

SHOPMEN DENY WRECK RESPONSIBILITY

CLAIM THAT MICHIGAN CENTRAL CATASTROPHE WAS RESULT OF A DEFECTIVE LOCOMOTIVE

Chicago, Aug. 22—Declaring the "real cause" of the Michigan Central wreck, at Gary, Indiana, early Sunday morning, was "clearly the fault of a defective locomotive," and charging that the statement that "the wreck was due to plotters," was "a hastily patched up explanation to place the blame for the loss of life upon the striking shop men, instead of on the railroad where it belongs," Vice-President McGrath, of the railway employees' department, of the American Federation of Labor today said. "The wreck did not differ one bit from wrecks reported each day from various parts of the country."

McGrath's statement came on the heels of the verdict of the coroner's jury which found that the engineer and fireman of the wrecked express "came to their deaths as a result of a plot to wreck the train."

This also followed an announcement by State's Attorney Crowe, admitting failure to discover sabotage plots in the correspondence seized in raids upon the offices of W. Z. Foster, radical leader and head of the trades union educational league. Federal investigators asserted that Foster had been under close surveillance for a long time and declared they would have known if train wrecking was to have played a part in the "One Big Union" program sought by Foster and his followers.

New Phase Entered

NEW YORK, Aug. 22—The shop-craft strike entered another phase today when rail presidents from western states began to arrive for tomorrow's conference of railway executives, where they will vote their answer to measures proposed by the "Big Five" brotherhoods, as a practical means of settling the seniority question of ending the strike.

This will mark the third nationwide assembling of railroad chiefs within the last month, in which the problem of seniority rights has arisen to block the path of settlement. At the first two meetings, plans proposed by President Harding were partly accepted, but with reservations and conditions which eliminated them as the basis for calling off the strike.

Violence Continues

Violence continued to flare in various sections of the country. At Huntington, West Virginia a second attempt to dynamite the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad bridge was frustrated by a track walker, who discovered 2 men on the trestle. They ran away when the track walker came into sight, but left behind them a box of dynamite and 40 feet of fuse.

Jail-Guarded

According to police the negro said he emptied a revolver at five men who followed him from the shop gates. A strong guard was thrown around the jail, where the negro was held. State troops were also thrown around the postoffice at Salisbury N. C., following an alleged attack upon the Rev. Tom Jemison pastor of a Methodist church, by John Sloop a postal employe. The minister had championed the rail strike. Striking shop men threatened Sloop who was arrested.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22—

Announcement was made today by general officials of the Southern Railway that North Carolina guardsmen were being withdrawn from about the company's shops at Spencer and that members of the train service brotherhood, by agreement were returning to work.

HARDING HOPES FOR RESULTS IN THE RAIL STRIKE

Still Unwilling to Take Any More Radical Steps than Taken.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22—President Harding although hopeful of success for the New York rail strike settlement was said at the White House today to be unwilling to take any other steps than those taken in his recent addresses to congress. His declaration to congress that the laws would be enforced and the rights of workers to enter railroad service guaranteed it was added will remain the final government statement until there is some change in the situation.

CITY HEALTH DEPT. REPORT FOR MONTH MOST INTERESTING

Cost of Operation Would Have Been Much Higher Had Work Been "Passed Around."

The city health department today submitted a monthly report to the city manager covering activities for the period from July 15 to Aug. 15 and indicating the wide scope of operations of that department, of which so little is heard, but which is always busy doing good.

For instance in just one month City Physician DeMet treated and put on dressings 122 wounds, burns, injuries of various kinds etc. There were also 5 office consultations. This was done among the city indigent, who would have had to be looked after by the city in some manner.

During the month the city physician made 61 house and hospital calls, making a total of 107 indigent cases, in which the city's responsibility for care is plain.

Cost Is Low

If there had been no health department and various physicians had been called to treat these cases at $3 per call, the bill would have amounted to $221. As it was the cost of operating the city health department was a trifle over $22.

But far more than the care of the cases mentioned above, devolved upon the city physician.

Besides these, he investigated and abated 22 nuisances, ordered 8 out houses removed or cleaned and 60 office clinic, which deals with infectious disease, he treated 50 males and 15 females.

Many Activities

This briefly covers the multifarious activities of the health department. When the city budget was made up this spring $2,000 was provided for the health department and within a month 15 days, this amount will run out. It is understood that the city manager will bring this condition to the attention of council and ask that provision be made for continuing this humane and necessary and healthful work.

