MOUNTING TAX MOVEMENT HIT BY M'CORMICK

SAYS OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY IN U. S. IS LIABILITY

French Lick, Ind., Sept. 20 (AP)—Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, in a speech prepared for delivery here tonight, said that the ownership of property in the United States "has become a liability, not an asset."

Addressing the 35th annual banquet of the grain and feed dealers national association, Colonel McCormick declared that the return to prosperity depends upon tax reduction.

"The evil talk of tax strikes is heard throughout the land, but far more serious than strikes is the growing inability of tax payers to pay," Mr. McCormick asserted. His remarks were broadcast over a national radio network.

"Strike or no strike, it is absolutely impossible to pay the taxes assessed," he said. "Owners of buildings are tearing them down because the taxes are more than the receipts. Owners of unimproved property are unable to pay their taxes and tax buyers cannot be found to evict them. Individuals, estates and corporations are beginning to find it impossible to meet federal taxation extorted with all the ruthlessness of the Germans in Belgium."

Discussing income taxes, "Ever since the war the government has been living on and living off income taxes and taxes that it called 'income' taxes. Where the taxes were levied on profit in the purchase and sale of a fixed asset, such as a piece of real estate, or a certificate representing the ownership of a company owning real estate, improved or unimproved, a railroad or a factory, the tax is not on income, but is a capital levy. This fact is recognized in the new tax law under which losses in the resale of such property may not be deducted."

"Obviously, by the continuation of the principle of taxes, exacting tribute on values as they rise and conceding nothing when they decline, sooner or later the government will have extorted the entire value of all property."

Col. McCormick traced the mounting cost of government since the World War, "today," he declared, "the United States government, through one of its agencies or another, dominates transportation, banking and agriculture, and is reaching out for dominance over manufacturing and commerce. In less than a generation the taxes paid to the United States treasury have risen from less than a billion dollars a year to well over four billion."

If the present trend continues, he said, the tax exactions will rise, year by year, until all private profits will disappear.

"We are close to that point today," he added. "The governments, national, state and local, are taking a fourth of the income of the American people today and about one third of this huge total goes to Washington. x x x "You who wish to save our country must act quickly. You must elect a congress that will aid, not ruin, it. You must organize to send to Washington men who will undo the misdeeds of the last congress and start us back from the road to ruin on which we are traveling."

Disappointed Over Result Of Election, Couple Kill Selves

Roscommon, Mich., Sept. 20 (AP)—Death pact that followed financial distress and disappointment over political defeat was revealed today with the discovery in a garage at Prudenville, near here, of the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Gould, Houghton Lake resort keepers.

Beside the couple, whose arms were about each other in their automobile in the closed garage, were properly-filled out death certificates, awaiting only the coroner's signature, and instructions for notifying relatives. Physicians said fumes from the motor exhaust in the closed garage had caused death.

Gould, 69 years old, was an unsuccessful candidate for probate judge. He was a justice of the peace at Prudenville, and friends said the defeat was a bitter disappointment to him. The family relatives reported, recently suffered financial reverses.

WORLD FAMOUS HANGMAN DIES

Haunted by Horrors, John Ellis of England, Takes Life

London, Sept. 20 (AP)—John Ellis, the world's most famous hangman, ended eight years of brooding retirement today.

He was found dead, his throat slashed and a razor by his side. On January 9, 1923, after 22 years at his sinister task, Ellis bore the reputation of being the hangman who had sent more condemned murderers to their deaths than any other living man.

On that same day he put to death the notorious Mrs. Edith Thompson, who with young Fredrick Bywaters was condemned to death for the murder of the woman's husband.

Years before Ellis had ostracized himself from society. His worry increased as his reputation became public. The hanging of Mrs. Thompson, who had to be dragged to the scaffold, was too much for him.

Tried Suicide Before. The aging man retired as a public hangman in the following year, but he was unable to shake off the horrors that haunted him.

On August 30 of that year he spent a sleepless night and the next day was found gravely wounded with a revolver by his side.

But Ellis recovered, and after a long conference with a magistrate promised he wouldn't commit suicide. But the years piled on years and the horror remained. The promise dimmed and today Ellis was dead.

Among those who died in a noose supervised by Ellis was Roger Casement, former British knight and consul, who was hanged for high treason. He was put to death in 1916 for conspiring to cause an armed revolt in Ireland, and for having sought German aid to that end.

Ellis also officiated at the hanging of Major Herbert P. Armstrong, a leading Welsh solicitor, convicted on a charge of poisoning his wife.

But it was the hanging of Mrs. Thompson that got his nerve, and he was reported to have sworn never to execute another person.

For a brief period in 1927 Ellis went on the stage in the part of a hangman, but that too was a little too much for him.

TRADE PARLEY IS SUGGESTED BY ROOSEVELT

GOVERNOR GREETED BY THOUSANDS IN SEATTLE

BY W. B. RAGSDALE (Associated Press Staff Writer) Civic Auditorium, Seattle, Sept. 20 (AP)—Speaking to a crowd that jammed the huge civic auditorium here and overflowed into an adjoining baseball park, Franklin D. Roosevelt proposed tonight that an international conference be held to counteract the effect of "abnormal depreciation of the buying power of Oriental countries."

The crowd started filing into the auditorium more than three hours before the time set for the Democratic presidential nominee to speak, and two hours before Mr. Roosevelt arrived every seat in the auditorium was filled. Hundreds were packed into the entrances, in addition to those who had been given preferred seats on the speaker's platform.

Discusses Tariff. Thousands of others were seated in the chilly bleachers in the baseball park outside. The park had been equipped with an amplifying system, so that they might hear.

After discussing the tariff in a general way, Mr. Roosevelt told the crowd that on the Pacific coast "trade with the Orient has suffered to some extent on account of tariffs, but it also has suffered because of the abnormal buying power of Oriental countries."

"It is widely recognized by conservative enlightened financial leaders that to remedy this we shall have to look to international action," he said.

In line with the plan suggested by the Democratic platform, I shall advocate immediate action by our government in cooperation with other governments.

"There are many ways of producing the results desired without disturbing the currency of the United States."

Governor Roosevelt said in part: "I regret that I shall have such a little opportunity to see the beauties of Seattle, and its neighboring city Tacoma. I have seen enough, however, and heard enough to know how heavily the hands of the great depression has fallen upon this western country; to see what has happened in this great seaport bring back with keen irony some of the things that Republican leaders used to tell us about stimulating foreign trade. As I pointed out in my speech at Columbus, Ohio, one of the ways they were going to stimulate foreign trade was to lend money to backward and crippled countries to enable them to buy goods from us. That is one way to carry on business transactions. Another is just to give things away. I am not sure but that the latter is better than the first, because when we give things away we save the cost of keeping books! And, moreover, we have no disappointment in failing to receive pay."

Man Is Crushed By 100 Pound Ice Cake

Militant Foe of Crime Escapes Death as Bomb is Tossed at His Home

Chicago, Sept. 19 (AP)—John P. McGorty, former chief justice of the criminal court and militant foe of organized crime narrowly escaped death tonight when a powerful dynamite bomb exploded in front of his home. Two passers-by were seriously injured by the blast.

Windows of the house were shattered and a gaping hole was torn in the sidewalk.

Judge McGorty, his wife, two daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret, and his son, Robert, were in the living room of the two-story house when the bomb was hurled.

After the blast, McGorty rushed outside and found Wilber Koetten, and Ada Moyer, both 16, badly injured. Moyer's foot was mangled and the girl was suffering from severe lacerations about the body. They were rushed to a hospital by Robert McGorty, who commanded a passing automobile.

DAVIS' PART IN LOTTERY AIRED

Lodge "Brothers" State Senator Had Little To Do With Them

BY KATHERINE BEEBE (Associated Press Staff Writer) New York, Sept. 20 (AP)—Government lawyers called lodge "brothers" of Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania to the witness stand at his trial in federal court today to tell of the "drawings" which the prosecution charges were "lotteries."

Members of the Loyal Order of Moose, of which Senator Davis is director general, told about the charity balls held throughout the country in 1929 and '31, promotional articles and contracts for them and drawings for prizes which followed.

But most of them said they could not remember that Senator Davis had very much to do with these activities.

The witnesses said they did not see him at the two drawings for prizes, which the government contends were part of a gigantic lottery in violation of federal law, in which cash prizes totalling $200,000 were used as lure to sell $3,000,000 worth of tickets to the balls. Davis is charged with conspiracy and with aiding trans.

HOOVER WILL GIVE ADDRESS IN DES MOINES

OCTOBER 4 SET AS DATE FOR CAMPAIGN TALK

Washington, Sept. 20 (AP)—President Hoover will deliver his first campaign address at Des Moines, Iowa, on the evening of Tuesday, October 4.

This was announced definitely tonight by the Republican national committee in a brief statement signed by Everett Sanders, national chairman. It said: "President Hoover will make his first speech of the campaign at Des Moines, Iowa, on the evening of Tuesday, October 4. Arrangements for a nation-wide radio hook-up are being made."

"The president will return immediately to Washington after his speech. He will make no other addresses en route. Time and place of other addresses by the president have not yet been arranged."

Talk on Agriculture. Although no subject for the presidential address was given in the announcement, it was reported Mr. Hoover would discuss the farm problem, a theme upon which his advisors disclosed today the president has already started writing.

His opponent, Governor Roosevelt, chose that topic for the first address of his present western swing, delivered from the steps of the Kansas capitol at Topeka.

Although today's announcement was signed by Sanders, the chairman had left last night for Chicago after a lengthy conference with the chief executive.

Definite plans for Mr. Hoover's first campaign trip followed close upon the return to the White House of Walter H. Newton, the president's secretary in charge of political affairs, from a trip into the mid-west. He strongly advised a personal appearance in the farm belt.

The departure of President Hoover from the White House will coincide with the return of Governor Roosevelt to the executive mansion in Albany, after his swing to the Pacific coast.

Vice President Curtis said farewell to the president today at the White House cabinet meeting, before leaving tonight for a swing into Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia and then westward. About October 1, he is to appear in Oklahoma, with a trip to the west coast possible.

On September 29, a few days before Mr. Hoover speaks, Secretary Mills will speak at Grand Rapids before the Michigan State Republican convention, following which he, too, will turn westward. He is to make an address in Los Angeles on the night of the president's appearance at Des Moines.

The Republican committee also is planning addresses for Secretaries Stimson, Hurlley and Hyde, with the probability that at least

Comstock Attacks Governor's Relief Efforts In State

KOHLER TAKES STRONG LEAD; BLAINE BEHIND

Houghton, Mich., Sept. 20 (AP)—William A. Comstock, Democratic candidate for governor, in a speech tonight criticized Governor Brucker's administration for what he termed failure to provide unemployment relief.

Addressing the Houghton county Democratic convention at Lake Linden, Comstock said that the special session of the legislature enacted 43 laws, "not one of which dealt directly with the problem of unemployment relief."

"The governor did appoint the so-called committee of 100 to take charge of relief work in the state," he said, "but the chief relief afforded went to a political supporter of the governor who got a $2,500 job as secretary of the committee. The committee met a few times. If it accomplished anything we have yet to hear about it."

Comstock also made addresses at Hancock and Calumet today and will go tomorrow to Ontonagon and Ironwood.

