SINGLE COPIES, FIVE CENTS

Just Between Ourselves

AN ARTFUL DODGER.

From statistics, reports, and investigations of all kinds are fairly familiar with the statistical personage known as the average man. But our knowledge definite the more we are baffled.

In the abstract we know what his feelings are. He is in favor of upholding the constitution; of giving every body a square deal; and of acting pretty much as he ought to. We could recommend him as a thoroughly good fellow; five years ago he wasn't adverse to taking a drink now and then—not too much, just enough to keep him an average man. Today he doesn't drink at all. He is law-abiding and loyal to his family and community.

But all this is abstract, and does little more than induce a desire for closer acquaintance with him. We should like to know, for instance, how long we can make a $30-out-of-pocket, or doesn't he ever wear anything so cheap as that? It may seem a trifling thing but isn't it reasonable to want to know whether the average man sleeps on his right or his left side?

We may not grieve to know precisely what he works at; he probably works at whatever he can find to do, but the question remains: "What time in the morning does he get up?" And this one suggests the further query as to whether he awakes with joy in his heart, and greets his alarm clock as his best long lost friend; or whether in anger he snatches up his mechanical dispeller of dreams and chuckles under the covers before it has finished its matutinal hymn.

Then there is the matter of smoking. Does the average man smoke, and how often, and when? It is strange that we do not know these things about one with whom we are as familiar as we are with the average man from the volumes of literature about him put out every year. We are not much concerned with what he eats; he probably eats whatever the market affords. But does he really eat as they say he should in book on etiquette, some kind of soup with a motion of the spoon away from him, and other with the spoon coming toward him?

Despite assurances from statisticians and investigators to the contrary, our knowledge of the average man is very limited. He could do a great deal for social uplift and education if he were less secretive and less exclusive than his actions seem to make him.

INTOLERANCE.

Recently a widely known clergymen in New York from his pulpit mentioned by name several leaders in his branch of the Christian faith and denounced them as infidels. Now, another refers to some of his brethren as "baboon chasers." The only ground for these uncharitable remarks lies in that the men thus held up to scorn hold views on some subjects somewhat at variance with the opinions of those who direct the darts.

It is bad policy to try to convince a man by abusing him or reflecting on his intelligence, for that method never wins. Besides that men of skin-cloth set a bad example to the laity in indulging in such discourteous language. It is unChristian, too. If the men thus referred to are infidels or baboon chasers there would be more likelihood of reclaiming them to the true faith by reasoning with them in good humor, than by abusing them. However, the latter may feel that they are but exercising their rights in holding whatever beliefs they have. And if they are sincere certainly it is not the business of anyone else to judge them.

German Cabinet Accepts Experts' Report Today

Will Be Resumed or When.

It Is Believed, However, Nothing Will Be Done Until After the Easter Holidays Are Over.

BERLIN, Germany, April 15. The German cabinet today agreed to accept the experts' report as a basis for negotiations and to inform the reparation commission of the fact.

This is in line with the attitude taken by the experts in a regular meeting between the central government and the premiers of the federated states.

The government instructed Dr. Fischer of the seinem Berlin commission in Paris to notify the reparation commission that Germany accepted the report to resume negotiations on the basis of the report.

It makes no suggestion as to the manner in which the parleys are to be resumed, but it is assumed that this will be initiated probably shortly after Easter.

Announced today the government carried out its intention of accepting the report. Monday after a conference with the state premier of Germany.

The announcement of acceptance was made by the German foreign office at the conclusion of a discussion of the state premiers, who also decided an early hour and finalized their discussion in the evening.

The premiers agreed that the government's attitude in accepting the report in principle constituted the only available course. The government, however, expects that it will be able to discuss the fixing of the total sum Germany must pay into reparation funds when German representatives go to Paris. Acceptance in principle offers these possibilities.

The experts' report in our opinion is an unbiased and carefully thought out effort to aid the government in its task of reaching a settlement of this vital and long-standing problem.

Your news page 2, government added the premiers attached so much importance to the recommendation which can be brought into immediate operation, that we are prepared for our part to support the idea in its entirety provided all of the other parties concerned are willing to take the same course. He also said he had confirmed their approval to the other governments concerned, including the United States.

MUSKEGON, Mich.—Operators of interurban bus lines say they have had much business because it was impossible for passengers to smoke on long journeys. Unable to smoke the men turned to other forms of transportation. But that complaint is to be removed. BRAZIL EXPECTS FINANCIAL AID THROUGH BRITISH

RIO DE JANEIRO (United Press)—Brazil is one of the greatest treasure houses of the world, and requires for its development for the benefit of Brazil and through her for the benefit of the world, only four things: capital, population, transport and a currency of good government.

