PARTY WANTS CHAIRMAN TO CORRAL SOUTH

SUBJECT REPUBLICAN MACHINE TO AN OVERHAULING

BY DAVID LAWRENCE (Copyright 1931, by the Escanaba Press) Washington, March 30.—An effort is being made to line up southern delegates for the Republican National Convention of 1932. This is always the first step taken by the party in power to insure the re-nomination of its president.

Rumors that Horace Mann, one of the Hoover organizers who broke with the administration, is endeavoring to corral the delegates on an unstructured basis has led the friends of the president to get busy. Bascom Slem, who is the best posted man on the subject of southern delegates to the Republican convention doesn't think Mr. Mann has them organized.

All For Hoover Mr. Slem was formerly secretary to President Coolidge and has been active in the Hoover camp. He and other Republican leaders hereabouts feel there is no count that the southern delegates will be for Mr. Hoover. But some preliminary work will have to be done in order to prevent any opposition.

The truth of the matter is that all the Republican machinery is in the middle of an overhauling due to the fact that Senator Fess, who was chosen as national chairman, was understood to have taken the position only temporarily.

It was assumed that Robert Lucas would succeed him but Mr. Lucas got mixed up with the Norris campaign in Nebraska and his attendance in the national convention is in doubt. The added complication of prohibition has presented an earlier solution.

Harley Suggested Mr. Fess is the leader among the dregs. Many of them feel that his presence as chairman of the national committee will strengthen the impression that the Republican party is committed to the dry side of the argument. Conversely eastern wets are not particularly disturbed about who is chairman so long as the candidate himself isn't too dry.

Mr. Fess took the chairmanship only as a compromise and with the understanding that he would not be asked to continue permanently. As a member of the senate there are many embarrassments for a chairman of the national committee. Everything that he says on the senate floor is interpreted as reflecting the wishes of the party leaders. Also the duties of the chairmanship require extensive travel and that would conflict with the responsibilities of the Ohio senator in congress and particularly in his committee work.

Prosecution Rests Its Case Against Brothers

Criminal Court Building, Chicago, Ill., March 30 (AP)—The state rested in its murder case against Leo Brothers today, confident it had proved who killed Jake Lingle, Tribune crime reporter, and making no attempt to show a motive. With an abruptness that was one of the sensations of the trial, Assistant State's Attorney Wyland Brooks announced calmly "the state rests." None of the startling revelations of gangland activities so confidently expected by many, no hint of the mysterious life of the Tribune reporter, no reason why anyone should want to kill him, had been disclosed.

Defendant Identified The prosecution took but five days to present its case. One witness identified Brothers as the man he saw in the Randolph street pedestrian tunnel when Lingle was killed last June 9, and said Brothers tossed a pistol near the reporter's body. He said he did not see the shot fired. Six other persons saw a man run from the tunnel. Some chased him a short distance, and identified Brothers as "fitting the description," "looking like the man," or positively being the same man.

The remainder of the state's case was made up of routine testimony, proving Lingle was killed and tracing the bullet and the pistol. Major Calvin Goddard, ballistics expert, testified today that his tests showed the fatal bullet came from the pistol found near Lingle's body. Picking up the state's story today were the other seven witnesses left off, Albert W. Kelfstrom, a middle-aged trunk buyer, said he saw the defendant five minutes after the assassination.

Bought Suitcase Kelfstrom, who works in a luggage store a block and a half from the Randolph street pedestrian tunnel where Lingle was killed, said that about 1:35, five minutes after the assassination, he found a man standing in a dark hallway of the trunk store, invited him inside and sold him a $5 lady's suitcase.

The man did not examine the bag, Kelfstrom said, he kept out of sight of the street windows and he never did call for his purchase. He particularly noticed the man, the witness said, because he was "very, very pale."

"I never saw any man in our store like that before," Kelfstrom said. "I never forgot that face." Asked if he saw the man in the courtroom, the witness rose and pointed to Brothers. He never took his eyes off the man all the time he was in the store, Kelfstrom said, and he was "positive" Brothers was the man.

Major Goddard, ballistics expert and head of the scientific crime detection laboratory of Northwestern university, supplied the missing link in the state's chain of evidence concerning the bullet taken from Lingle's brain and the snub-nosed pistol found lying beside his body. Goddard told of comparing the fatal bullet with a test bullet fired from the pistol and said it was his opinion, based on the marking of the two bullets and examination of the gun itself, that fatal bullet was fired from the weapon now marked "people's exhibit number two."

The question of headgear, which figured prominently throughout the trial, came up again in the questioning of Kelfstrom. One of the witnesses who said he saw Brothers in the tunnel near the scene of the murder said he had on a straw hat. One of those who testified to seeing him flee from the tunnel said he was carrying a hat and all the others said he was bareheaded.

Narcotic Peddler Takes 3-Year-Old Baby In Superior

Wade Motions for Adjournment May 1

Lansing, March 30 (AP)—The initial move for early adjournment of the state legislature was made tonight when Representative Fred Wade, of Allegan county, offered a concurrent resolution calling for adjournment on May 1. The resolution was referred to the committee on rules and resolutions, where it will be considered together with other later suggestions having to do with the final adjournment.

Man Shoots Woman, Then Kills Himself

Detroit, March 30 (AP)—Alex Zabyk, 45, and Anna McKennie, 35, were found late today shot to death in the home of Mrs. Mary F. Sywazek, in Hamtramck. Police said Zabyk had killed the woman then shot himself. Mrs. Sywazek told police the couple had been quarreling over the woman's demands for money. Mrs. McKennie had recently been divorced.

BURKE ADMITS MICHIGAN HAS 'A TIGHT CASE'

NEW YORK OFFICERS QUIZ GUNMAN ON YALE KILLING

St. Joseph, Mich., March 30 (AP)—Fred Burke, termed the nation's most desperate killer, set out today to fight "a tight case." That was his description of the Michigan murder charge which brought "the most dangerous man alive" back from Missouri. He took the first step by refusing to waive preliminary examination. Justice of the Peace Joseph Collier bound him over to April 8, when he must show why the state should not hold him for the slaying of Traffic Policeman Charles Skelly.

Stolidly silent, Burke indicated only in court that he will plead not guilty to the count which might send him to prison for life. "A Tight Case" Later, a deputy sheriff asked him a random question about the shooting. "That's a serious matter," he snapped back. "I don't want to talk about it. They've got a tight case against me here."

Other "serious matters" bobbed up to harass him in his cell. Chicago detectives, who wanted him for the St. Valentine's Day massacre, gave up their investigation. But in the afternoon, Capt. Patrick McVeigh and Sgt. Michael McNamara of New York City arrived to question him about the slaying of Frankie Yale (or Uale), Brooklyn bootleg king.

Yale was rumored to have run afoul of Alphonse Capone's liquor plans. Rumor also linked Burke to Capone. The detectives, however, got small satisfaction. They asked two questions and then postponed their examination until later. "What's your religion, Fred?" McVeigh asked. "Me? Oh, I'm a Hindu."

"Yeah? You're short a turban, aren't you?" "Oh, I gave that to a photographer to drape over his camera." Viewed by Curious Attorneys have been engaged by Burke to "protect" my interests. He indicated Barratt O'Hara, Chicago lawyer who defended Virgil Kirkland in the Gary, Ind., "flaming youth" murder trial, would be one of them. It was deemed probable the Burke case would not come up for trial before the May term. That will mean a six-week probable sojourn in the Berrien county jail.

Hundreds of curious St. Joseph citizens, who once knew Burke as "Fred Dane," a wealthy business man, surged into the jail today to get a glimpse of him. He had been regarded as a quiet, likeable personality during his life here as "Dane," and St. Joseph was surprised to learn, after the Skelly slaying, that "Dane" was Burke, using this small Lake Michigan shore town as a hideout.

Rear Admiral Will Retire Wednesday

Annapolis, Md., March 30. (AP)—Rear Admiral Samuel Shelbourne Robinson retires as superintendent of the United States naval academy Wednesday, ending his last tour of duty in the navy, begun when he was graduated from Annapolis in 1883. Admiral Robinson became the head of the academy in June 1928.

He's "Dead" in Two States, And Now He Wants to Live Again

By NEA Service Joplin, Mo.—John Frederick Bartels has been dead 20 years, but he never minded about that until just recently. Legally dead, that is, in two states. He was "buried" in Alma, Neb., in 1908, and also legally declared dead in Missouri in 1910. But he didn't care. Life can be pleasant for an active man of 75 even if legal papers no longer recognize his existence. But not so long ago word came to the Little Ozark town of Neosho, Mo., that one John Frederick Bartels is heir to a valuable estate in Prussia. John Frederick Bartels? The records of the probate courts aver that he is dead. Complications Arise A simple matter, you would say for Bartels to go to the court, prove his identity, and have the records changed? But not so simple. Bartels, when he left his prosperous strawberry farm near Neosho—30 years ago it was, back in 1931—left a wife behind him. They were never divorced. And when last heard from, he was alive and well, somewhere in California. But not so long ago the man who used to be John Bartels came back and married another wife, Laura Crouch. So if he legally declares himself to be the John Frederick Bartels who is legally dead, he is a confessed bigamist, and there are laws about that. Enoch Arden Leaves Home It is a strange story of this Rip Van Winkle of the Ozarks. With his first wife, Etta Bartels, he lived on his strawberry farm, and prospered. He had amassed property valued at from $50,000 to $100,000. He was successful. "But some taste of success was

Fight to Rule Nation's Second Largest City Rages in Chicago as Election Nears

Leadership of Chicago's 3,375,438 residents during the term which will include the period of the World's Fair in 1933, will be contested at the polls April 7 by "Big Bill" Thompson, left, and Anton J. Cermak, right, shown above with the skyline of the nation's second largest city which one of them will rule. Thompson's political shrewdness and theatrical methods have led him to victory in three previous majority elections. Cermak, who came to this country as a Bohemian immigrant, and became a political power, has adhered to his promise to conduct his campaign along dignified lines. One of these men will, as a result of the election, be given charge of spending Chicago's $229,001,958 yearly budget, ameliorating its $101,518,000 debt, adjusting taxes on its three billions of assessed property valuation. The city's population, greater than the combined population of the states of Nevada, Wyoming, Delaware, Vermont, New Mexico, Arizona, Idaho, New Hampshire, and the District of Columbia, will decide.

