

STATE G. O. P. ARGUES WET-DRY ISSUE

RELIEF ISSUES PASS THROUGH CRITICAL SPOT

FOUR WEEKS LEFT. CONGRESS IS AT STALEMATE

BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Copyright 1931, by the Escanaba Press) Washington, Feb. 4. — The whole question of legislative relief for America's economic problem has come to its most acute stage.

With just four weeks left to the present session of Congress the White House and the legislative body are as far apart as the poles on two major issues either one of which is sufficient to force an extra session.

Both sides believe they are actuated by a principle of transcendent importance. The president and his friends see the twenty-five million dollar drought relief bill as nothing more or less than a "Dole" while Senator Borah and the Democrats say that the drought was "an act of God" and just as much a disaster as a flood or an earthquake and hence well within the realm of appropriation of public funds.

The Red Cross has openly refused to accept twenty-five million dollars for distribution because it is fundamentally against receiving funds from the government. This means that the situation is back to where it was originally when it was suggested that the department of agriculture undertake the distribution of money to the farmers in the drought areas—the same to be used for food and clothing. Opponents of such a program call it a "Dole" but Senator Borah in an impassioned speech argued that the word "Dole" as used in England implied those who would not find work whereas in this case as soon as the crops are planted again the people will have an opportunity to provide themselves with food and the necessities of life.

Feed "Starving Americans." The administration would have been in a stronger position if Mr. Hoover himself had not been identified with the distribution of food to the starving Russians immediately after the war, when Congress appropriated money directly for such relief. Members of Congress are saying that the precedent once established in feeding "starving Russians" makes it all the more necessary to feed the "starving Americans."

So far as the Red Cross is concerned it does not wish to undertake the job of distributing money on an extensive scale as it thinks will be necessary if twenty-five million dollars is appropriated for the drought area. Red (Continued From Page Two.)

Table with 2 columns: Location and Temperature. Includes entries for Alpena, Boston, Buffalo, etc.

Another Arrested For Counterfeiting

Covington, Ky., Feb. 4 (AP)—Another member of the Meier family of Michigan, two of whom already are in custody on counterfeiting charges, was arrested here today for passing bogus $10 bills. He is Raymond S. Butler, 35, of Dry Ridge, Ky., said by officers to be a relative of Mrs. Rosalie Meier, 40, of Woodville, Mich., who has been held in Cincinnati on a similar charge since Saturday. Her husband, B. M. Meier, was arrested yesterday at his home in Woodville where federal officers said they seized a complete counterfeiting plant. He is held in Grand Rapids.

DEATH TOLL OF QUAKE UNKNOWN

Relief Work Under Way; More Than 500 Are Believed Killed

Napier, New Zealand, Thursday (AP)—New earth tremors occurred this morning in the Napier region, doing further damage to the buildings injured by the Tuesday disaster and increasing the alarm of an already stricken population.

Red Cross officers now estimate the total death toll from the Tuesday quake at considerably more than 1,000. No official estimate of the number of dead had yet been attempted, but popular belief and the unofficial estimates of relief workers placed it at more than 500 and possibly as many as 1,000 for Napier, Hastings and other towns of Hawke Bay Province in the earthquake affected zone.

Water Systems Wrecked There was a sad stir and bustle early today when authorities prepared for evacuation of the city because the population from the wreckage of water and sanitation systems.

Nathan Straus Will Filed for Probate New York, Feb. 4 (AP)—The will of Nathan Straus, Jewish philanthropist, who gave away millions of dollars during his lifetime, was filed for probate today. It disposed of an estate estimated to be about $1,000,000, and not a cent went to charity.

Says Waste Harms Grand Rapids Water Lansing, Feb. 4 (AP)—James R. Rumsey, superintendent of the Grand Rapids sewage treatment plant, appeared before the state stream control commission today to protest that waste from the North Park community, near Grand Rapids, is contaminating the city's water supply. The data he submitted did not reveal a dangerous condition, according to Secretary Adams. The commission indicated a desire to clear up the situation, if necessary, however, and invited Rumsey to return with additional facts.

OWEN D. YOUNG FAVORS LOANS FOR VETERANS

MANY NEED MONEY FOR RELIEF, HE TELLS GROUP

Washington, Feb. 4 (AP)—Owen D. Young, chairman of the board of the General Electric company, today urged the house ways and means committee to enact legislation for new loans to needy veterans at a cost of as much as $500,000,000.

He, however, pronounced "unwarrantable" immediate redemption of $2,500,000,000 of World War adjusted compensation certificates payable in 1945.

Agrees With Mellon. Young concurred with Secretary Mellon and an array of bankers and brokers in a warning that $3,500,000,000 bond issue to cover the cost of full payment would disrupt financial conditions.

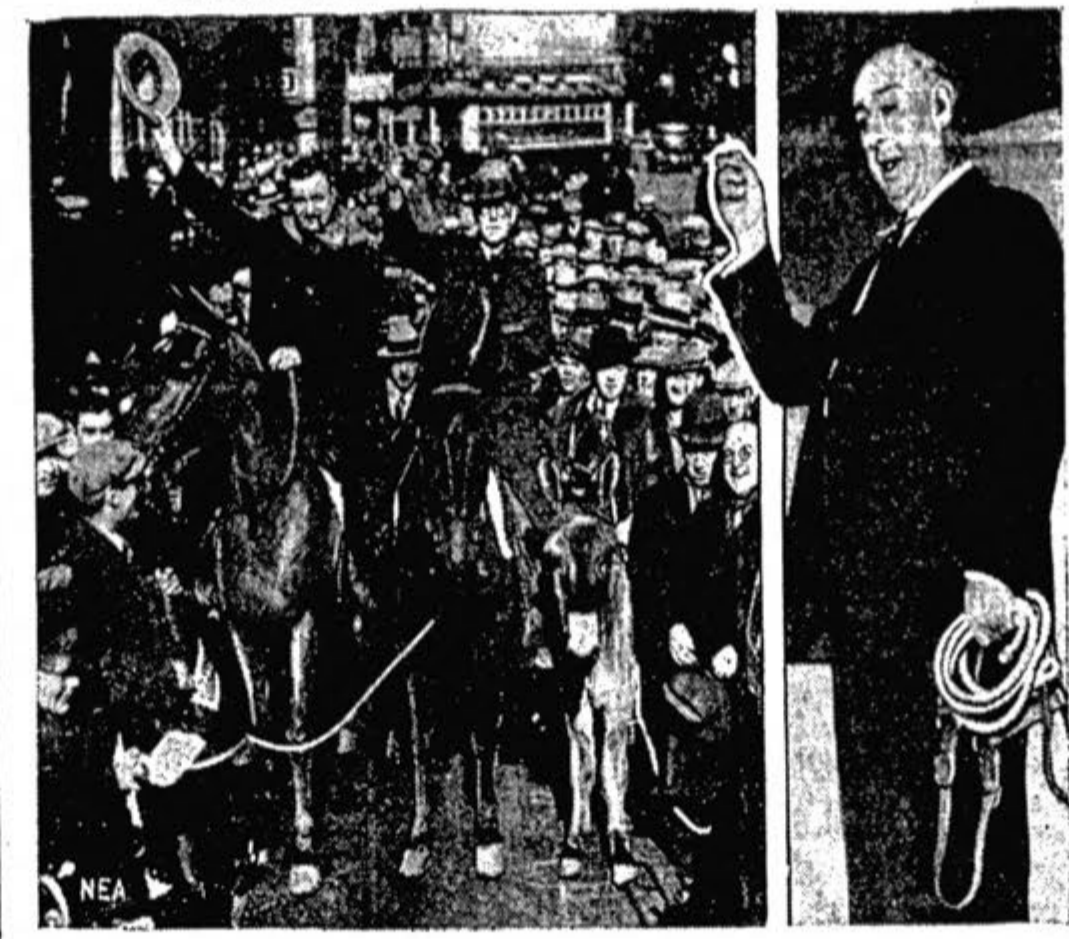

There are perhaps five million people out of work," he said, "and nearly 50,000,000 people gainfully employed in the United States. That means that ten per cent are unemployed. In addition there are those whose power has been so diminished as to disable them from meeting their needs and there are those in the drought areas who are suffering distress."

RELIEF STUMPS CAPITOL HILL Compromise Maneuvers Move Forward as Extra Session Looms

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON. Washington, Feb. 4 (AP)—Deft compromise maneuvers were moving forward on Capitol Hill tonight seeking to dissolve the deadlock on relief legislation.

BY BRUCE CATTON. Chicago, Feb. 4.—The last of the Armour family, who have been in the meat packing firm of Armour & Co., and another great family cycle in American industry has finished its long swing.

BIG BILL AND A BURRO OPEN A NEW CAMPAIGN

Assisted by a horse, a donkey and a burro, Mayor "Big Bill" Thompson of Chicago opened his campaign for renomination with a parade through the loop and a fiery speech in a crowded theater.

Caraway Goes 'Gunning' For Cramton; Telephone Duel Proves One-Sided

Washington, Feb. 4 (AP)—A dispute between a senator and two representatives today spilled over the barriers of congressional rules and reached the stage of a one-sided duel by telephone and the issuance of a public challenge.

Caraway on Man-Hunt. Still later, the Arkansas senator paid a visit to the house chamber. He walked in the middle aisle and looked around for several moments as if searching for someone.

Police Raid Office of Gandhi's Paper Ahmedabad, India, Feb. 4 (AP)—Police today raided the offices of the weekly journal, Young India, which was edited and managed by Mahatma Gandhi before his arrest last year in connection with the civil disobedience campaign.

The Story of Armours The Rise and Fall of a Great American Industrial Dynasty.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of five exclusive stories on the dramatic history of the Armour family, now extinguished and gay with colors that stay bright for generations.

Big Ship Undergoes Numerous Repairs

Las Palmas, Canary Islands, Feb. 4 (AP)—The damaged Dornier airliner DO-X will continue its flight to Brazil as soon as repairs can be effected, Fritz Hammer, Dornier engineer and a passenger on the craft, told the correspondent of the Associated Press today.

BUTLER QUOTED GARBLED STORY

Vanderbilt Says General Retold II Duce Tale Inaccurately

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 4 (AP)—Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., explaining for the first time tonight his reasons for keeping his lips sealed concerning the Mussolini anecdote which is bringing Major General Smedley D. Butler before a navy court martial, said the marine officer "quoted inaccurately" what he heard in the quarters of the affiliated lecture bureau in New York late in November, 1920.

PRISON LABOR POLICY BANNED Private Contractors To Construct Highways in Future

Lansing, Feb. 4 (AP)—An eight year old policy of employing prison labor on state highway construction was swept aside today when the highway committee of the state administrative board approved a future policy of limiting contracts to private contractors.

Orlando Guilty Of Kidnaping Scheme

Brucker Will Speak On Lincoln Program

WEDDA WARNS PARTY SHOULD TAKE A STAND

WANTS COMMITTEE TO RECOMMEND REFERENDUM

BY GILBERT T. SHILSON. (Associated Press Staff Writer) Lansing, Feb. 4 (AP)—An effort to force the Republican party of Michigan to take a stand on the wet and dry issue was hunted away from the state central committee today by a diplomatic parliamentary ruling. The result will be only temporary, however.

Lawrence Blocks Move. Committee members leaped to their feet to protest consideration of the resolution. James E. Davidson, of Bay City, national Republican committeeman, Thomas George, St. Clair, Charles McBride, of Holland, and others rapped out a succession of points of order and motions to squelch the resolution.

Lansing Man Kills Self and His Son

Remains Silent

GOP's Must Unite

Navy Dirigible Off To Join U. S. Fleet

Gets Year Sentence For Extortion Plot

CRAFT CARRIES NINE TO DEATHS

Huge Seaplane Wrecked With 12 Aboard, One Escapes Unhurt

Plymouth, England, Feb. 4. (AP)—A giant seaplane of the Royal Air force carrying twelve men on flying practice plunged into the waters of Batten Bay today with a loss of nine lives and injuries to two. One man escaped unhurt.

The surface of the smooth bay, which was as bright as a mirror, apparently caused the pilot to miscalculate his distance above the water in landing. The craft dived full tilt into the water and before it could level out disappeared below the surface.

A loud explosion was heard as the plane struck with terrific force. It brought small craft in the nearby waters to the rescue. The plane overturned and only the pontoons were visible.

All except four of those in the plane were trapped in the submerged body. Divers were sent down in an effort to recover the bodies of the missing, among whom was Wing Commander C. G. Tucker, who had a splendid war record.

Flying Officer F. K. Wood was rescued alive but he died shortly afterward of his injuries. Lieut. M. H. Ely was rescued seriously injured and Flying Officer C. Ryley was picked up only slightly hurt.

Of the eight enlisted men in the crash all but one are missing. Corp. W. M. Barry received no injuries.

The big plane, which had a wing spread of 97 feet and was 67 feet long, was one of the two ships which had been cruising in the neighborhood for an hour. It belonged to the Cattewater seaplane station.

War Hero Pleads For Certificate Payment

Washington, Feb. 4. (AP)—They planned a bit of bright gold on Joe Angelo's breast, back in 1918, because he saw his wounded commander through an engagement in the Argonne.

They were the only survivors of 300, who went in the tight together. Today half a dozen representatives claimed the right to reward Joe because of his conduct in a good-humored encounter with the house ways and means committee.

Joe wanted Congress to pay off his and his buddies' service certificates, so he walked down from Camden, New Jersey, to tell the committee. He had slept four hours since Sunday. All five feet, four inches of him was dust-coated when he turned up. His hair was a mass of matted curls, and his cheeks were sunken from hunger.

But he jumped up and demanded to speak just as soon as Owen D. Young left the stand.

"When I went to war," said Joe, "I got a good send off; my father kicked me out."

But when the war was over, Joe said, he couldn't get his job back at the ammunition factory where he had worked. He got $125 a day there.

The committee heard his pleas for cash for all the veterans' certificates, but it was Joe they were interested in. When he mentioned his service, they asked where he got his medals—three of them shining on his dusty suit.

And by produced a watch, which he said was "not going to be pawned."

It was inscribed to Joe "In Grateful Memory of the Argonne," from Colonel George S. Patton.

Patton was a major in the Argonne fight. Joe was a buck private in the tank corps.

His citation read: "For extraordinary heroism in action near Chéppey, France. Within 40 meters of the German machine gunners, Private Angelo carried his wounded commanding officer into a shell hole and remained with him under continuous shell fire for over an hour except when he twice carried orders to passing tanks."

Joe said he had been unemployed 18 months.

A stranger who refused to give his name took Joe with him at the end of the hearing. The spectator said he would "take care of him, feed him, find him a job."

"Wound stripes?" a reporter asked Joe.

"No," he exclaimed. "I'm too little; I stood sideways."

PACKED HOUSE HEARS CONCERT

Kiwanis Event Successful; Musicians Thrill Escanaba Crowd

A packed house was thrilled by the finest musical program heard in Escanaba for years, last night at the high school band concert sponsored by the Escanaba-Wells Kiwanis club.

The high school auditorium was filled to overflowing with an audience that came away with nothing but praise for the fine program. It was a program that needed no prop of any kind and could well stand on its own merits as excellent entertainment.

Much credit is due R. P. Bowers, Miss Ruth Sundwick and Frank Karas, who make up the staff of the high school music department for the part they took in the concert as well as in the training of the school musicians. All numbers were freely applauded by the audience that wished only for more.

In the second part of the program the solo numbers by Miss Sundwick and Mr. Karas delighted the audience. "Adieu Foresta," the Arts from Jeanne D'Arc, by Tschalkowsky, served as a fine vehicle for the clear contralto voice of Miss Sundwick.

Her other numbers, "The Hills of Home" and "Dawn," to judge by the applause and remarks of the listeners after the performance, met with wide approval.

The accompaniment by Mrs. F. M. Fernstrom was excellent. Mr. Karas' numbers, "Scene de Ballet" and "Meditation from Thais," and the sympathetic accompaniment played by Miss Elsie Karas delighted all.

The lightness of the former carried the audience along and when the storm of applause broke at its ending there was no doubt of what the hearers thought. The more stately "Meditation" was equally well received.

The Escanaba high school band under the direction of Mr. Bowers was called upon for encores following every number and pleased all by responding with spirited college numbers. Especially the cornet and trombone solo numbers, with William Bartella in the latter won the favor of the large audience.

The large attendance would make the financial success of the concert seem unquestioned. The funds realized at the concert go to the fund to provide food for undernourished school children in Escanaba schools. The fund is administered by the Kiwanis club and the Parent-Teacher association.

The program for the evening was as follows:

- PART ONE
- Semper Fidelis, March..... Sousa
- Morning, Noon and Night (In Vienna), Overture..... F. von Suppe
- Notre Dame Victory March..... Fantele
- On "My Old Kentucky Home"..... C. W. Dalbey
- Cornet solo with band accompaniment
- Mr. William Karas
- On Wisconsin.....

- PART TWO
- Airs from Jeanne D'Arc, Adieu Foresta..... Tschalkowsky
- Miss Ruth Sundwick
- Mrs. Fernstrom, accompanist
- Scene de Ballet..... C. H. de Berlioz
- Mr. Frank Karas
- Miss Elsie Karas, accompanist
- The Hills of Home..... Oscar Fox
- Dawn..... Curran
- Miss Ruth Sundwick
- Mrs. Fernstrom, accompanist
- Meditation from Thais..... J. Massenet
- Mr. Frank Karas
- Miss Elsie Karas, accompanist

- PART THREE
- A Hunting Scene (Descriptive)..... Bucalossi
- Michigan, the Victors.....
- Air Valse, The Old Home Down on the Farm..... Harlow
- Trombone solo with band accompaniment
- Mr. Jack Bartella
- Illinois Loyalty.....
- Best Loved Southern Melodies, a Medley of Plantation Songs..... Hayes
- The Star Spangled Banner.....

Acquit Gangsters Of Carrying Arms

Detroit, Feb. 4 (AP)—A recorder's court jury tonight acquitted five alleged Purple gangsters of charges of carrying concealed weapons. The jurors had deliberated for nine hours.

The defendants, tried under an indictment returned by the special grand jury, were Harry Keywell, Sam Bernstein, Harry Altman, Harry Milman and Jacob Wellman.

Arrested by a patrolman who surprised them while attacking Frank Kajer in his home on the night of January 14, they were accused jointly of possessing three pistols alleged to have been found on them. Kajer, who fled to Dayton last week to escape testifying, only to be found and brought back, identified the five men as his assailants.

He said the men accused him of hijacking a load of their liquor.

RELIEF ISSUES PASS THROUGH CRITICAL SPOT

(Continued from Page One)

Cross officials think the next step will be to place on the Red Cross the burden of distributing many millions more in urban centers where there is unemployment.

What the country is looking for is a practical program of relief which will keep down the agitation that members of Congress say is directly due to the inadequacy of the present relief measures and the break down of many local relief organizations.

Block Soldier Bonus. Another major question is the so-called soldier bonus which is being advanced as a means of affording relief to hundreds of thousands of world war veterans who are believed to be in distress.

All sorts of plans are being proposed, but dire predictions are being made that a measure appropriating three and a half billion for the veterans would do more to unsettle the business and financial world than it would help by its indirect addition to the purchasing power of the nation.

A large number of members of Congress are not at all convinced however that something vital should not be done for the veterans. In fact there is talk of compromise. The likelihood is that at least a half billion dollar appropriation to increase the funds for loans will be made and that Congress will hold itself in readiness to do even more in the latter part of the year if this is not adequate. But any extreme proposal like the flotation of three and a half billion dollars of securities in the next few months is considered unlikely.

Pressure from veterans and local organizations is becoming so intense that it would not be surprising if the three and a half billion dollar measure passed the senate. In the house however the bill will be considerably amended. The presidential veto power will probably be exercised to keep down the total amount appropriated and, judging by the attitude of house leaders, the administration counts upon the house to block anything that the president does not wish to see adopted.

Horse racing was a popular sport more than 3,300 years ago, according to Hittite inscriptions found recently in Mesopotamia.

More than $1,500,000 is paid annually by students at the University of Illinois to support fraternalism on the campus.

Gasoline Price In Detroit Cut Again, War Is Threatened

Detroit, Feb. 4. (AP)—Gasoline dealers in the Detroit area again were watching each other warily tonight following a two-cent drop in prices which was believed by some to presage a renewal of the price war of last autumn.

