TERROR OF SEA PULLS FOR SOUTH

UC-97 and Chasrs Off For Menominee at Noon Today.

With the commands of "Let go for'ard" and "Let go aft," the submarine chaser 419 pulled away from the Stephenson dock at 1:05 o'clock this afternoon, the last of the three government vessels to leave. The submarine UC-97, formerly owned by the German imperial government, and another submarine chaser, left the dock a short time before.

Aboard the last chaser to leave were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan English and the Misses Clara Raiche and Irene Cyr, the latter two employees of the Western Union office here, who will go to Menominee. The three craft expect to reach Menominee about 7 o'clock tonight, docking at the fuel dock there.

Thousands Go Aboard.
It is estimated that nearly 10,000 people, the great majority of whom never sighted a submarine until it pulled into the harbor here, visited the craft between the time they arrived at 7 o'clock last night and their departure this afternoon. Few of the visitors were permitted to go anywhere in the submarine but in the passage way that runs from one entrance to another, however, as it was considered to great a hazard to chance the danger of having visitors come in contact with electrical appliances, any one of which might have sent the boat to the bottom of the bay.

Few people who visited the submarine had any idea that the former German craft carried 25 men and two officers, while each chaser had but eight men and an officer aboard. Lieut. Com. A. C. Lockwood had charge of the craft and Lieut. Dix was second in command. All sailors showed great courtesy toward the visitors and every effort was made to get as many visitors aboard as possible. As early as 9 o'clock this morning, many visitors stood in line to await their turn to go on the craft.

Left Halifax in May.
The UC-97 left Halifax on May 20, coming up the St. Lawrence river and visiting practically all large ports along the route. After reaching the straits of the submarine and its tenders went to Lake Superior, returning about a week ago to Sault Ste. Marie. Since leaving Sault Ste. Marie it visited Marquette, Manistique and Escanaba. It will continue down the lake after leaving Menominee tomorrow afternoon.

Those visitors who were permitted to linger in the submarine were surprised at the great number of electrical appliances. It was explained that the submarine is propelled by two six-cylinder engines that are operated with crude oil while on the surface. While submerged the U-boat is operated by electricity, two 300-horse power engines giving the power.

BACK STIFFER FOR PACT SAYS SENATOR KEYES

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, July 31.—"My back is stiffer than ever for ratification of the treaty with reservation," Senator Keyes, Republican, of New Hampshire, said today after a conference with President Wilson at the White House.

AUSTRIA CABINET DECIDES TO QUIT; RENNER AT HEAD

Unsettled State Believed to Have Driven Affairs Into Rut.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Vienna, via Berne, July 31.—The Austrian cabinet, headed by Dr. Karl Renner, has decided to resign.

Austrian governmental affairs have recently been in a rather unsettled state. The peace terms presented by the allies and associated powers to the Austrians at St. Germaine have been stoutly protested against in official circles in Vienna, the financial provisions being considered as particularly onerous and predictions being made that Austria was likely to be driven into bankruptcy.

Mexico Again "Cocky."
Washington, July 31.—Advice from Mexico City today report the sending of a number of secret service men by Chief Orozco, formerly chief of police of Mexico City, into the oil fields at Tampico in an endeavor to secure evidence against foreign oil companies operating in that region. Attention of the state department has been called to the action, which is believed to be another move in the part of the Mexican government to bring about confiscation of the foreign owned properties.

SENATOR NEW DECLARES HE CAN'T RATIFY

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, July 31.—Senator New of Indiana, Republican member of the foreign relations committee, said after a visit to the White House today that he had told the president it would be "utterly impossible to get the senate to accept the peace treaty as it stands" and that it either would be "ratified with reservations or fail."

Senator New said he told the president he was utterly opposed to Article X of the league of nations covenant. He added that in reply to the president's statement that adoption of reservations by the senate might set a precedent for other nations, he had said that the question of reservations was one for the United States to decide, regardless of the effect on other countries.

British Will Send Naval Force to Aid Archangel Soldiers

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
London, July 31.—The British government is arranging to send a naval force to Russia to cover the evacuation of the Archangel district by the troops there, it was announced today. A contingent of regular army troops also is being held in readiness there if necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sundberg, of Lynhurst, Wis., are visiting at the Dupey home in Schaffer.

each. The apparatus forward, resembling a large bread knife, was used to cut submarine nets, a similar knife being attached to the keel.

$9,996 TO LIBRARIES OF COUNTY

Apportionments Given For Current Year By State.

Libraries of the Delta county schools will have a total of $9,996 for the current year, the department of public institution at Lansing yesterday notified County Clerk Albert J. Pepin.

Under the constitution and statutes all moneys which are paid into the county treasury on account of fines, penalties, forfeitures and recognizances are to be credited to the library fund and apportioned by the treasurer. The practice of some counties of turning over a portion of the fines into the general fund is illegal, it was pointed out, and such amounts can be recovered.

Only townships named will be given apportionments of the library moneys for the current year. Escanaba city gets a total of $4,204 this year and the Gladstone library gets $1,637, considerably less than half of the apportionment for Escanaba. Masonville gets the largest single apportionment for any township, its total being $586. The second largest township fund is $464 for Maple Ridge.

Following is the table of apportionments for townships and cities of Delta county:

Baldwin	$293
Bark River, district 1, 2, 3 and 4	$600
Bay de Noc	$200
Brampton	$234
Cornell	$190
Escanaba city	$4,204
Fairbanks	$176
Ford River	$294
Garden	$297
Gladstone city	$1,637
Maple Ridge	$464
Masonville	$586
Nahma	$386
Wells	$445
Total	$9,996

Pacific Coast Is Planning Welcome To Its New Fleet

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
San Francisco, July 31.—Outside of war and peace no event of recent years has received the attention which Pacific coast cities will give to the visit of the new Pacific fleet.