John W. Smith has been made postmaster of Detroit, Roy Clark is out after the state treasurership, Charles Tufts is in business in Lansing, Albert Engel is opposing James C. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Newhouse and children of Sault Ste. Marie are in the city visiting Mrs. C. J. Taylor, mother of Mrs. Newhouse.

State Police Rounding Up A Band of Russian Communists Located in Berrien County

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 22—Michigan state police were ordered to Bridgeman, Berrien county, today to assist in rounding up a band of about 80 persons alleged to be Russian communists and who are said to have crossed into Michigan from Chicago.

Reports reaching the department of public safety were to the effect that the party plans to hold a meeting in Bridgeman. An effort may be made to deport the party, which was said to have been made to leave Chicago.

Bridgeman, Mich., Aug. 22—Fifteen alleged members of the communist party were arrested this morning by department of justice agents and their assistants. Those arrested were delegates to the party's secret convention here.

PLAN NEW BRIDGE OVER ESCANABA RIVER AT WELLS

State Highway Department Is Making Preliminary Surveys and May Change Road Route.

It became definitely known here today that plans are now in the making for the construction of a new highway bridge to span the Escanaba river and replace the present concrete and steel structure at Wells.

Several months ago it appeared that the east end of the present bridge was sinking and this danger has been increasing until it has been found necessary to brace it with timbers.

Under these circumstances the state highway department has taken a hand in the game and preliminary surveys are now being made with the idea of getting construction of a new bridge under way by fall is possible.

The present bridge cost Delta county $40,000 but the new one it is said, will be built entirely at state expense as this is a trunk line highway.

While no official plans have been made, it is stated that work is to be pushed as rapidly as possible.

At the same time it is understood there is some agitation for changing the course of the road so as to eliminate the sharp right angle turn at the Wells store and permit the bridge to be built more on a straight road.

Incidentally it is claimed that this plan is meeting with some opposition but these are all wrinkles that will be ironed out by the state highway department. The big job remains that a new bridge is to be built and it is assumed that it will be more modern in every respect and safer in every way than the present structure.

Lutherans of Many States to Gather in Detroit Shortly

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 22—Special attention will be given to education at institutions and social service work at the forty sixth biannual convention of the Lutheran Joint Synod of Ohio and other states to be held here Aug. 21 to 29. The Lutheran Joint Synod of Ohio numbers more than 250,000 members of whom 150,000 are in active communicant membership. Seven hundred fifty ministers are assigned to care for the congregations whose total wealth, including churches, parsonages and school buildings amounts to more than $10,000,000.

During the last year more than $200,000 was contributed for benevolent purposes including missionary and educational work and the support of the European relief work of the National Lutheran Council.

Slaughter Houses of State Unsanitary

LANSING, Aug. 22—Unsanitary conditions are being uncovered by an inspection of slaughter houses in the state, according to officials of the state department of agriculture.

Of 2280 slaughter houses inspected so far, a report to the department asserts, conditions were so bad in 20 per cent of them that they were ordered closed until faulty surroundings can be eliminated.

RED CROSS MEET HERE SEPT. 19 IS VERY IMPORTANT

To Outline Plans for Next Year's Business in Entire Upper Peninsula.

Local officers of the Red Cross Chapter are making preparations for entertaining a crowd of about 100 delegates in this city on Sept. 19, which incidentally is the first day of the Northern State Fair.

This meeting will be attended by all officers and directors of the Red Cross organizations in each of the 15 counties of the upper peninsula and all about 100 persons are expected.

Sessions will be held at the Escanaba Golf Club where a luncheon will be served and the business of the day transacted.

It is anticipated that national officers of the organization will be present to outline the campaign for coming year and arrange for the membership drive which will be staged in November and December.

Ever on the alert to seize an opportunity by the tail, officials of the chamber of commerce and the fair association are preparing to bombard the visitors with literature pointing out to them the pleasure and advisability of remaining over to attend Escanaba's big annual county show.

RAIL INJUNCTION MADE PERMANENT BY U. S. COURT

Local Shopmen Do Not Appear in Court to Contest Action of North-Western.

U. S. Deputy Marshal T. J. Hurley was in the city today and served copies of the permanent injunction on all striking shopmen.

