Women of City Come Out Openly Opposed to Such Change.

Many People Recall Failure of It in Escanaba Once Before.

Again today the proposed Daylight Savings plan was met with stern opposition. In some quarters of the city reviews disclose the fact that the plan is being considered more as a joke than a serious matter.

A petition in favor of it was being circulated about the city yesterday and this morning and apparently has a good number of signatures attached to it. The petitioner is not being regarded seriously by the opposition who feel that petitions for almost any cause no matter whether they are absurd or of a good nature always result in many signatures being gained for it.

One prominent advertiser who came to the MIRROR office this morning declared himself in favor of having the plan open an hour earlier if they so desired and closed at a corresponding hour but when asked how he stood on the plan as it is proposed at this time he said:

Well, look back at the first experience we had with it a few years ago. The whole city was in confusion and it was practically abandoned by the people here. If it goes through in the same thing will happen to us.

Other Opinions.
Almost unanimous expression at the fire station—it's all right for those who want it but the people in this city do not. Every one is making a joke of the whole thing.

One prominent down town business man when approached on the matter said—"Why I'm pretty busy just now and it does not take much time to tell me that a joke is a joke. This is the most absurd thing I have ever read heard about. No, absolutely no, do not want it."

The next in line to express themselves were the women of the city prominent in business and social affairs. Every woman who was approached this morning although the number was limited because of the short time, disapproved of the plan and said they hoped the city council would see fit to pigeonhole any plan that might come before them in the form of a resolution or petition.

A prominent down town grocer who was approached with a petition after refusing to sign it declared that it was an easy matter for a group of persons to get signatures to a petition. Many people sign petitions when they hardly know what it means, he declared.

Women Oppose It.

Miss Grace McArthur—I think it could be fine universally, but I don't favor its adoption locally.

Mrs. T. E. Strom, prominent leader of the suffrage movement—"If the radicals adopted the daylight saving plan, it would be a fine thing, but otherwise it is ridiculous. This is a broad town and the matter is a broad proposition.

Mrs. M. B. Turner, chairman of the Red Cross home service bureau—"I do not favor it. It's alright if they make it universal, but not for Escanaba. There's enough unrest in the community now.

Miss Mary McColl, deputy county treasurer—"If it were adopted all over the city it would be a fine thing, but in this town it wouldn't work out.

Miss Mary Anderson, head of the department of dry goods—"I do not favor the proposition. It's a fine thing for us, I admit, but adopted by the city alone, it will cause nothing but confusion.

Sergt. Hunter of the recruiting party—"It would be too confusing. Why not all run on the same cylinders?"

MOONSHINER GIVES HIMSELF UP TO THE AUTHORITIES HERE

Nadeau Man Says Ill Health Forced Him to Make Liquor.

Casha Dishneau of Nadeau arrested as a moonshiner was arraigned before United States Court Commissioner Frost this morning and bound over to the United States district court for trial. Unable to secure the necessary bonds he was left in charge of the Federal Marshall who will detain him until the day of the trial unless he gets bondsmen in the meantime.

Federal authorities raided his home at Nadeau last night and took thirty four quarts of moonshine whiskey with a home still. The spoils were taken to this city and placed in the jail where they will be kept for evidence when the trial is called.

When the federal men made the raid last night Dishneau was not at home having been called to Manistique by the death of his mother. He was scheduled to return this morning but before he had time he was communicated with by his wife who told him of the raid and instructed him to go to Escanaba and give himself over to the authorities here.

He arrived this morning and went to the marshal's office where he offered himself up for arrest. A few hours later he was arraigned and bound over for trial in the higher court.

Dishneau told a long and detailed story of his past life and how he got "mixed up" in the liquor game. Having a wife and eight children to support and being unable to engage in manual labor, he declared that he was forced to engage in the illicit traffic to keep his family from starving.

He stated further that he has been a sick man for many years and was forced to take the course he did. In proof of this statement he submitted affidavits from a doctor declaring his condition as he had stated himself.

The beverage and still will be held by the authorities until it is deemed time to destroy them.