Scheduled to arrive at San Diego on or about August 10 the fleet then is to proceed to Los Angeles harbor, San Francisco, Puget Sound and from there to Honolulu where Secretary of the Navy Daniels will officially open the great Pearl Harbor dry dock. Everywhere the fleet is to stop ambitious receptions are being planned to eclipse any similar event in Pacific Coast history.

Wilson to Greet Fleet.
At San Francisco about August 15 President Wilson is expected to greet the fleet on his tour of the country in behalf of the League of Nations. President Wilson, if nothing interferes with his itinerary, will review the fleet in San Francisco bay or just off the Golden Gate. This, naval men say, will be the greatest naval pageant ever witnessed in waters of the Pacific ocean.

In every city the fleet is to visit, committees to arrange for its welcome have been named. Parades will be held in every city visited, it was said.

Wisconsin People Picnic at Gross

Marinette and Milwaukee visitors were guests at a picnic party held at Gross Tuesday, going to the picnic grounds in company with Escanaba people. Splendid weather conditions made the picnic a more enjoyable one. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bergman, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donnell of Escanaba, Mrs. George Dutton and Miss L. Noels of Milwaukee, and Miss Marcella Gallagher of Marinette.

RECOMMENDS THAT COUNCIL CHANGE SPRINKLE HOURS

Public Buildings to Be Allowed Use of Water Six Hours Each Day.

The board of public works last night went on record to favor a change in the hours during which residents of Escanaba are permitted to sprinkle their lawns and made a recommendation to that effect, which will be taken up for action at the next meeting of the Escanaba council which is expected to be Tuesday night.

The recommendation was made to meet objections stated in a petition filed with the board of public works a few days ago by residents of North Escanaba. Other complaints, more or less numerous each day, had been made by individuals.

Not Placed On Honor.
Sprinkling will be permitted in the future, when the council acts on it favorably, from 7 until 9 o'clock in the morning and from 6 to 10 o'clock p. m. All public buildings with limited janitor service will be allowed to sprinkle six hours during the day. This applies to the postoffice, public library, city hall and schools, as well as the courthouse and county buildings.

The statement that business men will be allowed to sprinkle at any hour they chose, being expected to be kept on their honor not to exceed six hours was declared to be erroneous.

No Complaint So Powers Is Released

Because no complaint has been filed by Dr. L. P. Treiber of Bark River against John Powers, Menominee youth who stole the physician's automobile several nights ago while the doctor was at Wilson, young Powers has been released from the county jail. His mother gave assurance that he would be turned over to the police any time complaint was made against him.

John Powers is a son of Attorney George Powers, known to many people of this city as well as in other parts of the peninsula.

BEACH SCARF LATEST FAD AT ATLANTIC CITY

A photograph taken upon the beach of the famous New Jersey watering place, showing the latest feminine fancy, called "beach scarf." The beach scarf is merely a cape of rubber material, brightly colored in attractive pink, blue, red, etc., with black markings. This one, which is worn by one of Atlantic City's most charming young ladies, is bright yellow, with black markings.

POSTAL MEN AGENTS FOR FOOD SALES

Government Is Devising Means to Reduce Living Cost.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Washington, July 31.—President Wilson is given "deep and very thoughtful consideration" to the high cost of living, it was announced today at the White House, and all branches of the government that might aid in solving the problem are at work.

First steps in the federal government's attempt to reduce the high cost of living were today with the inauguration of a plan for the sale of $126,000,000 worth of army foodstuffs direct to the people with every postmaster and mail carrier over the country acting as a salesman.

President Hears Plea.

While this problem was being put into effect, President Wilson had before him a statement from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which declared "consciousness profiteering by the great interests who have secured control of all the necessities of life" had brought about such conditions that the increase wages they must demand increase wages unless living expenses were speedily reduced.

At the department of justice investigation into the causes of increased living costs were under way with particular attention being given the question of whether producers or dealers had combined in violation of the law to raise the prices of necessities.

Meantime there was pending in the house a resolution directing that the federal trade commission investigate rising costs of coffee, sugar, shoes and clothing.

War department officials were today preparing a price list covering the entire available supply.

The list will be sent to each of the 54,000 postmasters throughout the country as well as to all rural mail carriers who will inform the consumers of the prices and methods of the sale also taken, for which a purchase will be given in order that recipients may be reimbursed in the event that the order cannot be filled through exhaustion of supplies or for any other reason.

Trainmen Ask For Aid

Washington, July 31.—William G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, announced today that unless the railroad administration had taken action by Oct. 1 on the trainmen either be increased or the cost of living reduced, steps looking to enforcement of the demands would be taken.

Mr. Lee said a resolution containing this declaration which had been adopted last night by a special committee of sixteen at the recent convention in Columbus, O., would be sent to the railroad administration. The resolution provided that in the absence of action by October 1 the committee would reconvene to consider "the necessity for using the protective features of the brotherhood."

New School Head and Family Here

Escanaba's new superintendent of schools, W. E. Olds, accompanied by his wife and two children, reached here yesterday from Marshall, Mich., motoring the entire distance. They will spend a few days at the Charles Gunderson cottage on the bay shore until Mr. Olds is ready to take over the reigns of the schools here.

CAR STOLEN THEN LEFT AS SECURITY FOR $15 BORROWED

Smashing Automobile While On County Highway Fails to "Stump" Pair.

A search for the Briscoe car owned by Joseph Schiska, stolen last night from in front of the Delft theatre, was brought to a close this morning when Masonville officers notified the police here that the automobile, badly damaged as a result of an accident on the turn at Masonville, was being kept there as security for $15 which the thieves borrowed.

While most people slept, city and county officials conducted a search through the county, but because the two young men apparently strangers and well dressed, had a good start before the police were notified, plans were laid to trap them on the roadway beyond Rapid River and other points as far distant as that town or farther.

