Senate Passes Huge Revenue Bill $2,300 Recovered From Pair Caught Near Niagara, Wis.

GARNER ASKS APPROVAL FOR RELIEF PLANS

HOOVER'S PROGRAM IS LAID BEFORE SENATORS

Washington, May 31 (AP)—Views sharply conflicting and yet in partial agreement on how best to deal with the nation's human relief problem were spoken today by two leaders—President Hoover and Speaker Garner.

Before the senate, Mr. Hoover appealed for approval of his program which would give the reconstruction finance corporation authority to make loans "for advancement of sound projects that will increase employment, but safeguarded by requirement that some portion of outside capital is also provided."

He flatly rejected the Garner $1,200,000,000 public building plan and the $100,000,000 direct federal relief fund. But at the same time he favored increasing the finance corporation's capitalization to $2,000,000,000 to aid states, agriculture and private enterprise which is contained in the Garner program.

His Public Works speaker went before the house ways and means committee to urge his $2,300,000,000 bill which has the endorsement of the house Democrats.

A reservoir of "mercy money" and leadership of the federal government in furnishing employment through public building construction was Garner's plea shortly before the president made his surprise address to the senate.

Arguing for his proposition to remove restrictions on the reconstruction corporation to permit it to make loans to private corporations, Garner said it would compel the banks to lend their money because of competition.

President Hoover said the budget for the coming fiscal year calls for over $50,000,000 to be expended on public works and that if the program were increased taxes would have to be raised still higher.

The speaker asserted he had been told that one thousand building projects proposed in his bill could be launched by September 15, if it were enacted by June 1; to directly and indirectly employ more than a million.

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—Arrested on suspicion, two men Tuesday confessed they were the "chain bandits" who for the past four months have been holding up groceries and filling stations, each time binding the victim with chain and padlocking him. They gave their names as Edwin Magness, 23, and his brother, Martin, 21.

"Lie Detector" at University Proves Marriage Sincere

Chicago, May 31 (AP)—The former Miss Harriet Berger, 21, and Vaclav Hund, 24, said "I do" today—and have documentary proof that they meant it. They were married by Judge Charles B. Adams while they were strapped to Northwestern University's "lie detector" and this is what the machine showed:

The bride's heart—but not the bridegroom's—nearly stopped when the judge asked the bridegroom, "do you take this woman" and also when he said, "I pronounce you man and wife."

The bridegroom's blood pressure rapidly and steadily decreased during the ceremony, while the bride's steadily rose.

The newlyweds really love each other, according to computations of Charles M. Wilson, operator of the "lie detector."

The chart registered by the "lie detector" was given to Mr. and Mrs. Hund along with their marriage certificate.

ECONOMICS TO BE DISCUSSED

Hope to Stabilize World Commodity Prices at London Conclave

Washington, May 31 (AP)—The United States has consented to attend an international economic conference in London, sponsored by Great Britain, for the purpose of considering methods of stabilizing world commodity prices.

The date of the conference and its program have not been announced, but the state department made it clear today that the American acceptance of the invitation was with the understanding that only economic questions shall be considered and political questions such as war debts and reparations barred.

Sir Ronald Lindsay, the British ambassador in Washington, asked acting Secretary of State William R. Cattle, Jr., a fortnight ago to give consideration to such a conference. Meanwhile, Ambassador Mellon discussed the subject with Sir John Simons, British foreign secretary, in London. Today, after Secretary Stimson and Secretary Mills talked with President Hoover concerning the proposed conference, the state department issued a statement announcing that this country would participate.

Broad Scope Planned France, Italy and other European powers also have been invited by Great Britain. It is the understanding of the state department that the scope of the conference will be broad. Tariff quotas, monetary reform and all subjects which relate to commerce and banking probably will be included in the agenda.

As there has been no discussion of the details of the program as yet, it is not known whether the conference will consider plans for improving the price of silver. The meeting will in no way be connected with the Lausanne conference which it to be held June 16, primarily for the consideration of reparations and intergovernmental debts, but the latter also will develop plans which later will be considered by the London conference.

The British empire conference is to be held in Ottawa in July. The state department is of the opinion it will not be possible to hold the London conference until the Ottawa meeting is finished.

Three Attempts At Suicide Fail

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—Mrs. Elmita Griffith, who made three unsuccessful attempts at suicide by leaping into the River Rouge, was in a hospital Tuesday, recovering from exposure. A closely-woven dress buoyed her up each time she leaped into the river. She told police she was despondent because of ill health.

HOOVER FAILS TO GET SALES TAX APPROVED

MEASURE PROVIDES FOR BALANCED BUDGET

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON (Associated Press Staff Writer) Washington, June 1 (Wednesday) (AP)—The senate early today passed the revenue bill filled with new taxes to reach the budget balancing goal urged by President Hoover in a personal appeal to the chamber.

The final roll call came at 12:20 a. m., after a day and night filled with a whirlwind of events climaxed by the surprise call on Capitol Hill by the president to ask prompt and unified action to arrest foreign attacks on the American dollar.

The last minute endorsement by the president of the disputed manufacturers' sales tax, however, was scored by the senate in its driving finish. The 1.75 percent manufacturers' sales levy was advanced late in the night by Senator Walker (D. Mass.) and voted down 53 to 27.

New Gasoline Tax The senate did respond with determination to administration appeals advanced personally by the president and Secretary Mills for an eight-hour addition of $25,000,000 in new revenue to make sure the government will pay its own way next year.

It voted further increases in the income rates: a one cent a gallon levy on gasoline and a three percent tax on gross receipts of electric power companies. These changes were estimated to yield $280,000,000 and bring the total of the measure up to the $1,115,000,000 asked by the administration.

The greatest peace-time revenue-raising bill now goes to conference for adjustment of differences with the house, but no major disputes are impending between the two chambers, and final enactment of the legislation within a week is expected.

His nerves ragged from the day and night grind, the senate wrangled persistently throughout the long day, and a sharp exchange occurred just before final passage.

Senators Tydings of Maryland, and Glass of Virginia, both Democrats, questioned sharply whether the bill would balance the budget.

Crowd Stays to End Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, an administration spokesman, firmly insisted the bill, together with the economy measure of $238,000,000 which reached the senate shortly before midnight, would accomplish that purpose.

Despite the late hour, almost a full attendance remained on hand to meet the sales tax issue and pass the bill. The galleries, which had been crowded throughout the day, remained fairly well-filled up to the early morning hour when the legislation finally was finished.

In the gallery were some of the women members of the house, including Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts, Mrs. Florence P. Kahn of California, and Mrs. Effie Wingo of Arkansas, all in evening dress.

Immediately after the bill was passed, Vice President Curtis appointed conferees on behalf of the senate.

WHERE IS HE?

Search Nation for Single Drunk Reformed by Prohibition

New York, May 31 (AP)—A bus named "Diogenes" after the man who sought in vain for an honest man, will set out at 8:30 a. m. tomorrow for a coast to coast tour. It will bear five members of the prohibition research committee seeking "one drunk who has actually been reformed by the 18th amendment to the constitution."

Paul Norris, committee director and expedition leader, claims a search of New York already has been futile. In each city visited, he said, prohibition organizations will be invited to produce such a reformed man. The group will make independent efforts to find the man through police and hospitals.

"We do not expect to find any such person," Norris said, "but if we do, we'll take him to Washington, give him a big dinner and say 'Look. This man's reformation cost the country $4 billion dollars.'"

Death Takes Son of Late Capt. Dollar

Vancouver, B. C., May 31 (AP)—A. Melville Dollar, 59, noted shipping man of the Pacific coast and son of the late Capt. Robert Dollar, was found dead in the garage at his home tonight, apparently a victim of a heart attack.

Physicians who were summoned said he had been treated for two years for heart disease and they believed he had been stricken fatally after he had stepped into the garage.

Dollar headed the Canadian American Shipping company, with headquarters in Vancouver. His father, Captain Robert Dollar, died in San Rafael, Calif., May 1.

He returned yesterday from a motor trip to Seattle. He is survived by his widow and seven children.

GOVERNOR AIDS LIEUT. MASSIE

All Rights of Citizenship Restored to Naval Officer

Frankfort, Ky., May 31 (AP)—Any rights of citizenship Lieut. Thomas H. Massie may have lost in his native state of Kentucky by his conviction in the Honolulu honor slaying were restored him today in an executive order of Governor Ruby Laffoon.

The governor stated in his order restoring citizenship he did not believe Lieut. Massie had forfeited any of his rights in this state but that he issued the order "to put the matter beyond all doubt."

Lieut. Massie received the order from Governor Laffoon personally in the executive offices, and a short time later, he and his wife, Mrs. Thalia Massie, left by motor for Charleston, W. Va. They expected to remain there tonight before continuing to Washington and New York. They will visit friends and relatives in the east before he returns to duty on the West Coast.

It was to avenge an attack on Mrs. Massie that the naval officer, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Granville Fortesque of New York, and two sailors, were alleged to have slain a young Hawaiian, indicted for the crime. The four were convicted of manslaughter and their sentences commuted to an hour in jail. Massie is the only one who is a native of Kentucky.

Coming from the governor's offices with the order in his pocket, Lieut. Massie remarked, "I consider this a package of happiness."

Brown Has Not Changed His Mind On Oceanic Flight

Seattle, May 31 (AP)—If he had a plane, Nat C. Brown, New York flier, would not hesitate about starting another attempt to make a non-stop flight to Tokyo, he said today.

Brown's plane, the "Lone Star," lies shattered on the floor of Puget Sound in 600 feet of water, where it sank yesterday, ending the flier's second effort to get away on the hazardous crossing of the north Pacific. Attempts may be made to haul the $5,000 motor to the surface.

