

CLUB WOMEN ASK PRISONERS' RELEASE

DEBATES AND ARGUMENTS A BIG INCIDENT

Resolution Passes at the Second Reading of Document.

Former President Makes Plea to the Women for Serious Attitude on Future Legislation.

DETROIT, Oct. 20.—After an all-day battle during which the resolution was first emphatically rejected and later revived and passed, members of the Michigan State Federation of Women's clubs, in convention here, went on record as favoring the release of war prisoners.

When the resolution calling upon President Coolidge to release 33 war time political prisoners from federal prisons was introduced early Thursday morning it had the effect of a bomb shell cast among the 600 assembled delegates. Cries of "Traitors in war time and traitors still" were heard above the din and dozens of women rose to their feet in a vain effort to be heard.

"Are Traitors Today?" The prisoners being held in Leavenworth and Atlanta are just as much traitors today as they were traitors during the war," said Mrs. C. C. Wiggins. "They were traitors when we needed patriots—when our country called for loyalty and assistance. They do not deserve the sympathy of those who gave their sons that humanity might be saved."

The resolution was then defeated by a large majority vote.

However, the woman who wrote the resolution, Mrs. W. Nelson Whittemore, representing the Amnesty Group of Michigan, had expected the motion to come at a later hour so she was not present at the time. As soon as she was notified by phone of its failure to pass she left her home in Bloomfield Hills and hurried to Detroit.

Forty defendants were sentenced yesterday by Judge Sessions in federal court. Six were fined and nine will be held in the Marquette county jail until the court term is over, and the last "bootlegger's special" leave here.

Leon Dunsworth, also of the Soo, was sentenced to thirty days in the Chippewa county jail for sending an obscene letter through the mails. SOO CITY TEAM TO PLAY LEGIONNAIRES HERE ON SUNDAY

Wonderful Scoring Machine From Lock City to Stack Up Against Pattison's Legion Squad.

Football fans are in for a rare treat when the fast Soo aggregation stack up against the local gridiron warriors, in a game at the South Park Sunday.

Neither team has lost a game this season, and both are determined that they shall win Sunday's battle. The Soo last Sunday gave the Cheboygan city team a 63-0 trimming, which gives the local fans something to think about. It takes a real team to administer that kind of a beating regardless of the character of the recipients.

Pattison's squad have put in a good week, outdoor practice when the sun shone and indoor work when it did not. Capt. Thompson has promised a new bag of tricks will be opened for this game. Pearl who starred on the Escanaba line during the Manistique game, will be here to exhibit his wares and assist in putting the Soo team to rout.

The probable line-up for Escanaba, at the first whistle, will be: Center, Henderson; Guards, Speers and Anderson; Tackles, Pearl and Olson; Ends, Thompson and Smith; Quarterback, O'Brien; Fullback, Christenson; Halves, Turner and Dawson.

It's going to be a thriller. The whistle blows at 2:00 o'clock.

OLD TIMERS TO BE GUESTS AND MEET PRESIDENT

Eight Peninsula Division Men Will Be Guests of "Northwestern" at the 75th Anniversary.

It is stated that there will be eight men from this city leaving next week for Chicago, to be guests of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, on the 75th birthday anniversary of that great organization. The men who have been invited to be guests have all been in the employ of the company for 50 years. Invitations received this morning contained a handsome badge, with the name of the one for whom it is intended inscribed thereon, a complete program of the events to take place and an expense card to be filled out and turned in, when all expenses of the trip will be remitted. The men will be guests of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad from the time they leave this city until they return.

The affair promises to be something very much out of the ordinary and will be a gathering of men from all over the system—all of them 70 or more years of age.

"Yeggs" Blow Safe And Get $15,000

CHARLESTON, Ill., Oct. 20.—Bandits estimated to have numbered ten or twelve held up a night watchman and blew open the vault and safe of the First National bank at Oakley, Ill., early today and escaped with $15,000 in cash and bonds.

Marie, six months and $500 fine or three additional months; John Yuta, Negaunee, four months; Emil Valli, Negaunee, one year; Michael Schultz, Calumet, six months; Lee Carpenter, Sault Ste. Marie, four months; Mrs. Kate Maher, Calumet, $500 fine or four months in Marquette county jail; Onnie Frank, Curtie, $500 fine or four months in Marquette county jail; Ernest Postering $500 fine or four months in Marquette county jail.

"ZEV" WINS INTERNATIONAL RACE

Belmont Park, Oct. 20 (4:30 P. M.)—"Zev," America's greatest three-year-old, defeated Papyrus, the English three-year-old champion, by six lengths in the mile and a half international match race today.