Failure To Round Turn.
The search proved unavailing, however, and this morning word was received that the car was at Masonville. It had been damaged when the driver failed to negotiate the sharp turn at Masonville, going off the road, indicating he was not very familiar with the driveway between Gladstone and Masonville.

On the advice of a Masonville man the two backed the car out and attempted to proceed no farther with it. However, they asked Luke Larson for a loan of $15, leaving the car as security. Today Larson is minus the $15 and has no automobile as security.

The incident is similar in many respects to that when the S. M. Johnson car was stolen. Police are well satisfied that the Johnson auto was taken by outsiders and that outsiders also stole the Schiska car. They were well dressed young men, according to several officers including the sheriff, who saw them here yesterday afternoon.

Police Out All Night.

Last word received regarding the two young men shortly before midnight was that they were speeding along the county highway. Both the sheriff and police chief here were out in the country until an early hour this morning trying to locate them.

RAILROAD SHOP MEN TOLD NOT TO STRIKE YET

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, July 31.—Representatives of the six railroad shop unions, who are in conference here with railroad administrator officials, telegraphed to shop employees over the country today not to strike pending final settlement of their demands. The workers were informed that the railroad administration had consented to enter into a national agreement with the unions covering rules and working conditions.

Who Lost a Cow? Asks Pound Master

Who lost a cow?
Pound Master John Garrity has had a Holstein cow at the city pound for the past several days and nobody has claimed it. He wants to get rid of it, he declares today, as the city doesn't want to feed animals that belong to individuals.

If it is your cow, come and get it, he says.

Clairmount Infant Is Interred Today

Antone Clairmount, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Antone Clairmount of 223 Second avenue south, who died yesterday afternoon, was buried in St. Anne's cemetery this afternoon. Short services were conducted at the Anderson-Buchanan parlors.

Miss Mayme Barth, sister to the Rev. Dr. Barth of this city, is a guest of Miss Saue in Marinette. She will go to Egg Harbor from Marinette to visit her mother before returning to Chicago.

30 DEAD IN RIOTS; 200 BADLY HURT

Chicago Toll Goes Up In Night; Soldiers Called Out.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Chicago, July 31.—Failure of 1,000 chauffeurs, carriers and clerks to report for duty was declared by Postmaster Carlile to constitute interference with the mail, the strike and riots being assigned as the reason of the inability of employees to arrive. The interference was reported to Postmaster General Burleson who in turn made it known to the secretary of war.

Plans for collection and preservation of evidence for prosecution of those guilty of murder and assault in the race riots have been practically completed by Attorney General Brundage and State's Attorney Hoyne, who were in conference again today.

"The state's attorney and I," said Mr. Brundage, "expect to send some to the penitentiary."

Soldiers Patrol District.
The main Negro quarters of Chicago today were patrolled by 6,000 soldiers accounted as for war after four nights or face rioting that caused 30 deaths, 17 Negroes and 13 whites, and the injury of nearly 1,000 persons, 200 of whom were severely hurt and a dozen of whom may die of wounds. No deaths were reported during the night, but many injuries and fires were reported.

Fighting kept up after the troops reached their stations shortly before midnight, and one squad of soldiers had to fight a crowd of Negroes to reach their station at 41st street and Wabash avenue, while others were fired on from ambush on the way to duty.

No soldier was killed or wounded and after the troops had taken their places, disorders died down within the region patrolled.

Tolling Chicago today found cheer in the prospects that the streetcar strike might end soon and that by Saturday morning workers could again ride on elevated and surface cars.

Will Ballot Tomorrow.
Possibility of the near solution of the strike came with the announcement that the 15,000 surface and elevated men on strike since Tuesday morning would ballot tomorrow on whether to accept the wage scale agreed upon last Monday by their representatives and those of the company and rejected the same night at a meeting of 6,000 carmen.

Go to the Polls and Vote for Road Bond

All voters are urged to go to polls Monday, August 4, to vote for the $200,000 road bonding issue which takes the place of the $300,000 issue, declared to be drawn up in such a manner that they are not lawful. Escanaba citizens want good roads and all the country wants good roads. The state pays about 85 per cent of the cost of road building, which cannot be procured unless the bonding issue is passed.

Luxemberger Applies To Get a Passport

M'GRAW PUT GOWDY STRAIGHT

New York Manager Compelled to Use All His Powers of Persuasion to Make Him Catch.

John McGraw was talking the other day of ball players he had developed, and mentioned the name of Hank Gowdy.

"The funnest thing about Gowdy is that he did not want to become a catcher, and I had to use all my powers of persuasion in order to make him do so. When Gowdy came to me from the Dallas club he was a first baseman, and though he was a fair enough fielder and good hitter, I soon saw he was too slow on his feet to make a first baseman. I told him that his only chance to remain in the major leagues was to become a catcher, but at first he did not agree with me. I convinced him that what I said was true, however, and he finally consented to go behind the bat. Now he's quite a catcher, I'll say."

LIVING WAGE AND 48-HOUR WEEK IS PLAN OF ENGLAND

Bills Pending in Parliament to Provide Adequate Means for Working Man.

London, July 10.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—To provide adequate living wages and to set a limit of 48 hours as a weeks' work is declared to be the purpose of two important bills which are being prepared for action in Parliament.

Result of Agreement.
These two measures are understood to be the result of an agreement between representatives of employers of trade unions and of the Minister of Labor, acting as a National Industrial Conference. They are described as "government bills on maximum working hours and minimum time rates."

The Wage Bill as drawn up provides for an inquiry by a commission to decide what shall be the minimum wages for adults and for young persons, the commission to consider the cost of living. It is also provided that the minimum wage shall be adequate to meet the increased living cost.

