Dinner Tuesday For National Scout Leader

Reservations will be received up to noon Monday for the dinner Tuesday evening at the Hotel Delta at which Miss Marie Attreith, of the National Girl Scout Headquarters, New York, will be a guest and the principal speaker.

Report on Presentation of Historic Desk to West Point Is Matter of General Interest

The story in The Daughters of the American Revolution magazine, telling of the acquiring and presentation of the historic desk of Benedict Arnold to West Point, will be of interest not only to members of Lewis Cass Chapter, of this city, and their friends, but will have a general interest in this month of patriotic anniversaries.

Girl Scouts

A practical suggestion for the commemoration of Washington's birthday by Girl Scouts comes from the American Tree Association.

Troop One had a busy week. Leona Stradski talked on Scouting at the Webster P. T. A. meeting and the rest of the troop held a candy sale, clearing about five dollars.

Troop Two will have Formal Investiture Monday at four o'clock at the Bethany Lutheran church parlors. All mothers of the girls are invited.

Troop Three held a meeting Thursday night. Elizabeth Doty and Charlotte Molloy are to attend a Troop Two meeting Mondays to train a tenderfoot.

Troop Six took a long hike, enjoying the springlike weather.

Woman's Club Members Meet On Wednesday

A group of selections by the Escanaba High School Girls' Glee club will be the entertainment features of the regular meeting of the Escanaba Woman's club Wednesday afternoon, February 25.

Costume Party Given by Circle Enjoyable Affair

Colorful costumes, representative of various characters and various times, were worn by guests at the costume party given Friday evening by Circle One of the First Presbyterian church, in the church social rooms.

Over seventy-five guests attended the party. Arrangements were in charge of special committees of members of the Circle.

Glorifying Yourself By Alicia Hart

Keeping a beauty kit right in your office desk drawer or your locker is about the biggest stimulant you can have towards keeping yourself presentable.

For the requirement, it often is easier to buy small tubes or jars of this or that than to find something at home in which to put a small amount of your regular lotions.

One thing that many people overlook in equipping such a kit is a deodorant. You need that quite as much as you do cleansing cream.

For most Americans, the tree planting would be solely in honor of George Washington. For the Girl Scouts, however, it would be in the nature of a triple celebration.

Franklin P-T Unit Meeting Monday Night

The Franklin School Parent-Teacher Association unit will observe Founder's Day at its February meeting which will be held Monday evening in the Franklin school assembly room.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon are the following from the Bible: "Yet I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt; and thou shalt know no god but me; for there is no saviour beside me" Hosea 13: 4).

The Lesson-Sermon includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The perfect mind sends forth perfection, for God is Mind. Imperfect mortal mind sends forth its own resemblances, of which the wise man said, 'All is vanity'" (p. 239).

John A. Lemmer, principal of Escanaba high school, will be the speaker of the evening at the February meeting of St. Anne's Parent-Teacher association which will be held Tuesday evening, February 24, in St. Anne's hall.

The evening meeting will be an observance of Founder's Day, marking the thirty-fourth anniversary of the founding of the organization, and it is urged that all members of the unit and their friends attend.

A drive for subscriptions to the Child Welfare magazine, official publication of the association, will be started at this meeting, and a booth will be arranged from which messages from the state Child Welfare magazine chairman, Mrs. Williams, will be announced, after the fashion of broadcasting.

Books on Outdoor Life Are Gift of C. H. Thordarson to Carnegie Library

Collection Is Valuable Group On Nature Study

A remarkable and a very interesting collection of books pertaining to nature study and outdoor life has been presented to the Carnegie Public Library of this city by Mr. C. H. Thordarson of Chicago. The collection is the second gift presented to the Escanaba library by Mr. Thordarson, following his gift of a set of "Lives of Game Animals," by Ernest Thompson Seton, a valuable addition to the library. The gifts were presented through Mr. E. C. Vogt of the State Conservation Commission, a close friend of Mr. Thordarson.

