'HIGH JACKERS' ARE SPREADING IN THE SOUTH

Authorities Are Beginning to Realize Grave Danger.

Robbers Board Trains and Rob Harvest Hands; Many Murders Are Added to Crimes.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 6.—The so-called "High Jackers" who are making a specialty of riding freight trains in Southern Kansas and Oklahoma, and robbing farm hands, as their wages are becoming more bold and are receiving attention from the authorities, according to report today.

"High Jacker" activities which have been reported almost daily throughout the harvest section reached a climax when two robbers attempted to hold up a party of former soldiers had Wednesday night, on board a freight train which was in motion at the time.

The robbers had just been discharged from a Texas camp and when the robbers tried to hold them up they started shooting. Four of the soldiers were injured and one of the robbers was shot. The other robber made his escape after he had succeeded in trapping five of the soldiers from the train.

With the number of complaints from victims of robbery growing, officials of several smaller Kansas towns are reported to be investigating the stories on the theory that the "High Jackers" are responsible for five or more murders in the past month in the Kansas wheat belt in the last month. The victims were in the most cases harvest hands.

Special efforts are being made in all the wheat belt towns to ascertain whether the "High Jackers" are all members of an organized band or are city criminals who have drifted to the wheat belt knowing that the harvest hands are transient and carry their wages in cash from one job to another.

GUN FIGHT ENDS LONG HUNT AFTER KILLING OF RHEM

Sheriff Hextall of Kendall County, Illinois, Runs James Witt to Earth at Last.

(By Associated Press)

AURORA, Aug. 6.—James Witt, Joe Joslyn, aged 25, who was arrested for the murder of Chief of Police James Johnson of West Chicago, shot and killed himself last night after he had largely wounded by Sheriff Hextall, sheriff of Kendall county in a duel on a country road near here. Witt's sergeant, Sheriff Hextall, was slightly wounded by Sheriff Witt.

It appears today that Witt has been in this vicinity for several months while the country has been scoured and searched for him on the murder charge. He was supposed to have been traced as far as Salt Lake City but was never located. A reward of $1500 was offered for his capture.

Sheriff Hextall learned last night that a man who looked like Witt was seen in a garage in Oswego county and started a search for the man. Last night while the sheriff was driving his car along the road he noticed the approach of two automobiles. One of them had but one light and becoming suspicious, he tried to stop the cars.

Both raced past him and turning their car in followed. The leading car which was driven by a woman turned onto the first cross road, while the other car continued on until a short distance was reached, when it turned. Sheriff Hextall was close upon the car and almost as soon as he a sighted Witt opened fire but missed the officer. Several shots were exchanged and finally Witt sank to the ground.

Just as the sheriff approached him Witt fired another shot into his own head and died instantly.

COPYRIGHT THE ROBBS-MERRILL COMPANY

IT MAY be presumptuous to compare any story with the immortal "Treasure Island," but there is a real basis for it here, for the narrative does deal with treasure, pirates and a Pacific island in an uncommonly delightful way.

In thrills, it must yield to its great predecessor; in humor, it is at least a good second; in variety and up-to-dateness, it has the advantage.

It is a real treasure hunt with the unique quality, giving rise to delicious humor, that the hunters are led by women. It is a genuine treat.

CARPENTIER NOT ONLY FRENCHMAN TO TRY FOR TITLE

In 1751 France sent Man to Wrest Championship Away From Jack Slack of England.

PARIS, Aug. 6.—Carpentier was not the first Frenchman to have the honor of competing and of being defeated in a world's boxing championship match. French statisticians have discovered since the knockout administered to Georges by Dempsey.

On July 28, 1751, a Frenchman named Petit, weighing 200 pounds and standing six feet four inches, Jack Slack of England, then the undisputed champion of the world. The purse was £500.

Petit, a combination of wrestler and boxer, jumped in the center of the grass ring as soon as the word "go" was given and seizing Slack by the throat with his left hand, began plowing his right with great force upon various parts of Slack's anatomy. Harry E. Price does not record why the Harry E. Price of the ring did not immediately dislodge the Frenchman but goes on to relate that "Slack swung a mighty right into Petit" much below the belt and that the Frenchman "lay down in pain."

When we could summon enough strength to regain his feet, he immediately used one of them to send a well directed kick into Slack's side. The Briton then swam tight and fast to the clinch and the Frenchman was out cold.

They were giants in those days and did not use eight ounce gloves, concludes the historian.

