

LINDBERGH'S BEGIN TREACHEROUS LAP

NORTH ROUTE ACROSS ROUGH LAND PLANNED

FLYING COUPLE ON WAY TO AKLAVIK, 1,115 MILES

Baker Lake, N. W. T., Aug. 4 (By Wire)—(To Churchill) (P)—Beginning a daring 1,115 mile dash across the most treacherous of Canada's bad lands, Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh took off at 6:35 p. m. (E. S. T.) today for Aklavik.

Contrary to all previous information, it was announced just before the take-off that if weather permitted a single jump would be made to Aklavik.

"However, we may stop at Copper Mine," said Colonel Lindbergh.

The Lindberghs had spent the entire day checking over their plane.

Northerly Course—Considerable confusion had been caused over the various reported routes which the Lindberghs would pursue from here to Aklavik.

Before he left the United States they said they would make a northerly course direct to here to Aklavik. Later at about the time some Canadian pilots expressed apprehension over safety of such a route, Lindbergh said the Lindberghs would travel in a more southerly direction by way of Hunter Bay, Fort Norman and up the Mackenzie river to Aklavik.

Colonel Lindbergh's announcement that they would go by Copper Mine, which lies on the direct northerly course at the head of Copper Mine river, came as a complete surprise.

The Lindberghs will have the benefit of the unusually long period of daylight in this territory during the summer season.

Upon their arrival here yesterday at 5 p. m. (EST) 3 hours and 15 minutes after taking off from Churchill, the Lindberghs were applauded by their trading post's dozen white settlers for their navigational ability. They made the 275 mile jump with ease despite the fact their compasses were swinging wildly due to the proximity of the magnetic pole.

Perfect Take-Off—The flying colonel enjoyed a good-natured laugh when the radio-operator here told him that it had been rumored generally that he was injured in an attempted take-off. The report had been broadcast even before the Lindberghs were unmoored and made ready for its dash toward Aklavik.

The take-off here was perfect, especially in view of the fact that the plane was heavily loaded with fuel for the longest jump thus far of the Washington-to-Tokyo flight.

At Copper Mine—should they stop there—they will find a Canadian government radio station, a post of the Royal Canadian Mounted police, and a Hudson Bay post. There is also an Eskimo settlement and a mission station.

The metropolis of the arctic, however, is Aklavik, situated at the mouth of the MacKenzie river, on the rim of the world. It is a thriving community with a couple of hospitals and mission schools.

Radio communication with Aklavik passes through a series of stations up the Mackenzie river. The next word of the Lindberghs will, in all likelihood, come via Edmonton, Alta.

5 Young Men Held At Iron River for Death of Shacker

Iron River, Mich., Aug. 4 (P)—Investigation of the slaying of Sam Hammer, 50, Sunday night had resulted today in the arrest of five young men, two of whom are accused by officers of stabbing and beating Hammer to death in a fight.

Officers said they had evidence to show that Phil Rucinski, 23, of Iron River, and William Smith, 18, of Caspian, had killed Hammer in a fight which started when Hammer refused to sell them beer because Smith already owned him money. They said Joe Baker, 25, Toivo Hendrickson, 25, and Andy Rowell, 29, had gone to Hammer's shack with the other two and had watched the slaying. All five are in jail.

Hammer's body, with 22 wounds, was found in his shack yesterday.

ANY MORE OFF?—Khalil, Muskegon, Aug. 4 (P)—(Wednesday)—A young man, Khalil, was arrested today for having been seen drinking at the Iron River.

NORTHERN DISTRICT—Cadillac, Mich., Aug. 4 (P)—Announcement was made today that the northern district fair will be held here Sept. 14 to 15, the week following the state fair in Detroit. The directors reduced the admission fee from 10 cents to 25 cents.

Charles Adams

Navy Second to None is Aim of Department, Says Secretary Adams

Washington, Aug. 4 (P)—A navy second to none, efficient, well-balanced and capable of ready war-time expansion today was pronounced the objective of America's sea forces.

This was contained in a statement of policy, the first of the Hoover administration, signed by Secretary Adams and issued in poster form to all branches of the naval establishment. It superseded one issued in 1923 by Secretary Curtis D. Wilbur.

The new declaration advocated the maintenance of a fleet of all classes of fighting ships built up continuously to the limits of the London treaty and maintained at that level by a replacement program.

Outlines Policy.—Outlining "fundamental naval policy," it said "the navy should be strengthened to support the national policies and to guard the continental and overseas possessions of the United States."

With a slight change of wording, this was a reiteration of a statement made in Wilbur's enunciation of policy.

The latter contained an outright declaration against the further construction of small cruisers which was omitted by Adams, who simply called for the maximum cruiser tonnage allowed by the London treaty with no reference to the size of the vessels.

He stressed, however, superiority of armament and wide radius of action as "the most important considerations in designing fighting ships."

A wholly new policy looking toward "industrial mobilization" in case of war, called for the determination of emergency material needs, plans for their procurement and the coordination of these plans with those of the war department.

Develop Aviation.—The Hoover economy program was seen in provisions for assembling the active fleet each year for two months instead of three.

The policy of air craft called for completion for the rigid airships now under construction or appropriated for and for an extension of heavier-than-air activities.

It provided for developing the types of airplanes best suited for increasing the effectiveness of naval vessels and for scouting and patrol work.

Greater emphasis than heretofore was given to the function of supporting American foreign commerce and aiding in development of the American merchant marine.

Provision was made for keeping up to date detailed plans for rapid acquisition and conversion of merchant vessels to naval use in time of war.

Increased activity in radio communication was indicated by a new policy "to provide and operate a net-work of long range radio stations for communication with all parts of the world and direct with overseas possessions."

Tourist Promoters May Not Get Paid

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 4 (P)—Whether Fred George and Professor E. C. Prophet, of Michigan State college, who are supervising a state-wide resort and tourist survey, will be paid, seemed to be a question today.

Some time ago the state administrative board appropriated $10,000 from the state advertising fund for the work. The act provides every dollar spent must be matched by the tourist and resort associations and must be spent for advertising. Although it is understood the associations favor the survey and have agreed to match the expenditure, O. B. Fuller, auditor-general, took the position he is without authority to meet vouchers. If the associations send in their $10,000 that money can be spent to pay the salaries of George and Prophet. Otherwise they may have some difficulty collecting, it was indicated. Prophet is stationed in the upper peninsula; George in the lower.

Violence Features Strike In Havana

Havana, Aug. 4 (P)—Sporadic outbreaks of violence continued today to mark Havana's general strike as workmen met secretly to consider extending indefinitely the walk-out, which originally was intended to last 24 hours.

Several shooting incidents between strikers and policemen, in which, so far as could be learned, no one was injured, two attempts to blow up street cars, stoning of others and distribution of strikers' literature this afternoon had resulted in 28 known arrests. Among the arrested was Jose Liera, leader of striking motorman and conductors, who was taken, police said, with 25 revolvers in his possession.

Hoppers On Wing Cover More Ground

Washington, Aug. 4 (P)—Reports that grasshoppers infesting South Dakota and Nebraska have developed into the flying stage, menacing a wider area in their ravages, were received today at the agriculture department.

Dr. W. H. Larimer, entomologist, said because they can fly 40 miles daily there appears to be little hope of full control of the pest this season.

Labor Leader Warns Of Jobless Revolt

New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 3 (P)—President William Green of the American Federation of Labor today warned of "a rebellion of the army of unemployed which will upset our present political system unless industry and government cooperate with labor" in the current industrial depression.

Green spoke before the 46th annual convention of the Massachusetts Federation of Labor.

CAPONE CASE RECORDS WILL BE OPENED UP

Washington, Aug. 4 (P)—The federal government intends to keep no secrets about the Scarface Al Capone case and will throw open to the public all available information as soon as the gangster is through with the courts.

This was the answer of Attorney General Mitchell to questions about a reported agreement between Capone and federal officials concerning his plea of guilty.

The government's case against the most widely publicized racketeer was momentarily disrupted when Federal Judge Wilkerson in Chicago announced in court no previous agreement would influence him.

State Affair.—He later allowed Capone to withdraw his plea of guilty to income tax law violations, and set the case for September 8, when he also will decide whether Capone's plea of guilty to prohibition law violations may be withdrawn.

Mitchel today reiterated the government's stand that the problem of the gangster was primarily a state affair. He asserted most federal weapons against them were "round-about."

"There is not much satisfaction in getting a racketeer for violation of the income tax laws when they are machine gunning children in the streets," he said. "Most of the serious offenses of the gangster are committed against state laws."

As for the Capone case, the attorney general during the course of a discussion of the government's activity against racketeers handed to newspapermen the following brief statement:

Department Co-operates.—"As long as the case is pending in the courts, no statement about it can be issued from this department. The reason for this is obvious. After the case is finally disposed of in the courts, any information we may have about it here will be available to the press or to anyone who is interested."

Turning to specific federal activity against gangsters in Chicago and New York, where he said the justice department now was co-operating with immigration officials on deportable aliens as well as with internal revenue agents, the attorney general continued:

"Every time we make a move like that people think we are taking over the entire job of extinguishing rackets. It is not our job. Of course we are glad to help. But there will be rackets as long as the public in the municipalities allows them to stay."

