

C. & A. HEAD OPPOSES COPPER MERGER

ECHO OF VETO WILL RESOUND IN CAMPAIGNS

DEMOCRATS CLAIM THEIR SENATOR WAS CHEATED

BY DAVID LAWRENCE (Copyright 1931, by the Escanaba Press) Washington, Mar. 10.—It isn't often that a single bill becomes a political issue, but President Hoover's veto of Senator Wagner's proposal for a reorganized employment service is bound to be heard from in the next campaign.

Might Have Passed.

The problem is not new. In fact Senator Wagner has been agitating for more than a year the reorganization of federal and state employment services. There might have been a compromise between his point of view and that of the president if the question had come up earlier.

As it was, the measure took on a political aspect and now the Democrats are going to make it one of their principal talking points, unless, of course, Mr. Wagner succeeds in the next session in getting the new bill into Congress.

Republicans on Defensive. Even if the new measure should go through in the next Congress the Democrats are bound to say that it should have been adopted at the height of the business depression. Up to now the Democrats have not had anything concrete to blame on the administration in connection with the economic depression.

EXPRESSES OPPOSITION New York, March 10 (P)—A picture of one more company which originated outside of New York gravitating to the metropolis was painted today as a letter expressing strong opposition from Gordon R. Campbell, president of the Calumet & Arizona Mining company, to his stockholders, became public.

A committee of six Calumet directors has circulated the stockholders, Mr. Campbell's letter quotes the communication of the dissenting directors, who seek proxies from stockholders, thus: "We want to move our office from Calumet, Mich., to New York. We never can do this if we keep re-electing the same old board of directors and we can strengthen our board by substituting two or three."

Six Directors The six directors are: Charles E. Briggs of Cleveland, whose father was one of the founders of the company, Thomas F. Cole of Tonopah, Nevada, one of the original stockholders of the company, William B. Mereshon of Saginaw, Mich., James C. Rea of Pittsburgh, L. D. Ricketts of Pasadena, Calif., and H. De Witt Smith of New York.

Mr. Smith and Henry Krumb of Salt Lake City, another director, are also directors of the Newmont Mining company which holds a "substantial interest" in Calumet, it was said today.

Mr. Campbell's letter discloses also that the committee appointed nearly a year ago to investigate the desirability of a consolidation of Calumet & Arizona with the Phelps Dodge corporation, "which is the main issue in this group of men" has not yet reported to the Calumet directors.

"I and several other directors are convinced that no benefit will be derived therefrom and have made it perfectly clear that we are definitely opposed to scrambling this company's properties with others under the guise of consolidation," Mr. Campbell's letter says.

"Since the organization of the company thirty two years ago it has paid more than $80,000,000 in dividends," Mr. Campbell writes. "Had its offices been in New York during this same period, dividends would have been from $7,000,000 to $10,000,000 less on account of increased expense."

"These results have been achieved with the executive office in Calumet, Mich., and without the aid of New York interests," Copper produced by Calumet & Arizona is marketed by the Metal Sales corporation and the Phelps Dodge sales company under contracts.

Joliet, Ill., March 10 (P)—A legislative storm brewed tonight over Joliet state prison, the aftermath of a convict's death in solitary confinement.

Countering the denial of Warden Henry C. Hill that punishment inflicted on Joseph Coakley had caused his death, Rep. Harry M. McCaskin of Rockford said he would ask a legislative investigation if the coroner's inquest tomorrow reveals there was mistreatment.

"I don't like the looks of this case, from reports which reach me," said McCaskin, chairman of the house committee of penal institutions.

Warden Hill said: "I welcome a full and complete investigation into every detail connected with Coakley's death."

"There at no time has been any inhuman treatment administered to prison inmates."

HEADLESS BODY OF GIRL FOUND

Virginia Brooks, Missing Since Feb. 11, Found Murdered

San Diego, Cal., March 10 (P)—The decapitated and mutilated body of ten year old Virginia Brooks of East San Diego, who had been missing since February 11, was found wrapped in a burly barley bag on Camp Kearny mesa today by a sheep herder.

The girl vanished while on the way to school and had been sought over the southwest. Deputy Sheriff Blake Mason said she apparently had been dead about four weeks and that in addition to being decapitated, both legs had been cut off.

The sheep herder said the body had not been where he found it for more than 24 hours as he was in that vicinity yesterday and would have noticed it.

Possible Clue A neighbor said he had seen an elderly man, described as a "hermit," take the girl to her school on the outskirts of the city several days preceding her disappearance but no one seems to have seen her after she left home on the morning she disappeared.

A possible clue was given to the sheriff by a taxicab driver who brought in a hat partially identified as having been worn by the girl.

The cab driver told the sheriff that two weeks ago he had passengers a man and a girl wrapped in a cloak.

The man ordered him to drive to an address, the driver said, but three blocks before the address was reached the man ordered the cab stopped and he and the girl got out. The next morning, the chauffeur said, he found the hat on the floor of the cab.

This conflicted somewhat with the estimate the girl had been dead about four weeks.

The disappearance and death of the Brooks girl recalled the slaying in Los Angeles in 1927 of Marian Parker, 12 year old daughter of a banker, by William Edward Hickman. Hickman was later hanged at San Quentin.

Transcontinental Hop Goes Awry As Flier Forced Down

Tolu, Ky., March 10 (P)—Captain Ira Eaker, noted army flier, was forced down and damaged his plane near here today on a transcontinental flight. He escaped with minor scratches and after discovering he could not continue the flight hurriedly set out for Cave-In-Rock, Illinois, to spend the night.

It was said his plane stuck in mud on landing and was badly broken up. He was said to have blamed the forced landing on a "dead engine."

Prior to his landing here about noon no definite word had come from the noted army flier since he took off at 2:13 a. m. from Long Beach, though a plane believed to have been his was seen over Albuquerque, N. M., early today. He was flying a specially built Lockheed-Vega monoplane and had said it was rather a test flight than an effort to break the west-east trans-continental record. He had traversed about 1,700 miles when forced to land.

Jews Asks Legion To Change Dates Of Big Convention

Detroit, March 10 (P)—Milford Stern, Detroit attorney, said today that the American Jewish committee and B'Nai B'rith, Jewish organizations, will request that opening of the American Legion convention at Detroit, next fall be changed from September 21 which would conflict with observance of Yom Kippur.

Mr. Stern said Mayor Frank Murphy, of Detroit, is joining with the Jewish organizations in appealing to the national executive committee of the Legion to change the convention dates. Last year dates of the Legion convention at Boston were changed for a similar reason.

Washington, March 10 (P)—The American government is not contemplating any change of policy in its relationship with Russia.

ERROR FOUND IN DEATH BILL; BATTLE LOOMS

(Continued from Page One) new bill Wednesday morning. The change it was pointed out, has no bearing on the intent of the act. Governor Brucker did not have the legislative bill before him for comparison when he signed the act.

While the staff of Fred I. Chase, secretary of senate, was rushing through a new enrolled act to the governor, opponents of the death penalty were planning an attack on the proposed procedure. Representative Vincent P. Dacey, of Detroit, who opposed the capital punishment bill in the legislature, said a petition may be filed in the courts to restrain the secretary of state or county clerks from placing the question on the ballot. He pointed out the department of state cannot possibly certify the act thirty days before the election as required by the measure, however, claimed the referendum clause which provides that the question be voted at the April 6 election, is sufficient within itself for placement on the ballot.

Discarded by Callaghan Clarke Brown, deputy secretary of state, said he will certify the new act to the county clerks as soon as it is received by his office from the governor. Representative Dacey declared that if an injunction could not be obtained to restrain the secretary of state, the fight may be carried into one or more circuit courts.