The former Texas cowboy, who pioneered air mail routes in South America, was uncertain today just what he would do next. All the money he had was spent in the unsuccessful venture.

Seek Bandits Who Robbed Aged Woman

Saginaw, May 31 (AP)—Sheriff's officers sought two bandits who Tuesday entered the home of Mrs. Isabelle King, 80, a half mile east of Burt, in Saginaw county, bound her to a chair and took a small sum of money. Mrs. King freed herself and climbed through a window of her home to call officials, after she found the doors of her home locked.

STANDARD OIL HALTS STATE OUSTER MOVE

RESTRAINING ORDER GRANTED IN FEDERAL COURT

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—The Standard Oil company, of Indiana, will go on doing business in Michigan, temporarily at least. Shortly after Frank D. Fitzgerald, secretary of state, had placed in the mails formal notification that the company's license had been revoked, Alex J. Groesbeck, former governor, appeared in federal court here and obtained a restraining order.

The order, issued by United States District Judge Ernest A. O'Brien, directs the state to show cause on June 6 why an injunction should not be issued. The controversy between the state and the Standard Oil Company, of Indiana, is of long standing. Fitzgerald claims the company is $1,599,815.70 in arrears in taxes, penalties and interest, covering gasoline sold through its several hundred filling stations in the state.

The company in the bill filed in federal court contended the amount sought by the state was covered by evaporation and loss of gasoline.

Fitzgerald had expected action to restrain the state, and said he would give the company a reasonable time in which to obtain a court order keeping their stations open, pending judicial determination of the dispute.

WILL FIGHT CASE

Lansing, Mich., May 31 (AP)—The state will fight the contention of the Standard Oil Co., of Indiana, that a blanket of three percent deduction may be made from the gasoline tax for "shrinkage" in an attempt to add hundreds of thousands of dollars to highway revenues, Frank D. Fitzgerald, secretary of state, said today.

It is claimed the Standard Oil owes nearly $1,600,000 in back taxes. Fitzgerald stated that other large gasoline companies would be affected similarly if the courts uphold the state's interpretation of the statutes, namely that deductions should be allowed for only actual shrinkage.

The secretary of state will be represented by the attorney general in a hearing set for next Monday in the federal district court in Detroit on the petition of the Standard Oil Company for a permanent injunction forbidding revocation of the company's license to do business. Fitzgerald mailed notice to the company today that it must cease operating in this state unless it pays the claimed amounts.

POLICE FIGHT WITH JOBLESS

Residents of Lodge in Detroit Protest Its Closing

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—Unemployed residents of the Fisher Home for men today battled police in the council chambers of the city hall when they attempted to stage a protest against the reported closing of the lodge. No one was hurt, although the clubs were forced to use their clubs to disperse the crowd of 400 gathered in the council chambers.

Councilmen said the men, led by Fred Morrison, the spokesman, interrupted their meeting and began a heated protest against reports that the lodge in which they reside would be closed next month. Council guards attempted to restore order, and when a riot seemed imminent police reserves were called. The men were driven from the council chamber, down the stairs to the first floor of the city hall, and out into the streets. No arrests were made.

The men, members of the council reported, were protesting a proposal of the council and welfare officials that the lodge be closed because of lack of funds and the occupants transferred to the county infirmary at Eloise.

Later in the day, the welfare commission voted to close the lodge on June 15 and promised to provide transportation to any of the 1,100 men now residing at the lodge who wish to return to their former homes before that time.

New York, May 31 (AP)—By showing that more than $75,000 was drawn from Russell T. Sherwood's bank accounts for the benefit of an unnamed friend of Mayor Walker, Samuel Seabury today sought to link Walker beyond dispute with the $1,000,000 financial transactions of the $3,500-a-year accountant.

The counsel of the Hofstadter legislative committee declined to name the person to whom he referred.

Washington, May 31 (AP)—Protected by police against a rumored Communist demonstration, the supreme court today agreed to review the conviction and death sentence of seven negroes accused of assaulting two white girls near Scottsboro, Alabama.

7 Condemned Men Given Stay of Execution By High Court

Washington, May 31 (AP)—Protected by police against a rumored Communist demonstration, the supreme court today agreed to review the conviction and death sentence of seven negroes accused of assaulting two white girls near Scottsboro, Alabama.

In addition, it firmly closed the doors of Atlanta prison upon Scarface Al Capone by refusing to reconsider its previous refusal to review his case.

REPRIEVED UNTIL FALL

Today's session ended the court's term. Five decisions were rendered, 35 reviews refused and 16 granted, disposing of all business before the tribunal for action.

The negroes had been sentenced to die June 24. The court's granting of a review had the effect of giving them a reprieve until next fall. The court reconvenes in October.

When the records of the court is compiled for the term just ended it will show that it has been able to maintain the pace set in recent years, and that the number of cases filed for consideration at the next term, which could not be brought before the court for action today, is comparatively small, approximately 125, many of which presumably will be dismissed, as soon as the court can examine them, for want of issues within its jurisdiction.

Two Others of Quartet Who Looted $5,000 in Daylight Holdup Sought By Police

Iron Mountain, June 1 (Wednesday)—(Special)—Two of the band of four men who robbed the First National Bank of Hermansville of $5,000 yesterday morning were under arrest here and $2,300 of the stolen money was recovered. The two men were arrested near the Niagara bridge by Niagara officials who picked up the men because of their suspicious actions. Both men carried revolvers but they were taken by surprise and did not resist arrest. They were apprehended shortly before midnight (Eastern Standard Time).

The Niagara officials who made the arrests are Marshal Schaffer, John Zidel, deputy, Albert Keil and Henry Marcunier. The latter two are citizens who were deputized to join the posse in search of the bank bandits.

The men were taken to Iron Mountain and will be questioned by sheriff department officers and state police. Neither gave his name.

The men were on foot when they were arrested. Police are going to question them to learn if the other two members fled with the automobile which they used in the robbery or if they also abandoned the car and fled on foot.

Four armed bandits held up the First National Bank in Hermansville at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and escaped with about $5,000 into Wisconsin, driving a mud-spattered brown sedan, bearing Minnesota or Illinois license plates. The loss is completely covered by bank robbery insurance.

The daring holdup was staged in typical wild west fashion; the bandits firing several shots aimlessly in an effort to terrify the citizens. It was Menominee county's first bank holdup.

Three bandits entered the bank, the fourth remaining at the wheel of the car, the engine of which was kept running. "Stick 'em up", the trio commanded with revolvers pointed at the bank employees, who, taken unawares, were unable to press the alarm buttons under the cages. None of the bandits was masked.

Salesman Slugged One of the robbers, a tall and slender youthful individual with a reddish colored blemish on the side of his face, covered George H. Curran, assistant cashier, and Miss Naomi Allen, bookkeeper. He relieved Curran of his watch, and then ordered him and Miss Allen to lie face-down on the floor.

Another holdup man, who appeared about 24 years old and of medium build, wearing a brown suit, pointed his two revolvers at Cashier Chris H. Gribble and ordered him into the vault to open a safe, while the third bandit scooped up the currency and checks on the cage counters.

While the hold-up was in progress, George Higdon, itinerant magazine salesman, stepped into the bank. He was felled with a blow on the head from the butt of one of the bandit's guns, and dragged into the vault, where Gribble was being held captive. Gribble explained that he could not open the safe because of the actual fact that it was under time-lock, to open shortly after 3 p. m. The bandit thought at first that the cashier was lying to him, and he threatened to kill him unless he did as he was ordered. Finally convinced, however, that Gribble was telling the truth, the two-gun man angrily

Detroit Suffering Increase In Crime

Detroit, May 31 (AP)—A reported increase in petty crimes in Detroit during the past six months was blamed Tuesday by Superintendent John P. Smith of the police department on decreased police manpower, elimination of many street lights to an economy program, and "a desire of youthful hoodlums to emulate the deeds of older and practiced burglars."

Gribble, cashier of the First National Bank of Hermansville, had a thrilling experience when the bank was held up by four men yesterday morning. "Spanish Prisoner" Gag Worked Again By Confidence Men

Escanaba citizens are warned of the operations of a gang of confidence men, who are flooding the country with letters designed to find victims for the old "Spanish prisoner" swindle.

Instead of operating from Spain, as in 1925 and other years, the gang is now in South America. Hundreds of their letters are being received by persons scattered from Georgia to Oregon, with the largest numbers of intended victims being selected in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Indiana, Texas, Nebraska, Arizona and New Mexico.

The letters say the writer needs help to care for a sixteen-year-old daughter and to save a sum of $350,000 on deposit in two banks in the United States. The invited victim is invited to come to South America pay costs of the prisoner's bankruptcy trial and receive documents to obtain the money on deposit. For this aid, one-third of the $350,000 is offered. The prisoner cannot receive direct correspondence, so a code telegram addressed to a third party is attached for use if the victim is interested.

A number of these cablegrams have been offered at Western Union offices by intended victims. They include people in all of the nine states named above. Western Union managers, alert to protect the public, tell intended victims of the swindle when they seek to file such cablegrams.

Subsequent letters say the South American trip is unnecessary; that by advancing a certain sum the prisoner's release can be obtained, and that he and his daughter will then proceed to the United States if that sum is sent, a third letter requests money to buy steamship tickets. That is the last heard of the "Spanish prisoner".

Wescoat's Plane Visits Escanaba

The huge Sikorsky amphibian plane stopped off in Escanaba yesterday afternoon on its tourist promotion tour preparatory to going into regular service between Houghton and Isle Royale today.

Flying in the plane were: C. Harold Wescoat, former Escanaba, who is manager of the Isle Royale Air Lines; Pilot L. E. Shady, mechanic Herbert Louf, all of Houghton; Barry McCauley and John O'Hara, Jr., of Menominee; McCauley and O'Hara rode in the plane from Menominee. The trip was made in 26 minutes.

