No Record of Taylor's Birth or Marriage

By Dennis O'Connell.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—After an exhaustive and very careful search of all records it is unable to trace any record of the birth or marriage of John Taylor, who is alleged to have been the murderer of Miss Taylor.

In the year 1901, there is no record of a marriage in which John Taylor is the groom.

The statement that the murdered Miss Taylor, William (Donahue) Taylor, was born at Malton, Ireland, in 1877, could be verified here.

It is reported that the father of John Taylor, who is alleged to have been the murderer of Miss Taylor, was a member of the Irish Republican Army.

'WAY DOWN EAST'
FILM SPECTACLE
D. W. Griffith Paid $800,000 to
Have 'Wonder Picture' Made.

The motion picture production of 'Way Down East', which will be shown at the Deitz Theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, David W. Griffith spent ten months of endeavor and a fortune in the creation of scenes and to be by far the most ambitious that this ancient master of screen classics has yet attempted.
As all scenes of the picture were in a vast number of scenes and episodes, it was necessary to consume
the unusual length of time and high colored artists were carried along on a roll to be ready at the call for the filming of a scene when weather conditions were perfect for this work.
To produce the snow-storm and breaking ice scenes of the picture a force of engineers worked for a long period and even weather experts and high skilled in woodwork were found necessary that all should be correct.
Thousands of mountaineers were brought to the Forty-fourth Street Theatre in New York City for the premiere showing there and paid as high as ten dollars for a single seat.
It is stated that 'Way Down East' represents Mr. Griffith and his art at their best. The film seven ep-

450 Fathers and Sons at Boy Scout Banquet

Mr. Horton briefly but fervently expressed his admiration for the development of the great work in 1922. He had a hard time in the beginning and he predicted that at its present pace, Escanaba would be able to make a national record for scouting activities.

It is gratifying that not more of the good things of the scouting movement be remembered in these activities. He has seen a lot of boys who have taken to the work and he hopes to see more of them in the future.

Great Dinner Spectacular. The dinner which was splendid and homelike was prepared under the supervision of Messrs. J. J. ... who was ably assisted by various troops of Girl Scouts and their leaders.

Prizes Awarded. At the conclusion of the program, Scout Commissioner Brackett awarded three prizes for these table decorations. It may be noted here that troop 6 of St. Patrick's won one first and two seconds in the various contests.

JACKIE COOGAN'S SALARY

Is being SAVED for him until he becomes of age. Not every boy has Jackie's earning power, but EVERY FATHER can and should save money NOW for the future well-being of his son or daughter.

Jackie is also being taught the value of money. His parents are impressing upon him the BIGNESS OF LITTLE THINGS. They are teaching him that it is nickels and dimes that grow into dollars.
