

OKLAHOMANS CAST BALLOTS

THERE WAS LITTLE OPPOSITION OVER STATE AND HEAVY RETURN EXPECTED; SOME ARRESTS MADE

Governor Walton Says Election Will Not Be Legal Because There Was Not Enough Publicity in Advance of Election Time.

Appeared to Be But One County in State Where Threat of Governor Was Carried Out to Full Extent; Leading Citizens of Grove Placed Under Arrest by the Deputy Sheriff; Voting Is Stopped.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 2. Oklahoma's special state election at which will be decided whether the state legislature shall meet to consider impeachment charges against Governor J. C. Walton, swung into full movement early today with reports indicating that polls were opened throughout the state with the exception of four full counties and a part of a fifth.

Indications were that an unusually heavy vote was being cast. In Bryan, Harper, Cimarron and Johnston counties all voting places were closed and in Jefferson county only six of 28 were open.

One County Stopped by Arms.

Johnston county appeared to be the only place where the threat of Governor Walton to close the polls by force of arms had been carried out. There were 100 armed state police on duty who held possession of all election supplies.

In Bryan county, the sheriff followed instructions of the governor and barred the election. An effort to obtain an injunction against him late yesterday failed. In Cimarron county and Harper county there was no voting because the election supplies had not been received from the state election board and in Jefferson county there was a ballot shortage.

From every point in the state reports were sent in which indicated that the election was proceeding quietly.

Look for Court Action.

Voters who cast their votes did so for the most part with the expectation that their actions would be challenged by the governor and a court decision would be necessary to determine the legality of the election. Governor Walton has maintained that the election would be invalidated, mostly from the fact that the question to be voted on has not been properly published.

Election Legal, Says Short.

On the other hand, George Short, state's attorney general, proclaimed it legal and called upon all qualified voters to cast their ballots. The state law provides that an initiative measure is effected immediately after it is officially determined that the majority of the voters have cast their votes in its favor.

Several "Pinched" at Grove.

GROVE, Oklahoma, Oct. 2. More than a half dozen leading citizens of Grove were arrested today by the deputy sheriff and the jailer, Jeff Perry, for conducting an election. The officers stated that they had instructions from Chairman Mitchell of the state election board and from Governor Walton to stop the voting.

Those arrested were taken to jail, to be placed under bonds. As fast as officials were named to succeed them, those successors were also arrested. When it became apparent that the officers intended arresting the successors as fast as they were named, it was decided to suspend voting entirely.

Plans for Making Safe Road Talked Over by Officials

This morning City Manager Fred R. Harris and County Engineer R. P. Mason had a conference with George Stolk, superintendent of the St. Paul dock, with reference to the railroad company making alterations on the dock, so the road passing under it will be of sufficient width to make traffic safe. The point referred to is just the other side of North Escanaba, where the road to Wells passes under the St. Paul dock. The road is barely wide enough for two cars to pass in safety and it is feared may cause a serious accident some day that will cost some lives.

DETECTIVE IS SHOT TO DEATH IN FOND DU LAC

Was Trying to Arrest Two Men Stealing a Ride.

One of Couple Seriously Hurt in Gun Battle; Both Men Being Held in Jail.

(By the Associated Press) FOND DU LAC, Wis., Oct. 2.—Eino Jacobson, a railroad detective here, was shot and killed early this morning in an attempt to arrest two men who gave their names to the police as Cyril and Oliver Jones. Cyril Jones was severely wounded.

According to the police Jacobson encountered the men in the railroad yards and was forced to permit them to ride on a gondola car when one of them had the drop on him. He telephoned the police to meet him at the railroad station and in company with two other officers went to the car. As they climbed over the side of the car, Jacobson was shot with a number of bullets, three of which struck the head one over the left and one in the groin.

The two other detectives answered the call and one man dropped wounded. The other was subdued after he had pulled his pistol. The police and Jacobson then a disconnected story was told of having the past several months and where they had purchased supplies.

BIG FISH LIE, BUT INTERESTING

VANCOUVER, B. C.—T. M. Wilson, 80, leaped astride a 27-pound salmon and beat it to death with a board, he reported. Wilson was fishing for bass in Salmon creek when he observed a school of salmon proceeding up the creek to their spawning grounds, he said. As one big fish crossed a shallow bar its back protruded from the water and Wilson, after a struggle lasting several minutes, landed his catch and carried it home.

MANY SHACKS WILL BE TORN DOWN AT ONCE

State Fire Warden Hutchings Made the Rounds Today.

Insurance Rates Might Be Lowered in Many Cases If Old Buildings Were Torn Down.

Deputy State Fire Marshal T. H. Hutchings arrived in Escanaba this morning and will spend several days in looking about the city and inspecting property with the view of determining such buildings that are of no further use, but are left standing to the detriment of adjacent property.