The major oil companies in the area announced the price reduction today. "Regular" gasoline, as a result, now sells for 12 1/2 cents a gallon. At the same time officials of the major companies announced the reduction was merely in line with the conditions in the oil industry and indicated no price war.

The independent stations in many cases dropped from six gallons for 95 cents to seven gallons for a dollar.

Charles E. Austin, president of the Sunco Service Oil company, said: "Whatever the other officials say, it is a mild price war."

The gasoline price war last autumn which involved scores of stations in the Detroit area, was reported to have cost dealers nearly $2,000,000 and forced the price of gasoline down to 10 cents a gallon.

Ousting of Busline Will be Discussed By Detroit Council

Detroit, Feb. 4 (AP)—Ousting of the privately owned Detroit Motorbus company from the streets will be one of the proposals discussed tomorrow when the city council meets to discuss methods for relieving the financial situation of the municipally owned Detroit street railroads.

The street railway commission has asked the city council to submit to the voters in April amendments to the city charter which would exempt the transportation system from city taxation and relieve the system of the cost of paying between its rails.

Several members of the city council long have opposed continuation of the day-by-day agreement under which the motorbus company is operating. They have contended that much of the municipal system's financial difficulty could be solved if it took over the lines operated by the private company.

The Detroit Motorbus company, in a financial statement filed with the council today, showed gross revenue of $2,468,369 during 1930.

Bread and water sentences for drunkenness have been imposed by Judge J. H. Warner of Brainerd, Minn.

BUTLER QUOTED GARBLED STORY

(Continued from Page One)

me to appear.

"So far I have told it only to the state department in the letter which they have declined to make public. I have told the state department I will appear at the court martial if it is desired, and I have transmitted the same message to General Butler, in a manner that he will receive it personally."

Vanderbilt made clear he has not remained silent through fear of any possible consequences and stated he felt what he said in New York has "no bearing" on General Butler's case.

"I want to reiterate," he said, "that any statement I made at the quarters of the Affiliated Lecture Bureau in New York City late in November 1930 was made in the strictest confidence, and has no bearing whatever on the General Butler court martial."

"It is General Butler who is being tried for what he said."

"Even besieged as I am by newspapermen and broadcasting organizations and other societies to make some statement concerning the incident, I am adhering to the advice of my counsel and also to my own best judgment that no statement should be made at the present time for general publication."

PLANS DEFENSE

Washington, Feb. 4 (AP)—A series of charges described as "severe" rested tonight in the hands of Major General Smedley D. Butler, but the responsibility for their publication immediately was passed by him back to the Navy department whence they came.

Despite this indication that officials had not softened their attitude toward his now celebrated reference to Premier Mussolini, to have returned to his self-confinement at Quantico, Va., with his "morale still high."

Earlier, Butler and Leonard proved they had lost none of the resourcefulness that characterized their days as brother marine officers by eluding Washington correspondents for hours. They spent virtually the entire day secretly preparing the defense to be presented at the court-martial in Philadelphia, February 16.

Secretary Adams, who late today approved the charges and specifications against General Butler, said tonight they certainly would not be made public immediately, adding "I guess we'll have to talk it over tomorrow."

Meanwhile, Major Leonard

made known some of the defense plans for the trial. He said John W. Davis, who had been mentioned as an attorney for Butler, could not participate, but that another counsel, also "rationally known," would be retained.

Gandhi Followers Plan to Make Sale

Bombay, India, Feb. 4 (AP)—Police are prepared for trouble tomorrow afternoon for the congress party working committee announced today that its president and members of the war council intend to make salt at that time in the great Maldan square.

It is the first act in the continuance of the campaign of civil disobedience announced by Mahatma Gandhi upon his release from prison. Salt making is direct defiance of the law and if tomorrow's gesture is carried out those who participate are certain to be arrested.

Gandhi himself, addressing 10,000 of his followers at Allahabad today told them it was written in heaven that India's campaign for complete independence is to succeed. He urged his disciples to continue their non-violent resistance and to shirk no sacrifice in their struggle for freedom.

A Way To Stop Attacks Of Fits

Reports are received of an amazing treatment that epileptics state has proved successful in stopping their attacks. R. Lepso, Apt. 62 123 E. Wright, Milwaukee, Wis., has been supplying sufferers with this treatment. He now wishes to reach all those who have not been helped and to do so is making the startling offer of a generous treatment free to all sufferers. Anyone afflicted should write for this free treatment at once, giving age.—Adv.

CARAWAY GOES 'GUNNING' FOR REP. CRAMTON

(Continued from Page One)

faces of a score or more Republicans sitting near Cramton.

Treadway also had two calls from the Arkansas senator today but was out of his office when they came. He said, however, that when he learned Caraway had called him he had called the Arkansas office but the senator was absent.

The Massachusetts member said he would be willing to repeat his remarks off the floor at anytime.

MAY LOSE JOB

Detroit, Feb. 4 (AP)—A dispatch from Washington to the Free Press says Representative Louis C. Cramton's $10,000 a year "lame duck" job is in jeopardy because of his statement on the floor of the house that anyone who said he had used congressional influence to obtain it was a "plain, undiluted liar."

The George Washington Bicentennial association will meet tomorrow and the dispatch says its purpose had been to name the Michigan representative to its directorship. An unnamed member of the association is quoted as saying he will not vote for Cramton because of his exchange of personalities with Senator Caraway of Arkansas.

OWEN D. YOUNG FAVORS LOANS FOR VETERANS

(Continued from Page One)

face value of their certificates over and above any loans which may have been made on the certificates under existing law.

The amount of such payments, Young added, "would probably be not less than $300,000,000 and not more than $500,000,000."

Questioned, Young estimated that these funds would allow 40 to 50 percent increase in the allowance for loans on certificates on which veterans would seek cash. He estimated that not more than 30 percent would ask for additional money and this he termed "liberal calculation."

Suggest 3 per cent interest. Maintaining the principle through a maze of cross questioning the financier calmly told the committee that he did not believe it would give rise to charges of favoritism against veterans not actually in need.

Jackson Prison Now Has 5,285 Inmates

Jackson, Mich., Feb. 4 (AP)—Michigan state prison, said by prison officials to be the largest penal institution in the United States, reached a new high population mark today with a count of 5,285 prisoners.

The number of inmates will increase, rather than decrease, officials predict, because of more stringent parole regulations. As a part of the new policy, prisoners considered for parole must furnish proof that they will have steady employment before they are released.

Forty-five paroles were recommended today by Deputy Paroles Commissioner M. D. Kirby, subject to furnishing by the prisoners of the necessary proof of employment.

Alleged Slayers Will Go On Trial Feb. 24 In Detroit

Detroit, Feb. 4 (AP)—Ignoring defense pleas for postponements, Recorder's Judge Edward J. Jeffries today set Feb. 24 as the tentative date for the trials of Ted Pizzino, Joe Bommarito and Angelo Livacchi, alleged slayers of Radio Announcer Jerry Buckley.

The date was named after Prosecutor Harry S. Toy had requested that the trial be held in the near future. Attorneys for the men protested they were not yet ready to start the trials. They asked delays of from one to two months.

Judge Jeffries said he would entertain motions respecting the case before Feb. 24 but that otherwise the case would take its regular course as it was "just another law suit."

DEATH TOLL OF QUAKE UNKNOWN

(Continued from Page One)

visit to their ravaged homes and perhaps a final search in the debris for some trace of their loved ones, killed when the calamity burst on the town with all the suddenness of a thunder clap.

There were similar scenes in half a dozen other towns of the province especially Hastings, a little plains city which learned only today that its fate was known to the outside world.

Perfect Order Maintained

Both Hastings and Napier were scenes of terrific wreckage and in Napier fires still burned unchecked today, although explosives had been ordered to blast lanes through the tumbled mass of wood and masonry under which he crushed no one knows how many bodies of men, women and children.

EXTRAORDINARY ENTERTAINMENT AT ESCANABA'S THEATRES

DELFT THEATRE Two More Days

What's Swat!

Never Swat a Fly is just one of many song hits guaranteed to start you humming and stepping when you see

DeSylva, Brown and Henderson's

JUST IMAGINE

Successor to "Sunny Side Up"

EL BRENDAL

Maureen O'Sullivan John Garrick Marjorie White Frank Albertson

Matinees Daily at 2:30

10c and 35c

Evenings—7 & 9

10c, 25c, 50c

ALSO

Regular Short Subjects

Starting Tomorrow

"MAN TO MAN"

THE STORY OF A PRODIGAL FATHER

from the Dramatic Novel by Ben Ames Williams

Acquit Gangsters Of Carrying Arms

Detroit, Feb. 4 (AP)—A recorder's court jury tonight acquitted five alleged Purple gangsters of charges of carrying concealed weapons. The jurors had deliberated for nine hours.

PUBLIC HEARING

Lansing, Feb. 4 (AP)—A public hearing on the bill of Rep. Frank Wade of Flint, providing compensation for occupational diseases in industry will be held before the house labor committee next Tuesday night. The measure lists nineteen compensable diseases. It is vigorously opposed by the Michigan Manufacturers Association.

Coming Saturday—One Day Only

THE WIDOW FROM CHICAGO

The MICHIGAN THEATRE

TONIGHT — Last Times

7 and 9—10c, 25c, 50c

RUTH CHATTERTON

in "The Right to Love"

A Paramount Picture

Ruth Chatterton gives vibrant life to the emotion-tossed joys and heart-aches of two people—a mother who stakes happiness on love and loss—a daughter who gambles on love and wins! A dramatic revelation!

ALSO

Regular Short Subjects

STARTING TOMORROW

"MAN TO MAN"

THE STORY OF A PRODIGAL FATHER

from the Dramatic Novel by Ben Ames Williams

WEATHER AIDS BUILDING JOBS

Steel Placed for Roof of High School; Floors Poured

Escanaba's two major building projects, the new junior high school and the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. central office, are making steady progress through the winter.

Favorable weather has been an aid to the contractor on the high school building, who now has about 60 men at work, exclusive of other crews working on plumbing and fittings. Outer walls of the structure are nearing completion, and steel beams are being put in place for the roof of the west wing. Portions already inclosed are being prepared for the laying of floors, and concrete will be poured again this week on some of the large floor areas.

Charcoal pots have been kept going for several weeks to keep the temperature above freezing and prevent the concrete from being laid. The main auditorium, because of its size and the difficulty in keeping it heated, will be left for the last. Floors are balcony structures are going in place in the gymnasium. One of the unusual features of the gymnasium is that of a disappearing partition, extending from the ceiling, making it possible to divide the room into two sections for the use of boys and girls' gymnasium classes.

The telephone building, on which practically all of the exterior work has been completed, is now receiving its interior decorating and finishing. With the installation of equipment in the spring, the office will be ready for service. The structure will then represent an expenditure of over $200,000.

Bark River-Harris

Harris, Feb. 4. (Special)—Wm. Juneau, who is engaged in lumbering business at McFarland, spent the week end at his home at Wilson.

Mrs. Francis Lortz, Mrs. Wm. Holea, Mrs. Peterson, Martina Lortz of Escanaba and Mrs. Caroline Fontana of Gladstone visited at the home of Frank Krutch.

Miss Beatrice Krutch returned to Hermanderville after spending the week end at the home of her parents, Frank Krutch.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Houle visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Savard of Escanaba, Monday night.

Mr. Paul Schuyler, county school commissioner, called at the Harris school Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Derocher and Mrs. Gideon Doutré of Schafer called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Swille Sunday.

Miss Gladys Houle spent the week end in Escanaba at the A. E. Savard home.

Miss Lorraine Krutch spent the week-end at the home of Miss Martina Lortz of Escanaba. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Klock of Spalding visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krutch Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James DeLoughary and family, Miss Marie Flynn and Pat Fenlon were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McMonagale.

Miss Marie Flynn and David DeLoughary visited Miss Cecile Flynn, and Miss Clara Heru, who are patients at the St. Francis hospital.

Peter Houle, deputy sheriff, motored to Newberry Saturday to take a patient to the state hospital.

Mrs. Louise Stein of Escanaba visited at the Frank Krutch home Friday.

Arthur Keeler left for Spalding where he will begin business at the Blair gas station Monday.

She's a Divorcee and a Mother—and Only 16!

Mrs. Alta Weitz, 16, above, was given an annulment by a San Francisco judge when she testified that she was only 14 when she got married. She is the mother of a year-old boy.

Bishop Talks at Calumet, L'Anse

"Our peninsula and our state are worthy of the best possible publicity we can give them," said G. E. Bishop, secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau, speaking to members of the Lions Club at a noon luncheon in Calumet Tuesday, February 3. "Nature has been more than kind to us, she has been lavish and prodigal. Outdoors are being told more and more of the unparalleled variety of attractions we have here, and while they are coming in great numbers yearly, our tourist volume can be greatly increased."

The same evening Mr. Bishop addressed the members and guests of the L'Anse Civic Club on "The Home of Today." He will be the principal speaker at a fathers and sons banquet in Channing Saturday evening, February 7.

Bureau Preparing For Tourist Year

Members of the advertising committee of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau will meet at the Beach Inn, Munising, Monday, February 9, as the guests of C. L. Heckathorn.

Bids for the printing of The Bureau News, monthly publication of the development bureau, will be opened and contract awarded.

F. L. Engel, of the Kirtland-Engel advertising agency, Chicago, will confer with the members of the committee on plans for 1931 publicity, and will submit advertising layouts and suggestions for the year's tourist advertising campaign.

Free Haircuts for Children of Poor

Needy children of the city will be given free haircuts, it was decided upon by members of the Masters Barbers Association and the Journeymen Barbers Union at a recent meeting.

Tickets will be distributed to the various teachers of the public and parochial schools, who will them to the poor students needing haircuts. The barbers' offer remains in effect until further notice.

HONOR ROLL

OSLER SCHOOL
The Honor Roll for January of Osler school follows:
Seventh grade—Alice Potvin, Bernice Potvin.
Sixth grade—Bernice Potvin.
Fifth grade—Matilda Black.
Perfect attendance—Elaine La Londe, Fillette Lancoeur, Norman Lancoeur, Bernice Potvin, William Potvin, Thelma Savage.
Pupils who made an average of 80 or more in semester examinations: Matilda Black, Bernice Potvin, Juanita Taft.

ISABELLA SCHOOL
The Honor Roll for the Isabella school in Garden township for January is as follows:
Seventh grade—Evelyn Sundine.
Fifth grade—Evelyn Hall, Ruth Morrison.
Second grade—Marge Nedeau, Eric Sundling, Edwin Sundine.
First grade—Richard Gowin, Richard Morrison.
Primer Class—Elsie Sundling, Orville Turan.
Those neither absent nor tardy for January are: Henry Gowin, Edward Gowin, Ruth Morrison, Richard Morrison, Norman Morrison, Margie Nedeau, Edwin Sundine, Ethel Sundine, Evelyn Turan, Virgil Turan, Evelyn Hall.

BARK RIVER SCHOOL
The following is the Honor Roll for the Bark River public school, District 1 for the school month of January in the Daily Press:

Cecilia Dejka, Billie Peltier, Harold Kleiman, Jackie Krause, Noelle Derocher, Rosellen Bergman, Albert Olson, Harold Peterson, Constance Norman, Reuben Carlson, Maurine Krause, Marea Konkel, Douglas Nelson, Billy Bergman, Roy Bergstrom, Phillip Norman, Lloyd Bruce.

Those neither absent nor tardy for the month were: Donald Belanger, Rosellen Bergman, Alphonse Couillard, David Gauthier, Cecile Kleiman, Bernard Kleiman, Maurine Krause, Marea Konkel, Carol La Vigne, Nan La Vigne, Douglas Nelson, Constance Norman, Harold Peterson, Harold Olson, Helen McLeod, Archie McLeod, Jeanette La Vigne, Jackie Krause, Francis Derocher, Rita Derocher, Emma Clairmont, Edwin John Bergman, Leona Couillard, Helen Dejka, Mary Dejka, Walter Dugas, Eileen Gasman, Laurence Gauthier, Frank Gerybowski, Clifford Johnson, Harvey Kasbohm, Elray Konkel, Marguerite Legerquist, Lillian Norman, Phillip Norman, Bernice Zolovics.

ENGADINE SCHOOL
Engraving—The Anderson school honor roll for January: Betty Jane Abram, Margaret Abram, Gustave Buss, Margaret Germain.
Perfect Attendance—Emil Potzen, Ethel Fandrick, Helen Tomaszewski, Sigfried Fandrick, Margaret Germain, Wanda Potzen.

Chatham News
Chatham, Mich., Feb. 4. (Special)—Charley Dolan of Wetmore has returned home after spending a few days here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Rusford and family of Munising visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brisson Sunday.

Otto Malenknecht, superintendent of Rock River schools is confined to his home by illness this week.

G. W. Putnam, superintendent of the Upper Peninsula experiment station is in Lansing this week attending the Farmers meeting held there.

Orville Ferguson has returned to his home here after spending a few days in Marquette, the guest of his sister, Mrs. O. W. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Johnson and children of Forest Lake spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ferguson.

Press Want Ads Cost Little, Accomplish Much.

Repeats Charge of Corruption

This is Albert R. Brunker, chairman of the Chicago Civic Safety Committee, photographed as he went before a Chicago grand jury to repeat his charges that many Chicago judges are corrupt and that the assassins of Jake Lingle are being protected by the authorities. Brunker was summoned before the grand jury after he made his sensational charges in a speech at Boston.

Upper Peninsula Will Have Exhibit at Grand Rapids

The Upper Peninsula Development Bureau has reserved booth space for the Grand Rapids Outdoor Life show, which will be held in that city March 3-7.

This will be the first of several outdoor life shows to be held in the central west during the spring of 1931, and the Upper Peninsula will be represented by a comprehensive exhibit. The bureau's 1931 tourist literature is now in preparation and it will be ready for the show.

"Last year's attendance at Grand Rapids was 37,000," said George E. Bishop, secretary-manager of the bureau. "Practically all visitors received Upper Peninsula literature, and good results were registered later in this district. We believe that the downstate dollar is just as good as cash from outside, and the yearly shows at Grand Rapids and Detroit are very helpful in turning lower Michigan people this way."

The exhibit under way for the Grand Rapids show portrays fairly every section of the Upper Peninsula. All local civic organizations in the territory have been invited to participate with local displays and literature.

Rural Residents Want Snow Roads

Bare county roads are causing inconvenience for farmers who depend on sleighing for hauling forest products to market. Rural residents using the Danforth road are looking for more snow, and have asked the highway department to leave enough snow for sleighing when plowing out the road after a snowstorm. Hauling has been held up, awaiting better conditions.

Press Want Ads Cost Little, Accomplish Much.

ESCANABA HOST TO ROAD GROUP

Over 100 Attend Highway Department Conference From All Over U. P.

More than 100 state and county highway officials and engineers from all parts of the upper peninsula are in Escanaba today for a conference and round-table meeting called by J. T. Sharpsteen, division engineer. Meetings of state highway department employees were held at the division headquarters yesterday, with about 50 members of the U. P. personnel in attendance. The state group was joined last night by commissioners and engineers from the various counties for a banquet at the Delta hotel. B. C. Tiney Lansing, state maintenance engineer, officiated as toastmaster, and there were several informal and impromptu talks by the highway officials and their guests.

Meet at Court House

Practically every county in the peninsula will be represented at the meetings to be held at the Delta county court house today. Matters pertaining to highway construction and maintenance will be discussed, and the now legislative proposal for taking over a percentage of township roads annually will come in for consideration sometime during the session.

Mr. Tiney, the state maintenance engineer, and C. M. Ziegler, state construction engineer, will lead discussions on topics coming under their departments.

T. F. Kessler, Escanaba city manager, will extend the official greetings of the city to the visitors, and the response will be by K. I. Sawyer, Marquette county engineer. The conference will come to a close this afternoon.

Isle Royale Gets New Boat Service

Arthur A. Torvalds of Chassell has announced that the launch Eagle will make regular trips every Saturday during July and August from Houghton to Isle Royale. Special trips will be made for the May and June brook trout fishing on the island, and later if desired.

It is believed that the maintenance of a regular schedule from the Copper Country to Isle Royale will not only accommodate many people who have had to go around by Duluth in past years, but that considerable new patronage will be created.

I've got your Number

On your radio tonight... listen to Lorna Fantin, famous humorologist. She'll tell you how names and dates affect success in business, love or marriage. A real radio thrill.

WISN and entire Columbia network at 8:15 tonight, central standard time.