The collection on outdoor life has a wide range of interest, including about fifty volumes, among them books on flowers, birds, fish, wonders of the plant and animal world, outdoor sports, exploration, and the story of the fur trade of North America.

Nancy Page Quilt Club

By Florence La Ganke

A DIRECTION LEAFLET that will aid in making the Magic Vine Quilt will be sent free to any reader sending a stamped, addressed envelope to Nancy Page in care of this paper.

You should have heard the Nancy Page club members groan when they saw the Tiger Lily block. "Oh, Nancy, have a heart. That flower is too hard. Look at those curves on the petals. We never can make those."

"Shame on you, of course you can. All you need to do it to cut tiny slits along the edges and then you will find that you can turn the raw edge under and hate and press them in place easily."

"All right, teacher, we'll try. But it looks rather difficult."

Nancy suggested that the tiger lily be developed in a yellow figured print with a small petal of ruffled brilliant orange. She said that the three upper petals, which are cut all in one piece, by the way, should be applied with the wrong side of the material outside and the lower two with the right side out.

One member wanted to use a pink and white material, to make that pink and white field lily. But most of the group chose the real tiger lily shade.

By this time they knew just what to do. First they cut two squares six and one-half inches each way, from fine, white gingham.

They cut the paper square from the paper and traced the outline of the flower and leaves as given.

Then they pasted the square onto a piece of light weight tag or cardboard and dried it under pressure.

In cutting the separate petals and leaves from the paper pattern they were careful to make a pattern which allowed for the part which was underlapping as indicated by the dotted lines.

The stem was cut from a bias piece of material, twice as wide as the finished stem. The leaves and stem were cut from green fast color gingham of the lighter shade.

The leaf which is indicated by the dotted line at the top of the pattern is cut from green gingham of a darker shade.

This leaf is applied in place as soon as the white block with the pansy is seamed to the white block on which will be applied the tiger lily. It helps cover the seam.

The pattern for this leaf was given in block number two. After the paper patterns are cut they are laid on fast color material and the patterns are cut, making a quarter-inch allowance on all sides for turning under.

These raw edges are turned under, and basted and pressed in place.

As mentioned earlier, the rounding edges will turn more easily if tiny slits are cut at intervals.

Pin the pieces in place as indicated in the pattern. They cover the outline traced on the white blocks.

Then applique in place, using fine, slanting, invisible hemming stitches.

The stamens are worked in outline and satin stitch, using fast color embroidery cotton in yellow.

Don't forget that this block appears in the fourth vine as well as in the second, so two tiger lily blocks must be made.

BACK BLOCKS SUPPLIED

In the event you have missed any of the Magic Vine Quilt blocks previously published in this paper please send ten-cent stamps for each block missing. Also enclose stamped, addressed envelope. Address Nancy Page, care of this paper.

Managerial Group Leaves for Chicago

Four managers and assistant buyers of the Fair Store, under the direction of Harold Gessner, are leaving today for Chicago to attend various style shows and merchandise exhibitions. The party in addition to Mr. Gessner includes Theodore Livingston, John Peterson, Miss Frances Allen, and Miss Myrtle Groff.

It is said that red-haired persons are seldom found in insane asylums.

Social - Club

Evening Party.
Miss Jean Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Sullivan, 312 South Fourteenth street, was hostess to a group of twenty of her classmates in the Sophomore class of Escanaba high school, last evening at her home. The young people enjoyed games, dancing, followed by a delicious lunch served by Mrs. Sullivan.

Children's Party.
Edward Erickson, Jr., small son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Erickson, 211 South Fifth street, was hostess to a group of his friends Friday afternoon at a party arranged in observance of his fourth birthday anniversary. The children enjoyed games and stories read by their elders and after that a delicious birthday lunch of which the birthday cake was an important item. Springtime favors of Easter bunnies delighted the little guests.

The children who were Edward's guests included Bobby Hansley, John Mathes, John Groos, Billy Nolden, Richard Baldwin, John Manning, Mary Nolden, Rachael Anthony, Paula Meloche, Regina Manning, Belle and Eula Erickson, Anna Mae Loveland and Jean and Joan Stinson.