ITALIAN SHIPS FIND SLUMP BECAUSE OF NEW RULING

ROMA, Aug. 6.—Italian shipping between Italy and America are having difficulty in finding berths for their ships at the present moment, due to the enforcement of the new American immigration laws. To meet the difficulties, the Navigation Generale Italiana has been obliged to part of their ships under a new Italian Canadian service.

This is the first Italian line that has been established between Italy and Canada. The other steamship companies are also occupied in the problem of finding other fields in the simple Italian population. It is expected that one or two more Italian companies will commence sailing to Canada, offering their services to New York service to that effect.

NOT ENOUGH ROOM FOR ALL NEW YORK TO GO SWIMMING

One of the ways out was to put shower baths in middle of street; many used them.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The scalding summer of 1921 has made all New York want to go swimming but there isn't room enough for all to swim.

On weekends it's a strong man who gets into bathtubs at nearby beaches and even if there were more bathtubs, it's hard to imagine how many more thousands could find a hold on the crowded sand.

So from City Hall down, every one is trying to locate new swimming holes and a century swimming hole in America's largest city is a costly proposition. Mayor Hylan has urged construction of a swimming pool in Central Park and it has been agreed that an unused reservoir be converted to the uses of a permanent city park.

When we could summon enough strength to regain his feet, he immediately used one of them to send a well directed kick into Slack's side. The Briton then swam tight and fast to the clinch and the Frenchman was out cold.

They were giants in those days and did not use eight ounce gloves, concludes the historian.

MANY IRISH GO TO LONDON FOR HELP TO LIVE

Most of Them Are Widows and Their Children; Seek Protection.

Under British Law Most of These People Are Entitled to Compensation from Government

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Aug. 6.—Numbers of southern Irish loyalist refugees in dire straits are daily arriving in London. In many cases they are women and children who have lost their breadwinners, and frequently their sole possessions are the clothes they wear, their homes and other possessions having been destroyed.

Under the Malicious Injury Act, all these people are entitled to compensation, leviable on the local rifle, but although decrees have been granted for sums aggregating millions of pounds, very few have been paid. It is said that in consequence of terrorism, lawyers in southern Ireland are frequently unable to prosecute claims against the local authorities as they have been threatened with death should they do so.

The London committee of the Irish Unionist Alliance is now taking up such claims, and is preparing an appeal to the British government asking that compensation, both in respect of life and property, shall be made first charge upon any moneys that may be handed over by the British exchequer to the southern Irish payment.