Mr. Wescoat and his crew were returning from a tour of Wisconsin cities, conducted for the purpose of arousing interest in Isle Royale. The plane will be able to make the distance to Isle Royale in 35 minutes as compared to seven hours by boat. The airship, which weighs 8,000 pounds, has a wing span of 72 feet. The flyers departed from Escanaba at 4 p. m. with Menominee as their next stop enroute to Houghton.

The large plane became mired in the soft beach sand, when it taxied into the north shore, near the light-house. A couple planks were placed under the retractable landing gear, and the ship made an easy get-away, however. Several hundred persons inspected the plane during its stay here.

NET SLASHINGS UNDER SCRUTINY

Fishermen Called In As Witnesses at Escanaba

Witnesses are being called before Justice H. E. Ranguette in a one-man grand jury investigation of the recent fish net destruction in Bay de Noc. Several commercial fishermen reported nets cut loose from stakes and slashed with some sharp tool. Conservation Officers Belfy of Garden and Herman Leisner of Escanaba were among those in attendance at the investigation which opened Tuesday afternoon, and will probably continue for another day. The questioning is being conducted by Prosecuting Attorney G. W. Jackson.

Following the reports received last week, of losses sustained by several Delta county fishermen, aggregating several thousand dollars, due to a mysterious cutting and hacking of the nets while in the water, reports are again received from fishermen who have had unknown quantities of fish stolen out of their nets.

The marauders were careless in handling the nets and tore them in such a manner that much time will have to be spent on them before they can be again placed in service. Charles Besette of Isabella is the latest fisherman to report such losses. He stated that it was impossible to make even an approximate guess as to how much he had lost because of the fact that fishing success is so varying from day to day. A Fairport fisherman owning a large boat and extensive fishing equipment recently stated that he had been compelled to stay out near the nets in order to prevent theft of the fish. Various persons ashore have stated that they have seen mysterious lights flitting around from time to time at points where fishermen operate in the daytime. The department of conservation is cooperating with other authorities in making investigations.

For several months past, fishermen in the Garden, Fayette and Isabella districts have been complaining of the operations of thieves and property destroyers.

Many See Circus
Marquette—Approximately 5,000 persons; it was estimated last night; visited the Marquette airfield on the Green Garden road over the week-end and witnessed Marquette's first air circus, a three-day exhibition of flying in which more than a dozen planes participated.

