ILLNESS MIGHT DELAY HEARING

Governor Roosevelt Informed Walker Is Sick in Bed

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 30 (AP)—A threat of additional delay in Governor Roosevelt's hearing of demands for the ouster of Mayor Walker of New York came today with word of the mayor's illness.

Mr. Roosevelt was informed Mayor Walker was in bed, suffering from nervous exhaustion and that whether the New York executive would ask for a second postponement of the hearing depended on his condition.

Linked with the uncertainty the possible postponement brought was the news that the governor's future procedure in the case would remain undisclosed until he again called the hearing to order at the scheduled hour on Friday.

The "dictates" of Court John W. Curtin, the mayor's counsel, shortly after Justice Staley made public his opinion last night, said Walker and himself would plan nothing "until we know what the governor proposes to do with regard to the dictates laid down by the court."

WETS OPPOSE GOV. BRUCKER

out but such prohibition measure as may come before the next state senate. We are therefore opposed to Dickson.

It was evident from the amount of scurrying back and forth by members of the committee that either debate or a lapsed consideration prefaced the announcement. Women members of the committee at times broke into two or three groups for private discussions.

Among those who attended were: Colonel Fred M. Alger, Detroit; Mrs. Alger, head of the women's organization; William G. Lewis, executive secretary of the Crusaders; Thomas McAlister, Grand Rapids; Wiley E. Reynolds, Jackson; Miss Evelyn Manahan, Saginaw; Dean Halford, Kalamazoo; B. H. Price, Jackson; Charles R. Bowman, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Detroit; Mrs. James S. Holden, Detroit; Mrs. G. A. Hendricks, Grand Rapids.

Governor Brucker announced his stand on the prohibition question several weeks ago when he declined to answer categorically a questionnaire submitted to him by the Crusaders and instead issued a statement. It read as follows:

"I stand unqualifiedly for the platform adopted by the Republican national convention in Chicago. My personal views are well known and remain unchanged. As an American and a Republican, I believe in the rule of the majority. It necessarily follows that I favor submission of the question as outlined in my party platform and I shall faithfully interpret and carry into effect the will of the people once it is expressed.

The decision of the joint committee was hailed with delight by opponents of Brucker but in his own camp it was claimed it was "a good thing." K. F. Clark, member of the public utility commission and Brucker supporter, said it would have been bad had Brucker been endorsed. R. Wayne Newton, secretary of the state unemployment commission and a Brucker aide, questioned whether the committee spoke for all the wetters and wondered whether it will not have to answer the charge that it is a Democratic campaign organization. Governor Brucker was in Battle Creek.

Welsh To Explain How To Eliminate Tax On Property

Flint, Mich., Aug. 30 (AP)—George W. Welsh, former city manager of Grand Rapids and now a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, told an audience estimated at 1,000 persons here tonight that before the campaign ends he will explain how the state property tax can be eliminated without substitution of any other form of taxation.

Speaking in the home city of William H. McKeighan, mayor of Flint and an opponent for the nomination, Welsh said he had introduced the property tax abolition issue "to see if any of the other candidates were smart enough to figure it out."

The result, he said, has been "adoption of the same issue by some of the other candidates who do not know how to do it, and denials by the state administration that it could be done."

Haizlip, New King of Speed Fliers, Greeted At Cleveland Airport

BY B. L. LIVINGSTONE (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Cleveland, Aug. 30 (AP)—Jimmy Haizlip, new speed king of the national air races, tore in from New York at a 238-mile an hour gas today and plunged into predictions and plans for more and more speed.

Haizlip, his shirt wringing wet after his flight from New York, where he landed yesterday with a new transcontinental record of ten hours, nineteen minutes, mopped his brow and said the Atlantic and Pacific may possibly be brought within eight hours of each other next year.

Amelia Greets Him "In the high speed trophy race Labor Day, I expect the winning speed to be near 250 miles," he said to Mrs. Putnam, who smiled but shook her head.

Mrs. Mae Haizlip, a noted pilot in her own right, was first on the field when her husband's powerful low wing monoplane roared to a landing.

Congratulating Haizlip were Senator Hiram Bingham and Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam.

"It was just a breakfast hop compared with yours," Haizlip said to Mrs. Putnam, who smiled but shook her head.

There isn't much chance though of a Haizlip transoceanic flight for "mother, here, would probably finish that off in a hurry," Mrs. Haizlip said.

Aside from Haizlip's arrival, the army was the center of attention at the races while the high speed kings were grooming their mounts for annual assault to come later upon world marks.

Only one flyer took to the air for the qualifying round for the Labor Day trophy race. He was Ben O. Howard, Chicago and Kansas City air mail pilot, who wheeled his little home made monoplane out of its hangar and after a few warming up circuits, whizzed two times each way over the three kilometer course for an average of 294.653 miles an hour.

His speed was good enough to qualify for the Thompson international free-for-all, but short of the world mark of 278.48 miles an hour which is expected to be broken this year.

Major James H. Doolittle, whose 1931 transcontinental record was broken yesterday by Haizlip, did a "test hop" in his barrel-shaped red and white monoplane, but did not negotiate the three kilometer course.

Haizlip and Roscoe Turner, of Hollywood, Calif., both members of the team of James Wedell, of New Orleans, planned to try their mounts on the course later in the week.

Sixty-one planes of the U. S. Army first pursuit group from Selfridge Field, Mich., gave the crowd a thrill with its maneuvers. The 17th pursuit squadron led off with a simulated ground strafing attack on the business section of Cleveland. At the field the 17th and 94th squadrons, with four bombers, joined in the demonstration.

Indianapolis, Aug. 30 (AP)—A feeble 74-year-old man looked on in federal court today as his three sons were sentenced to long prison terms for making counterfeit money, which federal authorities here described as the most perfect they had ever seen.

Fay of Niles, Mich., was sentenced to five years in the same institution. Wife Ill, Husband Applies For New Marriage License

Detroit, Aug. 30 (AP)—Life is uncertain at best, reasoned George Burger, 43, so with his wife ill and five children needing a mother's care, he went down and applied for another marriage license, just in case.

