

BONUS PAYMENT VETO PROMISED

Hoover Says Budget of Nation Must Be Balanced First

Washington, March 29. (AP)—President Hoover served emphatic notice upon congress today that a veto waits at the White House for any new soldiers' bonus legislation that might be passed and delivered there.

Speaking to newspapermen in his private office the president declared without equivocation that he was "absolutely opposed to any such legislation." The $2,000,000,000 expenditure necessary to pay the balance on veterans' compensation certificates, he asserted, would preclude any balancing of the budget.

Immediately, opposition was aroused on Capitol Hill. Representative Conroy (D. Mass.) said he would use every power within his means to push through the house one of the 16 bills already introduced to provide payment upon adjusted compensation certificates.

Conroy declared that if a bonus bill is not placed before the house he would "fight it out the petition way," obtaining 145 names upon a request to bring up the question.

Credit Comes First
The president's lashing statement today apparently was prompted by growing agitation within the house. Republican leaders have informed him that sentiment among a majority appears to favor new bonus legislation.

The chief executive's face was stern as he arose from his desk at the start of his press conference. Even the informal polls on this subject already conducted within the house, he said, have "created apprehension in the country."

"Such action," he continued, "would undo every effort that is being made to reduce government expenditures and balance the budget. The first duty of every citizen of the United States is to build up and sustain the credit of the United States government. Such an action would irremediably determine it."

Norris and Watson Reach Agreement On Senate Floor

Washington, Mar. 29 (AP)—Two veteran Republicans—Senators Watson, of Indiana, and Norris, Nebraska—whose paths have gradually grown farther apart over the years suddenly found themselves in agreement on the senate floor today.

They were arguing reciprocity on tariff and Watson recalled that he fervently followed James G. Blaine in his stand for this in the years ago.

"I thought when he was defeated for president the end of the republic was in sight," the Indiana observed.

"Well," reflected Norris, "I thought much the same way."

Watson turned and stretched out his hand to the grey haired Norris, and the Nebraska smilingly accepted the shake as the membership and galleries joined in the laughter.

Attempt To Slash Fuel Bill Causes Death Of Family

Detroit, March 29. (AP)—An attempt by Oliver Stewart, 45, a gasoline filling station attendant, to reduce his fuel bill by utilizing discarded lubricating oil resulted in the deaths of himself, his wife and their two children.

In the garage that Stewart had fixed up as a home in Lincoln Park, a suburb, he had placed a tank from which the oil was fed to a coal stove. The oil dripping slowly onto the live coals provided additional fuel at virtually no cost to Stewart.

This morning an explosion occurred, resulting, investigators said later, from an accumulation of gas. Stewart, his wife, Mamie, their five year old daughter, Mamie, and a son, Thomas, two, who had been sleeping in two beds in one of the rooms into which the garage had been divided, were dead when firemen were able to enter.

Eamon de Valera, Cabinet Agree On Reply To British

Dublin, Irish Free State, March 29. (AP)—President Eamon de Valera and his cabinet were reported today to have agreed unanimously on a reply to the British government which is expected to reaffirm the Irish Free State's intention to abolish the oath of allegiance to the British crown.

The reply will be made to a recent communication from the British government. It is expected to reiterate the determination of the new Free State government to cease paying land annuities to England, as well as abolish the oath.

The attorney general was instructed, after a cabinet meeting of several hours, to draw up the Irish reply.

Dickinson Urges Senate To Seek Divine Wisdom

Lansing, March 29 (AP)—Seeking of divine wisdom in the solution of issues before the legislature was urged today by Lieut. Gov. Luren D. Dickinson in his message to the senate.

"To decide this task unmitigated wisdom—supreme wisdom—must be elicited," he said. "Your experience as members of this senate, the longest average in terms of office of any that ever sat in this chamber, gives you unusual legislative wisdom. But will this be sufficient to meet the present grave responsibilities? God says if we lack wisdom, He will give us Divine Wisdom. Dare we face the task before us without this? If not, in the name of God, hungry, helpless children and state, regardless of any flippant jibes or sneers from those jeeringly inclined, let us have courage to implore such wisdom." The lieutenant-governor said.

Dickinson pleaded for a short session but not "at the expense of effectiveness and accomplishment."

Jury Takes Up Case Of Former Officer

Detroit, Mar. 29 (AP)—A recorder's jury today took up the case of Max Waldfoel, former police officer, charged with perjury in connection with testimony before the Wayne county grand jury last year.

Waldfoel, with Robert A. MacPherson, was indicted following the grand jury's questioning of the two regarding police department investigations. MacPherson, a former detective inspector, will go on trial at the conclusion of the Waldfoel case.

STATE CANCELS FUR LICENSES

Isackson, Braude and Underwood Lose Permits

Lansing—Cancellation of the 1932 licenses of seven Michigan fur buyers was announced today by the Department of Conservation.

The licenses were cancelled by Director George R. Hozarth on recommendation of the Division of Field Administration after the seven license holders had been convicted of violating the state's fur dealing regulations.

The six dealers who will not be permitted to operate in this state during the rest of this year are:

- Charles Isackson, Manistique; Steve Braude, Sault Ste. Marie; E. C. Underwood, Newberry; Fred Spencer, St. Charles; Dan Headley, Plainwell; and Will Sidell and Son, Fowlerville.

Three of the men, Isackson, Braude and Underwood were involved in the recent beaver bootlegging expose in the Upper Peninsula.

The Lansing office is making careful check of all reports made by fur buyers and discrepancies will result in cancellation of the license, it was said.

Fur buyer's licenses are issued for the calendar year. During 1931, 605 such licenses were issued by the Department of Conservation. So far this year more than 400 licenses have been sold.

Effort To Repeal "5 and 10" Law Is Beaten By Comish

Washington, March 29 (AP)—An effort to repeal the Jones "five and ten" prohibition law was killed today by the preponderantly dry house judiciary committee.

A show of hands behind closed doors was all that was necessary to defeat the proposal. Members said the vote was further evidence of the committee's determination not to bring any important prohibition legislation, either wet or dry, before the house this session.

The "five and ten" law, sponsored by Senator Jones (R. Wash.), was so called because it provided maximum penalties of five years imprisonment and $10,000 fine for prohibition offenders.