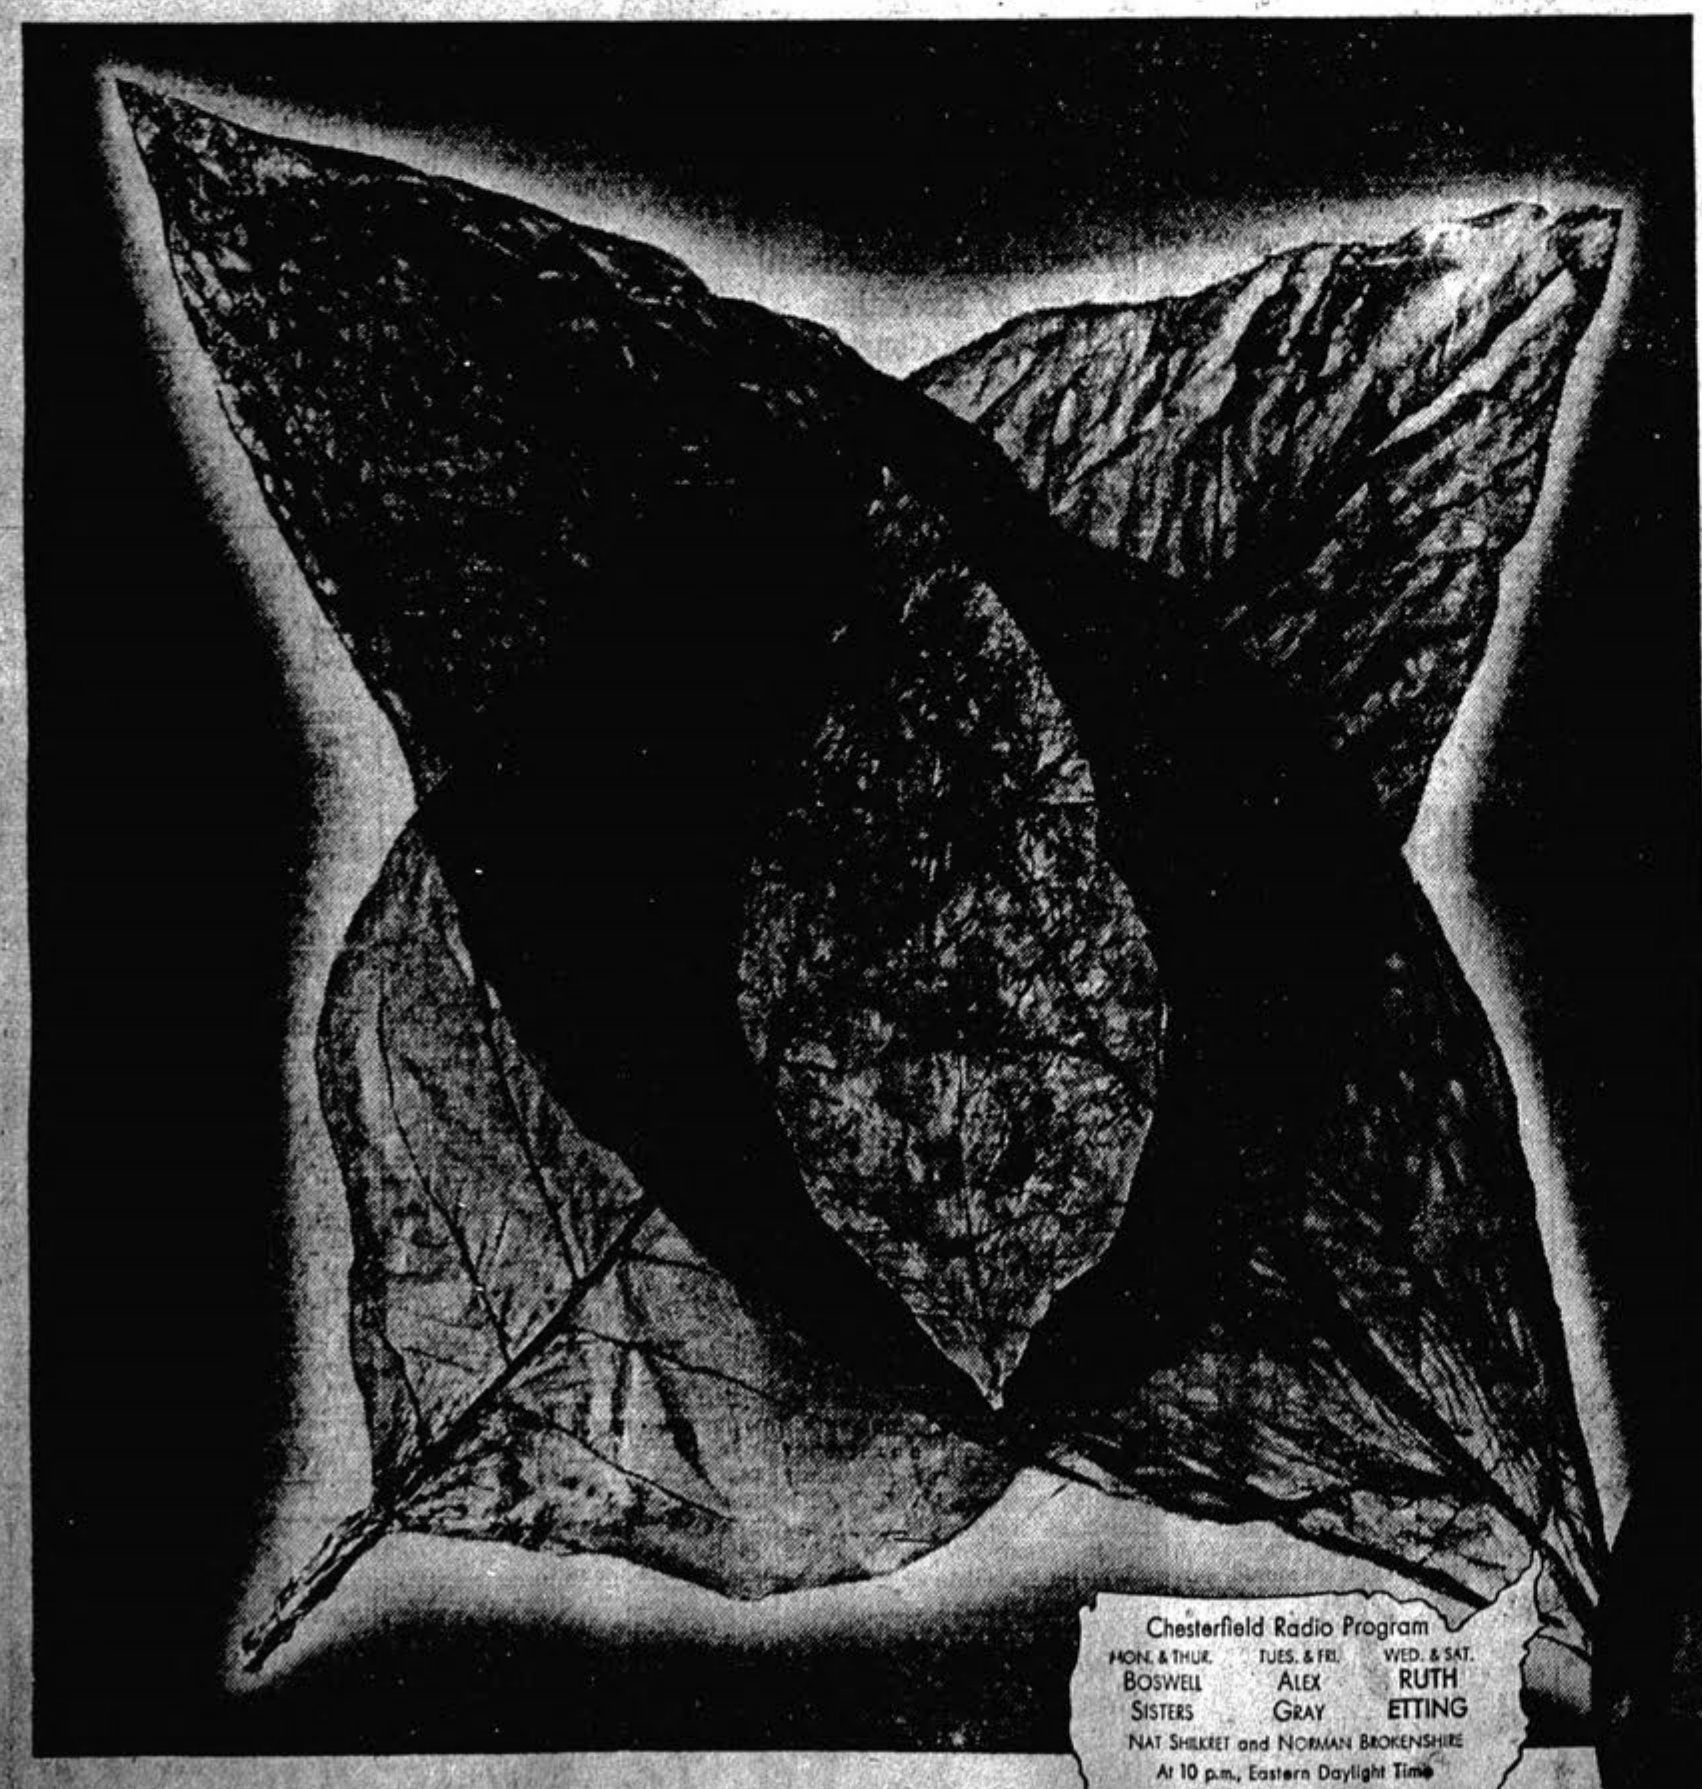

The circus was staged under auspices of the Marquette Airport association and the drum and bugle corps of the Richard M. Jopling post, American Legion, assisted by Ed. Carlier, Frank Schoblaska and other flyers from Manitowoc, Wis., and "Wally" Arnzen, of Escanaba.

Marquette—At the conclusion of the three-day air circus here yesterday, officials of the Marquette Airport association announced that the Green Garden airfield will be formally dedicated July 12, the date on which the 40 planes entered in the fourth annual Michigan Air Tour are scheduled to arrive in Marquette. The dedication undoubtedly will be the most auspicious aviation event held in Marquette. Not only will foremost flyers of Michigan be present, but the first plane bearing mail out of this city will leave here on that date.

It's as though the tobaccos were "welded" together...

"CROSS-BLENDING" means much more than just mixing tobaccos together.

It "welds" together different kinds of the several varieties of tobacco... many types of Bright tobacco, a great many types of Burley tobacco and numerous grades of Turkish tobacco.

THIS "WELDING" TOGETHER—or Cross-Blending—permits every kind of tobacco used in the Chesterfield blend to partake of the best qualities of every other type. Each tobacco is thus made to yield its finest flavors.

CROSS-BLENDING takes all these pleasing flavors and aromas and combines them into one—the Chesterfield taste. And we think you will agree that it is a far better taste... worth all the extra care that Chesterfield takes to get it.

EVERYTHING that money can buy and that science knows about is done to make CHESTERFIELD milder and taste better.

NO WORD FROM TWO BALLOONS

Other Bags in Race from Omaha Have Been Accounted For

BULLETIN
Omaha, Neb., May 31 (AP)—Official estimates by race officials of the distance traveled by the Balloon Goodyear VII in the National Balloon Race that started here Monday night was set at approximately 750 air miles from Omaha. The Goodyear VII came down late today near Tyvan, Saskatchewan, Canada. This is the longest flight yet reported by any of the race contestants. The Army No. 2 entry is the only balloon not yet heard from. It was sighted near Kincaid, Saskatchewan, late today.

Omaha, Neb., May 31 (AP)—A pair of storm ridden balloons competing in the national race which started here late yesterday to the accompaniment of roaring winds, were still unheard from early tonight.

Three other landed safely in North Dakota today after battling wind, rain, snow and electric storms. A fourth came down soon after the takeoff, its bag leaking badly.

The two from which no word had come were the Number 2 army bag piloted by Lieutenant Wilfred J. Paul and the Goodyear VII, manned by Roland Blair and Frank Trotter, winners of the 1930 national race at Houston, Texas.

600 Miles Best Distance
The best unofficial distance reported among the quartet of fliers was made by the Number 1 army balloon, piloted by Captain W. J. Flood of Washington, D. C. The entry landed near Sherwood, N. D., shortly after shouted to his other two companions: "This damn safe is on a time-lock; let's get out of here!" The three men ran out of the bank with their loot, firing a shot into the bank windows as they were getting into their car. A man, who innocently approached the bank at that time, was fired upon from the car, but the bullet missed its mark.

The bandit car, traveling at high speed, whirled around the block and sped toward Fairborn on county road No. 8. At the outskirts of the village, they threw out a bunch of roofing nails on the road, hoping that they might damage the tires of any pursuing cars.

It required only about four or five minutes for the bandits to finish the job. As soon as they had left the building, the bank alarm was sounded and members of the vigilantes committee grabbed their rifles.

Poses Are Split
State troopers, sheriff's and police departments in Menominee, Dickinson and Delta counties were notified, and joined in the pursuit. Near Fairborn, some cancelled checks, from the robbed bank, were found strewn along the roadside. It is believed that the robbers crossed the Menominee river into Wisconsin over the bridge at Nathan.

Confusing reports regarding the sighting of the robbers came from various sections, and last night posses were split up and running down clues in different parts of the region. Sheriff El Reidel and his deputies were hot on the trail in the vicinity of Pembine, but lost it and was scouring the roads south of Nathan late last night. State police were working out of Pembine, where it was reported a brown sedan, with four occupants, had stopped for gasoline. Wisconsin authorities carried on the search west of Pembine toward Rhinelander on the theory that the bandits might be headed toward Minneapolis. Sheriff Elmer Swanson and his deputies searched the territory around Fairborn. First reports were that the car had Minnesota plates, but other witnesses said that it bore an Illinois license.

A road worker near Fairborn late in the afternoon told possemen that he thought he recognized one of the occupants of the bandits' car as a man who formerly lived with him in Bretun, Iron Mountain. He furnished the officers with the name and address of the man.

James Reidy, manager of the Hermanville Community club, had just left the bank before the robbers entered. He was seated in his car as the robbers drove up behind him and stopped. Reidy paid no attention to them and left his car to step into a store. He had returned and was rummaging about the interior of his machine as the bandits, excited and hurried, left the bank to go into their car. Reidy watched them as they drove away and saw them smash the rear window, apparently getting prepared for firing at any pursuers. Reidy thought the car was a Chrysler. Some witnesses declared it was a Graham-Paige, while other claimed it was a Hudson.

STATE GETTING OIL ROYALTIES

Revenue from Midland County Land Like Boom Days

A revenue comparing favorably with the income the state was receiving during the oil boom days three years ago is now being piled up through royalties from the Talbot Oil Company, operating wells on land leased during November, 1931, from the Department of Conservation.

Royalties from oil produced from two wells on land leased from the state is now bringing the state an income of somewhere between $5,000 and $6,000 a month, the Lands Division of the Department of Conservation has announced.

The two wells, one of which had an initial production of 3,000 barrels a day, and the other 2,671 barrels a day, are located in what is known as the "East Field," in Greendale Township, Midland county. The land leased was on proven oil territory and under the lease provisions the state receives approximately one quarter of the income from the wells.

The Talbot company is now engaged in drilling other wells with a possibility of the state adding to its royalty income.

Recent increase of ten cents a barrel in the price of crude oil has stimulated activity in the Michigan oil fields and numerous wells are now being drilled. Drilling is in progress a mile and a half northeast of the East Extension of the Mt. Pleasant Field, and according to the Geological Survey Division's figures production is far ahead of figures submitted for the same period during 1931.

SURPLUS LABOR FIGHTING FIRES

System Found Effective; Pay Is 15 Cents An Hour

Michigan's new system of fighting forest fires with "welfare labor" has provided an organization as efficient as the old system of drafted labor, Howard R. Sayre, chief of the Division of Field Administration of the Conservation Department said today. The "welfare labor" system has been in effect for a month.

Under the new system fire fighters are paid 15c an hour and are recruited from "welfare city and county agencies. When the welfare lists provide insufficient labor to fight large fires, men are obtained from application lists on file in each of the district offices.

"More than enough men are now available in each of the fire districts, and "drafted" labor will not be necessary this year unless very serious forest fire conditions develop," Mr. Sayre said.

Under Michigan law an adult might be summoned in cases of emergency to fight forest fires. The new system effects a large savings to the state and at the same time relieves many welfare agencies of excess burdens of supporting unemployed.

senate to adjust differences with the house. He named Chairman Smoot of the finance committee, and Senators (R. Ind.), Reed (R. Pa.), Harrison (D. Miss.), and King (D. Utah).