That, at least, was the explanation police said Burger gave when they investigated a complaint that he was planning another marriage without the formality of a divorce from his present wife.

It was just foresteadiness, he said, to eliminate the five days of delay required by law between application for and issuance of a marriage license, should anything happen to his wife.

Mrs. Burger was much surprised to learn of her husband's foresight. So was Miss Estelle Mosok, 24, named in the license application as the prospective bride. She said it must be a mistake.

Burger was inclined to agree with her when police held him on suspicion of perjury.

State Will Forge Ahead, Says Brucker

Battle Creek, Mich., Aug. 30 (AP)—Governor Wilbur M. Brucker told a luncheon audience here today that "Michigan is sound and will forge ahead."

Michigan, he said, has been "definitely on the upgrade during the past month, for the first time in two and a half years."

The governor said that the state has kept welfare work and politics separate. "We have provided all welfare aid needed," he asserted, "without the vicious dose system."

Cloudy Weather On Detroit for Eclipse

Detroit, Aug. 30 (AP)—Ominous forecasts of "partly cloudy" tonight darkened hopes of southern Michigan residents for an unimpeded view tomorrow afternoon of the greatest astronomical spectacle since 1925.

A. W. Walstrom, in charge of the local weather bureau, could offer nothing better than "unsettled." But, he said, weather conditions may be bad in the morning and fine by afternoon.

The show, if cloud conditions permit it to be seen, will offer 55 per cent obscuration in the Detroit vicinity. The eclipse starts at 2:10:34 p. m. Eastern Standard Time here, reaches its climax at 3:22:26, and will be over at 4:31:04.

McAdoo Leading In Senatorial Race

San Francisco, Aug. 30 (AP)—A pronounced lead for William G. McAdoo in the six-sided race for the Democratic senatorial nomination, and a Republican race in which Senator Samuel Shortridge was running fourth in a field of five for the same office was shown in first returns from the state primary election today.

McAdoo, who helped to turn the tide in favor of Franklin D. Roosevelt in the Democratic national convention by suggesting a switch of California and Texas votes from John N. Garner to the New York governor, had more votes than the other five combined in 346 complete and incomplete precincts out of 10,531 in the state. Returns gave him 4,418 votes.

Justus S. Wardell, Roosevelt supporter in the state presidential primary, was second with 2,985; the Rev. Robert P. Shuler, Los Angeles 474, third with 1,309; and P. M. Abbott, who headed the Alfred E. Smith ticket in the may preference voting, fourth with 211. Annie Riley Hale, author and lecturer, trailed with 54.

(Continued from Page One) lowing the shooting accused the officers of shooting him without provocation. He denied he was attempting to escape, saying that the only movement he made was to raise his arm in an attempt to ward off blows from a piece of rubber hose.

He said that he clung to one of the officers for protection. Finally, he said, this officer "tore away from me and shot me."

Prosecutor Harry S. Toy, in recommending the warrant, said the coroner's jury by its verdict had "discounted" evidence tending to accuse the officers of using third degree methods.

SCIENTISTS HOPE TO SOLVE SOME BIG PROBLEMS

(Continued from Page One) all colors. Solar Prominences "The chromosphere" describes the same layer of atmosphere which produces the "flash" spectrum. The photosphere is the sun's surface, and the big word is used to name it because its glow is thought to come not merely from a thin layer of surface but from all the incandescent matter down to a considerable depth.

The "folar prominences" are towers of flame that mushroom thousands of miles high like volcanic clouds. They are visible to the eye, rose colored, and often having goblin shapes. The shadow bands, which several expeditions will try to catch by photographing their passage across sheets, are ripples of light produced at the bottom of the ocean of air the same as light ripples show on the bottom of a lake. Their existence is sometimes attributed to optical illusion.

The astronomers are focusing literally dozens of invisible ray catching devices on the corona, the "flash" and all the other eclipse sights. What these invisible rays record may give the key to a dozen long sought polar puzzles.

The planet Mercury, which even astronomers seldom see, will be visible during totality low in the western sky. Jupiter is expected to blaze out as a light house beam close to the sun.

Eclipse press agents have ballyhooed the bright star Spica, also visible close to the sun, as a good omen because for 2,000 years it has been called the "Prosperity Star."

The application of this principle precludes the consideration of charges dealing with a transaction of his personal affairs, not within the scope of affecting official action.

Curtin, in twelve days of argument before the governor, contended that either the governor or Seabury should produce the Hofstadter committee witness for cross-examination; that at least ten of the fifteen charges of Seabury were based on alleged acts before the mayor took office and that bank accounts involved in the case were of a purely personal nature, without relation to Walker's public life.

Marriage Nears End

The approaching end of the marriage of Bobbie Arnt, musical comedy actress, and Johnny Weissmuller, actor, and swimmer, was announced in Los Angeles by her attorney, who said she would sue for divorce.

SENATOR DAVIS DENIES CHARGE

(Continued from Page One) plication is itself a refutation of these charges." As the senator left the courtroom, he was asked if he would say anything about the request of Governor Gifford Pinchot, following his indictment, that he withdraw from the senate race in Pennsylvania.

"No comment," he said. The Davis and Miller pleas followed those of five other men and the Western Union Telegraph company last week in connection with the lottery case. Federal investigators charge that lotteries were conducted by fraternal organizations for charitable projects.

While Senator Davis was waiting in the federal building, he was served with a summons in a $35,000 damage suit brought by Morris Harmelin, whose attorney said his release from the Atlantic penitentiary on a term for mail fraud was deferred 14 months because Davis, then secretary of labor, certified he was an alien. The lawyer said Harmelin had proof of American citizenship.

HITLER'S AIDE NEW SPEAKER OF REICHSTAG

(Continued from Page One) ed by the fact that not one representative of them was elected to a seat in the presidium. Former Speaker Paul Loebe, socialist leader, who presided over the Reichstag 12 years, was defeated repeatedly in the votes for presidium seats.

