

GARDINER SUPPORTED BY NAVY LEAGUE

NEW CABINET IS SELECTED BY M'DONALD

ENGLAND'S LATEST MINISTRY HAS 20 MEMBERS

BY P. H. MYRING
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
London, Nov. 5 (AP)—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald today announced a cabinet of twenty members that was hailed in government circles as a "truly national team."
Eleven members of the new ministry are Conservatives, four are from the National Labor party, and five belong to the two wings of the Liberals that are supporting the MacDonald government.
One of the most important posts—chancellor of the exchequer—went to Neville Chamberlain, Conservative and advocate of protective tariffs. This was a recognition of the preponderance of Conservative protectionists among the government backers in the house of commons.
Twenty in Cabinet
Those looking at the government from the party view said, however, that Mr. Chamberlain would be balanced by the Liberal Walter Runciman at the head of the allied department of the board of trade.
Mr. Runciman's mind is open on the tariff issue.
The new cabinet:
Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald (National Lib.).
Lord President of the Council Stanley Baldwin (C.).
Chancellor of the Exchequer Neville Chamberlain (C.).
Foreign Secretary Sir John Simon (Lib.).
Lord Privy Seal Philip Snowden (Nat. Lab.).
Secretary of State for India Sir Samuel Hoare (C.).
Home Secretary Sir Herbert Samuel (Lib.).
Secretary for Dominions J. H. Thomas (Nat. Lab.).
Secretary for Colonies Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister (C.).
Secretary for Air Marquis of Londonderry (C.).
Secretary for Scotland Sir Archibald Sinclair (Lib.).
President of the Board of Trade Walter Runciman (Lib.).
Minister of Health Sir H. Hilton Young (C.).
First Lord of the Admiralty Sir Bolton Eyres-Monsell (C.).
Minister of Education Sir Donald MacLean (Lib.).
Minister of Agriculture Sir John Gilmour (C.).
Minister of Labor Sir Henry Betterton (C.).
First Commissioner of Works William Ormsby-Gore (C.).
Secretary for War Lord Hallam (C.).
Lord Chancellor Lord Sankey (Nat. Lab.).
Perhaps the most surprising appointment on the list was the selection of Sir John Simon for the foreign office. It was well known that Lord Reading was willing to relinquish the post and it was expected Sir John would receive an important place, but there was no indication he would receive the foreign portfolio. Sir John is one of Britain's greatest lawyers and is leader of the "National Liberal group."
The retention of Mr. Snowden in the cabinet was generally expected. His post of lord privy seal involves no departmental duties and so his falling health will be no barrier.
As a cabinet minister Mr. Snowden must sit either in the house of lords or the house of commons and there is no doubt in anyone's mind of his elevation to the peerage shortly.
In the position of lord president of the council, Mr. Baldwin, leader of the Conservative party, will be available for constant consultation with Mr. MacDonald, and the peculiar composition of the national government is expected to make such consultation necessary.

Transport Plane Crashes, Five Die

Japanese and Chinese Troops Clash Again in Argument Over Bridge

Tokyo, Nov. 5 (AP)—Manchurian peace was postponed indefinitely today by a battle between Japanese and Chinese troops for possession of a dynamite-wrecked bridge.
The Japanese rushed reinforcements to the scene, where the Tannan-Anganch railway crosses the Nonni river, and further fighting was in prospect.
The war office here announced 15 Japanese and an undetermined number of Chinese soldiers had been killed and many wounded, and said "positive and effective measures" had been decided upon by the Japanese to meet the "threatening" situation facing them on the Nonni river.
Peace Hopes Ruined
W. Cameron Forbes, American ambassador who has been on leave in the United States, arrived at Yokohama and immediately arranged to confer with Baron Kijuro Shidehara, the foreign minister, concerning Manchuria, where Japanese troops have been in control of the southern part of the country since September 18.
Observers agreed the fighting in the far last night and today over the Nonni river bridge destroyed what few hopes remained for success of the League of Nations plan for a return to normal conditions in Manchuria by November 16.
The immediate cause of the battle, after which the two armies "dug in" on either side of the river, was not quite clear. The Chinese troops were those of General Mah Chan-Shan, supporter of the absent nationalist government, Wan Fu-Lin.
Chinese reports said the Japanese consul at Taitshar and the Chinese authorities there conferred and agreed to do everything to avoid a clash, but that the Japanese commander made a verbal demand for evacuation of the Chinese position by noon Wednesday. The ultimatum was disregarded, the report said, and the fighting followed, the Japanese using planes when their first infantry party to cross the river was repulsed.
The Japanese version said General Mah's men had attacked a Japanese reconnaissance party after Mah and his staff in conference at Taitshar with the Japanese consul and several Japanese army officers had agreed to permit the South Manchurian railway engineers to repair the bridge.
General Mah's men dynamited the bridge some weeks ago to hinder the movements of the insurrectionist army under General Chang Hai-Peng, who was trying to wrest control of the Taitshar area from the nationalists. He was defeated, and fled to Mukden.
The whole story was told today to Emperor Hirohito by General Giro Minami, the minister of war, in a special audience. This was indicative of the seriousness with which the government regarded this new phase of the situation.
Newspapers announced that cabinet approval, to send a mixed brigade of 4,000 men to Manchuria from Japan to replace tired troops sent from Korea at the time of the original outbreak near Mukden September 18.

JUDGE IN NAN'S LIBEL SUIT

Federal Judge John M. Killits, above, of Toledo, O., has been hearing Nan Britton's $50,000 libel suit against a Marion, O., hotel operator. Nan Britton is author of "The President's Daughter," the "answer" of which she said the hotel man published, thereby allegedly defaming her.

NAN BRITTON LOSES VERDICT

"No Cause for Action," Jury Finds in Libel Case in Toledo

Toledo, O., Nov. 5 (AP)—A federal court jury today found against Nan Britton, author of "The President's Daughter," in her $50,000 libel suit against C. A. Klunk, Marion, Ohio, hotel operator.
The jury was out about an hour and ten minutes, during which it took but three ballots, before returning a verdict that Miss Britton had "no cause for action."
Her attorneys said they planned to appeal immediately and would carry the case to the supreme court "if necessary."
Miss Britton, whose book named the late President Warren G. Harding as the father of her daughter, sued Klunk on the grounds that he circulated another book entitled "The Answer to the President's Daughter," which Miss Britton claimed damaged her reputation.
Instructions to Jury
Judge John M. Killits instructed the jurors that if they decided the author of the "Answer" book was justified in his accusations against Miss Britton, her plea for damages should be denied. If the book's attacks were unjustified, the judge said, the jury should award damages in any amount from one cent up, according to the amount Miss Britton was harmed.
"The Answer to the President's Daughter," was written by Joseph De Barth, now deceased. It denied Miss Britton's claims of having held clandestine meetings with the president, and accused her of degeneracy.
In closing arguments to the jury, counsel for Klunk said the attacks on Miss Britton were

CRAFT BURSTS INTO FLAMES NEAR CAMDEN

BODIES ALL BURNED BEYOND RECOGNITION

Camden, N. J., Nov. 5 (AP)—Five men, two of them veteran airplane pilots, were burned to death tonight when a new passenger plane of the Ludington lines, operating on the fastest passenger schedule in the United States, crashed on a golf course 400 yards from Central airport and burst into flames.
The dead were:
Floyd Cox, 33, the pilot, of Washington;
Vernon Lucas, 32, of Washington, a Ludington pilot travelling as a passenger;
Elmer Smith, 35, of Washington, advertising manager of the Washington Herald;
Francis R. Ehle, 35, Riverton, N. J., president of the International Resistance company, of Riverton.
George B. Smith, 53, of Washington, director of the laboratory division of the Chestnut Farms Dairy, Washington.
The plane, a high speed Lockheed Vega monoplane owned by the New York-Philadelphia-Washington Airways Corporation, apparently was gliding to a safe landing when it suddenly nosed to the ground on the Copper Creek golf course.
Was Capable Pilot
Motorists on a highway and at the airport hurried to the scene but were unable to rescue any of the passengers because of the intense heat.
Thousands of persons attracted by the crash and blaze jammed the golf course and airport property. All available police officers were called upon to guard the remnants of the plane.
Officials of the Ludington Air Line, of which the ship's owner was a subsidiary, said Cox was known as one of its best fliers and that they could not account for the crash.
The plane was being landed to allow Ehle to go to his home at Riverton. His wife was waiting at the port to take him to his home where two children awaited his arrival to begin the evening meal.
John Jennett, station master of the airport, in charge of the men who were to assist with the landing, said he was watching the plane circle low, between 100 and 200 feet in the air, when it suddenly dived toward the ground.
He said he believed an explosion followed when the plane struck the ground.
Pilot Cox died at his post, rescuers said. His body was found with one hand on the controls. The others in the plane were found in a heap inside the cabin.

Ralph Capone Lodged in Same Jail as "Al"

Chicago, Nov. 5 (AP)—Brother Ralph and Brother Al, the two Leavenworth-bound Capones, were lodged in the same jail here tonight.
Ralph surrendered to the federal authorities this afternoon to begin serving his three year penitentiary term for violating income tax laws.
"Scarface Al," the younger and the more notorious, has spent 12 days in the jail while his attorneys decide whether he shall remain here or begin serving an 11-year sentence at Leavenworth for a similar breach against the government.
Like Brother Al, whose smile was changed to a scowl by the weight of his sentence and a $50,000 fine, Ralph snarled and cursed as the barred gates of the jail changed behind him.
He yelled oaths at photographers and called on jail authorities to throw them out.
At the federal building it was announced that Ralph would be transferred to Leavenworth probably Saturday and, should the writ of superedeas granted by the circuit court of appeals be lifted from Al, he may accompany Ralph on the trip.
Not Natty Dresser
His appeal from the conviction turned down by the U. S. supreme court, Ralph walked into the U. S. marshal's office this afternoon just five minutes before the deadline set for the forfeiture of his bond.
He had just arrived from Florida and showed no sign of the usual sartorial elegance of the Capones. His topcoat was drab and shabby and his shoes were dusty.
He carried a small kit bag. "That's my trunk," he said. "I won't need clothes in jail."
Then he turned to newspapermen requesting a statement and with a touch of sarcasm, said: "Well, you fellows solved the crime problem by sending me to the penitentiary for income tax violation."
Warden Monneypenny announced he would spend the night in the receiving room and would get his cell in the morning—removed from Brother Al.
His wrath, attempting to take his picture behind the bars, the effort to evade them unavailing, he hid behind a negro prisoner and covered his head with an overcoat.
The cause of the explosion was not immediately determined.
The dead:
Lieutenant Ralph F. Bradford, Jr., Pontiac, Mich.
Lewis A. Clark, seaman second class, Los Gatos, Calif.
M. Hawkins, seaman first class, Hastings, Mich.
J. J. Schurr, seaman first class, St. Louis.
The four possibly fatally injured:
Ensign John D. Huntley, Lieutenant (junior grade) Winston I. Quattlebaum.
R. O. Duff, seaman first class. G. E. Swift, seaman first class. Seriously injured, all seamen first class:
H. J. Hinton, J. R. Kowalski, C. V. Stover, R. E. Lutz and W. J. Duval.
All of the dead and injured were members of the Colorado crew except Schurr, who was on leave from the U. S. S. Oklahoma and was visiting a friend aboard the Colorado.
Navy surgeons aboard the Relief held little hope for Lieutenant Quattlebaum and Ensign Huntley. The accident occurred when the officers and men were preparing a five-inch gun for a shot at a target attached to a bombing plane.
The Colorado and the Maryland left the harbor two days ago. They were due to return tonight, and were to finish their practice only a short time after the explosion occurred. Both vessels started for their home port at once.
Almost simultaneously with the explosion on the Colorado, J. J. Plummer, a non-commissioned officer on the Maryland, was crushed so badly beneath an anti-aircraft gun mechanism that physicians expected him to die. Plummer, enlisted from Winchester, Ky., was instructing a group of recruits in the operation of a battery.