YMCA Conference In Cleveland Opens

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 4 (P)—Our changing world which creates perplexing problems for youth in his family relations and his efforts to get along in the world was brought up for extensive consideration tonight at the opening of the twentieth world conference of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Delegates arrived from forty-eight nations, some in varicolored costumes, from India, China, Japan, the near east and Europe. They went into the meeting with 4,000 associates from the United States. The session will continue until Sunday.

Parachute Jumper Takes Pictures of His Swift Descent.—Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill., Aug. 4 (P)—Acting Corporal Garland E. Cain, of the United States army corps, who does parachute jumping "just for the fun of it," dropped into space 4,000 feet above mother earth today and landed with two rolls of film of eight exposures each depicting his descent.

Eight of the pictures taken by Cain were upward views, including closeups of his facial expressions. The other eight were downward views, showing what a parachute jumper sees when between heaven and earth.

Boy Giant Can Grow As He Pleases Now

Los Angeles, Aug. 4 (P)—Adolphe Roome, Jr., "Boy Giant," is free to continue his natural growth.

Mrs. Helen Roome today was appointed guardian of her 14-year-old son, who is more than six feet tall and weighs 225 pounds, ending a legal battle between her and Adolphe Roome, Sr., her divorced husband, who asked the right to give the boy inspectors to check his growth.

Robbins and Jones Will Go to Jail

Seattle, Aug. 4 (P)—Twice thwarted in attempts to make a non-stop refueling flight from Seattle to Tokyo Reg Robbins and Harold S. Jones, Fort Worth, Texas aviators have decided to go to jail.

When they flew into Seattle a month ago to make the flight, they were trailed by a telegram from their friend Sheriff "Red" Wright of Fort Worth.

"If you don't reach Tokyo don't come back. Take up deer ranching in Kamchatka. Keep away from Fort Worth or I'll jug you," wired their friend "Red."

EDUCATOR DIES.—Jackson, Mich., Aug. 4 (P)—E. O. Marsh, 62, superintendent of the public schools here for 18 years until his retirement in January, 1930, died in Mercy hospital this afternoon, following a long illness.

Edison's Speedy Recovery Permits Automobile Ride

West Orange, N. J., Aug. 4 (P)—Thomas A. Edison was so far recovered from his recent collapse late today that his physicians permitted him to take a half hour auto ride through his estate.

Smiling like a boy let out to play, the 84-year-old inventor walked unassisted to the open touring car he chose in preference to a sedan.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Edison, who sat beside him in the rear seat, and his son, Charles, who sat in front with the chauffeur.

An hour and a half after Mr. Edison returned from his drive, Dr. Hubert S. Howe issued the following bulletin:

"This afternoon Mr. Edison felt so much improved that he insisted on taking a short drive. "Other than this, this afternoon occasioned no marked change in his condition.

"His improvement during the past 48 hours has been so rapid that it will of necessity be followed from now on."

His son, Charles, told newspapermen as much credit for the apparent recovery was due "to the 84-year-old inventor's wife as to the doctors. He said Mrs. Edison had kept an almost constant vigil at his father's bedside.

MILK INQUIRY OPENS TODAY

Lansing, Aug. 4 (P)—The state's inquiry into milk prices and alleged discrimination against producers will open Wednesday with hearings before Herbert E. Powell, state agricultural commissioner, and other members of a special commission recently named by Governor Brucker.

The first phase of the investigation is expected to deal largely with the cost of producing milk on the farm. Later the commission will look into distribution costs in Detroit and elsewhere to decide whether the spread between prices paid to the farmer and by the consumer is too great. Powell, in accepting the chairmanship of the commission, said the objective should be to endeavor "to guarantee the producer a price which at least will meet costs."

Among the witnesses scheduled to appear Wednesday are W. J. Barnard, Paw Paw attorney and chairman, Professor E. L. Anthony, head of the dairy division of Michigan State college, W. H. Warren, of Concord, and A. L. Lot, of Coldwater.

Although the commission has no authority to fix prices Powell believes a public pronouncement of fair prices would have a beneficial effect. Some members of the commission have insisted the body should probe reports that large milk distributors have been dissipating a large share of their income in excessive salaries.

Four Suits Aimed At City of Detroit

Detroit, Aug. 4 (P)—Four suits, asking a total of $42,000 from the City of Detroit, for burns received in a firework demonstration at River Rouge park July 4, 1930, were filed in circuit court today. Twelve persons were injured, one fatally, when a bomb exploded in the midst of a crowd of spectators.

Other suits, the amounts sought totaling $150,000, have been filed against Tony Vitale, of New Castle, Pa., head of the Ohio Fireworks company, which contracted with the city for the display. Those suits are pending in federal court in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Farmer Executed In Ireland for Murder

Dublin, Irish Free State, Aug. 4 (P)—David O'Shea, County Cork farmer, was executed at Mountjoy jail today for the murder of Eileen O'Sullivan, 25, a dairy maid.

At his trial O'Shea protested he was innocent. The strongest evidence against him came from a civic guard who concealed himself under a bed in O'Shea's house and listened to a conversation between the suspect and his sister. The murder was committed last February.

Muskegon Youth Is Bit By Rattlesnake

Muskegon, Mich., Aug. 4 (P)—Robert Low, 6, was bitten by a rattlesnake today while playing at his home on a farm near here. He was brought to a hospital, where it was said he would recover.

This is the second case of rattlesnake bite in Muskegon county within a week. Otto Dornbos, 15, bitten a few days ago, also is recovering.

'ALFALFA BILL' ORDERS WELLS BE SHUT DOWN

Oklahoma City, Aug. 4 (P)—Martial law was invoked tonight by Governor W. H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray to choke off the flow from 3,106 oil wells in prorated fields of Oklahoma.

The drastic move was Murray's long-awaited answer to purchasers of crude oil who refused his demand to post $1 per barrel prices. The present top price is 50 cents.

His executive order, issued after national guardsmen had entered the Oklahoma City field and brought about the closing of many of its gushers, established martial zones for 50 feet around all but "stripper" wells in the state. It directed that the national guard maintain military control "against all orders whatsoever except an order from the president or the supreme court of the United States."

Many Wells Closed.—Mobilized on verbal orders of Adjutant General Charles F. Barrett of the national guard, troops were moved to the Oklahoma City field this afternoon. Detachments, accompanied by Ciroco Murray, the governor's oil representative bearing a colonel's commission, visited field offices of producing companies and in a few minutes the great valves were twisted and wells were closed.

Fourteen wells, including several of the Sinclair Oil and Gas company, and the Champlin Refining company, avowed opponents of the shutdown, were closed before the order was signed and sealed at 5:25 p. m. Offices of the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company, dominant field producer, were not visited but the company closed 14 wells voluntarily.

Says He Needed.—No opposition to the closing of the wells was expected in the field themselves, but the oil purchasers and others have indicated they will lose no time seeking relief from the courts.

The voluminous order declares the shutdown is necessary to conserve natural resources of the state. It includes an attack on the Sinclair and Champlin companies, by which have transportation, refining and marketing facilities for their production. It charges an intrigue by Sinclair to seek a means of peopling Murray "because the governor blocked efforts to repeal the oil laws," allegedly made in order to depress the price of oil against the best interests of school children of the state who benefit on a price percentage basis from oil produced on state school lands.

Lewis Sentenced 7 1/2 to 10 Years For Welfare Fraud

Detroit, Aug. 4 (P)—Alex F. Lewis, the $130-a-month welfare department clerk whose desire for luxury led to a $207,000 fraud against the city, was sentenced today from seven and one half to 10 years in the Michigan State prison at Jackson today.

Lewis pleaded guilty a month ago to obtaining money under false pretenses and uttering and publishing. Recorder's Judge John A. Boyne recommended that Lewis serve the maximum term.

Judge Boyne also suggested that the prosecutor's office drop its efforts to convict Lewis as a habitual offender under the Michigan habitual criminal act as the two previous convictions, against him were for impersonating federal officers, an offense not recognized under the Michigan code.

ANTHONY DIES

Leavenworth, Kansas, Aug. 4.—Daniel Read Anthony, Representative in Congress from the first Kansas district from 1907 to 1929, died today at Hilltop Camp near Leavenworth. He would have been 81 on August 22.

HUNDREDS FLEE FROM FIRE ZONE

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 4 (P)—Hundreds of families packed goods on wagons today and fled before a wall of fire that raced through the Kaniskan National forest in the Priest river valley of North Idaho. Columns of smoke rose 5,000 feet, obscuring the sun.

Two hundred new fires, breaking out last night and today, blazed in forests of Montana, North Idaho, and Eastern Washington.

Forestry officials said underlike conditions made it possible for any of them to develop into dangerous proportions. Several of the blazes were reported to be incendiary.

Kanisku National Forest Burning Briskly; Many Others Reported

At Deer Creek, on the Kootenai forest of Idaho flames were swept over fire lines by a 29 mile wind, spreading the perimeter of this fire, regarded yesterday as controlled, to almost 90 miles, foresters estimated.

In the Kaniskan forest, north of Newport, at Biggs Creek, a line of fire 20 miles long rushed toward the Federal Forest Experiment Station at Priest River. Men were warned there to "fight hard or run" as their judgment dictated.

Flames brought down tall trees and flung them across many roads and trails.

In the Salmon and Nez Perce forests of Idaho, three dangerous fires sprang up.

The Federal Forest Service, U. S. Service and Timber Protective Associations flung about 2,000 men into the forests. The Federal warehouse at Spokane furnished supplies for 1,110 men in nine hours.