OLD GOLD CIGARETTE RADIO PROGRAM

NAHMA NEWS

Nahma, Feb. 5. (Special)—Coach Anne Fleming, accompanied by the girls' basketball team, motored to Escanaba Saturday to have their pictures taken. On the way home they stopped at Gladstone and attended the show. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Druding of Gladstone, visited at the Melvin Druding home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward and family, Mrs. Henry Belonga, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Campa of Nahma, and Mrs. Vern Ward of Gladstone, motored to Newberry Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Duvey Minary, who died Monday in a hospital in Chicago, following an operation.

Miss Lorraine Raulls has been out of school for the past week suffering from an infected floor burn.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 1 will give their annual bazaar at the Club House Saturday evening.

Miss E. Hanson and Miss A. Garrett of Gladstone, were callers in town Monday. Miss Hanson taught first-aid to the Nahma Girl Scouts.

Francis Douville, who was suffering with an infected sore on his leg, is able to be around again.

Ice Harvest Yields To Slushy Weather

Slippy weather held up Escanaba's annual ice harvest again yesterday, causing equipment to be moved off the bay as a safety precaution. Cracks have been appearing, and water covering the ice has handicapped operations. The ice is about a foot thick in Bay de Noc at present.

Farm Exchange Prosper Raleigh, N. C.—The 25 farmers' mutual exchanges in North Carolina did a combined business of more than $1,500,000 in 1930.

Wins Degree, Opens Milwaukee Practice

Joseph Louis Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Clement, 394 South Eleventh street, received the degree of doctor of optometry from Northern Illinois college, Jan. 29, during commencement exercises held in Harris auditorium, St. James church, 46th and Ellis avenue, Chicago.

Dr. Clement has been active in all college affairs and is affiliated with Phi Theta Upsilon, optometric fraternity. He was a member of the college clinic staff during his senior year.

Dr. Clement has completed plans for the opening of his optometric practice in Milwaukee.

NORTH DELTA

North Delta, Mich., Feb. 4. (Special) Donald Frensdorf of Chatham visited Tauno Kivimaki here Sunday.

William Quorfoot is home after being employed in Ladoka.

COLDS pave the way for pneumonia. Don't take a chance; Treat colds promptly but avoid "dosing." Just rub on VICKS VAPORUB

OVER 26 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

Lauerman's
"Breath of the Avenue"

Our group of Stylists are in the very midst of the world of Spring Fashions—They are now sending us, everyday, new dress creations that the modern woman will choose for her Spring Wardrobe.

Here Comes Spring...
.. and with it a most beautiful array of SPRING FROCKS

Authentically styled tuned to the dictates of the coming mode
So many styles — So many smart shades — So many clever creations — they take our breath away.
You'll wonder how it is possible to make dresses so beautiful at this price.

"Yes, indeed—they are copies of higher priced style successes!"

Your choice of over $4.85 Prints and Plain Colors
50 styles

Presenting interesting new models, all cut on the newest lines, youthful, flattering and the smartest fashions of the new season. Graceful skirts, new sleeve treatments, intricate seamings and smart lingerie touches make these frocks the last word in styling and yet so practical and inexpensive.

Don't Forget to Glance at Our Better Frocks
When You Shop at Lauerman's
You will like the Styling, Fabrics and Variety at $9.75 and $16.50

Every woman is attracted by our keen styles, our large variety of 1931 Spring Creations in dresses—The new colors, the new prints so different from last year's styles—we invite you to see these today.

Another Shipment Just Unpacked for Today's Selling Indian Blankets

Because of the big demand for this special priced blanket we found it necessary to reorder and secured our limit for today's sale—Richly designed, woven of fine china cotton with a small amount of wool—Very practical for robes or throws—priced low at

No phone orders please — No approvals
SECOND FLOOR

Brilliant Performance— Individual New Beauty— RARE RIDING COMFORT

$875
BUSINESS COUPE

THE GREATER HUDSON 8
COACH $895
All Prices F. O. B. Detroit

The Greater Hudson Eight has a larger motor. It is faster, more powerful, quicker in traffic, surprisingly economical. It has individual new beauty—and Rare Riding Comfort. Bodies are insulated against drumming and drafts. Head-room and leg-room are greater. Doors are wider. Perfect comfort in every seat—no crowding. These are a few of the quality features in this Greater Hudson Eight.

DEGRAND MOTOR CO.
Escanaba, Michigan.

WHY? YOU'RE A DETECTIVE, STRUGGLIN' WITH A TOUGH GANGSTER. TAKE HIS GUN AWAY FROM HIM? WHY HE LOOKS LIKE HE WANTS GIVE IT TO YOU, T' GIT RID OF YOU.

YEH-BUT 'ATS WHY THIS IS A EXTER DESPRT STRUGGLE- I HAFTA STRUGGLE WITH HIM T' HOLD IT, SO'S I C'N STRUGGLE WITH HIM T' TAKE IT AWAY FROM HIM.

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN

J.R. WILLIAMS
© 1931 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE ESCANABA DAILY PRESS

A Morning Newspaper Published Daily Except Monday by The Escanaba Daily Press Company, Inc. JOHN F. NORTON, President and General Manager.

Entered as Second Class matter April 4, 1909, at the postoffice at Escanaba, Michigan, under Act of March 2, 1879.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published therein.

The Daily Press is the only daily paper printed in an exclusive field of 66,000 population, covering Delta, Schoolcraft and Alger counties thoroughly, with branch office and carrier systems in Manistowic, Gladwin, Munising and Newberry.

Member Michigan League of Home Dairies National Advertising Representative SCHREER, INC. 115 Lexington Avenue, New York.

Subscription Rates Daily by carrier, per week $1.00 Daily by carrier, per year (in advance) $50.00 Daily by mail, per year (in advance) $45.00

EDITORIAL

C. M. T. C. POPULAR

THE Citizens' Military Training Camp certainly must have a strong appeal for the boys of Delta county, judging from the flood of applications that is being received for participation in next summer's outing at Fort Brady.

Michigan without materially affecting the status of its thriving liquor traffic. He wants, also, the repeal of the malt tax law and he proposes to keep an eye on the portmanteau.

HISTORICAL MARKERS

B. FRANK EMERY, former superintendent of the Mackinac Island State Park, who is known to Escanabans as the loquacious individual who so entertainingly described a safety exhibit at the U. P. State Fair a couple years ago, is one of the leaders in the movement to form the Old Fort and Historical Memorial Association.

The primary object of the association is to promote a better understanding of the early days in Michigan by the restoration of old forts and the placing of markers to designate places of historic interest.

THE HOLSAPLE PROGRAM

THE Rev. Holsaple, state boss of the Anti-Saloon League, has taken the public into his confidence as to the matters he proposes principally to concern himself with during the legislative session.

The moral of the Smedley Butler incident seems to be: "If you have a secret, don't tell it to the marines."

Anniversary

PIKE'S BIRTH On Feb. 5, 1773, Zebulon Pike, an American soldier and explorer after whom Pike's Peak is named, was born in Lambertson, N. J., the son of an army officer.

FOR GINGER'S SAKE

CHAPTER XIX They took a childish delight in their rural environment, planting flowers in small spots in the rocks and in the rifts of fallen logs, swinging baskets of trailing vines from porch rafters and window ledges, spading up gardens wherever there was a bit of earth to be turned.

'Looking Backward'

FEBRUARY 5, 1911 Miss Mellina Papineau entertained a group of girls at her home last night. One of the features of the evening was a mock marriage ceremony.

Quotations

The man who knows least about women is the one who has had the most love affairs, and the man who knows most is the one who has had but two teachers, his mother and his wife. R. C. Sheriff.

Health Tips

BY DR. MORRIS FISHEIN In an address before the Section on Diseases of Children of the American Medical Association Dr. Edward Mellanby of Sheffield University, England, again emphasized the close relationship that exists between the diet and the condition of the teeth.

War-Look Flood Still On

Predictions made last spring that the stream of books written about the World War had reached high-water mark and was likely to abate, have not been realized in Europe. This winter shows that writers of various nationalities are turning them out as fast as ever.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

EGAD, BUSTER, I HAVE A GREAT IDEA - IF I ONLY KNEW OF SOMEONE WHO HAS FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS TO FINANCE ME!

By Ahern

I WOULD PERFECT A TRULY REMARKABLE CONTRIVANCE, KNOWN AS "THE HOOPLE REMINDER-CLOCK" FOR INSTANCE - A BUSINESS MAN WOULD HAVE ONE IN HIS OFFICE - SUPPOSING HE HAS A DOZEN APPOINTMENTS DURING THE DAY, OR THE MORROW - HE MAKES A NOTE OF EACH ONE, ON SMALL CARDS, THEN PLACES THEM IN SLOTS OF THE CLOCK AND SETS THE APPOINTED TIME FOR EACH CARD - NOW THEN, SAY AT 2:15 HE IS TO MAKE A CALL - R-R-RING GOES THE REMINDER-CLOCK AND PROJECTS THE CARD CALLING ATTENTION TO HIS ENGAGEMENT!

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch Copyright 1931 by Douglas Malloch PAYDAY We thought Christmas pretty fine. New Year's - all along the line. How we jubilated when other days drew near again.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

ALL ABOARD FOR JIMTOWN!! IS EVERYBODY ALL READY? YEAH...LET HER GO! COME ON, LINDY!! GIDDAP...WE'LL BE TO JIMTOWN IN NO TIME!!

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WE HAVE TOO SOMETHING! WE CAN'T JUST LET TH' POOR GUY GET SEENT DOWN TH' RIVER. I SPOSE I COULD ASK MY OL' MAN FOR A THOUSAND... BUT HE'D ASK A BUNCH OF QUESTIONS AN'... NAH, TO HECK WITH THAT.

By Blosser

DID ANY OF YOU TELL YOUR FOLKS WE WERE GOING ON THIS RIDE? NO! WHAT WAS THE USE IN DOING THAT? WE'LL BE BACK BEFORE DARK, ANYWAY.

By Martin

OH SURE! THAT'S RIGHT. NAH! THAT'S WRONG, BABY... THAT'S WHY HE'S IN TH' SOUP. BUT WHAT I DON'T UNDERSTAND IS WHY HE DIDN'T MAKE TH' CHECK FOR TWO, OR MEBBE THREE, THOUSAND DOLLARS, WHILE HE WAS AT IT... THEN HE COULD HAVE PAID TH' BANK THIS THOUSAND THEY'RE SQUAWKIN' ABOUT, N'STILL HAVE PLENTY LEFT OVER. BESIDES...KINDA DUMB, I CALL IT.

CITY RAILWAY IN BAD SHAPE

Marquette Street Car Officials Report Poor Business

Marg:—The Marquette City Railway company is, according to its officials, on its last legs. Financially it has reached the point where the end is quite visible, and unless material assistance is forthcoming soon, operation of the street cars here will be impossible.

At the moment no one is able to see a ray of hope, there appears to be no source from which substantial financial aid can be expected, with the possible exception of the municipality itself. The railway company is paying about $1,500 annually into the city treasury—$400 a year in taxes and $94 a month for electric current, the latter figure being a flat charge at which current is sold to the company by the department of light and power. It is an extremely low rate for the amount of current used, so low, in fact, that it is almost a donation.

A Losing Battle

For several years the railway company has had hard sledding and has managed to make both ends meet through the most careful handling of its affairs by its executive, plus such assistance as the city has been able to give, but it has been a losing battle, because operating revenues have fallen off annually. Each year brings a larger number of automobiles and a corresponding slump in the number of people riding in street cars. A few years back the company was able to pile up a few thousand dollars during the winter, because many automobiles were laid up about November 15, but times have changed. With well-plowed streets and plenty of equipment for making winter motoring easy and comfortable, comparatively few drivers are abandoning their cars in cold weather—and the street cars are empty.

Great Convenience To Public

Marquette's street cars have been a great convenience and a very decided commercial asset to the city. There still are hundreds of persons, especially those residing in North Marquette, who depend upon the street cars for transportation to the business section of the city. Also there are many living in the south part of town and employed in North Marquette who use the cars to go to and from their work. If it becomes necessary to scrap the street cars, they will be sorely missed.

According to law, the city of Marquette cannot take over the street car system and operate it as a public utility, because such municipal operation is not permitted in cities of less than 25,000 population. There is little doubt that the city commission would look with favor upon the operation of the street cars as a public utility, if that were possible.

Can City Help?

Whether the city can go further than it has to help the street railway company out of its difficulties is a question which probably will be studied before the company is forced to "abandon ship." It is probable that within the next few days officers of the railway company will confer with city officials in an effort to work out some plan which will cut down the company's overhead. It was pointed out yesterday by an officer of the company that if it were relieved of its taxes and its charge for electric current, the resultant saving of about $1,500 a year probably would prolong the life of the street car company a few, perhaps several years.

The street railway company has 22 employes on its payroll and its equipment is in good condition. It has managed to keep its cars in good repair and most of its trackage is in fair shape.

This winter its operating income has been the smallest in its history, but its costs have been reduced by the mild weather which has made unnecessary, to date, the operation of its snow plow.

Marquette is one of the few cities in the United States in which a street car ride costs only five cents. Railway company directors several times have considered an increased fare, and in view of the present situation such action may be imperative.

Whether the present crisis can be overcome is a question that will have to be answered shortly. Without help from some source, it was declared yesterday, the street railway company will do well if it survives until spring.

ENSIGN NEWS

Ensign, Mich., Feb. 4. (Special)—Miss Ella Johnson of Rapid River was a visitor at the John Wilson home over the week-end. Miss Ann Johnson of Isabella, spent the week-end here at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson and family. John Wilson and family and Miss Ella Johnson, motored to Sac Bay Sunday to attend the funeral of the late Ben Pizzala of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson, Mrs. Ruth Gorham and daughter Lillian and Miss Ella Johnson were among the many folks from here who attended the show and dance at Isabella Saturday night given by the Isabella folks for the benefit of August Strom, also of that place and who is in very ill health.

Press Want Ads Cost Little. Accomplish Much.

Baby Is Born 10 Minutes After Mother Dies

Ten minutes after Mrs. James H. Rozell had died in St. Mary's Hospital, Grand Rapids, Mich., a healthy baby girl was born through performance of a Caesarian operation by physicians. The baby, Patricia Ann, is shown here in the arms of Nurse Marie Scanlon.

Tract Lying Partly in Delta County Is "Hiawatha" Forest

The three national forest units of the Upper Peninsula will be maintained indefinitely and developed as individual national forests, with a separate and complete organization for each. The decision was announced January 29 by E. W. Tinker, U. S. regional forester, Milwaukee.

It is understood that President Hoover has signed the proclamation including the present Mackinac unit in the greater Upper Peninsula national forest. This central section, lying south of Munising in Alger, Schoolcraft and Delta counties, will be known as the Hiawatha national forest. The Marquette unit in Chippewa county will be known as the Marquette national forest. The present Keweenaw unit, which lies in Iron and Houghton counties, with possibilities of further extensions into Ontonagon and Gogebic counties, will be known as the Ottawa national forest.

The names have been chosen in part because of their historical and legendary significance, and because they fit in well with plans that will ultimately mature for the maximum use of the Upper Peninsula national forest for public recreation. It is believed that forests with names of the character selected will lend themselves much more effectively to publicity for recreational purposes than would areas with names less appealing.

"Know Your Navy" Programs On Air

Topics pertaining to the United States Navy, its recruiting, training, and operations of the various branches, will be covered in a series of radio programs scheduled for February over Station WBBM, Chicago. A complete list of these programs has been announced by Fred W. Knight, Q. M. 1. C. U. S. N., naval recruiting officer stationed at Escanaba. The first of the series was given Monday night, and another will be on the air tonight. The remaining numbers are as follows:

- February 5, 5:30 P. M. Subject: Types of naval vessels and their uses. Speaker: Lieut. J. P. Million, U. S. Navy (office of inspector of naval material, Chicago).
- February 9, 5:30 P. M. Subject: Naval aircraft and their operations. Speaker: Lieut. E. L. Johansen, U. S. Naval Reserve (attached to Naval Reserve Aviation Base, Great Lakes, Ill.).
- February 16, 5:30 P. M. Subject: The London naval conference. Speaker: Lieut. Comdr. A. R. Anderson, U. S. Navy officer (in charge of aviation machinist school, Great Lakes, Ill.).
- February 19, 5:30 P. M. Subject: The new American merchant marine and its relation to the navy, and economy welfare of the United States. Speaker: Lieut. Comdr. L. P. Weasel, U. S. Navy (instructor of Naval R. O. T. C. at Northwestern university).
- February 26, 5:30 P. M. Subject: The navy in peace time. Speaker: Comdr. F. L. McFadden (Chaplain Corps, U. S. Navy, Chaplain Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill.).

A St. Louis construction concern has been awarded the contract to erect a projected $5,000,000 Mart building in that city.

A Buchanan county, Missouri, poultryman has received orders for hatching eggs from Hungary, Peru and Canada.

COLISEUM ROLLER RINK MATINEE TODAY TONIGHT WANTED—25 Ladies for Musical Chair Contest $2.50 in Gold Friday Evening, Feb. 6 DOGGY DANCE Music by The Wolverines

Plenty of Liquor, all Brands, May be Purchased in Detroit

NOTE—This is the third of a series on liquor smuggling in the Detroit area.

Detroit, Feb. 4. (AP)—There are plenty of bootleggers in Detroit, Federal officials will admit, who offer their customers Canadian liquor—rye, Scotch or Bourbon to suit the taste at prices to suit any pocketbook.

The illegal beverage is in beautiful bottles sealed in the name of the Canadian government and of the liquor commission of one of the provinces. But recent investigations have disclosed one flaw about a considerable portion of it—the liquor is made, or at least bottled, sealed and stamped right here in Detroit.

Almost every major seizure during recent months has borne out the contention of customs and prohibition officers that smuggling of spirits is nearing the irreducible minimum as a result of customs pressure and the Canadian export ban. Seals, labels and stamps have been found in numerous "bottling and cutting plants" and thus indicated that plenty of Canadian liquor is a domestic product.

Tricks All Exposed

But there still clings to Detroit the tradition of being a hot-bed for liquor smuggling, and that tradition incorporates some of the weirdest folk tales of America—stories of strange devices used to bring the contraband across the mile-wide Detroit River. Submarine cables, floating buoys, cleverly constructed automobiles, false-bottomed suitcases, liquor-containing tires, even submarine boats have figured in the tales.

So cleverly is the idea of liquor smuggling connected with Detroit in the mind of America that when the new Detroit-Windsor tunnel opened recently, local correspondents of newspapers in other cities were asked for special stories on what precautions were to be taken against using the tunnel for that purpose.

Like all folk tales, these have a strange basis in facts, but the facts are, in most instances, far from the popular fancies. It is quite true that until 18 months ago smuggling was a big industry here. They simply brought liquor across the river in boats when nobody was looking, and in the winter pulled sleds or drows-trucks across the ice. They would have laughed at the expensive and complicated system of a submarine cable or a floating buoy.

Some have tried false sides and false seats in automobiles, most of them to their sorrow. Customs officers found generally that smugglers of this type were outside the big rings—in fact, often were people who had heard and believed the folk tales. In other instances, they were people out of work who amateurishly took the longest way around to commit a crime. Customs officers at the ferry, the bridge and the tunnel are in the habit of looking at automobiles. They know the "feel" of cushions and sides of all makes of cars, and they are familiar with the appearance of the underpinning. While a smuggler who adopts such a device may have the good luck to get by with a casual inspection for a time, smuggling in a secret compartment is a certain way to lose an automobile if it is kept up. Such a smuggler is rated "commercial" rather than "casual," and his car is seized.

85 a Bottle A "casual" smuggler is one who brings over a bottle or two for drinking purposes. He usually gets off with a fine or 30 a bottle, if he is an American citizen. An alien is subject to deportation. Smugglers who bring liquor on their persons form about the only class that goes in extensively for fanciful devices. A quart of liquor, or even a pint shows pretty plainly in a pocket.

ACHES SHOULD GO AWAY by 5TH HOUR MUSTEROLE Mustogrel safe counter-irritant, is often effective after direct application and usually drives out muscular aches and pains by 5th hour.

Scissors Week For one week we will sharpen scissors at 5 cents a pair. Bring them in early. When you bring your scissors you can enter the guessing contest.

Skates Sharpened If you want to be a winner in the races on Feb. 15th, get your skates sharpened the way all professional skaters do. We can do it to perfection for you. E. F. Bolger "The Bicycle Man" 1005 Second Ave. S.

