TIGHT VOTE IN HOUSE ON TAX BILL CERTAIN

RESISTANCE GROWS TO SALES LEVY IN MEASURE

BY CECIL B. DICKSON (Associated Press Staff Writer) Washington, March 16 (AP)—Approximately fifty Democrats from southern and mid-western states tonight at a secret session decided to bolt the party leadership and join the Republican independents in an attempt to defeat the sales tax in the new revenue bill.

The bill was the first since the Democrats assumed control of the house and elected Speaker Garner. It came shortly after the Republican independents at another closed session decided to ignore the Republican leadership on the bi-partisan legislation designed to balance the federal budget.

The chairman of the Democratic group, Representative Doughton of North Carolina, a member of the ways and means committee that drafted the $1,096,000,000 bill, announced:

"It is apparent an overwhelming majority of the Democrats in the house are opposed to the bill and we believe we will beat it." He did not reveal the plan of campaign.

The chief objection of the group is to the 2.5 percent sales tax provision designed to bring in nearly $600,000,000.

Vote Next Week At the suggestion of Acting Chairman Crisp of the ways and means committee, the house agreed today to conclude general debate on the revenue measure after a special meeting tomorrow night.

A group of 26 Republican and Democratic independents, headed by Representative LaGuardia (R., N. Y.), and termed themselves "alleged progressives," made plans at their meeting to fight the sales levy, but decided on no substitute plans.

Definite decision of the big New York Democratic delegation of 23 members to support the sales tax was made known to the leaders of both parties. This reassured the party leaders of their somewhat doubtful strength.

Although there may be some more breaks in the bi-partisan forces supporting the bill as a whole, Representative Snell of New York, Republican leader, is expected to muster enough votes to put the bill through for the Democrats.

Representative Ralney of Illinois, the Democratic leader, has been virtually assured of eighty votes, while Snell hopes to muster at least 150, which will be more than enough to assure passage.

While the Democratic meeting was in progress, Representative Gasque of South Carolina, emerged and told newspapermen that he was bolting the meeting because the group refused to consider his motion to petition for a caucus of the Democratic party to determine its position on the sales levy.

441,000 Pounds of Dynamite Exploded at Inland Lime and Stone Quarry Near Manistique

Manistique, Mich., March 16 (AP)—Shooting of 441,000 pounds of dynamite eight miles from here late today made a big noise, but gave rather a poor imitation of a natural earthquake. The biggest commercial blast on record was set off at 4:02 p. m., eastern standard time at a quarry of the Inland Lime and Stone company. It was heard at least ten miles away, and caused an earth shock for a mile and a half. In Manistique, however, the "quake" was barely perceptible, though the report was heard by every one.

The witnesses nearest the quarry were officials of the Inland company and photographers who lay under steel railway cars, 300 yards away. They said the blasted area, which was a mile long and 200 feet wide, "churned up," and estimated that rocks, dust and steel casings in which the charges had been placed, were thrown 500 feet into the air.

The blast was carefully timed, being set off at a radio signal from the navy observatory at Annapolis. The entire 441,000 pounds, divided into some 5,000 charges, went off at once. Seven miles of TNT fuse was used. The careful timing was for the purpose of aiding scientists who hoped to record the blast on their earthquake-measuring instruments.

Officials of the Inland company, a subsidiary of the Inland Steel company, said it would be several days before it could be determined whether the blast dislodged the desired 1,250,000 tons of limestone, a year's supply. Snow reduced the visibility at the time of the explosion, interfering with photographic record.

Blast Recorded East Lansing, Mich. (AP)—The tremendous dynamite blast at Manistique this afternoon was recorded on the seismograph at Michigan State college. Three distinct vibrations of the shock were recorded on the delicate instrument, Professor Charles W. Chapman, of the college physics department, said. The first was received 59.6 seconds after the blast was set off and the second 68 seconds after the explosion.

Explosion Recorded Washington, March 16 (AP)—The explosion of 430,000 pounds of dynamite at Manistique, Mich., today was recorded on seismographs at Georgetown university here, about 1,500 miles distant. The record, represented by a tiny wavy line, showed the shock was fainter than any earthquake, said Father J. S. O'Connor, seismologist. The explosion made it possible to determine with great accuracy the speed of earthquake waves through rock, he explained because the exact time of the blast and its distance from seismographs was known.

Knowledge thus gained will be useful in locating future earthquakes. Knowing the speed of the waves, scientists can determine the distance of the quake center from their seismographs and thus be able to locate it.

"Gamest Kid" Will Fight To End With Odds Against Him Syracuse, N. Y., Mar. 16 (AP)—Clarence Hastings, 14, is going to fight it out to the finish, in the spirit that has made him known here as "the gamest kid in America."

For nearly six months—176 days to be exact—the Kings Ferry youngster has owed his life to his continuance in a respirator at City hospital here. He was received there September 20, last, a victim of infantile paralysis. The attack left his respiratory organs paralyzed.

Today he was in a critical condition after undergoing an operation for an abdominal obstruction that increased the odds against him. Physicians were loath to remove him from the respirator, but the shock proved too much for his weakened body. They finally decided to wheel him and the respirator into the operating room. "Twice the operation was halted and the youngster placed back in the breathing apparatus. The operation was considered a success.

Kidnaper Gets Life Sentence Maximum Penalty Handed First of Two Men in De Jute Case Warren, O., Mar. 1 (AP)—The maximum penalty of life imprisonment was meted out today to the first of two men tried for the kidnaping just two weeks ago of 11-year-old James De Jute, Jr., son of a wealthy Niles contractor.

Brandishing kidnaping as "one of the most cruel and heinous" crimes, common pleas Judge Lynn B. Griffith held De Jute, Jr., guilty of participation in the abduction. Kidnaping, Judge Griffith said, "strikes a blow at the tenderest and most sacred affections of human blood, and is usually resorted to for revenge or extortion."

Walved Jury Trial Hargrave heard the sentence without a word. He had "nothing to say" when asked by the court if he would reveal the identity of a third man still sought. His attorney was undecided whether to appeal.

Next week John De Marko, also of Youngstown, is to be tried on the same charge as Hargrave—kidnaping with intent to extort. De Marko and Hargrave were found with the De Jute boy when officers raided an abandoned gambling place and liquor storehouse near Youngstown March 5, three days after he was abducted by two men while on his way to school.

S. P. Manzo, defense attorney, argued the state had failed to prove any attempt at ransom. Prosecutor G. H. Birrell argued the intent had been shown in Hargrave's alleged retort to three officers: "What are these things usually done for?"

Hargrave's trial ended yesterday without any testimony in his behalf. He had waived a jury, placing his fate in Judge Griffith's hands.

Negaunee Teachers Take Salary Slash Negaunee, Mich., March 16 (AP)—The Negaunee board of education has reduced the salaries of all employees, including high school and grade teachers, janitors, bus drivers and members of the boards, as well as H. Fire In Concord Takes Heavy Toll Concord, Mass., March 16 (AP)—Fire, starting in the unoccupied West Concord fire station, today destroyed the station, several pieces of fire apparatus, two near-by business blocks and spread to at least four other structures being being checked. A church, next door to the fire house, was saved by the prompt arrival of apparatus from surrounding communities.

Welfare Situation In Detroit Serious Detroit, March 16 (AP)—Detroit's public welfare problem popped up again today, when John F. Ballenger, superintendent of welfare, announced that the welfare situation in the city is more critical at the present than at any time since last August, when the department was forced to cut off 15,000 families from the welfare lists.

