DELAWARE TO DETERMINE THE WOMAN'S HOPE

Will Be Thirty-Sixth State to Ratify the Amendment.

Hughes Gives Opinions Satisfactory to Wishes of Women.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) DOVER, Delaware, March 23.—Whether the women of the country will take part in the approaching presidential election at the polls in the primary and in the election in November as provided for in the federal amendment to the constitution will be decided by the state of Delaware which is now in session. Thirty five out of the required thirty six states have already ratified the amendment. One more will make it a law. Both the supporters of the cause and the opponents feel certain of victory in the fight.

Hughes Opinion. NEW ORK, March 23.—Claims of anti-suffragists that the Anthony amendment to the federal constitution is states only where the legislatures has ratified the constitution or other action for an amendment similar to it had been taken are erroneous in an opinion recently made by Charles E. Hughes former Justice of the Supreme Court. The opinion was given for the Woman Suffrage association of America.

Mr. Hughes also advised that claims of the opposition that the women would be permitted to vote only for senators and representatives was erroneous.

Gymnasium Remains Closed; No Practice for Basket Ball Team

Up to today there has been no change in the basketball situation at the high school. The gymnasium is still closed and will remain so until the students responsible for piling books and papers on the stage floor a few weeks ago, right the matter, school authorities said this afternoon.

As a result of the closing order there has been no basket ball practice since the team returned from the Houghton tournament, and unless the boys take the matter into their own hands, the proposed plans for a trip to Ann Arbor, will be abandoned.

CONFERENCE MAY TAKE ACTION ON TROOP QUESTION

Czechs Protest Giving Germany Power to Act With Soldiers.

(BULLETIN) BERNE, Switzerland, March 23.—More than 300 persons have been killed in the fighting at Elberfeld and in the Ruhr district which bears on the zone of the occupied territory according to dispatches received here today.

The Communists have taken more than 500 prisoners at Reichswear and Elberfeld and according to the reports nearly the entire industrial center in Westphalia is in the hands of the Communists.

(BULLETIN) COPENHAGEN, March 23.—The whole western industrial districts of Germany is held in the grasp of the radicals and the government is unable to take it away from them according to an estimation made this morning in some of the German papers and transmitted here by wire.

'The Social democrats learned that a purely workers government was wanted and would possibly be formed with the socialists.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) LONDON, March 23.—The situation in the Ruhr valley, the strong holds of the German Reds is expected in diplomatic and military circles to remain the same until the peace conference commission takes some action as to whether the German troops will be permitted to enter that territory.

The conference has received a protest from the representatives of Czechoslovakia against such an act. The conference failed to reach a decision on the action to be taken.

This is the only case in which the Entente is going to take action, it is believed, because under the terms of the treaty of Versailles, Germany was to retain no power in that district.

It is believed here that the Entente will still stand by the "hands off" policy notwithstanding the fact that the British mission in Berlin attempted to discuss the situation with the Ebert government officials.

COAL PRICES IN HANDS OF CORPORATION

Report of Coal Commission Approved By Wilson.

Expect Price to Consumer Will Be Advanced to Meet Extra Costs.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) WASHINGTON, March 23.—The government power to set the price of bituminous coal was withdrawn today by President Wilson and will become effective April 1.

At the same time the president approved of the report submitted by the commission of operators and miners dealing with the wage adjustment which was approved. A wage agreement between the miners and the operators will be made in the near future.

April 1 is the date set on which the wage agreement would become effective and by the government relinquishing control on that day the president would pave the way for an increase to the consumer in the price of bituminous coal.

The President wrote the operators and men that it was "essential to the good of the public and the general welfare" that the agreement be accepted at the earliest possible date so that the fuel supply situation may be ended and so that the consumer may again be able to enter into his contracts for the coming year.

The president said also that he assumed there would be no objections on either side with regard to the negotiations and he was sure also that there would be no findings of a challenge to the award of the commission even though the report of the commission was not a unanimous one.

WIRE SERVICE IS HAMPERED BY THE NORTHERN LIGHTS

Beautiful Vision Seen in the Sky Here Last Night; Wonderful Colors.

Telegraph service all over the country was hampered last night because of the Northern Lights which were so visibly clear in the sky.

The scenic beauty of the lights was seen by many local people. Starting with a dull reflection in the west the lights gradually grew clearer until late in the evening when the entire north western sky seemed to be in the path of the glowing colors.

