LONG BLOCKS NIGHT ACTION ON TAX ISSUE

COUZENS PROPOSAL TO RAISE RATES REJECTED

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON (Associated Press Staff Writer) Washington, May 16 (AP)—The billion dollar revenue bill steamed by its first major contest in the senate today but encountered a Huey Long speech that consumed most of the first night session on the legislation.

A proposal by Senator Couzens (R. Mich.), to hike up the income tax rates to those of war days as an alternative to the special excise levies was rejected, 49 to 31, by the bi-party coalition backing the compromise bill.

After several hours debate on an amendment by Senator Connally (D. Tex.), to boost the income levies to the 1921 level—a step higher than those provided in the bill—attempts to get an agreement for a vote were blocked by Louisiana's Senator Long.

Has Urgo to Speak The discussion did bring a proposition, apparently favorably received on all sides, from Senator Harrison of Mississippi, ranking Democrat of the finance committee, for a showdown on the sales tax before the various excise and miscellaneous levies are taken up.

Miscellaneous levies are taken up. His Harrison's suggestion for a limitation on debate on the income schedule was turned aside by Long, who said "one minute of Secretary Mills' time is more destructive than an hour in my hands."

Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, offered another agreement for a vote, but Long said "I feel the urge to speak."

Tydings (D. Md.), protested that if the senate wasn't going to do any work at its night meetings it was unfair to have them.

Members who had to give up circus tickets for tonight hung around in the cloak rooms as Long held the floor before the filled galleries.

Long spoke for the last two hours of the night session with the vowed purpose of blocking a vote until tomorrow on the Connally income tax amendment.

He protested bitterly about the fact that the compromise bill was agreed upon finally after an hour's conference between Secretary Mills and the finance committee.

Chairman Smoot said Mills had come before the committee at his request. Despite the failure of the night meeting to bring progress, senate leaders said they would be continued in a determined effort to speed the measure.

The Couzens proposal was for normal income rates of six percent on the first $4,000 and 12 percent above $4,000 with a maximum surtax of 85 percent. He also would lower the exemptions.

Connally's proposal was for normal rates of four percent on the first $4,000 and 8 percent above $4,000 with a maximum surtax of 55 percent.

The compromise bill increases the advances made by the house to a schedule of three percent on the first $4,000; six percent on the next $4,000 and nine percent on income over $8,000, with a maximum surtax of 45 percent.

The flight probably will be organized as was the South American venture, with four men to each plane, and its was intimated that the plotting of the route was along the same one mainly as flown by the German, Captain Von Gronau, who flew to Chicago last August.

Oakland, Calif., May 16 (AP)—Soshi Yoshihara, known as "the Japanese Lindbergh," whose attempts to fly the Pacific ocean have uniformly ended in misfortune, cracked up today as he took off from waters near the Oakland municipal airport.

Yoshihara suffered a broken arm. His acting mechanic, T. Oishi, Stanford university graduate who earlier today had fractured three fingers in the whirlwind blades of the seaplane's propeller, also sustained a broken arm.

The new seaplane, in which Yoshihara had planned to take off next week for Japan by way of Seattle and Alaskan waters, was wrecked, probably beyond salvage.

ITALIANS WILL FLY TO CHICAGO

Air Fleet to Celebrate Fascism and World's Fair Next Year

Rome, May 16 (AP)—A second Italian air fleet will fly the Atlantic next year, with the double purpose of celebrating the tenth year of Fascism and the Chicago World's Fair.

A fleet of 20 twin-motored seaplanes under command of General Italo Balbo, the air minister, and the same man who commanded the first armada to South America a year and a half ago, will undertake the flight. The ultimate objective will be Chicago.

The route probably will be via Ireland, Iceland, Greenland, Labrador and Canadian points. According to an announcement today the fleet expects to dip in salute at the opening of the World Exposition.

Second in command probably will be General Aldo Pellegrini, commander of the high seas aeronautic navigation school at Orbetello, where 100 picked fliers and mechanics are training for the flight.

MILITARISTS ASSASSINATE JAP PREMIER

SUZUKI, NEW PARTY HEAD, TO SUCCEED INUKAI

Tokyo, May 17 (Tuesday) (AP)—Kisaburo Suzuki, home minister, accepted the presidency of the Seiyukai (government) party today and thus became virtually certain of succeeding the assassinated Suoyoshi Inukai as Japan's premier.

His informal agreement to fill the late premier's place in the Seiyukai's leadership averted dissections that threatened to split the ruling party. Eldermen of the party, who decided to support him, persuaded Takafiro Tokonami, railway minister, another possible candidate, to give up his ambition for the presidency early today.

Mr. Suzuki will be formally installed as president of the party at a mass meeting of the Seiyukai's parliamentary members this afternoon. It was taken for granted that he would be the next premier in accordance with Japanese custom which hands that post to the leader of the dominant party.

Fascism in Japan apparently suffered a setback when as a result of Premier Inukai's assassination the military council decided yesterday to replace General Sadao Araki, leading Nationalist, as minister of war.

Lieutenant General Jinaburo Masaki, vice chief of the army general staff, was chosen by the military council to take over the war portfolio regardless of whether the cabinet, under Acting Premier Kato or Kijyo Takahashi, eventually stands or falls.

Tokyo was guarded by police reserves against a terrorist plot to seize the capital after its outbreak, but it apparently had collapsed with the assassination yesterday of the 77-year-old premier, foe of militarism and veteran of representative government in Japan, and a series of shootings and bombings.

The emperor instructed the aged Mr. Takahashi and his cabinet to continue in office until further orders. Meanwhile, Prince Soanji, last of Japan's elder statesmen, was on his way to Tokyo from his villa at Okitsu for a conference between him and the emperor, an almost traditional procedure in recent governmental crises.

The perpetrators of the outbreak were described as youngsters imbued with a mistaken sense of patriotism, who failed to find support for any such direct action in quarters of responsible authority.

OWEN D. YOUNG DROPS OUT OF DEMO PICTURE

AL SMITH SUPPORTS SALES TAX, RAPS HOOVER PLANS

BY ROBERT ST. JOHN (Associated Press Staff Writer) New York, May 16 (AP)—Alfred E. Smith, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, tonight advocated passage of the proposed manufacturers' sales tax.

Owen D. Young, who has been pointed to frequently in recent weeks as a likely Democratic candidacy for the presidency, a few hours earlier stated in unequivocal terms he would not accept the nomination "if made."

Young, chairman of the board of the General Electric company, had been considered by many as one of the principal "dark horses" if Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt failed to get the first-ballot nomination his supporters predict.

Not Available Weeks ago Young said he was not a candidate, but recently there have been published reports of a boom on his behalf.

Last week he was reported to have told one of Roosevelt's associates he would not allow his name to go before the convention, but the rumor could not be verified.

In financial circles, at Tammany hall and in New Jersey political camps there has been much talk on Young's availability.

But today he wrote to an old friend, John Crowley, publisher of the Little Falls (N. Y.) Times: "I cannot, for reasons which are so controlling as not to be open to argument, accept a nomination for the presidency if made."

Smith, the "happy warrior" of New York democracy, who to date has 46 convention votes pledged to him, took a positive stand on the sales tax and many other governmental matters in an address in which he outlined a 10-point "financial program for the present crisis."

He attacked opponents of the sales tax for a slogan he said had been attributed by the press—"In order to make up the deficit, soak the rich."

"Soak capital and you soak labor," Smith said in rebuttal, adding: "The demagogue won't agree to that, but it's true just the same."

Outlines Program The congressional program Smith outlined in the address, broadcast over a nationwide network, was:

1. Pass the sales tax. 2. Slash to "the extreme limit" all unnecessary appropriation of public money.

3. Empower the president to make an "immediate consolidation of governmental activities and bureaus, and in other ways to reduce the cost of government."