The time was 2 minutes, 35.2 seconds. Away with a lead of a length, Papyrus seemed to stop and Zev took the lead as they passed the paddock gate. The American colt held its lead of a length until the stretch was reached where Jockey Sande called upon Zev for speed. The English colt, driven by Jocky Donohue, failed to get up and when they passed under the wire, Zev was under restraint.

500 Menominee Fans Come to Escanaba to Root For Team--Excitement Is Tense

The game today was forfeited to Escanaba on account of a dispute arising through a touchdown made by Escanaba. After the touchdown had been made the referee called Escanaba off side, but had not blown his whistle. The touchdown was protested by Menominee and finally given to Escanaba, upon which decision the Menominee coach called his team from the field and Escanaba was given the game by a score of 1 to 0. At the end of the third quarter before the argument the score was 6 to 0 in favor of Menominee.

From the time the high school students started their parade last evening until time was called this afternoon, no one in the city forgot that Menominee was coming up here today to try and break the great football record of the Orange and Black. The morning trains brought great throngs from the sister city and this crowd was augmented by car after car, decorated with the Menominee high school colors and bearing a happy crowd of rooters.

While the students and people of this city were instilling "pep" in the players, the Menominee fans were not idle and have been boosting for two weeks for the Escanaba game. Menominee sent a fine bunch of young people to Escanaba today and they seemed to enjoy themselves as they paraded up and down the street, shouting for their home team. The Menominee Herald-Leader of last evening said:

It will be "Hod Dog" tomorrow at Escanaba!

Never in the history of the Delta county metropolis has so much interest been manifested in a sporting event as that which permeates the Escanaba atmosphere today because of the game in that city tomorrow afternoon between the Escanaba and Menominee high school football teams. Escanaba thinks that if ever in their lives they had a chance to beat Menominee, that chance has come, and things are all set up there for the shouting after the game.

Some little interest is also manifested in Menominee over this important gridiron tilt, and it is expected that no less than 500 fans will accompany Guy Houston's squad with the fighting spirit to the Sandy City tomorrow. A large number of the student body have already purchased tickets for the game, and a long line of enthusiastic supporters who have long since quit school, will motor to Escanaba to see the great contest. The

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 20.—Sweden's oldest and most magnificent cathedral, the edifice at Lund, has just observed the eight hundredth anniversary of its founding, with elaborate ceremonies. WHERE YOUR MONEY GOES

(From a "Campaign to Prevent Fire," National Fire Protection Ass'n)
Our waste of $5 per capita per annum means that every man, woman and child pays $5 a year for fire waste. That means that the man with the average family, his wife and three children a family of five—pays $25 a year fire tax. The United States Government in its report adds to this fire waste the cost of maintaining fire departments, which is as much more. This means $50 a year to the average family. Now, if on some blue Monday in every year a representative of the Government were to come around and ask us each for our check for $50 to pay our share of the national carelessness, then we should realize what we pay. But we do not realize that we pay it, because the tax is indirect. The big manufacturers and the big merchants know that this fire expense is a tax. They equip their premises with automatic sprinklers. They put in protective apparatus. They get the lowest insurance rate they can because it helps them to compete; but the man in the street, the ordinary man, does not know how his fire waste is paid. Take wool, for example. Wool in the warehouse is insured—that is a tax. It is insured in transportation, and there it pays a fire tax. It is insured in the textile factory where it is worked up into cloth. It is insured in the clothing store, insured in the tailor shop, in the department store; and all the way along this fire tax is added to the cost, and when you buy a coat, you pay it. Every stock of goods that is insured carries this tax, and it is passed along to the ultimate consumer. The masses do not know that they pay it. They do not realize that when they buy a hat, or a pair of shoes, or a suit of clothes, or anything which goes through the regular channels of industry—production, distribution and exchange—they pay a tax. Not realizing it, they are indifferent to fire. They think the fire loss does not affect them.

T. C. OLIVER TO RETIRE; OLDEST TICKET PUNCHER

Patrick J. Gallery Will Also Retire On Pension.

Conductor Oliver Has Been in Passenger Service for Over Forty Years, Record Shows.

Thomas C. Oliver of Green Bay, Wis., veteran Chicago & Northwestern railway passenger conductor, who has been on the Ishpeming-Green Bay run for more than forty years, has advised friends that he will be retired on a pension on November 15. The retirement is compulsory, going into effect when Mr. Oliver attains the age of seventy.

Mr. Oliver is well known to the traveling public in all parts of the Upper Peninsula, due to his long service as a conductor on the peninsula division. He is the second oldest man in the Northwestern service in the point of years. He has been employed on the division for fifty-three years and four months.