The bill intended to make 48 hours constitute a weeks' work does not apply to domestic servants, seamen or ocean-going vessels, nor to employes in positions of trust and confidence. An inquiry is to be held regarding the working conditions of domestic servants and seamen to determine whether they can be brought within the scope of the bill.

Organize National Council.
It is stated that if the bills are approved and accepted by the workers effected by them, the trade unions will be asked to aid the government organizing a National Industrial Council to be representative equally of employers and trade unionists.

SALTS IF BACKACHY AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat is rich in acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

Protests Title of Stock Company Play

"Doc" Gallup the General Manager of the Delft circuit of theatres and incidentally the handsomest man in Marquette who is looking after the local showhouse in the absence of Mr. Jacobus will breath a sigh of relief when the present weeks engagement of the Gifford-Young Stock Company at the Delft is ended and there by hangs a tale.

The telephone "has been merrily ringing at the theatre all day with orders for seats for tonights show and inquiries regarding same. Early this morning a sweet feminine voice asked "Doc" if he would kindly inform her the name of tonights play. Mr. Gallup answered innocently: "Why, whose baby are you?" a surprised gasp and bang went the receiver on the other end of the line. About a half hour later an irate husband was at the Delft demanding an apology for the answer given his wife. However, when it was properly explained that "Whose Baby Are You" was the name of the farce comedy to be presented tonight, the gentlemen promptly purchased 4 seats and admitted that the laugh was on him.

"Doc" promptly requested Messrs. Gifford and Young to either change the title of the play or furnish him with a body guard until after tonights crowd is safely in the theatre.

Labor Committee to Hold Meet Tonight

George F. McEwen will preside at a meeting tonight of a committee of representatives of labor unions here when plans will be made for the Labor Day celebration to be held in this city. Tentative plans were made recently and at the meeting tonight, to be held in the city hall, final decisions will be given on features of the observance.

GIANTS PLAYING OLD SYSTEM

Number of Pennants Won by Red Sox by Trimming Main Rivals—McGraw Doing Same Thing.

The Red Sox won a number of pennants by trimming their main rivals—the Tigers and White Sox—consistently.

They might blow a few ignoble pastimes to others, including second division clubs, but when they struck these two teams they struck with winning force.

The Giants have adopted much the same system this season in regard to the Cubs. McGraw has always figured Chicago the team he had to beat. Cincinnati may cross him in regard to this conclusion, but that is the way he had it doped out. The Cubs are not out of it by any means, but they can hardly hope to beat the Giants out as long as the Giants insist on tearing them apart each time they meet when a victory brings a double reward in the percentage column, lifting one club as it pushes the other down.

COLORFUL BUT NOT DARING.

There is plenty of color in the new season's modes, but it is of the refined, artistic kind. The dress to the left is in challis of motley design, with the blouse embroidered in roses in two shades of red and green leaves. Heavy rope silk is used for the embroidery. The belt and buttons which trim the shoulders and front of the blouse is of American beauty satin. Medium size requires 5 1/4 yards 40-inch challis and 1/2 yard 36-inch satin.

Orchid crepe de chine is most effective in the second model. The tunic is cleverly incorporated with the draped belt, being finished at the lower edge with lace. ## TERROR RULES IN PETROGRAD

All Who Fail to Answer Questions Are Slain.

FOOD PRICES ARE FABULOUS

Houses Are Under Guard and Women Are Shot When Their Husbands Are Suspected of Counter-Revolt—Wives and Families of Army Officers Are Kept in Special Concentration Camps.

It is hardly possible to recognize Petrograd today owing to the terrible changes within a month. Terror has so increased that nobody speaks in the streets, trains, or public places. People regard one another suspiciously, fearing informers. Soldiers especially avoid speaking to one another, proving the prevalence of provocateurs of the Red army, writes John Pollock in New York Sun.

Social life to all intents has ceased. In every house there is only one entry, either the front or back door being constantly shut. At whichever open end a communist sentry is posted he demands of all newcomers first their identity papers, also their right to walk in the street, and then questions them as to whom they are going to see, who lives in the family, what they do, what is the business of the visitor.

If the answer is satisfactory the visitors pass in; if unsatisfactory they are arrested, taken to the commissariat and thence to the fortress of Peter and Paul, where generally they are shot without question. The recent executions carried out at Peter and Paul are no longer in ones and twos, but in whole groups by a special machine gun detachment. The bodies are mostly thrown into the Neva. Sometimes they are fished out by militiamen. The militia now is armed with old-fashioned carbines. All rifles sent to the front also are reduced in numbers.

Passes Needed After 11.

After 11 o'clock none may leave the house without a pass signed by Peters, and only given to conciliar workers on night business and agents of the extraordinary commission, who form the sole night traffic in motorlorries conducting perquisitions. These are so thorough that if arms, even in a holster, are found concealed in garret or court, the president of the house committee is shot. The informant knows a case where a whole family was shot because a field glass case was found in a flat. The universal terror makes the people repulse visitors even when bearing help or letter, fearing to be compromised on counter-revolutionary or murderess, chief of the extraordinary commission, has gone to Moscow and has been replaced by an individual bearing the alias "the bear."

In the army all officers without families are dismissed from the higher commands and sent to the rear. They are replaced by men whose families have been taken hostages. The wives and families of officers are kept in special concentration camps near Moscow, whither they were dispatched last week.

Many women have been shot when their husbands were suspected of counter-revolution. The officers are all disarmed except those known to be communist party workers. Soldiers have the right to shoot officers on the bare suspicion of counter-revolution.

The immediate cause for the increase in terror is the abortive movement at Krasnaya Gora, enraging bolsheviks and inspiring them to devote all their efforts to outroot the White organizations in Petrograd.

Among officers and workmen the bolsheviks are taking the opportunity to arrest all foreigners remaining in Petrograd, including women.

Allies Seem Powerless.

