

WALTON WAITING FOR HIS ARREST TODAY

FAILS TO GET COURT ORDER; WILL NOW GO TO HIGH COURT

Senate Expects to Impeach Others, Is Declaration.

Supreme Court Commissioner, Former Friend of Walton, Said to Be Next in Line.

Oklahoma City, Nov. 21.—Application of J. C. Walton for a restraining order to set aside the verdict of the senate impeachment court was dismissed today by Judge Cotteral, of the United States district court here.

Walton announced an appeal to the United States supreme court would be made at once. The dismissal of his application for the restraining order was upon application of George S. Short, attorney general.

Walton appeared at the court house at noon today and announced that he expected to be indicted by the county grand jury and intended to be ready to submit to immediate arrest.

He said he did not know what the expected indictment would charge.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 21.—Opposing his right to retain the governorship, J. C. Walton went into federal court today to renew his plea for government intervention in the proceedings of the senate court by which he was ousted from office.

The deposed executive seeks a restraining injunction to set aside the action of the senate court, and restore him to office on the grounds that he was denied the right of a fair trial.

He charges that a majority of members of the court were Klux Klan men who acted in furtherance of a conspiracy between the Klan and the state legislature to remove him from office.

Should the court again rule against him he has announced he will appeal to the United States supreme court. Attorney General Short will appear as attorney for the legislature, and state officials including Governor Trapp, who is one of the defendants named in Walton's suit.

The attorney general declared early today that he would file a motion to oppose the former governor's action as soon as the hearing begins.

Impeach Others. Meanwhile the state legislature prepared to go ahead today with plans for a general "clean-up" of the administration and to consider at an early date anti-Klux Klan legislation, for which efforts the special session was called by Walton while he was governor.

The board of managers of the lower house which prosecuted Walton expected to file in the house today a bill of impeachment against Charles R. Ruth, supreme court commissioner, and an intimate friend of the governor. He will be charged with trafficking in executive clemency.

Cave-in Causes Death of Two in Fond du Lac, Wis.

(By the Associated Press) FOND DU LAC, Wis., Nov. 21.—Two employees of the city were buried by a cave-in this morning while they were digging a trench for a water main. The men were dead when dug out by local firemen. Workmen who were near the accident said the ground caved when a train passing nearby caused the ground to vibrate.

RAIL MEN SEE SAFETY FIRST PICTURES AND HEAR TALKS

Large Crowd Turned Out at Strand This Morning.

Noon Luncheon Was Held at the Delta Hotel; Richards Urges Men to Be More Careful.

The moving pictures arranged by the Chicago & Northwestern railroad under the direction of Ralph C. Richards, head of the safety bureau of the company, were shown at the Strand this morning to a good sized crowd of railroad men and their wives. Many expressed a regret that the school children could not have seen the pictures for many of the lessons taught were particularly for the benefit of the young folks.

The pictures were made at Sioux City, Iowa, and are most realistic. Automobiles thrown from a grade crossing by a fast passenger train, careless people who only looked in one direction; other still more careless who attempted to pass under or over a train standing on a crossing, were all vividly portrayed, with the attending results of carelessness.

Automobiles played an important part in the lesson taught and it would not be a bad idea if the company would allow one of the local theatres to show the pictures at least once or twice a month. Mr. Richards said this morning that while the pictures were being made at Sioux City he was in constant dread that some one was going to get badly injured in doing the stunts for the camera man.

No one was really injured, however, but Mr. Richards said that the actors took some awful chances in making a dash across the track in front of a train.

At noon today the chairman of the local safety committee, local railroad officials and others had luncheon at the Delta Hotel, where there were further talks by Mr. Richards and the committee members.

Yesterday the picture was shown in Menominee and in that city the school children could attend the performance.

Sunday School Meet to End This Evening

Sunday School workers of the city, who have been attending the institute at the First Presbyterian church held under the auspices of the Michigan Sunday School Council of Religious Education, reported last night that the affair is proving one of the most profitable they have ever attended.

Rev. Frank H. Miner, director of adult department work; C. N. Wright, director of young people's work, and Miss Irene Rockenbach, head of the children's division, are the leaders. The program each day includes a Bible study hour at 4:30 o'clock, led by a local pastor, followed by three division conferences, each in charge of one of the state specialists. A lecture at night by one of the experts completes the daily schedule.

