LOSS OF LIFE IN JAPAN IS EXAGGERATED

50,000 SAID TO BE DEAD IN YOKOHAMA

Conditions of Living are Declared to Be a "Living Hell."

Many Modern Buildings Withstood the Shock in Tokio; Moritorium in Quake Zone.

(Associated Press Summary)

Although latest reports from Japan lead to the hope that the death toll is not so large as has been feared, the destruction wrought by the earthquake, tidal wave and fires has been tremendous.

A cablegram from Shanghai this morning says that different sources agree that two-thirds of Tokio has been laid waste. A message from the American consul at Shanghai to the state department quotes a British cruiser at Yokohama as authority for the statement that the city has been virtually destroyed.

One report which has not been confirmed says that cholera has broken out in the ports. Tokio still estimated the dead at 30,000 but makes no attempt to strike a total for Yokohama, the coast towns hit by the tidal wave or the towns in the path of the earthquake.

It is said that the foreign residential section in both Tokio and Yokohama seem to have escaped the destruction, owing to their favorable situation, but the home and industrial district suffered severely. However it is said that Tokio's modern business houses withstood the shock.

Proclaim Moritorium.

OSAKA, Japan, Sept. 7.—The Japanese government has proclaimed a 30 days' moritorium for payments falling due from Sept. 1 to Sept. 30. The moritorium is not to be applied outside the zone of disaster.

Persons prostrating will be sent to prison for three years or be fined 3,000 yen. Those found guilty of spreading rumors with the object of encouraging rioting and damage to property or for disturbing the peace may be imprisoned for ten years or fined 3,000 yen.

Twenty Britains Dead.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The list of known dead in the Japanese earthquake has reached twenty, according to private cablegrams from Kobe and other Japanese cities.

TODAY'S DEATH IN AUTOMOBILE

Every day several people are killed in automobile accidents and but one out of every twenty have insurance; they leave their widow and children with no protection.

Wisconsin Farmer Is Killed by Train

FREDERICK, Wis., Sept. 7.—Floyd Skidmore, a farmer of Clam Falls, died early this morning as the result of injuries received when the car he was driving was struck by a passenger train three miles north of here last night. His little five-year-old son was instantly killed.

The death of this man and his little son is tragic. His wife has the sympathy of the little community in which she lives. He may have provided some sort of protection for himself. Escanaba people are learning a lesson on protection and now far more than half the population have an accident policy.

Federal Agent Is Blinded by Hootch

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 7.—Temporary blindness and illness was suffered by a prohibition agent who sampled moonshine liquor for evidence purposes in a soft drink parlor in St. Paul, H. L. Duncan, prohibition director for the northwest, said last night.

The agent obtained a taxicab and was rushed to his home in this city. "This occurrence offers additional evidence," said Mr. Duncan, "to the fact that practically all the liquor which is being served in the soft drink parlors is poisonous."

AUTO DEALER DID NOT OWN CARS HE SOLD

Buyers May Lose Cars and Money, It Is Said.

Lawrence Pepin Took Cash, It Is Alleged and Delivered Mortgaged Cars to Buyers.

Several recent purchasers of Willys-Knight and Overland automobiles are considerably worried by the information that the cars they bought of Lawrence Pepin, who up to a short time ago was the agent, did not own the cars.

When he received the cars from the manufacturer, he mortgaged them to a local bank, but did not say anything about this to the buyer and simply pocketed the cash or whatever the first payment was, and left the city. It is not known where he is and all efforts to locate him have proved futile.

In the usual manner loaning money to automobile dealers the bank recorded the mortgages with the city clerk and register of deeds and it is declared, that upon the shoulders of the buyer, rests the responsibility of knowing he is buying an automobile that is unmeasured.

Yesterday a Willys-Knight, purchased for cash, from Mr. Pepin was repossessed by the bank and the owner today is seeking legal advice to ascertain what action can be taken. The situation is really complicated as some of the cars were bought on time payments and a bonding company holds the payment notes.

According to a prominent attorney who was questioned about the matter by a Mirror reporter, the buyers of these cars find themselves in the same position as would a person who had purchased a car from a man who had stolen it.

Putting the transaction in simple form, Mr. Pepin would get a shipment of automobiles from the factory and mortgage them to the bank until such time as he was able to make a sale. Then it was up to him to go to the bank and lift the mortgage and clear the title to the car. It seems he did not do it that way, however, but sold the car, which did not belong to him, keeping the money, whether it was in whole or part payment and later leaving the city.