Procrastination Was Cause Of The Failure Of Navy

WASHINGTON, March 25.—"Procrastination on the part of Secretary Daniels was responsible for a serious shortage of reserves which proved the initial hardship of the navy during the war," Captain Leight C. Palmer, four times secretary of the bureau of navigation, told the Senate committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war.

"Secretary Baker," Captain Palmer said, "was unable to protect the necessities of the navy even before the United States entered the war." "Even after the declaration of war," the witness said, "he remarked that we had too many reserves already and therefore he asked us to put a stop to taking reserves."

"Did you stop?" Chairman Hales asked him. "No, we needed the men and went ahead getting them."

"I talked with Secretary Baker the other day and he seems not to remember this," the witness declared.

Gladstone Man Has Fingers Cut Off By Rip Saw At Work

William H. Walker of Gladstone an employe of the Gladstone flooring mill suffered painful injuries Tuesday afternoon when two fingers of his hand were caught in a rip saw and torn off. It may be necessary to amputate the other fingers of the same hand to prevent the setting in of blood poisoning.

Mr. Walker is well known in Gladstone having lived there for a number of years. After the unfortunate accident occurred he was placed in the ambulance and hurried to this city where he is being cared for at St. Francis hospital. Nothing definite was learned this morning as to whether or not the amputation of the other fingers is a certainty.

KANSAS SCHOOL DENIES "SOVIET" EXISTENCE THERE

Members of Faculty and Student Body Correct Statement Today.

HAYS, Kansas, March 25.—Nothing existed here in connection with the reported existence of a "Student Soviet" organization at the Fort Hays Normal School. Members of the faculty and student body made the matter clear last night when they corrected the statement to the office of the United States district attorney. Attorney General E. L. Montague received the communication from the secretary of the institution that there was no "existence of a Soviet organization there and no signs which would point toward one."

Hays, Kan., March 25.—The Fort Hays normal school, where young Kansans are made into school teachers, is in the grip of a "student soviet" whose principal occupation is hunting down professors and throwing them into the icy water of the campus lake. Two men have come near drowning. Professor P. Caser Harvey of the English department has telegraphed to the state authorities at Topeka, asking protection, and Attorney General Hopkins, has directed the county attorney to prosecute the offenders.

"All Must Work."

The trouble started when President W. A. Lewis, of the normal school, left the state a few days ago on business. Departing, he suggested a half-holiday, on which men students should build a running track while girls carried water and prepared a meal for the toilers. The suggestion was taken up speedily and "pep" meetings resigned to bring out the whole student body were held. At one of these, it is reported, a woman suggested that girls who did not help should be ducked.

Monday morning an announcement was posted on the college bulletin board that all persons, including the faculty, would be required to report for duty in the lobby of the coliseum at 1 p. m. Tuesday, March 23.

LOWDEN-WOOD CAMPAIGN NOW GETTING WARM

Both Sides Claim They Will Carry Delta In Election.

Soldier-Candidate will Address Audience Here On March 30.

With the presidential primary and the other elections within the next two weeks, interest in Delta county is becoming more centered on the Wood-Lowden fight for the votes in this county.

Both the Lowden and Wood men in Escanaba are doing all within their power to convince the other electors of the good qualities of his champion. Although the campaign is now an open one with numerous mass meetings and the circulation of literature, each supporter is talking to friends and acquaintances on the need for the election of his man.

The business sentiment in the city appears to be nearly equally divided with lawyers, doctors, merchants and other professional men having taken a stand for one or the other.

Also there appears to be a considerable number of local men prominent in the political field who have not taken a stand for either candidate.

Senator Hiram Johnson of California apparently has a great following here although there has been no regular organization of his followers in this county.

Want Johnson.

"I can't understand why the Johnson men in the state have not started an organization here," one prominent politician said yesterday.

"There is no question but that if the Johnson men came to Delta county and just showed that they were in line seriously a tremendously large vote would be cast for him," he said.

Other friends of the California senator point out that the people of Michigan have leaned toward Progressive-Republicanism in the past campaigns and for that reason Johnson would have a ring of followers should he issue a call for support.