It since has been amended to lighten the penalties on minor and casual offenders.

Anna May Wong Has Difficulty In Trip From West To East

Detroit, Mar. 29 (AP)—Anna May Wong, American-born Chinese movie actress, learned something about the intricacies of international travel today.

Enroute from the west coast to New York to fill a theatrical engagement, she chose a railroad route which led through Canada and when the train stopped here left it to catch with Detroit friends in the station.

Canadian immigration officers refused to permit her to board the train again. She spent the night here, and said she would continue her trip to New York by an all-American route.

O. G. Adams, inspector in charge at Windsor, Ont., said tonight he had received no report on Miss Wong's case, but that Chinese, regardless of their nativity, must enter Canada through designated ports of entry, of which Windsor is not one, unless they are bearers of special permits issued in Ottawa.

A SUITOR ALL AT SEA

Romance spurred Harold Elliott, Phoenix, Ariz., attorney, to board the liner City of Los Angeles by rope ladder in spectacular fashion at quarantine of Los Angeles, Calif. Once aboard the liner he greeted Lonella Archer, daughter of George A. Archer, licensed oil king, whom he introduced as his bride. They are shown above on deck as they announced that their wedding, which will interest society, is set for an early date.

NORFOLK MEN STILL ON CASE

Lindbergh tonight by Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, who is directing the police search for the kidnaped Lindbergh baby.

Colonel Schwarzkopf was asked if Colonel Lindbergh's asserted attitude was the same since Dean H. Dobson-Peacock upon his return to Norfolk said the flier had asked a continuation of the southern negotiations for the baby's return.

The police head sent back the following answer: "Upon taking the matter up with Colonel Lindbergh, we find the same statement still obtains in regard to the Norfolk situation and there is nothing to add or change."

Colonel Schwarzkopf also denied federal agents had been in Hopewell during the day or that naval authorities had been requested to keep planes in readiness "for any purpose." No "identifications of children" were made during the day, he said.

In his morning bulletin Schwarzkopf said he had received repeated reports Able Wagner, one of the two "known kidnapers" being sought, was killed some time ago in New York City. Although they have never been verified, he added, the rumors persist.

Harry Fleischer, the other man sought, had been reported in various parts of the country. Schwarzkopf said, but no authentic information about his whereabouts has been received.

Flint Lawyer Falls 7 Stories To Death

Flint, March 29. (AP)—Edward A. Murphy, 68-year-old Flint attorney, fell or leaped to his death today from the seventh floor of the Citizens Commercial and Savings bank building.

Friends said Murphy, a former president of the Genesee county bar association and holder of several county offices, had been in ill health for several weeks. His body was found on the roof of an adjoining building.

Windows in Murphy's office on the fifth floor of the bank building were locked, but a window on the seventh floor was open, and officials believe he fell or jumped from that window, his body crashing to the roof of a three story building.

He is survived by two daughters.

Michigan's Bean Acreage Will Be Reduced This Year

Lansing, Mar. 29 (AP)—A retrenchment in the bean acreage in Michigan during 1932 and a substantial increase in the barley output were forecast today in the announcement by United States agricultural statisticians office of farmers' planting intentions.

The announcement said that an analysis of reports from farmers indicated a 11 percent decline in the bean acreage and a boost of 20 percent in barley plantings this year. Aside from a promise to increase spring wheat plantings 19 percent, there were few other changes in acreage indicated.

Farmers indicated a bean crop of 546,000 acres, or 83 percent of the 1931 acreage, but five percent above the average for the ten year period, 1921-30. Indications for the country as a whole promise a decrease of 11.8 percent under the 1931 crop.

Aid For Detroit Will Be Sought From Lawmakers

Detroit, March 29. (AP)—Ralph Stone, representing New York bankers, and Henry Hart, speaking for Detroit banks, today pledged aid to the city in securing for furtherance of plans to refund its debts and relieve pressure upon the taxpayers.

They said they would give their support to legislation which will be sought at the special legislative session convening tomorrow.

Frank Cody, superintendent of schools; Councilman John W. Smith and City Controller G. Hall Roosevelt were named on a committee to present the city's legislative needs before the house and senate. City Attorney Clarence E. Wilcox will name four other committees to study plans for meeting deficits, refunding obligations, increasing revenues and effecting further economies in local government.

Man Confesses He Killed His Brother

Detroit, Mar. 29 (AP)—Leonard Cote was quoted by police today as saying he killed his brother, Howard, last night because he lost four teeth in a fight over the favors of Mrs. Nola Schmitz, a widow.

Leonard Cote said his brother struck him unexpectedly, knocking out four upper teeth.

"When I got home and saw myself in a looking glass I wanted to do something to him," he told a detective.

Then, he said, he went to the hardware store where he was employed, got a shotgun and returning to the scene of the fight, killed his brother. He is held on a murder charge.

About one-fourteenth of the entire body weight of a human is blood.

The body was taken to the Alto funeral home for burial preparation. No funeral arrangements have been made.

Mr. Gouin is survived by one son, Oliver of Isabella with whom he made his home; and two daughters; Mrs. Mike Letulip of Garden and Mrs. Louis Trudeau of Oconto Falls, Wisconsin. Two brothers, Peter and Philip of Manistique also survive.

Negro Prisoner Is Killed Trying To Make Escape

Philadelphia, March 29. (AP)—Police shot and killed a negro prisoner in the X-ray room of a hospital late today when he said he shouted defiance at them and tried to escape.

The victim was Alphonso Harrison, 47, weighing 230 pounds and standing six feet, three inches.

Harrison already had been shot three times in the abdomen by Samuel Brownstein, 21, clerk in a pawnshop which the negro tried to rob. Despite his wounds he flung a portable phonograph at Brownstein, fled out the door and jumped on the running board of a passing armored truck. The driver pushed him off and two policemen pounced upon him.

Undressed and placed upon the X-ray table at the hospital, Harrison leaped up and tried to dash through the door. Two policemen on guard subdued him with blackjacks and led him to the table.

A few minutes later Harrison roared threats at the policemen and tried to bolt again. This time he took the blackjack from a policeman who advanced upon him, seized a sharp medical instrument in his other hand and defied anybody to take him.