Despite Mr. Oliver's advanced age and length of service he has been one of the road's most proficient employees and has lost but little time during the extended period that he has been a passenger conductor. He rarely took an unavoidable lay-off and it has only been at great intervals that Mr. Oliver's rain went out that he was not in charge.

Mr. Oliver is the oldest conductor on the division and he will retire as soon as his pension becomes effective. He has extensive property interests at Ishpeming and Green Bay and will devote much of his time towards looking after his real estate. Besides his residence properties Mr. Oliver is the owner of a summer home in Switzey, Gallery Pensioned.

Patrick J. Gallery, who has been in the employ of the Northwestern for the last thirty-nine years, has also been pensioned. Mr. Gallery's health has been poor during the last few years and, being unable to continue his work regularly, he decided to leave the service and retire on a pension.

Mr. Gallery is well known over the peninsula division because of his long service. He made his home in Ishpeming for a number of years while he was a conductor on the Ishpeming-Green Bay mixed train run, which was discontinued during the war and has never been reinstated.

When Mr. Gallery took a passenger run between Ishpeming and Green Bay he moved his family there because his long lay-overs fell on that end of the division.

IRONWOOD MAN TO SUBSTITUTE FOR FLANNIGAN

Judge George O. Driscoll of Ironwood, will occupy the bench at the opening of the Delta county circuit court next Monday, in the place of Judge R. C. Flannigan of Norway, who is ill at his home, according to word received by County Clerk George Harvey yesterday. Judge Flannigan, according to word received here, is suffering from an attack of the grip and will not be able to hold court at least during the early part of next week. Judge Driscoll will relieve Judge Flannigan in the emergency and will remain in charge of the court sessions here until Judge Flannigan has fully recovered. The first day of the term, on Monday, will be devoted to calling the calendar of cases and arranging the trial calendar for the term. Members of the jury will report on Tuesday morning, when the trial of cases will be opened.

Rink Open Sunday Afternoon and Night

The Coliseum roller rink will be open Sunday afternoon and evening. The additional features of the evening program will be "Ladies' Choice," "Grand March" and "Trio," which will take place at intervals during the regular skating program.

A large number of children attended the "Squaker Matinee" this afternoon which proved highly entertaining to the little folks.

The novelty feature for next Thursday evening will be a "September Party." The features that are being put on from time to time by Manager Richard Flath are proving highly entertaining to all the skaters and add greatly to the general patronage.

WHO WROTE IT?

The Mirror is in receipt of a piece of literature that came in the Sunday mail and we would like to know the name of the writer. Not on account of the story itself, but to thank the writer for one of the best descriptive articles that has come to the editor's desk, either in manuscript or in printed page. The writer need not be ashamed to sign his or her name to that kind of material. The Mirror will publish the article very soon, but would be glad to know the writer—perhaps we might even by of some assistance in outlining some other work along the same lines. Please call us up or come in and see us.

CITY MANAGERS GIVEN WRITEUP ON THEIR WORK

Milwaukee Journal Devotes Much Space to City.

Manager Harris and Manager Ham Are Given Credit for Accomplishing Much Good.

In the Milwaukee Journal of Friday several columns of space is devoted to the manager form of government for Escanaba and Gladstone and both city managers, Mr. Harris of this city, and Mr. Ham of Gladstone are given unstinted praise for the work they have performed in the short time they have had charge of city affairs.

In speaking of Escanaba, the staff correspondent of the Milwaukee newspaper says:

"Escanaba, this year, under its new city manager form of government, has spent about $100,000 for street work, the first street work carried on here for many years. Not only that, but the city's part of the work, about 33 1/3 per cent, was paid for in cash, while heretofore it was always the practice to bond the city whenever any street work was to be done. The city's streets, owing to past neglect, are in deplorable condition, but the work of improving them has been begun and next year is to be pushed hard."

"Escanaba is the only city in the country that owns and operates three public utilities—water, gas and electric light and power. Not only has each been put on a paying basis, but rates have been reduced and better service given. City Manager F. R. Harris, in the future contemplates still further revisions of rates. At the

Three Inches Snow Falls in the "Soo"

SAULT STE. MARIE, Oct. 20.—Three inches of snow fell in Sault Ste. Marie yesterday and late last night and although the storm has subsided, few vessels are going through the locks. The only lockages were up-bound craft and these vessels will drop anchor in the upper river, not caring to enter White Fish bay, where the seas are the biggest for this season. However, it is not believed any vessels are in danger.

CALLS UPON THE GOVERNORS TO ASSUME SHARE

President Coolidge tells Executives Their Duty Is Plain.

Does Not Offer Any Advice as to Law Enforcement, But Says Laws Must Be Obeyed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—President Coolidge called on the governors of the several states today to assume their full share of responsibility of the prohibition laws.