Alfred, he had only been looking about for a few hours, he said notices would be sent out at once to several property owners to remove worthless barns, sheds and buildings that may have been used for storage purposes in the early days of Escanaba. Some of them look to be 100 years old and to the knowledge of those living near them have not been in use within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

There is one block on Ludington street that has an almost prohibitive insurance rate, not because the buildings themselves are an extraordinary class but because there are so many unoccupied shacks in the rear that the fire hazard is greatly increased. All such fire hazards are going to come down, Mr. Hutchings declared this morning, unless these old buildings were wrecked by the owners within a reasonable length of time, the authorities would be notified to tear them down and assess whatever the expense might be against the owner of the property.

ESCANABA WILL BE THE HOME OF AUTO NECESSITY

Mack Auto Signal Device Will Be Brought to This City.

At Meeting Held Last Evening All Plans Were Perfected by Local Stockholders.

One idea interested in the manufacture of the Mack automobile signal will go to Minneapolis at once and back up the machinery which will be brought to Escanaba at once.

There will be no time wasted in getting into production here as the demand for the device is increasing daily and orders now on hand will keep a plant busy for several weeks. On the start it is planned to work about fifteen people, but this number will be increased as fast as business warrants.

There is still a small amount of stock to be subscribed and H. D. Brackett is at the head of a committee to see that this stock is absorbed by Escanaba people. Mr. Brackett was also named as temporary chairman and L. M. Beggs, secretary and treasurer. Attorney T. E. Strom will attend to the incorporation of the new company in Michigan. It is now a Minnesota corporation, but in leaving that state and a new company formed, it was the desire of the promoters that it become a Michigan corporation.

It may take a month or more to get the new factory in operation and in the meantime selling plans will be perfected and a big selling campaign got under way. The devices have been placed on several local cars during the past two weeks, and has met with general approval.

MARINE CITY IS HOME OF MARINE MEN OF LAKES

More than Five Hundred Members of Male Population Have Papers for Inland Waters.

(By the Associated Press) MARINE CITY, Mich., Oct. 1.—The ships are coming home! This city, where the male population for the most part follows the lakes for a living, is awakening to the season of social activity, after remaining virtually dormant during the busy sailing months. Already activities attending the planning of socials, bazaars and other forms of entertainment are making themselves apparent.

Every form of social life has been put over "until the sailors get home." Just how much depends upon the sailors in Marine City is indicated by the meetings of lodges and other organizations. Nearly the entire membership of fraternal groups here is composed of sailors, and during the summer months when the men are on the lakes, it is next to impossible to obtain a quorum.

More than 500 residents of Marine City are licensed officers aboard vessels, and a great many are members of forward and engine crews.

Most of the men are expected home early in November. Navigation on the lakes will close about November 1.

He added that the next long flight of the ZR-1 would be from Lakehurst, N. J., to Panama and return by the way of Cuba.

MAN DECLARES BANK ROBBER SEEN BY HIM

Thomas Follis Wants It Known That He Did See Him.

Latest Development Is in Form of Letter to Mining Journal From Supposed "Wolverine."

Yesterday a letter was received by the Marquette Mining Journal, in an envelope bearing a Cleveland, Ohio, post mark which read as follows:

"Dear Sirs: Thanks very much for the ten thousand, 'The Wolverine.'" "The 'Wolverine' did not state in the letter why he sent his thanks to the Mining Journal instead of to the bank which he is suspected of robbing, but nevertheless the letter was received by the Marquette newspaper and handed over to the proper authorities.

Did See the Robber. Yesterday we published an article from a man who asserted that those who claimed they had a run-in with the robber were mistaken. Replying to this charge Mr. Thomas Follis of Marquette writes:

"I was interested and amused when reading your article entitled 'Calls Robbery Story Fishy,' quoted from the 'Crystal Falls Diamond Drill.'"

"I am not directly interested in all of Mr. Henry's story, but I am interested in that part of it in which Mr. Peterson, of Republic, and I are concerned.

"To this I can say that my friend, Mr. Henry, is very much mixed in his dates and his statements are entirely at variance with the facts as I know them.

"He says that shortly before reaching Channing he saw two men standing on the road and then proceeds to discredit the incident of our meeting the robber after he collided with a Ford car.

"As Mr. Peterson and I were the only two men who had, as far as is known, encountered the robber, it seems to be my duty to refute Mr. Henry's story by giving the facts.

"Going north, five miles north of Channing, we met a Ford car coming toward us. We and the Ford driver dimmed our lights and turned to the right. When the Ford swung to the right we had a clear vision of the road in front of us. We sighted a car coming at high speed behind the Ford. As the Ford was passing us, well to the right, the other car continued its speed and its driver tried to pass between our car and the Ford.