Two policemen drew their pistols and each fired twice. Hospital authorities said Harrison had ruined the X-ray machine, dozens of plates and nearly every piece of furniture in the room.

were playing on a pond across the road. The older members of the families went on to the service, leaving Lennie and Martindale with their wraps on ready to leave. The children heard two shots. LeRoy, a young lad, ran to the house to find his cousin dead on the floor and Martindale creeping about with a bullet through his body. He died in about 40 minutes, first telling his story.

Night Search
Sheriff William McCauley, Lieutenant Fred Keuns and troopers from the Newberry detachment state police and citizens spent the night searching the swamp and wood country from Rexton towards 800 Junction, towards Gilchrist and Gould City. They believed that the killer would try to reach relatives at Corrairie or Manistique, hoping they would give him shelter. All night they hunted, following trails and single foot prints. On Monday the machinery of law for the whole peninsula was operating to apprehend Minor and late in the day Deputy Sheriff George Holt and Bernard J. Laslay became suspicious that someone was hiding in a barn two miles to the east of the village. There they found the alleged killer.

U. P. TIMBERMEN AT MILWAUKEE

Harder and Sawyer Attend Conference on Delinquent Lands

George N. Harder, of the L. Stephenson company, Wells, and Carl J. Sawyer of the Sawyer-Stoll Timber company are among the fifty timber land owners and conservation and forestry officials of Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota assembled in Milwaukee for a two day meeting which opened on Tuesday.

The meeting is for the discussion of mutual problems arising from tax delinquencies, scientific lumbering and reforestation.

They are gathered in response to an invitation from Earl W. Tinker, federal regional forester, who contends the time has come for a showdown regarding private forestry development as it affects public policy.

State to Have Land

Among the first arrivals was W. T. Cox, St. Paul conservation commissioner for Minnesota. Under Minnesota law, he said, 4,000,000 acres that have been tax delinquent for five years will come into state ownership in May, 1932, and by 1936 there will be 10,000,000 acres of such land under public control in the state.

"The problems of Wisconsin and Michigan in regard to delinquency, reforestation, game refuge, and public shooting areas are similar to those in Minnesota," Cox said.

High Taxes Criticized

"High tax assessments on privately owned timberlands in Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin discourage scientific forest management," W. F. Ramsdell, professor of forest land management at the University of Michigan, said at the initial session of the timbermen on Tuesday.

"Present assessments," Professor Ramsdell said, "Come pretty close to wrecking the value of all the timber on a piece of property. Forest management can not generally be practiced unless the assessments are based on the value of the land's continuous production over a number of years."

"Timber as an agricultural product is the only one that is taxed annually," said George N. Harder, Wells, Mich. "Excessive taxation is increasing premature cutting of timber and leading toward ruin of our forests."

S. T. Dana, dean of the school of forestry at the University of Michigan, said, "Continuation of private ownership of timberlands depends upon the deal with which owners practice forest management."

AMUSEMENTS

"Play Girl," the Warner Bros. and Vitaphone picture featuring Loreta Young, and now drawing large crowds to the Delft Theatre, includes in its large cast two interesting and distinctive personalities, unrelated but both named Madison.

They are Noel Madison, recently seen in "The Hatchet Man" with Edward G. Robinson, and Mae Madison, featured contract player, who has been seen in "Bought," "High Pressure" and "Union Depot."

Noel Madison is Russian, son of the famous Maurice Muskowitz, portrayer of Shakespearean roles and well known on the legitimate stage. Mae Madison is Hungarian. Her real name is Mariaka Medgyes.

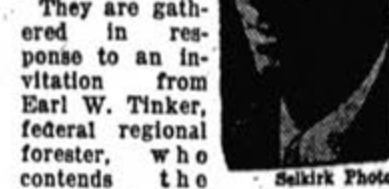

Others featured in "Play Girl," besides Loreta Young, are Winnie Lightner, Guy Kibbee and Norman Foster. The large cast includes James Ellison, Edward Van Sloan, Dorothy Burgess, Polly Walters, Nat Pendleton and Flora Finch.

The story of "Play Girl" was written by Maurine Watkins. Adaptation and dialogue are by Maude Fulton. The direction is by Ray Enright.

The appeal of "Play Girl" can be compared with that of "Bad Girl," which indicates that women are best suited to the portrayal of the heights and depths of feminine feeling.

STORE FRONTS ARE RENOVATED

Pledges in Escanaba Drive for Work Total $24,024

Reports received Tuesday boosted the total work pledges in Escanaba's "war against depression" drive up to $24,024. This cost estimate represents hundreds of improvement, cleanup, repair, remodeling and construction jobs in all parts of the city, some of which are already under way and others scheduled for early spring.

Tom Beaton, Jr., general chairman of the campaign, reported yesterday that 16 of the 84 teams assigned to cover the city in a house-to-house canvass had completed their districts. No reports have been turned in to date by the special committee assigned to cover the Ludington street business section, but several important projects are now under way in this area.

Three store fronts are being remodeled: the Koppes building at 812 Ludington, home of the Children's Shop, the Gamble store at 1113 Ludington and the Postal Telegraph office at 710 Ludington.

Chairman Beaton has called a meeting of all committees and all district captains for tonight at 7:30 in the city hall. Captains are urged to contact their volunteer teams and to have a complete progress report ready at the conference tonight. Workers are being urged to wind up their canvass by Thursday night.

AT CONFERENCE

George N. Harder of Wells was one of the speakers at the opening sessions yesterday of the conference of timberland owners and conservation and forestry officials which is in a two-day meeting at Milwaukee.

All-Time Safety Record Set In 1931 By C. & N.W. Railway

The Chicago and North Western Railway, winner of the National Safety Council's Award for Class A railroads in the Annual Steam Railroad Accident Prevention contest among employes for 1930, set an even more impressive record for 1931 with a 65 per cent reduction in employee fatalities and a 52 per cent reduction in reportable injuries to employes, G. B. Vilas, General Manager of the railway, announces.

"This new record, by far the best ever set on any railroad, is a result of the splendid work done by the employes of the Chicago and North Western Railway in their observance of safety rules and safe practices coupled with the constant campaign on the value of safety carried on by every department of our road. The Chicago and North Western Railway was the first railroad or industry to introduce a Safety First Program and since that time (1910) has brought about a steady reduction in its casualty (killed and injured) rate," Mr. Vilas explained.

