Officers found a still at his farm.

Aldred drew the unluckiest day for his examination—Friday, the thirtieth—but he told officers he would borrow a rabbit's foot and take his chances.

Former Escanaba Man Talks Before Furniture Group

W. F. Doyle, of Menominee, formerly of this city, was one of the principal speakers of the convention program of the Wisconsin Retail Furniture association state meeting in progress this past week in Milwaukee.

Mr. Doyle, speaking at one of the afternoon sessions of the convention, took issue with Eugene R. Black of the Federal Reserve system in his statement that the high standard of living practiced by the masses of people in this country should be curtailed, declaring that any officer in the Federal Reserve bank who maintains that what this country needs is "a return to the five cent standard of living," is either holding a position too big for him or should have his public opinions censured before they are issued.

Nothing but a consistent increase in the standard of living of the American people can possibly bring about a needed business expansion, Mr. Doyle said.

He also berated cut price methods in business rather than selling on the basis of quality and utility, and urged the merchants to start the ball of commerce rolling by buying merchandise so that the factories can put men back to work.

"Just as soon as the retailer commences to buy again and permits the manufacturer to clean his stock and put more men back to work, those men in turn will commence buying," he said in closing. "The American working man is hungry for work. Give him work and he will give you back all he earns in the purchase of groceries, meats, clothing and furniture and as soon as he has some of his bills paid he will again start buying the luxuries of life."

Carnival Is Success—Sault Ste. Marie.—Sault's second winter carnival passed into history Sunday afternoon at Fort Brady and the myth that the Sault is an isolated place during the winter was given another severe jolt.

Admitting that some of Winter Carnival features were not up to the standard of last year due to weather conditions and circumstances, the committee headed by Robert T. Baker was well satisfied with its efforts.

Hundreds of cars, coming from all parts of the county and adjoining towns, were parked on Ashmun street Saturday night during the parade. In fact parking space was as much at premium as any Saturday during the summer. This convinced the Chamber of Commerce committee that the Sault no longer crawls into a hole during the winter and stays there.

Success of the winter carnival on a small scale thus far has already led to optimistic discussion of a huge inter-Sault winter carnival next year on St. Mary's river. The idea is that the twin cities of St. Mary's would cooperate, pool their funds, something like $2,000, build a huge ice palace on the International line on St. Mary's river and engineer a program of winter sports eclipsed by none. This idea is already taking shape and may mature before the next Winter Carnival comes about.

EDITORIAL

A SERIOUS OBSTACLE MUCH MONEY and effort have been expended in advertising Escanaba as a summer playground. The Escanaba Chamber of Commerce has distributed to all parts of the country many interesting booklets, describing those attractions that appeal to the tourist.

We boast of a wonderful sandy beach, which was all right enough some years back. But an inadequate, obsolete sewage disposal plant has failed to function in recent months, and as a result our beach has become cluttered with sewage, making a sight offensive to the eyes, disagreeable odors that make one shiver, and an unhealthful situation that should not be tolerated much longer.

If anything will destroy confidence in our tourist advertising it is this sorry condition along the south shore. Swimming, boating and other aquatic sports will cease to be enjoyable here unless a new efficient sewage disposal plant is constructed.

A LACK OF VISION DR. LYNN BOWMAN, director of morals at the Eastern Penitentiary in Pennsylvania, has announced that the average age of the prisoners in that institution is 26 years. Youth, so it appears, is leading the gangland procession on its sinister, downward march.

This condition does not necessarily mean that the world is growing worse, or that youth today is defying conventions any more than it ever did.

Robin Hood, the outlaw of literature, was young. So were All Baba and his 40 thieves. Pirates of the dark ships whose crimson lights flashed dangerously, now and then, on the buccanering seas, were never old. The men who robbed stage coaches and held up the mail weren't afflicted with years. Older men plot wrongs in a den some place or back of a swivel-top desk. Youth puts on a mask, takes a "zat" and starts out. And youth gets caught.

The adventure spirit is stronger in young men than in old. Their blood is warmer. They want to be doing things and if they aren't given an opportunity to do something that is helpful they will do something that is destructive. Youth needs to have its energy directed, not restricted.

The average educational grade of the Eastern Penitentiary is lower than a fourth grade, according to Dr. Bowman. This is proof that it is lack of training and direction, to a large extent, that causes youth to err. A mind that hasn't finished the routine of the first four primary grades has little ballast to keep it from veering with the wind.

There is another striking statement in Dr. Bowman's summary. He says that no boy committed to the Eastern Penitentiary had paid any attention to religion for at least six months before the commission of his crime.

There were no ideals for which the youthful bandits were aiming. They hadn't been anywhere, or come in contact with anyone, who could inspire them, give them a vision, send them out to accomplish something worthwhile.

Long ago a prophet said that where there is no vision the people perish. It holds true with the prison group.

But another master teacher remarked one day that if you train up a child in the way that he should go when he is old he will not depart from it.

It seems that society, that mythical term applied to the general relationship of all men, in order to give persons responsibility to a loop-hole of escape, has erred sadly.

It needs to marshal youth in such a way that it will follow the flame of a crimson banner that goes out to right wrong instead of do wrong.

THE ROAD HOG'S RECORD THE "ROAD HOG" has been a nuisance ever since automobiles became common. We never quite realized what a real menace he is, however, until we saw an analysis of traffic accidents recently issued by the Travelers Insurance Company.

Of more than 500,000 traffic accidents in 1929, the insurance officials found, 68 per cent were caused by drivers who were guilty of one of these three faults—refusing to give the right of way to the car that should have had it, exceeding the speed limit, or driving on the wrong side of the road.

CHAPTER XXIV Years before, when Benito was yet a young man, he had learned that the world is redolent with opportunities ripe for the harvest, and with that knowledge the seeds of ambition sprouted in his mind. True, he wished eventually to retire to a rural spot, but he was not to be satisfied with the countless petty privations of common farm life in Italy.

'Looking Backward'

FEBRUARY 11, 1911 City Attorney J. C. Jennings stated at a council meeting last night that the L. Stephenson Co. was willing to give the city of Escanaba an indefinite lease, perpetual if desired, on the alley leading to the north shore of the bay at the foot of Tilden Avenue. The alley had been condemned for some time.

Thursday afternoon an exceedingly pleasant affair was held in Green's hall when the officers of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was held.

According to a report from Gladstone the Soo Railway will on its next pay-day, February 20, distribute not less than $20,000 among its employes at Gladstone. This is said to be the largest amount the Soo has ever paid in Gladstone on a single pay-day.

Miss Belle Kirkpatrick, daughter of Alderman and Mrs. E. J. Kirkpatrick, entertained a group of friends at the home of her parents, North Sarah street. There were forty guests at the party.

Miss Browning Hollister of Green Bay, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McColl.

J. T. Schoonenberg has returned to Escanaba, after a very pleasant visit with friends in Marinette.

George Rodgers has returned from a visit with friends in Green Bay.

George T. Hodson of this city, is visiting in Green Bay.

A new stamp cancelling machine will be installed in the post office in the near future. Postmaster Coburn has been notified that the machine has been shipped.

Health Tips

(This is the last of two articles by Dr. Fishbein on hookworm disease.)

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN When a person is suspected of having hookworm disease, the diagnosis is made by finding the eggs of the worms in the excretions or by finding the worms themselves in the excretions after the person has had some treatment.

The examination includes study with the microscope, which can be made by anyone trained in the proper technique. Various methods have been developed for filtering the excretions and for detecting the eggs so that they will not be overlooked.

Whenever the patient reports stunted growth, anemia, changes in the blood, and an attack of ground itch, the suspicion arises that he suffers with this disease.

At present, following extensive investigations made through the Rockefeller Foundation, three drugs are regularly used in the treatment of hookworm disease. These drugs are thymol, oil of chenopodium and carbon tetrachloride. Thymol has been used for the longest time, but various physicians differ in their choice of remedies for individual patients.

The treatment is, however, exceedingly simple. It involves usually the clearing out of the system by the use of purgatives at night, and the administration on the next day of the proper dose of the remedy when thymol is used.

When oil of chenopodium is used, it is not usually desirable to abstain from food or to use the purgative previously. Carbon

FRANK PARENT

Frank Parent, aged 79 years, a resident of Iron Mountain for about as long as pioneers of the community can recall, and at one time active in politics, died at the Newberry state hospital, Newberry, Mich., following an illness of the past year, due to complications.

Born in Ontario, Canada, little of Mr. Parent's early life is known here.

