NEW NATIONAL PARTY TO BE FORMED

FORD CLUBS IN ALL STATES TO BE IN DETROIT

Secretary Says Action Has Been Forced Upon Him.

Call Will Be Sent Out Soon and National Convention Will Be Held Early Next Year.

(By the Associated Press)
Detroit, Mich., Oct. 23.—Formation of a new national political party with Henry Ford as its standard bearer will be undertaken at a national conference of all Ford-for-President clubs to be held here on December 12, 13 and 14.

A call for the conference was decided upon at a meeting last night of several Michigan Ford clubs. The conference, according to its leaders, probably will name a date and place for holding a national convention early next spring.

Call Out Soon.
The conference call will go out within a few days, it was said by William Kronberg, secretary of the Dearborn Ford-for-President club. "It was decided upon," he said, "after persistent demands from Ford clubs throughout the country."

"The Dearborn club," he said, "had been inactive for some time, owing to its inability to obtain from Henry Ford a statement as to whether or not he would accept nomination by the party the club might organize."

"We virtually were forced to do so," he added, "many of us in other states have been threatened to proceed with a convention call, if we did not do so."

No Inquest Will Be Held in Case of Girl's Death

After examination of the different reports seen saw little Marian Reed, called on Ludington street at a town hall, it was decided that there was no occasion to call an inquest. It seemed very clear that the accident was caused through the carelessness of the child herself in crossing the street in the middle of the block, not using due caution and by running back in front of an approaching car.

Work On Tenth Is Moving Fast

The contractors are not losing any time in getting the paving down on Tenth street and already a couple of blocks have been thrown open to the public. Like everything else that is now, the section completed presents a beautiful appearance, much finer than cement, but perhaps not quite as durable. Still, it would do very well for a number of streets and according to the contractors will stand long and hard usage.

THE WORLD DEMANDS IT.

Great ideas have the habit of outliving criticism. Such an idea was the one conceived and enunciated by the secretary of state almost twelve months ago. Mr. Hughes entertained the practical notion that the elementary process by which the European deadlock can be relieved is to determine what Germany has paid and can pay, and how and when.

The suggestion appealed to the common sense of men and women everywhere; it was intelligible; it was practicable; and it promised results. Nor has there appeared any substantial argument to destroy the effect it produced. It is generally known that the only objection to giving the idea a form is the French nation. But for the refusal of Premier Poincare to consider any such means an international board of inquiry long since would have considered the facts and reported on them. Nor do the objections to such a plan, as represented by the French, satisfy the world outside France of their validity.

The idea persists. It crops up in foreign newspapers. Lloyd George revives it in a speech. It is so patently a sane, logical idea and at once necessary and promising.

Almost it seems to be a very effective formula for shifting those who want peace from those who want something else even if it means war. Granting that France, in common with all nations, wants a settlement which shall liquidate the war, the formula remains the best and apparently the only one which has it in its power to accomplish the desired result. Of course if France wants no such thing, then her difference to a practical plan in which the co-operation of the United States already was assured, is explained.

The Hughes plan is an essential to any just settlement, and any settlement less than just, "the fruits of victory" notwithstanding, is not permanent but merely a postponement.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE.

When an expert statistician mounts the platform, the layman realizes he is going to see plain and fancy figures sit up and do tricks. The layman expects an experience similar to that of the spectator at a magician's show. He will think he sees something he does not see. But he will be unable to detect just what is wrong in the picture before him.

Some of our busiest statisticians have been engaged for years on our railroad and farm problems. That has been quite proper, because the propaganda they had to offer could only be presented to the general public. Recently, however, the statisticians themselves have met in battle array. Railroad statisticians have met farm statisticians. The result so far as the mystified public is concerned should be declared a draw.

Among the remedies offered for agricultural ills has been the lowering of freight rates. Devoid of statistics, this seems logical. But when railroad and farm experts offer their figures, the result is puzzling.

Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of the Southern Pacific, took occasion the other evening to assail farm figures. "On the theory of those who would advance the price of wheat by lowering freight rates," said Mr. Kruttschnitt, "a 14 per cent increase in the price of wheat would add $120,000,000. The total freight revenues from the transportation of wheat was $119,489,000 last year. It is apparent that a 14 per cent increase in the price of wheat would result in the railroads carrying the wheat for nothing.

Mr. Kruttschnitt's figures are impressive. They seem incontrovertible. But the trouble is that farm experts can bring some figures just as good, and just as convincing which will prove the opposite viewpoint. The layman, faced with splendid statistics from two sides of a controversy is in a sorry position.

THE NATION MADE IT.

A Michigan lumberman invented the modern spark-plug; a Russian Jew, the demountable rim; a mid-western engineer, the orthodox off-starter; and a New England Yankee, the bringing together such picturesque facts as these the National Geographical Magazine in a comprehensive article on "The Automobile Industry" makes clear how much of diverse American genius is included in the motor vehicle which traverses today every highway in the civilized world.

