DR. CHARLES PROTEUS STEINMETZ DEAD

WORLD SHOCKED BY NEWS; DIED THIS MORNING

Trip to Pacific Coast Broke Down His Health.

Was Considered to Be Foremost Electrical Scientist; Many Inventions to His Credit.

Schenectady, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Dr. Charles Proteus Steinmetz, the world's most famous electrical wizard, died at his home today of a physical breakdown due to a trip to the Pacific coast, from which he recently returned. The attending physician said breakfast was being served the patient when suddenly his heart seemed to give way and he died immediately.

The American career of Charles P. Steinmetz, A. M., Ph. D., chief consulting engineer of the General Electric Works, Schenectady, N. Y., had its beginning in New York in 1889, where, penniless and able to speak but very little English, he arrived from Zurich, Switzerland. He was accompanied by a young American who had been his fellow student at the Zurich Polytechnicum.

One side of Steinmetz's face was badly swollen as the result of a trifling illness aboard ship and the immigration authorities at Ellis Island refused at first to allow him to enter the country. He was sent to the "detention pen" and was only released by the eloquence and persuasion of his American companion. A few years later he became a naturalized citizen.

At the time of his death Dr. Steinmetz was regarded not only as one of the foremost authorities on electrical engineering but one of the greatest mathematicians in the world. Strangely enough, one of his greatest difficulties as a child was in learning the multiplication table.

Of German Birth.
Born in the city of Breslau, Germany, on April 9, 1865, and educated at its famous university, young Steinmetz early became interested in socialism at a time when vigorous steps were being taken against it by the government. An issue of a socialist publication in which the students were interested and in which Steinmetz had several articles, was confiscated, the publication suspended and the editors arrested and imprisoned. Steinmetz fled from Germany and found refuge with a friend, a clergyman, near the Austrian border. From there he went to Zurich.

Two weeks after landing in America, Steinmetz obtained employment in the manufacturing establishment of Rudolph Eickemeyer at Yonkers, N. Y., as a draftsman. At that time the company was making a few electrical motors and generators and had just taken up work on the problems of the electric street car, jointly with Stephen D. Field. All the designs for the experiments with the electric cars passed

Serpentine Party Entertains Many

The "Serpentine Party" at the Coliseum Roller Rink last evening was largely attended. The great abundance of ribbon confetti, with its divers colors, was distributed to all the patrons and soon was strewn in great profusion throughout the hall, to the great enjoyment of all those attending. It was the general proclamation of the entire patronage that the event was one of the most enjoyable ever staged at the local rink.

According to a telegram received by The Mirror from Chicago this noon a marriage license was issued there today to Orren I. Banded, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Miss Jeanette T. In any event Mr. and Mrs. Banded will be given a hearty welcome when they return to Escanaba.

MORE CHARGES VOTED AGAINST WALTON TODAY

"Day by Day, in Every Way" It Seems to Be Getting Hotter and Hotter for Oklahoman.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 26.—With virtually no debate the house immediately after convening today added two articles to the impeachment bill against Governor J. C. Walton, charging him with abuse of pardon and parole authority and with having illegally issued deficiency certificates when there was no deficiency in the funds. The vote was 78 to 11 and 79 to 2.

DR. DUNKLEY GIVES FINE TALK AT THE LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