For a few years he travelled continually over the upper peninsula of Michigan while engaged in the insurance business, at first making his home at Menominee. As a resident there he became a staunch friend of the former Michael Doyle, then one of upper Michigan's leading attorneys and politicians, and the two travelled hand in hand through many a warm political campaign in the district.

Besides the widow, two brothers and two sisters survive. There are two grandchildren. Funeral services will be held this morning at St. Joseph's church.

NELS KEMPE

The body of Nels Kempe was removed from the Anderson funeral home to the family home at 13 Highland avenue, Wells, Tuesday afternoon. SAMUEL BRAZEAU

Oconto, Wis.—Death defied time by 20 days when it claimed Samuel Brazeau Sunday afternoon, depriving him of the distinction of celebrating his centennial on March 1. Mr. Brazeau died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. Pierre, in this city, after a short illness.

With the exception of four years when he was a resident of the McCormick Memorial Home for the Aged at Green Bay, Mr. Brazeau spent three quarters of a century in Oconto. He was born in Ottawa, Canada, March 1, 1831, and left there as a young man, emigrating by water and landing at Sheboygan in 1848. He traveled by sailboat to Two Rivers where he remained for seven years. In June, 1855 he married Miss Zoe Rotndean at Kewaunee, and the same summer came to Oconto.

His first occupation here was log jobbing, and several years later he opened one of the first general stores in Oconto, Brazeau and Sons, which is still in existence. He served the city as alderman for 38 years, holding a record for continuous service.

Of the 14 children of the Brazeau family, only half survive their father. They are: Alex, Salem, Ore.; Peter, Racine; Charles, Niagara, Wis.; Mrs. Sam Le Clair, Green Bay; Mrs. Sarah Couvillon, Green Bay; Mrs. Eliza Cote, Menominee, Mich.; Mrs. A. Pierre, Oconto. Utility Industry Proving Economic Life Preserver

Babson Park, Fla., Feb. 9.—In a quiet, non-spectacular way the public utility industry has done more to stabilize and support business conditions in 1930 than any other industry. The electric light, power, gas, telephone, telegraph, and water companies have proven bulwarks of strength in time of national distress. They have maintained their working forces at normal. Some shifting about of men has been necessary, and certain displacement of workers by new machinery has occurred; but, by and large, the men who are working for the power, telephone, gas, and other utilities are the ones who are receiving a full pay envelope every week. The families of these men are not suffering for want of food, clothing, and other necessities of life. The dollar income of 720,000 utility employees remains practically the same as it was in 1929. Moreover, their purchasing power is considerably greater owing to the decline in living costs. Their total wages in 1930 were upwards of $1,121,000,000.

Aside from this huge outlay to regular employees the utilities have spent an additional $1,000,000,000 in building new plants, power projects, transmission and telephone lines, gas lines, etc. This provides work for thousands of laborers and skilled mechanics. Another $1,000,000,000 is planned for further expansion during 1931. Many of these big projects are now under way. That means at least 1,000,000 individuals will be provided with purchasing power sufficient for their normal needs during the coming year. The effects will also be felt throughout other industries, for the utilities are among the great purchasers of copper, steel, cement, electrical equipment, and other basic materials.

How It Has Been Done In the face of a decline in general business to twenty seven per cent below normal, how has it been possible for the electric light and power industries to maintain employment and to increase their revenues 3 per cent over the record year 1929? Certainly not by increased rates, because rates are actually lower than they were in previous years. Not by larger consumption from industrial users of power, because industry consumed about 7 per cent less electric current than in 1929, although 5 per cent more than in 1928. The big gain has come in the increased use by the average household customer, a gain of approximately fourteen per cent. The saturation point is far from reached. There were 550,000 new customers added by the power companies last year, of which 472,000 were new domestic consumers. Also, more than 100,000 additional farms were electrified during the year, which is the largest gain in any year in history and occurred in spite of the generally depressed conditions in the farming areas.

Grandchild. Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 9:30 from St. Peter's church, the Rev. J. J. Looze officiating. Burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

SHE LOVED TO EAT BUT WAS ALWAYS PUNISHED FOR IT

Much of the suffering from so-called "indigestion" or acid-dyspepsia could be avoided if everyone could know what thousands like Mrs. Myrtle Collier have learned. This popular St. Louis, Missouri, woman, who lives at 4635 Enright Avenue, says: "I suffered from gas and heartburn every time I ate a hearty meal. I became bilious, dizzy, constipated, had no appetite. For many years I tried different things until I got some Pape's Diapepsin through a friend. I have used a number of packages now; have gained ten pounds and feel fine. I eat pork, peanuts, pastry; anything I please. At the first sign of discomfort I chew a tablet of Diapepsin and the trouble is gone in a moment. I recommend it to anyone bothered with indigestion."

If you, too, suffer from sourness, gas, belching, nausea, headaches, dizziness, or pain after eating—either regularly or just at times—get a box of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist. Then you never need worry again about what you eat. These tablets are like candy and just as harmless. If you would like to try them before buying, write "Pape's Diapepsin," Wheeling, W. Va., and you will receive a sample box, FREE.

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN Quick Relief for Stomach Ills

Two reasons stand out for the great achievements of this industry. First, the excellent leadership which it enjoys. Long-range planning and projecting of past experience into the future, coupled with statesmanlike business vision, characterize the men behind the great utility enterprises. Second is the nature of the business itself. It is fundamentally a growing industry, providing services which are necessary, regardless of business depression or prosperity. It utilizes the latest scientific developments for constructive economies. Through increasing production its costs are constantly lowered. There are facts that have made the utilities a by-word for stability under adverse conditions; a veritable economic life-preserver in a period of depression.

Building at Low Costs. Not only in the electric light and power field, but also in the manufactured and natural gas industry, construction is going ahead on a vast scale. For example, plans are ready for the laying of 3,000 miles of natural gas pipe lines in the early months of 1931. This is only a start. For the full year the program calls for at least 10,000 miles of pipe line. More than $250,000,000 was invested in the natural gas industry in 1930, and fully as much, if not more, will be invested in 1931. A wide-spreading network of natural gas lines from the producing fields to the large consuming centers of the Middle West and Eastern Seaboard is fast becoming a reality. Manufacturing gas companies also are expanding their systems in preparation for the needs of the future.

Utility engineers find that they can build now for as much as twenty per cent below the estimates of last year. Materials can be bought at prices lower than at any time in the last fifteen years. There is no question of prompt delivery of materials and labor is so plentiful that there are no delays in construction owing to labor shortage. The contractor can have his pick of men and he se-

Low first cost, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation mean a distinct saving to every purchaser

THE NEW FORD is a splendid car to own and drive because of its attractive lines and colors, safety, comfort, speed, reliability and long life.

There are, in addition, three other features of importance to every far-seeing automobile owner... low first cost, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

During the life of the car, the day-by-day economy of owning a Ford will amount to considerably more than the saving on the first cost. You save when you buy the Ford and you save every mile you drive.

The reasons for this economy are simplicity of design, high quality of materials and care in manufacturing and assembling. Many vital parts are made to limits of one one-thousandth of an inch. Some to three ten-thousandths of an inch. Throughout, the new Ford is an outstanding example of fine craftsmanship in automobile engineering.

The more you see of the new Ford—the more you talk to Ford owners and experienced mechanics—the more certain you become of this fact... It brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

cures a much higher quality of labor than usual. Labor efficiency shows an increase of as much as thirty per cent on many jobs. Money is extremely easy and the cost of financing correspondingly low. The utility industry is indeed fortunate, by virtue of its stable income and high credit standing, to be able to take advantage of these splendid opportunities for construction at low costs. It will mean a lower overhead in the future with correspondingly better profit margins.

Must Be Watched. In judging the outlook for the utilities over future years, one cannot ignore political agitation against them. Politicians have found the power issue very handy campaign material, and have adopted it to the exclusion of more pressing problems. People as a whole are not antagonistic to the electric, gas, and telephone companies. They have seen their rates reduced from year to year and the service improved. That is good enough for the average man.

Nevertheless certain radical tendencies against the utilities are noted in present politics. Among them are agitation for federal control of inter-state transmission of power; agitation for development by the states of water power resources; demand for federal supervision of holding companies, possible establishment of precedent for government operation through the Muscle Shoals question; some propaganda for government ownership; and various other regulatory or restrictive measures. Experience of the government in operating the railroads and telephone lines during the war was disastrous, and remembering this, it is doubtful if the movement for public ownership of the utilities will gain much headway, at least for a long time to come. Government ownership is entirely out of sympathy with American tradition. Of course, if there is a Republican victory in 1932 the issue will be settled for four more years.