Richard's Party.
Little Richard Baldwin, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Baldwin, 606 Ludington street, was host to a group of his friends Saturday afternoon on the occasion of his third birthday anniversary. The children enjoyed games and a delicious birthday lunch. Balloons of bright colors formed attractive decorations for the dining room, and were a part of the favors for the little guests.

The children attending were, Edward Erickson, Jr., Ella Mae and Eula Erickson, Robert and Richard Bowers, Rachael Anthony, Maurice Strahl, Jr., Mary Ruth Strahl, Anna Mae Loveland, Regina and John Manning, and Edmund Holderman.

Bedore-Schram
A quiet but pretty wedding took place Saturday morning uniting in marriage, Miss Bernice Bedore, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Bedore, 919 North Fifteenth street, Manitowoc, Wis., formerly of Escanaba, and Mr. William R. Schram, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Schram, 121 South Third street, this city.

The ceremony was performed in the rectory of St. Joseph's church at 10 o'clock, Rev. Father Prosper officiating. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Marcial Sorenson, close friends of the young people, and the bride party was limited to Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Moreau.

The bride wore a lovely gown of larkspur blue fat crepe, a cluster of white gardenias at the neck line forming its only trimming, and her hat was of a corresponding shade of blue. Her attendant was attired in a pretty frock of new green, lake trimmed, and her hat was of tan lace and ribbon of a matching shade.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to members of the bridal party only at Peterson's Tea Room, Ford River. Mr. and Mrs. Schram left immediately after on a wedding trip to Madison, Milwaukee, Chicago and Manitowoc, after which they will return to Escanaba to make their home. They will reside at 121 South Third street.

The bride was formerly with the Escanaba offices of the Michigan Bell Telephone company. Mr. Schram is with the Chicago & North Western railway.

Sunbeam Club
The Sunbeams were entertained at the home of Dorothy Frederickson, South Fifteenth street, Friday afternoon. Prizes in bunco were awarded to Ruth Morin and Jane Flron. Officers of the club are: Helen Jean Beck, president; Elizabeth Morin, secretary, and Dorothy Frederickson, treasurer. Other members include: Blanche Anuta, Helen Tobin and Rose Mary Powers.

Card Party Tuesday
Phoebie Rebekah lodge is entertaining at a card party Tuesday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall. There will be contests in both bridge and five hundred. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Jolly Time Club held its first meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mary Eileen Bourke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Bourke, 602 South Eighth Street. Loreen Roeder won the bunco prize. The hostess served a delicate lunch.

Another exception to the general rule of immediately picking up the opponents' trump is given in the following hand. The declarer must establish a suit in dummy for valuable discards. The location of the missing high cards of that suit have been shown to him in the bidding and the trump must be conserved for entries until this suit is set.

WEST
J-Q-7
H-A-Q-6
D-A-7
6-3
C-5

EAST
S-10-7
D-K-Q-J-8
C-8-4-2
H-5-4-2
D-5-5-2
C-Q-J-10-9

SOUTH-DEALER
S-8-5
H-K-9-8-3
D-10-4
C-A-K-7-3-3

The Bidding
South, at either auction or contract, would open the bidding with one club. At auction, some players might prefer a double with West's hand, but the hand is too powerful. Partner may hold clubs and pass the double and it looks like a sure game. The safest bid at auction is for West to overcall with one spade. East and West would then buy the contract at spades. At contract, West would bid two spades. This is a jump overcall and requires partner to keep the bidding open. North would pass. East, holding normal support in trump, should bid three spades which West would immediately take to four spades.

The Play
West becomes the declarer and North has the opening lead. Partner has bid clubs and in the majority of cases it might be advisable to open a club, but with a suit as strong as the king-queen-jack and the opponents deliberately bidding game over partner's club bid, North knows that one or the other of them is short in clubs and his best defense might be to establish two diamond tricks for himself. He therefore leads the king of diamonds which West, the declarer, wins with the ace.