The error omitted a part of the report agreed upon by a conference committee of the house and senate.

It was discovered by Rep. Miles M. Callaghan, an opponent of the death penalty, as the house was considering another measure today. Rep. Frank D. Brown offered an amendment to one of his measures on third reading, explaining that it was to substitute the words "members of the department of public safety" for "state police." He explained that legally there is no such office as the "state police." Rep. Callaghan then arose to inform the house the capital punishment act contained the same language. Closer examination later revealed that reference to the "state police" in the act was a discrepancy from the bill as it passed the legislature.

Suicide Theory Is A Puzzle to Police

Havana, March 10 (P)—Police of Havana had a new mystery on their hands tonight in the death of an unidentified man, whose body was found hanging in the doorway of the Spanish embassy just after the explosion of a bomb there.

Though perhaps a suicide, authorities could not explain his presence at the embassy where he was unknown. His body was found when they went to investigate the explosion, which did little damage. Those who placed the bomb escaped.

Police also were searching for assassins who early today raided the office of the humorous weekly Karikato, wrecked the equipment of the staff, including the editor Julio Gannaud, who also received a slight bullet wound. Several wounds were reported among the intruders.

Hoover Criticized For Not Signing Unemployment Bill

Washington, March 10 (P)—President Hoover was criticized today by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, and by Senator Harrison for his pocket veto of the Wagner unemployment bill.

Green said in a statement the "reasons offered for the exercise of the presidential veto are unconvincing and unacceptable" and that "the working people of the United States are deeply disappointed."

Harrison, a Mississippi Democrat, charged the president with vetoing the measure "because it was a Democrat proposal. It would have provided federal aid to states employment agencies."

"Because of the deep interest which labor had in this measure," Green said, "the refusal of the president to approve it is regarded as a direct and severe blow to working people in the industrial sections of our country who are unemployed and are forced to seek work."

Green added the federal unemployment agencies "have failed utterly."

San Diego, Cal., March 10 (P)—Complaints charging Alexander Pantages, vaudeville magnate, and four other persons with violation of the juvenile court act in connection with the Los Angeles "love market" investigation, were issued here late today by District Attorney Thomas A. Whelan.

Glorifying Yourself

By Alicia Hart
Time and again I have admired a beautiful head of shining white hair, only to have the owner mourn the loss of color. It seems human to admire lovely silver or white hair on others and mourn it on ourselves. Therefore many women put off the day of mourning by using dye or tints and I am all for it, if it makes them feel better.

The question they bring to me, after they tire of dye, is how to bleach white hair out in a hurry. Well, it can't be done, that's all. There are certain oil treatments that help to hurry the process but dye has to wear off the hair and you must wait until it does.

The treatment the best specialists advise is to get the hair in perfect condition and let nature take care of itself. By that I mean constant scalp treatments while you are letting your hair go gray. Since there is no tonic or ointment of unguent that bleaches it all at once, the best thing is to get it healthy looking and the color doesn't make so much difference.

As a matter of fact, the reason most women decide to give up dyeing their hair is that the texture has become so inferior. They speak of the brittleness, the way their hair no longer takes a decent curl and so on. That is a natural result of using certain dyes upon the scalp. But I maintain that if you are as careful in treating your scalp as you should be your hair texture won't change so much.

Especially, if you have used henna dyes, and now want to let your hair grow into its natural lovely silverness, by all means go in heavily for scalp treatment. The same brushing, tonic, application, massage that I am always recommending. But after all, scalp care is scalp care whether it is to get your head into the right condition after illness, after dyeing your hair, or just to keep it lively.

It takes as a rule about seven months after you make up your mind to let your hair go silver for it to become uniformly gray, after dyeing. But in those seven months you can do such wonders to your head of hair that you will emerge with a gorgeous platinum frame of softness for your features and probably decide you never had a more becoming hair shade in all your days of dyeing.

Speculate on Site
Negaunee.—Since word came from Washington that $75,000 has been allotted for the purchase of a site and construction of a postoffice building in Negaunee, there has been much speculation here as to where the structure will be located. Nearly every taxpayer in the city has his own idea as to which location would be the most desirable.

There are several excellent sites here for a government building. There are many landmarks in the business district that have long since seen their best days. Not a few of them are unoccupied, not because the properties are not in fairly good condition, but because business is not as widely distributed among a large number of commercial concerns as it was a few years ago. Most of the properties now vacant have been for a considerable period. It is assumed that anyone of the desirable locations for a postoffice occupied by a building that is not bringing the owner a reasonable income on his investment can be bought at a lower price than was possible before business conditions changed.

London.—Police Sergeant Sheehan stopped a car and advised the driver that the rear plates on the auto were not adjusted properly. It was all right with the driver, but the woman with him, Mrs. Marjorie Kenworthy, who was his wife, objected. She got out of the car and administered a good beating to Sheehan before she could be stopped.

Engadine, March 10. (Special) —Roy Hancock, Clarence Boucha and William Edwards motored to Newberry Saturday night to see the midnight show, on the return trip the car skidded on the slippery road opposite the August Schroeder farm, turned over, and was completely destroyed by fire. It is thought that the gas from the vacuum tank dropping on the hot manifold pipe caused the fire. The three boys escaped through the door of the car without a scratch. The car was insured.

The state snow plows have been busy for the past twenty four hours engaged in keeping U. S. 2 open for traffic and so far have been successful in one of the worst storms this winter. The County road north to Newberry is blocked, but it is expected that as soon as the storm subsides everything possible will be done to open the roads for auto traffic.

MORE NEEDED NOW

THE need of an adequate sewage disposal system in Escanaba becomes more urgent in view of recent developments in this county, which naturally will affect this city greatly.

A wise city administration has already given Escanaba a zoning ordinance and city plan that will provide for the orderly growth of this community.

Effective sewage disposal is a necessity in any community, and its need increases as a city grows.

CRUELITIES OF YOUTH

THE helpless tragedies of youth are things we can all understand, since all of us have lived through them, in one form or another.

The suicide of little Benita Biehoff in New Jersey the other day emphasizes the existence of this cruelty.

Benita, who was 16, was the daughter of the Vivian Gordon who was murdered after she had prepared to give evidence in the New York "vice ring" investigation.

Circumstances of the murder, and the facts regarding the woman's life which were brought out subsequent to it, were rather unsavory.

Probably she would have been able to live through it if it had not been for the attitude of her schoolmates. They took pains not to let her forget that her mother had not been all she might have been.

Youth, as it happens, can be as cruel as grown-ups. It has its own sorrows and disappointments—and how black they can seem, in the early 'teens—but it has not had time yet to digest them and through them to learn how to be considerate and tolerant.

Much of this is due to youth's immaturity. But that is not all of it. Youth reflects the adult world in which it lives.

o. It callously makes her the central figure of a nine-days' scandal. It puts her up on a stage where no one can miss seeing her and turns on the spotlight. It finds in the whole hodge "vice ring" situation no such a spur to righteous indignation as a pleasing new sensation.

So the grown-up world need not be surprised if youth turned on Vivian Gordon's daughter and put her in the pillory. It was the adults who set the stage and provided the incentive.

AROUND THE PENINSULA

A MARENISCO man was found guilty of negligent homicide in connection with the death of a pedestrian who was struck by the respondent's automobile. In passing sentence at Beneser, Circuit Judge George O. Driscoll issued the timely admonition that it is high time for the motorist and pedestrian alike to give more consideration to the rights of the other fellow on the highways.