GANDHI BEGINS HUNGER STRIKE

Mahatma Will Starve to Death if Electoral Policy Is Kept

Poona, India, Sept. 20 (AP)—The Mahatma M. K. Gandhi partook of an unusually large meal of fruit, bread and milk just before noon today and then, laughing and joking, started the hunger strike which he declares will last until he dies or until the Indian electoral system is revised in accordance with his principles.

As he started his fast the Mahatma was technically a free man, for the government announced that his prison term, imposed several months ago because of his nationalist activities, was over. But he elected to remain in his cell in Yeroda jail.

The embargo on visitors was lifted at the same time that the "fast unto death" began. Among those who called on the Mahatma were representatives of various Hindu interests and of the depressed classes.

Fast Is Protest. Among the Indian political leaders expected tomorrow are Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, Mr. Jayakar and Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya. It is understood that they will bring with them a new scheme of representation for the untouchables which may satisfy Mr. Gandhi and cause him to renounce his hunger strike.

His fast is in protest against the electoral system drawn up by the British cabinet which, he contends, would continue the great gulch which separates the untouchables from the other communities in India.

The crowd of friends and well-wishers who called at the jail when the embargo was lifted apparently proved too much for the 63 year old Mahatma. He became ill. His indisposition, was attributed to excitement, and on the advice of his physician he turned away many callers. But first he received representatives of the press, whom he had not met in nine months.

The correspondents found the Mahatma to be the usual curious mixture of naive jocularity and spiritual seriousness.

Walker Arrives In Naples But Papers Fail To Greet Him

Credit Bureaus Of State Pick Officers

Naples, Italy, Sept. 20 (AP)—Former Mayor James J. Walker of New York arrived here today on the steamer Conte Grande and encountered what for him was something new. The Neapolitan papers didn't print a line about him.

There was no official information that the journals were acting on instructions but newspapermen said they understood the authorities had decided Mr. Walker should be dealt with discreetly, particularly in view of the fact that a presidential campaign is going on in the United States.

Just before Mrs. Garner passed away, the congressman turned away, saying he did not want to see his mother die but wished to remember her as he had known her as a boy with his arms around her.

Husbands Refuse To File Complaint So Woman Is Released

Detroit, Sept. 20 (AP)—Because neither of the men she admitted she married, without obtaining a divorce in between, would sign a complaint against her, Mrs. Iva Miller, 25, was freed today after she had been held on a bigamy charge. Joseph Miller said he married her nine years ago and Hillard Flynn said they were married September 5. Both refused to swear out complaints against her.

Judge McGorty, after a hearing in which the state termed Sammons as a desperate character unfit to be at large, ruled the parole illegal.

Judge Edward Shurtleff, of McHenry county, however, granted Sammons a writ of habeas corpus last July 18, again freeing him from prison.

SENATORIAL NOMINATION RACE IS VERY CLOSE

(BULLETIN)

Milwaukee, Sept. 20 (AP)—The Milwaukee Sentinel at 11:30 p. m. said that on the basis of returns then tabulated that Walter J. Kohler had won the Republican nomination for governor.

(BULLETIN) Milwaukee, Sept. 20 (AP)—The vote in 451 out of 2,800 precincts in the Republican gubernatorial primary gave Kohler 59,992; LaFollette 41,022.

Returns from 340 precincts in the Republican senatorial race give Chapple 29,069; Blaine 24,285.

Milwaukee, Sept. 20 (AP)—With 237 out of the state's 2,399 precincts reported, former Governor Walter J. Kohler, Conservative Republican, held a lead of nearly two votes to one over Governor Philip F. LaFollette, Progressive in today's Republican gubernatorial primary.

The vote was: Kohler 33,731; LaFollette 19,899.

The returns were reported from 34 of the state's 71 counties, embracing both the rural sections where LaFollette ran strong in his successful contest with Kohler two years ago and more populous centers where Conservative strength is concentrated.

Of the 34 counties the incomplete vote gave Kohler a majority in 26.

Many of the precincts reporting were in the village and cities inclined to give Conservative majorities, but the early returns gave definite indications that the Kohler sentiment was cutting away much of the 127,000 majority vote that was given to LaFollette two years ago.

Chapple in Lead. Meanwhile in the Democratic gubernatorial primary, Mayor A. G. Schmiedeman, of Madison, went into a lead with 663 votes to 437 for William B. Rubin, of Milwaukee and 324 for Leo P. Fox, of Chilton, in the returns from 77 precincts.

In the Republican senatorial primary, John B. Chapple, of Ashland, Conservative, was leading John J. Blaine, LaFollette Progressive, by a vote of 8,852 to 7,534 in returns from 138 precincts.

Interest in the primary centered chiefly about the LaFollette-Kohler fight, involving as it does the first real state-wide test of strength between the two open factions since the young son of the late Senator Robert M. LaFollette rose to the governorship two years ago. Young LaFollette, at the close of his first term, is seeking another.

In 1930 Governor LaFollette overthrew Kohler by a majority of 127,000. Kohler at that time had served one term as governor. Because of a tremendous increase in the Democratic vote in the convention delegate primary last spring the Democrats forecast a big showing in today's primary. However, about seven Republican votes were being cast to every Democratic vote.

Wisconsin has not had a Democratic governor since 1931.

HEAVY VOTING

Milwaukee, Sept. 20 (AP)—Wisconsin citizens voted their convictions today with enthusiasm that presaged an all-time record for primary balloting.

From all parts of the state came reports of long lines of voters waiting at booths. Many people sell their car over the winter period and are prospects for used cars in the Spring. Now is a good time to advertise a used car if you want to dispose of what you have. If you have a new car in mind, advertise the old one for sale. Someone may want the car you are driving and a prospect is found overnight, and the deal is so nominal.

EXPECT AL TO BREAK SILENCE

Party Leaders Believe Smith Will Work For Roosevelt

BY ROBERT ST. JOHN (Associated Press Staff Writer) New York, Sept. 20 (AP)—"Al" Smith's silence on party politics will end, one of his associates said tonight, when he goes as a delegate to the Democratic state convention October 3.

"It is very possible he will be the one to place Lieut. Gov. Herbert H. Lehman in nomination as a gubernatorial candidate," Smith's friend said.

Lehman is Governor Roosevelt's choice for the nomination. Whether this move on the "Happy Warrior" part will end the political rift between the 1932 and 1932 standard bearers was a matter of speculation in political circles, but there was no comment from Smith's office.

It was said, however, that the former governor will probably make some definite statements about his attitude toward the presidential campaign either just before or during the convention.

What the Democratic campaign leaders want to know is whether Smith will make any speeches on behalf of the man who succeeded him as governor, then as head of the party.

The only statement that has come from the "Happy Warrior" himself since the final ballot at Chicago was one in which he said he would continue to support his party, and which he amplified by stating:

"Of course that means the party's nominees."

Two years ago Smith likewise was a delegate to the state convention, and placed Roosevelt in nomination. The break between the pair began not long afterwards, when the governor's pre-convention campaign for the presidential nomination was launched.

The climax came when the Smith and Roosevelt forces fought for the nomination at Chicago.

Since then the victor and the loser have not met.

Retaliatory Tariffs "Another method that the present Republican leaders conjured up to provide for our prosperity was the Hawley-Smoot or Grundy tariff. President Hoover should have known that this tariff would raise havoc with any plans that he might have had to stimulate foreign markets. But, he did not, I am afraid, sufficiently understand how insistent are the demands of certain Republicans for special high tariff protection. When this tariff was passed, with its outrageous rates, he weakly yielded to the demand of these leaders and started us on the road where we now find ourselves. And it is the road (to our friends) that tariff, as you in the state of Washington well know, had the inevitable result of bringing about retaliation by other nations. Forty of them set up their own tariff defenses.

For example, Canada imposed retaliatory tariffs on your peaches, so that the tariff is higher than the freight rates to Canada. There is a retaliatory tariff on vegetables and fruits, which is so high that practically none of your product can be sold to your neighbors across the border. The market for your surplus is destroyed and thereby fair prices for your whole crop are made impossible.

Embargoes by France, and other European countries on apples make it impossible to ship your surplus apples by the Panama canal.

Retaliatory tariffs on condensed milk have closed milk condensaries on the northern Pacific coast. Companies have sold their cows. That cuts off the market for the hay crops of the farmers. That is a good example of the interdependence of industry and agriculture. One great company has gone to Holland, Germany and other European countries and built condensaries there. And at this time you are appealing to the secretary of state to use his good offices with Germany to prevent the placing of canned salmon on a quota basis. In short, because we have built unjust tariff walls ourselves, other countries are using our own poison against us.

"To remedy this, I have advocated and continue to advocate a tariff policy based in large part, upon the simple process of profitable exchange arrived at through negotiated tariffs with benefit to each nation.

"If I am any judge of conditions, this policy will be initiated on March 4 next!"

Coontz Sees Benefits In Payment of Bonus

(EDITORIAL NOTE.—Admiral Robert E. Coontz, Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, sees in the immediate payment of the soldiers' adjusted service certificates the solution of many national economic ills. He gives his views in the following article which he has prepared for The Press and NSA Service. The V. F. W. is outstanding among national patriotic organizations in its advocacy of early payment of the bonus.)

By Admiral ROBERT E. COONTZ, Commander-in-Chief, Veterans of Foreign Wars of U. S. (Written for NSA Service)

I believe that World War adjusted service certificates—or the so-called bonus—should be paid immediately, in view of the fact that this can be accomplished by ways and means already proposed in Congress, without increasing the present deficit in the federal treasury.

Moreover, the distribution of nearly two billion dollars in cash, through veteran channels, is the only practical solution that has yet been offered for the immediate relief of present economic conditions. This plan gives due consideration to the economic welfare of the people as a whole and not simply the veteran as a class.

Immediate cash payment will create a purchasing power that is now lacking. It will permit distribution of nearly two billion dollars in cash among the working classes residing in every nook and corner of the country. These funds will be turned promptly into every channel of trade, through the payment of debts and the purchase of necessities.

This theory of "currency expansion," recognized by Congress and the administration as vital to reconstruction, will restore economic confidence. It will shake loose the hoardings of those who are keeping their money in safety deposit vaults and in tax exempt bonds because of the uncertainty of business conditions.

Commodity prices will automatically increase and with business and industry assured of a decent profit, further wage reductions should be unnecessary.

We know that the means proposed for the raising of the necessary funds are sound because Congress already has adopted the same methods for other appropriations that were advocated in behalf of cash payment.

When Congress enacted the adjusted service certificate law in 1924, America publicly acknowledged this obligation to World War veterans.

Existing economic conditions and widespread unemployment wholly justify the demands of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States for immediate cash payment.

More than two million veterans have been forced to borrow the 50 per cent loan value of their certificates.

The compound interest being charged on these loans against the balance that is due if payment is deferred until 1945.

When Congress passed this law in 1924 it was never intended that any deductions should be made from the face value of these certificates.

Thus far the government has endeavored to extend relief to every strata of our economic structure, with the exception of the individual wage earner.

Despite the tremendous distribution of government funds to bankers, railroads, and industry in general, economic recovery will be retarded as long as the government continues to ignore the plight of the individual citizen.

Then he went on to explain the background of his decision to fast until he dies.

"My life I count as of no consequence," he said. "A hundred such lives given for this noble cause would in my opinion, be poor penance done by Hindus for the atrocious wrong heaped on the helpless men and women of their own faith."