The club bid has told the declarer that South undoubtedly holds the ace and king of clubs and the king of hearts to justify his bid. The opening lead has told him that North holds the king and queen of diamonds. He can easily see that he must lose two diamonds, one club and even if the heart finesse works, he still must lose a heart which will stop his game.

His only chance is to establish that club suit for discards before he loses his ace of hearts. His trump must be conserved in dummy for re-entries when the club suit is established. Of course, the declarer can safely take one round of trump by leading the ace of spades. His next play should be the five of clubs which South will win with the king. South will return the 10 of diamonds which North overtakes with the jack. North leads the queen of diamonds and then a trump which the dummy wins with the 10 spot.

The queen of clubs is led from dummy, and when South covers with the ace, the declarer trump with the nine of spades. The jack of spades should then be led by declarer and won in the dummy with the queen. This picks up the last of the opponents' trump. On the jack and 10 of clubs, the declarer discards the seven of diamonds and the six of hearts. A small heart is led from dummy and the queen finesse taken which wins the trick. The declarer's ace of hearts and king of clubs are good for the last two tricks.

By refusing to lead trump before establishing the suit in dummy, the declarer has successfully made his contract of four spades.

Circle Four Tea

A charming afternoon church social affair will be the tea at which the ladies of Mrs. D. J. Duranceau's Circle Four of the First Presbyterian church are entertaining on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. J. French, 602 Lake Shore Drive. The hours of the tea are from 2:30 to 5 o'clock. A cordial invitation to attend the tea has been extended to all ladies of church and to their friends.

Milville, N.J.—Mrs. Rosie Hantuk, 43, believes in betting action, even if she has to hit a mayor over the head to get it. She recently asked police to arrest her husband, and when they failed to show up, she went to the mayor to see what was wrong with his police force. Before that gentleman could answer, Mrs. Hantuk hit him over the head with a milk bottle. She was sent to prison for three years.

Theatres

AT THE MICHIGAN
First National-Vitaphone officials believe that successful combinations should not be parted. Working on this theory they again combine in the making of "The Lash," the Richard Barthelmess starring vehicle which is currently breaking records at the Michigan Theatre.

Barthelmess' latest production, recently exhibited, was "The Dawn Patrol," directed by Howard Hawks and authored by John Monk Saunders.

"The Lash" is a historical romance of early California and is based on the best-selling novel by the Bartletts. Barthelmess plays the dashing role of Don Francisco, Spanish gentleman turned bandit to combat his people's oppressors. It is the most romantic role in the Barthelmess repertoire and should please his fans. Marian Nixon plays the role of his sister, while important roles are played by Mary Astor, James Rennie, Fred Kohler, Arthur Stone, Robert Edeson and others. Thousands of extras take part in various scenes.

AT THE DELFT
"The Bachelor Father," which will come today to the Delft Theatre as a new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer talking picture, stars Marlon Davies, the vivacious blonde comedienne and is regarded as an ideal vehicle for her talents.

The Belasco stage hit, written by Edward Childs Carpenter, enjoyed a tremendous international success two seasons ago, playing to capacity audiences on Broadway for nine months and repeating a record run in London as well as on the road in both countries.

Edward Johnson, who is responsible for the screen treatment, is a noted New York playwright, having written "It's a Wise Child," one of the year's outstanding hits.

HE'S 32—AND A GRANDFATHER

Managers of a Jacksonville, Fla., employment bureau doubted L. P. Flathmann when he set down his age as 32—and claimed to be a grandfather. So here you see him as he arrived next day with living proof of his statement. Right to left are Flathmann; his 30-year-old wife; his 15-year-old daughter, Mrs. W. C. Bailey; and his seven-months-old granddaughter, Constance Bailey.

This Fashion Racket—!