City Gas Plant Has 321 New Customers

Four thousand feet of new gas mains have been laid since the first of the year, according to the report submitted by Manager Fred Harris at the council meeting Wednesday night. Three hundred and twenty-one new gas services have been installed, necessitating the laying of 24,975 feet of small service pipe. Two thousand feet of sanitary sewer and 1,000 feet of storm water sewer have also been laid.

'IS THERE A PLACE FOR YOUR CHILD?' IS TEXT ON ARTICLE IN MAGAZINE AND APPLIES TO LOCAL SCHOOL CONDITION

Local Schools are Over-crowded at Present Time.

High School Enrollment Has Practically Doubled in Four Years; More Room Is Needed.

Supt. W. E. Olds has addressed a letter to the Board of Education, carrying a message of so much importance that every person in this city ought to read it. Our schools are becoming over crowded so rapidly, that serious thought must be given to the problem. Parents want to give their children the best in education and it is well to ask the same question as that asked in Collier's. Following is the letter:

"Members of the Board of Education:

"Do read 'Collier's Weekly.'

"Every week you will find at least one real good article in 'Collier's.'

"I am not subsidized by the P. F. Collier & Sons Company, but I believe that you can get more for 5 cents by buying Collier's than by buying any other paper or magazine sold.

"The leading article for the week of September 8th is entitled, 'Is There a Place for Your Child?'

"The article is by William G. Shepherd which deals with the schools in hundreds of cities which are short or room for their pupils.

"I am taking the liberty of sending to you a copy of Collier's for September 8th, and I will be fully repaid in every respect if you will just read the article and study the tables given on pages 8 and 9.

"I wish all the members of the Board of Education could spend a number of hours with me some day, see the crowded conditions as I see them and hear the pleas of parents for the privilege of sending their boys and girls to the school in which they case possible I comply with it, but case I comply, but it has gotten to the point where my business for the months of September and October is to act as a ruler with an iron hand and just say what can be done and what cannot be done.

"I do not like to do things that way.

"Before the end of next week our enrollment will have reached over 2,800.

"At this time four years ago our enrollment was less than 2,500.

"Four years ago when I began work in Escanaba, the enrollment in high school at the end of the second week of school in September was 341, which I might say was the highest enrollment in high school any time during the school year of 1919-20.

"I just came from Mr. Cheney's office and he tells me that the enrollment at the present time in high school is around 700 and, in all probability, will be over that by the end of next week. As you can see this makes an increase of 359, or in other words, our enrollment in four years has increased 100 per cent.

"Statistics given out by the United States Department of Education in July told us that the high school enrollment throughout the United States had increased 100 per cent in the last eight years, that is, in all of the high schools in the United States. We have doubled just twice as fast as the average high school in the United States. The question is 'What are we going to do?' Please read this article and think about it and then let us act.

Very sincerely,

W. E. OLDS.

WALLPAPER MUSEUM OPENED.

CASSEL, Germany, Sept. 7.—Wallpapers and wallcoverings of all nations and of all periods are shown in the new wallpaper museum recently opened here.

French wallpaper of the period immediately following the Napoleonic era is of especial interest and attracts much attention. Terror made its way into the French wall decorations to an amazing degree. Paper of that period is more bizarre than many of the modern expressionistic wall papers, and shows amazing combinations of colors. There is an extensive display of American wallpaper, from early colonial days down to the present, showing both the hand-made and machine-made products.

Faculty Advisers Are Being Chosen By H. S. Students

Classes of the High School are meeting this week for the purpose of electing faculty advisers. And with yesterday's election of the Sophomores but one remains until all the advisers have been elected.

The Seniors elected R. E. Selkirk and Miss Gladys Morrell as their counsellors on Tuesday. The Juniors elected John Lemmer and Miss Emily Cripps Wednesday.

And the Sophomores, Miss Stella Johnson and W. J. Sullivan. And as Miss Irene McCann has already been elected as one of the Freshmen advisers, but one remains to be chosen.

At the meeting of the finance committee of the Board of Supervisors which was held this afternoon, it was agreed to recommend that the money be given to the Red Cross after the next meeting of the board.

This was according to the plans made between the directors of the Red Cross and C. W. Kates, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Wednesday afternoon. The Red Cross will now arrange to secure the money from the local banks and send it into headquarters. When the boards meets the method of paying the $1,500 will be taken up.