He reiterated his complaint that separate electorates for the untouchable Hindus would still further divide them from their fellows.

"It is only because Englishmen cannot possibly see the living side of the picture," he continued, "that in their ignorance and self satisfaction they act as judges upon a question affecting the fundamental feeling of millions of people—I mean both caste Hindus and untouchables, that is, the suppressors and the suppressed."

The report that a weighty delegation headed by Sir Tej would visit the jail tomorrow came from Bombay, where it was said Hindu leaders in conference had reached agreement on an electoral scheme reputedly acceptable to the depressed classes themselves.

HYDE DEFENDS HOOVER RECORD

Farmers Aided Materially by Government, Secretary Says

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 20 (AP)—Secretary Hyde in a Republican campaign address here tonight defended the agricultural policies of the Hoover administration.

The administration, he said, "through federal agencies has loaned more money to farmers than the Reconstruction Finance Corporation had loaned up to September 16 to all banks, all railroads and all corporations in America."

As secretary of agriculture, Hyde continued, he himself lent $111,820,344 to more than 900,000 individual farmers. Other sources of such loans were listed by him as follows: Intermediate credit bank, $411,138,912; federal land banks, $180,314,600; farm board, exclusive of stabilization operations, $342,312,052; the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, $7,044,216 to farm organizations.

"The total of $1,205,332,124," the secretary said, "does not include $125,000,000 put up to strengthen federal land banks so that they can give more time to distressed farmers."

"It does not include a minimum of $35,000,000 put up by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to set up twelve agricultural credit corporations with lending power of $200,000,000 more to take the place of rural banks and rural credit machinery which has broken down."

Turning to the tariff question, Secretary Hyde questioned the authority for foreign loans during the last Democratic national administration and declared that these loans, in his belief, "have proven a greater barrier to international trade than all the tariffs ever enacted."

"Remembering the disastrous consequences of international agreements negotiated by the Wilson administration, which Governor Roosevelt so conspicuously adorned," Hyde said, "I shudder to think of the consequences to America if the Democrats should be turned loose in Europe again. But even at that, it would be less disastrous and less dangerous to America to let them negotiate on foreign debts than it would to open the markets of the United States to the competition of the world."

The rally at which Hyde spoke opened the Republican campaign in western Michigan. Secretary Hyde was introduced by Governor Wilbur M. Brucker, who expressed thanks for the "splendid vote" given him in the recent primary.

The governor also praised President Hoover for an administration "that appeals to logic, reason and soundness."

HOOVER WILL GIVE ADDRESS IN DES MOINES

Sanders' statement today was in line with that dictated to newspapers Sunday night after a three hour conference with the president. He said then that "the most vigorous possible speaking campaign" was in preparation, adding that "when the education campaign is effectively accomplished there will be no doubt of Mr. Hoover's reelection."

Sanders also reiterated then that the president probably would make two speeches in the west and one in the east. There have been rumors that he would expand this program and possibly travel as far as the west coast, but these reports have received no official confirmation.

The time and extent of Mr. Hoover's second western appearance probably will depend in part upon developments in the campaign and the reception given him in Des Moines.

DAVIS' PART IN LOTTERY AIRED

Perry A. Shanor, dictator of New York Lodge No. 15 of the Moose, and former member of the supreme forum of the supreme lodge, was on the stand in both morning and afternoon sessions.

"Do you know of anything that Senator Davis had to do with these charity balls of 1926 and 1931?" asked Charles Tuttle, Davis' counsel.

"No, I do not," said Shanor. The witness named Theodore (Ted) Miller whom he described as financial agent for Davis, and Bernard C. McGuire, who is also under indictment on the case, when asked who "seemed to be in charge," of a drawing in Mooshaert, Ill.

Shanor said Senator Davis was not present at the drawing, but attended the luncheon which followed, at which a check for $150,000 was turned over to Mooshaert.

Donald F. Stewart, editor of the Moose Magazine, whose testimony was continued from yesterday, said he was responsible "to the executive committee" for publication of the magazine and that he reports to the executive committee through Davis.

KOHLER TAKES STRONG LEAD; BLAINE BEHIND

Political observers predicted a 500,000 vote. In the 1930 primary, 692,335 votes were cast. Wisconsin was nominating candidates for state offices and for United States senator.

The unusually heavy vote confounded all who tried to predict verdicts in the two major contests—the races between Governor Phillip F. LaFollette and Walter J. Kohler for the Republican nomination for governor and between United States Senator John J. Blaine and John B. Chapple. Ashland editor, for the Republican nomination for senator. Kohler and Chapple represent the Conservative factions of Wisconsin Republicans.

Heavy Democratic Vote The LaFollette Progressive Republican organization is conceded to have an impressive following which registers heavily at every election. But today there were thousands going to the polling places who had not voted in recent elections and there was no foreboding the sentiments of these heretofore silent citizens.

Speculation was further complicated by indications that a large Democratic vote was being cast. In a primary election two years ago Democrats cast only 17,000, whereas party leaders today said the Democratic total will be in the neighborhood of 150,000. Which of the Republican factions was losing these Democratic votes was a question that bewildered politicians.

The chief Democratic contest was the campaign for the nomination for the governorship. Three candidates entered the contest, William B. Rubin of Milwaukee, Maxson A. G. Schmedeman of Madison and Leo P. Fox of Chilton. Democrats were exhorted to vote in the Democratic primary to make an impressive showing of strength for the national Democratic ticket.

Voters were selecting candidates for congress in the state's ten districts, and in every district there was a contest between Conservative and LaFollette-Progressive Republicans. Democrats also had several spirited races in congressional districts.

Candidates for all seats in the assembly, lower house of the legislature, were chosen. Voters also eliminated a host of candidates for half of the places in the state senate.

Lewis Bredin, commander of the Crusaders, said that 13 of the 17 Republican nominees for congress in Michigan and all of the Democratic nominees are satisfactory to his organization.

"If and when there is proper preparation and a clean-cut presentation of the issue, as in the sixth and seventh congressional districts," Bredin said, "the results are satisfactory. But when an uncompromising dry such as Lieut. Gov. Loren D. Dickason carries a wet stronghold such as Wayne county, there is clear evidence that the case has not been properly presented."

Deen Kirk R. O'Ferrall, of St. Paul's cathedral, recently returned from an European trip, said he favored repeal because "the ultimate is temperance and it can best be obtained by constructive methods."

Choral Union Has Rehearsal Meeting

About 125 persons attended a rehearsal meeting of the choral union at the junior high school last evening. Persons who desire to join the union are invited to attend the next choral union meeting at 7:30 next Tuesday evening. Miss Ruth Sundwick is in charge. On Wednesday evening, Sept. 28, all persons interested in joining a community orchestra are requested to attend a meeting at the junior high school.

Cornellius, who is the author of several law text books, is accused by the state of hiring persons to masquerade as heirs to unclaimed estates.

FARMERS ENJOY PRICE INCREASE

Better Sentiment Prevailent, Indiana Leader Says

New York, Sept. 20 (AP)—A report of improving business conditions, increasing agricultural prices, and a "better feeling among the farmers" of the Middle West was brought to Republican eastern headquarters today by former Governor James P. Goodrich of Indiana.

"The situation in my section of the country is improving," he said in a formal statement.

"Prices of farm commodities—eggs, corn, hogs—have increased from 40 to 50 per cent in the past 60 days. We are seeing the effect of advancing prices for farm products in a better feeling among the farmers."

"Better conditions are also noticeable among the merchants and business men. In fact, they are doing as much business as they did a year ago in volume, although not in dollar total."

Willis Praises Hoover "Feeling is headed in the right direction. We are going right ahead."

In giving out his statement, the Hoover-Curtis campaign leaders listed Goodrich as "A recognized authority on agricultural conditions in the Middle West."

John N. Willis, automobile manufacturer and former minister to Poland, addressing the controller's institute of America, said of President Hoover:

"His name will go down in history for his constructive accomplishments in a period filled with greater distress than that faced by any other president, not excepting Lincoln. And most of this distress was caused by agencies outside governmental control, and which the government, in this emergency, has been called upon to remedy. x x x"

"The effects of his (the president's) courageous action are now beginning to show above the horizon and will be increasingly apparent as each succeeding year passes, bringing us back to our normal prosperity."

Bits of Cheer in Business

Missing All Night, Brampton Resident Is Found Tuesday

After an all-night search conducted in the vicinity of her home a mile and one-half north of Brampton, Mrs. Edna Sheffer, 52, missing since Monday noon, was found in an unconscious condition in the woods a short way from her home. She failed to revive and yesterday afternoon was reported to have been still unconscious.

The woman was found at daybreak by Napoleon Sharkey, one of a group of neighbors who, despite a driving rain, searched the woods, throughout the night. Posses composed of conservation and sheriff's officers and volunteers were preparing to leave here for the scene when word came of the finding.

The woman, who has been in poor health for some time, suffered from exposure and was in a weakened condition, having lain out all night in the rain and cold. She had no coat and was attired in only a light house dress and sunbonnet. It is believed that she fainted while out walking alone.