Maybe tennis is Barbara Banister's long suit—but long suits aren't for tennis. So here you see the charming racketeer demonstrating the newest, and coolest, mode in court attire at Miami Beach, Fla. Dame Fashion's net results are very pleasing to the eye.

SHE'S FAIREST IN ESTONIA

If your interest in the Estonian Republic has become a little lax of late, take a look at this picture. The lady with the demure smile and dark eyes is "Miss Estonia." The crown she wears denotes her as queen of beauty in her native land, and she is to represent Estonia in forthcoming international beauty contests.

Co-Stars in Matrimony

It wasn't any whirlwind movie romance when Virginia Valli, above, and Charles Farrell, below, film stars, were wed in Yonkers, N. Y., the other day. It's said their love blossomed slowly over a period of four years after their first meeting in Los Angeles. Their marriage was not revealed until two days after the wedding, just before the start of their honeymoon trip to Europe.

MOTHER OF THREE SETS OF TWINS

For the third time in four years Mrs. William Ehmke of Benton, Ill., has given birth to a pair of twins. Mrs. Ehmke, who is 35, is the wife of an unemployed miner. She and her family are shown here. Mrs. Ehmke is holding the new twins, Joe and Joan; seated in front is the second set, John Carroll and Jim Carl, who are 2 years old; at Mrs. Ehmke's left is the third pair, Erna Jean (seated) Erna June, who are 4. Behind the bed are Mary May, 5, and Robert 7, while standing at the right are Mr. Ehmke and the oldest son, Emil, who is 9.

WOMAN MUSER WINS DOG DERBY

Triumphing over six veteran male competitors in a 60-mile dash over snow-covered mountains, Miss Thula Geelan of McCall, Idaho, enriched herself by $450 by winning the Lako Tahoe-Sierra dog derby in the California mountains and capturing the Marco Hellman trophy. She is shown here crossing the finish line four minutes ahead of her nearest rival.

"White's Russia's" Prize Beauty

Beauty contests are unlawful in Soviet Russia. But Russian expatriates, gathered in Paris, selected Marina Challapin, above, as "Miss White Russia of 1931." She's a daughter of Challapin, the famous singer, and will be among the international beauties who are to compete for the title of "Miss Universe" in Chile soon.

Machine That Saved Lives of Five Babies

Seeking to lower the infant death rate, a Chicago hospital has installed a tiny respirator to be used on babies suffering from pulmonary illnesses and to fan the spark of life in infants born in a very weakened condition by gently forcing breath into the lungs. Nurse Helen Barker and Dr. Nathan Grohn are shown with the respirator and a tiny patient. Already the machine is credited with saving the lives of five babies.

$8,000,000 PAID

The sum of $8,000,000 has been awarded to Mrs. Lollit Armour, above, widow of J. Ogden Armour, for her shares on an oil patent by which the process of separating oil into gasoline, fuel oil and coke was made feasible.

AND LOVE, THEY SAY, IS BLIND

Love may or may not be blind, depending on whether the old myths were true or false—but it does lead to unusual happenings occasionally. This picture shows the bride and groom in a recent wedding held at Turin, Italy. The groom is Almro Crema, and stands over nine feet tall; his bride, Teresina, is of normal height, but weighs 400 pounds. Crema, it seems, comes from the same part of a country that produced Primo Carnera.

WELCOME, PRINCE!

No one can blame the Prince of Wales if he orders his boat full speed ahead for Santiago, Chile. For the British throne heir will get a beautiful welcome there from lovely Senorita Mimi Prieva. A popular society leader, she was designated as a hostess to the future king and his brother, Prince George, when they stop off on their South American good-will tour.

WIFE FINDS DEAN "TOO SPIRITUAL"

Charging that her husband had adopted such a high spiritual standard for his life to the extent that he had neglected her, Mrs. Ellen M. Noe, wife of Dean Israel Harding Noe of St. Mary's Episcopal church, Memphis, Tenn., has filed suit for divorce. The dean, rector of the richest and most important Episcopal church in Memphis, the resident pulpit of Bishop Thomas F. Gailor, is shown here with Mrs. Noe.