Farmer Confesses To Five Hold-Ups

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 4 (P)—Officials said today John Gogo, 48, Westford county farmer and former Grand Rapids business man, had confessed to five hold-ups, four of them in blind pigs, and several burglaries.

He was quoted as confessing that he headed a gang which held up two blind-pigs in the vicinity of Gary, Ind., another in South Haven, Mich., and another on Highway M-44, near here. Lawrence Woodward, 19, Earl Parker, 28, and Carl Kettle, 40, are held as members of the gang.

Ocean Fliers Will Get Turkish Rugs

Istanbul, Turkey, Aug. 4 (P)—Two silk Turkish rugs of great value and other gifts from the city will be presented by the governor of Istanbul tomorrow to Russell Boardman and John Polando, the aviators who flew from New York to Turkey.

The presentation ceremony will take place at the American embassy.

The fliers have neither confirmed nor denied a report current here that they will hop off for Karachi, India, Friday or Saturday.

Aged Paralytic Burns to Death

Detroit, Aug. 4 (P)—Charles Edwards, 70, a paralytic, was burned fatally today in his home in suburban Pleasant Ridge when ashes from his pipe ignited his bed. He died tonight.

Edwards had rolled to the floor and was pulled from the mass of burning bedclothes by firemen.

GERMAN BANKS REOPEN TODAY FOR BUSINESS

Officials Believe Situation Now Well in Hand

Berlin, Aug. 4 (P)—After a bank "holiday" extending over three weeks and one day, enforced by a decree by President Paul von Hindenburg, German banking institutions prepared today to reopen their doors for regular public business tomorrow.

Restrictions, especially on checking accounts, have been severe during these three weeks. The only withdrawals permitted were those for officially approved purposes such as payrolls and tax bills.

The result has been that the German public, which hitherto has been generally averse to paying by check and has preferred to settle bills in cash, has had good ground in the principles of the check system. "Checks Taken Here" was the unaccustomed notice displayed in the windows of stores and the other places of business.

Such checks were not cashable but passed to the credit of the holders, helping eventually to meet payrolls and taxbills.

Situation Improved.—Since yesterday when check transfer between banks became general, the situation in the opinion of banking experts has greatly improved and it was believed the banking machinery could be put in motion again without fear of causing runs.

Tomorrow will show whether that confidence is justified for there has been a great accumulation of deferred payments which the banks will be called upon to meet just as soon as their doors open. Financial weather men contend the portents are fair and there is nothing to indicate that the atmosphere of calm will be disturbed.

Payments into banks have largely exceeded the small authorized withdrawals and they were aided by trade activity resulting from the nationwide clearance sale of all classes of commodities which started briskly August 1.

Good Circulation.—It is fully expected that money withdrawn from banks will circulate quickly in trade and speedily find its way back to the bank again, as, because of the high bank rate, everybody will be anxious to (Continued On Page Three.)

Two Men Killed In Airplane Crash

Burlington, Vt., Aug. 4 (P)—Two aviators were killed and a third escaped injury in two airplane accidents at the Burlington airport today.

Stuart Marcotte of Derby Line, Vt., and Harold Barnick of Ammonk, N. Y., were killed as their plane fell 200 feet. Witnesses said the left wing fell off.

Two hours later Stewart Astles took his plane into the air. When at 300 feet his motor died. The flyer managed to glide down close to the ground before it suddenly crashed.

PROGRAM READY FOR VET PICNIC

Escanaba Post Sponsors Event at Pioneer Park Aug. 16

A gathering which is expected to tax the capacity of Pioneer Park, Delta county's popular big picnic site on the banks of the Escanaba river, is scheduled for Aug. 16, the date of the American Legion picnic. The event is sponsored by Cloverland Post 32, and the invitation extended by the Escanaba Legionnaires is designed to take in everybody within driving distance. Special announcements are being forwarded to other Legion posts and auxiliaries in this section of the peninsula.

The program committee promises that they will have something really worth while to offer in the way of entertainment for everybody from the youngest to the oldest, and "Bring the Gang" has been adopted as the publicity slogan for the event. There will be a platform program with a speaker as headliner, and an exhibition by the Escanaba Legion drum and bugle corps, which will shortly celebrate its first birthday anniversary. An added feature, details of which have been reserved as a surprise, is "Paul Bunyan and his wrecking crew" an attraction which it is promised will positively appear in person at Pioneer Park Aug. 16. A real Indian pow-wow is also planned.

The sports committee has announced the following lineup of events, all with cash prizes for the winners: 50 yard dash for boys and girls 8 to 12, 100 yard dash for boys 12 to 16, Fat men's race, balloon race for women, 6-man relay—Escanaba vs. Gladstone vs. Nahma; 3-legged race up to 16 years, pie eating contest, six entrants; baseball, American Legion regulars vs. American Legion rookies; horse shoe pitching contest.

Pioneer Park is easily accessible and easy to find, located on US 2-41 between Escanaba and Gladstone, and offers several hundred acres of ideal picnic and recreation grounds. Committees here are urging Legionnaires to come out and enjoy themselves Aug. 16, bringing their baskets, families, friends and neighbors.

STONINGTON NEWS

Stonington, Aug. 2.—Miss Olga Bird, assistant state club leader was at Stonington Wednesday last. She gave a canning demonstration at the Sam Sigfred home. The demonstration was given for the benefit of the "Speedy Ten Canning Club." Huckleberries were used in the demonstration.

Besides the demonstration, Miss Bird discussed the canning of fruits and vegetables. Berries should be fresh, firm and ripe before canning. They should be graded according to size. All vegetables should be canned immediately after picking to avoid the growth of bacteria. Three types of jars used for canning were also discussed. Points to be careful of in selection of jars were emphasized. Miss Bird stated that can rubbers should be bought new every year, and should be tested before using them.

All the girls in the canning clubs profited greatly from Miss Bird's demonstration. Much enthusiasm has been created as to the choice of representatives from the 4-H clubs that are to attend Camp Shaw at Chatham this year. Helja Kollil will represent the "Speedy Ten Canning Club and Oliver Granskog will represent the 4-H garden club. Oliver is president of the garden club.

They will be accompanied by their respective leaders Elna Granskog leader of the canning club and Walfred Granskog, garden club leader. They will leave Monday noon from Rapid River where they will join the boys and girls who are also going to camp Shaw. A very enjoyable week is anticipated by the 4-H boys and girls as well as their leaders.

PERSONAL NEWS

Many farmers from Stonington are planning to attend the round-up-day at Chatham August 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson left for Munising to pick blueberries last Wednesday morning. They expect to be gone at least three weeks. After spending some time in Munising they will drive to Whitefish Point on Lake Superior. An estimate of 3,000 pickers is expected to be there this year.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Lund accompanied by their daughter Ingrid and Gertrude and a son Benjamin were recent visitors in Stonington. Rev. and Mrs. Lund are parents of Oscar Lund, student pastor of Whitefish and Stonington. Hulda and Esther Olson arrived in Stonington from Chicago Sunday. They will spend their vacation at the Olson home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sundstrom of Milwaukee shipped their furniture on the boat to Stonington last Tuesday. They are moving here from Milwaukee. John Sundstrom was a former resident of Stonington. He is a brother to Arthur and Gust Sundstrom of this village.

John Norman of Escanaba plans to build a small home here and expects to move in the near future. The Normans family was former residents of Stonington.

Iron Ore Movement Slumps 56 Percent

Ore shipments from Escanaba docks in July fell far below the record of July 1930. Last year, 743,291 tons moved out during the month, and this year the total for the month was only 287,459. A comparative statement by the Lake Superior Iron Ore Association shows a similar decrease for all Upper Lake ports in July, with shipments running nearly 56 per cent under 1930 for the present year to Aug. 1.

Broad Now Editor Of Crookston Paper

Robert Broad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Broad, 1216 Eighth avenue south, was recently appointed editor of the Crookston (Minn.) Daily Times, according to word received here.

For the past year he was employed in the editorial department of the St. Paul Pioneer Dispatch, and previously was Nebraska manager for the Associated Press.

Flying patrols are estimated to be saving millions of acres of timber land in Northern Canada.

JOSEPH FRINK
Marquette — Funeral services for Joseph Frink, who passed away Thursday morning, were held Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the Emil Samuelson home, 1817 Liberty street, where the body had been removed from the Hansen and Onion Funeral Home. The Rev. Fred E. Frankson of the First Methodist church officiated.

Interment was made in Forest Home cemetery and the casket was encoined in a concrete vault. Those from away attending the funeral were Lee Frink, son of the deceased, of Minneapolis; Mrs. F. C. Avery, of Green Bay; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stovekn and family of Green Bay; L. Frink of South Pekin, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. W. Maher of Fond du Lac; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olson and family of Escanaba; Miss Dorothy Frink and Mrs. Frank Hoberg of Green Bay.

MILES THOMAS

Impressive rites of the Masonic Order and the services of the church marked the funeral services held Tuesday afternoon for Miles Thomas, Escanaba business man, whose death came Sunday morning following an emergency operation for ruptured appendix. Services were held at 2:30 o'clock at St. Stephen's Episcopal church. Rev. Thomas Foster, rector of the church officiating. Members of the Escanaba Commandery, No. 47, Knights Templar, formed an escort, members of Delta Lodge, No. 195, F. & A. M., at the services, and the Masonic ritual was used during a part of the services at the church and at the grave.

