MOUNT SUICIDE THEORY GETS STRONGER

SOME OF PREVIOUS TESTIMONY SHATTERED BY INVESTIGATION DURING THE LAST THREE DAYS

CHICAGO, May 15.—A three-day ancillary investigation into the disappearance of Leighton Mount, was concluded by the state's attorney's staff last night and with its end new evidence came straggling in, shattering some previous testimony and adding weight to the suicide angle, one of the theories advanced to explain the mystery.

Four witnesses were questioned last night, among them Dr. Neymann, formerly head of the Chicago Psychopathic hospital and Herman S. Steinborn, a spiritual adviser. State's Attorney Crowe said: "The possibility of a solution gets hotter and hotter as we go along."

Sphinx Without Secret.
Speaking of Roscoe Fitch, of Ludington, Michigan, Dr. Neymann said, "A sphinx without a secret, a publicity seeker and a boy who has been enchanted with the idea of coming into the limelight."
Fitch said he knew all about the Mount case but later rejected that statement and then finally switched to the death of Louis Aubere, university freshman who was killed in an automobile accident. State's Attorney Crowe has indicated that Fitch gave testimony concerning Aubere's death, which has furnished information sufficient to warrant manslaughter indictments.

Posthumous Visit.
Mr. Steinborn, it is reported, told the investigators that Mount came to his office three weeks after he was supposed to have been missing and wanted to take a course in harmonics and said that "his home life, his school life and his friendship for Doris were not harmonious and he wanted to harmonize it."
A letter received today by Mr. Crowe from H. E. Nelson of Cashton, Wisconsin, disclosed that the nephew of the writer, Thurman Campbell, age 22 and a university junior disappeared in January 1922.

The letter stated that Campbell had disappeared three months after the disappearance of Mount and that he had been seen by friends on West Madison street on the morning of January 7, 1922. Everything had been done, the letter continued, to locate the missing boy but to no avail. The youth was known to have about $175 on his person when last seen. Campbell was not a wild boy, according to his uncle, who concluded that it necessary he would come to Chicago.

DEAD VETERAN TO RECEIVE FULL HONORS
Military Funeral will Be Held Wednesday for Billy Blight.

Arrangements were completed last night for the American Legion to take charge of the funeral of William John Blight, overseas veteran who was found dead in a box car here last Thursday. Blight went overseas with the Maple Leaf contingent of the Canadians, which was one of the advance forces. He served through out the war and his honorable discharge was found in his pocket when his body was discovered.

The body has been at the Anderson undertaking parlors since Thursday awaiting word from relatives as to its disposition, but in the absence of any arrangement it had been planned to send the body to Ann Arbor medical school. Cleveland Post men heard of this arrangement and at once intervened. Blight will be given a funeral with full military honors Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment will be made in Lakeview cemetery.

(By the Associated Press)

Heavy Life Loss In Hot Springs Flood Denied

ELOPEMENT IS STOPPED AT STATE LINE

Sturgeon Bay Girl, Age 17, Headed Off by Menominee Cops.
Late Father Pursues in Automobile and Is in Time to Prevent Marriage to Older Suitor.

MENOMINEE, Mich., May 15.—Wide-eyed Campbell, age 17, of Sturgeon Bay, was speeding across Green bay in a gasoline hooker with Edward Christiansen, the man of her choice, aged 30, her late father was stepping on the gas and breaking all records in an automobile in an effort to head her off. The little gasoline boat was well on its way to only a mile run to Menominee when the father of the girl started out on the 100 mile run in an automobile. The boat beat him to Menominee, but the father beat the couple to the person. He arrived in Menominee while the girl all wrapped up in the arms of Morpheus, was dreaming of her future happiness that a full measure of the bliss of domestic affluence can bestow. She peacefully reposed in a berth on the gasoline boat tied up at the Central West dock when the father arrived and ordered her out of bed, and later by force onto the dock, with the assistance of Police Captain Josart. And thus ended the romantic wooing of Kaid.

The Menominee police received a message from Sturgeon Bay late Saturday afternoon to look out for the boat and the elopers.

Warrant for Girl.
The message received by the police here stated a young couple had left Sturgeon Bay in a small hooker owned by a man named Martin on some Sunday afternoon. It further stated that the sheriff of Sturgeon Bay held a warrant for the girl and that it was the belief of officials in the Wisconsin city that the hooker bearing the young couple was headed for Menominee of Marquette. The man's name whom young Miss Campbell accompanied was given as Ed. Christiansen, in the message, which stated that his age was 30.