"Unless something breaks between now and April 1," said Ballenger, "we will simply have to cut families off our rolls and refuse to take any more applications for relief."

The city, said Ballenger, now has more than 27,000 families on the welfare roll.

School Board Cuts Teachers' Salaries Albion, Mich., March 16 (AP)—The board of education tonight voted to reduce salaries of all teachers, receiving $1,200 or more. The superintendent, who is under a three-year contract, asked that his salary be reduced 20 per cent and the superintendent, under a similar contract, asked for a 15 per cent reduction.

KIDNAPED BOY STILL LIVING, POLICE THINK

ONE TANGIBLE LEAD BEING CHECKED IN NEW JERSEY

BY ROBT. J. CAVANARO (Ass'd Press Staff Writer) Hopewell, N. J., Mar. 16 (AP)—Although police still are convinced the kidnaped Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr. is alive, a high police official said tonight, they are no nearer a solution of the strange case than they were two weeks ago.

The statement was made by one of the authorities directing the hunt for the famous flier's son, but he refused to allow the use of his name.

Although he characterized the work of investigators as clever enough to rival the best efforts of Scotland yard and of the fictional Sherlock Holmes, he said they had thus far been unable to form a theory even about what type of criminal was responsible.

Everyone Suspected It still was a matter of conjecture, he explained, whether a professional gang, a band of amateurs or maniacs were responsible.

He said Salvatore Spitalo and Irving Blitz, who were named by Colonel Lindbergh as his "go-betweens," and Morris Rosner, who has acted on at least one occasion since the kidnaping as the aviator's emissary, were believed to have made little headway in their endeavors.

While he explained that police had no definite ground for suspecting any of the Lindbergh servants, he said none was free from suspicion.

The police conviction the child is still alive, he said, is based on a belief the kidnapers would not dare to lay the infant. He said officials were inclined to discredit the frequently advanced argument the abductors might kill the child if the hunt pressed too close. It would be easy for them to leave the baby in a hotel room, he added.

As the fifteenth day since the abduction drew to a close, the investigators were tracking down vaguer clues than ever before—queer anonymous letters, stories of old kidnapings and wild rumors that would not remain silent.

The most tangible lead was based on the story of Mr. and Mrs. Leandro Lightfoot of Franklin Park, N. J., who told how their two German servants, a kidnaper and a maid, took a long automobile ride the night of the kidnaping and gave up their jobs the next day.

"Our investigators are checking the story," state police officials said. "But they have not reported results as yet to this office. There is a great deal of investigating to be done on the story and we do not anticipate any report for a day or so."

Borrowed Flashlight The Lightfoots said they reported their suspicions to police the day after the kidnaping. They said the butler and maid asked for the use of the family car, a green sedan, about 7:30 p. m. on March 1, the night of the kidnaping, and came back about 9:30 p. m., after having driven 60 miles, which is approximately

Pledges Near $15,000 In Escanaba Job Drive

As reports of this week's survey began to come in to headquarters, the total amount of work pledged in Escanaba's "war against depression" passed the $10,000 mark and yesterday stood at $14,375.50, with 31 district teams heard from and only four out of $4 reporting their solicitation completed. Several of the 17 teams submitting partial reports have their work near completion, however, requiring only a check of their districts to reach house-to-house work and to contact landlords whose tenants were called upon.

No reports have been submitted as yet by the special committee assigned to the Ludington street business section, and the total to date includes nothing from this portion of the city. Several extensive remodeling projects are anticipated in the mercantile area.

300 Days of Work Summarizing the pledges received thus far, Thomas Beaton, Jr., general chairman of the campaign, estimated that the work promised volunteer canvassers now totalled over 300 days of labor. Most of this is scheduled to be done in early spring, or as soon as weather conditions permit. A number of projects such as roof and building maintenance, painting houses and repairing defective roofs, are awaiting only favorable weather to get underway.

Committees are also seeking to contact owners of local property who are not now residents of the city, and learn from them what repairs, improvements and maintenance projects are planned for this season on their buildings or lots. In all cases it is emphasized that the "war on depression" committee is not an employment agency, and will take no part in placing men on the jobs. In their pledges for work, local residents are asked only to specify the kind of work contemplated and the approximate amount to be spent. They may then select anyone they wish to do the jobs. In some cases sollicitors found that property owners had already selected their workmen for projects planned this spring. When odd jobs or cleanup work are contemplated and houseowners have no help chosen, they are advised to call the city hall and men can be secured from the registration lists of unemployed to fill almost any need.

Canvassers are reporting a cordial reception in their calls at homes, and all local residents are showing a willingness to cooperate in the drive and do what they can to authorize work which will provide employment for this spring and help to develop a market for materials. All teams are scheduled to complete their first surveys by March 31.

Powers Cheerful Powers has been refused a review by the state supreme court. His attorney, J. Ed Law, did not indicate what his next move, if any, would be.

Powers, the pudgy North Carolinian who trifled with the hearts of women through correspondence and finally killed two of his mail order sweethearts, seemed healthy and cheerful in his death cell at the state prison today.

He told newspaper men that if the federal court refused to stay his sentence, his last message to the world will be a plea for abolition of capital punishment, "especially upon merely circumstantial evidence."

In addition to being convicted of Mrs. Lemke's murder, Powers was indicted for the killing of Mrs. Asta Elcher, of Park Ridge, Ill., and her three children. The bodies of all five were found buried in a shallow, mucky ditch near his windowless, subterranean-chambered "garage of horrors" near suburban Quiet Dell.

MURRAY LAGS FAR BEHIND IN LATE RETURNS

NEW YORKER HOLDS LEAD OF NEARLY TWO TO ONE

Fargo, N. D., Mar. 16 (AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt won the North Dakota Democratic presidential preference contest in Tuesday's primary on the face of returns tabulated by The Associated Press election bureau tonight from more than one-half of the state's 2235 precincts.

In 1224 precincts Roosevelt maintained a nearly two to one lead, receiving 53,125 votes, while his opponent, Gov. William H. Murray of Oklahoma, polled 19,115.

With 48 of the state's 53 counties reporting partial returns, Roosevelt held a lead in forty.

Cast Heavy Ballot The Murray lead in the others was not particularly impressive. Incoming returns added to the Roosevelt lead, which has run close to two to one throughout the tabulations.

Former Senator J. I. France of Maryland in the Republican presidential preference contest led "General" Jacob S. Coxey of Ohio, in returns from 732 precincts, 13,416 to 8,331.

The Democratic votes tabulated already exceeded greatly the record party vote cast in primaries in the state's history. The previous highest Democratic total was 12,906 in 1924.

In addition to designating presidential preferences voters picked delegates to the national party conventions. Tabulation of results as to delegates, who need not be bound by the preference balloting outcome unless they so chose, had not begun.

Roosevelt and Murray had pledged Democratic candidacies for delegates in the race. President Hoover, whose name did not appear on the preference ballot, had a pledged slate of Republican delegates.

A second Republican slate was uninducted as to individuals, but was told by its non-partisan league sponsors to support "a progressive." Non-partisan leaders said their representatives would not support Hoover. France and Coxey had no delegate candidacies.

A split delegation for each party was considered possible because candidates were listed alphabetically and without other party designation. The state will have ten votes at the Democratic national convention and eleven at the Republican.