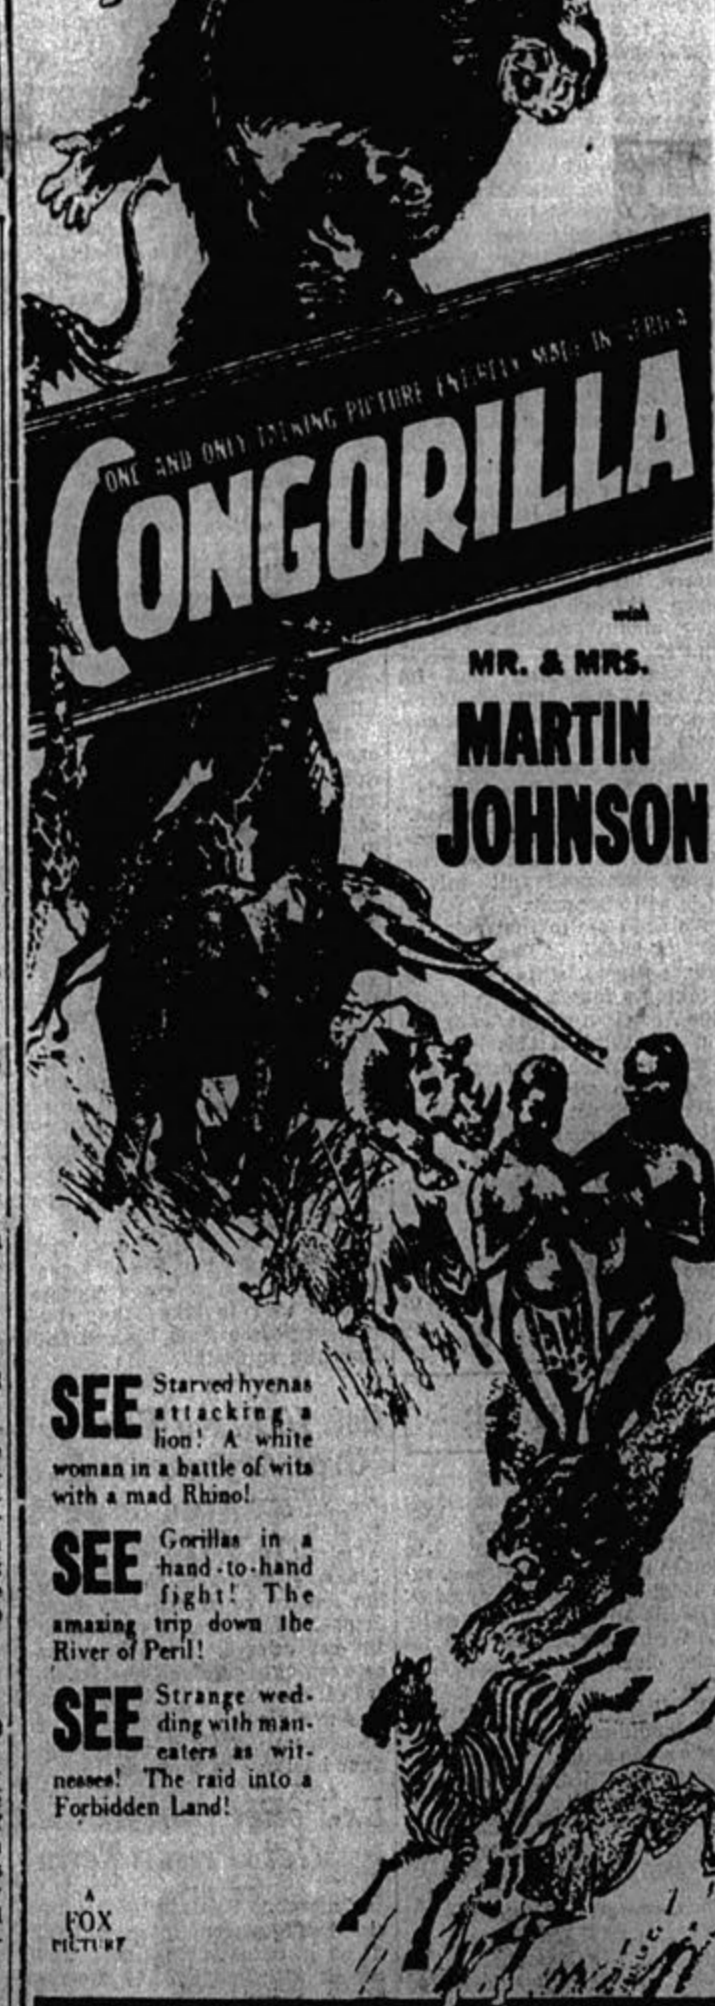

Mrs. Sheffer disappeared at 12:30 p. m. Monday, but fears were not felt for her safety until night, when officers of the sheriff's department were called to aid in the search.

CREWS RUSHING HIGHWAY JOBS

Two Up For Bids Today; Ford River Paving at City Limits

For the next month or so the division office of the state highway department at Escanaba is going to be knee deep in a program of highway improvements embracing 41 separate projects in the peninsula, and about 75 miles of road. Office and field forces are busy on surveys, plans and other details, and will be until the season closes. A total of 12 jobs were advertised this week for the opening of bids Oct. 5, and bids will be received on two jobs today, leaving 27 separate projects yet to advertise, one of these being the Rapid River-Brampton connection between M-35 and US-2-41.

The two jobs on which bids will be opened today are a bridge over the Rock river on M-94 west of Au Train in Alger county and a grade separation three miles north of Iron Mountain, crossing the C. M. St. F. & P. railway tracks.

Concrete At Cemetery

Favorable weather has aided the progress of paving on M-35 from Ford River to Escanaba, and the concrete crew Tuesday had reached the Escanaba city limits. The pavement from Ford River north is opened up as far as the Jaeger road near Fishery hill, and many motorists have been making sightseeing trips over this route going out US 2-41 from Escanaba to Ford River. The machine south on county road 521 to M-35, back north on the new M-35 pavement to the Jaeger road and across on the Jaeger road to the old state road. Automobile traffic is closed at present from Escanaba south, and those going to Ford, River or cottages along M-35 are advised to go by way of Ford River switch nd the county road. The paving on M-35, which is being done by the Delta Contracting Co., is going ahead of schedule, and will probably be all poured next week. Connecting roads will be built to join M-35 with side roads running west, and concrete will be laid at the entrance to St. Joseph's cemetery. The concrete crew has been laying about 300 feet a day.

THEATRES

The ear-splitting scream of the gorilla, the terrifying roar of the lion, the mighty trumpeting of the elephant, these and many other of the wild native noises of the jungle come belting out at you in all their thrilling vibrancy from the screen of the Delt theatre, where Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson's new film, "Congorilla," opened yesterday.

This awe-exciting Fox production, the first all-sound picture ever to come out of the heart of the Central African jungle, is the most amazing picture of its kind ever shown on a local screen. For the first time one sees actual close-ups of the giant gorilla, locked in mortal combat, baring his man-crushing teeth and bawling his hairy chest in stark ferocity as he charges the camera. Not once does he charge, but time and time again, rising up on his haunches in all his raging fury before the death-defying explorers.

These shots of the big apes are beyond question the most remarkable all-sound pictures ever made of jungle life. Not only will you thrill to them but it will be many a day before you forget your meeting with these vicious, man-like beasts.

DELIVERS MESSAGE

Menominee—Police Chief Frank Parsek received a telephone call from Escanaba this morning asking him to stop a Dodge coupe bearing a Wisconsin license. The machine contained two men and a little girl. The brother-in-law of one of the men passengers had died suddenly at Escanaba.

Within five minutes Chief Parsek had stopped the car, given the man the news of the death of his brother-in-law. He did not learn the names of any of the persons.

JOE HEIRMAN GIVEN AWARD

Wins $100 Scholarship Offered By Michigan State College

A scholarship, valued at $100, has been awarded by Michigan State college to Joseph Heirman of St. Nicholas, who enrolled as a freshman at the East Lansing educational institution this week. Joseph, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Heirman of St. Nicholas, was graduated from the Escanaba high school last June, following a splendid career of school work and participation in 4-H club and Smith-Hughes agricultural programs.

His father worked in the mines in the Norway district for a few years following his arrival here from Belgium, later purchasing a farm on the rich loam soil area along the Escanaba river, where the prosperous St. Nicholas farming colony is located. Following graduation from the St. Nicholas grade school, Joseph enrolled in the county agricultural college at Menominee, where he worked for his board and room and studied agriculture until the institution closed in 1928. He spent the next year as a student in the Perkins schools, but as no agriculture course was offered there he entered the Escanaba high school in the fall of 1930 and was graduated last spring.

While a student at the Escanaba high school, he was prominently identified with the Smith-Hughes agricultural course activities. He was a member of the potato and livestock judging teams for two years, competing in the upper peninsula competitive events at Chatham.

He was a member of the livestock judging team, which made the trip to the International Livestock exposition at Kansas City last fall as a reward for its performance at the Chatham contests. Joseph also participated in the Smith-Hughes public speaking contest at the U. P. State Fair one year, and assisted in the organizing of the local chapter of the F. F. A. He was president of the organization for one year. Joseph was actively engaged in 4-H club activities in his community. He has been a member of the calf club for seven years; potato club, three years, as member and leader; and has won two trips to the state fair as a member of the county dairy judging team. He has attended the 4-H camp at Chatham annually during the last seven years. Joseph also has made a good showing in the 4-H club department at the U. P. State Fair. In 1929, he was one of the winners of the calf club achievement contest, which gave him a free trip to the exposition at St. Louis.

Joseph will pursue the agricultural course at Michigan State college. He will work for his room and board at the school. The scholarship was awarded to him on the basis of his showing in a special examination, ability, scholarship and 4-H club and Smith-Hughes program experience.

Bits of Seasoning in Local News for Today

PATIENT PAYS FOR PROFANITY

They tell of an Escanaba man who derives much comfort and pleasure from swearing, especially when there is some one around who does not like it. He was a hospital patient recently, and his penchant for profanity took immediate prominence. Hospital attendants announced that they would break him of the habit, so they drew up and posted a chart or swear schedule, under which the patient was assessed with a fine for every naughty word. The cuss tax rate started with a plain damn at 25c and increased with the impressiveness of the cusswords. It is said that the system ran up a bill of about $4 a week for the victim, but he paid it cheerfully along with his hospital bill, grateful for the opportunity it afforded him for letting off steam at so much per let.

RECOUNTS WILL BEGIN THURSDAY

Yelland Files Petition to Add Precincts in Checkup

As a supplementary request to the recount petition filed by Attorney T. E. Strom, a recount of the Delta county primary votes in several additional precincts has been asked by Probate Judge Judd Yelland in a petition filed with the county clerk. Judge Yelland, successful candidate for the Republican nomination as probate judge, received 104 more votes than Attorney Strom in a total of 6,048 votes cast, according to figures checked by the board of canvassers. Strom's recount petition, filed Saturday, asked a recount in 10 precincts. The request filed by Judge Yelland calls for five more, including the fourth, sixth, seventh and eighth in the city of Escanaba and the third in Gladstone.

The recount is scheduled to start Thursday morning, and the recount board will be composed of County Clerk R. H. Labre, County Treasurer Mary McCall and Prosecutor G. W. Jackson. Only the Republican ballots for probate judge will be counted. It is expected the work will take two days, or possibly the remainder of the week.

Democratic Party Drew 3,444 Votes In Total of 9,564

Figures compiled by the Delta county board of canvassers show a total of 9,564 votes were cast for the nine candidates for sheriff in the primary election. The total Republican vote was 6,120 and the Democratic 3,444. For probate judge, the vote was 6,048 Republican and 3,199 Democratic for register of deeds, 5,819 Republican and 3,261 Democratic, and for governor 6,021 Republican and 3,178 Democratic.

Comstock To Come Here Friday Noon

William A. Comstock, Democratic candidate for governor, will be the guest at a luncheon to be held by Democrats at the Delta hotel Friday noon. Mr. Comstock will not address a mass meeting in Escanaba on this tour of the upper peninsula, but will do so on his next trip through this section of the state sometime in October.

Yesterday, Comstock visited the copper country; today he will be in Gogebic county; Thursday in Iron and Dickinson counties, winding up his week's tour in Menominee county Friday. He will stop off in Escanaba for the luncheon Friday noon while enroute to Menominee.

JUNK ON HIGHWAYS

ONE of the serious menaces on our highways nowadays is the junk automobile, bereft of safety devices and operated by financially irresponsible drivers.

This traffic problem has grown even more serious in the last two or three years because there are so many cars that are being run to the last mile that is in them.

Many of these derelicts are driven by persons of little means, and if they become involved in an accident, injuring other persons or property, recovery of damages is virtually impossible.

Under such a law, the motorist cannot operate an automobile nor have one registered in his name until he has paid the amount of any final judgment, which may be recovered against him up to the amounts named in the law.

The benefits from such a law are clearly evident. It is a safety measure for it imposes a penalty upon reckless driving.

WOMEN ON JOB

DURING this period of economic distress, it would be well to pause awhile to consider what an important and useful role has been played by the women of the land and to give them their justly deserved honors.

It is the women who must do most of the figuring in the homes as how to make both ends meet. They must plan the meals so that the scarce dollars will go the longest distance possible.

Besides looking after the needs of their own families, many of our Escanaba women have dedicated themselves to the service of others. For instance, there was the fine group of church and club women who launched the community canning project.

With the canning project out of the way, the women are making plans for the community sewing project, which will be started upon the delivery of the order of cotton cloth from the American Red Cross.