Just before the final roll call on the tax bill, Senator Nye (R., N. D.) announced he would not press for consideration of his proposal to attach to it as a rider the three-way farm relief program sponsored by agricultural organizations.

Nye and other leaders of the farm bloc feel that a vote on this program will be had separately before the session ends, and the North Dakotan gave notice of his intention to renew his drive for action on it.

Senator LaFollette (R. Wis.) took a few seconds to explain to the senate and the country at large that action on this revenue bill was just as swift as on any of the last four, and faster by far than one.

In answer to condemnation of the senate for taking so much time, LaFollette said the 1913 revenue bill took fifteen days to go from the senate to the house; the 1921 measure took 40 days; the 1924 bill, 14 days; the 1928 bill, 16 days, and this bill, 15 and one-half days.

Tydings obtained unanimous consent to be registered as "present" on the final roll call, asserting he could not vote for it in the belief it would not balance the budget and because it contained tariff items he thought should not be there.

"We are in the position of telling the country we have balanced the budget, when in 30 or 60 days it will be disproved," Tydings said.

How They Voted
Reed arose immediately to tell Tydings, "I want to enter a most emphatic dissent." He added: "We are assured by the treasury that we have provided for the coming year and can depend on it that the budget is balanced, provided we stand substantially behind the economy bill.

The roll call on final passage follows:

VON PAPEN TO FORM CABINET

Former German Military Officer to Succeed Bruening

BY LOUIS F. LOCHNER
(Associated Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, May 31 (AP)—President Paul von Hindenburg today called upon a war time military associate—and incidentally a man accused of directing German propaganda in the United States in 1915—to form a temporary government for Germany.

He is Franz von Papen, military attaché in the United States until Washington demanded his withdrawal, and later a general staff officer of the kaiser's imperial army.

The president commissioned Von Papen to form a "national concentration cabinet" to carry on until fall.

Adolf Hitler's National Socialist (Fascist) party announced through its headquarters that it would withhold support from a cabinet formed by Herr Von Papen. It was expected, however, that the Hitlerites would be given a chance to make good their claim that they could control the Reichstag if given the chance in a general election. Reichstag Elected 1930

(The present Reichstag was elected in 1930 and has more social Democrats (Socialists) than any other group. In state elections this year, however, the Fascists wiped out Socialist control in Prussia and elsewhere. Normally general elections would not be held until 1934, but could be called at any time by the president.)

The man chosen to succeed Dr. Heinrich Brüning as chancellor is, like his predecessor, a conservative Centrist (Catholic), but hails from the army group of that party.

One of the reasons why the president dispensed with Dr. Brüning was because he felt the army would not be behind him in case of disorders.

The president's selection came late in a most trying day of receiving the leaders of various parties interspersed with a few instances of disorders.

The Nazis put on demonstrations in front of the presidential palace while political conferences were going on inside, several times massing in front and shouting, "Hail, Hitler!"

NEEDED: A DOLE SUBSTITUTE

ONE out of every four of the 2,700,000 unemployed men in England is no longer fit for normal work.

This bit of news is contained in statistics recently released by the British government. It presents a problem which might well be given some extended consideration on this side of the water.

These jobless men who are below par physically number between 600,000 and 700,000. A United Press cable summarizing the report about them remarks:

"Long idle, they have dropped into a permanent rut, out of which only full-fledged prosperity can rescue them. Their muscles have become soft, their thoughts chronically soiled and twisted. Their condition has been likened to shell shock, and some experts now refer to it as 'unemployed shock'."

This, then, seems to be one of the brightest fruits of England's famous dole policy. We over here are going to have to think more seriously about an American dole, or its equivalent, in the coming year than we have before; or it might pay us to keep this English object lesson in mind.

And yet it will not be enough for us simply to say, "The dole has tragic results and we want none of it." If things go on as they have been going, we shall assuredly have to have either the dole or something to take its place; and this little object lesson is useful chiefly because it warns us how vitally important it is that we dig up a good substitute.

The dole doesn't work out well. Those 600,000 English sufferers from "unemployment shock" will be a major problem for England for a good many years to come. But the dole does prevent starvation. It is probably fair to say that in England it has prevented a revolution.

If, then, we reach the point at which some sort of government help for the unemployed becomes necessary, it is up to us to profit by England's example and find a better solution than the dole. It may be extremely hard to find one. But it is quite evident that the job must be done.

CHANCE FOR ECONOMY

WHILE the cry for consolidation and elimination of some of the federal government's many bureaus resounds throughout the land, it might be well for the local governing units to look around and see whether similar steps can be taken at home to effect economies in the interest of the taxpayer.

In Delta county's courthouse, undoubtedly, there are opportunities for consolidation of offices, whereby taxes could be reduced without decreasing public service a single iota. For instance, the register deeds and county clerk offices could be combined, such as is the case in Schoolcraft and several other counties in Michigan. Several hundred dollars could be saved Delta county taxpayers by such a step.

When the Delta county board of supervisors meets this June, it will be its duty to effect reductions in governmental costs along the lines pointed out by the various school districts and other governmental units. If the supervisors can make the changes needed to put our county government on a more business-like basis it will be accomplishing something worthwhile. Not only in Michigan but in almost every other state, county government is conducted with antiquated methods, making it wasteful and costly to the taxpayers. It is a relic of horse and buggy days trying to operate in a modern day, in which conditions have undergone drastic change.

MAYOR WALKER WILDLY CHEERED

THE ordeal of questioning over Mayor Walker's stride, joint out of the room, passing through a maddy cheering throng was present.

counts telling of the questioning of Mayor Walker of New York, by Judge Samuel Seabury, in the course of the investigation that has been going on for months, concerning the conduct of Tammany affairs.

The high point of questioning, Thursday, had to do with the relationship between the mayor and one Russell T. Sherwood, who had acted as Mayor Walker's financial secretary, until his complete disappearance some time ago. The disappearance came about the time the questioning by Judge Seabury began to make it apparent that he would be very exacting in eliciting information of the source of inexplicable money and property holdings of Tammany officials.

Sherwood, who acted as Mayor Walker's confidential secretary until his disappearance, drew a very moderate salary for one in such a position, about that of an ordinary office clerk, yet, during the time he served the New York mayor, he made deposits of more than $700,000—most of it in cash.

Mayor Walker on the stand denied over and over any idea of how Sherwood could come by so much money. But a few days earlier Mayor Walker was frank enough to let it be known that his spectacular European trip, so widely exploited, was financed by those who wanted to do something for him. Some of the sources of the money for the trip were made known, but others were not.

While, as indicated above, a wildly cheering throng was in the court room, and a vastly greater throng outside also cheering, yet it must be understood that back over the country, away from efforts to stampe, is a much vaster throng of people looking on very coldly, very questioningly. What the mayor of New York has just been saying is not wholly satisfactory to the larger audience.

The distressing aspect of the whole matter is that the metropolitan attitude toward Mayor Walker is much larger, very much larger than the cheering crowd in the court and just outside. The distressing aspect of the matter is that there are so many citizens, who, even though they knew that Mayor Walker came by enormous sums in a surreptitious, political way, would yet cheer and acclaim him, and madly acclaim him.

Not how Mayor Walker came by his money, but the disposition of the crowd to wildly acclaim him no matter how he came by it—that is the real concern involved. The disposition to acclaim a certain type of smartness is not wholly confined to New York.—Lansing State Journal.

The man who robbed the Youngstown soup kitchen of bread and tomatoes must have gotten tired of waiting in line.

Virginia re-staged the Battle of Yorktown a few months back, but now New York has stepped out in front with a brand-new Battle of Hastings.

GERMANS CHECKED

On June 3, 1918, the German advance was finally checked by American troops in the Vaux Woods. According to reports from the front, enemy losses were very severe due to advantageous positions held by American troops and the withering fire of machine guns and "75's."

On the French front, Germans were making slight gains west of Nouvron and Fontenoy, but French troops started an advance of their own and retook Faverolles, north of Otrouq.

German submarine warfare against United States shipping off the eastern coast accounted for 12 ships up to June 3. It was announced. In addition to this activity, the subs sank mines off the Delaware Capes and accounted for the sinking of the tanker Herbert L. Pratt.

The Belgian foreign minister, Charles de Broqueville, resigned and was replaced by M. Cooreman, former president of the House of Representatives.

"Leap Year Bride"

(By NEA Service) By LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

BEGIN HERE TODAY Cherry DIXON, 19, and pretty, tells her mother she is going to a club meeting but instead meets DAN PHILLIPS, newspaper reporter with whom she is in love.

heir wealthy parents do not know she is acquainted with Dan. Cherry goes with him to interview a bank robber's sweetheart. She blunders into underworld headquarters and a bullet strikes her. Dan takes her to a doctor's office and then home. He is trying to explain what has happened when MR. DIXON appears. Dixon is very angry and brandishes a newspaper containing Cherry's picture and an account of the shooting. He orders Dan out of the house. Days pass in which Cherry has no word from Dan.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER VI SARAH entered the room breathlessly and shut the door behind her. Her round eyes foretold excitement.

The girl on the chaise longue did not turn. Her peach colored negligee pulled about the slender figure molded it gracefully. On her feet were small gold strapped sandals. "Is that you, Sarah?" the girl asked differently. "Yes, Miss Cherry." "Something in the woman's voice made Cherry Dixon raise her eyes. Before she could speak Sarah placed a finger to her lips, shook her head forebodingly and crossed to the chaise longue. Then, with Celtic instinct for the dramatic, she paused. "What is it, Sarah?" "Oh, darling! Wait till I tell you. It's not right, it isn't, and somebody'll pay for it! Out and out falsify'n and there's blacker words I could use. It's not right at all."

"What isn't right at all? What's happened?"