The first of temporary injunctions was set for hearing in the U. S. Court for August 11th. Local shopmen who had been observing practically all of the conditions of the injunction in any event, regardless of its having been issued did not appear to contest it and it was made permanent.

The permanent injunction is the same as the original temporary document and will appear in full in this paper tomorrow.

At this morning's meeting of the laboring men, they all lined up and filed past Mr. Hurley, who handed each one of them a copy of the permanent injunction.

Then lining up again the boys passed in review and each was presented with packages of Duke's Mixture which the Liggett & Myers company had sent for distribution among them.

Wants No "Experts" On Fact Finding Coal Commission

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22—While the senate labor committee was taking the first formal action towards the creation of a coal fact finding commission, recommended by President Harding, the president let it be known that he was disposed to insist that the investigating body be made up exclusively of impartial representatives of the public with no special representatives for miners or employes.

U. S. STEEL CO. RAISES WAGES 20 PER CENT

Common Labor Now Gets 36 Cents Hour as Against 30 Cents.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22—The United States Steel corporation announced a wage increase of 20 per cent to all day laborers at all of its manufacturing plants of Sept. 1, and that the other wages would be equitably adjusted.

At the offices of the corporation it was said that about 165,000 would be affected by the new scale and that they would receive 36 cents an hour. The corporation has about 228,000 men on its pay roll, but 51,000 are in the mining and transportation department.

The increase is the first since February 1 1929, when the men were boosted 10 per cent and received 47 cents an hour. On May 15th the wages were cut 20 per cent and one June 16 of the same year, overtime was laid out for the workers. The final cut in August 1921 reduced wages to 20 cent an hour.

STEIN STORE AGAIN TOUCHED UP FOR A TRIO OF OUTFITS

Robbers Gain Entrance by Forcing Read Window and Make Away With $300 in Clothing.

The Stein general store in North Escanaba was again raided last night by what seems to have been a trio of men bent on "outfitting" themselves from head to heel. Mr. Stein is away on a vacation but Mrs. Stein and clerks figured out that about $300 worth of clothing shoes, underwear, shirts, ties, etc. were taken.

In all it looks as though three complete outfits were taken. Entrance was gained thru forcing a rear window and the thieves apparently took their time in making selections as all parts of the store were visited. The suit were all size 38.

The police are working out several lines of investigation and it is believed possible that the parties who pulled off this job may have been implicated in the recent robberies of dentists of fices in this city.

COUNTY FUEL ADMINISTRATOR GETTING BUSY

Holds Meeting With the Wholesale and Retail Coal Dealers.

A meeting of wholesale and retail coal dealers of the county was held yesterday afternoon with H. P. Bourke, county coal administrator, when first steps were taken looking to the proper distribution of coal in the county.

The initial step is for the dealers to be able to accurately estimate the amount of coal required here during the fall and winter months. Estimates must include demands for all grades of coal and the figures furnished will be used by Mr. Bourke as the basis for his requisition for coal for this county. This requisition will go to the state fuel administration.

It is stated that no coal is now on the way, nor is any expected in the very near future.

Many Drug Stocks Found to Be Faulty

LANSING, Aug. 22—A condition described by the state department of agriculture as dangerous has been disclosed in a recent analysis of drug stocks in Michigan, according to an announcement by the department. It is said that of a large quantity of drugs and medicine examined, more than 20 per cent was found to be faulty.

The department's announcement states that "most drugs come to pharmacists at standard strength. Due to poor storing or being held in the shelves too long, they deteriorate until there is a possibility that they will act as poison if used. This condition rapidly is being corrected and it is expected that the next general analysis will show less than two per cent of the drugs below standard."

Mrs. H. Abrahamson and daughter, Adelle, left this morning for a two weeks visit in Milwaukee and Detroit.

ILLINOIS MEN IN AGREEMENT TO SETTLE NOW

Coal Wage Contract of 1921 Said to Have Been Renewed.

Anthracite Men Prepare to Break Deadlock While Many Soft Coal Mines Are Working.

Legislation for the control of coal prices will be drafted in a day or two was the announcement made by Secretary Hoover.

House interstate commerce commission continues work on the Winslow bill.

The senate labor committee reported favorably on the Borah bill for federal commission to inspect the coal industry.

Anthracite miners and operators are prepared to continue their efforts to break the deadlocks in the hard coal strike.