The Reichstag session was held after President Von Hindenburg at Neudeck, East Prussia, had announced "complete accord" with the economic program and political plans of Chancellor Von Papen's Junker government.

After conferring with the chancellor, who visited his estate, the president decided to dissolve the Reichstag just as soon as it attempts to cross the plans of the cabinet.

It is most likely that Herr Von Papen will tell the members of the legislature next week that they must pack their trunks and go home unless—as is rumored in Reichstag lobbies—they decide to behave.

The legislature adjourned subject to the call of the speaker.

COTTON CLOTH TO BE ORDERED Delta County Red Cross Will Ask for Share for the Needy

Plans are being made by the Delta county Red Cross chapter to apply for a consignment of government-owned cotton cloth to be used in providing clothing and wearing apparel for the needy of this county. An act of Congress authorizing the transfer of 500,000 bales of cotton to the Red Cross was approved by the president July 6. A meeting of the local Red Cross officials will be held this week to determine the needs of this community so that an order may be sent for a supply of the cloth.

The quantity of cotton available is limited, and only material by the yard will be furnished at this time, including prints, gingham, muslin, outing flannel, shirting and birdseye. It is planned to work with women's organizations and 4-H garment clubs here to have the material made into clothing for distribution to needy families. Women's and children's dresses, children's wash suits, men's and boys' shirts, slips for women and girls, night clothing for men, women and children and infants, diapers are the articles to be made out of the cloth. Thread, buttons, tape, bindings and other supplies are not included in the consignments, and must be furnished by the organizations making the clothing.

THREAT TO PEACE

SPEAKING before the Escanaba Kiwanis club about ten years ago, not long after he had returned from world war service with the American Railway Engineers in Manchuria and Russia...

Mr. Summers' remarks were timely in view of the fact that the Lytton commission, which was sent to the Far East by the League of Nations to investigate and try to settle the Sino-Japanese dispute over Manchuria...

Japanese officials have intimated that if the Lytton commission's report is unfavorable, Japan is likely to resign from the League and announce a "Monroe Doctrine" for the Far East.

Nationalism, or the spiritual ideal of a nation, is expressed in various ways. Our own spirit of democracy appears to us as worthy of emulation.

General Araki interprets Japanism as being essentially a pacific spirit embodying the principles of justice and righteousness. Having peace as its highest ideal, this national spirit must be devoted to its attainment.

In the application of Japanism, General Araki interprets the nation's activities in Manchuria and Mongolia as guided wholly by this fundamental spirit of the Japanese Empire.

Thus we have another nationalism seeking expression, which General Araki asserts "must be propagated over the seven seas and extended over the five continents."

This means nothing but Japanese domination, a Japanese dictated peace, imposed by conquest if necessary and envisages the eventual obliteration of all occidental hegemony in the Far East.

DOYLE PRAISED (Powers-Spalding Tribune) THE most certain and definite test of a man's ability, willingness, character and qualifications are in the position he holds in the eyes of his close associates, neighbors and employers.

Menominee county has placed a candidate in the field for State Senator of the Thirtieth District for the first time in nearly thirty years. That man is W. F. "BILL" DOYLE.

It is not often that the publisher becomes so extremely enthusiastic over an impending campaign as to direct a special message of this nature to the voters of this county—and to the other counties in the district.

Let us look into the background of Menominee county's candidates and decide for ourselves whether he is entitled to the unanimous support of the voters or not.

"Bill" Doyle has had vast experience for one as young as he. From high school, as a boy in his teens, he went out into the world to make his own future.

As an ambitious youngster he went west to seek his fortune. He knows what hard manual work is; he harvested in the wheat fields of Dakota; he spent many summers on the farms of Menominee county, weeding sugar beets, and milking cows.

In the business world, he cast his lot with the newspaper men. As a "cub" reporter, he was active, alert to things going on, fearless in his writings but always possessed that element of fairness and humanness so lacking in many people today.

His former employer, the publisher of the Marinette Eagle-Star paid him a glowing tribute in a recent editorial. He recommended him highly to the people of Menominee.

And today, his associates at the Lloyd Manufacturing Company where he holds a responsible position are the leading proponents in his campaign for the State Senate.

He is not a politician. He has never been in politics before. He has never sought public office. He did not seek this office. He

(By NEA Service) BY H. W. CORLEY

CHAPTER XXXVI

"ARE you going to marry me or aren't you?" asked young Dr. Allen beseechingly.

"The jury is still out," Lottie answered. They were standing at the rail in Bridgetown Harbor, looking across the stretch of water to the shore. The deck was deserted.

"Going to the dance tonight?" pursued the doctor.

"Perhaps." Her eyes ignored the earnest young man at her elbow and sought little bobbing specks on the water which were growing larger.

"Diving boys!" she exclaimed. Though the Miranda had been met in the same way in every port Lottie never tired of watching them.

"There are girls too," said Dr. Allen.

"Girls? It's the first port where I've seen women diving!"

"There were girls in the boats, sure enough."

"Maybe they won't dive," suggested the doctor. "Maybe the lads just brought them along for scenery."

"The girls at the moment were not diving. There were three of them, clad in bathing suits of scarlet, lavender, and green. Each was seated in a small boat with her own flock of boy divers."

"Do you dive?" called Lottie, holding forth an American quarter. The girl in blue looked up and folded her arms.

"Sure," she said scornfully, without moving.

"Two shilling, mistress! Two shilling!" one of her escorts explained.

"THE doctor produced two shillings and flung them toward the girl, who arose and dived gracefully from the boat. She emerged in a moment holding the money aloft and striking out for her boat with swift, clean-cut strokes.

"She doesn't swim as well as the boys," remarked the doctor.

"Want your money back?" Lottie's voice was ingeniously curious.

"Look who's here!" She pointed toward the shore where a tiny boat, urged forth by small shingles held in the hands was practically drafted into service.