Last night's picture was by Mr. Wright. Today, Rev. H. W. Staver of the Presbyterian church conducted the Bible period and the night address will be by Rev. Miner.

The conference will close with tonight's meeting.

The institute is the first of a series to be sponsored and directed in the Upper Peninsula, by the state association.

Charles Saxon of Iron Mountain, road master of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, arrived last night in the city on business.

$1000 Jewel Robbery Early This Morning

JAMES CLANCEY SUBJECT OF AN EDITORIAL IN CHICAGO POST

Chicago Newspaper Says His Ideas Are Right.

Former Escanaba Attorney Has Made National Reputation as Reformer of Present Laws.

James Clancey, formerly of this city, is springing into national prominence through the medium of a book he has written on the reformation of the American laws and by speeches he has delivered in many parts of the country. The Chicago Post has the following editorial regarding his efforts which will be of interest to his local friends.

Why Justice Fails.

The long campaign which has been waged by intelligent and progressive leaders of the American bar to obtain a radical reform in the court procedure of the country has broken out in a new field for education and enlightenment.

The Chicago Kivans Club yesterday listed in an address by J. H. Clancey of Detroit, Mich., himself a lawyer and an ardent champion of the cause which, in purely lawyer hands, and in a congress largely composed of lawyers, has made so little headway.

Mr. Clancey believes that the only hope for the modernization of court practice in the United States lies in arousing the business community to a realization of what it is doing in America in frustrated justice and in needless litigation to cling to the existing system.

The Detroit man put his case in forcible language for his business audience. There was no legalistic hectoring about the basic non-implementation of the antedated philosophy which cumber the needless pleadings characteristic of American procedure.

Much of his eloquence was directed against these pleadings which he declared had been abandoned in Great Britain and in every country in the world but America. They stand in the way of prompt justice, of justice prompt or belated often, he declared, and 99 per cent of all fees paid to lawyers, according to his statement, is charged to them.

In Great Britain he asserted where this archaic system no longer obtained, a judge tried an average of three cases in one day, and in an American judge.

One system of pleadings is, in essence, a simple, direct, concise, logical, easily intelligible, unambiguous, leading system, with the least possible verbiage in the way of a shield against a witness, and should be wiped off the earth as a wicked nightmare. This was Mr. Clancey's model for the future of practice in the courts of our country.

The Detroit man gave up his practice three years ago in order to devote himself to the task of arousing the laymen of America to the importance of reform in this field. With a group of men of like belief he organized the Boythorn Institute in Detroit, named after the great English jurist and philosopher, who expressed a profound influence upon the thought of his day and inspired the reforms which resulted in giving England what Mr. Clancey calls "the best system of pleadings in the world."

It is time business men and laymen generally came to the aid of enlightened lawyers in pressing upon congress as need for American reform in legal procedure. Mr. Clancey is doing a most valuable work in educating the public to a sense of its interest in the matter.

The cookies will sell for 25 cents a dozen. Orders will be taken. Call up the Scouts or order them through the Scout office phone, number 130.

A number of cases here already are awaiting their personal attention. It was said yesterday by Legion officers.

The custom of wearing an amulet as a protection against evil is common amongst all classes in Japan.

GOV. AND MRS. OSBORN AGREE TO SEPARATE

There Was No Thought of Divorce by the Couple.

Private Arrangements as to Division of Property Was Reached and Both Are Satisfied.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., Nov. 21.—Reports of a divorce between former Governor and Mrs. Chase S. Osborn of this city, which have been circulating freely during the past day or two, were characterized by Mr. Osborn, upon his return from his Duck Island camp this morning, as utterly without foundation.

He stated, however, that a private contract of separation has been entered into between himself and his wife.

Mrs. Osborn is now in Battle Creek undergoing treatment for a minor ailment and will make a Mediterranean trip this winter, according to her present plans. It is understood, Mr. Osborn leaves the Sault in a day or two to fill several speaking engagements, after which he will go to his winter camp at Poulin, Georgia.

A Formal Statement.