HOOVER BACK AT HIS DESK

President Plunges Into Problems Accumulated During Absence Washington, March 30 (AP)—Invigorated by his Caribbean vacation, President Hoover today plunged into the task of disposing of problems that accumulated during his absence. The chief executive gave recess appointments to three federal judges and the White House let it be known the president felt the farm board was well able to defend and defend its own problems. President Hoover will discuss recent developments with Republican Leader Watson of the senate at a breakfast conference tomorrow. The farm board situation, the prospective $700,000,000 treasury deficit and party politics are expected to be major topics. Came The Light

Surgical Operation on 22-Year-Old Blind Youth Proves Successful Philadelphia, March 30 (AP)—Surgery has brought sight to the eyes of Earl Musselman, 22 year old student at the Pennsylvania Institute for the Blind. "He had never seen the light until today, when, weeks after a delicate operation, the bandages were removed. "It is almost a miracle," he said. "I am particularly thrilled at the coloring of flowers. To me they had always been soft and fragrant. I was astonished at their beauty. "I hardly knew what I expected to see, but everything was a revelation. I think my greatest moment will come when I see the faces of my friends at school." The operation was performed six weeks ago by a specialist on the staff of the state of the Graduate hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. Musselman can read Braille, but will have to learn his A B C's. Psychologists told the youth he would learn in three months what a child absorbs in six years. (Continued on Page Two)

TAX ON INCOME ASKED IN HOUSE

Representative Thomas Introduces Bill for Graduated Levy Lansing, March 30 (AP)—The first definite income tax measure of the current session of the legislature was in the house hopper tonight submitted by Rep. William J. Thomas of Kent county, chairman of the former Governor Green's special commission of inquiry to taxation. The companion bills proposed a uniform tax of four per cent on the net income of corporations and a graduated levy on individual incomes. The two taxes would displace the present tax property levy and the corporation tax would be repealed. For the first $1,000 of net income the individual tax would be one per cent. The rate would increase one per cent for each one thousand dollars of net income. For all net income above $5,000 the levy would be six per cent. Exemptions follow somewhat closely the federal statute with (Continued on Page Two)

STORM VICTIMS RECEIVE HONOR

Joint Services Will Be Held for 5 Children and Bus Driver Holly, Colo., March 30 (AP)—Side by side the bodies of five school children and the heroic driver of the Towner school bus, who perished in a blizzard last week, will lie in state tomorrow as this community pays tribute to its dead. School bells will be stilled and business houses closed. Virtually every one in this section of southeastern Colorado will attend the joint funeral services. Four ministers of Holly will officiate. Close by the casket of Carl Miller, the bus driver, will be that of his daughter Mary, one of the children who froze to death when the bus became stalled in the blinding storm. After remaining with the children for many hours, Miller realized he must get aid or all would perish. In the driving storm after dawn Friday morning he started out thinking he could reach a farmhouse. Struggling on for more than three miles he at last fell exhausted in a cornfield and perished. Fifteen children who survived the tragedy are in the hospital at Lamar, Colorado, making a gallant fight. Physicians say all probably will recover.

Rushton Sponsors Bill to Give More Power to Governor

Lansing, March 30 (AP)—A bill introduced tonight in the legislature by Senator Herbert J. Rushton of Escanaba would give the governor blanket authority to create commissions to study state problems or to conduct investigations. The executive would be empowered to name special commissions whenever he deemed such procedure advisable. The commission would hold broad powers to subpoena witnesses and examine documents in every county in the state if necessary. Senator Rushton will ask the finance committee to insert an appropriation sufficient to pay the estimated expenses of the commissions. Governor Brucker has frequently stated he desires to place many problems in the hands of the commissions.

Five Men Arraigned On Narcotic Charge

Detroit, March 30 (AP)—Five men were arraigned in federal court today charged with being leaders and members of a mid-western dope ring with headquarters here. Dominic Ferrio pleaded guilty. Peter Angelo, Ernest Gatto, and Joe Morelli, all of Detroit, and Patrick J. Gallagher, of Pittsburgh, pleaded not guilty. Morelli then pleaded guilty to a lesser charge. Sentencing of Morelli and Ferrio was deferred pending disposition of the charges against their alleged confederates. Bond for each was set at $25,000, two sureties.

MEASURE HITS PROFITS FROM CHAIN STORES

LEVY PROPOSED TO RELIEVE BURDEN ON PROPERTY

BY GILBERT T. SHILSON (Associated Press Staff Writer) Lansing, March 30 (AP)—A general sales tax, estimated to yield between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000 annually, will be studied carefully by Governor Wilbur M. Brucker as a possible avenue of relief for real property owners. A large delegation, claiming to represent the independent merchants, farmers, wholesalers and many other groups, met with the governor and urged him to give his support to the McBride-Dykstra bill pending in the house. It proposes a sales tax of one half mill on gross retail sales up to $400,000 and a graduated scale up to one per cent on sales of $1,000,000 or more. Frankly designated to "level off the competition between chain stores and independent merchants," it provides that corporations or organizations under centralized control must group their aggregate sales regardless of the number of retail outlets. C. V. Fenner, secretary of the Home Defense League, told the governor the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. would pay $650,000 a year, while other chains would pay proportionate amounts. Each retail merchant or chain would file an annual report of sales and would remit the proper tax. It was claimed the merchants, rather than the public would absorb the levy. Equalize School Taxes. The bill, in its present form, provides that the revenue shall be used to equalize school taxes. It would exempt merchants whose annual gross sales are less than $25,000. Governor Brucker questioned members of the delegation relative to the exemption clause, wondering whether such a provision would be constitutional. Fenner and others said they would waive the exemption provision if that would help enactment. The governor also stated that while school cost equalization is needed, there also should be some reduction in the general state tax, indicating that if the legislature adopts a sales tax he would favor a portion of the yield going into the general fund. Fenner told the governor all that is needed to assure passage of the measure is "the support of the governor." He asserted a majority of the farmer house members favor it. In reply the governor reiterated his belief that specific taxes of some sort should be enacted to relieve property. Ho (Continued on Page Two)

Snowstorm Causes Heavy Damage to Livestock In West

Kansas City, Mo., Mar. 30 (AP)—Snowfall over a wide area from Wyoming to western Texas, coupled with communications facilities still out of order, combined today to prevent agricultural officials from estimating the damage to livestock of last week's blizzard which claimed 16 human lives. There were scattered reports from western Kansas of cattle found by hundreds, standing in drifted snow and frozen to death but the state department of agriculture could not estimate the loss. It said many animals died of exposure as did poultry and cattle losses were most numerous. Stockmen at Sidney, Nebraska estimated $50,000 worth of cattle had perished in that region and reported that 500 head of white-faced steers, owned by Neils Trost, a strip of Denver, had been lost near Julesburg, Colo.

Ten Men Indicted For Bank Failures

Asheville, N. C., March 30 (AP)—Ten men were named in additional indictments returned by the county grand jury today in connection with the failure here last fall of banks with more than $20,000,000 on deposit. More than $,000,000 of public funds was included in the deposits, and several of the new indictments charging perversion of public credit and conspiracy to defraud Buncombe county of large sums. The other indictments alleged violation of the state banking laws. Today's list carried one new name, C. J. Hawkins, assistant cashier of the closed Central Bank and Trust company, and brought the total of those against whom charges are pending to 25. Hawkins was charged with embezzling $10,000 from the bank.

NEW BUOYS ON LAKES PLANNED

Important Changes in Navigation Aids Are Announced

Detroit, March 30 (AP)—The light house division of the U. S. department of commerce today announced the following changes in navigation aids in the Great Lakes district:

Lake Huron, North Channel—Black spar buoy to be established at the opening of navigation, marking wreck of steam barge India off north side of West Mary Island. Latitude N. 45 degrees, 58 minutes, 20 seconds, longitude W. 81 degrees, 45 minutes, 5 seconds.

St. Mary's River—Hay point reef lighted buoy 6A, to be established at the opening of navigation, off the westerly edge of Hay Point reef shoal, 2,910 yards 18 degrees from Round Island light, in 22 feet. Lighter buoy will be red, spar shaped, flashing red every 3 seconds, flash 0.3 second duration, of 20 candlepower, 13 feet above water.

St. Mary's River—Important changes in channel markings. It is now anticipated that the west Neebish channel will be closed for dredging operations, effective at the opening of navigation, which will necessitate the use of the present upbound channel east of Neebish Island by traffic in both directions.

To provide for such use of this channel, a system of parallel double ranges 200 feet apart is being installed at the lower end of Lake Nicolet, at the upper end of middle Neebish cut, and at Dark Hole and Harwood Point, one range to serve for upbound traffic and the other for traffic downbound. These changes, together with various additions and changes in buoyage which will be necessitated by the expected change in the use of the channels and which are expected to be effective at or near the opening of navigation, 1931, are as follows:

West Neebish lighted buoys 20, 19, 18, 15, 14A, 12, 2 and 1, and Moon Island lighted buoy 5A, will be discontinued temporarily during dredging operations. The locations of each of the above lighted buoys will be marked temporarily by a third class spar, similarly colored and numbered.

West Neebish buoy 2, to be re-numbered 2A.

West Neebish upper leading light to be established, on the structure of middle Neebish south range rear light 98, located on the extended axis of West Neebish channel upper course, 1,475 yards 161 degrees from West Neebish channel light 22.

Light will be fixed white, of 3,200 candlepower, 53 feet above water, on red square pyramidal skeleton tower, upper part formed on concrete pier. Includes a leading light for vessels entering the West Neebish channel downbound.

Capone Laughs at Rumors of Movies

Chicago, March 30 (AP)—Alphonse "Scarface Al" Capone dismissed with a laugh tonight reports from Los Angeles that he had been offered a million dollars to become a movie actor.

"There is," he said, "no deal on for picture."

And he added for the benefit of Burton Fitts, Los Angeles district attorney who promised jail—not Kluge lights—if the gang overlord ventured into his jurisdiction.

"Mr. Fitts is a district attorney is a good press agent. He seems to be more interested in the movies than in crime."