"It collided with the Ford with a heavy impact. I asked Mr. Peterson to stop and offer assistance, which he did. On our alighting, the occupant of the third car accosted us from a distance of about twenty-five feet.

STRAWBERRIES, LILACS BLOOM AT OSHKOSH

OSHKOSH, Wis.—The warm weather of the last week seems to have "fooled" some of the plants in the home yard of John C. Jones, 415 Broad street. Mr. Jones picked a number of strawberries, raspberries and lilacs. The strawberries were of the Senator Dunlap variety, not one of the everlasting kind and the raspberries are also an early summer berry. Last Sunday he picked a pint of the raspberries. The lilacs are fairly well developed into bloom.

SHREWD CRIMINALS EASILY OVERREACH POLICE OF EUROPE

Time Lost by Police Securing Passports Favors Fugitive; Boundaries Not Far Distant.

(By the Associated Press) VIENNA, Oct. 2.—The many frontiers of central Europe, in some cases no farther apart than state lines in America, are a great help to criminals...

This aspect of things has been brought out clearly at the International Police Congress that has just come to an end in Vienna.

Criminality has assumed vast proportions since the close of the war. Vienna is on the crossroad leading to many countries and has become the sporting ground of innumerable bands of international thieves and burglars.

The criminal has the advantage of the police at every turn. It would appear that defraudations, forgeries, embezzlements and thefts are commensurate with relative immunity granted the criminal has a ruse passport in his pocket...

DESPITE ITS QUIET LONDONERS CLAIM CITY IS TOO NOISY

Grain Dealers Will Discuss Radicalism

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 2.—How to stem the swelling tide of radicalism in America will be the outstanding problem before the Grain Dealers National Association when its convention opens here today.

Hundreds of country grain shippers, terminal market men, agricultural leaders, bankers, railroad and other public service officials will attend the twenty-seventh annual convention.

Radical tendencies from their inception up to the present time will be traced by speakers who, according to Charles Quinn, secretary-treasurer, will lay before the meeting "indisputable evidence of the unhealthy situation being created in all lines of business, a situation that threatens the entire nation."

"While we hope there is no danger of actual bolshevism in the United States today," said Judge Joseph A. Lawson, formerly of the New York supreme court, and a speaker on the program, "the radical effort is reflected even now in unjust, political quackery, unwieldy laws and attacks upon the constitution, and all at the expense of industry and national growth."

Automobile Tires Favorite Food in Opinion of Bear

PESHIGO, Wis.—A bear with an appetite for automobile tires is reported by an Antigo (racing man) who makes frequent trips to Peshigo. He was recently in the wilds of northern Michigan on a hunting trip, driving a large roadster. The first night out a bear and two cubs discovered the car. They proceeded to make a meal of the spare tires on the rear of the auto and chewed off the cover, as well as damaging the one spare tire on the running board. A hunting coat in the car was torn to shreds. Garage men looking over the car, wonder what would have happened had one of the bears punctured the castings, all carrying 80 pounds of air pressure.

LEANS OUT OF CAR AND KILLED

Unusual accident causes death of Elgin, Ill., man. His heirs have been paid $1,000 because he had a newspaper accident policy. It cost him a dollar. Was it worth it? Two weeks ago Loug Rosstein, of Elgin, Ill., was driving through the city when he became suspicious that the light on the rear of his automobile was not burning. He did not stop his car and get out to look, but leaned way out—suddenly the door opened and he was thrown to the pavement. His skull was fractured and he died a few hours afterward.

DOES HONESTY PAY?

"Taking the other fellow's money is all right, if you can get away with it." Subtracting moral considerations, this statement expresses a not uncommon viewpoint. Leaving out the morality for the moment, the question is: Can you get away with it?

The answer is, No. The chances of stealing without detection and conviction are estimated at one out of one hundred. The chances of being a professional thief without ever being punished are estimated at one out of a thousand. Not all crimes are punished, but practically all thieves sooner or later are apprehended. The other day a notorious criminal, "Liverpool Jack," died, in his own bed it is true, but of his fifty years twenty-nine had been spent in jail. The "vacations," out of jail as criminals call them, are estimated at six to eight months on the average.

The "earnings" of thieves are exaggerated. Several years ago Josiah Flynt estimated them at $1600 a year, and the amount today is probably no greater. It is less than the average of unskilled labor.

It is not generally known that thieves usually give up their occupation as soon as they are convinced that it does not pay. It takes ten to fifteen years of imprisonment to bring this conviction. Those who have been unusually successful may stick to it with even twenty years spent behind the bars. After the fifteen-year limit the criminal is likely to get what he calls "the shivers," a constant physical tremor caused by the fear of capture, which incapacitates him from success or even for any kind of work.