Such statement, coming from no less authority than E. S. Morgan, former British cabinet minister and head of the British mission which departed for England in March, after spending two months here studying conditions, leads Brazilians to the hope that financial and economic aid will be forthcoming from certain quarters.

HENRY FORD REFUSES TO MAKE RUN FOR PRESIDENCY IN STATE AND WILL SUPPORT COOLIDGE

Iotor Magnate Promises Letter Within Few Days to the Public.

While He Is for Coolidge, He Is Not for the Republican Party Nor for Cabinet Members.

(Copyrighted by United Press) DETROIT.—Henry Ford's entry as the presidential nominee of the Michigan delegation to the Democratic convention will be the bid of William A. Coolidge, chairman of the state delegation, within thirty hours.

Comstock has already received a communication from the telephone. Mr. Ford will not run, nor can he count on support from the members of his home state. He has given no word in favor of Pres. Coolidge.

"I am going to withdraw," said Ford.

The letter will be written today, probably tomorrow, if not before the election of Coolidge. Comstock, Indian agent, has been in touch with Ford since the election, trying to persuade him to back Coolidge. Mr. Ford is very quiet in his statement, however, in regard to the people. He is for Coolidge, he says, because he is a good man, honest and modest, and second, because he does his duty properly as a man whom he considers better than others induced to run against the president.

A Personal Matter

Mr. Ford's personal affairs, though his concern, are another important detail. He has not yet made up his mind to return to his home town of Dearborn, present address, or to leave for Detroit or elsewhere. He has, however, decided to go. There are other two members of this family that are moved to the city of Detroit, so he is very anxious to get away and think about these things. He has not decided whether to go to New York or to have a summer home in the Adirondacks.

Henry Comstock, Indian agent, has effect that Ford does not expect that his countrymen will call his attention.

He would like to meet the world's leaders of the day, but that is not his main concern.

He is also interested in the Philippines. "We have done a lot of things there," he says. "We have a report of our expedition. Mr. Ford does not intend to let the report go to the public press at this time.

"I don't think I'd dare to go to Japan," he said. "I could not get in. I'd be mobbed up there, and I don't think it's safe to go to New York to see the other members of the convention." Forwards Prospects

Mr. Ford believes that 1924 will be a prosperous year.

The basis of prosperity lies with the business men. "If you do something for the business man, you're doing something for the country," he says. "The business man is about 75 per cent. We must keep up with the times. That's what I'm doing. I'm doing my best to help the public. My plan is simple. It's to help the business man."

The D. T. & L. Bank, Detroit, is here, and it looks like the usual banking rate. It will make about 5 per cent. That's a good improvement, however, will take all of his money, and there is no provision for clearing a balance.

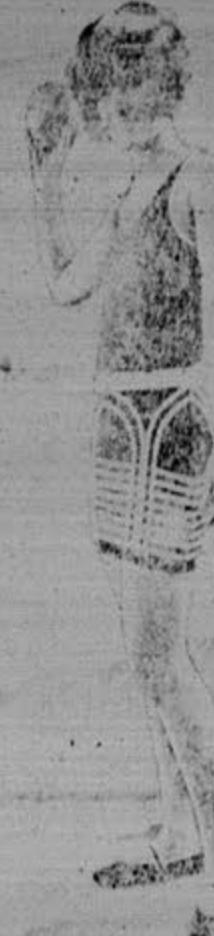

The electrical part of the 10 miles of the road outside of Detroit will be completed in June, and Mr. Ford now plans on building a railroad track of South Charlevoix to eliminate Shingletown. On the regular station on the road, there will be new telephones, a ten mile line of the road and modern other improvements. Eventually the plan is to raise the Ohio river road to Kentucky, and then to Detroit, and if the same would be done, Muscle Shoals Hill and the dam that project, he can easily build the road to Florence, Ala.

William A. Comstock, chairman of the democratic state delegation, said today: "I'd like to give my letter to Mr. Ford, but I waited. In behalf of Mr. Ford, in a telephone conversation, I told him that a definite statement of Mr. Ford's intentions toward accepting or declining the democratic nomination in Michigan would be sent to him, to clear up the situation."

"Thus far I have not received such a statement," Mr. Comstock said, "and I do not know what it will contain. But I hope it will be soon."

He said he did not believe Mr. Ford could do otherwise than to decline the nomination, and he was unable to understand why Mr. Ford had omitted his name to remain on the ballot in view of his endorsement of President Coolidge for re-election.