Information from the Western Union telegraph company this morning was to the effect that the telegraph lines were hampered by the earth turns which are a direct cause of the astronomic change at the time the lights are seen.

Reports from Green Bay say that telegraph service was hampered all the way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast in this country. New York city was forced to cut out service for over half an hour until the conditions had changed so that resumption of business was possible.

The first signs of wire trouble were noticed early in the evening when the weather signs were received over the wires.

Operators at the office said today that the time required to take the messages was much greater last night than at any ordinary time. This trouble is attributed to the lights.

The Associated Press special telegraph wires were hit hard by the lack of service. In many quarters of the country the hour between 9 and 10 o'clock is the busiest in the transmission of world news. It was necessary to postpone many of the messages because of the uncleanness at the time.

Lawrence Girls Glee Club Comes Here Saturday. The following comment on the Lawrence College Girls' Glee club was received today by officers of the Girls' League of the high school, under whose auspices, the club will give a concert here Saturday, March 27.

"First concert at Menasha Friday night. It went off fine. The program is well chosen and is put on in fine style."

The meeting was adjourned shortly after taking up record time having been made on the questions which were decided.

CITY COUNCIL WOULD FAVOR FREE IRELAND

Old Erin's Stand Is Indorsed by Escanaba City Council.

Other Action Taken by the Council At Extremely Short Meeting.

Old Erin gained a new set of friends last night when the Escanaba city council unanimously adopted a resolution favoring the establishment of an Irish Republic.

The resolution was introduced by Alderman Pryal and supported by Alderman Tolman. It follows:

"Resolved, That the common council of the city of Escanaba expresses its heartfelt sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for a government of their own choice."

Following the introduction of the resolution and the immediate support which was given it, each alderman showed himself to be in high favor of the proposition by the ready manner in which he voted in the affirmative.

When called on for his vote, Alderman Tolman, one of the enthusiastic solons of the council, said, "You bet." A spirit of mirth and laughter prevailed for a few minutes while each alderman patted himself on the back for taking such a stand.

The city of Escanaba, through the action taken last night, gains the distinction of being the first in the Upper Peninsula to take such action. Others it is believed will follow suit.

The Irish question has been prominent in the minds of many people in this part of the state of late because of the growing sentiment in this country for the recognition of a republic for that nation. The proposition has been further induced by the impetus added recently in Congress when a favorable bill was adopted which is similar to the resolution of the council only on a larger scale and representative of more people.

The councilmen received many congratulations this morning from local people for the action taken.

A communication was received by the city from Lansing relative to the telephone hearing. The date for the hearing has been postponed twice and notice was received that it has been set for April 20.

The city, it is believed, will be represented at the hearing if the action taken by the council works out in the manner many believe it may.

The council empowered Mayor Chatfield and President Pryal to confer with Attorney T. J. Riley on the matter and leave to him the question of sending a representative to the hearing session when it is held. Mr. Riley was sent to the first hearing by the county, but represented the city at the same time. It is likely that to him will be left the task.

A communication was also received asking the city to take action on the proposition of abolishing the Public Utility Commission through constitutional amendment. A resolution to the effect of disapproval was introduced and referred to the board of public works.

A request was made by the city treasurer, asking that he be reimbursed for an amount equal to a tax rebate paid to A. G. Gerdel. The matter was put into the hands of the city attorney.

The poor committee was authorized to purchase the necessary amount of wood for the poor of the city during the coming season.

The meeting was adjourned shortly after taking up record time having been made on the questions which were decided.

Rub into the flour one-half cupful of sweet fat and add one and one-half cupfuls of milk slowly. Grandmother's Cookies.—Cream one-half cupful of any good fat, add one cupful of sugar, one-half cupful of sour milk, one teaspoonful of soda and four cupfuls of flour. Sift the flour with a half-teaspoonful of salt, add the soda dissolved in the milk, and mix all the ingredients together. Roll out on a floured bread board, sprinkle with granulated sugar and bake twelve minutes in a hot oven.

Cocoa Nut Bars.—Cream half a cupful of butter substitute and two cupfuls of sugar together; add one-half cupful of milk slowly, then two well-beaten eggs. Add one-half teaspoonful of soda dissolved in one tablespoonful of water, then sift in one cupful of cocoa. Sift together with three cupfuls of flour, a half teaspoonful each of cream of tartar and salt. Mix; and roll one-fourth inch in thickness, and cut in strips four inches long and one inch wide. Brush the top with well-beaten egg, sprinkle with chopped nuts, and bake in a hot oven twelve minutes.

