WILLARD WON IN 11TH; FIRPO IN 3RD

JOHNSON UNABLE TO LEAVE HIS CORNER IN ELEVENTH; M'AUFLIFFE EASY FOR FIRPO

YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK, May 12.—Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion of the world, is today a step nearer his cherished dream of a return match with Jack Dempsey, by beating Floyd Johnson after 11 rounds of aggressive work in which the younger and lighter man took a world of punishment before succumbing to a brace of right upper cuts, the last of which left him unable to come from his corner.

Jack McAuliffe was beaten in three whirlwind rounds by Louis Firpo, the giant South American contender for Dempsey's crown.

First Round.

Round Two.

Round Three.

Johnson punched Willard's head with right at close quarters. Willard launched several heavy rights which fell short. Johnson's blows did not seem to bother Willard.

Round Four.

Johnson punched Willard's head with right at close quarters. Willard tried to rush the big Kansan, landing many blows in the round, but few of them had the power.

Round Five.

Johnson stepped close to Willard, punching his head and body with short hooking rights. Willard shook Johnson with straight lefts to face and a right upper cut. Johnson was staggering slightly at the end of the round.

Round Six.

Willard rushed to the assault with rights and lefts to the body. Willard sent a hard right to the jaw. Johnson's ability to take punishment was remarkable. Johnson's mouth bled. Johnson rallied, punching Willard's head with lefts and rights.

Seventh Round.

Johnson worked his arms like a wind mill, but the big Kansan never budged. Johnson hit Willard every place, but apparently there was nothing hurtful in his punch. The harder Willard punched the harder Johnson fought.

Eighth Round.

Johnson hooked a hard right to Willard's jaw. All of Johnson's fighting is at close quarters. Willard cracked a right to the jaw. Willard landed a left upper cut and pounded Johnson's head with rights. Johnson, the youngster, weather the storm nicely.

Ninth Round.

Willard pounded Johnson's head mercilessly with upper cuts, hooks and straight punches and still Johnson stood up. Johnson sent a hard right to the stomach. Johnson went down from a right to the jaw, but was up immediately as the round ended.

Tenth Round.

Willard connected with the jaw with two straight rights. Johnson was wild and Willard took advantage of this to rest. Willard took a storm of rights and lefts to the jaw and head, laughing, then as Johnson tired, Willard took the offensive. Johnson took off upper cuts and right hooks without shaking.

Eleventh Round.

Johnson's head rocked from a right hook. He went down from a right upper cut, but was up at the count of nine. Johnson fell to the floor from a right upper cut as the bell rang and was carried to his corner by his seconds. It was doubtful if he would be able to continue.

Twelfth Round.

Willard won by a knockout, Johnson declining to come from his corner.

Firpo Wins in Third.

McAuliffe came to grief quickly after an impressive start in the first round. Firpo seemed puzzled at first, by his opponent's shifty style of boxing, but towards the end of the second round, he began to drive the Detroiter to cover with a rain of powerful rights and lefts.

McAuliffe went down at the close of the second round, but was saved by the bell. Firpo rushed from his corner in the third round intent upon making a quick finish. Brushing aside McAuliffe's futile defense, he soon had his man groggy. McAuliffe took a short count and as he arose was met with a crashing left to the jaw. He went down for the last time.

Firpo was widely acclaimed by the crowd and it was several minutes before a passage was made for him to his dressing rooms, through the crowd that blocked the aisle.

ESCANABA WOMEN GO TO MANISTIQUE MEET NEXT WEEK

Upper Peninsula Federation Has Splendid Program Arranged for Two-Day Session.

Members of the Escanaba Women's Club are eagerly anticipating next week's annual convention of the Federated Women's Clubs of the Upper Peninsula, to be held in Manistique. Accompanied by his wife, he strolled around a roar of applause from the bleachers on the ringside enclosure, collecting crowd.

The Escanaba delegates are Mrs. F. F. Davis and Mrs. I. G. English, while Mrs. C. M. Frost, president of the Escanaba Club, and Mrs. T. J. Daley, rotary chairman for the Upper Peninsula district, will attend, as well as many other members of the Escanaba club and their guests.

Mr. Daley is scheduled to make a report of activities at 10:30 Thursday morning.

When the visitors reach Manistique they will be met at the depot by autos furnished by members of the Civic Club who have volunteered the use of their machines during the entire stay of the delegates.