HOOVER JURY GETS TO WORK ON ITS PROBE

LEAGUE COMMITTEE APPROVES STAND ON NAVY ISSUE

Washington, Nov. 5 (AP)—In the face of President Hoover's word that falsehood had been uttered, the executive committee of the Navy League today supported William Howard Gardiner in his declaration that the chief executive was injuring the navy and the country's defense.
With but one dissenting vote, the group containing some outstanding figures in American life, issued a declaration of faith in the president of the league and support of the position he had taken.
Henry Breckinridge of New York, former assistant secretary of war, dissented, asserting he could not condone the "unseemly and unjustified" language used by Gardiner in the pamphlet which termed Mr. Hoover abysmally ignorant on naval affairs.
Hammond Chairman
The league committee had barely taken action before President Hoover's five-man group, named to investigate the Gardiner statements and find the answer to them in government records, assembled for work. After four hours in the exclusive Metropolitan club the members announced they had chosen John Hays Hammond, noted retired mining engineer, to serve as chairman. Hammond said meetings would continue day and night until a report is made to the president.
He maintained his group had been given a free hand by the White House. It is composed of Under Secretary Castele of the state department; Assistant Secretary Jancke of the navy department; Admiral Hugh Rodman, retired, and Elmer Wadsworth of Boston, who is serving on the president's employment commission, and Hammond.
The Navy League statement added to that of Gardiner by affirming that light was needed on the "present conduct of American naval policy."
The committee asserted its welcome of any impartial and comprehensive investigation which would shed this light, and offered the league records for that purpose without reservation. The committee concluded by resolving that "furthermore, it resolves to pursue the purposes and policies for which the Navy League was founded."
Gardiner added his say in a separate declaration, asserting he had issued his blast in the best of faith, hoping it would bring home to his countrymen and those composing the government "what I sincerely believe to be a very serious condition that confronts our country."
The investigating committee, gathered under the same roof that sheltered a cheery luncheon attended by virtually all the league committeemen, was not informed of their action until they left the club. No comment was made by them, either.
The group which supported Gardiner included former Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of New York, a Republican; T. Douglas Robinson, assistant secretary of the navy under the Coolidge administration; Nelson Macy of New York; N. M. Hubbard, Jr., railroad attorney of Chicago, and Henry Cabot Lodge, grandson of the Massachusetts senator.
Breckinridge, in his announcement of dissent, said Gardiner's language would not "serve the best interests of the navy or the Navy League," and should not be approved by such an organization.
There was no indication that the others had agreed with him, or at least that they considered the offense, if any, sufficiently grave to outweigh the value they saw in Gardiner's declaration.

GANDHI MEETS KING GEORGE V

Mahatma Wears Loincloth at Formal Royal Reception

BY JAMES A. MILLS
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

London, Nov. 5 (AP)—Wearing a loincloth and shawl, Mahatma Gandhi attended a formal reception today at Buckingham Palace and stood before the king from whom he has been trying for years to wrest the vast Indian empire.
It was the first time the little nationalist leader, who claims to represent 60,000,000 untouchables and 300,000,000 other Indians, met George V, and he seemed to like it immensely.
"The king and queen were most friendly and gracious," he said. "I also liked the Prince of Wales."
The prince came by airplane from Liverpool to attend the state tea party at the royal palace, to which about 600 guests were invited.
Shows No Awe
Before the function was half over Mr. Gandhi abruptly left the palace, for he has no patience with social gatherings, and the conversation usual on such occasions bores him.
The Mahatma showed none of the signs of awe frequently manifested by the subjects of the king.
The guests were not required to make any obeisance before the king and queen. Such a gesture would have been distasteful to the nationalist leader. When the king, dressed in morning attire, offered his hand, Mr. Gandhi shook it heartily and, after bowing reverently, raised both his hands in front of his chest in the manner of a Buddhist priest, the most decorous form of Indian greeting.
The Mahatma's shawl was gossamer, and it had been freshly washed by Miss Madeline Slade, strangely with the dazzling silk (Mira Behn) his British-born disciple, but his dress contrasted on robes of India's ruling princes, who also were among the guests.

PROPERTY TAX RELIEF SOUGHT

Milk Producers Demand Brucker Call Special Session

East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 5 (AP)—In one of the stormiest sessions in the fifteen years it has existed, the Michigan Milk Producers' association today demanded that Governor Brucker call a special session of the legislature to relieve the tax on real property.
A resolution demanding that the legislature take steps for property tax relief not later than April 1, 1932, was carried at the meeting attended by 523 farmers of the state. The action followed rejection of a previous demand that an income tax be levied. Some delegates spoke in behalf of a sales tax while others advocated diversion of highway revenues.
The controversy started at the morning session when Senator Peter B. Lennon, of Genesee county, took the Michigan state county to task for acceding to the governor's request that it abandon its demand for a special session. It grew in the afternoon when delegates voted down by a close margin a proposal that by the salary of the secretary-manager of the organization, B. F. Beach, of Detroit, be reduced 20 per cent.
During the discussion on taxation, one delegate suggested that farmers go on a tax strike for two years. Another shouted that an income tax would merely provide more money for state officials to spend.
When N. P. Hull, president of the organization, stated that Beach had been offered a greater salary than the $7,500 paid him by the organization in another

This is Great Prosperity Era For Man Who Knows His Business, Says Clarke Coit

Chicago, Nov. 5 (AP)—This is a shining period of prosperity for the businessman who knows his business, J. Clarke Coit, president of the $3,000,000,000 industry represented by the National Radio Manufacturers' Association, said in an interview tonight.
Coit based his statement on economic conditions in general, but particularly on the success of his own business, the U. S. Radio and Television Company of Marion, Ind.
"Three years ago the company amounted, Coit recalled, to a small town machine shop with an overwhelming debt. In 1930, two years after he became its president, the factory turned out 400,000 radios, and was one of the two concerns of its kind to show a wholesome profit.
The U. S. department of commerce asked Coit to explain it. He replied, "make expenses fit the business; give the public what it wants; get rid of swivel chair executives."
"An intelligent man with a good idea can make more profit from a dollar invested wisely now than at any other period in recent times," said Coit.
"The gloomy businessmen sit with their feet on their desks and tell you, 'Just look at all the unemployment,'" he continued. "Sure there's unemployment, but not so much as last year. And haven't we provided millions of dollars to care for the unemployed, where last year we had nothing?
"The biggest concern in the country say they can't sell goods. Sure they can't. Lots of them are retrenching, which means they're afraid to spend money to send salesmen on the road, and learn for themselves that the public is buying better than any time in three years.
"Others are trying to sell stuff as out of date as kerosene lamps and whiffle trees, and hollering depression with both lungs because of and coming firms are running them out of business."

Michener's Auto Strikes and Kills 12-Year-Old Boy

Parma, Mich., Nov. 5 (AP)—A car driven by Earl C. Michener, of Adrian, representative in congress, today struck and killed an eight-year-old boy who was walking along U. S. highway 12 near here.
The boy, Robert Moe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moe, was returning to school for his spectacles and was walking with his hand before his face, as a protection against the wind. When Rep. Michener sounded his horn, the boy apparently became confused and ran in front of his car. He was thrown into a guard rail and died instantly.
Coroner John Pulling ordered an inquest for tomorrow afternoon.
Rep. Michener was enroute to Parma from Adrian on business. He was alone in the car.
Visibly affected by the accident, he said he would not return to Washington Saturday as he had planned but would attend the boy's funeral instead.

Says He Financed Communists, Also

Toronto, Nov. 5 (AP)—Not only did Sergeant John Leopold of the Royal Canadian mounted police sit for seven years in the councils of communist leaders while he gathered evidence against them, but he helped finance their work with his own money when their funds ran low, he testified today.
The sergeant, wearing the scarlet coat of the famous police force for the first time in 10 years, was the star witness at the trial of nine alleged communists charged with conspiracy, the shooting.

Witness Surprises Court, Says Threat Was Made by Toy

Detroit, Nov. 5 (AP)—The driver of the car in which five men fled from the Collingwood Manor apartment after the massacre of three hoodlums on Sept. 16 was yesterday identified in recorder's court today as Raymond Bernstein. Harry Keywell and a "dark complexioned foreigner."
Keywell, Bernstein and Irving Millberg are on trial for the slaying of Joseph "Razzy" Sutker, who, with Joseph Lovibit and Herman "Hy-mie" Paul, were shot to death in the apartment house.
The day's sensation was provided by Larry Pollack, an old associate of the defendant Bernstein and his brother Joe, who said executor Harry B. Toy had threatened him with serious prosecution if he did not testify Bernstein was the driver of the car he saw fleeing out of a six-story apartment house at the shooting.

Mussolini Plans To Visit Pontiff

Rome, Nov. 5 (AP)—Premier Mussolini's state visit to Pope Pius, XI, arranged as a public demonstration that the church and state in Italy once more are living in accord, was set today for next Monday.
The premier will be received with honors conforming with his high office when finally he makes his long deferred call at Vatican city.
Since the accord between the pontiff and the premier was completed September 2, Signor Mussolini has intended making a visit of state, as evidence to his people that there is peace with the church and that Fascism truly respects the church, but he has told friends that he was waiting "until the time comes."
By that, he was understood to mean he wanted to make sure the peace was working smoothly, that there might be no further friction.

DEMOS PLAN TO DIVIDE SPOILS

Speakership, Leadership and Other Big Jobs Held as Prizes

Washington, Nov. 5. (AP)—House Democrats today began a brisk skirmish for the spoils of victory, confident of a satisfactory division before engaging in the contest over organization.

The prize of floor leadership and a number of chairmanships of important committees is sought by both northern and southern members.

Plans United Front Assurances that harmony will prevail were made by several members today.

Representative Ayres of Kansas said "since the speakership is going south, the leadership is going either north or west."

Assurances that the powerful New York delegation of 23 would throw its force behind Garner for speaker were given by Representative Dickstein of that state.

PROGRESSIVE THREAT

Madison, Wis., Nov. 5. (AP)—With the passing of the control of the national house of representatives from Republicans to Democrats, the threat of Wisconsin's eight LaFollette Progressive Republican congressmen to wield their votes to force consideration of Progressive legislation seems to be a definite menace they can't afford to ignore.

The LaFollette representatives still contend they will hold the balance of power in the house. They are planning to line up all independents at a meeting in Washington later in November when they will try to withhold sufficient votes from both major parties' caucuses to sway organization of the house.

They have their eyes on Representatives George Huddleston, of Alabama and Ross A. Collins of Mississippi, both Democrats. At the conclusion of a two day conference, Congressman H. H. Pravy, Washington, acting spokesman for the Progressives, said today that these Democrats and all independents will be invited to attend the Washington meeting probably on Nov. 28.

Copper—Consumers of copper appear to be awaiting some definite indication of what is to result from conferences of world producers of the metal regarding curtailment of production.

Hardware—Retail hardware business has been more active during the last three weeks, and the proximity of the holiday season, with preparations for winter business, are making the prospects encouraging for the ensuing two months, a survey of the general hardware trade by Dun's says.

Insolvencies—Business defaults reported this week totaled 596, the largest number recorded since Feb. 20 of this year, Bradstreet's reports. The figure compares with 533 in the preceding week and 472 in the corresponding week last year.

The average dollar bill remains in circulation a little less than two years. When it becomes worn by handling it is returned to the U. S. Treasury Department where it is destroyed and a new bill is issued to take its place.

TERRACE GARDENS

DANCE Saturday Night THE DIXIE DANDYS

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 5. (AP)—Five passengers were reported injured, one seriously when the National, a fast eastbound limited of the Canadian National railways, was derailed 10 miles east of here tonight.

September Trade Balance In Favor Of United States

Washington, Nov. 5. (AP)—Because Russia ordered a lot of machinery and other things from America a year or more ago, exports to that nation are running to a higher figure than they did in 1930.

Last month, for instance, the United States sent $10,500,292 worth of goods to the Communist country while the total for September 1930, was less than half that amount, $4,923,093.

Soviet representatives here say their government is actually buying about 70 per cent less from America than last year.

A general upward swing in exports gave the United States a favorable trade balance of $9,853,581 in September with Great Britain leading Canada as a buyer for the first time in months.

The department of commerce today announced revised trade figures for the month and for the nine-month period ending September 30.

This showed total exports, $180,219,507 for September compared with $12,206,947 in that month last year and $1,841,728,567 for the nine months compared with $2,952,451,381.

Imports were $176,365,926 for September, 1931, as against $226,352,216 in the same month last year and $1,618,646,372 for the nine months compared with $2,461,312,556.

Great Britain bought $34,589,023 worth of American goods during the month. In September 1930, her purchases totaled $57,845,322. Canada took $28,001,452 worth compared with $51,978,595 in September last year.

Aviation Officer Dies In Accident

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 5. (AP)—Lieut. Commander Oscar William Erickson, 35, commandant of a pursuit squadron aboard the U. S. S. Saratoga, died today after his plane plunged over the side of the navy's giant airplane carrier during a landing while the Saratoga was anchored ten miles off shore.

The officer's companion, George H. Cummings, aviation pilot, was uninjured. Erickson was planning to tow a target for aerial gunnery practice. As he took off the towing cable broke, and he circled the ship to land. The landing hook caught in the arresting gear on the deck and the plane swerved overboard.

Ingalls to Conduct Campaign Via Plane Cleveland, Nov. 5. (AP)—Dashingly colorful David S. Ingalls, 32-year-old assistant secretary of the navy for aeronautics, will campaign for the Republican nomination for governor of Ohio in an airplane.

Ingalls, scion of one of Ohio's oldest and most prominent families, naval flier in the World war, former state representative and author of the Ohio air code, announced his candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination today.

In a statement from Washington, he said "I will be there to win." In order to make his speaking engagements, however, and still attend to his duties as assistant secretary until congress has acted on the naval appropriation bill, he said he will fly an airplane.

Democratic Leader Dies In Indianapolis

Indianapolis, Nov. 5. (AP)—Charles A. Greathouse, Democratic national committeeman from Indiana, died here today, almost two weeks after he had undergone an operation for gall stones. He was 62 years old and lived in Indianapolis.