CURLEY ACTIVE Boston, March 16 (AP)—Boston's militant mayor, James M. Curley, started a drive tonight for a Roosevelt delegation from Massachusetts, "notwithstanding the formidable array of political generals upon the ticket pledged to Alfred E. Smith."

In launching a campaign for the Massachusetts Democratic delegation to be chosen in the April 25 primary, Mayor Curley, in an address criticized Governor Joseph B. Ely and supporters of Smith.

Backed by the formal consent of Smith himself, his supporters have completed a full slate of candidates for delegates, including two United States senators, David I. Walsh and Marcus A. Coolidge, and Governor Ely.

Curley, in his talk tonight, criticized Governor Ely and the supporters of Smith and added: "It is admitted by even the dearest friends of Alfred E. Smith that he means four years more of (Continued on Page Two)

BANK ROBBERS GO TO PRISON

Bandits Get Life Terms For Robbing Clinton, Iowa, Bank

Clinton, Iowa, March 16 (AP)—Swiftly moving justice today wrote the closing chapter in Iowa's most spectacular bank robbery of recent years when four men were sentenced to life imprisonment for yesterday's $104,000 robbery of the City National Bank.

The men, Clifford Edwards, 22, of Clinton, and Guy Edward Morris, 19; Earl Jeffries, 19, and Lester Stanton, 28, all of Louisville, Ky., pleaded guilty before Judge A. P. Barker.

"We might as well admit it was a foolish thing to do," said Edwards after Judge Barker gave them a brief lecture on the futility of crime.

It was their first venture in crime, they said after making complete confessions. The plot was laid in Louisville, where Edwards had met the others. They came here Sunday and looked over the ground for a day.

Yesterday they went to the bank before it opened, captured the janitor and 27 other employees and customers and held them until the time lock released the vault door.

Senator Walcott Is Absent-Minded, Colleagues Agree

Washington, Mar. 16 (AP)—Senate colleagues of Senator Walcott, of Connecticut, are convinced of his absent-mindedness after a recent experience when the senator forgot a luncheon engagement with Ethel Barrymore and Alice Roosevelt Longworth.

Miss Barrymore and Mrs. Longworth and several other guests came to the capitol at the invitation of Senator Walcott for lunch.

After waiting for Walcott for a while the party at the suggestion of Mrs. Longworth proceeded to the dining room and ordered. Leaving the capitol they met Senator Walcott coming to the senate chamber. He greeted the group heartily and expressed surprise and pleasure at meeting them.

Mrs. Longworth informed the astounded senator why they were there, assuring him he need not worry for she had signed the luncheon check in his name.

"Oklahoma Kid" Is Arrested By Police

Detroit, Mar. 16 (AP)—Self-styled the "Oklahoma Kid," 18-year-old William Retty, who says he wants to be "a gang chief" some day, was held at police headquarters today after his arrest in a downtown hotel room where he was found armed with two revolvers and a knife.

Police said they believed the youth's tales of daring holdups were fabricated, but planned to hold him for investigation and a possible psychiatric examination. Two detectives, who, acting on a tip, seized Retty in his hotel room, said the youth informed them they were "lucky to have lots of guns."

Governor White Is Hissed At Meeting

Columbus, O., Mar. 16 (AP)—Governor George White, of Ohio, was hissed tonight at the regional banquet of the Women's Christian Temperance Union when he told the exponents of the prohibition laws that they erred when they opposed a referendum on the eighteenth amendment.

Speaking out in public for the first time on his stand on the question of a referendum, the governor heard a chorus of "nays" and some hisses when he said that the prohibition question should be resubmitted to the people, if for no other reason than to refute the charges that the law was forced through when hundreds of thousands of American citizens were on the battle line in France.

HOAN ENDORSED IN MILWAUKEE

Mayor Renominated by Overwhelming Vote in Primary

BY ALVIN J. STEINKOPF Milwaukee, Mar. 16 (AP)—Milwaukee, a municipality without a worry, has given a rousing vote of confidence to its Socialist mayor—Daniel Hoan.

The Milwaukee citizen grumbles about taxes. But he shares few of the difficulties which have beset many other American cities. The city hall gets along without serious scandal. The city's bills are being paid. Its bonds are being retired, and crime is combated with success.

With such a record Mayor Hoan, foe of "the interests" and rough and tumble fighter in political wars, entered the city primaries yesterday. Four men tried to dislodge him, and he met the assault by piling up 10,000 more votes than all his opponents combined.

Since 1916 Hoan has been mayor, and political observers are confident that his impressive showing in the primary presages four more years for him. He now enters the final election to be held—against Joseph P. Carney, non-partisan.

Decency—Or Al Capone The greatest problem which confronts American cities, Mayor Hoan believes, is crime. He is mayor of a city where, frequently, murderers have been sent to prison before their victims were buried. It is the city's job, he said, to keep crime out. America's job, he believes, is to conquer it, or be conquered.

"The choice is decency, or Al Capone," he asserted.

"The world was horrified by the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby, but more shocking than the crime itself is the fact that police officers in charge admit failure in running down the culprits and surrender to the underworld the task of returning the baby. A proud country that boasts of no defeat-in-arms is now prostrate before the underworld."

Mayor Hoan makes the flat statement that "major criminals in large cities are dependent on the crookedness of politicians and office holders."

Veteran Employees Of Eastman File Past His Coffin

Rochester, N. Y., March 16 (AP)—Gray-haired friends of George Eastman, his veteran employees, filed slowly past his rose-flanked bier at the Eastman mansion here today, while the world joined them in tribute to the inventor and philanthropist.

The privilege of viewing the body today was reserved for men with 30 years or more of service in the Eastman Kodak company, the $200,000,000 corporation Eastman organized after beginning his business career as an office boy at $3 a week.

Eastman died by his own hand Monday after giving away five-sixths of what would have been his $120,000,000 fortune. The body will lie in state until 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when it will be taken to St. Paul's Episcopal church for a public funeral service.

Governor White To Call Extra Session

Columbus, O., March 16 (AP)—An extraordinary session of the Ohio general assembly will be called by Governor George White to consider the enactment of unemployment and poor relief legislation, the governor said tonight. He indicated it may be called next week.

A week ago the governor submitted a program to the special joint taxation committee which he estimated would provide $23,500,000 for relief up to March 31, 1933.

An increase of one per cent in the excise tax on utility corporations, other than the carrier and pipe lines, was estimated to yield $11,000,000, to be made available immediately through a bond issue.

Survey Discloses Married Women Best Teachers

New York, March 16 (AP)—Married women are superior to single ones as teachers, the teachers college of Columbia University has concluded from a survey.

The experience of marriage and motherhood is of paramount value for a teacher with children in her care, investigators working under Dr. Thomas Alexander, director of the new school, experimental unit of the college, and Dr. Agnes Snyder, assistant professor, asserted.

They believe it is a mistake that a young woman should be made to feel she must choose between marriage and teaching.

FISKE WILL FILE

New York, March 16 (AP)—The will of Minnie Maddern Fiske, actress who walked the stages of the world for three score years, was filed today, leaving her estate of "over $10,000" to her husband, Harrison Grey Fiske. Mrs. Fiske died at a Long Island retreat on Feb. 15.

Fishermen Marooned On Ice Floes Saved

Buffalo, N. Y., Mar. 16 (AP)—Marooned on a derelict, ice floe drifting in Lake Erie, 17 fishermen were rescued today by United States coast guardsmen who rowed to them through more than a mile of ice-clogged water.