TRENNARY NEWS

Trenary, Feb. 4. (Special)—A coffee social was held at the John Wirtanen home Sunday, Feb. 1 for the benefit of the Finnish Lutheran church.

Martha Wirtanen who is employed by the Trenary Co-operative association spent Sunday at her parents' home east of Winters.

Saimi Jusila, who has been employed by Mrs. Ed Tound, spent the week-end at the home of her parents in North Delta.

A party was held at the North Delta school Saturday night, Jan. 31. Much on the occasion was furnished by Charles Jusala.

Mrs. Gladys Fraly of Stoughton is working in the Dan Reeves home south of Winters.

Tauno Freeland of Chatham visited in the Walter Cunningham home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles June of Big Bay, Wis. visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trudell last week. Mr. Trudell who has been working in Big Bay returned with them.

Dr. E. F. Brasler was called to the Dan Reeves home Friday morning on account of sickness in the family.

Inspections and knows that the chances are even he won't get by with a formal "once over" hesitates about taking chances.

Donald Webber is recovering from an attack of erysipelas. Mrs. Alonzo Taylor has returned from Forest Lake where she had been caring for him.

Mrs. Eleanor Waite and Miss Alice Hillstrom were Sunday guests in the Peter Hoy home.

Malcolm Thompson spent the week-end with his friend Kenneth Robinson of Oster.

Mrs. Minnie Saari of Larson, Mich. spent the week-end with the Erik Saari family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jorma Syrjanen and the Misses Martha Wirtanen, Miriam Sivala and Florence Bell attended the play in Marquette Friday night, which was put on for the benefit of the unemployed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellt visited at the Vaino Hakala home in Marquette Jan. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Latvala, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Latvala, Mrs. David Seppanen and Mrs. Ida Koski were Sunday guests in the Aad Pylkannen home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Syrjanen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellt, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Lampi and John Laakola went to Marquette Sunday night to see the play "Samson and Delilah" which was presented by the Co-operative Society of Marquette.

What might have been a serious fire occurred Saturday at Trenary when the woodshed and some wood belonging to Frank Dohalak burned. They were able to keep the house from catching.

St. Francis Hospital

Patients who are reported as improving favorably include Nap Morin, Abe Block, Robert Morin, Miss Cecelia Flynn of Harris, Arthur Armstrong, Jack Adolffson, Blanche Petter, John Boyle, Verne Boyie, Mrs. Oscar Peterson of Milwaukee, and Mrs. Harriet Haring.

Mrs. Cyril J. Beaudouin, 1327 Ludington street, submitted to an operation and is as well as can be expected. Visitors are not allowed.

Tony Zekich had a finger amputated after having been injured some time ago.

Miss Marie Flynn of Harris submitted to an operation for relief from appendicitis and is as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Hyman Sohn, 304 South Fourth-street, was admitted as a surgical patient.

John Downey of Germfask was admitted as a medical patient.

Mrs. Elizabeth Blanchard, 329 South Fifteenth street, was admitted as a medical patient.

Mrs. Wm. Gardner, 2010 North Fifteenth street, submitted to an operation and is as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wetmore of Munising came to Trenary Saturday to visit Mrs. Margaret Scott who lives west of town.

Charles Fung, who has been quite ill, is reported as improving favorably.

The condition of Mrs. Delma Richards of Wells is very grave and visitors are not allowed outside of her immediate family.

Patients who have been dismissed are Mrs. John Weber, Manistique; Mrs. Henry Carlson, Rock; Mrs. Wm. Poupore, Roy Peterson, Andrew Nelson, Mrs. Mose LaCombe, Emil Carlson, Walter Whitburn, Jos. Ziller, John Bonner, Mrs. Tillie Seaward, and Mike Kemton of Gladstone.

Now read the Classified page.

to a serious operation for approval of gall bladder removed and is not allowed visitors. ERNEST FYNN, 1813 Sheridan Road, underwent an operation for appendicitis and is as well as can be expected. Charles Fung, who has been quite ill, is reported as improving favorably. The condition of Mrs. Delma Richards of Wells is very grave and visitors are not allowed outside of her immediate family. Patients who have been dismissed are Mrs. John Weber, Manistique; Mrs. Henry Carlson, Rock; Mrs. Wm. Poupore, Roy Peterson, Andrew Nelson, Mrs. Mose LaCombe, Emil Carlson, Walter Whitburn, Jos. Ziller, John Bonner, Mrs. Tillie Seaward, and Mike Kemton of Gladstone.

WANTED The Woodson Accident Insurance Company has a wonderful territory open here. This is a chance for someone to earn at least $2,000 a year. This company has given helpful advice to its many policy holders since 1850. It is not in any way connected with the Fraternal Order. Write F. E. CHASE, Stephenson, Mich. District Representative.

SUNSHINE MELLOWS Heat Purifies

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED."—an extra, secret heating process. Harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos are expelled by "TOASTING." These irritants are sold to others. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

FEEN-A-MINT FOR CONSTIPATION Effective in Milder Doses Insist on the Genuine LUCKY STRIKE "IT'S TOASTED" CIGARETTES TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. network.

"It's toasted" Your Throat Protection - against irritation - against cough

Society

AMY BOLGER, Editor

WOMAN'S PAGE

Telephone No. 693

Personals

Webster Honor Roll Excellent Semester Record

Announcement of a splendid record of attendance made by pupils in the Normal Training School...

- Grade Eight: Edith Carlson, Evelyn Rasmusen. Grade Four: Lillian Carlson, Charlotte Gafner, Paul Ringstrand. Webster School: Jane Anderson, Mildred Bick, Blanche Erickson...

Fashions in Florida

Social registerites in Palm Beach apparently enjoy being taken for a ride—and on sunny days parasols dot the walks with their color.

Today's Bridge

BY WM. E. MCKENNEY, Sec'y American Bridge League

NORTH: S-A-K-10-6, H-6-5-2, D-6-5, C-10-10-9. EAST: S-7-4-3, H-8-10, D-7-4-3, C-8-6. SOUTH-DEALER: S-Q-8-5, H-J-8-4, D-A-K-Q-8, C-A-7-5.

The Vienna coup is the greatest of all squeeze plays and the hardest to recognize in bridge. The principal of the Vienna coup is as follows...

One hand is lacking of trump entries which must be used in order to promote the squeeze. The opposite hand, generally the dummy, has a long suit. In order to successfully work the Vienna coup...

Do not attempt to follow today's hand by merely reading the article. Lay out the cards and see if you can make four odd at spades double dummy...

At contract, South the dealer bid one diamond, West one heart, North one spade, East pass, South three spades...

East opened the king of hearts, the top of his partner's suit, followed by the 10. West overtook the ace, East discarding a club...

Entertains Bridge Club: Miss Anna Krutch entertained members of her Bridge club at a regular meeting Tuesday evening...

Old Time Dance: The Holy Name society of St. Joseph's church will entertain at an old-fashioned hard time dancing party Friday evening...

Sodality Girls: The Sodality of the Immaculate Conception of St. Patrick's church enjoyed a splendid program at the regular meeting Tuesday evening...

Wednesday Bridge Club: Mrs. A. J. Perrin, 415 Ogden avenue, was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club Wednesday afternoon...

Five Hundred Club: Mrs. A. Mayville, 501 South Fifteenth street, entertained the Five Hundred club at its regular meeting Tuesday evening...

Meeting Postponed: The meeting of the Priscilla Sewing Circle of the Norwegian Danish Lutheran church which was to have been held this evening, has been postponed.

Birthday Anniversaries: Mrs. Dan Counterman was pleasantly surprised Monday afternoon at her home by a party of fourteen neighbors and friends who arranged the affair in observance of her fifty-first birthday anniversary...

Baked Goods Sale: The ladies of St. Patrick's parish will conduct a sale of baked goods Saturday, February 7, at Peterson's Flower shop...

Bridge Club: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Anderson, 216 South Sixteenth street, entertained their Bridge club at its regular meeting Tuesday evening...

Break That Cold: If you have any particularly dirty job to do about the kitchen, insert white hand soap under each nail before beginning...

Break That Cold: VOCO COLD PREPARATION. MILLIONS OF POUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT.

Glorifying Yourself

By Ann Hart

Beautiful mouths abound these days, with such a wide variety of lip-lines, that you don't have to have a cupid's bow to be known as a ravishing beauty.

Favorite Recipe

A delicious salad for your lunch which is tasty and easily made is the Pineapple Salad made in accordance with the following recipe...

One cup powdered sugar. One cup cold cooked rice. One and one-half cups diced bananas or strawberries.

CAREFUL MEASURING: When cooking by recipe, you must remember that even measures are meant. A level cup of flour, a level teaspoon or tablespoon of this or that...

Church Events: Young People's Society of the Swedish Mission church will hold its regular meeting this evening, beginning at eight o'clock at the church.

Barr P-T Holds Splendid Meeting

The Barr Parent-Teacher association celebrated Founders Day, the thirty-fourth anniversary of the founding of the National Parent-Teacher organization...

Fashion Plaque

THIS IS the new Moroccan turban trimmed in Algerian colors. The red felt crown is encircled with twists of red felt and black and yellow grosgrain.

HOYLER'S TEA ROOM SPECIAL TODAY: Meat Balls and Italian Spaghetti or Sugar Cured Baked Ham Lyonnais Potatoes Lettuce and Pineapple Salad Tea - Coffee - Milk Dessert 50c

Social - Club

Evening Bridge

Mrs. James Degnan, 1421 First avenue south, entertained at a charming evening bridge Monday evening for Mrs. Vincent C. Farrell of Chicago...

For Guest

Mrs. Joseph Dery, 1217 First avenue south, entertained at an evening bridge party Monday for Miss Julia Foxy, who is the guest here of her sister, Mrs. Harvey Hemminger.

K. of C. Party

The Knights of Columbus, Escanaba Council No. 640, will entertain at a card party in the club rooms Sunday evening, February 8. A program will be presented in addition to the card contests...

Evening Star Card Party

The Evening Star society is entertaining at a card party this evening at the Unity hall. Both bridge and five hundred will be played with prizes for the winners...

Wednesday Bridge Club

Mrs. A. J. Perrin, 415 Ogden avenue, was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club Wednesday afternoon Luncheon at Mrs. R. E. Hodson's Tea Room at one o'clock was followed by contract bridge at the Perrin residence...

Five Hundred Club

Mrs. A. Mayville, 501 South Fifteenth street, entertained the Five Hundred club at its regular meeting Tuesday evening at her home. The club members formed two tables. First prize for high score was awarded to Mrs. Herbert McArthur, second to Mrs. Ed McMrs, and third to Mrs. Louis Ashinger...

Meeting Postponed

The meeting of the Priscilla Sewing Circle of the Norwegian Danish Lutheran church which was to have been held this evening, has been postponed.

Birthday Anniversaries

Mrs. Dan Counterman was pleasantly surprised Monday afternoon at her home by a party of fourteen neighbors and friends who arranged the affair in observance of her fifty-first birthday anniversary...

Baked Goods Sale

The ladies of St. Patrick's parish will conduct a sale of baked goods Saturday, February 7, at Peterson's Flower shop...

Bridge Club

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Anderson, 216 South Sixteenth street, entertained their Bridge club at its regular meeting Tuesday evening...

NAIL PROTECTION

If you have any particularly dirty job to do about the kitchen, insert white hand soap under each nail before beginning...

Break That Cold WITH VOCO COLD PREPARATION

Miss Elaine L. McDermans, teacher Frank Grisch, Frances Waterspring, Margaret Johnson, Clifford Moran, Kenneth Erickson, Stephen Kobosch, Beatrice Beau champ, Ewald Swanson, Billy Schmidt. Grade Five: Miss Lucille A. Warmlington, teacher. Norma Lou Burns, Catherine Rodman, Elaine Anderson, Leona Vanderlinden.

Prettiest Girl Leading War On Student Drinking

Charlotte N. C. (A) - Frank McNinch, new federal power commissioner, has a daughter as fearless as himself in expressing views on prohibition. Miss Mary Groomer McNinch, the "prettiest and most original girl" on the campus of Queens-Chicago college by vote of her fellow-students...

Miss Helen A. Smith, teacher. Ida Mae Waterspring, Mildred Westerby, Ruby Kroll, Irene Londo, Mary Rudden, Paul Roman, Anna Martinac, Erma Bentson. Grade Two: Miss E. Margoles, teacher. Ullaine Charlesols, Stephen Golo back, Howard Kilmetz, Jack Kosky, Robert Looeden, Nicky Poquet.

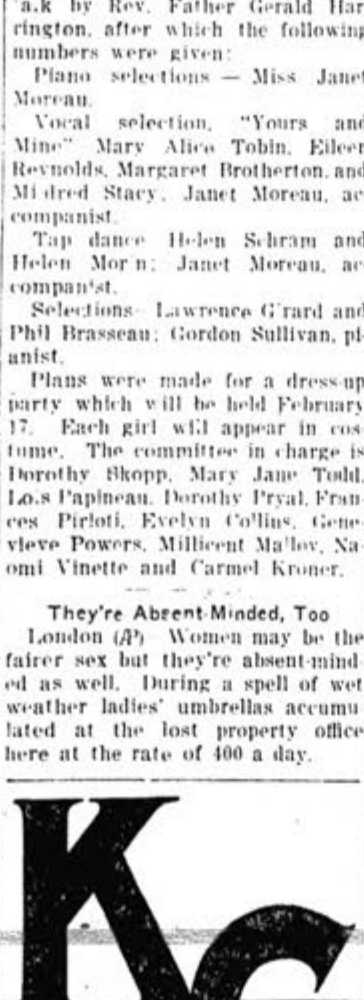

Mrs. Joseph Dery, 1217 First avenue south, entertained at an evening bridge party Monday for Miss Julia Foxy, who is the guest here of her sister, Mrs. Harvey Hemminger.

The program opened with a short talk by Rev. Father Gerald Harrington, after which the following numbers were given: Piano selections - Miss Janet Moreau. Vocal selection, "Yours and Mine" Mary Alice Tobin, Eileen Reynolds, Margaret Brotherton, and Mildred Stacy, Janet Moreau, accompanist.

Plans were made for a dress-up party which will be held February 17. Each girl will appear in costume. The committee in charge is Dorothy Skopp, Mary Jane Todd, Lois Eppelman, Dorothy Fryal, Frances Bristol, Evelyn Collins, Genevieve Powers, Millicent Malloy, Naomi Vinette and Carmel Kroner.

They're Absent-Minded, Too: London (?) Women may be the fairer sex but they're absent-minded as well. During a spell of wet weather ladies' umbrellas accumulated at the lost property office here at the rate of 400 a day.

PARALLEL FLAVOR-PROTECTION SUCCESSES: Butter tastes fresher when the Vegetable Parchment wrapper is used for Flavor-Protection. Coffee is fresher when M.J.B.'s patented Hi-Test Vacuum removes air for Flavor-Protection.

FLAVOR is everything in coffee. Air destroys flavor completely. M-J-B is a rich blend of the finest coffees. It tastes fresher as it has 2 patented air-exposure preventions or flavor-protections no other coffee has. Before opening, M-J-B is flavor-protected by its exclusive Hi-Test Vacuum method, giving more complete and uniform air removal. See the automatic "Hi-Test Vacuum Seal" no other coffee has, on the bottom of every M-J-B tin. After opening, M-J-B is flavor-protected

Winter Programs at best with new tubes. Don't miss fine programs during long winter evenings. Replace worn-out tubes with RCA Radiotrons for 100% reception. Look for red and black cartons.

SAVE Cut your cleaning expense by having your garments Dry Cleaned and Pressed at this special, low rate: WOMEN'S Plain or Pleated Dresses Plain or Trimmed Coats -and- MEN'S Suits and Overcoats -for- ONE DOLLAR NU-WAY CLEANERS 1209 Ludington St. Phone 1051 Gladstone Branch—Gladstone Steam Laundry

Service That Saves Motorists! Remember! there's a big difference in various kinds of gas and oil. Our gasoline gives that quick, powerful surge that is so welcome on the getaway or open road. Our oil protects the vital parts of your car, prevents wear, and results in better all-round lubrication. Hansen & Jensen Oil Co. Oldest Independent Oil Dealers in Delta Co. Dealers in Genuine Johnson Ethyl Gas, Quality Motor Oils and Gas, Valvoline Motor Oil, Mobile Oil

Escanaba Woman's Club Presenting Clever Comedy Drama February 11

Mrs. G. W. Moll Is Directing Clever Play

Just what happens when a bride whose husband has kissed her only five times before leaving on a business trip, has her imposing, dignified sister, a femininat, arrive as a guest, that day, is told in an entertaining manner in "Clubbing a Husband," which will be presented by the Escanaba Woman's club Wednesday evening, February 11, under the direction of Mrs. G. W. Moll.

The play will be given at the First Presbyterian social hall where rehearsals are now being held regularly.

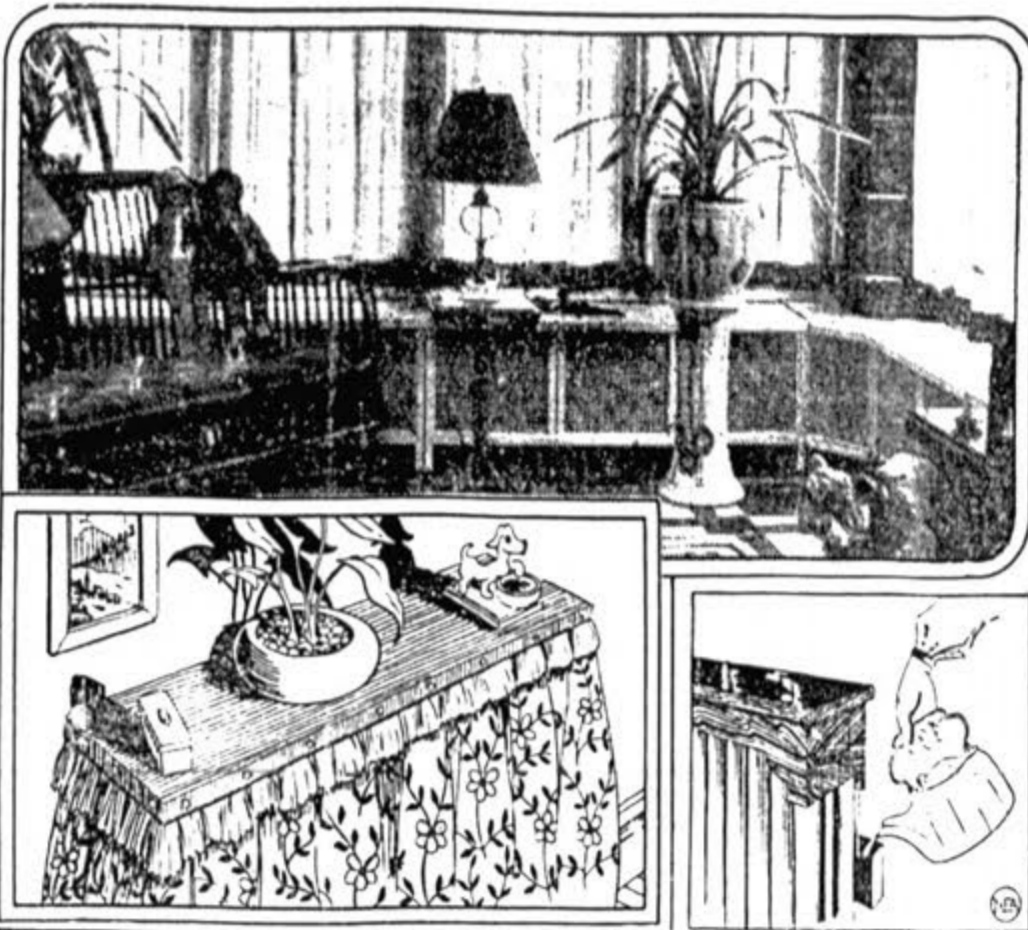

The cast includes talented Escanaba women, whose ability and experience in previous productions well qualify them for their various roles.

Mrs. Clarence Zorbel is Mrs. Newton the bride, who is much upset by what she considers her husband's indifference. Mrs. Phillip Clark plays Mrs. Henrietta Ashton, her sister from Boston, who has suffragette theories and who sponsors the organization of a club which shall have as its slogan "Down with men." Maude, her daughter, an overgrown, awkward girl, who is dressed younger than her years by her imposing mother, is played by Mrs. R. A. Chynoweth. The comedy character roles are filled by the roles of Cook, who is Mrs. E. L. Hubbard, and Bridget, the Irish wash lady, who is Mrs. Gibson Vreath.