Death ended a three year period of gradually failing health. Despite his illness, he had managed to keep up with his duties. From the time he became Democratic national committeeman in 1922 until today, Mr. Greathouse was secretary of the national committee. He planned to retire from public life at the expiration of his term in 1932.

Claim Bankruptcy For Boat Company

Chicago, Nov. 5. (AP)—The Michigan Transit Corporation, operator of two large passenger and freight steamers on the Great Lakes, was made defendant in bankruptcy proceedings filed in United States district court today. Three creditors interested nominal claims of $1,000.

The petitioners estimated the company's liabilities at $400,000 and valued the steamers "Manitou" and "Puritan" at about $300,000.

Train Is Derailed, 5 Passengers Hurt

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 5. (AP)—Five passengers were reported injured, one seriously when the National, a fast eastbound limited of the Canadian National railways, was derailed 10 miles east of here tonight.

Two baggage cars, a tourist coach, a day coach, diner and sleeper, were derailed by a split rail, officials stated.

Nearly 100 passengers were sent into Winnipeg on a special relief train pushed to the scene. The National is a Vancouver-Montreal Express.

WOMAN SHOOTS HER BETRAYER

Says Broker Squandered Her Inheritance of $40,000

Detroit, Nov. 5. (AP)—A woman who told police her $40,000 inheritance had been "squandered" by a man who preys on innocent persons" came upon Lyness Trombley, 29, in a broker's office in the Ford building today, whipped a revolver from her hand-bag and fired five times.

Although all of the bullets found their mark in Trombley's body, he was not seriously wounded. The woman, Mrs. Dorothy Hoffman, turned the revolver on herself after shooting Trombley, but the gun missed fire. She fell in a faint in the lobby of the broker's office, and while hundreds milled about the doors, both were taken to a hospital in an ambulance.

Arrested 11 Times Police said they found that Trombley, who posed as a financial advisor, had been arrested 11 times, seven of the arrests for obtaining money under false pretenses. He had never been convicted.

The officials said they found that in the seven arrests Trombley's conviction had been prevented by Mrs. Hoffman, who gave all her money and pawned her jewelry to make restitution.

Mrs. Hoffman said she had inherited $40,000 and that Trombley squandered it all in four years. She said Trombley was "a sort of a racketeer," and declared he "preys on innocent women."

"I only wish I had shot myself," she said. Pending investigation, police withheld charges against either Trombley or Mrs. Hoffman.

Mrs. Hoffman, a beauty parlor operator, said Trombley had beaten her last night and that he had "used me in his schemes," and "had some sort of power over me."

The beating, she said, occurred in Trombley's apartment and that he beat and choked her in the presence of his father, E. A. Trombley, with whom he lives. It was then, she said, that she decided to shoot him.

Army Accepts Hue Budget Reduction

Washington, Nov. 5. (AP)—The army stepped forward today like a good soldier to say it could get along in the next fiscal year with $44,000,000 less than it received in this one.

Secretary Hurley, in announcing the budget reduction, said it had been arranged with the utmost harmony between the war department and President Hoover's budget of fiscal 1932.

"Vigorous economies and deferment of programs not vital at this time," Secretary Hurley said, had made the final budget reduction possible. Final approval was given today by the chief of staff and other high department officials.

Army appropriations for this fiscal year were $481,565,735. A $44,000,000 cut would lower them to $437,565,735.

In addition to its military activities, the army has charge of rivers and harbors work and Mississippi river flood control.

American Dollar Is Not In Danger

New York, Nov. 5. (AP)—America's gold standard and dollar are strong beyond argument, so strong that hoarding either of gold or currency is foolish, Dr. Edwin W. Kemmerer, international money doctor told the United States today.

Dr. Kemmerer, financial consultant to a dozen nations and influential advisor in the formation of the Dawes plan, in an address before the advertising club, warned that "hoarded money is always in danger of being stolen and it earns no money."

The United States, he asserted, has more gold than any other nation has had in all history, he asserted, making our financial strength so great that New York may replace London as the world's money market center.

Kentucky Supports Democratic Ticket

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5. (AP)—Kentucky swept back into Democratic ranks in full force in Tuesday's election. Ruby Lafoon, 62-year-old Madisonville circuit judge, led his ticket to a victory over William E. Harrison, 42, World war veteran and Republican mayor of Louisville, by a majority that continued to grow late today as further precincts were reported. The latest returns, 2,440 out of the state's 4,178, gave Lafoon 272,727; Harrison, 217,066. These represented returns from 119 of the 120 counties with 54 complete.

Along with the Democratic victories in the gubernatorial and other state-wide races came the usual Democratic large majorities in house and senate.

Shouse Chides Fess On Election Result

Washington, Nov. 5. (AP)—Jouett Shouse said tonight that for Chairman Fess of the Republican national committee to attribute the Democratic congressional victory in Michigan to a prohibition vote "is characteristic of the dilemma in which 'such an eminent dry' finds himself."

PROPERTY TAX RELIEF SOUGHT

(Continued from Page One) state, Jefferson Brown, St. Clair county delegate, shouted, "let him go." We'll give him a ticket tonight." Nevertheless, the delegates defeated the motion to reduce his salary 20 per cent and to limit the per diem pay to directors to $5 instead of $10 a day.

The fight reached another high pitch when delegates defeated an attempt to elect all of the 12 directors this year instead of the usual four.

Senator Lennon, whose name was later rejected for election to the board of directors, charged the grange had "laid down at the crack of the whip," by the governor. He said an income tax is imperative at this time.

The senator also demanded the election of a board of directors "with backbone enough to demand a price of $2.70 a hundredweight for milk," which he said was the cost of producing the product plus transportation charges to the Detroit market. He denied the existence of a milk surplus and assailed the base-surplus plan of fixing the price.

Hull replied to the Lennon attack by claiming that there would have been a 400,000 pound milk surplus in the city of Detroit, had the base-surplus plan not been in effect.

Fred L. Woodworth, of Detroit, collector of internal revenue and member of Governor Brucker's commission to investigate milk prices, was cheered when he said the dairy farmer "ought to get 50 per cent of the price paid for milk by the consumer with the other 50 per cent going to the distributors. He disagreed with Lennon who urged a producers' strike.

"What's the use of going into a fight when the other fellow has all the ammunition?" he asked. Woodworth made the prediction that conditions in the dairy industry as well as all business would be better by mid-winter.

Secretary Beach in his report said the possibility of producers pooling their milk surplus is under consideration by the board of directors and named it as one of the outstanding problems of the industry.

Such a book as Miss Britton's own volume, could not have been perpetrated in any other country but the United States, the defense continued, describing its contents as "salacious, lascivious and poisonous."

Attorney William F. Marsteller, counsel for Miss Britton, replied that her book, "The President's Daughter," was written with a high-minded purpose. He said she had wanted to show the need for a law to make the father and mother equally responsible as parents of a child born out of wedlock.

Because of the kind of testimony given, all spectators were barred from the court during part of the trial. Newspaper reporters also were excluded by Judge Killis' orders, but later in the trial were readmitted. Miss Britton's daughter, Elizabeth Ann, 12, also was barred after the opening proceedings.

Dearborn Will Have No Jobless Problem

Detroit, Nov. 5. (AP)—Mayor Clyde Ford of suburban Dearborn, said tonight he would submit the records of his unemployment committee tomorrow to officials of the Ford Motor company from whom, he said, he has received assurances that there will be no unemployment in Dearborn this winter.

There have been persistent reports that the Ford company, whose main plant is at Dearborn, is preparing to man its factories in anticipation of a general increase in demand for new cars.

The statement tonight of Mayor Ford, a nephew of Henry Ford, that "within the next few weeks" he expects the entire unemployed population of Dearborn to be accommodated with jobs, was interpreted as some measure of confirmation of those reports.

Brucker to See If Alabama Will Give Negro A Fair Trial

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 5. (AP)—Governor Wilbur M. Brucker will send a representative to Alabama to investigate charges that a negro under arrest here would not receive a fair trial if returned to the south.

The governor announced this decision today at the conclusion of an extradition hearing for Dove Ballard, accused of killing Charles I. Sims, deputy sheriff of Butler county, Alabama, last August. Ballard claims that Sims was shot accidentally.

Counsel for Ballard told the governor that if Ballard were returned he would be lynched or would not get a fair trial. Sheriff J. C. Canant of Butler county in person and Governor B. M. Miller of Alabama, by letter and telegram, assured Governor Brucker that Ballard would be given a fair trial by a jury.

Waterway Treaty Is Not Abandoned

Washington, Nov. 5. (AP)—The work of negotiating a treaty with Canada for an international St. Lawrence River waterway from the Atlantic to the Great Lakes has been delayed but not abandoned.

State department officials expect the task will be undertaken shortly through regular diplomatic channels since the two governments agreed several weeks ago to go ahead with the task "immediately."

Minister William D. Herridge of Canada conferred with Under-Secretary Castle several days ago but the conversations were restricted to a preliminary discussion. The Canadian minister has not yet presented a detailed plan outlining Canada's desires, but the United States is prepared to begin the negotiations, President Hoover having appointed former Senator Henry J. Allen of Kansas as a special adviser to the state department on the matter.

Betty Marie Johnson, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Johnson, underwent an operation for relief from appendicitis at the St. Francis hospital and is resting easily.

New York, Nov. 5. (AP)—Jimmy Johnston, boxing promoter for Madison Square Garden, today announced he had practically completed negotiations with Mickey Walker and W. L. (Young) Stribling for a bout in the Garden Dec. 11.

Proceeds of the bout will go to the New York American's Christmas fund.

Jack Kearns asked him several days ago to get Stribling for a fight in December, Johnston said, and he got "Pa" Stribling's consent by long distance telephone to Atlanta, Ga., today.

Johnston said contracts probably would be signed next week.

ESKYMOS ARE GIVEN ONLY LIGHT WORKOUT

The Eskymos, keeping in trim for their classic affair with Gladstone here on Armistice Day, yesterday were given only a light signal drill by Coach Nordberg. Because of the lateness of the season and because there is no Saturday game scheduled this week, the Eskymo coach does not care to take unnecessary chances with staleness.

Keyed to a fighting fever against the Mountaineers whom they defeated, 14 to 12, in a sensational battle, the Eskymos now hope to close their season with a victory over the Uphas. Escanaba has won three games, lost two and tied one so far this season.

BOWELS need watching

Let Dr. Caldwell help whenever your child is feverish or upset; or has caught cold.

His simple prescription will make that bilious, headachy, cross boy or girl comfortable, happy, well in just a few hours. It soon restores the bowels to healthy regularity. It helps "break-up" a cold by keeping the bowels free from all that sickening mucus waste.

You have a famous doctor's word for this laxative. Dr. Caldwell's record of having attended over 3500 births without loss of one mother or baby is believed unique in American medical history.

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your drugstore and have it ready. Then you won't have to worry when any member of your family is headachy, bilious, gassy or constipated. Syrup Pepsin is good for all ages. It sweetens the bowels; increases appetite—makes digestion more complete.

CANADA CLEANS UGLY BILLBOARDS FROM HIGHWAYS

Drastic Regulations Are Enacted

Toronto—Every one of Canada's nine provinces is tearing down and burning or throwing on the junk heap unsightly billboards and advertising signs, which, up until the motor era, were allowed to "desecrate the landscape."

Ontario, the largest province in population and industry, led the way about seven years ago with comparatively mild regulations. Four years ago it gave its highway department complete jurisdiction over signs within a quarter of a mile of the highway, and this year, after the demolition of upwards of half a million highway eyesores, has tightened down still further so that more than half of the remaining comparatively high class structures are either on probation for improvement or condemned to removal before July 1, 1932.

Highway Sign Inspectors
You cannot paint a sign on a roadside rock in Ontario now unless you get a license from the department. And that license will not be forthcoming unless the rock is on your own property and advertises your own business conducted on that property. When it is competed it has to measure up to a standard of neatness and beauty or else the sign inspector, who constantly travels the highway, will order the rock returned to its original natural state.

The same goes for any other advertising sign or device within sight of what are known in Ontario as "the kings highways." Anywhere along these concrete thoroughfares the department, through its inspectors, may order a sign removed. Failure to remove it involves forcible removal by the department and the liability of having the costs charged up against the property owner.

owner. Ontario isn't fooling about it and is tightening its regulations each successive year as it deems property owners are better educated to the growing idea of highway tidiness and open landscape beauty.

Ontario, which literally sells its landscape to automobile tourists, American and Canadian, found that there was overwhelming public opinion for a clean up of highway advertising signs. There was real resentment against eyesores which blocked views of green fields and valleys. The law governing unsightly signs provides for a fine of up to $100 for violations but "so far"—and the Ontario highways department officials intimated that the period of restriction to moral persuasion was about over—the department has not ordered anybody into court for his failure to cooperate in sign removals.

Many Signs Removed
This year, however, for the first time, the department used its authority to send out its own men to tear down signs which the owners had failed to remove after notice. Highway department trucks brought back several hundreds of them to advertisers who refused to take seriously previous warnings promised to be good.