RAILROADS HOPEFUL

THE report that things are looking brighter on the North Western, as brought here by Assistant Superintendent D. B. McIntyre after a visit in Chicago, dovetails with the figures on freight car loadings in the United States released last Saturday.

greater than the increase for the similar period in 1931. Last year, about 665,000 freight cars were loaded in the week ending July 4, and about 760,000 in the week ending Sept. 5.

In 1932, about 417,000 cars were loaded in the week ending July 9, and about 560,000 in the week ending Sept. 3. This was an increase of about 143,000 cars, or about 24 per cent.

That is, the figure for the week ending Sept. 19, 1932, can be 200,000 lower than the figure for the week ending Sept. 12, 1931, and still maintain the existing ratio.

Freight car loadings are considered as good a barometer of business as any other index. The increase of orders received by upper peninsula lumber and veneer manufacturers is indicative of a buying movement that has been resumed in all parts of the nation.

AROUND THE U. P.

TO SOME folks it is a mystery how Mayor William H. McKelighan ran such a strong second to Governor Brucker in Upper Peninsula counties. It can be accounted for by the fact that McKelighan had a strong organization in the north section and by the lack of acquaintance here with McKelighan's political life.

Over in Iron county Howard J. McDonough, runner up in the Republican primary for prosecutor, announces he will make the race against John C. Watson, the winner, on slips. McDonough has cut out a big task for himself.

One of the prize election stories is told about the aged politician who appears to have wanted to make a good fellow of himself. He told one of the candidates for state senator that "I put in a good word for you in Ontonagon county."

There are two counties in the Upper Peninsula where Democrats are likely to make a strong showing in the November election. One is Delta and the other is Menominee.

Perhaps Mr. Raskob could tell us if that famed 50-day moratorium on debts applies to those of political parties.

CALL of the WEST

(By NEA Service) By E. G. MONTGOMERY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

STAN BALL, an agent for cattle interests, faces ASPER DELO in his office in the city. Asper is accused by the cattle men of infringing on their range with his timber cutting.

DUDLEY WINTERS, in love with Dona, agrees to get Asper DeLo back off his wild trip to Three Rivers if she will marry him.

Dona goes with Dudley. They stop at SETH DOBY'S place. Doby refuses to help Dona but says Asper has been there and that he was ready for a killing.

Dona headed the roadster toward this building. Bearded men gazed after the car and smiled as it passed. Several waved their slouch hats.

Dona frowned. "I didn't know the government allowed clean cutting," she observed.

"Are you sure he is not here?" Dona fixed the big man with a cool stare.

"What do you mean?" Dona asked sharply. Swergin's little eyes made her skin creep and she felt almost as though he had placed his rough hands upon her.

"Why shoot him? Let him take all the notes he wants to. This is government inspected cutting."

"The flush that mounted in her satin cheeks seemed to spur Swergin on. "Sure I'll shoot him down. Only yesterday on the day before he killed Glette, the government ranger. Shot him in the back with a high-powered rifle."

"This Ball must be a tough guy," Dudley put in. Swergin answered, but he did not pay any attention to Dudley.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

THE dusty roadster slid down off the divide and entered a dense stand of pine and spruce. The green fastness of the forest was in strange contrast with the dry valleys behind.

"They sure disrobe mother nature proper when they cut timber," Dudley observed.

"Yes, I'm the boss up here. He let his chest fill out and his narrow eyes twinkled.

"This is Mr. Winters, Mr. Swergin," Dona presented Dudley.

"Dona grasped the huge fist that was thrust at him and placed the big man looked her over from her trim boots to her dusty and windblown hair.

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch

(Copyright 1932 by Douglas Malloch)

HAVE WE FORGOTTEN Have we forgotten, mourning losses And sadly counting as our crosses The absent ease, the missing pleasure, As though these were our only treasure, Have we forgotten days behind us, And do these little losses blind us, To larger things, less rich, less clever, We dreamed, and won, and have forever?

HAVE WE FORGOTTEN all the walking Together arm-in-arm and talking, And asking this—not asking whether We might be rich, but be together? Have we forgotten, love beside us, How little would have satisfied us, The things that set our pulses leaping, That we have kept, may go on keeping?

HAVE WE FORGOTTEN? Let's remember, And light again the fading ember, Of other days with less of scheming, With less of dross but more of dreaming, Have we forgotten? Let us never! We two are still as rich as ever, We, richer if this rougher weather Shall make us dream again together.

Canning Garden Odds and Ends Economy Plan

Toward the end of the season there comes a time when gardens and markets are filled with odds and ends of the summer's crop.

For some purposes almost any combination of vegetables may be used if thought is given to the predominating taste desired.

An excellent soup mixture is made by filling a sterilized jar with layers of all the vegetables at hand.

A more definite rule for a soup mixture that can be varied to suit your own garden follows:

One cup small lima or green beans cut in small pieces, one cup corn, one cup diced carrots, one cup diced celery, one small onion minced, one sweet green pepper minced, four cups diced tomatoes, two teaspoons salt, one tablespoon minced parsley. Prepare vegetables as for the table. That is, cutting the corn from the cob, peeling and quartering tomatoes and cutting other vegetables into sizes suitable for use in a vegetable soup.

Another very good mixture uses one cup each of corn cut from the cob and akro cut in short pieces to three cups of tomatoes.

Salad mixtures are canned in slightly sweetened vinegar. The vegetables are fresh and delicious tasting when served in the winter with a plain French dressing or mayonnaise dressing.

LAUNCH LEGION 1933 PROGRAM

Install Officers and Name Committees Monday Night

AUGUST Mattson Post No. 71, of the American Legion, launched its 1933 fiscal year program Monday night, after the installation of officers ceremony had been completed. Committees were named to take charge of the Armistice Day activities—one for the dance, one for the banquet and the third for the flag dedication ceremonies—and the members present were named as a committee of the whole to commence immediately on a membership drive. Each member was pledged to secure one paid member before the next meeting.

The installation of officers was conducted by Joseph Sturgeon, who read the Legion ritual and gave the oath of office to each of the members of the official family. Fred Schram, new commander, accepted the gavel from his predecessor, Albert Madden, and assumed the duties of his office immediately. Other officers upon whom the Legion duties will fall during the coming year, are Sylvester Schram, adjutant; Ernest DeHoghe, finance officer; A. A. Aiguire and Romeo Boyer, vice commanders; H. J. Skozquist, welfare officer; Percy Cameron chairman; Ed Skypar, sergeant at arms; J. A. Sturgeon, historian, and George Peoples and Tom Wurtz, members of the executive committee.

Committees named by the new commander included: Armistice dance: A. D. Aiguire, Romeo Boyer, H. J. Skozquist, Eugene Nohlet, and Wm. Green. Banquet: Shirley Davis, R. C. Chatfield, Gale Wescott, Albert Madden and J. A. Sturgeon. Program: A. D. Aiguire, Albert Madden, George Peoples and Romeo Boyer. This committee is to arrange programs at the Gladstone and Rock high schools and to make arrangements for the flag dedication ceremonies at the Marble Athletic field.

Airport committee: J. A. Sturgeon, Gale Wescott and Eugene Nohlet. This committee is to promote a movement to provide airport facilities in Delta county.

Provide Wood Lot
A report from the wood lot committee was presented, which stated that arrangements had been made with the Northwestern Co. and Lumber Company for a tract of land where the unemployed could supply themselves with wood. The land was secured through the efforts of Mayor J. P. Bushong, Coopers Company official. The committee is now making an effort to provide transportation facilities for the week after it has been cut. The location of the land would make a rail haul necessary.

BURGLARS GET CASH, DIAMOND

Beaury Home Robbed At Early Hour Last Night

The George Beaury home, near the corner of North Ninth street and M-35, was burglarized at an early hour last night, while Mrs. Beaury and employees of the Beauty service station were at the station less than 50 feet from the house. A diamond ring, a small bank containing about $2.50 in change and the shells from a revolver owned by Mr. Beaury were missing.

The burglars ransacked the entire house making a complete search for valuables. Practically every drawer in the house had been opened and the contents scattered about the floor.

The burglary was discovered by Mrs. Beaury at about 10:30 when she went to her home after closing the station.

Entrance was gained through a rear door and the burglar left through the garage at the rear of the house.

It is believed that the burglars were the work of some person well acquainted with the movement of the Beaury's. Mr. Beaury had left town just a few hours before the burglary was committed and had taken the family dog with him. The dog is usually left in the house.

Police are endeavoring to trace the burglar through meager clues that were found.

ALFRED HUBER GIVEN 15 DAYS

Pleads Guilty to Having Venison; Unable to Pay $50 Fine

A 15-day jail sentence was imposed upon Alfred Huber, Cooke farmer, who pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal possession of venison when arraigned Monday before Justice W. G. Stephens. Huber was unable to pay the $50 fine.

Under the statute governing the case, the maximum fine is $100 and the minimum is $50. The maximum jail sentence, however, is only 30 days for that offense. Having reduced the fine 50 per cent, the jail term was reduced in like manner to 15 days.

The charge against Huber evolved from an assault and battery charge which he brought against his farm hand, Wallace Arnold, last Friday. In an argument with Huber over the amount Arnold claimed due him in back wages, the latter struck Huber in the face and then seized a pitchfork forced Huber to sign a statement acknowledging the amount of wages owed. Huber then placed an assault and battery charge against Arnold to which the latter pleaded guilty. Arnold was fined $10 including costs.

Angered by the charge placed by Huber, Arnold made out an affidavit declaring that Huber had illegal deer meat in his possession. Obtaining a search warrant to look over Huber's premises, Conservation Officer Paul Knuth confiscated the venison and brought the charge against Huber, which resulted in the 15-day jail sentence.

SIX ROCK MEN SENT TO JAIL

Free-for-All, Fight at Dance Hall Lasts Four Hours

A bruised and bedraggled sextet lined up in the court of Justice A. D. Aiguire yesterday morning to enter a plea of guilty to a drunk and disorderly charge. Six more are being sought by police and will probably be haled into court on a similar charge.

The arrests were made by state police following a free-for-all fight at the Riento hall, Rock Saturday night. The fight lasted for more than four hours and several of the men were badly hurt. All had been drinking.

The men who appeared in court were Merton and Wesley Moen, Ralph Roy and Guy Stewart and Ed Heikinen, all of Rock. Each was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail.

Witnesses to the fight stated that it was one of the worst brawls ever staged in the county. Fists, clubs and bottles were flying, thick and fast. The scuffle started in the hall and when it got under way the non-combatants cleared out to give the warriors full sway. The doors were closed and the lights turned out, but the fight never ceased until exhaustion forced a truce.

The cause of the battle has not been determined.

143 Are Treated At Dental Clinic

Casimir Ignores All License Laws

Dr. H. I. Miller, of the Couzen's Fund of Michigan, has completed 11 weeks of dental work for the indigent children of Gladstone and removed to Kipling where he will hold clinics for an indefinite period. The children treated in Gladstone totalled 143, including students in both the public and parochial schools.

During the period of the clinic here, Dr. Miller had 294 clinic appointments with the children, an average of 8 for each child. He made 475 silver fillings, 321 cement bases, 154 porcelain fillings and 29 extractions. In addition 507 fillings were polished and 143 children had their teeth cleaned. Of the total number attending the clinic, 126 received complete dental care, putting their mouths in good dental health and their names have been placed on the dental honor roll.