Luncheon will be served both days at the Costello hall by the ladies of the Norwegian church. A banquet given by the Manistique Women's club will take place at the Masonic hall Wednesday evening at six o'clock.

From the depot the delegates will be driven either to the homes of members who have arranged to entertain the visitors during their stay here or to the club headquarters at the Presbyterian church.

The two day convention will comprise morning and afternoon sessions with a general meeting Wednesday night at the high school auditorium. Meetings will be called to order at 8:30 and at 1:30. Following are some of the attractive features of the program:

"Club Women and Other Folks," Mrs. Dorian Russell, Michigan State President of Women's Clubs, Grand Rapids; "What Are We Doing and What Can We Do for the Upper Peninsula and For Michigan?" Mrs. M. H. Ferrey, State Chairman of History, and Member of the Michigan Historical Commission, Lansing.

Some Activities of the Music Division of the General Federation, Mrs. F. W. Nichols, state chairman of music, Houghton. "Girl Scout Work," Miss Jean Guthrie, Scout Leader, Escanaba.

Reading of "Hiawatha" in English and native tongue, Miss Margaret Isaacs. Reading of selections from "The Melting Pot," by Mrs. L. W. Howell, Hermansville. Ida Clyde Clark of New York will also address the club women at a day session, while district officers and delegates will give much interesting information.

Mrs. Clarke is associate editor of Pictorial Review and was one of the most interesting speakers at the biennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs held in Atlanta, Ga., recently, when the meeting was opened by the reading of a personal message of greeting from President Franklin Roosevelt.

Manistique musicians are lending their talent to make these meetings interesting.

While all meetings are open to the public, a special invitation is extended to attend the session at the high school auditorium on Wednesday night at eight o'clock when the following interesting addresses will be given:

The Citizen Mother, the Most Important Factor in American Life, Ida Clyde Clark, New York. "The Sky Line of Education," Mrs. Dorian Russell, Grand Rapids.

CLIFFORD W. HAM IS SELECTED AS THE NEW CITY MANAGER FOR UPPER BAY CITY OF GLADSTONE

Escanaba is to lose her Assistant City Manager and City Comptroller, Clifford W. Ham, who, since his arrival here from Pontiac, Mich., in April 1922, has, through co-operation with City Manager Fred R. Harris, wrought a wonderful change in the financial condition of this city and helped to put the old town on an even financial keel.

Mr. Ham is slated to be the new City Manager of Gladstone, according to information from that city today. The new city commissioners of Gladstone will hold their first formal meeting next Monday night and it is regarded as more than likely that one of the first and most important actions taken by this body, will be the selection of a City Manager. The position, it is understood from Gladstone, and not denied by Mr. Ham, has been offered to the local man, and it indicated that the financial advantages of the Gladstone position are such that Mr. Ham will accept. It is further indicated that he will take hold of the new job at once.

Makes Fine Record.

Mr. Ham came to Escanaba a little more than a year ago and during the interim has, through his extraordinary efficiency and business sagacity, his quiet unassuming demeanor, not only brought the city out of a wilderness of financial chaos, but has won many warm and sincere friendships. The very best wishes of these friends will go with him into his new position, which, admittedly, will be one of many difficulties, but the capacity he has shown here is virtually certain to result from the application of his knowledge to the problems existing in Gladstone.

Gladstone is to be congratulated upon her good fortune in being able to, right off the reel, pick up such a highly qualified Manager, whose work she will be the last man to stand in the way of his advancement.

Arrangement has been made for running special street cars to take care of the crowds and it is advised that as many as possible come early in order to avail themselves of the seating capacity. Suitable souvenirs are to be given visitors and babies from all sections of the county are to be registered and receive a souvenir.

Refreshments are to be served in the old hospital building. The addresses are to be made out of doors and the affair promises to be one which will go down in history as one of the finest achievements of the local hospital organization.

The new administration in Gladstone will be driven understandingly by Escanabians who are in touch with municipal problems. Gladstone has been in a bad way financially, and it was that condition which resulted in their determination to adopt a new city charter. The trouble cannot be relieved in a week or a month, but those of Mr. Ham's friends who have come into contact with his methods of business, feel confident that Gladstone has made a most happy selection and that she will "day by day" see the wisdom of his choice vindicated through the scientific business management which Mr. Ham will bring to municipal affairs.

