RAILWAY ACTS AGAINST BILL OF RECAPTURE

CLAIMS EXCESSIVE PROFIT LEVY IS CONFISCATORY

(Copyright 1932, By The Associated Press) Danville, Ill., Nov. 25 (AP)—A new effort of American railroads to escape paying the government's bill for profits in excess of six percent was started today in federal court.

Upon the ultimate verdict of the courts there probably rests the disposition of nearly $360,000,000 in excess earnings of 450 railroads, claimed by the federal treasury under the recapture clause of the transportation act of 1920.

Dormant since the supreme court decided the famous test case of the St. Louis & O'Fallon railway, the issue was reopened by another small midwestern line: The Illinois Terminal road, operated a network of steam and electric lines in Illinois as a subsidiary of the Illinois Power & Light Corporation.

Injunction Asked The Terminal railroad asked an injunction against the United States and the interstate commerce commission to prevent collection of $875,450 for excess profits from March 1, 1920 to Dec. 31, 1924.

Tolling of its losses in the "depression" years since 1929, the company contended the assessment of all profits above six percent in better years would be confiscatory. It charged also that the interstate commerce commission improperly assumed the roles of plaintiff, prosecuting attorney, prosecutor, witness, judge and jury in the hearings that resulted in fixing the Terminal line's excess earnings bill, and that it erred in finding the railroad's property valuation.

The suit was filed before U. S. District Judge Walter C. Lindley in the eastern district of Illinois. In the O'Fallon case appeal, the supreme court ruled that the interstate commerce commission erred in determining property values, basing earnings computations on prices prevailing from 1910 to 1914. The recapture order went back to the commission for revision of property value figures.

With many of the leading transportation systems today borrowing funds from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to meet demands at a critical moment in their history, the carriers still face a staggering debt to the government if the recapture clause is sustained.

A bill to repeal the clause was introduced in the last session of congress but the rules committee of the house failed to bring it to a vote. During the hearings before the interstate and foreign commerce committee of the house Joseph B. Eastman of the interstate commerce commission testified few railroads had cash available to pay their recapture bills without "robbing Peter to pay Paul."

House Plans Quick Action on Repeal

Communists Scored by Governor for Leading Child Jobless Parade

Lansing, Nov. 25 (AP)—A juvenile unemployment march and demonstration at the state capitol today was turned into a vigorous denunciation of communism by Governor Brucker. After he had listened to the demands of a delegation of some thirty children for food and clothing, the governor charged the demonstration was sponsored by communists. The executive said that application for relief should be made to local agencies.

ARNOLD MIGHT GET LENIENCY Threat of Execution Is Removed by State's Attorney

Chicago, Nov. 25 (AP)—The threat of the electric chair apparently was removed today from 19 year old Charles Bernard Arnold, Jr., shortly after he was indicted for slaying his step-grandmother. Assistant State's Attorney Harry Ditchburn, in answer to a question whether the state would recommend leniency in return for a plea of guilty, said: "Yes, I think that can be arranged."

Negroes Arraigned On Murder Charge

Fremont, Nov. 25 (AP)—The hospital in which their alleged victim died today was transformed into a makeshift court room for the arraignments of three Gary, Ind., negroes charged with the slaying of Fred R. Stoe, Brohman, Mich., postmaster. Those arraigned today were Joe Jackson, 35, who was shot in the gun battle which ensued when Stoe tried to prevent the hold-up of his gasoline station; Ben Leak and James Hudson.

Seek Free Gasoline But Will Not Work

Manhattan, Kas., Nov. 25 (AP)—The municipal woodpile held no charm today for self-styled "hunger marchers," bound from the west for Washington, even though work on it meant a reward of gasoline for their trucks and motor cars. Nine "delegates" of the group, one a woman, appeared before Charles Lantz, city clerk, demanding gasoline and food. Lantz refused them food, but Mayor Evan Griffith, a World War veteran, offered to provide 30 gallons of gasoline if 15 men would work one hour on the woodpile.

Police Seek Pair For Various Holdups

Grand Rapids, Nov. 26 (AP)—Police patrolled western Michigan roads Thursday night and Friday morning in search of Al Wineke, 27, and Mike Stellars, 24, of Michigan City, Ind., sought in connection with a series of holdups. They failed to locate the pair, after Wineke had escaped from them in Manistee county Tuesday, forcing handcuffs which held him.

Man, 26, Held for Shooting Mother

Grand Rapids, Nov. 26 (AP)—John Hiskins, Jr., 26, is held for questioning in connection with the wounding Thursday night of his mother, shot by a deer rifle. Police said they had been informed the shooting resulted from a family quarrel, but Hiskins and his father insisted the woman was wounded accidentally.

VOTE WILL BE REQUESTED ON OPENING DAY

Washington, Nov. 25 (AP)—Members of the house may get a chance to vote the first day of the coming session of congress—December 6—on repeal of the eighteenth amendment. A program to accomplish that purpose was discussed today by Speaker Garner and Representative Snell of New York, the Republican leader. Garner would recognize a member to move suspension of the rules and ask for a vote on a resolution proposing outright repeal.

Mt. Clemens Bank Fails To Open Doors

Mt. Clemens, Mich., Nov. 26 (AP)—The Citizens Savings bank failed to open for business Friday, and a notice posted on the door stated the bank was closed by order of the board of directors pending efforts at reorganization. The bank was capitalized at $500,000 and listed a surplus of $250,000. In its statement it listed footings, liabilities and assets at $4,847,183.

U. S. DEBTORS ASKED TO PAY IN DECEMBER

Washington, Nov. 25 (AP)—Pay up on December 15, America has advised her foreign debtors, and thus create a more favorable atmosphere for the reconsideration of the whole war debt problem by a commission which President Hoover will ask congress to authorize.

RE-EXAMINATION OF PROBLEM MIGHT COME LATER

This was the gist of notes forwarded by Secretary Stimson in response to the requests of France, Great Britain and Belgium, for an extension of the present moratorium and a re-examination of the debt situation. "As to the suspension of the installment of the British debt due Dec. 15, which is one of the objects of your note, no authority lies within the executive to grant such an extension and no fact have been placed in our possession which could be presented to congress for favorable consideration," said the note presented to Ambassador Lindsay of Great Britain.