The men were members of a group fishing through the ice which forms on the shore of the lake. Without warning a huge floe broke away from the field and started to drift across the lake toward the Canadian shore. Four men who were on the edge nearest the shore managed to reach land by jumping from one small floe to another but the 17 others were carried out into the lake.

CONVICT STABS PRISON GUARDS

Disturbance Occurs in State Reformatory At Ionia

Ionia, Mich., March 16 (AP)—One guard was accidentally shot by a companion today and three others were stabbed in an attempt to subdue an unruly prisoner in the Michigan state reformatory here.

Miss Patrick, 40, reformatory guard, is in a Grand Rapids hospital with a bullet wound in his back inflicted when Frank Leland deputy assistant warden, opened fire on the prisoner, Walter Sanders, a negro, who had refused to give up a knife he apparently had fashioned from a piece of steel.

Bullet Ricochet Patrick also received a slash on the neck from the prisoner's knife, Leland, Ford McVey, and S. V. Hadden, other guards, received minor knife slashes during the battle.

Warden Charles Shean of the reformatory said Sanders refused to go to the prison workshop this morning, and the guards were sent into the dormitory for him. The negro drew the knife, the warden said, and dared the guards to take him. In the struggle that followed, Leland fired at the prisoner, the bullet striking a steel beam and ricocheting into Patrick's back. He was not believed to be seriously injured.

The other guards were treated for minor cuts at the prison. Their clothing was slashed in many places.

Sanders, sentenced from Saginaw last August to 15 months for felonious assault, was not injured in the fight. He was returned to his cell after being disarmed.

Warden Shean said that 100 other prisoners in the dormitory created no disorder, and made no attempt to escape.

David Lloyd George Hits At Government

London, March 16 (AP)—David Lloyd George reentered the political arena today with a challenge to progressive men of all parties to rally round him and save Great Britain from what he declared would be four years of reactionary rule by the "sham" national government.

The 63-year-old liberal leader, who has been recuperating from an operation, signalled his return to activity by a slashing attack against the MacDonald government in a speech before the Junior Liberal club.

"The national government is a sham—a naked sham or, if not a naked sham, it wears the meanest of loincloths," he declared.

The crowd jamming the Junior Liberal club cheered lustily and there were cries of "Lead us! Lead us!"

Conspiracy Case To Go To Jury Today

Detroit, March 16 (AP)—The Hamtramck vice conspiracy case, a contemporary of the Chinese war, which it outlived, may reach the jury tomorrow.

Final defense arguments were concluded today and the last prosecution argument was in progress when court recessed. Judge Homer Ferguson indicated he would hold court in session tomorrow until the case reaches the jury.

Defendants are Mayor Rudolph G. Tenerowicz, Police Chief Harry K. Wurmserken, Police Captain Joseph Rupinski and City Attorney William Cohen, all of Hamtramck, and Jacob Kaplan, described by state witnesses as head of a vice syndicate which had a protection arrangement with the city administration.

Toy Hopes To Halt New Trial Motion

Detroit, March 16 (AP)—Prosecutor Harry S. Toy moved today to block efforts for a new trial on behalf of three hoodlums serving life sentences for the Colingwood manor gang massacre.

He contended that a motion for new trial filed yesterday is without force, since December 14 was the deadline for such action and that the defendants' only recourse is to the supreme court.

Recorder's Judge, Donald Van Zile, will hear arguments Saturday on the new trial motion, which is bolstered by an affidavit in which Solly Levine, star witness, purports to repudiate the testimony on which Ray Bernstein, Irving Malmberg and Harry Keywell were convicted last fall.

JOAN BENNETT MARRIED AGAIN

Screen Actress Becomes Bride of Gene Markey in Los Angeles

BY A. E. HARRIS (Associated Press Staff Writer) Los Angeles, March 16 (AP)—Joan Bennett, film actress, and Gene Markey, screen writer, were married in Los Angeles today, thereby creating for a city accustomed to taking its news of film celebrities' weddings from nearby Arizona or Nevada towns, a chance to see a real dyed-in-the-wool movie marriage.

Press and public alike were invited and the invitation was accepted. Those who saw presiding Judge Lewis R. Works of the district court of appeals perform the ceremony in a flower decorated room of a fashionable hotel were few but the invited public that saw the couple leave for an announced destination by motor was almost as numerous as at a world premier starting the bride.

The bride, in a gown fashioned in white rough crepe, was given away by C. Gardner Sullivan, husband of Miss Bennett's closest friend.

Notables Present She was attended by her older sister, Constance Bennett of the movies, who is wife of Marquis Henri De La Falaise, in private life. Markey was attended by Captain Allan Clayton.

Guests in the flowered bridal room included Marquis De La Falaise, Mrs. C. Gardner Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Howard, Miss Marian Davies, and William Randolph Hearst.

A wedding breakfast attended by many film notables preceded the couple's departure on a honeymoon through the northern section of the state.

The Irving Thalbergs (Norma Shearer), Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks Jr. (Joan Crawford), the David Selznicks, the Myron Selznicks, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Cline and Joseph Schenck, were prominent well-wishers of the couple.

It was Markey's first marriage. Miss Bennett was the former wife of John Marion Fox, Seattle broker. She is the mother of a three and one-half year old daughter, Markey met Miss Bennett, the daughter of Richard Bennett, the actor, while she was recuperating from a broken hip suffered in a horseback accident last summer.

the distance to the Lindbergh home and back. Before the couple left, the Lightfoots said, they borrowed a flashlight.

The next day the Lightfoots went to New York. When they returned, they said, the butler asked if he could see the New York newspapers, a request he had never made before.

Half an hour later Mrs. Lightfoot said, he told her he had received word his mother was dying in Germany and that he and his wife would have to leave at once.

After they had left it was discovered that a chest and some crating had disappeared from the estate. Later police reported a chest had been found under the window of the Lindbergh baby's nursery.

The Lightfoots also said they discovered an army blanket in the garage rolled in a bundle and covered with mud. The following Monday Mrs. Lightfoot received a telephone call from a man who said he was the butler, but whose accent, she explained, did not sound like the butler's. The man said he had received later word about his mother and asked if he could have his job back. He was informed the place had been filled.

Charge Fraud In Student Election

Ann Arbor, Mich., Mar. 16 (AP)—Ann was charged tonight in today's sophomore student council election and the student council, which will resume its investigation tomorrow, ordered another election held.

The State street party, which was in the minority on the strength of unofficial returns, charged the opposition Washtenaw avenue party with inserting unauthorized candidates on the State street ticket to split the vote and with "stuffing" the ballot boxes.

The latter charge was based on discovery of 100 ballots, all marked for the same Washtenaw avenue candidate, and investigators claimed, with the same pen.

Members of the student council were to have been interviewed.

JAPAN'S ARMY IN SHAM FIGHT

Troops Rout Imaginary Enemy in Action At Shanghai

Shanghai, March 16 (AP)—Japan's victorious army fought all over again today, but this time it was a sham action.

The troops that drove the Chinese out of Miaochohchen with artillery shells, airplane bombs and rifle bullets routed an imaginary enemy for the benefit of Japanese military authorities. The rattle of machine-guns aroused Chinese in the vicinity, but they soon learned that it did not mean a resumption of hostilities.

