

Just Between Ourselves

HE IS RIGHT. Thursday afternoon a local merchant came to The Mirror office to talk about a little advertising. He said he had not been doing much, but believed it was a good thing. He looked over our circulation; watched our big newspaper press; counted the boys as they left the office; took out his pencil and done some figuring and said he believed the right thing for him to do would be to send a message to the people he wants to reach and send it every night. Before he left he bought a good sized amount of advertising—and is going to use it in good big chunks.

Escanaba is too large a city for merchants to depend upon selling all the goods they want to sell by a window display. It needs advertising—not a big page once a week, but a message conveying the latest information about their stocks and prices, every day. We believe Escanaba people have enough pride in their home city to do their buying in Escanaba, but they want to know WHAT they can buy and where. Who would want to patronize a restaurant that did not have a menu?

KEEP MY NAME OUT.

A few nights ago a local "Red Hot Sport" had a run-in with the police and was arrested, locked up and later given a fine for being loaded up with fuddle fluid. When he met a Mirror reporter he said, "I don't want my name in your paper."

The reporter, who observed that the R. H. S. had on a vest that was a valid reason for calling out the reserves, inquired what he had done to deserve to have his name in the paper. He replied that he had been fined for getting drunk. When he was informed by the reporter that his action, what he did or did not do, was not of sufficient importance to the public to take up space in any local newspaper, or probably any other place on earth cared one pin where he went or what he did, he was greatly hurt and said he had as much right to have his name in the paper as anyone else.

Most of the people in his class have sold themselves the idea that they fill some kind of a place in the community, when as a matter of fact their police troubles, comings and goings and other activities have absolutely no interest to the public.

WISDOM FROM EDISON.

Edison, inventor of the questionaire among other things, was subjected to one himself on the occasion of his 77th birthday. It is always worth while to see what the most perfectly functioning mind in America thinks about things, even when it is hard to agree with him. Here are his rapid-fire answers to reporters' questions: "When coal and oil are gone, we shall get power from the sun, wind, tides and vegetable growth." "We shall probably never communicate with Mars." "Surgical rejuvenation of men is possible only in a small way." "The greatest fields for the application of electricity in the future are farm power and transportation." "The fight between fundamentalists and modernists in the church is the transition from myth to fact." "The modern young woman is all right, though her actions are foolish." "The percentage of fine people in the world is gradually increasing." "This last judgment is particularly reassuring. Edison is still an optimist. Thoroughly sane people usually are."

UNFAIR AND UNCHIVALROUS.

A Chicago newspaper, commenting on the tremendous increase in the consumption of cigars, says: "Milady is smoking more cigarettes." Indeed this paper practically charges "milady" with smoking during the year 1923 more than seven billion cigarettes. While it is true that ladies are smoking caracats today in larger numbers than ever before, it is very doubtful whether they smoked seven billion cigarettes last year. Increase in consumption of cigars as well as in consumption of everything else has to be accounted for in a more comprehensive manner. Consumption depends on increase of population, in the first place. Then consumption of one article increases as that of other articles decrease. Fewer cigars were smoked in 1923 than in the previous year. Again, there was larger exportation of all tobacco products in 1923 than in 1922. If all statistics were given careful consideration it would be very doubtful whether the actual increase in the home consumption of cigars has been as large as it appears to be. Under such circumstances it is unfair to charge any considerable increase of consumption to "milady."

INSULAR CUSTOMS.

Things are about equal. The tall men can see better, while the short men dance cheek to cheek better.

If you think your work is hard, how about the bank clerks who count other people's money all day long?

DAUGHERTY PROBE ON NEXT WEEK

A. Mitchell Palmer Testifies Before Committee

DENIES HE IS A PARTNER OF MR. ZEVELEY

Mr. Palmer Is a Quaker and Did Not Take Usual Oath.

For Attorney General Admits That He Was Retained by the Washington Newspaper Man.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—A Mitchell Palmer, attorney general during the Wilson administration, testified before the oil committee today, the circumstances of his retention as attorney for Edward B. McLean, the publisher of the Washington Post, in the oil inquiry.

He denied that J. W. Zevely, counsel for Harry S. Sinclair, is his partner, as suggested in a McLean telegram.

He added, however, that Zevely "has been an old friend of mine," and that Zevely had outlined to him a couple of months ago the series of facts in the oil inquiry. Zevely asked his opinion, he said, as to whether Sinclair and Fall could be compelled to answer questions before the committee.