"Based on the million man hours worked, which is the true test of safety accomplishments, the railway has reduced this rate over a five year period from 18.98 in 1927 to 1.58 in 1931 or a reduction of 91 per cent.

"In 1931 alone this casualty rate (killed and injured) was reduced 41 per cent over the 2.59 of the previous year, 1930, a year when our railroad was declared the safest of all Class A roads competing in the contest.

"Only five employes were killed in 1931 as compared with 14 killed the previous year and injuries in 1931 were reduced from 258 to 123.

"During 1931 as in 1930 no passengers were killed in train accidents and the injuries to passengers decreased an even 50 per cent over the previous year.

Better Crossing Record

"The Chicago and North Western Railway continued its drive to cut accidents at highway crossings and in spite of the ever increasing number of automobiles on the highways was able to show almost a seven per cent better record in 1931 than in 1930.

"Several high spots appear in the Chicago and North Western Railway's 1931 record. They are:

"(1) The fact that the Iowa, Sioux City, and Northern Iowa sections of the Car Department, employing an average of 690 men who worked 3,193,794 man hours in two years time completed its second straight year without a reportable accident.

"(2) The Motive Power Departments of the Wisconsin, Galena, Iowa, Peninsula, Southern Illinois, Sioux City, and Dakota Divisions, working a total of 2,437 men 5,497,619 man hours, operated the entire year without a reportable accident.

"(3) The Maintenance of Way Departments on the Ashland, Dakota, Lake Shore, Sioux City, Black Hills, and Wyoming Divisions covering 3,650 miles worked the entire year of 1931 without a reportable accident.

"(4) The entire Car Department consisting of five districts and the Chicago shops worked an average of 3,700 men more than 8,000,000 man hours during 1931 having only seven reportable accidents and a casualty rate of .86 accidents per million man hours.

"(5) The entire Motive Power Department worked an average of 4,801 men with only 11 reportable accidents and a low casualty rate of .95 per million man hours.

"Since the inauguration in 1923 of the contest between railroads Western has reduced its casualty rate from 30.15 to the 1931

THE DIME-A-DANCE GIRL

(By NEA Service) BY JOAN CLAYTON

CHAPTER XLVIII
ELLEN had not returned to Dreamland but she intended to go that evening. The thought of the gaudy, noisy place was distasteful to her but she felt a desperate necessity to try to take up the life she had dropped. Dancing—any sort of occupation—would help her forget maddening memories. She must go on with living. So she planned to go to Dreamland.

unhappy. I'm going to take you to him. You can patch up this quarrel or situation or whatever it is together. I'm sure it's too much for me."
"Sorry, child, but I can't come," Ellen told her.

Nothing Mrs. Harrowgate said could persuade her. The older woman threatened, pleaded, even wept. Always she was defeated by Ellen's refusals. There was no triumph in Ellen's heart at the complete surrender of Larry's mother. There was nothing in her heart except a burning agony.

LONG after Mrs. Harrowgate had read the girl sat in the darkening living room. At last she had Larry's message.
"I'll wait for you, my darling, as long as you want me to wait. Nothing in your past, nothing in your future, can affect what I feel for you. Whenever you want to come to me I will be waiting in the studio. You can see the light from the street."

That night before she went to Dreamland Ellen walked past the studio. There was a light there. Larry was waiting as he had promised. Ellen stood for a long time in the cold, quiet twilight. She felt again the sharp and burning pain in her heart. The yellow light at the window burned on steadily.

The girl turned in at the apartment house and walked through the lobby and up the stairs. She could not stop for an elevator. The door of the studio was ajar. She went inside. And as she entered, Larry stepped through the door from the adjoining rooms that were to have been their home. For an instant he paused—then caught her savagely into his arms and kissed her again and again.

Feverishly she pushed his hands away and walked to the window to stare down at the roofs and at the men and women and children strolling in the tiny, dusky park. The children were all of them buttoned into leather leggings and little woolen coats. Ellen turned suddenly and returned to the divan when Larry waited in puzzled silence.

"Larry," she said, "there's something I must tell you—something that's been killing me. Larry," she stammered, "it was Fergus who wrote those unsigned letters to you and he told the truth—at least a part of the truth. There was a girl at the house with your uncle when he died. I was married to him—and afterwards the whole thing was such a terrible mess! I ran away rather than face it."

Tears came in torrents. Ellen sank to the divan but she pushed away Larry's hand and steadily, steadily told him the whole story. She tried to make him see her pain and indecision, her frantic desire to keep his love at all costs. "You'll never forgive me, I know. You can't!"

"I cheated and lied and my only excuse is that I loved you too much to risk your hearing anything that might make you love me less."

THE UPPER PENINSULA LOOKS ON

THERE is little in Gov. Bruckner's message to the special session of the state legislature, which opened yesterday, that carries any pronounced ray of hope for the upper peninsula and its problems. Aside from the governor's recommendations for reducing the cost of state government, and his veiled recommendation of a state income tax, to provide support for the public schools of Michigan, the state's chief executive displays a burning interest centered largely in the problems of the more populous centers of the commonwealth.

MAPLE SYRUP TIME

THROUGHOUT the upper peninsula, farmers who are fortunate enough to have a grove of maple trees are now getting ready for the first run of sap. The production of maple syrup offers a good opportunity for many farmers to make some extra cash, and considering the vast maple timber areas still to be found in the peninsula it is odd that larger quantities are not produced each year. Michigan produces a maple syrup that cannot be excelled, yet Vermont seems to have a monopoly of this business.

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch

BRAMBLE AND ROSE
The days are seeds that from Time's fingers fall. Do you expect they shall be roses all? Although I know not why, God sent the bramble As well as rose to every road I went; Shall only one called life be different?

Care with my joy, yet laughter with my sorrow. With every hurt a happiness tomorrow. Loss with my gain, yet something gained through loss. The cross with crown, and yet the crown with cross. Having and losing, gaining—yes, and giving— So I have found and fared the road of living.