Blank cartridges were used by the infantrymen today when they reenacted the battle scenes. The only thing that impeded their advance was the fact that occasionally they stumbled over the bodies of Chinese soldiers still lying on the battlefield.

Powder blasts were set off along the former Chinese defense line to simulate artillery shell bursts, and numerous tanks played a part in the sham offensive.

Meanwhile negotiations looking toward a permanent settlement were continued with the aid of neutral mediators, including Nelson T. Johnson, American minister to China, and representatives of Great Britain, France and Italy.

As a result of these negotiations the Japanese have approved in principle proposals for a truce and for the withdrawal of their troops, but they made certain modifications which were taken under consideration by the Chinese.

Teachers Present Reasons For Not Reducing Salaries

Members of a special teachers' committee appeared before the Escanaba board of education at a special meeting tonight to present their reasons why they feel that teachers' salaries for next year should not be reduced.

No action was taken by the board last night, but it is likely that a decision as to whether salaries will remain at the present scale will be made at the next regular meeting on March 31. If teachers salaries are not reduced, it is apparent that school taxes will have to be increased, to make up for the deficiency that will be caused by tax delinquency and reductions in the amounts received from the primary school fund and under the Turner bill.

The special committee, before opening its arguments for retention of the present salary scale, made it clear that the teachers recognized the serious problem that faces the board, and that, in that event, the teachers would continue to give the same service to the schools of the city.

THE HITLERITES ARE FRUSTRATED

The moderate section of the French press had hailed the German election figures as "reassuring" in the sense that they carry a setback to the Hitlerites. The extreme nationalist papers react otherwise, pointing out that barely half of the German people approve the existing republic or acquiesce in the treaties that grew out of the war.

The French nationalists find the greater cheer as they can perceive greater need for a "hard" French policy—and therefore for control of the government by their own "hard" leaders. But while it is important for everybody to perceive that affairs in Germany could be given a desperate turn, and for no other nation so important as it is for the French, the real significance of the German election is certainly favorable.

It seems plain that "revolting youth" plus anti-semitism plus swashbuckling reaction plus a program of dictatorship plus the other factors of Hitlerite strength are not sufficient at this critical moment to effect a legal revolution. And the fact that the extremists of the other stripe, the communists, have failed to maintain their share of the hitherto ominous drift toward extremism, though they made some gains, is encouraging also.

CONGRESSMAN JAMES AND THE BISHOP

AMBITIONS of certain individuals to tackle the man size job of wresting the Republican nomination from Congressman W. Frank James of the twelfth district received a jolt Monday when they learned that Mr. James was among the Michigan congressmen who voted in favor of considering legislation designed to turn back control of liquor to the states.

The vote in Congress Monday would lead one to believe the prohibition question is in a mess. The House of Representatives remains dry, of course, as was indicated by the vote of 227 to 187 against taking up the state-control question on liquor. It was the first time, in twelve years that a record vote was taken on the issue. Neither of the major parties scored decisively one way or another. The vote was 114 Democrats and 112 Republicans opposing the motion to consider the wet bloc's proposal and the original petition, which forced a vote over the protest of the committee, bore the signatures of 76 Republicans and 63 Democrats.

The growing importance of the prohibition question cannot be denied, however. The stage has been reached where "spiritual overseers" go on record at points distant from their dioceses to take a resounding whack at the eighteenth amendment. The latest to come in that category is the Rt. Rev. H. S. Abelwhite, Episcopal bishop of the diocese of Marquette who, on his arrival in Los Angeles on an ocean voyage from New York, is given generous front page space to voice his sentiments on the subject. Bishop Abelwhite attacks the eighteenth amendment from the standpoint that "racketeering, crime and hypocrisy in high political offices of the nation are born of prohibition."

"One of the two changes is urgently needed to remedy present conditions, which have placed unusual temptations before our younger generations," he is quoted in Los Angeles newspapers. "These temptations particularly are being thrust upon our high school children by bootleggers and racketeers who are preying upon their adolescent minds. In my opinion, there will be a definite about-face in the prohibition problem, within the next two years. I cannot say what this change will be, whether it will be modification of the Volstead law or repeal of the eighteenth amendment, but whichever it shall be, it will eliminate this criminal element that has been created and which hides behind the prohibition law."

It must be assumed that Bishop Abelwhite is sincere when he takes such a determined position on prohibition. It is regrettable, however, that the voice of an intelligent leader like the bishop is not first heard at home on the subject. Episcopalians, as a rule, are liberal on the question and the Upper Peninsula, judging from the position taken by its two members in Congress, is not a prude when it comes to prohibition. Both W. Frank James and Dr. Bohn were aligned with Michigan's representation in favor of the motion to consider state control of liquor and it is the fashion of congressmen these days to take their cue from their districts.

and seated herself in the chair beside the bed. She was trembling. Just then she heard an automobile horn. Ellen ran to the window and saw the flash of headlights. After a wait that seemed endless the doctor came into the room. In the grip of nightmare Ellen answered his questions and saw him pour something down Steven's throat. Verigo swept over her but she sat quietly lest the brisk, efficient man at the bedside should send her away. He had said there was a chance Steven would regain consciousness, so she sat watching, watching the closed eyelids. They did not flicker and Steven's breathing barely stirred the sheet that covered him.

VALERA'S LIFE STORY IS TOLD

has been captured by the British and sentenced to death by a firing squad.

Hunted as Outlaw He has been hunted in the remote hills of Ireland as an outlaw, shrouded and hidden by Irish patriots in their cabins. He has escaped from an English jail in a drama as colorful as any grand opera plot in which a singing Irish gardener sang directions to him in Gaelic and pretty Irish girls entertained the warders with their charms until he could make his getaway.

He might have walked right out of the pages of one of Rafael Sabatini's blood-and-thunder novels. But he had his prospects start as a young college professor whose hobby was higher mathematics of the most abstruse kind—and whose consuming passion was politics.

Singularly enough, the new president of the Irish Free State was born in New York City, in an old house that is said to have stood on the site of the present Chrysler building. The date was Oct. 14, 1882.

His father was a Spaniard, said to have been a political refugee from Europe, and from him the boy obtained his Spanish name, de Valera (pronounced: devillera).

His mother was an Irish girl, lately arrived from the old country, in whom had been bred an intense hatred for the English through many generations. She despised the English and from the outset he was passionately Irish.

Return to Ireland

When de Valera was about six years old his father died and his mother returned to Ireland, taking the child with her. They went to Bruere in the County of Limerick where de Valera was educated in the common schools. He passed to higher schools and was educated as a teacher.

While a young professor of mathematics at Dublin he met and married a dark-haired young teacher of Gaelic and Irish history. It is said by a friend of Mrs. de Valera that she had 50 suitors, but young Zamonn persisted until she married him.

His consuming hatred of the English, inherited from his Irish mother, developed when marriage threw him into close contact with a young woman whose duty it had been to teach the history of Ireland's 700-year struggle for independence.

Outlet in Revolt

This soon found an outlet when the revived Irish freedom movement—under the guidance of Arthur Griffith and others—culminated in the bloody Easter Week insurrection of 1916.

At that time, Prof. de Valera was engaged at National University in research work in quaternion analysis, a powerful space calculus. But he never finished it. When the call came, he dropped his mathematical instruments and notes pads and went forth to fight for the new "Irish Republic" just proclaimed by the leaders of the Sinn Fein party.

