PREMIER HARA KILLED MINE STRIKE SPREADS

PREMIER OF JAPAN STABBED TO DEATH AT RAIL STATION IN TOKIO--DETAILS LACKING

Associated Press Gives Washington First News of Tragedy.

Official Washington Anxiously Waiting for Further News; Japanese Embassy Is Depressed.

Tokio, Nov. 4--Premier Hara was fatally stabbed in the breast today at a railroad station in Tokio.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4--Official news from Tokio, according to the Associated Press, received at the state department today, says that the premier had been stabbed to death. An hour later another message from the American embassy at Tokio was received at the state department announcing the death of the premier. Secretary Hughes was attending the regular Friday meeting of the cabinet when the message arrived and was greatly shocked at the news.

Before the departure of the Japanese delegation from Tokio, threatening letters had been received by them and by members of the cabinet and Prince Tokumasa, himself, late in the evening. The Japanese had received a fanatical, worded document threatening the lives with assassination unless he yielded results at Washington of benefit to his country and warning that he must be too "firm" in his attitude in the United States.

NEW YORK SHOWS FALLING OFF OF MARRIAGES 1921

More People Being Married This Year in Other Parts Than Ever Before.

New York Falls Below Last Year's Mark by 3,000; Unemployment Given As the Cause.

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The number of marriages in New York State for the year ending Sept. 30, 1921, was 107,000, according to figures released today by the state department of social services. This is a decrease of 3,000 from the 110,000 marriages recorded for the corresponding period of 1920.

The decrease is attributed to the unemployment problem, which has been a factor in the decline of marriages in other parts of the country. However, in other parts of the country, the number of marriages has increased. In California, for example, the number of marriages for the year ending Sept. 30, 1921, was 115,000, an increase of 5,000 from the 110,000 marriages recorded for the corresponding period of 1920.

BREAD MAKER TO SHOW STATE HOW TO BAKE BREAD

Millers Association Have Placed an Expert at Disposal of the Institutions of Michigan.

(By Associated Press) LANSING, Nov. 4.—Within a few days a specialist in the business of baking bread will be at the disposal of the state. He will be employed by the Michigan Millers Association and his sole duty will be to teach the bakers at the various state institutions how to make good bread from Michigan grain and milled flour. The association has been considering the necessity of some such expert, but the board accepted the request, and finally adopted a resolution directing all institutions to use Michigan grain and milled flour.

The Millers Association offered to employ a consulting specialist and give him at the disposal of the state the state would be free of all its institutions to use Michigan grain and milled flour. The administrative board accepted the offer, in the future—at least until it has been definitely proven that good bread can be made as cheaply or cheaper, than Michigan flour as from spring wheat flour that it cannot the state institutions will buy only the Michigan product.

It is estimated that in a year a million bushels of flour, valued at $1,000,000, will be consumed by the institutions. At least 100,000 bushels of flour, valued at $1,000,000, will be consumed by the institutions. The bread-making specialists of Michigan flour, 1,500,000 bushels are used annually.

According to figures presented to a committee of the Millers Association, bread of high quality can be made from Michigan flour at a cost of 2.42 cents a pound as compared with 2.53 cents made from spring wheat flour. The total value of the Michigan-made

ANYONE CAN RUN PUBLIC TRUCK OR BUS IN MICHIGAN

There Is No Law at Present to Stop Them; Something Must Be Done to Regulate Traffic.

(By Associated Press) LANSING, Nov. 4.—There is nothing to prevent the operation of motor cars and trucks as common carriers on the highways of the state until the legislature enacts laws regulating the operation of passenger and freight vehicles. The Michigan Highway Transportation Association, according to officials of the Michigan Highway Transportation Association.

In a recent case in the Ottawa County Circuit Court, according to H. H. Hurd, secretary of the association, a petition by the B. H. G. H. & A. 1914, was for a permanent injunction to prevent the operation of trucks and motor buses was denied. The court, it is understood, based its decision on the absence of state laws regulating the operation of carrier motor vehicles.

According to prominent state railroad officials who have been in Lansing recently, the people of the state must soon choose between motor vehicle transportation and railway transportation. One official is quoted as saying that it is impossible for the railroads to compete with the motor vehicles in the matter of rates because of the laws of regulatory legislation which binds the railroads to certain methods of operation. He pointed out the immediate outlay required from the railroads for upkeep of their right-of-ways for the employment of guards at crossings and to maintain the wage scale for employees.

In several municipalities in the state there is keen competition between trolley buses and street railways. On one or two occasions the state public utilities commission has been asked to grant increased street railway rate schedules because of the motor vehicle competition and in at least one case the commissioner has put the problem up to the interested municipality by stating that the commission will order lower street railway rates if the trolley bus competition is removed by city regulation.

The Michigan Highway Transportation Association, which is a state-wide organization of truck and passenger carrying motor vehicle owners, will hold a two-day convention in Grand Rapids, December 13 and 14. At that time the question of competition between railroads and street railways and motor vehicle carriers is to be fully discussed.