Following the aggressive foray by department trucks, the Ontario division of the Canadian Manufacturers association sought a conference with the department. Compromises were effected through which certain condemned types of signs were given this year's probation for improvement and short lease on life given to others which must come down before midsummer of 1932. The department and the advertisers arrived at agreement indicated in the following summary of regulations:

"The department will allow a maximum of two single faced standard signs on a building in which the product advertised is offered for sale, but the signs must face different directions. Double faced signs are two signs. They must be on private property.

No Signs on Buildings
"No advertisement may be painted upon the building itself—the department ordered the repainting of scores of hideously decorated barns—but special built and detachable painted signs may be placed on a building in which the products advertised are offered for sale. Fifty square feet is the maximum advertising space and no standard sign shall be greater in size than five feet by 8 feet.

No sign shall be placed on trees, fences, barns or any building in which the merchandise advertised is not offered for sale. All signs shall be neatly and symmetrically placed to make presentable appearance.

"Each advertiser must maintain signs placed by him in first class condition or remove them. He must remove or readjust all signs of unsightly appearance.

all signs contrary to those understandings."
It is further set out in the agreement arrived at between the advertisers and the department that the compromise does not prejudice the rights of the department as provided by law but is a "cooperative measure."

Advertisers on Probation
The department made it clear that advertisers are on probation and unless a substantial improvement is made at once the regulations as drawn will be enforced.

The secretary of the Ontario division, Canadian Manufacturers association, requested from each highway advertiser a letter to the department stating that the advertiser would immediately move to adjust or remove his signs in accordance with this present understanding.

The regulations themselves, which are moderate by the compromise agreement outlined above prohibit the erection of signs and signboards and the pasting and the exposing of any advertising device upon the highway or within a quarter of a mile thereof and until permission in writing is given. Every sanctioned sign shall bear a label approved by the department of highways. And there are prohibitions as to proximity to the highway in accordance with the size of the signs; definite declaration against the erection of a sign within 1,000 feet of another sign and absolute prohibition of signs at turns, on sharp changes in alignment of the road, or in front of landscapes of especial beauty. Finally there is the specific prohibition as to the painting of a rock.

Other Provinces Active
The provinces of Quebec, Manitoba, Alberta, Saskatchewan, British Columbia and the Maritimes follow very closely Ontario's regulatory lines, with Ontario and the far west rather in advance of eastern Canada in the billboard cleanup drive proceeding across the dominion.

Cities and towns deal individually with their billboard and sign board problems. Hamilton, for instance, last summer ordered down all the unsightly signs which cluttered up its eastern and western approaches, and in the city itself prohibited continuation of the more unsightly types of billboard advertising.

Spalding Woman Tells Of Early Minnesota Days

Powers, Mich. (Special)—Mrs. Caroline Grapel of Spalding, who is nearing her 81st birthday, tells an interesting story of her early pioneer days in Minnesota. "Hard times" has a different meaning today than what it meant when she was a girl.

The family, consisting of the parents and children came from Germany to Rock Island, Ill., in 1854. Mrs. Grapel then a child of 3, being one of this family. The following year, the head of the family thinking to better his conditions, moved to the farm-lands near Canton, Minn. There in a sod shanty dwelled the family, the parents and eight children.

Drinking water had to be toted half a mile for the family's use. This family ate none of the "knick knacks" that modern children love to eat. Their bill-of-fare was the food stuffs that could be raised on the small clearings made by the father and boys. Salt sugar, tea and coffee was bought in small quantities at the store 20 miles distant. There was very little money to be had in those days.

Once in a great while a neighbor hired a man for extra work at 50 cents a day, and it was a long day too.
It was during the long winter days spent indoors that Mrs. Grapel as a young girl learned the art of knitting, braiding and weaving ragrugs and piecing quilts. Her rugs and quilts are very pretty.

Using her own words in regard to the prosperity of the family, "Father bought a cow in the spring, and we youngsters then could have milk and butter again. The herd increased year by year until a fairly good sized one was kept and a few pennies could be realized from sales of surplus dairy products at this time."

Anderson, Alleged Bootlegger, Held In Green Bay Jail

Green Bay, Wis., Nov. 5 (Special)—Charged with receiving 136 quarts of whiskey, 18 quarts of gin and 11 quarts of rum smuggled into this country from Canada at Sault Ste. Marie last September and with transporting 12 cases of Canadian whiskey from Eagle River, Mich., on Lake Superior in September, 1929, Paul Anderson, alias Paul Schotte, is being held in the Brown county jail here in default of bond totalling $13,000.

Anderson, former operator of a soft drink parlor here and alleged rum runner, was picked up here about two weeks ago and held at the request of federal authorities from the western district of Michigan. His removal hearing was set for November 16.

One of the most outstanding students at the Escanaba high school a number of years ago, was Mrs. J. H. Carlis of Chicago, the former Miss Estella Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell, who formerly lived on South Fifteenth street.

Estella Campbell Carlis was born in Chicago and taken to this city by her parents when she was two months old. She attended the public schools of this city and after graduating from Escanaba high school she attended Gordon Business College, now Cloverland Commercial College and later studied at the Detroit Business University. Returning to this city, equipped with a thorough business training she accepted a position as cashier and bookkeeper with Gunter Brothers Packing Co., 419 Ludington Street.

Mrs. Carlis left here June 1, 1911 for Chicago, where she held a fine position for some time. She was married December 22, 1914, to John Henry Carlis of that city. They have one son, John Henry, Jr., aged 14.

Besides home duties Mrs. Carlis assists her husband whose work is investigating accidents and she is also interested in social welfare work.

THIS IS NO JOKE

THE sense of humor of the American motoring public must far surpass that of any other nation on earth. Here's an instance: Recently a motorist came across a hitch-hiker who carried a gasoline can and a funnel as an important part of his "business".

traffic hazards, particularly when they park on the pavement. The state police warning comes in sufficient time to allow car owners to have their lights fixed, and it is to be hoped that it will be necessary for them to make arrests in order to impress the public of the importance of this matter.

PAUL BUNYAN

THIS paper has been criticized for commending the Paul Bunyan stories of an Upper Peninsula youth. Encouraging him to lie, as it were.

Once seated beside his benefactor, however, the hiker would calmly advise the driver of his deception and ask to be driven as far as the motorist could take him.

It may be pointed out that lying with intent to deceive, and the telling of Paul Bunyan stories, are very different things. Every nation has its own style in humor. The German delights in the turn of a word, — the Frenchman, in the turn of a phrase.

Motorists should remember that they are responsible for the safety of their passengers, whoever they may be, in case of an accident. Many a case has arisen in which a stranger, picked up along the street or highway, has profited financially from a motoring Samaritan who drove into an accident while the hitch-hiker was with him.

The quintessence of American humor appears in Paul Bunyan. We are, after all, just children grown up. The Bunyan tales dovetail with the philosophy of our joking hours.

And beside this danger to the motorist there is the danger to the hikers who, encouraged by kind drivers, stand out on the road almost in the path of approaching vehicles.

Whether a pedestrian has good intentions or not, it is too dangerous and costly to pick him up.

ANOTHER OLD-TIMER LEAVES US "DAN" McLEOD is dead. The old-time lumberman, who logged off millions of feet of big pine along the Tubquemmon and in other parts of the state, has made his Last Drive. He now joins the legion of departed pioneers, who did their bit to harvest the forest wealth of the upper peninsula to provide lumber for the building of the nation.

ABANDON TAGLIAMENTO On Nov. 6, 1917, the Tagliamento river was abandoned along a 150-mile front by the Italians before the onslaught of the Austro-German forces.

"Dan" McLeod was one of the few remaining lumbermen of the old school. He was typical of their kind—honest and hard working fellows, who loved their work and their fellow-men. In those pioneer days, men trusted one another as was shown by the $50,000 loan McLeod once obtained without security from A. M. Cheabroug.

The retirement was glorified by a score of heroic fights as the troops of the Italian rear guard brought the enemy again and again to a standstill and secured safety for the main armies as they established new lines on the Piave.

News of the passing of old-time lumbermen always leaves a feeling of sadness in the hearts of those who have come to know their type intimately. When they depart, they leave a vacancy in the community that cannot be filled. Newberry folks, especially, will feel that the old town isn't the same anymore, with "Dan" gone.

A love authority says women must take husbands as they are. But with women they can take their pick.

DEFECTIVE LIGHTS The announcement by Oscar G. Olander, commissioner of public safety, that the state police would conduct a state-wide campaign against motorists, who drive at night without proper lights, is well timed.

CHAPTER XX

BOWEN and Dirk followed Mary's eyes and saw the newcomers, too, almost before she could tear her fascinating gaze from theirs. Although, strictly speaking, none of the three men were looking at her, but at the necklace gleaming like new blood against the snowy velvet of her evening jacket.

They sat in petrified silence a few minutes, each with his own whirling thoughts, making half-hearted conversation. The party at the opposite table ordered drinks, talked in low tones, and otherwise comported themselves in an ordinary manner.

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch (Copyright 1931 by Douglas Malloch)

HEIGHTS AND DEPTHS I think no woman knows the heights Of great success—how much it means. After long days and weary nights, Amid the clatter of machines, The clink of gold, the clash of blows, To do at last the thing you plan— I think no woman ever felt The depths of things a woman feels. Beside a cradle never kneel. In just the way a woman kneels. Whatever his affections, deep And certain, he has never smiled Upon his infant son asleep As does the mother of his child.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

Once outside, Mary sagged against Dirk's arm. But when he looked at her sharply, in quick fear that she was about to faint, he saw that she was shaking with silent laughter. Hysterical! He gripped her arm tightly and snarled at Bowen, "I hope to God you're satisfied!"

HE shoved the gun into Dirk's lap and swung off. As they moved down the street, Bowen's little tin-can of a car began to sizzle and roar and give off explosions like a Fourth of July rocket.

HE loved Dirk so much that just as he was about to faint, he saw that she was shaking with silent laughter. Hysterical! He gripped her arm tightly and snarled at Bowen, "I hope to God you're satisfied!"

sorted, heading for the Nassau street law office of Stephen Ruythens and Son. They were going along at about 45 miles an hour, but clinging tenaciously to their trail, about a block behind, was Bowen's machine, its "one-man top" swaying perilously in the breeze.

THEY were in lower Broadway now, in the manufacturing district, dark and comparatively deserted, heading for the Nassau street law office of Stephen Ruythens and Son.

BOARD POLICY IS ANNOUNCED

Regulations for Use of Auditorium in Junior High Listed

Because of the many requests being received for the use of the William W. Oliver Memorial auditorium in the new Junior high school the school board has drawn up a set of rules governing its use. All applications for the use of the auditorium must be approved by the board.

Organizations requesting the use of the auditorium are divided into three groups. Group one includes local civic and church organizations wishing to present home talent plays for profit, all revenue going to the organization; rental, $50 per night. Group two, local civic and church organizations presenting programs through outside promoters, part of the proceeds being taken out of town; rental $100 per night. Convention groups in need of a meeting place are in group three. Rental to this group is $10 per day. Matinee performances will be charged at fifty percent of evening fee and dress rehearsals will be, group one, $15, group two, $30.

The board has adopted this policy in an effort to promote the home productions and discourage outside promoters, who as a rule take the greater share of the proceeds of such entertainments. Application blanks and information as to dates available may be obtained from the office of Superintendent R. E. Cheney.

The following applications have come before the board and been approved: American Legion Frelburg Passion Play, November 16,

AT THE DELFT

Each year Universal turns out at least one great picture. A few were "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," "Ferry Go Round," "Show Boat," "All Quiet," "Seed," "Dracula." Into this select class place "Waterloo Bridge." The management of this theatre is proud to show this picture. It believes that it will rank with the best ten of the year. Do not under any conditions miss seeing "Waterloo Bridge" which is showing at the Delft.

"Waterloo Bridge" is tremendous in dramatic power! It is subtly alluring in its beauty and its infinite variety. It is heart-breaking in its emotional appeal! It has a great love story, one of the most unusual in modern drama, between a girl who wanted desperately to love decently, when it was too late for her to do so, and a boy who knew all and still would surrender the world to his heart's cry.

These two young lovers caught in love's cross road on Waterloo Bridge in a tangle of love morass and war's dire needs are Mae Clarke, who will be remembered in "Front Page" and Kent Douglas, fine, boyish stage juvenile and coming screen star. James Whale directed it and that alone should be an insurance of a perfect production if you saw his "Journey's End."

and Tom Drengecz, the members of the choir, all who gave spiritual and floral bouquets, donated the use of their cars, or in other ways help to assuage our grief.

Reduced Timber Cutting Advised

"Decreased cutting of lumber has been urged by the Timber Conservation Board as a means of restoring stability to the industry, according to report just presented to the Secretary of Commerce," E. W. Tinker, Regional Forester, announced here today.

"Farm communities normally consume over one-third of the total lumber cut or one-half of that used in building construction. Tables just issued by this Board show no facts warranting the anticipation of substantial increases in farm building during the balance of this year, or in fact next year.

The small dwelling field still offers the best potential lumber market in building, but until there are adjustments of other elements of building in keeping with substantial reductions in costs of building materials, no substantial general increases in ordinary building can be expected, the report indicates.