KAHN-UBIAL BLISS!

Hannah Williams doesn't seem unhappy at having given up her stage career for a marital one with Roger Wolfe Kahn. Banker Otto H. Kahn's orchestra-leader son and his bride are seen here as they smilingly posed for their first picture together on their honeymoon at Miami Beach, Fla. They had been married for two weeks before Miss Williams' resignation from the cast of a Broadway show revealed their secret.

LYNCHING VICTIM

Unsuspected slayer of six persons, who was dragged from a Schafer, N. D., jail and lynched by a mob, is pictured above.

Name Girl Head Of Bandit Gang

at Birmingham, Ala., charged with a series of robberies, they named Helen Brumbach, above, 20-year-old daughter of a police officer and former Birmingham co-ed, as the head of their gang. Miss Brumbach denied the charge.

SHE CHARMED PRINCE OF WALES

A pretty American girl with dark hair and brown eyes won the attention of the Prince of Wales for most of the evening at a dance given in his honor at Panama City. She is Eleanor Nichols of Newport, R. I., daughter of Com. Newton Lord Nichols, in charge of Balboa radio station.

The Cake is off the table--- BUT there is PLENTY OF BREAD and BUTTER!

The True Metal of a Individual, Business, City, Community, State or Nation is not evident when the "Horn of Plenty" is Filled to the Overflowing---Reverse Periods Serve Best to Skim the Dross and Reveal True Character and Ability.

The great successes of the day were founded or forged to the front during these periods. Their organizers appreciated that reverse times were golden opportunities for fighters. The average business, playing the waiting game, retrenched to such an extent that it was forgotten and out of the race or badly crippled when the tide changed.

While the country at large, for the past 14 months, has experienced a general business recession due to overproduction and the rapid introduction of labor-saving machinery—this period of adjustment has not, to an appreciable extent, had ill physical influences on the Escanaba trading area. BUT MENTALLY THE ESCANABA BUSINESS AREA and particularly its trading capital, the city of Escanaba, has suffered far out of proportion to the actual situation.

Escanaba is known throughout the Upper Peninsula for its aggressive progressiveness—it has the prestige of being the leading business center of a section comprizing ONE-FOURTH THE ENTIRE STATE. This position was not the advantage of location—it was not bequeathed—nor was it the favor of more than ordinary luck.

Escanaba earned its enviable place. The vision to reach out, consolidate and continue to reach out and expand its trading area—the courage to carry larger and better stocks of all classes of merchandise—the ability to give greater value—appreciation of store modernization and efficient business methods—encouraging location here of substantial business establishments that would strengthen its position and help carry out its program of advancement—and unstinted use of publicity—all of these, and more, have contributed.

This leadership must be maintained. Relax and its hard won fruits are plucked by someone more alert.

Now, and it is again generally conceded, that the nation is again on the upward climb; Escanaba coming through the seige with only a light singe, is in position to forge ahead with more than ordinary vigor—

The Cake may be off the Table for a while but, there is still plenty of Bread and Butter for those who seriously and intelligently go after it.

OBITUARY

JOHN A. LAMBERT
One of the most impressive funeral services ever held in this city was that which marked the last rites performed over the body of the late John A. Lambert, 406 South Seventeenth street, who for more than thirty years held the position of roadmaster for the E. & L. S. railway company.

A very large delegation of members of Delta Lodge, F. & A. M. attended the services in a body and filled the entire north side of the church edifice.

Brief services were conducted by Rev. R. C. G. Williams at the home of a brother, Carl Lambert 306 North Sixteenth street, where the body lay pending the hour of the funeral services.

Raymond Anderson sang "Somewhere the Sun is Shining" with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Edward Lucas.

The church services were held at two thirty o'clock at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Williams delivered an eloquent funeral sermon using as his text Paul's Epistle to the Corinthians, Chapter 15, parts of verses 55, 56 and 57.

The floral tributes which filled the room were mute testimonials of the esteem in which Mr. Lambert was held in the community.