MARIE ROZINE of Vulcan twice was in the running for state club honors and finally won first place from a field of several thousand. In 1923 she placed third in the state wide contest and in 1929 she was second. Having won the honor, the Vulcan girl is entitled to a two-year scholarship at Michigan State college.

JOHN O'HARA of Menominee, who gave Dr. Frank Bohli a scare in the congressional primary race last fall, made a business visit into this part of the Peninsula last week and expressed the opinion that if there is reappointment in the state, the Upper Peninsula should be made a separate congressional district.

A CHURCH is seldom made the principal beneficiary of a will. That is why the will of the late Miss Amalia L. Pryne of Iron River is all the more interesting. She left to St. John's Episcopal church at Iron River title to a two-story business building in Iron River.

South Africa has decided to conduct its boxing contests under American instead of British rules. We fear foul play ahead.

Johnny Weissmuller, swimming champ, who recently married a Broadway beauty, probably regards this his stroke of good fortune.

Whoever said you cannot get anywhere at a crawl apparently forgets the swimmer.

Health Tips

DR. MORRIS FISHER

Much has been said in recent years, and there is good cause for saying it, relative to the health hazard associated with too much smoke in the air and particularly of too much gas of one type or another.

Recently a committee appointed by the chief of police in Paris to investigate the presence of noxious smokes and gases escaping from motor cars in that city where taxicabs are profuse finds that the situation in Paris is no more healthful than in any other place in the world.

Incidentally, it is found that motor cars standing still with the motor running gives off more dangerous gas than one running with a load on the road. Smoke escaping from a motor car emanates from the lubricating oil. It is not directly related to the carbon monoxide that may be present in the exhaust gas.

When the Paris authorities examined the situation so far as carbon monoxide was concerned they found that it never reached an amount sufficiently great to cause serious symptoms. Moreover, the amount present 100 yards in the air was greater than at ground level. They did find that the amount of carbon monoxide present was quite sufficient to damage sensitive trees, even if it did not cause noticeable symptoms in human beings.

It is the belief of the Paris authorities that both the smoke and carbon monoxide are the result of imperfect combustion and that the control of visible smoke will also bring about control of the carbon monoxide. They therefore recommend the passing of laws which will penalize any driver whose car is giving off undue quantities of visible smoke.

The French commission recommends particularly that further studies be made with a view to increasing the efficiency of the motors to avoid the possibility of dangerous exhaust gases.

Several years ago the suggestion was made in this country that means be developed for releasing the exhaust at a point well above the top of the car. Unfortunately the idea did not seem to meet with popular approval and, so far as known, no practical device for this purpose has yet been developed or adopted by any manufacturer of motor vehicles.

ELECTRIC LIGHT LINES EXTENDED

New Communities Served in Schoolcraft and Delta Counties

A total of 74 Michigan communities which previously had no central station electric power service were connected with the lines of the state's power systems during 1930, according to a survey just completed by the Utilities Information Bureau of Ann Arbor. Several extensions were made in the Upper Peninsula, most of them in Delta and Schoolcraft counties, including the expansion of the Escanaba Power and Traction company lines. The 74 communities given central station service for the first time are scattered throughout the state, with 60 of the lower peninsula and 14 in the Upper Peninsula.

In the Upper Peninsula, the Wisconsin Michigan Power company began serving Breen, Felch, Garden, Cooks and Inwood township in Schoolcraft county. The Michigan Gas and Electric company gave service to Shingleton. The Copper District Power company began to supply Rockland, Victoria, and Lake Mine. The Escanaba Power and Traction company extended its lines to Ensign and Pine Ridge.

The Chiff's Power and Light company stretched a transmission line from the Lake Superior coast to Soul Choix Point—on Lake Michigan to supply power to the Inland Lime and Stone company plant and settlement. On the way, it drops off electric power for Sney, Germfask, and Blaney Park Mackinac Island was taken over by the American States Electric Co., which operates the Edison Saul Electric Co.

Less than 200 Michigan towns of 150 population or more are now without central station power service, and most of these are in isolated locations out of present reach of system transmission lines.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE MICHIGAN
One of the most exquisite wardrobe seen on the screen this season is worn by Genevieve Tobin in her second and latest picture for Universal, "Free Love," now at the Michigan Theatre.

Twenty-seven smart costumes were especially designed for the former Broadway star for this production, which is directed by Hobart Henley, and they are said to add much to the beauty of Miss Tobin.

The cast of "Free Love" includes, besides Miss Tobin, Conrad Nagel, who played opposite her in "A Lady Surrenders," Monroe Owsley, Ilka Chase, Zasu Pitts, George Irving, Sidney Bracey and Slim Sumnerville.

"This is going to hurt me more than it does you," remarked Conrad Nagel as he unleashed a wild "haymaker" on the jaw of Genevieve Tobin during the filming of "Free Love" recently and sent the famous Broadway star "down for the count."

However, it was only a scene, one of the most dramatic in the current attraction at the Michigan Theatre, in which Nagel, after being nagged to the point of desperation by his wife, loses his temper and becomes a cave man.

AT THE DELFT
A motion picture, which might safely be called a "perfect gem," last night gave audiences at the Delft Theatre a real thrill.

It is doubtful whether there will be a talking picture this season or any seasons that will equal the drama of "Scarlet Pages," a First National and Vitaphone production in which Elsie Ferguson, Marion Nixon and Grant Withers portray the starring roles.

"Scarlet Pages" is adapted from the play of Samuel Shipman and John B. Hymer, and its thrilling story is acted by a cast which is hard to equal.

Something new and novel in plot construct on is brought to the screen in this picture, and the anti-climax, which takes place during a murder trial, is one of the most gripping scenes ever photographed. The greatest of all human emotions, mother love, plays an important part in this film.

Elsie Ferguson, who makes her talking picture debut in "Scarlet Pages," portrays the role of the mother and brilliant criminal lawyer, Marion Nixon is seen as the cynical suspenseful girl who is on trial for murder, while Grant Withers plays the part of her sweetheart.

Unusually fine performance are given by every member of the supporting cast, which includes John Halliday, De Witt Jennings, Helen Ferguson, Neely Edwards, Wilbur Mack and Charlotte Walker.

To Ray Enright goes the credit for excellent direction.

Water Pumped Out To Lay Drain Line

With the installation of a device for removing seepage water, good progress is being made on the big tile drain which will carry water from the new grade separation bridge on US-2 in Escanaba. A series of well points have been installed, and a motor pump carries the surplus water which previously hindered the laying of tiling. The drain is over half a mile long.

ESCANABA NOT HIT BY STORM

Streets Bare; Highways in East Peninsula Badly Drifted

Heavy going was reported in some sections of the Upper Peninsula Tuesday as a result of the March gales and snow, but Del. storm, and neither highway nor county suffered little from the railway traffic was delayed. Plows were sent out to patrol the highways, where an occasional drift was encountered in open country, and the C. and N. W. sent out a spreader plow ahead of Train 217. No trouble was experienced, however, and railway schedules were uninterrupted. In the eastern end of the peninsula, highway travel was hazardous, and badly drifted conditions were experienced east of Engadine on US-2.

Escanaba received only a trace of snow in the storm which tied up traffic in many cities to the south. The weather bureau here reported about half an inch of snowfall, and streets of Escanaba were practically bare Tuesday. Diminishing winds were recorded.

Ice on Bay de Noc is holding even at 15 inches, according to weather bureau measurements, although fields are reported to have broken away at Peninsula and Portage points.