The two day convention will conclude morning and afternoon sessions with a general meeting Wednesday night at the high school auditorium. Meetings will be called to order at 8:30 and at 1:30. Following are some of the attractive features of the program:

"Club Women and Other Folks," Mrs. Dorian Russell, Michigan State President of Women's Clubs, Grand Rapids; "What Are We Doing and What Can We Do for the Upper Peninsula and For Michigan?" Mrs. M. H. Ferrey, State Chairman of History, and Member of the Michigan Historical Commission, Lansing.

Some Activities of the Music Division of the General Federation, Mrs. F. W. Nichols, state chairman of music, Houghton. "Girl Scout Work," Miss Jean Guthrie, Scout Leader, Escanaba.

Reading of "Hiawatha" in English and native tongue, Miss Margaret Isaacs. Reading of selections from "The Melting Pot," by Mrs. L. W. Howell, Hermansville. Ida Clyde Clark of New York will also address the club women at a day session, while district officers and delegates will give much interesting information.

KENNETH VOUGHT
A DIRECTOR OF
SHERIDAN ROAD

Kenneth C. Voght of this city was yesterday chosen as one of the directors of the Greater Sheridan Road at the convention of the association members which was held in Menominee. A big publicity and advertising campaign to popularize the Sheridan Road, will be undertaken.

The following directors were elected for the year:

Dr. C. F. Whitesfield, Powers; G. P. Burke, Hancock; H. E. Nadeau, Menominee; W. E. Smith, Mohawk; K. E. Voght, Escanaba; K. I. Sawyer, Ishpeming; T. T. Coon, Houghton; A. J. Horlick, Racine; J. C. Dretzka, Cudahy; Charles Franke, South Milwaukee; Col. W. G. Eaton, Chicago, and G. A. West, F. W. Rogers and Ray Smith, Milwaukee.

Mrs. Voght's death is the occasion for deep and sincere mourning and the most profound regret is expressed on every hand. Her loss is a heavy one for Gladstone, and her place in the civic life of the community will be one which will be difficult to fill.

Electon of officers will be held at the first meeting of the new board of directors.

LETTERS URGE THIS SOLUTION OF PROBLEM

Two Boys Released
Bring News that They Are Treated Well.

TIENTSIN, China, May 12.—Payment of ransom and the compliance with whatever other terms the Chinese bandits of the Peking express kidnapping last Sunday, and who are now in their stronghold in the Shantung hills, might demand for the release, seemed today more than ever the only practical move in view of the letters urging such a course received here from Major Roland Pinger, one of the two American army officers taken to the outlaw strong hold, with the other passengers of the Shanghai express train after it was derailed near Suchow.

Not only was the letter from Maj. Pinger, dispatched here from the bandits' retreat today, but the young son of Maj. Pinger, Roland Jr., was also returned. He came in company with another boy, Robert Allan, Jr., the son of Maj. Allan, the other American officer, held for ransom. The two lads, clad in Chinese clothing, apparently were in good physical condition when they returned. The mothers who were on the train had remained here awaiting word of their separated families. The boys were enthusiastic over the "adventure" and said the bandits had taken quite a fancy to them, saying that they suffered no ill.

The two boys reported two women still in the hands of the outlaws, but they were unable to identify them.

NEW ANGLES IN MOUNT CASE TO BE ANALYZED

State's Attorney Crowe
Orders Round-Up of Students.

Believes He Will Get Inside
Information On Manner of Death of University Student.

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 12.—Two new angles in the investigation into the mysterious disappearance of Leighton Mount, the Northwestern University student, who vanished twenty months ago, developed last night, causing Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, to order a round-up today of forty-one students who left the university within four months after Mount's disappearance and to request New York authorities to conduct an inquiry for the basis of a check-up on testimony given by J. Allan Mills, a former student.

The gathering of former students was ordered under the theory that some of the forty-one might possibly be able to give clues that would solve the mystery that surrounds the discovery of a s'lelon under the pier at Evanston, which has been identified as that of the missing youth.

Another purpose of the order was to test a statement made by Mrs. J. L. Mount, the boy's mother, that President Scott of the university told her that sixteen students were expelled after the class rush in which it is thought that Mount was killed. Scott denied that any of the students had been dismissed as the result of that affair.

