REPORT CALLS ELECTION VOID

Subcommittee Says Senator Bankhead Violated Laws

BY NATHAN ROBERTSON (Associated Press Staff Wrtler) Washington, March 4 (A)—The contest against the election of Senater John H. Bankhead, Alabama Democrat, culminated today in a recommendation from a senate elections sub-committee that his seat be vacated. Voting along strictly party lines the contest sub-committee adopted a report drafted by Chairman Hastings (R. Dela.) that wide-spread violation of election laws made the election fraudulent, and that Bank-Baby Search head's nomination was invalid because of an illegal primary.

Democratic members of the committee will submit a minority report to the full committee along with the majority report next week. The sub-committee's action completed a year's investigation of the contest brought against Bankhead's election by his predecessor, J. Thomas Heffin.

OUR FATHERS' STREETS

And passes him, perhaps, and does not know;

Our fathers saw this door, and passed this gate,

Still walk these ways, our great companions these

And yet these streets his father used to go

What ghosts of other men walk all these streets:

Tonight the wandering boy his father meets.

We walk the streets our fathers used to tread:

Are rich with memories that time repeats.

Men die, but never memories are dead,

Men die, but memories articulate

And we must walk them well as well as they

I know that I would fear to do them wrong.

These memories that now around me throng.

Where'er I go, some memory goes along.

For fear that one might suddenly arise

And look upon me with accusing eyes -

Our fathers sleep, and yet their memories

Eskymos Play Mountaineers for Title Tonight BOTH QUINTETS ST. JOSEPH AND NORWAY REACH FINALS DAGGETT ROUTS

· Iron Mt. Beats Kingsford By 21-16; Menominee Falls, 32-12

Iron Mountain and Escanaba will meet in the Class B district finals tonight with the championship at stake as the result of victories in their games at the Junior high school gymnasium last evening. Iron Mountain defeated Kingsford, 21 to 16, in the first game last evening and Escanaba won with ease from Menominee, 32 to 12, in the

Two games will be on tonight's card, the first a consolation scrap with Menominee opposing Kingsford starting at 7:30 o'clock, and the second the district championship game between Escanaba and Iron Mountain starting at 8:30

Many reserved seats are still available for tonight's final session of the district basketball tournament here and they will be offered to the fans at the Office Service company during the day. In the Escanaba-Menominee game the Eskymos coasted along without extending themselves. The Escaba regulars played only in the reserves playing through the second and third stanzas. The Eskymo regulars never looked better. They were unable to get going for the first two minutes or so but when they hit their stride they chalked up 14 points in lightninglike fashion. They put on a similar spurt when they came back into the game in the fourth period.

Although Anderson, Escanaba lanky center, played less than half of the game, he scored six field goals to take scoring honors for the night. Tonight Anderson will be paired off against Grandahl, tall Mountaineer pivot man, in an individual battle that should whet the sports appetites of the fans.