Beef Steer for Luncheon.—Peel and cook six onions, covering them with boiling water, and let them cook until nearly tender, then add a can of tomato soup, a can of peas, a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of chili sauce and one pound of sliced stewed beef. MINES MENACE SHIPS

Germans Have Not Finished Sweeping Their Area

American Field Sweeps as Completely as Possible, Says Admiral Knapp. London.—Until the Germans complete the sweeping of mine fields they laid in the North Sea there will be considerable danger to shipping in waters adjacent to the British Isles, say British and American naval authorities. Even after that work has ended, which will not be before next summer, there will be some danger which, they predict, will gradually diminish. "The American barrage is swept as completely as is humanly possible," Admiral Harry S. Knapp, of the American navy, said to the Associated Press correspondent. "After our area had been pronounced one hundred per cent clear we reswept 800 miles of it and found only four more mines. These were at a buoyed spot where the sweepers believed they had missed some." "The greatest menace now," said Lieutenant Commander Benson, of the international mine destroying committee, "is the unswept German area. Until that field has been cleared there will be many drifting mines about. Afterward there will be some danger, but it will rapidly diminish as the elements destroy the effectiveness of the mines." He said the committee accounted for mines on the basis that five per cent explode when laid, five per cent are defective, ten per cent soon become useless through leakage and fifty per cent of the total number laid are destroyed by the different systems of sweeping employed by the British and Americans. Committee members believe that a great many of the other thirty per cent will be carried by the natural northward currents of the North Sea into Arctic ice packs and destroyed; others will go ashore on the Norwegian coast, as have many already; a great number will become harmless through remaining in the water and a certain number will be destroyed by patrols which the British navy still is maintaining. Also the British navy has just armed all merchantmen, except those calling at Irish ports, with high velocity rifles with which to destroy any mines sighted.

CHAMPAGNE THING OF PAST

Soil of District Where Produced Said to Be Permanently Destroyed. Paris.—Champagne soon will be a thing of the past. The original shallow top soil of the Champagne district is reported to be permanently destroyed by the ravages of war and re-fertilization is deemed impracticable because of the chalky character of the subsoil. No attempt is to be made to rebuild the Cathedral of Rheims, which is likely to remain as a war monument. The present inhabitants of the city are mostly speculators who are investing millions in buying destroyed or damaged property at a big discount, hoping to recover from the government the original cost plus war inflation. The city is still without light, water or heat, hotels, restaurants or tramways, and operators or taxicabs are reaping huge profits. The sanitary conditions are appalling, the drainage system being unrepared.

The tie-back blouse is one of the favorites of the moment, sharing honors with the slip-over model. A satin skirt may be topped by a blouse of printed velvet; a blouse of blue and black chiffon or silk voile may top a skirt of black taffeta.

In consideration of the payment to each of said companies of the sum of One Dollar, and the assumption by this Company of all the debts, liabilities and obligations of each of said companies; and will ratify the action of its Board of Directors authorizing such purchases upon such terms and conditions. The further purpose of said meeting will be the election of Directors and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting.

POLAND IS FACING PERIL; TYPHUS IS RAGING IN NATION

Appeals to the United States For Relief From Deadly Disease.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) NEW YORK, March 22.—A whole nation in peril of being wiped out by typhus is the startling cable report received by Felix Warburg, head of the Joint Distribution Committee, American Jewish Relief disbursing organization, from Dr. Julius Goldman, European director-general of Jewish Relief Work, upon his recent arrival in Warsaw to assume charge of American Jewish Relief organization. "Dreadful typhus epidemic affecting 95 per cent of the population of Poland," Dr. Goldman cabled. "Undernourishment makes it impossible to combat typhus and other diseases." To help combat at the frightful epidemic which spread to Poland from Siberia and which threatens to overrun all of Eastern Europe, $100,000 from American Jewish Relief funds has been appropriated for the immediate purchase of fuel with which to operate sanitation machinery, particularly delousing and sterilizing apparatus. Instead of purchasing anti-typhus medicine, as had been intended, Jewish Relief workers urged the purchase of fuel, as the epidemic could be fought more successfully with sterilizing machinery than with medicine. "Census shows 2,500,000 Jews in extreme destitution," Dr. Goldman's cable began. "High premature death rate partly due to exposure and lack of clothing. Present child food allowance one-third normal daily requirements. Our feeding of 300,000 Jewish children only reaches half the country. Expected closing of this agency on account exhaustion of funds will be great catastrophe. Seventy per cent population undermined in health. Mortality increasing daily. Must have immediately 10,000 tons of flour monthly and other food stuffs in proportion. Must have clothing and shoes for at least one million people."