Possibly it may be by subscription, but more likely it will be spread upon the tax roll, which many think is the equitable way to handle it.

The amount is so small that a drive would be a waste of time and if the Red Cross went about the matter of securing the money by subscription many would be giving more than their share.

The money will be forwarded not later than Saturday if the plans of the Red Cross are carried out.

Airplanes May Be Used at the Mines
for Rescue Work

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The adaptability of airplanes as aids to mine rescue work is being tested by the Department of the Interior near Birmingham, Alabama, where a landing field has been located, and trial flights of ships are being made carrying trained men of the Bureau of Mines, equipped with oxygen breathing apparatus, to help in imaginary mine disasters. Other fields are to be located at mining towns within reasonable flying range of Birmingham, the rescue station.

The bureau maintains ten railway cars and seven auto trucks equipped for mine rescue purposes, but it often requires considerable time to send these mobile units to remote mining camps where they are needed in emergencies. It is hoped to demonstrate the value of the air route in supplementing the work of these cars, especially in reaching the camps where fields are available.

Thrilling Experience.

"One outstanding event in Mr. Sullivan's railroad career happened on October 10, 1871, the day after the Chicago fire. When his train, the Rockford passenger going west, was approaching the bridge across the Chicago river next to the Kinzie street bridge, just before the engine crossed, the tug Geo. B. McClellan hit the bridge on the west approach. The locks of the bridge were broken and the distance was so short that the engine 82 went into the river on the north side. The rest of the train did

It is also shown on the statement the annual allowance for the department and the amount left for the balance of the year. The statement summarized for all departments to August 1, shows how the departments are keeping with the balance and is as follows:

Jack Dempsey Attends
Strictly to Training

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Jack Dempsey's hobbies in his training camp are not so many or varied. The champion most of the time attends strictly to the business of getting himself into shape. But when he does "let go," he plays cards with his sparring partners or favored visitors, romps around the place like a school kid, plays with the many dogs he owns, or puts in his spare time attempting to train some new-comer to his menagerie.

At Great Falls, Mont., where Dempsey conducted himself for his Shelby match with Tommy Gibbons, a wolf cub was the recipient of most of the title holder's attention. At his present training camp he is attempting to win the affection of a leopard cub that was recently sent him. His collection of dogs ranges from toy bulls to German police dogs. These canines are scattered all about the country. Many of them are in Dempsey's Los Angeles home, some are at Salt Lake City, and others on a Utah ranch the champion owns. His manager, Jack Kearns, also finds kennel space in his Oakland, Calif., home for several of Dempsey's dogs.

'WILD BULL OF PAMPAS' ALWAYS CAME UP SMILING AFTER EVERY FIGHT; CAN HE BEAT DEMPSEY?

Many Fight Fans Believe He Has the "Goods."

Many Are Interested in Forthcoming Fight Between the Men; Betting Is Light.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—In the winter of 1922 Luis Angel Firpo, the Argentine who is to fight Jack Dempsey for the world heavyweight title at the Polo Grounds, September 14, came to the United States, one of the strongest and most courageous, if crudest, fighters that ever walked on a resin sprinkled ring floor.

Known Money Talk.

Luis Angel couldn't talk American, except when money was mentioned, and it was several weeks before he gathered some of his friends about him and arranged a match in which he was to prove to some of the doubters that he could punch.

Sailor Maxted, a rough heavyweight of the slugging type, agreed to meet the South American and they squared off in the ring of the Broad Athletic Club in Newark, N. J., on the night of March 29. There was lots of wild and wooly swinging and missing in that engagement, but in the seventh round the South American drove his man into a corner and pummeled him to the floor with heavy rights to the head and body.

Doubters Began to Believe.

In the same arena on April 4 Firpo met Joe McCann, a tough youngster. After being soundly rapped on the chin in an early round and sent to his knees, Firpo came back and forced McCann to quit in the sixth, a badly beaten fighter. Firpo's right hand turned the trick against McCann.

A little more than a month later, Firpo entered the ring in Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, against Jack Herman, a light heavyweight. All the experts were out to see Firpo in action that day. Herman was faster than Firpo and danced around him in the early rounds, keeping away from his terrific punches. In the fifth round Firpo caught Herman in the body with a right and brought up the left on the inside of Herman's chin. Herman was lifted a foot off the floor and sent flat on his back for the count. Half an hour later he was revived.