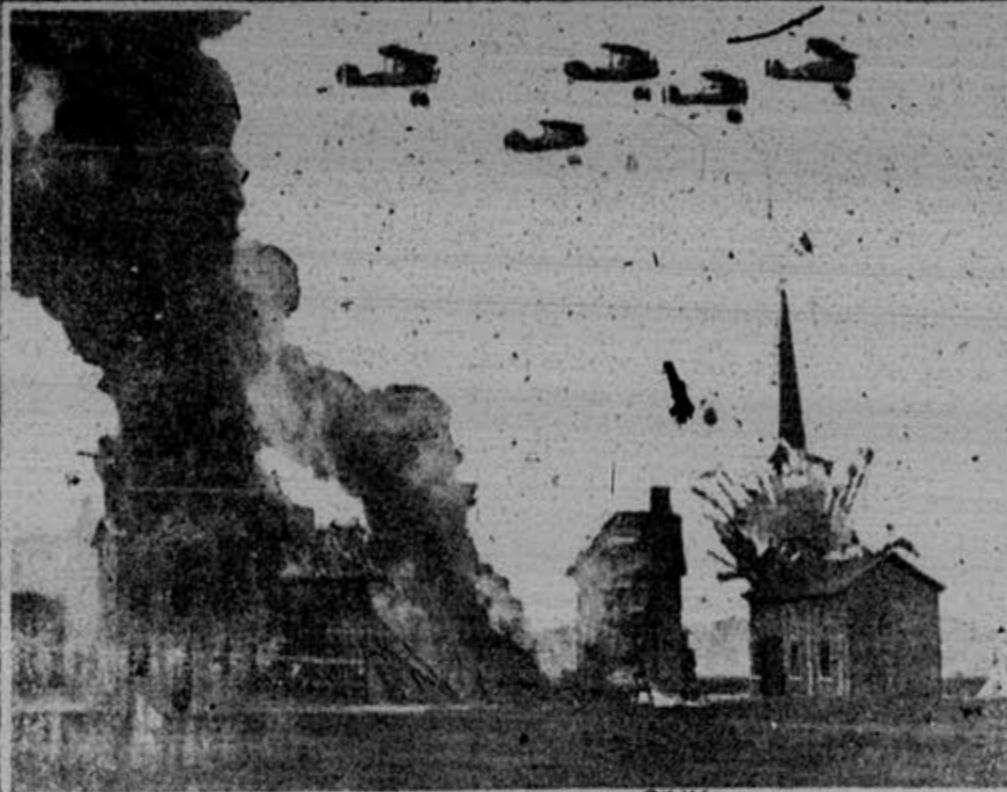

SOLDIERS OF CANADA OWN 5,000,000 ACRES FARM LANDS

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 6.—If Canada's soldier-farmers were to pool their holdings they would have one giant farm of 5,000,000 acres, dotted with grain fields, cattle, hogs, patches of fruit trees, silos and many sturdy houses and farm buildings.

Population of this one big collective farm, according to a report of the work of the Soldier Settlement Board, would be more than 126,000, estimating an average family of five to each settler.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Gas made from old oak logs is now being supplied successfully to the inhabitants of Steyring in Sussex. Other towns are following suit. It is claimed that this wood gas has practically the same heating and lighting properties as coal gas and its use means a saving of more than half a dollar per cubic foot to the consumer.

The Steyring gas "works" being threatened with closure owing to the prohibitive price of coal, about five pounds a ton, the carbonization of wood was resorted to as an experiment, with the result that wood gas has been definitely adopted as an alternative to the price of coal comes down.

At Birmingham, old road paving blocks have been converted into wood gas with equally satisfactory results.

Housework Is a Burden

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidneyills life indeed becomes a burden. Ipan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Escanaba women. Read what Mr. John Carson, 415 S. 15th St., Escanaba, says: "Many years ago my kidneys were not working properly and as a result my back ached and was often lame." Work about the house became burdensome due to my weak back. "When I would attempt to straighten up after stooping sharp pains would catch me through my back. I was run down at that time and often felt nervous and depressed. I would be very dizzy and headaches were very troublesome. My kidneys were weak, too. I heard so much of Ipan's Kidney Pills that I bought a box at the City Drug Store and they cured me in a fine way so that I haven't needed medicine remedy since."

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients: a large bottle at little cost, at drug stores known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, one can tell, because it does it so naturally. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best, to enjoy an inside bath each morning, food into the stomach.

Flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and putrid toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leaves in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store and through tea very easily purifies the skin on the outside, so freshens the skin on the inside.

If you want to see the glow of healthy skin on your cheeks, to see your skin on the inside organs, we must always eat clearer and clearer, more important than outside cleaning.

Take a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in a glass of water and limestone phosphate acts as a laxative, drawing out the waste bowel poisons. Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should just eat more fruits and vegetables, drink more water and purify the entire body for a week and notice results.

MR. JOHNSON'S BILL

It is an old, old subject but may bear a little further discussion since Representative Paul Johnson, of Mississippi, introduced his bill to define the crime of smoking in public and to continue the operation of the law to women. If the bill had not been actually introduced and brought up for hearing in committee, one would say that Representative Johnson was—as they say in London—“spouting.” But he must have been in earnest—or he would not have gone so far, and since there was at least one woman's voice raised at the hearing in defense of the bill, it must be assumed that there are a few more who believe that public smoking by women demands regulation by the police.

Ah such people should remember that the use of tobacco in all of its forms by women is no new thing. There is a fair chance that Representative Johnson's grandmother smoked or that if she did—she snuffed. And it is just within the possibilities that when the gentleman from Mississippi is showing visitors the interesting bits of here-a-brac in the Johnson family home he gets out the very tortoise shell snuff box that old Mrs. Johnson carried and exhibits as evidence of the refinement of his forebears.

But the use of tobacco among women in the United States disappeared except in limited localities and among a limited class. The women abolished tobacco as an aid to feminine happiness themselves. No laws were made on the subject and the chances were that an attempt to apply such a law as that proposed by Mr. Johnson would have perpetuated rather than limited the use of tobacco by women.

It is not unlikely that the present fad will disappear in time, but if it does not and the men desire to stop it, the only fair way to accomplish that end in this land of sex equality will be for them to correct their own habits while they are correcting the women.