Tapa Cloth.

The decorative material known as tapa cloth is in reality not cloth at all. It is a form of paper. In the South Sea Islands it is made from the pounded bark of the paper mulberry, but it occurs in some form in every tropical country in the world. In the jungles of Brazil, in the steaming swamps of Africa, natives still make tapa. The ancient Aztec and Mayas and Egyptians, the early inhabitants of China and Japan, had learned the use of tapa in its modern form of paper to convey literary thought as well as artistic efforts. And in Mexico and the Chinese republic it still holds its early usage in offering a simple and easily decorated material for ceremonial costumes.—M. D. C. Crawford in Asia Magazine.

Money is still pouring in to American Red Cross headquarters from men who have returned to America, whose interest in their wards or some destitute family has not waned, and it is now certain that many of these children will have food, clothing and education during the next twelve months.

AT THE STRAND. Appearing in a photoplay of intense dramatic interest, Pauline Frederick was seen at the Strand Theatre yesterday in her latest Paramount picture, "Resurrection," pictured by Charles E. Whittaker, from the immortal story by Count Leo Tolstoy. The picture was in every respect a magnificent one and proved delightful to the large audience that was in attendance.

In this photoplay Miss Frederick portrays the role of Katusha, a beautiful, half-Gypsy Russian girl, who is betrayed by Prince Nekludov and who suffers the inexorable penalty of her transgression—that of becoming an outcast, who is driven from door to door, scorned by all and without shelter, until she assumes the hazardous existence of her Magdalen sisters. There come years of degradation for Katusha and she slowly descends the social ladder, until one day, while entertaining a man of wealth, who has been robbed by two women, she administers a sleeping potion to him and the man dies. She is thereupon arrested for his murder, convicted and sentenced to imprisonment in Siberia.

Shah of Persia Superstitious. The young shah of Persia has nearly 200 mascots, most of them bearded men which have played some part in the history of his predecessors, an exchange states. Chief among these is a cube of amber which, according to Eastern lore, fell from heaven in Mohammed's time. It is supposed to ward off danger, and the shah usually wears it round his neck. Another famous mascot is the gold star which is said to have the power of making criminals confess. Perhaps the quaintest charm that the shah carries is a little box of gold set in emeralds and dating from the days of the prophet, who is said to have blessed it. It is believed to have the power of rendering members of the Persian royal family invisible so long as they are celibates, but it is not on record whether any the shahs have put its powers in this respect to the test.

THE 'WHY' OF THE INTER-CHURCH WORLD.

The Interchurch World Movement, now moving actively toward its goal of a more united Christian effort, has uncovered religious conditions which must shock the attention of laymen, as well as of the most conscientious church worker.

In the small town, there were discovered four little churches located on the four corners of a cross-roads intersection. Each was supported for a time by its own sincere little group. All struggled along, and all were more or less unsuccessful. Finally, the four groups reached an agreement by which a united service was held in each of the four buildings in weekly rotation. In winter, the common stove was moved from building to building.

Three empty churches each Sunday, and one working!

One great denomination has forty per cent of its churches vacant each Sunday—mostly in rural communities.

These are economic wastes that challenge the common sense of every Christian, but they are not nearly so serious as the fact that other communities, in many cases closely adjoining are over-churched, but it is also true that far more have no religious facilities at all.

The ruinous duplication of work in foreign-mission fields is too well known to need more than mere mention.

And it is not this mere duplication of material resources which has handicapped the church. There have been overlapping rivalries in faith, and competitions in denominational creeds far more detrimental to the whole Christian world; and there are vast unoccupied fields of religious work which no Christian instrumentality has yet attempted to cultivate.

Orderliness, unified effort, cooperation—these are the forces which are challenging the Churches to cease their rivalries and their jealousies, and to join together in the common work of the Christian faith.

Will the churches meet this test?

RAIL REPAIR NEGLECTED.

Prior to the war the railroads were buying from 2,500,000 to 3,000,000 tons of rails per year for use in extending or maintaining their tracks. During the past year under Government operation, the railroads used only 1,000,000 tons of rails for similar purposes. It is very evident, therefore, that on the return of the roads to their private owners the tracks are not up to the normal condition. The private owners must make increased expenditures during succeeding years in order to make up for the neglect which the roads suffered under Government operation.