"Dan!" Cherry's eyes were flashing. "Then he did call!" "Yes, and not just this one time neither. After I'd learned that much Martha warmed up and admitted he's been telephoning her every day. Your mother wouldn't let Martha say anything about it and this morning she said if he called again Martha was to tell him you'd gone to New York."

"Oh, but Sarah—!"

"I know, darlin'. It's a black hame, that's what it is. As nice young fellow as you'd be findin' anywhere, too. It's your father that's behind it. Still in a temper about what happened the other afternoon?"

"But Sarah, if Dan think's I've come to New York he won't call any more! Maybe he'll think I didn't want to see him—maybe he'll blame me—!" "THE older woman nodded, agreeing soberly. "And what's to blame him?" she asked. "Young fellows don't like to be put off. They want that way in my day and I guess there's not much difference. It's too bad, honey, but we can't help it."

Suddenly Cherry had sprung to her feet. "I will help it!" she exclaimed. "They can't do this to me—they can't!" She stamped one of the small gold heels. "They've no right to tell lies and keep messages from me. I'm not a child any longer. I'm 19—!"

Sarah was on her feet, too, her eyes wide with alarm. She put her restraining hand on the girl's arm. "Quiet!" she begged. "Someone will hear you. You mustn't take it this way, Miss Cherry. You'll only make things worse!"

The girl drew back. Obediently her voice lowered but her expression was as determined as ever. "Don't," Cherry said. "Oh—!"

With a rush of sudden emotion—"don't you see what this means to me?" They're trying to make Dan think I don't care any longer. They're trying to make him forget me! Well, I won't let them do it, that's all! I won't let them! Come on—there's no time to lose. You'll have to help me—!"

Sarah's protests were useless. They fell on deaf ears. Repeatedly she warned the girl that her head, stocking, slippers. Sarah followed patiently, helping with fasteners.

"But what are you going to do?" she asked again. "Where are you going?"

Cherry pulled the brown felt over her head and gave it a tug. "Now listen," she said. "I'm going to find Dan. I'm going to tell him I haven't gone away and all the other things they told him were untrue. Now here's how you're to help me—"

THE conspiracy was planned quickly. Sarah, her white face an open revelation, made a reconnoitering expedition to the first floor. She returned to report that Mrs. Dixon was busy with callers. Martha was on duty in the front of the house but Cherry could escape unnoticed by descending the rear staircase and going out through the door that led to the garden.

Sarah's further part was to busy herself in the sewing room and if anyone inquired for Cherry to say the girl was asleep in her bedroom. "May the Lord have mercy on the two of us!" Sarah breathed fervently as Cherry put a hand on the doorknob.

The plan proved flawless. Within five minutes Cherry had reached the highway and was out of sight of the house. She walked the three blocks to the tiny drug store that exclusive Sherwood Heights not only tolerated but found invaluable. There she made two telephone calls. One was to Dan Phillips at the News office. The other was to a taxicab company.

Half an hour later the cab halted at a downtown street intersection. Cherry's face appeared, peering through the glass, and a tall young man clad in a gray suit strode out from the curb. He entered the cab.

"Oh, Dan, I was so afraid I'd miss you!" The girl's face was glowing, her eyes star-bright.

Phillips did not smile. "Well," he said evenly, "this is quite a surprise. I couldn't understand over the phone exactly what it was you were saying. Wasn't sure whether you said Fifth or Sixth street—"

His manner and voice were matter-of-fact, even a trifle aloof. There was nothing whatsoever about him to suggest the unwhipped, despairing suitor.

Strikingly, Radically New Phantom* Kotex

SANITARY NAPKIN (U. S. Pat. No. 1,857,854)

Most Important improvement in sanitary protection since the invention of Kotex itself in 1920.

AT LAST! A radically new design in sanitary protection. You are scarcely aware that you have it on. Made, of course, by Kotex—originators of the modern sanitary napkin. It is called PHANTOM* KOTEX. Why? Because the ends are so flattened and tapered that it leaves no outlines even under the closest-fitting of gowns. Not the slightest bulk suggested even under the filmiest of summer silks. And—for those who require extra protection—Super-Phantom Kotex is ideal. There's extra protective surface but the ends are so skillfully flattened as to be completely inconspicuous.

Kotex features retained The special Kotex features you have always appreciated are retained, of course. It is soft after hours of use; wonderfully absorbent; treated to deodorize; can be worn, with equal protection, on either side; disposable, easily. More than 24 million pads were used in hospitals alone last year. Insist upon getting genuine Kotex, when you buy it already wrapped. Each tapered end of the new pad is stamped "Kotex" now—so you can't get inferior substitutes. Kotex prices are today the lowest in Kotex history. This new improvement comes to you at no increase in price. All dealers have the new PHANTOM KOTEX.

HOW SHALL I TELL MY DAUGHTER? Many a mother wonders. Now you simply hand your daughter the little booklet entitled, "Marjorie May's Twelfth Birthday." STROM ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER

History of Memorial Day Reviewed by Local Attorney

That Memorial Day, in its final analysis, is a day set apart, not wholly by law but largely through the common wish of the people, to teach and to learn the lesson of true patriotism, was the thought expressed yesterday by Attorney T. E. Strom in a most excellent address before members of the Escanaba Rotary club.

"Memorial Day is not merely a day set apart to revere the memory of our dead heroes, but an annual occasion for the rededication of ourselves to a patriotism that is as necessary in time of peace as in the days of war, to insure the performance of the free government under which we live," said Mr. Strom.

The speaker pointed to Escanaba's magnificent observance of the Memorial holiday on Monday, as typical of the national attitude today, with its heightened interest in preserving traditions of the past, as a means of building a virile patriotism in the future.

Mr. Strom reviewed the history of the observance of Memorial Day beginning in the south during the days of the Civil war and established at a nationwide observance for members of the G. A. R. in 1868, through the now memorable order issued by General Logan. The speaker referred to the fact that in both the federal statutes and in the laws of Michigan, as the adoption of Memorial Day as a holiday is given but scant mention and emphasized the fact that the nationwide significance now given to the day has largely come about as an expression of the wishes of the people.

Mr. Strom's entire address was filled with food for thought that thoroughly impressed his audience, and when he concluded he was given an ovation that lasted for several minutes.

GARDEN NEWS

BUGS HURT RABBITS—Garden, Mich., May 31—A number of farmers, living east of town report that large numbers of rabbits are seen from time to time in such an emaciated condition that they fail to move when approached, allowing anyone to pick them up. An examination reveals the presence of what are called pinch bugs which almost bury themselves under the skin of the victim. The bugs are full of blood, after the manner of a well fed mosquito. It is believed that the rabbits never die from this cause, it is also believed that they are subject to an attack every season but it is stated that never before have they been found in such a weakened condition as during this springtime. Just how it will affect the coming hunting season, no one appears to know.

Simultaneously many motorists have noticed unusually large numbers of dead rabbits lying on the highways victims of automobile accidents. These accidents may or may not be due to the weakening effects of the presence of the bugs.

Twin Calves Born—Twin calves were born to a Durham cow owned by John Genesee of Fayette Sunday. As a result of the consultation it was learned that the patient was suffering from a bad attack of appendicitis and that she was in urgent need of an operation. She remained and underwent the operation Friday. Mrs. Mary Dotsch also accompanied the party and consulted physicians, finding it necessary to remain two weeks for treatment. Latest information is that both patients are progressing favorably. Mr. Dotsch and Allen returned to their home at Garden Saturday.

STOCKS SUFFER DECLINE AGAIN

STOCK MARKET AVERAGES

BY JOHN L. COOLEY (Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, May 31 (AP)—A rising tide of liquidation pounded against the security markets today, sparing virtually none of the highest grade stocks and few of the best bonds.

The average net loss for shares was 3.3 points, according to the standard statistics-Associated Press composite. Only once before this year—on March 31—had there been so large a shrinkage; and on a percentage basis today's decline was much sharper.

Heavy at the opening and through the noon hour, the market rallied when it learned that President Hoover had gone to the senate with a special message, but it quickly broke again, even before the manufacturers sales tax had been defeated in committee.

Senatorial efforts to pad out the revenue bill to meet larger requirements failed as a confidence restorative, even though it appeared, before markets closed, that enough additional income was in sight to balance the budget.

Losses in most pivotal stocks ranged from 1 to 3 points or more. American Telephone, closing at 88, duplicated its 1927 low and was off 3 5/8 net.

Allied Chemical of New York, down 3 1/4, Allied Chemical 3, American Tobacco "B" 4 1/4, U. S. Steel 1 1/4, Bethlehem Steel 2 1/4, General Electric 1 1/4, National Biscuit 1 1/4, Pennsylvania 1 1/4, Public Service of New Jersey and Corn Products, 2 5/8, United Gas Improvement 1 7/8 and Standard Oil of New Jersey 1 1/4 were some of the more conspicuous sufferers.

National Biscuit preferred dropped 9 on two sales.

LIQUIDATION CAUSES SETBACK TO BONDS

New York, May 31 (AP)—The bond market suffered severely today from liquidation that fell on the line thinly supplied with bids. Trading, amounting to $12,091,000 principal amount, was fairly active, although smaller than in some of the seasons' early last week.

Railroad obligations made heavy going of it, best grade issues being affected almost equally with the lower types. Santa Fe General 4s and Union Pacific First 4s showed respective net losses of 2 1/2 and 2 3/4 points.

Declines in the rail group ranged to an extreme of more than a dozen points. New Haven debenture 4s of 1927 slipped 13 on a single transaction, while the same group's 4s of 1926 were off 12. Norfolk and Western Consolidated 4s, a recognized investment issue, sagged 6 1/4.