"If there were—but there isn't a deal on for a picture. I would go to California and not care whether I saw Mr. Fitts or not."

Husband Insists Death Accidental

Nice, France, March 30 (AP)—David Townsend, husband of Mrs. Mary Margaret Townsend, whose body was found in the crashed wreckage of her automobile at the foot of a 200-foot precipice near here, insisted tonight that his wife's death was accidental.

He announced he had employed lawyers to investigate any reports that she was not accidentally killed following over-indulgence in brandy.

Police of La Turbie, near where the tragedy occurred, are investigating the death of Mrs. Townsend and announced tonight that they will not make a definite report of its cause before 48 hours.

Curtius Will Reply To Briand Charges

Berlin, March 30 (AP)—Foreign Minister Julius Curtius will reply in the Reichstag tomorrow to the arguments of Foreign Minister Aristide Briand and Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson against consummation of the Austro-German customs agreement.

The spirit in which he will make his address can hardly leave room for doubt. Official circles here hold that Germany has a perfect reply to virtually all of Briand's charges; that the world has not been placed before the accomplished fact because the fact has not yet been accomplished, and that Briand's contention that world opinion is united against the proposed accord can be disproved by quotations of public opinion from the United States, Japan and partly from England and other European countries.

resulted from attacks made on the board as a result of its decision not to engage in stabilization operations on the 1931 wheat crop.

Appoints Two Judges—Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, a strong administrative supporter has advocated abolition of the board while other administration senators have defended the decision.

In the face of opposition from Senator Schall, Republican, Minnesota, the president appointee Gunnar H. Nordby to be judge of the United States district court for that state. Schall announced he would oppose confirmation.

At the same time Mr. Hoover appointed James A. Fee to be United States judge for Oregon and John Knight to be judge of the Western district of New York.

Meanwhile, Secretary Hurley, who accompanied President Hoover on his Caribbean trip, lost little time in removing himself from the vice presidential boom which sprang up during his absence. He announced soon after reaching his office that he would support Vice President Curtis for renomination and reelection if Curtis ran.

Another vice presidential possibility mentioned frequently during President Hoover's trip was Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., governor of Porto Rico, who received publicity through the president's visit to that island.

Vice President Curtis conferred for 30 minutes today with President Hoover. He said later he had no plans for his future political activities and that if he had he would not announce them at this time.

Reports have been published recently that Curtis intended to run for the senate in 1932, giving up his vice presidential seat.

TAX ON INCOME ASKED IN HOUSE

$1500 deductible for a single person; $3500 for a married person and $400 for each additional child. All taxes paid by the individual with the exception of the inheritance and special assessment levies would be exempt.

The corporation tax measure would exempt farm co-operatives, labor and agricultural organizations, railroads and other utilities contributing to the primary school fund, federal land banks, fraternal and religious organizations, civic clubs, etc. Deductions would also be allowed for other taxes except inheritance and special assessment levies. Capital expenditures or life insurance premiums would not be deductible.

To avoid a referendum on his proposal Rep. Thomas provides that revenues shall go for school relief, charitable and educational and penal institutions, reduction of the state debt, etc. The measure provides that no property tax be levied for state purposes.

Rep. Thomas declared his bills are an outgrowth of the findings of the special commission of inquiry. The majority of the committee recommended an income tax.

Grape Growers Ask Cut Freight Rates

Lansing, March 30 (AP)—A hearing opened here today before B. A. Colvin, examiner for the interstate commerce commission, on the petition of southwest Michigan grape cooperatives for lower freight rates on grapes shipped from the state.

Organizations represented at the hearing were: Paw Paw Co-operative Association; Wolverine Fruit and Produce Exchange; and the Southern Michigan Fruit Association. Their contentions were opposed by every railroad company in the state also represented at the hearing.

Lou Tellegen Will Return to Pictures

New York, March 30 (AP)—Lou Tellegen, matinee idol at whom the ladies are heaving sighs 'way back in the Roosevelt administration, has obtained a new face and will shortly reappear at the old perfect lover stand.

Lou, nearing fifty and—two weeks ago—looking it, has taken a face rejuvenation treatment, and now looks like 'youth again. Free of wrinkles, dewlaps and under-eye bags, he has been able to sign up a movie producer who will present him in hand-on-heaving-breast postures for the benefit of the daughters and granddaughters of the girls he once set a-sighing.

said that unless the legislature does something along this line the state property tax cannot be lowered. The governor favored a tobacco tax but the legislative sponsors of the levy have abandoned it and the governor said he is not inclined to attempt to dictate.

Special Tax Needed—The gasoline sales tax was debated before its adoption. Its merits need no defense now. If it had been adopted sooner we would be better off," the governor said. "In my message to the legislature I recommended specific taxes to finance the Turner bill giving aid to the school districts. Since then I have talked with individual members urging that such taxes be given consideration. Unless some special tax is found the state property tax cannot be lowered from its present $22,500,000. This would be a calamity. I shall not object to any specific tax the legislature wishes to pass, save the malt tax to which I am opposed."

"The state now has $1,700,000 to meet debts of $9,000,000. Taxes on real property cannot be raised at this time. The money must come from somewhere."

The governor asked Fenner to supply him with data supporting his estimate of an annual revenue. Fenner promised to have the figures prepared by Wednesday.

$300,000,000 Business—"Our original estimate of $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 was for newspaper consumption," Fenner said. "Some of our advertisers are opposed to the sales tax. Now that it is out in the open I assure you that I believe the tax will yield at least $15,000,000 a year."

Fenner claimed the only opposition to the measure is from chain stores and large department stores. He said 94 per cent of the independent merchants pay taxes on business places and 96 per cent on homes, while the foreign corporations own only three per cent of their business places. He claimed chain stores do a $300,000,000 annual gross business and of which $15,000,000 profit goes out of Michigan.

Negro Suspect In Jail During Murder

Detroit, March 30 (AP)—Highland Park police revealed tonight that Clement Rose, 21-year-old negro held for investigation in connection with the shooting of Joseph D. Burke a week ago, proved to have been in jail the night of the slaying.

Ballistics experts are checking bullets found at the scene of other recent crimes with three pistols found in Rose's room in an effort to link him with other slayings.

Home Robbed While Owner Is At Work

The sheriff's department was called to investigate the robbery of Tony Sacich's home, about a mile north of Kipling. Sacksich went to work in Gladstone early in the morning, and when he returned he found that his home had been entered by means of tearing off the lock on a back door. Missing articles included a $50 watch, alarm clock valued at $5, a $3 and a $5 fountain pen, and a woolen jumper. ### More Reckless Driving In 1930, Survey Shows

As a nation we were guilty of more reckless driving in 1930 than ever before in our history.

The result was tragic beyond description. Motor accidents killed 32,500 people and injured more than 360,000. More than 2,000 little children under five years of age were killed and more than 45,000 were injured within the twelve-month period. The World War did not take a greater toll of American lives in battle.

The encouraging aspect of this appalling loss lies in the fact that recklessness was its principal cause. If carelessness and over-confidence kill and injure so many, carefulness and consideration can prevent such losses.

The majority of accidents occurred on straight and dry roads in broad daylight with experienced and mature drivers at the wheel. In an overwhelming majority the machine functioned properly; the man was at fault. He took unjustifiable chances.

Young men at their very best physical development were the worst offenders. The enthusiasm if youth can make a motor car a dangerous weapon.

HEAVY SNOWFALL

The blizzard that swept over this region last Saturday and Sunday was accompanied by a heavy snowfall. However, there was but little interruption of traffic. Eight or ten inches of snow fell and it was necessary to get out the snow plows to clear streets and highways. Street Superintendent Duffel has been busy hauling snow away from the business streets. Monday dawned bright and clear and snow has melted rapidly.

BIENNIAL SPRING ELECTION

The election next Monday is known as the biennial spring election and there are two ballots, state and city, two amendments and one referendum act to be submitted to the voters of Munising. The state ballot is for Justices of the supreme court, regents of the university, superintendent of public instruction, one member of the state board of education and two members of the state board of agriculture. Also a county commissioner of schools. Julia Vera Peterson is the only candidate for school commissioner. On this ballot there are four tickets. Both Republican and Democrat tickets have full lists of candidates. The Social party has nominees for all offices, except two justices of the supreme court and the Prohibitionists have named candidates for regents of the university and members of the state board of agriculture. The city ballots contain the names of thirteen candidates.

Two candidates for commissioner, with one office to fill, six candidates for supervisors, with three offices to fill, three candidates for justices with two offices to fill, two candidates for constables with two offices to fill. The amendment ballot contains one amendment for authorizing the state to improve or aid in the improvement of landing fields; one amendment authorizing the state to borrow money and issue bonds for paving or refunding outstanding bonded indebtedness, and a referendum act relative to capital punishment. The act, printed on the ballot would occupy about four columns of ordinary newspaper space and if each voter took the time to read it over in the booth before marking the ballot the election would be a long drawn-out affair unless a lot more extra booths were furnished. Yet the purpose of printing the act is for giving the voter the opportunity of reading it and understanding it before casting his vote. Few, if any, will read it in the booths.

THE VANISHING RAILWAY PASSENGER

The average inhabitant of the United States took fewer trips by railroad last year than in any previous year for which complete statistics are available.

The rise, decline and fall of railway passenger business is a remarkable story. In 1897, at the very end of the long depression which began with the panic of 1893, the average inhabitant made 6.8 trips and traveled 170 miles by rail.

Between 1907 and 1920 the increase in the total passenger business of the railways was 70 per cent; the country's population having largely increased and the average inhabitant having increased his traveling by rail to almost 12 trips annually and to a total of 445 miles.

Although total railway passenger business was the smallest in 1930 that it had been for a quarter century, it has been thus far in 1931 much smaller than in 1930.

A BRIGHT STREET

LUDINGTON street is putting on its Easter togs. Did you ever see such a dressed-up street anywhere?

Electric signs are being erected in front of stores and other business establishments, adding splendor to a thoroughfare that already is one of the most attractive in this section of the country.

Somebody started the electric sign fad when the city made a reduced rate on current purchased for this purpose, and installations have been frequent since then.

Other improvements are being made along Escanaba's Rialto. Buildings have been remodeled; new fronts have been installed; and stores are making interior repairs.