Sand Lots Games Are Being Boomed For Baseball Teams

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
DETROIT, Mich., March 23.—Plans to arouse increased interest in "sand lot" baseball were considered at a meeting here today of the National Baseball federation. A campaign will be conducted this season, it was announced, to interest the larger cities in the United States in organized juvenile baseball, and group the cities into regional districts.

One of the aims of the federation is the establishment at Washington of a national department of recreation which would provide the means for all athletes in the country unable to purchase their own equipment.

New rules reducing the size of balls and bats used by boys under sixteen years of age, and providing for seven instead of nine inning games probably will be adopted by the conference here.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE By Condo

Kalamazoo—A school for city officials has been established at the city hall. The city officials themselves are alternately teachers and students. The purpose of the school is to acquaint each city official fully with what the other departments are doing.

Pontiac—R. J. Corryell, of Birmingham, has been named secretary-treasurer of the Oakland county farm bureau and will have general charge of its activities. Incorporation of the bureau as a buying and selling organization to handle farm produce is under way.

Detroit—Should the United States ratify the League of Nations, the fight for the freedom of the Irish people would be lost forever, was the statement made by Havelock J. Northmore, attorney, in a speech before members of the Robert Emmett branch of the Friends of Irish Freedom.

Detroit—Entering the near-beer saloon of Alex Lorenzowicz, 1169 Twentieth street, shortly before noon, a bandit beat the proprietor of the place over the head with a blackjack and walked out with the contents of the cash register, $7, leaving Lorenzowicz unconscious behind the bar.

Detroit—Michigan Catholics, following a meeting of more than 600 priests and church workers in Knights of Columbus temple, launched a gigantic campaign for $4,000,000 for the construction of a new seminary of the Sacred Heart at Linwood avenue and Joy road.

Pontiac—A club house for women is planned in the downtown district, where members of women's clubs may have rest rooms and club facilities. There will also be community center accommodations for young women who come here to work and live in rented rooms.

Ann Arbor—Bird experts here have exploded the old myth that the robin is the first bird back from the South in the spring. The first robin is merely a lazy hang-over from last fall. They say he stays until cold weather catches him and then hides in a swamp coming out with the first warm sunshine.

Detroit—Two armed men, claiming to be liquor sleuths for the federal government, robbed the home of Emil Mamer, 527 Concord avenue, of jewelry and clothing valued at $375. Once in the house one of the thieves held Mamer up at the point of a gun while the second ransacked the place from cellar to attic. They were disappointed in their hunt for liquor.

Grand Rapids—Michigan Socialists, at their state convention in Grand Rapids, passed a resolution demanding that the United States effect the establishment of peaceful relations with Soviet Russia and asserted that the United States has no right to interfere in the internal affairs of Russia. Eugene V. Debs, now serving a prison term for alleged acts of disloyalty, was unanimously endorsed and hailed as a "champion of the common people" and as a "prince of humanity."

Detroit—Notwithstanding the fact that department of justice agents literally broke the back of the Detroit branch, Communist Party of America, three months ago when they arrested more than 800 alleged members, the radical organization is again gaining strength in Detroit. Although recent activities of federal agents have caused members of the Communist party to discard membership cards and other evidence which would convict them, new members are constantly being recruited and secret meetings are held weekly.

WOMAN'S VOTE WILL BE SMALLER THAN THAT OF THE MEN

Census Taken As Basis Shows Difference In Population.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Ballots cast by women in the coming Presidential election will fall short of the potential men's vote by over 2,500,000 provided the suffrage amendment is ratified and state registration laws enacted in time to permit women all over the country to participate, according to estimates by the National Woman's Party.

With the 1910 census as a basis, the Woman's party estimates the number of men eligible to vote at 29,577,690, and the possible woman voters at 26,883,566. In 1916, however, the actual vote cast for all various Presidential candidates was 18,588,743, omitting votes unregistered. If as large a proportion of the men voters remain indifferent in the coming election, women political leaders here say that the eagerness of women to exercise their newly acquired privilege may more than offset the disparity in numbers between the sexes.

In five of the states, moreover, women of voting age outnumber the men. Massachusetts has the greatest preponderance of women "voters" with 58,264 more women than men, North Carolina is next with a women's majority of 15,288 and South Carolina with 10,307 is third. In Rhode Island women of voting age outnumber the men by 3,196 and in Maryland by 1,292.