Meeting with more than thirty executives who had responded to his invitation to attend a White House conference on law enforcement, Mr. Coolidge declared that "no provision of the 18th amendment of the national prohibition act contemplates any surrender of the state's responsibility."

"Provisions of the 18th amendment and its supplementary statutes," the president said, "are perfectly plain in the directions they give to the president and the governors of states."

The president suggested no new means of cooperations between the federal government and the states and made no comments on the declarations of the governors yesterday at the White House conference, or on the suggestions of enforcement measures recently put forth by the individual governors.

He did say, however, that the problem of law enforcement could not be answered by "political intrigue" or determined by "extremists on either side."

FOREST FIRES "BLESSING" IN SOME COUNTIES

In a Single Week Fire Performed Three Years' Work.

Underbrush and Slashings Are Cleaned Out, But Danger Was Great for Awhile.

SUPERIOR, Wis., Oct. 20.—Although the fires of the county during the past three weeks have been dangerous and had they gotten beyond control would have undoubtedly resulted in great loss of property and possibly life, fate cloaked in a disguise, however, twisted danger into a blessing to many farmers. It is stated.

In the fire area, the fires have done a world of good it is said, burning up the underbrush and clearing more land than the farmers could have accomplished in several years. This statement was made by W. H. Halverson, supervisor from the town of Staples, who said the fire had done more good work on his farm than he could have possibly done in three years.

Trial of Dr. Cook Is Being Rushed

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 20.—In order to speed up the trial of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the Arctic explorer, and his thirty co-defendants, on charges of using the United States mail to defraud in connection with oil operations, nine sessions of court will be held beginning next week. It was announced by the judge today. The judge and the attorneys believe that unless night court is held, the case would not be ready for the jury in much less than six weeks.

McCray Case Goes to Federal Court

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 20.—The filing of an action here today for the attorneys of Governor McCray, in bankruptcy proceedings instituted by three local banking institutions is expected to transfer the hearing to federal court in Indianapolis.

T. J. Logan, who set today as the day for hearing the bankruptcy proceedings, said the proceedings will only be a formality and a ruling on the petition be made later.

Debates, Arguments Big Incident at Meet

(Continued from Page One) After some effort, she persuaded Mrs. Henry G. Rosewarne of Niles, timekeeper for the convention, who had voted against the resolution at the morning session, to ask for a reconsideration of the matter since the women most interested were not present when it was first voted upon.

Officers Are Elected

Mrs. Whitmore was able to reintroduce the resolution early in the afternoon session and it passed with the necessary majority and without comment, a vivid contrast to its reception during the morning.

The following officers were elected Thursday afternoon: Vice president, Mrs. G. G. Hunter, St. Johns; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Claud Shattuck, Albion; treasurer, Mrs. Alfred Mitchell, Saginaw; president of northeastern district, Miss Marie Comstock, Alpena; president of southeastern district, Mrs. W. W. Plak Jackson, Upper Peninsula district, Mrs. C. Z. Seader, Houghton; west central district, Mrs. F. A. Stone, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Dorah M. Russell, Grand Rapids, director for Michigan in the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Russell will continue for another year as president of the state federation.

dent of the state federation. Mrs. Alvord Speake.

At the Thursday evening session speakers were Mrs. William R. Alvord, former president of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs, and chairman of the division of citizenship training in the General Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Walter McNab Miller, of Jefferson City, Mo., chairman of the health bureau of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and John T. Sinclair, author and economist.

"Don't talk. Listen! You women who are just beginning to hold office, just breaking into the political game, listen!" Mrs. Alvord told her hearers. "Don't try to reform the world. Listen to the men. Learn by their experiences and then, after you have learned by listening, go ahead."

"There seems to be a widespread disappointment over the little effect of the woman's vote upon the country but the women themselves are not disappointed. They didn't expect to bring about the millennium," Mrs. Alvord said. "Instead of this disappointment over the attitude of the women there should be a widespread discontentment over the indifference of both men and women to the important question of voting. Lots of people talk loudly about bad conditions but they don't do anything about it. Where thousands deplore, tens study."

"Legislation Serious Matter."

"There should be the same degree of excitement over the failure of an excellent measure to pass the legislature that would be occasioned by an insult to the flag or an earthquake. Instead people hardly know that such a measure is to be voted upon and when it fails to pass the situation is regarded by all but a few as a matter of small moment.

"There have been some good things brought about by suffrage," the speaker continued. "Among other things the polling places have been cleaned out, taken on a better atmosphere. The table of contents in the women's magazines have changed for the better and club programs are including studies in the realities.