The big guns of the Wood campaign will open fire here next week when General Wood himself will appear before an audience at the Delft theater and place the issues of the campaign before the people in a clear light.

Governor Lowden came here last week but owing to train connections and inability to speak that day it was necessary that his address be cancelled. A large number of voters was at the station to meet him on his arrival and leaders of his campaign here point out that he will carry this county by a good margin on April 5.

Election notices have been posted and published by City Clerk Carl Anderson.

The right to cast ballots is given women in Michigan this year. This will mark the advent of the women voting for a national office. Arrangements are being made in the city for an exceptionally heavy vote this spring regardless of the fact that there is no opposition to any of the candidates for city offices.

There will be one more registration day. It will be the Saturday preceding election. The law requires that such a registration be held.

Heretofore registration has been held in the city hall but at the general one, the would be voters must go to the respective polling places.

WILL PROHIBITION PARTY NOMINATE A PRESIDENTIAL MAN

Question Lies With Action of Other Great Parties Just Now.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
 CHICAGO, March 25.—Whether the Prohibition party will nominate a candidate for the presidency and take an active part in the coming presidential campaign depends upon the attitude of the major parties toward the strict enforcement of prohibition, says Virgil G. Hinshaw, of this city, chairman of the party.

There has been considerable speculation among political observers as to whether the Prohibition party would or would not continue its political activity now that prohibition has become a constitutional enactment. Questions have been asked whether the Prohibition party leaders would feel that the party's object had been attained and the time at hand when prohibitionists might return to or become affiliated with one or the other of the major parties.

Chairman Hinshaw believes the battle is not over; that the fight for enforcement of prohibition is still to be won.

"Our organization," he declares, "will continue as long as the alcoholic serpent continues to wiggle its tail." Concerning the party's attitude in the presidential campaign, Mr. Hinshaw said its policies to be enunciated in its national convention at Lincoln, Neb., July 12, would depend entirely upon the action taken at the conventions of the major parties.

"If the major parties fail to come out unequivocally for strict enforcement of existing dry laws we will certainly run a prohibition candidate for president," said Mr. Hinshaw.

"Of course, it is up to the convention whether we will or will not run one anyway. But if the major parties fail to enforce not only the eighteenth amendment but existing prohibition laws as well, I believe there will be breakups that will bring many of their voters and their big men to our side."

As to the party's probable action concerning lesser candidates, it is said that it will seek the election of representatives in Congress, governors, members of legislatures and others who are charged with the enforcement of the dry law.

Ernest H. Cherrington, of Westerville, O., declared that the Anti-Saloon League, of which he is secretary, will work to defeat candidates who are avowedly opposed to prohibition enforcement.

THEATRES

AT THE DELFT.
 Seldom has a cast of such uniform excellence been assembled as that which supports Robert Warwick in his latest Paramount-Artcraft picture, "Told in the Hills," to be shown at the Delft Theatre today. Mr. Warwick's leading woman is Ann Little, famous as the heroine of many of the William S. Hart pictures. Wanda Hawley, who has supported several Paramount Artcraft stars, including Wallace Reid, and Eileen Percy, leading woman for Douglas Fairbanks, are cast in important roles. The male support is equally meritorious. Tom Forman, who recently returned from service and played in Cecil B. de Mille's "For Better, For Worse," has the part of the star's younger brother Charles Ogle. Margaret Loomis, Monte Blue, Bert Hoxie, and Jack Herbert, maintain the high standard.

"Told in the Hills," is a picture of the book of the same name by Marah Ellis Ryan, which has been a "best seller" for thirty years. It is a powerful story of the great outdoors centering around the sacrifice of Jack Stuart, played by Mr. Warwick, who carries the girl his younger brother wronged.

AT THE STRAND.
 The word tenderfoot always caused a laugh among old-time Westerners, yet it was the tenderfoot who did much to open up the wild lawless region and establish order. One of the lines of the new Tom Mix photoplay, "The Coming of the Law," tells the story pretty well. It reads:
 "Another tenderfoot. They're running the West plum to Hell!"
 Tom Mix in this new play shows what a tenderfoot can do—and though he does not try to do it with six-shooters, he certainly does make Dry Bottom, New Mexico, a hell for the outlaw. He soon cleans up the place and brings the law to control it.