There is terrible disillusion in Petrograd with the allies, who seem only to threaten and unable to deal a serious stroke, thus allowing the thousands of patriots to be slaughtered and inflicting mental torture. A month ago the universal question in Petrograd was: "Will the allies give food if they take the city?" Now the question of food has ceased to interest, though starvation is at hand. The only question is: "Will the allies come quickly? If not, then let them give over altogether. The present state is unbearable. It is better to die quietly of starvation than thus be hounded to death."

Owing to similar cause peasant risings, common as winter throughout the country, now are seldom. Owing to the frequency with which the peasants joined the Whites, who afterward retreated, all the peasant families were slaughtered simultaneously.

For Itching Torture

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any druggist can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes all skin diseases. Eczema, itch, pimples, rashes, blackheads in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear overnight. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 35c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It will not stain, is not greasy or sticky and is positively safe for tender, sensitive skin.

The E. W. Ross Co., Cleveland, O.

Following the feverish efforts on the part of the bolsheviks to prepare against the surrender of Petrograd on the eleventh, as previously telegraphed, the civil evacuation was completed by the twenty-second. All received material at the factories and military stores of secondary importance were evacuated and all telephone commutators dispatched to Moscow, but on the nineteenth an order came from Moscow to evacuate only parts of the machinery, not the benches and permanent fittings, reducing the extent of the work of the chief commissary. A line of trains is ready instantly to flee to the Volga towns.

A phalanx of picked agitators has been brought to Petrograd for secret propaganda against the patriotic Russian government if the capital is abandoned. Meanwhile the position of the civil inhabitants is desperate.

The Nicholas railway has been entirely taken over for evacuation and other military purposes. Passenger traffic has been abolished; therefore sackmen are unable to import the scanty but essential contraband formerly received in Petrograd.

The following were the prices ruling last week: Butter, 20 rubles ($12.50) a pound; bread, 45 to 50 rubles ($28.18-$31.75); potatoes, 20 ($12.50); meat, 90 to 100 rubles ($56.25-$62.50); sugar, tea and coffee are unobtainable; 100 cigarettes cost 150 rubles ($93.75). Many so-called social living rooms, otherwise municipal soup kitchens, have closed for want of provisions. Those open give only slops; people go about almost in rags.

It is estimated that 120,000 rubles (normally $75,000) monthly is required to support life per head. Work is unobtainable and the intelligent have burned their remaining furniture for cooking. Probably not above 4,000 of the civil population remain. Peculation and corruption on the part of the bolsheviks are unabated. Recently a great quantity of clothing and boots which were collected together on the pretext that they were for the central store, was destroyed by fire.

It is suspected to have been incandescence covering traces of large defalcations.

Situation Growing Worse.

The following shows how much worse the situation has grown:

A month ago the theaters and cinemas were full despite the fact that seats in the latter cost 16 rubles ($10).

Now this last fiction of cultured life has given out and the public in terror of arrests and perquisitions have deserted the theater, preferring anxious and undisturbed solitude.

As a result of bolshevik tyranny in the country an entirely new banditti have appeared. The bolsheviks mobilized all the young peasants, but a large number deserting have formed roving bands inhabiting the woods, living by robbery and falling on parties of soldiers, farmers and villages. Under an elected "Robin Hood" they are taking the place of the former peasant revolts and are known as the green army. They are a veritable thorn in the side of the bolsheviks and are reminiscent of the activities of the Little Russian gaidemaki, with whom they have a similarity in that they kill all communists mercilessly.

The bolsheviks still rely largely on sailors to restore the weak places in the front, bribing them with enormous pay and privileges. The sailors are covered with diamonds and pearls. But, according to a secret telegram received in Petrograd from the propaganda section in Moscow, a considerable force of German communists shortly is expected, also a party of Hungarian officers, with the object of forming a battalion of Letts and Chinese party for the Finnish front.

There is reason to believe the Germans are repeating the offer made to Admiral Kolchak at the beginning of the year, which he loyally rejected and will again undoubtedly reject, but the Russian peasants tortured under the bolshevik heel may be unable to control their desperate impatience. Their cry is "Save us or let another save us." Europe's future depends on our response to their supplications.

LEGLESS MAN DRIVES CAR

Traveled a Long Way to Show Gratitude for Hospital Work.

Though he has no legs, Nat L. Milgram of Philadelphia motored to Altoona, Pa., to thank friends for what they did for him when he was a patient in a hospital there two years ago. Milgram was a member of Col. George Kemp's Third regiment when it was sent to this section for guard duty just after the United States entered the war. While sergeant of the guard at Farhope, Somerset county, he was run down by a train and both legs were crushed below the knee. He was treated at Cumberland and later at Altoona and then sent to his home in Philadelphia.

Equipped with artificial limbs, he walks very well. While driving to the home of Rabbi Moses J. S. Abels, not being familiar with the streets, he attempted to descend a steep avenue not used by autos and his car was wrecked but he escaped injury.

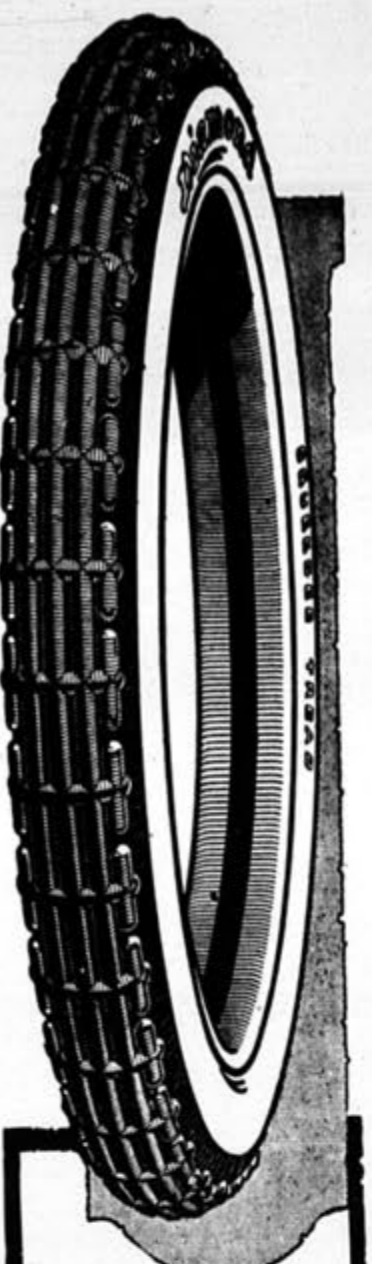

When Milgram returns to Philadelphia he will take up the study of law.