FOREST CROP LAW

CHIPPEWA county, with 17 percent of its lands already owned by the state, is among the counties most interested in Senator Rushton's law which proposes a tax method intended to check the present destructive logging methods of the remaining standing timber in Upper Michigan.

ator Herbert Rushton's law which proposes a tax method intended to check the present destructive logging methods of the remaining standing timber in Upper Michigan.

In these five counties the average amount of land which has reverted to the state is 18 per cent and hundreds of thousands of acres more are going back each year.

The law would provide that all lands which are primarily suited for the production of forest products may be listed by their owners as commercial forest reserves.

All listed lands would be open to the public for hunting and fishing. No lands could be listed for purposes of speculation.

Senator Rushton has the support of scientific lumbermen in this bill. It is entirely true that the lumbering interests in Upper Michigan take no pleasure in the present ruthless destruction of forests.

Everything is subject to change, except, of course, the taxi driver. As far as Lewis is concerned, Dreiser has a style peculiarly adapted to slapstick.

By going on a vacation while his city is making important investigations, New York's mayor is said to have made a risky step.

A man was found in Pennsylvania who sang while he robbed a store. Just a snatch of song, as it were.

Some hotels rate high, says the office sage, and others have high rates. Many people showed resentment at the Benedict Arnold trial over the radio.

The woman who buys an article for a song usually hears a "refrain" from her husband.

It doesn't cost anything to have a seal on the Stock Exchange kicked, mused the office sage.

Some businesses lately are like submarines. After a period of clear sailing they submerge.

BUNSEN'S BIRTH

On March 31, 1811, Robert W. Bunsen, a distinguished German chemist, was born at Gottingen. Bunsen's discoveries have formed important contributions to the progress of science in the latter part of the 19th century.

Bunsen will always be remembered by physicists and chemists for the much used gas burner which bears his name. The principle of the Bunsen burner is now widely utilized in gas stoves for cooking purposes.

MAD MARRIAGE

CHAPTER XXIII

Upstairs, securely locked away in the lowest dresser drawer in Gypsy's bedroom, there was a package of letters tied with cord. They were addressed in the same bold handwriting as the envelope in her hand.

There were the familiar initials "A. R. C." in the left-hand corner. There was the same funny little curly-cue Alan always made when he wrote a capital "M."

Presently she sat up, groping for a handkerchief to dry her red and swollen eyes. She still held the letter unopened.

One part of her yearned feverishly to read what Alan had written. The other part—it was fear—cautioned "Don't do it! You'll be sorry." Gypsy held the envelope and stared at it.

Gypsy jumped up and crossed the room. "You're Jim Wallace's wife," she told herself. "You married him to get away from all this. Alan Crosby doesn't love you. He never did love you. Open that letter and you'll regret it."

What if he should say he's sorry now? What can you do about it? It's too late!

She heard a knock at the door. Gypsy stood motionless. After a moment she called out: "Who is it?"

Matilda answered in her heavy accent. "It's Miss Christopher, Ma'am. She's downstairs waiting. She said you was expecting her."

Health Tips

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEN

Pain in the chest of great intensity, carrying with it the fear of impending death, is one of the most disturbing diseases that attack the human being.

Angina pectoris brings about death through a nervous mechanism which stops the beat of the heart. The disease has been known to the medical profession for many years; in fact, it was first studied by Edward Jenner, who was credited with the development of vaccine for smallpox, and, in 1768, by Heberden, who is noted for his studies of rheumatic conditions.

Angina pectoris occurs in men most frequently at the time when their tissues have begun to break down but before the occurrence of senility. It comes on at the same time as hardening of the arteries begins to disappear. If old age is completely established with calcification of blood vessels and angina pectoris has not yet appeared, it is likely to appear in any individual.

In many instances the disease seems to be associated with infections of a rheumatic type early in life, with various forms of inflammation of the blood vessels, and with unusual disturbances of the nervous system.

Thus the person who has angina pectoris begins to realize that his heart attack is usually associated with some extraordinary effort, such as walking rapidly after a meal or walking against the wind, such as excitement in the form of anger or joy, or after any type of physical or mental activity that may be associated with an increase in the blood pressure.

It is known that the excessive use of tobacco may be an inciting factor and that intoxication with lead or the form of disturbance associated with diabetes may lead to angina pectoris in some people.

There are several conditions affecting the heart which may produce pain in that region, but the pain of angina pectoris is distinctive. It begins suddenly as a sharp, stabbing pain with the feeling of pressure in the chest. It radiates upward toward the shoulder and may even seem to pass down the arm to the fingers. It is distinctive and associated quite definitely with the nervous mechanism.

Anyone who has seen a person in such an attack knows the reaction which almost inevitably occurs. The person concerned may cry out, the face becomes pale and looks pinched and drawn, and perspiration may pour from the forehead. Fortunately for these patients, scientific medicine has developed a method of relief for the acute attack. In the majority of cases the inhalation of amyl nitrite brings about prompt relief. Some patients, however, do better with nitroglycerine, which is used as a remedy and with several other medical preparations. Any physician can prescribe these as needed.

PASTOR TALKS ON ASTRONOMY

Kiwanians Hear Instructive Address by Rev. Shanks

As far as astronomers have been able to determine, there are no human beings like ourselves inhabiting the other planets, according to Rev. Lewis E. Shanks, pastor of the First M. E. church of Hermansville, who delivered a highly interesting and instructive talk to the Kiwanis club at the Ludington hotel yesterday.

Reverend Shanks gave a general review of the subject of astronomy in his address, which was packed full of interesting facts. Upon the conclusion of his talk, he was called upon to answer several questions on phases of the subject which puzzled his hearers.

A 200-inch telescope is now being erected in California at a cost of twelve million dollars, Rev. Shanks stated, which will greatly aid in the study of astronomy. The largest telescope, which is located at the Mt. Wilson observatory, is 100 inches in diameter.

Hot on Mercury

Astronomers have found no evidences of human life like on this earth on the other planets, Mr. Shanks said. The planet of Mercury is thirty-six million miles from the sun. It is a hot place, with no air or water. In fact, the surface of Mercury is so hot that iron would melt there, consequently human beings could not exist there.

Venus, which is a beautiful planet, is somewhat like the earth. It is enveloped by a dense atmosphere, making it impossible for astronomers to secure a clear view of its body. There is no oxygen on Venus, and since this element is essential for life, the conclusion is that it is not inhabited. Astronomers believe that Venus is completely covered by water, with the possibility that there is fish life there.

Scientists do not agree as to the nature of the so-called "canals" on Mars, according to Rev. Shanks, who said there is no established proof that they are the work of a race of men. Professor Lowell, who contributed much to astronomical science in his studies at his Flagstaff, Ariz., observatory, was of the opinion that Mars was inhabited many years ago by some form of life, but others disagree with him, Mr. Shanks stated. Mars is one-half the diameter of the earth and has the appearance of being in its dotage. There are evidences of atmosphere, water and oxygen on this planet, but no in sufficient quantities to maintain a high degree of life. Reverend Shanks stated that some scientists think conditions on Mars might be suited for habitation by a form of animal life resembling a beaver. In mid-summer at the equator, the temperature never attains higher than 40 degrees above zero, and in the morning hours it drops suddenly to 100 degrees below, making human life of the type on this earth quite impossible.

Jupiter, which is 1200 times larger than the earth, is quite unknown to astronomers, but since its temperature is 240 degrees below zero there is little chance for life to exist there. Extreme cold temperatures also prevail on Saturn, Uranus and Pluto, he said.

Science believes that the moon was drawn from the earth, presumably from the Pacific ocean. Questioned about the appearance of "sun spots," Reverend Shanks said that these were evidence of the centers of terrific storms on the sun. He stated that one astronomer was now preparing a map forecasting weather conditions for a year in advance from his observation of these sun-spots.

In response to another question, the speaker explained that a comet is considered by scientists to be rocks and other material that have torn from other planets. The tail-effect, he said, was produced by the particles falling from the matter as the comet is hurled through space.

Liquor Case Taken Into Circuit Court

H. E. Bonno, 219 South Seventeenth, was bound over to circuit court for trial on a liquor violation charge, following a justice court hearing Monday afternoon. Bonds of $500 were given. Bonno's home was raided March 20 by officers of the police and sheriff's department, who reported finding a gallon of liquor. Charges of sale, possession and keeping a place have been filed against the local man.

Highway 41 Gets Concrete Paving

During the progress of construction work on US-41 north of Menominee, trunk line traffic is being routed over the county road from Eagle's Nest via M-35 and the county road at Birch Creek.

This section of US-41 will be paved with concrete this year, connecting up with the present pavement out of Menominee. Another extensive paving project on US-2-41 will be from Narenta crossing in Delta county west 11.36 miles. Of this, 3,291 miles

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Army of the United States, for more than a century and a half, has performed heroically and splendidly, in peace and war; and

WHEREAS, the State of Michigan and this community have contributed of the men who have served with honor to their country, their state, their neighborhood and themselves; and

WHEREAS, Monday, April 6, has been designated as Army Day, in commemoration of the services of the Army; and THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, W. H. Needham, Mayor of the City of Escanaba, by virtue of the authority vested in me by law, do designate Monday, April 6, 1931, as "Army Day," and urge that all people participate in its observance; that the National Colors be displayed; and that appropriate exercises be held in the schools and elsewhere, at which appreciation of the services and traditions of our Army may be expressed appropriately.

Given under my hand and seal of the City of Escanaba, this 30th day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

(Signed) W. H. NEEDHAM, Mayor of the City of Escanaba.

Sunshine Helps City Clear Off the Slush

With the aid of spring sunshine, Escanaba street crews yesterday were making the remnants of the March farewell snowstorm disappear. The city's snowplow and trucks worked on Ludington street Monday, and will probably clean up the rest of the job this morning.

Farmers of the county, facing a growing season with little reserve moisture in store, said the storm would prove of some value in the event of a dry spring. Possibility of an early planting season is seen this year if spring temperatures prove favorable. A few communities were handicapped by drifts over the week-end.