Burial was in Lakeview cemetery. Pallbearers, close friends of the family, were Attorney S. M. Matthews, Attorney A. H. Ryall, L. K. Edwards, W. R. Smith, A. H. Groesbeck and W. J. Clark.

Attending the services were Robert Wylie, of Detroit, a nephew, and Nathaniel Reese, also of Detroit, business associate and close friend of Mr. Thomas.

MRS. ERNESTINA LEISNER
The body of Mrs. Ernestina Leisner, 68, who met death in a fire at her home, Monday evening, will be taken from the Allo Funeral Home this afternoon to the residence of her son, Herman Leisner, 412 South Sixteenth street. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon, from the home at 2 o'clock, and at 2:30 o'clock at the Salem Evangelical Lutheran church. Rev. William F. Lutz officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET LINS
Funeral services will be conducted this morning for Mrs. Margaret Lins, 77, pioneer resident of Escanaba, who died Monday morning after a long illness. The services will be at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock and burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery. Mrs. Lins is survived by three daughters and one son, and a brother, Stephen Brogovich, of Chicago.

Bark River Planning New $40,000 Church

Construction work on the $40,000 church and rectory of St. Charles' parish of Bark River, to replace the church building and home destroyed by fire this spring, will begin within the next few weeks. It was announced Tuesday by Rev. Father D. J. Breault, pastor.

Plans and specifications are expected this week from E. Brielmaier and Sons, of Milwaukee, architects, and bids will be let as soon as possible after these are received. Actual work on the building will begin within two or possibly three weeks.

The building, the cost of which is estimated at $40,000, will combine the church and rectory with a tower in the rear of the church, separating the church edifice and the rectory home.

The church itself will be of brick and tile construction and its style, English Gothic. It will have one large main altar and two side altars. Its pews will have a seating capacity of 250 people. The basement of the church building will be arranged as a hall to form a social center for church and community activities. In connection with this hall will be a kitchen for the convenience of serving during various affairs.

Grading is already completed and excavation which will be done by the Bark River people themselves is starting at once. The church and rectory will be built on the site of the two buildings destroyed last spring.

Bumps In Concrete Road Are Repaired

A new device for repairing ruts in concrete pavement, known as a mud pump, is being used by the Delta county road commission on highway US-2 between Escanaba and Gladstone.

Under this system, holes are drilled in the concrete slab, and a concrete mixture is forced under the slab at high pressure until the portion of pavement is bolstered up by the "mud" from underneath. The concrete hardens under the sagging portion, and the repair job is thus made permanent.

TAKE STEPS TO PREVENT RIOTS

Negro Leaders Assured Monday Disorders Not Racial War

Chicago, Aug. 4. (AP)—Public officials, negro leaders and police pooled their efforts today to prevent a recurrence of the rioting which cost three lives and many injuries in the south side negro belt last night.

Armed squad cars cruised through the district, breaking up all large gatherings.

Negro leaders, sociologists and representatives of the city administration, agreed that the riot was the result of communist agitation and not racial troubles, sought to strike at the roots of discontent by providing food and shelter for those unable to find work.

Eviction for non payment of rent, the immediate cause of last night's riot, was ordered temporarily suspended in the district. The courts at the same time issued a warning that interference with bailiffs was a serious offense, punishable by six months sentence.

Not Bree Riots. The riot started when a crowd prevented municipal court bailiffs from evicting a 72-year-old negro woman. Before sufficient police had arrived to break up the mob, three negroes had been shot and killed. Another supposed rioter seriously wounded and three policemen injured.

Police broke up several meetings today but reported that most of them had no leaders and that no resistance was offered.

Corporation Counsel William H. Sexton called a conference at the city hall at the suggestion of Mayor Anton Cermak, who is vacationing in Michigan. Ministers, charity workers, attorneys and public officials discussed the problems presented by the riot.

Corporation Counsel Sexton said it was generally understood that it was not a race riot. "We have been unable to find any antipathy between the white people and the colored people, nor between the colored people and the police," he said.

Jobless Service Expected to Show Results This Year

Washington, Aug. 4. (AP)—An appreciable effect upon the unemployment situation during the approaching winter is expected of the employment service by Secretary Doak.

In making public a letter from the secretary of labor expressing that view, President Hoover today credited the recently organized service with a "large measure of accomplishment."

Doak reported that from April 1 to July 31 this year the service had succeeded in finding jobs for 281,769 unemployed persons.

In cooperation with state, city, and other employment services, Doak said, employment placements from April to July 31 totaled 638,689.

Since April 1 the total number of federal and cooperative employment offices has increased from 279 to 332.

Detroit Might Be Refused Right to Issue Huge Notes

Lansing, Aug. 4. (AP)—The City of Detroit may be unable to secure approval from the state loan board for the full amount of the $45,000,000 issue of short term notes it proposes to float to meet current debts, Howard C. Lawrence, state treasurer, indicated today.

Paul T. Dwyer, assistant corporation counsel, and other city officials, made application for approval. Lawrence advised them that unless a certificate can be submitted showing actual delinquencies in the amount proposed approval cannot be granted.

The city planned to borrow the money in anticipation of delinquent taxes to be collected. The officials are to appear before the loan board Wednesday with a certificate showing the amount of delinquency.

Audit of Hospital Accounts Ordered

Lansing, Aug. 4. (AP)—An audit of certain smaller accounts of the state tuberculosis sanatorium at Howell has been ordered, W. G. Stevenson, state accountant, said today. Reported discrepancies in the handling of the funds were to be checked. The audit was understood to be requested by the institution officials.

A recent general audit of institution accounts revealed all in good shape. The "stores account" a separate, minor fund derived from sales made to inmates and used for their entertainment is to be audited again. Some checks drawn against the fund have not been accounted for it was claimed.

Miss Angela Williams was shot in the abdomen. Miss Nell Williams in the right hand and Miss Jennie Wood in the side.

Miss Williams said they were driving along the highway this afternoon when a negro jumped on the running board of their car and ordered them to drive into the woods. The negro kept them captive for about four hours, she said, and then began insulting them.

Detroit. (AP)—Genevieve Finney, 19, the daughter of a Detroit police sergeant, and two young men companions, pleaded guilty when arraigned in recorder's court Tuesday on charges of robbery.

Manistee. (AP)—The Manistee plant of the American Paper Box company Tuesday was sold to Manistee interests represented by Glenn Larsen, of Manistee, and Frank Fales, of Saginaw. The company is to be operated as the Manistee Paper Box company.

Bozette. (AP)—The First National bank of Bozette, Mich., did not open for business Tuesday. An announcement by the officers stated that the bank had been closed to protect depositors. The bank, capitalized at $50,000, listed deposits of $450,000.

Lowell. (AP)—Lowell will celebrate its centennial anniversary starting Thursday with three days of festivities which will include presentation of a pageant depicting the village's history.

Crew of Pleasure Yacht Tells Who Directs Smuggling

Philadelphia, Aug. 4. (AP)—While twelve members of the crew of the pleasure yacht Allegro sailed early Monday with liquor valued at $120,000 aboard were held under $35,000 bail in Camden, N. J., customs agents here revealed tonight that the men had named "higher ups" in a huge rum running ring dominating the eastern coast.

Frank Laughlin, chief customs agent, asserted members of the crew were intoxicated when the yacht was captured and that they readily answered questions and named their employers. He said valuable papers which gave evidence against New York and Philadelphia men were found in the vessel's strongbox.

Laughlin told members of the crew told him that rum boats could land their cargo on the beach at Atlantic City "unmolested, that everything was 'fixed' there and inland. The coast guard offered the lone opposition to rum runners, the arrested men added.

Toombs Released Under Merit System

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 4. (AP)—Roy C. Toombs, 44, of Chicago, sentenced to three years in the Missouri penitentiary here from Feb. 26, 1930 for manipulations in connection with the collapse of the International Life Insurance company of St. Louis, was released today under the prison merit time system.

Toombs' sentence would not have expired until November 24, this year, but he was given three months and a few days time off for his services as an attendant in the prison hospital.

Negro Bandit Holds Three Girls Captive

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 4. (AP)—Held captive for four hours by a negro bandit, three Birmingham society girls were shot tonight when they attempted to escape from their captor after having been robbed.

Miss Augusta Williams was shot in the abdomen. Miss Nell Williams in the right hand and Miss Jennie Wood in the side.

Miss Williams said they were driving along the highway this afternoon when a negro jumped on the running board of their car and ordered them to drive into the woods.

The negro kept them captive for about four hours, she said, and then began insulting them.

When she jumped at him and attempted to get away, he started firing, she said, then fled.

23 Persons Die As Bus Plunges Into River; 21 Negroes

Georgetown, S. C., Aug. 4. (AP)—With 19 bodies recovered, search was continued late today for other victims of a drawbridge tragedy here last night from a picnic. The victims drowned when a bus carrying them ran into the draw and plunged into the Santee river.

The death list was placed at 23 by authorities. All of the victims were negroes except Warren Newton, owner of the bus, who had rented it to the picnic party, and his 20 year old son Olin. The bridge keeper said the heavily loaded machine crashed through the protecting gates, disregarding red stop lights and into 42 feet of water.

One occupant was known to have escaped, Jerome Frazier, a negro newsboy, smashed a window of the bus and swam to shore.