Let People Know. The leaders of the utility industry should tell their story to the public now, because history proves that needless and unwanted legislation is often passed solely for political purposes when the public is not aware of the facts. The utilities have a strong deense and they should make the most of it through extensive newspaper advertising, and general publicity. The men behind the utility companies, are, for the most part, actuated by high ideals of service. They have shown ability to manage their companies to the satisfaction of the public and for the benefit of their investors.

Some abuses have doubtless occurred and these should be corrected by the industry itself. However, an industry so essential to the public welfare, and such a wall of strength in time of depression, should not be hamstrung to advance the political ambitions of any man or group of men. Unless the radical minority in Congress succeeds in passing harmful legislation, which now seems unlikely, the utilities should lead the way in the coming period of business recovery.

Business by the Babsonchart now registers 28 per cent below normal compared with 7 per cent below normal at this time a year ago.

AT THE DELFT If cast has anything to do with the success of a picture, Columbia's all-talking version of "The Criminal Code," one of Broadway's smash hits, is going to repeat its popularity on the screen. This romantic drama is coming to the Delft Theatre today and its players represent the finest acting talent available.

Walter Huston, in the leading role of the prison warden, heads the list. Though Huston has long been one of the highlights of the New York stage, he made his debut in pictures only a short time ago. Yet in this time he has established himself as a screen personality second to none.

Phillips Holmes, the Princeton student who has made a meteoric rise in pictures, has the leading juvenile role in "The Criminal Code," as the youthful convict. Playing opposite Holmes is Constance Cummings. Others prominent are Boris Karloff, Mary Moran, Arthur Hoyt, Ethel Wales, DeWitt Jennings, Paul Porcasi, Nicolas Soussanin, and John Sheehan, Howard Hawks, famous director, handled the production.

The Royal Family of Broadway is based on the famous play, "The Royal Family" by George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber. It depicts the home life of a leading family of American stage performers.

But it is not the impressive quality of the original play-writing alone which makes this play a wonderful movie. Most of the splendid attributes of this production are found in the stirring craftsmanship of Fredric March, Ina Claire, Henrietta Crosman and Mary Brian—as presentable a quartet of sterling actors as one could wish for.

March is seen as Tony Cavendish, the handsome son of the family who has deserted the stage temporarily for the Kilg lights of Hollywood where he has become the great and lordly lover of the screen, Miss Claire is his sister, the leading romantic and dramatic actress of the New York and outland stages.

Today, as never before, opportunity awaits the man who dares to plan big things. The time is ripe for nourishing the seed of enterprise. And again, the builders, the planners, are turning to the banker for aid in making those plans a reality.

Child Problems Main Subject at Council Meeting

Appointment of a nominating committee, reports of unit presidents, and interesting papers on three chapters of "Character Trainings" by Germaine and Germaine were features of the February meeting of the Parent Teacher Council held Monday at noon at the Carnegie library hall.

The meeting was well attended. Members of the Council voted to take up the study of the Hand Book and to discuss various phases of it. A nominating committee in connection with the annual election of officers was named, its members, Mrs. Thomas C. Thompson, Mrs. John Fredenberg, and Mrs. Adolph Flink.

The program of the evening was progressing satisfactorily, particularly the welfare work in the schools. Clothing has been provided wherever needed, and breakfasts and hot lunches are being served under the Kiwanis-Parent Teacher plan to all children needing them.

Mrs. Fred J. Earle gave a comprehensive and interesting paper on "Character Training," the topic of which is "The Effect of Unfavorable Social Environment on Emotional Habits." The main idea of the chapter, Mrs. Earle pointed out, is that in early childhood, failure to meet life's situations satisfactorily often results in emotional maladjustment that colors the whole life of the individual.

Mrs. Kenneth Voght discussing Chapter Eight, "The Effect of Physical Conditions Upon Habit," told of the importance of physical health, as stressed in the chapter because of its effect upon the mental and emotional life of the child.

Adolescent Period "Some Problems of Adolescence," Chapter Nine, was the topic of Mrs. Arthur Peterson's discussion. Mrs. Peterson pointed out that the adolescent period need cause little anxiety to parents if the twelve or more pre-adolescent years of life have been lived in a home and school where in the child had many interests, enjoyed the comradeship of parents and teachers and felt the joy of being a member of a responsible home and democracy.

It is a period, she said, which should evoke careful study on the part of parents and teachers that they may be sympathetic and wise in the guidance of their children.

Glorifying Yourself By Alicia Hart Turning a cold shoulder to a person might not be half so depressing on him as his having to look at some of the shoulders and backs one sees in decollete these evenings at the theater or at dances.

Why women insist upon wearing backless gowns when they have unattractive expanses of shoulders or sharp protruding shoulder blades, I do not know. There are so many cleverly designed necklines today, you do not have to reveal your non-attractive back and neck to be in style. There's more to be commended in concealing than in revealing, many a time.

However, granted that you know just what kind of rear and front décolletage suit you best, or granted you're not in a city where folks wear formal clothes often, you still should want an attractive neck and shoulders.

The proper amount of padding, which is a polite way of saying not too much fat, and a fine texture and color of your skin are the important things.

To get the right proportions across your shoulders and your neck, you may have both to exercise and reduce. But it is worth it. Especially if you have any indication of getting that middle aged roll of fat that too often forms across the back of the neck of the woman over 35, or the younger woman inclined to stoutness.

To get the right texture and color of skin, diet, rest and treatment are required. I often wonder how many women ever cold cream their necks, shoulders and upper arms. It should be done at least once weekly, with a brisk massage to stimulate circulation. Many well groomed women make this part of the daily bath rite.

You should use a bath brush to thoroughly cleanse the skin of your neck and shoulders, reaching back over your shoulder and around the outside of your arm, which really can be done if you aren't too fat!

After scrubbing, rinse thoroughly, then slap on some good,

Spring Sewing-at-Home

Home-sewing is in style again and this is just the time of year you can "turn your hand" to a simple little blouse or sports suit profitably.

Do make it of cotton. There is nothing smarter right now than lace and cotton net to the simple little blouses that make Paris suits what they are, you will find old King Cotton doing his bit this season.

If you haven't cast your eye over the new cotton materials and the new and lovely clothes made from cotton, you will be surprised, and in no small way either.

For colors, they run the gamut of the pastels, in quite the ravishing off-tones that luscious silks have achieved. And for design, since design is what everybody is talking about this spring, cottons have everything from the popular stripes and plaids to delicate hand-embroidery, open-mesh weaves and lace effects.

Two of the new cotton creations are shown today, quite diverse in their uses. On the left is one of the new suit blouses, and certainly it is never too early to think about the spring suit and its blouse. This one is of the new hand-embroidered eyelet type in a delicate café au lait pique well calculated to go smartly with both the blues and the browns of early spring. It is a nicely tailored little gilet, with smartly cut frontispiece, lapels and pockets.

The other (right) is one of the new shirt-shorts-skirt suits that are so good for tennis, golf or any spectator sports. The skirt and shorts come in one, this in a striped blue and white men's shirting, with a polo type shirt and shorts full enough to play tennis with ease. The circular skirt ripples around, buttons with white pearl buttons and there you are, a lady in a nice spectator sports suit.

John A. Lemmer Gives Address On George Washington

John A. Lemmer, principal of Escanaba high school, gave an interesting talk on "The 200th Anniversary of the Birth of George Washington," Monday evening at the regular meeting of the Daughters of Isabella, Trinity Circle, No. 362.

Mr. Lemmer was introduced by Mrs. Elizabeth Gilmore, who, with Miss Ethel Gilmore as assistant hostess, was chairman of the evening.

In his introduction, the speaker gave a resume of the life of Washington, dwelling on the lessons in character and in patriotism which might be learned from his life. His talk also included an explanation of the plans of the Congressional Committee which has arranged for the Washington Anniversary celebration for the year, 1932, and of the arrangements made by this committee and the American Tree Association.

This plan is one which calls for the planting of thousands of trees this year all over the country, by all patriotic citizens, and the registering of these trees and their dedication as part of the 1932 celebration. It is planned to plant the trees now in order that those that die may be replaced and that only live trees may be dedicated to the memory of the man whose love of nature was one of his outstanding characteristics.

In addition to Mr. Lemmer's talk which was well received, there was entertainment by the Gleisner twins, Lillian and Vivian. The girls presented a Swedish dialogue sketch, and sang two of the Topsy and Eva songs which they are singing in the Lucky 13 minstrel show "Friday night, "Remembering," and "They Always, Always Pick on Me."

Jack Carney and Jack McArthey, 413 South Ninth street, have returned from Fond du Lac, Wis., where they motored on a business trip.