Preliminary operators and miners conference continue their sessions thinking it may be possible for them to finish by tonight.

Indians operators and miners resume efforts to reach a settlement. Miners are expected to start tomorrow in Iowa as the result of the operators and miners agreement reached today.

Settlement Agreed On

CHICAGO, Aug. 22—An agreement to settle the Illinois coal strike was reached this afternoon by the sub-committee of the Illinois operators and miners scale committee, the Associated Press learned this afternoon.

The settlement plan is simply a renewal of the 1921 wage contract which is in accord with the recent Cleveland agreement for settlement of the nation wide coal strike which began April 1, this year.

Although the settlement plan had not been signed the leaders in the sub-committee conference were agreed that the ratification of the agreement would not long be delayed. "I am going home tonight," said W. K. Cavanaugh president of the 5th and 9th district operators association, in emphasizing the fact that an agreement had been reached.

STATE HIGHWAY MEN INSPECTING COUNTY ROADS

Interesting Reports Expected to Be Made Following Trip.

R. C. Tiney, assistant maintenance engineer of the state highway department, H. I. Davies, district engineer and County engineer R. P. Mason are today on a tour of inspection of roads in Delta county. All penetration macadam roads are to be inspected, as well as water bound roads that have been surface treated with tar.

It is understood that surface treatment will soon be applied on the bay shore road in Gladstone and that this work can be done with out interfering with traffic by closing the road.

It is stated that contracts will soon be awarded for the Gladstone Hill road but it will not be of concrete as originally planned, because of transportation difficulties relative to cement.

Today's inspection is expected to be followed by acceptance of that portion of the state road running from 11th street out 8th avenue south, to the city limits.

Wilson's Bond Is $500 in Each of Three Charges

Just to get the public set right as to the amount of bond under which Wellington Wilson is at liberty the Mirror again makes it plain that the total amount of the bond is $1500. He was put under bond of $500 charged with killing Kenneth Sloan, $500 charged with killing George Curran and $500 for driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition.

Considerable misapprehension seems to exist regarding this matter and Justice McEwen has been asked repeatedly if the bond is only $500. It is $1500 in each of the three charges.

WHO OWNS THE THEATRE?

Far more significant than the courteous declination of Augustus Thomas, dean of American dramatists, as executive chairman of the Producing Managers' Association, to entertain the astounding proposal that the question of confining the policy of the actors' union be left to a vote of the latter body, the finding to be binding upon the managers, was the clear manner in which Mr. Thomas outlined the position of the theatre in its relation to a too often ignored factor, without which it would cease to exist.

Cheerfully granting the assertion of Secretary Frank Gill, more that "not one will deny that part of the art and industry of the theatre belongs by right to the actors," Mr. Thomas added his personal view to the effect that the theatre does not belong to the actor, nor to the manager, nor to the dramatist, nor to all of them combined, but that it is a great public institution.

Here is the nub of the whole situation. Without the public there would be no theatre. It is not in any sense an essential institution. It holds the interest of millions who follow the every movement of its various agencies as they are set down in the press. It has the loyal support of the masses, who often pay, uncomplainingly, out of all proportion to what they receive in return. It provides entertainment for every taste. But not within the memory of the oldest playgoer has it appeared in the role of philanthropist.

It exacts tribute for all it does, which is eminently proper, because it is a commercial undertaking from which its promoters have a right to take a liberal profit, even if they do not always succeed in doing so. With all the sophistry about "art for art's sake," the truth of the matter is that everyone connected with the theatre is so affiliated for individual gain, in one form or another. Which, again, is not only permissible, but to be expected.

Bearing all this in mind, the conclusion of Mr. Thomas takes on added pertinency. It is well, as he intimates, for all those concerned to take cognizance of the fact that the public can either make or break the theatre and everyone connected with it. If every playhouse in the country were to close its doors tomorrow the public would continue to exist, and would suffer no great hardship, because it would find some other means of diversion.

While taking every reasonable precaution to safeguard their interests, the actors affiliated with Equity should remember that they are obligated to the public, just as the producers may cogitate with profit on what their executive chairman has to say about their position. Public opinion is invariably for play. It is the court of last resort that looks beyond its personal interests and weight problems in their wider relation to the country at large. It is lenient, long-suffering, but not to be trifled with always.