A coroner's inquest held over the body of Harold Drayton returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

Ina Claire, Gilbert Marriage Dissolved

Los Angeles, Aug. 4. (AP)—Ina Claire, stage and screen star, was granted a divorce late today from John Gilbert, romantic figure of the screen, at a brief session behind closed doors in the court of Superior Judge Joseph P. Sprout. Gilbert was not present.

Paul Born, motion picture executive, and the actress' secretary, Stena Larson, appeared as corroborating witnesses. At the hearing it was announced a property settlement had been made out of court.

Later, in the offices of his attorney, Gilbert denied there had been a property settlement in the usual sense of the term, stating he had merely reimbursed Miss Claire for certain expenditures while she was his wife.

Heavy Flood Takes At Least 4 Lives

Tampico, Mex., Aug. 4. (AP)—Four persons are known to have perished in Tampico and it is believed many more died in other towns as the result of a flood which inundated 25,000 square kilometers of territory in southern Tamaulipas and northern Vera Cruz today.

A large part of Tampico was under three feet of water and several villages along the Panuco and Tamez rivers are said to have disappeared under the flood waters.

Numerous human bodies and hundreds of head of cattle were reported to have floated down the swollen rivers to the sea near here during the day, indicating a heavy loss of life at interior points.

The property damage is expected to run into millions as loss of crops and cattle on a large scale is reported from the inundated farm country.

Special Session of Congress Is Urged

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 4. (AP)—Mayor Daniel W. Hoan, of Milwaukee, today mailed letters to mayors of 100 cities of the United States, asking them to urge the calling of a special session of congress to consider unemployment relief.

Replies to letters sent previously to mayors of the major cities indicated that all except Mayor Thomas A. Tully of New Haven, Conn., approved Hoan's suggestion. John L. Grunwald, assistant secretary to Hoan, said.

WORLD FLIERS BEHIND RECORD

Pangborn and Herndon Have Small Chance in Globe Race

Tokyo, Aug. 4. (AP)—Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon were believed tonight to have lost their race around the world to lower the record of eight days, 15 hours and 51 minutes set a month ago by Wiley Post and Harold Gatty.

Whether Pangborn and Herndon were flying over the 2,400 mile dangerous overseas course to Nome, Alaska, or were held at Khabarovsk, eastern Siberia, by bad weather was uncertain as the hours dragged by and communication with Khabarovsk failed.

But after flying 9,350 miles from New York in an attempt to lower the record, the aviators at 9 p. m. (7 a. m. E. S. T.) were 29 hours and 10 minutes behind Post and Gatty's departure time from Khabarovsk. With a slower plane than their rivals, the chances for Pangborn and Herndon to beat the record were considered negligible.

The fliers, however, had expressed determination to continue their air voyage to New York. A wing of their plane had been repaired after being damaged on arrival at 3:50 p. m. (1:50 a. m. E. S. T.) yesterday following a perilous flight of 950 miles from Chita, Siberia, through rain and fog that hid the Khingan mountains from view and made their landing safely a combination of good luck and excellent navigation.

Infamous Gangster Sought In Kidnaping

St. Louis, Aug. 4. (AP)—City and county police continuing their work in connection with the "unsuccessful attempt" Monday to kidnap Oscar Johnson II, wealthy 35-year-old son of one of the founders of the International Shoe company, tonight were seeking Tommy Hayes, notorious gangster, as a principal in the plot.

Two men, accused of being the pair that held up Johnson late Monday at the point of a shot gun just as he drove away from his mother's 7,000-acre estate at St. Albans, Franklin county, and released him when they became alarmed at the vigorous struggle he put up, were held in jail without bail. The men, Felix McDonald, 28, and John Davitt, 26, were charged with kidnaping and with robbery with a deadly weapon.

Publisher Escapes Injury As His Big Plane Turns Over

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., Aug. 4. (AP)—Joseph Patterson, publisher of the New York Daily News, flying his large amphibian with two companions today, experienced what he termed his "first crack up" but all escaped injuries. Patterson was at the controls when the plane turned over in an attempted takeoff and was demolished.

The publisher had taxied his large craft down the field bound for his estate at Osneston, N. Y., when the plane suddenly lurched and heeled over.

In the ship with Patterson were Frederick Becker, a pilot, and Charles Sutor, mechanic. The occupants extricated themselves from the battered ship before field attendants reached the scene. Patterson had switched off the ignition when he sensed a crash, and fire trucks which rumbled onto the field from Garden City were not needed.

Patterson ordered his biplane trundled from a hangar and before a crowd had gathered took off again for Osneston.

Mexican Bank Run Broken by Officials

Mexico City, Aug. 4. (AP)—Officials of the Banco Nacional de Mexico said this afternoon that they believed the run on the bank which began yesterday was definitely broken today.

The crowd of depositors who were waiting to withdraw their money this afternoon was much smaller than this morning. It was said that the bank paid out over 5,000,000 pesos (about $1,500,000) in a day and a half.

The peso also returned today to more nearly its normal relation to the dollar when it was quoted at 3 to 1 for the first time since the Calles monetary reform went into effect a week ago. The bank of Mexico was paying 2.75 pesos for a dollar at noon and some other banks were selling dollars for 2.80.

settle outstanding liabilities without delay.

Today tentative efforts to loosen the shackles on banking were made. Such actions were made by one or two banks which in view of the favorable outlook, took it upon themselves to treat their customers with liberality, but from all accounts whatever small concessions were granted, were not abused.

Savings banks, with their millions of small depositors, are being treated more circumspectly than are commercial institutions, for the authorities have taken the position that nothing would be more deplorable than failure to meet the demands of humble people who have been stinting themselves during the last three weeks.

Not until next Monday will the present restrictions, under which only fifty marks can be withdrawn from any account, be released.

"Horse-trading day," observed in Dixon, Ky., the day the spring term of criminal court opens, is the community's biggest day of the year.

VANDERBILTS ARE DIVORCED

Reno Court Gives Decree to Wife; Hearings Behind Closed Doors

Reno, Nev., Aug. 4. (AP)—Rumored last minute attempt by her husband at a reconciliation failing, Mary Weir Vanderbilt went into divorce court here today and had her marriage to Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr. dissolved.

The decree she obtained from Judge Benjamin F. Currier was absolute. The proceedings took place behind closed doors. There were only two witnesses—Paul Walters, who established proof of Mrs. Vanderbilt's residence here, and Mrs. Vanderbilt herself. Vanderbilt did not appear, but was represented by his attorney.

No Reconciliation. Terms of a property settlement were not divulged. Neither were those of an alimony agreement, which is understood, however, to have provided for payment by Vanderbilt of "in excess of $500" each month. Although their attorneys said "a reconciliation was impossible" there were reports today that Vanderbilt had attempted to patch up his family troubles, but that Mrs. Vanderbilt had refused to consider the matter. Today she would not deny that they had conversed last night, simply stating she had "no statement to make."

The divorce was the second for both. Vanderbilt was divorced here in 1927 by Rachel Littleton of New York, and some months later Mrs. Vanderbilt got a decree against Walter Hancock Logan, Chicago and Los Angeles broker.

Farmer Sentenced To Two Life Terms

Nowata, Okla., Aug. 4. (AP)—W. R. Bates, 66-year-old farmer, who killed three farmers near Lenapah, Okla., last Saturday, was sentenced today to serve two life terms for the slaying of two of the victims, T. C. Huffman and W. H. Owings.

Another sentence for the slaying of Bill Bay was deferred. Bates pleaded guilty when arraigned on the three murder charges. He told the court the killings "resulted from 'old grudges.'"

Fitzgerald Finds A Kiss Is Cool

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 4. (AP)—The appellate court ruled today that A. Fitzgerald must pay $11,844 damages because he kissed a woman while driving an automobile causing the car to overturn.

Damages were awarded to Mrs. Julia Williamson, who was injured in the crash, which resulted in the death of Gus Klein. Records showed the three, with Mrs. Lou Tressler, were driving from San Francisco to Stockton, where they all lived, when Mrs. Tressler said: "Punky, kiss me."

Angelo Meli Gives Self Up To Police

Detroit, Aug. 4. (AP)—Angelo Meli, reputed Italian gang leader who has been sought for questioning since radio announcer Gerald E. Buckley was killed a year ago, surrendered today at police headquarters. He was released after he was served with a subpoena to appear before the 22-man Wayne county grand jury.

CITY MANAGER SAVES 12 TIMES SALARY

Teaneck, N. J., a city of 17,000, which adopted the manager plan of municipal government by a slim majority last fall, would probably swamp the polls with votes of endorsement if an election were called this week.

Not only that—the tax rate has been cut ten per cent from the previous year, and the cost of municipal housekeeping has been reduced $5 per capita.

How was it done? Not through a reduction in the services being performed by the city government.

Small items tell the story. Introduction of hot patching in street repair work reduced by 40 per cent the cost of such repairs, and turned out a better job than the cold patch method formerly used.

The year before the manager plan was adopted, an appropriation of $5,000 was made for the town's dumps and three men employed.

And citizens actually are beginning to know what their government is doing. Tax bills of 1931 show on their face the distribution of the tax dollar, with comparative figures for 1930 and 1931.

PLANES WATCH FIRES Recent letting of contracts to a Lansing commercial aviation concern for the patrolling of national forests in the upper and lower peninsulas, undoubtedly will pave the way for the more extensive use of airplanes for the detection of forest fires.