Returns Home.

Then Firpo, feeling that he had won some glory, returned to his native republic to receive the plaudits of his admiring countrymen. While in Buenos Aires he fought Jim Tracey, a tall, gangling heavyweight from Australia, knocking him out in four rounds. Tracey was a willing fighter but had little boxing skill and carried no punch. So he was hardly a match for the Argentine strong man.

More Victories.

Firpo returned to the United States last March for another campaign, this time to pave the way for a title match with Dempsey. Three spectacular victories were the medium of the Argentine's rise to fame and recognition as a dangerous championship contender. The first was over old Bill Brennan, of Chicago, at Madison Square Garden in March. Brennan ripped and cut Firpo mercilessly in 11 rounds of furious fighting, but the South American absorbed the punishment without wincing, and in the twelfth beat Brennan to the floor with club-like rights.

Jack McAuliffe, 2nd, of Detroit, highly touted and flashy in his gymnasium work, was Firpo's next victim. He was knocked flat in the third round of a bout at the Yankee Stadium in May on the same afternoon that Jess Willard started his come-back by knocking out Floyd Johnson, young lowan.

Willard-Firpo Bout.

The victims of that show, Firpo and Willard, met for the final test in the great pine bowl at Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City, in July before one of the largest crowds in fight history. Firpo cleared the path for his match with Dempsey by knocking out Willard.

land in the eighth round, but to many it was a disappointing conflict. They pawed at each other clumsily for a greater share of the first seven rounds. Firpo's body punches doing the most damage, while in the final round a succession of rights to the body and head floored Willard, who took the count on the first knockout.

Goes On Tour.

Firpo followed this triumph by an exhibition tour of the Middle West and East, meeting a variety of opponents, two of whom managed to stay the limit with him. At Omaha Homer Smith was floored more than a dozen times by Firpo, but was on his feet at the end, while at Indianapolis, where 16-ounce gloves were used, Joe Downey stayed the limit of ten rounds. Downey, however, absorbed so much punishment that he was taken to a hospital after the bout.

Jimmy DeForest, veteran trainer who conditioned Dempsey for his championship fight with Willard at Toledo in 1919, directed Firpo's battles with Brennan, McAuliffe and Willard, but shortly afterward he was dropped by the South American in favor of Horatio Lavalle, wealthy Buenos Aires sportsman. Firpo and DeForest both denied reports of a break over financial terms, but the boxer was the target for criticism by experts who believed he had made a mistake in disposing of the veteran who was credited with developing him into championship calibre. Firpo and Lavalle, however, insisted that the change was made because of the handicap caused by DeForest's inability to speak Spanish.

HOUSEWORK IS A BURDEN

Woman's lot is weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Escanaba women. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. John Carlson, 415 South 15th St., Escanaba, says: "My kidneys were not acting properly and as a result, my back ached and was often lame, causing me quite a bit of annoyance. Work about the house became burdensome and when I attempted to straighten after stooping, sharp pains caught me through my back. I was run down and often felt nervous and depressed. I was dizzy and headaches were troublesome. My kidneys were weak, but I heard so much of Doan's Kidney Pills I bought some at the City Drug Store and they cured me so I haven't needed a kidney remedy since."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Carlson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

STATE FAIR CAT SHOW OPENS AND 'MEOWS' FILL AIR

Felines of Many Kinds and From Many Climes Compete for Ribbons at the Big Show.

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—Cats—all kinds, from the regal Sacred Siamese to the common, or alley variety—were in championship today at the opening of the Michigan State Fair Cat Show. The show closes Saturday when the 250 entries will be judged and ribbons awarded.

This year's show has 25 entries, double the number of last year. Virtually every state is represented, and the event has taken on an international tone by the entry of several importations.

A Royal Sacred Siamese from Grand Rapids attracted much attention of visitors to the show today. The cat is a rare type, with unusually beautiful markings. Another popular entry is a thoroughbred registered common domestic cat, recently imported from England and entered by an Alton, Ill., woman.

Each cat receiving a winner's ribbon will be given four championship points. The judges are Mrs. W. B. Bishop, Toledo, and Mrs. George Braydon, Boston.

WOODMEN OF WORLD WILL EXTEND WORK TO CARE FOR AGED

Michigan State Telephone Co. Buys Out the Citizens' Co. But Uses No Coin.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 7.—Although absorption of the properties of the Citizens Telephone company by the Michigan State Telephone company was cash transaction, not enough gold, silver or currency actually passed through the cashier's window to buy a postage stamp.