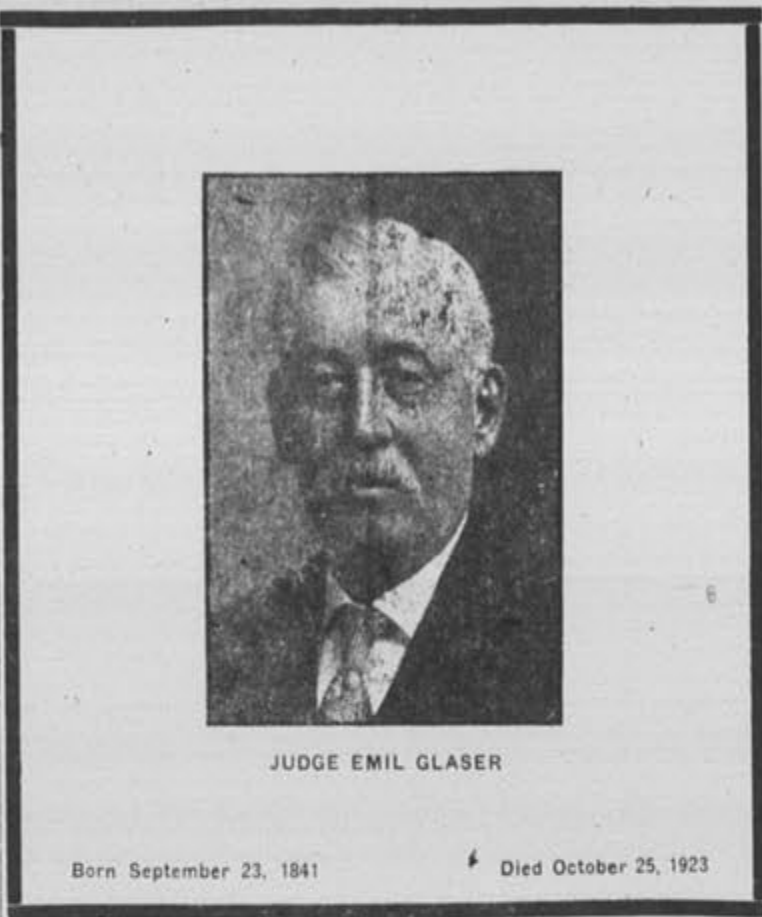

Students Were Inspired by Remarkable Orator who Came to Speak Before Pythians.

Rev. Dr. Frank Dunkley of Milwaukee, whose address at the Knights of Pythias hall last evening was the subject of a great deal of favorable comment, was a guest at the High School yesterday afternoon and in speaking to the students said:

"Each one of us in America is a king, we are kings of ourselves. Let us, therefore, strive to lead clean lives that America may continue to give its just contribution to the world."
Rev. Dunkley appealed to the students, as future citizens of this country, to lead clean lives morally and physically, in order that America might continue to give her contribution to the rest of the world.

Montana Copper Mines Will Cut Miners 50 C

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 26.—Not a 50 cent reduction in a day's ore posted at all mining properties. Anaconda and Great Falls. The wage cut affects 20,000 men. It is estimated that 14 are affected and is operative November 1. The high cost of fuel and low price of metal are the reasons for the reduction.

JUDGE EMIL GLASER
Born September 23, 1841 Died October 25, 1923

WHOLE CITY MOURNS LOSS OF JUDGE GLASER; MILITARY TO HAVE CHARGE OF THE FUNERAL

Last Handful of Grand Army Men Honorary Pall Bearers.

Simple Service Will Be Held at Home; Interment in Lakeview.

While preparations for the funeral of Judge Glaser were being completed today, those who were not active in planning, mourned the great loss of a pioneer in office at home and with flags at half mast, the entire city showing that some kind of a great sorrow had come upon it.

Simple Services.
Judge Glaser was a simple living man, never ostentatious, never assuming and he had expressed a wish that his funeral be as simple and quiet as he had lived his life to be. He wanted to be buried from his home without pomp or splendor and from his home he was taken to Lakeview cemetery, of which he was one of the founders. His wish will be carried out by the members in so far as it is possible to do so, but friends would not allow his passing to go unmarked and every possible respect will be paid to his memory.

His Old Comrades.
As Judge Glaser has followed all that was mortal of life's comrades to their last resting place, so will the few remaining members of the Grand Army of the Republic act as honorary pall bearers for one who had done so much for them in the years that have passed. There are only five left in the county and all are going to try and attend the funeral.