"POISON PEN" LETTERS HAVE RUINED MANY

Nine Families Wrecked and Two Suicides Result from Letters.

George Maxwell's Indictment
Brings Many Other Cases to Light Today.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The grand jury which indicted George Maxwell, president of the American Society of Composers, author and publisher, for sending obscene messages through the mail, has gained evidence against eight other prominent members of a "poison pen" clique, which is alleged to have victimized 140 wealthy society people here, in Philadelphia, Buffalo, Detroit and other cities, District Attorney Blanton disclosed today.

Eighty of the alleged victims have already testified before the grand jury which is still in session and the district attorney revealed that their statements had led to the uncovering of 140 poison pen letters and to the discovery that nine well known families had been broken up, a man and a woman had died shortly after receiving messages and another woman had gone insane.

Maxwell's attorneys here announced that Maxwell had cabled from Europe a denial of the charges. Maxwell himself received several letters from the gang, said the attorney, who declared that Maxwell would not wait to be extradited but would return to America at once to defend himself and face his accusers.

Allan A. Ryan, the financier, whose wife was named in some of the letters he turned over to the district attorney, and which resulted in the grand jury disclosures, declared today that Mrs. Ryan, who is in Europe, would return at once and that he was going to prosecute the writer of the letters if it cost him his entire fortune.

One of the exploits performed by Mrs. Martin Johnson who accompanied her husband on their recent African hunting expedition, has broken in a pair of Zebras, captured by herself, as draft beasts. Considerable difficulty was experienced by the cameraman in taking this picture as the Zebra is exceptionally nervous at the sound of the camera's click. (Inset) Mrs. Johnson in her bathing suit prepares for her jungle bath. By digging a hole in the soil at night, enough water was collected by morning for the refreshing bath.

TULIPOMANIAC LEADS DOCTOR TO OFFER A REWARD

Stricken With Ailment Believed to Have Died Out Long Ago.

(By the Associated Press)

LINCOLN, May 12.—Dr. John M. Morris today offered $25 for a chance to treat an unidentified patient suffering from an attack of tulipomania, a malady which he thought had died out since it was epidemic in Holland in the seventeenth century.

The patient may have just a plain case of kleptomaniac, but Dr. Morris is anxious to place him under observation anyway, or, rather have the police do so.

Dr. Morris has a big tulip bed in his side yard. All the plants were blooming, and the flowers were the pride of Crescent Hill—up to Thursday night. Some time during the night, the "tulipomaniac," or perhaps the just plain kleptomaniac, paid a call and cut six dozen of the finest blossoms.

Today Dr. Morris viewed the ravaged tulip bed with fire in his eye. He called the police.

"I'll give $25 to the man who catches the thief. I don't care if he's the best friend I've got in the world. It'd be worth $25 to me to see him punished."

PET HEN AND ITS MISTRESS BURIED IN SAME COFFIN

Ax Wins Where Chloroform and Formaldehyde Fail in Fulfilling Dying Wish.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The true story of how a pet hen recently was buried in the same coffin as her mistress, Virginia with the body of a woman who owned the fowl came to light when one of the eyewitnesses related the circumstances in Washington Wednesday.

A few days before the woman's death she requested that her pet hen be chloroform and buried in the same casket with her. Having respect for the woman's request, although it was admittedly odd and unusual, friends procured a quantity of chloroform and administered the poison in the usual manner at the same time placing the hen in a box, where it was to be kept until the day of the funeral.

The following morning, however, it was found the poison had no effect on the egg layer and another dose was administered with no better results. Finally the day of the funeral arrived, and the undertaker said he could "burn the trick" in short order, so accordingly administered some formaldehyde. But even at that the hen did not go to her eternal scratching ground.

How to comply with the woman's request was becoming quite baffling, and as relatives and friends were gathering for the last rites the undertaker solemnly carried the hen to the woodhouse, where the hen was prepared for its last sleep by chopping off its head with an ax.

Come to the Chinese Cafe for Sunday Dinner. Regular Dinner, 60 cents. Chicken Dinner, 75c. 1004 Ludington Street.

BABY CARRIAGE RACE LEADS TO MOTHER ARREST

Parent Charged With Wilful Neglect and Abuse of Infant.