Europeans marvel at American Corporations

All Europe realizes now that American business men, turned soldiers, simply applied methods of American business to war-winning. No wonder that now Foreign Nations marvel at American corporations — not only at their efficient, big scale methods, but their economies.

Justly—for American business men scrutinize every penny. When they buy tires, they study values and compare prices. Corporations all over the country are concentrating on Diamonds—the people in this town who buy tires thoughtfully, calculatingly, are buying Diamonds.

For Diamonds are giving thousands of extra miles—at LESS THAN AVERAGE COST. Let us present some comparative figures to you.

A JOB TO DO.

The American Legion is made up of demobilized soldiers—men who know what it means to surrender individual impulse and desire in a common effort, and who will not soon forget, in their returned freedom of choice and action, the days when it was "their not to reason why." Whatever of good there is in the American Army system is known to Legion members; whatever there is of bad is also known to Legion members.

It is reasonable to expect that the Legion, aside from being an association of those who contributed to America's effort in the great war, will maintain a genuine interest in those who remain in uniform now that the great war is over, or who shall wear that uniform in the years to come.

The new standing Army of America—if we are to have one—should be something better than the one in which, good as it had always shown itself to be, the American public showed so little interest before the great war.

Regulations under which the A. E. F. chafed and swore—and lied and evaded—were an inheritance from the old Regular Army. True, the old poppycock of addressing officers only in the third person died early in the game under the stress and hurry of actual warfare, but there were many other fetiches, more important and more picturesque, that persisted to the end. Certain sure defects of the summary court, the system that made it possible for some officers literally to "hold up" their men and force them to buy Liberty Bonds "to make a good show for my outfit"—these and more combined, at times to put the patriotism of many of well meaning men to the severest strain in short there is quite a bit of foundation for the threnody irony of "The next war will be for officers only"—a every brandished weapon of the Sam Brown will admit.

But the trouble didn't start with the Army as we found it in 1917. It started with the Army commanded by General George Washington. That Army was modeled after the one with which the British had the most actual contact—namely, the British. And the British Army of that day was a Continental Army pure and simple, in which the officer, after a season of the drill, brought his commission, and in which the enlisted man was not a citizen-soldier but a mere vassal of the king, and, therefore, entitled to but vassal treatment.

Later the Army of the United States borrowed many drill forms, many regulations, from the super-efficient Prussian Army, modified to be sure but still retaining enough of Prussianism about them to make them repugnant to the fresh American. Now that the Prussian Army has been shown up for all time as not only super-efficient but also as a mess, it would seem high time that we Americans devised a military system and military regulations that would be entirely American in spirit and method alike.

Of course, all wars are relics of the ancient era; and Armies, with which war is waged, must, to run true to form, retain many aspects of the mediaeval. Even as all wars constitute a subversion of liberty, so must the instruments with which they are conducted demand a certain renunciation of individual liberty on the part of their component members. In the interests of discipline and of united action. Even as all wars, in their inception by the war-makers and war-wishers, are unjust, they cannot be prosecuted without injustice, in greater or less degree, being done in both camps, that of the guiltless defender as well as that of the guilty aggressor. And this war was no exception to the rule.

Still, it does seem that an Army of freemen, recruited solely for the defense of a nation that knows neither caste nor aristocracy nor serfdom, could be so constituted that the youth of that nation would be eager and willing to serve in it, with heads held high, and feel no abrogation of their status, their liberty in the serving. That kind of an Army would be an American Army. And it is up to the American Legion, to the men who put the American Army of today on the map in the greatest of all wars, to work for it; for they are the ones who know wherein the old order can be bettered. Stars and Stripes.

IN TIME OF WAR THEY PREPARED FOR PEACE

"What experience have you had?" asked an employer of a stalwart young applicant for a job in his office.

"I was in the war, sir," came the answer.
"Soldiers make good men. You're hired."

And the youngster who had left college to go to France found himself then and there a member of the great industrial world. The employer is one of the wisest men in the export business today, wise because he learns fast and discards old theories as soon as better ones present themselves.

The old theory was that a soldier was a rolling stone, and adventure, a hero, if you will but no business man. The new theory is that war training and discipline teach a man qualities that are assets to him in business: the value of quick judgment of staunch loyalty to the job, of concentration, and of unflinching courage in crises. Moreover, he has learned to do one or two definite jobs as a military man. He may have learned to build roads, to cook, to nurse, to handle machinery, to drive a car, or to drill men. Whatever it was, he learned to do it well and thoroughly and it has made him a Jack-of-One Trade, at least.

How to Rest Varicose Veins.

Douglas H. Stewart writes in Medical Council: "What a person with a varicose leg goes to bed he usually sits upon the bed and draws his leg in after him. The veins of that leg are dilated and remain more or less so for hours, therefore the vein walls do not rest. Let that person go to bed, hoist his feet up in the air, the higher the better; let him keep them there for five minutes and let him lower them slowly to the recumbent position. The veins are empty and the vein walls rest. After a few weeks of this exercise many patients declare that their whole sleep is more restful."