Commenting upon the trend of national lumber production, Mr. Tinker said that for approximately 600 identical mills there has been a decline—from 1928 to 1931—of about 50 per cent, and an approximately equivalent decline in the volume of sales.

The cash farm income for Wisconsin in "Millions of Dollars" is given in the report as 371.0 for 1930-1, and the estimate for 1931-2 as 346.2. The 5-year average is given as 433.2. Corresponding figures for Michigan are 205.2 for 1930-1; estimated for 1931-2, 196.1; 5-year average 260.1. For Minnesota, 339.0 for 1930-1; estimated for 1931-2, 279.7, with an average of 379.9 for the 5-year period.

More than 22,000,000 letters were sent to the dead letter office during the last fiscal year.

St. Francis Hospital

Mrs. Frank Lizardi of Trombley was admitted as a medical patient. Betty Marie Johnson, 300 North Thirteenth street, is improving after an operation.

Mrs. Phil Desjardin of Bark River is getting along favorably.

Patients who have been dismissed are: Mrs. Brimley Phillips, South Sixth street, James Gould of Turin, Mrs. Ray Barron, Miss Anna Jacobson of Stonington, John Gucky of Perronville, Antone Wagner, 602 First avenue south, and Mrs. Theodore Menard of Flat Rock.

Bits of Seasoning in Local News for Today

SUNSHINE
Bright warm sunshine alternating with gusts of rain and snow and dark clouds was Escanaba's weather menu Thursday, and one motorist who started out for Iron Mountain turned back at Spaulding because the snow was too thick. Wednesday night brought a queer combination of phenomena. An Aurora blazed in the northern sky and on the opposite side of the heavens lightning flashed. Garden and Fayette were visible for a few moments in an upside-down mirage over Stonington early Thursday. Points farther north reported a heavy fall of wet snow Thursday afternoon.

NOVEMBER? OH, YEAH!
Where are the chill breezes of yesteryear? Not that we are bemoaning this nice weather but we worked so hard on that nice wood-ple we have, we would like to use it. Some of the finest ripe strawberries of the year were bought from a hawker on the streets of Gladstone the other day. Then a little boy brought in a fragrant bouquet of arbutus. Topping of the late summer day Lester Britherton dropped in with a bunch of blue bells picked at North Miami resort on Manistiquette lake.

Five million acres of lumber were burned by forest fires in the United States during 1930, the Forest Service reports.

Muskrat and 'Coon Laws Are Unchanged

Neither the State Legislature nor the Department of Conservation have made any changes in the muskrat and raccoon hunting and trapping laws and regulations, which will remain the same as they were during the fall of 1930. The cost of the muskrat trapping license, however, was raised by legislative action to $2 from $1.50, which permits the use of 20 traps. The cost for the use of each additional trap up to 100, the maximum, is ten cents.

The muskrat season opened in the upper peninsula, November 1, and will close November 30. North of the north line of townline 16 and west of Saginaw Bay the season opens November 15 and closes December 15. South of that line the season will be from December 1 to 31. All dates are inclusive.

The raccoon season remains closed in the upper peninsula. Hunting for raccoons is permitted in the lower peninsula from November 1 to 15 inclusive. They may be trapped north of the north line of Townline 16 and west of Saginaw Bay from November 15 to 30 inclusive and south of that line from December 1 to 15 inclusive.

Start Trapping Now
It has become quite ordinary, according to the Division of Field Administration of the Conservation Department for muskrat trappers to "follow the seasons," many trappers setting their traps in the upper peninsula the early part of November and then moving down through the state as the seasons in the two southern "zones" open.

The Department is again notifying all muskrat trappers that the tags which must be attached to each of their traps, bearing the names and address of the owner, must be of such material that the words will not become obliterated in the water. Many trappers manufacture their own tags with tin and these are satisfactory if they are legible at all times.

No permit is required of any trapper to ship his furs out of the state. It is required, however, that the package shall be plainly labeled showing the contents, the consignee and the consignor.

The only book possessed by Eskimos of Labrador, printed in their own language, has been the Bible.

Pegtop Hips for Fall Evening Wear

Paris (AP)—The pegtop hips which once distinguished brother's trousers have returned to life on sister's evening gown.

Several lace dance frocks in fall style collections were designed with semi-tight hiplines having flared pieces added just above the hip-bones.

The flared additions, which were of stiffened lace, gave a pegtop effect to the frocks.

The new Italian liner, "Rex," may prove to be the fastest afloat.

Bishop Will Visit Parish On November 12

The Rt. Rev. Hayward S. Ablewhite, D. D., Bishop of Marquette, will visit St. Stephen's parish on Thursday, November 12. The Bishop will be accompanied by Dr. John W. Wood, vice president of the National Council, and in charge of Foreign Missions of the church.

Bishop Ablewhite needs no introduction to the people of Escanaba. In the short time that he has been bishop he has endeared himself to the hearts of the people. The members of St. Stephen's parish are always ready to extend a most cordial welcome to the Bishop of the Diocese.

Dr. Wood is an outstanding layman of the church, and has seen many years of service with the National Council and the department of missions. The congregation is very fortunate in having Dr. Wood as a guest of the parish.

Plans for a parish supper for the above event will be announced later.

Church Events

Christian Science Churches "Adam and Fallen Man" will be the subject of the lesson-lesson on all Christian Science churches on Sunday, November 8.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-lesson are the following from the Bible: "For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." (Rom. 8:2).

The lesson-lesson also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Science rolls back the clouds of error with the light of Truth, and lifts the curtain on man as never born and as never dying, but as co-existent with his Creator." (p. 557).

Fifth District Chairman Named

Announcement has been made of the appointment of Miss Adrienne Tounsgant, of this city, as publicity chairman of District No. 5 of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women, which includes the upper peninsula. Under the new plan adopted by the organization, the state has been divided into five districts, and a chairman appointed for each.

These chairmen are in charge of publicity for their districts and in addition are in charge of a clipping service in connection with material for the Independent Woman, official publication of the club.

Favorite Recipe Betty Ann

Mrs. Oscar Peterson, who has given Betty Ann readers so many excellent recipes, generously sends another group of her best recipes to the department for its readers. Among them is this morning's recipe for Oatmeal Cookies.

Oatmeal Cookies Two cups uncooked rolled oats. Two cups flour. One and one-half cups brown sugar.

One-half cup hot water. One cup butter or any preferred shortening. One-half teaspoon salt. One-half teaspoon soda.

Rub shortening into the well-mixed oats and flour, after creaming sugar with shortening. Salt should be sifted with the flour. Dissolve soda in the hot water and stir in gradually. If necessary add more flour, roll thin and bake in quick oven.

New Ice Fishing Law Allows Five Hooks to a Line

Laurens, Mich.—While the winter spear fishermen have been given more waters in which to fish and added species to take, the time in which they may pursue their favorite sport has been shortened. While during 1930 winter spearing for certain species was permitted on inland lakes "during the time these lakes were frozen over," during the coming winter, spearing will be permitted only during the months of January and February. However, spearing will be permitted in all inland waters, except that it will be unlawful to spear in trout streams and quasi-trout streams at any time.

During the winter of 1930, only pickerel, mullet, suckers and red horse could be speared in the inland lakes. During the coming winter the use of spears will be permitted during January and February in the inland waters for carp, sheepshead, suckers, mullet, red horse, lake trout, smelt, pike (great northern, grass pike and pickerel), muskellunge, whitefish, ciscoes, pilotfish or Menominee whitefish, dogfish and garpike.

Lights Prohibited
Spearing is not permitted with the use of a jack or artificial light at any time.

Fishing with the use of hook and line or ice lines only is permitted during the winter for all species during the respective open seasons. Black bass may be taken to December 31, and pike, bluegills, sunfish, warmouth bass and perch may be taken to March 31. Rock bass, calico or strawberry bass and crappies were removed from the list of game fish by the last legislature and may now be taken in any waters open to fishing at any time of the year, and there is no minimum size limit.

Spring spearing in non-trout streams, for carp, suckers, red horse, mullet, dogfish and garpike will be limited in the upper peninsula from March 1 to May 15 and in the lower peninsula from March 1 to April 30.

Winter fishermen who enjoy their sport with ice lines may now use "not to exceed five single hooks which may be attached to not more than five single lines." Formerly ice fishermen were restricted to not to exceed five lines with a single hook attached, but now may use five hooks on one line only if they so desire.

Strom to Address Newberry Lions Monday Evening

Atty. Torval E. Strom will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the Newberry Lions club Monday evening. Other details of the program will be announced later.

Newberry to Send 25 to Marquette For Conference

There will be 25 attending the Older Boy's Conference held in Marquette on November 13, 14 and 15, from the various Newberry organizations, that number already signing up for the trip. Several more may be added before the time arrives and it is hoped that at least 30 will go, doubling the number who attended last year.

A. W. Talcott will be the adult leader. Another man is needed to supervise so large a group, and an effort is being made to find someone to attend with the boys.

The following is the list to date:

- High School: Pat Detzler, Bernard Dwyer, Bill Chapman and Francis Jacobson.
- Bethel Church: Elton Turk.
- Catholic Church: Foy Beaudin and Robert Villemure.
- Finnish Lutheran: Arni Maki.
- Methodist Episcopal: Glen Hunter, Jack Singleton and Jack Tait.
- Presbyterian Church: Lawrence Brown and Kenneth Foster.
- Episcopal Church: Clifford Gangmath.
- Business and Professional Women: Edmund Munson and Neil Lyyki.
- H. Y. Club: James Richmond.
- Junior Class: Lowell Sundstrum.
- Study Club: Calvin West.
- Senior Class: Jay Berry, Frank Taylor and Lee Fahler.
- American Legion: Norris Mahar.
- Sophomore Class: Uno Koski.

The Lions Club will furnish gear and oil for the cars making the trip. This organization did the Conference the same service last year.

Mr. Ivstrom, who is local chairman of the Conference, reports that never before in his connection with this work has he found so much interest shown in the work of the Older Boys. Only one letter was written this year and sent to the various organizations, and the response has been unusually fine.

Rummage Sale—Members of the Degree of Honor will conduct a rummage and bake sale Saturday in the building at 21 Central avenue, between the Riley brothers garage and the Carl Olson barber shop. Selling will begin at 9 in the morning and continue throughout the day.

May Attend Show—Two fairly large and responsive audiences enjoyed the pleasing movie show and musical program presented yesterday at the Methodist Episcopal church by Troop 56, Boy Scouts. The entertainment was featured by "A Maker of Men," a seven-reeler, supplemented by pictures of Shanghai and the Grand Canyon. There were also solo solos by Robert Haskins, music director, and instrumental trio numbers by Robert Haskins, Winifred Jackson and Ann Zervic. Miss Zervic was at the piano during the shows.

Receive Word of Death—Word was received here yesterday of the death in Chequer, Wash., of A. H. Powell, passed away in the western city on Oct. 31, following a heart attack. Mr. Powell was a former resident of Gladstone and was widely known in the city.

Masonic Meeting—Regular communication of Gladstone Lodge No. 296, F. & A. M., will be held this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, at the Masonic hall.

Fall Auction—The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will conduct their annual fall auction this evening in the church parlors. The event will start at 7:45 o'clock and besides articles of fancy needlework there will be an assortment of other articles and rugs. The public may attend.

Pre-School Clinic Success; Last One To Be Next Week

The third clinic of a series of four, for the purpose of immunizing children of pre-school age from diphtheria, held Wednesday afternoon in the welfare room in the city.

Dr. O. S. Hult was the physician in charge of the clinic and he was assisted by Miss Wilena Tracy, R. N., municipal nurse, and Mesdames J. F. Richardson, J. D. Staple and Margaret Kannev of the Child's Welfare club.

Because of a mistle day falling on Wednesday, next week's clinic, the final one, will be postponed a day and will be held in the usual place on Thursday a terminus. Dr. James M. Tehell will be the physician in charge and he will be assisted by Miss Tracy and members of the Welfare club.

It is being their children to the clinic about 1:30 o'clock in order that everything may be a readiness for the treating of arms at 2 o'clock.

Earl Dabney, 45, Formerly Of This City, Passes Away

Earl Dabney, 45, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dabney of this city, passed away at 1:15 a. m. yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Dabney left here a week ago for Escanaba and were with their son at the time of his death. Death was caused by heart failure following a stroke of pneumonia.

Deceased is a former resident of Gladstone having resided here for sometime until eight years ago when he removed to the lower peninsula.

He is survived by his wife and two grown children, Betsy and Delbert, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dabney of this city, and four brothers and one sister, Floyd, city, Richard and one sister, Buffalo, N. Y., Clifford of Findley, Ohio, and Mrs. Edward Nickle of Evanston, Ill.

The message received here did not reveal arrangements for the funeral.

Water from Creeks Poison Several Local Sportsmen

Between eight and ten people of this city, mostly sportsmen, have become ill from drinking swamp water within the last week. It was reported yesterday, in an effort to warn hunters and others of the dangerousness of the practice.

Those becoming ill were affected in various degrees, and in one instance the illness almost proved fatal.

It is pointed out that creeks and swamps have been dry during the summer months and that with recent rains surface waters have dissolved the organic poisons in the swamps and creek beds, poisoning the water and making it unsafe for drinking purposes.