Tom Mix does some amazing stunts in this play. It is another genuine Tom Mix thriller. This William Fox star has certainly made the West a delightful place to look at on the screen. Besides the dare-devil stunts and the pretty romance that are woven in his story, he shows some most picturesque locations.

"The Coming of the Law," is now showing at the Strand Theatre.

HEALTH DRIVE AIDS THE CHILDREN SAY HEADQUARTERS

Anti-Tuberculosis Society Refutes Statement About Lies.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
 LANSING, March, 25.—Does the Modern Health Crusade that is being carried on in many schools in Michigan teach the pupil to lie?

This suggestion has been made to the Michigan Anti-tuberculosis Association, and that organization which is trying to introduce the movement into all Michigan schools, is taking pains to get views of persons who have had practical experience with the workings of the Crusade. The Modern Health Crusade is a movement that is designed to create and develop good health habits in young school children, habits that will help them to prevent tuberculosis and other diseases. Each child enrolled in the Crusade is required at stated intervals to make out a card checking off certain kinds of "health chores" that he has done regularly each day, such as washing the hands before meals, sleeping with windows open, and so on. The pupil who keeps a perfect record, checking all the "chores," is in due time promoted to a higher rank of knighthood.

The objection has been raised by a few teachers that this system is likely to teach the pupil to lie, since a boy or a girl can check off "chores" that he or she has not done, and thus gain promotion in knighthood under false pretenses.

While it is admitted that this is a possibility, it is pointed out by the Michigan Anti-tuberculosis Association that this is not likely if the teacher in charge of the cards is interested in the movement and in the health of her pupils. On the contrary, in addition to teaching health habits, the system can be used to teach truthfulness in the pupils by putting them on their honor and thus early making the pupils feel that the checking of a card is a matter of personal honor. In a great many schools the teachers interested in the Modern Health Crusade have found that this is in fact the result—that it is an aid in teaching truthfulness and honor among pupils.

The Michigan Anti-tuberculosis Association during 1920 will attempt to introduce the Modern Health Crusade into many of the schools of Michigan. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Johnson has enthusiastically endorsed the movement, and it is planned to enroll hundreds of thousands of Michigan school pupils as knights during the coming year.

COMPARE FRENCH AND AMERICANS

French Jacobinism Likened Un- to American Ideas of Bolshevism.

England had hysterics over French "Jacobinism" exactly as America is now disturbed about Russian Bolshevism. King George III, the landholding nobility, and Tory press and people. Then under pretense of protecting the nation against a "wide-spread conspiracy to overthrow the constitution" then enacted sedition bills which gagged free speech and free press for thirty years, and broke up all associations of working men and liberals who were demanding parliamentary reforms. Judges quickly interpreted these laws to mean that to advocate "universal suffrage" was "sedition." England repealed these laws in 1831, and has been ashamed of them ever since.

All this is brought out in a startling broadside just issued by Judson King, Executive Secretary, National Popular Government League, Washington, D. C. In parallel columns King quotes from such authorities as Sir Erskine May, author of the celebrated Constitutional History of England, and Federal Judge Anderson, of Boston. There is no comment, but the facts speak for themselves and are of intense interest to any wide awake American concerned over the attempt of the American Tories to enact peace time sedition laws.

The flyer raises the question whether the United States in 1920 shall ape "Tory England" of George III, against whom we waged the Revolutionary war to gain our freedom. We have a suspicion if you will send a 2c stamp to the author, Judson King, 637 Munsey Building, Washington, D. C., he will send you a copy.

Nurses Will Meet At Calumet Soon

MARQUETTE.—The thirteenth district association of the Michigan State Nurses' Association, comprising the northern counties of the upper peninsula, at a meeting at the home of Mrs. E. J. Shepherd on Willow avenue, made preliminary plans for the annual meeting of the state association which will be held in Calumet, June 20 and July 1.