The days are seeds, and many cares they bring. And yet, it seems, some joy in everything. Roses in June, and, even in December, Without a rose, still roses to remember. Yes, more than ever, in December's doubt, Roses in June for hope to dream about!

GERMANS ARE STOPPED

On March 30, 1918, more cheering news came from the 60-mile battle front in Picardy. Desperate assaults on French and British positions by fresh German divisions were repulsed with great loss to the attackers.

This was the first day since March 21, when the great drive began, that main positions had been held and was the first indication that at last the great German attack had been substantially stopped.

Minor gains were made on the sector held by the French, but these were considered of little value.

Paris was bombarded again by the long range gun, eight being killed and 37 wounded.

The Netherlands government protested seizure of Dutch ships by the Allies. Holland had refused the offer of the Allied governments for her ships, only to have them seized on the order of President Wilson for use in carrying food and supplies to France and England.

IDEAS FOR SPRING

Now, before Spring actually comes around the corner, is the ideal time to brighten up things with paint.

Examine all your screens and screen doors, put in new screening wherever necessary, and paint them all so that they will be dry and ready to shine forth in well-kept manner when you do put them on.

Be sure to mark each screen. Tiny metal numerals are to be had on the market for very little; they go away with the difficulty of matching up windows and screens. You buy them in sets and put one number on each window and a matching number on the screen fitting it.

If you have a room with miscellaneous furniture of nondescript origin and indefinite personality, why not paint it all up this spring? A good idea for a light and airy room is to do all given it with medallions of color, or ranga with decorated stripes of color or some other such touch. Dark green makes an excellent basic color for many rooms and an almost midnight blue is good for still others.

A Book A Day

By Bruce Catton

The Rev. Howatt Freemantle was a minister in a miserable little English manufacturing city. He was overworked and underpaid, he had an ailing and complaining wife, and his efforts to spread enlightenment among his self-righteous and hypocritical parishioners were unavailingly unsuccessful; but he stuck to the job without complaint, and when the daughter of one of his parishioners ran away to London, he meekly shouldered the task of going to persuade her to return home.

All of this is discussed in "And Now Goodbye," by James Hilton. It is one of the tenderest and most appealing novels of the spring.

What happened after the minister got to London and found the girl of course, makes the story. It's hard to summarize it without doing an injustice to the book.

So say that he and the girl discovered that they were in love with one another, that a vision of a new, free life opened before the poor man when he looked in her eyes, that they planned to run away to Vienna together and that their plan was foiled by the intervention of a train wreck—all of that sounds as if it were just another book about an erring husband, and it's really a lot more than that.

Mr. Hilton presents his characters so sympathetically, handles his story so delicately and displays such an insight into life an human nature that his book becomes genuinely distinguished. The story is quite unpretentious, but you're likely to remember it for a long time.

The news that profits you as well as informing you—the news that is more welcome these days than ever before—where do you find it in your paper?

The messages of the local merchants—the announcements of the manufacturers—they are the news we speak of.

The advertisements bring you news of more favorable prices. They tell you of the latest styles in clothing, the newest and best things for the home. They enable you to take advantage of a dozen and one opportunities you might not know of otherwise. They literally and actually save you money—on food, on furnishings, on clothing—on everything needed for the home and the family.

Many a woman makes it a practice to read the advertisements FIRST in order to get, what to her housewifely mind, is the real news of the day, and then go back to the news columns for current happenings.

The retail store and the manufacturer invest their money here for the purpose of informing you. They stand ready to do you a real service in return for what you pay.

Give yourself the benefit of reading what they offer. No newspaper is thoroughly read unless the advertising news is read with the other news.

BRIEFLY TOLD

Local Rotarians Monday noon heard a most interesting address on "Changing Horizons" by Rev. DeLoy Hueenik, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

Rev. Hueenik's talk dealt particularly with the Far East, Speaking of China, he told of the lumbering horizon when that great country secluded itself from western civilization, the present horizon which seems to be pointing toward militarism, and then raised a question in the minds of his listeners by the thought of what the future awakening would be.

Odd Fellows Meet—A regular meeting of the local order of the Odd Fellows, No. 353, will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the hall. Every member is requested to be present.

Mission Circle Party—The Mission Circle of the Swedish Baptist church is planning an afternoon party to be held at the church parlors tomorrow afternoon. Each member is privileged to invite three guests. A fine program has been prepared and its rendition will be followed by refreshments and a social hour.

DANGERS ENJOY
CHARITY BALL

Biggest Social Function
Of Year Attended by Over 100 Couples

Amidst a brilliant and colorful setting some hundred or more couples danced to the rhythmic strains of the Hi-Y orchestra Monday evening at the annual Charity Ball sponsored by the Welfare committee of the Manistique Women's club at the high school gymnasium.

The gymnasium was transformed into a gay and charming atmosphere with the red-white and blue streamers hanging from overhead, dangling bright colored balloons, and various groups forming a screen for the balcony. Both young and old, momentarily at least, forgot their troubles as they donned party hats and joined in the jovial spirit of the occasion flinging confetti and flaunting balloons.

One of the biggest features of the evening which was immensely enjoyed by all those present were the specialty dances given by Mrs. Paul Gero. Clad in a pair of overalls, Mrs. Gero gave a fine appearance of a farmerette well versed in terpsichorean art. So great was the applause that she obliged with an encore tap dancing number.

Another specialty which drew much applause was the high school male quartette composed of Oren Kulek, Jr., Boyd Bolitho, Dan Katzenstein, and Norman Martin, which sang several pleasing selections.

Splendid music was provided by the Hi-Y orchestra. The young musicians did themselves proud and they merited the fine applause which they received at the conclusion of the dance numbers.

A great deal of fine comment was caused by the quaint, colonial dress worn by Mrs. George Fowler and Mrs. H. J. Neville, who, assisted by Mrs. Antone Weber, had charge of the refreshments.

The welfare committee deserves much credit for making the ball a most wonderful success. The committee is grateful to the public for their generous patronage toward giving for this worthy cause.

BAND SQUABBLE
BROUGHT TO END

City Commission Tables
Both Petitions; Have No Legal Status

The controversy over the Gladstone municipal band, which was precipitated by the circulation of petitions in which the Commission was asked to discontinue the levy for band purposes, was laid to rest Monday night when the City Commission refused to reconsider the petition which was tabled at the meeting on March 14. The Commission also tabled petitions favoring the band which had been circulated during the past week and which were filed with the city clerk Monday.