Must Be Shot For Stealing Moneys

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WARSAW, March 23.—Lieutenant Stanislaw Zebrowski, of the Polish army, tried by court martial and found guilty of a charge of having misappropriated 10,000 marks belonging to his regiment, has been sentenced to be shot, it was announced recently. At the present rate of exchange, 10,000 marks is the equivalent of about $63 in American money. The prosecution contended at the hearing that Zebrowski had lost the money betting on horse races.

Electricity in Pathology.

There is much yet to be learned about the pathological effects of electricity, though a step toward better understanding was made during the World war. In the use of charged fences, it was found that the applied 1,000 volts might be fatal in some instances, and without serious action in others. Preparedness for shock often caused the results to be harmless, while unexpected exposure gave fatal effects. Experiments confirmed this. In other experiments differences were shown by different currents, a direct current producing simple shock, and an alternating current giving rise to epileptic symptoms. Victims of shock are often only apparently dead, promptly applied artificial respiration bringing complete recovery.

Michigan Leaders Don't Fear Women

"Political activities of women in Michigan have so far not aroused undue fear on the part of politicians that they will not hear straight to the line," was the statement of a newspaper woman who attended the recent victory suffrage convention in Chicago. "The Equal Suffrage League which did particularly strong work in the state campaign for suffrage has quietly gone out of existence," she added. "Individual members of this, in some instances, have allied themselves with the Michigan League of Woman Voters. More than 400 women of Grand Rapids have become members of the Lincoln Club, the big Republican club of the city, following the advice of the Republican chairman to 'join the party of your choice, whatever it is.'"

Strength of Plywood.

Plywood is wood of any variety that has been cut by a machine into thin layers and glued together again in such a way that the grain of one layer runs at an angle to the grain of two adjacent layers. The strength of a plywood panel, in two planes, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine, greatly exceeds that of steel. With some wood, by combining cuts it is even possible to get greater resistance to stress in all three planes than steel affords, though it is rarely necessary to go so far. Ordinary wood used for aeroplane construction is not required to withstand severe stresses in more than two planes. What plywood means to aeroplane construction is well illustrated by the De Havilland-4. Before that method of using wood was invented the best aeroplane wing rib weighed 7.95 ounces, and was capable of sustaining a load of only 91 pounds. Since then the plywood rib used on the De Havilland weighs 5.12 ounces and will carry a load of 274 pounds.

Look for a new stenographer in "the want ad way"—engaging her upon your own judgment, not upon some friend's recommendation.

Vanadium in Steel.
The influence of the addition of small proportions of vanadium to steel is twofold: it acts as a scavenger, removing oxides, nitrides, etc., in a form easily carried away to the slag, and it also toughens the steel directly, by its solid solution, under normal conditions, in the carbonless portion, known as ferrite. In addition it forms complex carbides of such a nature as greatly to strengthen the steel statically. The result is a product so vastly superior to the ordinary carbon steel as to render it practically a new material of construction, especially for situations in which shocks must be met and resisted. The combination of high strength and great toughness makes it the material above all others for automobile parts, as well as for railway axles and engine frames, for springs, for the important parts of vessels and for bridges and similar structures.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Escanaba people. Ask your neighbor!
Mrs. J. S. Smith, 502 Charlotte St., Escanaba, says: "I found Doan's Kidney Pills to be a valuable medicine for backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. I got them at the Mead Drug Store and they acted just as represented."

Always Gets Good Results.
Five years later, Mrs. Smith said: "I use Doan's occasionally and they keep my back and kidneys in good condition. This medicine in my estimation is the very best of kidney remedies."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Smith had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Carferries Will Make Lake Ports Start In April

An Arbor carferry number 5 and 6 succeeded in breaking through the ice at Keweenaw, Wis., which has held the mouth of the harbor and the relief of the number 3 which has been in the port for over a week and was in need of coal before it could attempt to crush its way through the ice so as to get to the eastern shore.

The coal that has been tied up by the inability of the carferries to get through the ice that has blocked the harbors of Manitowoc and Keweenaw has begun to move again and cities threatened with coal shortage along the route of the Ann Arbor railroad have been relieved. It is thought that no more trouble will be had from the ice this year.

It is said that the twin cities will not have a boat in there before the middle of April or later. The ice in the bay has been unusually thick this year and with the continued cold weather which has hindered the thawing process it is likely that it will take longer for the bay to clear of ice than was expected.

An unusually large amount of freight is to be moved this spring and it is said there will be on an average of two boats a day for the twin cities, to take care of the immense amount of freight that moves through this port.