4. Halt the passage of more veterans' legislation; refuse to pass the "obnoxious" bonus bill; appoint a committee to list what special acts and appropriations concerning veterans should be repealed to restore "the original Wilson principles."

5. Modify the Volstead act, and tax beer and light-wines. 6. Authorize a federal bond issue to make possible: an expanded program of federal improvements; additional highway aid to the states; loans to limited-dividend corporations for the construction of this kind which they have received.

(A message to police from Lowellville said a pigeon with an injured wing had been found, a card on its leg bearing the name of William Allen, which is the name of the man who discovered the body.)

The following telegram was today sent to the treasurer of the United States:

May I respectfully request that you issue another letter to all people who received copies of the lists of currency bills used in the payment of the Lindbergh ransom, requesting renewed vigilance in watching for these bills, and also that immediate report of the discovery of any such bills be made to these headquarters, either direct or through you.

Captain Robert Dollar Of Shipping Fame Dies; Started Career in U. P.

San Rafael, Cal., May 16 (AP)—Robert Dollar, shipping magnate extraordinary, who made the "U. P." his trademark in ports the world around, died of bronchial pneumonia at his home here early today.

He was in his 89th year and almost to the end dictated the policies of the vast ship lines bearing his name.

Flags on state and municipal buildings were dropped to half staff as news of his death became known—unusual recognition for a private citizen—and standards of ships in San Francisco Bay rendered like tribute at the passing of "the grand old man of the Pacific." His title "Captain," was one of courtesy.

Was Ill Two Weeks Funeral services will be held here Wednesday from the First Presbyterian church of San Rafael, of which Captain Dollar was a steadfast member. The chimes he gave the church years ago in memory of his daughter, Mrs. Grace Dollar Dickson, will sound his dirge.

Captain Dollar had been ill two weeks. He was taken sick after a visit to a nearby town where he had addressed a meeting of young people in his characteristic manner, advising them hard work, and plenty of it, was the lodestar to success.

His father took to drink after the death of Robert Dollar's mother, and the young man determined that he would never drink liquor. It is largely because of this dogged resolution that the ships of the Dollar line, although touching some of the alcoholically wettest spots on the globe, sold no liquor.

While still in his adolescence Dollar left his home for the new world, and eventually found his way into the lumber business in Canada and upper Michigan, later coming to California to enter the lumber business on a large scale. This led him to shipping, as he needed carriers for his lumber. And in the course of time he entered overseas trade, making his first venture in that line by sending the 8,500-ton ship Arab to China in 1901.

Shipping eventually became his first love. He was nearly 30 years old when he started his round of the world ship lines in 1923, and went aboard himself to drum up business for it. These trips he repeated several times, the last in his 87th year.

STARTED IN U. P. Detroit, May 16 (AP)—The heavily timbered upper peninsula of Michigan was the foundation of the great fortune of Capt. Robert Dollar, who died today at his home in San Rafael, Calif.

Captain Dollar settled in Marquette, Mich., in 1879, after coming to the United States from Canada in search of big white pine trees. Loading the timber he cut into ships at Grand Marais, he had it carried to Kingston, Ont., built into big rafts there and taken to Quebec, where it was broken up and loaded for Liverpool.

With the advent of the railroad from St. Ignace to Newberry, Captain Dollar founded the village of Dollarsville on the Tahquamenon river in Luce county, erecting a sawmill at that point. He left Michigan in 1888 following his physicians' advice to move to a warmer climate, and began work in the California redwood territory.

He attributed the start of his success to Michigan, which, he once said, was "certainly good to me."

Seven-Ounce Baby Is Doing Nicely De Soto, Mo., May 16 (AP)—A baby whose weight at birth was only seven ounces was reported by doctors here today as "thriving" in its incubator at a local hospital.

The child, Catherine Richards, born to Mr. and Mrs. Pete Richards at their farm home, was five weeks old today and Dr. W. H. Farrar, one of the attending doctors, said it was expected the baby would survive. The child now weighs 20 ounces.

Lindberghs Might Go To Englewood For Needed Rest Englewood, N. J., May 16 (AP)—There is a strong probability that Charles and Anne Lindbergh will come to the Dwight Morrow estate here for a short stay and then again take up permanent residence at their Hopewell home, it was learned today.

The Lindberghs themselves have not announced definite plans. They have not given serious consideration to living abroad. It was learned at Hopewell that workmen already are completing the drive leading to the Lindbergh house. Plans are going forward to have the slope leveled off in front of the house, and made into an airplane landing field.

$250,000 Gift To Boy Scouts Made New York, May 16 (AP)—A gift of $250,000 in memory of Mortimer L. Schiff, a charter member and former president of the Boy Scouts of America, was made to the organization today by his mother, Mrs. Jacob Schiff.

Walter W. Head, president of the Boy Scouts, announced the gift at a dinner of more than 600 scout executives and supporters.

Mrs. Schiff specified that $150,000 be used for the purchase of land and the erection of buildings for a training school for Boy Scout leaders. The remaining $100,000 will be invested and the income used to maintain the memorial.

FORD SUPPORTS CAUSE OF DRYS

Backs Prohibition; Wilson Scores Walker For Beer Parades

BY WILLIAM A. KINNEY (Associated Press Staff Writer) Atlantic City, N. J., May 16 (AP)—Henry Ford tonight sent a message endorsing prohibition to the Methodist general conference as Dr. Clarence True Wilson sharply criticized Mayor Walker of New York for leading "the loose and lawless elements of his misgoverned municipality to rally in a big wet parade."

Dr. Wilson warned that a "wet candidate of the type of former Governor Alfred E. Smith would find dry opposition in this year's presidential campaign no different from 1928.

"I give my unreserved support to the eighteenth amendment and the prohibition law," he wrote, "because they provide the degree of control over liquor which is necessary for national sobriety. As between a law which favors drinking and a law which favors sobriety, the American home and church and school and worship stand for the latter.

"Prohibition is the best method that has yet been devised to give effect to the sober sentiment of the nation. We have always had excellent official cooperation in its enforcement."

His message was received with applause, but it was Dr. Wilson's statements that aroused the greater enthusiasm.

He invited opponents of prohibition to use the same methods in trying to repeal the eighteenth amendment as the dries used in having it adopted.

He mentioned President Hoover's name once, saying the president's statement, "Prohibition is an experiment in government, noble in purpose. I wish it to succeed," was not said "like a Methodist would say it."

Shouse Asks Demos Take Firm Stand On Liquor Issue Hartford, Conn., May 16 (AP)—A plea that Democrats unite in a fearless stand on the prohibition question was voiced tonight by J. Quett Shouse, chairman of the national executives committee, in opening the party's state convention.

The convention tomorrow will elect 16 delegates to the national convention, with every indication they will be instructed to support Alfred E. Smith for the presidential nomination.

"This is no time for straddling or pussyfooting," Mr. Shouse said in his keynote address. "In words nobody can misconstrue, misunderstand, or misinterpret, we must pledge ourselves on prohibition, regardless of the circumstance that all our party is not in accord."

HOPES TO FIND EXTORTIONIST IN GALLERIES

FAR FLUNG FORCES UNITE TO AVENGE BABY'S DEATH

BY FRANCIS A. JAMIESON (Associated Press Staff Writer) Hopewell, N. J., May 15 (AP)—The firm step of the aging "Jafsie" carried him tonight along a circuitous trail toward the extortionist to whom he paid $50,000 ransom, while the police formally reconstituted the wide flung forces of the government in the task of avenging Baby Lindbergh.

Dr. John F. Condon, the educator who came out of virtual retirement at 72 to assist Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, today peered at the rogues galleries of jails and prisons in Westchester county, New York.