The Sinn Fein party was merely another movement in Ireland's long struggle for liberty from its English kings and landlords. The history of 700 years is dotted with such moves.

Form Irish Army

Griffith crystallized this movement with his newspaper, which became a sort of Irish bible. As the movement grew, an Irish army known as the Irish volunteers was organized. In 1913, boy scouts were likewise organized.

Britain, harried by the growing discontent in Ireland, suddenly found itself plunged into the World War in 1914. Soon the rebellious Irish sought, and received, aid from the Germans. Sir Roger Casement, fervent patriot, was captured and executed by a firing squad after a German submarine had landed him on the Irish coast. A German ship, the Aud, was sunk with a cargo of arms for the Irish revolutionists.

The break in open warfare between the Irish insurgents and the British authorities on Easter Monday, 1916.

A great Sinn Fein parade was to be held in Dublin that day. In some way, the word got around that the British had ordered the arrest of the leaders of the Sinn Fein, the Gaelic League and the National Volunteers. It has been claimed since that this alleged order was a forgery—a work of propaganda to inflame the Irish. But, regardless of that, it had its effect.

The Irish, already armed, decided to fight. At noon on Easter Monday, the Irish republic was formally proclaimed from the base of Nelson's pillar in Dublin, and while this was being done, insurgent forces took possession of several strategic positions in the city.

General Padraic Pearse took over the postoffice after a short battle. Railway stations were seized and the rebels also occupied many other points.

Old Timers Look Back On History Of Alger County

Members of the Alger County History society, who held a social session last Sunday evening, discussed old time topics, chief among which was the old hotels first erected. The Munising House now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Octave Perry, on the corner of Maple and Superior streets, was the first hotel to open its doors to the new town of Munising. This was built by the late Emil Weiss, then purchased by Ole Peterson, a railroad contractor, who became sheriff of Alger county, and the only man elected on slips for a county office. He was succeeded by James Gibson, who in turn became sheriff.

Later Mrs. Black operated the place, then the late H. D. Beaudoin purchased the building from Jos. Barbot and ran it a number of years. In the early days it contained a bar room. It has run continuously, and has never changed its name. Thirty-six years ago this month Frank Lamphere of Nounibway was finishing the construction of what is now the Alger Hotel, a three story building which became the leading hotel of the city. Lamphere named the hotel the Superior House and sold it to Henry Russell before it was entirely completed. Mr. Russell was a Civil War veteran, timber cruiser and politician, his work taking him as far as South America when he worked for the Breitung estate. Under Mr. Russell's ownership it was known as the Russell House. Mr. Russell transferred the property to A. E. Stockwell, a brother-in-law of Charles Schaffer of Marquette, an old time furnace and charcoal man. Under Mr. Stockwell's management the hotel prospered. Mr. Stockwell was elected president of the village of Munising, finally relinquishing his business and departing from here. He died several years ago. The building was afterwards used as a meeting place for the Y. M. C. A., and was known as the Y. M. C. A. hall. The C. C. I. Co., had in the meantime erected the Beach Inn and this in turn became the leading hotel of the city. During the war period the various industries combined to run the hotel as a place for their employees. It was called then the Manufacturers' hotel and was so crowded that an annex had to be built. The late Charles York was appointed manager. Jos. Michelin succeeded him and ran the place a few months. Upon Mr. Michelin's death, Alex Belfry rented the place and changed the name to the Alger hotel. Early this winter the place was closed for the winter to resume operations in May under Mr. Belfry's management.

WILL RUN AGAIN

H. H. McMillan, cashier of the Peoples State Bank, who has been commissioner of records and finance for the past twelve years, is again a candidate for re-election. His nomination petition was placed in circulation yesterday.

Shells Level Building The British believing it to be Irish revolutionary headquarters, conveniently removed the building with their artillery. Then the Irish sharpshooters resumed where they had left off.

On the fifth day, General Pearse—"to prevent further slaughter of Dublin citizens and in the hope of saving the lives of our followers now surrounded and hopelessly outnumbered"—ordered his Irishmen to surrender.

De Valera gave up his little command and was taken prisoner along with the rest of the leaders. On April 30, he was sentenced to death.

He heard his fate calmly and prepared to die before a British firing squad, as had been the case with so many other Irish revolutionary leaders.

But Eamonn de Valera was not destined to die then. Fate, always mysterious and inscrutable, had another destiny in store for him. Instead of becoming merely another nameless martyr to the revolution, he was destined to become the greatest living hero of the Irish in the years to come.

Garden Fishermen Have A Close Call

Three commercial fishermen of Garden had a narrow escape that would have at least resulted in serious exposure when the fuel line to the engine of their boat became plugged, while they were tending their nets on Lake Michigan during Tuesday's storm. The men, Floyd Chaffee, Leslie Devet and Myron Devet, were caring for some nets in the lake about eight miles southeast of Fairport when the mishap occurred.

A strong wind was blowing and a snow storm in progress on the lake when their engine disabled, the boat was rapidly drifting out into the lake. After a delay of about an hour and a half the men succeeded in blowing the fuel line clear and returned to port. They arrived after dark with their boat covered with ice and snow.

DRIVER PERMITS EXPIRE MAY 1

Opinion from Attorney General Defines "Chauffeur"

Between now and May 1, many Delta county automobile drivers will be required to secure new drivers' licenses under the law adopted by the 1931 legislature. It is estimated that about 400,000 in the state will be affected. All who secured old licenses between Jan. 1, 1925, and Jan. 1, 1928, must secure new licenses before May 1. All licenses secured between Jan. 1, 1928, and Nov. 1, 1929, must be renewed by Nov. 1, 1932; and all licenses issued after Nov. 1, 1929, must be renewed three years after date of issue.

Since this new law, requiring re-registration of drivers every three years, went into effect May 1, 1931, a total of 2,414 licenses have been revoked. Of this number 2,253 licenses were revoked under the mandatory provisions of the law, which do not give judges or the secretary of state and discretion in canceling the licenses.

Automobile drivers who hold chauffeur licenses are not required to secure operators' licenses. A recent ruling from the attorney general's office defines the term chauffeur as one who is hired or employed expressly for the purpose of driving a motor vehicle. Persons who drive an automobile for delivering goods or hauling materials in connection with sales or service work are not classed as chauffeurs, according to this opinion, and are exempted from securing a chauffeur's license.

Lenten Services—This evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock special Lenten services will be conducted at St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran church. The topic for the sermon will be "Judah the Traitor to His Lord and Savior." Immediately after the services the regular quarterly meeting of the male communicant members will take place in the parlors of the church. Very important business is to be discussed and it is hoped that every one will be present.

Erck Peterson will be brought home today from Flint where he has been seriously ill for several months. His two brothers, Abe and Vens, drove to Flint Monday to bring him home. Erck went to Flint early last year to work in a motor plant and a few weeks later was taken sick. He has been in a hospital there for several months.

Tony Belongie is confined to his home by illness.

PLEDGES TOTAL $12,000 TODAY

150 Jobs To Be Started Soon Legion Committee Reports

Painters and decorators, plumbers and carpenters, masons and laborers of every type are assured that not less than 150 jobs will be started and at least $12,540.25 expended by householders in Gladstone for improvements and repairs to their property during the next two and a half months, according to a report submitted by the canvassing committee of the Legion Employment drive, at a meeting of the committee Tuesday night.