The number of extractions during the clinic period was low, Dr. Miller states, owing to the large number who were cared for at the local clinics sponsored by Miss Emily Hanson, school nurse, during the past two years.

The clinic conducted by Dr. Miller has given dental care to children who would otherwise be unable to secure it and the entire cost is borne by the Couzen's Fund.

John Speare has returned from a week-end visit at his home in Ironwood.

LUGE FARMERS DIG POTATOES

Certified Seed Crop Is Fine, Tubers Are Healthy

Luce county farmers are just beginning to dig their certified seed potatoes, many of them awaiting drier weather. The big field of the Murphy and Gormley farm have not yet been touched and the state hospital has not started theirs. W. B. Stevens, however, has dug part of his and reports a fine crop of smooth perfect tubers running 350 bushels to the acre. He expected to have between 1800 and 1900 bushels which are contracted to the Cadillac Exchange. This field has passed inspection and reported free from disease.

Potato blight, reported in the eastern end of the peninsula, appears not to have gotten into the Luce fields. Many of the Chippewa county fields are reported badly infected and the crops will be much under normal as a result. The yellow dwarf, a disease infesting hundreds of acres of potatoes in the lower peninsula has not been reported north of the Straits. Mr. Stevens reports that he has kept his fields well sprayed.

Because of the failure of the tuber crop in many localities Luce county growers are now hoping for a market for their tubers stock, that is, potatoes grown from seed which has come from certified fields. A scout was in the county a short time ago looking over the local fields with the idea of buying. Reports are also current that many Luce tubers will be purchased to plant in localities where disease has been epidemic this season.

Plans for the Upper Peninsula Potato Show are now under way. Secretary A. A. Mattson reports that he will have the program and premium list together with the announcement of the dates within a few days.

Out of a total of 43 clubs in the tenth district, Manistique Rotarians ranked fourth in attendance records for the past month, all for having an attendance above 90 per cent. At one meeting last month the local club had a 100 per cent attendance.

Gar Wood Establishes New Speed Boat Record

PILOTS CRAFT AT 125 M. P. H.

Champion Believes His Hydroplane Will Go Even Faster

Algonac, Mich., Sept. 20 (AP)—Gar Wood brought the world's speed-boat record back to the United States today by sending his Miss America X, catapulting twice over a measured mile on the St. Clair river here at an average speed of 124.31 statute miles an hour. The former record, 119.75 miles an hour, was made on Loch Lomond, Scotland, July 18, last, by Kaye Don, British speedboat pilot who tried unsuccessfully a fortnight ago to wrest the Harmsworth trophy from Wood.

Wood, after the record-breaking run said Miss America's four 12-cylinder engines had not been wide open in today's effort and that he knew the big, mahogany-hulled thunderbolt could go faster. "How much faster, I can't say," he said. "The motors were making 2500 revolutions per minute. Their limit, with safety is 2700 revolutions per minute."

There was little ceremony about today's trials. Twice before, on Saturday and again yesterday morning Wood had brought Miss America X out to attempt a new record, only to be balked by weather, trouble with the electrical timing equipment and finally by a broken collar in one of the hydroplane's gear boxes.

Today he brought Miss America X out of his boatwell, warmed up the engines with a few preliminary turns out of sight of the measured mile course, and then notified the timers he was coming.

He came faster than any human ever has traveled on water before. With a deafening roar from the exhaust of her 48 cylinders, Miss America streaked across the starting line. A streak of glistening brown and she was gone. Less than half a minute and word came back: "Miss America covered the statute mile in 38.88 seconds."

A few seconds more and the timers announced: "Time for the nautical mile 33.32 seconds." Converted into statute miles this was at the rate of 124.41 miles an hour. "It's a new world's record," the timers announced.

"Wood, however, had another run to make, downstream. He swung wide after completing the first mile and thundered down again upon the starting line.

Miss America X presented almost the same picture, a thin wisp of smoke issuing from her upright exhaust tubes and a high spray reaching up from her stern. The downstream dash was clocked at 125.42 miles an hour. A third upstream dash was made, but it was clocked at 122.17 miles an hour, and Wood

Chicago Cubs Can Lose 'Em All Now

(By The Associated Press)

The Chicago Cubs ended the National League pennant "race" yesterday when they defeated Pittsburgh 5 to 2 in the first game of a double-header, and clinched the championship. Although the Pirates won the second game 5 to 0, they remained six games behind and cannot overtake the Cubs in the six games they still have to play. Chicago has only four to go and is certain to finish at least one game ahead.

The standing of the two clubs: Chicago—won 89; lost 61; percentage .593; games to play 4. Pittsburgh—won 82; lost 66; percentage .554; games behind 6; games to play 6.

GOOD INVESTMENT
Liverpool, Eng.—We'll bet every investor wishes he could realize the same amount of profit the Lord Mayor of Liverpool did when he purchased a potato weighing a pound and a half, that was displayed in a store here. He planted it in his garden three seasons ago and, since then has harvested 300 pounds of potatoes from it and its offspring.

He took the boat, throttled down back to its well, announcing he was satisfied with the average for the first two sprints, 124.91 statute miles an hour.

He said afterward that he was uncertain whether he would try again this winter in Florida. As proof that the craft can go even faster than it did today, Wood pointed to the 126.92 miles an hour speed it registered yesterday in an unofficial "warming up" sprint.

Cunningham made arrangements with a nearby bakery to send over his meals and induced a garage owner to lend him a few old automobile seats to use as a bed. An hour after he had taken his position, he was sleeping peacefully.

COOKS

About eight o'clock Saturday night, members of the Gordon Wolfe family heard sounds of distress coming from their flock of ducks which were out near the barn. Kermit went out, and in the moonlight saw a large horned owl sitting on the peak of the barn, apparently preparing to make a dash upon the birds below. He went to the house and brought out his gun, fired and down came the intruder. It was a big fellow measuring fifty-five and a half inches between the wing tips. He had not taken any poultry from the Wolfe farm previously.

Lawrence Strasser, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Strasser, fell off a truck on to the hard pavement when returning from the Manistique fair Thursday night in company with his father and other members of the family. He was unconscious when picked up and was immediately taken back to Manistique to a physician. Before he arrived at the doctor's office, he regained consciousness and asked "What's the matter. Have I fallen off the truck?" While rather badly scratched examination indicated that no serious injuries were received.

Bernard Popour, twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Popour sustained a broken wrist Thursday while cranking a gasoline engine connected with the farm pump. He was taken to a Manistique physician who set the injured member.

A light frost in the district Saturday night damaged corn, potatoes and other tender farm and garden crops. Effects of the frost were much more evident in the Isabella and Rapid River districts than here.

KIPKE RESTS INJURED MEN

More Than Dozen Michigan Players Are Slightly Hurt

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 20 (AP)—All able bodied candidates for the Michigan football team were used in scrimmage this afternoon while more than a dozen of the slightly injured looked on. A large number who reported today with sore backs, charley horses, minor bruises and sprains forced Head Coach Harry Kipke to announce that the hard scrimmage scheduled for Wednesday will be held later.

Those ordered by the trainers to avoid heavy duty include: ends, Antell, Shea and Williamson; linemen, Austin, Clobset, Fuog, Kowalk, McClintic, Savage and Cantrill, and backs, Fay, Jacobs, Ratterman, Reggett, Renner, Soodik and Stewart. Kipke is anxious to get them back in shape for more scrimmages this week so the final week of practice before the Michigan State game can be devoted to polishing up the Wolverine attack and defense against Spartan plays.

Offensive Stressed
Offense was stressed in the scrimmage session, with most of the hale and hearty first stringer working on four new plays which were handed out this morning.

The varsity lined up for scrimmage with Potosky and Ward at ends, Wistert and Hildebrand at tackles, Frisk and Marcovsky at guards, and Bernard at center. Newman and Westover were used at quarterback, Heston, Everhardus, Oliver and De Baker at halves, and Meldman and Everhardus at fullback.

Defensive linemen broke through and mugged up numerous tries, but every third or fourth play saw a blue-jerseyed back break

Escanaba Gridders Start Practice at Augustana College

(By The Associated Press)

Rock Island, Ill.—Despite the hot sun which beat down upon the Augustana gridders yesterday, strenuous workout was held under the direction of Coaches Almqvist and Kaminski. The sun forced many of the men to remove their heavy jerseys in search of more comfort. Head Coach Almqvist issued several new plays to the candidates, and they were run through individually and as a team. A dummy scrimmage and new passing completed the afternoon's toil.

Volley Ball Teams Are Being Formed

Volley ball enthusiasts in Escanaba are already making plans for the opening of the season by organizing teams and holding preliminary practice sessions. Last year, about two hundred men were members of 16 teams in the league, which held its contests in the three school gymnasiums.

A suggestion has been made this year that the league be divided in fast and slow divisions, such as is the case with the diamond ball teams. Volley ball players are urged to organize as soon as possible and submit their lineups to the sports editor of the Escanaba Daily Press.

A meeting of managers will be announced later.

Chicago Cubs Clinch National League Pennant

BRUINS CAPTURE FIRST GAME, 5-2

Bucs Win Second by 5-0 But Damage Already Had Been Done

BY PAUL MICKELSON (Associated Press Sports Writer) Chicago, Sept. 20 (AP)—One sweep of Kiki Cuyler's war club clinched the National league pennant for Chicago's rushing Cubs today and made his old Pittsburgh mates also rans.

Picked as a set up in the seventh inning of a torrid duel with the bases loaded and one out, Kiki got all the revenge he ever sought from the club that once sold him "down the river" by cracking out a long triple to supply the winning margin of 5 to 2. The blow, crashing off one of Steve Swetonic's slants, tumbled the Pirates out of the championship race.

Cuyler's "revenge act" was as dramatic to a roaring capacity crowd of 40,000 as it was timely. The score was tied at two all when the big Cub seventh opened with a single by Bill Jurges.

Guy Bush, tamer of the Buccaneers over the route with eight hits, laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt and was safe as Gus Suhr pegged wildly to catch Jurges at second. Billy Herman advanced with runners with another perfect hit and the Pirates called a huddle.

It was decided to pass the dangerous English to get Kiki Swetonic put everything behind his every pitch and the setting stood at three balls and two strikes. With a mighty heave, Swetonic fired Cuyler met it squarely and the ball sizzled on a line right over third base to the extreme left corner of left field. The blow cleared the bases and it was all over with Bush holding the Buc's to a harmless single by Traynor in the eighth with one out.

It was a dazed and happy crowd of Cubs that frolicked about the club house with the prized pennant and a world series chance against the New York Yankees in their pockets.

President William Veck joined the crowd, shook hands with each player and then turned to Grimm: "Thanks, manager. But we knew we could do it."

Not a word was mentioned about the world series or the Yankees. Grimm dismissed most of his lined regulars for the second game of the double header and there was a big rush toward the tea room stand.

Bucs Capture Second

"I'm glad that job's over," Grimm said as he took his shower. "We've played pretty hard and can stand some rest."

The Cubs were first to score in today's deciding game that Cuyler swiped.

Herman slammed the first pitched ball for a single to start the battle, stole second and scored on Stephenson's single. Another run was added in the third. With one out, Cuyler doubled to left center, advanced to third on a hit and run play as Steve Stripp pitched to Suhr and scored on a passed ball by Catcher Karl Grace. Pittsburgh promptly tied it up in the fourth with singles by Suhr, Vaughan and Grace and a walk to Piet. Vaughan drove in Suhr with a short fly to right. Piet scoring Grace's hit. Jams, close plays and spectacular fielding plays featured the game until Mr. Cuyler stepped into the picture and it was all over.