Services at 2 O'clock.
The services will be held at the home on First avenue, south at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and will be conducted by the Rev. A. L. E. Boss of the Episcopal church. From the home to the cemetery the funeral procession will be made up as follows:

American Legion Firing Squad, Honorary Pall Bearers, all Members of the G. A. R., Active Pall Bearers, from Finnish War Veterans, Police and Sheriff's Department, Immediate Members of Family, Delta County Bar Association, Friends.

WORK ON TENTH IS GOING FAST

With more than one-half of Tenth street completed, it is thought the entire paving contract will be completed by next Tuesday night and it undoubtedly will be if bad weather does not interfere with the work. Many people have become interested in the work of spreading the asphalt on the street and remarked how rapidly it is done.

The plans will be submitted next week to the full conference which it is expected will approve them.

ACCEPTANCE OF ENGLAND'S BID FOR CONFERENCE

France, Italy and Belgium Consent to Parley.

It Will Be in the Nature of Meeting of Experts to See How Much Germany Can Pay.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—France, Belgium and Italy have accepted the British invitation for a reparations conference with the understanding that it will be in the form of a committee of experts under the authority of the present inter-allied reparations commission.

It is thought Berlin will be chosen as the seat of the conference, since the chief function of the committee will be to inquire into Germany's financial situation. The selection of the French, Belgian and Italian personnel is expected to be completed shortly.

Request Kept Secret.
LONDON, Oct. 26.—Correspondents showed by the foreign office tonight, showing that the British government had refused the invitation of the first public statement by President Coolidge on the situation in Europe to send another formal invitation to the Washington government to cooperate in a new conference in an attempt to settle the reparations difficulties came almost as a complete surprise to the public and newspapers.

The secret had been well kept, especially considering the presence in London of all the empire representatives, who must have been aware of the move, which undoubtedly was discussed in the usual debate in the imperial congress on foreign affairs.

Sought Participation.
Lord Curzon's request is for American participation in any form, either official or unofficial, or alternately to participate in an inquiry by a special commission appointed by the reparations commission.

In his reply to Lord Curzon, Secretary Hughes declared that the United States is willing to take part in an economic conference in which all the European allies, chiefly concerned in German reparations for the purpose of ascertaining Germany's capacity to pay and an appropriate plan for payment. He emphasized three points, however, first, that while the United States has no desire to see Germany relieved of her responsibilities or past obligations, regard must be had for the fundamental conditions of Germany's rehabilitation; second, that such a conference should be advisory and, third, that the question of the inter-allied debts is entirely separate from the question of reparations.

"FALSEHOODS" IS STATEMENT OF COL. FORBES

Asks Public to Wait for His Own Story, in Preparation.

In the Meantime His Wife On the Pacific Coast Has Obtained a Divorce on Cruelty Grounds.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—From his place of seclusion, Charles R. Forbes, former director of the Veterans' Bureau, issued a statement today denying as utterly and absolutely false, the story of Elias H. Mortimer, of Philadelphia, before the senate investigating committee of alleged bribery and corruption in connection with the contracts for hospitals for the veterans' bureau.

"I do not feel that I ought to make any statements in advance of the full and complete testimony which I shall give under oath on the witness stand," said Mr. Forbes' statement. "However, at the insistent urging of my friends and in response to inquiries from the newspapers, I cannot refrain from saying that every charge and every word of testimony, especially that of Elias H. Mortimer, reflecting on my personal or official integrity, are utterly and absolutely false and without the slightest foundation."

"The story of the receipt by me of $5,000 as a bribe, was not only false, but so absurd as to be ridiculous. The only thing I ask of the public is to withhold their judgment until my witnesses and myself are heard and the full documentary evidence produced."

Wife Gets Decree.
SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 26.—Mrs. Kate Forbes was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce here October 11 from Colonel Charles R. Forbes, former director of the United States Veterans' Bureau. It was learned here today from a search of the court files. Forbes has been mentioned prominently at a hearing being conducted by a senate committee in connection with the awarding of contracts for government hospitals.

The decree was granted, according to the court records, after Mrs. Forbes testified to alleged cruelty and personal indignities. No mention of Forbes' government or business connections was made in the complaint and he was referred to in the suit as "Charles Forbes."

