COMISH PLANS REMOLDING OF LEGISLATURE

REPORT SUBMITTED AFTER TWO YEARS SPECIAL STUDY

Detroit, Sept. 30 (AP)—Reorganization of both houses of the state legislature, the senate on a territorial basis and the house on a population basis, is proposed in a plan submitted to the Wayne county board of supervisors today by a special committee appointed two years ago.

George Welsh, city manager of Grand Rapids, who has endorsed the proposal, said it was the most scientific study of apportionment ever made in the United States and predicted it would become a textbook on the subject for guidance of other state legislatures.

In submitting the plan, Robert D. Wardell, chairman of the special committee, said it should prove as acceptable to the rural as to the urban sections of the state if its provisions were explained fully.

Same Memberships

Under the proposal, the membership of the senate would remain at 32, elected from their present districts. The house membership would remain at 100, to be elected from districts reapportioned every 10 years.

The rule proposed for reapportionment would divide the total population by 100. Any county containing less than one-one hundredth of the state population would be attached to some contiguous county or counties to form a representative district.

Any city in a county with a population in excess of 100,000 could be divided into legislative districts, at the discretion of the board of supervisors, with the provision that not more than one-half of the representation of the city could be elected at large.

Equal Representation

In any county constituting a representative district entitled to ten or more members, the board of supervisors would be entitled to divide the county into legislative districts.

ORDER JURY IN CANNON'S CASE

Will Determine if Bishop Violated Corrupt Practices Law

Washington, Sept. 30. (AP)—The case of Bishop Cannon is to be laid before a grand jury. Evidence obtained by the senate campaign funds committee will be presented to determine whether the churchman's anti-Smith activities of 1923 were in violation of the corrupt practices law. District Attorney Rover announced today he would take this action. The inquiry is to begin next Thursday.

Miss Ada L. Burroughs of Richmond, Virginia, treasurer of the state anti-Smith Democratic committee, headed by Bishop Cannon, will be included in the grand jury investigation also, he said. Subpoenas were sent out for more than a score of witnesses. It was understood the list includes those who were called by the senate committee in inquiring into the charge of Representative Tinkham, Republican, of Massachusetts, that Bishop Cannon had failed to account for a major part of $85,000 contributed to his campaign by E. C. Jameson, a New York Republican.

Welcomes Jury Probe. The bishop has challenged the authority of the committee to inquire into his campaign expenditures on the ground that his activities were confined to one state and therefore beyond jurisdiction of the federal corrupt practices act. He has repeatedly stated that he welcomed a grand jury investigation.

District Attorney Rover has had before him for several weeks the evidence put before the senate committee by a score of bankers and political leaders. He conferred, too, with Basil Manly, the committee's investigator. Joseph S. Freylinghuysen, former Republican senator from New Jersey, sent a telegram to the committee today volunteering to testify at any time on the $20,000 which he said he gave to Bishop Cannon in 1928.

Manly said there was no record that Bishop Cannon had reported either the receipt or the expenditure of this sum.

End Testimony in Milk Price Inquiry

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 30. (AP)—Taking of testimony in the state's inquiry into milk prices was ended today. Herbert E. Powell, chairman of Governor Bruceker's special committee, said a report carrying recommendations will be prepared as soon as possible. The investigation started several weeks ago, when farmer organizations claimed they could not produce milk at the price paid them by the distributors.

Harry McDonald, manager of the Detroit Creamery company, told the commission he sees no solution of the price problem save curtailment of production. Proposals that more milk be used in by-products such as ice cream and butter are check-mated by drops in the price of these commodities when a surplus is created, he said.

PAUL DERRINGER

LEFTY GROVE

Paul Derringer, rookie Cardinal hurler, has been selected to start the opening game today and will probably be faced by the Athletics' ace, Lefty Grove, who is ranked as the greatest southpaw in baseball history.

he does, just watch us." This seemed to sum up the prevalent feeling. Although nine out of ten of the assembled experts predicted a decisive victory for the Athletics, they agreed the National League champions would be hard to stop if they get off to a winning start behind Derringer, the only freshman pitcher ever accorded the distinction of an opening world series assignment.

Connie Mack, arriving this afternoon with his championship collection of sars, maintained his usual reticence in discussing pitching prospects. There was no reason, however, to doubt he would again adopt the orthodox system of rotating Robert Moses Grove, greatest of modern pitchers, and George Livingstone Earnshaw, right-handed hero of the 1930 battle. They won the series last year, have had another great year and are primed to throw 'em past the Cardinal slug-gers again.

Williams to Start. The series schedule offers an opportunity for Mack to play his two aces exclusively in the first four games, in an attempted cleanup, with two days of travel and rest between the second game here and the third contest at Philadelphia next Monday. He has the veteran Walte Hoyt, the southpaw Rube Walberg and the young right-hander Roy Mahaffey for emergencies.

With Dib Williams, sensational youngster, slated for the shortest berth he has clinched by his brilliant work this season, the Athletics will show the first change in the lineup that won the series in 1929 and 1930. Williams replaces the veteran Joe Boley, who has a bad leg.

The Cardinals, in planning their opening defense behind Derringer, and probably southpaw Bill Hallahan in the second game, have much of their hopes on the fact that the Athletics have seldom found Sportsman's Park a happy hitting ground. The world champions lost two of their three series games here last October. They were taken over the jumps by the Browns at the local park the past mid-season and it was here that Grove's streak was stopped after 16 in a row.

The Cardinals, behind Haines, beat the great Grove in the fourth game of the last series. They are confident they can repeat, especially if the batting eyes of Chick Hafey and Jim Bottomley are as much sharper this year as their season averages indicate. Hafey captured the National League batting crown and Bottomley finished less than a percentage point behind him. Bottomley especially was a "bust" in 1930 and is anxious to redeem himself.

Summed up, the Cardinals rely on youth, exceptional speed, a strong defense and the comeback of their cleanup clouters to turn the scales in their favor. The Athletics count on the renowned pitching of Grove and Earnshaw, plus the big punch of Al Simmons, Jimmy Foxx and Mickey Cochrane to keep them on top.

Whether in honor of his forty-ninth birthday or not, Manager Street cut short his club's last workout today. It was confined to a brief batting drill, against left-handers, in which Hafey took a leading part.

State Regulation Of Traffic Lights Being Questioned

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 30. (AP)—A question as to whether the state has authority to regulate traffic lights in cities and villages was referred to the attorney general today.

According to Emerson R. Boyles, deputy attorney general, the 1931 legislature enacted a law giving the highway commissioner and the commissioner of public safety supervision over traffic lights in cities and villages, and making it enforceable.

1929 act providing such supervision, but failing to carry penalties, was repealed. After the new law conferring actual authority upon the state officials had been adopted, however, a code was passed and it re-enacted the old law which carried no penalties. Whether the code or the new act governs, is the question Boyles has been asked to decide. The code was signed by the governor on the same day as the new light law, about two hours later. Thus, theoretically, the code takes preference.

WANG RESIGNS, SZE APPOINTED

New Foreign Minister of China Named Due to Manchurian Affair

Nanking, China, Sept. 30. (AP)—Coinciding with the expressed belief of a Chinese foreign office spokesman that Japan intended to assume a protectorate over Manchuria, Foreign Minister C. T. Wang was forced to resign today because of his asserted unpopularity in China's behalf.

Alfred Sze, Chinese minister to Great Britain, will succeed Wang. Sze was credited in high official circles with having handled China's case well before the League of Nations at Geneva.

Wang was severely beaten by a mob of anti-Japanese paraders who attacked him Monday and wrecked his office. Chinese leaders and popular sentiment blamed him for failing to obtain foreign support for China in her controversy with Japan since the latter's troops occupied southern Manchuria September 18.

A spokesman of the foreign office here asserted Japanese had instigated the independence movements in Manchuria announced in reports from Japanese sources. He said evidence had accumulated indicating "the Japanese intend to put the occupied area under a Japanese protectorate, thereby placing serious obstacles in the way of a peaceful and lasting settlement of the Manchurian question between China and Japan."

Doubt of the accuracy of Japanese reports was expressed by the spokesman. He said no information had reached Nanking and Shanghai through Chinese channels that leaders in four provinces of Manchuria were planning to erect a republic independent of the remainder of China.

per cent of the railroad bonds now legal investments for trustees, savings banks and insurance companies in New York and other states would become illegal holdings for their investors. Thus, they argued, the lines would be deprived of an extremely important source of financing.

Shippers from throughout the country flocked to hearings in Washington, Chicago, Atlanta, Dallas, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, and Portland, Maine, to oppose the increase.

They termed the proposal to increase rates during the present depression "economically unsound." In addition, the opposition brought the economists and statisticians to the hearings in an effort to prove shippers would use trucks and waterways to a greater extent than ever before.

The commission at the outset of hearings ruled that no evidence of railroad wages would be considered because jurisdiction over wages invested in the United States mediation board and not the commission.

If, because of the resumption of brewing, the per capita consumption of dairy and poultry products should drop to the same level as in the days of the saloon, agriculture would sustain a tremendous loss and one which it could ill afford to bear."

"It stands to reason that if the American people should spend a large percentage of their earnings for beer, they would have just that much less to spend for food, clothing and shelter."

BOND ISSUE TO HELP NEEDY IS ASKED OF STATE

diversion, but in this emergency he believes the huge highway revenue should be tapped. Lennon declared the state is face to face with the worst situation in history. He said the weight tax on $700,000,000 worth of automobiles is not providing one cent of relief for property owners and the time has come when that levy must be considered a tax on personal property rather than purely a producer of highway funds.

"The logical thing at this time is to call a special session of the legislature and institute a bonding issue of $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 giving the administrative board discretion to issue bonds only as needed," he said. "The school districts must be helped last dollar and may have to close their schools unless relief is offered," Lennon said.

Urges Bond Issue. McBride asserted a bond issue was more imperative now than it was in war times. He said the ability of the people to pay is only one half of normal. He urged a $30,000,000 bond issue to be retired by highway fund diversion during the next 10 years. The issues would take care of the entire state tax this year.

the number of factory workers employed. The average pay of those now employed appears from this calculation to have been scaled down, whether through cuts in wage rates or reduction of working hours, by between 10 and 15 per cent.

