MORGAN SAYS DITHMAR PLAN IS "NOT FAIR"

Badger Republicans Embroidered Over Forth- coming Convention.

Fight for Gubernatorial Nomina- tion Is Becoming Hottest in History of State.

MADISON, Wis., May 9. Conspiracy of Milwaukee to control the Milwaukee county convention of the committee of 44 when it meets tomorrow night to select 147 delegates to the Citizens' Republican state conference on June 1 is charged by William J. Morgan, attorney general, in a statement made today.

Attorney General Morgan, who is a candidate for governor, declares that Henry Berges, Republican county chairman, has conspired to pack the convention with persons who will name delegates favoring former Gov. E. F. Dithmar, for governor.

"I had not intended to enter any contest for delegates until I learned that Dithmar was in Milwaukee conferring with Prohibition Commissioner Stone and others interested in electing him for governor, and of what his intentions were doing."

"I am satisfied that the great majority of the committee of 44 want a real expression of the people in the county convention, but they have permitted the organization in Milwaukee county to fall into the hands of a few who are bent on suppressing any expression of the people's choice."

The Interstate commerce commission which recently concluded its inquiry into general transportation troubles has reported to President Harding that it does not possess authority under the law to go into all the details involved in the investigation.

PLAN TWO BIG DAYS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL WORK IN ESCANABA

Parents to Be Given Insight into Accomplishments Thru Play Festival and Pa- tron's Day.

Very few of the parents and patrons of the public schools ever visit the class rooms and see the work of the children. Their intentions are good, but so many duties interfere that before they realize it June 1 here and school closed.

To give everyone something of an idea of the work that has been done in the kindergarten and elementary grades this year, the schools are to have two special days in May.

The first will be a Play Festival by the kindergarten children in the high school gymnasium at 2:30 o'clock, May 20th. Each kindergarten will be well represented and the children will play their games, sing their songs, dramatize fairy tales and show some of their rhythmic work. It will be very interesting and it is hoped all mothers of kindergarten children and all mothers interested will plan to be there.

The second occasion is to be a patron's day conducted in the form of a reception. This was held last year and it proved so successful that school authorities wish to repeat it. There will be no class work, but committees of children will receive, introduce strangers to their teachers, show the work exhibited, and in fact, take complete charge of affairs. This reception is to take place Friday, May 26th, at two o'clock in all of the grade buildings.

Begin to arrange your plans now, so that you can attend. Parents may bring their little children, if necessary, for there will be no classes to disturb. Remember! This is the big day for everyone to visit the schools.

RELATED SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL MONDAY EVENING

Will Proceed Vigorously to Collect Delinquent Person- al Tax and Start Is Made Today.

It was to be Monday night before the city commission stepped down to the formal consideration of official business, due to the courtesy extended to Dr. G. A. Cotton, member of the commission, who was presiding officer of the Kiwanis banquet.

While awaiting the arrival of Dr. Cotton, the other city commissioners talked over business matters with local bankers and informally discussed the proposition of the employment of a city manager.

One man who is being considered for this commission had a conference with the council in the evening with the four remaining members, and later with the full board.

The official business at the meeting consisted of an examination into the city's general financial condition, with the suggestion of City Comptroller C. W. Dorn.

To Collect Delinquent Tax

Mr. Dorn presented a plan to start to the council, showing that a large amount of it remains unpaid after the date remained unpaid. The provisions of the state law were cited as well as the provisions of the local charter, which make it mandatory upon the city treasurer to advise every delinquent taxpayer in the collection of the tax.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the City Comptroller to proceed vigorously with the collection of delinquent personal taxes, to purchase necessary forms and supplies for the accounting department, and to transfer for the collection department of the Public Utilities to the City Hall.

Treasurer Instructed

The instructions to the city treasurer call attention to the provisions of the law that all taxes on the July roll unpaid on Sept. 5 and all taxes on the December roll remaining unpaid on Jan. 10 will carry a collection fee of four per cent and that an additional charge of one per cent a month will be made up to Aug. 1921 and three-fourths of one per cent shall be added for every month or fraction of month, for which taxes remain unpaid after August 1921. In addition to this penalty which is provided by the state law, the charter provides for the publication of the name of the delinquent, and the amount of taxes delinquent, once a week for a period of three weeks in some local newspaper.