The committee on arrangements is composed of Mrs. John D. McKinon, Miss Paynter, Mrs. H. M. Joy, Mrs. J. E. Shepherd, Miss Catherine Malerie and Miss Anna McCarthy. The reception committee consists of Mrs. Irene Markson, Mrs. Walte, Miss Eliola and Miss Rose Daly, all of Portage Lake.

It is expected that fully fifty delegates will be here from the lower part of the state while a number of other nurses likely will come here during the convention.

WOODSMEN WILL DEMAND 8 HOUR DAY NEXT YEAR

Marinette Labor Organizer Points Out Demands to Be Submitted.

MARINETTE.—According to Organizer James Jandro, representing the International Timber Workers' Union, the formal demand for an eight hour day in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan will be made on April 1. It will be a written demand to come from headquarters of the International and will be addressed to each individual manufacturer. It will include workers from the tree to the market which means that eight hours will be asked in the logging camps as well as mills and factories.

"The demand will be filed on April 1" said Mr. Jandro and the manufacturer will be given thirty days to answer. If at the end of that time the answer proves unfavorable the question of striking to enforce the demands will then be submitted to a referendum of the employees. If the employees vote against strike that will perhaps end the matter for the present but if they favor a strike then further efforts will be made to effect an agreement before the men quit. We may call in the secretary of labor at Washington to make an official investigation and report. There is one thing certain. We will not resort to the strike until every other means is exhausted" concluded Mr. Jandro.

The eight hour day will be asked in all timber working industries such as sawmills, box factories, shingle mills, planing mills, lumber yard and logging employes. According to the union representatives the eight hour day is now in force in the Pacific coast logging and lumbering region.

The demand for an eight hour day will effect every good working concern in Marinette and Menominee. As far as it can be learned there has been no concerted effort on the part of the employers and unless they change their attitude the demand will be met on their part individually. The men in the wood working plants and logging camps are now working ten hours.

Gladstone's Words Recalled To Turk In Question Today

LONDON, March 25.—Disapproval of the Supreme Council's decision to keep the Sultan on the throne in Constantinople, is voiced by many Englishmen who remember Gladstone's fierce denunciation of "Abdul the Damned." The Archbishop of York, speaking at a diocesan conference said:

"To the deep disappointment of all that is truest in Christendom, the unspeakable Turk is apparently still to be left in possession of Constantinople. What the results may be is already being sufficiently shown by the tidings received of a renewed massacre of Armenians. I think this is a matter that ought to lie deep upon the conscience of the British people. We have repeatedly and in the most solemn way, given our assurance to these unhappy people that the Allies at least intended to deliver them from the tender mercies of their enemies. We, who have made so much of the shame of regarding solemn obligations as scraps of paper, dare not ignore these solemn and repeated assurances, and some way must be found, if the conscience of Christendom is to be satisfied, for protecting those to whom we have given our solemn bond and promise."

If the United States government definitely refuse to accept a mandate for the administration of Armenian affairs, the British Labor Party has indicated that it will insist as an alternative solution that the entire region known as Turkish Armenia be released from Turkish sovereignty. The party takes an attitude of protecting against any idea of subordinating the Armenian settlement to considerations of Indian policy.

Famous Violinist Buys Large Home

VIENNA, March 25.—Jan Kubelik, violinist, has just purchased a palace for 5,000,000 crowns, it is announced. A few weeks ago the palace was sold for 2,700,000 crowns. This is an example of the feverish speculation in real estate which has set in here because of pending financial legislation, particularly the proposed levy on the fortunes, and also because of the generally uncertain state of the country's finances. Many large properties in Vienna are reported to have changed hands as often as three times in one week. Palaces have been sold and resold until their prices have doubled.

Report Shows The Monetary Values

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) LONDON, March 25.—Theoretically it would seem possible to turn $10 into $100 merely by taking a short trip through France, Switzerland and Italy, says a Swiss correspondent of the Daily Graphic. He gives this formula:

Take a $10 banknote into France, and change it for 420 silver francs. With these enter Switzerland, where they will buy 2,100 Italian paper lire, then pass into Italy and cash into Italian silver. You now have 2,100 Italian silver lire. Take these back into Switzerland, and you have 2,100 Swiss francs, as the silver lire are accepted here as equal in value to Swiss francs. Now buy French paper money, and you will receive 4,200 francs. Return to France, where you buy English notes, and you get 100 pounds—more or less.