To Visit Lineup He was hopeful he might find the likeness of the extortionist, who appeared to be a Scandinavian and was known to him only by his first name. This was the man to whom he gave $50,000 in a Bronx (New York City) cemetery—$50,000 supplied by Colonel Lindbergh which the colonel raised, according to one published account, by borrowing $25,000.

Beginning tomorrow Dr. Condon also will attend the daily police lineup in New York City on the theory that either the extortionist might be a professional criminal or that he might endeavor to hide himself in jail for a minor offense.

Dr. Condon, it was officially stated, told police he met personally only one member of the gang with whom he dealt, but this member is presumed to have told him there were four other men and a woman. The shadowy figure he treated with in the cemetery also claimed that one member of the gang was acquainted with Dr. Condon.

These bare uncontroverted facts still left open to conjecture the question of whether the criminals in contact with Dr. Condon were one and the same as the five-man gang with whom John Hughes Curtis communicated off the Atlantic seaboard.

Curtis also inspected various rogues galleries during the day, visiting the one at the Newark police headquarters before dawn. Authorities said this task would occupy both Curtis and Dr. Condon for several days more.

Praises Schwarzkopf Dr. Condon momentarily halted his tour after visiting Chief of Police Edward Quirk, at Yonkers, N. Y. The educator's only comment to Quirk to whom he said publicly: "I may be back to see you later."

The day's official activities included these salient developments: Colonel Lindbergh wrote to Governor A. Harry Moore, expressing satisfaction and appreciation for the investigation conducted under the direction of Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, state police head.

Governor Moore, who has followed the case with untiring interest from the outset, conferred with prosecuting and police authorities in determining the matters of jurisdiction. He reiterated Colonel Schwarzkopf would have charge of all police activities.

The chief executive also formally accepted the renewed offer of federal cooperation tendered by Attorney General Mitchell in the direction of the president. He expressed the thanks of the state for the assistance already given by the government and endorsed the suggestion that J. Edgar Hoover coordinate the various federal agencies and communicate with Colonel Schwarzkopf. Mr. Hoover is chief of the bureau of investigation of tion of low-cost housing, and purchase by the federal government of state and municipal bonds issued to finance local public works of long life and permanent value.

7. Defeat President Hoover's three-point federal relief program (which Smith criticized minutely).

8. Give the president a "free hand to provide aid for productive public works of states and municipalities, as well as for additional federal projects which will bring about the early employment of the larger number of men."

9. Empower the president to prolong, if necessary, the moratorium extended to debtor nations "until a real solution can be reached."

10. Discourage and avoid "in every possible way all blocs, cabals, insinuations and mug-wump tactics, by whatever name they may be called, which increase the depression, unsettle business, and endanger our credit at home and abroad."

Smith's advocacy of the sales tax lined him up, on that subject, with William Randolph Hearst. A long-standing feud has existed between the pair. Hearst did not support Smith in 1928 and as not supported him in his present candidacy for the presidential nomination.

In recent months Hearst has backed John N. Garner, speaker of the house, who, in his first contest for delegates, took the entire California delegation away from Smith and Roosevelt, the other contestants.

Roosevelt, for whom 362 of the delegates elected to date are pledged, instructed or claimed, has not taken a public stand on the sales tax.

In discussing this subject, Smith said all his life he had been of and for the ordinary citizen of limited means and limited earning power.

"For this reason," he added, "I cannot give my approval to the false friend who leads the working man to believe that his condition of life can be bettered by the slogan attributed by the press to those opposed to the sales tax—in order to make up the deficit, soak the rich."

"That means soak capital, and everybody knows you cannot soak capital without soaking labor at the same time."

He said the "man in the street" did not understand the sales tax. He estimated the yearly expenditure of the average family head among working classes at $1,000, and figured the sales tax would cost him about $3.

It's Bad Taste, Is Judge's Ruling
Detroit, May 16 (AP)—Holding that it is "extremely bad taste for a married man to bring the other woman home with him to live," Circuit Judge Adolph F. Marschner today issued an injunction enjoining James G. Ball from doing that very thing. The restraining order was granted on petition of Ball's wife, Helen, who filed suit for divorce.

Doctor Stands Mute Upon Arraignment
Detroit, May 16 (AP)—Dr. Herbert E. Service, 60, Dearborn physician, stood mute and a plea of not guilty was entered for him when arraigned in circuit court today on a manslaughter charge growing out of the death Jan. 23 of a 20-year-old Ypsilanti coed, upon whom he is alleged to have performed an illegal operation. He is being held under $25,000 bond.

Gangster 'Longo' Short-Lived Too, Professor Finds
Columbus, O. (AP)—Like the gangsters themselves, their "lingo" rapidly becomes a "dead" language.

Such is the observation of D. W. Maurer, an expert in the language of criminals who teaches English—good English—at Ohio State university here.

"Some of it lives, of course, and enters the language—'scram,' for instance, 'on the spot,' 'racket,' and 'taken for a ride,' not to mention that inevitable word-of-all-work, 'angle.'"

These and many more, Maurer points out, seep through the grammatical grapevine of gangland into family table talk.

First, Maurer finds, the expressions bob up in underworld cliques, and from these they slip into the general conversation of crooks. Policemen and police reporters in large cities become familiar with the "trade talk," and through newspapers and sidewalk conversations the slang enters common usage.

"Within three or four years," he says, "the current argot will have become common property. But so fast does the 'lingo' change that within 25 or 30 years students will need dialect dictionaries to understand these writers."

Huey Long Not Able to Match Lewis' Style

Washington, May 16 (AP)—Any hope Huey Long may have entertained of rivaling J. Hamilton Lewis as a sartorial attraction in the senate has disappeared.

The Louisianan took his place today, resplendent in his habits, which challenged the crown of his colleague from Illinois, who is considered by many the stylist of the senate.

Long, intimated to newspapermen seeking the why and wherefore of his brand new wing collar and quiet black bow tie that it was a challenge.

"Where is the estimable senator from Illinois?" he asked, adding: "I don't see him here to see me in this collar and tie."

The suit accompanying the collar and tie was a most demure dark one, straight cut, while the noisy handkerchief he usually has in his lapel pocket was absent. In its place was a regulation white one.

Just a short while later, however, Senator Lewis walked on to the floor in a double breasted brown suit, natty tie and carelessly protruding handkerchief.

Long, after circling around him, sent a page boy pell mell for a newspaper friend to whom he said: "Lord, it ain't even close. I give up!"

Spartan Netters Defeat Hurons, 6-3
Ypsilanti, Mich., May 16 (AP)—Michigan State college's tennis team triumphed over Michigan Normal here this afternoon, 6 to 3. It was the first defeat suffered by the Hurons this season. The Spartans won four of the singles matches and two of the doubles for their points.

Featuring the match was the victory of Joe Carson, Normal ace, over Weitz of Michigan State in straight sets, 6-0, 7-5. The defeat was the initial one of the year for Weitz in six starts. Norma also won the No. 1 doubles match as Carson and Capt. Arnold defeated Weitz and Norris, 6-4, 6-4.

Legion Worker Of Middle West Dies
Chicago, May 16 (AP)—Captain John A. Hartman, 43, national representative of the American Legion for many years in the middle western area, died in Hines Memorial hospital today of injuries he suffered May 11 in an automobile collision.

He was hurt when he swerved his car to avoid striking a pedestrian and ran into a parked automobile.

During the war, Captain Hartman was attached to the 108th Ammunition Train. He is survived by his widow and one daughter.

"Kibitzer" Facing Charge Of Larceny
Grand Rapids, Mich., May 16 (AP)—Because Peter Visser was a "kibitzer," Prosecutor Bartel J. Jonkman today prepared a warrant charging him with larceny.