A tour of inspection made by a member of the police force here earlier in the evening along the river revealed no trace of the boat or girl but early this morning Captain Josart, making a second inspection of the boats in the harbor, found the hooker on which the girl had come from Sturgeon Bay and which had slipped into the river here sometime during the evening, and tied up at the Central West dock.

When Josart demanded the delivery of the girl he met with a flat refusal from the skipper of the hooker. He then communicated with prosecuting attorney K. O. Doyle, who inquired him to take the man, the girl too, if any resistance was offered.

Taken by Force.
Armed with authority, Josart returned to the dock at which the little freighter lay and demanded the girl. The parents of the girl accompanied Captain Josart and this time the beligerent youngster was recovered against her wishes, and forcibly, according to the police. Asked by Captain Josart why she had run away with such an old man the girl resorted in a rage, "It's none of your business."
The girl was taken back to her home by her parents in the automobile in which they drove to this city.

Pistol in Famous Josie Mansfield Fight Again Used

NEW YORK, May 15.—The pistol with which Edward W. Stokes, owner of the old Hoffman house, shot James Fisk, railroad financier, 35 years ago, in an argument over Josie Mansfield, then reigning theatrical favorite, figured in an assault case in the county court in Brooklyn Thursday.

Daniel R. Metzger pleaded guilty to second degree assault on Michael Conway, admitting he had threatened Conway with the weapon. Metzger displayed the ancient weapon, with home handle, nickel barrel and old fashioned chambers, saying it had been in his family for 30 years.

Stokes served four years for using it on Fisk. Metzger will learn how much bad luck it brings him today, when he will be sentenced.

Fire Follows Wreckage Of Flood Waters and Cuts Off Communication With Section

(BULLETIN)
BENTON, Ark., May 15.—Two bodies were recovered from the flood waters of the Missouri Pacific railroad station at Hot Springs Ark., last night, according to a lumberman of Benton who was there when the torrent rushed down through that city late yesterday.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 15.—Reports of heavy loss of lives in Hot Springs, Ark., were still unconfirmed early today, after a flood which descended from the mountains and fire which followed the water's wreckage has effected unprecedented destruction and cut off that resort from the rest of the world, excepting for radio information which was received as a matter of fact throughout the night and early morning.

Verbal reports from Hot Springs, Ark., indicated that the flood had reached its peak in the mountains and fire which followed the water's wreckage has effected unprecedented destruction and cut off that resort from the rest of the world, excepting for radio information which was received as a matter of fact throughout the night and early morning.

Fire Breaks Quickly.
A fire quickly burst out and before the firemen, impeded by the high water, could bring it under control, almost an entire block had been destroyed and reports declare a number of persons were killed in the flames.

Hotel Guests Saved.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 15.—A telephone call from Charles G. Orr, owner of the McEwens hotel at Hot Springs, Ark., to W. H. Keating in this city, this morning, said this morning, reports that all guests of the hotel were saved from the flames which destroyed it. The telegram reads: "All saved, no loss of life, hotel burned; all saved, no loss of life and wife well."

Mr. Ham signed his acceptance of the city manager's work and said he would get on the job immediately.

Mrs. C. M. Newman went to Manistowick today, where she will be the guest of Mrs. B. W. Goodwillie during the meeting of the Upper Peninsula district federation meeting.

Unearth Body Which Had Been Buried in Lime

MENOMINEE, Mich., May 15.—While builders were excavating here late yesterday afternoon, a skeleton was dug up that had been buried for several years in lime. It was impossible for the officials to determine the length of time the body had been under ground or whether the skeleton was that of a man or a woman.

The body had been buried by the side of a house that it is said was erected about 40 years ago and it was when the old frame structure was torn down and excavating started for the new home that the skeleton was discovered.

Bandeen Will Explain What Happened to the Escanaba Tax Bill in Lansing.

A big crowd is expected to attend the Chamber of Commerce forum on the tax bill, which will be held at 8 o'clock in the Knights of Pythias hall, when Secretary Bandeen and those associated with him in passing the Escanaba tax bill through the legislature, will explain the "inside" workings. This is expected to be one of the most interesting and instructive and enlightening meetings held in many months. The Chamber of Commerce is exclusively. All citizens are invited. This is a community proposition, it is explained, and every man in the city who is interested in taxes, ought to be present to hear what happened to the Escanaba measure.