CANDIDATES FOR BOTH BIG PARTIES CLUTTER UP WHOLE UNITED STATES, IS REPORT

There Is Plenty of Material, and to Spare, in Both Parties.

Great Political Plans Are being Mapped Out by Leaders to Get the Right Vice President.

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 15.—United Press.—The Coolidge campaign committee has been advised to seek a strong Middle Western or New England as Coolidge's running mate, so as to make sure the swing of the West and particularly the farming section. Senator Borah of Idaho is being talked of, but there are two good reasons why Senator Capper of Kansas is more likely to be the choice of the Coolidge forces.

One of these reasons is that Borah doesn't want to be into the Coolidge organization, and the other is that Capper is independent. Now neither of these senators may be the man.

In fact, there is a well-defined progressive wing among many influential republicans, against sending the Senate a "running" lead for the presidentcy or the vice presidency. They want recognition accorded some of the newest workers out in the fields where the sun beats hottest.

They would prefer to have some able governors or leading members of the party organizations, and they argue that the further the party can get from the "professional" politicians of Washington in its selection of a vice president, the closer it will get to public sentiment.

That may all be well, according to the available news, it always begins at the Senate. Biddle and Capper, Peffer of Pennsylvania and Reed of the same state, Willis of Ohio and Shortridge of California are heard of. Former Senator, now Judge William S. Keeler of Iowa, also is mentioned.

Doubtless, the Cleveland convention will look to high many carefully nurtured vice presidential hopes that have been shielded against premature exposure. The vice presidency, now offering of somewhat more importance than formerly because of the heavy drain the presidency puts on a man's health, is this year the only prize within reach of the ambitious Republican power-seekers. Therefore, the convention will be heavy about that and the competition may be rather keen. Some republican notables think the wind can be taken out of a possible third party's sails if a properly progressive vice presidential candidate is selected.

Among the democrats Senator Ray S. Clegg of New York is much spoken of, but you cannot pick a vice presidential candidate with any degree of certainty until you know the geographical location and the exact political complexion of your presidential nominee.

Any vice president must be a little different, but not too different, just enough to please the forty folk who perhaps are not 100 per cent satisfied with the first name on the ticket. The vice presidential candidate must supplement and round out the presidential candidate. Geographically he ought to balance him.

Governor Ritchie of Maryland, a war leader, has strong support for the democratic cause; places, however, Biddle of New Jersey has his backers. Senator Wheeler of Montana may and is being lauded for him as a result of the aggressiveness he displayed in the Danielsite investigation. Coolidge Hull, chairman of the democratic national committee, is being urged by his friends to run the president, and may be put forward either for or for vice presidency.

There will be no lack of candidates. And in view of the doubtful scruples of the democratic presidential nominees, every candidate

Stop That Backache!

Many Escanaba Folks Have Found the Way.

"I am dull, sore, aching backache, we're you out?" Do you feel older and weaker than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous, and it impossible to be happy or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Read what this local resident says:

J. E. Erickson, brakeman, 43 South Fifth St., Escanaba, says: "Mornings my back was lame and stiff. My kidneys were weak and I had to get up during the night to pass the scurvy. The excretions were heavily colored and contained sediment. I bought Doan's Pills from the West End Drug Store and they helped me. I still use Doan's occasionally when I feel in need of a kidney medicine and always get good results."

Doce Doan's Pills, at all dealers. Don't simply look for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the ones that the doctor prescribes.

HANRAHAN NEW MAYOR, OWING TO LARGE VOTE

Henry L. Rose Named as Supervisor by W.
H. Needham Last Night.

Budget Was Presented to the Councilmen Last Evening for Their Study and Adoption.

William J. Hanrahan was elected by the members of the council last evening for mayor of the city during the period of his term which is for two years. His name was placed in nomination by L. A. Rose and supported by C. J. Burns. The custom was therefore followed of honoring the man who succeeds in getting the largest number of votes. Mr. Burns was elected as mayor pro tem.

William J. Needham, the newly elected member of the commission, made his entry into the council by placing the name of Henry L. Rose as supervisor, before the council and Mr. Rose was elected to represent the city on the county board. His colleagues will be L. J. Jacobs and G. G. Genesee, the two latter having met to the taxpayers. Taxes can never be the same capacity since the always increased and decreased inauguration of the commission form within certain limits at the will of Manager Fred R. Harris presented the council. It is our duty as best to the council copies of the new budget and this will not be made public until the members have had an opportunity of giving it careful study and either adopting, rejecting or amending it. The budget was very lengthy and went into city affairs fully.