The amount paid was $3,851,735, and this was distributed among stockholders of the Citizens company by modern methods of bank bookkeeping.

The most skillful blend in cigarette history

Something happened back in 1903 to change the smoking habits of millions of men.

That something was the introduction of Fatima—the original Turkis Blend cigarette.

Many Turkish Blends have since come and gone, but notice that Fatima has stayed.

For twenty years, Fatima has not been equalled for mildness, smoothness and untiring good taste.

Fatima is unquestionably the most skillful blend in cigarette history.

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

for members of the order near San Antonio, Tex., has been announced, by W. A. Fraser, sovereign commander of the society.

The new home will be located, it is believed, close to the Woodmen of the World War memorial sanatorium recently erected near San Antonio for members of the fraternal organization afflicted with tuberculosis.

"The new home," said Mr. Fraser, "will be built as soon as suitable plans can be drawn up. Old men of the society whose families have died, married, moved away or lost interest in them, will be cared for in the home. Every state in which the Woodmen have members will endow and maintain a certain number of rooms in the home and these suites will be named after the states. The old men will spend their last days in the most pleasant surroundings in a homey atmosphere."

Members of the Modern Woodmen of America, which is furnishing its more than 1,100,000 members insurance at a lower cost than any other fraternal society in America, have no cause to fear an increase in the rates, states William A. Talbot, head consul.

According to the current issue of "The Modern Woodmen," the society's official publication, certain "twisters," as the editor calls them, have been working on the outside in an effort to create a demand for legislative enactment to raise the assessments.

The head consul asserts that there is absolutely no foundation of truth in the statement that the management will be obliged to increase the rates, so long as its affairs are moving along as at present, with a surplus of several millions to take care of its obligations. He says that the increase may be left at the Fair Store, phone 747-W, or inquire at 302 North 18th street.

HELPING THE ENEMY.

Rivals and enemies of the United States may always be expected to take advantage of anything they can lay their hands on to impair the standing of this country among Latin Americans. Their theory is that anything that hurts the United States in the southern part of this hemisphere breaks up American solidarity and promotes European trade. Such things are to be expected in this strenuous and not too moral world.

It is not to be expected, however, that Americans would join in this line and cry against the United States, but they do sometimes and that is what the New York World does when it takes a passage from Secretary Hughes' address to the American Bar association and construes it as an open threat of intervention at will by the United States in Latin American countries, of the occupation of territory by force in such circumstances as it may see fit, and of control and supervision of independent national governments on pretenses that may seem sufficient.

To establish this proposition the World quotes that part of the secretary's address where he said that the United States has rights and obligations which the Monroe doctrine does not define and that "in the unsettled condition of certain countries in the region of the Caribbean it has been necessary to assert those rights and obligations as well as the limited principles of the Monroe Doctrine."

Those words and nothing more constitute the basis of the World's charge that this country through its secretary of state has made an open threat that it will use force, when in Latin America whenever it pleases, and will impose territory and control governments at its own sweet will.

For an illustration of what he really had in mind the Secretary referred to the liberation of Cuba in the passage next to that quoted by the World. That was an exercise of right and a fulfillment of obligations which was not contemplated by the Monroe Doctrine. Mr. Hughes also referred to the occupations of Haiti and Santo Domingo in the same connection.

Manifestly what the Secretary had in mind was that similar occasions in the region of the Caribbean Islands, not related to the interests of the United States, by overreaction of his administration would construe his words into a threat against Brazil, Peru, Chile, the Argentine and the other great South American countries.

Instead of being a threat the words quoted are an assertion of notorious fact calling attention to a policy which has been established for many years and will continue to be a protection not only to the United States, but to all of Latin America from aggression originating beyond the sea.

ADVICE MIGHT HELP.

Senator Bruce of Maryland does not approve the Dyer anti-lynching bill which he believes to be unconstitutional, but he thinks, nevertheless, that lynching is a problem of national importance and one in which congress may well interest itself.

To that end he contemplates the introduction of a resolution at the next session in which the states will be urged to take separate action by passing more effective legislation against lynching law.

That is a measure which will not satisfy the convinced advocates of the Dyer bill, but even the friends of that measure will admit that the bill will raise a doubtful and difficult question of constitutional law which may be decided against the act. If that should be the result, then Senator Bruce's plan might be the next best thing.