Mrs. Charles Spaulder plays Mrs. Conway, an old-fashioned provincial grandmother who is slow and feeble of step but quick and shrewd of tongue. Mrs. Walter Dickson is Mrs. Ferris, her daughter, a timid, shrinking woman, neatly dressed. Miss Alma Suter plays the Jordan, who is very mannish, vain and neat. Prospective members of the club are Mrs. Whitney, who is inclined to be jealous. Mrs. Raymond (Fred) Hill; Mrs. Reynold's bergain hunter; played by Mrs. C. Vocht; Mrs. Hudson, who is inclined to be nervous. Mrs. L. K. Edwards; and Mrs. Skelark, a woman of ideals Mrs. H. E. Olson.

"Guest Night"
The play will feature Guest Night meeting of the club.

Radiators May Add Beauty to Room

The built-in window seat in the photograph above conceals steam radiator pipes and adds to the attractiveness of the room. Lower left is a sketch showing how the same purpose is accomplished by a shelf and chintz curtain. The drawing lower right illustrates a device for keeping air healthy.

Personal News

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Baum, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Clark left Tuesday by motor for Milwaukee, where Mr. Baum will attend a convention of hardware dealers, and Chicago, where Mr. Clark will attend a fire company convention. In addition to social functions arranged for the two convention programs, they will also be guests at the annual St. Paul Masters' ball which is to be held at the Hotel Schroeder, Milwaukee.

Mrs. Maier Jacobson and daughter, Shirley, have left for Berk River where they will spend the remainder of the winter with Mrs. Jacobson's mother, Mrs. Anna Erikson, while Mr. Jacobson is in Florida. Mr. Jacobson is chauffeur for Mr. and Mrs. William Bonfoss who are reopening their Florida residence at Miami Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Slater, 214 Lake Shore Drive, are leaving the first of the week for New York City. Mr. Slater making the trip east in connection with business interests. Following the business trip Mr. and Mrs. Slater will leave New York for a vacation stay at one of the winter resorts.

Mrs. Ralph Anderson, 309 South Eleventh street, who just recently returned to her home from St. Francis hospital where she submitted to an operation for relief from appendicitis, is recovering slowly from the effects of the operation, but will not be able to be about as usual for some time.

W. F. Redman, of Kaukauna, traveling storekeeper for the Chicago & North Western railway, and W. F. Sanford of Green Bay, district storekeeper, spent Wednesday in Escanaba.

Mr. and Mrs. Arne Anderson, 13 Harland avenue, Wells, Miss Margaret Anderson, and Reginald Call have returned from Fairport where they visited as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Devet.

Mrs. Frank Shepeck and son, Francis, will leave today for an extended visit with relatives in Detroit, and with friends in Chicago and Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Margaret Tully and her sister, Miss Anna Webb, are visiting with relatives in Fond du Lac and Wausau, Wis.

Rose Chapter Hears Debate On Vaccination

The Rose Chapter of St. Joseph's Pasteur club held its meeting Wednesday morning, the session opening with a roll call in response to which the students answered forty questions.

Mr. Beaumont gave a report on specimens which include stems of shrubs brought by Isadore Furley, Walter Taylor, stems of chestnut brought by Donald Moreau, fine specimens of birch bark brought by Charles DeGrand. The enrollment section of the constitution was read and Margaret Ryan was appointed delegate to secure honorary members from the Junior class.

The program of the meeting was a debate, arranged by Arthur Walker, on the subject, "Resolved: That Vaccination Should Be Compulsory in the United States," with Arlene Shanahan, Evelyn Borrow and Loretta Villeneuve, negatives, and Lionel Beaumont, Roy DeGrand and Robert Bloomstrom, affirmatives.

Margaret Reitzer is chairman of the next meeting to be held February 25.

Check Women In Industry

London (P)—How far women have replaced men in British industry is a question Britain hopes to answer next April when it takes its census.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS

REG U S PAT OFF

Limbering up is a stiff task in the morning.

Brown and Beige for Wedding Party

Washington (P)—Rose beige and brown, carried out in chiffon dresses with mink trimming, were worn by the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Mary Emily Hamilton.

Small brown velvet hats with shoes and gloves to match, completed the costumes. The maid and matron of honor were similarly attired, though in a lighter shade. All carried bouquets of tulle roses.

Harrahan Bros.

Main Store Phones 148 and 149 Branch Store Phones 606 and 607

Oranges by the Bushel
Orange Juice for Breakfast? Here is the very orange you want. Thin skinned full of sweet, zesty juice. Order a Bushel or a Peck.

Per Bushel, 48 pounds $2.75
Peck, 12 pounds 75c

California Sweet Peas—Well filled pods, extra special, 2 pounds 59c

Head Lettuce—Extra special, the lowest price in years, 4 solid heads 27c

Carrots—Again we are able to sell you California Finger Carrots at the lowest prices ever, 3 large bunches 25c

If there ever was a time when you could afford to buy Quality Fruits and Vegetables it is now. Remember we Guarantee to please you.

Theatres

AT THE MICHIGAN
A "triple characterization," the first to be portrayed by one player in the history of the screen, is enacted by Ruth Chatterton in the new Paramount vehicle, "The Right to Love."
This intriguing drama of romantic sacrifice through three generations, at the Michigan Theatre, is a dialogue picturization of Susan Glaspell's book, "Brook Evans."
Miss Chatterton plays the role of a young girl of 1890, the same character as a mother in 1907, and the part of a modern daughter.
Many dramatic scenes between the mother and daughter are handled by Miss Chatterton in what she terms her most interesting picture since her advent to the screen two years ago.
"The Right to Love" offers Miss Chatterton her third mother role, the other two being "Sarah and Son" and "Madame X."

AT THE DELFT

DeSylva, Brown and Henderson and David Butler have done it again.
Their new Fox Movietone musical comedy romance, "Just Imagine," which had its premiere performance at the Delft Theatre last night, is a worthy successor to their masterpiece of yesterday, "Sunny Side Up."
"Just Imagine" is novel in theme and treatment, has a brilliant cast headed by the inimitable Ed Broedel and has a number of songs of the calibre which has made DeSylva, Brown and Henderson the greatest song writing team in the world.
These young men, who also wrote the story and dialog, have projected their picture fifty years into the future. The love interest, which centers about Maureen O'Sullivan and John Garriek, tells of the romance of the "Lindbergh of 1980" in a gripping and sustained fashion.
Broedel has one of the greatest roles of his career and scores repeatedly. In fact he is now our favorite comedian. Miss O'Sullivan is everything that her enthusiastic friends have said of her, and that is plenty. Garriek reveals a charming singing voice and is handsome and manly in the extreme.

DANCE

At Wells Club House

TONIGHT

Music by

MIDNIGHT ENTERTAINERS

Admission 25c

Freshman Girls Are "All-A" Students

Two "All A" honor students of St. Joseph's high school, whose names were omitted through error in the honor announcement, are Mrs. Irene Cyr and Miss Louise Laybette, both first year students in the high school.

Jozele is effective as the Martian queen, Ivan Linow as the Martian slave, and other roles are capably handled by Kenneth Thomson, Hobart Worth, Wilfred Lucas and Misha Auer.

Black Lace Jacket Smart In Capital

Washington (P)—Black lace jackets worn with black or colored gowns are the smart thing here in the honor announcement, after informal Sunday night supper.

Miss Edward Tracy Clark combines a black lace jacket with red and white. The short sleeves of the jacket are edged with black tulle. The skirt of the gown is in puffed panels with a row of buttons and slippers and pearl earrings of ivory and pearl complete the striking outfit.

Little gold safety pins, less than a half inch long, may be used to pin shields into a dress. This is easier than sewing and easier to remove for washing. Pin them to the seams.

ANNUAL CLEARANCE

The Opening of Anderson & Bonfeld's ONCE-A-YEAR Furniture Clearance

Brings a Flood of Buyers from the entire territory. Reductions in some cases exceed 75% Off

Buy everything you need for your home now—You'll get beauty and quality at prices never before known!

Scores of small pieces at Sensational Savings!

NOT only suites for every room, but also small pieces of every description—chairs, tables, lamps, smokers, cedar chests, rugs, desks, etc.—all reduced!

ANDERSON & BONEFELD

ESCANABA

STOLEN

60% of your Coffee Flavor

AIR is the robber! Science finds that Air steals 60% of coffee's flavor within nine days after roasting.* But Air is completely foiled by White House Coffee's tight-locked Thermo-fresh tin.

A few minutes after it leaves the roasting oven, this glorious blend is sealed the Thermo-fresh way. You get all its mellow goodness . . . and yet you pay no more for it. In fact, it costs you less, because you need not use as much per cup. Dwinell-Wright Company, Boston, Chicago, Portsmouth, Va.

WHITE HOUSE Thermo-fresh COFFEE

*What Flavor Measurement Reveals About Keeping Coffee Fresh," by Percy W. Punnett, Ph.D., and Walter H. Eddy, Ph.D., in "Food Industries"

Mormon Occupation Of Beaver Island

The Story of King Strang

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fourth installment of the story of King Strang and the Mormons.)

BY ROBERT H. WRIGHT
At Voree, a labor camp was erected and Strang also started the "Voree Herald" as the official organ of the new Mormon church. Strang printed his pamphlets and the hymns of the Mormon composition and occasionally journeyed to distant parts of the country preaching the gospel of the new faith. His apparent earnestness and his powers of oratory attracted and impressed many and he made converts here and there. In this manner he succeeded in attracting a considerable following of his own.

The antagonism of the Gentiles was manifest at Voree as it had been in other places where Mormonism had tried to plant stakes of Zion. Strang sensed the danger attending the establishment of a new sect in a country already pretty well settled, where old prejudices would have to be uprooted. If he was to be a Moses, leading his chosen people to a new locality that place had to have a proper setting. It must have a Scriptural atmosphere and Scriptural nomenclature and it must be isolated in order to avoid the interference of the Gentiles. If there could not be a Red Sea there must at least be a Sea of Galilee, a river Jordan, a Mount Pisgah, etc. In his aquatic travels Strang had glimpsed the Beaver Island group and his imaginative mind saw in these beautiful isles the promised land, the Mormon empire.

Finds "Land of Promise"
In the spring of 1847 Strang and four companions engaged the captain of a little hooker to land them on Beaver Island, pawning their blankets for the passage. They had some food but no money, so they slept in woods, ate leeks and beechnuts when their food supply was exhausted. They were lucky enough to obtain employment and they built a cabin and explored the island.

Strang returned a short time later and told the folks back home in Voree that he had found the land of promise and the exodus began, feeble and straggling at first. A half dozen men and twice that number of women wintered on Beaver Island. The next year more came and by 1850 the Mormon colony had greatly increased in numbers, reaching a zenith before the murder of Strang, when the Mormon population numbered between a thousand and fifteen hundred souls.

When the Mormons first began to settle on Beaver Island the country was practically a wilderness. There were two sawmills operating near the mouth of the Menominee river. Much of the north coast of Lake Michigan was unsettled, except for a few straggling hamlets inhabited mostly by French, Indians and half-breeds. Both coasts along the straits of Mackinac contained the most populous communities, while Mackinac Island contained a mixed population of the descendants of soldiers and traders, Irish and French and Indians, and the island was the recognized seat of government for the straits region for the transaction of business and for seasons of court. The settler on Beaver Island, before the advent of Irish descent and were engaged in fishing. There was friendly social and business intercourse with the people of Mackinac. There was a small settlement at Pine River (Charles Lake) on the south coast of the lake, and the entire Grand Traverse region was growing in population. Little Traverse (Harbor Springs), on Little Traverse Bay was an older settlement with Catholic mission church and an Indian agent, an important personage in those days. There were also settlers at Middle Village and Cross Village, and at Mackinaw City, while across the straits was the old Jesuit town of St. Ignace and there were settlements at Seul Choix and other straggling communities along the shore as far as Escanaba.

Ideal Spot for Colony
Beaver Island was a strategic point for a Mormon kingdom. It was sufficiently isolated and thinly populated to suit Strang's purposes, and it would serve as the central point from which to some day seize other islands of the archipelago. The different islands would serve as a protection and as a hiding place for Strang's "navy" and permit of unseen maneuvers after some raid had been made upon the mainland and the property of the Gentiles "consecrated."

Beaver Island, the largest of the group was admirably suited as a location for founding a prosperous colony of any kind. According to a U. S. survey made at that time, John Harris Foster gives the dimensions of the island's greatest measurements, as thirteen miles in length and six miles in width. It has a fine bay, and was covered with maple and other mixed timber. It contains several lakes and streams with waterfalls suitable for generating power. The soil was good, the climate healthful. The island was stocked with game and its waters teemed with every variety of fish that swims the great lakes.

Beaver Island derived its name from the Indian name of "amitek," which means a beaver and not because any beavers inhabited the island, as Wm. W. Johnson, of Mackinaw, has asserted, but because of its fanciful resemblance to a huge beaver, with head pointing north, as the island is viewed from a distance.

The upper reaches of Lakes Huron and Michigan and the straits of Mackinaw were dotted with Mackinaw sail boats, that peculiar type of speedy, seaworthy craft, designed after the style of the canoe of the Ottawa and later built by the Indian boatbuilders with remarkable skill, for they turned out beautiful boats, single and two-masted with simple tools and without blue prints to guide their unerring eyes and hands. Occasionally was seen a small "hooker," a two-masted schooner, used in coast-wise trade, and now and then the old Michigan, or the Keystone State, or some other propeller or side-wheel ploughed the waters and was the object of the curious interest of all here and there along the mainland the blue smoke of some new settler's chimney curled upward to proclaim the advent of another adventurous soul and sometimes the crack of a rifle awakened the echoes of the forest as some hunter sent a bullet crashing through the heart of a deer.

Such were the surroundings amid which Strang planted his stake of Zion, the land of promise, where he would found his empire.
(To Be Continued)

GARDEN NEWS

Garden, Feb. 4. (Special)—Several fishermen report that they saw a wolf on the ice near Burnt Bluff, Favette. The animal went from the ice and on to the bluff, loitering around the George Le Marbe farm. Several times, he came within about two hundred feet of the Le Marbe home. Drake Raymond, a close neighbor afterward managed to get close enough to the wolf to shoot him with a shot gun.
George Touschack and Nelson Jensen, Fayette fishermen report that they have recently lost sixteen nets which had been set under the ice. Ben Johnson is also reported to have lost twenty-five. Other Fairbank's township fishermen have lost nets in larger and smaller amounts.
Burnt Bluff residents report that there is open water half a

HAVE YOUR PEN AND PENCIL

Engraved with your name in 22 Karat Gold Leaf. Engraving done by electricity while you wait.
Special offer until Feb. 10, of 25c per pen or pencil.

DEHLIN'S DRUG STORE

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express our sincere appreciation for the many expressions of sympathy extended to us during our recent bereavement, the loss of our husband and father, Theodore D. Springer. To those who sent floral tributes, furnished cars and in many other ways, extended their sympathy and made our great sorrow easier to bear, we shall always be grateful. We wish especially to thank Gladstone Lodge No. 396, F. & A. M. and Minnewan Chapter No. 96 O. E. S. for their untiring attention, Escanaba Commandery Knights Templar, Delta Chapter R. A. M., B. of L. F. & E., and B. of L. E. as well as all visiting Masonic and Star members who assisted in arranging the matters that were so ably taken care of for us. These thoughtful and generous acts of kindness can never be forgotten.
Mrs. T. D. Springer, and son George T. Springer.

TOM BOLGER Manager

GLADSTONE

PHONE 32
RIALTO BLDG.

ARRESTED ON THEFT CHARGE

Escanaban Denies Crime; Examination Set for February 21

Arraigned here yesterday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Phil Hany on a charge of theft, John Albright, 30, of Escanaba, denied and demanded an examination, which has been set for 9 a. m., Feb. 21, at the local court. Bond was set at $100.

Albright was arrested by members of the sheriff's department upon the complaint of Mary Reilga, from whom the theft was alleged to have been made. According to the complaint, the articles, which include a set of china dishes, silverware, blankets, quilt and spread, totaling in value approximately $37, were stolen from the White Rock gasoline station between Bark River and Narenta on July 8, 1930.
According to Albright who conducted the station for a time, he purchased the articles from the person who ran the filling station before him.

Rotarian Duo Set Marks In Beating Office Pin Quilt

Two of the prettiest bowling performances seen here this season were turned in Tuesday evening by G. Raymond Empton and J. F. Richardson. Members of the Rotary club team. Incidentally, their scores played a prominent part in the Rotarians' sweeping victory over the Office five.

Attorney Empton rolled scores of 194, 215 and 245 for an average of 218, while Richardson averaged the 200 mark in every game, rolling 223, 213 and 208 for a 215 average. Both marks, for consistency, surpassed any chalked up on the local alleys this year.

Match score:
Rotary
Empton 194 215 245
Card 122 162 112
Jones 148 179 176
Richardson 223 213 208
Noreus 148 170 165
Totals 835 939 907

Office
Coutant 169 209 195
Olson 145 180 146
O. D'Amour 136 161 170
E. D'Amour 177 178 142
Van De Wekke 171 202 206
Totals 788 930 880

Mrs. Leo Wintel is confined to her home with a severe cold.

mile from Burnt Bluff to Peninsula Point, which is a very unusual fact for this time of the year.
A large truck owned by a local trucking company was helpless stuck in the field which is used as a short cut out to the Polish settlement Monday. A tractor was brought up from town and towed it out.

BRIEFLY TOLD

Preaching Services at Rapid

On Sunday, Feb. 8, beginning at 9:30 o'clock, the Rev. E. Hupp, pastor of St. Peter's congregation at Manistique will conduct divine services in St. Martin's Lutheran church of Rapid River. The services will be held in the English language. A hearty welcome is extended to one and all.

Prayer Meeting—Regular weekly prayer meeting of the Baptist Mission will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Nels Wickland, Dakota avenue.

Apron Auction—Plans for an apron auction under the sponsorship of the Baptist Mission, to be held in the Salvation Army hall, Delta avenue, on Feb. 12, were announced yesterday.

Missionary Society—Meeting of the Missionary society of the First Lutheran church will be held at 2:30 this afternoon with Mrs. Hilding Granberg, of Jerhoms, 993 Delta avenue.

Menominee Bowlers—Four bowling teams two each representing the Menominee Men's and ladies' leagues will come here Sunday for matches with picked teams from the Gladstone men's and girls' leagues. It will be a return meeting for the feminine bowlers, the border city crews winning several weeks, but will be the first battle between the men of either city.

Choose Reception Committee for the 14th Charity Ball

Members of the reception committee for the Fourteenth annual Charity Ball which will be held at Terrace Gardens, Monday, Feb. 16, were chosen Tuesday at a meeting of the social committee of the Child's Welfare Club, sponsors, at the home of Mrs. J. F. Card, committee chairman.

Those who will receive are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosenblum, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mallongree, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mottle, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Empton, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Card, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Westcott and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Raddant.
Tickets for the event, always one of the outstanding social events of the year, have already been placed on sale and club officials are hopeful of making this year's ball the most successful of any in years. Proceeds from the event are placed in a fund to be used for strictly charitable purposes.

Members of the social committee assisting Mrs. Card in the arrangements are the Mesdames G. R. Empton, M. J. Makopp, C. E. Russell, Claude E. Hawkins, Frank A. Miller, Stanly R. Vene, Gus E. D'Alin, Hilmer J. Skogquist, Jas. T. Jones, R. J. Riley, J. Paul Bushong, Roland A. Hale, Herbert J. Norton, August Feldt, Charles Green, Ole Peterson, J. D. Staple and Miss Agnes Olson.

121 NEITHER ABSENT, TARDY

Many Students From Junior, Senior Highs in Select Group

One hundred and twenty-one students in the Gladstone Junior and Senior High schools were neither absent nor tardy during the first semester, Sept. 2 to Jan. 2 according to a list issued yesterday by Principal C. C. Strickland.

Those in the select group according to class and teacher in charge are:

Seniors, Mr. Bainter—James Dento, Raymond Tardiff, Reuben Sundling, Viola Tang, Milton Lindblad, Reed Freeman and Leo Nyberg.
Juniors, Mr. Sunblad—Ned Appelgren, Clifford Buckmaster, Isabel Lattimer, Cornelia Martin, Harold Nehmer, Jack Staple and Leo Weingartner.