During the single term he served in the senate he devoted considerable attention to foreign affairs and was the leader for the "mild reservationists" in the Versailles treaty fight and served as a member of the foreign relations committee.

GROESBECK SCORES ROAD COSTS AGAIN

Declares State Will Do Harbor Springs Asphalting.

LANSING, Oct. 25.—Governor Groesbeck, at the regular meeting of the state administrative board Tuesday, again served notice on all highway contractors that the state will not spend state money for any highway work when the prices submitted are "absurd and exorbitant," under any circumstances.

His declaration came in response to the protests against concrete pavement being laid on the main street of the village of Harbor Springs, as determined and awarded by the administrative board last week. A delegation from the village and county appeared to repeal the request for asphalt.

"That matter was decided last week and that's all there is to it," the governor declared after listening to one or two sentences from the spokesman of the delegation. "Michigan is not going to pay anybody $11,000 a mile to lay two inches of asphalt on a concrete pavement. The sooner the state's position in these matters is understood the better it will be."

The governor then explained that next spring, after the concrete is laid in Harbor Springs, the state will send there its own asphalt plant and surface the street, as desired by the citizens of the village. The bid for asphalt construction was $7,000 a mile for a half-mile in Harbor Springs, for the asphalt surface alone being $11,000 of that price.

Again, when a bid submitted Tuesday by Rogers showed grading figured at 83 cents a cubic yard, the governor said, "No, we will reject the whole bid," and the bid was rejected.

October Strawberries On Iron River Market

IRON RIVER, Mich., October.—Strawberries are getting to be a regular commodity on the Iron River market. Some of the finest of this fruit to be brought to town this season was delivered to patrons here during the past week by Mrs. William H. Tutor, residing nine miles northwest of this city. Her last delivery was two crates and they were above the average of the everbearing berries. During the season the Tutor strawberry patch, a quarter of an acre, has produced about $150 worth of berries, which is at the rate of $600 an acre, regarded as a very satisfactory yield for everbearing berries.

WILL IMPROVE STATE PARKS IN UPPER PENINSULA

A definite program of improvement affecting four state parks now established throughout the Upper Peninsula of Michigan at Hiram, Baraga, Marquette and at old Fort Wilkins in the Keweenaw peninsula has been submitted to the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, by P. J. Hoffmaster, state superintendent of public parks.

A crew of men is already at work repairing the buildings comprising Fort Wilkins, according to Mr. Hoffmaster. The interiors and exteriors, as well as the roofs of the buildings themselves, are being restored, and a material improvement is already being planned for the grounds surrounding the buildings.

Equipment consisting largely of benches, camp stoves, and other similar material has already been shipped to the four points mentioned, and is being held for installation, as early as possible in the spring. Immediate steps have also been taken for stanchion tracts for preservation as state parks.

"While it is not the purpose nor intention of the state parks to rival the municipal camp sites for popularity among the tourists nevertheless, we believe that such will be the case in the Upper Peninsula, during the coming year," declared Mr. Hoffmaster, in discussing the program. "With the steady increase of tourist travel throughout the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, and with the apparently slow progress in the construction of summer hotels throughout this country, there is every indication that there will be a correspondingly increased demand for tourist camping facilities during the season of 1924. The state parks, of course, will be available for this purpose. They will constitute a certain reservation in each of the respective districts, which will be carefully preserved and cared for by the state."

If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Ouch! My Back! Rub Lumbago Pain Away

Rub Backache away with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!

Macaroni At It's Best

KITCHEN BOUQUET, a purely vegetable product, is in almost every pantry. Housewives know it is the secret of making good gravies and soups, but KITCHEN BOUQUET is equally good in preparing many other dishes. Try your next dish of macaroni prepared this way—

BAKED MACARONI
½ package macaroni, broken in pieces
2 teaspoons of salt
1 quart boiling water
½ cup grated cheese
1 teaspoon Kitchen Bouquet Milk Butter

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender, drain and shake with cold water. Place one-third the cooked macaroni in buttered baking dish, dot with butter and sprinkle with grated cheese, then repeat procedure with remaining macaroni. Add Kitchen Bouquet to milk and pour this over the macaroni to nearly cover, then sprinkle thickly with cheese. Bake in medium hot oven a half hour, until nicely browned and serve immediately for dinner.