MILLER TO RUN ON NEW TICKET

Rapid River Man to Continue Race for Supervisorship

Miller, who was defeated by a small margin of votes at the township caucus last Saturday, has been urged by his many friends and supporters to continue in the race for the supervisorship. Accordingly, a caucus will be held next Saturday afternoon for the purpose of nominating a full slate of candidates for the several township offices. A tentative slate has been agreed upon, all of whom have a strong following so that the election on April 6 promises to be an exciting affair.

Petition for Primary

One of the results of the caucus of last Saturday was that it has become evident that there should be a township primary. There were 315 votes cast for the candidates for supervisor. The process of passing out slips with the candidate's name on, followed by a procession around the hall dropping these slips into hats and then the tedious task of counting and recounting the slips is too antiquated and as well unreliable to be continued any longer. Then too, as demonstrated by the vote for highway commissioner, three ballots were necessary to determine the choice. There is a measure of unfairness about the method of elimination. One of the candidates for highway commissioner had 125 votes on the first ballot, the other three receiving 82, 80 and 22, respectively. In the elimination two of the other candidates dropped out with their votes going to the other low man, thereby defeating the high man. At a primary the high man would have been the nominee.

Under the caucus system as now conducted there is no way to prevent ineligible persons from voting. There is also the danger of repeaters or unscrupulous persons might drop more than one slip into the hat. There is also the further inconvenience of the voters having to spend two hours of an afternoon standing around a hall that becomes stuffy with smoke, or else if the doors are opened, drafty and cold.

Under the primary system, candidates will be required to file nomination petitions signed by not less than one percent nor more than four per cent of the qualified voters of the township not less than 20 days before the day set for the primary. The names of the several candidates filing said petitions are then printed upon an official ballot. The election is then conducted as at other elections. Absent voters may vote as at the other elections. A petition has been prepared and is now being circulated, asking the township board to submit the question of adoption of the primary system to the voters of the township.

More than 73,000 miles in a New Ford

THE substantial worth of the new Ford is reflected in its good performance, economy and reliability. Its stamina and endurance are particularly apparent in sections where bad roads and severe weather put a heavy extra burden on the automobile.

In less than a year a new Ford Tudor Sedan was driven more than seventy-three thousand miles over a difficult route. The operating cost per mile was very low and practically the only expense for repairs was for new piston rings and a new bearing for the generator.

The car carried an average load of 1200 pounds of mail and was driven 250 miles daily. "The Ford has never failed to go when I was ready," writes one of the three mail carriers operating the car. "The starter did the trick last winter even at 34 degrees below zero. The gas runs about 20 miles per gallon. At times I pull a trailer whenever I have a bulky load."

Many other Ford owners report the same satisfactory performance. Every part has been made to endure—to serve you faithfully and well for many thousands of miles.

Indian Lake Mission Is Start Of Catholicism In Schoolcraft County

Few people realize that the third church built in the upper peninsula was located on a little clearing on the gently sloping eastern shore of Indian lake. It was known as "The Old Indian Mission," a crude log structure which was dedicated by Father Baraga and Vincent de Paul on August 9, 1833.

This crude edifice, built in a wilderness practically uninhabited by white man, signified the introduction of the Catholic faith in Schoolcraft county. It was constructed of pine logs secured by wooden pegs. In the interior, on both sides of the center aisle, were a half dozen rudely fashioned pews with seating capacity for approximately 75 people. In front was situated a small platform with a pulpit; two or three chairs and a few little images completed the interior furnishings.

A large bell, hung on a standard-like structure, tolled out its call to worship to the Chippewas through the clear air of the primeval forest. Years later when the Chippewa acreage was purchased from the Chicago Lumber company, the west-beaten bell was put on exhibition in the firm's office, and still later, again saw service when it was installed on one of the company's tugs, the Evans. An image obtained from the Old Indian Mission by Mrs. Abigail Weston, wife of one of the owners of the Weston Lumber company, was taken to the Weston home in New York state.

later, however, with the installation of freight and passenger service necessitated by the rapid growth of the Chicago Lumbering Company, the village of Manistique grew in leaps and bounds. The inner urge of religion, inculcated into the nature of all mankind, was evidenced soon afterward by the erection of the Baptist church which was followed a year or two later by the building of the St. Francis de Sales upon the location on which it now stands on Oak and Lake streets.

Used Town Hall

Prior to the building of the first Catholic church in this city, local Catholics were administered to from Garden. Mass was said in the Town hall, the same building now occupied by the Carrington family on Walnut street.

Consequently in the summer of 1884, a little more than fifty years after the establishment of the first Catholic church in the county, Rev. T. A. Majerus, first resident pastor, commenced the building of a church in the city. Only the interior of the church was completed during his short tenure, the interior being completed in the spring of 1886 under the supervision of Father A. W. Geers. Two years later the parsonage was finished by Father Faust.

These were days which were marked by strong personal sacrifice in order that the busy little community would have an opportunity to grow up with Christian ideals. Here, as elsewhere, the continuous changes in the pastorate were detrimental to the welfare of the parish, but the dauntless and courageous spirit of the adherents made the St. Francis de Sales church a marked success from the beginning.

How Church Began

A story taken from the Manistique News, dated June 5, 1884, chronicles the beginning of the church and shows the wonderful spirit of cooperation effected in raising finances for its construction. It reads as follows:

"Six months ago the idea of a Roman Catholic church in Manistique was not thought of, for at that time there was not even an organization of this denomination here, but this dormant state of affairs was changed by the arrival of Rev. Father Th. A. Majerus. This gentleman immediately effected a society which has since worshipped in Union hall. His energies did not cease here, however, and it was not long ere he laid his plans for the erection of a new church.

"From the first he has met with good success, receiving that pecuniary assistance from all enterprising and liberal-minded citizens of every thinking mind, which characterizes the people in this country. In fact, so hearty has been the response to the solicitations, that the idea of anything less than an imposing and elegant church edifice adorning our village, has vanished like a summer cloud; and now the most sanguine are sufficiently enthusiastic to look forward to it even being built of brick, which will, of course, depend upon the future generosity of the people.

"The architectural plans of the new building are on exhibition at the general store of F. Clark, Jr. & Co., where a slight idea can be formed of what the exterior of the church will be when completed. The dimensions will be: 52 feet front, with tower; body of church, 37 feet; length, 72 feet. The auditorium will have a seating capacity of about 500 people. Father Majerus informs us that work will be commenced about the middle of July.

Contributors

"The following persons have so far generously donated:

John Costello, $100; I. Epstine, $25; Frank Clark, Jr., $50; Peter Metty, $25; O. C. Bowen, $25; F. H. Thompson, $25; George K. Newcombe, $25; J. B. Metty, $25; Joseph Plante, $100; Dan Heffron, $200; Frank Vincent, $25; A. E. Burdick, $25; John McCanna, $100; John McCarly, $50; Henry Brassel, $50; M. McNamara, $25; P. McNamara, $25; Colon Campbell, $25; A. C. Richard, $50; Simon Bouchard, $30.

"Among other events connected with the preliminaries preparatory to commencing construction of the church, will be a church bazaar, to be held at Union hall, opening on the 30th of June and closing on the 4th of July.

"While a church fair generally reaps remunerative results, it also accomplishes much in the social sphere. There are always attractions which all are loth to overlook, and the consequent outcome of such events is always a mutual benefit to the fair and its patrons. The voting for some useful and ornamental article, which, as the fair advances becomes more and more enthusiastic, is of itself a sufficient attraction to assure success.

"Among the articles to be contested for are: Gold-headed cane, O. A. Bowen, Manistique; H. Williams, Petty; E. T. Slaten, Thompson, 25 cents a vote.

