THE RED WAR ON AMERICA.

The most recent revelations of activities by Russian bolshevik agents in this country, some of the emissaries having instructions and letters direct from Lenin, ought to awaken the people of America to the fact that the declaration of war pronounced against the United States years ago in Moscow never has been rescinded. Hostilities are still being carried on, and with the original aim in view, the eventual subversion of our government and the substitution of a "dictatorship of proletariat" with all its horrors and demoralization.

It seems monstrous to us that this should be going on while Lenin has been trying to secure the grasp of a hand of friendship from Washington, but there is nothing whatever in such low double dealing that is repugnant to either the code or practice of bolshevism, which in some ways are lower than the code and practice of the most backward Central African savages. In fact, the Reds are quite untrammelled by any considerations of honesty and decency whatsoever. They laugh openly at such things and sneer at them. They even chuckle at the preposterous thought that anybody is simple enough to suppose that they will keep faith or honor a promise or an engagement where it is convenient to do otherwise. They consistently play on what they consider the gullibility of ordinary people. Probably it seems quite funny to them that we have tolerated their "ambassadors" in our land and have made much fuss and have talked about fair play and legality when faced with the job of deporting or punishing their emissaries. All that is nonsense from their point of view.

Very possibly part of the foregoing may seem like overstatement to some people, and we wish it were, but it isn't. If there is any error, the mistake is on the side of understatement. The more one studies the "ethical standards" of the bolsheviks, the more hideous they seem, and if one were not convinced that bolshevism is a species of virulent social breakdown under strain, he would be inclined to wonder whether the old theologians were altogether wrong about their doctrine of total depravity.

The practical lesson to be learned from the fruits of the raid at Bridgeman, Mich., and from other recent pickings of soviet agents and literature is the necessity for eternal vigilance, not lest the country and its government be overthrown, that is only a mad dream of the Reds, but lest we fall into temporary grievous troubles by our neglect to keep ourselves clear from a virulent infection. It is plain that of late the bolsheviks represented by the I. W. W.'s and other organizations have been developing an elaborate underground system of operation in the United States. They have introduced their agents almost everywhere, even in the army and navy, but chiefly within the ranks of the labor organizations, which happily have been more alert to the situation than the government seems to have been. There is no doubt at all that most of the more untoward happenings of the coal strike and the railroad strike have been directly instigated, not carried out by those emissaries. By their own admissions, shameless and even vaunting, they have failed to effect a general stoppage of industry only because the mass of the members of the union, and brotherhoods have been too sensible and well balanced to listen to their whisperings. Clearly the time for a complete clean-up is ripe and it is to be hoped that the authorities having made a good beginning will do a thorough job.

A PROPER SUGGESTION.

In preparing for the proposed general change in postage stamp designs the postmaster general invited suggestions from the public. Many have been offered. There is a large call for the portrait of Theodore Roosevelt and many other national worthies are favored. Some suggest historic scenes like Washington crossing the Delaware and still another group favors views of Niagara Falls, Mt. Shasta and various picturesque features of the national landscape. A correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor, who dug out all of this information and a great deal more, also mentions a suggested design which includes an eagle mounted on a "fivver" as something typically American. The correspondent classifies this among the humorous suggestions.

Detroit absolutely refuses to admit that there is anything funny about it. This is the greatest country on earth for automobiles. It makes more of them and owns more than any other. In European countries the automobile is the vehicle of the rich but here it proves its Americanism by serving every class. The farmer goes to town and the mechanic to work in his little gasoline wagon. Furthermore, there is ample precedent for the suggested design. Anyone who is lucky enough to have a ten dollar federal reserve note in his pocket can prove this assertion. On the back of the note he will find a self-binding reaper at the left and on the right a group of factories, several trains of cars and an auto truck.

If an auto truck is good enough to adorn a $10 bill, why should an automobile be funny of a 2-cent stamp? Possibly the eagle on the radiator may be out of place, but as to the "fivver" itself none but a timid reactionary would balk at it.

It's a horrible thought, but if Brother Bryan is right and the evolutionist is wrong, where is the world's hope of ever getting rid of the prevalent type of politician?

After talking for four solid months about the tariff the senate sent the bill to a conference committee which will make it over. Sometimes a man almost longs for one-man government.

No matter how much a little girl may love her teacher, she finds that just at this time of the year her affection is at a low ebb.

The scientist who says that in ten years there will be no servant girls in America is about ten years behind the times.

CANADA FARMERS
GROWING ACTIVE
IN POLITICS NOW

Their Power in Elections Is Something Which Must Be Reckoned With.

WINNIPEG, Man., August 29.—The recent election of John Bracken as premier of Manitoba, lends greater emphasis to the rise of farmers to political power in Canada. In the opinion of leaders of the farmer movement Premier Bracken unanimously was selected to head the provincial government following the triumph of the farmers' party in Manitoba. These leaders point out. The new premier is an expert agriculturist and never has taken an active part in politics or attended a session of parliament.