Visser twitted neighbors for paying fuel bills while he burned gas free for so long a time, the prosecutor said, that after standing it all winter they informed him today Visser had piped the gas around the meter and was thus using it for cooking and heating purposes.

The warrant charges Visser with larceny of gas from the Grand Rapids gas light company.

Stubblefield Turns in Great Day With Gilmore Special
Lancaster, Calif., May 16 (AP)—Every existing four cylinder motor car racing record was broken by Stubby Stubblefield of Los Angeles in driving a new No. 15 Gilmore Special over the Muroc dry lake bed at a speed of 147.355 miles per hour today.

American Automobile Association officials timed the car. The outstanding record shattered by Stubblefield, was the four cylinder mark of 137.25 miles an hour established over the same course a little more than a year ago by Wilbur Shaw. He also broke the mark for flying kilometer, running that distance in 148.218 miles per hour, to eclipse his own former mark of 131.121.

Other marks broken included the five mile distance, covered at an average speed of 133.285 miles an hour, formerly held by the late Jimmy Murphy at 120.621; and the flying five kilometer record in 143.515, shattering Kaye Don's average of 130.85 miles per hour. The flying mile record also was better than the one set by Shorty Cantlon for the same type of car, but with a supercharger, at 144.59 miles per hour.

The car will be raced in the Indianapolis classic by Babe Stapp, Hollywood driver, who is now recovering from injuries received in a recent local race.

Burgoo King Will Enter Withers Race
New York, May 16 (AP)—Burgoo King, the third horse to win both the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, is expected to make his next start in the $25,000 Withers mile at Belmont Park, May 28.

The race probably will be the King's last appearance in the east before the Saratoga meeting since he is not eligible for the rich Belmont stakes. After the Withers E. R. Bradley plans to ship the son of Bubbling Over to Arlington Park, Chicago, for the Arlington classic in July.

Mrs. Louis G. Kaufman's Tiek On and Walter M. Jeffords' Boatwain, which staged a blanket finish with the Bradley colt in the Preakness, also are expected to start in the Withers.

The King also will be asked to meet W. R. Coe's Pompeius, a speed marvel which was not eligible for the Derby and Preakness. Coe also has entered his highly regarded Osculator.

HOPES TO FIND EXTORTIONIST IN GALLERIES

the department of justice. Colonel Schwarzkopf telegraphed the treasurer of the United States at Washington requesting that further efforts be made to trace the serial numbers of the specie which Dr. Condon paid to the extortionist.

The determined hunt along the eastern coastline by government craft, more than 100 in number, for the boat with which Curtis and Colonel Lindbergh conducted fruitless negotiations, was given new life. Captain Randolph Ridgley, commander of the coast guard in the New York area, said that the identity of the vessel sought was known to authorities and that it had been in New York waters within the past two weeks.

In order that no opportunity for casting new light on the ransom negotiations be overlooked, the Bronx grand jury in New York City tomorrow will begin an inquiry into the activities of Dr. Condon. Several associates of Dr. Condon have been summoned to testify.

Lindbergh "Broke"
District Attorney Charles B. McLoughlin of the Bronx, inspector Henry E. Bruckman, in charge of Bronx detectives, and Police Commissioner Edward P. Mulrooney, conferred during the day. Mulrooney disclosed that he had talked with Colonel Lindbergh and the latter's close friend, Colonel Henry E. Beckinridge, during the ransom negotiations. At that time the police commissioner said Colonel Lindbergh appeared to be not greatly impressed with the purported sleeping garment of the baby sent to Dr. Condon but he placed faith in letters which "Jaisie" received from the extortionist.

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh remained in seclusion at their hilltop estate. The story of the colonel's finances as related by the Brooklyn Daily Eagle was that a week before the body of his baby was found last Thursday, the colonel told an intermediary who visited him that he was "broke."

At that time he estimated the costs of the search to him at about $200,000. While the Eagle said it also learned considerable of the filer's resources were invested in aviation securities, which had depreciated in recent years, it was pointed out in other quarters Mrs. Lindbergh was held in her own right to a sizeable fortune from the estate of her father, the late Senator Dwight Morrow.

Bank Clerk Held On Fraud Charge

Detroit, May 16 (AP)—Drayton Church, 25-year-old bank clerk who a year ago uncovered the $210,000 swindle of the city welfare department by Alex F. Lewis, a clerk, tonight was in jail here charged by Joseph Osterman, 21, another bank clerk, with defrauding the Commonwealth Commercial bank of $160.

Assistant Prosecutor Verne C. Amberson said Church admitted getting the money, but claimed it was part of an experiment to determine whether the bank system was invulnerable to such swindles. Church told the officers he intended to return the money to the bank and disclose the system's weakness just before his marriage, June 18.

A letter to Governor A. Harry Moore from Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh:

"I want to express to you my sincere appreciation for the great assistance we have received from the state of New Jersey. It is not possible for me to express adequately our appreciation for the consideration extended by both state and local officials.

"The untiring energy, efficiency and cooperation with which Colonel Schwarzkopf has conducted his investigation has been of the most help and satisfaction. I feel that I cannot speak too highly of the New Jersey state police and the officers detailed from other organizations."

ued at 3 p. m. reads in part as follows: "Mr. Curtis gave the nicknames and descriptions of five men with whom he claimed he had been dealing and who are alleged to be the kidnapers. These men were last reported to be on the boat referred to above. These descriptions were also given to the coast guard as a means of further identification."

"I DROVE SMACK INTO A BLIZZARD"

An Interview by ROBERT J. CASEY, Chicago Daily News Reporter

"It was 119° in the shade when I left Salina, Kansas, last summer. One week later my Nash was on top of Pike's Peak in a raging blizzard," E. J. Corcoran, master mechanic of Kansas City, tells R. J. Casey, famous Chicago News reporter. Read the story of his trip.

ISO-VIS Motor Oil
THERE was snow in the air and ice on the pavement and the long hill up from the Missouri bottoms seemed almost perpendicular as E. J. Corcoran, master mechanic for the Kansas City Light and Power Company, turned the nose of his 1929 Nash up the grade without bothering to change gears. "They'll tell you that engine power comes out of the fuel," he said as the car began to accelerate. "But I'm telling you that nobody is going to take this hill on high without proper lubrication. Listen to the engine. It sounds just as it did the day it came off the showroom floor. And that's due to Iso-Vis oil. "I drove to Colorado last summer. It was 119 degrees in the shade when I went through Salina. The average temperature for the whole trip was never below 102 and a week after leaving Kansas City I was on top of Pike's Peak in a blizzard. There never was a time on all that trip when you couldn't have put your hand on the radiator. "I've got 38,500 miles on this car right now and you couldn't ask any better performance."

Mr. Corcoran's 38,500 trouble-free miles prove again what Iso-Vis has demonstrated in laboratory tests and in A. A. A. tests on the Indianapolis Speedway—Positive Lubrication Protection. Iso-Vis (a Standard Oil product) will not thin out from dilution. See the Ball and Bottle Test at Standard Oil service stations and dealers.

Hats in the Ring

This article, fourth of a series of six concerning democratic presidential prospects, sketches Newton D. Baker as a possible nominee.

By KIRKE SIMPSON
Washington, (P)—What time Newton Diehl Baker put in his first year of official life in Washington as private secretary to Postmaster General Wilson, thoughts of the impending Spanish-American war may have occupied his mind.

Yet young Baker, with his political philosophy already stamping him with an abhorrence of force between peoples, would have laughed to scorn a prediction that another war two decades later would find him in direct charge of the most tremendous military effort of the nation's history, or that as a belated recognition of his war service he should be widely acclaimed for presidential honors.

An incongruous setting that Baker, when first he viewed the shell-riven fronts in France, should be there as a key man, intent on hastening the destructive powers of the army America was pouring toward the front was a far cry from any course of life he had ever pictured for himself.