Mr. Ham and Mr. Wilkinson will proceed at once under the authority of the state law and the charter, to carry out the instructions of the council regarding the collection of this delinquent personal tax.

The City Comptroller also was authorized to make certain financial transfers, closing a number of general city accounts and reappropriating the sum of $2,000 for general operating expenses.

It was well after midnight when the meeting adjourned.

UNCLE SAM IS IN AGREEMENT WITH ALLIES

Attitude Toward Soviet Russia Meets With Favor Here.

Genoa Conference Results Are Considered at Length at Today's Meeting of the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, May 9. A discussion of the Russian problem as it is effected by the negotiations at Genoa occupied most of today's session of the cabinet and it developed an opinion that the attitude of the allied governments towards the Soviet regime has shaped itself at Genoa in virtual agreement with the policies of the United States.

After the cabinet meeting it was said by administration officials that there had been a general agreement among the cabinet members that the work now proceeding in Genoa was going forward largely along lines which had previously been laid down by the department of state.

By the same administration spokesmen a hope was expressed that a solution of the whole problem which would be endorsed by this government might be reached in Genoa.

It was added that should the conference fail the United States would have to deal independently and in line with its relations with Russia.

It was reiterated that the basic principles which had been set forth for resumption of relations remained unchanged and that nothing that might transpire at Genoa would change the position of the United States. As a consequence, officials said if the Genoa conference failed in its solution of the Russian problem the United States will be exactly where it was before.

WORK ON SHOALS DUE TO START SOON

U. S. BANK AID IS DENIED EUROPE

Can Help Only by Maintaining Strong Conditions at Home, He Says.

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, May 9.—The position of the federal reserve board towards participation in the financial re-habilitation of Europe was defined here by Gov. W. P. G. Harding in an address before the executive committee of the American Acceptance Council.

While not referring specifically to the proposed international conference of banks of issues at London, where President Harding has let it be known the presence of Governor Strong, of the New York Reserve bank, would meet with no administrative objections, Governor Harding declared that, in view of a large part of the world's gold stock being held in this country, "much interest attaches everywhere to any question as to how the banking resources of the country can be utilized without detriment to domestic interests in bringing about a gradual restoration of more normal conditions abroad."

Both the reserve board and the reserve banks, he asserted, must observe the limitations of the statutes under which they operate, which do not permit investment in obligations of foreign governments, but they can do much to aid Europe by maintaining a strong banking position in this country.

"The federal reserve banks," he said, "must always be prepared to discount for their member banks and as their name implies they are essentially reserve banks. They hold the entire federal reserve of their member banks, as well as the gold reserves against federal reserve notes in actual circulation which amount now to about $2,450,000,000."

"They are not permitted to invest in long term securities except notes and bonds of the government of the United States, nor are they authorized to invest in obligations of foreign governments. The essential principle of the federal reserve act is liquidity."

"It may well be, however, that the federal reserve system can render effective aid to foreign countries by maintaining a strong banking position. The marketing of foreign issues in this country is effected far more readily in the present circumstances, when the position of the federal reserve banks is strong, than was the case two years ago when the situation was the reverse."

EX-JAILER IS SENT TO PENITENTIARY

Says He Learned Counterfeiting From His "Charges."

(By Associated Press) KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 9.—Austin J. Friel, 50 years old, of no particular address, faced J. Lee Arba S. Van Valkenburgh in the federal court today to answer charges of raising bills. He was indicted last week by the grand jury.

"I am guilty, your honor," Friel said, after the indictment had been read. "I was out of work, hungry and desperate. I had to have money."

"I heard how to raise bills when I was a deputy sheriff in Cook county, Illinois. I was a jailer at the Cook county jail. There were some of the cleverest men I ever met and I learned the country around in that jail. They taught me how they raised bills. When I got 'strangled' here I began to make 'tens' out of 31 and 32 bills."

Friel admitted passing many "raised" bills here. Judge Van Valkenburgh sentenced him to a year and a day in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth.

Friel was arrested in February by the police at Union station. Several lead dies, used in raising bills, were found in his possession.