That this amount will be increased considerably was the opinion of the canvassers who declared that they would continue the drive until every home in Gladstone had been visited. Yesterday morning the committee proceeded with this householders canvass, making a record of each call and the reasons given for making no pledge if the householders failed to agree to provide some work.

Up to the present time there have been 74 calls reported where no pledges were made. Many of these will probably respond to the appeal when they are approached a second time. Others have made small pledges which will undoubtedly expend a far greater amount than is pledged.

In addition to continuing the drive the committee decided to turn the pledge cards over to the City Manager, who will prepare a follow-up system and endeavor to place a part of the unemployed of Gladstone in jobs as soon as possible. City Manager Buehner stated that every effort would be made to carry out the plan of the Legion and that the cards would be classified immediately and carefully scrutinized to determine what jobs might be done at once. Persons who have work to be done will be asked to use men from the unemployed lists of the city where possible.

The largest pledge so far made was for $1,510.00, which will be spent for remodeling a Gladstone home.

TO INVESTIGATE PLAN OF SURVEY

City Club Refers Industrial Survey Proposal to Committee

A proposal that the Gladstone City Club should enter into an agreement with Pace Inc., of Chicago to carry on an advertising campaign as a follow-up to an industrial survey of the city was referred to the board of directors and the industrial committee at a meeting of the Club Tuesday night. The action of the Club followed an address by W. W. Pace, Chicago, who outlined to the membership a program of industrial expansion that has been inaugurated by the Soo Line railroad.

According to the statement of Mr. Pace, the Soo Line has contracted with his concern to make surveys of the cities on its lines, with the provision that the cities are required to cooperate with the railroad to the extent of making an effort to interest manufacturers in locating within the community, through an extensive advertising campaign. Inquiries resulting from the advertising would be followed up by Pace Inc. without cost to the community. In the event that Gladstone is unaided for additional industry, the City Club would not be required to make any expenditure.

Keen interest in the plan was evinced by members of the Club who were called on for an expression by B. R. Micks, club president. The general opinion was to the effect that such a survey would be valuable and would likely result in advantages to the city.

The amount which it was proposed would be needed for an advertising campaign had been fixed at $1,000 by the Pace concern, but Mr. Pace indicated that this was not an arbitrary figure. A lesser amount, he said, could be set aside and the survey would be made, but it was his opinion that an adequate campaign could not be carried out for a smaller sum.

A meeting of the directors and the industrial committee is to be held at an early date to consider the proposal and arrange to investigate the matter further.

Many Voters Register For April Election

More than 100 persons, not previously registered, appeared at the city hall Tuesday to have their names entered on the registration books of the city in order that they might vote at the city election on April 4. It is reported by clerks at the city offices, most of those registering had never previously voted in the city and many of them had reached their majority since the last registration.

In addition to the large number who were not registered a great many more appeared at the city hall under the impression that the registration now being held was the permanent registration which is to start in May, when all voters will be required to make a new registration.

Registrations for the April election will continue until March 26.

Junior High Tourney Is Now In Progress

Basketballs have been flying thick and fast this week during the Junior high school basketball tourney. Comparing the scores reported and the names of the participants, the conclusion is reached that the participants tried to faithfully exemplify the type of team that their name conveys. It is therefore unnecessary to enlarge upon the story of each game. To merely state that the Wildcats trimmed the Bull Dogs 20 to 0 and that the Ramblers defeated the Slop Shots by a score of 34 to 1, is all that is necessary. Other scores were as follows: Polar Bears, 16; Blue Birds 5, Braves, 17; Ramblers, 21; Rangers, 3; Trojans, 36; Midgets, 8; Rangers, 5; Nite Owls, 10; Wolverines, 16; Wildcats, 7; Polar Bears, 6; Trojans, 26; Midgets, 5; Maroons, 3; Ramblers 25; Spartans, 16; Independents, 14; Shooting Stars, 17; Invincibles, 11.

Dead Letter Office Gets Foreign Mail Lacking Postage

Dozens of letters mailed to foreign countries by Gladstone people are being sent to the dead letter office at Washington, according to Postmaster F. A. Miller, because the sender fails to place sufficient postage on the envelope. This has become especially true, he said, since the postage rate to Canada was increased to three cents for letters and two cents for postal cards.

Until a short time ago, the postmaster said, the department permitted the offices to forward postage due, the letters which had been posted without sufficient stamps. Recently the postmasters were notified that letters without sufficient postage should be returned to the sender if the return address was known or sent to the dead letter office.

Many people fail to place the return address on the envelope and as a result when sufficient postage is lacking the letter goes to the dead letter office where it is held until the person addressed provides the lacking postage.

High School Athlete In Serious Condition

Matt Kernz, star fullback of the Gladstone high school football squad, is in serious condition at St. Francis hospital, Escanaba, where he was taken Tuesday for an emergency operation for a ruptured appendix.

Kernz is the second high school athlete to be operated for appendix trouble during the past month. Edward Murphy, guard on the basketball team, submitted to an operation for appendicitis shortly before the game with Escanaba in February.

THEATRES

Sylvia Sidney, whose excellent work in "An American Tragedy" won favorable comment from the critics, now has the leading feminine part in "Ladies of the Big House," which is scheduled as the feature attraction at the Rialto theatre now showing.

This picture is Paramount's screen version of the story by Ernest Booth, life-term convict author at Folsom prison. It is a gripping romantic drama of two persons who have run athwart the law and presents a cross-section of the real drama of life within the quarters of a great prison.

"Ladies of the Big House" follows Miss Sidney's stellar appearance in "Street Scene."

In "Ladies of the Big House," Miss Sidney has as her leading man, Gene Raymond. The story of "Ladies of the Big House," a heart-stirring romance of love and regeneration, centers on the two leading characters, unjustly caught in the toils of the law.

TALKS TO ROTARIANS
Miss Emma Johnson, county nurse, delivered a splendid address to the local Rotary club Monday noon on health conditions in the county. Her talk was well received by the large number of Rotarians present.

Why FAT Piles Up

Modern science has discovered a great cause. A certain gland grows weak, usually after 30. Then foods which once fed energy go largely to fat. People slow down and gain weight. Doctors, the world over, now combat that cause. People who consult them are keeping slender now.

The factor they use is embodied in Marmola's prescription tablets, at small cost. People have used them for 24 years - millions of boxes of them. In almost every clinic you see the results.

No starvation is advised. Marmola supplies the factor needed to turn food to vitamins. As the extra fat goes, new energy returns. Go learn what Marmola means to you. At all druggists - $1.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Delta.

The Circuit Court for the County of DELTA in Chancery.

In the matter of the petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.

On reading and filing the petition of the Auditor General of the State of Michigan praying for a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of land therein described, for the amounts therein specified, to be due for taxes, interest and charges on each such parcel of land, and that such lands be sold for the amounts so claimed by the State of Michigan.