The statisticians warn, however, that these figures easily are susceptible of error as some of the factors entering the calculations necessarily are estimates. Class one railroads, which have made no wage cuts, now are employing 1,320,000 men, at a total of annual wages considerably in excess of $2,000,000,000.

If the bureau of labor statistics' survey of typical industries is taken as an index to conditions throughout the wage-paid occupations, each person now gainfully employed averaged better than $23 a week. The bureau did not calculate the average pay envelope in past years so there is no direct comparison available.

Calculations in regard to factory workers, however, show their average weekly takings were approximately $25.40 in 1929 against $23 plus this year. All figures entering into these calculations exclude salaried workers.

Jobless Relief Aim Of Bishops Blame Confusion

Denver, Sept. 30. (AP)—Relief of the suffering caused by unemployment was set out as the primary duty in the pastoral letter today of the bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church.

The letter, read by the Rt. Rev. James De Wolf-Perry of Rhode Island, presiding bishop at the closing of the church's fiftieth triennial convention, said the present condition of society may be summed up in the one word, "confusion."

All employers were urged to work for the adoption of plans to coordinate production and consumption, insure continuity of employment and provide security of income to the workers.

It was learned a proposal to force the resignation from the house of bishops of Robert Leroy Harris, retired bishop of Marquette, had been discussed by the house of bishops meeting in council. It was decided to take no action at this convention. Bishop Harris was divorced and remarried after he resigned his jurisdiction in 1929. He still retains his membership in the house of bishops.

Much Canning Has Been Done Here

An unusual large quantity of fruit and vegetables has been canned this season, not only in this community but throughout the entire country. Fruit jars, crocks and other containers are almost a rarity after the past few weeks of canning and pickling done by housewives during the "Can the Surplus" campaign.

Bumper crops and an abundance of fruit, all selling at a low cost, and many families raising their own, has enabled many of the unemployed to can a great deal for the coming winter.

Fruit jars are scarce, try to buy a dozen and you will find that most of the stores have been sold out for the past few days. Anyone who has fruit jars, or crocks, not being used, can sell them by advertising the goods.

One woman selling out a few articles of furniture has so many calls for fruit jars that she in turn called up several friends to help to find fruit jars for the inquiring customers.

"Can the Surplus" and see that all fruit jars are used this season.

Club Boy Finds Value of Good Potato Culture

One 4-H Club boy demonstrated that good potato practices pay even in a year of low prices.

Charles Clifford and his father, A. W. Clifford, of Banat decided this year to put these theories to the test, so they both planted 1-40 of an acre side by side, both used seed of equal quality. Charles fertilized in the row, and his father broadcast his fertilizer, and both treated their potatoes with corrosive sublimate to control scab, scurf and black leg on the potatoes. The difference in the treatment of the plots was principally that on Charles' plot the potatoes were dusted with copperlime dust to control leaf hoppers, blight and other diseases, while Mr. Clifford's plot was not so treated.

The potatoes were dug. Charles' plot yielded 570 pounds of potatoes, and his father's 350 pounds. At this rate Charles' plot yielded 380 bushels to the acre while his father's was yielding 230 bushels, or 120 bushels to the acre more due principally to the dust that was used. This dust would cost about $7.50 per acre for 5 applications and 130 bushels of potatoes at 25 cents a bushel would be worth $30. Who wouldn't spend $7.50 to receive $30.00? This large increase received this year due to dusting is accounted for by the large amount of leaf hoppers that were present, that were controlled on Charles' plot by the use of the dust.

THE RED CROSS

The upper peninsula conference of the American Red Cross, held in Escanaba yesterday, was one of the series held this year throughout the nation in commemoration of the founding of the organization fifty years ago.

To designate the exact day, it was on May 21, 1881, that Clara Barton became the first president of the American conception of the Red Cross idea.

Conceived originally as an organization to mitigate the horrors of war, its activities now include assistance to stricken peoples throughout the world from whatever cause.

AN UNFORTUNATE INCIDENT

The shooting to death of a bar-room patron at Loretto by a trooper recently was an unfortunate occurrence, which is to be greatly regretted both from the standpoint of its reflection on the state police organization and the tragedy that has befallen the victim and his family.

Even though the shooting may be justified, some of the public will be inclined to condemn the action. Evidence gathered in the preliminary investigation indicates that the trooper was forced to shoot in self-defense when the angry and drunken mob surged in on him after they had knocked down his fellow officer and refused to heed his warning to stand still.

Those who have always admired the state police deeply regret the incident because they fear it might cast unsavory attention toward the organization. There is really nothing wrong about the state police. Such shootings will occur in any department of police work.

The state police have built up a good reputation for themselves in this state by their efficiency and keen devotion to duty. They are a necessary complement to the law enforcement departments of cities and counties for they are not handicapped by territorial limits. Our neighboring state of Wisconsin, which has been overrun by bank robbers and other types of bandits in recent weeks, woefully lacks this kind of protection, and as a result there has been a public clamor for the establishment of state police there.

COMMUNITY SHOULD MOBILIZE

EVER since last spring the American public has been led to believe that prosperity was just around the corner, and that the unemployment situation was not as bad as some would have us believe. But with winter just around the corner more serious thought is being given the entire situation by welfare unions, members of commerce and other organizations over the country.

families must not want for food and during recent weeks a number of Michigan city organizations have been sponsoring canning bees. These have been conducted by the various church organizations as well as being carried on in central locations.

Fruit and vegetables are going to waste all over Michigan on account of abundant crops, and this holds true in the Cadillac District. All that is necessary is for some organization to get farmers and city housewives or ladies' organizations of the churches together and conserve this waste of food for the needy during the coming cold wintry months.

Churches can hold canning bees during the coming fortnight. The public can help in providing fruit cans as most local stores are all sold out of them.

Local clubs can arrange to go out into the rural districts and bring in fruit and produce from farmers who are exceedingly busy trying to get their late crops harvested and need their own labor to get farm activities settled before snow flies.

What organization will head up such a movement to bring these four groups together?

AIR TRANSPORTATION PROGRESS

THE steady increase in commercial aviation's safety factor is strikingly illustrated in the recent report from Assistant Secretary of Commerce Clarence M. Young.

During the first six months of this year commercial transport planes flew a little better than 20,000,000 miles, and nine passengers lost their lives. In the first six months of last year the planes flew less than 17,000,000 miles and killed 22 passengers.

The only thing that stands in the way of a tremendous boom in the air transport business is the fact that the average man still has a faint, lingering fear of trusting himself to an airplane. Let commercial aviation hang up just a few more records like this one and the last traces of that fear will vanish.

A Connecticut hospital has installed a golf course for its mental cases. Making them all bogey-men.

Only the stock of a razor company failed to drop after the London crash. Steel preferred, you might say.

High seas made Mayor Walker sick on his trip back. A wave of public indignation might have the same effect.

Anniversary

AIR RAID ON LONDON

On Oct. 1, 1917, German aircraft made its 34th raid on London, this time killing 10 and injuring 38.

The first air raid was made on London by German aircraft Jan. 19, 1915. In the 34 air raids, the enemy killed outright 865 men, women and children, and wounded over 2500.

On this date the German planes were repulsed by barrage fire before they could do any more damage.

Railway stations, churches and public buildings were thrown open to the people for protection.

A correspondent wrote: "Public buildings of all kinds which were stout enough to offer some resistance to possible bombs had open doors, and the caretakers and others of the staffs in many of the great blocks of offices and business premises were also quick in their offers to share their greater safety with any who sought it."

CHAPTER XXXVII

THE car turned into the drive before the imposing Travers residence and halted. Norma got out and looked up at the building.

"Wait for you, Miss?" asked the driver.

"The girl hesitated. Then "Yes," she said, "you'd better wait." She started slowly toward the entrance. The handsome door, set in its arch of stone, seemed forbidding. Norma pressed the bell and waited. There was no answer and she touched the electric button a second time.

Almost at that moment Tompkins head appeared in the open doorway. Norma said, "Is Mr. Travers—?"

There was no indication that the butler recognized her. His head inclined slightly. "Mr. Travers is not in. M. as. Tompkins said. He would have closed the door but the girl suddenly moved forward, put her hand out.

"Then Mrs. Travers!" she exclaimed. "It's important! I've got to see her—I've got to!"

"Mrs. Travers is not at home either. They left this morning for Miami. There's no one here now. There's no one you can see—"

"But I must!"

"I'm sorry, miss. There's no one here. Mr. and Mrs. Travers will be gone for several weeks. Why it was only last night—"

"They left this morning," Tompkins repeated imperturbably. His voice and manner were as aloof as though he were announcing guests at a reception. "I assure you, miss, there's no one here. No one but the servants."

"Oh, but Tompkins," the words broke off in a low cry. Then, "Tompkins, the girl went on, "do you know when Mark is coming back?"

"I'm sorry, miss. I haven't heard."

"You don't know when his parents expect him?"

"I'm sorry, miss. I haven't heard."

Norma turned away. Almost immediately she looked back to see the great door shut. She took a step forward, changed her mind and walked slowly to the taxicab.

"Take me back," she said to the driver, "where we started from."

IT was nearly six when Chris arrived. Norma, wearing a kimono, was lying on the bed with a blanket half-covering her.

"Hello, lamb," Chris said cheerfully. "did you get some sleep? I believe you're looking better."

"I—I've been lying here."

"Did Mrs. Bixby bring your lunch?"

"She came, Chris. I wasn't hungry and couldn't eat."

"But that won't do! Say—are you trying to starve yourself? You've got to eat, don't you know that? You've got to eat if you're going to hold your job, young lady."

THERE was a pause. Norma said, "I suppose I'll have to tell Mr. Stuart—"

"He knows already. About the divorce, I mean. He was awfully nice, Norma. Said you could take a few days' rest if the doctor thinks you should. By the way, I made an appointment for you with Dr. Willoughby Monday."

"Norma was sitting on the side of the bed. She reached for Chris' hand. "You're so good, Chris," she said in a voice that was not quite steady. "There's nobody in the world so good as you are! I—I don't deserve all you've done for me."

"Oh, don't you say, for heaven's sake, do you want me to sprout wings? Don't deserve anything I've done! Why, I haven't done anything at all! Just nothing! But if I could there wouldn't be a thing on this earth too good for you! Let me tell you, Norma, you've had a few bad breaks but things are going to change. You'll see. It's just when everything looks blackest they suddenly come out right."