It is Menominee county's one chance to show that it has real Senatorial timber. When Bill Doyle closes his legislative career, this county will be happy to say:

"He comes from Menominee county."

of its occupant, was leaving the quay. The tiny figure in the perilous bark was another girl, her head flaunting a magnificent bandanna of black and white. The girl was driving her boat rapidly toward the Miranda. She was a novice at handling the bark apparently, but there could be no doubt about her eagerness to reach the steamer.

Presently an agitated parade reached the jetty, headed by a tiny, half-naked, black boy. They selected a boatsman, jumped in the boat he proffered and were after the girl. She turned her head, spied them and redoubled her efforts, splashing through the water frantically.

As she reached the flotilla of native boats it was clear that she was an alien. The natives refused to make way for her and, tossing aside her paddle, the girl rose, poised and cleft the water sharply.

Abruptly she came to the surface again and swam toward the companion ladder.

She extended a hand, caught the chain and pulled herself aboard, pushing aside the perplexed quarter-master and running up the ladder.

"Hey, come back! No girls allowed aboard!" he expostulated.

The girl paused to thrust a tongue at him and waved a browned arm toward Lottie. Just as she gained the deck the pursuers reached earshot and the girl ducked through the smoking room, disappearing down the stairs.

"More power to her!" laughed Lottie. "I wonder what's happened!"

opened! Look—the old lady looks wild!"

"THE boat had reached the ship now and the old lady in it did indeed 'look wild.' Probably she was not very old. She wore the native costume of Martinique and announced that she was nurse for Mademoiselle, who had stolen a boat from a native boy and climbed aboard the boat."

"What's this, what's this?" asked the captain, appearing from the crew's quarters suddenly.

"Why, Maria, what's up?" Maria, her gold earrings jangling, was hastily climbing the companion ladder. Her long skirt was carefully held so that her beautifully trimmed underkirt would show.

"Mademoiselle, she, come aboard!" the woman explained angrily. "She run away, I could not stop her!"

"Is Celeste aboard?" The captain broke into hearty laughter.

"Her father and mother are aboard, you know. They are going to Demerara. What's wrong with that?"

It appeared there was a great deal wrong with it. Mademoiselle had left her home in Martinique for the purpose of spending a few months in Barbados to learn English.

"And to forget the American Monsieur. You recall the American?"

Captain Lang recalled him, apparently, for he nodded.

Mademoiselle had hoodwinked the household. They had hidden her clothes that she might not board the boat, so here she was in her bathing suit. The native boy had been rudely shoved out of his little shell and he had not liked that.

Lottie watched the boy guide his boat back to shore, richer by several shillings donated by the sympathetic Maria. "I wonder what will happen to the girl!"

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch

(Copyright 1932 by Douglas Malloch)

AT LEAST I must succeed at least in these— The little matters near at hand. Some fortune fair I may not seize, But I at least can understand Some struggling soul, some saddened heart, At least can play some little part.

I must succeed at least in this: If not in great, in little deeds. Perhaps a man success may miss, Falls most, who thinks he most succeeds, If he has let the small things go That might have lightened someone's woe.

I must succeed at least in these. The little things that mean so much. The daily opportunities To sweeten other lives I touch. Though mine be neither fame nor feast, I shall have done this much at least.

I must succeed at least in this. I must succeed in little ways. There is more kindness in a kiss Than all the velvet wealth displays. Though greater deeds the great may boast, The least may have succeeded most.

Quotations

The modern boy does not assume a pose because he thinks it is the thing to do. He lacks the sheeplike quality of former generations, and has more independence, less hypocrisy, and more real honesty.

I think I'll feel perfectly at home in the White House.

—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of Democratic presidential nominee.

The presidency is a man's job. Governor Roosevelt evidently looks upon it as a combination of the nursery and Coyn's financial school.

—Senator George H. Moses, Republican, of New Hampshire, New York, as a whole, is not rotten.

—Samuel Seabury, who conducted the investigation into Mayor Jimmy Walker's conduct as mayor of New York.

I don't want amendments. I don't want an investigation. I want to kick the devil out of the Farm Board.

U. S. Senator Isaac Stephenson, who started on his annual fishing trip down the Escanaba river Tuesday with a party of friends, suddenly became ill yesterday meeting at the camp near Watson. The nature or seriousness of the illness is not known.

Thomas Shaw, for many years a resident of Escanaba, died suddenly yesterday at Bonifas, near Watermeet, where he was employed as bookkeeper for the William Bonifas Lumber company.

John Hhea, formerly of Neguinee and now of Los Angeles, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ward.

When Theodore Farrell, veteran engineer for the North Western road on the Peninsula division, arrives in Escanaba at two o'clock this afternoon he will have made his final run for the North Western railway. He has reached the retirement age of 70.

Complete returns from all counties of the state show that Amos S. Muggsman of Grand Rapids has been nominated by the Republicans for governor over Frederick C. Martindale of Detroit.

McMILLAN NEWS

Youths Return
McMillan, Mich.—Hugh Uhlbeck, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith of McMILLAN, his guests, James Smith of Detroit and Fred Koepfgen also of Detroit have returned home following a thrilling trip from McMILLAN to St. Ignace made entirely by canoe via the Tahquamenon river, Lake Superior, the St. Mary's river and Lake Huron.

During an extended visit here last winter, James constructed his own canoe. A craft eleven and one-half feet made of cedar entirely by himself.

Not wishing to be bothered with any excess luggage, the boys took with them only bedding and food, making their canoes serve the purpose of tents during the night.

Portaging both the Big and Little Falls was no hardship for three sturdy young lads and they were soon back on the river headed for Emerson. Here a delay caused by lake winds proved profitable and interesting to the adventurous spirits.

While in the Sault, information was given them to the effect that it would be impossible to go from the Sault to De Tour by canoe, however undaunted they pushed on and at the end of another day they landed at Nubish Island and on the Canadian side.