The condition of Mrs. John Gerou of Perkins who suffered a sudden attack of illness, is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kress, Jr., and Mrs. John Jorgenson returned Monday morning from a visit with relatives in Milwaukee.

John A. Bergman, 1022 Eighth avenue south, motored to Norway Tuesday on business.

Grand Rapids, Feb. 10 (AP) A woman who has been blind since infancy daily renders assistance to those who can see in connection with the social welfare activities of the East Congregational church here.

She is Miss Jennette Maris, who has charge of the "clothing chest" and other activities of the church in connection with its relief work.

Each day she receives persons sent to the church welfare department, hears their stories and selects from the store room clothes to meet their needs. She has the various garments arranged in stacks according to type and size, and is able to find what is wanted as readily as if she could see.

Miss Maris keeps her own records and files, making out a report on each case she handles. She types each record for use of others and makes a duplicate in Braille for her own use.

An extraordinary sense of touch and hearing enable M. S. Maris to move about unafraid in familiar surroundings, and she often is associated with persons who are not aware of her affliction. She recalled that during her college days, one of her teachers did not learn until the end of the semester that she is blind. He found out when she asked permission to use a typewriter during an examination.

Nature Produces a New Rare Flavor in Coffee

For a Real Change Taste the Rare Tang and Rich Mellow Body of Coffees from Central America...

HERE'S a suggestion. If you want something different in coffee, try—not just another "brand"—but an utterly different KIND of coffee. Then see what happens.

We procure our coffees from tiny mountain districts along the West Coast of Central America. A region that, experts now concede, produces probably the fullest-flavored coffees known today. Where nature leaves out the "rough" offensive oils. You taste only pure, invigorating flavor. Flavor so rich that you just can't help making the kind of coffee men can't forget.

Introduced by Folger

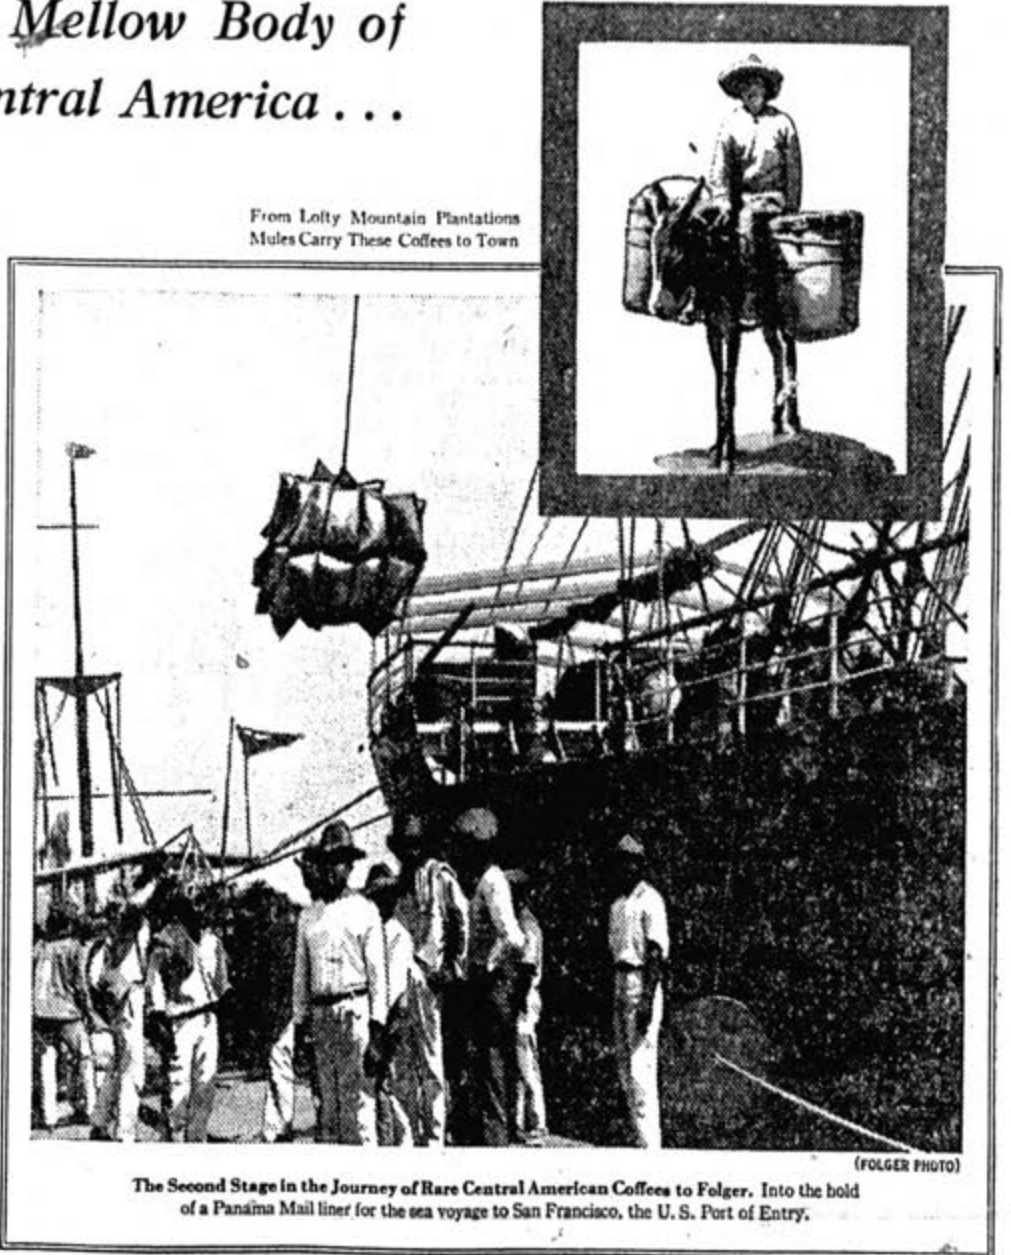

Years ago this coffee was first served, in the famous Bohemian restaurants of San Francisco where it was introduced by Folger. Travelers tasting it there were captivated by its unusual flavor. Flavor produced by a peculiar combination of rich volcanic soil, altitude, sun's rays and tropic rainfall—that is found nowhere else in the world.

Connoisseurs among the European nobility, it is said, even went to Central America to purchase private plantations, first to supply their own tables and later to exploit commercially. Thus the fame of these rare coffees spread around the world.

The Folger Test

Would you like to see for yourself just how different these coffees are—in richness and in flavor? Here's a test that is as simple as it is fair.

Tomorrow morning drink Folger's. The next morning drink the coffee you have been using. The third morning drink Folger's again. In a morning or two you will decidedly favor one or the other; the best coffee wins. That's fair isn't it? FOLGER COFFEE COMPANY Kansas City San Francisco Dallas

ISSUE WARRANT FOR REEDY GIRL

Former Deputy Register of Deeds Charged With Theft

Munising, Feb. 10 (Special)—Prosecuting Attorney O'Brien informs the Press that he has caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of Babe Reedy, former deputy register of deeds and bookkeeper in the office of the Alcor county road commission during the time the late L. E. Adams was engineer.

The speculations were confined to fees paid into the office of the register of deeds, and amount to $401.85.

The shortage was discovered some time ago, but no action was taken in the matter until now. Prosecuting Attorney O'Brien states that he has been urged by taxpayers to begin prosecution hence the warrant was issued.

Today's Bridge

BY WM. E. MCKENNEY Sec'y, American Bridge-League The following hand provides a smart play on the part of the declarer but what is more important, gives the defense an opportunity to make a masterful defensive play.

Table with columns for NORTH, SOUTH-DEALER, WEST, and EAST, showing card suits and counts.

At auction, South, the dealer, would bid the contract for one no trump, while at contract, even with his great array of high cards, the hand is not strong enough for South to make a two bid of a suit which would be a demand bid and require partner to keep the bidding open until game was arrived at.

However, the hand is too strong to open with one club, therefore, it is a better two no trump bid. While the two no trump is not a forcing bid and does not require partner to keep the bidding open, it does not take much on the part of partner to go to three no trump. If South were to open with two no trump, North would be justified in passing it and leaving the contract at two no trump.

The Play West's strongest suit is diamonds and as it is headed with four honors in sequence, the top honor is opened, dummy plays the three, East the deuce, and there is no advantage in the declarer holding off. He may just as well win the first trick with the ace and hope that his nine spot has the suit stopped. There is no question but what the declarer should start his heart suit while he still has the ace of spades for an entry. The question is how shall he play it?