Two planes will be used. One will headquarters at Lansing to patrol between Lansing, East Tawas and Mio, while the other will be stationed at Munising to guard the national forest reserves in the Munising, Raco and Kenton districts.

The Ontario provincial government was among the first to demonstrate the effectiveness of air patrol of forest regions.

HEART of LIANE

(By NEA Service) By MABEL McELLIOTT

CHAPTER XXXVI

IT WAS concert afternoon at the Miramar. For want of something more exciting to do Clive and Liane had wandered in and settled themselves to listen.

"Look back with longing eyes, and know that I will follow. Lift me up in your love as a light wind lifts a willow."

"Hold me on your heart as the brave sea holds the foam. Take me far away to the hills that hide your home."

There were tears in her eyes and she did not know it. The lump in her throat threatened to suffocate her.

Anniversary

PAGE'S ADDRESS

On Aug. 5, 1917, Walter Hines Page, the United States ambassador to Great Britain, delivered an address at Plymouth, England, on the allied cause in the World War.

And the necessity to win it has cleared the air as no other event in modern times has cleared it; and but for the millions of brave lives it has cost, this clearing of the air would richly repay all that the war will cost.

Demonstration Team Leaves For Chatham

Miss Ellen Michaud and Miss Anna Michaud, of Wells, sisters, members of the Delta county 4-H demonstration team, left Tuesday morning for Chatham, where they will compete with teams of other counties at Camp Shaw, for the honor of representing the upper peninsula at the Michigan State Fair in Detroit in September.

The demonstration team members, under the leadership of Mrs. J. P. Norton, have been preparing for the competitive tests for some time, giving their final demonstration here during the visit of Miss Olga Bird, assistant state leader, several days ago.

The girls will demonstrate the making of pockets and bound button holes.

Both sisters have achieved recognition in their 4-H work and their rating in the competitive demonstrations will be watched with interest. Ellen is in her fourth year and Anna in fifth year.

Personal News

A vacation motor trip of two weeks through Canada with ideal roads and ideal weather was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Eli A. Sayen, 369 North Fourteenth street, and their two daughters, Elaine and Nona. Mr. and Mrs. Sayen and the children returned to Escanaba the first of the week. During the trip they visited Bay City, Mich., with relatives and friends; went to Amos, Quebec, for a visit with Mr. Sayen's sister, Mrs. John Graham, whom he had not seen in twenty years, and visited in Toronto, and at Niagara Falls. The trip to Amos was made off the main highway on a narrow road of wooden foundation, but was through a section of beautiful scenery which more than made up for the inconvenience in driving.

Dr. and Mrs. William Peterson and the Peterson twins, Jim and Joan, of Detroit, left Tuesday noon after a visit here at the home of Dr. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peterson, 1906 First avenue south. Know the truth before accepting substitutes for Kotex

DON'T be confused by the careless expression, "just like Kotex." Perhaps the substitute looks the same. But demand to know more. Where was this substitute made? By whom? How? Who stands back of it? Is it hygienically safe... the kind of sanitary pad a hospital would select? Last year more than 10,000,000 Kotex pads were used in hospitals. This is the pad that meets hospital requirements! You should be equally strict in selecting an accessory so definitely related to health.

Happy Vacation Days in Michigan

WHETHER you prefer an active vacation, or one of rest, spend it in Michigan. Enjoy fishing and water sports in Michigan's 5,000 lakes and streams. Ride... play golf and tennis... camp. Or just spend your days "sun bathing" on broad, sandy beaches, or relaxing beneath shady pines.

And use Long Distance telephone service... available everywhere... to call home and office frequently and dispel worry. Telephone ahead for reservations, or notify friends when you will arrive. The surprisingly low cost of Long Distance calls will add little to your vacation budget.

VACATION IN MICHIGAN

Escaped girl Bares Harem Horrors

HIPSMA, or, in American, Rose, was sixteen—in the first blush of womanhood—when wild Kurdish tribesmen swooped down upon her home. She and her family fled for their lives.

That night, on a lonely road, came a clatter of hoofs. Rose, her mother and sister, crouched in the darkness. She heard a spatter of shots—saw her father fall—murdered.

Escaping, the grief-stricken women sought refuge with a friend in Smyrna. Here, broken-hearted, the mother soon died. And here, at length, Rose fell in love with the son of the house.

But fresh massacres broke out. The city moaned with cries of maimed and ravished. The butchers waylaid Rose's lover. She had to watch, helpless, as they sprayed him with bullets.

And now fate dealt its cruel blow. Rose and her sister fell into the dripping hands of the blood-drunk soldiers. They tore her sister away—screaming. And Rose, they flung—a slave—into the harem of that merciless wolf.

FORD REOPENS SLATE QUARRY

Hancock Man Chosen to Superintend Operations at Arvon

Sages have said that history repeats itself. Arvon, a tiny settlement buried in the wilderness twelve miles from L'Anse in Baraga county is a perfect example of this broad yet true statement.

Half a century ago, Arvon was a thriving little community of about 200 residents. Forty-two years ago the town's only industry, a slate quarry, was abandoned. Just a few months ago it was in the closing years of the last century was surveyed by engineers for the Ford Motor company and now preparations are being made there to supply Henry Ford with a quantity of slate for his private use.

Not only is it a coincidence that this little place in the wilds of Baraga county should revive as it did years ago, but it is also a coincidence that a member of the same family which operated the quarry in the nineteenth century should be in charge of operations today.

In the heyday of Arvon, Martin Cuff, a descendant of a long line of quarry men and slate makers, was in charge of operations there. He had with him a young brother, Edward Cuff, today Edward Cuff, Hancock electrical contractor, has been retained by the Ford Motor company to take complete charge of the removal of the slate required by Mr. Ford.

Of the many men who were employed at the quarry when it was being operated, the Hancock man is the only one known to be living at the present time.

Activity at Scene

Only a person fully acquainted with the art of obtaining slate from the quarry and the operations which are necessary before the slate is fit for use, such as splitting and trimming, could be retained to superintend a job of this nature. While Mr. Cuff was a boy in his teens when he worked with his brother at Arvon, it was necessary for him to learn the trade from the simplest task to the most difficult. This he accomplished in his several years of employment at the quarry.

The scene of the quarry and the little settlement surrounding has been seething with activity since Ford made his decision to obtain slate from the territory. For the past several weeks a large crew of men has been busily engaged in getting the quarry in readiness for operation, building roads to the property, and getting the settlement ready for the workers.

Ford has put in an order for 100,000 pieces of slate and just how long it will take to produce this amount is not definitely known. The quarry and slate making operations will continue uninterrupted until the work is completed, Mr. Cuff stated. Removal of the slate was scheduled to begin yesterday.

Thomas D. Cuff who has been affiliated with his father in the electrical business in Hancock for a number of years, will have complete charge of the electrical business during Mr. Cuff's work at Arvon.

Break Up Meeting

Sault Ste. Marie.—A demonstration that opened with a Communist hymn and which swung into a round of impassioned speeches against war, ended with trainees of the C. M. T. C. in charge who led the large crowd gathered at the City Hall Park Saturday night in the singing of America.

Asking that they be given attention and pledging that they desired no violence, the Communist speakers were heckled, hissed and booed by C. M. T. C. trainees and others of the crowd until little could be heard of what was being said. One speaker who desired attention, promised that if the boys in khaki would be quiet, he would permit two of their group to speak.

Following a speech in which it was claimed that "bosses" are preparing for a war, a war to be fought by the working masses and for profit to the capitalists, two C. M. T. C. trainees leaped to the platform and declared that they were forced into training and that they were looking for another war.

Automobile Accident

Iron Mountain.—Rounding a curve at a fast clip, a coupe driven by T. J. Masterson, 618 East G street, member of The News staff, turned upside down late Saturday night as he was returning from Iron River to Iron Mountain.

The accident occurred about two miles this side of Crystal Falls. Masterson crawled out through a window unhurt.

As he came around the curve, Masterson applied his brakes in passing another coupe parked on the road with lights on. He passed the car, but immediately after lost control of his own machine when it swerved back and forth on the road. The car went into the ditch on the right and turned upside down.

Legion Election

Iron Mountain.—Claude Shaw, past commander of the Bert Carpenter post of the American Legion, Kingsford, was nominated as commander for the coming year at the meeting held Saturday evening at the club rooms on Green avenue. Shaw is the commander who set a new membership record for the post. He will succeed Harry Kjiell.

With the exception of the office of sergeant-at-arms, to which Albin Erickson, Isaac Dupria and Fred Schetter, incumbents, were nominated, there will be no opposition in any of the other offices.

Ed Fetters was named first vice-commander to succeed Arthur Olson, Arthur Hardy, second vice-commander, to succeed Anton Weber, Carl Hanson adjutant

5 JAILED FOR STEALING FOWL

Party of Youthful Perkins Quintet Ends With Sentences

Five Perkins youths are resting for an aggregate of 55 days in the county jail at Escanaba, sentenced for theft of a number of chickens, resulting from their looting for a big feed with which to wind up a Saturday evening of partying and home brew imbibing.

Each of the quintet, composed of William DeCremier, David Lancour, Roy Oster, Bert Oster and Pacific Geroux, pleaded guilty to the charge and were sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and costs of $15 and 15 days in jail. Provided restitution was made to the owner for the fowl involved, Justice Algire reduced the fine to $10 and the jail term to 10 days. Four of the youths paid for the chickens.