New Supervisor Well Known.
Henry L. Rose, son of Councilman L. A. Rose, who was named by the council as supervisor, is one of the most prominent supervisor leaders in Michigan. He is a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and a prominent member of the Progressive Voters League. As a member of the County Board of Supervisors, he will bring to that body a great deal of experience and it is forecast by many friends that he will make an enviable record.

Hanrahan Makes Speech.
The newly elected mayor, W. J. Hanrahan, gave a short talk outlining his policy. He said:

"A city government such as ours is one selected solely to conduct the business of the people efficiently. If Escanaba needs anything, it needs a business administration and I as mayor, intend to bend all my efforts towards a continuation of those policies which enabled us, during the last two years, to relieve the city of over one hundred thousand dollars of debt, to follow the policy of continued improvements based upon our ability to pay as we go; to render the ultimate in service by our public utilities; and last and most important, to keep our city tax requirements within reasonable bounds."

"We must all realize that the cost of a tax rate is value received in all service rendered by the government. The two latter having met to the taxpayers. Taxes can never be the same capacity since the always increased and decreased inauguration of the commission form within certain limits at the will of Manager Fred R. Harris presented the council. We wish to express our most sincere thanks to all the kind friends and neighbors, to the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and the Brotherhood of Railways and Steamship Clerks. Freight and Iron Ore Handlers, C. & N. W. Lodge No. 400, for all their kindness shown us at the time of the death of our beloved son and brother, Robert Hamilton, Jr.

Mr. and MRS. ROBERT HAMILTON and FAMILY.

Rev. Dr. Daniel Linfert is spending a few days at Manistique, where he will preach at the Forty Hour devotion, which is being held in the Catholic church in that city. He will return home Wednesday.

The ready response of residents for the purchase of city bonds is gratifying to the administration as it is an endorsement of their management.

Half the issue was sold before noon Monday and by 5 o'clock last night applications were in for approximately $15,000 worth of bonds or more than $10,000 over the sum required. The bonds will be sold to the applicants according to the receipt of the requests. Those who did not get in until late Monday afternoon, will have time to invest their money in some other manner.

The statewide contest was conducted by the state department of public instruction, the music club organization, cooperating. Contests have been carried on in more than 130 towns and cities, 10 or more district or county contests having been held. Winners in the district contests will take part in the contest here. Some cities and counties where no contests were held are expected to send individual representatives.

The following statement relative to the contest was sent to school principals a fortnight ago by Thomas E. Johnson, state superintendent of public instruction:

"Stimulation of interest on the part of students in the best music as presented by the finest musical organization in the state is in itself sufficient incentive to make zealous effort to send contestants, whether or not they win laurels, and whether they have studied the Music Memory numbers in a course of study or in a Music Memory contest. Full representation from your school is desired."

BRITISH VISITOR GROWS CHATTY; QUOTA FULL; MUST RETURN HOME

Percy T. Dantock, a chatty plasterer from London, Eng., today is regretting his failure to adhere to the British traditions of formality with strangers.

Mr. Dantock recently forsook London, with an eye to trying his hand at plastering in the United States. On his arrival in Montreal, he was chagrined to find that the British Isles' immigration quota was filled, and that he could not enter the United States until July 1. But, someone told him, if he would come to Windsor, he probably could slip across to Detroit.

OBITUARY

ROBERT HAMILTON.

Funeral services for Robert Hamilton were held at the family home Friday afternoon when Rev. Harry W. Staver officiated. A large number of beautiful floral offerings surrounded the remains at the home before it was removed to its last resting place in Lakewood cemetery.

MRS. JULIA BREITENBACH.

Mrs. Julia Breitenbach, 84 years of age, passed quietly away about 10 o'clock last evening at the home of her son, W. F. Breitenbach, 1107 Stephenson avenue, where she had made her home for the past two years. Until about twelve days ago, Mrs. Breitenbach was in splendid health for one of her age, and at that time suffered a paralytic stroke which evidently caused her death.

Mrs. Breitenbach is survived by four sons: William F. Breitenbach of this city; T. A. Breitenbach of Baltimore, Md.; Otto M. of Milwaukee, and Dr. O. C. Breitenbach of Columbus, Indiana. One sister, Mrs. Louis Klauder, of Milwaukee; two brothers, Charles Quade of West Bend, Wisconsin, and August Quade of Athens, Wis., also survive.

Before coming to this city, Mrs. Breitenbach lived in Milwaukee, although her family home is in Cedarburg, Wis. During her short stay in this city she made many friends who will all grieve to hear of her passing.

The body was taken to the Anderson Undertaking Parlor, to be prepared for burial and it is expected to be shipped to her home in Cedarburg, Wis., for burial.