If he were to lead the jack of hearts, West might win it with the king. He would then run off his three diamonds and East would certainly signal for the spade lead. It is true the declarer could discard his ace and queen of hearts on the last two diamonds, but East would still have the hearts stopped with the ten spot. Therefore the declarer's correct play is the ace of hearts. He should then lead the jack of hearts.

If West were to refuse to win this trick, the declarer would then lead the queen and all West could do would be to run off his three diamonds, but the smart West player would jump in with the king of hearts and when East's ten dropped, he would realize what the declarer was attempting to do. After West got in with the king, if he were to lead a diamond, the declarer would discard the queen of hearts on the second diamond lead and game could not be stopped.

West's proper play is to lead a spade, hoping to kill the only entry in dummy. Dummy might play small, but East would win with the king and would return a spade, killing the dummy's entry. Declarer would return a small heart from the dummy and win with the queen, but regardless of how he plays the hand now, he is bound to lose the last four tricks, therefore West, by jumping in with the king of hearts and immediately knocking out the only re-entry in dummy, has held the declarer to two no trump.

LEGIONNAIRES MEET THURSDAY

Culminate Membership Drive With Banquet At Arrowhead Inn

Manistique Post 83 of the American Legion will hold a business meeting and banquet tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at Arrowhead Inn to which all Legion and ex-service men are cordially invited to attend. Louie Mueller has been selected as chef d'oeuvre and will have Etienne Smith and J. Temple as his assistants.

The meeting tomorrow evening climaxes a successful drive for membership which has been in progress for the past three weeks. The local Legion post now number 55 members as compared with a membership of 38 for last year. The membership quota for the post is 70, but it is expected that this figure will be reached within a few months. To this Mr. Walsh yesterday replied that the union must have been misinformed. The city attorney investigated and received replies from the city clerks of these cities stating that there had been no such ordinance adopted. Representatives of the union attended yesterday's meeting, but did not comment on the commission's action.

Defeat Of 'Stique Debators Retracts Little from Record

While Manistique's defeat at the hands of Gladstone Monday evening was a bitter pill for the local debator's to swallow, it nevertheless detracted little from the brilliant record made by Coach Tanis' squad this season. Prof. Meyland, judge of Monday evening's debate and debate coach at Northern State Teachers' college, declared that the contest offered the best arguments both from the negative and affirmative teams, that he had heard thus far this season. The winner of the debate was practically a toss-up and the 3 to 2 decision given was satisfactory to both teams.

Manistique was considerably handicapped due to the illness of Leon Willoughby, a brilliant extemporaneous speaker, but the green and white squad is not offering this an excuse for their defeat. Coach Tanis and his proteges are deserving of great credit for their victories over the St. Menominee, St. Joseph's and St. Ignace. Prospects for next year are very encouraging as most of this year's team will be back in the fold aided by much practical experience.

Interesting Fire Exhibit Is Shown At Herald Press

An interesting and fascinating exhibit of photographs and personal equipment of the Manistique volunteer fire department which dates back to the "eighties" is on display in the windows of the Herald Press. The photos are owned by Carl Thorberg and are the only one of the kind in existence.

One of the pictures shows Chippewa avenue in 1890, including the Westside fire hall and the Westside school which was in the process of construction. Elevated plank sidewalks line the side of the thoroughfare. It afforded the only means whereby pedestrians could travel without getting muddy or wet feet. The old Indian graveyard can also be distinguished.

Another photograph shows the personnel of the hook-and-ladder company standing in front of the Eastside fire hall on Main street. The picture was taken in 1882 and shows Fire Chief Ed Brown and Paddy Miles among others. Paddy Miles is the only member of this old contingent who still resides in Manistique.

Old Uniforms Mr. Thorberg is also in possession of a uniform which was worn by Assistant Fire Chief Edmond Ashford. Uniforms were purchased from a Chicago Specialty house and included a shirt, cap and belt. The gray flannel slippers had the letters M. V. F. D. superimposed in blue braid and must have made a natty appearance. The flat blue cap resembles those worn by soldiers during the Civil war. The old saying goes that a man in civilian clothes didn't have a chance with the fair sex when the firemen strutted forth in uniform.

A heavy silver megaphone was used by Mr. Ashford through which to shout instructions to his men. Can you imagine Jess Archie, present assistant fire chief, totting this heavy clumsy "loud speaker" around at a fire?

Lloyd Garrison Walker is Last Child of "Man With the Branded Hand"

Dr. Lloyd Garrison Walker, aged Civil War veteran who passed away here Monday, was the son of Capt. Jonathan Walker, "The man with the branded hand," whose name was made famous by a poem of the Quaker poet, Whittier and the words of every anti-slavery leader, back in the days preceding the civil war.

Over twenty years previous to the emancipation of the slaves by Abraham Lincoln, to whose memory we pay tribute tomorrow, the father, Jonathan Walker, a sea captain, had been in sympathy with the bonded blacks and had aided many of them to escape from plantation owners, taking them on his boat to some island and freedom. It was for his work

FUNERAL RITES FOR VET TODAY

Full Military Honors Will Be Accorded Dr. L. G. Walker

Funeral services for Dr. Lloyd G. Walker, 85, Civil War veteran, who passed away here Monday morning after an illness of four months duration, will be held this afternoon.

Full military honors will be accorded the departed veteran. Members of August Mattson Post, American Legion, will serve as pallbearers and the post will conduct services at the grave.

Dr. Walker served three years during the Civil war, in which time he engaged in 14 battles. He was wounded three times, twice during the war and the last time wounded by a bullet from the Confederates or by one from members of the Union force.

Dr. Walker is survived by his wife of Pound, Wis., four daughters and three sons. All of the children are here for the services.

Dr. Walker came to Michigan and Muskegon in 1862 to spend the rest of his days. He purchased a few acres along the lake and operated a fruit farm. There he lived for 16 years, until his death at the age of 80.

Harris—Because his squad took a slice of bread more than he had, Zach Potonquot, 53, declared to be the "medicine man" of the Pottawatomie reservation at Indiantown, Harris, beat her up so severely that she lay on the floor of their cabin for two days.

Residents of Harris declare that this is a hard winter for the Indians who make no attempt during the summer to raise anything in garden or fields for the winter.

A few of the Indians work occasionally in the woods, getting out posts, ties and cordwood. Some of them do a little bunting, but as a rule most of the men of families take the attitude that the government owes them a living and they won't work or do anything for themselves except make "firewater."

The Potonquot home is said to be more sparsely and destitute than most of the cabins. Potonquot is said to be "medicine man" for the village, providing cures for their sicknesses. There are five children in the family and Deputy Sheriff Peter Houle, who arrested Potonquot, said there was no food in the house.

The days of the "game warden" who could often barely write his own name and whose solo qualification for his job was his ability to face poachers, are gone. RIALTO

Authorities on war-time aviation who have seen "Hell's Angels" now showing at the Rialto theatre, agree that it is not only the most authentic air film to date, but is one of the greatest achievements in the history of aeronautics as well.

Colonel P. J. Brady and Major William Ord Ryan, of the United States army air corps, who flew out to the Pacific coast recently to observe the army air maneuvers at Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles were astounded at the realism of the air sequences. Both declared it was beyond belief that such shots could be made.

"The scene in which 50 planes go into combat simultaneously is little less than miraculous," declared Colonel Brady.

The army officers explained that all of their maneuvering was done in formation, as they considered it far too dangerous to even break formation with half that number of ships flying as closely together.

CARD OF THANKS: We wish to acknowledge our most sincere gratitude and heartfelt appreciation to our relatives and many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our late bereavement, the sad loss of our beloved husband and father. We also wish to thank those who sent the beautiful floral offerings, the spiritual bouquets and those who loaned cars for the services. Especially do we wish to thank the Rev. Fr. S. Maier for his kind words of comfort and prayer. To those who comforted us in this hour of grief, or aided in any way to lighten our sorrow we shall be ever grateful.

Rangers Drop Thrilling 24-21 Tilt to Packers

NOSED OUT IN FINAL PERIOD

Escanabans Forge Ahead In First Half; Lose Lead On Way Home

After leading for more than three periods, the Ranger's jinx caught up to them in the final quarter and they were nosed out by the Green Bay Packers basketball team at the Coliseum gymnasium last evening, 24 to 21. The game, thrilling from start to finish, was witnessed by a crowd of more than 1000 fans which packed the house. It was the second bitterly fought game in succession that the Rangers dropped.

The Rangers' offense never looked better than it did last night. They passed, crossed and pivoted their way to a 13 to 4 lead at half time, their power completely sweeping the towering visitors off their feet. But in the third period, the aspect of the game began to change when the Packers began to click and they cut the lead down to 19 to 16 at the close of the third period.