The discouraged criminal becomes a tramp. The average thief ends either in jail or "on the road."

Dishonesty does not pay.

Education is the only sure cure for thievery. Crookdom has its own schools, and the schools of honor must be even more devoted, more skillful, more convincing in their instruction. To the school of the crook, which teaches how dishonesty can beat machinery, the school of honor has an overwhelming answer. It is this:

A man can make more money, have greater peace of mind, and enjoy freedom by keeping straight than by growing crooked. Possibly the crook may beat the machine, but he cannot beat the moral law of the universe.

YOUR MAGNIFICENT OPPORTUNITY.

Every person in this world has one magnificent, colossal opportunity. People will read this who will dispute our statement and say, "I never had such an opportunity. When did a magnificent, colossal chance ever come my way?"

We will tell you. When you were born into this world, that gave you your big chance, and as long as you are in this world you still have your big chance.

When an inhabitant of this planet says he has had no chance, he clearly demonstrates that he does not know what he is here for. It would be just as correct for a boy placed in the first grade at school to look around and say "I have no chance." He has every chance in the world if he will apply himself. It would be just as correct for the office boy of a large business house to say, "I have no chance." There are many presidents of corporations who were once office boys.

The world is our great chance—our tremendous opportunity—and we are put here with the idea that we will make use of this opportunity.

Now, when we say opportunity, we are apt to think only of money. Money is a good thing. It represents the necessities and luxuries of life and we need a certain amount of it. But the chance to make money is not our greatest opportunity.

The real opportunity this world offers is the chance to learn, through varied and repeated experiences, how to be decent, how to be wholesome, how to be fair and square with our fellows, how to get ready to occupy a better place later on.

The little boy in the first grade in school is given the opportunity to enter the second grade. We in this world are given the opportunity to enter a better world. We are here because we need what this world can teach. When we were born our opportunity began and each day that we live our opportunity continues.

CHIEFS GET HEARING.

The director of the budget has begun hearings to give bureau chiefs an opportunity to urge allotments more in accordance with the estimates submitted by them. Director Lord has declared the total estimates for the next fiscal year must not exceed $3,000,000,000, exclusive of the postal expenses, paid from postal receipts, and public debt retirements. That does not mean, however, that the allotments already made may not be revised if the evidence submitted at the hearings appears to warrant it. The total will remain fixed, but it will be distributed among the various executive agencies according to the urgency of their needs.

For a second consecutive time we have a president who is able to express himself so that even the way-faring man though a fool can understand what he means without the aid of an interpreter.

A Pennsylvania professor says that all of the oil in the ground is prehistoric fish oil, but it is the modern sucker who makes a market for the stock.

It might help some if a law obliging bootleggers to drink a pint of their own merchandise every day could be enforced.

If President Coolidge can continue to make every day a day by itself after congress opens, he will be a wonder indeed.

TYPHOID FEVER DECREASING IN MICHIGAN, SAYS HEALTH REPORT

Only 192 Cases Were Reported in the State During 1922.

Attention to State Water Supply Has Done Much to Stop Ravages of Dread Disease.

(By the Associated Press)

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 2.—Deaths from typhoid fever are on the decrease in Michigan. But 192 cases of typhoid mortality were reported in 1922, according to Dr. R. H. Olin, state health commissioner, and the rate of 4.8 per thousand of population is the lowest in the history of Michigan.

In 1917, 386 Wolverine residents died of typhoid fever and in 1918, 321. The year 1919 saw 275 die of typhoid, 297 in 1920 and 285 in 1921. This year the 1922 figure of 192 will be cut again if judged only by the reports of case rates. These reveal 20.5 cases per 100,000 population for the first nine months of 1922 as compared with 17.1 cases for the same months of 1921 respectively. Soon Michigan will vie for first honors in the battle with the intestinal bacterium.

Considerable success in the campaign against typhoid is attributed to the increasing attention being accorded state water supply. Over 40 per cent of Michigan population now drinks filtered water while 51 per cent drinks water which is either filtered or treated with chlorine.

Recovered typhoid patients often represent a greater loss to society than does the unfortunate that died.

Ex-typhoid sufferers may be unconscious carriers of the disease long after actual danger has ceased and therein lies its insidiousness. To offset the hazard, Michigan law requires at least two negative examinations before the patient may be released.

A. F. OF L. CONVENTION OPENS AT PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 2.—Delegates present from labor unions in all parts of continental United States and the territories, and fraternal delegates from European countries, the 43rd annual convention of the American Federation of Labor opened here today. According to labor leaders the convention may remain in session two weeks, considering important questions affecting workers and the union labor movement.