Presenting a patched up battle-front, the new National league champions were given a 5 to 0 beating in the second game, most of which was played in the rain. Heinie Meine held the Cubs to three hits. The crowd, however, stuck to the finish.

HERE'S THE YANKEES' VICTORY SMILE

The pennant! Isn't it written all over the faces of the Yankee players in the above picture which was taken just after the game that cinched the flag? The cameraman didn't have to ask the boys to smile for this one.

SHARKEY RATED AS CHAMPION

Schmeling Is Second and Max Baer Third in Rankings

Baltimore, Sept. 20 (AP)—Jack Sharkey was recognized today by the National Boxing association as the United States and world heavyweight boxing champion.

Max Schmeling of Germany, the former titleholder, was ranked next, followed by Max Baer. Ernie Schaaf was dropped from fourth to seventh and Primo Carnera and William L. Stribling were not listed among the first contenders.

After Johnny Jadick and Kid Chocolate had been recognized junior welterweight champion and junior lightweight titleholder respectively, the association voted to drop official recognition of the two classes.

Rosie Not Champ

Not a dissenting vote was raised at today's session of the thirteenth annual session of the association when the list of champions and ratings for 1932 were introduced.

Maxie Rosenbloom, recognized in some states as light-heavyweight king, was placed first among the contenders, the title going to George Nichols.

Marcel Thill of France was crowned as best of the middleweight class, filling the vacancy caused by Mickey Walter when he entered the heavyweight division, where he was rated fifth in this year's list.

Other champions of the National Boxing association are as follows: welterweight, Jackie Fields; lightweight, Tony Canzoneri; featherweight, Tommy Paul; bantamweight, Al Brown; flyweight, Young Perez.

A prophecy that "unscrupulous promoters" and "crooked managers" will become in a few years public charges was made in a report of a committee composed of General John V. Clinin of Illinois, president of the association, Latrobe Cogswell of Maryland, James M. Brown of Michigan and Andrew Welsberg of Indiana.

The report dealt with the amateur fight situation, praising boxing and wrestling as "the oldest of man to man sports" and contributing "more towards the building of the perfect human body than any form of physical exercise."

"The inquiries of your committee," the report continued, "disclose that boys of tender years, 16 to 21, are matched against the more mature youth of 21 to 35. In many instances without proper medical examinations as to their physical condition and under the supervision of incompetent ring officials, resulting in serious injury to the boy and being direct causes of a number of deaths."

"The lure of money soon draws the boys from school, honest work and business. Professional managers, trainers and instructors gather stables of from 10 to 15 boys and share in the purses."

"Unscrupulous promoters conspire with crooked managers in assessing box fees, gymnasium charges and other charges to rob the boy of the little money that he receives. Within a few years many of these unfortunate boys are punch drunk wrecks, and ready for commitment to the insane asylum, a charge on the public as a ward of the state."

In College Grid Camps

Iowa City, Iowa, Sept. 20 (AP)—Coach Ossie Solem was forced to make his first change of the season in the University of Iowa varsity lineup today, when Leo Samuelson, Decatur tackle, suffered recurrence of an old knee injury.

Minneapolis, Sept. 20 (AP)—About 50 Minnesota Gophers scrimmaged today as Coach Bierman directed a stiff two hour session. Jack Manders plowed over for a pair of touchdowns against the reserves. Ken Gay was placed at tackle and Phil Bengston, sophomore, was withdrawn from the regular line.

Chicago, Sept. 20 (AP)—The University of Chicago football squad had its first experience with rain this season. Coach A. A. Stagg ordering all hands out for work in spite of a steady downpour. In a punting drill Captain Don Birney impressed the coaches.

Evanston, Ill., Sept. 20 (AP)—Coach Dick Hanley gave the Northwestern squad another pair of sessions on fundamentals today, stressing blocking and tackling. He still is not pleased with the kind of blocking his backs have been getting on ball-carrying efforts.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 20 (AP)—Indiana university's football squad went out in a downpour of rain today for a thorough lesson in handling a wet ball. While the line candidates practiced recovery of fumbles, the backs tried exchanging the ball on a dead run.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 20 (AP)—Still searching for competent reserves, the Purdue football coaches were encouraged tonight by the way Craig and Cherron, sophomore halfbacks, ripped their way through a freshman team.

Columbus, O., Sept. 20 (AP)—Rain failed to halt Ohio State university's football candidates and they were sent through two driving sessions of blocking, tackling and passing. Coach Sam Willaman taking advantage of conditions to drill his squad in the mud.

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 20 (AP)—Scrimmage made its appearance in the Notre Dame camp today for the first time this season, with the second team walloping a picked team from the reserves. Nick Lukats was the individual star at ball carrying. The first team probably will scrimmage tomorrow.

Weaver Holds Red Sox To Four Hits

Boston, Sept. 20 (AP)—Monte Weaver held the lowly Red Sox to four hits today as he chalked up his 22nd victory of the year by a 4 to 1 score. Weaver has lost but nine games this season.

Sam Rice and Heinie Manush led the hitting for the Senators, who gathered nine hits off two Boston hurlers, while Weaver took the spotlight with his fielding in addition to his pitching.

Boston — 000 000 100—1 4 3

GULLIVER THIMS THOMPSON

The Gulliver Dodgers defeated the strong Thompson line by a score of 13 to 7. Gulliver got away to a poor start but with the excellent pitching of Russell Johnson they soon overcame their opponents. Baer did the pitching for Thompson but was relieved in the seventh inning by Cutler. But the Dodgers had a six run lead which Cutler failed to overcome. Batteries for the Dodgers were Peterson and Johnson doing the hurling while Knuth was on the receiving end. Batteries for Thompson were Baer and Cutler with Walker doing the receiving. The Lakeside Gigolos managed by Clarence Marks and Tom McDough were on hand to play the winners of the Thompson-Gulliver game. But due to darkness the game was postponed to a later date.

CROWLEY LIKES HIS BACKFIELD

Frank Butler Has Edge Over Meiers for Center Post

East Lansing, Mich., Sept. 20 (AP)—Coach James H. Crowley stuck to his new powerhouse backfield today as he put his Michigan State football candidates through a long workout devoid of any scrimmage.

The quartet of ball carriers comprised of Jerry Jones at quarterback, Bob Monnett and Abe Ellowitz at the halfbacks, and Bernard McNutt at fullback was Crowley's first string selection in a lengthy signal drill this afternoon.

The workout brought a varied group of plays with passes well mixed in with the running attack. Crowley sent Frank Butler, the big Chicago boy, to center, favoring him over his veteran, Francis Meiers. The dispute between the two for the pivot job may be continued up to the starting time of the Alma game. With the exception of center, the lineup of the first string eleven was the same as took the field in a great scrimmage yesterday.

Most of the workout was featured by individual instructions by the four coaches. Miles Casteel continued to stress a forward pass defensive for the reputed great over-head game expected from Michigan.

Russell Reynolds, the Flint sophomore halfback, continued to play with the second team. Reynolds was one of the outstanding stars of the spring practice season but his work this fall has been disappointing to coaches.

Coach Glenn M. Carberry drilled his end material overtime in an effort to pair off a man to match Myrton Vandermeer, the veteran wing star. Vandermeer's game is better than ever this fall but Carberry has had trouble in finding a

Record Attendance in World Series Expected

New York, Sept. 20 (AP)—The serious business of the 1932 major league season ended today when the Chicago Cubs clinched the right to meet the New York Yankees in the world's series.

The first game is to be played at the Yankee stadium, New York, Wednesday, Sept. 28. Two games will be played in New York, Sept. 28 and 29. After a day of travel they will resume activity in Chicago for three games, Oct. 1, 2 and 3 and then if necessary return to New York for the final game, Oct. 5 and 6.

The principal worry for the Yankees, who clinched the American league flag a week ago lies in the condition of Babe Ruth. The great man succumbed to a threatened appendicitis attack in Detroit Sept. 7 and has not played since. He began light workouts in the stadium a few days ago and is expected to play in the series against Philadelphia beginning tomorrow. The Babe insists he will be in first class shape before the series starts.

Tony Lazzeri also has been on the Yankee sick list for a while, leaving the American league champs very weak at second base but he too is expected to be ready to play. The only Cub ailment has been a slight injury to Mark Koenig, who had just about ousted Bill Jurges from the shortstop post.

Advance estimates indicated that new world series records for attendance and receipts may be made. The Yankee stadium has been favored for the job so far over Ed Klewicki, the tough Hamtramck sophomore.

Crowley indicated he will hold another scrimmage Wednesday.

been enlarged since the last series (1903) and now will hold 52,946 fans, who will pay $234,000 if they fill it. Wrigley field in Chicago holds about 52,000 and a sellout will bring in more than $200,000. The record set by the Yankees and Cardinals in 1926 is 328,051 attendance and $1,207,364 receipts.

Clint Brown and Willis Hudlin were the winning pitchers. Cleveland started both games in winning style, scoring two runs in the first inning of the opener and three runs in the first of the second.

DODGERS BEAT PHILLIES, 3-1

Brooklyn Takes Home Run Route to Upset Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Sept. 20 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers staved off the Phillies' bid for third place in the National league by taking the home run route to a 3 to 1 victory today, the triumph gave Brooklyn a margin of 1 1/2 games.

A pair of homers accounted for all the Brooklyn tallies. Joe Stripp walloped one in the third inning and overcame the Phil's inning after Danny Taylor had first inning lead. In the seventh frame Glenn Wright walloped one into the left field bleachers with no one on.

Watson Clark pitched a splendid game for Brooklyn after the first inning and chalked up his 19th victory of the season. In the first George Davis opened with a single and Dick Bartell advanced him to third with another. After the next two men went out on short flies, Pinky Whitney came through with a third single to drive in the Phil's only run. After that bad start Clark allowed only five hits through the next eight frames.

The Dodgers stirred up some excitement in the seventh when Stripp, Mungo and Slade were chased off the bench for their comments on Umpire Dannelly's decision when he called Cuccinello out at second.

Score by innings:
Brooklyn ... 002 000 100—3 9 0
Philadelphia ... 100 000 000—1 8 0

BURGLARS GET PRISON TERMS

Nine Sentenced Tuesday By Judge Bell in Delta County Court

Stern notice was served upon habitual house-breakers and thieves that their depredations would not be countenanced, by Judge Frank A. Bell in circuit court yesterday when he sentenced several who had pleaded guilty to burglary or larceny upon arraignment.

Raymond Flagstad, who pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary and one of larceny, was sentenced to Marquette branch prison for a minimum of three years, not to exceed 15 years, with a recommendation of the minimum. A fourth felony charge against Flagstad was dropped by the prosecutor. Otherwise, under the law no discretion would be permitted the court and Flagstad's sentence would have been for life. The judge ordered two counts stricken from the records, to which Flagstad had pleaded guilty, and based the sentence upon the burglary July 5 of a North Western railway freight car.

Further disapproval of habitual offenders was displayed by Judge Bell in the case of Rollin McCrain, charged with forgery, who was sentenced to Marquette prison for not less than two years, nor more than fourteen. McCrain has been guilty of other forgeries, and has served time before, according to information gathered by officers.