25 SHOPPING DAYS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

SEEKS FREEDOM FOR FILIPINOS

Smoot Predicts Congress Will Pass Bill in Short Session

Washington, Nov. 25 (AP)—A belief that Philippine independence would be approved by congress before or after Christmas was expressed today by Senator Smoot (R. Utah), as opponents of the legislation began preparations for a final fight.

Although reserving a definite commitment until he sees the bill in its final form, the veteran Utah senator said he thought he would vote to free the islands which America acquired after the Spanish-American war.

Meanwhile, Senator Copeland (D. N. Y.) was understood to be preparing a lengthy speech in opposition, and organized groups such as the American farm bureau federation are ready to add their voices to a "no" chorus unless the proposed transition period culminating in full freedom is shortened.

Under an agreement last session, the senate will take up the Hawes-Cutting measure on December 8, three days after the short session convenes.

Difficulties are numerous. If this bill or one similar to it is passed it would go immediately to conference for adjustment of differences with the House bill approved by the house last session, 304 to 47.

No one in authority would predict today what action President Hoover might take on an independence bill. Secretary Hurley, who walked out of a senate committee hearing last session after a verbal clash over independence with Senator King (D. Utah), reported to the president after visiting the islands, that the Filipinos were not ready to assume self-government.

Differences exist not only between proponents and opponents of the legislation but within the former group itself. For one thing, it has not been able to agree on a time when full economic and political independence should be granted.

The bill passed by the house would grant independence in eight years and meanwhile place limitations on free imports up until the time full freedom is granted. The senate bill fixes the transition period at 15 years and provides for an island plebiscite at the end of that time on whether the Filipinos themselves want to relinquish their American control.

Chester Gray, legislative representative of the American farm bureau federation, said today that neither bill was satisfactory, but the house bill would be preferred if the transition period is changed to five instead of eight years.

State Park Group Camps Are Popular

Lansing—Group camps operated in eight of Michigan's State Parks accommodated 11,834 campers and picnickers during the past summer season, a report issued by the Parks Division of the Department of Conservation shows.

Group camps, established several years ago are equipped with sleeping accommodations, stoves, tables and other requisites and are designed to offer facilities to groups of boys and girls for camping purposes during the summer months.

Attendance during the 1932 season at the eight camps operated were:

Bay City 2,242; Dodge Bros. 9, 709; Dodge Bros. No. 10, 5,408; W. J. Hayes 547; Interlochen 127; Marquette 2,265; Van Buren 177; J. W. Wells 359.

Groups are permitted to use the buildings up to two weeks. The camps are also available to picnic parties, family reunions, fraternal organizations and similar organizations for one day when not in use or reserved by organized camping groups.

Tract On Escanaba River Is "Posted"

The presence of elk herds in the Pigeon River Forest and Game Refuge in Cheboygan and Osceola counties and the Houghton Lake State Forest in Roscommon County has forced the Department of Conservation to erect signs warning hunters against mistaking them for deer. The signs read: "Elk in this vicinity. Unlawful to shoot them. Be Careful!"

Hundreds of signs have also been placed on state owned lands in the vicinity of the game refuges in the southern peninsula and the Casino Refuge and Escanaba River Tract in the upper peninsula, indicating public hunting ground areas to hunters.

Honist, who said he is opposed to both.

"A decent respect for the old principles of the constitution would suggest that we take up repeal first," Borah said.

Hastings' proposal to withdraw enforcement from states that do not cooperate was described by Borah as constituting "open nullification" and added the "national government has nothing to do with the enforcement of state laws."

Senator Fess (R., Ohio), who said he would vote to submit a repeal amendment along the lines suggested by the Republican platform said he could not agree to the Hastings' proposal "because it would be tantamount to nullification."

Senator Dickinson (R., Iowa), however, said he saw "no particular objection" to the Hastings' bill.

Snell opposed the Hastings proposal declaring that he was "not for nullification" but that appropriations for federal enforcement should not be reduced in proportion to those for other governmental activities.

"There is no question in my mind," Snell said, "that the people of the country are not satisfied with the eighteenth amendment. Not only the wet but the real temperance people believe that some regulation of the liquor traffic would be better than the speakeries we have at present."

"The best way in my mind to handle this is for the house judiciary committee to immediately bring up for consideration a constitutional amendment along the lines of that proposed by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, in the senate last year. I would vote for such an amendment."

The Glass measure provided for the federal government to retain constitutional power to protect dry states from liquor importations and to allow the saloon.

Snell predicted that if the present congress adopted a repeal resolution it could be ratified within a short time if all but four would meet this winter. For ratification the approval of 36 would be required.

Grand Rapids Man Ill With Tularemia

Swimming Mail Man Of South Seas Quits

Honolulu, Nov. 25. (AP)—G. S. Ramsay is quitting his job as the swimming mail man of the South Seas.

For eleven years he says his job has been to swim out to ships from the island of Niuafoou, in the Tonga group, through surf too rough for a boat to stand, and tow back mail for the island in a 40-pound biscuit can while sharks swam alongside.

His "route" was about a mile.

Peddlers' Ordinance

Sault Ste. Marie—A new peddler ordinance was given its first reading before the city commission Monday night. The new ordinance is more drastic than the previous one and is, according to City Attorney A. E. Sharpe, "a sure cure for the fly-by-nighters who peddle from house to house."

It calls for the posting of a bond of $500 by all peddlers and itinerant merchants who wish to work here. It governs all but those engaged in inter-state commerce. If a cash bond is deposited it will remain in effect for 90 days. Any other bond will be effective for six months.

Oil Lands Bring $23,000 a Year, State Royalties

Lansing—An income of approximately $23,000 a year is now being received by the State of Michigan through the rental of state owned lands leased for oil and gas development. It is announced by the Lands Division of the Department of Conservation.

GERMANY STILL WITHOUT GOVT

Another Presidential Cabinet Seems Only Solution

Berlin, Nov. 25. (AP)—Appointment of another "presidential" cabinet responsible only to the president appeared a likelihood tonight after Reichstag party leaders reported to President Von Hindenburg that they could not agree on a chancellor.

Monsignor Ludwig Kass, leader of the Catholic center party, informed the president during the day that Adolf Hitler's national Socialists and Alfred Hugenberg's Nationalist party would not agree to a coalition government.