NOT PASSING THE BUCK.

Taking their cue from Senator Underwood's charge that by passing the flexible tariff amendment the senate admits its incompetence to legislate on the tariff, numerous organs of Democratic opinion throughout the country are sounding the same cry. They treat the amendment as an admission of failure and attempt to shift the burden of tariff making to the President's shoulders. For 100 years, it is said, congress legislated on the tariff without delegating power to a president and this congress should do likewise.

The argument assumes that all of the other congresses have been right and that the senate is wrong. There is no cogent reason for admitting the assumption. Other countries have left the adjustment of tariff rates to executive power and have found that it works well and, furthermore, even though every other congress would be right in following precedent, Times have changed since the last tariff was made and the change has brought about conditions in the foreign trade unlike anything this country has faced heretofore.

In the light of after-war conditions in Europe, this point is too obvious for argument. Nobody overlooks it except willfully. The flexible tariff recognizes the fact that nobody can foresee what foreign wages and production costs will be a year hence, and provides for that uncertainty by leaving tariff rates subject to change, but the time during which that power is granted, is limited to two years. After that the old way will automatically return unless confirmed unsettlement in Europe should induce congress to continue the new plan.

A STRANGE CONTRAST.

Politics makes strange bedfellows, especially when it is tariff politics. It also makes strange contrasts. Senator Johnson is commonly classed as an independent Republican with strongly progressive leanings. But nobody in the senate was any more regular than Senator Johnson while he was building a tariff wall for California. He and the Old Guard were blood brothers and his supporters are now asking for votes on the ground that he made California the best protected state in the Union.

Turn next to Senator Lodge. He is a regular Republican with conservative tendencies. Massachusetts has the largest shoe industry in the country and, besides that, Massachusetts shoemakers have a good export trade. They buy hides abroad and ship shoes across the sea. They did not want any shoe or leather tariff, and Senator Lodge fought side by side with insurgents and Democrats to put hides and shoes on the free list although they were dutiable in the bill framed by his regular Republican associates.

Considering the food situation in Russia and the famine outlook in China it is not the American alone who has cause to rejoice in a 3,000,000,000 bushel crop of corn.

Somehow that little pile of coal in the cellar never before looked so valuable or so small.

FOREST FIRES ARE DEADLY ENEMIES TO NATURAL WILD LIFE

Importance of Fire Protection Stressed in Game Preservation Fight.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 22.—(By The Associated Press.) Of interest in connection with many reports of destructive forest fires in several sections of the country, is a circular of the Biological Survey of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, stressing the effect of such fires on game and game preservation. A fire which causes over any large area destroys not only the birds and other game themselves, but their food and shelter, and though one take little interest in forest fire prevention for the sake of preserving the trees, he may be more interested in saving the game and fish.

Decrease of one or both of the elements of food and shelter means a corresponding decrease in the number of valuable wild creatures. The belief that burning over in certain localities is beneficial because it promotes new grass, ignores the fact that the grass thus obtained does not compensate for the destruction of the trees and shelter and food required by the animals, says the survey. Particulates in particular suffer from forest or brush fires. When their favorite places are burned over and their food and shelter are gone they are obliged to seek new localities and are new dangers.

Indiscriminate setting of spring fires in the southern states dislodges deer, quail, raccoons, foxes, squirrels, rabbits and other animals and endangers ground nesting birds in the timber, such as woodcock, pheasant, wild turkey and the whippoorwill. The woodcock is in some danger of extermination at the present time, it is pointed out, and deserves all possible protection.

In seasons of drought, forest fires even invade marshy places and drive out fur bearing animals as well as waterfowl, and shore birds, it has been found. Many think that burning results in only temporary inconvenience to the game and do not realize that the food of many birds is largely the seed and berries of the year before.

Burning brush also eliminates for months all shelter from natural enemies.

Burning of the ground cover in forests of loblolly and shortleaf pine kills the young trees as they emerge and results in thin, straggling growth. The burning of timber and other ground cover which should absorb and retain moisture also accelerates the run-off and affects the stream flow at different seasons to such an extent that the supply of fish may be materially decreased.

The police of Flint advise householders to spread sacks on the floors as a means of curbing the activities of barefoot burglars. It is believed that a burglar, hearing father's yell as he steps on these, will flee the city, never to return.