BATTERY AND ELECTRIC SERVICE—NO RENTAL CHARGE!

We are now prepared to recharge 100 Batteries every 24 hours. We have one of the largest and most up-to-date repair shops in the city. With our modern equipment we can recharge your storage battery in six hours, if necessary; however, we strongly discourage a hurried recharge, as it is injurious to your battery. We recommend a 24-hour charge. Many new batteries have come to our hands in a ruined condition, on account of either an over-charge or a hurried charge by inexperienced battery men. Your run-down battery will be recharged by us correctly. Remember—NO RENTAL CHARGE ON OUR LOANERS. We do not experiment; we correct all makes of batteries and ignition systems.

THE NEW CONGRESS.

In a few weeks congress will be in session and before that congressional session is history there will be a presidential campaign, followed by national conventions and a presidential election. There are many matters of importance to come before the next session of congress, not the least of which will be the "next president" question. In a manner that last question will exercise a certain effect upon the other matters of national legislation as well as upon the national legislators themselves. "What will congress do next winter?" is the question upon the mind of every voter, whether for selfish reasons or for political reasons or just out of charity. But casting reasons aside, the question is generally being asked in connection with tax and tariff revision, railroad consolidation, freight rates, coal regulation, soldiers' bonus, agricultural relief and even prohibition.

There are many proposals worthy of adoption which in the absence of political restraint would be submitted to the forthcoming congress. The revision of the tax laws, for instance, is desirable inasmuch as the present law contains known inequalities and some unnecessarily drastic provisions. But the opening of the tax question on the eve of the presidential election would precipitate another demand for an increased excess profits and inheritance tax and for decreased taxation on small incomes. On the other hand, business would suffer from a higher excess profits tax, defeating the entire Republican program of industrial prosperity. President Coolidge himself is interested in industrial and commercial welfare.

The majority in congress is seeking perpetuation of power. In order to obtain that perpetuation it must please the people. One mistake may prove fatal. Thanks to President Harding that majority has an impeccable reputation and there is no reason to fear that President Coolidge will break the spell, while it is altogether probable he will undertake with the aid of congress to finish the Harding program, especially that part thereof affecting transportation.

Pressure will again be brought upon congress for the passage of a soldiers' bonus bill. A bonus bill which provides revenue for bonus purposes may receive the support of the Republican majority in congress as well as that of President Coolidge. With memories of the bitter fight for the passage of the Fordney tariff bill still in their mind, conservative Republicans will depreciate the wisdom of tariff revision by the short session of congress and will strive to sidetrack a farmer demand for a higher tariff on wheat. Lower freight rates may be employed to assure agricultural demands upon congress. But here again congress must move cautiously lest havoc be raised with the railroads, which are not yet on a firm financial and business basis. Railroad rates and regulation are live-wires which congress will hardly toy with.

There is the uncertain radical element in the present congress which must be considered in venturing predictions on possible national legislation, but if the conservative Republican element retains its majority in congress, it is a safe bet that the approaching session of congress will produce little legislation of a revolutionary nature.

BRITAIN REVIVING PROTECTIVE POLICY.

Step by step, British producers are coming around to acknowledgment of the soundness of the American principle of a protective tariff. In a recent letter to the London Times, Sir Harry Brittain, Member of Parliament, said that "The British tire trade is an industry where the individual motorist can do much to lessen the prevailing unemployment. Every British tire bought means at least a day's employment for a British employee."