Thrilling Finish

The crowd was treated to basketball galore in the final period. The visitors banged away unceasingly at their goal and the Rangers sent a barrage of shot against their backboard but only few of them dropped through the net and they were all Packer counters.

The Green Bay team forged ahead 21 to 20 in the middle of the period. They pushed their lead another point on Engelmann's foul shot. As the game was drawing to a close Andrews dropped one in for the Escanabans but the ball was called back on a double dribble play. Puckelwartz brought the score to 22 to 21 a second later on a foul shot and just when the Rangers appeared to be taking the game back out of the fire, Herber dropped a beautiful shot from the side lines and the game was put on ice. A second later the gun banged.

The Packers scaled heads and shoulders over the Ranger squads and they outweighed them 50 pounds to a man but their weight was concentrated in bone and muscle. They proved to be fast as lightning and plenty dangerous when they were in control of the ball. Outweighed and out-reached, the Escanabans were not outfought, however. From beginning to end, they battled the famous athlete from Green Bay as if they had no respect for their international record. Most of the way they had the better of the argument but they were worn down by the bulkiness of the Packers and they succumbed in the final dash home.

Crowd Likes Blood

Johnny Blood caught the fancy of the galleries from the start. The towering, smiling vagabond athlete won his way into the hearts of the audience with his carefree personality that sparkled all over the Coliseum. His football talents are well known here and he proved to the fans that he also is something of a basketball player. He tallied five goals for the Green Bay aggregation while Herber, Engelmann, and Michalske each netted two.

Michalske, the famous football lineman, created a stir also, as he was introduced to the crowd. His massive shoulders were proof in themselves that he can take care of himself on the gridiron and after the game got under way it was plainly evident that he possessed speed and agility as well as brawn.

Johnny Andrews proved the big shot in the Escanaba offense, scoring four field goals and three free throws to take high scoring honors for the evening with a total of 11 points, one more than the performance of the Rangers, fighting against odds, was the outstanding feature of the evening. Folks came to the Coliseum expecting to see the Packers walk away without a struggle but they were surprised to find that it was the Packers who were forced to fight back.

In the preliminary game the Rock Spartans defeated the Garden city team, 13 to 14. This game also was closely fought.

WESTERN STATE HAS STRONG QUINTET

Rockne and Ruth To Enter Movies

Hollywood, Cal., Feb. 10 (AP)—Knute Rockne, famed Notre Dame football coach, and Babe Ruth of the Yankee baseball team have signed contracts for a series of two-reel pictures with the Universal Studios. The monetary agreement was not revealed in the announcement today.

Rockne will leave for Hollywood February 14 to supervise the plans for his series on football plays. The first of these will be made at South Bend, Ind., about May 1.

Plans for Ruth's return to the movies are indefinite, but it is probable he will not start until after the coming baseball season. Ruth appeared in a feature length picture here four years ago called "Babe Comes Home."

A few weeks ago it was announced Coach Howard Jones of the University of Southern California, would make a series of one reel football pictures under the title "Pigskin Problems."

Big Dog Show Is Opened In New York

New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—America's biggest dog show opened today in this city from which, its health commissioner predicts, dogs may be barred within the next few years.

More than 2,500 pedigreed dogs, whose total value would run into millions of dollars, were brought from all over America and from several European countries for the fifty-fifth annual show of the Westminster Kennel club in Madison Square Garden.

There are 76 breeds on display, including two not been shown here before—the Border Terrier, recognized just this year by the American Kennel club, and the Rottweiler, still unrecognized in this country but let in as a novelty under the heading "miscellaneous." Rottweilers are bred in Germany and look something like Pitt Bull terriers.

Fox terriers, as usual, lead the show with 208 dogs 160 wire-haired and 48 smooth. Cocker spaniels, which in the last few years have become popular among city dwellers because they are small and yet not lapdogs, come second—141 of them—and 140 Boston bulls come in for third place.

Dust Betrays Gambler

Dust proved the nemesis for Charles J. Howard, a shoe fitter, when he was arrested recently at Tottenham, England, charged with betting on a horse-race. Howard claimed innocence, but when police sprinkled dust over an apparently blank pad found in his pocket the words, "Melodrama suspense win and Norman 205 each way," were revealed.

MURRAY TAKES 220-YARD DASH

New York Skater Displays Some Speed at Saranac Lake

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Feb. 10 (AP)—Ray Murray of New York showed his flying heels to skating stars of the North American amateur speed skating championships here today to pile up 40 points. He won the 220-yard dash and finished a strong third in the mile.

Ross Robinson of Toronto, Canadian national champion, won the mile in the near record time of two minutes and 37 seconds to place second for the day with 20 points. Frank Stack and O'Neill Farrell, both of Chicago, were tied for third place with 20 points. Farrell was the only 1928 United States Olympic team member to win points today. He was second in the mile.

It remained for the younger skaters, in the intermediate and juvenile classes, to set new records. Herbert Black of Toronto, in the intermediate group, skated the 440 yards in a preliminary heat in the world's record time for the group of 37.35 seconds, and Orvil Duffy of Toronto cracked the juvenile 550-yard record with a mark of 42.45 seconds.

Murray was never headed in the senior 220. Stack and Lloyd Gunther of Detroit finished second and third. The time was 19 seconds. The Canadian champion is favored in tomorrow's events, the half mile and the five mile. He holds the record in the latter.

The final of the intermediate 440 was won by Wilbur Marks, Chicago, in 38 seconds with Eddie Stundl, Chicago, second.

The 440-yard event for skaters under 10 years old was won by Larry O. Slesky, Cleveland. His time was 54.25 seconds.

Eight Indicted for U. S. Bank Failure

New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—Istodor J. Kresel, zealous prosecutor of corruption in the magistrates' courts, was himself accused of a felony today in indictments naming him and seven other officers and directors of the closed bank of United States.

The indictments, charging mismanagement and misappropriation of funds, were returned by the New York county grand jury. Those indicted were: Mr. Kresel, director and legal advisor of the bank; Bernard K. Marcus, president of the bank; Saul Singer, executive vice president; C. Stanley Mitchell, chairman of the board; Simon Kugel, vice chairman and a director of Bankus corporation, a bank affiliate; Alexander White, director of Bankus and of Marcus-Singer Trading corporation, another affiliate; Henry W. Pollock, director of the bank; Herbert Singer, brother of Saul Singer and a clerk in Kresel's law office.

White Sox Secure Louisville Star

Chicago, Feb. 10 (AP)—The White Sox completed a deal to strengthen their outfield today by acquiring the services of Melvin Simmons, youthful star of the Louisville Colonels, winners of the American association flag last season.

In the deal, Pitcher Ed Walsh, son of the old White Sox star, and Clarence Hoffman, an outfielder who had been recalled from Indianapolis, were sent to the Colonels on option. A large bundle of cash also was sent by the White Sox.

Simmons in two years has been one of the brightest stars in Louisville's baseball travels. He starred in centerfield last season, batted .371 and topped the American association in base hits, hammering out a high total of 248.

ILLINOIS BEATS PURDUE, 26-22

Boilermakers Eliminated From Race for Big Ten Title

Champaign, Ill., Feb. 10 (AP)—Illinois turned in the biggest upset of the Big Ten basketball campaign tonight by defeating Purdue 26 to 22. The defeat definitely shoved Purdue out of the race to defend its title as it was the third loss in five games. It was the first victory in six starts for the Illini.

An early commanding lead gave the Illini their startling victory. With their two star sophomores, Bennett and Owen, sinking shots from every angle, the Illini piled up a 12 to 2 lead in the first ten minutes of play and kept right on going to gain a one-sided lead of 21 to 6 at the half. During the half the Boilermakers succeeded in looping but two field goals. The Boilermakers drew close with a great rally in the second half but the margin was too great. Bennett scored eight points for the Illini while Owen scored ten.

Santa's Suspension Lasts Only 6 Days

Chicago, Feb. 10 (AP)—Jose Santa's six months suspension by the Illinois state athletic association and the National boxing association lasted just six days.

The giant Portuguese heavyweight's suspension for an unsatisfactory fight at the Chicago stadium last Wednesday night was lifted today after his manager, Bert's Perry, made a personal appeal for leniency to the Illinois ring body. The appeal was granted but the fine of $1,375 was upheld.

"Under the circumstances, Santa did his best in the fight which ended when the Referee stopped the bout in the second round after Hansen had dropped to the canvas four times without being hit before his last fall," the Illinois commission explained. "The suspension hereby is ordered vacated but the fine will stick."