AN AMERICAN OPPORTUNITY

No country in the world has been more steadfastly opposed to bolshevism in Russia than the United States. The opposition has not taken in native birth. The guiding principle has been: Russia will be cured of her own folly best by suffering all the consequences of it, and there is evidence at hand that the principle is working toward the desired result.

One of these evidences is that the Russian government has apparently decided to release the American prisoners who have long been held on flimsy pretexts or upon none at all, and to permit American charitable workers to enter Russia and administer help to the suffering with their own organization in their own way.

If that proves to be true then this country will have an opportunity to demonstrate that, though the American attitude toward the Russian government has been one of flexible disapproval, the American people are as friendly to Russia and the Russians now as they always were in the past.

People complain of depression and hard times in this country, but the fact is that no country is in better shape than this, while no country is worse off than Russia and out of American abundance it will be possible to send help that will restore the long continued feeling of good will which marked the relations of the two countries.

RELATIVITY

This theory of relativity is not so difficult to understand after a few visits to the racing whirling in some amusement park. One day you see a fine horse dashing down the stretch with a boy sitting easily in the saddle, no exertion on the part of the animal or human, no whipping or dashing of the steel pointed heel into the ribs of the horse. He is winning easily and the others are laboring hopelessly in the rear. You mark his name for future reference; a splendid animal.

A few days later you see the same again entered in a race and rush to the wicket with your savings. But what a change! Can this be the same animal? Far in the rear of the leaders, laboring under the sting of lash and steel; struggling, but failing further behind. He finishes sixth in a six-horse race, but is the same clever animal you admired a few days before.

All a matter of relativity. The horse is as good as ever, but the others are relatively faster or the owner is relatively less anxious for the money. He may have a relatively greater interest in another horse. In either case you quit the track with relatively less money.

All this administration has to do in order to make a perfect success is to spend lots of money to buy everything for sale and to employ all of the unemployed while at the same time it throws about 80,000 superfluous clerks out of employment and reduces taxes by strict economy.

Cincinnati is now declared to be the national headquarters for bootlegging and, when you think of it putting a bunch of Ohio politicians together with Kentucky distillers, why, are to be found just across the river, ought to make a strong and witty combination.

Straight for the sand the sailors drove the boat. She struck it with a jar, grinding forward heavily. The men sprang overboard, wading half-way to the waist. And the arms of the Honorable Cuthbert Vane had snatched me up and were bearing me safe and dry to shore.

Mr. Shaw approached and the two men greeted each other in their off-hand British way. As we couldn't well, under the circumstances, maintain a notion of mutual hostility, Mr. Shaw, with a certain air of hesitation, turned to me.

"Only lady passenger, eh?" Hope you're not wet through. Cookie's making coffee over yonder."

"I say, Shaw," cried the beautiful youth enthusiastically, "Miss Habib has the most ripping sport, you know! Not the least nervous about the trip, I assure you!"

"I was," I announced, moved to defiance by the邻りの of Mr. Shaw. "Before we started I was so afraid that if you had listened, you might have heard my teeth chattering. But I had at least the comforting thought, that if I did go to my end it would not be simply in pursuit of sor-od gain!"

"And indeed that was almost a waste of noble sentiment under the circumstances," answered the sour Scot, with the fleshy shadow of an enraging smile.

I promised myself, as I went with Mr. Vane toward the fire, that some day I would find the weapon that would penetrate the Scenthman's armor and would use it mercilessly.

Cookie received us with unceaswarmth.

"Well, now, char-to goodness if it git above all dry (as you is). Yes, sab, could all you-all women but ly gestures to a seat on an overturned iron kettle and served my coffee with an air appropriate to magnificence and plate. It was something to see him wait on Cuthbert Vane. The coves were nowhere more abundant than in the hollow by the cove where our camp was made, and their size and the regularity of their order spoke of cultivation. Guavas, oranges and many green here, too, and many beautiful banana palms.

All the plateau and much of the peak are clothed with woods; a beautiful bright green, making the capture of sky and sky. High above all other growth were the feather tops of the coconut palms, which doesn't hein

The palms were nowhere more abundant than in the hollow by the cove where our camp was made, and their size and the regularity of their order spoke of cultivation. Guavas, and many beautiful banana palms.

At the side of the clearing toward the stream stood hot beds of coconut logs. The ends of palm-thatch had been gathered by storm. Near the stems of a palm were an old dray, a mule and a board.