Mr. Bracken is one of a company of distinguished farmers who in the last few years have risen to political prominence in Canada. Premier Drury of Ontario, Premier Greenfield of Alberta and Premier Oliver of British Columbia all are farmers. In the last Dominion election, 66 farmers were elected out of total membership of 235 in the federal House of Commons.

Mr. Bracken, 29, is the youngest premier ever elected in Canada, with the exception of the late Sir Richard McBride of British Columbia. He was born on a farm in Leeds county, Ontario and was warden of his county while still in his teens. He graduated from the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, taking three scholarships and one efficiency medal.

He was a member of the first livestock judging team which won the championship at the International Livestock show in Chicago. Having supplemented his college course with postgraduate work in universities in the United States, he came to Manitoba as representative of the Dominion Seed Branch and on the formation of the province of Saskatchewan in 1905, was made superintendent of institutions and fairs and livestock commissioner.

When the University of Saskatchewan was opened at Saskatoon, he was made professor of field husbandry and won international fame as an authority on dry farming. Mr. Bracken went from the University of Saskatchewan to the University of Manitoba as president in 1920. From this position, he was elected premier.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed With Sulphur it Darkens So
Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this oldtime recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent, lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding

STATE GRANTS PRISON DEMAND

LANSING, Aug. 29—The state prison commission will meet the request of inmates of Ionia reformatory who, on Monday, filed formal protest with Warden Thomas Burns, against the policy of the state in deducting $1 from their wages for work done on contract in prison, and asked the cut be reduced to 75 cents.

This announcement was made by W. H. Porter, of the commission, after a long distance telephone conversation with Warden Burns, who notified the commissioner of the prisoners' stand.

Porter informed the warden that the commission will meet shortly and take steps to put the Ionia inmates on the same basis as those of Jackson prison, where the 75-cent scale is in operation.

The warden in turn notified the committee representing the prisoners, and informed Porter that the proposition of the commissioner was satisfactory to the men.

IONIA, Mich., Aug. 30—Prisoners at the Ionia reformatory, about 125 in number, laid down their tools in the chair shop of the prison at 9 a. m. Monday and went on strike. The dispute was of short duration, however, as guards took charge of the situation and after talking to the men, had them back at work within an hour.

"Just the work of a few agitators in the ranks," Warden Burns said. "There was nothing serious about it, and no violence was used by the guards in restoring order. One boy received a black eye from another prisoner, but that was the extent of the casualties."

Under the present system, the state deduction is made to meet the cost of the prisoner's upkeep. A percentage of all earnings over $1 is then set aside for the prisoner's use. This amount, it was said, ranges from 25 cents to $1 daily.

Daily Fashion Hint

WHEN FASHION ADDS FRILLS

Without violating the laws of simplicity, fashion adds three bias frills to the frock of orchid organza to the left. Then she applies one frill and the ends of the sash with little baskets of flowers. The edge of the sash are piped, but the collar and cuffs are hemstitched. Medium size requires 5 yards 56-inch material.

Dotted crepe and organza are combined in the development of the second model, which has the deep side-closing collar outlined with narrow arc-of-line-plaited frills. This model in a combination of navy and beige is very effective. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch figured, and 3 1/2 yard 40-inch plain material.

First Model: Pictorial Review Dress No. 1013. Size 16 to 20 years and 34 to 36 inches bust. Price, 35 cents. Embroidery No. 12564. Trimmer, blue or yellow, 30 cents.

Second Model: Dress No. 1010. Size, 34 to 36 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

County Fairs Plan to Make Farmer Feel Better Than Before

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 29—Exhibits and demonstrations which will illustrate to farmers a marked increase in the purchasing power of live stock and crops this year as compared with 1913, will be featured at many state and county fairs.

"For two years the farmer has been fed with gloom," declares Guy H. Hall, director of the National Institute of Progressive Farming. "Nearly everyone has been trying to persuade him that he was particularly and peculiarly out of luck."

"You can make a healthy man ill if you keep telling him he looks bad," he said. "And a large number of our fairs are going to give him the 'cheer-up' treatment. He'll feel better when the actual articles which his steers and hogs and sheep will buy are paraded before the reviewing stand and he'll remember the year before the war."

War Buddies Fall Out Over Ownership German Police Dog

TROY, Kans., Aug. 29—Unable to settle amicably the ownership of a German police dog which they jointly had captured on a battlefield in France, the friendship of two World War buddies has become shattered and one was placed under arrest on a charge preferred by the other, theft of a dog—German shepherd, valued at $200 according to the complaint.

It was in the summer of 1918 while the two soldiers, Max Adamson and W. J. Sparks, were on the French front, that they found the dog, standing guard over the dead body of his master, a German officer. With considerable difficulty the two Americans captured the dog. Nearly a year later Sparks brought the dog home. He claimed ownership. Later Adamson was mustered out and came home. According to Sparks, the complainant, Adamson, since then has tried to get possession of the dog, and finally did so and took "Bob," the dog's American name, in an automobile to Oklahoma. Sparks traced them and had Adamson arrested in Clinton, Okla., and Sheriff W. L. Fryer obtained a requisition to bring Adamson back here for trial.