That illustrates the basis for the American protective tariff policy, on which our prosperity has always depended. Every suit of clothes "Made in America" means employment for American labor. Every article of any kind "Made in America" means employment for both American labor and American capital. And every day of employment at good wages means one more good consumer of American products. Buying things "Made in America" starts an endless chain of transactions, each seller of one article becoming the buyer of another. The wage earner in one industry becomes the employer in another.

It is stated by Sir Harry Brittain that in 1922 some $24,000,000 was spent by British motorists for foreign tires, and that at a time when there were millions of British workmen out of jobs and receiving doles from the government—from the taxpayers. We had much the same experience in 1913-14, after the Democratic tariff law was enacted. We bought goods made in Europe, and let our own workmen join the free breadlines. If our workmen keep their senses on election day, they will "never go there any more."

SERVICE FIRST.

The president of the Great Northern railroad has informed President Coolidge that any reduction to rail rates in the Northwest would be injurious to the farmers themselves, as it would impair the transportation service and hinder the farmers in getting their products to market. If such a reduction were not compensated by increases in rates elsewhere, of course it would necessitate further economies on the part of the roads and a consequent reduction of efficiency in service. It usually happens in the commercial field that a cheaper price means cheaper quality, and that is precisely what is likely to happen if the railroads are compelled to submit to a revision downward of their service rates.

In the last five months 234 industrial concerns and thirty-six transportation companies have begun or increased dividend payments. Republican economic policies are not only providing plenty of work with good pay for our wage earners, but are also earning a return on their investment for the millions of owners of our industries and railroads.

Six physicians examined the child and found her to be an unusually fine specimen of childhood.

TOOLS NEARLY 2,200 YEARS OLD ARE FOUND IN CANAL

ROME, Oct. 25.—A complete set of workmen's tools were excavated recently during some repairs to the canal used to carry off the water of the river Velino. The tools are said to date back to the construction of the canal by Marcus Curtius Dentatus in 272 B. C. The Velino is so impregnated with lime that the bed of the river is constantly rising and it was necessary to construct the canal to carry off the water. The canal is in use to this day. Its construction incidentally resulted in the making of the finest and most beautiful waterfalls in Italy, those of the Anio at Tivoli, and the cascades called "Del Marmore." Here the Velino precipitates itself in three leaps from a height of nearly 600 feet.

BRITISH LABOR PARTY IN POWER BY 1926, MEMBER'S PREDICTION

WALLSEND, Eng., Oct. 25.—There will be a Labor government in this country in 1926 and Ramsay MacDonald will be prime minister, said Patrick Hastings, King's counsel and Labor member of Parliament, in the course of a speech to his constituents here recently. He deduced this from the fact that before 1919 Labor votes could be counted by a few thousands, but in 1918 the number was two and a quarter millions, while last year it was four and one-half millions. At that rate of progress, he said, there would be a Labor government in power by 1926.

Just a Reminder.

When it's real morning news that you desire, just remember that there's no newspaper circulated in Upper Michigan for morning readers, which has as complete and authentic news of the state, the nation, and the world, as has The Milwaukee Journal's New Morning Edition.

MICHIGAN BEER LAW IS SOUGHT

Petitions to Be Circulated to Care for Proposed U. S. Amendment, Belief.

LANSING, Oct. 25.—Opponents of prohibition plan to start a drive soon in Michigan to prepare the way for the return of light wines and beer, it became known Tuesday, when an attorney whose name is withheld, requested the attorney general's department to approve a form of petition initiating a constitutional amendment. The petition for the constitutional amendment is based upon the assumption that congressional action legalizing the sale of light wines and beer will be taken. In that event these alcoholic beverages still would be barred in Michigan until such time as the state constitution was amended so as to permit the sale of light wines and beers.

Congressional Action Foreseen.

It is to prepare for favorable congressional action and to make the sale of alcoholic beverages in the state effective as soon as possible under federal law, that the proposed state constitutional amendment is planned. Friends of the proposed amendment believe that support will be given it because of a proposal to tax the manufacture and sale of such beverages. The proceeds would be applied to ward retiring outstanding soldier bonus and state highway bonds and toward the maintenance of county and state highways.