Leaving Emerson, they landed at the Sault Ste. Marie three days later, just a week from the time they left home. At the Sault they encountered their first misfortune. Hugh lost his paddle.

On securing a new one they paddled through the Soo locks in the wake of a large freighter. The contrast between the canoes and the freighter provided amusement to a large number of spectators and the boys received their share of the fun out of their unusual experience.

Dr. A. L. Laing, M. D. has fully recovered from recent illness and has been attending to patients at the Laing Hospital

nance Sunday morning two weeks from the day they started, genuinely satisfied with what they called "the time of their lives."

Garner Makes Issue of Hoover Fish Catching

How many fish should a man catch, if any? To what school of fishermen do the anglers of Escanaba belong—the Republican, headed by President Hoover, or the Democratic, over which Vice Presidential Candidate John N. Garner presides?

Recently on a fishing trip, President Hoover was the subject of many front page stories after official bait? Garner shares the feeling of former President Coolidge, who also was a formal fisherman, i. e., live bait is better than artificial devices.

"If fish are foolish enough to bite at artificial bait," says Candidate Garner, "they ought to be caught."

Coolidge preferred worms with which he found he could fool most of the fish most of the time. How do the fishermen of Escanaba stand on worms?

It may be necessary, in order to decide the leading questions at hand, to send out a reporter to interview a small school of the fish themselves and ask them

Garner... "When you've got enough fish for yourself, or your party, it's time to stop."

He made tremendous inroads on the finny population. Significantly, Speaker Garner came forth with a ponderous statement about that time.

"I don't believe in slaughtering the fish or catching them just to count them," he said. "When you have got enough for yourself or your party—four or six—it's time to stop."

The Democratic theory of fish-catching evidently is aimed to catch the vote of those who believe in leaving a few fish in the water for a rainy day. And the Republican fishing slogan seems to be, "Prosperity is just around a bend in the river."

There are other serious marks of difference between the two schools of fishermen. How shall a man dress to appeal to a fish? President Hoover wears his usual double-breasted suit when he goes out to meet the fish. This is topped by a chaste white collar of pre-war vintage. The headgear is a felt hat. He wears hip boots, too, and wades right out among the fish and gets friendly.

Candidate Garner's appearance is entirely different. When he goes down to the sea with fish-hooks he wears no man's collar. The speaker goes in his shirt sleeves, with suspenders to hold up his trousers.

Should one use live bait or artificial bait? Hoover... "Here we have a common pastime both utilitarian and diverting, exhilarating and economic."

DRASTIC CUTS ARE PROPOSED

Amendment Would Limit All Purpose Taxes To 15 Mills

Appearing on the November ballot will be two proposed amendments to the Michigan constitution, one limiting the property tax for all purposes to 15 mills for all government subdivisions, and another providing for $1,000 exemption on household goods and $3,000 on homesteads. Escanaba residents who have taken the trouble to study these proposed changes are warning voters that both are "loaded with dynamite," and that some or all government subdivisions in Escanaba will suffer greatly if the amendments pass.

It is declared that if the 15 mills property tax is approved by voters it will result in nothing short of chaos to government in this state. The amendment states: "The total amount of taxes assessed against property for all purposes in any one year shall not exceed 1 1/2 per cent of assessed valuation."

An exception is made on taxes levied for the payments of interest and principal on "obligations heretofore incurred, which sum shall be separate in all cases."

Permission under the amendment is also given electors of any assessing district by a two-thirds vote to increase the limitation for a period of not to exceed five years at any one time to not more than a total of five per cent of the assessed valuation. By municipal charter amendment the limitation may likewise be increased.

In Escanaba last year the tax rate was $61.44, of which $4.27 went to the state, $12.51 to the county, $17.01 to the schools, $4.00 for the county road, and $13.65 for the city summer tax.

If the 15 mill amendment passes, without any other suitable provision being made for taxation, it will mean that Escanaba will be able to collect less than one-third of the taxes it collected last year. If the exemption amendment passes, it will mean the tax collections will fall even lower. Many who are now taxpayers will be removed from the tax rolls.

The city tax rate this year was $12.65, the lowest it has been in about 15 years. If the 15 mill amendment passes, the total property tax next year will be $15 per thousand. The amendment provides for no division of tax money. It is therefore obvious that if the state takes $4.27, the county $12.51, the school $17.01 and the county road $4.00, the city will have less than nothing with which to operate. At least this is the interpretation placed on the amendment by Escanaba citizens, and those who have looked into the matter are opposed to the amendments unless some other tax medium is found to compensate for the drastic reduction in property tax.

Sept. 13 Ballots Ready for Voters

Ballots enough for nearly 20,000 voters, Democratic and Republican, have been received at the Delta county clerk's office, and are being apportioned out for delivery with other election supplies to the various townships and precincts in the county, ready for the primaries Sept. 13.

The supply for this election includes 9,000 Democratic ballots and close to 11,000 Republican. In addition, voters in the city of Escanaba will have a special election ballot on which they will vote for a justice of the peace to succeed the late J. S. Doherty. Six candidates are seeking the position.

The number of ballots sent to each township and precinct are based on estimated needs compiled from registration lists and voting figures at previous elections.

Home Canning Means Health In Winter Days

Gardens are the vogue these days. Leaders are recognizing the importance of home grown food as a constructive factor in America's economic life. Last year through private contribution sustenance gardens as industrial and community projects were given great impetus through the appointment of garden specialists in five industrial states—Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana. In each state the activity is under the supervision of the state agricultural extension service. In these states alone there are conservatively about 175,000 supervised home gardens.

Many families will be better nourished this winter than ever before because of these gardens. When fall comes, little boys and girls will go to school with fresh rosy cheeks and bodies stored with health and sunshine. Those interested in providing families with food cannot think of these gardens only as summer sources of food. Some of the minerals and vitamins and calories in these foods must be stored away for winter use. If the winter is to be faced without hardship and the family's all too small income is to be stretched to buy any necessities, home canning will preserve many of these choice garden products for winter use and will add to the pleasure and nutritional value of many meals.