New York Central 3 1/2, another prime carrier, was down 2, while Great Northern 4 1/2 tumbled 9 1/2. Kansas City Southern First 3s lost 9 1/2. Northern American 5s of 1921 slumped 7 points.

Steel 5s broke 11 1/4. The utility and industrial groups were very spotty. Foreign exchanges easy. Great Britain in dollars, others in cents. Curb Market Still On Downward Trend

New York, May 31 (AP)—The curb market was still in retreat today, along with other securities markets.

Utilities and Oils, as on the big board, were under considerable pressure. Some selling of these issues may have been prompted by the senate finance committee's proposal to tax electric power and gasoline, but the decline was well under way before these developments appeared on the financial news tickers.

The Cities Service issues again reflected the omission no dividends announced late Friday, but there was some recovery from the lowest. Cities Service Common actually rallied to close at 2, up 1-8 net. Cities Service Power and Light 7 per cent preferred dropped to 11, then rallied to close at 15, off 5-8 net. Empire Gas 7 & 8 per cent preferred issues sold at 6 and 7, respectively, then recovered to close at 10 1-2 and 10, off 1-2 point net for the former, and 5 points net for the latter.

Electric Bond and Share was off 5-8 to a new low at 5-5, while the preferred shares lost a point or so. American Gas and Electric, American Light and Traction, and Consolidated Gas of Baltimore lost around 5 points, and Columbia Gas preferred and Commonwealth Edison about 4.

FOREIGN EXCHANGES New York, May 31—Foreign exchange easy. Great Britain in dollars, others in cents. WARNEKE WINS VICTORY NO. 7

Chicago Retains Lead in National League Standings

Chicago, May 31 (AP)—Lonnie Warneke and the Cubs subdued the Cardinals and old Jess Haines 3 to 1 today to take the edge in the series and retain their two and one-half game margin over the Boston Braves for first place in the National League.

Warneke racked up his seventh victory of the season and hurled his ninth complete game of the campaign. He gave only six hits, one of which was a single by Haines himself which drove in the Cardinals' only run in the fifth. That was the only chance of scoring the world champions had.

Charlie Gelbert tripled to open the fifth and after Delker had gone out, Haines produced his hit. The Cubs tied it up in their half of the round when Riggs Stephenson singled, went to second on Grimm's sacrifice, and counted on hits by Hartnett and Bill Jurgas.

Jurgas started the drive that won the ball game in the eighth. He singled, and after Warneke went out, Johnny Moore slammed a double to center, scoring the winning run. Bill Herman followed with a single to add the extra one. Haines gave up only seven hits.

Manager Rogers Hornsby again was in right field, but his bat, which was the big factor in winning the second game yesterday, failed to do any damage.

LACOSTE BEATS SIDNEY WOOD

Helen Moody Pairs With Tired Partner and Is Eliminated

Auteuil, France, May 31 (AP)—Rene Lacoste, long the nemesis of American tennis hopes, returned from a three-year retirement today to spread destruction in the ranks of the United States contingent in the French championships.

The French cup veteran defeated young Sidney Wood, Jr., in a bitter five-set match, 6-0, 6-1, 6-8, 7-5, and, at the same time, assured America's defeat in the finals of mixed doubles.

Worn out from his grueling singles battle, Wood could offer Helen Willis Moody little assistance in the mixed doubles championship against Betty Nuthall and Frederick Perry. The English pair won, 6-4, 6-2.

The defeat could make a sweep of the three divisions in which she is entered.

Only three Americans, Mrs. Willis and Helen Jacobs in the women's division and Gregory Mangin in the powerful men's bracket now remain in the singles competition.

Mrs. Jacobs, the only one of the three to see action in singles today, scored a third round triumph over Doris Metaxa of France, 6-3, 6-3. She will face Mme. Rene Mathieu of France in a quarter final next tomorrow.

Mrs. Moody's next opponent will be Mlle. Lolette Payot of Switzerland.

Cincinnati Bows to Pittsburgh By 4-1

Pittsburgh, May 31 (AP)—Pittsburgh's Pirates scrambled into a tie for third place in the National League today, by trouncing the Cincinnati Reds, 4 to 1.

Larry French, Pirate southpaw, and Red Lucas went the distance. French allowed the Reds 10 hits, but he kept them scattered. The Bucs got six of their nine hits in the first two innings. That's why they won.

The score: R H E Cincinnati . . . 000 100 000—1 10 2 Pittsburgh . . . 310 000 00x—4 9 2 Lucas and Lombardi; French and Grace.

Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis, who also failed to finish, received $1,300 in lap prizes and $615 in consolation money. Ernie Triplett, Los Angeles, won $700 for leading the race seven laps, and $590 in consolation money.

The Speedway coronation divided $10,000 among the thirty drivers who finished behind the first ten. Phil Shafer of Des Moines, Ia., got the largest consolation check—$725. He had only three laps to go, or 7 1/2 miles, to complete the 500 miles.

RELAYS TROPHIES

White Sox "Pugs" Are Fined Total of $1,350

Cleveland, May 31 (AP)—The Memorial Day "battle of the runways" cost four of Chicago's pugacious White Sox a total of $1,350 in fines, and a ten-day suspension for one. It also resulted in a severe reprimand for George Moriarty, veteran umpire who offered "to fight the whole White Sox team."

Mentioning that he had never heard of such an incident in 21 years of baseball, William Harbridge, president of the American League, tonight suspended Milton Gaston, pitcher, for ten days and fined him $500. Leo Fonseca, manager, was fined $500; Charlie Berry, catcher, $250; and Frank Grube, catcher, $100.

The Sox coach, Johnny Butler, was suspended for five days without pay for using profane language during the double-header here yesterday in which Cleveland won both games.

Harbridge said the umpire's report indicated that Gaston was the only player actually involved in the fistfuffs in which Moriarty was flogged and cut by spikes after he had broken his hand on Gaston's jaw, flooring the pitcher.

Commenting on the decision, Fonseca tonight said Harbridge "is the boss. Whatever he says goes with me." Alva Bradley, owner of the Indians, was "very well pleased. It's a 100 percent job," he said. Billy Evans, general manager of the Indians, refused comment.

Moriarty could not be located. The Cleveland-Chicago game was marked by peace today in contrast to the hostility yesterday which was climaxed by the challenges to fight between Moriarty and the White Sox players.

The Chicago players involved in the fight all were in uniform today at the Cleveland-Chicago game, but Moriarty did not umpire.

Moriarty's absence was explained by Harbridge as due to injuries and because his conference with the league head lasted beyond game time.

The veteran American League umpire, whose baseball traditions extend to a rougher and burlier era, kept in seclusion all day nursing a fractured right hand and numerous bruises and abrasions. Gaston was the only other sufferer.

Boston Braves Win Final from Giants

Boston, May 31 (AP)—Southpaw Ed Brandt and Fritz Klotje enabled the Braves to salvage the final game of the series from the New York Giants today. Brandt limited the Giants to four hits but won his sixth game of the season.

Brandt and Klotje provided the winning runs with a homer with two on in the fourth. He also tripled to drive in another tally in the sixth.

The score: R H E New York . . . 010 010 000—2 4 1 Boston . . . 002 001 00x—7 11 0 Schumacher, Parmelee and Hogan; Brandt and Hargrave.

Leading Batsmen In Big Leagues

(By The Associated Press)
Ernie Lombardi, Cincinnati's clouting catcher, won official recognition of his right to contend with the other leading batsmen of the National League yesterday and stepped into second place in the circuit and third in the Big Six. He is just over the dividing mark of 100 times at bat.

Only the league leader, Paul Waner, did a better hitting job than the newcomer on his first day. Waner hit three out of four, sending his average up nine points to .333 while Lombardi hit twice in four tries. The other two Big Six players who were in action, Jimmie Foxx and Chick Hefey, made one hit apiece and lost ground.

The standing: R H E Foxx, Athletics . . . 151 45 63 .417 P. Waner, Pirates . . . 163 30 61 .393 Lombardi, Reds . . . 106 16 41 .337 Dickey, Yankees . . . 141 27 54 .382 Lazzari, Yankees . . . 106 19 38 .368 Hefey, Reds . . . 141 24 51 .362

Peace Reigns As Sox Beat Indians

Cleveland, May 31 (AP)—Peace reigned over the Cleveland ballpark today, in contrast to the Memorial Day hostility, as the Chicago White Sox defeated the Indians, 6 to 5.

Frank Grube, involved with three other members of the White Sox yesterday in a fight with Umpire George Moriarty, caught today, while Emmett Ormsby took Moriarty's place as umpire.

Averill hit a home run with one on in the ninth but it was not enough to overcome errors by Vosmik and Morgan in the sixth when the Sox scored five runs.

The score: R H E Chicago . . . 000 105 000—6 9 4 Cleveland . . . 000 030 002—5 13 2 Lyons and Grube; Brown and Myatt.

Approximately 2,000 horses will be at Washington park, Chicago, for its race meeting this spring.

TIGERS ENJOY DAY OF REST

Will Play Doubleheader With St. Louis Browns Today

St. Louis, May 31 (AP)—Although rained out of today's game with the St. Louis Browns by an old-fashioned Missouri storm that transformed Sportsman Park into a miniature swimming pool, the Detroit Tigers, still clinging to second place, enjoyed the day of rest.

The Bengals' lead over the third place Washington Senators, from which Detroit wrested second place Monday by taking two from the Browns while the Nats were dropping a pair to the Athletics, was diminished today when Walter Johnson's crew eked out a 12-inning win over Philadelphia.

Bucky Harris, boss of the Tigers, speculated at length on his team's success as he divided his attention between the dripping skies and returns of the eastern tilt, and declared there were two factors to which the climb could be attributed.