Further support is evidently expected in that the manufacture or sale of alcoholic beverages in the state would be legal for home use only, and the legislature could prohibit by law "the consumption of such beverages on or within any saloon or bar."

Constitution Change Possible.

The petition could be circulated under authority of Section 2 of Article 17 of the state constitution. It would propose to amend Section 11 of Article 16 so that the proposed action would read:

"Beverages containing alcohol that do not exceed the amounts that are or shall be permitted by statutes of the United States of America may hereafter be manufactured and sold in this state for home use only. The legislature shall by law prohibit the consumption of such beverages or within any saloon or bar, and shall levy a reasonable tax upon each gallon of alcoholic beverages so manufactured and sold, the proceeds of such taxation shall, as the legislature may direct, be used for the retirement of outstanding soldier bonus and state highway bonds or other state indebtedness, and for the construction of and maintenance of county and state highways."

The proposal could be put before the electors of the state at the general election in November, 1924.

Black currants are little grown in this country, but are extensively cultivated in Canada and Europe. Some darters are only an inch and a half long and are the smallest spiny-rayed fish known.

Actress Demands $2,000 For Effort to Lose 50 Pounds

DETROIT—The efforts of Sadie Brown, actress, to reduce her weight 50 pounds in order to play the leading role in a motion picture to be produced by the Detroit Motion Picture Company are worth $2,000 to her, she declares in a suit against the company.

Miss Brown, whose stage name is Simmons, says that on April 25 she signed a contract to take the lead in "Mary," the picture to be produced by the company. She was to get $200 a week for at least eight weeks, the work was to be completed within six months, and she was to reduce her weight 50 pounds by going on a prescribed diet, she declares. Frank I. Talbot, president and general manager of the company, signed the contract with her and prepared the diet, she says.

Except for a $75 advance, however, she never got any money, in spite of her weight-reducing efforts, and Talbot told her she could not play the role. The $2,000 is to cover the salary she was to get, expenses, and the trouble of reducing.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 25.—A call for a national conference of the National Progressive party was issued by Roy M. Harrop, temporary chairman, here Tuesday. The conference will be held here November 20-22. Delegates are expected from thirty states.

A committee probably will be appointed at the conference to try to induce Henry Ford to accept the Progressive nomination for president, Harrop said.

Among those who have accepted invitations to address the conference are William Randolph Hearst, Marcus Johnson and Henrik Shipstead, Minnesota senators, and J. A. Hopkins, chairman of the "Committee of Forty-Eight." Samuel Untermyer and Henry Ford also have been invited to speak.

FARM WOMEN GIVE GRAPHIC DETAILS OF LIFE IN ILLINOIS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 26.—One woman in Illinois plows a corn field eight hours a day and then finds her greatest recreation in "putting the kids to bed," while another lists as a recreation "taking a bath," according to answers to a questionnaire sent Illinois housewives by the Home Economic Association assisted by the Household science department of the Illinois Farmers' Institute.

From the plowing woman to the mother who, at the end of a hard day sought her pleasure in "listening to the music of the birds," the answers tell a vivid story of life in Illinois homes. The home maker, extolled by others in song and story, usually has written her own epic, officials of the economics association believe.

The purpose of the questionnaire was to gather information on which to base a practical schedule of household work, giving woman an equalized ratio of work and recreation.

The women were asked the size of the family, number of boys and girls, names of father and mother, their ages, whether there were any relatives living in the home dependent on the family, how much time was devoted to household work, how much to recreation, and what sort of labor saving apparatus was in the home. The questionnaire was accompanied by seven blank pages on which the women were to put down their schedule of work for each day in the week.

The answers showed that there is greater sharing of work and play in the farm home than in the city home. That is, country women work more and play more than do city women. It was also shown that in the homes of the high grade workingman there was a fine cooperation between husband and wife and children. The size of the home averaged eight rooms, although it varied from two to eighteen. One-third of the homes reported no pantries, and one-third had no baths.