A resident of Kalamazoo is starting a movement to have each of the inhabitants smile two or three times a day, making a total of, say, 150,000 smiles per day. We have found that a program like this hardly conflicts at all with the day's regular duties if one smiles his two or three times rapidly, just after getting up.

An ordinance of the Cass City council forbids any one to keep open a shop, store, warehouse, or any other place of business, to do any manner of labor, or take part in any play, game or sport on Sunday. Till further notice, however, every one will be allowed a perfectly free choice between sleeping and staying awake, if he doesn't want to do either.

Dr. Leo DeForest is quoted as having said in a recent speech that the estimate of the number of receiving sets as being a million is highly conservative. He estimates that in two years it will be five million, and in 1927, that it will reach 20 million.

Shop craft leaders explained that the action was taken to help the local excoers carry their annual load as well as to alleviate cases of actual distress among the shop men.

Not "How Many" But

"Who Are They?"

Quality depends upon what a thing is—not upon how many there may be of that particular thing. The whole of anything is the measure of value of its parts. Take Want Ads for instance. You couldn't hope to collect results from even a million people if not a single one of them had the dollars to purchase what you offered through that Want Ad. Yet if that same old ad was placed in the book with the right sized check book—that distribution of exactly ten would be worth as much to you as a million "impossibilities." Remember, that when using Want Ads, if you'll hitch up to Mirror Want Ads, then you'll always be certain of an audience big enough and worth enough to do what you want them to do.

I had a steady ache in my back all the time and it made no difference whether I was working or standing still, my back hurt just the same. I was all worn out and always felt nervous, depressed and irritable. Black spots came before my eyes, blurring my sight and I suffered a great deal with headaches. NATURE MAKING GOOD LOSSES IN DEATH BY WAR

(By Associated Press) LONDON, Aug. 22—Some interesting and novel facts respecting England's social progress and national health are revealed in the current report of the Registrar General of England a monumental work of 531 closely-printed pages. More children were born than ever before, while the death rate of 12.4 per 1000 was the lowest recorded. Never before were there so many marriages in one year. The divorce rate continues to increase the number being twice that of any year prior to 1919. There was a striking growth of marriages of boys less than 20 years old. The number of young widows and elderly bachelors who married was double previous records while the total of widows under 25 who married again was exceeded in only one previous year. Divorce increased by 100 percent over the previous year and was nearly twice that of any earlier date. The number of illegitimate children was below that of war times, being 1.69 per cent. The death rate in tuberculosis was considerably lower than that of any previous year on record, but the mortality rate in measles it doubled. Infant mortality decreased, but the number of women who died in childbirth was distressingly large owing largely to septic causes. The figures relating to the birth rate confirm the old belief that nature succeeds in restoring the balance between males and females which war tends to destroy. An excess of male over female births is normal but the highest recorded ratio in the years of peace was 1.043 boys to 1000 girls. In 1919 this ratio had risen to 1060 and in 1920 it dropped to 1052.

Grief at Rebuke Leads Prize Dog To End His Life

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., Aug. 22—Grief from a rebuke administered by his child playmates drove Napoleon a prize collie owned by Louis Zalz to commit suicide Thursday. The children had been playing with the dog for some time but they tired finally and drove him away. As often as Napoleon sought to begin a new game they would drive him off. Napoleon stood by for a while watching the romping children and then walked slowly to a nearby corner until an automobile whirled up when he deliberately threw himself in front of it and was ground to death. He was given a fitting funeral Friday.

Jenny Lind's Relics to Be Shown Soon in Swedish Museum

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 22—Costumes and other relics of the two Swedish nightingales Jenny Lind and Christina Nilsson will be displayed along with a collection of other treasures of theatrical history in Sweden's first Dramatic Museum which will be opened during the latter part of August. The collection is being installed in the historic old Royal Theatre in the Castle of Drottningholm which was patronized nearly 200 years ago by King Gustaf III a famous protector of drama and the arts.

Among the interesting stage "props" that delighted the gallery gods of the 18th century and have been stored away ever since in the mouldy vaults of the castle are a dust-covered set of ocean waves and a couple of chariots with clouds attached for the exclusive use of the gods of Olympus. The picture collection which includes stage settings costume plates portraits, etc. covers the theatrical history of various countries and with respect to certain periods of French history is the most complete in the world. The theatre itself and the stage machinery will be restored to its original character.