BRIGHTON, Eng., May 11.—A sequel to the perambulator race of April 10, in which half a dozen mothers trundled their babies from London to Brighton, a distance of 50 miles, occurred here Wednesday, when Mrs. Edwards of Monchester, one of the contestants, was committed for trial.

She is charged with wilfully ill-treating, neglecting and exposing her baby in a manner likely to cause it unnecessary suffering and injury to its health.

Mr. Edwards is charged with aiding and abetting his wife.

WIFE CANNOT PUT PLACE DEBTS ON DESERTED HUBBY

Guiltless Mate Held Immune From Alimony by U. S. Highest Court.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A man cannot be compelled to support a woman anywhere except in his own house provided he has given her no just cause to leave him.

Furthermore, if a wife leaves her husband, without just cause, taking the children along, the duty of supporting them belongs to her and not to him.

These edicts were spread across the high court annals of the country Wednesday through a decision rendered by the United States Court of Appeals. They are regarded by the legal fraternity as epochal in their effect on litigation involving domestic relations. Said the court:

"A husband who is able and willing to support his wife and gives her no just cause to abandon him or leave his bed and board cannot be compelled to support her elsewhere than at his own house if he has one."

The effect of the decision, according to lawyers, will be to devolve upon tradesmen the necessity of determining the circumstances of a separation before providing an estranged woman with even the necessities of life, for the husband is not always liable.

The decision was rendered in the case of two women who took care of a wife and three children, the wife having left her husband, taking the children along. The court decided she left without proper cause and reversed a lower court decision which had ordered the husband to pay $1120 to those who had fed and housed his estranged family.

IRON MASTER'S NAME IS FORGED

Woman Suspect Said to Have Confessed $325,000 Schwab Note Fraud.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Mrs. Myrtle B. Hayes, Boston business woman, now living in this city, Wednesday was indicted on a charge of having forged the name of Charles M. Schwab, to a $25,000 note, in connection with the erection of the Hotel Chatham in Boston.

While the indictment was on one count, it is alleged that she negotiated 17 notes totalling $325,000, bearing the name of the iron master as endorsee.

According to the district attorney's office, which announced it would ask $10,000 bail, the woman was interested in "The Chatham, Inc.", which is constructing the Boston hotel, and which is alleged to have issued a lot of notes to pay for the work.

Assistant District Attorney Hastings said that the notes originally were put out without Mr. Schwab's forged endorsement, but that "when they fell due and it became necessary to rediscoun them in order to keep the corporation going, Schwab's name had been affixed and a forged letter bearing Mr. Schwab's name had been placed in, in which the iron master was pledged to meet the debts of the corporation up to $1,000,000."

One note came due on March 5 when Mr. Schwab was in Europe. Notice of the protested note was sent to him. Mr. Hastings declared Mrs. Hayes admitted that Mr. Schwab had not signed the notes. She said, "Mr. Hastings added, that she had 'taken a chance,' believing she would be able to meet the notes at maturity and that Mr. Schwab would never hear of them."

THE FRENCH GET THEIRS.

If it were not an expression of an already very well understood sentiment, there would be more thrill in the assertion by Stanley Baldwin, British chancellor of the exchequer that the London government is dissatisfied with the way the French and Belgian governments have ignored Great Britain in replying to the recent German note; and that there is every reason to believe Rome feels as London does and will act with her.

Nevertheless, the statement is highly significant because it is equivalent to a formal notice to France that there is to be a definite parting of the ways among the adherents of the Entente unless it descends from its high horse and acts in a rational, reasonable manner. Nor is there much likelihood that Baldwin would have referred to Italy as he did, lacking some reliable assurance of support from Mussolini.

The French government and the French publicists are likely to take what the British chancellor of the exchequer has said as a threat, and then speak from that viewpoint. At least they will be running true to their recent form if they adopt that course. It is likely to be hard for them to see, what the rest of the world can easily perceive, that there is room for another interpretation, and that what Baldwin has said, can be taken as an expression of despair.

Every day it becomes more and more clear that any compact with the French government involving a working agreement of any sort for mutual benefit and on a give and take basis, is for the present quite impossible. The intensely egotistic state of mind into which the French nation has fallen is unsympathetic toward such an arrangement. The only friendship Paris can value today is a friendship that will function in terms of lackeyism. The old friends of France are not deserting her as she seems to think, they are being driven away by her own actions and exactions.