Practically, it is not so easy as silver coin is rare on the continent, and there is the French prohibition to carry more than 1,000 francs out of the country.

Jean Dubuc Will Manage Toledo Crew

TOLEDO, O., March 25.—Jean Dubuc, the veteran Canadian, for a number of years with the Detroit American league club and later with the New York Giants, has accepted terms as a member of the Toledo club of the American Association, according to a telegram received from him at Montreal. The wire stated that the pitcher hopes to be at the training camp at Paducah, Ky., within a week.

Labor Candidates Battle For Office At Marinette Now

MARINETTE, March 25.—(Special)—The race for mayoralty of this city will be between two labor candidates, according to the results of the primaries.

Werner Schomaker, editor of the Twin City Laborer, official organ of the labor unions, and Edward F. Murphy, former president of a local union, were chosen as the two nominees for the April election.

Assemblyman James Pederson and J. K. Setright, an old politician, were both eliminated in the race, Setright running third and Pederson last. More interest is manifested in the campaign here this year than in many elections of the past.

WHAT we're aiming at, is that it takes both skill and precision to blend tobaccos the Chesterfield way.

Blending, by Chesterfield's method, brings out a new richness of flavor and mellowness of taste that other and less skillful blending methods fail to "discover."

Chesterfields sure do "satisfy"—and not in flavor alone, but in value, in quality, also in their extra wrapping* of moisture-proof, glassine paper that keeps the cigarettes in every package firm and fresh.

RATES AND LIVING COSTS.
Salt Lake (Utah) News.

The fact is proved beyond all controversy that freight rates are so low compared with the value of most commodities that they exert very little influence upon their legitimate prices. Any examination and analysis of railroad figures will prove the correctness of this statement. The trouble is that for ever so slight an advance in rates, the shipper or dealer feels warranted in adding a large increase to the price of the goods, and then laying the blame on the railroads. For example, during the years 1914 to 1918 the Bureau of Labor Statistics shows that the wholesale prices of commodities in the United States was 20 times as great in proportion as the increase in the average freight rate, the latter being 3 per cent and the former 91 per cent. This demonstrates that in those four years the almost negligible increase in rates had almost no effect upon the average cost of living, and the same thing that was shown for 1914-18 would naturally be shown again in 1920-22. Yet in defiance of all established facts and figures, there are those who persist in the argument that any advance in rates will result in an addition to the cost of living in an addition to the cost of living five times as great as the advance in rates—a terrifying statement which is easy to make and apparently easy to induce credulous folk to believe, but absolutely impossible to prove any argument based on operating figures or human experience.

KALAMAZOO, March 24—Fourteen events have been listed for the annual intercollegiate track and field meet to be held here May 1.

In last year's meet more than 25 state schools participated. Invitations have been sent out this year to more than 300 institutions in Michigan and northern Indiana. Kalamazoo, Central high, last year's winner, will participate again, as will Battle Creek Cass City, and the Grand Rapids schools, which figured prominently in the games a year ago.

The program of events arranged is as follows:

50-yard dash; 100 yard dash; 220-yard dash; 440 yard dash; 880 and one mile run; 120-yard high hurdles; 220-yard low hurdles; sack put, running high jump; running broad jump; discus throw; pole vault; and half-mile relay race.

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT

HIGH LIVING ON LOW-PRICED MEAT.

If your meat bills are causing you worry, consult Mrs. Jones every day. She does it and so can you.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.

On Thursday she had cooked chopped beef in a baking dish, two pounds of hamburger costing 32 cents. The leftover went into creamed meat enough for Friday.

"It can't be done," exclaimed Mrs. Smith, but Mrs. Jones furnished proof in the form of these recipes:

CHOPPED BEEF

2 pounds hamburger ground,
1/2 cup tomato relish
1/2 teaspoonful tabasco sauce,
1 can beets.
Mix chopped beef with tomato relish. Add tabasco sauce. Season well with salt and pepper. Put into baking dish and bake two hours, basting frequently with high quality of table sauce. Serve garnished with beets cut into quarters.