"Ladies gold watch and chain. Contestants: Misses Mary Johnson, Lizzie McCanna, Hattie Harrell, Manistique; Mary Mitchell, Perry; Josie Bouchard, Thompson, 25 cents a vote.

"Wax singing doll. Contestants: Misses Ray Epstine, Jessie Metty, Carrie Lina, Mary McCanna, Katy and Mary Costello, Nettie Richard, Manistique; Bessie Jachor, Perry; Ida Jewell, 10 cents a vote.

"Besides the above mentioned articles is a railroad time keeper and chain for boys, at ten cents a chance. Numerous valuable donations have been made for the fair, all of which will be raffled off on July fourth."

Stahl, June 19, 1904 to August, 1905. Rev. James Corcoran, August 1905 to 1905. Rev. B. J. Scheevers, present pastor of the church, had had charge since September 15, 1908.

Assistant Pastors:

Rev. George Laforest, July 1906 to 1908. Rev. A. Visser, 1908 to 1910. Rev. V. C. Savagan, 1910 to 1916. Rev. J. Specht, 1921 to 1927.

With the coming years many material changes were made in the property of the church, substantial additions and renovations have made it one of the finest church properties in the city. Father Reymaert gave the church a coat of paint and constructed a more shapely steeple. Rev. Kunes transformed the hall built by Father Sperlain into a school, and in the fall of 1901 the Franciscan Sisters of Alverno, Wisconsin, under Sister Luchetta, opened the lower grades.

Under the tenure of the present pastor, Rev. B. J. P. Scheever, who has been in Manistique for more than 23 years, many enduring and far reaching improvements were made. The first new addition to the church was begun in August 1910, and was completed late in December of the same year. On January 1, 1911, it was decided to have the interior of the old portion of the church renovated. This was completed at Easter. The same year, new altars, pews, and other furniture was purchased and paid for. In 1914 the new St. Francis de Sales parochial school was commenced and the building was completed the following year when a solemn opening marked its initiation on September 8, 1915. In 1921 another enlargement was made on the church and in 1925 the convent was built on property purchased from Mrs. J. B. St. Louis. Many other minor improvements were effected.

Two Held for Death. Sault Ste. Marie—Following a conference of Sheriff Ford McKee, Coroner E. A. Cornell and Prosecutor Herbert Parille this afternoon, Prosecutor Parille said that a warrant for the arrest of Joseph Kinsinski and his son, Joseph, charging involuntary manslaughter, would be sworn today.

As the result of drinking what he believed to be moonshine whiskey—Harold Goetz, 28, son of Anthony Goetz, Raber township supervisor, died at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. Sheriff's officers said today that in their opinion Goetz unknowingly drank denatured alcohol, alleged to have been purchased from Joseph Kinsinski and his son, Joseph Kinsinski Jr., who today were being held pending an investigation.

The two men were taken into custody by Sheriff Ford McKee Sunday and brought to the Sault. Sheriff McKee said the town of DeTour is incensed over the death of the prominent young man. He believed the speedy removal of Kinsinski and his son prevented mob violence.

Big Fire at Soo. Sault Ste. Marie—Flames that hid under a heavy blanket of smoke, later to break out and sweep through the entire building, Sunday night, caused approximately $100,000 damage to the P. C. Koller block on Ashman street, owned by John N. Adams and the Raymond estate. The building, housing the Gerrie Press and A. J. Jean's jewelry store on the first floor, and four apartments on the second floor, was completely gutted.

The building is valued at $25,000, and is covered by insurance. A Wesley Clarke, trustee for the estate, said that the structure probably will be re-built.

Jay Gerrie, owner of the Gerrie Press, said his stock and fixtures were valued at $30,000, and were only partly covered by insurance.

The heaviest loss was to the stock and fixtures of the A. J. Jean jewelry store. A large shipment of stock for Mr. Jean's new store in the new Zeller block had just been delivered. The loss is approximately $30,000 covered by $17,000 insurance.

Singer Enters Race. Iron River—John Singler, dry line operator and independent oil dealer, yesterday announced his candidacy for the city commission at the April 6 election. He is No. 6 in the race.

Singler, like the other five aspirants, said that he entered the contest because he was strongly urged by friends.

The newest candidate has been a resident of the city for 19 years. He is an active legionnaire.

William E. Culver, former mayor, may also enter the contest. When questioned, Culver stated that he was still undecided, but that numerous friends have approached him to make the run. It is known that a nominating petition for him has been made out.

Riding Classes Resumed. Menominee—Riding classes were resumed for townspeople from the twin cities by the Michigan Military academy when there was a demand for them recently during the warmer weather.

Local people have been showing considerable interest in riding when it was found that horses were obtainable at the academy. Instructors are furnished with the mounts, eleven of which are in the academy stables.

Music Department is perhaps the finest to be found in a primary school in the upper peninsula, with the children's choir showing remarkable training and ability. Music instructors are particularly fitted for their work and non-Catholic pupils taking special lessons under their tutelage are in the majority.

CHANGES MADE IN INSPECTORS

Cornell, Carlson, and Males Succeeded at Spring Election

Changes in the personnel of election officials for the biennial spring election and annual city election to be held here Monday, April 6, were made Monday evening at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the city council.

W. Farley was chosen to succeed W. T. C. Cornell as an inspector in the second precinct due to the latter's withdrawal as county commissioner of schools. Mr. Cornell, however, is unopposed unless a candidate decides to run on slips. Joseph Scott was elected to succeed Leonard Males, an inspector in the fourth precinct, due to the fact that Mr. Males is absent from the city. An appointment will also be made as a successor for Mauritz Carlson, third ward inspector, because of the latter's illness.

No Contests

Little interest has been evinced in the city in the April elections due to the fact that no city officials are up for election and the office of W. T. S. Cornell, county commissioner of schools, is without opposition. State officials to be voted upon include two justices of the supreme court; two regents of the University of Michigan, superintendent of public instruction, members of the state board of education and two members of the state board of agriculture.

The office of the city clerk will be open for registrations from eight a. m. to eight p. m. on Tuesday, March 17. Saturday, March 28, will be the last day voters may register, at which time the city hall will be open from eight a. m. to 12 m.

Plourd Infant Dies Yesterday; Will Be Interred at Vulcan

Wallace Maurice Plourd, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Plourd, 223 North Fifth street, passed away at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning after a short illness. Death was caused by meningitis and the contraction of a cold.

The body was shipped to Vulcan last evening after being prepared for burial by Gunnarson & Kefauver, local morticians.

Services Are Held For Suicide Victim

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Gunnarson & Kefauver mortuary for Joseph Longore who took his life Friday evening by discharging a rifle against his forehead.

Short services were said by Rev. C. M. Mullenburg, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, after which interment was made in Fairview cemetery with Gunnarson & Kefauver conducting the funeral.

Writes Book On Flag. Norway—The Norway and Vulcan high schools have received copies of the book, "The American Flag, Its Uses and Abuses," written from the author, Dr. Robert Phillips, who was graduated from the eighth grade at Vulcan and in 1907 was graduated from the Norway high school. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, live on a farm near Vulcan.

The books are autographed. They have been placed in the school libraries for the use of the students.

Dr. Phillips is professor of history and government at Purdue university, LaFayette, Ind. During the last several years he has devoted considerable time to writing and lecturing. He has been a speaker at several meetings in the district.

Find Rare Whale. Cordova, Alaska—A rare example of a pike whale, thought to be millions of years old, was recently taken from glacier ice on Glacier Island near here. The prehistoric monster had the back of a pelican and a head like an elephant. It measured 42 feet in length, including a 6-foot head and a 14-foot tail.

But as yet there are no signatures on it, at least there weren't yesterday afternoon.