176 In Delta county, C. G. Bridges submitted the low bid on the job.

St. Anne's Church Cherishing Relic

St. Anne's parish of this city has among its many precious articles of value at the church, a relic which will be exposed for veneration on Good Friday. This little splinter from the true cross is priceless. It is cherished with earnest pride and devotion by the pastor and the members of the parish.

Veneration of the precious relic will take place every half hour of Good Friday beginning at 12 o'clock and lasting until three o'clock. Every one is welcome to visit the church and venerate it.

Local Plane Flown Back to Escanaba By Wallie Arntzen

Lieut. Wallie Arntzen, Chicago, formerly with the Upper Peninsula Airways of Escanaba, piloted the Airways Ryan monoplane from Milwaukee to Escanaba, arriving here Sunday afternoon.

Passengers in the plane were Stewart Earle of Hermansville and Arne Arntzen, brother of Wallie, of Chicago.

The plane cleared at Milwaukee at 12:15 o'clock and a landing was made here at 3:30 o'clock. No trouble was encountered from the storm, aside from the slowing up of the plane's time due to head winds all the way. The Ryan will be stored in the Airways hangar.

Mr. Arntzen plans to remain in Escanaba for the present, Mrs. Arntzen joining him here later.

Not all sizes have been listed—but enough to give an idea of how prices compare. And by the way, Ward's prices are even LESS when you buy in PAIRS!

Free Mounting Service at Every Ward Store

Dear Mr. Firestone:

Above, we reproduce part of one of the many newspaper and magazine advertisements appearing throughout the country, in which Firestone tires are compared with "a mail order" tire . . . Montgomery Ward & Co. is the oldest mail order house in America. So when you say "mail order," many people naturally think first of Montgomery Ward & Co.

But—the specifications of the "mail order" tire listed in Firestone advertising fall far short of the specifications of Montgomery Ward & Co. tires. . . You have also stated in your advertising that "a mail order tire is made by some unknown manufacturer. . ." Well, Ward's tires are made by one of the largest and best known rubber companies in America . . . a company, in fact, that is larger than your own company, Mr. Firestone. . . Furthermore, your advertising says "Compare prices." You compare Firestone prices with "mail order" prices. Montgomery Ward & Co. states emphatically that your advertising does NOT make a correct comparison between Ward tires and yours, in either quality or price. But the table at the left DOES.

The Firestone advertising lists three grades of tires—Courier, Oldfield and Super-Heavy Anchor. Your Courier, Mr. Firestone, is what is known in the trade as a "third line" tire. Montgomery Ward & Co. does not sell a "third line" tire. Your Oldfield is what is known as a "second line" tire—it compares in quality with our TRAIL BLAZER. The table at the left shows how Trail Blazer prices compare with Oldfield prices. Your Super-Heavy Anchor is also a "second line" tire—but is a quality which we do not sell . . . OUR BEST TIRE IS OUR RIVERSIDE. The Firestone advertising does not list a tire equal in quality to our Riverside—in the table at the left however, we list Firestone tires that are equal in quality to our Riversides and show ALSO how the prices compare.

In view of these facts, Mr. Firestone, we ask that in the future you state whose mail order tire you are talking about.

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.

Mr. Auto Owner

Montgomery Ward & Co. guarantees you that quality for quality, there are no better tires made than Ward's Riversides and Trail Blazers. Furthermore, they are backed by the fairest, squarest tire guarantee ever written. And they sell for LESS than other tires of equal quality. Step into Ward's store where you will find a complete stock of Riversides and Trail Blazers and see for yourself. COMPARE before you buy.

Glorifying Yourself By Alicia Hart

Spring is the time to look the conditions of your skin in the face. Drying winds, the first dust in the air, and life crowding in. You should absent yourself long enough from the whirl of things to remember that you need a good complexion this year.

But there are some lotions that do infinitely more. There is an essential cream, for instance, that cleanses and nourishes. There are some new greaseless creams that take out every speck of dirt without leaving any surplus oil that already oily skin detestably want.

Brand new are a variety of fragrant cleansing lotions that are pick-me-ups while you use them. They smell as effective as they really are. So they give you lift while they clean your face. And that's to be appreciated in the course of a long, hard day.

I think the best thing about purchasing a new tonic or lotion is the way it makes you think about your looks, perks you up all along the line and may even end up by performing a revolution in your style of beauty, not to mention your disposition. This is a year when every one of you should look her best and have the most self-respect possible. For only by putting on the best face can you get the most out of life. And certainly a meticulously clean face, a face with skin softened and cared for, is a face worth having.

Republican Candidates April 6 Widely Known Through State

Without a single exception the Republican party will present to the electors of Michigan, Monday, April 6, candidates for State office who are not only widely known, but who have distinguished themselves for their service in the social, business, and political life of the state.

Involving only the judicial and educational branches of the State Government the Republican list of candidates includes no one who can be classed as a politician, in the exact meaning of the word.

The voters will have two members of the State Supreme Court, a State Superintendent of Public Instruction, two members each to the Board of Regents of the University of Michigan, and the State Board of Agriculture, the governing body of the Michigan State College, and a member of the State Board of Education.

Outstanding Records

Following a custom of more than 75 years' standing, the Republican party has renominated its incumbent members of the bench in Justice Howard West, of Lansing, a member of the Supreme court for the last 10 years, and Justice Henry M. Butzel of Detroit, who is seeking his first full term. He was named to the court by Governor Fred W. Green to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Justice Grant M. Fellows. Justice Butzel, an outstanding member of the bar of the State, had never previously held or been a candidate for any public office.

Webster H. Pearce, nominated to succeed himself as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is a school teacher. He was drafted from an important post at the Central State Teachers College, at Mt. Pleasant, four years ago by his party for the post he now holds, and has made an outstanding record since that time.

For members of the Board of Regents of the University of Michigan, the party presents Ralph Stone and Junius E. Deal. Both are graduates of the University. Mr. Stone is prominent in the financial life of Detroit, and has served the University as Regent of the University since 1907.

She's Real Farmer

Frank Cody, head of the public school system in Detroit, has been renominated for member of the State Board of Education. He is widely known in educational circles, not only in Michigan but throughout the nation.

For the State Board of Agriculture, the governing body at Michigan State College, two new faces appear as candidates for these important posts. They are Mrs. Mathilda R. Wilson, of Oakland County and Gilbert L. Daane of Grand Rapids. Mrs. Wilson has long been interested in educational work, and moreover, she owns and operates a 1,400 acre farm near Rochester, in Oakland County. Her farm boasts of some of the finest herds of livestock in the State. Mr. Daane is a banker, having long been connected with one of the largest financial institutions in Grand Rapids. He was with the class of 1909 of Michigan State College, and has long been one of the staunch supporters of this institution. Neither Mrs. Wilson or Mr. Daane have ever held public office.

Fleas Suspected as Typhoid Source

The Old World type of typhus fever has been known for many years. Its transmission has been shown to be due to the body louse. In making studies of cases of a milder type of this disease found in the United States, it was impossible to incriminate the body louse in many instances.

It had been believed for some time that there was some other agent which transmitted this disease, which is of more than passing interest, as studies by the Public Health Service have indicated the occurrence of a number of cases of endemic typhus fever in several areas of the United States. A report recently made public by the Public Health Service shows that there is strong evidence to indicate that fleas may be the means of transmission of this disease from person to person or from a possible rodent reservoir to human beings. This discovery is of much importance and may be of value in the prevention of the spread of this disease.

Motorists Warned To Buy Licenses

State and local officers are taking action against motorists who abuse the automobile license law. Three arrests were made here by the state police yesterday, and the sheriff's department promises that more will follow if drivers persist in trying to "get by" without having their cars, trucks and trailers equipped with 1931 license plates as required by law.

Of the arrests made by state officers Monday, one was for failing to attach plates to a trailer, another motorist had shifted plates from a new car to an old one, and a third was driving without any license tags.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE DELFT-

This time George Bancroft is the two-fisted managing editor of a tabloid newspaper. He is a man feared by all society for his code is a code of "yellow journalism."

We see him in an atmosphere charged with the electric busyness of high-tension news-gathering. Presses roar, newsboys shriek the latest "scops." Reporters sly-talk their way into places where they are not wanted. Civic leaders protest. Proud citizens are ruined in a one-edition blast from the newspaper's trumpet of this Bancroftian terror who barks his withering commands, and never relents.

Poor and rich alike are caught in the path of the news juggernaut. "If it's news, print it," says Bancroft, no matter who it may hurt.

But with all his bluster, all his hardness, he has one weak spot. It is his charming wife. He loves her with a fervor that is almost childlike. He has implicit faith in her.

Then comes the incident which brings his brutal credo to the test. His wife falls in love with the town's biggest banker. At the same time the banker is in the shadow of disgrace because of the financial obligations of his firm. Bancroft learns of his wife's defection. He also knows that to print the story of the bank's finances may cause trouble, probably ruin, for hundreds of the city's poor. To leave it all unprinted may mean future safety for all.

But he is a man of iron determination. He has said that news, fit or unfit, shall be printed. And so he publishes the story, sacrificing even his own reputation in the ensuing maelstrom of screaming headlines.

It is potent stuff—drama, action, thrills, excitement that tingles the spine. A thundering play for the night; most thunderous of the talkie celebrities. It is Bancroft at his fist-thumping best. A grand, swash-buckling picture, as modern as tomorrow's head-lines, as exhilarating as a six-alarm fire.

and "light values."
"How had Alan learned where to send the letter? How long had he known that she was married? Gypsy puzzled over these questions. Most of all she wanted to know where he was and what had made him write to her. She had felt so brave when she had left without a word of farewell. Now she knew it had been running away."

Miss Christopher's voice broke in upon the girl's thoughts. "If you'd care to show me the upstairs rooms now—" she began, but Gypsy interrupted.
"I'm sorry," she said. "I'm afraid we'll have to make it some other time. I have some appointments that I really must keep."
"Oh, I hope I haven't delayed you! Suppose I telephone early next week. Would that do it? Such a pleasure to work with you, Mrs. Wallace. I'll follow up your suggestions about the curtains and when I come again I'll let you know the best price I can get on that chest. Well—I must run! Goodby."