Palmer gave it as his opinion that they could be called before the committee and compelled to testify. He said he had not seen Fall "for years," and denied he was to look after the interests of "the man at Washington Park," as was indicated in one of the telegrams sent to Mr. McLean at Palm Beach by John Major, in Washington.

Further details of the position taken by Edward B. McLean towards the oil inquiry were given by the oil committee by A. Mitchell Palmer.

Called to the stand as such as the committee met, Mr. Palmer, a Quaker, affirmed his intention of telling the truth instead of taking the oath, as it has been administered to other witnesses.

Senator Dill, democrat of Washington, took up the examination. "I have been a friend or acquaintance of E. B. McLean for some years," Mr. Palmer said, "but in this case I became his attorney."

Continuing, he stated, "John Major, an employee of McLean's, came to me on December 26 or 27, showing me a telegram from Mr. McLean as his authority for retaining me."

The telegram and Major's reply were recently put into the public record and were again produced.

Major refers to Zevely in the telegram as your partner. Is that true?" asked Senator Dill.

"It is not," Mr. Palmer said. He denied in reply to other questions that he was attorney for Fall or Sinclair.

INSURGENTS OF HOUSE AGREE TO WITH LONGWORTH

Some Speculation in Washington on President's Attitude. Many Think He Will Not Accept the Longworth Plan and Veto Bill If It Is Passed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—House republican insurgents formally agreed today to support the Longworth compromise in the revenue bill. Representative Nelson of Wisconsin, leader of the group, said that practically all of the 17 insurgents who voted for the former plan would support the substitute bill to be offered by Representative Longworth, Ohio, the republican leader.

The renunciation of the republican vote, it was said, would force the rejection of the former plan on the final vote this afternoon.

While the House leaders were in consultation, there were indications of the White House that President Coolidge might be preparing to publicly support the Longworth plan.

PETER ARNOLD RETIRES FROM HIS THROTTLE

Today was "retiring day" on the Peninsula division. The Superintendent, C. E. Helmer, closed a long career of railroading tonight. Engineer Phil Sullivan arrived this afternoon on his last trip and tonight Peter Arnold, of this city, who reached the age of 79 years a few days ago, will come into the round house from a trip on the Fitch branch and will never again pull a train. Mr. Arnold has been in the service for many years and will now join the band of "old rich" and take life easy as a reward, and a just one for many long years of faithful service.

SUES BOK!

Frank Henderson has brought an action for damages against Edward B. Helmer, alleging that if the plan submitted by him had been fairly considered it would have been selected as the best one. He demands the $10,000 price offered and expenses which he says is the value of the publicity received, and which would have accrued to him, he claims, if his plan had been adopted.

RETIREMENT OF C. E. HELMER IS REAL SURPRISE

Retires as Superintendent of the Peninsula Division Today.

G. H. Floyd of the Galena Division Will Succeed Him; Started as brakeman on Freight.

C. E. Helmer, superintendent of the Peninsula division of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, will today retire from the active management of the railroad and retire to a position after forty years of service. Announcement of his retirement were posted in the general offices here yesterday and came as a real surprise to the men.

G. H. Floyd, who has been superintendent of the Galena division, succeeds Mr. Helmer.

For some time it has been rumored by Mr. Helmer that he might resign, when the forty years were up, for his health, but all that he would wish and he feels that relief from the constant responsibility of being at the head of a division would give him an opportunity to regain his one-time vim and energy.

Having started in railroading as a brakeman on a freight, Mr. Helmer rose step by step through all the different departments, thereby knowing what to expect from his employees and also pretty well of what they would expect from him, therefore he always had a loyal army of employees willing to cooperate at any and all times, knowing that they were going to get a fair deal from the "old man."

While he has not decided just what he will do to pass his time away from now on, it is not unlikely that the first thing will be a good rest at his home, before he makes any important decision as to his future moves.

RESOLUTION TO START PROBE IS UP TODAY

Controversy Over the Appointment of Committee Opens. Senator Robertson Says He Believes Effort Will Be Made to "Pack" the Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—The resolution for the investigation of the administration of Henry M. Daugherty, as attorney general, was taken up today by the senate and its adoption is expected before night and the inquiry will begin next week.

A controversy at once developed over naming the investigating committee. Senator Wheeler of Montana, author of the resolution, proposed that five senators, three republicans and two democrats, be elected by the senate. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, countered with a proposal for the appointment of the committee in the customary manner by the senate presiding officer.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, countered with a proposal for the appointment of the committee in the customary manner by the senate presiding officer.