Sophomores, Miss Schutz, Mary Boden, Hilding Carlson, Alen Flannery, William Frank, Emmo Harlis, Dorine Menard, Alice Olson, Lawrence Oak, Mae Poutvin, Ethel Tucker and Hilding Peterson.
Sophomores, Mr. Quarnstrom—Carl Holm, Albert Kinkella, F. H. Larson, Ed Murphy, Mary Watson, Evelyn Sundling, Ivan Upton and William Seale.
Freshmen, Mr. Fisher—Joseph Anderson, Violet Boldus, Paul Cole, Clarence Gabrielson, Beatrice Jahnke, Elsie Johnson, Arlene Jones, Margaret Kolson, Elizabeth Lewis, Mildred Marshall, James Norton and Julie Puddin.

Freshmen, Miss Danielson—George Lindberg, William Lynaugh, Mildred Menard, Elwood Peterson, Harold Rosenbaum, Lillian Skogquist, Ruth Skogquist, Albert Toussaint, Ray VanMill and Helen Wilzlus.
Freshmen, Miss Davis—Ralph Ackley, Carl Davis, Robert Nebel, Norman Peterson, Joseph Rason, Andrew Vargo, Ellice Baker, Mildred Kasen, Irene Syle and Claire Sword.

Freshmen, Miss Haller—Helea Anderson, Lyle Beaudry, Vivian Bjorkman, Donald Robert, Viola Danielson, Guy Freeman, Mildred Gabrielson, Merlel Goffroy and Dorothy Kallerson.
Eighth Grade, room 1, Miss Harris—Erick Applezon, Albert Harris, Lorraine LaFramboise, Adelle Martinson, Lenora Olson, Anta Rose, Paul Simpson.
Eighth Grade, room 2, Miss Empton—William Broekke, Julius Clapp, Marjorie Proberg, Arthur Helmer, Mildred Larson, Allen Mathison, Elleen Nebel and William Roland.

Eighth Grade, room 3, Mrs. Mallongree—Anetta Broeckhart, Gladys G. Fillmore, Lloyd Hite

RIALTO TODAY and Friday
Two Excellent Shows for One Admission Price. Tonight Only

SHELL-SHOCKED BY A KISS!

He won the war single-handed, but he was shellshocked by a kiss!

Keaton, the laugh Buster, is funnier even than in "Free and Easy"

BUSTER KEATON
in the Howitzer of Howls

Dough Boys
A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer ALL TALKING picture

—ALSO—
A Picture You Will Long Remember. With An All Star Cast Featuring Belle Bennett

"COURAGE"
Shows 7 and 9 Usual Adm.

SOCIAL

Bridge Party

Mrs. E. A. D'Amour entertained members of her bridge club Tuesday afternoon at her home, 1207 Dakota avenue. Two tables were in play and high honors were won by Mrs. G. E. Dehlin and second by Mrs. Fred Minay. A dainty lunch was served at 6 o'clock.

Quilting Club

Members of the Quilting Club were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fisher at the Fisher hotel. Eight members were present and dinner was served at the conclusion of an afternoon of quilting.

Shower

Miss Blanche Perrin of Escanaba, was the honor guest at a shower held at the Fred Lough home. Forty guests were present. Cards furnished the main diversion of the event, whilst five hundred, 500 rummy, Pedro and smear being played. In what award winners were Mrs. J. P. Lous and Mrs. Paul Demeter, in 500, Mrs. Jos. Hillowort and Mrs. Gus Lierman; in Pedro, Mrs. Allan Soderman and Mrs. Joh Schram; in smear, Miss Edna Fulton and Mrs. Earl Louis, and in 500 rummy, Mrs. Willard LeRoux and Miss Rose Snowart. Miss Perrin is to become the bride of Robert Louis of this city, this morning. The ceremony will take place in St. Patrick's church at Escanaba.

CITY BRIEFS

Oliver Kurker, formerly of this city, arrived here Monday from Superior to work out of this city on the Soo Line.

Mrs. A. H. Miller is leaving today for Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., where she will spend the week-end visiting with her father, R. N. Adams and with other relatives.

Mrs. R. W. Hoffmann of Neenah, Wis., mother of Mrs. Theophil Hoffmann, left yesterday for her home after spending a few days with her daughter and family here in Gladstone.

Word has been received here that Gordon Seger, physical education director at Wakefield high school, is confined to his home with an attack of erysipelas. Mr. Seger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Seger of Nahma, a graduate of Gladstone high school and is well known in this city.

IF BABY HAS COLIC

COLIC comes suddenly. Your first intimation that something is wrong may be a warning cry in the night. If you have a bottle of Castoria handy you needn't worry, for a little of this pure vegetable remedy will soon have baby his happy self again; let him go back to sleep.

Castoria is always the sensible thing to give an ailing child. When a child is restless, fretful, with coated tongue, bad breath and lack of appetite, it is a mother's standby. Most mothers give Castoria an important place in their homes. Ready for sour stomach, constipation, or upset. When buying Fletcher's Castoria always look for Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. This identifies the genuine product.

Join the Crowds that are taking advantage of our great MID-WINTER CLEARANCE

Sheets
81x90 Hemmed and Bleached Cotton, Spec. 69c

Pillow Cases
Bleached and Hemmed Cotton. Size 36x42. Special 17c

MEN'S HEAVY DUTY ARCTICS
Regular $9.69. Special at $2.65

Men's Ball Band Dress Rubbers
Guaranteed quality. Special, per pair $1.00

Ladies' All Rubber Arctics
Brown and Tan Special, per pair $1.68

Ladies' All Rubber Snap Arctic
Brown and Tan. Special, per pair $1.44

MEN'S UNION SUITS
Part Wool. Extra fine quality. Size 34 to 46. Special $1.29

WEAR WELL BLANKET
Fancy Plaids. Size 66 x 80. Part Wool. Special $2.98

These are but a few of the many money-saving values offered in our store-wide sale.

Buckeye Dept. Store

Phone 56, 57, 58, 59

Munising News

SOCIAL The Thursday afternoon bridge club entertained by Mrs. O. E. Ole at her home on East Onota street Tuesday afternoon.

In the swamps as they generally do, staying in the uplands. Art LaFlam reports having seen a bear's tracks near the Johnson place on the Au Trail road.

MUNISING BRIEFS Mrs. James Eymeyer of this city and Mrs. Gottlieb Gurekunt of Phillips, Wis., who is here taking care of her daughter, Mrs. John Lottzette, who is ill on Grand Island, both received word yesterday that their mother was dangerously ill at Sterling, Mich.

IN THE GAME COUNTRY Hunters report rabbits very numerous in all parts of the county this winter. A rabbit stew is about as appetizing a dish as one could wish for. The meat is tender and, while it has a peculiar wild game flavor distinctly its own, this but appeals to the taste.

M. M. Benz of Masonville was in the city yesterday on business. Ezra Schmit of Mellon, Wis., who has been visiting friends here has returned home.

DEVELOPMENT CLUB The Munising Development Club is inviting a number of men from the outlying districts to meet with its members at the regular meeting to be held February 16 at the Beach Inn.

Newberry News

UTILITY PLANT NOT SOLD YET No action taken by Newberry Village Council at Meet

Newberry, Feb. 4 (Special)—No action was taken by the village council on the matter of the sale of the Newberry water and light plant. The meeting called especially for discussion of the project, was informal with members of the engineering staff of the Cliff Power and Light company, one of the two bidders, answering questions concerning their contract.

Johnson. This is a story of a man who has been told that he has but one day to live. His antics will tickle you and as will those of his friends and enemies.

HERE FOR BURIAL Mrs. Dewey Menary of Nahma, the former Clara Miller of Newberry, died on February 1 in Jefferson clinic, Detroit, following an operation. The body being brought here on Tuesday, Feb. 3 and is at the home of her sister Joseph Beahm from where the funeral will be held Thursday afternoon.

FRANK COLLINS PASSES Frank Collins, 63, died at his little home on Avenue B on Wednesday morning at seven o'clock. Up and down the street today many men are saying to each other, "Old Frank is gone."

MEMILIAN NEWS. McMillan, Feb. 4 (Special)—The Rev. Alvin Doten of Marquette was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Vardon over Sunday. C. I. Smith held services at the Hartman camp on Sunday.

Richard Brothers of Manistique has been working at the George Taylor home putting in plumbing the past week.

Among the Newberry callers in McMillan over the week-end were Frank Reese, Rex Martin, Thomas Surrill and Dave Taylor.

Epworth League Organized The Rev. Alvin Doten organized an Epworth League society in the church on Sunday. There were 24 present at the first meeting. It is hoped that with the election of officers and a well-planned program of church and social activities this will prove a valuable society for the local young people.

Woman on Prison Board Dallas (P)—Mrs. Florence C. Floore of Cleburne has been appointed on the Texas state prison board following years of work on prison reform. She is a prominent club woman.

ROCK SCHOOL'S ROLL OF HONOR

Rock, Feb. 4. (Special)—The honor roll and perfect attendance lists of the grades in the Central school for the past month are as follows:

- HONOR ROLL. Sixth Grade. Esther Guntley, Leslie Maki, Eleanor Pilon, Carol Sharkey. Fifth Grade. Mildred Alanko, Ellen Hakanen, Vienna Hill, Madeline Marshall, Talmie Norkoll, Taimi Ruusik, Rosie Waak.

Fourth Grade. Clifford Carlson, George Fournier, Grace Jokela, Pearl Kamminen, Ruth Kaukola, David Osterberg, Irvin Pilon, Leslie Rivers, Arnold Suomi, Lorraine Carlson, Evelyn Larson, Leslie Tynnela, Lawrence Klitz, Isaac Ranta.

Third Grade. Walter Anttonen, Ellen Gaudette, Toini Munnanen, Paul Norzoll, Hettie Wurtz. Second Grade. Elsie LaChappelle, Esther Jokinen, Bernard Kaukola, Mae Marmalik.

First Grade. Margaret Britz, Mildred Latvola, Jane Marie Carlson, Robert Weingartner, Kenneth Stewart, Marilyn Johnson, Warren Belmar and Paul Maki.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE. Fifth and Sixth Grades. Sulo Auer, Mildred Alanko, Phyllis Bremer, Ellen Hakanen, Violet Hill, Arthur Loukkanen, Ilma Maki, Madeline Marmalik, Carl Nelson, Taimi Ruusik, Silla Torma, Harold Irehmer, Evelyn Brow, Esther Guntley, Bernhard Heikkila, Helvio Kauppalan, Alvin LaMontagne, Unto Leppanen, Clarence Norden, Robert Norden, Eleanor Pepin, Pearl Pepin, Carol Sharkey, Oiva Turunen, Edna Brow, Eleanor Carlson, Lester Carlson, Ruth Mikkela, Ronald Norden, Esther Peltonen, Paul Peltonen, Francis Trombly, Rosie Waak.

Fourth Grade. Patrick Bridges, Clifford Carlson, George Fournier, Eugene Heikkela, Grace Jokela, Pearl Kamminen, Arvid Kaukola, Ruth Kaukola, Howard Marmalik, Imple Mattila, David Osterberg, Eugene Petola, John Peltonen, Lester Pilon, Leslie Rivers, All Maki, Leslie Tynnela, Isaac Ranta.

Third Grade. Walter Anttonen, Ellen Gaudette, Daisy Hill, Hettie Wurtz, Harold Klitz, William Mackela, Dorothy Ruohonen, Helen Johnson.

Second Grade. Bertha Fournier, Elsie LaChappelle, Emil LaCosse, Esther Jokinen, Roy Kujala, Bernard Kaukola, Olga Norden.

Kindergarten and First Grade. Marilyn Johnson, Mildred Latvola, Miles Bridges, Marjorie Mathys, Bobbie Kaukola, Francis LaChappelle, Cecile LaChappelle, Lee Norden, Junior Marmalik.

Larombe Funeral Impressive funeral services were held at St. Joseph's church at Perkins Friday morning over the body of Mrs. John LaCombe, who passed away Tuesday after a lingering illness. Rev. Fr. Colnardi was celebrant at the requiem high mass, which was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

Mrs. LaCombe was a resident of Rock for about two years, returning to her old home in Perkins last year. While the body lay at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeBreshe of Rock, the scores of friends, who called to pay their last respects, showed the high esteem in which she was held.

Out-of-town relatives and friends, who came here for the funeral, were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Beuchamp, Mr. and Mrs. Mack McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Adolore Boudreau, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gerou, Mrs. John Meiers and Miss Georgiana Beauchamp, all of Escanaba; Mrs. Eva Robinson, and daughter Goldie, of Benart, Michigan; Eugene Maronger of Plat Rock; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gerou, Mrs. Ferdinand Lancoeur, Mrs. Philip Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Moreau, Mrs. H. Biggs, Mrs. Rose Winegar, Miss Marie Wilmette, Mrs. Peter Sovie and daughter Pearl, Mrs. Ernest Carlson, Mrs. Fred LeBreshe, Wilfred Beauchamp, Pacific Gerou, Mr. and Mrs. Julie Demese, Mr. and Mrs. Baptiste Gerou, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Demese, Mrs. Joseph Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. John Gerou, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew LeBreshe, Jr., Mrs. Harvey Bouprie and Andrew LeBreshe, Sr., all of Perkins.

Among those local people, who attended the Rock-Manistique basketball game at Manistique Friday evening were: Misses Norma Anderson, Leone Firkus, Florence McLean, Anna Nygaard, and Genevieve Kenn, and Ernest Fostering, Otto Larson, Gregory Bridges, Leslie Larson, Ray and Leone Carlson, Urban Trombly, Jay Huff and Charles Larson, Jr.

For Ginger's Sake by ETHEL HUESTON. THE DOBBS-MERRILL CO.

gy and spent a great many hours jogging slowly around the neighborhood from farmhouse to farmhouse making inquiries, until he discovered an abandoned old boat of the familiar, two-oared type, lying bottomside up in the barnyard of a farm two miles away.

For the trifling matter of 50 cents it became his own, and with the help of Pietro and Angelo he got it up on the set of wheels lent by the farmer for that purpose, and towed his treasure home in triumph.

At heart Benito was a genuine navigator. He liked the lazy lap and roll of water beneath him, but for the arduous work of rowing had small inclination.

He removed the seats from the boat—an easy matter, for they were rotting away to soft splinters—and filled the bottom with an old cot mattress, a pile of blankets, old ruffs, old clothes, and then, when he had rowed across the river to the deep pool, anchored at once and stretched himself out full length in the boat upon the soft bed beneath, and with a fishing line attached to each wrist, he lay in the warm sun, listened to the lap of water against the boat, dreamed dreams and saw visions, and kept the camp supplied with fresh fish.

Nor did he keep his practical craft bottom-side up on the landing with Ginger's white canoe, but let it ride the tide at the end of a long rope secured just out of sight of the cottage.

"A real bow-line mooring," approved Bard. "A real river boat," said Benito. "looks best in water."

And on his next list for Ginger was "pipe and smoking tobacco," for as he said, "pipes look best on rivermen."

Certainly to Jole de Vivre they were acquisitions without peer. They cooked, they gardened, they sang. Motor parties visited the club from far and near of drawn solely by the vivid tales of their accomplishments.

In this wave of enthusiasm, Bard Holloway managed to hold his own, receiving commissions for more portraits than he could execute in months, and at a good round price—a price fixed, and frequently raised, by none other than Ginger.

She had constituted herself his untrusting chauffeur, his patron saint and his unremitting companion. For Ginger was quick to realize that the portraits he was commissioned to do were not the safe and stately dowagers, but lowly's fairest, most marriageable daughters. She had set her heart upon establishing Bard as a portrait painter, but she meant to see that it was carried out under her personal oversight.

When the days had lengthened into a week and two weeks, Bard announced, much against his own wishes, that since there was work to keep him busy in Red Thrush for a great many days to come, he felt he must move in to town somewhere and settle down.

It was obviously the proper procedure, and at this request Phil set himself to suggesting possible addresses. And then she glanced at Ginger. Ginger was slumping disconsolately in a big chair, her head in her hand, wrapped in an air of inexpressible melancholy.

"What's the matter, Ginger? Don't you feel well? Have you been too Mill Rushed lately?" Ginger sighed. "Oh, everything is so tiresome," she mourned. "Even Jole de Vivre is stupid now that it is standing on its own foundation."

"Things are a bit dull," said Phil thoughtfully. Then she said purposefully. "I think it would be a distinct unkindness, Bard, for you to desert us right now when we are so bored with everything. It seems absolutely up to you to cheer us up. Won't you go on being company for a while—for our sakes?"

STANLEY CLAUSEN MANAGER WOMEN'S CLUB HAS FINE MEET Large Gathering Enjoys Mrs. Hughes' Talk on Modern Poetry

With the topic of "Modern Poetry" as her subject, Mrs. Gordon Hughes delighted a large audience at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Manistique Women's Club at the Elks' temple Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Hughes presented a frank criticism of modern poetry, comparing its outstanding merits with that produced in other eras and read some of the works of such contemporary geniuses as Carl Sandberg, Amy Lowell, Robert Frost, etc.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Jennie Putnam, chairman; Mrs. A. C. Laidlaw, Miss Mary McLellan, Mrs. Frank Lied, Mrs. Elmer Lundstrom, Mrs. Peter Krumme, and Mrs. Leonard Males. Mrs. R. B. Waddell, president and Mrs. Gordon Hughes, vice president, presided. Tables were decorated in valentine colors. A short business meeting was held.

BOWLING NOTES

The Yank's made Frank Lied's Pirates walk the plank Saturday night at the Elks' alleys when they took three straight games. Art Hall set the pace for the losers while Isaacson was the high man for the Yanks. The scores are as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Team, Score 1, Score 2. Pirates: Kook 201, 169, 133; Celly 124, 94, 112; Kelly 153, 164, 115; Lied 150, 132, 158; Handicap 70, 70, 70. Totals: 708, 629, 568.

Table with 3 columns: Team, Score 1, Score 2. Yanks: Cockram 175, 158, 156; Isaacson 187, 140, 186; Southard 207, 150, 139; Graphos 149, 168, 139; Handicap 43, 43, 43. Totals: 761, 659, 663.

Table with 3 columns: Team, Score 1, Score 2. Lions: Christensen 199, 153, 176; Leonard 127, 143, 157; Kelly 127, 138, 211; Tatum 123, 196, 157; Perry 183, 157, 149; Handicap 49, 49, 49. Totals: 808, 836, 899.

Table with 3 columns: Team, Score 1, Score 2. Maroons: Wyal 135, 107, 129; Strom 125, 121, 134; Hooksted 148, 130, 180; Tucker 151, 132, 110; Turk 163, 178, 158; Hudson 155, 153, 140; Handicap 153, 153, 140. Totals: 876, 880, 942.

Table with 3 columns: Team, Score 1, Score 2. Rexall's: Belltho 159, 149, 201; Cavia 124, 125, 115; Shaw 145, 160, 132; Thoma 154, 157, 145; Dreydahl 169, 217, 183; Remell 87, 87, 87. Totals: 868, 905, 871.

Mrs. Elizabeth Musgrove and children, Marjorie and Jack, are leaving today for an indefinite visit with relatives in Pontiac.

ENGADINE

Engadine, Mich. Feb. 4. (Special)—Emette Vaaler underwent an operation for appendicitis Friday morning at the Perry-Spink-Swanson hospital at Newberry. The following is the Honor Roll of the Engadine High School for the month of January.

MANISTIQUE PHONE 155 TEMPLE BLDG.

SOCIAL

Lady Elks who are competing in the bridge tournament will meet tomorrow afternoon at the Elks' Temple with the following members playing: Johnson-Ludlow vs. Powers-Crawford; Holtho-Cayla vs. Crowe-Wood-Hughes-Herbert vs. Putnam-Hixon.

FRESHMEN WILL SPONSOR PROM

Freshmen will be hosts to the sophomore Friday evening at the high school gymnasium when the annual Freshman Prom, the first social activity of the current semester, will be given. Distinct forms of entertainment have not yet been decided upon, but no decision will be made soon by Mr. Carl Olson, freshman class advisor.

CITY BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kefauver left Tuesday for Detroit where they will spend several weeks with their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kefauver. They motored as far as Saginaw in company with George Kinstling who will transact business in the lower peninsula.

J. E. McCarthy left yesterday afternoon for Escanaba to attend a meeting of county and highway engineers which is in session there today.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beckman, Hiawatha road, are the parents of a ten and one fourth pound son born Monday, February 2. Both mother and son are getting along fine.