One is the surprisingly good pitching of his staff in recent games, and the second is the timely hitting of Charley Gehring and Johnny Stone.

While the performance of his star sluggers is not new, as they have combined all season to make life miserable for opposition twirlers, their consistency is pleasing to Harris to say the least.

The mound work of Tom Bridges and Izzy Goldstein has particularly impressed Harris. Bridges bore down in the pinches to blank the Browns in the second game of yesterday's tilt. Goldstein, who beat the White Sox last week, showed so well that Harris intends to start him tomorrow.

Vit Sorrell probably will work the first game of tomorrow's double-header, which was necessitated by the rain today, and Goldstein the second. They probably will be opposed by George Blaeholder and Irv (Bump) Hadley.

McMillan Defeats Lakefield, 14 to 13

McMillan, Mich., May 31 (Special)—Baseball rivalry between McMillan and Lakefield flared again Sunday afternoon when McMillan downed the Lakefield team by a score of 14-13.

The game was a hard fought, contest and was played on the Lakefield diamond. The score was tied in the first game. McMillan succeeded in scoring the winning run in the first half of the eleventh.

A week ago Sunday Lakefield put up a very creditable exhibition against McMillan in a well played game on the local diamond losing by a score of 11-10. In this game the score was tied in the 8th inning and remained tied until McMillan made the winning run in the eleventh.

Batteries for McMillan were: Painter and Goodman, for Lakefield; McLearn, Goldthorpe and Johnson.

Newberry lost to Hulbert Sunday by a score of 13-0. The game was played at Hulbert.

The schedule for the Central League games for Sunday, June 5 is as follows:
Grand Marais at Engadine.
Munising at Nautawing.
Gould City at Curtis.
Strongsville at Newberry.
Hulbert at McMillan.
Lakefield at Germfask.

Hagen and Leach, Visit Escanaba, Play Some Golf

Two celebrities of the sports world played golf at the Escanaba Golf club over the week-end. Tommy Leach, former major league baseball player who with Babe Adams is credited with winning the world series for the Pirates against the Tigers in 1909, visited in the city Monday, and Walter Hagen, noted golfer, was here yesterday.

Leach, a representative of the Bromo Seltzer company, of Chicago, is making a business tour of the upper peninsula, and played a round of golf during his stay here.

The mighty "Hag" has been spending several days fishing at the William Bonifas summer home on Lake Gogebic. He plans to return here within two weeks to give an exhibition at the golf course.

Orwell Favorite to Win 153rd Running of English Race

Epsom Downs, England, May 31 (AP)—The sun set in a blaze of many hues colors over the fast drying Epsom Downs tonight, where tomorrow 21 crack English three year olds will attempt to check the championship bid of the favorite, W. M. G. Singer's Orwell, in the 153rd running of the English Derby.

The prospect of rain is the greatest danger to Orwell's supremacy. His backers have put on him at the short odds of 2 to 1.

The field of starters was reduced to 22 today with the scratching of J. A. Dewar's Sunnybrough. Dewar won the race last year with Cameronian.

Lord Rosberry's Miracle is the second choice at 100 to 9. The others are the Aga Khan's Dastur, M. M. Bousass's Hesperus, Lord Woolavington's Cockpen and T. Walls' April the Fifth. E. Esmond's Royal Dancer, the only horse of the field ever to win a race over the Epsom course, is a 66 to 1 shot.

The only American horses in the race are Victor Emanuel's Totals and Richard Croker's Corey and Celebrator, all rank outsiders.

2 TRAINS WILL QUIT RUNNING

Nos. 121 and 210 to Be Eliminated Next Sunday, June 5

Official notice has been received by Postmaster George G. Genesse from the chief clerk of the railway mail service in Chicago that trains Nos. 121 and 210 will discontinue operations on the peninsula division of the Chicago and North Western railway Sunday, June 5.

Train 121 has been operating between Chicago, Powers and Iron River, but after Sunday it will have its northern terminus at Green Bay. Train 210 has been leaving Escanaba at 7 a. m. for Chicago. It is understood that the North Western railway will put on a new train to serve the "west end," leaving Escanaba at 3 a. m. and making connections at Powers with Train No. 101 enroute to Iron River.

This will result in a change in the schedule of the Star Route service, handled by the Jerry's Taxi truck between Escanaba and Powers. Effective Monday, June 6, the Star Route truck will leave Escanaba 6:30 a. m. with a load of mail for Powers, instead of making connections with Train 121 at Powers at 7:45 to receive mail for Escanaba.

Lack of patronage is the reason for the elimination of the two trains. Several days ago, the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce and the city council registered protests with the North Western railway, explaining that the elimination of Train 121 would severely cripple mail and passenger service to the detriment of Escanaba citizens. The two civic groups also asked, in the event the railway found it impossible to maintain Train 121, that it revise the schedule of Train 101, the Chicago-Ishpeming passenger, so that it would leave Chicago one hour later, thereby permitting the pick-up of a considerable volume of Escanaba-bound mail that is now missing the train. The North Western railway has not taken any action as yet on the latter request.

HENRY FORD ON UNEMPLOYMENT

I HAVE always had to work, whether any one hired me or not. For the first forty years of my life, I was an employe. When not employed by others, I employed myself. I found very early that being out of hire was not necessarily being out of work. The first means that your employer has not found something for you to do; the second means that you are waiting until he does.

We nowadays think of work as something that others find for us to do, call us to do, and pay us to do. No doubt our industrial growth is largely responsible for that. We have accustomed men to think of work that way.

In my own case, I was able to find work for others as well as myself. Outside my family life, nothing has given me more satisfaction than to see jobs increase in number and in profit to the men who handle them. And beyond question, the jobs of the world today are more numerous and profitable in wages than they were even eighteen years ago.

But something entirely outside the workshops of the nation has affected this hired employment very seriously. The word "unemployment" has become one of the most dreadful words in the language. The condition itself has become the concern of every person in the country.

When this condition arrived, there were just three things to be done. The first, of course, was to maintain employment at the maximum by every means known to management. Employment—hire—was what the people were accustomed to; they preferred it; it was the immediate solution of the difficulty. In our plants we used every expedient to spread as much employment over as many employes as was possible. I don't believe in "make work"—the public pays for all unnecessary work—but there are times when the plight of others compels us to do the human thing even though it be but a makeshift; and I am obliged to admit that, like most manufacturers, we avoided layoffs by continuing work that good business judgment would have halted. All of our non-profit work was continued in full force and much of the shop work. There were always tens of thousands employed—the lowest point at Dearborn was 40,000—but there were always thousands unemployed or so meagerly employed, that the situation was far from desirable.

When all possible devices for providing employment have been used and fall short, there remains no alternative but self-help or charity.

I do not believe in routine charity. I think it a shameful thing that any man should have to stoop to take it, or give it. I do not include human helpfulness under the name of charity. My quarrel with charity is that it is neither helpful nor human. The charity of our cities is the most barbarous thing in our system, with the possible exception of our prisons. What we call charity is a modern substitute for being personally kind, personally concerned and personally involved in the work of helping others in difficulty. True charity is a much more costly effort than money-giving. Our donations too often purchase exemption from giving the only form of help that will drive the need for charity out of the land.

Our own theory of helping people has been in operation for some years. We used to discuss it years ago—when no one could be persuaded to listen. Those who asked public attention to these matters were ridiculed by the very people who now call most loudly for some one to do something.

Our own work involves the usual emergency relief, hospitalization, adjustment of debt, with this addition—we help people to alter their affairs in common-sense accordance with changed conditions, and we have an understanding that all help received should be repaid in reasonable amounts in better times. Many families were not so badly off as they thought; they needed guidance in the management of their resources and opportunities. Human nature, of course, presented the usual problems. Relying on human sympathy many develop a spirit of professional indigence. But where co-operation is given, honest and self-respecting persons and families can usually be assisted to a condition which is much less distressing than they feared.

One of our responsibilities, voluntarily assumed—not because it was ours, but because there seemed to be no one else to assume it—was the care of a village of several hundred families whose condition was pretty low. Ordinarily a large welfare fund would have been needed to accomplish anything for these people. In this instance, we set the people at work cleaning up their homes and backyards, and then cleaning up the roads of their town, and then plowing up about 500 acres of vacant land around their houses. We abolished everything that savored of "handout" charity, opening instead a modern commissary where personal I O U's were accepted, and a garment-making school, and setting the cobblers and tailors of the community to work for their neighbors. We found the people heavily burdened with debt, and we acted informally as their agents in apportioning their income to straighten their affairs. Many families are now out of debt for the first time in years. There has appeared in this village not only a new spirit of confidence in life, but also a new sense of economic values, and an appreciation of economic independence which we feel will not soon be lost. None of these things could have been accomplished by paying out welfare funds after the orthodox manner. The only true charity for these people was somehow to get under their burdens with them and lend them the value of our experience to show them what can be done by people in their circumstances.

Our visiting staff in city work has personally handled thousands of cases in the manner above described. And while no one institution can shoulder all the burden, we feel that merely to mitigate present distress is not enough—we feel that thousands of families have been prepared for a better way of life when the wheels of activity begin turning again.

But there is still another way, a third way, so much better than the very best charitable endeavor that it simply forbids us to be satisfied with anything less. That is the way of self-help, which I shall discuss Thursday in this publication.

THE unemployed man is every one's concern, Henry Ford says—most of all the man's own concern. Being unemployed does not need to mean being out of work. There may be work even though one may not be hired to do it. Mr. Ford begins today a discussion of Employment, Charity and Self-Help as the three courses open to us in present conditions. He does not believe in routine charity because, he says, it is neither kind nor helpful. It does not get under the load or tackle the cause. He describes today a method he has followed. Thursday he will discuss Self-Help.