Senator Robertson of Arkansas, the democratic leader, supported the plan for election of the special committee by the senate declaring, "it has been openly declared that efforts were contemplated to 'pack' the committee."

He added that he believed that Senator Cummings of Iowa, the president pro tem, did not desire to name the committee.

"The traditions of the senate," Senator Lodge argued, "required that the presiding officer would receive from every senator personal respect and not be curtailed in his customary privilege of naming members of special committees."

Ex-Service Men Endorse Burns For Commission

The record for efficiency and judgment made by C. J. Burns in the past two years as a member of the city council, prompted a large group of ex-service men of this city to endorse him for reelection for city councilman at the coming election.

At a meeting held last night plans were laid to put on an active campaign for Mr. Burns. The fact that he will have the whole-hearted support of nearly seven hundred ex-service men of this city, together with the support of a great many people who appreciate his part in the service rendered to the community by the present administration will make Mr. Burns one of the most formidable candidates in the race.

While groups and tickets are being formed here and there, there are some who may wonder why the ex-service men have taken an active interest in local politics. The local veterans feel that the man who fought for this country have in some measure at least the right to determine how and by whom it shall be governed, and that it is just as much a patriotic duty to see that the right men get into office as it is to fight for their country when the emergency arises.

The sentiment of the meeting last night was that Mr. Burns merited the endorsement of the ex-service men and also of the public at large. The evidence revealed made by him in connection with the present administration is deserving of support. Mr. Burns is at present the only ex-service man who applies to this office.

Son of John Freed in Hurley Theft Case

HURLEY.—The dismissal of the case of John Aspinwall, son of County Judge P. H. Aspinwall, charged by Hector McGillis, a saloonkeeper, with the theft of $1,200 to $1,500 last September, was ordered by Judge Griff Thomas Tuesday afternoon.

Prosecutor W. B. Foster asked dismissal of the case, but in doing so said, "McGillis in making the complaint did so with honest convictions that Aspinwall took the money and there are some aspects that justify the belief."

In the hearing McGillis admitted selling liquor, that he operated a still, harbored criminals in his saloon, and other charges made by the defense.

BILL PROPOSING MINIMUM WAGE OF $2000 PER ANNUM WILL BE URGED; THE FARMERS OPPOSE IT

Present Rate of Pay Is But $1400 Per Year as Minimum.

Postal Clerks Must Be of More Than Average Intelligence, It Is Contended by the Sponsors.

DETROIT, Feb. 28.—An increase in the wages of postal clerks and carriers is favored by virtually everybody in the country except the rural congressmen. John W. Smith, postmaster, said today in explaining the movement he is backing to win congressional approval of a pay boost for postal workers. It is this congressional man from the small towns and agricultural sections, he asserted, who must be won over if the increases are obtained.

Mr. Smith has taken the initiative in the campaign to obtain passage of the present session of congress of the Edge Kelly bill, which provides a minimum wage of $2,000 and a maximum of $2,400. The present rate of pay is $1,400 to an $1,800 maximum.

Must Bid for Men.

The Detroit postoffice, the postmaster pointed out, must bid for men against Detroit factories and industries where high wages prevail. It is almost impossible, he said, to get the right kind of men when the government will pay only $1,100 to start, while a street cleaner can get more than that for his labor. Not only is the local office finding great difficulty in getting suitable men, Mr. Smith said, but it is having a hard time holding old employees, many of whom are leaving after years of valuable service to seek more remunerative employment in factories.

Rate of Pay Unvaried.

The fact that the prescribed rate of pay for postal workers is not varied by the size of the community or by the peculiarities of living conditions in different sections is what causes most of the trouble in winning approval of an increase, the postmaster said. He pointed out that the Detroit carrier, living in a high real city where he must in effect bid against high wage workers for his quarters, food and clothing, receives no more than a postal clerk in the small town where rents are low and food correspondingly less expensive.

Country Folks Object.

The country congressman, the postmaster said, objects to a wage boost for the postal workers because the worker in his district is satisfied and probably is being paid on an average more than wage earners in other lines in his particular community. These congressmen, Mr. Smith said, see no reason why they should vote for higher postoffice wages and thus tax their communities in Detroit, Chicago, New York and other big city postal workers may receive more money.

"They do not realize, or they deliberately close their eyes to the fact," Mr. Smith said, "that it is the big postoffices that pay the deficits for the small country offices. The Detroit office, for example, in 1923, did better than a $7,000,000 business, with expenses of more than a million dollars under that figure. This profit is turned back for the railway mail service, general administration expenses and for the upkeep of the smaller offices. Thus it is easily seen that the success of the postoffice system is dependent to a considerable extent upon the proper functioning of the bigger offices.