Mrs. Carolyn Klits who has spent the past month visiting relatives in Marquette has returned to her home on Garden avenue. W. C. Broughton, state highway engineer, left yesterday morning for Escanaba to attend a meeting of state highway engineers.

Miss Ann Sawhille and Mr. Louis Sawhille have returned from Shawano, Wis., where they attended the funeral of their aunt Mrs. Conrad Weing. The trip was made by motor.

Arrangements for the broadcast were made by Mrs. Elwood Taylor and the refreshments committee was headed by Mrs. Herbert Peterson. The realistic microphone was made by Mr. Harry Martin.

BRIEFLY TOLD

Annual Roll Call—Knights of Pythias will hold annual roll call Tuesday evening, February 17. The attendance of every member is desired. A six-thirty supper will be served and reservations may be made by calling the Chancellor Commander, Dr. F. E. Dayton at 322-S.

LOCALS LOSE DEBATE Star Due to Illness

Chances of Coach Preston Tanaka's debate team in the first debate of the elimination series to be held at Gladstone next Monday evening were dimmed considerably when announcement was made that Leon Willoughby, brilliant member of the local negative team, was on the sick list with scarlet fever.

THEATRES

Mary Duncan, who plays the part of Zoleka, favorite of the Caliphs' harem in "Kismet," the First National production starring Otis Skinner, now at the Gerot theatre, was born in Lotterville, Virginia, and educated there and at Cornell.

She ran away from the University before finishing her studies to study drama with Yvette Guilbert, the famous French actress and singer. Miss Duncan had a successful stage career before entering pictures. Some of the plays in which she has prominent parts were "Four Devils," "Shanghai Gesture," "Toto" and "Great Love."

In a DAY COLDS STOP-4-IN-1 WAY

Take two tablets of safe HILL'S CAS-CARA QUININE right away—follow directions—and almost before you know it that nasty COLD IS GONE. HILL'S works faster, safer because each tablet is a compound of four medicinal agents that combine to KNOCK COLDS IN A DAY. If not satisfied, druggist will refund your money.

Advertisement

Never Let A Cough Hang-On --It's Dangerous Company

Broncholine Stops Them With Amazing Speed--Is Guaranteed

When nothing seems to do it hang-on coughs, and that's exactly what it does—quickly and thoroughly. There is no dope in Broncholine Emulsion, nor chloroform, nor sugar—such things are only makeshifts and should be taken with the greatest caution.

For ordinary simple coughs two or three doses of Broncholine Emulsion are usually enough.

1001 Different Delights! OTIS KINNER KISMET (pronounced Kiss-met) Peep into the harem of the mighty. Live with the beggar that Fate made king for a day!

PHONE 155 TEMPLE BLDG.

Locals Lose Debate Star Due to Illness

Chances of Coach Preston Tanaka's debate team in the first debate of the elimination series to be held at Gladstone next Monday evening were dimmed considerably when announcement was made that Leon Willoughby, brilliant member of the local negative team, was on the sick list with scarlet fever.

THEATRES

Mary Duncan, who plays the part of Zoleka, favorite of the Caliphs' harem in "Kismet," the First National production starring Otis Skinner, now at the Gerot theatre, was born in Lotterville, Virginia, and educated there and at Cornell.

In a DAY COLDS STOP-4-IN-1 WAY

Take two tablets of safe HILL'S CAS-CARA QUININE right away—follow directions—and almost before you know it that nasty COLD IS GONE. HILL'S works faster, safer because each tablet is a compound of four medicinal agents that combine to KNOCK COLDS IN A DAY. If not satisfied, druggist will refund your money.

Never Let A Cough Hang-On --It's Dangerous Company

Broncholine Stops Them With Amazing Speed--Is Guaranteed

When nothing seems to do it hang-on coughs, and that's exactly what it does—quickly and thoroughly. There is no dope in Broncholine Emulsion, nor chloroform, nor sugar—such things are only makeshifts and should be taken with the greatest caution.

For ordinary simple coughs two or three doses of Broncholine Emulsion are usually enough.

1001 Different Delights! OTIS KINNER KISMET (pronounced Kiss-met) Peep into the harem of the mighty. Live with the beggar that Fate made king for a day!

Ranger Pucksters Plan Iron Mountain Tilt Here

NEW UNIFORMS HAVE ARRIVED

Negotiations Expected to Be Definitely Completed Today

Negotiations were completed yesterday afternoon by the Escanaba Rangers hockey team to schedule the Iron Mountain pucksters for a game here Sunday afternoon. Telephone and telegraph wires burned as the managers of the organizations dickered with arrangements and combatted obstacles standing in the way of the negotiations. As the last wire was sent late last evening, negotiations had not been definitely completed but it was believed that the most dominant obstacles had been mounted and that final arrangements would be completed this morning.

The Mountaineers were booked for Sunday here by the Rangers' manager in the week but Manager Wheeler received a call yesterday from the Iron Mountain manager saying that he was not certain if he would be able to travel to Escanaba this week. Later in the day, however, it appeared probable that the teams would meet as scheduled.

While the managers were dickering over arrangements for the game, however, Coach Ralph Miller of the Ranger squad made plans for the game. Practice workouts during the week showed a marked improvement in the squad and Miller predicted that the local squad would be in excellent condition for the battles remaining on the schedule.

The new uniforms ordered for the Rangers have arrived and will be used here Sunday and in the games to follow. All games will be played at the St. Patrick's rink this year, at least, Manager Wheeler announced. The new North Escanaba rink was considered for a time but the idea was later abandoned, principally because of its location.

Some of the teams which are being arranged for the Escanaba schedule include the strong Marquette Owls, Ishpeming, Newberry, Soo and others. One plan being considered now is the arranging of a game as a feature of the winter carnival here next week.

Haines Will Report To Cardinals' Camp

Phillipsburg, Ohio, Feb. 4 (AP)—With 16 years of organized baseball behind him, Jesse Haines, veteran St. Louis Cardinal pitcher, is preparing to report to the Cardinal training camp at Bradenton, Fla., within the next few days.

It was just 11 years ago this month that Haines was brought from the Kansas City club of the American Association by the Cards and every year since he has received his contract as an anniversary present from the management of the Red Birds.

Haines first started in organized baseball in 1915 when he was picked off the sandlots of Dayton, Ohio, by Springfield of the old Central League. He has since served in the Michigan-Ontario League, Western League, American League and National League.

He is the only man shown on present day records who has a no-hit, no-run game to his credit in both the minors and the majors. Haines performed the trick against Flint in the M-O league and then repeated on July 27, 1925, when the Cardinals defeated Boston, 5 to 0. Haines admits that he is getting older and may not be able to take

ICE CHAMPION

Victory in the five-mile race, feature event of the two-day skating tournament at Oconomowoc, Wis., gave Frank Stack, above, of Chicago, the national amateur outdoor skating championship. Stack outskated a field of more than 20 contestants to gain the title. The tournament was sanctioned and conducted by the United States Skating Association.

BOWLING MEET OPENS MAR. 27

U. P. Tourney Will Run 'Till April 19; Receive Confirmations

Gladstone, Feb. 4 (AP)—March 27 to April 19, are the dates definitely set for the holding of the upper peninsula bowling tournament which will be held this year in Gladstone, according to an announcement made yesterday by Walter Van De Weghe, secretary of the Upper Peninsula Bowling Association.

A meeting was held here several weeks ago for the purpose of setting tentative dates, but due to limited attendance of association officers and members of the executive committee no action was taken. Dates were then proposed by local officials and through communication with the various officers Secretary Van De Weghe has received confirmation of them from the majority.

The big meet will be staged under the sanction of the American Bowling Congress, and every effort is being made to get the entry of every sanctioned team in the upper peninsula. No teams or bowlers from unsanctioned leagues will be allowed to compete in the tourney.

It is expected that approximately 200 bowlers from all parts of upper Michigan will gather here for a "crack" at the honors and awards.

Tentative plans for the tournament are now being prepared by Secretary Van De Weghe, and announcement of the arrangements will be made following approval by the association officials.

his regular turn in the box this year, although it will be remembered that it was Haines who held the slugging Philadelphia Athletics to one run in the third game of the World Series last year to even the count against Connie Mack's team.

PACKER TICKET SALE IS BRISK

Packed House Expected to Greet Stars When They Appear Here

The advance ticket sale for the Green Bay Packers-Escanaba Rangers basketball game here on Tuesday evening, February 10, has been very brisk to date, officials have been announced and a capacity crowd is expected to be on hand when the famous athletes line up with the Ranger aggregation.

Placards have been placed in all the cities and towns in this territory and fans from all over the peninsula will travel to this city next Tuesday to see the game. The Escanaba invasion is the only trip in the peninsula planned by the Green Bay Packers this season.

The Escanaba squadron dropped a heart breaker at Manistique Tuesday evening, 44 to 41, in a scoring bee but their performance was beyond criticism and Coach Brunelle was highly satisfied with their play. Discussing the game he said, "The boys looked great at Manistique. A total of 41 points will win nearly any ball game and it was just a bad break that the Rangers didn't win that one. We outscored Manistique from the field but were defeated from the free throw line. We're all set and waiting for the Packers and we'll show them that Escanaba basketball boys know a little something about the game, too."

Among the stars
All-American football players seldom visit Escanaba. Here is a group of All-Americans. It will be Escanaba's first chance to see in action on a basketball court nationally famous stars. Although they have received their greatest fame as football players, they have proved that they are equally at home on the basketball court.

Among the stars are Johnny Blood, the vaudeville athlete, Red Dunn, All-American quarterback, Larry Dilweg, rated with Oosterbaan as one of the greatest ends ever produced, Michalake, towering lineman, Boob Darling, Engelmann, and Herber.

The Packers have played an extensive tour through the middle western states, meeting some of the best cage teams in the various states and winning their share of the games. They have been greeted by big crowds in each of their battles and started the fans with their cleverness on the court.

Johnny Blood is recognized as the star of the Packers cage team. Fans who saw the vagabond king zig zag through a broken field in football and marveled at his athletic skill will see this same lad displaying that same smoothness in the scanty uniform of the basketball player.

St. Godard Captures Ottawa's Dog Derby

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 4 (AP)—The ruler of sport in the province where men are mushers, Emil St. Godard, of The Pas, Man., fought off the challenges of a group of his neighbors today to score his second straight victory in the annual Ottawa 100-mile international dog derby. St. Godard, who gained a big lead on the first leg of the grind, outlasted Shorty Rusekic, of Flin Flon, Man., in the last grueling lap of 33 1/3 miles to capture the Chateau Laurier gold challenge cup and the $1,000 cash prize.

Rusekic again had the best time today, but could not force his team far enough ahead to overcome St. Godard's margin. The winner had an elapsed time for the 100 miles of 8:18:40, while Rusekic, covering today's leg in three hours, nine minutes and 44 seconds, three minutes and three seconds better than St. Godard's time, finished in 9:22:40.

Mrs. E. P. Ricker, of Poland Springs, Maine, the only woman entrant, held on to third place, finishing in 9:39:14.

Earl Brydges, of Cranberry Portage, Man., finished fourth in 9:40:23. Georges Girard, of Quebec City, who made the best time over the first half of today's lap, was not able to improve his position and finished fifth.

PIRATES WIN.
The Escanaba Pirates defeated the Gladstone Blue Devils in a hockey game at St. Patrick's rink last evening, 8 to 6.

FREQUENT VISITOR
Ragueneau, Quebec.—The stork must like this village, especially the cottage of Pantaloon Desbiens. Three times in 12 months he has hovered over the chimney of the house, and has left a total of seven babies. Twice in the last year he has left a set of twins for Mrs. Desbiens, and once a set of triplets to her youngest married daughter.

Basketball Scores
At Albion, Mich.: Kalamazoo 28; Albion 25.
At Adrian, Mich.: U. of Detroit 26; Adrian College 20.
At Knoxville, Tenn.: City College of Detroit 31; U. of Tennessee 30.

HOCKEY
International League
At Cleveland: Cleveland 3; Buffalo 1.
At Syracuse: Windsor 5; Syracuse 2.

Ceremony Marks Draw For Davis Cup Matches

Paris, Feb. 4 (AP)—The annual forecast of another Franco-American duel in the final round of the historic Davis cup play was made again on all sides today as President Doumergue of France and the diplomats of more than a score of nations gathered around the famous silver tennis trophy for the 1931 draw.

President Doumergue presided over the function, staged in the Elysee palace with all the ceremony of great affairs of state, in the presence of the representatives of most of the thirty nations entered for the international play.

The luck of the draw pitted the United States against Mexico to start the North American zone series with the winner meeting Canada in the zone finals. Ambassador Walter Edge, representing the United States, drew the first name from the cup in pairing the rivals of the European zone. Great Britain and Monaco clash in the first round while Switzerland is paired with Ireland, Austria with Greece, Czechoslovakia with Spain and Hungary with Italy.

Second round pairings bring Japan into action against Yugoslavia, Egypt against Finland, while Belgium opposes the winner of the Great Britain-Monaco preliminary. Holland's bye in the first round pits the Dutchmen against the winner of the Hungary-Italy match. Denmark meets Rumania, and Norway battles Poland. The zone final lists meet for the right to challenge France for the cup and once more the United States, which first engages the winner of the South American zone, previously drawn, is an outstanding favorite to challenge the French defenders in the final.

"SEZ ME"
by Ken Gunderman
Escanaba is enjoying unseasonably warm weather. That's fine, however, officials of the annual Winter Frolic which will be held Saturday and Sunday, February 14 and 15 hope that the weather man furnishes the proper atmosphere for the annual winter event. A siege of warm weather the week of the frolic would mean poor ice conditions and would prevent the race contestants from getting the practice they desire. The Frolic is one of the bright spots of the season.

Hockey fans will be pleased to know that the Rangers will play their second game on Sunday afternoon at the St. Patrick's rink with a strong Iron Mountain team offering the opposition. Hockey development in this city depends a great deal upon the activities of the Rangers this season, the first attempt to launch and develop the fast ice game in Escanaba.

And for fans who prefer a warmer spot in which to get their thrills there is the Bevenocs-Wakefield basketball game at the Coliseum gymnasium Sunday afternoon. Two good teams should provide all the thrills sought by the ordinary sport fan. The Bevenocs dropped their first game in 22 starts last Sunday to the Crystal Falls Ramblers, 20 to 19.

A boomerang basketball attraction is scheduled for next Tuesday evening at the Coliseum gymnasium with the Escanaba Rangers cage squad opposing the Green Bay Packers. The Green Bay basketball team is composed entirely of athletes who played on the Packer football team and boasts such nationally famous athletes as Red Dunn, Johnny Blood, Larry Dilweg, Michalake, Herber, Darling and Engelmann. They are as impressive in a basketball suit as they are powerful in the mole skins of the gridiron.

Tomorrow the Eskymo basketballers take a long jaunt to Sault Ste. Marie to lay Coach Crane's orthodox blue loopers. They will find difficulty on the long floor at the Soo, especially as the Puckmen are mainly an inexperienced outfit. It will be the longest court that most of the boys have ever played on and it goes without saying that they probably will be lost for a part of the game at least.

Saturday basketball at the high school gym for grade school children brings indication that eventually Escanaba high school basketball teams will not take a back seat for any of the peninsula schools. The "kids" are developing fast under the guidance of Edward Elick and they will be good material for future Eskymo teams. Coach Elick already predicts brilliant careers for some of the grade school youngsters.

Workman Wondering If He'll Be Ready For Kentucky Race
Miami, Feb. 4 (AP)—Raymond "Sonny" Workman, who received a double fracture of his lower left leg in a fall from W. S. Kilmer's Surtica yesterday, is worrying whether he will be fit to ride C. V. Whitney's Equipoise in the Preakness and Kentucky derbies.

Although "Sonny's" injury is expected to heal in time for the first of the big three-year old stakes on May 6 and the impost of 126 is easy to make, the popular little rider needs plenty of work to keep in condition. He takes on weight easily and will be unable to give his best unless he can get in plenty of saddle work before the time comes for his shot at fame.

Baseball Season Will Start April 14
New York, Feb. 4 (AP)—Opening on the same date as last year and closing one day earlier, the American Baseball League announced its 1931 schedule of 154 games today.

The season's initial games will be played April 14 with the curtain contests scheduled for September 27. St. Louis, Cleveland, Washington and New York will play host to the opening day crowds, against Detroit, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston, respectively.

American Legion 40 & 8 Dog Derby
4 p. m. Sat. Feb. 14
First avenue south, between 11th & 13th
CLASS "A" EVENT: (dogs of 20 inches or under)
CLASS "B" EVENT: (dogs of over 20 inches in height)
CLASS "C" EVENT: (Free-for-all. Winners of preceding two races are barred)

Name of Dog
Breed
Height
Name of Owner
Address
SEND ENTRIES TO THE DAILY PRESS

WAKEFIELD HAS POWERFUL FIVE

Bevenocs Will Get Some Tough Opposition Here Sunday

The Wakefield Wolverines will oppose the Escanaba Bevenocs here next Sunday afternoon and from all indications the game will be a bitter one throughout. The Wolverines are ranked in the class with the Crystal Falls Ramblers, the only team to defeat the Bevenocs.

The northern team has made an impressive record in its district, defeating some of the best aggregations of the peninsula. They have lost only two of their first twelve games, one of them to the Heloit Fairies by a score of 41 to 32 and the other to the Almie Collegians of Ironwood, 24 to 23. Their victories include two over Ironwood in addition to wins over Muskegon, Stambaugh, Superior, Ashland, Bergland, and other strong aggregations.

Bill Wood, star of Illinois College, University of Illinois, and Lake Linden "Pirates", is the main gun of the Wolverines according to word which has trickled in from the north range. Other players are Lepinski, Wakefield high school, Rydoski, Marquette University, Schuler, Albion college, Fred Trewyn, Whitewater Normal, and former stars of the Wakefield high school.

The Bevenocs are beginning to feel more at ease now that the tension of their consecutive victory streak has broken. The record of 21 straight victories by the Bevenocs is an impressive one but it kept the boys in a high strung manner from game to game and it is believed their defeat will do more to benefit the playing of the team than another victory would. Now they can play their game without the fear that comes from a consecutive victory streak.

High Wind Sweeps Daytona Beach So Trials Postponed
Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 4 (AP)—Captain Campbell again was prevented from making an attempt to raise the land speed record today because of a high wind that swept the beach seaward here.

Whistling out of the north at a velocity estimated by the driver at between 35 and 40 miles an hour, the wind blew a steady stream of white sand across the nine-mile course from the nearby dunes, which would have made steering difficult at high speed.

Given a good beach and ideal weather, Campbell hopes to be able to make his assault upon the record of 231 miles an hour tomorrow afternoon. Low tide then occurs about 3:45 p. m.

Hanley Says Job At Northwest Best Is His Best Bet
Spokane, Wash., Feb. 4 (AP)—Dick Hanley, head football coach at Northwestern University who rumor has placed in line for a half dozen berths in the west, thinks his Evanston, Ill., job offers him the best opportunity.

In an interview published here today he was represented as being on his way to Northwestern to sign a new seven-year contract.

"I've looked over a dozen western schools but I feel that my best chance is at Northwestern," Hanley said. "They asked me to sign up when I left on my western trip and the same proposition will be waiting for me when I get back."

Hanley came here to visit old friends and former Washington State College teammates.

Florida ginned 50,511 running bales of cotton from her 1929 crops as compared with 29,717 bales in 1929.

Five days later the four will be at home for their opening contests.

ISABELLA BOY IN SKIING RACE

Total of 20 Entered for Escanaba Winter Frolic Skating Features

John Sundling, 14, of Isabella, holds the long-distance record for entries in the ski race which will be held at Escanaba Feb. 14 at 3 p. m. as a part of the two-day winter sports carnival. John has plenty of room to practice, and he promises to give city skiers a lesson in the ski event. Another recent entry is Stanley Johnson, 14, of 701 South Twelfth street.

A flood of skater race entries greeted the clerk of course yesterday. New registrations include: Kenneth Gallager, 11, of 317 South 17th st.; Clarence Olsen, 11, of 705 South 13th st.; Carlton Johnson, 12, 715 South 13th st.; Stanley Jensen, 14, 701 South 12th st.; Arthur Peterson, 15, of 504 First avenue south; Leo Trudeau, 12, Bay Shore Drive, Gladstone.

The skater races to be held Feb. 15, now have a total of 20 entries. There are seven in the ski race and a like number in the dog derby. A score or more contestants are desired in each of the latter events.