It was the contention of the Commission that the petitions had no legal status. In a discussion prior to action on the latter petition, members of the Commission called attention to the vote two years ago in which a large majority of the voters expressed the desire that a levy for band purposes be made. "If the voters have had a change of mind," one Commissioner said, "they should proceed to bring up the matter in accord with the law. Until this is done, the Commission must consider that the decision of the voters two years ago represents the opinion of the majority."

The petitions opposing the band contained the signatures of 265 electors of the City, while the petitions favoring continuation of the levy had but 167. Several names were found on both sets of petitions.

Under the law, to secure a vote on a proposal to abandon the levy for band purposes, petitions must be filed with the City Clerk not less than 60 days prior to the election and must contain the signatures of 10 per cent of the qualified voters of the city. The petition in opposition to the band had sufficient signatures to bring the matter to a vote, but was not circulated or filed in accordance with the law.

The second petition was circulated by band supporters for the purpose of demonstrating to the commission that the electors of the city favored continuation of the levy.

THEATRES

The Bohemian life of the Paris art colony is frankly and truly pictured in Constance Bennett's new film for RKO Pathé, "The Common Law," opening today at the Rialto Theatre.

Many of the scenes are played in a typical Paris setting. Some of the most unusual are those depicting "The Four Arts Ball" in full swing. Five hundred players take part in the ball sequence, ninety-four of whom are beautiful girls costumed in daring outfits patterned after those worn by models at the Paris festival.

Henry Clive, internationally known painter, who has studied in Paris, acted as technical director for the art colony sequences.

Joel McCrea, the hero of Miss Bennett's recent picture, "Born to Love," plays the American artist in "The Common Law." Other featured roles are played by Lew Cody, Robert Williams, Hedda Hopper, Marion Shilling and Paul Ellis.

Few Want Absent
Voters' Ballots

Few Gladstone persons will be absent from the city on election day, April 4, if the number of absent voters' ballots applied for are a criterion.

According to Otto Haberman, City Treasurer, there have been but six ballots applied for. Only one of these has been mailed outside of the state.

While the number of absent voters is not to be large, according to this report, registration figures indicate that the largest number of voters ever recorded will be cast at the election.

The Rangers won the league championship and advanced to the Stanley cup finals by beating the Montreal Canadiens, cup holders for two years, in Madison Square Garden here, 5 to 2. The Rangers won the best-three-out-of-five series, three games to one. The Canadiens won the opening game but could not stop the American division champions in the next three.

Toronto trounced the Chicago Blackhawks, 6 to 1, at Toronto and won the second place play-offs, conducted on a home and home basis by a total goals margin of 6 to 2. Chicago won the opening game of the series at Chicago Sunday night, 1-0.

The Maroons beat the Detroit Falcons, 2-0, in the second game of a similar series involving the teams that finished third during the regular season, and won the series on a total goals count of 3 to 1. The teams played to a 1-1 tie in the first game at Detroit Sunday.

The Maroons and Toronto now will play a home and home series, total goals to count, for the right to meet the Rangers for the Stanley cup. This final series involving the Rangers and either Toronto or the Maroons, will be on a best three-out-of-five basis.

The first game of the Maroons-Toronto series will be played in Montreal Thursday night and the second game at Toronto Saturday night.

TITLE HOLDERS

New York, March 29. (AP)—The New York Rangers won their way into the Stanley cup finals and at the same time took the National Hockey League championship by defeating the Montreal Canadiens 5 to 2 in the fourth and final game of their first-place playoff series tonight. The Canadiens, holders of the cup for the past two years, won only the first game.

Ott Heller, the young defensive player who won the third game with Sunday night's only goal, again proved the great hero of the evening. He stepped in after the teams had battled almost half way through the contest without a goal and scored two single-handed counters to give the Rangers a margin that never was entirely overcome, although the habits threatened it seriously in the wild second period.

The Rangers went directly into the Stanley cup finals with about a week of rest before they meet the winner of a semi-final series between Toronto and the Montreal Maroons.

Hampered by injuries, the Canadiens looked good only in the latter part of the second period tonight. Trailing by three goals at that stage, they made a brilliant comeback and tallied twice but they couldn't hold their pace through the final game and New York added two more goals.

Twenty seconds after Heller's second goal with Sylvio Mantha in the penalty box, Bill Cook made a third Ranger tally. Wildor Larochelle and Albert Leduc came through with goals that put the habits in the running for awhile, but in the third frame Cecil Dillon and Butch Keeling blank the tallies through and settled the dispute for good.

FALCONS LOSE

Montreal, March 29. (AP)—Winning the second game of the series, 2-0, the Montreal Maroons tonight captured their National Hockey League playoff series from the Detroit Falcons by a margin of three goals to one. The teams played to a 1-1 tie in Detroit Sunday night.

It was a cleanly played game in which the Maroons took full advantage of their scoring opportunities, and at the same time presented an all-right defense through which the Falcons could not penetrate.

After a scoreless first period, Jimmy Ward sent the Maroons one up two minutes before the close of the second period with an unassisted goal that beat Corbell.

The Maroons sat back then to protect that advantage and all through the third period they turned back one "fierce" Detroit charge after another. All the Falcons efforts to even the count were fruitless and with 31 seconds to play in the final period Hooley Smith clinched the victory with an accurate shot on the Detroit net after taking a pass from Baldy Norrbott.

The Maroons now will meet the Toronto Maple Leafs in a two game series for the right to face the New York Rangers in the Stanley cup finals.

Budget Reduced
Marquette—Preliminary budget figures, submitted to the city commission yesterday by G. A. Carlson, commissioner of the department of accounts and finance, indicate that the local tax levy in the city of Marquette for 1932, including city, school and library tax, will be approximately $20.58 on $1,000 of assessed property valuation, a reduction of about $2.38 from last year's figure and, in fact, the lowest tax rate here in 10 years.

Two weeks from yesterday, or on Monday, April 11, the commission will act on the budget and will set a date for a public hearing at which the budget will be formally adopted. It is probable that the final figures will be practically the same as they were presented yesterday.