A broken frying pan and a rusty ax head lay in the grass.

In the hut itself were a rude bedstead, a small table and a cupboard made of logs. I was excited at first, and then we had come upon the dwelling of a married couple. Without taking the trouble to combat this opinion, Mr. Shaw explained to Cuthbert Vane that a copra gatherer had once lived here, and that the place must have yielded such a profit that he was only surprised to find it deserted now. Behind this cool, emphatic speech I sensed a tropic zest in the destruction of my plate.

After their thrilling experience of being ferried over to Rufus Smith to the island, my aunt and Miss Browne was never more to him than “dat poison.”

The boats of the Rufus Smith had departed from the island, and our relations with humanity were severed.

The thought of our isolation ached and fascinated me as I sat meditatively upon a key of nails watching the interval of the tropic dawn.

The men were hard at work with hales and boxes, except Mr. Tubbs, who gave advice, for he assured everybody that a word from his lips had invariably been enough to make Wall Street sit up and take notice. But it is a far way from Wall Street to Leeward

Island. Mr. Tubbs, however, sought refuge with me at last, and pointed out the beauties of Arorae as she rose from the embrace of Neptune.

“Arorae, Arorae, to be accurate,” he explained, “that they didn't use particular surnames much in those

“Dave, says Mr. Tubbs!” implored

Aunt Jane.

But Mr. Tubbs, overlooked by all but this thoughtful friend, had cannily saved himself. He advanced upon us dripping.

“A close call!” he sang out cheerfully. “Thought one time old Nep had got a strangle-hold all right. Think I, I guess there'll be something doing when Wall Street gets this news—that old H. H. is food for the famy devils of the deep!”

“It would have been most—most shocking!” quavered poor Aunt Jane with feeling. She was piteously striving to extricate herself from the folds of the green veil.

“I came to her assistance. The poor plump little woman was trembling from head to foot.

“It was a most—unusual experience,” she told me as I surrounded her. “Probably extremely—unifying to the soul-selves and all that, as Miss Browne says, but for the moment—unresting. Is my helmet on straight, dear? I think it is a little severe for my type of face, don't you? There was a sweet little hat in a Fifth avenue shop—simple and yet so chic. I thought it just the thing, but Miss Browne said no, helmets were always worn—sooff! Oh, my dear child, how thankful I shall be!”

And Aunt Jane clung to me as if my life depended on it. “I guess you're as bad as I am,” I told her up the beach.

CHAPTER V.

The Captain's Legacy.

When in my tender years I was taken to the matinee, usually the most thrilling feature of the spectacle to me was the scene depicted on the drop-curtain. Directly I was seated—in the body—and had my hat taken off by the neighbor of Mr. Shaw. “Before we started I was so afraid that if you had listened, you might have heard my teeth chattering. But I had at least the comforting thought, that if I did go to my end it would not be simply in pursuit of sor-od gain!”

“And indeed that was almost a waste of noble sentiment under the circumstances,” answered the sour Scot, with the fleshy shadow of an enraging smile.

MINISTER SAYS
U. S. NOT FAIR TO JAPANESE

Rev. Frank H. Smith So Declares in Chicago Meeting.

Has Been Japanese Missionary in Nippon for the Past 16 Years; Asks for More Tolerance.

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—America's policy toward Japan is one of unfair and unchristian discrimination, the Rev. Dr. Frank Herren Smith, a Methodist missionary in Japan for 16 years, declared today as he left to return to the Orient.

"Just as long as we persist in our attitude just that long will there be a dark cloud of possible trouble hanging in the Oriental sky," he added.

The challenge of Japan is not a challenge to fight; it was sent to America by our mission and by the Japanese Methodist church to tell you that Japan does not want war but a square deal.

He Smith suggested that the opinion of the American public in the decisive limitation of immigration and in requiring all who come to the United States to become truly naturalized, honest goodness—American citizens—Japanese are now forbidden naturalization.

The missionary intimated he endures of Japanese expansion in Manchuria and Siberia, a movement which has disturbed American thought. "It is not right," he asked, "that Japan should find outlet for her surplus population in the vast open spaces of Manchuria and Siberia? What has Russia with her penal colonies and her Bolsheviks ever done for Siberia any way and by what right does she hold Siberia?"

The final remedy for all friction, Dr. Smith said, will be in Christianizing Japan. He said the way for missionaries to effect this is to go to Japan and to teach the Japanese love us.