"Being a good citizen in these days is a more complicated process than it was in pioneer times. Nowadays it takes a trained mind. There is more citizenship than simply exercising the political function. Citizenship is really the art of living together. Good citizens assume small responsibilities well. They obey the traffic laws, the city ordinances.

Interested in Citizenship.

"The woman who says that she is not interested in citizenship and politics doesn't realize that she is making a misstatement. Every one is interested, even if only indirectly. She says she doesn't care to bother about pure food laws but she would be deeply shocked to read that 1,000 babies had been poisoned by impure milk.

She wants to keep her window curtains clean but she can't do it unless there is an adequate smoke suppressing ordinance. Many women take an interest only in their personal lives but before one door yard can be safe and clean the community must be safe and clean, too.

"One of the most important duties of the club woman is training her own young people for citizenship. The problems of the future will be much more complicated than those of the present and the man who meets them must have a mind far above the present average. The average citizen of tomorrow will have to be on a par with the leader of today."

Jury Awards $40,500 to Rhinelander Man

RHINELANDER, Wis.—After twenty-two hours' deliberation the jury in the suit of Joseph Wiesman, former Rhinelander merchant, against twenty-eight insurance companies for recovery of $55,000 insurance as a result of fire which destroyed the Wiesman dry goods store here last January, returned a verdict for the plaintiff placing the amount of insurance at $40,500. The suit lasted nearly two weeks. The defense centered largely on the amount of stock in the store at the time of the fire. The case will probably be appealed to the supreme court.

British Investigators Hopeful About Russia

LONDON, Oct. 20.—"The general impression we have brought back as to the recovery of Russia is one of hope," is the statement of F. L. Baldwin, a brother of the British prime minister and the leader of a party of British business men who have just returned from an investigation of trading prospects in Russia.

"Recovery will be a long job," Mr. Baldwin continued, "unless the Russian government gets some outside help, but, if it cannot, I am still confident it can pull through unaided. It is working unaided now and the general economic conditions are not too bad.

"I gathered the peasant is fairly contented and, after all, he is the bulk of the population. As to the factory workers, they are all paid on a piece work basis and are working harder than they did before the war.

"Much hand labor has to be done owing to the country having been depleted of mechanical aids, both with regard to agricultural and factory work. On our way from Moscow to Petrograd we saw many men reaping with hand sickles.

"Undoubtedly there is a trade opening in Russia for agricultural machinery, and also for all things connected with transport, both railway and motor. The Russians are asking also for such things as sawmill plants and mining materials, while there is an abnormal demand for the ordinary necessities of life. The Russians, as a matter of fact, want about fifty times as much as they are getting."

Business Talks to Young Girls

Thrilling Stories
Look to The Milwaukee Journal's New Morning Edition for stories of real life, full of thrills, fast action, romance and adventure. Read the serial story that appears in The Journal's Morning Edition every day.

One thing you must be cautioned against in your business career. Do not overdo. There are few people who collapse from over-work, but there are many business futures blighted by premature fatigue. In the final analysis the thing that carries the artist, the workman, the boy in the coal mine or you girls in your particular niches to the top, is vitality.

No I say to you, preserve your vitality, for if you preserve your vitality your health will take care of itself.
Superabundant vitality means that you will be on your toes every minute, but it is no easy task to keep it.

First, look after your diet. If you jump breakfast in the morning and at noon rush out to a lunch of heavy meats and sticky desserts, and hurry home in the evening by trolley, or some other conveyance, and eat through an enormous dinner, you may as well realize the strain on your digestive system is impossible. You will get sluggish. Your complexion will go and so will your figure, and as for your vitality it will be nowhere to be found.

The truth is that most of us eat too much. Or when we do not eat too much, we do a thing just as bad, we eat without variety. We consume a preponderance of starches or of fats, and yet we cannot plead ignorance for it is altogether too easy to learn the principles of diet if we really want to.

Next, there is exercise. A famous German psychiatrist once told me that he has never seen an American woman who could genuinely relax.
To this tenseness of nerves we can attribute all the nerve-ragged women of thirty and over that we constantly see about us. At the period that ought to be a woman's loveliest we find instead worn-out women. Their faces, their hair and their figures may be as charming as ever, yet they are the slaves of treatments, cures and the like. Too many business women come under this heading.

Twenty minutes of exercise will keep you in excellent shape. Think of it—only twenty minutes out of the twenty-four hours that make a day.
The illnesses that come from fatigue are too numerous to mention. Only one of them is "cold-in-the-head." Exercise eliminates fatigue quicker than any other medium, save sleep. So do it, and do it with your whole heart and interest and the results will more than repay you.