Rumors have it that Culver and Andrew E. Johnson, who announced himself last Thursday, will team together.

The other four candidates are Mayor Selim, Commissioner Mahon, Emil Gaiser and Ernest Benette.

Two vacancies will occur on the commission April 6.

George S. Butters Going to Panama

Capture of Safe Crackers No Clue To Local Thefts

Although the capture of two men at Ingalls, Mich., Saturday led to the solving of the two safe robberies at Newberry and St. Ignace, it thus far has failed to clarify local robberies at the Hewitt grocery and Atlantic & Pacific stores which were committed recently.

For a time police authorities had believed that the local thefts were committed by the same persons who perpetrated the safe cracking at Newberry and St. Ignace, but no word has been received here to the effect that the men were implicated in the Manistique burglaries.

David Hilton, 34, of Kansas City, and Thomas Suro, 20, of Detroit, were the men captured at Ingalls after they had been suspected of safe robbery of a general store at Daggett. The third member of the trio is said to be in Milwaukee.

Washington Has No Federal Jobs Open

Washington, — In a statement issued today, the United States civil service commission advised the public not to come to Washington for the purpose of seeking federal employment.

The commission explained that the District of Columbia committee on unemployment has called its attention to a number of pathetic cases where persons have come from considerable distances expecting to obtain a government position on the strength of having passed a civil service examination only to become stranded and in some instances a public charge.

It was pointed out that even if a person has passed a civil service examination with a high rating he has no assurance that a position will be immediately available to him. Appointments to federal positions, the commission said, are made only as the actual needs of the service require and in accordance with the civil service rules, and the presence of an applicant in Washington can not in any way improve or expedite any prospects of employment he may have.

The commission stated in conclusion that no one should come to Washington expecting to receive a federal position except in response to a definite offer of employment from a government establishment.

Blizzard Hits City Yesterday

Nation and world-wide storms which up to this time had not struck this city, hit Manistique yesterday morning when a short blizzard necessitated the working of six more snow plows on the county roads. Very little snow fell in the city, however, although county roads had to be cleared of considerable snow.

High strong winds prevailed here Sunday and Monday without any accompanying precipitation. Auto traffic to Marquette could not be negotiated Monday and travel to the Soo was also impossible. Newberry is marooned under a deep blanket of snow.

To be a Healthy Woman watch your Bowels!

What should women do to keep their bowels moving freely? A doctor should know the answer. That is why pure Syrup Pepsin is so good for women. It just suits their delicate organism. It is the prescription of an old family doctor who has treated thousands of women patients, and who made a special study of bowel troubles.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is pure from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients. It doesn't sicken or weaken you. No restrictions of habit or diet are necessary while taking it. But its action is thorough. It carries off the sour bile and poisonous waste. It does everything you want it to do. It is fine for children, too. They love its taste. Let them have it every time their tongues are coated or their skin is sallow.

When you've a sick headache, can't eat, are bilious or sluggish; and at the times when you are most apt to be constipated, take a little of this famous prescription (all druggists keep it ready in big bottles), and you'll know why Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite laxative of over a million women!

MAD MARRIAGE

by Laura Lou Brookman AUTHOR OF
"HEART HUNGRY," etc.

It was something to do with those figures, we copied the other day. You remember—when you were in a hurry to meet your boy friend? Say—I'd gotten you in bad I'd never have forgiven myself.

"Don't worry any longer," Gypsy added casually. "Mr. Reynolds' secretary is quitting and they've offered me the job."

"Gypsy—how marvelous!" There were general congratulations. The other girls who had tried to conceal the fact they were listening now gathered around Gypsy's desk. There were excited comments. A promotion would mean a new girl—someone to take Gypsy's place. Were there going to be other changes? Wasn't she thrilled?

"Just look at her!" Jean exclaimed. "We're all excited and Gypsy's calm as a judge. Would you ever think she'd just got a raise. And a swell-looking boss like Mr. Reynolds too! Say, Gypsy, you certainly are the lucky girl!"

Gypsy tried to answer their questions and turn aside the jokes. In a few minutes the others were at their desks again and she was able to go on with her typing. Her fingers, she discovered, were clumsy.

"Lucky girl," was what Jean had called her. Lucky? Of course. Wasn't she going to get a raise? The job she had hoped for without much encouragement for over a year. Lucky? Of course she was lucky! Gypsy hit the wrong key and tried to erase the damage. It left a smudged spot.

Five letters—all capitals—ranged themselves before her eyes. They danced on the fresh white expanse of paper and screamed at her. The letters would not go away. "LUCKY!" she leered at her. "L-U-C-K-Y!" She had never felt more unlucky in her life.

Gypsy was not given to tears. Emotional in other respects she seldom cried. Now she frowned at the notes to be copied and slowly, deliberately continued typing.

It was hard work because she could not keep her attention from roving. How could she possibly feel lucky after that quarrel with Alan? What was a job, a raise in salary or anything else compared with knowing Alan hated her and never wanted to see her again?

The typewriter keys were behaving queerly. Gypsy wondered if she would ever get through the morning. She could still see Alan's white face and hear the scorching tone of his voice.

Oh, there was no doubt that she had ruined every chance to make him care for her again! When lunch time came Gypsy was behind with the morning's work but she rose from her desk with relief. She was glad of the chance to get away from the prying looks of her neighbors. Of course they knew something was wrong. Even when they were congratulating her about the new job they must have seen she was miserable. Clara Howard had mentioned circles beneath her eyes. Well—let them talk!

Gypsy went to the locker room for her coat and hat, pausing an instant before the mirror. She did look a fright. Automatically she drew the vanity case from her purse and dabbed her nose with powder. It was not a great improvement.

Downstairs at the drug store counter she lunched on a sandwich and cup of coffee. It was all she could eat. Even the coffee, which was always appetizing, did not tempt her.

Twenty minutes remained of her lunch hour after she had finished eating. Gypsy decided to walk. She went out of the building, joining the throng on the sidewalk.

The air was cool but there was sunshine. Gypsy walked briskly. Twice she had to wait for traffic. Six blocks from the office building she turned and retraced her steps.

The exercise was stimulating and gradually the girl felt her courage revive. She would see Alan tonight and apologize. She would swear that she was sorry—shoulder all the blame. Not one word would she say about the other woman—Mrs. Langley. All that she would ask would be for Alan to forget their quarrel and remain friends.

It was amazing how this resolution improved her spirits. Gypsy, back at work, could scarcely wait for the afternoon to pass. She was suddenly herself again, energetic and eager.

RIALTO
The curtain was raised last night at the Rialto theatre on the long-awaited sequel in talk to Herbert Brenon's silent classic, "Beau Geste." That grand masterpiece of desert drama, forerunner of all the hot, fevered screen plays laid in Morocco, was re-incarnated in a stirring talking production last night. "Beau Ideal," sequel to Percival Wren's original tale of the Gestes.

With Ralph Forbes in his original role of John Geste, with Herbert Brenon's masterful hand again in evidence, this time in the skillful direction of talking scenes and with a cast including a lovely Loretta Young, Irene Rich, Lester Vail, Don Alvarado and Leni Stengel, "Beau Ideal" nobly carries on the tradition of hot-sand-and-thunder drama. It is a beautifully mounted and handsomely performed film.

well set-up young man with pleasant blue eyes and lightish brown hair. He had the look of a man who likes outdoor activities. Without any delay he launched into the waiting correspondence. He dictated clearly, not too rapidly. There was no reason why Gypsy should have missed a word, yet when he had finished and she closed her notebook the girl knew she had written the words automatically.