Many in Detroit.

"There are at present employed in the Detroit postoffice more than 2,500 men and women. As indicative of the difficulties we experience in maintaining this force of skilled workers I need only mention that last year, out of 2,500 employees—carriers, clerks, etc.—there was a turnover of 2,700.

"The postoffice worker, popular conceptions notwithstanding, must be skilled and above the average in intelligence. He must have a quick eye and hand, and an active mind and body. His memory must be exceptional and trustworthy. The average postal clerk must memorize anywhere from 3,000 to 10,000 names of different postoffices or separations in city distribution. Stamp clerks and others handling money must make up all shortages out of their meager funds, and many of them must provide heavy bond on which they pay premiums as high as $10 annually. A great number of employees must work nights because the bulk of the mail is received late in the day."

The postmaster said that hundreds of letters are being received by him daily from many sections of the country indicating the widespread activity in behalf of the movement.

Manistique Bowlers Would Like to Meet Team From Escanaba

The following article appearing in this week's issue of the Manistique Pioneer Tribune will no doubt be read with interest by local bowlers:

According to all reports there are some pretty fair bowlers over Escanaba way. Just how good the pin-spillers are from the neighbor city is not known locally and furthermore, Manistique bowlers don't care a whole lot. As George Graphos would say, "the harder you hit 'em the harder they fall."

ODD FELLOWS TO HOLD CONVENTION IN MONTH OF MAY

Muskegon Has Been Selected as Convention City for the Grand Encampment of the Order.

MUSKEGON, Mich., Feb. 23.—One of the most important conventions that will come to Muskegon this year is that of the Grand Encampment of the Michigan I. O. O. F., the Patriarchs Militant, and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Militant Order, to be held here May 19, 20 and 21. Between 2,000 and 2,500 delegates and visitors usually attend these conventions, according to officers of the order.

The three days of the convention will be crowded with business meetings, drills and entertainment features. The convention will get under way the afternoon of Monday, May 19. There will be business sessions of the department council, Patriarchs Militant, and of the Ladies Auxiliary. There will be a public reception in the evening, followed by the conferring of the Patriarchal Degree by Wolverine Encampment No. 163 of Detroit.

The opening session of the Grand Encampment will be held the morning of May 20. Another business session of the Auxiliary also will be held. In the afternoon the competitive drills will be held at Marsh Field, the local Mini League ball park. Pipes will be awarded winning teams. Following the drills the annual parade will be held for which prizes also will be awarded. Later in the day there will be exemplification of the Ladies Auxiliary.

biary ceremony. In the evening there will be the Decoration of Chivalry, after which the grand ball will take place. Wednesday will be devoted to business, including the selection of next year's meeting place.

The local armory, the Elks' temple and the halls of the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows will be used for the several meetings of the triple convention.

The vanguard to be presented by the Beach Jones Stock Company next week at the Deft theatre is exceptionally strong and includes specialties by the ever popular Four Beach "Nuts" quartette in all new songs and comedy. Another act of merit is the Kalani Troupe of Hawaiians in native songs, dances and music. The Kalanis were engaged by Messrs. Beach and Jones to furnish the Hawaiian music so necessary to their big feature play, "The Bird of Paradise," but will also be featured in the between acts vaudeville throughout the week.

Seats for the opening play will go on sale Saturday morning at the box office.

MARQUETTE SCHOOL REDUCES EXPENSES IN LAST TWO YEARS

It Is Stated That Reduction Amounts to $16,000 in that Length of Time.

MARQUETTE.—Marquette's public school budget for the year beginning next September, adopted by 250 teachers of school trustees at its meeting last night, will total $90,000, a reduction of $16,000 as compared to the last annual budget.

The last appropriation for public school purposes was $106,000 and 4 1/2 years ago it was $102,000.

The cut of $16,000 in the last 4 1/2 years has been made possible largely by means of contribution as follows: in some of the grade schools, the eliminating teachers' salaries, and by other curtailment in school administration costs. Teachers' salaries have not been reduced in the last 4 1/2 years and will not be cut next year. The school budget will be forwarded to the city commission for incorporation in the annual municipal appropriation bill, which will be adopted by the commission next month.

LABOR

BABSON, THE BABBLER.

Mr. Roger Babson, the babbling brook that bubbles through the green economic field, is quoted by the official communist organ, The Worker, as authority for the prediction that terrible revolution is almost upon us. Hard times are coming, mates, hard times are coming.