An effort is being made to organize the 12,000 girl telephone operators in New York City.

THE production of crude oil is, in itself, a highly specialized business.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) recognizes this fact, and leaves to others the drilling of wells, the operation of pipe lines, and the other activities incident to the production, storage and transportation of petroleum.

It buys its requirements of crude oil on the open market and pays the market price.

The business which engages the attention of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the manufacture, distribution, and sale of the products of petroleum.

The Company goes into the oil fields and buys the Crude it wants from whoever has it for sale. In this way the Company is able to select with care the raw material it uses, and is not hampered in its endeavor to render greater service by being tempted to use Crude which is not exactly suited to its needs.

By devoting all of its time to the business of refining and marketing, the Company is able to fulfill its obligation to the public by supplying petroleum products of the highest known standards—to maintain at all times a uniformity of quality—and to manufacture in such volume and in such variety of forms—as to enable it to sell these products at a low price.

FRANKLIN K. LANE TO "FOLLOW ON"

Accepts Invitation to Become National Chairman of Salvation Army's Annual Appeal for Funds.

WASHINGTON'S BEST BELOVED RESTARTING LIFE AT 55.

Former Cabinet Officer Before Entering the Oil Business as an Executive for the Debeny Interests Will Lead His Great Abilities to the Church Militant Organization.

Franklin K. Lane, referred to far and wide as "Washington's best loved man," is undertaking two notable innovations at an age when most men think mainly of retiring to the quiet of private life.

Two history making statements from a man of Mr. Lane's attainments and station in life! And the remarkable part of it all is that he puts the shirt-sleeve matter—the thing about helping his neighbors—ahead of that other thing—making more money in order the better to underwrite the Autumn of his life!

Few men reach a higher niche in the affections and confidence of the public mind than has this remarkable man from the West, who was once an editor, then a lawyer and finally a member of the President's cabinet and who withdraws from public life to "earn a better living" after rendering a service to the government the extent and value of which would be impossible to estimate.

Franklin K. Lane has accepted an invitation from Commander Evangeline Booth to become the national chairman for the Salvation Army's annual appeal for funds in 1920.

"It is a genuine privilege to find opportunity for encouraging a work so direct and practical and so valuable to the masses of the people as the work of the Salvation Army," said Mr. Lane at his office in Washington the other day.

"When Commander Miss Booth asked me to take the responsibilities of national chairman for the 1920 appeal of that organization," continued the secretary, "the first thought that flashed across my mind was, How can I spare time for such work when I am entering upon a commercial task of great responsibility?"

"And then there flashed across my mind a vision of the things the Salvation Army does—the help it gives to men and women and little children just when and where they need it most—and I thought to myself that after all there could be no more important thing than this. So I accepted—along with the other job—and I am trusting to the generosity of my new employers to endorse my action in the matter.

"I believe every right thinking man and woman in America owes the Salvation Army some of his or her time every year. And I am going to pay my share. I am going to get my shoulder squarely behind the movement for human that can win the hearts and the confidence of the common people like this Salvation Army has won them in recent years. I am going to pull off my coat and do some real work that will show where I stand when it comes to weighing the homely, unostentatious and highly practical relief methods of this amazing band of workers. I heard the call. The problems of the poor are there to be solved, and they can use my poor efforts perhaps, so I have answered the call.

"I won't do much talking in the coming drive. I will do real work, and when I do talk I don't want to talk to anyone but actual workers. There will be no speech making by me to those who might be curious to hear a former cabinet officer in action, but who are not interested in the work of the Salvation Army. I shall talk to workers and only to workers. The day for entry in such matters has gone. We are down to brass tacks.

"I think I owe it as a citizen of America to show my understanding and appreciation of the helpful work the Salvation Army is doing in its rescue homes, maternity hospitals, free clinics, industrial homes, fresh air farms and tenement house relief work.

"My testimony is not needed, however, in this matter. There are 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 of young Americans who went into the recent war either unaware that the Salvation Army existed or having no use for its methods if they did know of it. So far as I can learn these men came out of that war unanimous on one subject—and that was that the Salvation Army understood the average man, knew how to deal with him and simply 'delivered the goods' on the 100 per cent basis.

"There is no division of opinion on that one subject. There could have been no greater test for the Salvation Army than the test it received in the war. So after all I am merely adding my voice to the mighty chorus I have referred to when I say that the Salvation Army has long since won the right to make an appeal to the rest of us for its maintenance, and I am sure it will not make that appeal in vain.