For, away from his minor secretarial duties in Washington to follow the banners of Tom Johnson in a campaign or civic clean-up in Cleveland, Newton Baker was touched with a crusader spirit.

It carried him through campaign service to become Johnson's chief lieutenant and to the mayorality itself when Johnson had marched on.

Not even the offer of a cabinet post in the first Wilson cabinet could draw him back to Washington. He served out his municipal term and then turned to his private law practice.

Wilson's Appeal Effective
But he had less than a year off the political front, for with Secretary Garrison's resignation from the war department President Wilson summoned him urgently to cabinet service, in terms that brooked no denial to a devoted disciple of Wilson idealism as Baker was.

He came with the tragic up-roar of the Villa raid ringing in his ears; with the dispatch of Pershing into Mexico and mobilization of the national guard along the border his first tasks.

These were strangely prophetic portents, for within a year he was to supervise the induction of 4,000,000 Americans into the army and rush half that force to the most terrible battles of history.

Didn't Capitalize Opportunity
War Secretary Baker's story and the story of the American army in the war are much the same. Yet out of it all Baker apparently drew no hope of capitalizing the opportunity for political advancement.

Politically his only post-war role has been that of a crusader for lost causes. He championed American entry into the League of Nations, all but lone handed, at the stormy party convention of 1924.

And later Baker calmly enlisted in behalf of war debt cancellation perhaps as unpopular a political issue as he could have found.

His friends, who had been hopeful that at last a road to the White House was opening to him, gnashed their teeth in despair as they had when he declined to answer his critics of war days.

Silent On Own Plans
Yet, in spite of all, Baker continues to hear his name shouted for presidential nomination honors—and to say nothing of or for himself.

His generous applause for every other party leader proposed for nomination was easily obtainable; but not a word from Baker about Baker.

His vexed but loyal friends never have given up; but they agree that if Newton Baker ever reaches the presidency it will be in spite of himself.

The next article in this series will discuss Albert C. Ritchie as a possible democratic presidential nominee.

TWO MORE SEEK SCHOOL OFFICES

Dr. A. J. Carlton and Oscar Kraus Will Be Candidates

Oscar Kraus, well known insurance and real estate agent, and Dr. A. J. Carlton announced yesterday they would be candidates for membership on the Escanaba board of education in the annual school election to be held Monday, June 13.

Oscar Kraus

Dr. Carlton has been a resident of Escanaba since 1909. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan school of medicine, class of 1904. He served as city health commissioner in Escanaba for several years.

Mr. Kraus was born in Escanaba and has lived here virtually his entire lifetime. He attended the public and St. Joseph's parochial schools of this city, and has been engaged in the general insurance and realty business for 11 years. Previously, he was a division accountant for the Chicago & North Western railway. Before the Upper Peninsula State Fair was established, he served for several years as secretary of the Delta County Agricultural society.

Candidates for the school board now total five, Clifford M. Beaudin, Mrs. A. F. Aley and Mrs. G. W. Moll previously having announced they would seek the positions.

William Kramer Has Interesting Rubber Exhibit

Among the interesting exhibits that are being prepared by members of the Tri-S club at Escanaba high school is one on rubber assembled by William Kramer.

The exhibit samples and pictures of the various stages and processes beginning with the tapping of the tree for the latex and finally ending with a section of a completed automobile tire. Among interesting facts brought out by the exhibit are that rubber is obtained from several species of trees, hevea being the most common; that trees must be ten years old before they will yield latex in commercial quantities and the fact that contrary to the general belief latex is not the sap of the rubber tree but fluid from the bark. The trees are not tapped deeply enough to reach the layer in which the sap flows.

Various types of raw rubber such as para, crepe, coagulated and smoked sheets are shown as well as photographs of machines used in working up the product.

Kramer has been working on the exhibit since last fall and has succeeded in assembling a very complete and informative display. Other members of the club are making similar exhibits of other industries. Two, one on the glass industry, and another on oil, are nearing completion.

The Tri-S club is made up of members of the science classes at the school whose interest leads them to study outside of regular class work. B. B. Loveland, science instructor, is the faculty advisor of the club.

UTILIZATION of idle lands for garden plots was carried out extensively during the world war so as to not drain the supply of foodstuffs needed for feeding the doughboys. DOGS CHASE DUCKS

EFFORTS of Escanaba sportsmen to establish a bird refuge along the bay shore, from Light-house point to Brewery point, will prove of no avail if conditions now existing are allowed to continue. Except for a few instances, the ducks that have taken refuge there have not been molested by hunters, but the success of the project is now being menaced by dogs that are allowed to run loose along the shore.

Whitedale & Gulliver

Whitedale, Mich. (Special)—F. O. Techney, gravel contractor, was a week-end visitor in Whitedale. Mr. Techney was here to finish moving out his gravel equipment consisting of tractors, trucks and boarding cars to his saw road job near Au Train. With the removal of these noisy machines Whitedale has resumed some of the same "stillness" folks were accustomed to before the bustling days of modern road building. This last year began three years ago with the unloading and delivery of steam shovels and much heavy machinery to the quarries near Port Inland, where the great new docks were built. County road employees were sent ahead to haul gravel on to the old road, a detour was made around McDonald Lake (in the water) for travelers, while the "big stuff" was taken over the road. One shovel had to make its own road part way, but trees and rocks were no hindrance to these big fellows—only mud gave them serious trouble. With the building of the new state road to Port Inland, many tractors and trucks were kept busy by the Peterson Construction company. Mr. Techney finished the gravelling last fall so that for many months there was the noise of modern machinery to be heard.

Now we have the whirl of the cars as they travel over the fine new road and that line of progress is past, but we still have the development of Old Deerfield summer camp where workmen are busy making ready for the summer business.

Mr. and Mrs. John Creighton, daughter Martha and son Alex of Manistique, were visitors at the Brearly home last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George Raamussen and Mrs. Witter of Calspar spent Saturday evening at the J. G. Reid home.

The farm house of Leon Rice in the Wood's settlement, was totally destroyed by fire last week, only a sewing machine was saved, about seventy dollars in money was also consumed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nelson and children of the Rockridge farm visited at the Lloyd Klazstad home Monday.

Visitors at the J. G. Reid home Sunday were Mrs. Wickwire, Roda and Hazel Wickwire, Miss Mary McLellan and Miss Johnson of Manistique. Mrs. Witter, Mrs. George Rasmussen and children of Calspar and Mrs. Wm. Reid and Mrs. VanDusen.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Rice and children, Mrs. James Rodgers and children of Calspar, surprised Mrs. John Rodgers on her birthday. They brought a delicious supper and a beautiful birthday cake which was enjoyed by those present.

Myrtle Dewar, Rt. 2, Box 100, Bark River, is the owner of a very interesting item of Lincolniana. It is a newspaper carrying full account of Abraham Lincoln's assassination. Miss Dewar has recently been in correspondence with the Lincoln Historical Research Foundation at Fort Wayne, Indiana, with a view of exhibiting it along with other Lincoln relics from individual owners all over the country. In a special showing, which the Foundation is planning for early summer.

The special exhibit of Lincoln relics will be a feature of the ceremonies with which the Foundation will dedicate its heroic statue of Lincoln. Garden Plots Are Plowed, Harrowed At Sewage Plant

A number of applications have been received for garden plots in the vicinity of the new Escanaba sewage treatment plant and City Clerk Carl E. Anderson has a supply of vegetable seeds, including potatoes, which was secured by those unable to buy their own seed. City crews are plowing and disking the land and removing roots, so that the plots will be all ready for planting. Piles of limes have been delivered at the property, and will be applied as needed to counteract any soil acidity. The soil is in good quality, and suitable for any garden crop.