Monsignor Kass has been commissioned by the president to try his hand at the formation of a government which could find support in the Reichstag. Hitler previously had declined to assume the chancellorship.

Hitler left an interview with the monsignor with a smile on his face and to questioners he replied: "I have always been an optimist and I still am."

The center leader conferred at length today with Hitler, whose 196 followers in the Reichstag make them extremely important. Hugenberg, Edward Dingeldey, of the People's party, and Hugo Schaefer, minister of labor in the recent Von Papen government.

Monsignor Kass also saw several members of the social Democratic party, before he decided that a coalition was impossible.

Dr. Kass told President Hindenburg that Hitler's Reichstag troops would vote against any chancellor who is not a Nazi.

declaring against an extension and against any reduction of the sums due. This attitude has been reiterated frequently in statements by individual members and when leaders of both parties, assembled at the White House, emphatically opposed the creation of a commission to dig into the debt problem, suggested then by President Hoover.

President-elect Roosevelt also was not cordial to this proposal. He said he believed existing agencies were sufficient to handle the debt problem.

Publication of the notes made it apparent, however, that Mr. Hoover, although well aware of the attitude of congress, has not dropped the idea.

"I confess I cannot see any presentation in your note which would be likely to induce the congress of the United States to act upon the question any differently now from the manner and the principles upon which it has acted in the past," Secretary Stimson informed the British, adding:

"The attitude of the president, therefore, is that for any suggested study of inter-governmental financial obligations as now existing, some such agency as I have referred to should be created to consider this question individually with each government as heretofore. The president is prepared to recommend to congress that it constitute an agency to examine the whole subject."

In this passage the note to France added a reminder of Mr. Hoover's idea that world business conditions could be improved by exchanging debt concessions for tariff favors and disarmament.

"As he (Hoover) has several times said publicly he also believes that some basis might be found for bringing to the American people some adequate compensation in forms other than cash payment," the note said.

Stimson said in his note to Great Britain that he was fully aware of the increased weight of debt because of the fall in commodity prices.

"On the other hand, it must be remembered that these incidents of the depression have also fallen with great weight upon the American people," the note stated, "and the effects upon them directly as tax payers or otherwise of any modification of an agreement with respect to debts due to this country cannot be disregarded."

EARLY SHOPPING MAILING URGED

No Deliveries Will Be Made at Escanaba Dec. 25 and 26.

Once again the postoffice department is urging early shopping and mailing to insure delivery of gifts before Christmas Day. A reminder that there will be no mail delivery on Sunday and Monday, December 25 and 26, has been issued at the Escanaba postoffice.

Parcels destined for foreign countries should be mailed this month, due to the long sea travel and the customs inspections abroad. Special care should be taken in the packing and wrapping of such parcels. In order to cooperate with the postal department during the rush, the public is urged to mail gifts, greetings and letters at least a week or ten days before Christmas.

No parcel may be more than 100 inches in length and girth combined nor exceed 70 pounds in weight. Here are a few of the suggestions for packing issued by the postmaster general's office:

Special Packing Umbrellas, canes, golf sticks, should be reinforced their full length by strong strips of wood tightly wrapped and tied or otherwise sufficiently wrapped to withstand transportation.

Hats: Pack in strong corrugated or fiber-board boxes. Ordinary pasteboard hatboxes must be crated. Ladies' hats and stiff hats easily damaged should be marked "Fragile."

Shoes: Pack in strong boxes, preferably corrugated cardboard. Wrap with strong paper securely tied with heavy twine.

Cut fabrics: Place in strong suitable boxes of wood, tin, or heavy corrugated cardboard. Wrap with tissue to retain moisture.

Candles: Enclose in strong outside boxes or containers. Drawings, paintings, unmounted maps, etc.: Pack in strong material to avoid damage. When not flat, roll around a wooden core and then wrap and tie carefully or place in strong pasteboard tube.

Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments or tools must have points and edges fully guarded to prevent injury to clerks in handling or damage to other mail. Crate suitably or thoroughly wrap so that they can not cut through the wrapping.

Fragile Articles Articles easily broken or crushed must be securely wrapped and crated and boxed. Use liberal quantities of excelsior, or like material, in, around, and between the articles and the outside container.

Glassware, fragile toys, or crockery must be packed so as to prevent the escape of particles or pieces if broken in transit.

Cigars: Ordinary boxes of cigars wrapped in paper only will not be accepted. Pack in a manner to prevent damage by shock

RECALLS OLDEN TIMES IN CITY

Van Valkenburg, Former Journal Editor, Writes To Press

A collection of interesting reminiscences of pioneer days in Escanaba is contained in a letter received by the Press from E. F. Van Valkenburg, 701 West 82nd street, Los Angeles, Calif., who a quarter of a century ago was the editor of the Escanaba Journal.

His letter reads as follows: "Every once in a while I get hold of a copy of your paper. There was a time when I would have known nearly every resident or firm mentioned in your columns, but now it is different. Scarcely any of the old firms from thirty to forty years ago have survived and the names of most of those who figure in the social, business and political activities of the old town are no longer familiar to me.

But here and there I find mention made of some of the old timers, and whenever I run across such a name it recalls memories and scenes of the old days.

"I wonder how many of the older Escanaba residents remember:

"The political torch light parades we used to have. . . When A. R. ('Lon') Northrup was principal of the school. . . The big fire that destroyed most of the business houses on the north side of Ludington street, in the block west of Wolcott street. . . The time Jim Tolan was hurt stopping a runaway team. . . The red front grocery store run by J. G. Walters on the southeast corner of Ludington and Tilden Ave. . . The explosion of the heating plant in Ed. Erickson's dry goods store. . . The Fourth of July when the speaker's platform built over L. D. McKenna's vacant lot on Ludington street collapsed just as Ira C. Jennings had started his oration. . . That other Fourth of July when the fireworks exploded and one of the skyrockets struck W. J. Hatton in the face. . . The mild winter of 1900, when there was scarcely any snow on the ground. . . Duncan McTee doing a standing jump over a horse. . . Charlie Gagnon as a fancy ice skater (and was he good?) . . . When Dr. F. A. Banks was the handsomest man in town, and the first agent for 'safety' bicycles. . . Matt Smith when he played on the Escanaba baseball team. . . Beautiful Adele Royce and her superb voice. . . Jim Christie and his trained pets. . . The theater over George English's livery stable. . . Poole's Nursery on east Wells Avenue. . . The wreck at Watermeet that cost the life of Lieutenant Governor McDonald. . . Kate McGillis and her Sunday school class. . . The marvelous orations of the Hon. John Power. . . When B. S. Winegar was agent for the A. Booth Packing company. . . The high plank sidewalks on Ludington street, and when it was paved with cedar blocks. . . George Finch and his telephone exchange. . . Wixson's Photograph Gallery (his son Chet is now a prominent retired business man at Pismo Beach, Calif.). . . Harry Bushnell and Charlie Mason's 'Calumet,' which had as its slogan—'He that Tooteth not His own Horn, the same for Him shall not be Tooted'. . . Q. R. Hessel, who ran a meat market and sold horses. . . W. B. Lindsay learning to ride a bicycle. . . When the town boasted of 103 saloons. . . Emil Sonberg and his playing of the violin. . . Leslie French when he first came to Covell Royce's bank. . . When Ed Vohrt was a clerk in Justin N. Mead's Drug Store. . . Alf. Crebo and yours truly when they wore silk hats on Sundays. . . The suave, immaculate Tommy Curry. . . The prize fight at Peterson's Opera House between Axel Peterson and Billy Wiseman. . . Fabian Defnet and his dray line. . . John Sourwine and his chewing gum—'Like a Bunch of Carnations in the Mouth'. . . The old steamer 'Welcome.' . . 'I might go on for pages, recalling people and incidents of the long ago. It seems but a short time that I stood with a large crowd of citizens watching Escanaba's first street car on its course down Ludington street, but a lot of water has run under the bridge since that momentous day. I don't suppose anybody in Escanaba knows that J. K. Stack used to play a mean game of marbles. Well, he could. When I was a barefoot boy he taught me how to 'shoot,' and believe me he knew how. He spent half an hour teaching me one afternoon, back of George Preston's Drug Store.

"I hope some of the old residents may get a 'kick' out of these recollections, which I have jotted down after finishing some work in my flower garden. It was while I was out there under a warm sun with the thermometer up in the eighties that I got to wondering what the weather was like in old Escanaba. Then came thoughts about the by-gone days, all of which resulted in this letter. We do have wonderful winter weather here, but I think no place on earth can surpass your fall weather. How I did enjoy those wonderful fall days and the glorious hues of the turning leaves that stretched for miles into a panorama of indescribable beauty. I hope the trees are still there. . . 'Some day after this silly depression is over I want to go back and see if I can find my way around and locate a few of the 'old guards' who'll remember the doings and events of nearly half a century ago.

PROTECT YOUR AUTOMOBILE with Firestone ANTI-FREEZE

You get double protection with Firestone Anti-Freeze in your radiator. It won't boil off on warm days. On cold days there is no danger of a frozen radiator. And, Firestone Anti-Freeze is more economical—one filling lasts all winter.

The name 'Firestone' is your guarantee of quality. Let us protect your car with Firestone Anti-Freeze. Then forget about your radiator for the balance of the winter.

Girl Hurt On Way Home; Can't Tell How It Happened

Mary Eileen, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Bourke, 602 South Eighth street, suffered a slight concussion and a deep gash in her cheek just below the left eye in an unusual accident which occurred late Wednesday afternoon.
The child, who left her home at 5 o'clock with her sled, returned home about forty minutes later, in a dazed condition, covered with blood, her face cut from her glasses which had been smashed into bits. She was taken at once to the St. Francis Hospital and glass was removed from the deep cut which required seven stitches to close. Thursday she was taken back home where yesterday she was resting more easily, also she is still very weak from loss of blood.
The child was unable to give any account of what happened, recalling only that she was playing in front of the Dr. John J. Walsh home, a short distance away. Blood stains were found in

Colorful Displays Open Shopping Time

Red and green lights were turned on along Ludington street last night to mark the opening of the Christmas shopping in Escanaba.
Holiday evergreens and Yule trees are in evidence, and displays of toys and gift suggestions have appeared in windows and on shelves and counters, ready for the annual rush of shoppers. Stores report that the advice to 'shop early' is being observed this year more than ever.

EDITORIAL

SHOULD REPRESENT ALL INTERESTS

ONE of the beneficial results from the establishment of the city manager form of government in Escanaba was the elimination of the so-called "ward consciousness" that guided the actions of the city aldermen.

That the city of Menominee is feeling some bad effects from the old-style ward politics is intimated in an editorial, appearing recently in the Menominee Herald-Leader.

"Of recent years the practice has been growing with some aldermen of continually declaring their stand on most any matter represents 'what my ward thinks about it.'"

"While aldermen are elected by wards, upon taking office they automatically become legislators for the city, not their own constituency."

"There are local improvements an alderman is obligated to ask and demand for his ward, but the moment any matter becomes city wide in significance and action is required for the benefit of the city and not any particular ward, at that very moment an alderman becomes a legislator for the city, not his lone constituency."

"Even when an alderman may actually reflect the sentiment of his ward as he claims, the sentiment of that ward might not be in the interests of the city."

"It is certain that if a city does not grow and make progress, no ward in it is going to do so. Nor is any business. Nor will property values increase. Nor will there be a market for real estate. Nor can taxes be actually reduced, for the lesser the business and employment the harder it is to earn a dollar to pay taxes, no matter how low the assessment or the rate."

"Continual ward consciousness doesn't get the city anywhere, certainly not the ward, no matter how exclusively an alderman may represent it. It is just one of those practices that has grown in the city until municipal affairs have become a political football for constituency prestige with the goal set for the next election."

"Our council is drifting away from city consciousness, the most important state of mind for any alderman. Until we adopt city vision to the exclusion of ward consciousness, Menominee will not continue to be the GOOD TOWN we all love and where we all stake our hopes for the future."

HORRORS OF WAR DR. EDWARD A. STEINER, professor of Sociology at Grinnell College, in addressing the Older Boys' Conference in Escanaba recently, declared that the lack of intelligent thinking has created the misunderstandings that have led to war.

change their attitude and teach the realities of war, instead of giving it the false glamor that has surrounded it for centuries. It must now be exposed as a relic of international barbarism. If we learn to look upon war as merely another form of murder or human butchery we probably will be less reluctant to listen to the tom-toms of the militaristic jingals in the future.