Others who had pleaded guilty to burglary or larceny charges, were sentenced to Marquette prison from six months to 15 years with recommendation of the minimum sentence. They were Gerald Broadhead, who had stolen a car; Percy Richer and Richard Newman who had broken and entered the store of William Peterson Sept. 14; Harris Humbert, Abraham Robare, Edward Rushford, and Delore Rushford, who had broken into the warehouse of Peter Jacobson in Fairbanks township July 5.

Placed on Probation

George Davis, who with Edward Koehler, was charged with the burglary of a Delta Hardware warehouse, from which they stole dynamite, was sentenced to the county jail for 60 days, after which he will be placed on probation for two years with a 15-year sentence in Marquette branch prison as the penalty for breaking his parole.

Wick Mackay, Oliver Roman, and Gust Almonroeder, charged with the burglary of a Scandia Co-operative store in July, were placed on probation for three years.

John Lindstrom was placed on probation for two years, having pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct for the third time. Mike Neury, who carried a concealed weapon, was also given a two-year probation period.

Herbert Hingman, who pleaded guilty to non-support of wife and children at Masonville was put on probation for two years, with the warning that he should begin at once to support his family, making regular reports to the parole officer. He is to report compliance with the court order to Judge Bell on the first day of the next term of court, or a prison sentence will be substituted for the probationary one.

Terrion Found Guilty

Edward Menard changed his plea of not guilty to prohibition law violation, to one of guilty, and probably will be sentenced today.

A jury, after a half hour's deliberation, returned a verdict of guilty of possessing intoxicating liquor, against John Terrien who pleaded his own case before Judge Bell yesterday afternoon. The witnesses were James Huff, who testified that he secured liquor at the Terrien place; Torral Kallerson, Gladstone chief of police, who raided the place on a search warrant; Sheriff Elmer Swanson, who took part of the eight gallons of moonshine whiskey confiscated during the raid, to Dr. H. J. Defnet, who analyzed it, and testified yesterday as to its alcoholic content. The jurors in the case are: Irene Peterson, Gladstone; Mary Sundstrom, Bay de Noc township; Mildred Tatrov, Garden township; Hans Hanson, Escanaba; Dora Thorsen, Wells township; Gust Nelson, Bay de Noc township; Mildred E. Cole, Gladstone; Arthur Johnson, Escanaba township; Ellen Pilon, Maple Ridge township; Noris Finlendale, Bark River township; Felix Bedard, Ford River township; and John O'Neil, Escanaba.

Prospect Want Ads Cost Little, Accomplish Much.

CASE IS ENDED WITH ACQUITTAL

Judge Rebukes Jury in Trial of Edward Lamotte, Garden

Edward La Motte, of Garden, who treated Mrs. Christina Hillman for cancer, was acquitted by a jury in circuit court yesterday of practicing medicine without a license, in violation of the state law. The verdict was returned in the face of a statement by Judge Frank A. Bell that he believed the defendant guilty under the state law, and after the verdict had been announced Judge Bell rebuked the jurors by saying that he felt they had little respect for their oath.

The issue in the case hinged about the point whether Mr. La Motte's treatments of Mrs. Hillman constituted practicing medicine in the meaning of the state law. Henry Hillman, husband of the woman who subsequently died from a hemorrhage caused when the cancerous condition spread to an artery in the neck, testified that he had taken his wife to several specialists in Ann Arbor and Rochester without success. Edith Hillman, his daughter, told how the family had sought Mr. La Motte as a last resort, and how Mr. La Motte, only after much urging, consented to treat Mrs. Hillman.

Physicians Testify

This point was emphasized by Atty. William Miller, attorney for the defense, who argued that the $35 Mr. La Motte received for his services were merely for expense.

Dr. A. J. Carlson, who attended Mrs. Hillman the night she died, testified as to her condition at the time. The testimony of Dr. A. S. Kitchin, who was called in to attend Mrs. Hillman after Mr. La Motte had begun his calls in October of last year, indicated that the cancer had been aggravated by the application of a corrosive substance. Upon cross-examination by Atty. Miller, the said "sloughing-off" condition, he said, could not have been caused by the radium treatments to which Mrs. Hillman had submitted. Dr. Kitchin said that the "plaster" method of curing cancer was not recognized by the medical universities.

Inasmuch as the state law penalized professional ministrations to the sick without a license, as contrasted with help offered by laymen in a purely humanitarian sense, much emphasis was laid upon this point by the defense.

The prosecution urged conviction in the case as an example to quacks, who otherwise might freely prey upon the community.

GARDEN CLUBS WIND UP WORK

Prize Money to Be Distributed by Wylie This Afternoon

Prize money offered at the vegetable show and the Upper Peninsula State Fair to members of the 4-H garden clubs will be distributed by Henry Wylie, Smith-Hughes agricultural instructor, to the various winners this afternoon. The awards will be made in Room 106 of the junior high school building between 4 and 5 p. m.

A summary of garden club work during the past summer was given by Mr. Wylie yesterday.

The junior high seventh grade club, with 75 per cent "finishers" and $5 prize money, is the highest ranking club for 1932. To Margaret Needham, State Road, with an A-plus garden, the best report in her club, namely 'St. Joseph No. 1, and the best exhibit in Delta county at the U. P. State Fair, goes the honor of being the highest ranking club member.

Jane Wander, 601 North Sixteenth street, Norine Roeder, State Road, and Oliver Granskog, Stonington, proved themselves to be excellent garden club members.

The percentage of "finishers", that is, members who exhibited their produce at the vegetable show and the U. P. ### Democrats of County Meet in Convention

Delta County Democrats, Meeting in Convention Last Night, Endorsed Two Candidates for State Office, Elected Four Delegates and Four Alternates to the State Convention and Passed Resolutions Endorsing the National and State Tickets and Recommending Three Planks for the State Platform.

Proceeding the convention the county nominees of the party met and named Gerald Cleary, Escanaba, county chairman, O. K. Fjetland, Gladstone, vice chairman, N. Peter Thompson, Escanaba, secretary and J. H. Boyle, Bark River, treasurer.

John K. Stack, Escanaba lumberman, received the endorsement for the office of auditor general, a place on the ticket which he occupied two years ago, and O. K. Fjetland, Gladstone representative of the Daily Press, was endorsed for the office of secretary of state. Resolutions endorsing both candidates were laudatory and commended them for their services to the party organization.

Platform resolutions endorsed by the convention included recommendations for changes in the election laws, revision in the set-up of government and a proposal for the discontinuance of annual issuance of license plates.

Delegates to the state convention included Gerald Cleary, O. K. Fjetland, Con Gallagher, and John Fisher, Sr., all of whom, with the exception of Mr. Fjetland, are residents of Escanaba. Alternates named were, John Stack, Jr., Claude Tobin, William Miron and Frank Barron.

The resolutions, as adopted, follow:

Endorse Stack

Whereas John K. Stack has been a very enthusiastic and able worker for the Democratic party, and

Whereas John K. Stack has unselfishly devoted a great deal of time and effort to the cause of Democracy in the county, state and nation; and

Whereas John K. Stack Jr.'s qualifications are of the highest order; and

Whereas he has consented to become a candidate for the office of auditor general of the state of Michigan.

Therefore, We the Delta County Democratic committee, do this day place its stamp of approval and endorsement on the candidacy of John K. Stack, Jr., for the office of auditor general of the state of Michigan, and authorized this endorsement to be spread on the minutes of the meeting and that a copy be presented to the Escanaba Daily Press and a copy be sent to the chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, Alfred Debo, at Detroit, Michigan.

Secretary of State

The Democrats of Delta county, in convention assembled, do endorse the candidacy of O. K. Fjetland of Gladstone for the office of secretary of state, and do instruct our delegates to the state convention to use all honorable means to secure said nomination. We do this in recognition of Mr. Fjetland's sterling character, his proven abilities, and his staunch adherence to the principles of Democracy, and his unstinted efforts in behalf of the party.

We further request that the chairman and secretary of this convention communicate this endorsement to county chairmen of the several counties of the state, and chairman of the Democratic Central committee, Alfred Debo, at Detroit, Michigan.

National Ticket

The Democrats of Delta county in convention assembled do hereby endorse the candidacy of the nominees of the National Democratic convention, Franklin D. Roosevelt for president, and John N. Garner for vice president, and we do pledge them our support in the coming election.

We do wholeheartedly approve of the platform adopted at said national convention.

Further, we do hereby endorse the candidacy of William C. Comstock, the Democratic nominee for governor of Michigan, and we pledge our support to his candidacy.

Further, we pledge our support to Prentiss M. Brown, Democratic nominee for congress from the eleventh congressional district.

Proposed Election Change

Whereas, the present election laws are wholly unsatisfactory to the people of the state of Michigan, and

Whereas, a simple revision of the law would provide for a more satisfactory and more economical method of officers, as well as giving assurance that a minority candidate could not be elected to office within the state, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Delta county Democrats, in convention assembled, endorse the following changes in the election laws and recommend that they be incorporated as a part of the state platform to be adopted at the state convention in Lansing on

(a) That the spring primary and "off year" elections be discontinued.

(b) That no provision be made for "slip" candidates on the non-partisan ballot, but that on the partisan political ballot, provision be made that an independent candidate shall not be deprived of presenting his candidacy to the people of the state or district.

Abolish Townships

Whereas, the costs of government have mounted until the tax has become unbearable, and

Whereas, much of this tax burden and government cost is due to an antiquated and complex system with much duplication of governmental functions, and

Whereas, it is a pledge of the Democratic party to recommend and carry into execution a program that will reduce the cost of government, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Delta County Democratic convention endorse and recommend to the state convention that the following changes in the state governmental structure be incorporated in the state party platform:

(a) That the constitution of the state be amended to permit a commission form of government in the counties of the state at the option of the people of the counties.

(b) That the township organizations be discontinued and that the collection of taxes and other functions of the township units be transferred to the county.

(c) That the county governing body be given authority to determine the number of offices required to carry on the work of the county government, with the power to discontinue or consolidate any of the offices. (The law to specify the greatest number of elective offices that would be permitted in a county.)

Permanent Plates

Whereas, the cost of provision and annual distribution of license plates for automobiles is a heavy tax upon the people of the state, and

Whereas, the state could collect a tax, equal to the net amount now received through the annual license, at a great saving to the individual automobile owner, without an annual change of plates, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Delta county Democratic convention recommend to the state convention that the party platform approve the adoption of permanent license plates as a state economy measure.

Bad Checks Reported

Two bad $28 checks were reported passed at local stores yesterday. The man who cashed them was reported to police as about 25 years old, five feet eight inches tall, round face, weight about 150 pounds, wearing knee breeches, high leather boots, dark hat or cap and dark mackinaw. The name of Joe Moore and Charles Moore was used on the checks.

County Convention

Delta county Republicans will hold their county convention at the court house in Escanaba 11 o'clock Thursday morning. Thirteen delegates will be selected to attend the state convention, which will be held in Detroit Sept. 29 for the nomination of the Republican candidates for secretary of state, treasurer and auditor general.

THIS IS KINDA HARD

Little Anna asked her father why he didn't have hair on top of his head.

"For the same reason that grass won't grow on a busy street," he answered. "You know why now, don't you?"

"Sure," she replied. "It can't get up through the concrete."—The Humorist.