Home orchards as well as the markets are filled with lovely fresh fruits all during the summer. "Eat fruits twice daily" recommends the Bureau of Home Economics at Washington. This is not such a difficult problem for some families during the summer months but in the winter they face difficulty.

If the family budget is too limited to supply one fresh fruit each day, two servings of fruit daily for each individual must come from home canned fruits. Peaches and pears are fruit favorites and should be chosen to fill a large portion of the fruit jars. A bushel of peaches will fill about 18 quart jars. A bushel of pears will fill at least 30 quart jars. The canning of peaches and pears is a simple matter. Pour boiling water over peaches leaving it only long enough to loosen the skins. Plunge peaches at once into cold water. Then remove skin and let stand in cold water to keep from discoloration until ready for cooking. Peaches may be jar cooked or they may be cooked in the open kettle. A syrup of 3 cups of sugar to 1 cup of water is used. To improve flavor add one peach pit to each jar of fruit.

Pears are usually canned when slightly underripe. They are pared and cored and then dropped at once into a cold salt water bath made in the proportion of one tablespoon of salt to one quart of water. This is to keep them from discoloring. Boil the pears gently in a syrup made with 2 cups of water, partly sealed and processed for 20 minutes. Then remove from canner and seal immediately. A few jars of many kinds of fruit will provide a great variety when winter comes.

The frugal housewife will watch the daily market to take advantage of the best prices for good sound fruit. Home canning has returned in full force to most American homes.

Steam Pressure Cooker Needed

Has someone a large steam pressure cooker which the ladies of the First Presbyterian church might use in their community canning? A small one is now in use but this holds only two or three quarts at a time and another, or a larger one would save much time in the Wednesday canning. If you are able to assist in the community canning project in this manner call the church any time after 8:30 o'clock this morning and arrangements will be made to call at your home for the cooker.

RESISTANCE STIFFENS
On Aug. 31, 1918, German resistance to the great allied offensive in northern France stiffened enough to hold their gains for the day to a fraction of the sweeping advances accomplished on the two previous days.

Nevertheless, important gains continued to be made, and Canadian troops stormed Mt. St. Quentin and the British took Marrieres Wood and some of the high ground beyond it.

British troops also stormed Kemmel Hill in a desperate battle which had its climax in hand-to-hand fighting. American forces pushed forward in the vicinity of Juvigny, despite increased resistance.

LIKES REAL LIFE
Life in itself is ever so much lovelier in reality than it is in her fiction, according to Helen Grace Carlisle, young New York author who has four successful novels to her credit. Miss Carlisle, who is marrying James M. Reid, a textbook editor, is strongly in favor of a home and family. She herself served as one of Miss Anne Morgan's youngest workers in the relief work she undertook at Soissons. She was a nurse in Paris before this, later worked as a secretary in an investment house, studied dramatics and appeared on the professional stage, and then became a novelist. She maintains that these experiences have given her the proper adjustment which encourages her to want a family.

BROTHERS TAKE HELM OF LEGION

The affairs of the August Mattison Post No. 71, American Legion will rest largely in the hands of two brothers during the coming year. At the meeting of the Legion on Monday night the post elected Fred Schram as its commander and Sylvester Adjutant of Post.

Other officers elected included A. D. Alguire and Romeo Boyer, vice commanders; Ernest DeHooghe, finance officer; Percy Cameron, chaplain; Joe Sturgeon, historian; Ed Skippar, sergeant at arms; H. J. Skogquist, welfare officer; and George Peoples and Tom Wurts, members of the executive committee. All officers of the post were elected without opposition.

The new commander has an impressive record as a Legionnaire, having been one of the early members of the local post and having been one of its best workers both as an individual member and as an officer. For the past year he served the post as vice commander, and for two years he was adjutant.

During the war he served 14 months, 10 of which were spent overseas. He was attached to the 33rd Infantry in the 88th division during the early part of his service but was transferred to the 352nd Infantry, 88th division, and with this organization he sailed to the war zone. He gained the rank of corporal.

The new adjutant spent his war service on the Mexican border, serving there with a cavalry outfit for three years. He was rated a first sergeant.

The new officers will be installed at a meeting to be held on the evening of Sept. 19, and will immediately launch the Legion program for the next year.

The retiring officers of the post have made a record of achievement during the past year that exceeds previous efforts. Membership of the post was more than doubled, activities were increased and meetings of the post resulted in new accomplishments.

Retiring officers include Albert Madden, commander; Gale Westcott, adjutant; Eugene Noblet, finance officer; Gust Lierman, sergeant at arms; and Shirley Davis, member of the executive committee. Other officers were either re-elected or promoted in rank.

An excellent report of the Legion convention at Kalamazoo was presented by the retiring post commander preceding the election of officers.

ANNUAL COUNTY FAIR SEPT 14

Splendid Exhibits Assured; Fine Program Is Arranged

Premium books for the Twenty-First Annual Schoolcraft County fair which will be held at the fairgrounds on September 14, 15, and 16, are being distributed this week. Although it has been found necessary to eliminate some of the classes and premium awards will not total as high as in former years, Schoolcraft county's fair is expected to develop just as much enthusiasm and interest as has been shown in the past. The true purpose of the fair, the exhibition of livestock, crops and various other food products in an effort to induce competition for the better breeding of cattle, better methods of raising crops, etc., will be in full evidence. Weather this year has been particularly favorable for the raising of crops and some splendid exhibits are certain to be on hand.

Recreation and entertainment will in the main consist of vaudeville and athletic contests with local talent participating. Generally this type of amusement affords greater enjoyment than those of the so-called professional entertainers. Fair officials state that a fine program of entertainment is being arranged which will keep the audiences on edge every minute.