The anti-American feeling does not arise entirely because the leaders of the Christian movement today are Japanese and because the Japanese know that the American missionaries know them best and are thus their best advocates.

BODY BYE TO LONG SLEEVES

Never in history since ancient Greece has the short sleeve and disappearing sleeve we have passed sleeves known been more popular from the high, shoulder pads of past than it is today. Winter as well as summer down through the leg-o-muttons and the tight fitting sleeve which is back in such high favor is fashionably worn today. Barely enough midday's vacation marks the high tide line of last season's apparel.

All sorts of gauze—plump and thin, striped, checkered, pink and brown—join beneath the point analogy for a sleeve which is bold in such high favor as fashionably worn today. No mission field treats missionaries as well as Japan treats us," he said, and incisive fair-fair missionaries the Japanese love us.

The anti-American feeling does not arise entirely because the leaders of the Christian movement today are Japanese and because the Japanese know that the American missionaries know them best and are thus their best advocates.

Will Be Held for Benefit of World

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 6.—Plans for the first "film fair," an exhibit to depict all stages of the motion picture industry, are being made here by the Athletic Motion Picture Society of America. It is planned to open the exposition in Los Angeles in January and close in March, 1922.

The exhibit, according to film men, will stress the value of the industry to the world of science, to labor, and as a medium of instruction in art, science and history.

FOR THE SCHOOLBOY

Particularly suited for school wear is the suit of dark blue serge, although it has "Sunday best" possibilities that are highly satisfactory. The jacket is belted and trimmed with pockets. The trousers may be finished with either front or side closing and are turned under in knickerbocker fashion. Medium size requires 2½ yards 54 inch material.

WRITE TO BOYS

A mid-noon to the mothers and fathers, sisters and brothers of the boy scouts in camp at Sac Bay to write to the boys. Although the lads were having a wonderful time and have all the comforts of home, they want to receive letters, too. All the scouts scramble to headquarters when mail call is sounded and they feel pretty fine when they fall to receive a letter, so write to your boy in camp. Address mail to Boy Scout Camp, Sac Bay, Mich.

CATS, RATS, DOGS DEVOURED

BY HUNGER-MADDENED MOBS
IN RUSSIA; U. S. SENDING AID

American Relief Party Director to Demand Soviet Protection Workers.

(By Associated Press)

BERLIN, Aug. 6—More than 9,000 persons face death in Russia today. Cholera is spreading. Famine conditions are worse every 24 hours. The morale of the people is breaking down. Hundreds of thousands are in flight and the roadways in the Samara district are filled with unburied corpses. Practically all of the workshops are idle. The railway transportation system has nearly stopped.

But there was one ray of hope Tuesday, and it came from the United States. The news that America will aid Russia caused a wave of relief in Germany, Poland and the Baltic states.

Hopeto Check Exodus

It is believed that American assistance will check the wild flight of hundreds of thousands of peasants from the famine stricken cholera ridden districts. Germany and the states adjoining Russia on the west have feared migration of vast numbers of Russians who would overrun the countries like a plague in their panic of fear and suffering.

Russia will become the center of distribution of American relief. Word from that city said that Russian conditions were so appalling that they could not be adequately described. The cities and rural districts are infested with disease, death, filth and hunger. An epidemic of insanity is sweeping some of the plague spots.

The physicians who have been sent to the worst districts by Maxim Gorky's relief committee have been unable to accomplish much.

Children Suffer

The city of Tambov has been sacked by hunger maddened mobs. Horses were killed for food. Cavalry was attacked and their horses were taken for food.

In the Samara district, where cholera is mounting steadily, forsaken villages and the highways are filled with pauper stricken children who have been deserted by their parents in the nightmare of horror. The young children are dying on every hand. Their wasted little bodies, barely clothed, within the limits of decency, lie along the sides of the roads in the fields.

Eat All Animals

Everything that bears flesh is being eaten. Cats, dogs, rats, wild animals of every description are utilized for food. Grass and weeds are cooked into soup.

The towns and villages are squalid with filth. All sanitary arrangements have collapsed.

The Lokal Anzeiger prints an unsigned dispatch from Petrograd that the government is organizing every member of the communist party into a relief worker.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Langley of Madison, Wis., who are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walstad and with other friends since last Tuesday will leave next Tuesday morning for a motor trip thru the Upper Peninsula continuing on to their home in the Wisconsin capital city. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Taylor of 709 South 16th Street who will be their guests for a week or ten days.