"Leave the letters on my desk if I'm not here when you finish," Reynolds instructed.

CITY PLEDGES FORD SUPPORT

A resolution extending appreciation to the Ford Motor company for their selection of an industrial site within the city of Gladstone and pledging their cooperation of the city government, was approved by the city commission at a regular meeting Monday evening. All members of the commission were present.

Another resolution approved authorized the city manager to defray expenses so that officers can function outside of city limits. Heretofore officers were without power to act if the offender got outside the corporate limits of Gladstone.

Passage of a city ordinance to provide for the licensing of draymen and taxmen operating within the city was recommended by City Manager Buchner.

An ordinance was also urged calling for the licensing and when recommended by the city attorney the bonding of all house movers working within the city. This is to assure the good repair of city streets and to assure the city of compensation for the raising of light wires.

Monthly balance sheet statement presented by Manager Buchner revealed a healthy state of city finances and the year is likely to be ended with a fair cash balance. However, there will be an overdraft of about $400 in the welfare fund due to the heavy demands in this department during the past winter.

Gladstone Prepares for Class C Cage Tourney

LAST YEAR IN CLASS C MEET

Gladstone High School Will Have Class B Rating in 1931-2

Gladstone will probably be playing its last year of Class C competition this season as the Kellmen are anxious to top off their basketball year with a victory in the regional tournament which will be held there this week.

A review of the Gladstone record shows that the Kellmen won six and lost five games during the season, losing four of their five games to Class B schools.

Gladstone meets Lake Linden in the opening round of the tournament on Thursday. There is little known of the strength of the Lake Linden team but if fans take any credence in comparison of scores, an idea of how the teams line up can be deduced in the following manner:

Another reason which makes the above deduction quite unreliable is the policy of the Gwin team to play their games according to instructions and not with any intention of running up a big lead.

A review of Gladstone's record follows: Gladstone -- 28; Rock -- 12; Gladstone -- 20; Escanaba -- 18; Gladstone -- 23; Vulcan -- 19; Gladstone -- 12; St. Joseph -- 11; Gladstone -- 12; Marquette -- 18; Gladstone -- 12; Ishpeming -- 26; Gladstone -- 31; Stephenson -- 8; Gladstone -- 27; St. Joseph -- 10; Gladstone -- 18; Manistique -- 22; Gladstone -- 20; Gwin -- 26; Gladstone -- 20; Escanaba -- 22.

What Big Leaguers are Doing in Spring Training Camps

WIN BY SQUEEZE PLAY St. Petersburg, Fla., March 10 (AP)—The old fashioned squeeze play gave the New York Yankees a 6 to 5 victory over the Boston Braves in the second of their spring series today.

Going into the last half of the eighth with the score tied, the Cubs loaded the bases and then caught the Braves napping as Lou Gehrig rolled a bunt down along the third base line. Jorgens romped home with what proved to be the winning run.

BEAT WHISKERS, 4-2 Fort Myers, Fla., March 10 (AP)—The House of David fell before the world champion Philadelphia Athletics by the score of 4 to 2 here today in an exhibition baseball game in which most of Connie Mack's regulars and rookies took part.

CHANGES PLANS West Palm Beach, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Cold weather caused Manager Killefer to change his training plans for the Browns today. He had hoped to have a ball game between the regulars and the Mutts, but the wind was too frigid, so Bill cut practice short and cancelled the game.

GABBY SATISFIED Bradenton, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Having beaten the world champion Athletics in two of the three games of a little series, Manager Gabby Street is highly elated with the showing made by his Cardinals in their 1931 showing so far.

SUHR LEADS CREW Paso Robles, Cal., March 10 (AP)—Manager Jewel Ens, who has said that much of the Pittsburgh Pirates' success this season depends upon awakening of might in Gus Suhr's bat, grinned broadly as the Regulars defeated the Yankigans today, 8 to 7. It was the first baseman's triple in the seventh inning with the bases packed that featured the Regulars' winning rally.

PLANS HITTING ORDER Biloxi, Miss., March 10 (AP)—Walter Johnson has dooped out a tentative batting order for his Nationals. It has Buddy Myer leading off followed by Sam Rice with Heinie Manush in his accustomed third position and Joe Cronin as clean-up man.

HOCKEY National League At Montreal: Montreal Canadiens 2; Chicago 1. At Ottawa: Ottawa 5; Philadelphia 3 (overtime). At Boston: Toronto Maple Leafs 3; Boston Bruins 2 (overtime tie). At New York: New York Rangers 3; Detroit 2 (overtime).

The drawing for the Class B regional tournament at Ironwood proved a disappointment for some of the teams entered—including Escanaba. The Eskymos will meet Iron Mountain, a team in their own district, while two other teams in the same district will meet in the first round—Ishpeming and Negaunee.

Iron Mountain has defeated Escanaba twice this season—and probably will do so for the third time at Ironwood Thursday afternoon. The Mountaineers have proved their superiority over the Puckmen and the Eskymos may go into their game under the influence of an inferiority complex.

Gladstone will face Lake Linden in the opener and barring an upset should win the right to advance to the semi-finals. Then, assuming the Class C regional will advance without any decided upset, the Kellmen will meet Gwin in the second round.

LIKES JURGES' WORK Avalon, Cal., March 10 (AP)—The conduct of young Bill Jurgens, a recruit infielder from the International League, has so impressed Manager Rogers Hornsby of the Cubs that the youngster may be assigned the regular shortstop job.

ROOKIES STEAL SHOW San Antonio, Texas, March 10 (AP)—Vic Frasier, rookie right hander, and Bill Cissell, the ex-soldier boy infielder, grabbed the major share of the glory in today's Chicago intercamp game, which the Regulars won, 7 to 5.

EXPLAINS SITUATION Pensacola, Fla., March 10 (AP)—The decline and fall of the player manager in major league baseball is a logical happening, according to Owner Bob Quinn of the Boston Red Sox.

LEE LOOKS GOOD Winterhaven, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Hal Lee, the outfielder part of the big deal between the Phillies and Brooklyn last fall, is attracting attention in the Phillies' camp because he makes all his catches look easy.

Borotra Asserts He Will Never Be A Pro Net Player New York, March 10 (AP)—Jean Borotra, arriving today from France to compete in the American indoor tennis championships, said he would never turn professional because he "gets too much fun out of the game."

King Tut Has His Appendix Removed Rochester, Minn., March 19 (AP)—Henry Tuttle of Minneapolis, known in the fight ring as King Tut, underwent an operation for appendicitis at Mayo clinic here today.

Cincinnati Reds Will Have a Rebuilt Lineup

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR. (Ass'd Press Sports Writer) Tampa, Fla., March 10 (AP)—One of three units generally picked to hold up this year's National league standing from the under-side, the Cincinnati Reds, give every promise of keeping faith with the southpawers.

Rebuilding Lineup They wound up seventh last season and their manager, Dan Howley, says he doesn't care if he knows why it wasn't eighth.

"But that's no alibi," he hastened to explain. "I stand or fall with my club. If the outfit I'm putting together now doesn't come thru this year or next, I'm willing to take the blame."

HAGEN-SMITH LOSE CONTEST

MacFarlane and Cox Are Winners at Miami's Four-Ball Match

BY CHARLES E. WARD Miami, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Willie MacFarlane and Whiffy Cox scattered birdies today to upset Walter Hagen and Horton Smith, one up, in the 36-hole semi-finals of the $5,000 international four-ball matches.

Gene Sarazen and Johnny Farrell, favorites, had comparatively little difficulty in taking their round from Tony Manero and Denmore Shute 4 and 3. A gallery of 1,000 watched the play.