Abolition of the exploitation of the labor of children; the broadening of the field and means for the organization of the yet unorganized; rectification of "the abuse of the beneficial injunctive writ" and organization of wage working girls and women" to see that their standards of life and toll may be commensurate with the civilization of our time," are among the matters mentioned in the convention call by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Welcome to the city was extended by Mayor George L. Baker, with response by Otto R. Hartwig, president of the State Federation of Labor. Gov. Walter M. Pierce, of Oregon, welcomed the convention on behalf of the state, with response by President Gompers.

REFUSE TO PUSH PROBE OF DEATH IN ASHLAND

ASHLAND, Wis., Oct. 2.—Doggedly holding to their theory that Emerson Thornton committed suicide, Ashland county officials refused a demand of authorities of Racine, Wis., that a searching investigation be made into the death of the 19-year-old youth whose body was found in a deserted bunkhouse. The body was taken to the family home at Racine, and county authorities, after a post-mortem, announced that they were sure Thornton had not been murdered.

HOTEL SERVANTS SCATTER EMPLOYER'S SILVERWARE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—A fortune is lost every year in the knives, forks and spoons which accidentally go into garbage cans in Los Angeles, according to a number of cafe and restaurant owners, who are the principal sufferers.

One restaurant reported a loss of nearly $40,000 in silverware last year. Some of this was carried away by patrons, but most of it was sent to the hog farms near here by way of the garbage can.

Private families are not so heedless of their silverware, it is said, but public eating houses suffer heavy losses because of the carelessness of employees.

A man has entered the business of recovering the lost silverware from the farms, and knives, forks and spoons, bearing the names of the cafes owning them are returned at a small cost.

RUSSIAN BUILDS AIRPLANE WITH ADJUSTABLE WINGS

HARBIN, Manchuria, Oct. 2.—An airplane with adjustable wings, enabling the pilot to alter his speed materially during flight, has just been given a series of tests here with highly satisfactory results. The inventor, J. J. Dill, a Russian engineer, believes his device will correct a long recognized defect in the science of air navigation.

Dill's invention consists of an apparatus for altering the "angle of incidence" of the plane while flying. In the tests it was found possible to alter the angle eight degrees, causing a corresponding difference in speed ranging from 130 kilometers an hour to 99, and to make a landing within a space of 15 meters.

A 130 horsepower French motor was used and the airplane had a wing spread of approximately 33 square yards. The pilot was a Russian, Koldaienko, attached to Marshall Chang Tsao-lin's flying staff.

Dill claims his machine can attain a high speed 40 per cent greater than that attainable by the rigid type of airplane; a low speed 26 per cent less and a climbing speed 31 per cent faster.

Mrs. Gilmour's share amounts to $37,500 and was to be given to her, the mother's will stipulated, only upon condition that apologies be given her brother, B. Archie Linderman, Washington and New York clubman, for an alleged quarrel which occurred at the time of the death of their father.

"I HAVE yet to find a Standard Oil service station attendant who fails to reflect the ideals of service set forth in Standard Oil Company (Indiana) advertising."

Such was the comment of an observant man who had been expressing his opinion of service in industry.

It is but a composite of the general feeling among patrons of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The spirit of service is highly developed in every employe of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), whether he wears overalls or occupies a place on the directorate.

Every man and woman of the 27,000 employes making up the personnel of this Company is obsessed with but one ambition—to do his or her part in making the Company greater in size and in service.

Such a condition cannot prevail under the lash. If it is to endure the desire to serve must be inherent in the individual.

It is a natural development that follows fair dealing, camaraderie, pleasant working conditions, just treatment, skillful management—in short, intensive organization modernized to the last degree.

That the employe in overalls should reflect the Company's ideals of service is the result of highly intensified organization.

It is eloquent of the spirit prevailing throughout the organization—of the complete understanding of purpose, between the executives and those who are on the firing line making the last turn in the great cycle of Standard Oil service.

Where complete understanding exists there are no obstacles too difficult to overcome.

Complete understanding between the management and the employe has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) big in size and big in service.

Complete understanding between the Company and the thirty million people of the Middle West has caused the list of shareholders in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to increase in four years' time from 4,600 to 42,706—not one of whom owns as much as 6% of the total.

MEXICO TAKES STEPS TO ENFORCE DRY LAW

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mexico, Oct. 2.—First steps to comply with Article 119 of the Constitution of 1917, which provides that all states take measures against alcoholism, have been taken by the state of San Luis Potosi. Under a law just promulgated by the retiring governor, Rafael Nieto, the establishment of new breweries and distilleries is prohibited and existing plants are enjoined from increasing their capacity.

Ten per cent of the liquor licenses granted by the municipality of San Luis Potosi will be cancelled yearly by lot, and the manufacture of liquor of high alcoholic content will be prohibited entirely after July 1, 1928. The law is being violently opposed.