Heads of the various departments are as follows: Cattle—Isaac Pawley, C. H. Voder, and Curran Clarke; Poultry—Fred Graham and E. H. Branch; Farm Crops—Albert Huebcher and A. J. Tennant; Vegetables—John Devroye, Gunnar Flodin and Robert Arrowood; Fruit—Fred Greenwood, A. L. Byers, J. A. Falk and E. W. Miller; Foods—Mrs. F. M. Orr, Mrs. T. H. Hollibaugh, and Mrs. John Eckhardt; Canned Fruits and Vegetables—Mrs. Mary Adams, Mrs. James Moon and Mrs. A. L. Byers; Domestic Handwork—Mrs. F. N. Cookson, Mrs. Arthur Graham and Mrs. A. M. Nelson; Horticulture—Mrs. A. M. LeRoy, Mrs. W. J. Hareidon.

Rules and regulations governing exhibits are as follows:

1. Entries close in all departments Wednesday, September 14. Entries can be made up to 9:30 p. m.
2. No animal or articles shall be exhibited under any name other than that of the owner. Violation of this rule will forfeit the premium which might otherwise be awarded.
3. Entries are open to residents of Schoolcraft county only.
4. All persons exhibiting livestock must have membership tickets before entries will be made in this department.
5. Every exhibitor receiving in excess of $2.00 in premiums, the Society will deduct $1.00 for 1933 membership.
6. No premiums will be awarded, with or without competition, unless the judges deem the article or animal worthy of the same, and may award any or no premium where only one entry appears in a class.
7. Exhibitors must place all exhibits under the direction of the superintendents in charge.
8. No exhibitor can make more than one entry in the same class.
9. Judges will not attach premium ribbons to more articles than there are premiums offered in a class, and they will not attach ribbons to exhibits not provided for in the premium list. When highly meritorious exhibits are not provided for, the judges may recommend a special premium in their report, but shall not indicate to the exhibitor in any manner that such recommendation is made. No special premium shall be recommended unless the article possesses high merit and cannot be brought within the regular classification of the premium list. All such recommendations will be considered and the amount fixed for such recommendation as may be deemed advisable.
10. The Society will not be responsible for lack of funds and through adverse circumstances of any kind the Society finds there is not sufficient funds on hand to pay premiums in full, then each will be paid pro-rata to the amount of money on hand. Every exhibitor is showing under the above provision.
11. The officers will decide all interpretations of the rules and regulations and their decision shall be final.
12. Reasonable care will be taken of all articles and animals on exhibition but in no case will the Society be responsible for any loss or damage to the same.
13. All exhibits will be released at 4:00 p. m. on the 15th. Violators of this rule will forfeit any premiums awarded.

Pertinent Comment

An interesting side-light on the Legion attitude toward the Legionate cash payment of the soldier bonus was disclosed by a Legionnaire who attended the recent state convention at Kalamazoo. In spite of the overwhelming vote that was cast by the state Legion in favor of immediate payment, his statement would lead one to believe that, if it were not for expediency, the vote of the delegates might have been different.

The substance of the statement made by this Legion man was to the effect that the Legion was practically forced to endorse immediate payment, because of the large number of bonus advocates who were deserting to smaller organizations of veterans that were on record as favoring the bonus payment. One would gather from this statement, the state organization did not settle the bonus question entirely on its merits, but was influenced, in part at least, by fear that failure to do so might lessen the membership.

If the state Legion permitted the menace of deserting members to influence its action on the bonus question, it has established a precedent that may be disastrous. It opens the door to similar action by minority groups who are unable to secure approval of their proposals through the ordinary channels. The danger to the organization that would come from such procedure is evident.

The Legion has assumed an important place in the national life and its record is one which teams with accomplishments. Since its organization it has been recognized for its high purposes and its promotion of a greater appreciation of the American ideals. It would be unfortunate indeed if this record be smeared through bonus agitation.

John Gasperich Explains; New Charge Brought

Several weeks ago John Gasperich, Kipling, was arraigned in local court on a charge of taking and using license plates belonging to a neighbor. He entered a plea of not guilty to the charge and was released on his own recognizance. The case was scheduled to be heard in circuit court next month.

But, after pleading not guilty to the charge brought against him, Gasperich insisted on explaining to the court and to others who were within ear shot that he drove his truck without any plates.

Yesterday he was brought into the court of Justice A. D. Alguire to answer to the charge of driving a truck without plates, contrary to law.

Again Gasperich explained, this time his story dealt chiefly with the manner of his arrest. He told that he had been taken to jail and held there over the week-end without an opportunity to be heard in court. Police officers when questioned, stated that Gasperich had insisted on going to jail and, when released after his hearing, wanted to return.

After hearing the evidence presented by the officers and Gasperich, the court continued the case for a week, during which time an effort will be made to clarify the situation.

Water Forces Halt On Montana Sewer

Construction work was closed down on the Montana avenue sewer job yesterday owing to water difficulty. Pumps are now being rigged up and as soon as they can be set to take care of the water, work will be resumed.

The job is about one-third completed according to the first estimate prepared by the city. Under the contract, estimates of progress are made at stated intervals and the contractor is paid an amount equal to 80 per cent of the estimate. The total amount of work so far done amounts to $678,255.560 feet of 12 inch pipe have been laid and 556 feet of laterals.

HIAWATHA NEWS

Hiawatha, Mich.—Mr. and Mrs. George Carney of Rhinelander have returned here after spending the summer away and expect to make Hiawatha their future home. At present they are staying at the home of Mrs. Melissa Repp.

Little Francis Hyland is leaving next week to attend the State Fair at Detroit having won the trip at the recent eighth grade examination.

Nita C. Byers has returned from a trip to Coloma, in southern Michigan where he went for the purpose of moving his aunt, Mrs. Wm. Smith to Hiawatha.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zell and daughters Hildegard and Elizabeth spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Byers. Mr. Zell has completed his work on the new electric sub-station in Manistique and is moving to Chicago this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Byers are clearing up a spot on their land and will build a cottage there this fall.

School opens tomorrow and Mr. N. C. Byers will drive the bus. There are about thirty children in Hiawatha township to attend high school this year.