THE SUCHOW AFFAIR.

The latest outbreak of banditry and kidnapping in China is of a character that is likely to result in strong action on the part of foreign powers. The hold-up at Suchow was no affair of the Chinese hinterland. It occurred in the heart of one of the densely populated maritime provinces not more than 300 miles from Shanghai, a treaty port in which the British and French governments hold important concessions and in the very presence of Chinese troops who were too weak to prevent the bandits from tearing up a railroad track, looting a train, and driving the passengers—men and women—off like cattle.

Now that the work is done, the bandits propose to maintain themselves in a province as important to China as Pennsylvania is to the United States, until they collect ransom. If they can do that, they can control Shanghai.

It is useless to speculate on what the outcome will be, but it would seem that the leaders of China's warring factions ought to realize that such things cannot continue without bringing disaster. They have permitted their country to sink into such a state of demoralization that they cannot control the most highly organized and richest regions of China, and cannot prevent the perpetration of outrages against foreigners which would have resulted a few years ago in armed intervention with loss of territory as a probable result. The only thing that saves China from that fate now, is war weariness, and the limit of effectiveness for that protection cannot be far away.

Hope that the Suchow incident may drive this fact home to the Chinese mind may be too optimistic, but in any event the powers should use the facts for all they are worth, in the effort to bring China's warring factions back to accord and common action in the maintenance of law and order.

A COMMENT FROM MANILA.

At this writing, there is no confirmation of the report that Governor General Leonard Wood has ordered an investigation of the payroll vouchers of the Manila government, and is about to make public a list of Washington officials and others who have been on the "Philippine independence" payroll, or to put it more bluntly, have permitted themselves to be bribed by Filipino propagandists. So it is impossible to tell whether there is any substance to the account.

But this does not detract from the interest provided by a dispatch from a Manila newspaper correspondent who in writing for a Washington paper remarks: "The plain inference is that members of the American congress have been receiving bribes from the Filipinos to favor Philippine independence. If this is true, it is more of an indictment of such American legislators, than of Filipinos. It would mean that the Filipino people have had to resort to bribery to obtain the independence which was solemnly promised them by congress and which is justly theirs by divine right, and the principles enunciated in the Declaration of Independence."

The ethical tone of this comment is certainly the reverse of high. It is close to being an open defense of bribery and corruption as a means to an end that cannot be reached by honorable methods; and this impression is not wiped away by the succeeding denial that anything of the sort has been done. Such discourse is not likely to increase the confidence of the American people in the fitness of Filipino politicians to be entrusted with unrestrained government of the islands.

So Chicago wants the Republican national convention again. Remembering what happened last time, President Harding surely ought not to be among the objectors.

Perhaps some of these reports that President Harding is not going to campaign for the world court is inspired by a fear of what will happen to the opposition if he does.

The meteorologists say that this year is characterized by freak weather, but there is something logical in the fact that it is cool in America and unusually hot in Europe.

If you care to look at it that way, the boycott on sugar is an excellent health measure.

THREE ACCUSED IN AUTO THEFTS

Disappearance of 43 Machines
Laid by Milwaukee Police to Trio.

MILWAUKEE, May 11.—Three men alleged to be members of a gang of auto thieves, believed by the police to be responsible for the disappearance of 43 cars in the last three months, were arrested last night in Racine, and Milwaukee and Racine detectives are cooperating in an effort to make further arrests and to recover more of the cars.

The men held at the Racine police station gave their names as Roy Caesar, Herbert Meissner and Harold Ellerson. Ellerson is the proprietor of a garage on Douglas avenue, Racine, which police declare was the clearing house for stolen machines. All three deny the whole thing. Ten of the 43 cars they are alleged to have handled have been recovered. Several of the recovered machines were stolen in Milwaukee.

Caesar and Meissner both were recently paroled from the state penitentiary by Governor Blaine after they petitioned for clemency on the ground that their families were without support. Meissner was involved in the looting of a Chicago millionaire's summer home at Eagle Lake, Racine county, and Caesar was arrested previously when a stolen automobile was found in his possession.

Coincidence in Search.

A peculiar coincidence in the case was the fact that Racine and Milwaukee police, working on different views unknown to each other, traced down the men within a few minutes of one another. Detectives Howard Moran and John Albert of the Milwaukee department motor squad, arrived in Racine to make arrests with in a half-hour after Detective Edward Reil of the Racine department, had picked up Meissner and Ellerson.