The boys told of each having drunk several bottles of homebrew (kickless, they claimed), and then attending a party at Jos. Eagles. Later they decided they should have a 'feed' and they drove to the farm of John Geroux, near Perkins, where Lancour, driver of the auto, left DeCremier and Geroux out, returning to get them after they had 'picked off' the chickens. They then went to the Beauvais place and got potatoes and onions, following which they drove to the home of Mr. Joseph Miron, a young couple with whom Bert Oster was staying, to have them cook the 'dinner'.

Officers Spoil Party

They arrived at the couple were just getting up. According to DeCremier, the Miron's 'didn't' know the chickens were 'smoked,' we told them they were bought. Undersheriff Carney interrupted the party as the chickens were cooking and they hid the half-done fowl in a little cellar at the side of the house. He left after questioning the group, but his 'isit' had taken the spirit out of the boys and they left shortly afterwards, for "they didn't feel like cooking them anymore then."

Farmers in Perkins district have been continually bothered with depredations of this sort. Geroux, the complainant, having lost all but 10 of a flock of over 60 chickens.

Before being sentenced the boys were severely censured for their act and told that the theft was a criminal offense, but because of their youth they were only charged with petty larceny and being dealt with leniently. They were warned, however, that should one of them ever be convicted of a similar charge in the future, there would be no mercy shown.

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. E. P. Borchert and son, Donald, returned Monday from Stevens Point, Wis., where they motored Sunday with Mr. Borchert who went there to take over his new position with the Soo Line railway, having been promoted to boiler-maker, inspector and transferred to the Wisconsin city. Mrs. E. C. Beyton of Flint, Mich., arrived here Sunday and is visiting for two weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Miller.

Roumans Again Cop Lead, Nip Greens 2 to 1, On Error

A wild throw in the sixth frame allowed a runner to canter across the plate with the winning run, and gave Roumans a 2-1 victory over Green's and the leadership in the Gladstone diamond ball league. The defeat toppled the hardwaremen from their dead-end with the restaurateurs for pass-setting honors, into second position. It was Roumans's fifth straight victory of the second half season.

It was one of the fastest games of the season and both of Green's errors figured in the Rouman scoring. The game was deadlocked at one-all until the sixth when Rouman scored from third on a wild peg. Brownley, a newcomer to the game, tossed nice ball until the sixth when Ducheyne relieved him and allowed but one hit, whiffing six men in the remaining two innings.

Score by Innings:

Greens ----- 010 000 0—1 4 2
Roumans ----- 100 001 x—2 3 0

Batteries: Trudeau and Van Mill; Brownley, Ducheyne and Swan.

Umpire: M. Kircher and A. Kircher.

Talk on Moratorium Given Before Rotes By Charles Gessner

A discussion of the Hoover moratorium and its probable effect upon Europe and of the United States, by Charles Gessner of Escanaba, was the principal feature of the Gladstone Rotary club's program at their weekly luncheon meeting Monday noon at the Legion hall.

Another pleasing portion of the program was a group of old English songs presented by George Michaelson, St. Louis, who recently returned from a year's study of music in Germany, and who attended the meeting as the guest of Attorney G. Raymond Empson. A brief, but interesting sketch of his life was given by Charles Green, whose birthday falls during the present month.

Among the guests were Walter and Howard Smith, Chicago, who attended with James T. Jones. Roy Micks as the guest of B. R. Micks, and F. M. Roberts, Soo Line traveling engineer, who was the guest of C. A. Bauer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bodreault and Archie Munro of Chisholm, Mich., visited here Saturday at the Ole Peterson home. Accompanied by Mrs. Munro and Ann Osterman, who have been visiting here for the past ten days, and Mrs. Peterson and son, Norman, they returned to their home on Sunday. The trip was made by motor.

Will Organize C. of C.

Grand Marais.—Foundations for an organization of citizens of Grand Marais for advancement of civic enterprises were laid here Saturday evening and Sunday morning when, at meetings held at the town hall, local business men elected Capt. Ora Edress temporary president and George S. Butler, superintendent of schools, as secretary, and set the night of Monday, August 10, for the formation of a permanent Chamber of Commerce.

At the preliminary organization meeting, which was called at the suggestion of J. P. Chandler, president, and W. J. Cummings, secretary of the Hiawathand Publicity Bureau, these two Sault men spoke, explaining what had been done by the organization during the present summer to promote tourist trade for Grand Marais and the other affiliated resorts, which include St. Ignace, Les Cheneaux Islands, the two Saults, Newberry, Munising and Grand Marais.

Swedish Baptists to Give Annual Concert Next Friday Evening

The second annual summer concert will be given at the Swedish Baptist church on Friday evening, August 7, at eight o'clock. Outside as well as local talent will be included in the program which is certain to afford local music lovers a rare treat. The event is being sponsored by the Mission circle. The concert is to include readings, vocal and piano solos and violin obligatos.

Mrs. Oscar Peterson of Emporia, Kas., who is well-known in local music circles, will delight the audience with selections of vocal solos. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson annually spend their vacations at Indian Lake. Mr. Peterson, who was formerly of this city was professor of mathematics at the University of Michigan and is now of the teaching staff of the agricultural college located at Emporia.

Violin obligatos and readings will be given by Edward Rogers, of Oak Park, Ill., who has established a wide reputation as an elocutionist and violinist. The speaker for the evening has not yet been selected. The program will include many local folks of talent as well.

No admission fee will be charged, but a voluntary silver offering will be taken. Refreshments will be served after the concert for which a nominal charge will be made.

Dorais Speaks to Rotarians Monday

Local Rotarians heard a splendid address Monday noon at their regular weekly meeting at the Elk's temple when Gus Dorais, football coach at the University of Detroit, spoke on the subject of "Boys Work." Mr. Dorais, a great student of psychology possessing a keen analytical mind, spoke of many of his personal experiences in relation to boys and young men in which his professional brings him in contact.

Judge Edmund Ashford delivered a splendid introductory address.

Rexalls Continue To Upset Leaders; Defeat Fords, 12-2

Handling the Creighton Fords their worst beating of the season, the fast coming Putnam Rexalls again upset the dope bucket, by plastering the Fords with a 12-2 beating on the westside grounds Monday evening. Goals were in excellent form, holding the Fords scoreless until the final inning.

The Rexalls jumped into the lead by counting twice in the first inning and putting three more men across the plate in the second. The most sustained attack was launched in the fifth when they secured five tallies. Dreydahl was given erratic support by his mates who contributed a half dozen or more glaring errors. The Rexalls outthrew the Fords 2-1 with Rob Marks and Eckdahl leading the attack.

Dreydahl was responsible for averting the whitewash when after two were out in the last frame he hit a triple with two men on the sacks. He was out when he attempted to stretch his hit into a homer.

The Central Markets had little trouble in handing the Coffey Coals another defeat, ringing up a score of 10-2. The Centrals counted four times in the third and sixth innings and twice in the fifth while the Coals shovled over lone counters in the fourth and seventh. Sam Anderson and Robertson formed the battery for the losers while Jack Williams and R. G. Hentschell did heavy duty for the Centrals. The Centrals secured 12 hits to six for the Coals.

Gray Defeats Dewey In Horseshoe Meet

Ed Gray, Tom McDonough, and Albert Ackerman were winners Monday evening in matches played in the Escanaba Daily horse shoes tournament on the Central school grounds. Gray defeated Dewey 50-10, while the latter two matches were won by default.

On Thursday evening James Lasch will meet Jack Hupler and Ed Gray and Albert Ackerman are pitted against each other.

Married women in future will not be allowed to teach in the public schools of Rapides parish, Louisiana.

Seven of England's most prominent stage players appear in support of Robert Montgomery in "The Man in Possession," his new M-G-M feature at the Gero theatre today.

THEATRES

RIALTO

Gangster jargon is even more unintelligible than the popular lingo of the sports writers. If a gangster related the story of "The Finger Points," the First National at feature starring Richard Barthelmess which is at the Rialto Theatre tonight, it would sound something like this:

"A news hound gets his nose dirty and Number One gets the dope. A couple of gorillas muscle him and the fall guy finds out he had a bum steer. Anyhow, he takes it on the lam but frames the Big Shot for a front page spill. When the crash comes they put the finger on him and give him the works—and that's a flock of rain in the face."

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Westberg of Kalamazoo, Mich., are guests here at the C. H. Swenson home on Dakota avenue.

Press and Rialto Unite to Give Tots Dance Instruction

You mothers who think your boy or girl has undeveloped talent which would give him or her success in stage dancing, or entry to the greatest possible triumphs on stage and screen, as witness the case of Marilyn Miller, are offered a free chance to find out how well grounded are your beliefs, through an arrangement of the Daily Press and the Rialto theatre with the Butler studio of dancing.

At the Saturday and Sunday matinees, in connection with the Butler Kiddie Revue on the stage and a feature picture presentation on the screen, the names of a number of children will be drawn at each performance from coupons placed in the ballot box in the inner lobby of the theatre. These will be given tests following the shows to determine their aptitude and the nine best will be trained in the American clog.

The nine given training on selection at the two performances will be given the opportunity of appearing with the Butler Kiddie Revue at the Sunday evening performances.