"I wish I could believe that."

"Believe it? I know it. Haven't I seen it happen a dozen times? Now if you feel like coming downtown tomorrow we'll have a talk with Jim Daniels. He's the lawyer I told you about. We can go in and see him at noon."

"Do you think it will do any good?"

"Well, it's worth a try. He's one of the best lawyers in Mariboro."

The bait was effective. Norma arose and dressed rapidly. She agreed to spend the night at Chris' apartment. When they arrived there they had the place to themselves.

Chris said, "Dorothy was away and I'll keep her until late."

The two girls cooked dinner and served it on the gate-leg table exactly as they had done so many evenings before. Chris' inspired cooking, the familiar surroundings and comfortable atmosphere worked a subtle magic. Gradually Norma relaxed. She dropped the barrier of reserve and poured out her heart to Chris. She admitted going to the Travers' home that afternoon. Norma wept a little but not with the tempestuous tears of the night before.

"If Mark were only here!" she said once brokenly. "If I could only just talk to him!"

"He's bound to be back before long. I can't help feeling that when he comes all this can be straightened out in no time."

"But why is he staying so long? Why doesn't he come back soon?"

"Oh, you never can tell about business, you know. I have an idea his father had something to do with it but he can't keep him away forever. Things are not nearly so bad as they seem, darling. You'll find that out in a month or two."

"A month is a terribly long time!"

"Nonsense. Anyhow it may not be that long. Brad will know when he does come. By the way—Chris hesitated—"Brad's wife is in Reno."

Norma looked up quickly. "Does that mean—?" she began.

"I don't know if it means anything or not. She's supposed to be visiting friends there. I just happened to know because I mailed her a check the other day."

THERE was a silence between them. After several moments Norma said, "You like him a lot, don't you?"

"Like Brad? Why, of course. Everybody does."

"I know. But I mean—if she did—well, it things did turn out that way, do you think you might—"

"Good gracious! Don't get notions of that sort in your head. Brad Hart has one wife he doesn't seem to care much about. He doesn't want another. Oh, well—life's a queer business, kid. We'll have a talk with Jim Daniels tomorrow. I'll call in the morning and arrange the time."

They went over arguments that had been rehearsed several times before. It was Chris who said presently.

"I've been trying to figure this out, you know. I've been trying to figure what's at the bottom of it all. Do you think it could have been that Stone? What's his name—Hollis Stone?"

"The other girl shook her head. "I've thought of him," she said slowly. "But—there isn't any reason why he should want to hurt me. He was a friendly really. Of course it was a shock seeing him at Blue Springs and having all that terrible nightmare come back again. But if he wanted to tell Mark why didn't he do it then? Oh, Chris! Norma buried her head in her hands. "Oh, it was all so terrible. I thought—I thought it was gone and past and I could forget the way you said—"

"It is past and you must forget about it!"

"But how can I now when Mark knows?"

Chris got to her feet and crossed the floor impatiently. "Norma," she said, "you've got to have a talk with Mark. You've got to tell him your side of things!"

Days slipped and no opportunity came for that talk. The first weeks of February dragged by and no news of Mark reached

Mariboro. Norma and Chris had two sessions with Jim Daniels, the lawyer. Daniels asked questions and promised to make investigations. He wrote some letters. He seemed optimistic when he talked to Norma. Privately he informed Chris that the case could not be reopened. The divorce had been granted. Beyond the shadow of a doubt legal technicalities had been observed. Unfortunately. That was the way Jim Daniels dismissed the affair.

Chris kept all this from the younger girl. She told Norma that Daniels was hopeful but the matter required time. Chris kept up the farce during those early weeks because she was worried. There were nights when she could not sleep, worrying about Norma. Too many times she had heard her say, "I don't want to live without Mark! I don't want to live if he doesn't love me!"

CHRIS found excuses for inviting Norma to the apartment. As much of the time as possible she spent with her. If she could not be with her for an evening she tried to see that someone else was.

Dr. Willoughby said everything depended on Norma's mental outlook. She must keep up her general health, be cheerful and optimistic. The doctor was very insistent on these points. He repeated them each time Norma came to his office.

Norma disregarded every warning. She had retired again behind that barrier of reserve which even Chris could not circumvent. Cheerful and optimistic she certainly was not. Norma was inhabiting a world of her own. Not a pleasant world. She'd her work mechanically, said very little and seemed to grow paler daily. Nervous mannerisms she had never shown before became apparent. Nothing interested her.

One day during the last week of February something happened which Chris regarded as a blessing. Dorothy Phillips received a wire from her sister in California. There was a vacancy in the office in which the sister worked. If Dorothy could come at once the job would be hers.

Within three days Chris was alone in the apartment. Dorothy's trunk packed and gone and Dorothy herself on a west-bound train. Three days more and Norma's dresses hung in the vacated closet space. Norma had not been eager to move but Chris had explained it as a favor to herself. She could not keep up the rent alone, she said. If Norma would not come she would have to give up the apartment.

For a while things appeared to go better after that. Less strain for Chris in trying to see that Norma was occupied. No need for constantly manufacturing excuses to include the other girl in her plans. It was easier to see that Norma had substantial means.

There were days when Chris told herself Norma was happier but they were sure to be followed by periods of depression. They never talked about the future and as time passed Norma said less and less about Mark.

A photograph in the Press one evening informed them that Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Travers had returned from a six weeks' stay in Florida. Chris read the paragraph aloud and Norma glanced at the picture but she made no comment.

Brad Hart, whom Chris questioned frequently, could furnish no news of Mark Travers. He was still in France from all that could be learned.

Gradually March dragged to a close. It had come in like a lion and went out the same way with a terrific snow storm. The bad weather continued and Norma developed an annoying cold.

Then one day Chris telephoned Bob Farrell and arranged to meet him at dinner. Over the restaurant table Chris said anxiously, "You've got to help me, Bob. Something must be done!"

THE HOME THAT USED TO BE

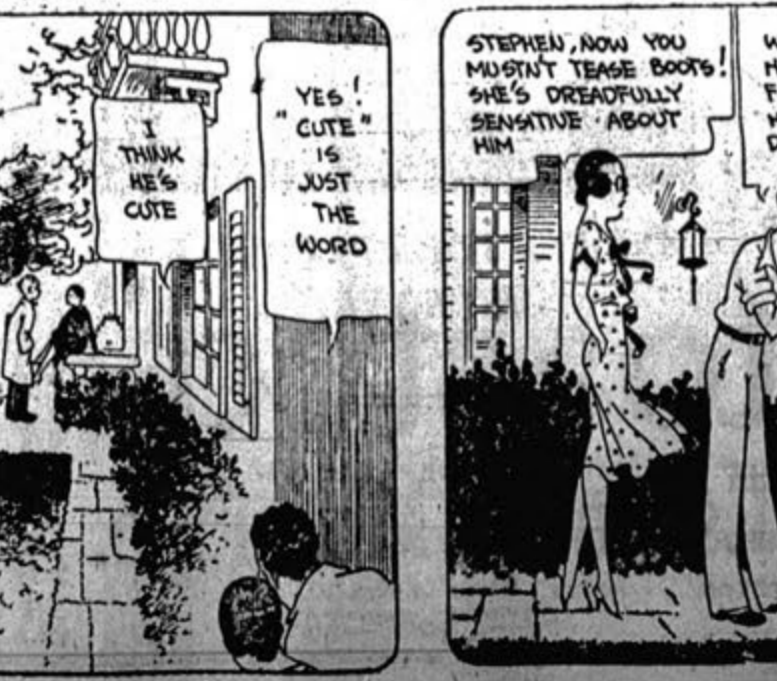

A husband shut the door, A woman turned the key, And left the house forevermore, The home that used to be. For he had tired of stairs, A fellow has to climb, And she had tired of all the cares, That take a woman's time. Yet other stairs there are, For life is all a hill, And none escapes so very far From duty, what you will. Shut all the door behind, You cannot move away From toil and trouble, you will find New places each new day. At times our journeys touch, They do not seem so glad, They do not seem to have as much Today as once they had. His face is white and thin, Her smile I seldom see— Perhaps they wish that they were in The home that used to be.

DUCK HUNTING STARTS TODAY

Season Opens at Noon; Hatch in Marshes Up to Normal

Waterfowl hunting will get under way at noon today in Michigan, and will extend through to midnight, Oct. 31. Duck hunters will be obliged to forego their time-honored custom of rising hours before day-break on opening day, to be in the blinds in time for the opening barrage, and it is not improbable that as a result of this change in regulations few hunters will take to the marshes the first day of the season. Early morning shooting is counted the best and many gunners are likely to feel that an afternoon trip to the blinds is not worth bothering with.

This delay in the opening hour for the first day of the season, however, is bound to mean a material saving in ducks and will give the birds a half a day of light shooting in which to become gun-shy before the real attack goes into action. After opening day the shooting hours will be from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset, as in former years.

The season for Jack snipe and gallinules or rails, is not changed by the federal regulations. The season of these birds will remain the same as those set by the legislature. The Jack snipe season starts at 12 o'clock noon, October 1 and ends the night of December 15. Ten snipe may be taken in one day; 20 may be in possession at one time and 50 may be taken in the season. The gallinule or rail season is from 12 o'clock noon October 1 to November 20. The bag limit on gallinules is the same as for snipe. The following table lists the hours during which ducks may be hunted each day of the year, and which the department will use for law enforcement purposes. The time for duck hunting runs from a half-hour before sunrise to sunset, eastern standard time being used in the table:

- October 2-7, inclusive, 6:10 a. m. to 6:20 p. m.
 - October 8-15, inclusive, 6:20 a. m. to 6:10 p. m.
 - October 16-23, inclusive, 6:30 a. m. to 6:00 p. m.
 - October 24-31, inclusive, 6:40 a. m. to 5:45 p. m.
- Reports from the leading marshes of the state indicate that the hatch of Michigan ducks was nearly up to normal despite the handicap of dry weather that spelled ruin to the wildfowl crop in the vast northern and western nesting grounds.

What Are They Doing Now?

Little Items of Interest About Former Residents.