Gypsy went to the door with her. After that there was a conference with the man from the electric shop who was waiting in the kitchen. It was 12:30 when he was gone and Matilda announced luncheon was ready. Gypsy was not hungry but she had told Matilda what to prepare so she went to the dining room. She was still at the table when the door bell rang.
"It's a lady to see you," Matilda announced. "She says her name is Miss Manley."

Gypsy rose and hurried to the hall. Abbie Manley came toward her with both hands out. "My dear," she exclaimed. "I hope you'll forgive me for coming at such an outrage a hour. If I've disturbed your luncheon please go on with it. I was so anxious to see you and this was the only chance I had."
"I'm glad you did come," Gypsy told her. "Do sit down."
She led the way into the living room. Abbie sank into an armchair and Gypsy sat opposite her. Mrs. Manley paused an instant and then words rushed on. "I want to tell you how dreadfully I feel about what happened last night. Luella and Ellen deserved every word Jim said to them. Oh, they did! Lucia Wallace is a cat and the whole town knows it. Only you men's town knows all like her. But she's a good sort but she lets her wife tell what to do. Charles and I want you to feel that we're your friends."
"It's lovely of you to come and tell me this," Gypsy said, her lip trembling.

"You poor child! And I'm afraid you've been crying this morning. Now just forget the whole thing! Wipe it out of your mind. I want to know what evening next week you and Jim can have dinner with us."
"Why—I'm not sure."
"How about Wednesday? If anything comes up so that you won't be able to make it you can telephone. My dear, I've spent two hours at the dentist's and I'll declare I'm worn out!"
"Then you haven't had lunch? Why didn't I think of that?" Gypsy stopped her.
"I couldn't eat a bite. No, I really couldn't. But a cup of coffee would be a heaven-sent blessing. Not a thing with it—just coffee!"

Gypsy went to tell Matilda to prepare the coffee. When she returned Mrs. Manley launched forth about her difficulties with a dressmaker. Gypsy warned to Abbie's frank friendliness and forgave her garrulity. The coffee was served and still Abbie chattered. It was nearly three o'clock when she departed.
As the front door closed Gypsy heard Matilda's heavy footsteps.
"Miss Wallace," the cook complained. "The groceries haven't come yet. Do you think maybe they're forgotten to send them?"
Gypsy's exclamation was sharp and low. "I didn't order them!" she wailed. "After that woman came this morning I forgot all about it."
"If you're going to have baked halibut it ought to be here," Matilda insisted. "I was just getting ready to mix the dressing."
"I'll go and bring the things back with me," Gypsy decided. "There's no telling when they'd come if we waited for delivery service. I'll go right away."
She ran upstairs for her hat and coat. The letter from Alan was waiting in the desk drawer where it had been since morning. There was no time to open it now. Gypsy threw on her wraps and hurried out of the house. Pat was in the side yard and at sight of her he came galloping.
"You can't come this time," Gypsy told him. "Now go back!"
The dog's head drooped and he eyed her appealingly. Instead of turning the terror came toward her slowly.
"Go back!" Gypsy repeated sternly. Pat's bright eyes were fixed on hers. The girl walked across the street and nearly reached the street when she gave a quick glance over her shoulder. There in the middle of the walk was Pat, picture of dejection. It was too much for Gypsy. She retreated.

Presbyterians to Hear W. Thompson
Speak On Easter

William Thompson, of the Chicago seminary, has been secured to preach the Easter sermon at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday in the absence of Rev. Cornelius M. Mullenburg who left yesterday afternoon for Lansing where he has accepted a call to take charge of the Westminster church in that city. Rev. Mullenburg delivered his farewell address before a capacity congregation.

It is generally understood that Mr. Thompson is not the same personage as his namesake, the mayor of Chicago.
Citrus producing states of this country exported 431,396 boxes of fruit to 25 countries during January.

"Come on, old fellow," she called. With wriggles and bounds the little black and white figure shot forward.
It was 15 minutes' walk to the market district. They made the rounds of the vegetable and fruit stalls and Gypsy's arms were soon piled with bundles. After the white-coated fish salesman had weighed and wrapped the halibut they started home. Pat was on good behavior, keeping close to the girl's heels all the way.
When they reached the house the girl's arms were aching. She could not open the door and rang the bell. Matilda appeared and relayed her of the bundles.

"Get the fish on at once," Gypsy instructed her. "Never mind about dressing. You can bake it without this time. I brought the eggs and vegetables. The rest of the things will be delivered in the morning."
"Yes, Ma'am."
What a day! Gypsy sank down on the davenport to rest for a moment. Pat's little cold nose touched her fingers. She let the dog climb up beside her and slipped her arms around him.
She was there when Jim Wallace arrived at five o'clock. He came in briskly.
"Well," he said, "you two look comfortable. Say, Gypsy, I've got another estimate on the new roof for the garage. What did you do with those figures I got from Bradley?"
"They're upstairs in the desk in my room. Do you want them?"
"Don't bother! I'll find them for myself." Wallace turned. A moment later she heard him going up the stairs.

Worst Snowstorm of Year Hits City

The largest snowstorm of the season swept into Manistique Saturday morning and piled up three inches of snow before it subsided late in the afternoon. Later on in the evening it began to sleet and Sunday morning another snowstorm hit the city.
Drifts two and three feet high piled up in some sections where it was driven by a stiff wind. No trouble was experienced in clearing the trunk highways in the country and city streets were open throughout the storm. Yesterday city crews were busy hauling away snow off the principal thoroughfares. Saturday and Sunday trains pulled in from 20 minutes to a half hour behind schedule.

FOR STATE BOARD

GILBERT L. DAANE

Prior to the announcement of his candidacy for the Republican nomination as a member of the State Board of Agriculture, Gilbert L. Daane, of Grand Rapids, one of the two successful nominees, had had no political experience.

His candidacy was based upon the belief that sound business principles could be well applied to agriculture and his experience as a financier would be valuable to the Michigan State College. Born in Grand Rapids, educated in the public schools of that city, the Grand Rapids Business College and Michigan State College, Mr. Daane entered upon his business career as a stenographer and bookkeeper for a dental supply house in that city. A year later, he became draft clerk for the Commercial Savings Bank, and his rise in his chosen field was unusually rapid.

Mr. Daane is President of the Grand Rapids Savings Bank, former President of the Michigan Bankers' Association, and is a member of the executive committee of the American Bankers' Association.

Gladstone Doubles Team Hits Into First Place

RIALTOS TAKE ALLEYS TODAY

Standings Expected to Change Often As Best Teams Roll Games

An attack on the maples at the Rialto alleys in the upper peninsula bowling tournament yesterday at Gladstone brought only one serious change in the standings after the last game was rolled.

The doubles combination of Riley and J. Van Mill of Gladstone rolled 1064 in that event to take the lead, displacing Rice and E. Yehinski of Marquette.

The tournament standings to date give Marquette bowlers a top heavy edge but it is believed that further assaults on the maples will cut heavily into the leads now held by the Prison City bowlers.

Wadhams' 370's of Marquette hit high scores in the five-man events Sunday with a mark of 2555. This score, however, is way below the mark expected from the Wadhams' quintet and it is believed that the top score will suffer heavy bombardment during the remainder of the tournament as the various top notch combinations roll their games on the Rialto alleys.

The standings of the tournament to date:

Five Man Events
Wadhams, Marquette ..... 2555
Texacos, Marquette ..... 2541
Spear's, Marquette ..... 2457
Riley Bros., Gladstone ..... 2386
Green's, Gladstone ..... 2130

IN SECOND PLACE
Buffalo, N. Y., March 30 (AP)—Scoring games of 939, 923 and 1010, Barry Electric "A's." rolled into second place in the five-man event of the American bowling congress tournament tonight with a 2,942 total.

But for two pins the Irvington, N. J., five would have tied the leading Michigan recreationists. Poor courts in the tenth frame of the final game prevented the Jersey shooters from taking the lead. B. P. O. E. No. 732, Dover, rolled into ninth place with a 2,870 count. The Elks pinners had games of 875, 1003 and 992.

Four changes occurred among the leaders in the doubles division. Bill Roche and Steve Balog, Toledo, took fourth place with a 1721 total; Carl Sexauer and Harold Scharlow, Canton, fifth, 1265; Pat Downing and Cecil Walker, Toronto, seventh, 1253 and John Fisher and Frank Morris, Indianapolis, eighth, 1247. The all-events and single leaders remained unchanged.

Vance Signed Up With Brooklyn?

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 30 (AP)—The Times says Arthur "Daisy" Vance has reached a salary agreement with the Brooklyn National league club and will report at Macon, Ga., in a few days.

The Times quotes Vance as having said he would receive $24,000 for the season's work, a compromise between the $25,000 he demanded and the $23,000 offered.

Vance said he had also signed a radio contract for nightly talks while the Robins are at home.

DOESN'T THINK SO

Macon, Ga., March 30 (AP)—Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, tonight said so far as he knew, "Daisy" Vance, Robin holdout, had not signed a contract for the 1931 season. "I don't believe it's so," he said.

Schmeling Thinks He Can Whip Stribling

BY WERNER LAUFER (NEA Service Sports Writer)

I had not seen Max Schmeling since last June, the day after he won by a foul the heavyweight championship of the world. He, together with his manager, Joe Jacobs, Trainer Max Machon and faithful aide-de-camp Mushky Jackson were sitting in an obscure box at Jefferson Park track during the recent race meeting at New Orleans.

"Hi, wie gehst," said Max Schmeling. "What d'ya sayin'?" said Mushky Jackson. "Hello, Pal," said Joe Jacobs. Max Machon said nothing.

"Who do you like in the next race and what are you doing in this here sunny south, heh, heh?" said Joe Jacobs. It was cold, windy and raining.

"I don't care who he likes," said Max Schmeling. "I sink I like this horse Blimp and I sink I play him five to win and five to lose. (Max's expression for a win and place bet.) You see I just handicapped

Jersey City Youngster Wins Ten Round Decision

BY EDWARD J. NEIL (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Madison Square Garden, New York, March 30 (AP)—A brassy youngster from Jersey City, black thatched Stanley Poreda, served notice on the heavyweight class tonight that he will be a potent figure to contend with in fistie circles within the next year or so. Poreda, after a steady parade through the lesser lights of the division, stepped out against his first major opposition tonight and thoroughly lambasted Johnny-Risco, punch worn Cleveland veteran, before a pleased crowd of 8,200. Despite the seeming one-sidedness of the struggle, Referee Kid McFarland gave his vote to Risco while the two judges favored the up and coming youngster.