CREAMED MEAT.

All all leftovers together. Add one-half can pimientos chopped one green pepper and two and one-half cupsful of white sauce made from flour, evaporated milk, water, oleomargarine and seasoning. Serve on rounds of toast.

TRY THESE

SWISS STEAK.

2 pounds round or sirloin steak cut 2 inches thick
1/2 cup flour
Salt and pepper mix
2 pounds round or sirloin steak cut 2 1/2 inches thick
1 w slices onion
1/2 green pepper, chopped fine
2 cups boiling water or 1 cup water and 1 cup strained tomatoes

Pound flour into meat with wooden potato masher or edge of heavy plate. Heat the fat. Brown the meat on each side in it. Add onion, green pepper, boiling water and tomato. Cover closely. Simmer two hours. This may be cooked in a casserole in the oven. Other vegetables may be added if desired.

HOT POT OF MUTTON AND BARLEY.

1 pound mutton
1/2 cup pearl barley
1 tablespoon salt
4 potatoes
3 onions
Celery tops or other seasoning herbs

Cut the mutton in small pieces, and brown with the onion in fat cut from meat. This will help make the meat tender and improve the flavor. Pour this into a covered saucepan. Add two quarts water and the barley. Simmer for one and one-half hours. Then add the potatoes cut in quarters, seasoning herbs, and seasoning, and cook one-half hour longer.

BRICKET WITH ONION SAUCE.

Wipe the meat with a damp cloth, and tie it into a compact shape with strips of cloth. Place it in a deep kettle with boiling water (or part of the stock if possible.) Add a soup bunch, several cloves and peppercorns. Simmer until tender, add salt when partly cooked. Take the meat from the liquid, remove the cloth, and place it in a shallow baking dish. Beat one egg and spread over the beef then sprinkle with coarse crumbs, and brown under a flame or in a hot oven.

For sauce—for a three-pound piece of meat—cut up half a cup of green onions and cook these with two tablespoons of butter or butter substitute. Brown slightly. Stir in two tablespoons of flour, add a cup and one-half from the stock of bricket, and a tablespoon of minced parsley. Keep the sauce over hot water, or in double boiler, until the meat is finished. Pour the sauce over the meat and serve.

From left-over prepare beef croquettes. There should be enough left from this roll to prepare croquettes for a family of five for the second meal.

Plan To Rob Power From Iron River Co. Case Now In Court

IRON RIVER, March 25—A conspiracy to rob the Iron Range Light & Power Co., of a percentage of the current delivered to business houses and residences in the district was recently discovered by D. Dawson and H. Krusback meter readers and testers for the company. Both young men were sent out of the office on the morning of Feb. 23rd on a meter testing crusade. Meters are tested by the company at least once a year, to test out the various circuits.

In three places a test of circuits showed that only a part of the current used was registered by the meters. These places were the homes of Geo. Raymond in Iron River, Louis Melchior and Joe Rigoni, Casplan and the business place of Gust Mitchell of Iron River.

Circumstances surrounding each case are widely diverse but it is reported the intention of the Iron Range Light and Power Co., is to prosecute to the limit. A hearing was held yesterday morning at the Iron River Town hall in the case of George Raymond.

Wires connecting the feed wires to other circuits thus jumping the meter entirely was the method employed in each case to secure current without cost. It is stated that lights burning night and day in one place aroused the suspicions of the employees of the light company and an investigation resulted with evidence of tampered wires.

A complaint was sworn out during the week against George Raymond charging him with petty larceny. The complaint was signed by Albert Bear manager of the Iron Range Light & Power Co.

A sketch of the wiring presented at the hearing showed that the upstairs circuit was attached directly with the feed wires just inside the main switch. This allowed current to flow to lamps upstairs without passing through the meter. An extension was also run to a garage where there were two outlets.