Youngsters Persist In Stealing Rides

Hitching rides on street cars is still a nuisance on the Escanaba-Gladstone run, judging from complaints received by the Delta county sheriff's department. The boys have been climbing on the rear of Gladstone-bound cars through north Escanaba, riding as far as the Chemical plant location and then catching the next car back in a similar manner. Another worry for the motorman is their trick of pulling off the trolley to make the car stop, and then climbing back on again when the motorman gets back at

According to the report 1062 silver fillings and 72 porcelain fillings have been placed in these children's mouths while 781 teeth were found so badly decayed as to require immediate extractions.

The names of 226 children are shown to have been added to Escanaba school dental honor rolls as a result of this attention.

Attention is drawn in the report to the fact that this free dental care has been concentrated as much as possible on children of the lower grades.

Such early dental attention it is pointed out often serves to prevent many serious dental conditions that result from neglect.

May Festival Week's Event At Ann Arbor

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 17, (AP)—This is May Festival week in Ann Arbor, and as the central attraction of the annual musical event Goeta Yungblitz, Swedish soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, is to appear for the first time before a festival audience.

Miss Yungblitz who has been given the glamorous title of "A daughter of the gods" made her American debut last winter and scored a sensational success. She is a more finished singer, said the critics, than Lily Pons, French girl who thrilled the Ann Arbor May Festival audience a year ago.

Other stars who are to appear at Hill Auditorium the last four days of the week include Beniamino Gigli, tenor; John Charles Thomas, baritone; Chase Barone, bass; Miss Hager, contralto; Frederick Stock and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and Palmer Christian, organist.

For five weeks following the May Festival the University of Michigan campus will be a dramatic center, with nationally popular stars of the stage and screen in action at Lydia Mendelsohn theater in the Michigan League building. The Dramatic Season will open Monday, May 23, with "There's Always Juliet" which has been produced only in New York and London.

Violet Heming, who played opposite George Arliss in the motion picture "The Man Who Played God," is in Ann Arbor during a month's vacation from Hollywood and will be cast in the title role of "There's Always Juliet." Miss Heming scored a great success in Noel Coward's "Private Lives" here a year ago. Lester Vail will take the male lead.

"There's Always Juliet" will be followed May 27, by G. B. Shaw's "Candida" with Patricia Collins in the title role. The third production of the season, "The Animal Kingdom," will open June 6, starring Geoffrey Kerr, English actor. Later plays include Paul Osborne's "Great Catherine" and "Peter Ibbetson" by George du Maurier and Constant Collier.

Glenn Hunter will take the title role of "Peter Ibbetson" with Violet Kemble-Cooper as the Duchess of Towers. Martha Graham, noted American dancer, will present two dance recitals, June 2 and 3.

Bay View Pupils On Honor Roll Miss Helen Fillion, teacher of the Bay View school, has announced her honor roll for the month just completed.

The honor pupils are: Primer class—Junior Crowell, Robert LeClaire, Allen Reno. Second grade—Irene Erickson. Third—Joyce LeClaire. Fifth—Ellen Erickson. Sixth—Bernice Perry, Dorothy Rudenberg.

Seventh—Genevieve Desmond, Otis Williams, Lorraine Harbath, Geraldine Keneally, Lillian Schmit. Eighth—Dorothy Crowwell, Capitola Perry.

Pupils who have perfect attendance records are: Junior Crowwell, Robert Crowwell, Dorothy Crowwell, Thelma Dahlgren, Irene Erickson, Lorraine Harbath, Geraldine Keneally, Robert LeClaire, Dorothy Rudenberg, James Roberts, Dorothy St. Peter, Irving Vanderville, Irene Wittkus.

Isabella's Anniversary Party The Daughters of Isabella, Trinity Circle, No. 362, will celebrate the sixth anniversary of their organization in Escanaba at a party at which Isabella and Knights of Columbus will be guests Monday evening, May 23, at 8 o'clock in the K. of C. club rooms.

Musical Shows Mark Broadway Summer Nights

New York, May 16, (AP)—Summer nights always attract a bumper crop of musical shows to Broadway. Three will take a head start on the sultry season of next week.

The gala evening will be when Florenz Ziegfeld revives "Show Boat" and in the erstwhile playhouse of his ancient rival, Earl Carroll. The name of the theater has been changed to the Casino, a gesture which cost Ziegfeld $20,000.

It appears that Carroll had placed his own name in an unusually expensive display of lights on the front of the building. It, perhaps, is also coincidence that by taking the name, Casino, it will not be necessary to change the letter "C" on the hundreds of Carroll coats-of-arms which decorate the interior of the theater.

Ziegfeld has reassembled practically the entire original cast with Norma Terris, Helen Morgan, Edna May Oliver, Eva Puck, Sammy White, Aunt Jemima, Charles Ellis and Charles Winniger. The two new members of the cast are Dennis King and Paul Robeson.

Earlier in the week there arrives a new musical comedy, "There You Are," which has Ilsa Margarna, the German prima donna, in the leading role.

The first of the Negro revues arrives in "Yeah, Man," with Isabel Washington featured with the "Sixteen Brownskin Hurricanes." When his last musical comedy, "Ripples," did not go so well, it was rumored that Fred Stone might never again appear on Broadway. This report was substantiated when he took his next tour, and then closed it without giving it a presentation in New York.

Now, however, it is reported that Stone has had a change of mind and is assembling a new cast to perform it somewhere in the "Forties. Himself and his daughter, Paula, naturally, will retain the two starring roles.

The Palace ended its career as a two-day vaudeville house Monday, and will offer four shows a day. Phil Baker, Ethelred Terry and Joe Laurie, Jr., will head the first bill to come under this continuous performance rule.

"The Glided Lily" Dorothy Hall will make her fall appearance in that new play of George Abbott's and Philip Dunning's, "The Glided Lily," but in the meantime she is going to play the leading role in the film of "Child of Manhattan."

It was first thought that this part would be given to Clara Bow, but it was suddenly decided this week to have Miss Hall play the part of the dance hall hostesses which she created on the stage. Nearly two months ago Ed Wynne announced that his musical show, "The Laugh Parade," would begin an immediate road tour. When this report was printed, there was such an increased call for tickets that the piece already had held on for eight extra weeks.

Wynn has been cured of all pessimism, for that is the second time his gloomy forecasts have proven wrong. When the show first opened here he was almost sure that he had brought in a failure, but it proved to be one of the most successful entries of the season.

Favored Recipe Betty Ann

A recipe for a delicious supper dish was received Saturday from a Betty Ann reader, to whom credit cannot be given at this time because her name did not accompany the recipe.

Supper Dish Two pound pork shoulder. Cut in cubes and cook one hour. Two packages fine noodles. Cook, drain well. Add one can chicken soup, one small can pimento, one large green pepper, cutting pimento and pepper fine, one can golden bantam corn, pinch of paprika, salt and pepper. Mix meat and other ingredients and bake one hour.

A READER Has some reader a recipe for peanut butter cookies? A Bark River resident who writes that she is much interested in Betty Ann recipes, has requested this. If you have it, will you call the Press, 693, or write out your recipe and mail it to the Betty Ann department?

Theatres

"Beauty and the Beast" the Warner Bros. picture which comes to the Delft Theatre today is a radiant romance, spicy and snappy, with pretty girls and gay comedy, with a cast headed by charming Marian Marsh, debonaire Warren William and laugh-provoking Charles Butterworth. Joseph Jackson adapted it from the Broadway hit by Paul Frank and Ladislav Fodor and Roy Del Ruth directed.

The story could not be better suited to Miss Marsh's winsome manner and captivating personality, that of a little secretarial drudge who throws away her paper cuts for decollete, forgets her note pads for night clubs.

