Indiana has ended, for the girls can see out of the windows again, and not miss "what is going on in the street." They went on a strike after the manager put scap on the windows so they would watch their work more closely. But the soap was washed off, and the girls returned to work. Now the question of higher wages is being considered.

KALAMAZOO—The Kent Milling & Elevator Co. has been purchased by the William Kuhns Milling Co. of Coldwater. The price is said to have been more than $150,000.

Live in Stables and Chicken Coops

Belgrade, June 19. (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—In northern Serbia many families, wealthy before the war, have been found by officers of the American Relief Administration and the American Red Cross living in stables and chicken coops. Their beds had been destroyed by the advancing or retreating armies. Their beds were heaps of straw covered with burlap. It was all that remained as furniture in their once pretentious estates. They were penniless and had no clothing except what they wore.

The condition of the Serbian peasants is beyond description. A large proportion are homeless. Most families have been deprived of their wage-earners by death. The mother is now obliged to support herself and children on what she can produce on a farm stripped of its machinery and tools. Most of the small stores of seed for next spring's sowing were removed by the enemy.

The Red Cross hospitals are crowded with mothers carrying emancipated children, old men with the infirmities of their years, old women bent and misshapen, and young men broken by the war. The soup kitchens tell the same story.

Detroit, July 23.—William E. Sturn, state secretary of the Michigan Knights of Columbus, is secretary-treasurer of Sturn, Kull and Sturn of Monroe. He was grand knight of the Monroe chapter for three years, and has been secretary of the Michigan Knights of Columbus since June 2, 1915. He has also been secretary of the Monroe County Red society for the past two years.

Red Cross Brings Sugar Price Down

Bucharest, July 23.—When the American Red Cross and the American Relief Administration commenced work here several months ago, sugar was selling at $4.50 a pound, and almost impossible to obtain even at that price. Today it is still very scarce, but can be purchased at somewhere around $1.00 due to the large relief shipments.

A "Hoover" ship with 900 tons of milk, about 3,000 tons of fat, and 3,000 tons of other foods, recently arrived at Constanza. Thousands of Rumanians participated in a great demonstration as to the ship docked. These supplies did much to improve the situation.

Food is not the only commodity which has taken a fall. In the last month the price of thread has dropped from $6.00 to $1.60 a spool. Rumania is in great need of cloth and thread. A speculator who recently brought in a trunkload of cotton thread realized a profit of $3,600 on his enterprise.

The high prices of necessities in this country are due in large measure to the crippled state of transportation. Tickets on the weekly train between Bucharest and Paris bring a premium as high as $200.