Be sure to get eight hours sleep.
Take a bath daily. Eat one leafy vegetable and one fresh fruit every day.
Play hard. Get yourself some real hobby in which you can take an active part; I mean something like tennis or swimming, or putting on plays or dancing. The passive things like going to the theatre or the movies, those divert your mind, but they can not clay the strain of business.

CHEVROLET STANDS SECOND.
The motor cars exhibited at the National Automobile shows are assigned to their places by an election, in which dollars are the ballots. The honor of first place goes to that car for which purchasers have paid the largest total amount of money for the preceding twelve months, ending June 30th.

At the New York Automobile Show in January, 1924, three of the divisions of General Motors will have leading places. Back for the sixth consecutive year will have the first place, Chevrolet will have the second place, and Cadillac the sixth. The drawings for space were made at the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce in New York, October 13th.

OCTOBER.

Five of the twelve months that make up the year have succeeded more than the other seven in winning the attention of the poets. Stormy March, "with ugly looks and threats"; fickle April, "when every tear is answered by a blossom," and "merry May, "when those who love much love and wed." During the first half of the year these were the months of which the use seems to be most enamored. Of the last six only two have ingratiated themselves into her affections—October and November.

But it is agreed by common consent that not much is to be looked for from November except bleak winds and bare woods and dark hours, while in October's tinted days we find a never-failing charm. It matters not how lavishly nature may have spent the spring and summer months, for October she has left still a goodly supply of her beauties. For some who love the garish days of August and July, October's sunshine may be a trifle wan and pale; but it is in just this softened light that the tints of wood and field appear to their best advantage.

Whether the dim gray clouds are scurrying on their endless journey, or whether the skies are so blue that they flash and "hold the sun immeasurably far," it matters not. Turn where you will, the magic of color is there—purple and gold, yellow and brown, and green and red, and all the intervening hues and shades mingled with such infinite skill and cunning the mystery of which no man may understand.

October days are not melancholy. They invite reflection and pensiveness, to be sure; but they invite also participation and enjoyment in all the wonderful things nature has created in the months preceding. Much thought we may sound the praises of April and May as the days of planning and promise, praises of April and May as the days of planning and promise, it is not until October days that the full meaning of the hope of spring is borne upon us. October is the rugged manhood of the year in all its glorious strength; it is symbolic of tasks begun and carried through to the end; it is a synonym for achievement.

Wherefore for inspiration and renewing of courage, let us not forget strength-giving October.

THE COMMUNITY'S HEALTH.

There is not a person in this town, or the country either for that matter, who is not vitally concerned in the health of the community. It is important that the most rigid sanitary regulations should have force not only here but in every city throughout this country. For epidemics of disease can be kept to a minimum. They are the greatest wasters of life.

A pre-war estimate by a leading sanitarian places the average value of a human life as $3,600, and the average cost of medical attention and nursing are for each case of typhoid fever, for instance, as $200. On this basis in one small town epidemic 55 cases of typhoid cost $11,000 and in addition the loss of vital capital because of six deaths was $21,600.

That is a lot of money to be taken out of a community. Let us not consider it even from a humanitarian standpoint. It is really not good business policy to let such things happen. Public health is purchasable. Within natural limits every community can determine its own death rate.

Modern health methods include infant welfare, child welfare, prevention of communicable diseases and the sanitation of the community. Money invested in public health pays a dividend to every member of the community. A healthful community will not only have more money to spend on the necessities and luxuries of life, but it will attract trade from a wider territory. Health is a business proposition.

OFFICIAL MULTIPLICITY.

Now it is proposed that in every community there shall be a separate court for children who are offenders against the law. It would seem that if judges in courts now maintained are not fit to try children's cases, there should be a general overhauling of judicial personnel. A double court system, with its bailiffs, clerks, etc., will be an increased burden upon people who are already having a hard time to get their homes off the list of property advertised for sale for taxes. Besides, if we are to have a separate judicial system for children, why not another for women, another for old maids, another for old bachelors, one for short-haired women, one for long-haired men, and so on to the end of multiplicity of officialdom? What this country needs is fewer office holders, not more.

THE MASTERLY MELLON.

Since August 31, 1919, when the national debt reached its peak, there has been a reduction of $4,471,000,000. The decrease in September was about $74,000,000, accomplished by the purchase by the Treasury of Liberty bonds in the market. The total obligations of the government now amount to about $22,125,000,000. A third of that sum has had to be refunded since the Republicans came into power in March, 1921. The masterly way in which Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has handled the huge maturing issues of Victory Notes, War Savings Certificates, and Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness is one of the monuments to the efficiency of the Republican administration.

An English aviator has an air flyer with which he says he could ride from London to Rome on $4 worth of gas, and besides that there would be no wear on the tires.