United States Short 1,000,000 Homes.
There is a shortage of 1,000,000 homes in the United States, according to William H. Garland, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. The association, he said, would co-operate with the government in providing enough homes to meet the pressing demand.

DECLARES FORD IS NO ANARCHIST

PROFESSOR DUNNING OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY GIVES EXPERT TESTIMONY.

POINTS OUT INTERVIEWS

Says Manufacturer Repeatedly Shows Confidence in Orderly Regulation of Government Through the Ballot.

Mount Clemens, Mich., July 30.—For the second time since the Ford-Tribune case began to attract the attention of the nation there has appeared on the witness stand an expert on anarchy.

The first witness was Prof. Jesse S. Reeves, professor of political science of the University of Michigan, who was called by the Chicago Tribune. The second witness was Prof. William A. Dunning, professor of history and political philosophy in Columbia university, called by Ford counsel.

"When Henry Ford," asked counsel, "said that we should cease talking about this factory, this state, this country, and begin to talk about this world, was he speaking the doctrine of anarchy?"

"No. That is the general thought of cosmopolitanism; the first record to put down that has survived to our times. It was made by the cynical school of philosophy, to which Diogenes belonged. It was held in a very definite way by the stoics in Athens as early as 300 B. C."

"Is there anything peculiarly anarchistic about it?"

"No."
"Mr. Ford," continued counsel, "also said that he believed humanity could make mistakes but could do nothing worse."

"He said that he believed everything tended toward good and that even the terrible war would result in blessings to the world. Is there anything anarchistic about that?"

"No," responded Professor Dunning. "These were commonplaces before anarchism was ever heard of. The idea that man is naturally good is the basis of Plato's morals. It has permeated moral philosophy ever since."

"How about the statement made by Mr. Ford that 'war is murder'?"

"It is essentially anti-militaristic and pacifistic, but it is not anarchistic. It is frequently uttered at every peace conference."

"Now, professor," said Ford counsel, "here is the expression attributed to Henry Ford, to the effect that 'the word 'murderer' should be embroidered upon the uniform of every soldier who is an anarchist.'"

"Well, the embroidered part is new; I have never seen it before. But the idea that war is murder is very old—much older than anarchy."

"There is some evidence in the case that a lady used that expression, 'embroidery.'"

"I should think so; no man would have thought of it."

"Mr. Ford also said that wars were inspired by men who made munitions, men who had money to lend, and militarists who wanted to show of what they had learned. Is that anarchistic?"

"It is very common to socialistic thought."

Professor Dunning then proceeded to explain that there is a wide difference between socialism and anarchy. Anarchy, he said, wishes no government, and would abolish all property. Socialists wish government administered by the working classes.

The witness then went over a number of interviews in which Mr. Ford had been quoted. He pointed out numerous references whose tone indicated that Mr. Ford believed in government, and he also called attention to Mr. Ford's numerous references to the ballot, advising its use. These, he said, indicated a confidence in the orderly processes of government.

In no writing or interview, said the witness, could he find a single indication that Mr. Ford was an anarchist, either in the common or philosophical conception of that term.

Long as the trial has been, Judge Tucker declared on the stand Tuesday that all the material evidence offered would be admitted, if "it takes until Christmas."

Frank L. Klingensmith was called to the stand again Tuesday and continued his testimony concerning statements which newspaper writers claim he made concerning the policy of the Ford Motor company in regard to workmen who left to join the National Guard.

Mr. Klingensmith said he could not remember the conversation, but knew that he could not have made the statement that jobs would not be held open for the men and that their families would not be allowed to get along as best they might, because such a statement would have been utterly out of keeping with the policy of the company.

FAMOUS NAMES

There are quite a few famous names in the National league pitching ranks this year. Grover Cleveland Alexander and John Calhoun Benton have been famous for the league for some time. But now the Cubs have a splendid running mate to Alexander in Abraham Lincoln Baller. Fred Mitchell, the Cub manager, started to call Baller "Abe" on the training trip, and the rookie interrupted him and said: "The folks back home all call me 'Lin' for short." And Mitchell wouldn't quarrel about a little thing like names.

VETERAN CRAVATH IS BRAINY BALL PLAYER

Newly Appointed Manager Is Oldest Man on Team.

Doing Better Work for Phillies This Season Than for Several Years—Batting Pacemaker of National League.

The one real, outstanding platinum-plated star of the Phils is the oldest player on the team's pay roll, namely, the well-known and dangerous Clifford Carlton Cravath, who has just been appointed manager of the club, succeeding Jack Coombs. Mr. Cravath hit the thirty-seven-year mark on March 23 last. Hitting the thirty-seven mark is the worst thing Gabby has done in his life. He hits the ball much harder.

The only active player now in baseball who is older than Cravath is Dode Paskert of the Cubs. Paskert will be thirty-eight years old next August.

Cravath, on the road to thirty-eight years of age, is the wonder of baseball.

Clifford Carlton Cravath.

Today finds him the batting pacemaker of one of the major leagues. He is playing better ball this year than he has done in the last three or four seasons.

A common estimate of Cravath is that he is a slow-thinking, slow-moving, slow-fielding, good-natured chap who pounds out base hits by sheer might. If it is the common analysis it is the wrong one. Cravath is probably the headiest ball player on his team. He is lasting years after most players pass into retirement, because of brains.

Cravath can divine the intention of an opposing pitcher far better than his younger and more agile pals. He has a pair of sharpshooter eyes and uses them for seeing purposes. When Cravath drives out a smoking hit you can rest assured that he knew what was being served to him and was set for it. There is no hit-or-miss style with him.