The Milwaukee detectives immediately joined forces with the Racine detectives and worked desperately in an effort to clean up the whole gang. They succeeded in holding Caesar, and then discontinued operations to get some rest.

Seven cars were recovered last night and three more were found today. The detective spent this morning tracing stolen machines which had been sold or traded.

Milwaukee police have been devoting their efforts for some time to solving the disappearance of a enormous cream of automobiles from this city, according to Walter E. Hall, head of the motor squad. He explained today that ordinary theft of automobiles result in recovery of the cars within a short time, for amateur thieves and joyriders either abandon the stolen machines or blunder so grossly that they are caught.

Systematic Thefts.

For some time, however, out of the numerous thefts reported, a half-score or a dozen cars a week have not been recovered. Detective English declared this convinced the department that organized operators were at work, stealing cars, systematically and disposing of them through established avenues of sale.

A stolen coupe discovered in a Milwaukee used car shop this week gave police something to work on. A blow torch applied to the motor block brought out the serial number which had been filed down. Albert and Moran worked on the case and gathered enough evidence to warrant arrests. Then they went to Racine.

While Milwaukee police were endeavoring to find a lead on which to work, activities of the men under arrest aroused suspicion in Racine, and Milwaukee and Racine department started to work on that end of the case. Investigations of both departments, independent of each other, took them to the same destination.

Captain Bertram George of the Racine department, said today that 10 machines had been recovered the last he heard, but declared his men and the Milwaukee detectives were still at work and expected to recover more cars and make more arrests soon.

Clean Kidneys
By Drinking
Lots of Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of ills, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounce Jad Salts from any good pharmacist. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure anyone; makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean thus often avoiding serious kidney disorder. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

POSTAL BAN URGED ON KU KLUX KLAN

Harding Told Order Uses Mail to Slander Lincoln.

CHICAGO, May 12.—The American Unity League has protested to President Harding against the use of the United States mails to spread the doctrines of the Ku Klux Klan. The Unity League, which was formed to oppose the Klan, bases its protest on a statement attributed to Abraham Lincoln which is printed on the outside of the envelopes sent through the mails. On the envelope is a profile of Lincoln and around it is a statement in which Lincoln is alleged to have predicted a bloody conflict coming from Rome.

In its letter to Mr. Harding, the Unity League says:

"It is needless to say that this statement is the purest fabrication and has been repudiated by Robert Lincoln, now living, but the iniquity which we protest is that the public mails be used as a vehicle to disseminate that false slander not only against Roman Catholics, but all the fair-minded persons and particularly against the memory of the great man to whom these false sentiments are attributed."

INJURE VETS' CARE PUT UP IN STATES

Hines Abandons Plan to Centralize Hospitalization.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Plans to concentrate the hospitalization of America's thousands of disabled World war veterans has been abandoned for the present by the United States Veterans' bureau, it was learned Wednesday.

The wounded veterans will continue to be hospitalized in their "own home states," under a new order promulgated by General Frank T. Hines, newly-appointed director of the bureau, in order to personally supervise the work of hospitalization.

Plans may be obtained from the Architect by depositing a certified check for Twenty ($20.00) Dollars with a request for plans. The check will be returned to the bidder when the plans are returned to the Architect in good condition, otherwise the check will be forfeited.

The successful bidder whose bid is accepted will be required to furnish a bond equal to 100% of his bid to protect the School District of Escanaba, Michigan, and one bond equal to 50% to protect the People of the State of Michigan.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check or a bidder's bond equal to 5% of the amount of the bid submitted. This check or bond must be made payable to the Secretary of the Board of Education and said check or bond shall be forfeited to the Board of Education if the bidder refuses or fails to enter into contract, and furnish satisfactory bond as specified, within 15 days after notice is received of contract awarded.

The bids must be sealed and marked "Proposal" for the addition and remodeling of the Webster Grade School, Escanaba, Michigan and addressed to the Secretary of the Board.

The Board of Education reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

MAILS ARE DENIED TO PILGRIM OIL CO.

Fraud Order Is Issued by Postmaster-General.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A fraud order was issued by Postmaster General New Wednesday against the Pilgrim Oil Company and several individuals at Fort Worth, Tex.