SHOP EARLY!

ESCANABA'S merchants formally opened the Christmas shopping season yesterday.

Extensive preparations have been made for the accommodation of shoppers. The displays this year are extraordinary. Every store shows beautiful, useful and novel articles suitable for gift purposes. The shopper who goes into the stores early has the broadest opportunity for selection, and the early shoppers also avoid the discomforts and troubles that attend the last minute rush.

Time was when everybody put off Christmas shopping until a few days before the holidays. Crowded stores, exhausted salespeople, irritated and dissatisfied customers were the rule, and when Christmas morning came it dawned on a weary and disgusted world. We are improving. But there are still too many dilatory ones.

For your own comfort, happiness and satisfaction, do your shopping early.

CABINET CHOICES

THERE has been considerable speculation as to whom Roosevelt will select for his cabinet, but thus far it seems that the president-elect is the only one who has some kind of an idea as to what the choices will be.

There has been much discussion, particularly, as to who will be the next secretary of state, since the discussion of war debts and other international problems have been so much in the fore of late. Because of their experience and ability, Owen D. Young and Newton D. Baker have been frequently mentioned as possibilities.

Most presidents-elect have determined upon their secretaries of state before selecting the rest of their cabinet. The secretary of state is considered the premier of the administration, partly because his department is the only one responsible for foreign relations, partly because the secretary of state succeeds to the presidency if the offices of president and vice president become vacant.

There have been thirteen occasions when the secretary of state was next in line for the presidency because of the death of the president or the vice president, or the resignation of the vice president (Calhoun in 1832).

Six secretaries of state were later elected president—Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Van Buren, and Buchanan. A number of others were unsuccessful candidates for the presidency or for the presidential nomination, including Clay, Calhoun, Webster, Cass, Seward, Blaine, Bryan, and Hughes.

In the first cabinet, problems of finance were more vital than foreign affairs, and Hamilton's department overshadowed Jefferson's in importance. Washington was trying to conduct a non-partisan administration. Hence the fact that Jefferson represented a different political faith from that of his chief and was engaged in political activities against Washington did not at first seem inappropriate to Jefferson's tenure of the secretaryship of state.

Week-end Murder

(By NEA Service) BY GABRIELLE E. FORBUSH

CHAPTER XVI DR. PARSONS was angry. "It's that old fool Boyle trying to make trouble!" he exclaimed. "What does he mean by such idiotic behavior? Not your fault, Tim, of course—"

"Let's all sit down," said Linda abruptly. This mystery seemed more than she could bear. The doctor and Tom both looked toward her anxiously but she ignored the searching glances and spoke briskly and cheerfully to Tim.

"What's the matter, Tim? And what about Dr. Boyle?"

"He himself phoned, ma'am," he said, "not 20 minutes ago. Down off Orient Point he's been, with some friends on a fishing trip. They went yesterday morning and were to come back the Monday. Happened he bethought himself to telephone his house, and Mrs. Boyle told him Dr. Parsons here was calling him up to report an accident. So thin he telephoned the station himself and I tell him—begin yer pardon, ma'am—about the poor old felly fallin' off the little balcony-like. At once he flies into a latherin' rage—"

"Half shot as usual, I suppose," interjected Dr. Parsons. From Tim's sheepish glance and quickly repressed grin they knew that the little doctor had hit the mark.

"Ah, well, sir—'tis a holiday he's on—well, this temper—er—er temper. But that's no excuse for holding us all up like this," turned the irate doctor.

"Hold us all!" Tom caught at the words. "That's it, sir. 'Tis—'tis against the law you know to mope the body—'" Forced to voice the truth and so place the blame, Tim scratched his head and glanced sideways at the tumbling doctor. He was thinking perhaps of the many times that irascible, kindly little man had lectured him for the various sins of growing boyhood. The tables now were turned indeed!

"Yes—yes, of course. I authorized that. Perfect poppycock to say I couldn't! Does Boyle suppose that I'm going to leave a corpse out there for hours in the hot sun—"

"Easy, easy!" said Tom anxiously, but Parsons was beyond caring for the layman's shocked reaction to the ordinary difficulties of his profession. "While he swigs whisky off in the Sound somewhere and hangs a line overboard pretending to jig for bluefish! Too bad he hasn't fallen overboard long ago, except it'd be a raw deal for the fish to be poisoned that way!"

TIM reverted with what could hardly be called tact to the moot point of the discussion. "So the body having been moved irrefragably," he continued judicially, "and the County Medical Examiner—which is Dr. Boyle—having been superceded in his duties, he himself—Dr. Boyle, ma'am—says he refuses to accept certification of the same as coming from man not authorized by himself and orders me up here to detain all persons in the house until such time as he himself may return for further examination."

Having delivered himself of what he evidently considered a masterpiece of official clarity, Tim again mopped his brow and waited for questions. They came.

"When will he come?" "And what does that grafting whisky-swilling old coot—"

The doctor's question had gathered too much emotional momentum to achieve a graceful finish before Tim spoke again, answering Linda.

"Some time late this afternoon, ma'am. He was just back on land after a mornin' fishin' and hungry for lunch and so were the men with him. Mad he was—awar—'in' mad—and would not hurry a step, he said, and the lot of ye could wait his pleasure. He'll be havin' his meal and collectin' his belongings, sir—"

This to Tom who he appeared to think would to some degree sympathize with the politician's interrupted holiday. "He and his friends will come back as they went in the automobile of wan of them. 'Tis a four hour ride aisy, the roads being crowded-like on account of the holiday, and if they'll not be startin' till after lunch time—which isn't yet—'twill be six or stivin' o'clock before they reach town."

"And these people must wait all that time!" Dr. Parsons exploded.

"It's orders, sir," Tim was not enjoying himself. "And that's just what Dr. Boyle himself was ather saying. How many have ye visitin' here, Mrs. Averill, may I ask?"

TOM spoke slowly. He had not failed to observe the quickly veiled sparkle in Linda's eyes and her flush of excitement.