He said this morning: "There is nothing in the domestic affairs of Mrs. Osborn and myself that legitimately concerns the public. There is not much change from the way we have lived for more than forty years. Mrs. Osborn is a fine and refined woman. I am a good deal of a barbarian. She likes and adorns civilization. I have lived and explored and studied and written in the wild places of the earth and still do. In addition I am an exacting disciplinarian and no doubt often unreasonable.

"She has reared a fine family. The children are all past thirty, years of age and are playing good parts" in life.

"I have yielded to Mrs. Osborn's desire to experiment in the direction of more free self-determination. To this end there has been executed a private contract of separation. I have assigned to her more than half of all we possessed. I have divided the remainder with the children and relatives and friends, and the public until I can, essentially a poor man, but it is as I would be and I am happy.

"I still consider it my duty and pleasure to do anything for Mrs. Osborn and the children that they will permit. There is nothing to cry about nor even to deplore. I shall continue to live in the woods and Mrs. Osborn will live the urban life that suits her.

No Grounds for Divorce. When asked concerning the rumors of divorce Mr. Osborn declared that there "cannot be one; there are no grounds for one; there is no desire for one on the part of either."

"The wild stories of women entanglements are without the faintest foundation," Mr. Osborn's statement continued. "My life has been too busy for me to pursue bellhops. And I am busier now than ever before. I hope to earn the right to live as long as I have lived and in some measure repay society for what it has lavished upon me beyond my due."

'CONSULT' WAS CAUSE OF THE FRENCH DELAY IN NEW NOTE

Cabinet Declared They Could Not "Consult" the Allies.

Meeting Late Today May Bring an End to Rather Tense European Situation, Is Now Said.

(By the Associated Press) PARIS, Nov. 21.—Lord Curzon, the British ambassador, received instructions from London this morning regarding the note the allies are to send to Germany.

It was announced that the council will meet this afternoon. One little word "consult" is what has been delaying final action by the council since Sunday. It appears from today's developments, the decision reached by the ambassador on Sunday 4:30 that the note to Germany would set forth the allied demands that the military clauses of the peace treaty be complied with and if Germany failed to satisfy that demand the allies would "consult" as to what action the situation called for.

Objections to that word were raised at the French cabinet meeting Sunday afternoon. It is declared that the necessity they imposed on France to "consult" with the allies every time some question arose was just what Germany was relying on that to step forward would be made. If after making the concession to the British government that elimination of any restriction penalties, the hands of the French government would be tied.

YONKERS MAYOR SAID TO HAVE KILLED HIMSELF

Police However Say They Know of No Reason for Him Committing His Rash Act.

(By the Associated Press) YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Mayor Walter Taussig was found this morning in the garage back of his home, a revolver near him, and was taken to a hospital where he died from a bullet wound believed by the police to have been self-inflicted. The mayor, who was reported to be awfully ill, was the vice-president of the American Chain Company and was interested in a number of other industrial enterprises. The police admitted that they had learned no reason why the mayor should have killed himself.

Boy's Suicide Bares Smashed Love Affair

DETROIT, Nov. 21.—The black and white romance of George E. Ouley, 19, who shot and killed himself at Cornell university, and Bernice Wannerling, 20-year-old Detroit girl, came to light here Tuesday.

The two, married at Ann Arbor, Mich., last July, were separated by their parents immediately after the ceremony, the girl said.

The young newweds were not permitted to communicate with each other, according to the girl's story. The police were told that the girl's father, Mr. Ouley, had been in Detroit for some time.

Lawrence Hartwig was given a first place yesterday afternoon in the recital finals before the High School Assembly. The places of the other contestants, Margaret Gier's and Robert Crozier, were not mentioned. The prizes were given by Mr. Hartwig.

PLATE GLASS IS BROKEN TO GAIN ENTRY TO STORE

Blomstrom & Petersen Lose Assortment of Watches, Rings.

After Window Was Shattered, Thieves Did Not Go into Store, But Took What They Could Reach.

Some time between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning the plate glass window in the west entrance of the Blomstrom & Petersen jewelry store in the Delft block was smashed and watches, rings and other jewelry taken which, as near as can be estimated today, will amount to about $1,000. A large amount of sterling silver knives, forks and spoons were not taken by the robbers.