Woman Held Up
Mememinee—Sheriff Edward Reindl and his brother, Deputy Sheriff Junior Reindl, answering a call to a holdup Saturday night, found their sister, Mrs. Coemoes W. Rovinsky, 1307 Michigan avenue, the mother of four children, was the victim.

The young thug who accosted Mrs. Rovinsky at the North Western railroad track and McCullough street at 9 p. m. Saturday, fled after she had wrenched his nose and scratched his face deeply in a determined attempt to tear off the red bandanna handkerchief which masked his face.

Mrs. Rovinsky was walking from the Trattner grocery, 1133 Stephenson avenue, to her home with an armful of packages when she was held up by the young robber, who commanded her to throw up her hands and give him all her money.

VINES BEATEN IN TEXAS MEET

National Singles Tennis Champ Eliminated in Second Round

Houston, Texas, Mar. 29 (AP)—Ellsworth Vines, national singles champion, was eliminated from the second annual Houston invitation tennis tournament this afternoon by Martin Buxby of Texas university, in a stunning upset, 4-6, 6-2, 7-6. It was a second round match.

The Californian who had been regarded as a certain member of the 1932 United States Davis Cup team, was erratic. Many of his shots went outside and his placements were poor.

Buxby, 20-year-old university sophomore, whose home is in Miami, Fla., was by far the cooler and steadier on the court.

Junior Coen of Kansas City, seeded Number 5, advanced without difficulty to the third round, defeating Leslie Coleman of Houston, 6-4, 6-1. Coen drew a first round bye.

The Vines upset left Buxby to enter the third round tomorrow, playing Jimmy Quick of Dallas, who defeated Milton Savich of Rice Institute, Houston, 6-1, 6-2.

J. Gilbert Hall, Canadian indoors champion, seeded Number 4, turned back W. B. Baker of Houston 6-1, 6-0, in a first round match.

George Lott, Chicago star, nationally ranked No. 2, drew a bye in the first round and defeated Neil Thomson of Dallas, 6-2, 6-1, in the second round.

Wilmer Allison of Texas, seeded Number 3, drew a bye and did not play today.

In another second round match, Arthur Trum of Houston defeated Karl Fisher, Detroit youth attending Rice Institute, 6-1, 6-1. Fisher previously had beaten the veteran Fred "Pop" Baggis of New York, the oldest man in the tournament, 12-10 and 6-3.

LAKES WATCHED FOR SPAWNING

Temporary Refuges Are Planned for Fishing Season May 1

Lansing—In preparation for the opening of the fishing season May 1, conservation officers are now observing spawning areas in the various lakes. Such areas on which the fish have not completed spawning or guarding at the time the lakes are open to fishing, will be designated as temporary refuges and fishing will be forbidden.

Proper signs have been furnished all officers by the Conservation Department. These signs will be posted around the temporary refuges, at the shore and docks and at nearby boat livories. The signs will be removed and the areas declared open to fishing as soon as the fish have completed their spawning.

Such temporary refuge areas were authorized by the State Legislature in 1929. The law has proved effective in protecting fish especially in lakes designated as "Pike Lakes" and in which fishing begins May 1. In many instances fish are still spawning in these lakes when the season opens. This is true especially in colder lakes where spawning is normally retarded. In only a few instances have the temporary refuges been necessary in lakes that are not opened to fishing until June 25.

Cooperation of sportsmen's clubs and interested individuals is being asked by the Department in locating spawning areas that might be closed during the opening days of the season. The local conservation officers should be notified. Proper protection of such areas is believed highly beneficial in fostering natural production.

Boxing

Saginaw, Mich., March 29. (AP)—Frankie Misko, Saginaw, Michigan middleweight champion, won a hard fought decision over Harry English, Toledo, in a ten round bout tonight.

Misko led throughout, but went down for a nine count in the sixth when, as he lost his balance and started to fall, his chin came in contact with English's knee. The referee gave Misko six rounds and English two and called two even. Misko weighed 158, English scaled 166 and Misko's title was not at stake for the two reasons that English was overweight and had not fulfilled the Michigan residence requirements.

Jack Dempsey Thinks He is "Coming Back"

Detroit, Mar. 29 (AP)—What ever anyone else may think, Jack Dempsey is confident he is "coming back."

"Someone will have to prove to me in the ring that I'm through," he said today as he rested after a work-out for his four-round bout Thursday night with Babe Hunt of Oklahoma at Olympia stadium. "Until that day comes, I'll believe I have a chance to beat the game."

The former champion said he would leave for the coast, immediately after Thursday night's bout for a three weeks rest. Then, he said, he would head away in the mountains for some serious training to build up his stamina. "All I ever had was a punch and stamina," he commented. "I still have my punch. That was proved on this tour. I may be a little short on stamina, but that can be built up."

He admitted his legs aren't all they used to be, but expressed the belief that some mountain climbing, running in the hot sun and steady walking will build them up to the point where "they will carry me through."

"It may take a month, maybe two or three or even more," he said, "but they'll respond and when they do, the 'Old Man' will be ready for one more shot."

That "shot," he said, may be at Max Schmeling, if the champion retains his title against Jack Sharkey, or there may be one more warm-up bout. He isn't ready yet to say definitely.

State Boxing Team Chosen

14 Fighters to Represent Michigan in A. A. U. Matches

Detroit, March 29 (AP)—Fourteen young fighters were named by the Michigan A. A. U. today to represent Michigan in the national amateur boxing championships.

The national junior tournament will be held in Boston April 4 and 5 and the national senior championships in New York April 26, 27 and 28.

The teams were selected from the ranks of the state district, Detroit golden gloves champions by the state A. A. U. boxing commission, headed by Charles H. Brennan, New York.

Robert Gignac, Lansing flyweight champion, and Holman Williams, Detroit featherweight, were named for both the junior and senior teams.

With those two state champions on the senior team are George Warner, Grand Rapids, bantamweight; Billy Marrone, Detroit lightweight; Jack Swartz, Detroit welterweight; Gene Stanley, Detroit middleweight; John Miller, Detroit light heavyweight; and Stanglaus Slater, University of Michigan heavyweight.