TEN DIFFERENT NATIONS SEND WARSHIPS TO SWEDEN

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 2.—Sweden has been host to more naval visitors from foreign countries during six weeks this summer than ever before within so short a period, and the people look on these courteous attentions as a sign of growing interest in the country's trade and political position in the north of Europe.

Ten countries in all have sent war vessels to Sweden, and ten different ports, including Stockholm, Gothenburg, and Malmo, have been visited. The U. S. cruiser Pittsburg has just left Stockholm, where its officers participated in the memorial services for the late President Harding. The U. S. battleship North Dakota also was in Swedish waters this summer.

England Seeks to Show Her Taxes Top List in Report

LONDON, Oct. 2.—At current rates of exchange taxation in Great Britain is almost three times as heavy per capita as in the United States, according to official figures compiled in London. The latest figures drawn up show that in Britain the taxation is $72.44 a head, in the United States $25.70, in France $24.29, and in Italy $11.81.

In issuing these comparisons, the British have challenged as a complete misrepresentation of their own official figures the scale which M. Dummet of France presented to the Institute of Politics at Williamstown, Mass., recently. He was quoted as saying that Prime Minister Baldwin had given figures showing the taxation in France was $88 a head, in Great Britain $85, and in the United States $28 a head.

His former figures, given by Mr. Baldwin and the British treasury as to taxation a head in various countries have always been in the respective currencies of such countries, it is said.

The latest are: Great Britain (1922-23) pound 15.18.1. United States—(1922-23) $25.70. France—(1922) Franc 4415. Italy—(1922-23) Lire 2755. The British suppose M. Dummet may have arrived at the figures he gave by conversion into dollars at par exchange, which they hold to be wholly misleading.

Soviets Will Circulate Money in Siberia

VLADIVOSTOK, Siberia, Oct. 2.—An attempt is to be made to put Soviet money into circulation in the Far East. Mr. Barshnikov, director of the local branch of the state bank who went to Moscow for the purpose of regulating the currency in the Russian Far East, is the main sponsor of the scheme.

Mr. Barshnikov points out, however, that no attempt will be made to interfere with the present Japanese currency circulating here, and that the Soviet money tokens will only circulate on an equality with the foreign money and will be changed at the bank for foreign money or gold at the holder's option.

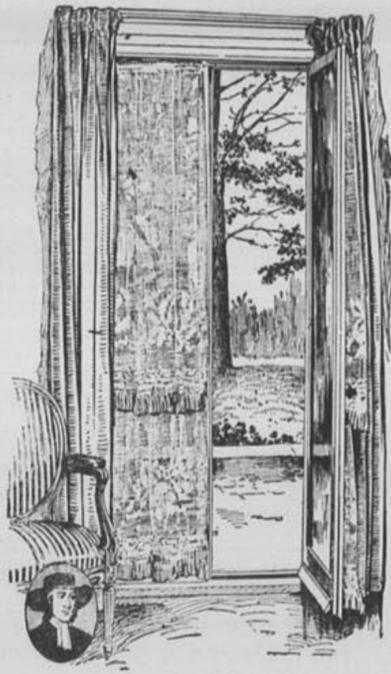

The money to be put into circulation will be the Russian "Tchervonets," a form of the denomination of ten rubles gold, but the rate of exchange of which, although comparatively stable, still fluctuates a little. This is the only case of guaranteed currency in Russia, since for any less amounts either silver currency or Japanese small money tokens will have to be used. In order to keep up the price of the silver, exchange the importation of small silver currency of other countries into Far Eastern Russia has been prohibited.

EMPIRE'S PREMIERS TO DISCUSS POLICIES GATHER IN LONDON

Talk Over Several Matters of Importance; Many Countries to Send Representatives.

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The Imperial Conference to deal with political, economic and other matters of common interest throughout the empire, opens in this city this morning and will continue for about two months.

The members of the conference deal with political matters will be held under the presidency of the British prime minister, Stanley Baldwin. Representatives of the governments of Canada, India, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Newfoundland and Ireland will participate.

Among the important subjects to be discussed is the naval situation resulting from the Washington Armament Conference. Consideration also will be given to arrangements for future co-operation between the imperial and Dominion governments in all branches of defense.

Other subjects on the agenda include: The main issues of imperial policy; problems of foreign policy; naval, military and air defenses; cable, wireless and mail services; international communications by air, land and sea.

The prime ministers of the empire and their ministerial colleagues on the Imperial Conference will attend the official members of the Economic Conference, which they will attend on such occasions as they, or any of them, may deem to be necessary. It is even possible that sometimes the two conferences may be merged into one, as, for instance, when the Imperial Conference desires to discuss matters in the presence of its expert advisers.