The window was filled with an exceptionally fine assortment of gifts suitable for Christmas and many people stopped last night to admire the display. Tableware was on the bottom of the window and then above that was a glass shelf suspended by chains. The shelf was used to display the watches and rings.

When the window was broken, the robbers found that by reaching in, they could pull out most of the valuables and apparently being satisfied with what they had, did not make an attempt to enter the store, which would have been an easy matter, or perhaps they did not dare take a chance for fear of police interruption.

Officer Peterson, who was on the beat, says he went by the store about 2 o'clock this morning and at that time everything was all right. He says he has been on duty to cover his beat and he says it was just about an hour when he returned and found the window broken. It is assumed by the police that the robber or robbers had been watching the police clock him and learn about how much time they would have to get away with the job.

When he discovered the broken window the police officer called up the home of Victor Blomstrom, a former member of the firm, who happened to live nearest to the store and Mr. Blomstrom dressed and met the officer in a few minutes.

It was found that everything had been taken but the table service. There seems to be no clues, according to the police, but they are at work on the case and have sent out telegrams to towns within a large radius, giving a description of the articles stolen as far as possible.

The window contained a great many small silver and gold gifts in addition to the rings and watches, but just exactly the number and value will be hard to estimate correctly until the entire stock has been checked up.

Boxes in which the higher priced watches were packed were found this afternoon in a coal car in the railroad yard. This would indicate that whoever robbed the store had gone down to the railroad yard, possibly with the thought of catching a train out of the city.

Miss Ness Home For a Visit With Her Many Friends

Miss Lillian Ness, who has been connected with the Salvation Army for a number of years, is home on a brief visit, having arrived in the city yesterday morning, accompanied by Miss Pettigrew, who is a close personal friend. During her years of service in the army the attractive young woman has been abroad as well as in many parts of the United States.

She came here from Everett, Wash., and previous to her service in that city was in Omaha and cities of Texas. Her many friends will welcome her back to her home town and regret that she can only remain here for a few days.

Lawrence Hartwig was given a first place yesterday afternoon in the recital finals before the High School Assembly. The places of the other contestants, Margaret Gier's and Robert Crozier, were not mentioned. The prizes were given by Mr. Hartwig.

GOV. GROESBECK SILENT ON THIRD TERM QUESTION

Fails to Comment on Welsh's Guarded Prediction in Grand Rapids Speech.

GRAND RAPIDS, Nov. 21.—In the midst of Governor Alex. J. Groesbeck's address before members of the Nocturnal Club at Grand Rapids, Monday, there arose again the familiar question of a third term. He left his audience speculating as to whether he has not definitely determined to retire from office at the conclusion of his present term.

Sees Successor's Task Easier.

The governor did not directly refer to this question.

I don't consider the tasks which have confronted our governing body completed, or that there will be a great deal more to do," he declared. "But when I go through the discussion of your state will be much better than it is now."

Verifying the statement which says that the governor has decided to retire from office at the end of his present term, it is noted that he has not yet made any public statement on the subject.

It was understood that the governor's silence on the subject was due to the fact that he has not yet decided on his course.

involving $26,000,000 a year, in such a manner that it will soon show the public what we did was right.

"What is our problem? We need $15,000,000 yearly for these purposes. We have about 800,000 passenger automobiles in the state which means a payment on the average of about $18 an automobile and a just tax on commercial trucks and automobiles. We are now taxing the horse-power of the car which has not a thing to do with it."

Reapportionment Seen Certain.

On the question of reapportionment, Groesbeck said he is not calling the legislature together because he is from Wayne county, but "because the constitution provides that it shall be done in 1925, and because I am the only person who can carry out that part of the constitution. After the assembly, the obligation rests with the legislature and when it is through I believe the legislators will have discharged that obligation."

Urges Coolidge Support.

Governor Groesbeck, in an interview published by the Grand Rapids Herald Tuesday, said:

"I do not think to say now that I believe it is Mr. Coolidge's duty to give support to President Coolidge in his second term. I believe some are not doing so in the forthcoming campaign, and I don't believe to say I don't consider it my duty to say so. I believe it is my duty to say so."

The governor said it will not be his duty to give Mr. Coolidge any support in his second term.