"Four men, Tim, to stay over the week-end. They're all getting ready to go of course. I was to take them to the station for the 12 o'clock train. Will Dr. Boyle want to see them too?"

"He said ivryone in the house, Mr. Averill. Sure, 'tis just a formality, but I wouldn't dare let them go after his saying he must see ivryone here. He'll be ather askin' a few questions and that will be all."

"You'd better tell them right away, Tom," said Linda quietly. "It was all she could do to keep the exultation from her voice. This was an 'assist' she had not expected. Until evening, anyhow—and perhaps that afternoon—"

Word was received in the city yesterday of the sudden death at her home in Muskegon on Sunday night of Mrs. Sarah Malloch, mother of C. W. Malloch of this city and Auditor General O. B. Fuller.

In spite of the fact that one of the worst gales to visit this district in years, swept Green Bay and the entire upper lake region on Saturday night and while masters of large lake freighters were seeking for harbors of refuge, Capt. Charles McDanley of the Steamer Maywood ran his vessel from Van's Harbor to Wells. The Maywood was loaded with hay at Van's Harbor.

Marked interest is being developed in the second of the University Extension Course lectures to be given at the high school gymnasium here Wednesday evening, Dec. 4, by Prof. David Friday, head of the department of economics at the University of Michigan.

A final meeting of the men interested in the new venter plant is to take place in the near future, at which time the organization will be completed and all questions settled.

LYRICS OF LIFE

THE MAN WHO SAW A man saw something in a lad— A plan he was pursuing, A certain knack the youngster had For something he was doing. So many thought that never fame Or fortune he would win him In this great world—yet, all the same, One man saw something in him.

And so one man took time to say A word to help him master The daily task, to clear the way. To help him climb the faster. Yes, counsel and encouragement He heard from someone older. And up and on the youngster went, A hand upon his shoulder.

Though others scoffed at boyhood dreams, Encouragement denied him. One man was partner in his schemes And walked the way beside him. One man considered it a joy, A joy and not a bother; One man saw something in the boy— I hope it was his father.

Ishpeming Police Capture Runaway

Ishpeming—Leo Butcher, inmate of the state hospital at Newberry, who left that institution Monday, was picked up in Ishpeming Wednesday afternoon by Deputy Marshal John Lacey and Officer Joseph Nault.

Butcher, a former resident of Escanaba, was bound for his home town. He had been a patient in the hospital 26 years. He boarded a South Shore freight train at Newberry some time after he left the hospital, but no trace of him was found until he got off a west bound train and walked into the Chicago and Northwestern round house here. After talking to the man a few minutes, James Fisher, foreman, realized that his mind was unbalanced and he called the deputy marshal.

Suspecting that the man might have escaped from the hospital Mr. Lacey called Superintendent Campbell who gave him Butcher's description.

When the officers entered the round house Lacey approached Butcher with extended hand, saying: "Why, hello, Leo, when did you come up from Escanaba?"

Leo looked at the officer and said: "I don't know you."

Then the deputy gave the name of an old-time conductor on the Northwestern line, who has lived in Escanaba most of his life. Butcher remembered the name and said: "Sure I know you."

After being given a dinner in the marshal's residence in the city hall, Butcher was taken to the county jail and yesterday was taken back to Newberry.

Christmas Seal Sale Under Way

The Christmas Seal Sale of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association was started this day before Thanksgiving by the local committee in charge, Mrs. E. H. Campbell being chairman, C. P. West is acting secretary. On Wednesday the workers were busy all day preparing the letters and stamps for sending out. Besides the two mentioned Miss Eva Buermann and Mrs. Chamberlain worked in the committee rooms.

A change in the usual plans is expected to save a large part of the cost of sale. A large group of young girls will start out on Saturday morning delivering the seals directly to the homes and so saving the price of the postage stamp. The return envelopes, however, will be stamped.

Posters and displays are already in evidence and a campaign of publicity has been started. The sale will continue until Christmas Day.

Anti-tuberculosis work in Luce county has been in force for a great many years, the exact number of persons who have been helped being unknown since the burning of the records in the community building fire some years ago. Two clinics are held annually and have been for ten years. Dr. J. W. Towey of Pinecrest coming down, usually for 2 days in the summer and winter.

Mr. Theodore Werle, executive secretary, was in Newberry last Monday and gave an excellent illustrated talk before a joint meeting of the Luce County Health organization and the B. & P. W. club, the latter club being hosts for the event. Mr. Werle also spoke before the high school assembly on Tuesday morning.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

A Louis Newmark of the annual Red Cross roll call committee announces that all signs point to the filling of the Luce county quota before the campaign is finished. Lake and Columbus townships reported on Wednesday but the work in the other two townships is not yet done and no report will be given out until all of the figures are in. The Red Cross has done excellent work of relief several times in this locality in times of war, epidemic, and fire and now is serving Luce county as the rest of the country through the distribution of flour and cloth.

STUDY CLUB

The regular meeting of the Newberry Study club will be held on Tuesday afternoon in the community building with Mrs. Andrew Westin as hostess. "Books" is the general subject. There will be assembly singing, the roll call answered by "A book 'd like to own." "The Year's Books Reviewed" by Marjorie Morrill, and the program will end with assembly singing.

NEWBERRY BRIEFS

Mrs. Herman Kunert and Mrs. John Hunter left on Wednesday for a trip down state. Mrs. Kunert to visit her daughter, Miss Anna, in Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Hunter to stay with relatives in Muskegon over the Thanksgiving holiday.

Germany Is Key To Solution Of Arms Problems

ton for suspension of debt payments due Dec. 15 and conferences with a view toward "revision."

DISARMAMENT—Various recent proposals for disarmament in Europe take into consideration Germany's demand for military equality or permission to re-arm, denied under the Versailles treaty. Both the French proposal of Premier Herriot and the more recent proposal of Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, are apparently bids for Germany to return to the conferences on disarmament which she bolted last summer.

Without Germany's cooperation the success of any disarmament plan in Europe would be very doubtful. Any effort to induce France or Great Britain to reduce their forces while a dissatisfied and non-cooperative Germany is still seething under the restrictions imposed at Versailles probably would be futile.

The cold facts in the case are that the Germans have never concealed their intention to re-arm if rival European powers did not take active steps to disarm. This has been repeated many times in the past.