The prisoner told Judge Van Valkenburgh that he had served 20 months in the army, 15 months of which was spent in France. He produced honorable discharge papers to verify his statement. He said that he was a deputy sheriff in Chicago when America entered the war and that he resigned to enlist in the army. A brother, Friel said, is a member of the Chicago board of trade and wealthy.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to freckles, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

The council has set a price of 25 cents an hour for the girls' services, when actually engaged in work such as dishwashing, cleaning, sweeping, tablesetting, etc., or caring for children during the day. For the evening when children are asleep and asleep and caring for them means remaining in the home with no work to do, the charge is less, but it left to the discretion of the woman employing the Girl Scout.

MEN GIRLS LOVE

GIRLS love UNSELFISH men. Not with the idea of winning a box of bonbons, or a visit to the theatre, or for a motor trip, but with the thought of spiritual unselfishness in mind. There is a difference between a generous man and an unselfish man; a distinction which woman's wit fixes upon the keen point of her perception.

A generous man is a chap who has plenty of money and who gives lavishly and generously. An unselfish man is one whose store of worldly goods is slender, perhaps, but who gives freely and with no thought of self. The difference between the two types of men often spells the difference between happy marriages and the other variety. Most men are unselfish when they are saturated with the sweet essence of romance; too often, though, they forget when the romance drops to common places of married life. The way to be happy though married is to give and take unselfishly. This goes for HER as well as for HIM, too.

CHRISTIAN TIPPED AS PORTO RICO HEAD

Rumors Persist Harding's Aid Will Succeed Reilly.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—President Harding is contemplating appointment of his private secretary, George Christian Jr., to the post of governor of Porto Rico, to succeed the present incumbent, E. Mont Reilly, of Kansas, according to persistent reports current in congressional circles. No confirmation was obtainable at the White House.

In contemplating such a move, President Harding entertains no thought of "repudiating" Governor Reilly, it was stated but has become convinced that because of the difficulties Reilly has experienced in administering the affairs of the island, it would be better to appoint Christian and for the interests of the United States to send somebody to the territory who could allay the widespread unrest that now exists. Reilly has been in continual hot water since becoming governor of the island. His political appointments and executive acts created a storm of opposition among the Porto Ricans at most from the start.

President Harding has been inclined however, to attribute much of Reilly's difficulties to the authorities of Porto Rican independence faction and has stood staunchly by his appointee.

Not "How Many" But "Who Are They?"

Quality depends upon what a thing is—not upon how many there may be of that particular thing. The whole of anything is the measure of value of its parts. Take Want Ads for instance. You couldn't hope to collect results from even a million people if not a single one of them had the dollars to purchase what you offered through that Want Ad. Yet if that same good ad was purchased by just one with the right sized check book—that distribution of exactly ten would be worth as much to you as a million "impossibilities." Remember, that when using Want Ads, if you'll hitch up to Mirror Want Ads, then you'll always be certain of an audience big enough and worth enough to do what you want them to do.

MOTHER WINS OUT AGAINST THE LAW

Extradition for Kidnapping Her Son Is Refused.

(By Associated Press) KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 9.—It was just a case of a mother's love for her child against the whole state government of Nebraska. Governor Hyde, before whom the "trial" was heard, decided today in favor of the mother, Mrs. Anna Stubbs.

The governor refused to honor extradition papers that would compel Mrs. Stubbs to return to Omaha to answer to a charge of kidnaping her own child, according to Horace Kimbrell, her attorney.

About five years ago Mrs. Stubbs' first husband died and she found it impossible to support her young son. She permitted Mr. and Mrs. Ames of Omaha, to adopt him. Later Mrs. Stubbs married Fred Stubbs of the Fred Harvey system.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Stubbs was in Omaha. On the street she met her son and his adopted mother. She seized the boy and brought him to Kansas City.

Mrs. Ames employed private detectives, who found the boy here. The governor of Nebraska issued extradition papers.

By Governor Hyde's decision today the unsigned papers were returned to an Omaha detective.

STATE TO LIST ALL OF ITS RESOURCES

President Friday, of M. A. C., Picked to Head Advisory Body for Inventory.

(By Associated Press)

LANSING, Mich., May 9.—President David Friday, of Michigan Agricultural College, has been named head of the advisory committee to take charge of the inventory of Michigan's natural resources, to be made through the cooperative effort of the agricultural department, the department of conservation, the university and agricultural colleges, together with such other state agencies as can contribute anything in the work to be undertaken.

The plan for an inventory in the soil, natural vegetation including forests, wild life, water power in the entire state, is an outgrowth of the much discussed soil survey.

Doelle to Direct Probe
The work will be under the direction of John A. Doelle, commissioner of agriculture, with Dr. Friday, Professor George Gratnam, of the department of soil, at M. A. C., Albert Stoll, secretary of the department of conservation, Vera Levon, director of the bureau of agricultural development, Professor C. O. Sauer, of the department of geology of the university, Professor L. J. Young, of the department of forestry, and Professor Frank Laverette, of the federal geological survey, acting as advisors.

While details of the work remain to be developed, it is planned to divide the state by counties making each county a unit in the work. It is planned also to make a complete survey of one or two counties to furnish a guide for the prosecution of the work.

Soil surveys, where they have been made, have proved of little value to the practical man. They have for the most part resulted in the compilation of scientific reports written by one scientist for other scientists to read.

URIC ACID IN MEAT BRINGS RHEUMATISM

Says a little Salts in water may save you from dread attack.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat; but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of the pain get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well. xx

Plan Survey As Benefit

It is the idea of the state officials in charge of the proposed survey, to make it of immediate practical value to the farmer, the pioneer, the business man and the sportsman.

Each phase of the work in each county will be set forth in a report, giving in plain language the facts appertaining to that county, and including a discussion of the best development methods applicable.

In the soil work, the areas of various kinds of soil will be indicated under their common names, as clay, sand, loam or muck, as the case may be.

Under the geological division of the work, the deposits of limestone, marl, ores, salts and other mineral resources will be clearly indicated.

While there has been much water power development in Michigan, it is a fact that the state authorities are not in possession of information concerning the extent of this source of power, or its locations. At present, each application for state land having a water course through it, known to possess no agricultural value, is investigated to determine if the prospective purchaser plan water power exploitation.

Reforestation is Lagging
At present, little or nothing is being done in the way of a definite program of reforestation, for the reason that no definite information is available as to what localities should be set aside for reforestation and what cut-over land should be opened and cleared for farming.

Few persons in Michigan know the extent of the mineral deposits of the state, including the limestone, the coal, the possibilities of oil development or possibilities of coal mining, it is pointed out.

In the matter of wild life, all the information available is what has been gathered in a haphazard, indirect way. It is the plan of the conservation department, in their part of the survey, to gather reliable, definite information as to the approximate number of game animals, birds and fishes, as well as study those sections of the state where such life either now abounds or can be planted.

The idea behind the survey, according to Commissioner Doelle, is to gather and compile all information possible concerning the natural resources of the state, so that the work of agricultural and industrial development, as well as the fast growing resort industry can be given all the aid possible from knowledge of the facts.

It is understood the agricultural department, with the cooperation of the department of agriculture, will have charge of the soil work. This will include examining and analysis of soils in each county, together with a discussion of necessary fertilization treatment and the most profitable crops possible.

Forestry and wild life will fall to the department of conservation as will the water power work, while the mineral work will be done under the direction of state geological survey department.

Living Costs Show Decline Since Jan. 1

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 9.—Cost of living in the United States dropped 4.2 per cent during the first three months of this year, the department of labor estimated. The decrease since the peak of the post-war high levels, reached in June 1920, is 22.9 per cent.

The general level of the cost of living, however, is still 66.9 per cent above the level of the pre-war days of 1914.

Food is still 38.7 per cent above the pre-war level; clothing, 75.5; housing, 69.9; fuel and light, 75.5; furniture, 106.2; miscellaneous, 103.8.

The decrease during the first three months is shown by the fact that the various articles in December, 1921, were the following percentages above the pre-war level:

Food, 50; clothing, 84.3; housing, 61; fuel and light, 81; furniture, 118; miscellaneous, 106.8.

Trench maps, which were printed for military use on strong canvas are now being used in England to make inner soles for tennis shoes.

"Let's Make Escanaba A Better City"

WHAT THE ISSUE WILL BE.

In the course of an all-around political debate in the senate, Senator McCormick, basing his opinions on the oratorical activities of former Governor Cox, said that the Democrats are preparing to make the League of Nations the issue in the approaching election.

Certainly that is the opinion that will be dictated by any man's common sense. The American people, except when torn from their moorings by war or threats of war, have never believed in making foreign policy a subject of domestic contention.

There is, on the other hand, a very lively interest in the course which the Republican party has taken since it returned to complete power. Not all of it is an approving interest, as some members of congress are likely to discover when the votes have been counted, and upon the issues raised in congress there can be waged a good old-fashioned American political campaign.

A TIMELY BILL.

The revival of industry and the appearance of cheap money have already been followed by an immense increase in stock market activity. The same conditions are likely to make easier times for gentlemen who have blue sky for sale; and it is fortunate, therefore, that the lower house of congress has found time to take up the bill which is intended to regulate the sale of securities through the mails and otherwise in interstate commerce.

In thirty-nine states there are laws providing for official examination and approval of all new issues of securities before they can be marketed. That leaves but nine states which are not protected, but by using those states for home offices, fraudulent companies may issue worthless stocks and sell them through the mails in all the thirty-nine states where they would certainly be prohibited if state law could reach interstate transactions.

Reduced to its simplest terms, the enactment which congress is considering, is an attempt to stop the sale of stocks by mail in states where such sales are now legally authorized. This is not an interference with the rights of states to regulate their own affairs. It rather supplements the power of each state to protect itself by punishing those who seek to evade its law.

How badly the United States needs better protection against fraudulent stock promotions may be judged by the findings of the capital issues commission which regulated stock and bond issues during the war. The commission was not charged with the duty of suppressing fraud, but the studies which it made, led to the conclusion that the people of the United States were at that time being swindled out of about $500,000,000 a year.

WOULD FIGHT BACK.

It is reported that all of the members of President Harding's cabinet believe they ought to have the right to appear on the floor of either house of congress for the purpose of defending themselves when attacked. The frequency with which they have of late been criticised and their honor questioned is given as the reason for this desire, and it may be conceded at once that it is a good reason.

There is evident equity in the proposition that if a member of congress accuses Secretary Weeks, as one did recently, of favoring his old brokerage firm in a financial deal with the government, the secretary should have an opportunity at once to deny it in the face of his accuser. And the same thing may be said in behalf of the other cabinet officers who are assailed in congress.

Furthermore, if this plan were put into practice it might have a quieting effect. The excited congressman who now accuses a member of the cabinet of being no better than he ought to be, might think twice before he spoke if he knew the object of his attack would soon be looking him in the eye and asking for proofs.

This would be a substantial gain for decency and intelligent debate but more important reasons can be urged why cabinet members should appear in congress. The principal benefits to be expected would be those which always result when direct consultation is substituted for written correspondence. Time would be saved and desired information would become more immediately available.

Freight Probe Witness Calls State Shipment Costly; Seek Remedy.

LANSING, Mich., May 9 — The effect of existing freight rates on Michigan agricultural and stock raising industries continued to occupy the attention of the members of the utilities commission, conducting a hearing into the Michigan Traffic league's complaints. That the high freight rates prohibit the shipment of cattle from the upper counties of the state into the lower districts and force the movement of Michigan-raised cattle out of the state into Wisconsin was the contention of C. E. Compton, manager of the Michigan Livestock exchange. Compton cited a case where he went to Schoeller county to ship 20 carloads of cattle to points in the southern part of the state, but had been prohibited from making the shipment, he said, because of the high freight rates, but constituted a discussion of agricultural development

MOST MEN LOVE TWO WOMEN, SAYS EXPERT

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 9.—Most men are in love with at least two women, M. Andre Tridon noted psycho-analyst, declared here in an interview.

Tridon thus took exception to the statement of Dr. David Forsyth of London, that man is incapable of being genuinely in love with more than one woman at a time.

The two simultaneous loves of the average man, Tridon said are:

1. The woman of the mother type, always tender and true to him, an ideal wife.

2. The other woman who thrills him and stirs his emotions.

Women are similarly constructed, M. Tridon declared. They are in love with two men or many men at once without difficulty.

The craving known as love seeks different characteristics to assuage it and scarce are the men or women who furnish all these at once.

Men and women, both in love, seek two things: Safety and romance.

It is in but one case out of ten that both are found in the one person.

DETECTIVE HELD AS ROMANCE WITHERS

Losing Lover Charges Kidnaping; Han Held Says Accuser Was Running Away.

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 9.—Bloomfield and Newark in New Jersey, are gossiping about a first class mystery which has developed out of the arrest in Newark recently of John F. Ellis, a private detective of Washington D. C. on a charge of kidnaping.

The complaint against Ellis is A. E. Robinson, who lives in Bloomfield and who is understood to be a British subject and a veteran of the world war.

Both Ellis and Robinson have been close mouthed as to what lies back of the case, but many persons in Bloomfield have heard that Ellis, when he was arrested, appealed to the secretary of Senator C. A. Culberson of Texas for aid and that the senator's secretary promptly supplied James R. Nugent, New Jersey lawyer and politician, to defend Ellis.

Lack of Funds Ruinous
Robinson had a romance with a wealthy Texas girl of high social standing. The romance was objectionable to the young girl's father and the father employed the detective to try to induce Robinson to leave the country.

The story attributed to Ellis just after his arrest was that Robinson, not being a man of means, wanted the girl to supply the wherewithal of a runaway match and that he was in cautious enough to make that suggestion in a letter which fell into the hands of the girl's father.

Enter Miss Culberson
Ellis says he persuaded Robinson to leave the country and they went to Boston, where the Englishman was to take ship, but that there he changed his mind and had Ellis arrested as a kidnaper.

Senator Culberson's 21 year old daughter, Mary, has been with him in Washington recently, having quit her classes at the University of Texas in Austin.

Miss Culberson, according to reports in Washington, became enamored of a young foreigner whom she met in Austin and it was her father's disapproval of the attachment which led him to persuade her to leave college and come to the Culberson family home in Washington.

Miss Mabel Olson spent Sunday in Gladstone, visiting with friends.

LEGION TO BUILD ORPHANS' HOME

WAR MEMORIAL EVERLASTING IS PLAN OF STATE VETERANS ORGANIZATION—TOWNSEND IS FOR IT.

NOW LOOKING FOR RIGHT SITE

A "War Memorial Everlasting," in the form of a school and home for the orphans of veterans of the World War has been outlined by the state executive committee of the American Legion.

The committee decided that instead of a monument or other ornamental structure, it would establish in Michigan an institution of practical aid to the fatherless children of the war.

Townsend Approves Plan.
As the plan was proposed, the Legion itself would carry on the work without seeking the aid of any public funds.

Senator Townsend of Michigan has written from Washington his hearty approval of the plan, and will cooperate with the Legion in carrying it through.

"Our idea," said Paul A. Martin, State Commander, in presenting the plan, "is that the highest type of war memorial must combine the elements of useful help, permanency, and a just appreciation of the sacrifices of the dead."

"When the American Legion of Michigan undertakes this great work, it will have assumed national leadership in a movement which cannot fail to catch the spirit of patriotic imagination and support everywhere."

"My idea is that the home should be located in the country, where the best combination of healthful surroundings can be found."

"There is no need for us to decide just where, for there will be much competition among various communities to obtain this unique war memorial."

OWNERS WILL FIGHT TAX ON IRON MINES

Will Seek Lower Assessment Because of Depression.

LANSING, Mich., May 9.—Efforts of the state to collect the largest tax ever assessed against the iron mines of the state will meet with strenuous opposition from the mine owners when hearings on this year's assessments are held in Iron Mountain, Negaunee, and Crystal Falls this week.

The figures on the assessments will not be made public until after the hearings, but according to Fred Gutless of the state tax commission the assessments on the iron mines have reached their peak being the highest ever made.

It is the plan of the mine owners to drive the assessments figures down to the level of last year, and one of the arguments they expect to use is that the iron mines have been practically non-productive during the last two years because of the business depression and are not yet restored to normal operation.

SHED, PRISON OF GIRL, CLAIM

BEAVER, Ohio, May 9.—Irene Menges, 20 years old, was rescued yesterday from an iron shed on the farm of her father, Jacob P. Menges, near Crestline where she is said to have been imprisoned for six years.

Sheriff Edward J. Kappenberger of Crawford county and Charles Crawford, marshal at Crestline released the girl from captivity.