GENERAL ALARM IS SENT IN FOR FIRE FIGHTERS

Escanaba Surrounded by Huge Wall of Fire; Hundreds of Volunteer Fire Fighters Respond.

Forest grass and ground fires that have been threatening the city for the past two weeks became so alarming starting at noon today that the Boy Scout alarm and a general city alarm was sent in calling every available man and boy in Escanaba out to fight the fires that are endangering the lives and property of the citizens of Escanaba. The strong west and southwest winds of this morning thrashed into a gale shortly after noon fanned the flames and at 2 o'clock this afternoon the city was circled on all but the water side by a huge wall of fire.

At 1:30 o'clock when the scout call was sent in and the loyal lads were assembling in preparation to marching out to fight for their homes an urgent call for help wanted immediately was sent in from the Birds Eye Veiner company. The report stated that the flames were coming down the Northwestern tracks with express train rapidity and that all kinds of help was needed.

Reaching the grave danger the city was in a general alarm was sent in and cryers dispatched in automobiles about the city calling upon the men to come and fight the blaze. Although apparently the fire was far enough out of the city to keep up out of danger it is known that same fire jumped a distance of several blocks into an adjoining tract of land and started another fire without burning in between. It is realized that it is easily possible burning sticks and sparks to fly in the gale right into the city.

Hundreds of men and boys responded to the general alarm sent in this afternoon some going to the blaze burning in the vicinity of the South shore road near the Fishery hill, one large crew going to the state road locality and one near the Birds Eye Veiner plant. It was not learned whether any farm or homes were destroyed by fire or not.

A later report coming in at 3:30 stated that the Johnson Lumber company was in danger.

MILK CLEARING HOUSE WILL AID L. P. FARMERS

(By Associated Press)

ADRIAN, Mich., Aug. 6—Michigan farmers plan to take another step in co-operative marketing soon with the establishment in Adrian of a dairy plant by means of which they expect to profitably dispose of the surplus of milk which accumulates in the Detroit area during certain periods of the year.

Creamery butter and cheese are to be the principal products of the factory which will be patterned after one established at Grove City, Pa., through the aid of the Department of Agriculture five years ago. The plans for the project call for an expenditure of $12,000 of which half is to be provided by the Michigan Milk Producers Association and the remainder by the producers of the county.

According to officers of the association a number of similar factories will be established on the periphery of the Detroit milk producing area if the project here succeeds. Eleven counties of southeastern Michigan would be served thereby, they say.

The undertaking was definitely decided upon at a meeting of 300 members of the association in Detroit last January when the officers outlined the marketing difficulties of the dairymen and presented recommendations for the establishment of the factory as the solution of them. The resolution in support of the plan was presented by Milo D. Campbell, of Coldwater, president of the National Milk Producers Association, and was endorsed by some of the most prominent dairymen of the state.

Adrian was chosen as the site for the factory after an extensive survey of the territory surrounding the Detroit area and the work of organization is well under way according to Helmer Rabild, formerly of the dairy division of the Department of Agriculture who is to manage the project.

Mr. Rabild states that only about 20,000 pounds of milk will be utilized by the Adrian plant to begin with, but later the demand may reach 40,000.

Mexican Official Asks for Document

Clerk Carl Anderson yesterday received a letter from the Mexican chargé d'affaires at Washington requesting him to make a copy of Escanaba's new charter at once. Considerable municipal reform work is now going on in Mexico and the news of Escanaba's charter has reached the Mexican official at our National capital and has interested him sufficiently to ask for a copy of the document.

Sixteen Named by Grand Jury; Frauds

(Continued From Page One) term of circuit court, it was said yesterday. Whether they will be proceeded with will depend on the readiness of the attorneys to take up the cases. On account of the short times intervening before the beginning of the September term of court, it is deemed unlikely that all the cases will be tried at that time. In fact, there was no assurance yesterday that any of them could be taken up.

Judge Flanagan yesterday fixed bail for the various defendants at from $500 to $5,000. It is expected that all of them will be admitted to bail within the next few days.

Politics Scored

Under the heading of general remarks, H. A. Higgins, of Chicago, who directed the audit of prison books, said in his report to the jury:

The condition of affairs, as set forth in this report, illustrates clearly what results ordinary political administrations and management obtained. Just as long as the management of public institutions is susceptible to political influence, just so long will it be found that the institutions are mismanaged and probably the funds thereof wasted and frequently misappropriated. No doubt similar conditions could be found to exist in many other public institutions maintained under the same influences.