Escanaba has made several contributions to the journalistic profession, and one of the most notable is Robert A. Broad, son of Harry Broad, 1218 Eighth Avenue South, who although a young man, has had enough varied experience to satisfy any veteran newspaper man.

Robert was born in Escanaba Oct. 17, 1899. He attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Escanaba high school. Later, he attended Georgetown university at Washington, D. C., where he studied journalism. The dreams of his school days were realized when he entered the Associated Press service at Springfield, Ill., in 1923. At Springfield, he was assigned to covering the activities of the Illinois state legislature, an experience which gave him a good grounding in political affairs. He was transferred from there to the Associated Press bureau at Omaha, Neb., and later was promoted to manager of the Nebraska state bureau at Lincoln. While in that position, he was assigned to the staff that covered the Democratic national convention at Houston in 1928 for the Associated Press.

John A. Segerstrom Dies at Wahjamega

A message was received here yesterday, announcing the death of John A. Segerstrom, former Escanaba resident, who passed away at the Michigan Farm colony at Wahjamega, Mich., where he had been confined for the past seven years after having suffered a general break down.

Mr. Segerstrom was born in Varmland, Sweden, and came to this country when a young man. He came to Escanaba about 35 years ago and was employed as a scaler for the I. Stephenson company until the time his health failed. He was a member of the Swedish Methodist church and was affiliated with the North Star society.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Lydia Segerstrom, 420 South Seventeenth street, a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Nordin of this city survives. The body is being sent to Escanaba and will probably arrive this evening or tomorrow morning. It will remain at the Anderson Funeral Home where funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at two-thirty with Rev. K. J. Hammar officiating.

Interment will be in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery. Lake Okeechobee in Florida is the second largest lake wholly within the United States.

Junior Program At Conference Wins Praise

One of the outstanding features of the program of the Red Cross Regional conference Wednesday, and a part of the program which was followed by highly favorable comment from a delegate, was that of the Junior Red Cross presented at the morning session at the Junior high school auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Campbell, chairman of the Junior Red Cross. This group in Escanaba has a high rating. The program opened with two selections by the Junior high school orchestra, under the direction of R. P. Bowers, head of the department of music, remarkable in themselves because of the youth of these boys and girls, their excellent playing and their unusually splendid attention to direction. Following this were two talks, one on "Origin of the Junior Red Cross," by Allen Beck, and the second, "Escanaba Junior Red Cross Activities." Both young people spoke with assurance and with earnestness and both talks were decidedly interesting. Songs by the Junior Red Cross pupils of the Jefferson, "World Song," and "Song of Service," directed by Miss Ruth Sundwick, brought the program to a close. In connection with Junior Red Cross work, a display which attracted much attention was that of portfolios made by children of schools of other lands and other nationalities and exchanged with Escanaba schools. These books are usually exchanged through the Paris bureau of the Red Cross, which arranges translations into the various languages of the countries to which they are going. From Japan In the group displayed Wednesday was a scrap book from the "Instituto Evangelico Americana," of Buenos Aires, South America, with its pictures and descriptions of country and people; a book from Yashida, a silk industry town of Yoshida, which among other exhibits included samples of muslins and silks of gorgeous coloring, wood cuts of beautiful simplicity, lovely water color sketches and torn paper work which was as fine as it was novel; a portfolio from Shuul school of Dairen, Manchuria, one from the Taubonouchi school of Hiroshima, Japan, and one from the Indian school of Escuela, Ariz. The Junior Red Cross magazines were also displayed. On the second floor, a group of original drawings and sketches by Anna Milo Upton, of child life in Europe, attracted much attention. These will remain on display for a time and will later be used in Junior high school art classes.

Fruit Salad Is Excellent Item Of Balanced Diet

Few family dietaries contain enough fruit. It usually is served only at breakfast. Consequently the practice of serving fruit salads and fruit desserts is decidedly commendable from a health standpoint. Fruit salads seem to be an especially happy choice for all menus. They fit in equally well for lunch, or dinner and are generally popular. Children ordinarily are fond of fruit salads and they are a wholesome and thoroughly satisfactory concoction for the juniors. Care should be taken that any inedible portions, such as the seeds of grapes and raisins, are removed. Very often a salad can be made up of odds and ends of fruit that otherwise might go begging. One orange, one banana and two pears or an equal quantity of some other fruit will make enough salad for four persons, but used alone the fruit would be inadequate for a meal. Fresh and canned fruit also can be combined with good results. The dried fruits dates, prunes and raisins—are available and are an acceptable addition to many fresh or canned fruit combinations. Avoid Too Many Fruits The perfect fruit salad does not use too many fruits in its composition. TOMORROW'S MENU BREAKFAST: Grapes, cereal, cream, baked sausage, bran muffins, milk, coffee. LUNCHEON: Scalloped oysters and macaroni, pineapple-peach salad, toasted muffins, brownies, milk, tea. DINNER: Fresh ham steak, baked bananas, succotash, tomato and sweet pepper salad, cup cakes filled with ice cream and covered with fresh peach sauce, milk, coffee.

Alabama Mobilizes Cooks to Preserve Food for Jobless

Birmingham, Ala. (AP)—The more cooks there are the better the broth will be in Alabama. Home demonstration agents, club women, Red Cross, welfare workers, civic organizations and citizens have been mobilized in a huge food preservation campaign. "Putting up" of 1,500,000 quarts of the surplus products of orchard and garden for the unemployed this winter is the goal. Soups, jellies, vegetables and fruits of every kind are being put away in cans, jars, glassess and pots. As an emergency step, home demonstration agents have been sent into counties having no agents to supervise activities. At Birmingham, a food conservation committee was organized with a goal of 100,000 pints of preserved goods. A receiving headquarters was set up and two canning plant-volunteers for the work. A glass company provided 50,000 milk bottles for containers and steam pressure cookers and canning outfits were offered for use.

Museum Displays Women's Fashions

Fontaine-Aux-Roses, France (AP)—Female costume throughout the ages, from farthingales to beach pajamas, is exemplified in the dress museum here, now ready for inauguration. Appropriately housed in the setting of the old chateau of Sainte-Barbe-des-Champs, the 1,700 initial exhibits show every change in fashion for centuries past. Crinolines mingle with ultra-short skirts, and the great Paris dressmakers maintain a permanent exhibition of their latest and choicest models. Dressmakers and fashion experts are expected to visit the museum seeking ideas. At Wickitt, 302 North Eighteenth street, has returned from a business trip to Flint, Mich. Mrs. Wickitt, who accompanied him, is remaining in Flint for a longer visit with relatives and friends.

Favorite Recipe Betty Ann

A recipe for a delicious cucumber pickle has been received from a Marquette reader. Mrs. F. M. Witbeck. Cucumber Pickles Chop twelve large cucumbers without skins or seeds. Four large peppers, two red and two green. Four onions. Chop all and add one-half cup salt and let stand over night. Drain through colander and add one-half cup grated horseradish, one cup sugar, one teaspoon celery seed, one tablespoon mustard seed. Mix all with cold vinegar and put in jars and seal. This may be seasoned to one's own taste. The recipe makes eight pints, according to the size of the cucumbers. Mrs. F. M. Witbeck, 106 N. Raymond St., Marquette, Wis. The following tested recipe was received from an Escanaba reader in answer to the request for an apple butter recipe: Apple Butter Ten pounds tart apples. Four pounds sugar. One teaspoon each of ground cinnamon, allspice and cloves. One cup cider vinegar, or you may use one and one-half cups sweet cider instead. Salt to taste. Cup up the apples and cook until tender. Put through colander, then add cider, spices and sugar. Cook all together until thick. Seal while hot. As this has a tendency to burn, it is best to cook the mixture in the oven for about two hours. AT THE DELFT The noise of buzzing motors blends with the shouts of cheering thousands—a tug at the guide ropes—and the big silver dirigible soars serenely through the clouds on its way to the South Pole! "It is 'Dirigible,' Columbia's air special which opened at the Delft Theatre last night, the most realistic and thrilling spectacle that you'll be privileged to see for some time! Along with some of the finest spectacular stuff the screen has yet offered is a convincing little story that gets and holds your interest. 'Frisky' Pierce, the hero, is a daredevil Navy ace, who values his life so lightly that he risks it on an average of once every day. His recklessness causes his wife, Helen, so much anxious worry that she turns for sympathy to his best friend, Capt. Jack Bradon, commander of one of the Navy's big dirigibles. Jack Holt and Ralph Graves, who first won their spurs in 'Submarine' and 'Flight' soar to still greater heights in 'Dirigible.' Holt enacts the role of Jack Bradon, while Graves appears as the daring 'Frisky.' As always these two reliable players are thoroughgoing convincing and natural. The woman in the case—Helen—is quite sufficiently charming in the hands of Fay Wray. Others in the supporting cast who deserve mention are Hobart Bosworth, Roscoe Karns and Clarence Muse. Wood Camp Picked Iron River.—Relief workers last night decided that the Herman Holmes logging camp near Sunset Lake would be the best place in the county to establish a wood cutting yard.

They will make a report to the Unemployment Relief committee at a general meeting in the city hall tomorrow night, and it is expected that recommendations will follow to the poor and road commissions to proceed with the plans. The camps are said to be easily accessible.

Approximately 100 men can be accommodated at the camp which can be put into first class condition at nominal cost. They have been used by Holmes for the last four years. Plenty of slashings are available for wood.

Heads District Group Norway.—William J. Collins, of Iron River, was elected president of the district Oddfellows association at the meeting held at Norway. Delegates from Crystal Falls, Iron Mountain, Iron River and Norway were present at the opening meeting of the association.

Gordon Brown, of Iron River, was elected vice-president, David Asp, of Norway, treasurer. In addition, the following men were named to serve on the executive committee: Adolph Blackberg, Norway; Ernest Gall, Iron Mountain; William J. Thomas, Crystal Falls, and Thomas James, Iron River.

Arrouses Little Interest Stambaugh.—Mayor Gust Anderson is unable to find any strong support for the establishment of a municipal airport in Stambaugh.

Since the city commission practically approved the undertaking a few weeks ago there has been little interest shown, although the commissioners are solidly behind the move. Mayor Anderson is also a strong supporter, believing the field will be of benefit to the community.

The high school athletic field where football games are now played has been suggested as the site for the airport. City officials, in preliminary negotiations with the owners, stated that a long-term lease could be obtained for a nominal amount.