A general campaign to induce the states to pass desirable laws seems like an endless procedure when there are so many legislatures to be won and so many shades of opinion to be reconciled. Still, it is a fact, that the campaign for uniform laws has scored several complete successes, and taking a hint from that fact, congress might do something useful by adding the Senator Bruce's scheme a plan to prepare a model law to states where laws on that subject are weak and badly enforced. Several of the states, some of them in the South, have excellent statutes against lynching upon which a model law could be based.

HIS LOST CAUSE.

Newton D. Baker who, since the end of his career as secretary of war, has not been conspicuous in the affairs of the country, reappeared the other day for the purpose of announcing that he is going to the next Democratic national convention with the consent of his party, if he can get it and without consent if necessary, for the purpose of advocating American membership in the League of Nations.

In view of the fact that Senator Reed will in all probability be there also, together with a considerable following of like-minded Democrats, the chance that Mr. Baker will meet with a lively reception seems large, but if he supposes on the basis of existing public opinion that he can make a live issue out of the league, he would do well to reconsider the situation. The leaders of his own party have made it fairly clear that they intend to keep the league in the background. One thrashing on that issue is all they care for, and three years of study of popular sentiment has revealed no evidence that people are dissatisfied with the verdict that was rendered in 1920.

Moreover, if the people were really anxious to take part in the affairs of Europe they would not choose the league as a doorway into that house of many troubles. Europe itself is not using the league for the purpose of solving its problems. Why should the United States take up their discarded tool?

A man who sold 10,000 German marks on Broadway for 20 cents was arrested and the judge said he was no better than a thief. Marks therefore have definitely reached the class of confederate money.

The same people that were kicking about the heat in July are now fussing about the "unseasonable" cold.

RAIL UNIONS WILL SEEK PAY BOOST

Joint Action by Switchmen and Enginemen Is Expected.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Joint action by the Switchmen's union and the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen to obtain wage increases was predicted by Thomas Cashin, president of the switchmen's union, who was here meeting with the grand board of directors of the switchmen's union. The general chairman of both organizations today will open meetings in the same building, announced some time ago, called to inaugurate a movement for wage increases.

"I am confident that the two organizations will act jointly whenever and wherever possible," said Mr. Cashin. The meeting of the directors of the switchmen's union was preliminary to the meeting of the general chairmen and was held in accordance with the law of the union to prepare formal recommendations to the general chairman as to a wage demand. Details of the demands and of the movement were to be formulated by the chairmen at the ensuing meeting.

The standard rate of pay at present, according to Mr. Cashin, is $6.32 a day for yard foremen, $5.81 for yard helpers, and $4 to switch tenders.

GROESBECK CALLS SPECIAL SESSION

Legislature Will Consider Re-apportionment in November Meeting.

LANSING, Sept. 7.—In announcing that he will call a special session of the legislature the first week in November, Governor Alex J. Groesbeck pointed out that the session will give the legislature a chance to comply with the constitution which states that the state must be reapportioned each ten years.

The governor will not include highway finance in his message, nor will he ask the legislature to act on tentative plans to establish state-owned cement plants, saying that legislative action is not necessary in the latter case.

According to the 1920 population, Wayne county is entitled to about one-third of the seats in the legislature, but it is not believed that the legislature will approve any such re-apportionment. Apportionment of the rest of the state depends largely on what is done with Wayne county.

MINERS RETURN TO WORK IN RUHR

Reach Agreement With Employers; See End of Difficulty.

ESSEN, Germany, Sept. 7.—Claiming that many difficulties in the Ruhr apparently have been settled without the necessity of intervention by the government, work has been resumed in all of the mines in Essen except one, and in most of the others in the Ruhr, the men are going back to work on their own accord. They accepted the plan of the employers, which is for 9,000,000 marks per week with weekly adjustments to provide for fluctuation in the value of the mark; for a six-hour day underground and an eight-hour above ground.

Miss Eleanor Balke of Detroit, a student at a local commercial college, finished close behind the winner, Miss Margaret Bowers, Harrisburg, Pa. Miss Balke had a grade of 100 words a minute on a ten minute test. Miss Bowers' grade was 103 words a minute.