New Congressman, "Dirt Farmer", Is Foe of Prohibition

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 4. (AP)—Michael J. Hart, first Democratic Representative-elect in Congress from the Eighth Michigan district in 33 years, believes both prohibition and the federal farm board have "failed to serve their purposes."

Although he advocated prohibition modification in his campaign, he considered economic conditions rather than prohibition the paramount issue.

Born in Waterloo, Quebec, in 1877, Hart has been a farmer grain and bean dealer in Saginaw county for 30 years. He is pledged to an agricultural relief program and opposes the Hawley-Smoot tariff and intrusion of government into private business.

Living in a district which was known as "Joe Fordney's District" during the years from 1898 to 1922 when the author of the "Fordney Tariff" was being elected and re-elected to Congress, Hart's political activities have not been noteworthy.

Last year, he was defeated by the late Rep. Bird J. Vincent by a 30,000 majority and had only a 300 majority over William B. Mershon, Jr., of Saginaw, in the Democratic primary a month ago.

In the election just past, Hart had the support of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform, the Crusaders and other anti-prohibition societies, while Foss O. Eldred, his opponent, was known as the candidate of dry organizations.

Education Week to Be Observed at H. S.

American Education Week will be observed at the local high school from Monday to Friday according to an announcement made by R. H. Wilson, high school principal. The program outlined by the United States office of education is as follows:

Monday—What the schools are helping America to achieve in economic progress.

Tuesday—What the schools are helping America to achieve in child health and protection.

Wednesday—What the schools are helping America to achieve in citizenship and loyalty to law.

Thursday—What the schools are helping America to achieve in improvement of rural living.

Friday—What the schools are helping America to achieve through a higher level of intellectual life.

Saturday—What the schools are helping America to achieve through the enrichment of adult life.

Sunday—What the schools are helping America to achieve through high ideals of character and home life.

In as much as the high school will not be in session on Saturday and Sunday, the last two subjects will not be discussed.

Carries Loaded Gun In Auto; Fined $25

Pleading guilty to a charge of carrying a loaded gun in an automobile, Charles Smith, of Seney, paid a fine of $25 including costs when arraigned Wednesday morning before Judge W. G. Stephens in justice court.

The complaint in the case was made by Bert Furst, deputy conservation officer, who arrested Smith in company with three others on the evening of October 19, 77, Sydney Emerson, whom officers found with a gun in his hand was freed by a justice court jury two weeks ago when he was charged with attempting to hunt, kill, and pursue deer. Smith was charged with the same offense but the charge was dropped and the new complaint made against him.

District Deputy to Be Present At Elks Meeting Tomorrow

The local lodge of Elks are holding a special meeting Friday evening of this week at which time District Deputy Joseph Thomas will be present. The meeting will be preceded by a fish dinner at 6:30 in the club rooms followed later in the evening by the initiatory ceremony. A large attendance of the membership is expected.

CORRECTION

In yesterday's edition of this paper the name Mrs. W. S. Gross instead of M. S. W. S. Crowe was unintentionally published in connection with the article relative to a reception given a week ago Thursday in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Gross. Mrs. Crowe was chairman of the entertainment committee and is president of the Baptist Ladies' Aid society.

STOCKS CLOSE ON LOW LEVELS

Table with columns for STOCK MARKET AVERAGES (By The Associated Press) and NEW YORK STOCKS (Last Sales). Includes data for Dow Jones Industrial Average, S&P 500, and various individual stock prices.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY (Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, Nov. 5. (AP)—Strong markets for commodities and bonds failed to arouse much sympathetic enthusiasm in stocks today.

The market, after selling moderately higher in the morning, fell back during the afternoon and closed irregularly lower, although above the day's minimums. There was intermittent group strength in metals, based on the 1 1/2 cent rise in silver.

Final changes on leading stocks were mostly fractional. U. S. Steel, American Can, General Electric, National Biscuit, Case, Paramount, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Consolidated Gas and Baltimore & Ohio were off 1/4 to 7/8 net. American Tobacco B lost a point. Union Pacific and Atchafalaya gained 2 1/2 while Western Union duplicated its 10-year low at 76, off 3/4.

Final changes on leading stocks were mostly fractional. U. S. Steel, American Can, General Electric, National Biscuit, Case, Paramount, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Consolidated Gas and Baltimore & Ohio were off 1/4 to 7/8 net.

Sterling exchange reacted about a cent and a half but closed half a cent higher at $3.76 1/2 for cables. Francs advanced a little, but the Reichmark advanced with German bonds.

CHICAGO PRICES

Table of CHICAGO POTATOES prices for various grades and quantities, including prices for 100 lbs and 50 lbs.

Table of CHICAGO GRAIN prices for wheat, corn, and other grains, including prices for No. 1, 2, and 3 grades.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Potatoes 60¢ on track 55¢ total U. S. shipments 77¢; dull, rather rather slow; sacked per cwt., Wisconsin Round Whites 79 to 82¢; Minn. Round Whites 79 to 82¢; Minn. Round Whites 79 to 82¢; Minn. Round Whites 79 to 82¢.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Boiling orders today swept all cereals to a dizzy altitude, but at least temporary market overstrain was unmistakable at the last.

A sudden reaction in the final dealings tumbled prices backward, with sellers more numerous than buyers for the time being. Earlier record breaking new advances, however, had been of such extent that even on the setback all grains were higher than yesterday.

Wheat closed unsteady, 1 1/4 to 1 3/4 cents below the day's top, and 7/8 to 1 1/2 above yesterday's finish, corn 1/4 to 3/4 advanced, oats 1/2 to 1 up, and provisions showing a rise of 5 to 22 cents.

Maximum wheat advances today were more than 20 cents a bushel above the market level of a month ago, with attention centered on Europe's apparently critical position as to breadstuffs.

Corn showed a more sustained strength than wheat, a circumstance seemingly due in part to perfecting of credit measures for facilitating farm storage of corn. Oats and rye responded to indications that both were enjoying fruits of an overcast demand.

See well enough by this time to see that he was smiling fondly. She squeezed his arm tighter. "Awfully," she said. They did not seem to be in a hurry to go. He held her against him for a breathless minute or two, and whispered, "It's been a long time."

That was one of their own particular jokes; sometimes they even said it between kisses, and it seemed terribly funny. It didn't seem funny now, for it had been a long time... since last night, in fact. Two o'clock this morning, rather. Arms about each other, they went upstairs.

The blaze of light that followed when Dirk had opened the office door and punched the button was blinding. Mary threw up her hands to protect her eyes from it. Dirk went straight to the safe and began twirling the knob. Mary unfastened a ruby necklace, held it up for a last admiring glance and put it into the safe. Her father held her out for it. He laid it away inside, shut the door and spun the knob.

"Phew!" he said, getting up and dusting off his hands. "Thank God that's done!" He made a pretense of mopping his fevered brow with a handkerchief. "Five more minutes with that thing on my mind, and I'd have buckled under the strain."

Dirk was about to reply, when the very windows reverberated with the force of a crash in the street outside. Pausing only long enough to pick up the gun, Bowen had given him, Dirk rushed to one of the windows which faced Nassau street, lifted it and looked out.

Interest In Bond Market Increases

New York, Nov. 5. (AP)—The curb market turned somewhat heavy in the later trading today, as efforts to extend the recent advance seemed to be encountering considerable opposition.

The recent upturn in the oils was checked, and utilities generally turned downward. Trading continued in moderate volume with a turnover of about 300,000 shares, roughly duplicating yesterday's.

American Gas and Electric lost a point, and American Superpower sagged most fractions. United Light A pushed up in the early trading, then lost its rise.

Dividends on both the common and convertible preference stocks were omitted Aug. 6. The last payments on these issues were 25 cents on the common and 6 1/2 cents on the convertible preference stocks July 1 last.

Trustee Appointed. Menominee—Frank X. St. Peter, president of Carpenter Cook company and the Commercial Bank of Menominee, was named trustee of the bankrupt Menominee River Sugar company late yesterday by Richard T. Looney, referee in bankruptcy, at a meeting of the sugar company's creditors held in the court house.

St. Peter's appointment as trustee followed failure of the creditors to elect a trustee in balloting for W. B. Gregory, printer, and John J. O'Hara, attorney. Bankruptcy law requires that creditors elect a trustee by a majority of the number of creditor votes cast and also that the majority of votes represent a major portion of the claims against the bankrupt company.

Truck Runs Away. Calumet—Leaping from a loaded runaway 3-ton truck, two Keweenaw county road commission employees, suffered broken legs last night. They made their jump to safety just before the truck crashed through an unoccupied dwelling and then careened another 75 feet to plunge into Lake Superior.

The truck loaded with three tons of gravel, was proceeding down a seven per cent grade when suddenly something went wrong with its brakes. The truck gathered speed and raced nearly a half mile before Jacob Ranta and Ruben Peltto, both 29, deserted it.

Nov. 5. (Special)—Miss Esther Morin of Turin, Mich., visited at the Louis Gunville home Saturday.

Mr. Ed Brabant's son George left Tuesday morning to visit relatives in Chicago for a few days.

William Arnold spent a few days in Rexton with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Cory spent the week-end with relatives at Oconto.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson of Escanaba visited at the Loefler home Saturday afternoon.

Louis Gunville is having a well drilled near his farm home. The work is being done by Mr. Lebeau of Nadeau.

Shirley, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cavada of Camp 3 who fell from a table that she had climbed upon, and fractured her elbow, several weeks ago is making a satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. Charlotte E. Nelson of Wilson spent Friday afternoon at the Theodore Fazer home.

Married at Spalding. Powers, Nov. 5. (Special)—Mrs. Mary Tongway of Spalding and Joseph Tonyway of Norway were quietly married at St. Francis Xavier's church, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The attending were Mrs. E. Passinault and Francis Pouquette of this place. They will reside at the home of the former at Spalding.

Miscellaneous Shower. The members of the Lutheran congregation tendered their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Kahrs, a very pleasant surprise Friday afternoon, in the form of a miscellaneous shower, at the parsonage. The afternoon was spent in a social manner. A delicious supper was served at 5 o'clock to over twenty guests.

New York, Nov. 5. (AP)—Clarence M. Brown, formerly vice president and general manager of the Pittsburgh Glass Co., has been elected chairman of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William L. Clause. Harold F. Pitcairn, president of the Autogiro Co. of America, has been elected a director.

State and municipal bond offerings in October, as compiled by the Daily Bond Buyer, dropped to $15,649,702 from $118,772,427 in September this year, and $158,380,495 in October last year. Total state and municipal bond issues for the first ten months this year amounted to $1,153,948,668, against $1,191,185,492 in the like period of 1930.

Continental Can Co. has included an agreement with J. J. Parochials Ready for Scrap With Norway Team

VIKINGS HAVE STRONG OUTFIT

Brunelle Perfects Pass Attack to Stop Gray to Ranguette Team

A long signal drill, work on fundamentals, and the perfection of the pass defense which is hoped to check the reputed powerful overhead attack of the Vikings constituted the practice session of the St. Joseph gridlers last evening in their last hard workout before the title scrap. Tonight the squad will go out to the athletic field and Coach Brunelle will point out just in what position of the field such a play will work and in which position of the field the same play will not work. Punting, passing, and field goal kicking practice also will be included in the evening's workout.

The Parochial backs last evening spent considerable time on the perfection of their punts, sidestepping and change of pace. Brunelle indicated he wants his ball carriers to use a few of these tricks against Norway on Saturday instead of just trying to run wild every time they start off with the ball.

The Parochials are not underrating the strength of Norway's machine. Among other achievements they handed Manistiquette a severe beating that the Parochials gave the Cookmen in addition to scoring two touchdowns against Coach Thune's Mountaineers. The Vikings have been pointing towards the Parochials for the past two weeks and they will reach this city geared to a fever pitch.

Strong Pass Attack

St. Joseph with six hard games already past has an excellent chance of going through their season undefeated. They have won five games and have played one scoreless tie. However, two tough opponents stand in their path before they can claim this honor and they are taking each of these opponents very seriously. Norway is the first obstacle, followed by Kingsford on Armistice Day.

Coach Murray has built up one of the smoothest passing attacks in the peninsula as seen this year in the Gray to Ranguette combination. The Viking fullback, Gray, who tosses the passes is exceptionally cool under fire and an accurate tosser. The Parochials must stop this attack in order to sew up the visitors' offense.

Norway scored all of their points against Manistiquette—20 on passes as well as running up two touchdowns against Iron Mountain. Last week they came back in the second half with the score 7 to 0 against them and marched all the way down the field on short passes against Kingsford and counted an extra point to get an even break in the game.

The largest crowd of the season is expected to see the Parochials in action against the Vikings. Ted Baldwin of Michigan will referee with Latimer and Geraudeau of Wash assisting him.

On Sidelines at Grid Camps

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 5 (AP)—After a final drill on defense against Michigan passes three Indiana football varsity teams trained for Ann Arbor tonight.

The squad will work out in the Michigan stadium tomorrow and spend the night at Ypsilanti. To add weight to the Hoosier backfield, Coach Hayes shifted Oren, halfback and announced he would start against the Wolverines.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 5 (AP)—Feeling Centenary's much-heralded open attack, Coach Kizer spent Purdue's last drill this afternoon in working the backs on a passing defense. The Bollermakers have been effective against this form of attack this year.

Columbus, Nov. 5 (AP)—Coach Sam Willman and his Ohio State university squad of varsity football players completed their training for the homecoming contest with Navy Saturday.

Behind locked gates the Bucks scampers through a pass offensive and defense, brushed up on new plays and hit the tackling dummy a few times.

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 5 (AP)—Coach Bob Zuppke looked at a band of crinoids today as Illinois took its last hard drill for the Wisconsin game, Herman Walter, halfback, and Art Schmitz, end, were unable to work and Gil Berry, best of the Illinois backs, was in the hospital resting. Berry probably will be ready for action against the Badgers, however.

Chicago, Nov. 5 (AP)—A brisk offensive scrimmage today finished up Chicago's preparation for Arkansas. The Maroons' casualty list had dwindled and the Razorbacks probably will meet Coach A. A. Stagg's best lineup.

Evanston, Ill., Nov. 5 (AP)—Roy Auguston, sophomore backfield star who was moved to Northwestern's first squad last week, probably will see considerable action against Minnesota Saturday. Auguston, who is being prepared as understudy to Pug Renner, had shown real ability in passing and has developed rapidly as a ball carrier.

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 5 (AP)—An eleventh hour attempt to provide the University of Iowa football team with a formidable forward passing attack and an adequate defense against Nebraska passes was made in the Hawkeyes final home practice today.

Coach Bert Ingwersen announced intentions of starting Cleaman and Loufek, a new pair of ends, against the Huskers Saturday.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 5 (AP)—Apparently unable to revive the enthusiasm which Minnesota crushed last week-end, Wisconsin's Badgers finished the last scrimmage of the week today in preparation for the game with Illinois. The Badgers will show their weakest team of the season against the Illinois with Charles Goldenberg, quarter, and Bobby Schuller, halfback, both out with injured legs and several linemen in bruised condition.

Minneapolis, Nov. 5 (AP)—Thirty five Minnesota football players after the last practice tonight boarded a train for Evanston, Ill., for their engagement with Northwestern Saturday for the Big Ten leadership.

Coach Fritz Crisler headed a squad of battered Gophers out of town. Forced to keep away from hard drill by results of the hard Wisconsin game, the Gophers have been limited in their preparations this week.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 5 (AP)—Ed Krause, sophomore tackle, today was moved back into Notre Dame's regular line and will start in place of Al Culver against Pennsylvania Saturday. Coach Hank Anderson handed out a long offensive drill, adding a few new plays to the Irish collection in the last hard workout of the week. The Penn squad of 33 men will arrive tomorrow and will be quartered at Niles, Mich.

Ironwood Signs To Meet Thunemen In Charity Battle

Ironwood, Nov. 5 (Special)—An announcement was made today by A. E. Erickson, Ironwood principal, that the Iron Mountain high school and the Ironwood High Devils will play in a charity game at Iron Mountain Saturday, Nov. 14. Terms were agreed upon this week by officials of the two schools. Ironwood will receive a stipulated guarantee, while the Mountaineers will donate their share of the proceeds to the Iron Mountain relief fund.

Coming Here in 1932

Under the terms of the contract entered into between the school officials, Ironwood will play at Iron Mountain this year and the Mountaineers will come here next year for an Armistice Day contest.

When the schedules were drawn this year, it was impossible for officials of the two schools to agree upon a suitable date. Iron Mountain objected to the early date that was offered by Ironwood. Local school officials at that time found it impossible to revise their schedule and as a result no game was scheduled.

Because Ironwood and Iron Mountain have developed a spirited rivalry since they began meeting on the gridiron four years ago, fans of both cities began clamoring for a game between the two teams.

Iron Mountain has lost two games this year, one to Stambaugh and one to Escanaba. The Escanaba game was lost during the time that Coach Lars Thune was at Minneapolis attending the funeral of a relative. The Stambaugh game was dropped while Les Johnson, one of the fastest track men in the upper peninsula and a speed demon on the gridiron, was in a hospital.

Tax on Sunshine Proposed

To help the national finances in France, a tax on sunshine has been proposed. The argument is that, as sunlight spells health and enjoyment, people who live in a sunny part of the country should pay more to the national treasury than those who live where it is damp and dull. It is urged that the people in each district should be taxed according to the number of hours of sunshine recorded for it annually.

The daily replacement of worn-out currency in the United States is about $10,000,000.

KIPKE SEEKING PASS OFFENSE

Believes Wolverines in Need of Overhead Game Saturday

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 5 (AP)—Search for a successful forward passing combination continued in the Michigan football camp today. Coach Harry Kipke drove his players through a long passing drill which continued until a rain and hail storm drove the squad indoors.

Backs and ends finally began to connect on a few heaves and all in all showed improvement over their indifferent work of Wednesday. Newman, Hewitt and Renner, a sophomore promoted last week from the "B" team, did most of the throwing. Kipke is convinced he must have an aerial threat to defeat Indiana here Saturday.

Danels, Williamson and Hoyer were on the receiving end on several successful forward passes this afternoon.

Lajeunesse is Out

The day's work began with a punting session in which Jack Heston, Tesser and Renner were getting off some long spirals. Fay, Westover and Newman practiced catching punts, while linemen warmed up going down under kicks.

The probable lineup for Saturday's game indicates that Michigan will be at full strength except that Omer Lajeunesse will be missing from his position at left guard. He received a sprained ankle in the Princeton game. His condition has improved rapidly, but he is slated to remain out of the Indiana game.

Walkin will start at left guard, with Hoyer on the other side of Maynard Morrison, the pivot man. Auer and Samuel will start at tackle. Williamson and Petoskey at ends. Tesser at quarterback, Fay and Hudson at the halves, and Hewitt at fullback.

Indiana's probable lineup includes Dicke and Hansen, ends; Ruscher and Rheem, tackles; Kecklich and Zeller, guards; Spannuth, center; Opsak, quarterback; V. Dauer and Saluski, halfbacks, and Jones, fullback.

Coach Ray Cortwright will take twenty-one members of the "B" squad to Bloomington to play the Indiana Junior varsity Saturday. The Michigan "Bees" will be trying for their first Big Ten victory this year.

Rangers to End Grid Schedule Next Sunday Against Mountaineers

The ninth and last football game of the season for the Escanaba Rangers will be played at the Escanaba athletic field next Sunday afternoon with Coach Thompson's Red Birds meeting a rejuvenated Iron Mountain city club. With five victories, two defeats, and one tie as the record to date, the Rangers hope to chalk up an even .750 record mark for their season's record by defeating the Mountaineers in the season's finale.

The management of the Escanaba Rangers will be played at the Escanaba athletic field next Sunday afternoon with Coach Thompson's Red Birds meeting a rejuvenated Iron Mountain city club. With five victories, two defeats, and one tie as the record to date, the Rangers hope to chalk up an even .750 record mark for their season's record by defeating the Mountaineers in the season's finale.

The offense and defense was given another brushing up last evening by Coach Thompson in anticipation of a tough battle.

Clem Flanagan will referee the game with Edick umpire and Williams head linesman.

MOUNTAINEERS READY

Iron Mountain (Special)—Clicking at last, Iron Mountain's city football team is preparing this week for its engagement at Escanaba Sunday when it meets the Rangers in a return engagement. The Escanabans smeared the city gridlers, 25-0, in the first game of the season, but there is every indication that the score will be much closer this week.

The Mountaineers will be in good shape for the game, as they were idle last week.

The return of Charley LaFave, the pint-sized field general from Norway, seems to have furnished the spark plug necessary to get the team started.

In its last engagement Iron Mountain made ironwood step fast to take a 25-4 decision. The week following the Bears cracked out a 33-0 victory over Stambaugh, so it would appear that there is reason to feel the team is looking up these days.

Two games remain on the slate. Besides Escanaba, Ishpeming remains on the schedule and will be met here in what appears now to be the final game on the schedule.

There is some talk of a meeting with the North Side Cardinals, although no definite arrangements have been discussed.

CROWLEY WILL START VARSITY

Spartan Reserves Will Probably Carry Most of Burden

East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 5 (AP)—Although the Michigan State College reserves are regarded as ready to swing in against Ripon College here Saturday in the last home game of the season, Coach Jimmy Crowley will call upon his regulars to meet the charge of the invaders. Ripon's feat of winning the title of Big Four championship this fall and gaining a tie for the lead of the mid-west league has prompted the Spartan mentor to prepare his regulars to start the game.

Ripon's mode of attack did not impress a reserve team tonight in a scrimmage. Equipped with the plays of the Wisconsin eleven, a freshman team tried to push the reserves back but had little success.

Expect Competition

In Captain Ryno Anderson and Roger Martin the Redman have a pair of halfbacks who are highly touted. They promise to give the Spartans some work Saturday.

Ralph Brunette, right tackle, was the only Spartan regular who saw service this afternoon. The other players ran through signals under the direction of Assistant Coach Glenn Carberry.

Three backs who were not used in scrimmage yesterday were placed in the starting lineup this afternoon. Beattie and Johnson were at the halves and LaFayette at fullback. Schwartz piloted the team. George Carlson sustained injuries yesterday that kept him inactive today so Jay and Dill handled the guards. Exo and Brunette manned the tackles with Haun and Keast at end.

MANDELL MAY NOT GET PAID

Ordered From Ring in Eighth Round Wednesday Night

BY CHARLES DUKLEY (Asst. Press Sports Writer) Chicago, Nov. 5 (AP)—Sammy Mandell, now only a ghost of the greatest boxer of his time, faces the humiliation of not receiving a cent as the result of being ordered from the ring in the eighth round of his pitiful engagement with Ralph Lenny, after the Battalino-Mastro featherweight championship fight in the Chicago stadium last night.

Under the rules of the Illinois state athletic commission, the purse of a boxer tossed out of the ring is automatically forfeited, and the only compensation he may receive is trainfare to and from his home, plus $25 a day for training expenses.

End of Career

But despite the pleas of his friends, Mandell will attempt to continue boxing. He thinks he received a fair deal when Referee Tommy Thomas declared his bout with Lenny "no contest" in the eighth round of a scheduled ten-rounder which followed the blistering featherweight title fight.

Thus Mandell, once a really great ring master, came to the end of a brilliant career, a pathetic, tragic figure.

In his last bout in the stadium with Jimmy McLarnin, Mandell received $23,000. Yet less than 18 months later, in the same ring, Mandell appeared for a purse of $1,500. Mandell says the sum he was to have been paid, but he must appear before the commission next Monday to show cause why the purse should not be forfeited.

In justice to Mandell and Lenny, there are no grounds for suspecting they were faking. Mandell simply had nothing to offer the spectators who once marvelled at his craft. It was a case of a tired old ringman, weary of his task.

Eskey Parochials And Kingsford to Play for Charity

Big Year in Hockey Expected for "Maple Leaf" Club

Toronto, Nov. 5 (AP)—Toronto fans are saying this is "Maple Leaf" year. In the National Hockey League.

Cheered by the late rush of the team last spring which carried it into the playoffs and by the addition of three good players from the disbanded Ottawa and Philadelphia organizations, they can see nothing less than a first or second place in the International group for the 1931-32 edition of the Leafs.

Coach Conny Smythe is sure he has the makings of a Stanley cup winner.

Clancy is Back

The one man to whom most credit was given for Toronto's fighting comeback last year and on whom Smythe is pinning chief hopes for this year is Frank "King" Clancy, 170 pounds of defensive dynamite who never stops trying until the last whistle blows.

With Clancy on the back line this year, as the team lines up in training, are Alex Levinsky and Red Horner. Lorne Chabot, the veteran obtained from the New York Rangers two years ago, will be in the nets with Benny Grant in reserve. Up Forward Smythe will have Joe Primeau, Charles Conacher, brother of Lionel, Hal Cotton, Hal Barrach, Sid Howe, Frank Finnigan, Andy Black, Bob Gracie, Harvey Jackson and Ace Bailey.

The three newcomers—Finnigan, Howe and Barrach—all played with Clancy at Ottawa at one time or another and are familiar with each other's style of puck chasing.

The Leafs this year will be both heavy and fast, the team averaging around 173 pounds with the weight evenly distributed between the front and back lines.

Detroit, Nov. 5. (AP)—Forty amateur boxers from many cities will slug each other for charity at Olympia tomorrow night on a fight card arranged as a benefit for the Detroit school children's food fund.

Split Buck is One of Oldest Deception Plays in Football—and Still Successful.

The split buck in football has nothing to do with a 60-40 division of a dollar bill. Neither is it even remotely related to the gin bucks one frequently sees at some of the big games.

The split buck, perhaps as frequently called the delayed buck, is one of the oldest deception plays in football. It is still successfully used by many teams.

Doubtless everybody recognizes the straight line buck, which is the simplest of all plays. The back receives the ball from the quarterback or directly from the center and plows into the line. The split buck also is a line plunge, but delayed long enough to give the other backs a chance to draw the defensive fullback out of position.