No action was taken in Hansen's behalf. He was not represented at the meeting.

Passenger automobiles shipped from the United States to South Africa in 1930 were valued at nearly $5,000,000.

Americans Defeat Montreal Maroons

Montreal, Feb. 10 (AP)—The New York Americans defeated the Montreal Maroons 4 to 2 tonight and gained a tie with the losers for third place in the Canadian division of the National Hockey League.

Lacking Nels Stewart, high scoring center who was suspended from the game because of having received three major penalties, the Maroon attack was weak while the edition of Manager Dunc Munro to his active list failed to strengthen the defense. The Americans went out ahead late in the first period and never were overhauled.

Normie Himes and Rabbit McVeigh, a pair of New York's "mid get" forwards, were the stars of the game. McVeigh passed to Himes for two of the four American goals and assisted Bill Irvine in scoring the final counter. A solo dash by George Massecar in the final minute of the first period opened the scoring. Jimmy Ward scored both Maroon goals unassisted, one coming in the second period and one in the third.

SPARTANS WIN FROM DETROIT

State College Quintette Ring Up 34 to 16 Victory

East Lansing, Feb. 10 (AP)—Leaping into a big lead in the first half, the Michigan State college basketball team coasted in with a 34 to 16 victory over the University of Detroit here tonight.

The Spartans gained the upper hand during the first twenty minutes, holding a 20 to 6 lead at half time. Detroit played better basketball in the second period but the handicap was too great to make a close game of it. Dee Pinneo was the Spartan scoring star, he collected 13 points for the evening. The Titan scoring was scattered. It was State's 12th consecutive victory.

Boston Bruins Beat Blackhawks, 2 to 1

Boston, Feb. 10 (AP)—George Owen's third period unassisted goal gave the Boston Bruins a 2 to 1 victory over the Chicago Blackhawks in a National Hockey League game tonight.

The game was one of the fastest played here this season. The Bruins took an early lead when "Big" Clayper broke through and fed a scoring shot to Cooney Weiland about half way through the opening period.

Late in the second session, Vic Desjardines, rushing with Frank Ingram, banged a shot into "Tiny" Thompson's cage and decided the game.

In the third period a Boston rush tied deep in Chicago territory and Ingram attempted to bring the rubber back. He carried it down the right lane and was pole-checked by Captain Lionel Hitchman.

The latter rushed and George Owen joined his ally. Just before the enemy blue line was reached, Hitch passed to the former Harvard star and George belted the puck from a point a few feet outside the blue line, into the Blackhawks' cage.

Blaze of Color Planned for Final Feature of Third Winter Frolic

FANCY SKATING ADDED FEATURE

Music and Fun to Hold Sway at Escanaba Ice Rink Feb. 14-15

Band music both Saturday and Sunday noons will herald the opening of the afternoon program of Escanaba's third annual winter frolic. The Escanaba high school band is scheduled to play Saturday, Feb. 14, if weather is favorable, and similar arrangements have been made for the Escanaba municipal band for Sunday, Feb. 15.

Growing in attractions as public interest in the winter sports program increases, the Escanaba frolic this year will have three major features not previously presented. These are: the ski race, the inter-scholastic skating derby, and the costume carnival party.

Lights All Ready

The latter event, closing attraction of the two-day program, will be staged in typical carnival style. Six spot-lights, two on each end, have been erected to light up the municipal rink for the occasion. In addition, there are strings of vari-colored lights, such as are used on Christmas trees. Bleachers will be erected on one side of the rink for spectators, and everyone is urged to bring their skates to take part in the fun on ice.

The committee has provided a supply of carnival favors, such as balloons, paper hats, serpentine streamers and horns, so that the affair will resemble a New Year's celebration when it gets in full swing. One of the events of the evening will be the parade of fancy costumes, entered to compete for the cash prizes. There will be Marie Sams, Amos, Andy, and Madam Queen, comic cops, hoodlums and other comic characters mingled with beautiful skating costumes of men and women. Prizes will be awarded in three classes: for the most beautiful costume, the best comic costume, and the best group of three or more.

Everybody Skate!

A member of the winter frolic committee is in Chicago this week signing up talent for fancy skating exhibitions scheduled for the Sunday evening program.

According to the present schedule, the ice will be cleared only twice Sunday evening to make room for the grand march of costumes and awarding of prizes and for the fancy skating performance. The remainder of the evening will find the rink open to everyone, and the committee is issuing a blanket invitation for local residents to come out and brush up on their skating ability. The committee hopes that the ice will be crowded, for this will be the surest indication that residents of Escanaba and vicinity believe in winter sports as a road to health and recreation.

Of music there will be plenty all through the sports program at the rink. The amplifiers of the public address system, which will be installed for making announcements, will carry the lat-

RETURN GAME HERE TONIGHT

Parochials Play Stephenson Cagers at Coliseum

The St. Joseph high school basketball team will meet Stephenson at the Coliseum gymnasium in a return game this evening. The Parochials copped the first game at Stephenson, 14 to 12, in a hard struggle and both teams are primed for this battle.

The Geraldmen are desirous of taking the measure of the Stephenson crew to bolster up their record for the season and the visitors are determined to make it one each in the two game series. From all indications the game should be a battle all the way.

St. Joseph has one of the best cage teams in its history this season and the squad has won a big majority of their games, defeating among others the Rapid River aggregation after losing the first battle to that team. They also pushed the Kellmen of Gladstone in a battle royal here losing by a lone point after taking a nine point lead.

Coch Gerald has been directing a new system of offense to spring on the visitors tonight, he said. The squad has developed rapidly this year and is now in the best shape of the season. A large crowd is expected to see the return game this evening. A preliminary will be held at 7:15 o'clock with the feature attraction scheduled to start after eight o'clock.

Miss Ariel Vilas, Chicago, Advances In Miami Tourney

Miami, Fla., Feb. 10 (AP)—Miss Ariel Vilas, of Chicago, medalist in the Miami woman's golf tournament, today eliminated Mrs. R. C. Jones, of Aurora, Ill., her first round opponent, 7 and 5.

Miss Vilas turned in a card of 45 on the outward trip to lead four up at the turn, increasing her advantage on the return. Miss Peggy Watters, Buffalo, winner of the Miami Beach women's title last week, was not extended in eliminating Mrs. W. H. Faber, of Cleveland, 5 and 4, in their first round match. Miss Watters scored 43, two over par on the first nine, the best medal card of the day's play.

Mrs. R. S. Penn, New Haven, Conn., third in qualifying round, turned back Mrs. L. G. Riley, of Pittsburgh, 4 and 3.

At the funeral of the manager of the Rickmanworth, England, water works, the coffin was conveyed through the streets on a wagon drawn by a traction engine.

Salt Lake City Rider Registers 2696.5 Points in Meets

Ogden, Utah, Feb. 10 (AP)—All Engen of Salt Lake City, with total points of 2696.5, was designated national professional ski champion in an announcement today of final standing of contestants in the three tournaments of the Western American Winter Sports Association, at Ogden, Lake Tahoe and Los Angeles.

Engen not only won the championship by taking first place in all three tournaments but he made a new world's record jump of 24 feet in the Los Angeles meet and broke the hill record at Lake Tahoe with 210 feet.

The final standings announced by A. F. Warden, secretary of the association, were: Alf Engen, Salt Lake City, 2696.5; Halvor Hjordgaard, Ogden, 2374; Sveere Engel, Salt Lake City, 2316.5; Ted Rex, Detroit, 2290; Lars Haugen, Lake Tahoe, 2101; Steffen Trostad, Minneapolis, 2085; Halvor Svalstad, Los Angeles, 1638; Einar Fredbo, Salt Lake City, 798; Alf Mathiesen, Ogden, 458.5. ## Ranguettes Defeat Garden by 53 to 31

Nahma, Feb. 9 (Special)—The Ranguettes brothers' basketball team of Nahma swamped Garden in their opener here yesterday, 53 to 31, after leading by a large margin all the way.

Gib Ranguette, at forward, scored 22 of the total points while Ray, a brother, counted 14 points. The Nahma team is rapidly rounding into shape and is ready to meet all comers in the northern peninsula.

NOTED JOCKEYS WIN

New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—Eugene Jones and Vernon Smith, two of the most consistent of jockeys, etched the turf spotlight today. James rode four winners at the Fair Grounds, New Orleans, while Smith, contract rider for the Green stable, scored on three of his mounts and placed the other three in the money at Oriental Park, Havana.