Gay scenes of Paris night life add to the zest of the picture. Peeps into midday's boudoir add to the general sauciness, while the scenes are handled with a mastery finesse.

The story, beautifully environment, is set in Paris and Vienna.

The theme is a modern day version of the Cinderella romance, the story of a poverty-stricken girl, outwardly of the bashful type but with courage written big on her heart, who wins her way to a job as the Baron's secretary, and who finally, with the aid of nice clothes, transforms herself to such an extent that she steals the Baron from his other loves.

Penioned Engineer Dies at Los Angeles

Hector O. Conkey, veteran Soo Line engineer and formerly of the Gladstone division, died at Los Angeles May 4, according to information received here by friends. He was buried at Los Angeles with the Masonic bodies in charge on May 7. Mr. Conkey was born August 13, 1854, at Columbus, Iowa, a village on the banks of the Mississippi and, it is said, was the first white child to be born there. When a young man he entered the services of the C. M. & St. P. railroad as locomotive fireman and was later promoted to an engineer under T. A. Fraser as master mechanic. Shortly after his promotion to engineer, Mr. Fraser came to the Soo line as master mechanic, bringing Mr. Conkey with him. This was in 1886 and Mr. Conkey continued his service as engineer on the Soo Line up to the time he was pensioned in 1924. He was passenger engineer on trains number 86-87 running between the Soo and Gladstone, residing at this time at the Soo. After being pensioned he moved on a farm, that he owned, at Amery, Wisconsin. He lived there until about two years ago, when he went to Los Angeles, California.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY (Associated Press Financial Writer)

STOCK MARKET AVERAGES (By The Associated Press) (Copyright, 1931) Standard Statistics Co. Monday: 48.17, 17.9, 17.3, 44.6

New York, May 16 (AP)—Helped by a firm wheat market and circulation of a few vague rumors, stocks today accomplished a last hour rally that converted early losses of 1 to 4 points into net gains of somewhat smaller proportions.

Soggy in the morning when most leaders made new lows, the market steadied around noon after Du Pont's dividend reduction had proved smaller than generally expected.

Many Issues Rise Union Pacific, which had been down 4 points, rallied to get up a point, net; but closed with a small loss.

American Telephone exchanged a 1 1/2 point loss for a net gain of similar extent and traded actively on the recovery.

The only visible effect of disturbances at Tokio was in Japanese bonds and the yen. America's foreign trade figures for April illustrated strikingly the extreme stagnation that has overtaken our commerce with other nations.

flying with long steps in the direction of those apricot colored panners.

FROM the shadow of a curtain Susan saw him pass. She felt sick and faint.

He came so near she could have reached out and touched him with her hand.

Her only thought now was to escape without being seen. The other girl's cruel words kept ringing in her ears.

"He has brain storms but he always comes back home."

Oh, she was bitterly ashamed. She found it difficult to believe that it was all true but after all hadn't Bob admitted a sort of engagement?

A realization of her own folly broke over her. She had betrayed her pledge to the man whose ring she wore.

In spite of this conviction of wrong Susan's heart was flooded with traitorous joy when she remembered that long kiss.

She put her hands to her burning cheeks. It had not all been a dream.

He had really clasped her, held her close, and there had seemed to be a surge of real emotion in his voice when he had spoken to her.

How could all this be false? In her heart of hearts she knew it was not, could not be.

Somehow she managed to glide unobserved into the dressing room where she again assumed the protection of her mask.

Wrapped in the concealing folds of the fur coat she waited for Waring.

After what seemed ages she caught a glimpse of his feathered headpiece through the crowd.

His eyes were raking the scene, evidently in search of her. She bribed the maid to take a message to him.

Susan wrote that she felt faint and wished to go home.

Waring was all solicitude as he put her into the car.

"I wondered what had happened to you. I hoped, perhaps, you were ill."

Detroit Tigers Win From Athletics Again, 6 to 4

FOURTH INNING ATTACK STRONG

Vic Sorrell's Excellent Pitching Upsets Champions

Philadelphia, May 16. (AP)—A five-run attack which came in the fourth inning with the Athletics leading 4 to 0, enabled the Detroit Tigers to win the series opener here today, 6 to 4.

After a shaky start, Victor Sorrell settled down and allowed the Athletics only one hit after the third inning. The Athletics used three pitchers, and only Rube Walberg, reliever pitching for the second successive day, was at all effective.

Charlie Gehringer, who had a field day yesterday, bagged a double and ran in three times at bat today, and stole a base on Catcher Mickey Cochrane, running his string to three pilfered bases in two days. Bill Rogell contributed a home run.

The Athletics scored twice in the second on singles by Cramer, McNair and Dykes, and a double steal in which McNair reached home. They added two more in the third on singles by Cochrane and Fox and a double by Cramer.

Stone singled to open the big Tiger fourth. Gehringer doubled, then Stone scored on White's fly. Richardson singled, scoring Gehringer, and then Hayworth walked and Merritt Cain raved way to DeShong in the box of the A's. Sorrell also was walked and all runners advanced on a wild pitch. Richardson scoring, Davis' single scored Hayworth and Sorrell.

Walberg replaced DeShong in the sixth and, except for Rogell's home run in the seventh inning, held the Tigers in check.

FORFEITED GAME
The Newsprints won the opening game in the American league last evening by forfeit from the Insurers. The Insurers failed to have a full roster on hand at game time. With a padded lineup, however, the Insurers lost a practice affair to the Newsprints, 23 to 3.

Batteries: Insurers: Hirn and Hirn; Newsprints 23-3.
Umpire: Moberg.

ONE FOR BAKERS

The Bakers upset the Butchers in the National league opener last evening, 13 to 12. Heavy hitting and loose fielding featured the play of both teams.

Batteries: Bakers: Palmater and Barbeau; Butchers, Christensen and Olmsted.

ROUT FOR CARDS

The Cards swamped the Double L's yesterday to the tune of 26 to 2. The game was only a five-inning affair but the Cards got into high gear in the second when they scored 10 times and then just added to their total each inning thereafter.

Batteries: Double L's: Anderson and Russell; Cards, Johnson and Elston.
Umpires: Schram and Bedard.

Yanks Score Fourth Straight Shutout

New York, May 16. (AP)—The Yankees continued to get sensational pitching today. Lefty Gomez setting the Cleveland Indians down, 8 to 0, for the team's fourth consecutive shutout victory.

The feat of the Yankee mound staff in holding the opposition shutout in four straight contests ties an American league record that has existed for 25 years. The Boston Red Sox last turned the trick in 1906, while Cleveland performed the feat in 1903. With forty scoreless innings behind them, the Yankee curvers need only one more to tie Cleveland's mark of 41. The National league record for consecutive shutouts is six.

Gomez, granted only five hits and received inspired support in the few instances the Indians threatened to score.

CUBS CAPTURE SLUGGING BEE

Stephenson's Single in Ninth Brings Victory Over Phils, 11-10

Chicago, May 16. (AP)—Riggs Stephenson's single with the bases loaded in the ninth today gave the Cubs an 11 to 10 victory over Philadelphia, and boosted their league-lead margin over the Idle Boston Braves to a game and a half.

The Cubs trailed going into their ninth as a result of homers by Chuck Klein and Hal Lee in the visiting half, the latter's being his second of the game.

Nordberg's athletics were without the services of Ballaragon, the ace of the squad, and it was generally conceded that if he had been on hand to swell the Eskymo total, at the same time cutting into the Iron Mountain score, the Escanaba squad would have captured the meet.

H Gridders End Spring Training

Ypsilanti, Mich., May 16. (AP)—Two months of spring football training came to an end at Michigan Normal college here today as next fall's potential Huron eleven and an alumni squad battled to a scoreless tie in the annual spring game. The contest was a feature of "Olympic Day" staged to assist the general United States Olympic fund.