Jenny Lind it will be remembered is the singer who gave music in America its first great impulse when she appeared at Castle Garden, New York in 1850 under the management of P. T. Barnum.

FORMER STATE SENATOR SENT TO PENITENTIARY

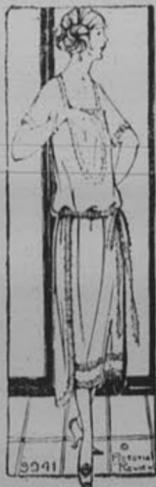

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 22—Henry C. Hanke former state senator and Hennepin County treasurer for 17 years confessed defalcations yesterday totalling $250,000. He was indicted by the grand jury at noon, arraigned before District Judge Buffington an hour later and within thirty minutes was sentenced to serve from one to ten years in the Stillwater Penitentiary. Late in the day he entered the penitentiary and started to serve his sentence six hours after his confession.

The county will not lose one cent from the defalcations investigators declare, as every dollar Hanke confessed to taking he invested in real estate holdings.

SAGINAW STARTS SUIT TO GET RAILWAY TAX

Saginaw, Mich., Aug. 22 The city has instructed City Attorney Vincent and Treasurer Hamel to proceed against the bankrupt street railway company to collect $20,000 delinquent taxes running over several years. The step to be taken is a petition in federal court setting up the claim of Saginaw as one of the preferred creditors of the company. The petition also recites that the trustee of the company, Otto Schupp has disposed of the rolling stock of the company.

Illiteracy Shows Increase in Cuba

HAVANA, Cuba, Aug. 22—Illiteracy among white Cubans between the ages of 10 and 14 years has increased 15.5 per cent between 1907 and 1919, and among blacks 22.3 per cent, according to an analysis of Diaria de Marina of data contained in the 1919 Cuban census, which has just been made public. The paper points out that this increase in illiteracy occurred while Cuba enjoyed self government, and declares that it indicates a "fundamental crash"; failure of the Cuban school system.

The following figures are quoted by Diaria de la Marina to substantiate its analysis. The 1907 census showed that 70.5 per cent of native white and 69.9 of native black children could read and write. The 1919 tables showed a decrease in these percentages to 55.1 and 47.6, respectively.

In pointing the moral of its analysis, the paper asserts that this illiteracy imperils the republic, for the ignorant children of 1919 will soon be the citizens who will direct the country's destinies.

TAKE IT FROM ME IS FULL OF TYPES AND TALKING TUNES

Greatest Musical Show of the Season Comes to Delft Theatre Next Saturday Night.

An event of more than passing interest in the theatrical life of this city will be the engagement at the Delft Theatre on Saturday, Aug. 26th of "Take It From Me," the most brilliant musical comedy success of the season.

Few musical plays have been more royally produced. "Lavish" is the best word to describe the costumes, stage mountains and effects. Jos. M. Gaites, the producer will bring the same band of farceurs, dancers and singers that won such a wealth of praise in New York and Chicago.

"Take It From Me" is markedly pleasing and the music smacks of an originality and flavor peculiarly catchy. It has won the distinction of being the cleanest, neatest and daintiest musical comedy that has been produced in a decade. It is full of mirth and music, pretty girls, funny comedians, clever dancers and wonderful electrical effects, while the story is amusing without offending even the most fastidious. The exuberantly funny incidents in the plot are all taken from real life in a great city department store just as Librettist Johnstone saw and knew them in his professional commerce with the big advertising stores. Unlike most of the musical comedies this extraordinary offering contains a group of comic characters so well defined, so perfectly identified with their environments and with the musical and comedy requirements of the piece, that "Take It From Me" is by way of immortalizing a number of "types" easily recognized by every one who either patronizes "The big stores" or has business or social dealings with their proprietors, employees and attaches.

Among the many song hits will be found "Tip Toe," "Tanglefoot," "Tomorrow," "It's Different Now," "Take It From Me," "The Tanglefoot Trot," "The Call of the Cozy Little Home," "I Like to Linger in the Lingerie," "The Kiss," "To Have and to Hold" and "Camouflage."

So complete was their surprise that Mrs. Gerou was attired in a blue calico dress with dusting cap and morning slippers. She tried several times to get away from the guests to change her attire but was caught each time and forced to spend the entire evening in the costume which she wore when they arrived. The evening was spent in music and playing cards.