Columbus Day Caspian.—Columbus day will be celebrated in Caspian on October 12 by the Duke Di Abruzzi society.

Committees appointed by Silvio Depaoli, president of the society, are at work outlining the program, which will be an all-day affair. The public is invited to all features, including a dinner to be held in the evening at the Duke Di Abruzzi hall.

The celebration will open in the morning with a parade through the principal streets in the village. The Caspian band will lead the procession, which will include the entire membership of the sponsoring society, boy and girl scouts, Community house organizations and floats.

Plan New Church Mass.—St. Peter and Paul's Catholic church, which has stood for 73 years, is being replaced by a new one in Greenland. The present building fund was started in 1915, when Mrs. E. J. Evans, of Ontonagon, was president of the altar society. Dr. and Mrs. Evans were then residents of Greenland.

The new church, a wooden structure of Gothic design, 60 by 34 feet, is being erected on the same site of the old one. The contract was given to Stanley Cane of Ontonagon, the building to be completed the latter part of October.

ADMIRAL'S DAUGHTER SERVES GANDHI

Another of the women who are anxious to devote their lives in service to "Saint" Gandhi is pictured here with the little Indian leader in London. She is Miss Madeline Slade-Mira, daughter of an English admiral, who recently refused $50,000 from her mother's will because acceptance of the money would be contrary to the vows of non-possession taken by disciples of Gandhi. Note the thermos-bottle of food which she prepared for the Mahatma as he set out to attend a session of the round table conference on India.

On Central Time Iroquois.—Although eastern standard time was made official in the state by the last Michigan legislature, the Gogebic county circuit court and all justice courts on the range are still operating under central standard time.

Asked whether it would be necessary for the courts to operate under the new time, William F. Fellow prosecuting attorney, yesterday said:

"The legislature has the right to set the legal time, but I do not care to be drawn into any discussion on the matter until it has been officially brought to my attention."

GLADSTONE MAN TAKES OWN LIFE

In the negative, saying "it will soon be all over." Kern asked Latimer not to leave.

Find Bottle of Poison About ten minutes later Philas Burt came in and Kern also talked to him. He again refused to have a doctor, explaining that "it is nearly all over." Burt, however, left after a short time and summoned Dr. Bjorkman, who declared the man dead on his arrival.

Burt also made a statement before Prosecutor Jackson telling the same story as Latimer. Both Latimer and Burt explained the delay of approximately 20 minutes in calling medical aid, saying that they thought the man had been drinking.

An examination of the man's clothes by Dr. Bjorkman revealed the bottle of poison, about half emptied, in a pocket. An autopsy was scheduled to be performed last night.

Kern, according to his friends here was raised in the lower peninsula near Chelsea, and for many years had been connected with the lumbering industry in upper Michigan. He was one time employed by Lyon Brothers of Menominee, by the Crawford Lumber company at Cedar River, and by the Pere Marquette railroad, as a tie inspector. He also ran a stage between Cedar River and Stephenson in the old days. He has resided in Gladstone for the past 15 years, and for about seven years was employed by the Northwestern Cooperative Co.

Kern was a bachelor. Examination of his effects reveal no mention of relatives, although he is believed to have a sister residing at Alma, Mich.

He was a member of the Menominee Masonic Lodge. The body was taken to the Swenson Undertaking parlors to be prepared for burial.

Ninth Infantry at "Attention" Again Parms, Mich. Sept. 30 (AP)—The Ninth Michigan Infantry stood at "attention" again today as the nine surviving members of the original regiment of 2,000 blue-clad soldiers convened here this afternoon for their sixtieth annual reunion. Three members of the regiment have died since the 1930 meeting.

Those present included W. P. Treadway, Lansing; George W. Haynes, Grand Rapids; Henry Appleton, Brighton; Wellington Mouton, Jackson; W. K. Sheffield, Laingsburg, and Hamilton Lewis, Owosso. About 50 other persons, some of them soldiers from other regiments, attended the reunion, which closed tonight with a camp fire ceremonial. Among them was C. B. GREAT SHIRES NOT DRAFTED

Brewers' First Sacker Will Be Back With Milwaukee Again

St. Louis, Sept. 30 (AP)—The Cincinnati Nationals tonight drafted Clyde Manion, promising catcher from the Milwaukee club of the American Association, at the opening of the draft meeting, presided over by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball.

Under the rules, C. Arthur Shires, the self-confessed great man and Milwaukee first baseman, will be retained by the Brewers or later sold, as the rules prohibit drafting of more than one player from a class AA or class A league.

The Chicago White Sox acquired Carey Selph, a star infielder of the Houston club of the Texas League, one of the farms operated by the St. Louis Cardinals.

Only fifteen players were drafted, the smallest number in years. The reason for the small number of selections was because the major league club owners were beginning to feel the pinch of general business conditions and also the revised agreement it costs $7,500 to draft a player from a class AA league and $6,000 from a class A league. Only three clubs in the American league, the White Sox, Browns and Yankees took advantage of the draft.

The Boston Braves led the clubs in drafting, acquiring four players including Leo Mangum, a right handed pitcher from Newark. The Pirates selected Dave Barbee of the Hollywood club of the Pacific Coast league, who batted out 46 home runs this season.

The list of players drafted follows: American league—White Sox, Carey Selph, Houston, Texas; St. Louis Browns, Westcott Kingdon, a shortstop from the Chattanooga club of the Southern Association; New York Yankees, Frank Nekola, a right handed pitcher from Jersey City of the International league.

National league—Cincinnati, Clyde Manion, from the Milwaukee club of the American Association; Boston, Walter Betts, right handed pitcher of St. Paul of the American Association; William Hargrave, catcher, from Baltimore of the International league; Frank Coleman, pitcher from Scranton, of New York-Penn league; Philadelphia, George Knothe, a shortstop of New Orleans in the Southern Association; Al Todd, a catcher from the Dallas club of the Texas league; Chicago Cubs, Allen Newsome, a pitcher from the Little Rock club of the Southern Association; Marvin Gudat, a pitcher and outfielder of the Columbus club of the American Association.

Betts, the right handed pitcher acquired from St. Paul by the Boston Braves, shut out Rochester today in the opening game of the little world series, holding Rochester to 6 hits.

Electric Current Rate Is Reduced By City Fathers

Newberry, Sept. 30 (Special)—A sliding rate for the electric current was adopted by the Newberry water and light board at the last meeting of the village council the rate being reduced from ten to eight cents for the first fifty kilowatts. Reports of the financial condition of the board and the amount of income made this reduction possible. The rates will now be as follows:

First 50—8 cents. Next 25—6 cents. All over—4 cents.

While the board figures that this change will mean a loss of around $400 monthly at first the added amounts of current used will increase the income within six months or a year.

Another factor contributed to the change. Both power and light will be on the new rating doing away with confusion on the part of the users. It will make it unnecessary for persons installing new wiring to put in a separate power meter.

STREAM POLLUTION Approval of Newberry's plans for sewer disposal was voiced at the council meeting when Mr. Green of the state stream pollution commission told the members that they were working in the right direction towards solving this problem. The new sewer line extending from the river southwards is now being worked on Newberry avenue and will be large enough to care for any growth of the city as well as the state hospital with which the village has an agreement made many years ago to carry their sewer "for all time." The sum of $20,000 had been saved from earnings of the water and light plant and this is being used to build the sewer. Dr. E. H. Campbell of the State hospital reports that his institution, already having the money on hand, will make the sewer change by another spring. It is believed that within a year or so the village will have stopped the Tahquamenon River pollution by building a disposal plant, maybe one constructed in partnership with the state institution.

Mr. Green stated that if all communities were working out the project as successfully as is Newberry his department would have little trouble.

EDITH JOHNSON TO WED Miss Edith Olive Johnson, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, left on Tuesday night for Chicago from where she will go to Los Angeles to become the bride of Dr. Henry Frye Gallagher on October 7. Gallagher, Jr., brother and sister in law of the groom.

Miss Edith was born in Newberry and received her education in the local schools and her nursing degree from Augustana hospital at Rock Island, Ill. Dr. Gallagher is resident interne at the Children's hospital in Los Angeles in which city the young couple will make their home.

During the afternoon tickets will be furnished for a matinee at the State theatre and the Newberry country club will be open to the visitors. A football game between the Sault Ste. Marie and the Newberry teams will also attract many, it is believed.

At 6:30 a dinner will be served in the community building dining room by members of the Business and Professional Women's club, following which a program will be given.

The Program Welcome to Members and Guests—W. G. Fretz. Response—Claude Rilly, president, Northern Michigan Press Ass'n. Brickbats and Bouquets—A. L. Sayles. Response—Tom Conlin, vice-president U. P. district. Address—Congressman F. P. Bohn.

Response—Al Weber, vice president upper 11th district. A business session with election of officers will follow the dinner during which time a bridge party will be given for the ladies.

Round Table Discussion An interesting program for the round-table discussion has been prepared. "The Field Work" will be led by Joseph Sturgeon; "Space Gratters" will be discussed by Elmer Hanna; Radio and Radio Advertising" by Herb Case. "Production Costs" led by W. H. Whiteley. "Foreign Advertising Representation" led by Chas. Tesseman and Joseph Sturgeon will have the last subject. "Printing Price Lists."

River Trip On Sunday the convention will make the beautiful Tahquamenon river trip leaving Soo Junction on the Toonerville Trolley having lunch on the boat and spending an hour or so at the falls. The autumn coloring of the northern woods, more beautiful at this season than at any other, will make the trip especially memorable.

ATTEND ENGADINE MEET A group of Luce county health workers and those interested in health projects went over to Engadine on Tuesday afternoon to attend the meeting of the workers of the Children's Fund of Michigan for Mackinac county. They report an interesting program and an excellent dinner. Among those who went from here were Mrs. D. N. McLeod, local chairman of the health organization; Margaret Shilson, county nurse; Mrs. E. H. Campbell, Mrs. E. E. Shaw and Miss Clara Shaw, Bob Shilson, Miss Ojala.

Following the discussions given by the fund speakers plans were advanced to organize a health unit similar to the Luce county organization, members of which were called upon to talk about its beginning and function here.