The Women's Relief Corps will give lunch and LeDuc's orchestra will furnish music. It is indicated that the attendance will be quite large. This is the first forum dinner to be held since early in the month of January.

BADGER STATE TRIC FREED IN MANN ACT CASE
Carter, Gibson and Weil Get Clean Bill From Jury.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 15.—Frank Carter, county judge, Oble Gibson, county agricultural agent, and Albert Weil, merchant, of Eagle River, Wis., prominent citizens of Marquette, returned to their wives and families after being freed of the charge of violating the Mann act by transporting with Kerstens and Gladys Moss, from Eagle River, Wis., to Duck Lake, Gogebic county, Mich., for immoral purposes.

It was 11:2 a. m. when the jury retired after hearing arguments of Martin S. McDonough, defendant's counsel, and Edward C. Bowman, U. S. district attorney, and the charge of the court read in less than an hour a verdict of not guilty was returned. The verdict marked the end of a case that had stirred interest throughout Michigan and Wisconsin, especially in the northern section of the badger state, because of the prominence of the men involved, Tommy, possibly that of Mrs. Kerstens, revealed vulgar acts alleged to have been committed at the "Garden of Eden" camp, where the women were said to have been taken for immoral purposes.

Mr. McDonough asked the court to direct a verdict of not guilty, claiming that insufficient evidence had been presented to warrant the conviction of the men on charges preferred. His motion was denied. The same motion was presented Saturday, but was denied then, also.

Mrs. H. O. Brotherton, Mrs. C. B. Raymond and P. L. Sullivan have returned from Ludington, where they attended the funeral of a relative.

Five Hundred People Rendered Homeless in Texas Blow.
Path of the Storm Is Two Miles Wide and Thirty Miles in Length.

(By the Associated Press)
COLLEGE CITY, Tex., May 15.—A violent tornado and ten persons were killed and about a hundred were injured in a terrific storm which swept through the Texas prairie and from four to six hundred homes completely destroyed. The storm lasted about four hours after the sun had set, swept through Mitchell county.

The path of the storm varied from two miles in width to a mile in width and was about two miles long. Source by a house in a block of houses. The twisted remains of a house were seen when the storm was passing. Some houses were blown away and the occupants were killed or injured.

Other houses were cut from their foundations, the walls and ceiling falling away and leaving the family suddenly awoken and gazing skyward, but none the worse.

PASTOR HONORED BY CONGREGATION
Father Buchholz Is Presented with Silver Gifts by Parishioners.

Love for the past, Rev. Henry A. Buchholz, pastor of St. Peter's cathedral, Marquette, who today will celebrate his 45th jubilee of ordination, was expressed by his congregation in a most impressive manner in the church here today at a surprise reception.

While Father Buchholz and several other prominent clergymen who came here to attend the silver jubilee were honored, were seated at dinner in the pastor's home, several hundred members of the parish filed into the auditorium and shortly after 8 o'clock, the Rev. Bishop Paul Joseph Nussbaum led Father Buchholz and his fellow-pastors into the large hall, which was crowded to the doors.

The program, arranged by Mrs. John Latta, began with a song by the cathedral choir, after which Mrs. Albert J. Martin sang two solos. The next number was a vocal solo by Mrs. William Pellissier and Miss Helen Gibran, followed by a baritone solo by Paul Van Clieve, a soprano solo by Miss Cecile Jacques and a tenor solo by the Rev. Father Thomas Kennedy. All of the singers responded in choruses and the musical program was concluded with violin duets by Alex Finlay and Harry Holtz.

Presents Silver Tokens.
Speaking in behalf of the cathedral congregation and expressing the deep feeling of loyalty to his pastor and appreciation for his eight years of splendid service to its members and to the community, John J. Walsh presented Father Buchholz with silver gifts from the Sodality of the Immaculate Conception, the cathedral choir, the ladies' auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Holy Name society and Our Lady of Victory and St. Agnes' courts, Catholic Order of Foresters.

Deeply affected by the unexpected manifestation of admiration for him, Father Buchholz accepted the jubilee tokens and responded with a brief address, which was a forceful expression of gratitude, happiness and confidence that in the years to come he would be strengthened by the same affection, loyalty and co-operation from his parishioners and assisting clergy that have been given him in the past.

DEPOSED POLICE OFFICERS MAY SUE CITY OF NEGAUNEE

Exciting Session Results when the City Council Names Their Successors.