Roger sees black clouds ahead and at so much per line he turns loose his predictions. These are greedily devoured by the red revolutionary press. The reds seem to accept Roger as authority.

Babson is the successful showman of economics. He runs the most successful circus in the whole realm of financial advisers.

Long ago the I. W. W.'s discovered a friend in Babson. They took him to their bosom and he took them to his to speak.

"I regret to admit it," once said Roger in a burst of frankness, "but I nevertheless believe that the I. W. W. theory is the more correct, and many manufacturers reluctantly agree."

Some men in every profession will agree to anything. And a great many men in many professions and callings can be fooled for a long time. But it is impossible to believe that even the clever Babson can fool any great number forever. Some day the truth will get in its deadly work. Chester M. Wright in the February American Federationist.

Have Kidneys Examined By Your Doctor

Take Salts to Wash Kidneys if Back Pains You or Bladder Bothers

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a medical authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not irritate and makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink. Be all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

'How do you keep your clothes nice so long?'

Some of your friends seem to get months more of service out of clothing than you and their garments look fresher and better all the time.

Perhaps you have thought more expensive clothing made the difference. More likely it is because your friends have cultivated the dry-cleaning habit.

Modern dry-cleaning methods enable us to do more than keep your clothes speck and stain. They make it possible for us to remove the embedded grit and so prolong the life of garments.

That is why you'll find that regular dry-cleaning not only keeps slip covers, aprons and your clothing looking new for many months longer, better, but actually, re-nishings which for the duces the cost of being sake of appearance, well dressed, health and economy.

Blankets and comforters should also be cleaned regularly.

Garrity Gets "Trench" Work Started Today

With due regard to the weather forecast and his own ability to know what kind of weather is on the way, John Garrity, the city's street commissioner, has started his trench campaign on Ludington street and says that within a day or two many thousands of horse power will be seen going to waste, as the mighty rivers of water turn the street into a sort of Venice.

This year the gutter plow is being hauled by the city tractor and the old white horse which stood in icy water for many days last year is assigned to other duties. The tractor pulls the plow through any thickness of ice and when the "great flood" breaks loose the city will be ready for it.

RIO WARMING UP TO MAKE CARNIVAL FAST AND FURIOUS

RIO DE JANEIRO—All Brazil is preparing to celebrate its greatest "festa" of the year, the carnival, what Christmas, New Year, Fourth of July, and Halloween, all rolled into one, would be to the American, carnival is to the Brazilian.

Carnival is said to have been a pagan celebration, invented long before the Christian era, and to have come down to modern times modified by the restraints of civilization. On its way to today it has added to the fame of some of the world's great cities, Venice, Rome, Paris and New Orleans. The way carnival is celebrated in Rio de Janeiro every year, however, is a more spontaneous exhibition of popular enthusiasm and is played on a greater scale than ever seen in any other city of the world.

Mardi Gras, the final day of the carnival celebration in this city, falls this year on March 4. For the last two months preparations for the celebration have been under way. Hundreds of carnival clubs have been organizing their programs, their music costumes, and floats for the enormous street parades which will begin March 2nd and continue to the dawn of March 5th. Millions are being spent in these preparations and other millions will be spent by the people in masquerade costumes, fireworks, dances, parties, and every imaginable means of producing fun and hilarity.

During the three days and nights of carnival, the streets in an area of less than a square mile in the heart of Rio's business district will contain more than a million of fun-seeking people, the vast majority being dressed in fantastic costumes, masked, and enjoying themselves with an abandon possible only to Latin blood.

Street parades of wonderfully decorated floats, throbbing drums and blaring trumpets; miles of automobiles containing the youth and beauty of Brazilian society, clouds of confetti and serpentine, stifling waves of perfumes, and crushing crowds of rain-bow colored masqueraders are the elements that form carnival atmosphere. The frolicsome multitude creates a spirit that is as contagious as the fever of a revival meeting.

For weeks before the celebration begins in Rio, all the railway and steamship lines will be taxed beyond their capacity bringing crowds from all parts of Brazil, other parts of South America, and even from Europe. Every hotel, rooming house, and home will be filled to overflowing with guests. Literally thousands will sleep in the streets, rain or fair, during the celebration.

The grey dawn of the first day of Lent will find all Brazil in a properly penitential mood. The sullen dominos will be rumped and torn; the extra strings will be broken, and Pietro will have a dark brown taste in his mouth. But he will be satisfied to the narrow of his aching loins.