It is ordered that said petition will be brought on for hearing and decree at the April term of this Court to be held at Escanaba in the County of Delta, State of Michigan, on the 31st day of April, A. D. 1932, at the opening of the Court on that day, and that all persons interested in the proceeds of said decree, desiring to contest the claim claimed thereon by the State of Michigan, for such taxes, interest and charges, or any part thereof, shall appear in said Court, and file with the clerk thereof their objections thereon or before the first day of the term of this Court above mentioned, and that in default thereof the same will be taken as confessed and a decree will be taken and entered as prayed for in said petition. And it is further ordered that in pursuance of said decree the lands described in said petition for which a decree of sale shall be made will be sold for the several taxes, interest and charges thereon as determined by said decree, on the first Tuesday in May thereafter, beginning at 10 o'clock, P. M., on said day, or on the day or days subsequent thereto as may be necessary to complete the sale of said lands and of each and every parcel thereof, at the office of the County Treasurer at Escanaba, in the County of Delta, State of Michigan; and that the sale then and there made will be a public sale, and each parcel of land so sold shall be separately exposed for sale for the total taxes, interest and charges, and the sale shall be made to the person paying the full amount charged against such parcel, and accepting a conveyance of the smallest undivided fee simple interest therein, and the purchaser shall be bound to pay the same and take a conveyance of less than the entire thereof, then the whole parcel shall be offered and sold. If any parcel of land cannot be sold for the time being, and charges, such parcel shall be passed over for the time being, and shall, on the succeeding day, or before the close of the sale, be reoffered, and if, on such second offer, or during such sale, the same cannot be sold for the amount aforesaid, the County Treasurer shall keep off the same until the next day of the State.

Witness the Hon. Frank A. Bell, Circuit Judge, and the seal of said Circuit Court of DELTA County, this 6th day of February, A. D. 1932.

FRANK A. BELL, Circuit Judge.

Countersigned, R. H. LABRE, Clerk. (SEAL)

STATE OF MICHIGAN.

To the Circuit Court for the County of DELTA, in Chancery: The petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of all lands in said County of DELTA upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, and which were returned as delinquent for taxes, and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and costs of said parcels, as provided by law, extended against each of said parcels.

Your petitioner further shows to the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General under the provisions of Act 206 of the Public Acts of 1931, as delinquent for non-payment of taxes for said years respectively, and non-payment of said taxes, except that the lands included in said "Schedule A" for taxes of 1930 or prior years were returned to the Auditor General as delinquent for said taxes under the provisions of the general law in force prior to the passage of Act 206 of the Public Acts of 1931, and which taxes remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1930 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for the sale or sales made heretofore for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have not been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law.

Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses as set forth in said "Schedule A," are a valid lien on the several parcels of lands described in said schedule. Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of land therein described, for the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Dated February 2, 1932.

ORAMEL B. FULLER, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State.

OAKLAND BOWS TO TIGERS, 7-1

Sorrell and Goldstein Turn in Good Pitching Performances

Oakland, Cal., Mar. 16 (AP)—High caliber pitching by veteran Vic Sorrell and recruit Izzy Goldstein and timely batting enabled the Detroit Tigers to defeat Oakland 7-1 today for the second straight victory.

Sorrell allowed three hits in five innings. Two of Oakland's three hits off Goldstein came in the sixth and seventh innings.

Jonathan Stone had a field day at bat, with four singles out of five times at bat. Dale Alexander was blanked in three trips to the plate.

Spitz Breaks His High Jump Record

Hamilton, Ont., March 16 (AP)—For the fourth time this season, George Spitz, crack New York university high jumper who is ineligible to represent his college, bettered his own accepted world's indoor high jump record of 6 feet seven and a quarter inches, more than an inch below his high mark of the current season which has not yet been given record recognition.

The mark Spitz made tonight stands as a new Canadian record. In winning the jump, Spitz beat the outdoor record holder, Harold M. Osborn of the Illinois A. C., who took third place behind A. Silber of Toronto.

Contestants from the United States swept the boards in the early events of the field meet.

"Volley Ball" STANDINGS CHANGED

An error was made in the computation of the standings in yesterday's paper. The Templars have won 10 and lost four games, instead of having 11 victories and three defeats, which will make their correct percentage .714. This places the Templars in a tie for fourth place with the Holy Name.

TOURNEY DATES

Because of a conflict with school activities, the volley ball tournament will be held April 4 to 6, instead of April 6 to 8, as tentatively arranged previously. The entry fee will be 50 cents for each team, and this sum should be turned over to the league treasurer, Miss Irene Tauschak, at the junior high school office at the managers' earliest convenience. Drawings will be announced later.

Babe Ruth Signs With Yankees for $75,000

BY ALAN GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor) St. Petersburg, Fla., March 16 (AP)—To the accompaniment of sound effects in a garden setting of tropical beauty, the great man of baseball, George Horan (Babe) Ruth, magnanimously accepted a $75,000 salary cut today and signed a one-year contract for $75,000.

For the sixth time in the 13 years he has been with the New York Yankees, Babe put his signature to a document that keeps him in a class by himself among ball players. Colonel Jacob Ruppert, the Yankee owner, won his point about signing Ruth for only one season, but went half way to reach a compromise on the figures. Both satisfied. The club's original offer was for $70,000 for 1932 only. The Babe had rejected this and countered with a demand for the same salary he has been getting for two years, $80,000 unless the Yankees would give him a two-year contract.

Both declared they were thoroughly satisfied with the agreement, which cuts Ruth's salary for the first time since he became a Yankee in 1920 at $20,000 a year.

On no previous occasion of the sort has the home run king forsaken the holdout rank and made a flourish. The Babe has wielded his fountain pen on a contract in hotel rooms and in a brewery. Shortly before noon today he and Colonel Ruppert went through the formal business in the flowered, pretentious parlor of the hotel where the Ruths are living.

They sat in tapestried chairs before a carved table, decorated with a bowl of petunias. Behind them was an old wishing well, into which they dropped coins and wished luck for Ruth, a pennant for the Yankees. Before the ceremony, the Babe, in fit of the camera, the Babe, in natty striped trousers and sport coat, availed himself of the premises with the air of a country squire. Afterward he was host at a luncheon before going to the ball park to play in his first exhibition game against the Boston Braves.

ATHLETICS WIN LITTLE SERIES

Cardinals Lose in Last Game at Bradenton By 6 to 3

BY ALAN GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor) Bradenton, Fla., March 16 (AP)—Max Bishop, the last man at bat in the 1931 world series, couldn't puncture the St. Louis defense last October, but he came through today with a booming blow which the bases were full and clinched the final game for the spring series between the Athletics and Cardinals.

The Athletics, aided and abetted by the loose fielding and pitching of the world champions, won by six to one. The Cardinals' only victory was in the ten inning game that opened the series a fortnight ago in Miami. Bishop's decisive wallop came in the sixth inning with the score tied at 3-3 and Sylvester Johnson on the mound for the Cardinals. With perfect support Johnson would have retired the side in order in the frame, but a boot by Deiker on Miller's grounder and a muff by Watkins on Madjeski's high fly, followed by a pass to Cain, filled the bases. Bishop's line single to left tallied Miller and Madjeski.

ALTON KIRCHER Co-Captain of Spartan Team

East Lansing, Mich., Mar. 16 (AP)—Alton S. Kircher, of Gladstone, and Gerald E. McCaslin, of Saginaw, were elected co-captains of the Michigan State basketball team today by letter men of the varsity squad. Kircher is a guard while McCaslin plays forward.

Both men are juniors in the physical education school. Each is a star in another sport. Kircher is an outfielder during the baseball season and is a reserve quarterback on the football squad. McCaslin is a member of Coach John Kohr's pitching staff.

The election continued the tradition of a dual captaincy at State. Randy Boeckool, center, and Dee Pinneo, forward, were captains during the past season.

Bell defeated Jean Borotra, France's second ranking star and defending champion, 6-2, 6-4, in a spectacular quarter-final match.