This is the first time an Economic Conference has been called together in connection with an Imperial Conference. The Economic Conference will be composed chiefly of experts in matters of finance, trade, defence, etc., and will be, in the main, an advisory body whose reports and recommendations will have to come before the Imperial Conference.

Notwithstanding this somewhat formidable agenda, the social side of the conference will not be neglected. There will be a reception at No. 10 Downing street by Prime Minister Baldwin as president of the conference; the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the Duke of Devonshire as vice-president, and by other British ministers.

Among the ceremonies in prospect is a banquet to be given by the King at Buckingham Palace. Several prominent public bodies in London will entertain the visitors at public dinners, and they will be the guests of the government at an official dinner.

MICHIGAN STARTS NEW BOUNDARY SUIT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Michigan served notice in Supreme Court today of its intention to bring an original action against Wisconsin to quiet the boundary dispute between the two states in the Montreal and Menominee river controversy.

AIR TRAVELERS SUBJECT TO PASSPORT RULES

(By the Associated Press) VIENNA, Oct. 2.—An air traveler in Europe has to get his passport vised for every country over which he may fly, even if he does not intend to land in that country. This measure was found necessary in order to prevent a passenger, finding himself in a strange state without the proper documentation.

In London's new county hall, one of the most magnificent public buildings in the metropolis, the echoes are so bad that it is difficult to hear words spoken only a few yards away.

ISHPEMING MAN HURT AS AUTO LEAVES ROAD

ISHPEMING, Mich.—John L. Bradford, pioneer Ishpeeming clothing merchant, was severely injured Sunday when his sedan left the road near L'Anse, Mich., 50 miles west of here, and rolled down an embankment, turning over twice. Bradford was alone in the car and passing motorists found him and took him to a Hancock hospital. The automobile is a wreck and Bradford is believed to have had a remarkable escape.

WORN NERVES

Nervous troubles, with backache, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reason to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. John Schortgen, 303 18th St., N. Escanaba, says: "At times I couldn't straighten. I had such pains in my back. I was all tired out in the morning and my back was so weak I couldn't do anything. I was nervous and couldn't sleep and these troubles had me so weak I didn't feel like doing much of anything. Black spots came before my eyes and made me dizzy. My kidneys were disordered and I bought Doan's Kidney Pills at the City Drug Store. They rid me entirely of the complaint!"

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Schortgen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. xx

FOLLOWS MEN WHO FLEECED HIM FOR FOUR LONG YEARS

Texan Finally Overtakes Last of the Six Confidence Men Who Beat Him Out of $46,000.

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 2.—J. Frank Norfleet of Hale Center, Hale county, Texas, is the most successful amateur detective of his age, so officers here say and that he has at last got his man.

Norfleet was "buncoed" out of $46,000 in Fort Worth in November, 1919. For the past four years Norfleet covered this country and others, tracking down and causing the arrest and conviction of seventy-five confidence men. The officers here say the Texas ranchman has done more to stop operations of confidence men in the United States than any other man in the country.

With the receipt of a message from Norfleet yesterday evening, telling of the finding of the last man he was after, the Hale county man, single handed, has apprehended all six who were in the original group that "buncoed" him.

Army Officers Offer Course at M. A. C.

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 2.—Army officers connected with the military science department of the Michigan Agricultural College have offered a new course to members of the college faculty, their wives and daughters. In military parlance it is called equitation, but in the announcement of Lieut. Col. T. L. Shelburne it is described as the ladies' and gentlemen's riding class.

The military establishment at the college has about 75 horses available for use of student soldiers, and these will be used as mounts for the men and women of the college faculty. Riding, as taught in the United States cavalry training schools, will be included in the course.

Captains Chase and Wyatt are named as instructors in the bulletin announcing the new classes.

France Faces Problem of Unseaworthy Ships

PARIS, Oct. 2.—French freighters of a certain type have earned such a bad reputation among seafaring men, that today sailors are refusing to go to sea on them, while naval draughtsmen declare they should be taken out of service altogether.

Twelve such vessels were built by the government during the war. Their holds are clear, with no bulkheads, which permits the sudden shifting of cargo, and their water ballast tanks have a trick of filling unexpectedly. Five of them already have turned over. The last was the Emile Durant, which rolled over without warning and drowned 19 members of the crew.

Nevertheless, some sailors are occasionally found, from time to time, who will take a chance, so several of the craft are still at sea.

"SHUFFLE ALONG"

"Shuffle Along," the big colored musical comedy, which set New Yorkers in a whirl of jazz and syncopation, comes to the Delft theatre one night, Monday, October 15th.

The cast is composed entirely of negroes, and is a riot of jazz, per, tuneful melody, laughter and fun, of the style so peculiar to the southern tradition.