NEGAUNEE, Mich., May 14.—You always have the power of injunction, gentlemen use it," declared M. S. McDonough, Iron River attorney, here last night to the addressmen constituting the People's party majority on the common council at the close of an exciting session which probably was one of the most exciting meetings ever held in the small chambers of the city hall. McDonough appeared before the mayor and council in behalf of Antonio Carolo and Albert Phillips, police officers who were removed by Mayor Thomas Phares, May 1.

In opening his talk before the municipal governing body, McDonough declared that as an attorney he had had the opportunity of observing the ultimate utility of personal rights. He cited as an example the failure of the city commission of Crystal Falls to agree in a situation similar to that which obtains here over what he termed the "removal of police officers by the exercise of arbitrary power," and urged those involved in the situation to exclude factional feeling in an attempt to straighten out differences.

Attorney Sounas Warning. "Gentlemen, in this controversy you must always bear in mind that behind you rests the interest of the people who elected you to the position you now hold, and who are powerless and who must in the end suffer what the consequences may arise from your action," the attorney declared. "I say they are powerless, but they still have recourse to the provisions of state officials for your removal."

McDonough, in his closing remarks, urged the council to take prompt action, and to do so without specific charges having been made to show cause for removal, which he understood to be the case in the case of the officers removed. He urged the council to take prompt action, and to do so without specific charges having been made to show cause for removal, which he understood to be the case in the case of the officers removed.

Ready to Give Reasons. At the conclusion of McDonough's address, the mayor arose and stated that he had the opportunity to speak in support of the matter under discussion.

"I wish you to understand that in the event of a later action you will be held to take or contemplate some action," he said. "I have received a letter from the Iron River attorney and I can state that he is ready to take any legal proceedings to do so."

At this juncture, Alderman Weir, who had been in attendance, stated that he had been appointed to succeed the officers removed by the mayor, and that he was ready to take any legal proceedings to do so.

Intends to Sue Mayor. During the reading of portions of the charter, the various interpretations by both men threatened to precipitate a demonstration on the part of the large crowd which packed the hall making it necessary for the mayor and chief of police to demand order.

The debating resulted in the appointment of the council of John Siro and William Sandquist as successors to the deposed ex-officers, Phillips and Carolo.

Just before adjournment McDonough made it clear that he intends to bring suit against the mayor on behalf of his clients.

NEW FORESTS WAIT ON CASH

Michigan Conservationists Say Federal Government Must Finance Project.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 15.—Private lumbering interests that have swept away the magnificent forests which once clothed millions of acres in Michigan and left in their stead desolate fire-blackened wastes, will not replace those forests. So much is conceded by all the authorities that have been called to testify before the special committee of the United States senate on reforestation, whose hearings in Michigan closed here last week.

It appeared to be the consensus of opinion, also, that the best efforts of the state toward restoring its natural resources in forests were likely to fail far short of meeting the immediate emergency. The Messigson-Sargent bill, recently passed by the legislature, in the hope of encountering private reforestation projects through lightening of taxes, while held a step in the right direction, apparently is not regarded as likely to afford a final solution of Michigan's problem.

"The federal government must come to our aid," the senators were told again and again.

Must Import Lumber.

"Michigan is a lumber-importing state and always must be," Prof. Filbert Roth, dean of the forestry department of the University of Michigan, told the committee. "The experience of Europe tells us that a country must have about 20 per cent of its land in forests to supply its timber requirements. Our east north central states have about 12 per cent. We are the biggest importers of timber in the world.

"We are bringing timber here from the Pacific coast at a cost of $29 to $25 per thousand. We can raise timber for $29 per thousand. To import under such conditions is an economic waste."

After reviewing the history of lumbering in Michigan, Prof. Roth was questioned by Senator James Couzens for specific recommendations.

"We must plant trees," said the professor. "If the government will turn over to Michigan a million dollars a year, and a million to Wisconsin, and a million to Minnesota, we can at least make a start at planting the areas that should be reforested. With the work started on that scale, and with the states doing their best, private owners may begin to take a greater interest in the matter."

No Faith in New Law.

Prof. Roth said that he did not believe that the new Michigan law would effect the purpose for which it was designed.