SEPTEMBER SALES OF TOBACCO IN FRANCE CREATE NEW RECORD

PARIS, Nov. 21.—The proceeds of the sale of tobacco in France during September totalled 147,000,000 francs, the highest figure ever recorded. During the first nine months of the current year the total receipts of the French government's tobacco monopoly amounted to 1,280,500,000 francs, as compared with 1,181,500,000 francs for the corresponding period in 1922.

CAVALRY REGIMENTS READY FOR SERVICE AT MOMENTS NOTICE

Constant Training Makes them Fit to Go Out to Any Part of World for Active Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Readiness for an active service and morale among American cavalry regiments has shown distinct improvement "due to the very devoted efforts of the officers and non-commissioned officers," Major General Willard Holbrook, chief of cavalry, declared in his annual report made public today. General Holbrook added, however, the "regrettable observation" that there has been marked deterioration of cavalry mounts due to the advancing age of troop horses and lack of necessary remounts.

The morale of the cavalry "can be characterized, without qualification, as high," General Holbrook said. There was conspicuous spirit during the year in the first cavalry division posted on the border which had attracted attention of the Inspector General, he said. The Inspector General also noted "visible improvement during the year in all border cavalry."

General Holbrook said the work of the cavalry division had already proved this to be an excellent training school for officers and demonstrated that the division occupied "a conspicuous place in our scheme of preparedness."

Among recommendations to the Secretary of War, General Holbrook included one urging the purchase of sufficient cavalry remounts "to replace the shortage which will exist July 1, 1924."

DETROIT POLICE WOMEN WILL GET FIGHT LESSONS

Jiu Jitsu Seems to be the Thing Best Suited for Their Protection, It Is Said.

DETROIT, Nov. 21.—Detroit policemen are being taught how to fight their own battles. Hereafter it may not be necessary for a policeman to call a brother officer if her prisoner becomes hostile. A little twist of the wrist, and the prisoner becomes docile and will walk willingly to the "wagon."

The recent attack upon a police woman, who was forcibly ejected from a house where she had gone to get a runaway girl, has impressed upon the police department the necessity of training women officers in the art of self-defense. As a result, a course of instruction in jiu jitsu, the Japanese wrestling science, has been started at the police armory.

Sergeant William Snowden, in charge of the course, says that when he gets through, the policemen will be able to take care of themselves. "Jiu jitsu is the ideal defense," Sergeant Snowden said. "By its use any hold can be broken, and a person of comparatively little strength can render a more powerful one helpless."

Forecast International Conferences by Radio

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The latest of the many forecasts as to what radio may accomplish in the near future comes from Lord Barnham, who recently has been considering the question of broadcasting in the direction of the postmaster general.

Imperial conferences, at which the empire's premiers gather in London to discuss weighty matters, may be held some day through the air, Lord Barnham prophesies; the members of far-away parliaments could listen in when the prime minister of England wanted to deliver an important speech.

"Why not?" asks Lord Barnham, "when radio has no apparent limitations and frozen-in Arctic explorers hear wireless concerts at a distance which a few years ago seemed unbelievable?"

ARGENTINE (KAN.) HOLDUPS OBTAIN $20,000 IN CASH. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 21.—Two officials of the Argentine State Bank were held up by two bandits yesterday and robbed of $20,000 in cash which was being taken to the bank to meet a pay roll of the Santa Fe Railroad company. Not a shot was fired. The bandits drove their large touring car alongside the bank employes' automobile, rapped on the door with the butt of a revolver and forced them to hand over the bag of money.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK. Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wylet's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts. Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of salt water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

MAN BLAMES GIRL, 15, FOR FLIGHT TO MICHIGAN

STURGIS, Mich., Nov. 21. That Thelma Johnson, 15, pleaded with Hiram Foster, 28, to run away with her to Michigan from their home in Greensburg, O., will be the defense of the latter when 18 is taken before federal officials at Grand Rapids. A letter purporting to have been written by the child to Foster and begging him to take her away from her father's confinement, was produced by the prisoner's attorney. The two were arrested while attempting to escape in a canoe on Fawn River.

Of the millions of passengers carried on the British railways last year, only five were killed in accidents.