Takes No Chances Poreda seemed none too anxious to take chances, and through the later stages of the melee he let Old Johnny bull him a bit and land with sweeping overhand rights to the head, lurching left hooks to the body, but through the first five rounds Poreda battered Risco about as he pleased, snapping his head back with long lefts, crossing solid rights to the chin, tangling him helplessly in clinches when they came to close quarters.

The big, good-looking Polo met Johnny's right to the chin that set Risco to blinking. He kept his left thumping into the baker boy's face, drove nicely timed left hooks into Risco's head and sides and occasionally shot across right hands that parried the veteran. Risco waded into the fire, grunting, growling, wrestling, slugfing for the youngster's rights, trying to loop overhand slides to the head.

Cool Under Fire The fight went along like that for five rounds, with Poreda piling up a margin in each session. The big youngster was cool under fire, boxed easily and effectively, and punched straight and true. He smashed one right hand punch to Johnny's chin in the fifth that could be heard all over the half empty house. But from the sixth on, Poreda slackened the pace. Risco took the bit in his teeth, and courageously charged the youngster all over the place. Old Johnny grunted and growled until the arena sounded like the site for some hog calling contest but his aggressiveness acted to stiffen off some of the opposition. Poreda kept punching, landing steadily with both hands, but Johnny won an even break in the sixth and seventh rounds and had the better of the going in the seventh and ninth.

In the seventh Johnny smashed over a right that set Young Stanley's ears to ringing and again in the ninth the old trial horse looped one up out of the resin dust and parked it resoundingly on Poreda's chin. The youngster never faltered, however, and came back punching steadily. The Associated Press score chart counted six rounds for Poreda, two for Risco, and two even. The Jersey City youth scaled 198½ pounds, Risco 194.

Packers Will Play Spartans Tonight

The Escanaba Packers will travel to Rock tonight where they will oppose the Rock Spartans in a pre-tournament game which is expected to go a long way in doping out what might be expected in the Class B Independent tournament here April 10, 11, 12.

The Spartans with the addition of Ralbeau, Johnson, and Kaukola have chalked up a victory over the Whiz Bangs of Escanaba since their reorganization while the Packers dropped a three-overtime game to the Bennetite combination of Nahma last week.

BASEBALL PAYS BARNARD HONOR

Notables Gather to Attend Funeral Rites at Cleveland

Cleveland, Ohio, March 30 (AP)—Hundreds of persons—baseball fans, players and former players, bankers, business men, and laborers—passed by tonight to pay final tribute to Ernest Sargent Barnard, whose career in the national pastime, ranging from player to club owner and American League president, was ended by death last Friday.

Baseball notables and other friends and associates gathered tonight to attend final rites here to honor a giant of the game. Among the guests arriving today were Kansas City manager Paul Scharer and Manager Landis, national baseball commissioner; Harry Karpis, secretary of the White Sox and personal representative of Charles A. Comiskey, owner. They, with the other club owners of the American League, and John A. Heydler, president of the National League, will act as honorary pallbearers.

Mrs. Mary Sargent-Barnard, of Parkersburg, W. Va., mother of the late league head, arrived today and joined the widow. Rev. Miles A. Krumbine, pastor of Plymouth church in Shaker Heights and personal friend of Barnard, will participate in the funeral ceremony at the Masonic Temple, under auspices of Alsenby Commandery No. 73, Knights Templar.

After burial in the mausoleum at Knollwood cemetery, attending baseball leaders will leave for Spencer, Ind., to attend the funeral on Wednesday of Ban B. Johnson, whom Barnard succeeded as league president four years ago and who followed the Clevelandier in death by a few hours.

SWEET CHARITY WINS AT BOWIE

Unemployed Gets Large Part of Receipts at Horse Races

Bowie, Md., March 30 (AP)—Sweet Charity scored at the Bowie race track today as the turf claims turned out to welcome the return of king thoroughbred to the north and aid the Maryland unemployed. Although opening its gates a day earlier than officially scheduled and with a card made up of hastily assembled fields, the home of the Southern Maryland Agricultural association was a regular racing rendezvous for the large 4'er-coated crowd.

With the state waiving its tax of $6,000 and the "take" or "handle" of the track especially handed from five to eight per cent, the Maryland-unemployed found benefitted to the extent of nearly $40,000. The increase in the track percentage meant that for every dollar wagered in the mutual machines, charity received eight cents.

Wins Two Races In addition to the $5,000 state tax and the income from the mutuels, estimated at $20,000, $5,250 was taken in at the gate. Contributions from concessions, programs, employee's salaries, jockeys, owners and trainers were expected to swell the total. There was no outstanding feature event on the program but Jockey Albert (Slim) Robertson, a brilliant rider on Maryland tracks, got away to a good start with victories in the first two races and Sergeant Donaldson, a well bred maiden-three-year-old from the Glen Riddle farms, won the Opportunity purse.

Sergeant Donaldson, a son of Whisk Broom II - Assembly by Man O'War, started eight times as a two year old but failed in every race. Today's effort was his first race of the year and he carried the famous Glen Riddle silks to a hollow victory, winning by eight lengths over the seven-furlong course. J. Bulling's grey colt, Civillag, took the place with John Barton, representing F. J. Hughes, third.

SHUTOUT BALL Chattanooga, Tenn., March 30 (AP)—Milton Gaston pitched a shutout brand of baseball for the Boston Red Sox against the Chattanooga club here today but an error by first baseman Bill Sweeney gave the home club a pair of runs in the first inning. The Sox won, 5 to 2. Score:

BOSTON BRUINS TAKE 3-1 GAME

Tied With Canadiens for Play-Off; Fight Game Wednesday

Montreal, Que., March 30 (AP)—The Boston Bruins outplayed the Montreal Canadiens by a wide margin tonight to win the fourth game of their National hockey playoff series and even the count at two games-all. The score was 3 to 1.

The fifth and decisive game of the series will be played here Wednesday night. The winner automatically enters the Stanley cup finals against either the Chicago Blackhawks or the New York Rangers whose home and home series will be completed in New York tomorrow night.

The Bruins won tonight by getting the jump in the first two periods and then holding off the Canadiens' desperate sorties through the third period. The Canadiens started fast but could not get by Goolie Thompson in the Boston nets. After 15 minutes of scoreless play, George Owen, former Harvard star, grabbed the puck and passed to Connery Welland for the first score.

In the second period, Eddie Shore, rugged defensive star, rushed right through the Canadiens' defenses and drove the puck at Hainsworth, Canadiens' goalie. The puck rattled off the goalie's pads and slipped into the net for the second Boston counter. Six minutes later, Chapman passed to Owen, whose rising shot went cleanly into the net for the third goal.

HE'S 'DEAD' IN 2 STATES, AND WANTS TO LIVE

not sweet to Bartels. He quarreled with his wife, and grew tired, somehow, of the eternal picking and shipping of carloads of strawberries. Suddenly, and to the complete surprise of all the neighbors, John Frederick Bartels went away. That, was July 2, 1901. Nobody, least of all his wife and daughters, knew where he was. Years passed, and in 1909, in response to a petition of Mrs. Bartels, he was legally declared dead. The widow (as she thought) had a tombstone set in the cemetery at Alma, Neb., with the name of John F. Bartels cut in the polished granite.

"Bartels" Is Buried She had identified as John Frederick Bartels a man who had died in an Illinois asylum under the name of John Aitchell. The body, identified at the asylum by mailed descriptions and pictures from Mrs. Bartels, was sent on to Alma, and there buried, March 24, 1910.

Seven years later, Bartels turned up in Neosho. His wife, it is said, refused to receive him, and after some parleying, he signed quit-claim deeds to his property. Bartels found Neosho something less than the pleasant place he had once been. He once more drifted away.

It was last fall that he returned to the hill country. He sought out his old friends who had been pallbearers at "his funeral." The Ozark folk, mildly surprised to see and shake the hand of a man believed dead 20 years, accepted the fact that here he was and let it go at that.

Begin All Over Spry and active for his age, Bartels moved onto a little hillside on Indian Creek with his new wife, who cannot take his name because he hasn't any. He cannot vote, admit his own name, nor own his little farm, which stands in his wife's name. But he didn't care. Life flowed along just the same.

Bartels felt that all the tangled skein of his life had been unraveled, or at least that the knot had been cut. Then, suddenly, came word from Illinois recently that John Frederick Bartels was heir to an estate there. Memories came back to Bartels of childhood in Pomeroy, Mo., on a farm 80 miles from Berlin. Memories of thrifty farmers and millers who were his forebears came to him. Memories of how, in 1869, he came out to America as a 13-year-old boy with the great wave of Germans which surged across the sea about that time.

Wants to Live Again After a short stay in Wisconsin, he had drifted to Alma, Neb. Then all the family back in Germany died, and John Frederick Bartels was the last of his line, heir to their lands and money. But John Frederick Bartels is legally dead, and the man who used to be John Frederick Bartels can't resume his old identity without admitting that he is a bigamist. Being dead, Bartels reflects, is not so bad, until suddenly you have a reason for wanting to be alive again. So now he is going to ask the courts to revise their edict that he is dead, seek to straighten out the threat of bigamy charges and claim the fortune that may be his.

Bevernos Close Season With Decisive Victory

The Norway Cardinals pinch-hitting for the Republic Red Devils who failed to make their appearance here because of weather conditions went down before the heavy artillery of the Escanaba Bevernos at the Coliseum gymnasium Sunday afternoon, 4 to 2. It was the last home game of the Bevernos before the peninsula independent tournament.

The story of the game duplicates the others played by the Bevernos this year—the opposition keeping off even terms for a half only to be led to the slaughterhouse in the drive home. The Cardinals held a 7 to 5 lead at the quarter and were trailing by only 16 to 15 at the first half. But the Bevernos split the Norway defense wide open in the last two periods and they sauntered away for another easy victory—their 39th in 42 games.