The active pallbearers were H. G. Essington, O. J. Thorsen, Walter Field, Arthur Nelson, Emil Christensen and G. W. Brown.

The honorary pallbearers were G. N. Harder, L. O. Helms, A. W. Moberg, Andrew Bredahl, H. W. Moore, William Warmington, of this city, A. A. Lundgaard of Cornell and Henry Rosenblum of Gladstone.

The Masonic ritualistic services were held at the grave in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery.

JOHN EDWIN CARLSON
The body of John Edwin Carlson was removed Saturday afternoon from the Anderson funeral home to the family residence, 415 South Fifteenth street, where services will be held Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

The church services will be held Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

The church services will be held at two thirty at the Bethany Lutheran church with Rev. Dr. C. Albert Lund officiating.

The pallbearers will be Charles Olson, Andrew Peterson, Werner Olson, Gust Anderson, Ernest Olson and Gunnar Nelson.

A son, Milton, of Chicago, a sister Mrs. Charles Anderson of Detroit and Mrs. Thomas Peterson of Chicago have arrived here and a sister, Mrs. Elmer Anderson of Iron Mountain is expected to arrive today.

CLIFFORD BARRON
Many life long friends and a large number of relatives attended the funeral services which were conducted at Holy Family church Saturday morning at nine o'clock for Clifford Barron, pioneer resident of that village who died at his home Wednesday after an illness of several months due to chronic Bright's disease and the infirmities of old age.

Rev. Fr. George LaForest, pastor of the congregation was celebrant at the solemn requiem high mass and was assisted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. R. G. Jacques, pastor of St. Anne's church and Rev. Fr. Joseph Beauchene, pastor of St. Joseph's church at Iron Mountain.

Interment was made in the family lot in St. Anne's cemetery.

Mrs. Thomas Tousignant of this city sang two solos "Pie Jesu" at the offertory, and as the mourners left the church, Mrs. Tousignant sang, "Will You Come To My Grave." Miss Irene Villermure presided at the organ.

The pallbearers were six nephews of the deceased, Frank, Henry and Dona Barron, Dona Duranceau, Joseph Trudeau, and a close friend, Edward Dausy.

Out of town relatives and friends included Mrs. L. L. Miller,

V. K. BLUM/TROM OPTOMETRIST & OPTICIAN 1216 WASHINGTON ST. ESCANABA MICH.

of Dillard, Ore., formerly Miss Blanche Barron; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barron, Jr. and Mrs. Joseph Barron, Sr. and Mrs. J. A. Malhotte, Miss Augusta Primm, Marquette; Eugene Lavigne, Hancock; and William Norman, Neogauee. Many friends from Gladstone and this city attended the funeral services.

JOHN RASMUSSEN
Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at four o'clock at the Alto Funeral Home for John Rasmussen, who died at a local hospital Friday after an illness of three weeks.

Mr. Rasmussen was formerly employed as a cigar maker in local shops and had lived here for the past 30 years.

Rev. R. C. G. Williams, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, officiated at the services. Burial was in Lakeview cemetery.

MISS BEULAH LEONARD
Miss Beulah Leonard, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Leonard, of Iron River, died at her home Thursday evening at 11 o'clock. She had been ill since last July.

She is survived by her parents, three sisters, Mrs. Chauncey Marley, of Ontonagon, Viola, of Duluth, and Naomi, of Muskegon, and one brother, Alfred, of this city. Another sister, Arzelle, preceded her in death about one and one half years ago.

Funeral services will be held from the St. Agnes church, with the Rev. Fr. James Lenhart, officiating. Interment will be made at Resthaven cemetery. The time for the services will be announced later.

New Hotel On African Oasis
Having most of the comforts of a city hotel a new hostelry is being constructed on an oasis in North Africa. Practically all the material was transported by camels across 500 miles of desert. Each camel carried about 200 pounds, and a caravan made the trip in 45 days.

The Masonic ritualistic services were held at the grave in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery.