The plot of the play is carried out as no other in musical comedy has been, in that it centers around a mayoralty contest by three office seekers, two of which are partners in a small grocery store, and the manner in which they conduct their campaigns, and finance it are the signals for the gales of laughter that follow one another throughout the action of the bill.

The plot is not allowed to interfere with the syncopated action which comes in the form of ensemble numbers, solos, trios, duets, swirling dances all the way from the classical to the jazzed, all of which is enhanced by a remarkable jazz orchestra which features a "baby" at the traps, that is a world beater when it comes to execution and manipulation. The famous "Bronze Beauty" chorus, noted for its effective pep and speed, is one of the features.

"UP THE LADDER"

The plays that come closest to us are the plays about people we know. "Up the Ladder," which comes to the Delft theatre, Saturday, Oct. 6th, after a six months' run at the Central theatre in Chicago, is such a play. It has to do with two young Americans, meeting in the office where they both work, then marrying and starting together up the long climb. The problems that they have to solve, the temptations that threaten their love, all these are part of the interesting story of the play. Just as they are part of our lives. And the parties at the country club, the flappers with their flasks, the bread capitalist who wants the young man to pull a deal not quite on the level in order to make quick cash, all these are part of America today. That is why "Up the Ladder" has a genuine appeal to theatregoers; that is why it is a success.

CONCLUDE REORGANIZATION OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Every pastor of the Presbyterian church in the United States, 10,000 in all, will receive during the next two weeks copies of a new plan for organization of synods, presbyteries and local churches, prepared by the Committee on Reorganization and Consolidation. This is one of the final steps in the reorganization of the church which has been in process for three years.

The plan proposes that each of the 300 presbyteries set up a presbyterial council, a standing committee on promotional program and field activities, and standing committees on the work of each of the four new boards, foreign missions, national missions, Christian education and ministerial relief. For each of the 46 synods similar council and committees are suggested.

For each of the 10,000 Presbyterian churches a local church council is planned, to co-ordinate all the organizations and activities of the church, functioning under the session of the local church, and co-operating with the presbyterial committees. The purpose is to effect a harmonized, united and effective effort in all enterprises of the denomination throughout the United States, without in any way sacrificing the individual authority of the local church or presbytery.

...with a rifle in his hand, and asked us if we were officers. Our reply was in the negative. We then went on to be arrested. The robber again accosted Mr. Peterson, asking the same question. He then said: "I am an officer; I am out looking for the bank robber." With this he pulled out a revolver and fired at the two men on the road. There were eleven empty shells in the road near the bridge which I reported. Seems to me that Mr. Peterson was seeing things. I will not be saying that if the rest of the story is as inaccurate as his meeting the two men on the road, little credence can be placed on his statements, especially when he tries to discredit the evidence between the robber's car and the Ford.

England Concerned About the Empty Cradles in Homes

LEEDS, England, Oct. 2.—England's empty cradles continue to form a subject of animated comment among the newspapers, doctors and sociologists. Not a few British officials express misgivings over the future of the race if the present rate of decline in births continues.

Dr. J. Johnstone Jarvis, medical officer of health for Leeds, in his report for 1922, refers in some striking passages to the subject of birth control. Commenting upon the fall of the birth rate in Leeds from 21.8 to 19.8 per 1,000, he says: "How people can, in these circumstances, talk of birth control and the necessity for the reduction of the birth rate, passes comprehension. To talk of the risks of over-population with Europe depleted by war, revolution, famine, and disease, and other continents calling out for settlers to occupy their land and develop their industries, is childish folly.

"This Malthusian myth of over-population was exploded long ago, so one thought, but it has been resurrected, and is again being made to do service in this anti-social campaign to reduce the birth rate. No one objects to the restriction of the unit, but to interfere with the birth rate of the fit—and this seriously is what is intended—is to invite disaster. Let there be no mistake about it, if the British Empire falls, it will not be for lack of money, as so many seem to fear, but for lack of men, and because its sons and daughters have been influenced by the vapourings of a few seekers after notoriety and have allowed selfish interests to come between them and their duty.

"The state also has a duty in the matter, namely, to ensure that every parent has an income to enable him to maintain himself and his family in comfort and health. If it fails to do this, it falls in that on which most depends our national health and welfare."

Hindus have many queer methods of finding out whether a person is speaking the truth or not. Sometimes the suspected person is compelled to chew a quantity of boiled rice. When he has done so he throws out the grain, and it is carefully examined. If any of the rice is found to be dry the man is judged guilty, on the theory that his mouth had become parched through fear.

Fines ranging from 500 francs upwards are suggested for French landlords or agents who refuse to rent houses or apartments to families with children.