WILL CONDUCT FIRE CAMPAIGN

National Fire Prevention Week Starts Monday; to Make Inspections

National Fire Prevention week which will be observed throughout the country beginning Sunday, October 4, and ending Saturday, October 10, will be given due consideration in this city with inspections of business places, lodge halls, schools, industrial plants, etc., by city firemen. Fire drills will also be held in the public schools under the supervision of Charles E. Underwood, fire chief.

Fire prevention week is endorsed both by President Hoover and Governor Wilber M. Brucker who have issued proclamations for the elimination of fire causes as far as possible especially during this period. The cooperation of all civic organizations, city officials, school teachers, principals, etc. is asked in making fire prevention week a success.

Noted Comedian Here

An additional week of education on fire hazards will be had here in the securing of Harry Rodgers, fire prevention engineer of the Western Actuarial Bureau, Chicago, who will be in the city on Monday and Tuesday, October 12 and 13. Mr. Rodgers, who has a world-wide reputation as a lecturer, entertainer, and comedian, will do a clown act for the school children illustrating how carelessness easily results in fires and also depicting means of preventing fires. He is an honorary member of most of the large fire departments throughout the country.

Mr. Rodgers' services were secured by Fire Chief Charles Underwood. Owing to other engagements, the noted entertainer and lecturer could not be obtained for fire prevention week. An effort is being made to have Mr. Rodgers speak at a joint meeting of the Rotary and Chamber of Commerce organizations or at a public meeting.

Everybody can help in preventing fires. Here are some of the things which may be eliminated to reduce the fire hazard:

Every person occupies a home in Michigan and it is suggested by the state fire marshal that an inspection be made of your premises. There are 35 common causes of fire found in the home. Listed are some of the causes: Radio wires fastened to combustible posts on chimneys; chimneys not of sufficient height; wood shingles; electric drop cords hung on nails; celluloid toys; rubbish in basements; rubbish in attic; unprotected joists above smoke pipe and furnace; inflammable cleaning fluid in the home; oily rags or waste; furniture polish and paints; exposed wood lath; gasoline stored in the home; electric iron without pilot light; oil and gasoline stoves; no protection under stoves on wood floors; matches within children's reach; inflammable curtains too close to stove; unstoppered or paper covered flue hole.

If the above can be eliminated there is no question but that a large percentage of dwelling fires can be prevented.

Partridge Flies Against Window; Killed Instantly

A full grown partridge, believed not to be the one which made a tour of inspection of the fire station last week, was killed yesterday morning when it flew against one of the second story windows of the Nelson Cleaning shop on River street. The impact was so great that it broke a pane of glass on the inside. The partridge's neck was broken. It was suggested that Mr. Nelson should collect for damages incurred from the state department of conservation at Lansing. Partridges at this time of the year are making their flights prior to the time of mating.

A banded carrier pigeon was picked up on the premises of the Brown Dimension company. After taking note of the number and feeding the bird, it was released. Inquiry in regard to the pigeon is being made by Paul Knuth, local conservation officer.

FIRE PREVENTION PROCLAMATION

By the Governor

Each year the fire loss in lives and in property is appalling—nearly five hundred million dollars and thousands of lives. Every year brings a loss which is a serious drain upon our national life. It is indeed time that carelessness, better fire protection and prevention should reduce the tremendous loss that this country suffers every year. No one can afford to be careless with fire.

Our own state shares this loss with all other states. Yet, the larger part of this fire waste could be avoided if a serious effort were made to eliminate the fire danger.

Therefore, I, Wilber M. Brucker, governor of the State of Michigan, by authority in me vested, do designate and proclaim the period from October 4th to 10th, 1931, as Fire Prevention Week, and I suggest that the citizens of this state take an earnest, active interest in the occasion. All civic organizations, business associations, school authorities, women's clubs and all other bodies interested in public welfare should assist in furthering this important observance to the best of their ability.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, this 25th day of September, in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred Thirty-one, and of the Commonwealth, the ninety-fifth.

WILBER M. BRUCKER
Governor.

PLAINTIFF IS GIVEN VERDICT

Mrs. Musgrove Awarded $16,000 Damages by Court Jury

A verdict of $16,000 damages in favor of the plaintiff was returned by a circuit court jury yesterday afternoon in the civil action of Elizabeth Musgrove, vs. the Manistique and Lake Superior railways. No judgment was made in the case, however, as the defense counsel made a motion for a directed verdict, the court taking it under advisement under the Empton act. The jury deliberated for only 50 minutes before returning the verdict. The case was an outgrowth of the death of Thomas E. Musgrove, husband of the plaintiff, on the evening of April 3, 1930, while in the employ of the Manistique and Lake Superior railway. Musgrove sustained injuries which resulted in his death when he was engaged in the work of switching on the spur tracks of the Stack Lumber Co.

No Eye Witnesses

Counsel for the plaintiff sought to prove that the railroad was negligent in not having a man on the leading tank car which was coupled on to four flat cars when the accident occurred. Just how Musgrove was killed was not brought out in the trial as there were no eye witnesses to the tragedy. Defense counsel tried to prove that the railroad was not negligent and that it was a customary procedure. Mrs. Musgrove was the only witness to take the stand yesterday in the two day trial. Members of the train crew working with Musgrove at the time of the accident having taken the stand the day before when called by the plaintiff's counsel as adverse witnesses.

Attorneys Herbert J. Rushton and N. C. Spencer, of Escanaba, represented the plaintiff and J. C. W. Evans, Toledo, Ohio, and J. C. Wood, local attorney, acted as counsel for the defendant. A mistrial was called on the case when it was brought up at the April term of court.

John Steffits, was sentenced to ten years at Jackson State prison, with a recommendation of ten years, and John Lashch sentenced to five years at the same institution with a recommendation of six months, by Judge Herbert W. Runnels, yesterday morning. Steffits pleaded guilty to a charge of intent to do great bodily harm less than murder while Lashch, was sentenced on a charge of concealing stolen goods, all other sentences were continued.

The September term of circuit court closed yesterday afternoon with the disposal of several cases in chancery. Doris Carrothers Peak was granted a divorce decree from Charles Peak, and Gladys I. Downing obtained a decree from Chester P. Downing. Harvey Saunders obtained a permanent injunction in a case against Alfred Earl, and Herbert Burns, and Andrew Hart.

Infantile Paralysis Case Found In City

The first case of infantile paralysis in this city during the recent nation-wide epidemic was reported yesterday by City Health Officer Dr. A. R. Tucker. The victim is Mildred Hayden, five-year-old daughter of Mrs. James Hayden, 111 South Third street. Her condition is reported as being favorable.

Symptoms of poliomyelitis are: Fever, never high, with an average of 102 degrees; headache, is severe, most frequently general, but may be nuchal and sometimes may be absent, but then replaced by severe back pain; rigidity of neck, distinct resistance to anterior flexion, rarely is there retraction and never lateral limitation; tremor, fine trembling of lips and hands, especially on movement as when taking a glass of water. There may also be coarse twitching of sleep; apathy, the patients are mildly indifferent and drowsy, never comatose, and are perfectly bright and alert when aroused, but then are sometime irritable; vomiting, once or twice on the first day, but rarely is it persistent; vomiting is often severe as an initial symptom in the bulbar types; retention of urine, when questioned, the mother often remarks a twelve to 24 hour period with urination, it never demands catheterization; constipation, it is almost uniformly present; sweating, this is usually seen as beading about the lips and neck and is rarely profuse.

Children showing forms of these symptoms should immediately be isolated by their parents and their family physician notified immediately according to Dr. Tucker.

Prevalence of infantile paralysis in Detroit and eastern cities has delayed the opening of public schools until such time as is deemed safe.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY

New York, Sept. 30. (AP)—A gloomy September closed today with the financial markets still seeking the cheer which it had hoped the month would bring.

Stocks moved confusedly during much of the active session, but two rallies failed to turn the tide and principal issues closed lower under the weight of late selling in the utility group.

Losses, according to the averages, were 2.5 points against yesterday's decline of 2.5, while the turnover of 3,204,207 shares was the largest since the Monday of the British gold suspension.

The Standard Statistics-Associated Press composite, based on final prices of 90 issues, closed at 77.1; at the conclusion of business on August 31 it was 110.1, so the shrinkage of quoted values in September amounted to 30 per cent.

On the whole, stocks declined more moderately than in some recent markets, but pressure against numerous prominent shares was severe. American Telephone, Woolworth, North American, Consolidated Gas, Sears Roebuck, Allied Chemical and Loew's were down about 3 points net.

Steel set a new low at 71 and closed at 71 3/8, off 1/4. Losses by American Can, General Motors, Union Carbide, Kennecott, Case and Chrysler were also fractional.

Bethlehem, Radio, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Texas Corp., Montgomery Ward and General Electric averaged a point. Bethlehem and Kreuger & Toll closed slightly higher.

Rails tried all day to lead the market upward and succeeded in holding a firm tone, although their best prices were reduced. Renewal of negotiations for the eastern trunk line merger, which appears to be making progress, and termination of the freight rate increase hearings provided the basis for the carrier's stability; their August earnings were hardly open to bullish interpretation.

DAY'S MARKETS IN BRIEF

New York, Sept. 30. (AP)—Stocks heavy; rails hold; others sag. Bonds irregular; foreign issues strong. Curb weak; many new lows. Foreign exchanges irregular; sterling strong. Cotton barely steady; hedge selling, favorable weather. Coffee higher; steady cables. Chicago: Wheat steady; firmness Winnipeg, better export demand. Corn steady; poor husking returns low, bullish government weather report. Cattle steady. Hogs steady to higher.

His work in seeking a scientific explanation of the bonds which hold elements together will win him a Nobel prize, fellow workers believe.

New York, Sept. 30. (AP)—Weakness of United States governments and pressure against many domestic obligations, especially carrier loans, combined to more than offset the rallies in the foreign list and sent the average level of prices in the bond market to a new low for the year today.

The foreign section again showed signs of a lull up in the nervous liquidation among American holders of foreign loans and while the movement was mixed, much needed support rallied to bolster the price of an extensive list of issues that have been forced to inordinately low levels.