Menges was placed under arrest and is held for investigation.

The girl was brought to Beaver, where she is being cared for by the sheriff's wife. She has not spoken a word since she was released from the shed, according to the sheriff. When rescued she wore little clothing and the shed where she was found was heated only by a lantern, the sheriff said.

Her father claims she is mentally unbalanced and that she had been held under restraint only two years.

Members of her family objected strenuously, it was said when the sheriff made known his intention of releasing the girl from prison.

SITES FOR BANK IN U. P. ARE SOUGHT BY STATE
IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., May 9.—Peninsular advocating a suitable site for a state park is asked by A. H. Stoll, Jr., secretary of the state department of conservation to present its proposition to the commission. Gov. Groesbeck and other state officials will meet at Marquette, May 25, to take definite action on various matters which have come before the conservation department.

Male Flappers Post Photos In Romance Hunt

Berkeley, Cal., May 9.—The male flapper has figured out a new wrinkle at the University of California. He takes his photograph in a conspicuous place with the notation that any girl student desiring to become acquainted with the owner write down her name and telephone number. The campus "cops" are spilling many a budding romance, however, for they are tearing down the photographs as fast as they appear.

LAKE STORMS WORSE THAN OCEAN, SHIP FINDS

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 9.—After a perilous storm tossed voyage begun more than five months ago, the ocean steamer George W. Clyde has docked at Chicago.

The largest vessel that has ever made the trip from the eastern seaboard thru the Welland canal and into the upper lakes, the Clyde's voyage from the time it left Philadelphia was a constant battle with some of the worst lake storms in history.

The salt water skipper and crew who had manned her have quit in disgust declaring that the lake storms were worse than anything they had encountered on the ocean.

Captain O. T. Olson has been in command of the Clyde since it entered fresh water, the ocean master being Captain Kendall. The Clyde will proceed Monday to Milwaukee to discharge its cargo of sugar on the first leg of its return trip to Buffalo.

(By Associated Press)
HOPESTON, Ill., May 9.—Examination of the vital organs of Miss Gertrude Hanna, mysteriously slain former school teacher, revealed poison, it became known today.

The authorities revealed this fact as the most important disclosure since the finding of the girl's lifeless body eight days ago in the United Presbyterian parsonage.

New and vigorous action in the search for Miss Hanna's slayer is expected to follow the discovery that poison was given her.

$150,000 VANDERBILT INSURANCE RULED OUT

NEW YORK, May 9.—The executors of the will of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who died when the Lusitania was sunk by the Germans in 1915 yesterday lost their appeal from a decision in favor of the Travelers' insurance company which they had sued for $150,000.

They alleged that Mr. Vanderbilt had died thru "external, violent and accidental means."

The company quoted from its policy providing that the insurance would not cover death or disability resulting directly or indirectly from the war.

Following the Floods
THE excessive rains of the past month have seriously retarded farming operations. As soon as field work is possible farmers will be busy night and day preparing the ground and seeding the land that they may maintain an adequate food supply for the nation. This year, for the farmer, time is an imperative factor.

More than 140,000 tractors are owned in the 11 Middle Western States served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). These tractors are being overhauled, lubricated, and put in condition to perform essential labor, for which horse power would be totally inadequate.

The number of horse hours per day is limited by the strength of the horse, while the number of motor hours per day is limited only by the number of hours.

During this rush the demand for gasoline will be heavy. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is prepared to supply this demand. Its storage tanks and bulk stations located at strategic points throughout the territory are full. Its supply depots, service stations, and tank wagons are prepared to make Red Crown gasoline instantly accessible to the farmer when his need arises.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) may be depended upon to perform this service adequately — first, because it has provided sufficient field storage to take care of even an abnormal demand. Second, because it maintains distributing facilities which form the most perfect system of its kind.

Only a big organization, big in spirit of enterprise and social service and big in resources, can cope adequately with the growing motor needs of the Middle West. In carrying on its business the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) operates 6 large refineries, 8821 bulk stations, 1521 filling stations, and a fleet of 6600 tank delivery trucks.

It is due to the efficiency of this vast organization that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is able to guarantee that the needs of the farmer for petroleum products will be supplied.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small stand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. 11