He knows how to play for batsmen in right field and plays hits against the wall at the Philadelphia park better than any other right-fielder with the Phils or on an opposing team. Cravath makes his defensive skill all the more valuable by his uncanny throwing. Cravath actually is one of the best throwing outfielders in America. Speaker can have a ball faster, but even Speaker can't throw with the judgment of Cravath.

HOT AFTER PETTY GAMBLERS

New York American League Club Making Usual Drive Against Betting at Polo Grounds.

Officials of the New York American league club are making their usual drive against the petty gamblers who infest the main grandstand back of third base and the list of gamblers who find it impossible to get into the Polo grounds when the Yankees are playing is growing as a result, says a New York Evening Sun critic. Since the activity against these bettors was started by Yankee officials many gamblers have been led to the gate, given a refund on their admission and told to keep out. Some have attempted to return, but find themselves barred and must do their small fry wagering over the ticker tape, if at all, when the Yanks are home.

Baseball's hold on the American public is due in the most part to the integrity of the players and the fact that the finger of suspicion cannot be pointed at the result of the games. For this reason it always has been the aim of those identified with the sport to drive out the gambling element. The game is better off without persons of this ilk, and the owners of the Yankees are to be commended on their stand. These gamblers make themselves obnoxious and objectionable not only to the club management but to the other fans who put home loyalty above a paltry dollar or two.

BUILT HOMES FOR VICTIMS

Specialty Constructed Apartments in England for War Cripples. Specially constructed apartments are being built for disabled soldiers in London. Elevators are provided for the wheeled chairs, and balconies and rooms are so constructed that chairs can be run in and out without difficulty.

In addition there are communal washing and drying rooms, an entertainment room and a recreative workshop where the men can amuse themselves making models or following any hobby. Many of the men already are installed with their wives and families.

Prays for United States.

At least one foreigner who has been granted his first papers for citizenship commanded the respect of County Clerk Williams at Elyria, O. When handed the document he got on his knees, removed his hat and prayed for his adopted country. Williams has issued hundreds of papers, but this is the first time prayer ever accompanied the transaction.

All Returning Yanks Not Minus Dollars

Brest, July 31.—American dough-boys sailing from Brest are not returning without money despite the high cost of living in France.

In three days the Camp Finance Officer at Brest exchanged $233,401 francs into American dollars for home ward bound Yankees. Thirty thousand returning soldiers and officers carried back to the United States $1,372,233 on board the transports during the three days. The rate of exchange allowed them was six francs flat. Captain Stockwell, Camp Finance Officer, says it is nothing unusual for his office to exchange two million francs in one day.

AT THE STRAND

Have you ever gone forth in an automobile with a dog, a cat and a shotgun, looking for a grandmother? That is what the heroine of "You Never Saw Such A Girl," a new Paramount photoplay, coming to the Strand theatre two days, Friday and Saturday, undertakes to do. Vivian Martin has the leading role and really, it is said to be one of the most delightful and whimsical stories ever transferred to the screen. The direction is by Robert Vignola and the original novel was written by George Weston. Clever Marion Fairfax put it into screen form.

Of course the heroine has adventures, and, equally of course, she finds romance and gains a husband before she gets through with her pilgrimage. She doesn't find a grandmother—but after all, for a young and romantic girl, possibly a husband and a fortune are more to be desired.

Harrison Ford is leading man of the production. The cast includes some important players and the settings are said to be highly effective.

Henderson Appeals to Prevent Claims

C. R. Henderson, freight agent of the North Western, has issued the following statement to shippers of the Peninsula division:

"By the careful and prompt handling of freight we are endeavoring to eliminate loss, damage and delay to shipments in transit, thereby removing the irritations and annoyances resulting from causes of this kind, giving better satisfaction to our patrons and incidentally reduce our claim account.

"Every day is now a claim prevention day on the C. & N. W. R. R., particularly the month of August, which we have designated as claim prevention month.

"We ask you to join us in the effort for better service and efficiency by using proper containers, packing shipments carefully and marking them plainly with name and address of consignee.

"We solicit suggestions along claim prevention lines, in which you are as vitally interested as the carrier."

Coblentz Folks Are Again Using Silver

Coblentz, July 31.—Civilians in Coblentz have recently been bringing to light their stores of silverware and jewelry which have been in hiding most of the time since the Americans came to Germany.

Proceeding the American army of occupation were wild reports regarding the khaki clad soldiers and most of the civilians, expecting their home to be plundered, hurriedly placed their valuables in safety deposit vaults in the banks or in their backyards.

Now that the Germans have learned to trust the Americans they are telling how and where their treasure has been hidden all these months.

The Kind of People That Make Good

We look up to people who have thrift, energy and good habits. They are always getting ahead. They always have money at command when wanted. The grocer extends the glad hand. And the dry goods man is glad to see them. The bill collector does not call and the installment house leaves them alone. We like these people. We prize their friendship. They are customers of this bank.

Perrin Walch.

Miss Rose Walch, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Walch of 118 South 12th street, and Levi Perrin were united in marriage this morning at Iron Mountain, the Rev. Father Corcoran, former Escanaba man, performing the ceremony. They were married at 9 o'clock and were unattended.

The announcement of their marriage came as a big surprise, as it was not expected the nuptials would be celebrated until some time the latter part of next month. This morning they left in an automobile with only members of the family and a few intimate friends aware of their intentions. It was in the nature of an elopement, so far as friends were concerned.

Miss Walch was born and reared in this city and has a host of friends who will be delighted to hear of her marriage to Mr. Perrin. For the past several years she was engaged as a teacher in the Webster school. The groom is probably as prominently known and well liked as the bride, having made Escanaba his home except for the service. He was discharged from the navy several months ago. The bride and groom will go from Iron Mountain to Milwaukee and Chicago on a wedding trip, returning here in a week or ten days. Plans for the future have not been announced.

Miss Walch is a sister of Dr. John J. Walch, who recently returned from service overseas in the medical corps.