Selling was somewhat less active than yesterday, the day's transfers totaling $118,636,000 par value, or $2,500,000 less than yesterday, but there was no diminution in the offerings of United States governments. They found a better demand, however, than in the previous session and the decline was moderate with the exception of Treasury 3 3/8 of 1941-1943, off 10-32nds, and Liberty 1st and 2nd, 4 1/4, which rose 1 1/2 points to a half point above par.

Utilities Leaders In Curb Decline: New Lows Hung Up

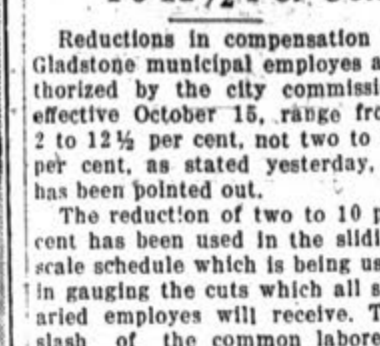

New York, Sept. 30. (AP)—Curb prices weakened again today, led by the utilities, many of which were sent to new lows. Activity increased to approximately 650,000 shares compared with yesterday's turnover of half a million.

The market was moderately heavy during the morning, but electric bond and share's steadiness around 10 tended to check selling. However, that leader eventually broke to 18 and closed only 1/4 off the bottom for a net loss of a point. Commonwealth United Light & Traction, Commonwealth Edison, Duke Power and American Gas had little support when selling got under way.

The utility group was not particularly disturbed by Standard of Indiana's break into new low ground on a net loss of 1 1/2. The final quotation, 18 1/8, was the day's low. Humble and Gulf eased moderately. Cities Service went within a fraction of the old minimum before reducing its loss to 3-8.

Wage Cuts Shown To Range From 2 To 12 1/2 Per Cent

Reductions in compensation of Gladstone municipal employees authorized by the city commission effective October 15, range from 2 to 12 1/2 per cent, as stated yesterday, it has been pointed out.

The reduction of two to 10 per cent has been used in the sliding scale schedule which is being used in gauging the cuts which all salaried employees will receive. The slash of the common laborers' wage from 40 to 35 cents per hour, is a decrease of 12 1/2 per cent, the highest reduction made.

Commissioner J. A. Bredahl, who opposed the reductions, said yesterday that it was mainly because of the large cut to be received by the day laborer that he took a negating that he did not believe the reductions were equitable.

Sox Crush Cubs in City Series Opener, 9 to 0

SEVEN RUNS IN SIXTH INNING

Faber Holds Bruins in Check All the Way; Root Knocked Out

Chicago, Sept. 30 (AP)—"Red" Faber and his badly abused White Sox mates reached out of the cellar of the American League today to hand the Cubs a stunning 9 to 0 licking in the opening battle of the Chicago city series at Wrigley Field.

With the 43-year-old Faber lobbing his curves with such deadly accuracy that the third place occupants of the National League were able to collect only five hits in as many innings, the door mat club of the American League unloosed the long pent-up power of their bats to push over seven runs in the sixth inning and two more in the seventh to gain their head start in the series. So good was Faber today that he failed to walk a single batsman. Only one Cub reached third base and he got there because of a two-base miff by Johnny Kerr. He never was in serious trouble and the seven-run rally by his mates in the sixth gave him enough rest to keep plodding along without any difficulty.

Bats Ring in Sixth

Up until the noisy sixth the White Sox were held to two scattered hits by Charley Root, ace of the Cub pitching staff. The fatal sixth started out to look like the rest of the previous innings when Lu Blue popped to First Baseman Charley Grimm. But the thunder of the White Sox bats broke out at this point. Bill Cissell started it with a looping double to left and Smead Jolley smashed a line drive into the left center field bleachers to score Cissell ahead of him. Fonseca and Sullivan proceeded to draw walks from Root and Watwood loaded the bases with a scratch single past Woody English. Kerr then singled to center to drive in Fonseca and Sullivan and the panic was on. Grube singled and Watwood scored. Faber was safe on Bell's easy error and the bases were loaded again. Blue, up for the second time, crashed a single to left to drive in Kerr and Grube. During the massacre Root was replaced by the veteran Jackie May, who stayed in long enough to have the White Sox drive in two more tallies in the seventh after the bases had been loaded with walks to Sullivan, Kerr and Faber and Blue's second double of the afternoon.

Munising All-Stars Will Play Caspian

Munising, Sept. 30. (Special)—The Munising All-Stars football team will travel to Caspian Sunday.

Stiff workouts have been given to the squad this week, after the poor showing the boys made at Rock Sunday.

The offense lacked punch when a few yards meant a touchdown. The defense was good, however, holding Rock to one first down.

Caspian will be a lot better team than Rock, and the boys are working hard for this game.

On Sidelines at Grid Camps

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 30 (AP)—A Purdue freshman eleven ripped through the varsity defense today in a spirited scrimmage in which the regulars were not permitted to take the offensive. The yearlings failed to count any touchdowns, however. Considerable yardage was gained through the guards, Varnoff and Letzinger, and Coach Kizer may shift to two heavier candidates, Janeczek and Westerman, who have been showing well recently.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 30 (AP)—Coach E. C. Hayes today continued to search for Indiana university reserve line material. The scrimmage was light because of the warm weather. The varsity teams polished their offensive, with Opasik, Jones, Ray and V. Bauer, Edmonds and Bauer doing most of the passing. Red Stevenson, sophomore tackle, probably will be out of the Notre Dame game with a leg injury.

Minneapolis, Sept. 30 (AP)—Plays of the Oklahoma A. & M. football team were placed on inspection for the Gophers today as drill for the Saturday game was resumed. Freshmen executed the maneuvers against the first string, while two other varsity elevens scrimmaged.

Columbus, O., Sept. 30 (AP)—A light scrimmage and signal practice constituted today's workout for Ohio State university's football candidates. Particular attention was paid to forward pass defense.

Rabenstein continued to hold down one of the end positions in today's practice, lending strength to the report that he would be in the starting lineup against Cincinnati Saturday.

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 30 (AP)—Coach Bob Zuppke eased up on his Illinois squad today, sending it through a light signal drill and polishing up the passing system. He indicated his probable lineup against St. Louis university Saturday would be Frink and Schustek, ends; Jackson and Glick, tackles; Guremstein and Perkins, guards; Murray, Cairo, center; Horsley, quarterback; Barry and Cook, halfbacks, and Schalk, fullback.

Evanston, Ill., Sept. 30 (AP)—George Potter, who used to play football with some of the Cornhuskers during his prep days at Omaha, tonight appeared to be a certain starter at quarterback when Northwestern meets Nebraska Saturday. Potter has been improving in great style and has earned his call. The Wildcats held their last intensive scrimmage before the game tonight and looked great, especially Reb Russell, another ex-Nebraskan, and "Pug" Reuter.

Iowa City, Ia., Sept. 30 (AP)—Coach Burt Ingwersen continued to reconstruct his University of Iowa football team here today for the first game of the season with Pittsburgh here Saturday.

Harold Swaney, varsity end, who received a knee injury the first few days of drill, was back and took part in the brief scrimmage. Bob Loufek was at the other terminal replacing Ray Story. Des and Akin remained at the tackle positions and Hantelmann and Tompkins were at the guards, Case was at center.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 30 (AP)—The Wisconsin varsity football squad showed marked improvement today to scrimmage with the freshmen, opening big holes and consistently checking the yearling backs. A varsity backfield composed of Bobby Schiller, Leo Poret, sophomores, and Rus Rehholz and John Schneller, veterans, did some excellent blocking and showed the Badgers have power in back of the line.

Minnesota's American Legion commander, A. B. Karpln, who just finished his term, traveled about 20,000 miles during his year in office.

ST. PAUL WINS BY HOME RUN

Bases Loaded, Roettger Socks Ball Out of Park in Opener

St. Paul, Sept. 30 (AP)—A terrific eighth inning line drive over the left field fence by Oscar Roettger with three men on the bases gave St. Paul the opening game of the little world series with Rochester today 4 to 0.

The game had been a light pitching battle between Walter (Huck) Betts for the association champions, and Carmen Hill of the International league, up to that inning.

Betts himself started the inning with a blazing single to center over second. Anderson sacrificed him to second and Saltzger walked Davis beat out an infield hit to third base and the stage was set for Roettger's clout on the roof of a dance hall adjacent to the park.

George Slater Hurt It was the second hit of the game for the first baseman who goes to the Philadelphia Athletics next year.

The game may prove costly to the Red Winks in more than one way. George Slater, former big league star now playing first base for the International league club, aggravated an old injury to his groin going to first in the second inning on a single, and was forced to retire from the game. Judd ran for him and then Jack Bentley took the first sack when Rochester went back to the field.

Canadian Women's Golf Championship Moves to Quarter-Final

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 30 (AP)—Four players from the United States, two from Canada and two from Great Britain marched into the quarter-final round of the Canadian Women's Golf championship today with only a few traces of real competition.

At the end of the second round of match play, the defending champion, Maureen Oregutt of Englewood, N. J., Virginia Van Wile of Chicago, Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City and Marion Hollins of Santa Cruz, Calif., were left to carry on the United States half of the battle for the title and the Duchess of Connaught cup. Enid Wilson, the British champion, and Marjorie Kerr represented England and Mrs. Alexa Strirling Fraser of Ottawa and Marjorie Kirkham of Montreal, Canadian closed champion, carried on for Canada.

Mrs. Higbee Leads Mrs. Oregutt advanced at the expense of Mrs. Harley G. Higbee, of Detroit, winning 6 up and 5 to play. The veteran Mrs. Hill downed another Detroit, Mrs. John Arends, 7 and 5. Miss Hollins eliminated Mrs. E. W. Whittington of Toronto, 3 and 2.

The closest match of the day came when Miss Van Wile downed Miss MacKenzie, holder of many Canadian titles, one up in 19 holes.

The British entries disposed of two rivals from the United States without much trouble. Miss Wilson defeated Mary K. Browne, of Cleveland, 5 and 3. The British champion turned in the best performance of the day when she went out in 36, two below par. Miss Kerr established a big lead on the first nine and trounced Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., 3 and 2.

BROTHERS ARE WELTER BELTERS

The Evans family of Vallejo, Calif., has two fairly good chances of landing a welterweight championship in its midst ere long. The two chances are Mickey, left, and Jimmy Evans, brothers, making a name for themselves in coast boxing rings. Jimmy, the elder, has battled his way into main event class and has reached the point where he rates a battle with Young Corbett, III, king of coast welterweights. Mickey, while still a novice, is rapidly walloping his way up the preliminary ladder.