"The Salvation Army one year ago abandoned its old custom of begging in the streets the year around so that its workers could devote all of their time and attention to the poor. It makes an annual appeal each May. Personally I know of no greater bulwark that could be raised against the rising tide of human unrest than to strengthen the hands of this band of self sacrificing Christian toilers who have the confidence of all men and women, regardless of race, creed, color or position in life. I think it is important for the interests of our advancing civilization that such a practical and wholesome work be stimulated and maintained to the utmost.

"They say there are no 'down and outers' any more. Personally I do not believe it, or if I did believe it I would know that the abnormal times have swung the pendulum back too far on one side—and that it will swing far to the other side directly. There will always be a bottom to society. The poor will always be with us. We owe it to our fellow men to know our neighbor and share his troubles and problems, and only by that method can we, in all fairness and righteousness, keep the scales even in this life.

"I am proud to face the problems of the poor with the Salvation Army in such a trying hour, and I hope that American men and women will stand with me in the work ahead of us. But they must be workers. I shall have no time to entertain mere observers."

Both for the organization that gives aid and relief to the poor and for the poor themselves, the high cost of living has been a troublesome factor in recent months. Money does not go far these days, but there's no one in the world who can get more worth-while work out of a dollar than can the Salvationists. In this country they gave away 3,699,767 meals in the twelve-month ending last September 30, and provided 371,334 meals besides at approximate cost. They supplied free beds for 1,131,547 night lodgings and 1,498,887 at a merely nominal charge. And in addition to all this and to all that was done for thousands in the Army institutions they gave temporary relief to 709,351 persons.

"Cravat" Really "Croat."

Cravat is another word for one we are hearing often these days. Cravat means Jugo-Slav. It is a corruption of the word Croat. During the reign of Louis XIV the French copied from the Croatian soldiers of the royal Croatian regiment a scarf which they wore around their necks. It was something new to the French and they took to it readily with the result that cravats became quite popular. At first they were made of muslin and linen and had broad edges of lace, but they, too, have changed and present-day batwings and four-in-hands are developments which weren't thought of in those days.

Needham Electric Company Starts Big Marinette Contract

W. H. Needham and a crew of electrical workers left this morning for Marinette where they will start on a big job, wiring and installing electrical equipment in the New Victory Bag and Paper company of that city. The factory is the largest of its kind in this part of the country and turns out millions of paper bags of all sizes each year. Starting in only a little over a year ago in small quarters the company has seen such rapid development that it has been necessary to add several departments to meet the growing demand for paper bags. Mr. Needham and his crew will be in that city for several weeks doing the work. Several electrical contractors had placed bids for the work and it was after the most careful scrutiny that the Escanaba concern was chosen for the task.

Appeal to Automobile Owners to Take Chains Off; Preserve Streets

A co-operative appeal to automobile drivers was made by the city street department and the police officials and the police officials this morning. With the snow leaving the streets and the city getting drier each day the necessity for chains on the rear wheels of automobiles is getting less. The use of the chains during the winter season or any time when there is snow on the streets is necessary, but with the streets as dry and safe as they are at this time, the two departments believe cars can be used without them. The chains are a big factor in wearing down the paved streets and for that reason the departments are asking that they be removed as soon as possible.

GOVERNMENT SENDS REQUEST FOR DATA ON EMPLOYMENT

The following request for information concerning the employment question among ex-service men, has been sent to Mrs. M. B. Turner, chairman of the Red Cross home service section here, to aid the War Department in completing its annual report as well as to assist the discharged soldier.

The local Chapter of the American Red Cross, through its Home Service Section, has been requested by the War Department to assist its Service and Information Branch in securing information concerning employment obtained for discharged soldiers through the various welfare organizations. To facilitate this undertaking a questionnaire has been prepared covering the different phases of the work in order to classify results from the standpoint of the employer as well as the employed. There is evidently an effort, also, to check up the relative value of the work accomplished by the social agencies.

Information is asked concerning the number of ex-service men seeking employment and the number for whom employment was found during the past year; the estimate number still out of work and the number of disabled men eligible but not yet approved by the Federal Board of Vocational Education.

Aside from the need of this information to complete its annual report, there is evidently a desire on the part of the War Department to use this experience in furthering its efforts to reestablish the discharged soldier. Suggestions and recommendations are requested, as well as the prompt cooperation of those in charge of the work. Members of the Red Cross among the ex-service men and others through whom information is available can be of great assistance to the local Chapter in complying with the Government's request for this report.