Some of the most famous stage and screen players have gained their entry to the professional through their dancing ability. The American clog is one of the most popular of stage dances, and Miss Geraldine Butler of the Butler dance studios, will not only personally select those to be trained, but will be in direct charge of their instruction, if chosen. To enter your child for this splendid free opportunity bring her or him with the filled coupon, which will be run within the next few days, to the Rialto Saturday or Sunday matinees.

NO SLUMPS IN PARK CAMPERS

Attendance in Michigan May Reach 10,000,000 For This Season

Lansing—Governor Wilbur M. Brucker's recent reference to the tourist and resort business as being "depression proof" seems to be borne out in the number of visitors and campers using state parks this season according to the Parks Division of the Conservation Department.

Despite a general depression felt in all businesses the attendance at the state parks now exceeds that reported for the same period last year. This includes not only daily visitors, but campers as well.

The number of campers has been increasing every year. This is due to the fact that better camping and park facilities are being provided.

The total attendance at the state's parks last year exceeded 8,000,000 people. It is considered probable that the 1931 figure will run close to or more than the 10,000,000 mark.

Bessemer Pioneer Dies
Bessemer—William L. Guyer, 68, a resident of Bessemer for 45 years, died at 10 a. m. Sunday at his home here. He had been ailing for the last few months and his condition had been serious for the last few days.

He was born at Massena Springs, N. Y., Oct. 3, 1862. The family moved to St. Paul when he was but 18 months old and resided there until 1874 when a residence was established at Rockland. Mr. Guyer had been a resident of the state since that time.

Mr. Guyer came to Bessemer in 1886 and played an important part in its development from a wayside station to an important range city. He was 24 years old when he came here and was employed by Bond and Clancy, general merchants, during the first 12 years he resided here.

He was elected city clerk in 1903 during the time Captain William Knight was mayor of the city. He held the office continuously for 22 years.

Mr. Guyer was married July 10, 1918 to Miss Mary Vomastek who survives him. He leaves three brothers, Edward S. of Denver, Louis of Ironwood, and Adolph R. of Appleton; and one sister, Elizabeth I. Guyer of Milwaukee.

Believes Coyotes Are Killing Moose

Mancelona, Mich. — William Lively, veteran of ten winters of trapping on Isle Royale, Michigan's new National Park, is the author of the latest scare about the moose population on the island, in Lake Superior off the northern Michigan mainland.

Lively believes that coyotes are making big inroads in the herds. Only the young moose, he believes, are being killed by coyotes, which would create a serious situation, and might materially affect the size of the herd. He claims to have evidence of a rapid increase in the number of coyotes on the island.

Sees Aluminum and Cork Fit for Homes

Grand Rapids (AP)—Collapsible houses, built of aluminum and cork that may be moved about as the owner sees fit, are predicted by Harvey Wiley Corbett, chairman of the architectural board of the 1933 Chicago World's Fair.

And, Mr. Corbett says he believes, folks will not even think of painting the shiny surface of these buildings. "They will weather as interestingly as wood," he says.

As he visions the home of the future, it will look like the present-day structure. The walls, he says, will be of thin aluminum sheets, lined with cork as an insulation against both panels, to make electric wiring and water pipes more accessible for repairs and changes.

Homes of the future, he predicted, will be bought with all of their furnishings in them, as automobiles are bought and fitted with accessories. He says he has no idea how soon his predictions will come true.

Trainees Compete at Rexford Range

Fort Brady, Mich., Aug. 4. (Special)—After spending a little over four full days at the rifle range near Rexford, the trainees of the four companies from Camp Cole were glad to get back to their Fort Brady. Life at the rifle range was all right in its way but the men preferred the camp at the fort with its large tents and cots and the regular mess halls to sleeping in pup tents and eating out of mess kits.

The rifle range camp had its advantages though in the fact that there was not much hard work and they had swimming once or twice every day on Soldiers Lake, a pleasure that they didn't so often possess while at the Soo. There were also the blueberry plains on all sides of the camp which lured the trainees away for hours while they filled their stomachs. The machine gun company was also out at the Rexford range this year and the camp was arranged with four company streets, there being two men to every one of the tents which occupied both sides of each street.

Many trainees earned their marksmanship and sharpshooters badges and two boys from the Copper Country won high shooting honors. One or both of these boys will represent Camp Cole at the national rifle shooting matches at Camp Perry. The awards will be given out at the same time as the track awards, after the track meet on Field Day, which is next Monday. The names of all Delta county winners will then be published in the Daily Press.

The biggest social event of the C. M. T. C. in the form of a Battalion Dance took place Friday night, immediately after the return of the trainees. It was held at the Armory of Sault Ste. Marie and thanks to the fine work of the camp hostesses, "a good time was had by all."

Major General Parker, the head of the C. M. T. Camps of the Sixth Corps Area, visited Camp Cole at the rifle range on Wednesday and reported favorably after his review of all the trainees.

Field Day, which is this coming Monday will be one of the most important for all of the young men at camp. The track

MANY WIN RED CROSS BUTTONS

Swimmers Pass Tests at Beach; More Ranger Meet Entries

Red Cross swimmer's and beginner's tests were conducted at the municipal beach yesterday by Director Joel Olson with eight persons winning the swimmer's buttons and eight winning the beginner's buttons.

Persons who passed the test for the swimmer's buttons are: John Reeves, Raymond Roy, William Mathes, Jack Promer, Bernard Brown, Leonard Gerou, Mary Alice Kennedy and E. J. Berrigan. The beginner's test was passed by: Alice McCafferty, Patricia McCafferty, Betty Jane Chynoweth, Vivian Kangas, Ellen Bourke, Kenneth Carlson, Palmer Derouin, and George Hansen.

The junior and senior life saving tests will be given for the first time on Monday and Tuesday.

More entries for the Rangers' swimming meet which will be held at the beach next Sunday were received, many of them from out of town swimmers. New entries received yesterday included the following: 12 years and under, Berthald Proehl, Rapid River; 25 yard free style, 13 to 15 years, 25 yard free style, Danie Rivers, Rapid River; 50 yard meet, the tennis and boxing finals, and other events will be held at this time. Much is expected of the Delta county men in both the tennis and track events. Of all the track events, one of the most interesting features should be the mile run because of the strong competition. Rose of Escanaba and Hammer of Wakefield, two of the Upper Peninsula's best milers will test their abilities against some very good Lower Peninsula distance men. Practically all of the track and field events will have at least one or two good and experienced entrants.

Camp Cole of 1931 will come to a close next Wednesday and the trainees will then be able to return to their homes.

BRIEFLY TOLD

The Coliseum—The Coliseum will be open tonight for the regular weekly dance. The music will be furnished from 9 to 1 by Johnnie's Play Boys of Iron Mountain.

At Tennis Match — Leo Coan, Frank Bourke, Bill Labre and Chester Buckbee, tennis enthusiasts, motored to Milwaukee Tuesday for the Bill Tilden exhibition match there last night. They are returning to Escanaba today.

CITY BRIEFS

Lieut. Walter Arntzen has returned from Selfridge Field where he spent two weeks training as a reserve officer in the United States Army Flying Corps.

Harry Wikand, of Wells, left on Saturday for a ten-day vacation visit with relatives and friends in Detroit and Flint.

Misses Betty and Bernice Pelletier accompanied by Mrs. William Arnold and son Dale visited relatives and friends in Garden yesterday.

Band Brings Crowds To St. Louis Church

St. Louis (AP)—One St. Louis congregation hears religion's clarion call in the blaring strains of a brass band.

This forty-piece organization, recruited from regular attendants at the Gospel Center, began an attempt to increase the size of Sunday night audiences. In a little more than two years it has boosted average attendance at these meetings from a few hundred to 1,000, with as many as 1,500 on special occasions.

All the band members are volunteers—none is paid. Instruments were purchased from membership dues.

HARD ON TRUSTEES

Seattle—The police department has been learning the none too gentle art of its litus, and it has been particularly hard on the trustees. These men have been acting as subjects for the different torturing holds of the wrestling art which aspiring cops have been learning. Some of the trustees have learned more of the holds than the students who are applying them.

Baltimore—The husband of a Pittsburgh woman, learning here that his wife was going to indulge in a contract bridge game for ten cents a point, rushed out to the airport. He wanted to hire a plane, he explained, to take a trip to Pittsburgh and stop his wife from entering the game. When asked his reason he explained that "she don't know a darned thing about the game."

In The Empress Eugenie Manner

Louis Napoleon couldn't resist the charming little Princess Eugenie. And one can't really blame him for being captured by a lovely lady so original that the daring millinery fashion she created is being copied 76 years later. The Fair Store is the first to show them in Escanaba with all their dash, smartness, and plumery.

"SURE, O.G.s. ARE SEALED IN CELLOPHANE

... but it's the quality inside the package that counts most."

Of course, we pack OLD GOLDS in an air-tight, germ-proof package.

Naturally, in giving you a BETTER cigarette... we want it to reach your lips factory-fresh... without any loss of the proper moisture or fragrance.

But after all, you don't smoke the package. It's what's inside that counts most.

When you smoke an OLD GOLD you smoke not only a fresh cigarette, but a PURE-TOBACCO cigarette. Entirely free of greasy, artificial flavors that burn into breath-tainting, teeth-staining vapors.

"Keep Kissable with OLD GOLDS" is no idle claim. For OLD GOLDS' clean, sun-ripened, Nature-flavored tobaccos leave no objectionable odor either on your breath, or your clothing... or in the room.

NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD
