EDITORIAL

STARTS IN EAST

THE depression was felt in the east first, and naturally the Atlantic coast states will be the first to emerge from the slough of economic despond.

Whether this was the opinion of your barber, grocer, or butcher, there are definite indications that business conditions are shaping themselves up in this manner.

The Victory Bag company, manufacturers of paper containers at Marinette, has requested the North Western railway to supply a greatly increased number of box cars for shipments to New York.

During the last two years, the general public has gone on a buying strike. The feeling of insecurity that has existed in the average person's mind has caused him to refrain from making the usual expenditures and decide to get along with the old suit of clothes, radio and automobile.

But two years of wear and tear have reduced the usefulness of many goods, and the owners are finally starting to discard the old for the new.

SHOULD HAVE IT

A LARGE number of boys would be keenly disappointed if the proposal to abolish the Citizens' Military Training Camps for the sake of economy is adopted.

The Ishpeming Iron Ore makes some pertinent comments with regard to the movement by misguided pacifists to eliminate the appropriation for the summer camps.

"Saving in every department is essential, but the nation must look beyond the dollar if its defensive organization is threatened." The Iron Ore declares editorially.

The type of opposition has been sufficient to justify the camps in the eyes of most Americans. Pacifists and communists have been hammering away at these camps for years.

DOYLE A CANDIDATE

W. F. DOYLE, of Menominee, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for senator of the Thirtieth district, represented the past few terms by Herbert Rushton, of Escanaba.

Mr. Doyle is well known in the upper peninsula, and particularly in the western counties of the Thirtieth senatorial district.

NO ONE OF SENSE URGES LONE BOYCOTT

RIDICULING talk of an economic boycott against Japan, the Chicago Tribune calls the internationalists and pacifists "idiotically belligerent."

Few of the so-called pacifists are so "illusionist" as to suspect that the United States alone could safely and effectively establish a boycott against Japan.

The only opponents to the proposal to scrap all navies are the nations which have navies.

With all the speeches out of the way, the only thing remaining for the disarmament conference to do is to disarm.

Now that Wall Street has gotten relief, maybe there's a chance for the rest of us.

Now is the time for all good job hunters to come to the aid of their party.

GERMANS TAKE KIEV

On March 2, 1918, German troops occupied the city of Kiev in the Ukraine, after meeting stiff resistance from Ukrainian troops.

British shipping losses for the week were placed at 12 ships of more than 1600 tons displacement each, as compared with 18 in the previous week.

Italian forces on the front in Italy attacked and defeated Austrian troops in the mountain area, seizing huge quantities of stores and provisions.

Russia announced that its delegates to the Russo-German peace conference at Brest-Litovsk would sign the peace treaty giving huge slices of Russia to Germany.

THE DIME-A-DANCE GIRL

(By NEA Service) BY JOAN GLAYTON

CHAPTER XXIV

At the beginning of the long subway ride from Larry's studio to the Brooklyn apartment Ellen was plunged in misery.

Association with Larry had been folly from the beginning. It was late now to mend that original mistake, but mend it Ellen would.

At 11 o'clock she reached the Brooklyn apartment. Molly and Mike were long asleep.

She sealed the envelope and the next night at Dreamland. The long spell of heat had been broken by a welcome rain storm.

She was wrong. She saw him the next night at Dreamland. The long spell of heat had been broken by a welcome rain storm.

placed it on the bureau for morning mailing. She was in bed but she was not asleep when Myra entered and turned on the lights.

"Awake, Ellen!" she asked softly.

Ellen kept her eyes shut a minute and then opened them.

"Why'd you run away from us?" Myra demanded.

"He needn't worry any more," Ellen replied quietly.

"What is it? Did something happen?"

When Ellen did not answer Myra went on viciously.

"Don't let's discuss it, Myra," she said with a catch in her breath.

"I can't stay a minute," he said quickly, reaching out to claim her cold hands.

"I had that note of yours this afternoon. It's all a lot of nonsense. I won't let you throw me down like that."

"Maybe you'll have to," she had begun when he pulled her, half resisting, out on a rain swept balcony.

To the left the lights of Broadway flared and subsided and flared again.

"Under the coping," he told her, "and you'll not get wet. I had to talk to you a minute—alone."

"All right," said Ellen faintly. She felt the cold dash of rain against her face, across her bare arms.

"You're a darling."

He leaned forward. His arms were about her, his eager, searching mouth found her lips.

And again they kissed in the rain.

"What do you think of that?" Larry exclaimed and then was gone.

Ellen stayed for a long time with the wind and with the rain.

When she went inside her eyes were still bright with remembered kisses, her heart kept up its hard and happy beat.

There was nothing critical now

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch

(Copyright 1931 by Douglas Malloch)

THIS AND THAT

We'll worry a little, for worry we will. We'll trouble a little, though little the ill. We'll sorrow a little, for sorrows appear. We'll wonder a little, when sorrow is here.

We'll sorrow a little, yet hope through it all. We'll trouble a little, yet try to recall. To wait for a little, a little to pray. And worry a little our worries away.

We'll sigh for a little, but never for long. We'll sing for a little some sort of a song. We'll laugh for a little, and try to forget. For life is too little to spend in regret.

We'll worry a little, for worry we do. We'll trouble a little, till trouble is through. We'll sorrow a little, when sorrow we must. Yet try just a little in heaven to trust.

We'll worry a little, when worries arise. Yet wait for a little for lovelier skies. And smile for a little, whatever we're at. For life is a little of this and of that.

Tournament Teams Swing Into Action Thursday

CLASS B MEET AT ESCANABA

Season Tickets on Sale For District Tourney In This City

Arrangements to handle capacity crowds for the three day district basketball tournament which opens in Escanaba Thursday night are now being made by Principal John Lemmer of the Escanaba high school who is tournament manager. Season tickets which entitle the holders to admission for each of the three seasons of the tournament are now on sale. The season tickets include reserved seats guaranteeing the holders a good view of the proceedings for each session. The tournament swings into action Thursday evening when Manistique meets Kingsford in a preliminary engagement to decide which team will find a place in the tournament proper. The winner of this game will meet Iron Mountain on Friday night.

Manistique has not met Kingsford this season so the relative strengths of the squads are uncertain. The Schoolcrafters have the edge as the result of season's record but critics predict the game will be a close one and a fitting scrap to start the tournament hostilities.

Two tournament games are scheduled for Friday evening with Iron Mountain meeting the winner of the Thursday night game at 7:30 o'clock and Escanaba playing Menominee in the second game of the evening.

On Saturday two more games will be on the card with the consolation game between the loser of the Thursday night game and the loser of the Escanaba-Menominee scrap. The final Saturday night game will be between Friday winners with the district championship as the stake.

Experts and close followers of the sport are unanimous in their prediction that Escanaba and Iron Mountain will square off on Saturday night for the championship battle. The Eskymos nosed out the Mountaineers here a short time ago, 25 to 23.

The winner and runner up of the district tourney here will qualify for the state regional scrap at Ishpeming the following week when the upper peninsula class champions will be returned.

Fried of the Soo and Urquhart of Ishpeming have been selected as tournament officials here. Urquhart will be head official.

Democrats Support Plan to Give Needy Farm Board Wheat

Washington, March 1 (AP)—The principle of feeding the hungry with wheat from the farm board's bulging bins was embraced today by house Democratic leaders and they made preparations to pass on Thursday a senate bill devoting 40,000,000 bushels to this purpose.

Under pressure from majority leaders, the agriculture committee today reversed its previous stand and approved the measure by a vote of 15 to 6. A fortnight ago it rejected it, 14 to 9.

Tomorrow's Chairman Jones will ask the rules committee for right of way in the house.

Under the bill, the Red Cross would distribute the wheat, John Barton Payne, national chairman, told the committee today that without favoring or opposing the bill his organization is ready to accept that responsibility.

President Hoover's approval would be required upon each application for wheat. The Red Cross could have the wheat milled into flour or exchange it for feed.

Brewton, Ala., March 1 (AP)—A farewell fish fry given in honor of Big Ed Morris broke up with a fight last night and the veteran pitcher for the Boston Red Sox was hurled to a hospital at Century, Fla., with serious knife wounds.

He was stabbed twice in the chest, the knife blade barely missing his heart. Doctors say he has only a slight chance to recover.

Friends who organized the fish fry on the eve of his contemplated departure for the Red Sox training camp at Savannah, Ga., said the stabbing climaxed an argument between Morris and Joe White.

Morris, a strapping fellow towering six feet two, knocked White down and in so doing tripped and fell. While they were lying on the ground, witnesses said, White whipped out his knife and plunged it into Morris' chest.

A native of Foshee, Ala., Morris broke into professional baseball with Bradenton, of the Florida state league in 1920. He is a right hander, tips the scales at 185 pounds, and is 33 years old.

After one season with Bradenton he spent two years with Chattanooga, of the Southern association. He played one season with the Chicago Cubs in the National league and returned in 1923 to the Southern, playing with Chattanooga, Nashville and Mobile. He has been with the Red Sox for the past three years.

White was held without charges pending a change in Morris' condition.

Ping-Pong More Suited to Esky Elks-Manistique

A voice from the dead. Manistique Elks were quite surprised when they read of a challenge in the Escanaba Press Sunday for a bowling tournament. The local impression was that all the fight was taken out of their neighboring lodge after the humiliating manner in which they have been man-handled during the past few seasons, and the event has developed into more of a massacre than a bowling match. A contest in ping-pong or some other mild parlor pastime would be considered more appropriate by their benevolent brothers, but if they wish to be gluttons for punishment, Manistique Elks will be pleased to administer it to them.

Let us know when you are coming, how many bowlers you can inveigle to take the run-ways, bring as many bridge hounds as will dare to match their talent with the local sharks, the obsequies will be held in proper decorum, and Ben Gero will preach the funeral oration.

RED SOX LISTLESS
Savannah, Ga., Mar. 1 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox battery candidates, saddened by the wounding of big Ed Morris, opened their spring training season today in listless fashion. Manager John Collins ordered all hands to jog about the park and then permitted the pitchers to toss up slow balls for an hour.

Hod Lissenbee, veteran right hander, missed the opening session. He cut his right foot on a piece of glass in the dressing room and will be out of action for several days.

Officers who arrested Theron on a charge of stealing an overcoat from a church refused to charge him with larceny from a building, a felony, and instead proffered charges of simple larceny. Theron had a record of six felonies. Four felonies under the Michigan law make a criminal eligible for life imprisonment.

YALE'S ONE-ARMED BALL CAPTAIN

Ed Warren, Yale university baseball captain who lost an arm in an accident at a camp last summer, returned to the squad when the call came for the first indoor practice. He is showing Coach Joe Wood that he can still hurl the ball with his good arm.

LUSTY WALLOP
Palo Alto, Cal., Mar. 1 (AP)—Ray Fritz, recruit first baseman from Beaumont, Texas, served notice with a lusty wallop over the right field fence today that he is after Dale Alexander's job with the Detroit Tigers. Alex socked the ball twice over the left field wall in the first drill of the season yesterday.

George (Dutch) Ruetter, once a big time pitcher, but now a free agent, worked out with the Tigers today but Manager Bucky Harris said his appearance was without significance.

All of the Tigers, recruits and veterans, were on hand today except Ken Strong, International League recruit, who had a silver of bone removed from his wrist in Detroit this winter.

Charlie Gehringer engaged in holding practice today. He threw with the underhand motion he adopted last season when his arm went bad, but told Trainer Denny Carroll after the drill that he felt no bad effects. The condition of his arm is Harris' No. 1 worry.

OTT CELEBRATES
Los Angeles, Mar. 1 (AP)—Mel Ott, New York Giants' outfielder, celebrated his twenty-third birthday by clouting a home run with the bases full in a practice game. The wallop helped the "McGraws" to an 8 to 1 victory over the "Banquets."

GROVE SIGNS UP
Fort Myers, Fla., Mar. 1 (AP)—A two-year contract at $25,000 a season, drugstore chatter had it, was the document Lefty Grove signed today. Both the pitcher and Manager Connie Mack, however, declined to verify the report as to the amount.

The Athletics manager made the important announcement that Grove had signed in a deprecatory manner at the ball park today. There was no fanfare or ceremony to the signing.

"Grove has signed," Connie said and then spoke about the weather. Lefty's signature left Rube Waddell the only remaining holdout.

13 MEN ABSENT
West Palm Beach, Fla., Mar. 1 (AP)—Twelve players were in the St. Louis Browns' training camp tonight, after only eight had appeared for the first workout today. Thirteen players who were sent contracts have not been heard from by the club officials.

In camp tonight were Sam Gray, Jimmy McLaughlin, George Blaholder, Chad Kimey, Lin Storti, Dick Coffman, Wallace Hebert, Robert Cooney, James Levey, Louis Americo Poll, Russell Young and Jack Burns. The last four arrived too late for the two hours' workout today.

LAZZERI CONCEDES
St. Petersburg, Fla., Mar. 1 (AP)—Tony Lazzeri telegraphed the news today that he had signed his contract with the New York Yankees and thus the Yanks' holdout list was reduced to one, Babe Ruth. With 30 players on hand, the largest squad of the year, the Yanks had a busy day of practice.

AVOIRDUPOIS PLUS
Blount, Miss., Mar. 1 (AP)—Buddy Myer, second baseman of some repute in the American League, today signed his Washington contract and signed a rubber shirt for training as an indication that during the winter he had been confusing his calories with his proteins and his soup with steak.

With Myer, Carl Reynolds, late of the White Sox but now of the Senators, and Bobby Burke, of no-hit fame, started preliminary workouts.

Carl Cramer, Ohio State university quarterback, is going in for swimming and boxing during the off-season.

CRISLER MOVES TO PRINCETON

New Tiger Mentor Hopes To Produce Winning Football Team

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Princeton, N. J., March 1 (AP)—A big, likeable fellow from Minnesota, Herbert Orrin (Fritz) Crisler by name, moved into Princeton university today to see what could be done about lifting the battered Tiger out of football's hospital ward.

His head was jammed with ideas on football in general and the plight in particular of a Princeton football team that lost every major game last season.

He did not know, first off, whether Millard Draudt, the best back Princeton could muster last fall, was a football player or a weather condition, but for hours he talked football here, there, and everywhere, systems, rules, scouting agreements, spring practice, and everywhere he left the impression that the tide of Princeton football, once the most powerful force in the east, would soon be on the flood again.

Crisler, for the past two years head coach at Minnesota and the first non-alumnus ever chosen head coach at Princeton, leaped off a train almost at dawn to breakfast with the faculty committee on athletics, went from there to meet administrative officials, posed for photographers, visited more officers, lunched with newspapermen, talked things over with sophomores and junior varsity men, dined with them, and then called all candidates together for an evening discussion.

He would not say whom he sought as his assistants next fall, although the impression prevailed that Tad Wieman, his line coach at Minnesota, would come here as his right hand man.

Crisler did announce, however, that six weeks of spring football would start here April 4 and that his entire staff would be complete by that time. He said his football system consisted of "blocking and tackling," although he does favor single wing back formations. He likes smart teams rather than powerful machines.

One remark of possible significance he did drop in the general discussion, an opinion in favor of scouting, which Princeton agreed with Yale to discard some time ago.

"This is only a personal opinion, of course," he pointed out, "and the university determines its policies, but my belief is that non-scouting invites suspicion, and places unnecessary hardships on well meaning graduates, undergraduates and coaches."

INFIELD PRACTICE
Bradenton, Fla., Mar. 1 (AP)—Three new recruits occupied positions in the first infield practice at the Cardinals' training camp today.

Spark Adams, at third base, and Jim Collins, at first, were the only infielders of last year appearing in today's lineup. Horace Ford, brought from Cincinnati, and Lee Cunningham, recruit from Danville, Ill., alternated at second base, and Eddie Delker, with Columbus and Rochester last season, was at short.

Frankie Frisch, captain and second baseman last year, has accepted terms for 1932, it was announced today.

BAT BATTALINO IN GOOD GRACES

Featherweight Formally Relinquishes Claim To The Title

New York, Mar. 1 (AP)—Christopher (Bat) Battalino, former king of the featherweights, returned to the good graces of the New York state athletic commission today, but he couldn't bring his manager, Hy Malley, back with him.

Battalino, who was suspended when he failed to come within 10 pounds of the featherweight limit for a bout with Lew Feldman here last month, formally relinquished all claim to the title. He put it in writing.

The commission then reinstated him, but stipulated that in the future he is to act as his own manager and sign his own contracts for fights in New York state. The commission made it clear it wanted no part of Malley, who has been acting as Battalino's manager in this state.

"We want to get him entirely free of the bad influences that caused all his trouble," explained a member of the commission.

Battalino still is under suspension by the national boxing commission for his part in the recent fiasco with Freddie Miller at Cincinnati. The bout was stopped when Battalino appeared on the verge of a knockout in the third round and the referee was skeptical.

It is believed today's action of the commission paved the way for

NORTHERN CAGE TEAM BEATEN

Doolittle Stars in Last Half Rally; Final Score, 36-33

Mt. Pleasant, Mich., March 1 (AP)—A last half rally in which Doolittle belted his name by scoring 14 points fell three points short tonight and Central State Teachers won a nip and tuck game from Northern State, 36 to 33.

Doolittle, Northern's center, racked up five field goals and seven free throws as his night's work and it looked like his sharpshooting might overcome the 22 to 14 half time deficit, until Wattrick, run in at center for Central late in the game, dropped in a basket with less than a minute to go that clinched the victory.

For disciplinary reasons, Central started its second string quietest. Only when three of them had been banished on personals and another was forced out by an ankle injury were the regulars inserted.

FEW CARS SEEN WITH OLD TAGS

Escanaba Registrations Near Half Way Mark On 1932 Total

More than 2,000 passenger automobiles and more than 1,000 commercial vehicles had been issued new 1932 licenses yesterday, with applications still coming in steadily at the U. P. state fair office, local branch agency for the secretary of state. The 2,000 mark in passenger car plates was passed Tuesday afternoon. The numbers here began with the 1-019-series. This city was allotted 5,100 pairs of passenger car plates, the serial numbers running up to 1-022-750.

Gladstone has numbers from 1-025-451 to 1-028-150 and Manistique 1-066-401 to 1-068-400.

Secretary of state Frank D. Fitzgerald has expressed dissatisfaction with the seven-figure numerals, pointing out that they are hard to read. A plan is being worked out to do away with the large figures in 1933.

Police officers found a number of cars operating with 1931 plates Tuesday, and in each case owners were warned that they must secure the new tags at once or put their cars away. Arrests will follow today for those who have failed to comply. When persons are found driving with 1931 plates, police are instructed to remove the plates from the car, explaining to the owner or driver how strict the law is in this regulation, also that the car must not be driven without 1932 licenses. The driver of the automobile is then given oral warning or a police tag, with instructions to appear at the local license agency and secure 1932 tags.

Marquette Aviator Gets Pilot License

Marquette—Carl F. Tauch, manager of the Marquette Airport association, successfully passed flight tests and written examinations in Escanaba Saturday and has been given a private pilot's license by the U. S. department of commerce, it was announced yesterday.

Mr. Tauch, who has been taking flying instructions from Sig Wilson, has about 15 hours of solo flying to his credit. Saturday in Escanaba he made his test flight in the Barling low-winged monoplane owned by Edward C. Watson, Jr., and Kenny Richardson, of this city, and the flight was witnessed by an examiner for the department of commerce who went to Escanaba from Milwaukee for that purpose. Tauch also took written examinations on air traffic regulations.

There are now two candidates for the Republican nomination. They are John O'Hara, incumbent, and Clyde Luke.

Isle Royale Trail

Menominee—Cities and various communities along Highway US-141 in Wisconsin and Michigan are organizing to promote tourist traffic along that highway and will name it the "Isle Royale Trail."

The plan originated in Crystal Falls a few weeks ago and a local U. S. Highway 141 association was organized with over 50 business men as members. Amasa, which boasts of Triangle Ranch, the only genuine cattle ranch in Michigan with real cowboys riding the range was next to fall in line. Then came Niagara and Pembine, Wis.

Dr. Kreuz has been transferred to the Philippine Islands having accepted a post in a Naval hospital near Manila, and will sail from San Francisco on April 5 accompanied by Mrs. Kreuz. They will spend a month here with relatives.

To Build School

Sault Ste. Marie—With a surplus of approximately $5,000 and with a building fund of almost $57,000 for a new school, parishioners today are celebrating fifty years of the present church's existence.

In September 1882 Bishop Vertin, then Bishop of Marquette and Sault Ste. Marie, with great solemnity dedicated a church which had been started in 1878 when Father Chartier arrived and laid plans for a new church, the cost of which was not to exceed $25,000. The building was begun in June and on Christmas day of 1931 a mass was sung, though the building was not completed.

Oscar J. Rumbo, Argentine naval officer, couldn't come to Washington to wed Dorothy Baylis, so he commissioned a close friend to act as his proxy at the ceremony. The bride plans to sail soon and join her husband.

Noted Expert Testifies

Marquette—Dr. John Alexander, head of the department of chest surgery at the University of Michigan, regarded as one of the foremost authorities in America on the tuberculous infection in the Phrenic nerve operation January 31, 1931, in Morgan Heights sanatorium, testified in circuit court yesterday, as a witness for the defence in the $20,000 damage suit brought by Rytkonen's widow against Dr. Salvatore Lojococo, superintendent of the sanatorium that it was inconceivable that a rubber tube, such as that alleged to have been found in Rytkonen's chest when an autopsy was performed, could have any effect on the life or death of a tubercular patient with a far-advanced state of mixed infection in the pleural cavity, if allowed to remain there for any assumed period of two days.

Michigan Stock Equal Last Year But Worth Less

Figures on Michigan's livestock are given in the crop report issued this week by the department of agriculture for February, 1932. The booklet says:

While the number of livestock on Michigan farms on the first of this year was equal to or greater than the number a year ago for all species except horses, the staggering decline in commodity prices of the past two years reduced the inventory value to $84,640,000 or eighteen per cent less than the valuation of $115,645,000 for January 1, 1931, and forty-four per cent below the January 1, 1930, valuation of $169,184,000. These figures refer to the value of livestock on farms on January 1 and do not represent the value of livestock production nor the income from livestock. Estimates on these items will be available at a later date. Michigan's rank among states in numbers of the various kinds of livestock on the first of January this year was as follows: horses, fifteenth; all cattle, eighteenth; milk cows, eleventh; sheep, thirteenth; and swine, twenty-second.

Horses

With a constant downward trend in number of farms operated and with the shift to power farming, the number of horses within the State has shown a steady decline since the World War. The number of farms the first of this year was only 373,000 head as compared with 608,000 head in 1920, indicating an average annual decrease of about 3.2 per cent. The number of horses shipped into the State has increased more than five-fold during the last seven years and the rate of decline is now slowing up, amounting to 2.0 per cent per year since 1930.

All Cattle

The number of all cattle in Michigan showed an increase of one per cent over last year but practically no change from two years ago. The last low point in cattle numbers in this State was during the years 1927-28, since which time there has been an upward trend due to increased numbers of milk cows. The estimated number of cattle on feed for market on January 1, 1932 was 104 per cent of the previous year, 94.8 per cent for the Corn Belt states and 81.0 per cent for the western states. The trend of the country's feeding industry toward the handling of light weight steers and calves is apparently continuing, according to recent reports of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at Washington.

Milk Cows

The number of cows and heifers two years old and over being kept on farms for milk production is estimated at 850,000 head this year, or the same number as in 1925 when the last high point was reached. The number of heifers one to two years old being kept for milk cows increased steadily each year from 1927 to 1931, but the number this year shows a five per cent decrease compared with January 1, 1931, indicating a probable downward trend in milk cow numbers within the near future. Similar changes are reported for the United States, the number of milk cows being 3.5 per cent greater than in 1931 while the number of yearling heifers being saved for milk cows shows a decrease of approximately two per cent.

Sheep

Although the total number of sheep on farms in Michigan is six per cent larger than last January, the increase is due to an expansion in feeding operations. Native stock sheep numbered 895,000 head as compared with 1,031,000 head on January 1, 1931, and 1,025,000 head two years ago. The last high point in numbers of stock sheep in this State was reached in January, 1929.

The number of sheep and lambs on feed for market is estimated at 250,000 which compares with last year's low number of 268,000 head and 275,000 head two years ago. The 1931 lamb crop was seven per cent larger than that of 1930, and shipments of feeders from stockyards into the State during the last half of 1931 were more than twice as large as during the same period in 1930. An increased supply of corn has favored feeding operations in Michigan this winter.

Swine

The last low point in the cycle of hog numbers in Michigan was reached in January, 1931, following two years of short corn crops, which cut numbers to the unusually low figure of 542,000 head. Breedings were increased last spring and fall, and numbers on farms now show an increase of 22 per cent over last January. Reports from more than 2500 Michigan hog raisers on December 1 pointed to the prospect of a further increase in the 1932 spring pig crop.