The order, which will stop delivery of mail, named the Pilgrim Oil Company, the Pilgrim Oil Company of Texas, and W. H. Hollister, G. M. Richardson and H. E. Robinson, of Fort Worth, individually and as trustees. It was the second action of the kind within two days directed against southwestern promoters, a fraud order having been issued Tuesday against the General Lee Development Interests of Fort Worth.

The Pilgrim Company, Postmaster General New declared, although organized to acquire and develop oil and gas lands, has in fact as its principal purpose "the sale of stock to the public."

The merger by which the concern was organized was not effected for the benefit of the stockholders, Mr. New said, but for the benefit of the trustees and officers to afford them an opportunity "to filch further money from the investors."

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who was scheduled to appear Wednesday before Acting Solicitor Donnelly of the postoffice department in connection with a hearing on a fraud order against him and the Petroleum Producers' Association of Fort Worth, failed to appear and the government went on with presentation of its case.

The Misses Agnes Richer of this city and Miss Wanita Kanney of Gladstone left Friday afternoon to attend the Normal prom which was held last night at Marquette.

U. S. LIFE RISK RECORD BROKEN

American Policies Written in 1922 Total Ten and One-half Billions.

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 12.—American life insurance companies wrote ten and a half billion dollars of life insurance in 1922, a new high record, and for the first time in their history paid out more than a billion dollars to policy holders. It was disclosed Wednesday in statistics prepared by the Spectator, an insurance publication. The payments totaled $1,006,931,734.

Of the $10,500,000,000 new business written $8,400,000,000 was ordinary insurance including group. This was about $500,000,000 less than the amount written in 1920, the previous banner year, but the loss was more than overcome by the gain in new industrial insurance. The industrial insurance figure for 1922 was $2,100,000, as compared with $1,400,000 the year before.

The 260 complaints included in the tabulation took in $1,672,099,924 in shire estate with his mother, Lady

Trenholme and had a total

$2,137,291,356. Their asset, $840,000,475,758,247, an incr

650,000,000, from last year's fig

and their surplus, assigned and un

sured at the end of the year wa

$73,594,182.

If we are to believe that the writing of new life insurance is an indication of the economic and financial condition of the country" the Spectator concluded, "it is safe to say that the depressive period of reconstruction has been passed, and that America has reached a state of optimistic normalcy.

PIGGY WIGGLY HEAD RESIGNS

Saunders Turns Control of Chain Stores Over to Committee.

(By the Associated Press)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 12.—Clarance Saunders agreed to step out of financial control of Piggly Wiggly Wednesday to keep headquarters for the chain groceries in his home town.

Saunders announced he had agreed to turn over control of Piggly Wiggly to an executive committee, made up of prominent citizens of Memphis, who would run the business. He will continue as president, acting in an advisory capacity.

Moved to Tears.

With tears in his eyes, the Piggly Wiggly magnate, who staged a sensational financial coup recently in Wall street, told fellow citizens at a banquet that certain financial powers in the city opposed his stock selling campaigns, because they did like him.

For this reason, he said, he would give up control of Piggly Wiggly, and leave it in the hands of a special committee to be named by the stockholders.

Closes Up Home.

Saunders closed up the gates of his immense country estate Wednesday in accordance with a promise made at the banquet that he would not spend another cent on it until he make the money to go with it.

Approximately half of the 50,000 shares offered for sale in the campaign to save Saunders and Piggly Wiggly from threatened financial ruin has been subscribed after two days of organized selling, it was announced Wednesday.

MUSIC REFUSED, NON-STOPPERS TO DANCE ON TRUCK

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Marathon runners may shuffle their way through the District of Columbia in a truck to the dull tune of the automobile engine, but no soft music will be allowed to soothe their weary feet.

This was the ultimatum laid down Wednesday at police headquarters. William Renneke, director of a long distance dance now being conducted on a house boat in the Potomac river, had asked for a permit to transport two couples from the house boat to the district supreme court building to apply for licenses to be married.

Mr. Renneke said these contestants will be invited in a limousine at 10 o'clock wedding on the house boat deck floor at 10 o'clock Thursday night.

When the inspector ruled that there could be no orchestra on the truck, Renneke asked if a phonograph might be used.

"No, that's music, too," was the inspector's prompt reply.