"I have no faith in reforestation by private owners," he said. "They will tell you that the reason they do not engage in it is the tax. There is a more forceful reason; they can not afford to. The forest growth itself has fixed its own interest rate, and that rate is not above 3 per cent on the money necessary to invest to bring about that growth. What private individual can afford to invest money that costs him 6 per cent for a return of 3 per cent?"

"Michigan should reforest at least 10,000,000 acres and of this at least 6,000,000 acres must be planted."

The same argument was clinched by Charles W. Garfield, banker and horticulturist of this city and for many years one of the foremost agitators for a forestry program.

Would Take 2,000 Years.

"It would take about 1,000 years annually, which was the program of the former state public domain commission, we should require 2,000 years to complete the area which should be reforested in Michigan," said Mr. Garfield.

A new phase of the problem was introduced by E. F. Wilson, of Saginaw, a dealer in wood pulp and pulp wood. Mr. Wilson said that the demand for pulp wood is going to make Michigan timber worth as much for pulp as for lumber.

"The meaning of that then," commented Senator Charles L. McNary, Oregon, "is that even if reforestation is begun, the trees will not be permitted to come to maturity."

Representatives of the furniture-manufacturing interests of this city testified that very little native Michigan timber is being used in their business. Mahogany, walnut and gum wood were most in demand. They were interested in reforestation, they said only in case the government would find a way to restore the supplies of walnut and gum, which are native trees useful to the furniture makers.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

The National Union of Combatants, an inter-allied association of World War veterans, has a membership of 7,000,000 men.

'UNCLE TOM,' 116, IS PICKED UP ON CINCY STREETS

"Just Out for a Stroll," Aged Negro Explains to Patrolmen.

(By the Associated Press.)
CINCINNATI, O., May 15.—"Just out for a stroll," explained "Uncle Tom" Woodford, 116, Negro, when police, at the request of relatives, found him on a back street here Friday. Woodford said that most of his 47 children had died of old age. He added that his last child was born when he was 99 years old. "Uncle Tom" carried a cane "to drive off pesky stray dogs."

STATE TAX CUT COMING, MAYBE

It Depends on How $1,500,000 Is Provided for Highway Bond Sinking Fund.

(By the Associated Press.)
LANSING, Mich., May 15.—Upon the disposition of an item of $1,500,000 for highway bond sinking fund charges depends whether the state will enjoy lower taxes next year.

Legislative appropriations show that the tax roll for each of the next two years will total about $16,000,000, a reduction of about $900,000 from the previous two years. There remains, however, the $1,500,000 sinking fund charge for which the recent legislature failed to provide when it defeated the weight tax.

If the state administrative board decides to pay this item on the general tax roll it will mean an increase of taxes, but if it is met in some other way taxes will be lowered.

Can't Be Forgotten.

During the session gasoline tax advocates asserted that this item could be "forgotten" for two years, but that is not likely to happen. It would be too dangerous to state credit. John A. Thompson, New York bond authority, recently informed Frank E. Gorman, state treasurer, that in the future financial houses would refuse to handle state and municipal bonds unless they are backed by proper sinking funds.

Gov. Groesbeck, who directs the state financial, may be able to provide for this item in another way. Highway men are hoping that he will. They do not desire to odium of having increased the tax rate, and at the same time, if all interest and sinking fund charges are taken out of the state's share of automobile license money, there will be nothing left for highways.

The $16,000,000 tax totals may be cut by the governor. The constitution gives him the right to eliminate any item in any appropriation bill. Some legislators may discover that the armories and institutional improvements they obtained for their districts will not be in when the bills are signed.

A "Paper" Reduction.

If the state valuation is boosted from five billion dollars to seven or eight and one-half billion, as now appears likely, there, of course, will be a curable "paper" reduction from the $288 a thousand tax rate of last year, 25 per cent from the reduction made possible by the legislature's economy.

When that's over—shr shr shrllllllll

MOVIE DIRECTOR HELD ON CHARGE OF LURING GIRLS

Bail Is Fixed at $10,000 After Arrest of Henry Freeman.

(By the Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, May 15.—Arrested at Bronx girls' booking office, Henry

Freeman, who said he was formerly a director of a film corporation, was held in $10,000 bail Friday, charged with procuring women for immoral purposes.

Florence Russey, a film actress, preferred the charges after she said she had interviewed Freeman about a performance in Miami, Fla., for which he had applied to the booking office for girls.

Prosecuting authorities asked that high bail be fixed, alleging Freeman encouraged girls to become dope addicts, so he could use them as agents in illegal dope sales.