Chancellor Bruening, when in power, emphasized that a nation of 65,000,000 people would not long remain satisfied with an army and navy suited to five millions. At the disarmament conference of last July, Herr Nolde, Germany's representative, said the Reich could take no part in any further conference unless there was a definite recognition of equality of rights between nations.

That this position has not fallen upon deaf ears is indicated by the recent proposals by Herriot and Simon. Falling in agreement on the Herriot plan, the Simon plan or the more simple Hoover's plan, there is no doubt in anybody's mind as to what Germany intends to do.

Schleicher Holds Power

General Kurt von Schleicher, who is the real power behind the government in Germany, has made his goals clear to everybody in speeches and articles written for Germany army papers. Moreover, he dotted the 'i's and crossed the 't's for all the world in a recent interview he gave an important Fascist newspaper of Naples. Said General von Schleicher:

"Germany desires as before, a general disarmament, decisive and rapid. It bases this not wholly upon the fact that the exaggerated costs of armaments stop the economic convalescence of the world, but also upon the fact that its own disarmament which, according to the solemn promises of the allies in the peace treaty, was to constitute the preface of a general disarmament that one considered in 1919 as the principal task of the League of Nations."

He said last July's conference was a total failure because certain states were not concerned with the security of all the nations, but merely with a unilateral security by means of disarming only some nations. Germany, he said, was not to be treated forever as if she were a pariah.

General Von Seeckt, when minister of defense, never made any secret of the way Germany should re-arm. She should, he outlined, enlarge her professional army of 100,000 men now allowed her by the Versailles treaty. Instead of the men enlisting for a period of 12 years, as now required, they would enlist for six years. Also, Germany should have a militia consisting of the youth of the nation, to serve for three months to get military training.

French Are Fearful The French are under no illusions as to what the Von Seeckt plan means. Germany would have a highly trained professional army to be used as shock troops, followed by hundreds of thousands of young men with militia training.

It has long been a mystery in Europe as to why the tiny German army and navy should cost so much. Last year's figure, as reported to the League of Nations, was $176,000,000. The French have claimed, that in addition, there were secret funds and the big cost was due to secret laboratories where new implements and methods of warfare were being tried.

General Nessel of France, who was president of the International Commission of Control of German Armaments, has cited the menace of Germany's commercial air fleet to France. He says Germany now has 1100 aircraft, or three times what it had in 1928, and that at least 500 of these could rapidly be converted into military aircraft.

To add to the French excitement the Steel Helms, composed largely of veterans of the World war, recently held a parade of 175,000 men in Berlin, the parade being reviewed by members of the government and most of the sons of the former kaiser.

The French press points to this with great alarm. It says that despite the Versailles treaty limitations, Germany really has a potential army of 800,000 armed men—100,000 in the regular army, 100,000 highly trained Prussian police, 400,000 trained men in the Brown Shirt army of Adolf Hitler and 200,000 in the Steel Helms.

Sullivan Returns To Hunting Camp

William Sullivan, who was reported lost in the Sturgeon swamp last Tuesday evening, returned to camp Wednesday morning. Sullivan was hunting in the vicinity of Lost Lake and when it was nearly dark and he did not return shots were fired to attract his attention but he did not return to the hunting camp. He informed his companions that his compass did not function properly and when darkness came on he did the only sensible thing that an old timer and woodsman would do, that is, he built a fire and made himself warm, awaiting the arrival of daylight. He then found his way back to camp. Much apprehension was felt on his account, because it was thought that some accident might have befallen him.

REPORTED DEAD

Frank Bushey, old time lumberjack and river man, is reported to have died on a train while on his way back to Munising after having visited with relatives in the vicinity of Quebec, Bushey at one time was employed by George Hovey south of Welmora as banking foreman. His brother George died here a few years ago.

Mabel M. Johnson Claimed By Death; Final Rites Today

The body of Miss Mabel M. Johnson, 42, was found in a bed in her home at 314 North Twenty First street by police, who forced their way into the house yesterday morning. She had been dead for about ten days. Death was due to heart disease.

Friends of Miss Johnson had begun to wonder why they had not seen her for several days. Yesterday morning, they went to the woman's home, but found the doors locked. The police then were notified.

Miss Johnson was born in Stonington March 23, 1890, and had been a resident of Escanaba for about forty years. She was employed in the John Kahlow cigar factory here for several years. She lived alone in the house.

Miss Johnson is survived by a brother, Hugo Larson, South Eighteenth street.

Funeral services will be held at the Anderson funeral home at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with Rev. C. A. Lund officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

Socialist Meeting Is Well Attended

A crowd of about 150 persons heard David Rinne, socialist organizer from Pittsburgh, Penn., deliver a lecture, "Capitalism, A Dying Order and the Solution." Wednesday evening at the city hall auditorium.

Among other things Mr. Rinne pointed out that in four years ending with November individual operation declined 48%; building construction lost 77% of its volume, freight car loadings 48% less, factory employment is down 41%, and commodity prices are 55% less. He said, "We socialists are often accused of condensing our present guiding system, capitalism, of being all bad. Nothing could be further from the truth. No one is more ready to recognize the good that has come out of capitalism. To deny that capitalism as a system is superior to feudalism, which it replaced, is merely a lack of understanding."

"However," he went on to say, "our flower of modern industry under capitalism has seen its best days, the dreams of our political politicians notwithstanding. It has bloomed and born its fruit to death and dissolution which is the way of all life and even fundamental social institutions. The stagnation in all industry and the rapid collapse of the entire institution of capitalism is apparent to any one who chooses to see and understand."

After the lecture questions were answered by Mr. Rinne and an open discussion ensued.

Last Ore Steamer Leaves Escanaba

What will probably be the last ore shipment of the season out of Escanaba started on its way to Cleveland Friday when the steamer William A. Paine cleared from the C. & N. W. docks. The Paine, held up here for a few days because of frozen ore, cleared at 11:15 a. m. Friday. The Welch, also delayed here in loading, cleared earlier in the week. No word has been received of any other prospective shipments, and it is expected that the departure of the Paine will mark the close of the season.

Team Work Group Meets This Noon

The "Team Work in Business" committee of the United Commercial Travelers will hold a regular meeting at the Delta hotel at 12:15 o'clock this noon. Chairman A. C. Stenhouse announced yesterday.