OBTAINING INSPIRED BY PARIS

The little frock to the left is very pretty though exceedingly simple. It is made of polka-dotted cloth trimmed with organza. If preferred, the skirt may be of one material and the waist of another. The dress is slashed at the center-front, the slashed edges being bound and finished for the closing. Wool Jersey with a Paisley top would be ideal for this model. Medium size requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch material. The new square front that is so becoming to youthful figures is emphasized in the second model. Ratiné, twilford, pongee or serge may be used for its development. The motif embroidered in contrasting colors gives a picturesque touch to the front of the dress, while the pockets are trimmed with hemstitching. The left may be of ribbon or self-material. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material.

D'Annunzio to Publish His Autobiography

ROME, Oct. 19.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, poet, statesman and soldier, has been ordered by the Italian government to leave the Villa Falconieri, and will relinquish his present residence on Lake Garda. He promises to publish shortly two or three books, one of which, "About Me and Myself," is said to be autobiographical, audacious and outspoken, even for these untroubled days. Another is called "The Adventure Without Adventure" and yet another, "The Archangel of Asia," gives d'Annunzio's impressions of the East.

The Villa Falconieri is one of the oldest and most romantic of the 17th century villas which were laid out with so much taste and charm by the luxury loving princes of the church as their summer residences near Rome. It was acquired twelve years ago by the then emperor of Germany, who had it fitted up as a resting place for German artists, literary men and officers wishing to winter in Rome. During the war it was confiscated by the Italian authorities.

Like all these country houses of the Renaissance the grounds of the Villa Falconieri are full of stately, beautiful trees, and formal, exquisite fountains and waterfalls. There is also a romantic lake, surrounded by cypresses, which is said to be haunted by the wraith of water-nymph, or perhaps by that of a young girl of more modern days whose body, like that of another Ophelia, was found floating there, crowned and covered with flowers.

CRIME WAVE IMPELS BENGAL GOVERNOR TO WARN PLOTTERS

(By the Associated Press)
CALCUTTA, India, Oct. 20.—In prodding the Bengal legislative council, Lord Lytton, the governor, voiced a note of anxiety and warning regarding the recent recrudescence of violent crime in Calcutta and other parts of the province. These outbreaks are attributed to the work of secret revolutionary societies, having as one of their aims the assassination of government officials.

"The crimes of violence which have in the last few months deeply shocked the public of Calcutta have been generally assumed to have been the acts of ordinary criminals. The latest murder and the trial and conviction of one of the gang who committed the murder has revealed to the public the workings of organized revolutionary societies of which Bengal has had such an unhappy experience in the past. The revival of a menace, which many will remember as a hideous nightmare, and which everyone had hoped had gone forever, has created a situation in which the government will require, to an exceptional degree the support of the public.

"The contaminating influence of those gangs of fanatical idealists, who adopt terrorism through robbery and assassination as their weapon, is a danger to the younger generation from which no family can feel altogether immune.

"A week ago the latest victim of this sinister conspiracy told in the dock the story of how he was sought out by those whom he acknowledged as his leaders and ordered to join with others in a robbery which led to the murder of a perfectly innocent man. It is the impressionable youth of Bengal who are seduced and sacrificed by this insane organization. I appeal to all those who remember the dark days through which Bengal passed from 1912 to 1916, to all those who have sons of their own to protect, to rally to the support of the government and to help us stamp out this disease before it grows to dimensions which will make it difficult to cope with.

"This is no case of mere political opposition, of criticism of the government, or seditious propaganda. It is a conspiracy of dangerous, fanatical criminals among whom violence is an acknowledged creed and terrorism a deliberate policy, whose agents are trained in robbery and murder, whose victims are selected without motive or discrimination, and who constitute a danger to every household in the country. I have every confidence that when this is realized the whole educated opinion of Bengal will demand that vigorous and effective measures shall be taken to exterminate the evil."

FLORIDA HOME IS PLAN OF PRINTERS FOR AGED MEMBERS

West Palm Beach May Be Site of New Institution; Fifty Acres Are Available.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 26.—Millionaires will have nothing on the aged and infirm members of the International Typographical Union if the organization's executive council finds merit in the proposal of Sie

West Palm Beach Union local for the establishment of a home in Florida. The southern union has offered fifty acres of land for the nucleus of a home site in the Palm Beach region along the famous Indian river in the heart of the orange country.

High up in the Rocky Mountains the International Union now maintains a Union Printers' Home that is larger and more imposing than most resort hotels and the grounds of which cover two hundred and fifty-five acres.

The addition of a Florida Home in the winter climate belt was proposed at the recent convention of the union in Atlanta, Ga., and the executive council was instructed to investigate.