ANTHRAX ABATES ITS ATTACK UPON CARABAOS OF LUZON

MANILA—Restocking of central Luzon provinces, which were almost swept clean of work animals recently by the anthrax plague, has begun with the importation of carabaos from the northern provinces. It is estimated that three northern provinces of Luzon have 3,000 carabaos; of said stock can be quickly brought in replacing approximately 2,000 which died of anthrax during the last two months.

The department of agriculture reports that the situation in the interested region is favorable and that only a few new cases are developing. Strict quarantine, however, is still in force.

DEFENSE CHARGES WHOLE CREW WERE "BOILING DRUNK"

Fort Wayne Man Being Held in Houston for Instigating a Mutiny On Ocean Ship.

HOUSTON, Texas, Feb. 29—The government continued its cross-examination today in the case of Samuel Taylor, of Fort Wayne, of the Shipping Board vessel, City of Argonne, charged with inciting the members of the crew to mutiny, shortly after the ship cleared from Antwerp, on January 17th.

The government tried to show that the organization of an I. W. W. on board the vessel is to blame for the mutiny, but the defense counsel says that the trouble resulted from a drunken spree indulged in by every member of the crew from the captain to the mess boy.

Rev. Beazley Surprised.

An enjoyable surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hatton, Ogden Ave., Thursday evening, in honor of Rev. A. L. Beazley, it being his birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Beazley were invited to six o'clock dinner at the Hatton home. It was a great surprise to Mr. Beazley when about 7:30 the bell rang and he was called to answer the door and the crowd that had gathered at the corner of Laddington St. and proceeded to the home in a body, shouting "Surprise!" at him.

The birthday cake centered the long white table with its lighted candles. After ice cream and refreshments were served and games had been played, an address was given by Mr. Hatton and at the close a generous purse of money was presented to Mr. Beazley from the merry gathering. Mr. Beazley thanked them all in an appreciative manner for their kind expression of love and remembrance.

Do you feel old before your time? Is your back bent and stiff? Do you suffer urinary disorders? Don't despair—profit by Escanaba experiences. Escanaba people recommend Doan's Pills. Here's an Escanaba resident's statement.

Mrs. Chas. Seymour, 319 North 18th St., says: "My back was weak and stiff after I got up mornings. If I did any stooping work around the house I was bothered with pains across my kidneys. When I did a hard day's work, by back became awfully weak and hurt every time I moved. I was tired out and often had black spots come before my eyes which made me dizzy. My kidneys were in a weak condition and I could get little sleep during the night. Doan's Pills were recommended and I used some which cured me satisfactorily."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills the same that Mrs. Seymour had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

PHIL SULLIVAN ON LAST TRIP

Adds to the Number of "Old Guard" Men Who Are Rapidly Retiring from the Service.

Phil Sullivan, who has held the title of being the handsomest engineer on the whole "Northwestern" system, woke up this morning and when he looked at the calendar discovered that he was 70 years old. If he had not looked at the calendar and remembered the date of his birth, his mirror would not have told him he was seventy. In fact, as he skipped down to his coffee and toast he did not feel seventy, but to make sure, he took his pencil and figured it again and sure enough, this was his seventieth birthday.

Therefore, he made his last trip at the throttle when he pulled out of Escanaba yesterday and will now have to retire and spend the next few years in wondering what he is going to do with himself. In spite of the seventy years, Mr. Sullivan is a mighty young, old man and perhaps the reason is that he has only had seventeen birthdays, owing to the fact that he was born on February 29th.

AT THE COLISEUM.

The Coliseum roller rink last evening was the scene of lots of fun and excitement when a great number of masqueraders in various costumes skated about the rink, making it a very difficult task for the judges to decide the winners. The first prize was awarded to Miss Agnes Suppe, impersonating George Washington and her partner, Miss Signa Dahl as Mar tha Washington. They each received a pair of rink skates. Elmer Sheadore and Viola Sheadore won second prize, a one month free skating each. Elyone Couillard received a necklace and Harold Boyce a Gillette razor for third prize. Mrs. Donald Bell received a bar pin and Mable Lachapelle a silver pencil for fourth prize. Mrs. Win. Sauer and P. Sullivan won the consolation prizes.

The disguises of the characters were so cleverly gotten up as to cause the judges to draw ladies in men's attire for men's prizes.

The judges were A. J. Gilles, Jack Demarse and Mel Roberts.

The rink will be open tomorrow afternoon for a Christmas matinee at which time two door prizes will be given, one for the girls and one for the boys.