It appears that the conditions existing in this institution should long since have been discovered and revealed by the auditor general of the state, upon whom the responsibility devolved for the proper systematization of institutional accounts and the auditing thereof.

The writer is informed that many employees or so-called auditors from the auditor general's office have visited this institution for the purpose of auditing and examining the accounts thereof, but it is a fact that since the misappropriation of funds of the institution and its inmates was begun by Mr. West not one single so-called auditor from the auditor general's office has properly discharged his duties, as otherwise, it would have been discovered that Mr. West was short in his cash accounts.

It is also a fact that since the beginning of the employment of Mr. West by the institution as clerk in 1902, an adequate or practical system of accounting has not been in effect at the institution, nor do comprehensive or even approximately correct statements setting forth the results of its operations appear to have been rendered.

State Auditors Criticized

It is said that professional auditors and accountants have been employed by the state to accompany legislative investigating committees to this institution on various occasions, but they apparently did not ascertain just exactly what its actual conditions were in regard to its finances and accounts, and, in fact, not one of these professionals or state auditors appears to have ever undertaken to ever reconcile the cash and bank accounts of the institution with its books, which should have been the first concern of an auditor who was concerned in the proper discharge of his duties."

"After confessing to a shortage, Mr. West turned over to Alton T. Roberts, chairman of the board of control, a number of stock certificates and assigned his brokerage account to Mr. Roberts as trustee. It was said that the securities and the equity in the brokerage account would amount to approximately $15,000 if held until the general stock market recovered sufficiently.

The confession by Mr. West was made in the presence of Alton T. Roberts, J. C. Kirkpatrick, John H. Lewis, Arthur E. Anderson and the writer. Mr. West explained at that time the method pursued by him in misappropriating funds and pointed out several items upon the records to illustrate how the settlements entries were made and the misappropriations accomplished.

"After making the confession Mr. West spent several days at the institution in preparing lists of items which he had misappropriated. The original lists are in the writer's custody."

ESCANABA, MICH., SATURDAY, AUGUST 6th, 1921.

Statement Of Charter Commission

To the Voters of Escanaba, Michigan:

Pursuant to your direction and our election we have drafted a proposed charter for the City of Escanaba. This charter has been prepared for your consideration in the firm belief that the people of Escanaba are ready for and are demanding the adoption of a charter reconstructing the form of city government in this city. We do not claim that this proposed charter will be a panacea for all evils or shortcomings which have developed in the present type of city government, because of the changed conditions brought about by the development and growth of the city. We do believe, however, that if the charter is adopted and the council-manager plan of city government put into effect, the city of Escanaba will have advanced far towards the goal that is desired. A special election for the purpose of voting on this charter will be held Monday, August 29th, 1921.

We suggest the following as a few of many reasons for the adoption of the charter:

1. It secures Home Rule for Escanaba.
2. It establishes a simple, direct and business-like form of government.
3. It makes elective officers responsive to public opinion by means of the initiative and referendum.
4. It provides for non-partisan ballot, which combines both primaries and elections in one.
5. It prohibits candidates from soliciting office and reduces to a minimum the danger of electing officers by improper methods.
6. It reduces the frequency of city elections and affords capable men the opportunity to hold office during good behavior, thus tending to the development of trained public servants.
7. It furnishes, through the recall, a simple method of removing inefficient or corrupt officials.
8. It requires public hearings upon money appropriations.
9. It secures full publicity of official acts yet eliminates wasteful methods of legal advertising.
10. It creates a purchasing department which will effect great saving in the purchase of supplies.
11. It permits public work to be done by direct labor, as well as by contract, when the public advantage is thereby served.
12. It fully safeguards the city in franchise matters.
13. It provides a means of avoiding much unnecessary tearing up of streets for service connections.
14. It permits the city council to legalize the eight hour day upon public work, when consistent with public welfare.
15. It authorizes the city council to provide for civil service and pensions for city employees, as demanded for the public good.
16. It recognizes the people as the sole source of governmental power, and imposes upon every citizen in the community the duty and responsibility of actively interesting himself in the affairs of his city.

If upon trial it is found necessary to change any part of this charter, it may easily be done by amendments, adopted by a safe and convenient method.

We unanimously urge adoption of this charter, in the interest of a better and greater Escanaba.