The council will journey to Florida this winter to view the West Palm Beach site and also to look at other property in that state suggested by members of the union.

AUTO DEALERS IN FAVOR OF BETTER USED AUTO PLAN

Would Do Away With Practice of Accepting Old Cars in Trade for New Ones.

Local automobile dealers are interested in a new plan that is being promoted for doing away with the trade deals that have to be made when prospective purchasers are in the market for new cars.

Meeting in Lansing, Wednesday night, the Michigan Auto Dealers State Association endorsed the plan of the Percy Chamberlain Associates, Inc., for completely divorcing the used-car business from salesrooms.

The Chamberlain organization is about ready to make its formal bow in Detroit, applying the Appleby Motomart plan. Briefly this plan establishes by joint action of dealers, an official used car agency for anyone who wants to sell a car. The car is appraised at its selling price, in guaranteed condition—no "as is" cars being accepted.

Cheap Auto Goggles Made from Old War Gas Masks the Rage

PARIS, Oct. 26.—Automobile goggles advertised for sale for ten centimes each or a little over 170 to the dollar at the present rate of exchange, recently brought a rushing business to a second hand store on the left bank of the Seine, and caused much speculation as to how, in these days, any manufacturer could place such an article on the market at the derisive price.

A former poilu solved the riddle. The goggles had been cleverly cut out from the original gas masks issued hurriedly to the French army when gases made their appearance on the western front as a weapon of war. One model, it was recalled, was cumbersome and inefficient, but the poilus had to put up with it for nearly a year, until the improved model was manufactured.

FINDS PERFECT MANHOOD. FLOURISHING IN AUSTRALIA

BRISBANE, Oct. 26.—Archbishop Duhig, in a public address delivered on his return to Queensland, after visiting America, said that as a result of very careful observation on his part, and on the part of men whose opinion he valued very highly, he could emphatically declare that Australia was really developing physically and intellectually a race of giants.

To those who only saw life in Australian cities, said the archbishop, the truth of this statement might not be apparent, but it soon became intelligible to those who visited the country districts and saw the youths and maidens outclassing their parents physically and intellectually, growing big and brainy on the broad acres which were their native habitat, breathing the free, fresh air of an atmosphere so pure that one actually reveled in it. That was the raw material offered to Australia from which to build up a great nation.

FINDS PRE-GLACIAL RELIC.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 26.—A fossilized oyster, believed by specialists to be a relic of the pre-glacial age, has been unearthed by A. G. Shearer, plowing the top of a hill at Pope, Manitoba. Dr. R. C. Wallace, professor of geology at the University at Manitoba, stated that, in all probability, Shearer struck a rock, carried by the ice of the glacial age and belonging to a period millions of years earlier than the ice age, as there is now neither river nor lake, near Pope.

ROOSEVELT HOUSE FILLED WITH RELICS OF COLONEL'S LIFE

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—A huge stuffed lion, bagged in one of his hunting expeditions, a frying pan, a cartoon by Tom Nast, are only three diversified articles of the hundreds of manuscripts, pictures and mementoes of all sorts which have gravitated to Roosevelt House, the restored birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt at No. 28 East 20th street, Manhattan. The house is to be dedicated October 27.

A set of scrapbooks giving the career of Mr. Roosevelt, as told from day to day in the press, is one of the notable additions to be received by the Roosevelt Association during the last year. This set of books was started by the president's father, continued by himself, and concluded by members of his family. In it are some passages in Roosevelt's own handwriting, as well as a number of letters he wrote while at Harvard.

Supplementing the original cartoon of Theodore Roosevelt drawn by Nast for Harper's Weekly in 1882 and later presented by the famous exposé of the "Tweed Ring" to the president, are many other cartoons from foreign and American, pictorially recording Roosevelt's illustrious career.

Dwight Franklin's miniature plastic group of Roosevelt, his son, Kermit, and gun bearers hunting in South Africa is an unique addition to the collection. The figures in this group are six inches high and have been colored and set in a miniature stage. The group is strikingly realistic.

The cradle in which one of the outstanding figures of history was rocked, and his last public message also have been incorporated in the collection. Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., wife of the present assistant secretary of the navy, presented the cradle. The message, a letter to Richard M. Hurd, was donated by its recipient.

Six hundred bound volumes of back numbers of the New York Herald, Times and World covering an important stage of Mr. Roosevelt's life, were presented by Frank A. Munsey, publisher of the Herald. A costly riding outfit, the gift of the Brazilian government at the time of the colonel's River of Doubt expedition, is there. And reposing with manuscripts of articles which appeared in the Outlook is the frying pan the man with the "Big Stick" used 10 years ago when he and W. W. (Bill) Sewall, guide, hunted in Maine.