In addition to the football game, which was slow and listless, all play being between the two 25-yard lines, there were special track events. Normal freshmen relay team defeated University of Detroit-yearlings in a mile race, Ypsilanti high school won a distance medley relay race from Roosevelt and Lincoln high schools and Fred Schatte, varsity sprinter, won a special 220-yard dash event.

Sixteen boys reported for tryouts at the last session.

Koenecke's Homer One Of Three Hits Scored By Giants

Cincinnati, May 16. (AP)—Charles (Red) Lucas, mainstay of the Reds' pitching staff, hurled masterful ball today and his mates rallied to score six runs in a frenzied sixth inning to defeat the Giants, 5 to 2.

Lucas, scoring his sixth victory against one defeat, limited the Giants to three hits, one of which was a homerun by Koenecke in the third inning. From that point on he was invincible, not a Giant reaching first base the last six innings.

There was excitement aplenty in the Reds' big sixth inning, when they bunched five hits with two passes off Freddie Fitzsimmons. The rally took place in a heavy shower and play twice was interrupted before the inning was over.

SALESMAN SAM

"SEZ ME" by Ken Gunderman

That the Eskymo track team will be a real threat in peninsula events this spring was demonstrated at the five-school meet here last Saturday. The Mountaineers won the meet with a total of 50 points but the Eskymos were only a step behind with 44 points.

Nordberg's athletics were without the services of Ballaragon, the ace of the squad, and it was generally conceded that if he had been on hand to swell the Eskymo total, at the same time cutting into the Iron Mountain score, the Escanaba squad would have captured the meet.

While Ballaragon may have lost to L. Johnson in the centry and perhaps to Y. Johnson in the 220-yard low hurdles, he would have at least picked up points for second place. It is probable that he would have captured first in the broad jump and might have garnered another point or two in the high jump.

Also the Eskymos were without one of their best milers, Rose, who was ineligible, last week. Escanaba won the mile event with C. Johnson showing a surprising burst of speed in the last lap. Klein, Iron Mountain distance man, who last year took first place in the U. P. invitational at Iron Mountain, did not place in the first four at the meet here Saturday. Murphy, who also was counted on by Coach Thune for points in this event, also failed to come through.

Next Saturday the Eskymos compete in the regional meet at Iron Mountain and this meet probably will be wide open with the result very hard to figure out. This will be especially true if either Ironwood or Wakefield decides to send a team to Iron Mountain for the regionals.

Some critics believe that if Ironwood sends their team to Houghton where the other regional meet in the peninsula is held, Wakefield will be represented at Iron Mountain—vice-versa. Ironwood and Wakefield are the western leaders in track and field and either team would be the dark horse at the Iron Mountain regional.

Escanaba's overwhelming strength in the pole vault can be attributed directly to the appearances here in recent years of several famous vaulters, including Elton Hess, Tom Wargo and Vern McDermott. In addition, Carl Nordberg, the Eskymo mentor, is a former holder of the state Class C pole vault record. The Eskymos will probably dominate this event in every meet in which they are entered this spring. Their slam in the five-cornered meet however, does not necessarily mean that they will score slams in the regional, invitational or pole vault specialty in the U. P. Relays.

HAGEN NOT IN BRITISH OPEN

Only Three Top Notchers From America to Seek Golf Laurels

London, May 16. (AP)—The smallest American professional golf delegation in years, numbering only three top-flight players and minus Walter Hagen, four times winner of the title, has been entered for the forthcoming British open at Sandwich.

The list of entries released today for the tournament, which begins June 6, showed only 14 American names. Tommy Armour, defending champion, MacDonald Smith and Gene Sarazen are the only real threats to a British victory.

It has been eight years since a Briton won the title. Archie Havers being the last to triumph in 1923. With Bobby Jones and Hagen out of the tourney and the American field so small, Britons may view the 1932 renewal with some hope.

Among other Americans entered are Walter Pursey, of Seattle, who finished 15th in the Thousand Guineas at Southport last week; Joshua Crane, of Brookline, Mass.; Gordon Smith, of Palm Beach; Ross Thompson, of Unlontown, Pa.; Ellsworth Augustus, of Cleveland; and six Americans living in England, including the Sweeney brothers, of Oxford, Stuart Schettel and Douglas Grant.

COLLEGE STARS TO FACE TESTS

Races at East Lansing Will Include Noted Olympic Hopes

East Lansing, Mich., May 16. (AP)—The sixteenth annual state intercollegiate track and field meet to be held Friday and Saturday at Michigan State college today beckoned to college stars throughout the state as a testing ground for the approaching Olympics.

In addition to half a dozen entries in the regulation meet regarded as potential Olympic material, four other hopes will be seen in action. Three freshman stars—Tim Quinn, of Michigan Normal, former national interscholastic half-mile champion; Tom Ottey, of Michigan State, middle Atlantic cross country champion; and William Zepp, of Normal, national ten-mile titleholder—will run an exhibition race or be entered in a freshman relay. Clark S. Chamberlain, Michigan State's national cross-country champion, will attempt to break the American four-mile record.

Normal School Favored

Such stars as Eugene Beatty, Normal hurdler; Arnold, Normal's 440 and 880 yard star; Yeager, University of Detroit distance star; Swartz, Western State Teachers' mile and half-mile ace; and Leroy Dues, Detroit City college shot putter, will participate in the regulation meet.

A three-way fight for team honors is in prospect with Michigan normal a favorite to retain the title it won last year. Michigan State and Western State Teachers threaten to push the champions for the honor. Virtually every college in the state with the exception of Michigan will be represented. Michigan Tech has indicated it will enter a team for the first time in history.

1,200 TO MARCH DECORATION DAY

Escanaba Legion Votes To Sponsor Amateur Boxing Cards

Observance of Memorial Day at Escanaba will again be sponsored by the American Legion post, and will include a parade with about 1,200 participating, with a program at Ludington park in the morning.

Advance plans for the program were announced at the regular meeting of the Escanaba Legion in the Eagles' hall last night, and every veteran was urged to turn out for the parade and program, regardless of whether they own a uniform or not. Displays of the American flag were urged for every home and business place. The drum and bugle corps, the municipal band, high school band and junior high school band are among the units which will march in the parade, along with school children, veterans of all wars, W. R. C. Legion Auxiliary, and other civic, fraternal and patriotic organizations. T. J. Back Drum Corps
The Legion post last night voted full support for the drum and bugle corps on their coming trip to the Soo convention June 24, 25 and 26, and passed a motion providing that $100 be raised by the Legion toward the corps expenses on the trip. Amateur boxing was also given the Legion stamp of approval, and the members voted unanimously to sponsor and finance a series of bouts in Escanaba this year, starting with one on Memorial Day and another during the Spanish American war veterans convention in Escanaba July 2, 3 and 4.

A communication from the secretary of the chamber of commerce, H. P. Lindsay, written on behalf of the retail committee, expressed appreciation and commendation for the fine showing made by the drum and bugle corps on "Delta county day."

Following a report of the Legion's participation in the local diamondball league, the post voted an appropriation of $10 for expenses for their teams, managed by Leland Greene. The sum of $20 was authorized to be paid the Lakeside cemetery association for shrubbery and landscaping on the veterans' lot, recently completed.

Favors Bonus

Replies were read last night from Senators and congressmen who were notified of the Escanaba Legion's vote on the payment of the bonus. Congressman James of Hancock was the only one of the group who expressed himself as in favor of cash payment and expected passage of a bill favorable to the veterans. Other messages were from Congressman Bohn, Senator Vandenberg and Senator Couzens. Commander Philip Bruce reported that the total paid-up membership of Cloverland Post to date was 258, a gain over the 249 year average. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting last night under the direction of Bernard Schram, "company cook."