REGULATION OF REVOLVERS HAS GAINED GROUND

California Adopts New Laws Covering the Sale and Use of Deadly Little Pistol.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Thousands of prominent people who have been supporting the national campaign conducted by Field and Stream, a sportsman publication, against gun-totingendor California's new law controlling the sale and use of firearms recently enacted.

The salient points in this new law are:

No unprivileged, personally known, or properly identified to a licensed dealer in firearms, are permitted to purchase revolvers. A receipt of sale must be filed with the police.

Owners of such firearms are not permitted to carry them on their persons without a license from the police.

Dealers are not permitted to sell pistols or revolvers.

Manufacturers' serial numbers, or other identifying marks, must not be altered or erased.

Persons who have been convicted of felony and aliens are not permitted to possess pistols.

Carrying concealed weapons without permit is punishable as a misdemeanor.

Elfring F. Warner, noted sportsman and publisher of Field and Stream, asserts that "no sportsman wants to encourage gun-toting." He commands and encourages California legislators in achieving an honest solution of this contentious menace to human life" and contends that it is a "model bill, one that has at least put a good ounce of some prevention on our legislative scales where an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

EXPLOSIVES ARE ARRANGED FOR BY THE STATE M. A. C.

Large Amount Obtained From Government to Be Sold at Low Price to Michigan Farmers.

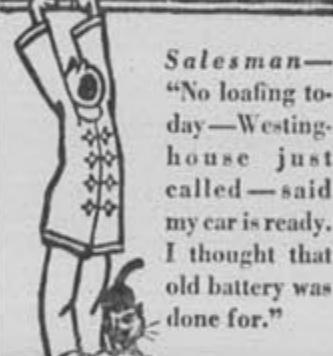

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 7.—The Michigan Agricultural College has arranged for an allotment of a new war salvage explosive for Michigan distribution. It is the claim of L. F. Livingston, the college land clearing specialist, that the new explosive, which is known as soderat, will enable farmers to clear land at much lower cost than picric acid.

It is expected the state's portion of the 18,000,000 pounds held by the government will be about 3,000 pounds. Farmers will be supplied through a co-operative arrangement with their county agents whereby the explosive can be shipped to counties in carload lots.

The new material is made from left-over war salvage explosives. It is boxed and cartridge and may be used the same as ordinary commercial dynamite. The cost will be less than eight cents a pound, including detonating caps, which is said to be about one-half the price of war salvage explosives heretofore used.

In this strenuous age, most people are afflicted with some form of nervous trouble. Hospitals are overflowing with men and women seeking to win back health of body and mind. If you are nervous, irritable, "jumpy," if your system is run down, if you feel that you may be on the verge of a nervous breakdown, read what P. J. Cole, of 628 S. Lambert Street, Brazil, Indiana, says:

"It would be hard for me to tell how much good I have received from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic (nerve) Pills.
"I was so run down in health I could hardly go. I had no appetite. Could not sleep or rest. I was weak and so very nervous. I used to sit up at night but the worst of my trouble was because I was so weak and easy to get tired the nervous condition was worse than the pain.
"I decided to use your Tonic (nerve) Pills. A few boxes relieved me to perfect health. I can eat and sleep well. I have never found anything better for a rundown nervous condition."

You can buy these Tonic Pills at all Drug Stores

Flying Ring Act
At County Fair Is Among Sensations

One of the hit free attractions for the Northern State Fair this year will be the Three Lenoirs, an aerial performance on flying rings by two ladies and one man. This act furnished a surprising number of sensational thrills and constitutes an unusually fine exhibition of this most difficult apparatus.

It is the only flying ring act now before the public in which all three were simultaneously in the air, presenting a number of beautiful and complex acts in which each has a distinct and important part. These novel combinations in the way of aerial stunts and displays, require superior strength and run the gamut of acrobatic possibilities, and are done so well that the Lenoirs are easily in a class by themselves and beyond the reach of imitation rivals. The very novelty of this presentation never fails to meet with the wholehearted approval of the spectators wherever it has been seen.

REX STOCK COMPANY.

"Some Jane," last night's offering of the Rex Stock Company, was a production fully in keeping with the usual standard of the popular players. The theme of the play concerned the mix-up which resulted when the children of an aristocratic, although impoverished southern colonel took places as servants in their own home to remedy their financial condition. The complications which follow, and the fact that the wealthy northerner who has leased the Daingerfield home, falls in love with the cook, who in real life is Oliva Daingerfield, all go to provide excellent entertainment.

