SOCIAL NOTES

Johnson-Follo

One of the prettiest weddings of the midsummer season was that of Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Hattie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Johnson 1545 First Ave. So., was united in marriage to Howard Follo of Lancaster-Wis. The ceremony was performed at the Swedish Lutheran church, by Rev. C. A. Lund, pastor of the congregation. The church was filled with friends and relatives of the contracting parties and the church was most artistically decorated. The front of the church was adorned in ferns and flowers, the coffin a home of white and gold being carried out. An arch of green was formed in front of the altar from which hung a white wedding bell made of flowers. Mrs. C. A. Lund, president of the organ and played "Lohengrens" wedding march when the bridal party entered the church. Mrs. Lund also rendered other selections during the ceremony. Mrs. C. B. Kitchen sang a solo "Call Me Thine Own."

The bride wore a gown of white mignonne lace except embroidered in pearls over white satin. The tulle veil, was fastened with a crown of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Lillian Johnson, a sister of the bride, who wore a gown of gold and silver tulle with corsage of pink roses and larkspur. Fred Johnson was best man. The two flower girls wore nicotia, the bridesmaids wore yellow organza dresses.

The ushers were Dr. H. A. Johnson brother of the bride, Theodorus Soder and Val Follo of Akron, Ohio a brother of the bridegroom.

Immediately after the church ceremony the bridal party accompanied by the immediate relatives of both families motored to Ford River to Peter-son's Tea Room here an elaborate supper was served. The tables were elegantly set, the color scheme of white and yellow being carried out similar to the church decorations. Covers were laid for twenty-two.

Mr. and Mrs. Follo left on the 8:30 train for the Delta of Wisconsin where they will spend their honeymoon after which they will make their home in Lancaster, Wis., where Mr. Follo is engaged in business. Mr. Follo was formerly sales manager for the Babcock Auto Spring Co., of Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. Follo was engaged as an instructor in the public schools of Akron where the romance first had its inception which ended in the happy marriage of yesterday. Both are graduates of the Escanaba high school and have a large circle of friends who join in congratulating them. The bride was the guest of honor at several pre-nuptial festivities at which many beautiful gifts were received.

Woolworth Girls Picnic

The girls of the F. Woolworth Store held their annual picnic at the country place of H. O. Brotherton, Tuesday evening. A picnic supper was enjoyed followed by a marshmallow roast. After the girls had played games they motored to Terrace Garden where they enjoyed the dancing program which was the climax of their evening of enjoyment.

North Star Meeting

The North Star Society will hold their regular meeting Friday evening at North Star hall. This will be an opportune time for the members to pay their dues for which they are now liable. It is expected that a large number of members will attend.

Birthday Party

Tommie LaLanore of Virginia, Minn. celebrated his sixth birthday at the home of Mrs. C. H. Larson, 914 14th street at whose home he is a guest. Games were played by the little folks and at the close of a very enjoyable afternoon refreshments were served.

Excelsion Literary Society

The Excelsion Literary Society of the Swedish Mission church will give a program Thursday evening. After the program refreshments will be served. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Helen Holmstrom left for Chicago to visit friends and relatives.

If we are looking for an appropriate nickname for Michigan we have been asked, who not call it the (celery State, since we supply much of the country with this product? But probably the discussion along that line has gone far enough. It might be dangerous to arouse the enthusiastic residents of the potato and bean growing districts. And, anyway, until the issue is definitely settled, out tourists who might ballot for the grasshopper or the mosquito should not be considered eligible to vote.

In his journey around the world and his visit to 25 different countries, Prof. Hobbs has collected data relating to the origin and growth of mountains. Intense interest is centered on the question whether he discovered any evidence that people sometimes make a mountain out of a molehill.