Individuals got the inspiration for this device, and other individuals had the inspiration which prefaced achievement, yet others woulded the device and the inspiration into a commercial opportunity. From many brains and countless hands came the automobile industry, most prodigions of giants and an industry that has changed the whole life of man. Everything he does is modified or affected by the motor vehicle, his work and his play equally are based on it.

And back of the price marks and the production figures is a romance as entrancing as anything the human kind ever has accomplished. Chiefly because, as suggested in the opening quotation, it represents the collective genius of the nation.

POSTOFFICE BUSINESS.

Increase in business for the past fiscal year over that of the preceding twelve months, 10 per cent; increase in cost of operation, 3.3 per cent. So runs the postoffice department's record.

The record shows what can be accomplished by "more business in government." It stands as an impressive credit to the business-like conduct of the department and the efficiency of its employees. It is also a gratifying exhibit of national prosperity. Congratulations, Mr. New.

The man who drinks bootleg liquor would gamble less desperately with death if he were to go out into the middle of Ludington street during a rush period and stand there.

A former office boy in the office of the president of the Long Island railroad is now president himself, so that at last he really does know as much as the old man.

Hingham, England, Sends Old Furniture to Hingham, Mass.

HINGHAM, Mass., Oct. 23.—Wood from an oak tree planted by Queen Elizabeth went into the making of three chairs which have been shipped from Hingham, Norfolk, England, to this town. They are the gift of Harry C. Tofts, a builder in the English Hingham, to the Bay State township which was founded by men from the Norfolk town in the seventeenth century.

Sixteen years ago the top of the tree planted by the great Queen in Kimberly Park died and it became necessary to fell it. Mr. Tofts bought the timber and stored it. A few years ago he met Rev. Louis C. Cornish, secretary of the American Unitarian Association, who for sixteen years was minister of the First Parish church of Hingham, Mass., and decided to make through him his gift to this town.

Mr. Tofts made the chairs, which were designed by Hugh Mottram after a model of a chair of the period when the Hingham men emigrated to America. Tofts stipulated that one of them should be used by the chairman of the board of selectmen, one to be placed in the First Parish meeting-house, erected in 1681, and the third to be used by Mr. Cornish during his lifetime and after that to go to the minister of the First Parish church in perpetuity.

Optimism Plus Confidence Plus Work Equals Prosperity

A "Boost Your Neighbor" Campaign in Escanaba is now running in the columns of The Daily Mirror.

Once the local resident realizes where his interests lie, one need not speculate as to the results of this campaign. However, it is up to the individual firms to keep the public acquainted with their line of goods and service they are prepared to render by giving it the necessary publicity.

In other words, let us get better acquainted in our business and personal relations and above all else, Mr. Citizen, KNOW YOUR CITY.

"The idea is an excellent one," said one of our prominent citizens the other day. "The campaign will bring the attention of the community to the many advantages to be found in patronizing our own merchants. The campaign is principally designed to acquaint the people of Escanaba with the buying possibilities in their own community.

"Money is a medium of exchange—you cannot wear it—you cannot eat it—but it cannot be used as a medium of exchange unless you keep it here.

"Some people work for a living—others invest their savings wisely and permit their money to work for them. In every business enterprise, capital and labor are the prime necessities. Capital supplies the tools, machinery and equipment and works just the same as labor.

"If you felt like working, would you prefer to work in your own yard, or would you go into your neighbor's yard to work? Most assuredly you would work where you would receive the benefits. Then why should you send your money away to work for the advancement of some other part of the town?

"All we have to do is to trace the dollar bill in Escanaba. When it is spent here, it goes to the merchant, and he in turn uses it for the rent and other expenditures, and the landlord in turn spends it with the grocery man, the butcher, the druggist, and so on.

"If Escanaba people could travel with a dollar bill for one week and see the number of hands through which it passed they would never hesitate in doing all their buying at home. The merchants need this support and above all, the community benefits by it. Such a liberal educational campaign will have a far-reaching effect and make the community better and greater for it."

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Escanaba people recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor! Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. Heiena Fillion, 621 South 16th Street, Escanaba, says: "I had been bothered with my kidneys all my life until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. My back was weak and I couldn't bend on account of the severe pains which caught me. I had a steady ache in my back and it made no difference whether I was working or standing still, my back hurt just the same. I was all worn out and always felt nervous, depressed and irritable. Black spots came before my eyes, blurring my sight, and I suffered a great deal with headaches. My kidneys were weak and discolored. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended and I got some at the City Drug Store. They entirely relieved the trouble." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Millburn Co., Mfrs. Buffalo, N. Y. 294