Mr. Raymond states that the wires were attached in order to permit the garage lights to burn was two of the fuse plugs had burned out the Saturday evening previous and he had no opportunity to secure more at the office, as it was locked on Sunday. Officials of the light company have pointed out however, that it would have been an easier matter to connect the wires at the fuse block rather than where the connections were made.

Hawaii Was First In Prohibition Is History Statement

HONOLULU, T. H., March 25.—Historians of the Hawaiian Islands assert that an Hawaiian monarchy was the first government in the world to put absolute prohibition into effect.

Kamehameha, the Great, first king of United Hawaii, in 1795, after having conquered all the other islands, issued an edict imposing prohibition. Its penalties were drastic. An offender was stripped of his property, real and personal, and was driven from his village clad only in a loin cloth.

In later years foreign nations forced liquor on the Hawaiians and its sale was general in the islands until the great war, when, with the opening of the army training camps in the islands, prohibition went into effect.

You Can't Run a Train Without Tracks

Everybody knows you can't run a train without tracks; and everybody ought to know you can't run a telephone company without money.

Sometimes people seem to forget this fact concerning the telephone. The business man knows he must have money to run his business. The housewife knows she must have money to run the home. They both know that it costs more to run anything, these days, than it did two or three years ago.

It is just the same with those of us who go to make up the telephone company; we linemen, operators, electricians and engineers; the cost of living has hit us just as hard as it has hit you. And the cost of the materials with which we work has just about doubled.

These are plain, everyday facts. Without enough money to pay expenses it is just as impossible for us to run the telephone company as it is impossible to run a train without tracks.

Copper Refinery For England Now

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) NEWTON ABBOT, Eng., March 25.-This little town has been chosen as the site for the first electrolytic copper refinery in Great Britain, to cost $10,000,000.

The war revealed the fact that there was no refinery of this kind in Great Britain. The Non-ferrous Trades Committee, formed by the government, strongly recommended a plant capable of producing 100,000 tons of copper should be established in the United Kingdom for which, as far as possible, British copper in blister form should be used. The government promised financial assistance if required, and Sir Gerard Muntz, a member of a big West Bromwich copper firm, who was chairman of the committee, now heads a syndicate which will erect the new copper refining plant.

At Newton Abbot there are tide water facilities, in addition to a bed of over 800,000,000 tons of lignite for the generation of electricity at a very low cost.

HUNGARIAN BANK SYSTEM IS NOT IN A GOOD CONDITION

Representative From That Country Gives Accounts of Condition.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) BUDAPEST, March 25.—Roland Hegecius, director of the Commercial Bank and finance representative of the Hungarian delegation sent to Paris to discuss peace terms, says Hungary's banking situation cannot be looked on as cheerful. "All the banks loaned money to the government during the war and later, so if the government can't pay, we are injured," he adds. "The ability of the state to pay depends on the kind of a peace we get."

"According to the boundaries now fixed, it is difficult for us to operate our industries. My bank operates about 25 small railroads, for instance, and part of these railroads are in our territory, part in that of our neighbors the Rumanians, the Serbs, Czechs, and so on. Because of the line drawn by the Peace Conference, these railroads may have to cross and recross customs frontiers several times."

"There are many sugar factories hindered in the same way. The factory may be left in Hungarian territory while the beet crop is across a customs line. The largest iron works in Hungary are cut off from their ore, the latter having been given to the Czechs."

"Agriculture is the only thing left us, and with rich land and an energetic people we are bound to rise again. The waters of the Danube haven't been taken from us and with irrigation we may do a good deal."

"From a merely money point of view, we have in circulation about 10,000,000,000 crowns. The damage done by the Bolsheviks may be estimated at 5,000,000,000. The total war debt was about 32,000,000,000 crowns, one-half of which was consolidated into war loans."

"Despite a crazy quilt boundary line fixed by the Allies, leaving hundreds of villages to us and yet placing the railroad stations of these villages in foreign territory with a customs barrier, making it difficult for the villages to use the railroad, we have not despaired."

Simon Kratze of the Kratze Brothers store, has returned from a buying trip to Chicago and eastern markets. While there Mr. Kratze purchased an attractive line of new spring stock.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening, and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.