The junior team will not be represented in the welterweight and light heavyweight divisions, but will have two representatives in the flyweight and light heavyweight groups.

Gignac and Charles Mitchell, Detroit golden gloves champ, will team up in the flyweight division while Thurston McKinney, Detroit, and Stan Krannberg, Grand Rapids, are the lightweight representatives.

Dick Edwards, Detroit, is the bantamweight entry; Ray McCullum, Detroit, the middleweight contender, and Walter Karpinsky, Grand Rapids, the heavyweight entry. Krannberg and Krapinski are in New York, where they fought with the Chicago delegation in last night's golden gloves tourney.

Michigan Football Squad Reports For Spring Workouts

Ann Arbor, Mich., Mar. 29 (AP)—Spring football practice at University of Michigan began in earnest today with warm weather allowing the first outdoor drill. Coach Harry Kipke indicated the importance of spring workouts this year by sending his charges through a lengthy session of scrimmages.

Herman Everhardus, Stan Fay and Harry Newman were among the veteran backfield men who took part in the scrimmage. John Regezel, big freshman from Muskegon Heights, did some fine line plunging. Tom Austin, 200-pounder from Columbus, O., and Claire Purdum, letterman who was out of school last fall, were worked at tackle. Filling positions at tackle, guard and center made vacant by graduation of last fall's veteran line is Kipke's major problem.

KIRCHER LOOKS GOOD AT STATE

Gladstone Boy Expected To Become Quarter-Back

(By The Associated Press)
Two Michigan State College athletes will have an opportunity next fall of stepping into awaiting niches of gridiron fame.

The first is the sophomore, Bernard McNutt, of Allegan, former high school track star. McNutt served as a reserve fullback on Coach James H. Crowley's football eleven last fall. He is conceded to be the best natural line plunger the Spartan institution has seen in many years, but he lacked many other things, that the game requires of a finished fullback.

McNutt's abilities and deficiencies are illustrated by a game last fall. He was inserted into play when the Spartans were about three yards from a touchdown. On the first play McNutt plowed through center, never stopping until he was ten yards past the goal line, a great exhibition of power. Michigan State lined up on defense later. An opposing back swept around McNutt for something like 15 yards, with the big fullback helpless in his diagnosis of the play.

Crowley believes that McNutt will come through next fall. If he does, people will learn a lot of the Monnett-Elliott-McNutt backfield combination.

Alton Kircher, star basketball guard and baseball player, is considered the most logical quarterback candidate, providing he can get in plenty of work before the regular season starts. Kircher is the most deliberate and coolest athlete that State has had in some time. Nothing ever seems to worry him. He has a fine build for a quarterback, and Crowley believes he is the man for the job. Joe Kowatch played quarterback last year but the signal-calling duties had to be turned over to Abe Elliott at fullback.

Cochrane Expects To Get Into Game By End Of Week

Philadelphia, Mar. 29 (AP)—Gordon E. (Mickey) Cochrane, star backstop of the Philadelphia Athletics, stepped from a train at west Philadelphia station today, his left foot in a bedroom slipper, and announced he would be in uniform Saturday ready to play.

Mickey arrived from Lakeland, Fla., where he had been sent from the training camp to undergo a minor operation on his foot for an infection which developed from a blister. After a few days treatment, he was released yesterday and sent home.

A wheel-chair had been provided for him at the station, but Mickey indignantly scorned it, saying, "I'm no cripple."

Toledo Can't Touch Ferrell's Pitches

New Orleans, Mar. 29 (AP)—The outstanding feature of the Cleveland Indians' 4 to 0 triumph over the Toledo Mudhens today was the four inning performance of Wes Ferrell, tribe mound ace.

Relieving Hildebrand after five innings of 5-hit, no run ball, Ferrell set down the Mudhens without the semblance of a hit and dispelled any doubts that rumored soreness of his right shoulder was still present.

Boston Braves Win From A's By 4 to 3

Orlando, Fla., Mar. 29 (AP)—A home run by Berger, Boston centerfielder, and four errors by the Philadelphia Athletics enabled the Braves to defeat the A's 4 to 3, here today.

Berger's home run with Maraville on base, came before Ed Rommel had his bearings in the first inning. In the sixth, the Braves put two more across when Art Shires hit the second of his three safeties and Bishop dropped Urbanski's fly. A double by Knothe sent in both men.

The victory gave Boston the series with the A's, three games out of four.

Maureen Orcutt Captures 9 and 7 Victory in North-South Meet

(Ass'd Press Sports Writer)
Pinehurst, N. C., Mar. 29 (AP)—Maureen Orcutt, Englewood, N. J., star, rounded into top form today to beat Jeanette Hunter of Pittsburgh, nine and seven, and advise a fast field that she is bent on retaining the north and south championship which she won last year.

In the first round match play Miss Orcutt toured the out nine in 36, one over men's par, and two under women's perfect figures.

Miss Hunter's golf was equal to the 43 that Miss Orcutt shot for the first nine of the qualifying round yesterday, but it was not equal to the fine golf the New Jersey girl showed this morning.

In the only real upset of the day Mrs. Sarah F. Wadsworth of Pittsburgh, eliminated Mrs. Charles R. Harbaugh, of Cleveland, yesterday's co-medalist, four and three.

Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City, who tied with Mrs. Harbaugh for the medal yesterday, easily beat Elizabeth Abernethy of Pittsburgh, six and four.

Curran Elected To Order of Coif

Ann Arbor—Edward O. Curran, of Escanaba, senior in the University of Michigan law school, was one of 15 to be selected to the Order of Coif, national honorary scholastic fraternity, at a meeting of the faculty this week. The award is made each year to the highest ranking ten percent of the graduating class in the law school, based upon scholastic achievements and general legal ability. The honor compares to that of Phi Beta Kappa which is given to leading graduates of the literary college at the university. This award was won by Mr. Curran as an undergraduate, when he made nearly an all-A record. Mr. Curran's achievements at the University of Michigan continue an active career begun in the Escanaba high school from which he was graduated in 1926 with high honors. He entered the University of Michigan the following fall. While his plans for the future are yet incomplete, Mr. Curran may be engaged in legal research during the next year. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Timothy J. Curran, Odgen avenue.