The grange delegates to the county convention for the purpose of electing two delegates to the state convention will meet at Hiawatha Grange hall on Thursday evening, Sept. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Byers and children, Mrs. Melissa Repp and sons, Alfred and Harry, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Byers, Mrs. Frank Jane and Mrs. Fregal and son Dick enjoyed a lovely dinner on Lake Michigan at Bursaw Creek last Sunday.

Blackberries are so plentiful this year that last Thursday a party of five picked over one hundred quarts in about six hours. Nature is so lavish with her fruits this year that anyone who sees without ought to starve if they are at all able to pick the fruit offered.

Little Paul and Frank Girkke of Shingleton have been spending the past two weeks visiting at the home of Mrs. Kenneth and Gilbert Hyland, as their mother was ill in town but she is now much improved and able to return home.

When N. C. Byers returned from his trip to southern Michigan he brought peaches that he purchased for the round sum of 39 cents and reports the market down there is within the reach of most any one. Plums and pears at 50 cents and muskmelons 6 for 25 cents.

Fred Laux has a fine red raspberry patch this year, the berries being almost an inch across and they yielded him a crate a day from one hundred plants.

Sidelights

Since the opening of the American Legion Memorial cottage last Thursday the principal topic of conversation seems to be the fine furnishings with which the building has been equipped. Especially among the women has favorable comment been loud in praising the taste used by the Legion.

A furniture in the main lounge, scout room, and club room is of the same period design—Old Colonial—in complete harmony with the exterior of the building. Many of the so-called beautiful homes being constructed these days give a rustic effect from the outside and when one enters he is shocked to see ultra modern furniture, highly finished woodwork, and other furnishings which are of direct contrast with the exterior of the structure. This is not true of the Legion building where the Old Colonial idea is carried through to the last detail, leading its own peculiar charm.

Interior woodwork is of knotted western pine in natural finish. The spacious lounge room has three luxurious 12x18 Beauvais seamless Axminster rugs on the beautifully laid hardwood floor. Quaint lighting fixtures adorn the natural pine walls. Furniture consists of two easy chairs, two Windsor chairs, two ladder back chairs, two tavern tables, a coffee table, three end tables, a maple Governor Winthrop desk, two wing chairs, two davenport, two settees, four table lamps, and two floor lamps. The club room and Scout room are similarly equipped with furniture of period design. All three rooms have stunning draperies and overstuffed furniture is in rust and green.

The Legion is to be heartily congratulated for their splendid spirit in providing Manistique with a building of such beauty and utilitarian value. In addition to its being used for a meeting place for the Legion it will also be available for public gatherings and for the use of public and

Under the direction of Mr. Skellenger a well organized program of recreational activity has been carried out. Soft ball leagues were organized and a complete schedule of games played. "The girl stepped back in the cabin clad in Lottie's underthings.

"Has Mademoiselle ever been in love?" the girl repeated.

"You have been here? You know he-um?" Celeste covered the portrait with kisses, crooning softly.

"Who is this girl?" asked Mona, her face very pale.

Celeste, unmindful, clasped the portrait to her heart. "My Barry, My Barry!"

O'Brien, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, that he would visit Munising, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 3, and that he would arrive here at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. NEW PARASITE

Don Menzies of this city who has a nice garden spot near Indian Town, gives us a valuable piece of information, concerning a new species of parasite which has invaded this territory this summer, and never before seen nor heard of, among farmers and gardeners here. This parasite does not destroy vegetation but feeds upon cutworms. Mr. Menzies informs us that others have found the same parasite in their gardens. It is black in color and about an inch in length, has wings, with sharply pointed head and tail. It moves about swiftly in search of its favorite food, the cutworm. Perhaps it may feed on other insects, but Mr. Menzies states, that after observing a specimen for a long time, it seemed to search more particularly for the cutworm, and while inhabiting the garden plot, it did not seem to attack any of the vegetables.

HOTTEST DAY

Yesterday was the hottest day of the summer here. At noon the thermometer registered 90 degrees in the shade and but for a cool breeze which prevailed most of the day the heat would have been too intense for any degree of comfort.

Fair Finances Better 1931 Record by $3,300

In spite of the reduced gate charge, free admission on the first day, unfavorable weather, and an expected reduction in attendance due to economic conditions, the fifth annual Upper Peninsula State Fair at Escanaba will finish the fiscal year with a financial record about $3,300 better than in 1931.

A report completed Tuesday by Carl A. Kramp and John C. Moore of the state auditor's general's department, who were assigned to check up on the fair finances, showed total receipts of the fair at $44,561.23, with expenses totalling $46,457.54 up to Nov. 30, 1932.

Due to the fact that the expenditures for the remainder of the fiscal year are estimates, the total may vary slightly from the figures released yesterday, but as it stands, the fair will finish the year with a deficit of only $1,896.31, as compared with the deficit of $5,202 for last year.

Drive for Clothes For School Pupils Planned In Luce

Need for clothing for school children was in evidence with the opening of the Newberry schools here Monday. While school authorities do not believe that Luce county is worse off than many others there are many families who are unable to clothe their children so that they can attend school and many were absent on the opening day. Herman Kurest, county investigator, reported to Superintendent C. L. Bystrom that he had many such on his lists.

Mr. Bystrom through the teachers of the system is planning a drive for clothing. He asks the children to report the condition to their parents and to bring any out-grown garments they may have to the office in the high school building. From there he will see that it reaches the proper organizations so that it can be repaired and put into condition for use.

"We cannot wait for the annual Lions' club 'charity drive,'" the school man reported, "the children must have clothing at once or we cannot compel them to attend school."

In several instances local women have found that they could clothe a child by going through the family collection of garments. It has been suggested that persons or families take over a child or a family and see that enough school clothing is on hand to allow them to attend school.

Anyone who is willing to do this or to donate cash or materials for garments may do so by calling 6-2 and asking for either Mrs. Harris or Mr. Bystrom.