Zanna Vaughn, as Jane, the cook, and "Rex" as Burton Crane, headed a capable cast in which Ethel Van Orden, Billy Seymour and Wm. Yale distinguished themselves by their splendid characterizations and their fine sense of comedy.

Tonight's play is "Twin Beds," which to use "Rex'" own expression, "is built for laughing purposes only." It is the feature play of the week, given from the only authorized version of Al Woods, who first produced it, and under whom it enjoyed prosperous runs in both New York and Chicago. It has proved one of the most popular and dependable comedies produced within recent years, and those who see it as given by Rex and his associates will witness it at its best.

Plans are now being formed by the Orange and Black Literary Society to start a tennis tournament for the High School pupils in the near future, and according to the spirit with which the undertaking is getting under way, the contest will attract much attention.

It is planned to start the tournament on the City court, and the contest of limitations will be boys and girls games.

The first game will be held next

Saturday and finals will be run on Saturday, September 15th, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Delta Hardware Company and the Mead Drug Company are offering substantial prizes which will be shared between the boy and girl champions.

The event is being looked forward to with much-class rivalry and in a week or two the Juniors are going to have something of a surprise to spring in the line of their tennis champs. But it is generally conceded that the Seniors have more than their share of a pick.

The Orange and Black Literary Society, one of the most active organizations of the local school, is anticipating an active program for this coming school year and so when the tennis tournament ends they will be ready to start off on some other active enterprises.

STATE EXTENDS SCOPE OF CULT INVESTIGATION

Grand Jury Probe Delayed Until First Part of October.

State Prosecutors Are Jubilant Over Finding of Gladys Rubel; Act Against Whole Cult.

(By the Associated Press)

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 7.—Preparations to act and act quickly, against the Israelite House of David as a whole, regardless of whether or not "King" Benjamin Purnell is found in whatever cloister the revelation of his "righteous immorality" has driven him, are being made by the state of Michigan. Attorney General Andrew B. Dougherty announced today. He declined to make public details of the state's new and broader program.

Dougherty also announced that resumption of the grand jury investigation into the affairs at the House of David will be delayed until October 2, that the state may have ample time in which to obtain evidence to substantiate the charges of abuse of young girls that Gladys Bamford Rubel, long kept in hiding, now says she is ready to give.

State Officials Elated.

This latter announcement was made after a long conference between Dougherty, Assistant Attorney General Homer S. Quay, and Judge Harry J. Dingeman, presiding judge of the circuit court, who is in charge of the one-man grand jury investigation.

Both Dougherty and Quay, who have directed the inquiry into the House of David, were elated over the finding of Gladys Rubel by the Detroit Free Press in Ft. Wayne, Ind., where she had taken refuge after a flight from Michigan, and expressed themselves as confident that her statements would go far in completing a case against Purnell and the House of David.

"If we can substantiate the stories of abuse that Gladys says she and her sister were subjected to for years in the colony of the House of David, I am confident that our investigation will really produce results," Dougherty said.

Statements To Be Checked.

"According to Judge Dingeman, who talked with her at a meeting arranged by the Free Press, she has given us several extremely important leads. When they are checked back, and I believe that will be easy to do, I think it is probable that a grand jury will be able to recommend definite action against the colony, whether Purnell is finally located and brought to trial or not, that will prevent a recurrence of any of the 'immoralities' that Gladys and other witnesses have said the children of the religious colonists have been subject to."

"The finding of Gladys Rubel, who was frightened needlessly from the state, puts the state in a position of advantage. We now have the complaining witness who swore to the warrant, charging assault, that was issued by Judge Charles B. White in Niles last June. If he is found now there need be no delay in bringing him to trial."

Nelson Is Discussed.

Relative to Walter N. Nelson, counsel for Gladys Rubel in the personal damage suit for $100,000 which she started last winter against Purnell, who inspired her flight from Michigan when she was wanted as a grand jury witness, and whose wife forced the girl to move repeatedly, according to her story, so that Nelson would be able to testify truthfully before the grand jury that he did not know where she could be found. Dougherty said:

"We talked over the case of Nelson in our conference but I would not care to discuss what action may be instituted against him until after the supreme court rules on his appeal from the 30-day jail sentence for contempt."

After talking with Gladys, Dingeman said that Nelson's conduct during the grand jury investigation had opened the door to possible disbarment proceedings and prosecution by the state for conspiracy to obstruct justice.