Connie Mack's Squad Eager and Confident, Grove Leads Parade

BY EDWARD J. NEIL (Ass'd Press Sports Writer)

St. Louis, Sept. 20 (AP)—Connie Mack's world champion Athletics rolled into town late today on a wave of confidence, eager to get at Gaby Street's St. Louis Cardinals tomorrow afternoon in the first game of the world series.

Down a narrow lane of spectators, Frank Lefty Grove led the procession, the inevitable black "seagull" tip tilted from his teeth, a wide grin on his narrow features.

"You're good, Lefty," someone in the crowd shouted. "But you're gonna get beat. We'll lick you sure this time."

The long left hander, with 31 pitching victories to his credit over the season, just grinned back at the greeting. Behind him trailed Al Simmons, the slugging ace, a big smile on his face. Self-consciously the rest of the Athletics followed—round faced Jimmy Faux, the first base power-house, dark Bill Miller, blond Max Bishop, "inky" Jimmy Dykes, "Big Jarge" Earnshaw, dapper Mickey Cochrane, limping Joe Moley, "Mule" Haas, and the rest.

Greeted by Mayor They were bundled into flag-bedecked automobiles and started immediately the procession to their hotel on the outskirts of the city.

There was little excitement as the special train ambled into the station. Mayor Victor Miller was on the platform to greet officially the team that conquered his home town representatives in the six games of the 1930 classic.

During the day, as the train rolled toward Missouri, the players lolled about in the Pullman, rarely discussing baseball and the coming series. The Athletics believe whole heartedly this series already is virtually won. They feel that they have to win this series to bring to Connie Mack the goal no other baseball leader ever has attained—three straight world championships.

Connie himself made only a brief comment on the pitching situation tomorrow.

"I haven't the faintest idea," he insisted, "as to who will pitch tomorrow. As far as I know it might even be Lew Krausse."

Krausse, youngest of the pitchers and rookie of the rookies, will not start, of course. There was some feeling aboard the special that Wate Hoyt, veteran of six world series games while with the New York Yankees, a cagey, cool, old timer, might get the first game assignment tomorrow. But if the choice is left to the players, it will be Robert Moses Grove, the big left hander.

Charlie Belanger Wins Detroit Fight

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 30 (AP)—Charlie Belanger, Winnipic, Canadian light heavyweight champion, won a ten round decision over Tony Canela, Detroit, here tonight by liberal use of a left jab that the Detroit crowd could not escape.

Opening up with his short left in the second round, the Canadian had Canela bleeding from a deep cut over his left eye by the third round and took all the remaining rounds except the sixth, which went to Canela, and the eighth, which was even.

Canela resorted to infighting at half time, but found Belanger's left doubly deadly in that style of combat and quickly abandoned it. Belanger weighed 174½; Canela 179.

In what proved to be the briskest bout of the evening, Tex Kalka, 142, Houghton, drew with Rauben Edmons, 144, Muskegon, in six rounds.

In other six round bouts, Leon Nichols, 160, Pontiac, defeated Marcus Nole, 156, Grand Rapids; Orrie Mosher, 135, Muskegon, outpointed Young Sharkey, 135, Detroit; Buck Kammen, 160, Grand Rapids, won on a third round technical knockout over Stanley Stochma, 157, Grand Rapids; and Stanley Wellies, 172, Muskegon, defeated Soldier Turk, 173, Detroit.

NORDBERG ASKS FOR BLOCKERS

Backfield Man Must Be Able to Do Something Besides Lug Ball

The Eskymos football team, being groomed for their battle with Marquette here on Saturday, went through another long workout last evening with blocking and tackling playing an important part in the evening's session. Coach Nordberg was far from satisfied with the blocking of his backfield men against St. Joseph's last week and he insists that his men behind the front will have to do something besides carry the ball occasionally or else they will be reduced to the second squad.

Tonight's workout will be the last real session for the squad before they meet Carroll Rushton's aggregation. The tapering-off process will begin today with only a short signal drill planned for Friday.

Because of the inexperience of the majority of the first team members, Nordberg is finding more than a little difficulty in developing his players as rapidly as he would like. Defensively the team has been performing above par but offensively they have not done so well. Ball carriers have failed to pick holes made for them on many occasions and on many others, there have been no holes made. One vital cause has been the lack of a signal caller capable of directing the team in the necessary manner. Logan has been worked in at quarterback this week and he will probably be given an opportunity Saturday to see what he can produce.

If Logan shows enough ability to handle the team properly, one of Nordberg's major worries will be erased. If he does not, the Eskymo mentor will be faced with the disagreeable task of finding a good field general for the Menominee game, only one week off.

Injuries still are providing a handicap to Nordberg's attempt to put out the strongest team possible off the material on hand but to offset this uncontrollable factor is the enthusiastic spirit of the squad as a whole. The players realize that their co-operation is absolutely essential and they are going at the situation in the right manner. The fighting spirit of the men can not be questioned and this fact alone may bring in more than victory for them during the balance of the season.

Nothing is known of the real strength of the Marquette aggregation but one thing is certain—Carroll Rushton, who is a former Escanaban, would rather lose every other game on his schedule than to take a trimming at the hands of the Eskymos. Marquette took a 12 to 0 licking on September last week and were administered a sound drubbing by the Bessemer Speed Boys the week before. Both of the teams, however, are ranked as outstanding in the peninsula.

Jim Londos Named Wrestling Champ

St. Louis, Sept. 30 (AP)—The championship committee of the National Wrestling Association at a meeting here today recognized Jim Londos of St. Louis as world's heavyweight wrestling champion and ordered him to post $5,000 forfeit within ten days to meet within six months any one of twenty "logical contenders" named by the committee.

Londos will be required to meet the contender selected by the committee at a time and place named by the committee and under its conditions and supervision.

Wrestlers on the eligible list are Richard Shikat, Everett Marshall, Ray Steel, Don George, Ed Lewis, Rudy Dusek, Gus Sonnenberg, Fay O'Shocker, Wladek Zbyzsko, George Calza, Henri De Glane, John Pesek, Jim McMillen, Hans Steinko, Jack Sherry, Carl Pojello, Kola Kwari, and Hans Kampfer, John Evko, and Milo Steinhorn.

The committee also named champions in three other weight divisions. They are light heavyweight, Hugh Nichols; welterweight, Jack Reynolds, and middleweight, Gus Kallio.

The National Wrestling Association is an offshoot of the National Boxing Association and was formed a year ago when the boxing organization decided to have nothing more to do with wrestling.

Big Ten Schools Allowed to Play One Charity Tilt

Chicago, Sept. 30 (AP)—The Big Ten conference today suspended its eight-game football schedule and voted to permit any member to play at least one additional contest this season for charity.

Under the agreement made today for the suspension of the rule, which caused a big storm over the conference last fall when several teams were asked to play post-season games for charity, one additional game may be played for charity by each Big Ten member not later than the Saturday following Thanksgiving.

All such games must be played between conference teams and the proceeds pro-rated to the governors' unemployment commissions in the seven states represented in the Big Ten.

The suspension of the eight-game schedule rule was expected to result in four inter-conference games for charity.

COOK PREPARES FOR GLADSTONE

Manistique Coach Drills Pony Backfield for Saturday's Game

Manistique, Sept. 30. (Special)—Coach Cook's pony backfield consisting of Jack Orr at quarter, Tyffell and Rubick at the halves, and Rogers at fullback, was put through a stiff two-hour drill Tuesday evening in preparation for Saturday's hard tilt here against Coach Kell's Gladstone football juggernaut. Ekdahl and Marks, regular backfield men, were not used in scrimmage.

Dummy scrimmage was used for perfecting the long pass attack and polishing off a few running plays. Tyffell shows fine ability as a ball carrier by displaying great shiftness and speed. He reported late for practice this year, but it is very likely that he will be heard from in the future. Dewey, regular center, and Boyd Bolitho, left guard, were also absent from Tuesday's scrimmage. The former is expected to be back in the lineup this week, but Bolitho, who is suffering from an infected toe, probably will not see action against the Keilmens.

Coach Cook and his squad are not belittling Gladstone's 6-0 defeat at the hands of Newberry last Saturday and will have two more long workouts this week before tapering down Friday. Last year's scoreless tie is still fresh in their minds and they are going to try to make amends against the Upbays this year. The Newberry game was the first tilt of the season for the Keilmens and Cook's boys realize that the Upbays will be in much better condition this week after ironing out the weaknesses in the line.

How Other Cities Feed the Jobless

Lansing

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the ninth of a series of articles prepared by The Associated Press on how 12 Michigan cities handle their unemployment problems. Tomorrow's article will discuss the moves made in Flint to add the jobless.)

BY SAM B. MCCOOL

Lansing, Sept. 30, (AP)—Despite the tremendous strategic advantage this city has as the state's capital, it has suffered heavily from the business depression. Declining production and idle plants among the 38 factories of the city have forced a maximum of 1,500 families in the past year to turn to the city government for their support.

Business men say, however, that conditions would be much worse were it not for the location here of the state capital. It brings thousands of persons here every month on state business, puts money into circulation, and is in the nature of a continuous "tourist" trade. Many conventions are held in Lansing every year, mainly because it is the capital of the state.

Lansing last fall accepted the responsibility of caring for its unemployed by voting a $250,000 welfare bond issue that its needy might work on improvement projects rather than accept doles. The fund is virtually exhausted at this time and this city faces the prospect of voting on another bond issue in preparation for the winter months.

For the six months ending in August the city had spent $245,000 in welfare relief with a peak load of more than $46,000 last March. In August the amount declined to less than $20,000.

When Mayor Peter F. Gray, a Democrat, assumed office in January, he appointed Dan Riordan as director of welfare and all unemployment expenditures are made through his office. The department found itself changed overnight from a minor branch of city government caring for 200 or 300 families to one of the most important governmental bureaus with some 1,500 families in need of relief. Riordan perfected a thorough investigational system and the department began to find work for the needy.

Lansing has a welfare store where the unemployed obtain groceries by the card system. Some 400 men on the welfare lists are working for their food on municipal projects at the rate of 35