James accepted five mounts and failed only once to win. He had a leg up on Joseph Lester's Prince Apollo and Count Palatine, winners of the third and seventh races, respectively, and accounted for the fifth and sixth numbers with S. W. Lahoot's Rocket Glare and J. Goff's Shasta Pebble.

Count Palatine paid even money, while Shasta Pebble returned $16 for $2. A part of the tournaments because of injuries.

New York Boxing Group Calls In Baer and Hoffman

New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—The managerial affairs and worries of Max Baer, young California heavyweight who has been waging an unsuccessful war along the eastern front, came under the scrutiny of the New York state athletic commission today but no action was taken.

Baer, nominally under the management of Hamilton Lorimer, California sportsman, was brought east by Anell Hoffman, San Francisco boxing promoter. The commission wanted to learn what the connection was between the two.

Hoffman and Baer appeared before the commission, explained that Hoffman was acting merely in an advisory capacity, that Baer signed his own contracts and that he had been sending a third of his purses to Lorimer. The point at issue was the ethical question as to whether a boxing promoter was acting as a manager.

They informed the commission they were leaving for the coast tonight, where both are under suspension and would endeavor to be reinstated.

More Membership For House Sought

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP)—An increased house membership to prevent states from losing representation under the new reapportionment law was demanded today before the house census committee by advocates from widely separated sections.

The last minute effort to get action at this session on proposals to amend the law that goes into effect automatically March 4 is being made by members from the 21 states losing 27 seats.

Maintaining the agricultural states affected would be inadequately represented under the new distribution, the proponents headed by Representative Gibson of Vermont, said rural populations were more demanded than those from cities. He urged adoption of the Thurston bill to increase the house from 435 to 475 seats. Vermont loses one of its two members.

bills to curvy favor.

These "adjusted compensation" certificates are, in reality, the government's I. O. U.'s to pay each holder a certain amount in 1945. The average face value is about $1000 per man. They also carry a cash value which, at present, is about 52 per cent of the face value, and a loan value which is now about 22 1/2 per cent.

Such is the background of one of the major issues of the present session into which Congress has suddenly been plunged. This is the movement to have the government pay this money to the veterans now, instead of waiting until 1945.

It is backed by certain leaders in the American Legion who contend that distressed and unemployed veterans need the cash immediately, and that putting such a large amount of money into circulation would greatly aid business. It is opposed by Secretary Mellon and leading bankers who see therein the necessity for a huge government bond issue, a shattered market for all securities and a resultant business depression far worse than any yet known.

Three Main Proposals Supporters of the plan, varying only in detail, have put forward the following proposals:

CONGRESSMAN WRIGHT PATMAN of Texas: To pay the full face value to each veteran now. There are about 3,500,000 certificates of average value of $1000 each, meaning that to do this $3,500,000,000 would be required. At present, the sinking fund for this purpose totals only $625,000,000, meaning that the rest would have to come from a bond issue.

CONGRESSMAN JACK GARNER of Texas, the Democratic leader: To pay immediately the present cash value of the certificates. The cash value is computed at about 52 per cent of the face value, or a total of about $1,700,000,000.

OTHER PROPOSALS are to increase the loan value, on which holders may borrow. The present loan value is about 22 1/2 per cent of the face value. Strongly advocated is a plan to increase the loan value to 50 per cent.

Bonus Not Fixed Policy—In the background of this congressional fight is the fact that the United States has never committed itself to a policy of paying cash bonuses to its ex-soldiers.

It used to give land grants to veterans and in the wake of its wars it has always pensioned them sooner or later, first for injuries arising during their service and subsequently for all types of disability.

During and immediately after the World War the government contemplated no bonus to these veterans and hoped to get away from the old general pension idea that has cost more than $8,000,000,000 to date. It paid each World War soldier $60 which was supposed to buy him a suit of clothes as he returned to civilian life, and embarked upon an elaborate program of insurance, hospitalization, vocational rehabilitation and compensation for service-connected disability on which it has thus far disbursed more than $5,000,000,000.

Congress Grows Liberal—But the World War veterans obtained from Congress a more

Debunkers of Lincoln Rebuked in Editorial

Washington, D. C.—The "Debunkers"—that class of writers and orators that laughs and sneers at any display of sound patriotism and at the virtues of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln—are the target for sharply pointed, incisive comments of C. H. Lister, secretary-treasurer of the National Rifle Association, which appear editorially in the February issue of the association's magazine, "The American Rifleman."

The "debunkers" are effectively and scaringly rebuked and the two greatest of Americans are given a fresh hold on the glory they won for themselves and their country in their lifetime.

Were Only Human—The editorial, intended for the thousands of sportsmen of the country, calls upon them to revive their own faith in American ideals and to inculcate the same faith in the younger generation, while also taking to task the anti-gun reformers who seek to disarm America.

It is during February, because of Washington and Lincoln's birthday. Mr. Lister comments, that the "debunkers" are much heard from both Washington and Lincoln were human, he admits, and he wonders why they are held up to public calumny by "debunkers" because they were human. After regretting that the attackers of the character of America's two greatest of leaders have their greatest effect upon youth, Mr. Lister proceeds:

Ideal of Youth—"To adults who have lived their lives, who have sacrificed or witnessed the personal sacrifice of ambition, of prosperity, of life, for an ideal, who have listened to the calumnies of erstwhile friends, who have been through the strain and stress of great war, all the attempts to debunk men like Washington and Lincoln result only in a greater appreciation of the true nobility of these two great Americans. But youth is essentially a hero-worshiper. Many of the ideals which carry a man through the rough spots in later years were unconsciously formed in his youth through his respectful admiration for and attempts to emulate some particular hero. When such a hero is shattered, youth is all too likely to lose its beacon light and to run aground on the shoals of uncertainty, to be pounded to pieces by the sea of a surging life that gives no time for the charting of a new course.

"No greater service can be rendered by the sportsman of America in this month of February than to seize upon the celebration of the birth of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln as a means of reviving their own faith in the American ideals for which these men gave all they had, and with a new grip of themselves, to pass along to the rising generation the fact that of course every great American hero was human and that his heroism arose not from any god-like characteristics, but from his ability to master human emotions and to turn them to the everlasting credit of himself and the United States."

extensive bonus system than was ever granted before and won a general pension system much sooner than did the veterans of any previous war. In 1924, Congress passed over President Coolidge's veto the adjusted compensation act which gave war veterans the certificates due to be cashed at an average of $1000 each in 1945.

On top of the arrangements already made for payment for disabilities connected with military service, Congress last year enacted legislation which granted payments of from $12 to $40 a month for disabilities not connected with military service.

Prior to the World War the nearest approach to a cash bonus was given in the Spanish-American War. After that war, partly because of the worry over trouble in the Philippines, men mustered out were at first put "on furlough" and received two months' pay—at $15.60 a month—for time spent in civilian life.

Pensions Go Far Back—The government's first pension system, which followed the Revolutionary War, granted $20 a month to officers and $8 to enlisted men. Civil War pensions for disabilities of all types began in 1895 when Congress fixed a minimum of $6 a month for veterans proving disability. Since that time Civil War pensions have been greatly increased.

The history of Spanish-American War pensions reveals a long and interesting fight by the veterans. First, they began in 1910 a movement for widows and orphans. In 1918 they got $12 a month for the widows and $4 a month for each minor child. Then they asked for age and disability pensions for veterans and in 1920 obtained a minimum of $12 a month for 25 per cent disability, and $30 a month for total disability, with a minimum applying to all veterans over 62 and the maximum to all over 75.

In 1922 the widows' pensions were boosted to $20 a month and in 1926 to $30. Also, in 1926 the minimum pensions for Spanish War veterans was raised to $20 and the maximum to $50. Last year the disability minimum was lowered to 10 per cent and a new scale authorized by Congress—$25 a month for 25 per cent disability, $35 for

Matinee Performance To Be Presented Friday Afternoon

The Lucky 13 minstrel show sponsored by Committee 13 of the Escanaba high school will give two performances at the school auditorium Friday. A special children's matinee will be held in the afternoon to allow the school children to enjoy the black face minstrel show. In the evening the minstrels will play for a packed house if the advance ticket sale holds out.

Rehearsals this week reveal a peppy show far superior to the average high school production. Catchy song numbers and a large number of snappy special acts, not to mention a Laurel and Hardy comedy, promise a complete evening of fun and eye ear entertainment for everyone.

The members of Committee 13 under the direction of their faculty advisor, E. J. Nicholas, are busy transforming the stage of the auditorium in an entirely new and original manner, using a striking scheme in black and white. Committee members are also in charge of the ticket sale and the reservation of seats. Seats may be reserved at the office of the principal.