Other facts brought out were: Forty per cent of the women carried the water they used from wells, while about 69 per cent had running water. One half of the homes were lighted by electricity, one-tenth by gas and one-third by lamps. Fuel for cooking showed many combinations, but wood was more used than any other fuel, then came coal and oil, coal in winter and oil in summer, and in one home only corn cobs were used. Sixty-two per cent of the homes had furnaces and 39 stoves.

Power driving washing machines were in 53 per cent of the homes, and one-fifth of them had hand power machines. Thirty-seven per cent had no washers at all.

Ten to fifteen minutes was the average time spent in eating a meal. Forty-five to sixty minutes spent at table brought an apology.

The versatility of the home maker was shown by one woman who spent her time as follows: "Mending, auto top, one hour; baseball, 30 minutes; stocking, 15 minutes."

As for recreation, there were picnics and auto trips and club meetings. Nearly everyone read something.

Care of children was listed as work by some, women and as recreation by others.

NORTHWESTERN'S SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Fittingly Celebrated in Chicago Wednesday; Escanabans Attending.

The seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway System was celebrated in Chicago on Wednesday. Invitations had been extended to employees who had service records of fifty or more years, and over two hundred of these were in attendance.
 Those who attended from this city are enthusiastic in their praise of the manner in which they were entertained, as guests of the Northwestern Railway Company and memories of the pleasant occasion will linger with them for many a day and be recalled in joyful recollection in years to come.
 Those in charge of the affair planned carefully and with due consideration for the enjoyment of their guests. The program opened with registration at the Northwestern depot early Wednesday morning and from that time on there was not a dull moment in the day's doings. After registration was completed dinner was served, followed by auto tours, taking in many of the most important points of interest in Chicago.
 The big event of the day was the banquet served at the Sherman House in the evening. Following the banquet, many of the invited guests were called upon for short addresses, giving their experiences in railroading in early days and much enjoyment was derived therefrom. Among those called upon was Thomas Green of this city and he responded in his usual genial manner and recited many interesting experiences.
 A novel and most interesting feature of the banquet was the manner in which the ice cream was served at its conclusion. A miniature engine representing in every detail the first pioneer engine used by the Northwestern Railway Company, mounted in ice formation, was used to carry the ice cream into the dining room, and each portion of ice cream served to each individual guest was also in the form of the pioneer engine. This striking feature of the program serves to illustrate the extent to which the committee in charge of the anniversary celebration went in their efforts to entertain and amuse their employees of so many years' service. A group picture of the over two hundred invited guests of the company was also taken and presented to each, a souvenir which will be very highly prized by them.
 Those who attended the anniversary celebration from this city were David Burns, James J. Coworan, James R. Green and Thomas Green. Many high officials of the Northwestern System were in attendance, including President Finley, who also delivered addresses at the banquet.
 The Misses Calla Remington and Rose Settle, both of Nahma, were visitors in this city yesterday.

ADAM MICHÉAU IS ACQUITTED

State Fails to "Make Out Case" Against Gladstone Man.

Adam Michéau of Gladstone was acquitted of the charge of having been responsible for the death, April 22, of John Ekblad, also of that city, when Judge Drossel, in circuit court, directed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty."

The judge's action was in response to a motion by Herbert J. Rindholm of defense counsel on the ground that the state had not presented evidence to show that Michéau had contributed to the fall down the stairs leading to the Michéau home, which resulted in Ekblad's death, later, in an Escanaba hospital.

Witnesses called in the case to Michéau's return home from Iron Mountain with a party of relatives of Mrs. Michéau, of his having found John Ekblad and Mrs. Michéau alone in the flat together with the door locked, of Michéau ordering Ekblad to leave. Ekblad, they testified, started down the stairs and after taking two or three steps, lost his balance and plunged headlong to the bottom. He was picked up later in a dying condition.

After an investigation of the affair, charges of first degree murder were placed against Michéau. The case attracted considerable attention in Gladstone and vicinity.