Jaskwich takes the ball from center and fakes a pass to Sheeketski, who dashes with Schwartz into the opening between end and tackle. Melnikovich delays a moment, then drives toward the hole opened for him between right guard and right tackle. Jaskwich hands him the ball as he goes by.

Jaskwich and Sheeketski must work to hide the ball as long as possible. Melnikovich also must cover the ball so that the defensive fullback will not switch his drive against Schwartz and Sheeketski.

The tooth of a prehistoric monster, weighing four tons, was recently unearthed near Evansville, Ind., beneath the bed of the Ohio river. It was buried under 85 feet of earth.

Barry Wood is Busy Student

Harvard Star Has Many Things to Look After Besides Football

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 5 (AP)—There may be some differences of opinion whether William Barry Wood is the greatest captain and the brainiest quarterback in Harvard's football history but none can deny that he is the busiest one.

A check on his gridiron activities revealed the rapid strides he has made in the game since last season and investigation of his class room and extra-curricular achievements disclosed an amazing list of accomplishments for a youth engaged in varsity sport every day of the school year.

Even with the added responsibility of the captaincy, Wood found time to develop himself into an all-round football player this season. During his two previous years, he was just a cool general and one of the greatest forward passers in the game, but he has acquired enough running, blocking and tackling technique to become not only the main cog in the drive that has swept Harvard to five consecutive victories but also to qualify for All-American consideration.

As befitted a leader, Wood has played a total of 158 minutes this season, at least 16 minutes longer than any other member of the squad, despite the fact that he missed all of last week's encounter with Virginia. Wood has yet to call time out for himself.

Although the pressure is great with Harvard aiming for its first undefeated season since 1913 Wood finds time to maintain not only his Phi Beta Kappa standing but also to fill the offices of president of the Senior class and Student Council.

As Council head, he has led that body of crusading undergraduates through a campaign to relieve unemployment. President A. Lawrence Lowell and various alumni bodies have approved the Council's plan to take up unemployment collections during the coming Dartmouth, Holy Cross and Yale games in the stadium.

The Council's suggestions as to the disposal of the collections have also been accepted and half of the proceeds will be turned over to the presidents of Dartmouth, Holy Cross and Yale for distribution as they see fit.

Tennis Association To Meet On Feb. 6

New York, Nov. 5. (AP)—The United States Tennis association announced today it had selected February 6, 1932, as the date for its annual meeting which will be at New Orleans.

In the opinion of those high in the council of the organization, the meeting promises to be one of the liveliest in history. The matter of ranking the country's tennis stars will, for the first time, be fought out on the convention floor, since under a new rule, the ranking committee will be required to make public its selections at least a month before the meeting and final decision will be made in open session.

Giants Announce 3 Of 5 Players In Deal for Koencke

New York, Nov. 5. (AP)—Three of the five players involved in the $75,000 deal for Leonard Koencke, star Indianapolis outfielder, were announced today by the New York Giants.

The New York club made known it had consigned Pitchers Joe Heving and John Berly, right handers, as well as Outfielder Harry Rosenberg to Indianapolis as majority payment for the player expected to bolster the outer works of the Giants in 1932.

Pitcher Johnny Cooney, former major leaguer, already has been transferred to Indianapolis via Toledo in connection with the deal.

A fifth player, as yet unselected, will be sent to Indianapolis in the spring, after Manager John McGraw has had a chance to inspect the talent in training camp at Los Angeles.

Koencke was one of the most sought-after minor league outfielders. He achieved a reputation as a slugger but also impressed McGraw, who personally scouted the recruit, with his speed and all-around ability.

Boxing

Widespread interest in the plans to organize a Business and Professional Men's Volley Ball League is being displayed, and it is expected that when the schedule is drawn up there will be about a dozen teams entered.

The personnel of the Daily Press team was announced yesterday as follows: Egan Johnson, Frank Lindenthal, George Petersen, William J. Duchaine, L. A. Danielson, Walter Holreth, Guy W. Traverser and Leonard Stade.

The members of the Premiums diamond ball team are planning to organize a volley ball team, and the Kiwanis club is also considering entering a team into the league. Several other aggregations are being formed.

BOXING

Ypsilanti, Mich., Nov. 5 (AP)—Whipley Gorsline of Brown City and Eddie Doran of Jackson fought ten rounds to a draw in the main bout of a boxing card here tonight. Gorsline weighed 170 pounds; Doran, 181.

Results of other bouts:

Leo Schneider, 141, Milwaukee, outpointed Marty Houck, 136, Pontiac, (6).

Griff Walker, 145, Wyandotte, outpointed Frankie Kolack, 144, Cleveland, (6).

Erne Maurer, 122, Dearborn, knocked out Timothy Flynn, 116, Detroit, (1).

Young E. Villio, 133, Cuba, knocked out Kid Williams, 139, Detroit (3).

Stapleton Takes On Packers Sunday

Many outstanding stars of the gridiron have paraded across the Green Bay gridiron in opposition to the twice champion Packers and have been the most colorful players of the modern game, but none has achieved greater success than the spearhead of the Stapleton offense, Ken Strong, all-American college and professional star. Strong will invade Green Bay's stronghold Sunday surrounded by a galaxy of former college luminaries, the National League leaders and champions.

The Green Bay Packers in their determined bid for their third successive national pro football championship have participated in a scoring spree this fall which puts Coach Lambeau's team far in the lead in the point scoring column.

In eight games, the Packers have scored 187 points or more than Portsmouth and the Chicago Bears combined. Portsmouth, the second place club in the percentage table, has counted 119 points in nine games while the New York Giants are credited with 75 in seven contests and the Chicago Bears 67 in a half-dozen combats. Philadelphia trails in the point scoring with only 13 but strange to relate all these points were chalked up in the game against the Bears and brought about the Yellowjackets' only victory of the season.

"LO-CURL" The Overcoat hit of the Season!

THEY tell us THIS man CAPONE was a SMART man WHICH might be TRUE, but THERE is one MAN in this TOWN that is SMARTER than THE Chicago BEER Sultan. HE is the MAN who came INTO our store ONE day last WEEK and bought ONE of the new LO-CURL overcoats FOR only $25. He was BIG money like $75 and even $100 and $135 LIKE the gangster CAPONE from CHICAGO. He was in AGAIN today and TOLD us he likes LO-CURL better THAN any other OVERCOAT he has EVER had and he WAS very well SATISFIED and he ISN'T taking any CHANCES of having THE internal revenue COLLECTORS accuse HIM of spending too MUCH money for OVERCOATS and SUITS because $25 IS not too much FOR a Virgin wool OVERCOAT that is TAILORED as if for a KING. HE made us feel GOOD because a SATISFIED customer IS our best Ad.

Half Holiday In Stores Nov. 11th

By mutual agreement, stores in Escanaba will be open during the forenoon of November 11, but will close at noon for the rest of the day in observance of Armistice Day, now a legal holiday in Michigan.

Banks will not be open for business Nov. 11, and county and city offices will also be closed all day.

Armistice Day is not legal holiday for the schools, according to a definition of the law received from G. N. Otwell, director of education, in a telegram to C. U. Woolpert, Delta county commissioner of schools. Boards of education, however, may decide whether the schools will close on that day.

RESTFUL SLEEP for FRETFUL, FEVERISH CHILD

With Castoria's regulation

When your child tosses and cries out in his sleep, it means he is not comfortable. Very often the trouble is that poisonous waste matter is not being carried off as it should be. Bowels need help—mild, gentle help—but effective. Just the kind Castoria gives. Castoria is a pure vegetable preparation made especially for children's ailments. It contains no harsh, harmful drugs, no narcotics. Don't let your child's rest—and your own—be interrupted. A prompt dose of Castoria will urge stubborn little bowels to act. Then relaxed comfort and restful sleep! Genuine Castoria always has the name:

ESCANABA JAIL WILL GET HEAT

Thirty Year City Hall Bond Issue Is Retired

A bid from George Hogan for installation of a separate heating plant in the city police station and jail was accepted by the city council at their meeting last night. Mr. Hogan's bid was the lowest of three submitted by local plumbing and heating firms. At present the police station is heated from the big boiler in the city hall, and fire must be kept up in the city hall to keep the police station warm during the night. By installing a separate unit for the police department, the city expects to effect a marked economy in the operation of the large city hall heating plant.

Representatives of office equipment firms were present at the council meeting last night to explain different types of filing systems which the city must secure to comply with the new state permanent registration law for voters. Other bids and prices were submitted by letters. The council deferred action on the matter until the next meeting.

Sewers Approved

Two sanitary sewer extension jobs recently authorized by the council came up for the receiving of objections. No objections to the improvement were submitted, and the next step will be the fixing of assessments and calling for objections to the assessments. The new sewers authorized are through the alleys of Block 6, Moore and Matthews second addition, and Block 6, Hessel and Hentchel addition.

Copies of the wording on the bronze plates which are to be placed on the new sewage disposal plant buildings were submitted for the approval of the council. The plate on the main treatment plant will carry the names of all city officials.

Retirement of the $25,000 city hall bond issue was announced. The bonds were issued Oct. 1, 1901, bearing 4 1/2 per cent, and are now all paid off. Expenditures of $1,340 were announced in the poor fund for October. This is about $100 less than October of 1930, when the total was $1,455.

Action was taken to charge off two assessments on the Washington avenue pavement. The amounts were $182.56 on property owned by the state of Michigan and $1,445.23 on Escanaba public school property.

OBITUARY

MRS. VICTORIA BENOIT Marinette—Mrs. Victoria Benoit, 70, widow of Felix Benoit, died Tuesday evening at 9:30 o'clock at the home of her son, Fred Benoit, 324 Parnell street, Marinette. For forty years she had been subject to rheumatism and for the past fourteen years was an invalid, confined to a wheel chair. Last Friday she fell and fractured one hip, the shock resulting in her death.

Mrs. Benoit was a Gold Star Mother, her son, Stephen, falling on the battlefield of Chateau Thierry in France during the World war. She was born in Poland, and when 14 years old she came to the United States, locating in Chicago. Shortly afterwards the family removed to Oconto, where on August 15, 1880 she was married to Felix Benoit, after which they came to Marinette, remaining here continuously. The survivors include one son, Fred, Marinette; daughters, Mrs. Rose Johnson and Mrs. Harry Boyer, Rockford, Ill.; and sisters, Mrs. Louise Benoit, Marinette, and Mrs. Louise Warden, Thomaston, Mich.; twenty-three grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren. A daughter, Mrs. John Gouley, was drowned March 28, 1930, when a truck in which she was riding with family members, went through the ice near Peshtigo Point.

The funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's church, with the Rev. Fr. F. J. Thierant as the celebrant of the requiem mass. Burial will be in Forest Home cemetery.

MRS. PETER O. GIROUX

L'Anse—Mrs. Peter O. Giroux, well known matron, died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Julius Foy, following an illness of six weeks. The deceased, who was 68 years of age, had been ill in bed for two weeks. Death was due to heart failure.

Born on Sept. 15, 1863, at St. Phillip, Canada, Mrs. Giroux moved to Clarksburg, near Ishpeming, with her parents when she was a little child. She was married to Peter Giroux in Ishpeming on Oct. 28, 1889, and later moved to Calumet, where Mr. and Mrs. Giroux lived for 40 years.

Surviving are the husband, four daughters, Mrs. Foy and Mrs. Leo Fortier of L'Anse, Mrs. Fred Garreau and Mrs. Joseph Trombley of Detroit, and four sons, Edward and Wilfred of Calumet, Peter, Jr., of Iron River and Fred of Jackson.

The funeral will be held this morning from Sacred Heart church, the Rev. Fr. Pellissier officiating. Burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

ANDREW HOKENSEN

The body of Andrew Hokensen was removed from the Anderson Funeral Home Thursday afternoon to the family residence, 926 Sheridan Road, where funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. Dr. C. Albert Lund officiating. Interment will be in Lakeview cemetery.

STEPHEN DECENT

The body of Stephen Decent, Sr., of Wells, was removed to the family home yesterday afternoon from the Allo Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's church when a requiem high mass will be celebrated. Interment will be in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Several out-of-town relatives are expected to come to this city to attend the services.

L. M. YOUNG

Oconto, Wis.—L. M. Young, well known Oconto druggist, died suddenly at his home, 1429 Main street, following a heart attack.

Mr. Young was born in Oconomowoc, and would have been 75 years old next Sunday. He came to Oconto in 1901 and had been in business here since. Survivors are his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Jesse Kennedy, Appleton; also one grandson, Dr. Gale Kennedy, Amherst, Mass.

WOAH THERE!

Cincinnati.—Judge A. L. Leubbers freed Harold G. Kates of a charge of wrongfully issuing a $219 check. As Kates walked from the courtroom he was re-arrested by Charles Ellenreider and Lee Flaucher, detective, who sought him on the similar charge for Columbus officials.

The Real Reason

The size of your salary does not decide whether you are rich or poor. The important factor is whether you are living within or above what you earn. Every man and woman is poor who spends more than he earns. Progress, success, security, independence, lie before those who spend less than they earn. Save the difference here.