Keilmen Scrimmage With Former Stars Of Gladstone High
Gladstone, Feb. 4.—In a hard workout against the alumni, the Gladstone high school cagers this afternoon wound up a week of intensive training for their return battle here Friday evening with the crack St. Joseph squad. The game will be called at 8:15 o'clock and will be preceded by a preliminary between the reserves of each school.

The alumni squad which scrimmaged against the varsity this evening numbered among them many former high school basketball stars, including O'Brien, Skoquist, Proberg, Keel, Barber and Olson. Coach Keel used his revamped combination against the veterans and that their showing against Stephenson in their tryout last Friday was no fluke, was shown in the manner in which they performed against the stars of other years.

All departments of the game came in for a share of attention during the week's sessions, basketball shooting being particularly stressed by the local mentor, who said that failure of his charges to sink a number of pot shots early in the first period had allowed the Parochials to run up their big advantage in their first meeting.

Boston Puck Team Beats Austria, 2-1
Krynica, Poland, Feb. 4 (AP)—Making its first bid for international hockey honors in the final series involving six teams, the Boston, Mass., hockey club today defeated Austria, 2 to 1.

The Boston sextet previously defeated the Rumania team, 15 to 0, but the score does not figure in the final contests between the United States, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, Austria and Poland. Each of the six countries play the others, the greatest total of points to determine the winner.

Keeping pace with the fast traveling Boston team, the University of Manitoba club turned back Czechoslovakia, 2 to 1. Boston and the Canadian entry are co-favorites to win the coveted amateur title.

SKI RACE ENTRY BLANK
Please enter my name as a contestant in the ski race of the Escanaba Winter Frolic for Saturday, Feb. 14, at 3 p. m., municipal rink.

Name
Address
Age
Send Entries to L. A. Danielson, Clerk of Course, Daily Press.

BASKETBALL at the COLISEUM
Sunday Afternoon, Feb. 8th
WAKEFIELD ATHLETIC CLUB VS. THE ESCANABA BEVENOCS
GAME STARTS 2:30 P. M.

Wakefield has won 18 out of 19 games played this season. You have seen Eddie Chambers. Now look over Bill Woods, the star of Illinois University and the greatest center in the Upper Peninsula. This team defeated the Wisconsin Badgers of Niagara, winners of the U. P. championship last year. Score 38 to 26. If you want to see the best teams in the North, patronize our Sunday games.

ESCANABA WINTER FROLIC ENTRY BLANK

Please enter me in the Event to be held Sunday, February 15th at the Municipal Rink, corner of Fifteenth Street South and Ninth Avenue South.

Name
Address
Age

- Junior Events
- Boys 12 and under 220
 - Boys 12 and under 440
 - Boys 13 and 14 220
 - Boys 13 and 14 440
 - Boys 15 and 16 220
 - Boys 15 and 16 440
 - Boys 18 and under 440
 - Boys 18 and under 880

- Senior Events
- Men's Senior 880
 - Men's Senior 1 mile

- Ladies' Events
- 16 and under 440
 - Ladies 880

Place crosses in squares opposite races you wish to enter. A skater can compete in only one division. Print name plainly in pencil.

Entries close Thursday, February 12th with L. A. Danielson, Clerk of Course, Escanaba Daily Press.

U. P. Briefs

Coal Theft Charge
Sault Ste. Marie.—George Shampine, 900 Spruce street east, and Frederick Brown 1625 St Paul street, were under arrest today charged with stealing coal from the gas company coal piles on Portage avenue east. The case will be tried before Judge Ray Gillespie Wednesday afternoon.

Court Change Opposed
Sault Ste. Marie.—Letters from Rep Frank P. Bohm and Senators Arthur H. Vandenberg and James Couzens addressed to the city commission gave assurance that the federal court cannot be moved from the Sault except by act of Congress and that such action is not at all likely.

Church Notices for the Whitefish-Stonington Pastorate
Thursday, Feb. 5, 2:00 p. m.—Ladies' Aid—Whitefish.
Sunday, February 8.
9:30 a. m., Sunday School—Whitefish.
10:30 a. m., Swedish Services—Whitefish.
2:30 p. m., English Worship—Isabella.
7:00 p. m., Evening Worship—Whitefish.
Note the change in time of service.
Oscar Lund, Student.

Leases Old Fire Hall
Menominee.—Rental of the old fire station building on lower Sheridan road, to the Carpenter Cook Company for a period of three years at $25 a month with option for two years more was authorized by the city council Monday night. It was explained that in event of an industrial development enhancing rental value of property in the city, the contract with the Carpenter Cook Company would be subject to revision. The lessee is to take care of the upkeep on the building.

James Thanked
Iron Mountain.—Acknowledgment of his effort to obtain a postoffice building for Iron Mountain, and of the successive steps to that end already attained, was made in a telegram sent today to Congressman W. Frank James, and signed by W. E. Hollenbeck, president and other officers and directors of the Iron Mountain-Kingsford Chamber of Commerce. The telegram read: "Congressman W. Frank James, Washington, D. C. The allocation of one hundred seventy thousand dollars, together with previous appropriation, assures us a new postoffice. The undersigned, in behalf of our city, congratulate you for your untiring efforts in this behalf. We offer continued co-operation. Command us. With best wishes W. E. Hollenbeck, president; J. A. Payant, vice-president; W. J. Cudlip, treasurer; Charles P. Stine, secretary, and Frank Blair, A. B. Bracco, A. G. Bushman, H. W. Cochran, V. L. Delamater, George J. Elsele, Dr. Gereon Fredrickson, R. A. Laing, Vital Payant, M. D. Thomas and Raymond Turner."

The term "red tape" originated from the practice of tying up official documents in "red tape" to keep them in order.

Sends "Big White Penny" to Hoover

"Dear Mr. Hoover. Here is a big white penny from my bank," wrote 5-year-old Rosemary Ernisse, above, of Webster, N. Y. "Will you buy some bread and butter and milk and candy for the little boys and girls who are hungry?" Accompanying her note, received at the White House, was a half dollar for the Red Cross.

BRIEFLY TOLD

Name Omitted—The name of Leona Sullivan was unintentionally omitted from the list of All-A students of the St. Joseph's high school.

Prisoners at Jail Seeking Instruction

Grand Rapids, Mich. (AP)—The tastes of 79 inmates of the Kent county jail have been revealed in a questionnaire circulated by the Grand Rapids Council of Religious Education and the Y. M. C. A. The principal thing the organizations wanted to find out was what subjects the prisoners would like to hear speakers discuss. Twenty-nine said they would like instructive addresses on how to get a new start in life after release. Next came unemployment, which was the choice of 24. Only two cared to hear about vocations they might take up. Prohibition discussions won the votes of 19, and six said sin was a favorite topic. Nine wanted to hear about salvation. Morals, family life and marriage won five votes each; "choice of friends" four, and world peace, three.

The largest towel mills in the world are located at Kanapolis, N. C.

FOOT IRRITATIONS
Soft corns, cracks between toes, etc., relieved at once and healed by Resinol

THE STORY OF THE ARMOURS

(Continued from Page One)

ed its conclusion. The beginning of the story goes back almost a century back to the day when the Erie canal was a great new highway for leisurely commerce, the day when Chicago was a muddy trading post and the west coast drowed under the Mexican flag, and to get to them it is necessary to go to the tiny village of Stockbridge, in Madison county, New York.

One Daniel Armour, a Connecticut Yankee of Scotch Irish extraction had moved to Stockbridge in the 1820's. The family had distinguished itself in the Revolution, one Armour had been killed in action by the British, had drawn a word of approval from Washington himself. Old Daniel bought a farm in Stockbridge, and in May of 1832 rejoined in the arrival of a son whom he named Philip D. Armour.

The Armour family was mildly prosperous, and the father aimed to give his sons a good education. In his teens young Philip Armour went to a seminary in the neighborhood to get his schooling. Youth of a century ago, flamed even as it does today—and the result was that Philip Armour went roving and refused to stick to the ancestral acres.

Briefly, young Philip committed the crime of taking a fair school girl for a horse and buggy ride without getting permission from anybody but the young lady; and in consequence he was expelled, and thereupon he anticipated Horace Greeley's maxim and went west to seek his fortune. In 1851, with three youthful companions and with $100 in his pocket, he set afoot for California.

It is the American tradition that great industrialists shall have picturesque beginnings. They must not do things in the ordinary way. They have to be giants, wearing seven-league boots, travelling mightily along untrodden paths.

Behold, then, Philip Armour walking from New York to California. It was a romantic time. They were singing, then, a sailor's chanty: "For there's lots of gold. So I've been told. On the banks—of the Sacramento!"

And a young man of spirit could go nowhere but west, at whatever cost. One of the group of four died, and two more grew discouraged and turned back; but Philip Armour kept going, and the last of his savings in a wagon and ox team, joined a covered wagon caravan, and after six months of marching reached California.

Despite expectation, gold did not lie in the gutters, nor did it grow on trees; and presently Philip Armour, failing to make a strike, was digging ditches at $5 a day. Then he discovered that ditch diggers who would work at night—for times were without stopping—were paid $10; so he went on the night shift, and after a while, saving his money, branched out as an independent contractor.

For five years he worked thus; then having laid by $8,000, he went back east. He planned to marry the girl of his choice—the same girl, one hopes, on whose account he had been tossed out of the seminary, although his history is silent on the point. But empire builders often are poor lovers, and while Philip Armour had been delving in the soil of California a rival had been getting in some surreptitious licks behind his back; and when Armour got back to Stockbridge the childhood sweetheart had married the village doctor, forfeiting, unwittingly, the chance to become a multi-millionaire's wife.

Armour, accordingly, turned back west.

At the close of the war came Armour's chance to show that he had that combination of astute vision and keen-edged practicality that marks the great industrialist.

There was a post-war boom on. Prices were high and business was going at full speed ahead, and a few economists were wondering if a new economic era had not been entered. Pickled pork was selling at $40 a barrel, and it occurred to Armour that this was too high, and that the current prosperity was too hectic to last.

So Armour proceeded to sell vast quantities of pickled pork that he did not have—gambling his fortune on a sudden drop in the market. He gambled correctly. The market broke and post-war prosperity exploded in everybody's face. The pork that he had sold for future delivery he was able to buy at $18 a barrel.

Milwaukee was a boom town, and to Milwaukee Armour went, forming a partnership, in 1855, with one Fred B. Miles to deal in grain and meat. At that time armies of settlers were passing through Milwaukee to take up farm lands in the west, and pickled and salted meats were in high demand. So, more or less automatically, Armour became a meat packer.

The word "packer" was more apt in those days than now. Refrigeration processes were unknown, one simply packed the meat in brine, barreled it, and sold it—or else smoked it, as with ham and bacon. This work was done in the winter, when the cold weather permitted large quantities of meat to be handled without danger of spoiling.

Armour was an energetic merchant, and he prospered. In the early '60's one John Plankinton, called the first of the "big" meat packers, invited him into partnership, and he accepted. The Civil War was on, and there was a great demand for pickled and smoked meat, since bacon was the chief article of diet in the armies of that day. The firm of Plankinton & Armour made money.

At the close of the war came Armour's chance to show that he had that combination of astute vision and keen-edged practicality that marks the great industrialist.

There was a post-war boom on. Prices were high and business was going at full speed ahead, and a few economists were wondering if a new economic era had not been entered. Pickled pork was selling at $40 a barrel, and it occurred to Armour that this was too high, and that the current prosperity was too hectic to last.

So Armour proceeded to sell vast quantities of pickled pork that he did not have—gambling his fortune on a sudden drop in the market. He gambled correctly. The market broke and post-war prosperity exploded in everybody's face. The pork that he had sold for future delivery he was able to buy at $18 a barrel.

Milwaukee was a boom town, and to Milwaukee Armour went, forming a partnership, in 1855, with one Fred B. Miles to deal in grain and meat. At that time armies of settlers were passing through Milwaukee to take up farm lands in the west, and pickled and salted meats were in high demand. So, more or less automatically, Armour became a meat packer.

The word "packer" was more apt in those days than now. Refrigeration processes were unknown, one simply packed the meat in brine, barreled it, and sold it—or else smoked it, as with ham and bacon. This work was done in the winter, when the cold weather permitted large quantities of meat to be handled without danger of spoiling.

Armour was an energetic merchant, and he prospered. In the early '60's one John Plankinton, called the first of the "big" meat packers, invited him into partnership, and he accepted. The Civil War was on, and there was a great demand for pickled and smoked meat, since bacon was the chief article of diet in the armies of that day. The firm of Plankinton & Armour made money.

At the close of the war came Armour's chance to show that he had that combination of astute vision and keen-edged practicality that marks the great industrialist.

There was a post-war boom on. Prices were high and business was going at full speed ahead, and a few economists were wondering if a new economic era had not been entered. Pickled pork was selling at $40 a barrel, and it occurred to Armour that this was too high, and that the current prosperity was too hectic to last.

So Armour proceeded to sell vast quantities of pickled pork that he did not have—gambling his fortune on a sudden drop in the market. He gambled correctly. The market broke and post-war prosperity exploded in everybody's face. The pork that he had sold for future delivery he was able to buy at $18 a barrel.

Milwaukee was a boom town, and to Milwaukee Armour went, forming a partnership, in 1855, with one Fred B. Miles to deal in grain and meat. At that time armies of settlers were passing through Milwaukee to take up farm lands in the west, and pickled and salted meats were in high demand. So, more or less automatically, Armour became a meat packer.

The word "packer" was more apt in those days than now. Refrigeration processes were unknown, one simply packed the meat in brine, barreled it, and sold it—or else smoked it, as with ham and bacon. This work was done in the winter, when the cold weather permitted large quantities of meat to be handled without danger of spoiling.

Armour was an energetic merchant, and he prospered. In the early '60's one John Plankinton, called the first of the "big" meat packers, invited him into partnership, and he accepted. The Civil War was on, and there was a great demand for pickled and smoked meat, since bacon was the chief article of diet in the armies of that day. The firm of Plankinton & Armour made money.

At the close of the war came Armour's chance to show that he had that combination of astute vision and keen-edged practicality that marks the great industrialist.

There was a post-war boom on. Prices were high and business was going at full speed ahead, and a few economists were wondering if a new economic era had not been entered. Pickled pork was selling at $40 a barrel, and it occurred to Armour that this was too high, and that the current prosperity was too hectic to last.

So Armour proceeded to sell vast quantities of pickled pork that he did not have—gambling his fortune on a sudden drop in the market. He gambled correctly. The market broke and post-war prosperity exploded in everybody's face. The pork that he had sold for future delivery he was able to buy at $18 a barrel.

Milwaukee was a boom town, and to Milwaukee Armour went, forming a partnership, in 1855, with one Fred B. Miles to deal in grain and meat. At that time armies of settlers were passing through Milwaukee to take up farm lands in the west, and pickled and salted meats were in high demand. So, more or less automatically, Armour became a meat packer.

The word "packer" was more apt in those days than now. Refrigeration processes were unknown, one simply packed the meat in brine, barreled it, and sold it—or else smoked it, as with ham and bacon. This work was done in the winter, when the cold weather permitted large quantities of meat to be handled without danger of spoiling.

Armour was an energetic merchant, and he prospered. In the early '60's one John Plankinton, called the first of the "big" meat packers, invited him into partnership, and he accepted. The Civil War was on, and there was a great demand for pickled and smoked meat, since bacon was the chief article of diet in the armies of that day. The firm of Plankinton & Armour made money.

At the close of the war came Armour's chance to show that he had that combination of astute vision and keen-edged practicality that marks the great industrialist.

There was a post-war boom on. Prices were high and business was going at full speed ahead, and a few economists were wondering if a new economic era had not been entered. Pickled pork was selling at $40 a barrel, and it occurred to Armour that this was too high, and that the current prosperity was too hectic to last.

So Armour proceeded to sell vast quantities of pickled pork that he did not have—gambling his fortune on a sudden drop in the market. He gambled correctly. The market broke and post-war prosperity exploded in everybody's face. The pork that he had sold for future delivery he was able to buy at $18 a barrel.

He found himself wealthy. So, in 1867, he used some of this surplus money to start the enterprise that was to make his name famous all over the world.

TOMORROW—The Chicago branch office that stole the show.

The city of Coleman, Tex., realized more than $1,100 during 1930 from hunting and fishing privileges on a lake it owns.

A police radio station and receivers in squad cars will be installed by Houston, Tex., at a cost of $10,000.

Carry Your Medicine In Your Handbag

Our Vegetable Compound is also sold in chocolate coated tablets, just as effective as the liquid form.

Endorsed by half a million women, this medicine is particularly valuable during the three trying periods of maternity, maternity and middle age.

98 out of 100 report benefit Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy cheeks—sparkling eyes—most women can have. Dr. F. M. Edwards for 20 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, causing a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets—now and then to keep fit. 15c 50c and 60c.

Make system alkaline to ... Stop Colds QUICK!

Get Rid of Colds Before They Weaken You, Make You Liable to More Serious Troubles.

Nowadays it's important to stop your cold quick before it weakens your resistance to more serious trouble.

Any of the older treatments will bring relief—after a time. But thousands say this new way is the quickest of any.

Begin when you feel a cold coming. Take a tablespoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia in a glass of water, morning, noon, and night, the first day. Do same the second day. Then only at night. Colds reduce the alkaline balance of your system. That makes you feel achy, feverish, weak. Phillips Milk of Magnesia relieves this, and restores the alkaline balance.

Doctors prescribe Phillips Milk of Magnesia; hospitals use it. Millions know how it relieves sour stomachs, gas, indigestion, constipation and other symptoms of too much acid. Get the genuine.

Tire Prices Cut! Save 10% to 15% on Riversides. We bought thousands of tons of rubber at the lowest price in history... thousands of bales of cotton at the lowest price in 14 years... saved tremendously. That is why you now get RIVERSIDES at these unheard of low prices. Riverside Quality Remains the Same. Riversides are made of live, fresh rubber—built wider, thicker and tougher for EXTRA mileage. They're backed by our famous Unlimited Guarantee. Buy in Pairs for Greater Savings! Buy RIVERSIDES in pairs and you get still greater reductions than when you buy singly. Ask about this new feature. Riverside 4-Ply Tires, Riverside 6-Ply Heavy Duty Tires. All Other Sizes at Proportionate Savings! FREE TIRE MOUNTING SERVICE! MONTGOMERY WARD & Co. 1200 Ludington St. Phone 207 Escanaba, Mich.

The FAIR STORE

ESCANABA

The Smart Way to Reduce! The P. N. Perfection Reducing Girdle

It's the best looking foundation garment you ever saw—beautifully curved—cleverly styled; silk-trimmed and exquisitely finished.

It Just Magics You Into Slenderness

Here you are, delightfully comfortable and smartly fitted in this amazing cottonized rubber garment—and all the time you're getting thinner!

And It Is So Inexpensive Only $3.45

Sale of Fruits

Oranges Sweet Florida Pine-apple Oranges, full of juice, 3 lbs. for 21c

Grape Fruit Florida Juicy Grape-fruit, 80 size, 3 for 21c

Lettuce Iceberg Head Lettuce, Solid Heads, 2 for 15c

Bananas Choice Fat Golden Fruit, 3 lbs. for 25c

The Newest Thing in Pajamas

Balbriggan Knitted Two Piece Style

Dame fashion has turned practical in her pajama creations. Her latest offering is a swanky looking cotton pajama of Balbriggan material. Short tight fitting sleeves, close neck, tuck in top piece and yoked trousers are some of the features. The colors are brilliant orange or coral.

$1.95

Mid-Week Bargains. Fresh Eggs—2 dozen 49c. Beans—Snider's, 18 oz. can, 2 for 19c. Potatoes—Bushel 89c. Onions—Fancy Yellow Globe, 10 lbs. 29c. Flour—Albert Lea Special—98 lb. sack $2.69. 49 lb. sack $1.39. 24 lb. sack 70c. OUR MARKETS OFFER SPECIAL ON Fresh Beef Tender Loins, Fresh Pork Tender Loins, Fresh Ox Tails, Fresh Lamb Hearts. Fresh Fruit and Vegetables. Eating Apples—3 lbs. for 21c. Florida Oranges—3 lbs. for 21c. Cooking Apples—3 lbs. for 21c. Florida Grapefruit—3 for 21c. Calif. Oranges—per dozen 21c. Head Lettuce—3 for 21c. SCANDIA CO-OP STORES. 1321-23 Ludington Phone 372 & 373. 1325-27 Sheridan Road Phone 153 & 154.