Drafts High Scorer Without the services of Monte and Ernie Johansson who were out of the city, the Bevernos failed to hit their stride during the first part of the fracas. Draftz, who has been playing a guard post all season, was shifted to center against the Cardinals and the move proved to be a good one as he dropped in nine field goals to take high point honors. Ray Warner chalked up six more. Folke Johansson, formerly with the Bevernos, performed with the Cardinals and turned in a good performance. He annexed three field goals.

The Cardinals last week tripped from Mountain by a decisive margin.

JUNE BATTLES BEING PLANNED

Schmeling and Stribling and Carnera and Jack Sharkey to Meet

Chicago, March 30 (AP)—The proposed world's heavyweight championship fight between Max Schmeling and Young Stribling took on added activity today with the arrival of William Carey, president of the Madison Square Garden corporation.

Reports pegged that the promoters hoped to stage the bout at Soldier Field, Chicago, June 19. Carey had an engagement to meet Sheldon Clark, millionaire Chicago sportsman, and members of the Illinois state athletic commission tomorrow.

Rumors that Mickey Walker, world's middleweight champion who is now campaigning among the heavyweights, would supplant Stribling as Schmeling's opponent were denied.

CARNERA-SHARKEY? New York, March 30 (AP)—Despite official denials, the conviction grew today that Primo Carnera, the man mountain, and bombastic Jack Sharkey have agreed to a heavyweight battle at Ebbets field in Brooklyn sometime in June under the auspices of Jimmy Johnston.

Because of Carnera's lack of standing with the New York state athletic commission and the board's strict rule forbidding promoters dealing with suspended fighters, none of the parties concerned would admit the negotiations, regardless of how far they have gone. Carnera has been under commission ban here for a year.

His reinstatement is believed to depend upon his agreeing to box for Johnston, who recently switched from managing fighters to promoting at Ebbets field, with the added proviso that the bout with Sharkey be staged in the interests of charity. Johnston said today he had Sharkey's verbal agreement for three matches this summer.

HONORS SHARED IN GOLF MEET

MacFarlane and Runyon Each Score 142 in Augusta, Georgia

BY GLENN RAMSAY Augusta, Ga., March 30 (AP)—Willie McFarlane of New York and Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. Y., shared honors in the first half of the Southeastern open golf tournament today, ending the 36 holes with score of 142 each.

Wild Bill Mehlhorn, of Chicago and Clarence Hackney, of Atlantic City, N. J., were tied for third place with 145's. Runyon, whose score of 70 was low for the morning round, came through the afternoon with 73. MacFarlane reversed the order of the scores for the same total.

Play today was over the Forest Hills-Ricker course. The final 36 holes tomorrow will be played over the Country club course: Joe Turnesa, Walter Hagen and Bob Cruickshank were tied for fifth place with 146 each. Dave Ogilvie, Augusta, was next at 147. Willy Cox, Craig Wood and Johnny Farrell followed with 148's. Billie Burke, John O'Connor and Joe Kirkwood, were tied at 149 each.

Julius Hughes, Atlanta, was the only amateur to qualify. He shot 162. Sixty-one players go into the final 36 holes tomorrow. Consistent golf on a day of high scores gave MacFarlane and Runyon their first-day advantage. Their scores were even par for two tours over the tough layout. The Country club course is considered by many golfers even harder than the Forrest Hills-Ricker, and another day of high scores was expected in the final chase for the $5,000 which closes the winter tour of the money-playing contingent.

BOXING

Philadelphia, March 30 (AP)—Young Firpo, aspiring young fist-fighter of Pennsylvania, N. J., won an unpopular decision over Benny Bass, Philadelphia, junior lightweight champion, in the ten-round main event at the arena tonight. Bass' title was not at stake. He weighed 131½. Firpo 136.

4-H CHAMPIONS ARE ANNOUNCED

County Agent C. P. West Names Club Workers to Get Awards

Newberry, March 30 (Special)—County champions in 4-H club work were announced here today from the office of County Agent C. P. West. The selections were made on March 28 when the clubs held their annual exhibit and achievement day program at which 104 members were registered. The day was cold and stormy but that did not appear to have kept a single student at home. Miss Olga Bird and Clara Reed, club leader for the upper peninsula directed the meet and made the awards.

For the first time in the history of club work in the county a boy was given first place in the hot lunch club work. Ira Fox, of the Stevens school being selected as the best all-around cook among the hot lunch members. This lad has been doing unusually excellent work for his club all winter. Florence Stubbs of the Pratt school was selected as the county champion for first year garment club work and Jennie Watson of the Templeton school was placed second.

In second year work there were two ties for both first and second place: Ruth Walker and Bernice Russell of the Pratt school tying for first and Roby and Lillian Fritz, from the East Lake school placing second. The Pratt group is led by Mrs. May Russell while Mrs. Florence Ruggles is leader of the East Lake students.

In third year work Ethel Taylor is county champion, in fourth year work, Ardith Painter was given first place. There were no students taking fifth year work. Cora Rickerd of McMillan is champion of the sixth year group. In the style show Cora Rickerd again took first place and was awarded senior championship for her clothing outfit consisting of a silk dress with hat, slip, bloomers, shoes and stockings. Lillian Fritz is junior champion winning that distinction by the excellent work on a cotton dress.

This being a poor year for farmers as well as many others throughout the county the cloth for several of these dresses was furnished by the local United Service.

Hot Lunch. Some excellent posters are the result of the hot lunch clubs. Those made by the students of Miss Clara Victorson at the Stevens school being of outstanding merit and will be shown at the Escanaba fair next autumn. Ira Fox, an 11 year old boy won honor for himself and for his club as a member of this group. Second place goes to Miss Jane Brewer for the school of her club at the Smathers school and Mrs. Ruggles students at the East Lake school won third place. The team who will judge clothing at the Chatham fair representing this county will be composed of Ardith Painter and Roby Pretz.

Boy's Work. In the handicraft work all but one of the awards went to the McMillan school students. Edward Mattson of the Templeton school being the only boy to pull a place, getting third for his wood working.

The list of county champions and their runners-up follows: First Year Work. County champion, Doyle Rushton, McMillan; second, Edward Seddon, McMillan; third, Edward Mattson, Templeton. Second Year Work. County champion, Clyde Morgon, second, Wilfred Harkness.

Third Year Work. County champion, James Locke, second, Fred Brown.

Fourth Year Work. County champion, John Snyder, second, Ben Rushton, Third Jack Uhlbeck.

Fifth Year Work. County champion, William Spinich, second, Leonard Kubont.

Sixth Year Work. County champion, Carl Kobont, second, William Preisa.

Seventh Year Work. Lysle Painter, county champion. This lad is a brother of last year's county champion, in seventh year work. It is the opinion of Mr. West that he has never seen better work done by a club member than has been done by him this year.

NEWBERRY BRIEFS

Among the students home from school for the Easter vacation are Margaret and Katherine Nicholls, Louis Agtin and Beth Hunter, all from Northern State Teacher's college.

Sergeant Keune and Trooper Hoadley of the Newberry detachment of state police were snowbound in Marquette and unable to get home until Sunday.

Accounting day is being observed Monday by officials of McMillan township. All of the books are being checked up and a general meeting held in the community building.

State police received word on Sunday that a man was sick at the McMillan corners and unable to get in to a physician. They drove out and brought Abo Jorrell in for medical treatment.

Alvin Richards, tax commissioner from Marquette, paid a visit to the local men working in Luce county the last of last week for the purpose of checking the work done in Laketield and Templeton townships.

CHEST CLINIC

Wednesday and Thursday of this week will be the dates for the semi-annual chest clinic held in Newberry for the county of Luce. These clinics are conducted by Dr. Tovey of Pinecrest sanatorium, who has given this service for the past several years. Miss Shilson, Luce county nurse, has organized her nursing committee composed of members of the Luce County Health organization together with nurses lent for the event from the state hospital, into groups who will look after the dressing rooms, registration, histories and weighing and measuring. About fifty patients can be examined on one day and often there are several who cannot be crowded in, so great is the interest in the battle against tuberculosis. The work is financed by the Christmas Seal sales conducted here annually and for the past two years under the direction of Dr. E. H. Campbell who was appointed by the Lions club to act in this capacity.

"This Pledge can save Thousands of Lives in 1931"

My Pledge as a Member of THE SILVERTOWN SAFETY LEAGUE. I agree. 1. To drive at speeds in keeping with the safety of others as well as myself. 2. To keep on the right side of the road, except when passing. 3. To pass only when I know there is ample time and space—never on blind curves or when nearing the crest of a hill. 4. To go through intersections only when I have the right of way. 5. To observe all traffic signals. 6. To give signals myself that can be clearly seen and understood, before turning or stopping in traffic. 7. To drive only when in full possession of my faculties. 8. To keep my brakes, lights, and horn in good condition. 9. To operate my car on tires which assure a positive grip on the road—safe traction—and freedom from hazardous tire failures.

If every automobile owner would sign this pledge, and conscientiously keep it in mind while driving, many lives would be saved and much suffering avoided. Show that you intend to do your bit by signing the pledge and stop heedless, careless and reckless driving. Signed: JOHN J. TOLAN, Chief of Police.

Police Chiefs hail SILVERTOWN SAFETY LEAGUE. IT IS a tragic fact that automobiles took almost as many lives last year as were lost in action by the American forces during the World War... something must be done about it... and the rank and file of motorists will have to do it. By more careful observance of common-sense rules of the road. By maintaining their brakes, tires, and lights in safe condition. By assisting to forge a militant public opinion on the side of sane driving. The R. F. Goodrich Rubber Company has for two years operated the Silver Fleet on the highways, covering a million-car-miles without injury to a single person. In addition to testing Silvertown Tires, the crew of the Fleet has studied road and traffic conditions and conferred with public officials in forty-five states. Out of this experience a Safety Code and Pledge were developed. This pledge can save thousands of lives in 1931—if enough people follow it. Will you sign the pledge and become a member of the Silvertown Safety League?

This is your opportunity to take a definite stand for the safer operation of motor cars... and to let the world know where you stand. Call at our store. Sign the Safety Pledge and get a Silvertown Safety League Emblem for your radiator. Resolve now to help make this town a safer place to live in 1931. No cost or obligation to buy, come in tomorrow.