Halve 10 Holes The Haig dropped a birdie four on the long 19th to go three into the lead. Cox got control of his putter on the 21st, sinking a birdie three to tie his opponent's lead to two holes.

On the 22nd Cox sent his second shot to within four feet of the pin, but picked up as MacFarlane dropped a 30 footer for a three to win.

Hagen's drive found a trap on the 23rd and he took two strokes to come out, picking up his ball while Smith was far from the pin after his fourth. MacFarlane evaded the count when he dived his fourth from six feet.

They halved the next two holes. Cox broke the string of halved holes on the 34th when he sank a 12 footer for an eagle three.

They halved the 35th as Cox matched Hagen's birdie three with a short putt and the match ended on the 36th as all missed short ones on the green to chalk up five strokes each.

ICE CONDITIONS Detroit, March 10 (AP)—Few ice fields are visible in the Great Lakes, but most harbors are still ice bound, according to the ice report issued here tonight by Norman B. Conger, United States meteorologist.

The Duluth-Superior harbor is reported opening, with an average ice thickness of 16 inches with no ice fields visible in the lake nor are fields reported off Keweenaw point nor from Marquette to Whitefish point, except fields behind Grand Island. There are small fields off Ontonagon. Fifteen inches of ice is reported at Sault Ste. Marie with frozen slush ice on top.

MULDOON PUTS OKEH ON FIGHT

Sharkey-Carnera Battle Can Be Held in New York, Says Chief

BY EDWARD J. NEILL (Ass'd Press Sports Writer) New York, March 10 (AP)—Primo Carnera, the animated Alp from Italy, and Jack Sharkey, from up Boston way, can fight in New York this summer, as far as William Muldoon, the iron man of fistiana, is concerned.

The white-haired Duke of Muldoon, 84 years old, rose to all his stately height after the weekly commission meeting today to say several good words for the Primo and put sturdy legs under the heretofore wobbly rumors that this match was a certainty for one of New York's ball parks this summer. As Muldoon goes, so usually goes the commission.

Johnston Wants It The dope has it that Jimmy Johnston, the busy fight manager who has a friend at court, will promote the match, probably at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, if no arrangements can be made with Madison Square Garden for the use of either the polo grounds or the Yankee Stadium.

"Right now Sharkey knows too much for Carnera, is too smart, but it would be a good fight," Muldoon said. "It would be a tremendous drawing card and Carnera is capable of giving Sharkey a real battle."

Muldoon stressed the fact that in the eyes of the commission the world heavyweight title still is vacant. Max Schmeling standing forth merely as the German representative while Sharkey holds only the American championship. Der Maxie has lost all official standing here since his refusal to do battle with Sharkey and wipe out the uncertainty left after his four-round victory on a foul over the Bostonian last June.

Carnera Reinstated Carnera has been under suspension here since the California commission banned him and his managers for conspiracy in Primo's fiasco with Leon Chevalier, a negro, in Oakland, Cal., who was set down so violently here that his suspension was considered of life-long duration. Apparently, however, he has vindicated himself somewhat in the eyes of the commission.

In the absence of James A. Farley, chairman of the commission, Muldoon announced that final decision on the King Tut-Billy Petrolle investigation would be ready Friday. The commission has been investigating charges that Petrolle's knockout of Tut in Madison Square Garden recently was a fake. The purses of both battlers still are held at the commission.

SUPREME COURT RULES DAANE IS PARTY'S CHOICE

(Continued from Page One) holding with Barnard that the nominee announced by Woodworth in the convention should be certified. Judges Unanimous "We are of the opinion that in the absence of fraud or oppression or a reconsideration by the convention we may not renege on the vote taken, and the announcement of the chairman controls, and the chairman and secretary of the state central committee should certify the nominee announced by the chairman of the convention," the court held.

The justices present, some of whom were specially summoned to provide a quorum, were Butzel, West, Sharpe, Fead and MacDonald. They were unanimous in the ruling.

Gathered in the supreme court chambers were John Gillespie, Wayne county Republican chairman, William McColgan, Genesee county, Rogers, and scores of legislators or interested persons who attended the convention and wanted to be in at the finish. The visitors were sharply divided.

Timber Owners Endorse Bill Introduced by Escanaba Man

Lumbermen of the Upper Peninsula are unanimous in their endorsement of the commercial forest reserve act which has been introduced in the state legislature by Senator H. J. Rushton of Escanaba. M. J. Fox of Iron Mountain heads what is known as the land utilization conference committee, which has made a study of the act. Other members are E. A. Hamar, G. Harold Earle, J. M. Bush, William Bonifan and George P. McCallum.

"Co-operative action between the state and the owners of the timber lands in Michigan to insure continuous forest production and other public benefits is proposed in the Rushton forest crop bill introduced at Lansing," says a statement issued by the committee. "The owner would agree, under ample guarantees, to manage his property in specific ways and to provide certain service in the interest of the public. The state in turn would agree to an adjustment putting the greater portion of the tax burden upon the owner when his crop is harvested and he is able to pay. The provisions are such that with the minimum disturbance of the present tax income, a maximum of present and future public benefits are assured.

Among Provisions
"The bill provides that:
"1. Lands which are primarily suitable for the production of forest crops and which are dedicated by the owner to that purpose, may be listed as commercial forest reserves. Denuded and waste lands may be listed only when they occur in scattered patches within a generally forested area or under agreement requiring the owner to reforest by planting.

"2. The owner may cut timber from listed lands only under a cutting plan approved by the state. Such plans shall require selective cutting in hardwood forests and in every case cutting must be done in a manner designed to promote continuous forest production and good forest management as generally recognized by skilled foresters.

"3. All lands listed under the act are open to the use by the public for hunting and fishing.

Can't Hold for Speculation
"4. Lands listed under the act may be withdrawn by the owner only upon payment of the equivalent of the general property tax for the period listed, with interest at five per cent. If the lands are used by the owner for any other purpose than forest production such as recreation, farming or industrial uses, the lands so used shall be replaced upon the general property tax roll and the same penalty as noted above imposed. There is no way by which the owner may list his lands and hold them merely for speculation.

"5. All listed lands must pay a specific tax of 20 cents per acre, one-half to be paid by the owner and one-half by the state. This would retain hundreds of thousands of acres of cut over lands on the tax rolls at a cost of 10 cents an acre to the owner which otherwise will follow the millions which are now delinquent because the owner cannot pay taxes of 20 to 30 cents per acre on cut over lands.

"The owner must pay an additional tax amounting to 10 per cent of the stumpage value of all products cut, this amount being determined by the state at the time of cutting. This will insure a substantial income to the public inasmuch as the owner must begin cutting within a comparatively short time after listing. In some cases this will exceed the old general property tax during the period of cutting.

Would Benefit Public
"It is generally conceded by those who have given the bill careful study that the general public benefits would be enormous over a period of years through its effect of substituting selective cutting for the destructive methods now forced upon the owners by inequitable taxation. Progressive scrapping of industries, communities and taxable values generally would be halted through the retention of good forest cover for use of the sportsman and recreationist, by assuring extensive public shooting grounds and fishing rights without direct cost to the sportsman or the state, by greatly decreasing fire hazard on the lands where timber was selectively cut, by retaining cut over lands on the tax roll, by assuring a continuous supply of timber and stabilizing wood using industries and in short by inaugurating in Michigan an era of reconstruction of natural resource values.

"This is the first attempt ever made in Michigan to save and conserve the remaining forests and to encourage land owners to join the state in a progressive free saving and tree growing program. This forest crop bill will doubtless receive thoughtful study by the people of the state."