Mr. Stenhouse urges that all members make an effort to attend as several important matters of business will be transacted.

Frank Ledstrand Of Marquette Dies

Marquette—Frank Ledstrand, superintendent of the box factory at the Marquette prison, died Wednesday evening in Minneapolis at the home of his nephew, D. C. Allison, according to word received in Marquette yesterday.

Mr. Ledstrand went to Minneapolis a few days ago to spend Thanksgiving with his nephew. He was ill when he left here, it was said yesterday by one of his friends, but his condition was not thought to be serious.

He had been employed at the prison for 17 years. For one year he worked as superintendent for the Marquette Box and Lumber company, but during the last 16 years he was superintendent of the box factory for the state.

Ledstrand leaves no immediate relatives. His wife, son and daughter died within the last three years. Until a few weeks ago Ledstrand resided in the Hargrave apartments. He was about 60 years old.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Masonic lodge, of which Mr. Ledstrand was a member, will have charge of the funeral. Interment will take place in Park cemetery.

Over 42 per cent of the total sales from farms are made during the three months of September, October and November.

After an illness of about ten years with complications, Joseph LaMothe, 50, died Thursday at 3 p. m. at his home in the Danforth settlement, where he had lived for 15 years. He was born in Champlain, Canada, Aug. 20, 1882, and was unmarried.

The body was taken to the Allo Funeral Home, and will be returned to the family home at 10 a. m. today. The funeral will be Monday at 9 a. m. at the Holy Family church, Flat Rock, with the Rev. Fr. George LaForest officiating. Burial will be in the Flat Rock cemetery.

The survivors are: two brothers, Louis and Fred, and a sister, Mary Antoinette, all of Danforth. Mr. LaMothe was a member of the Canadian Artisans.

THEATRES

Greta Nissen, feminine lead in "Rackety Rax," Fox comedy now playing at the Delft theatre, has most recently been seen in "Ambassador Hill," "Good Sport" and "The Silent Witness." Previously her best known pictures were "Transatlantic," "Women of All Nations" and "Hell's Angels."

Miss Nissen is said to have a delightful comedy role in "Rackety Rax," that of the platinum blonde sweetie of a sporting racketeer who muscled in on college football and makes millions before redistribution finally overtakes him. Victor McLaglen plays the role of the sporting world racketeer.

The many who are crowding into the Delft theatre these days to see "The Old Dark House" get something besides the rare thrill which this picture guarantees. They get an eyeful of Gloria Stuart. This young beautiful blonde has out-clericalized Cinderella. She is pointed for stardom, no less.

"Gloria Stuart got the braks," say the envious.

Gloria Stuart did get the breaks. So does most everyone who is looking for them. The trouble with most people is they don't know what to do with them and aren't prepared for them when they do come. Gloria Stuart was. She is a society girl, born to the purple, but she didn't care much for society.

Senior Ball at St. Joseph's Is Colorful Affair

A winter scene with starry sky, snow sprinkled evergreens, shimmering icicles and a log cabin formed the background Friday night for St. Joseph's high school annual senior ball, one of the most attractive parties of the school year.

The ball, one of the year's important social events, was held in the school club rooms, which were transformed by a staff of busy seniors under the direction of the decoration committee, into a winter scene.

The center ceiling of the club rooms was a sky of deep blue with silver stars, and icicles of silver and white, were suspended from the side ceiling. Along the side walls were evergreens and sprinkled with snow, with lamps and chairs for dancers and guests attractively arranged. At one end of the club rooms, a real log cabin, also sprinkled with snow and banked with evergreens, housed the orchestra. The entire scene was made more attractive by special lighting effects of shades of blue.

The dance program which was played by Ed Henriksen and his orchestra, opened at 8:30 o'clock. The grand march, feature dance of the evening, which was beautifully staged, was led by Nevin Reynolds, senior class president, and his partner, Dorothy Jensen. Miss Marion Hoffman, class secretary, and her partner, John Harvey, and Mildred Fuller, treasurer, and her partner, Arthur Walker. Dance programs were in green and white with the St. Joseph high school emblem.

Patrons and patronesses of the ball were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boddy, Mr. and Mrs. George Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, Mrs. Lillian Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. William Hermon and Mr. and Mrs. John Stockemer.

Phillip Brazeau was general chairman of the ball. The committees, working under his direction and under the supervision of Sister Mary Clementia, class advisor, were:

Decoration—John Harvey, Lawrence LaPorte, Robert Sullivan, Bertrand Beauchamp, Mildred Fuller, Marian Hoffman, Margaret Beitzer, Ethel Derwin, Marie Beauchamp and Phillip Brazeau.

Mary B. Cuthbert Is the Bride of Marion Lithgow

At a Thanksgiving Day ceremony, beautiful in every detail of appointment, Miss Mary Burns Cuthbert, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Cuthbert, 230 Lake Shore Drive, became the bride of Marion Boyd Lithgow of Boone, Iowa.

The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock in St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Rev. Thomas Foster, rector, conducting, the impressive Episcopal marriage service.

The church was effectively decorated, bows of cedar and hemlock forming a background for the large pale orchid chrysantheums which were banked at the altar and tied to each pew with coral, blue and green maline, and adding to the beauty of the altar candles.

Mrs. Paul Syverson, organist, played a group of bridal selections, "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me," and "Indian Love Call," as the guests were assembling.

The Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. Syverson, as members of the bridal party entered the church. The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She was preceded by her two little flower girls, Loretta Stack and Janet Sue Syverson, who carried the white satin pillows upon which the bride and bridegroom knelt for the service, the ushers, William F. Patterson, Milwaukee, George Petersen, Charles Gessner and Harold Gessner of this city; her bridesmaids, Miss Varena Steussy of New Glarus, Wis., Miss Hejela Sille, Miss Catherine Ryan and Miss Catherine LeMire, and her matron of honor, Mrs. William F. Patterson, of Milwaukee, her sister, the bridegroom, and his attendant, Guy W. Travers, entered from the vestry, and with the officiating rector, awaited the bride, and her attendants.

The bride was a lovely picture, beautifully gowned in a model of ivory velvet, its skirt instep length and its bodice fashioned with a short jacket with long, close-fitting sleeves. With it she wore a long veil. Her flowers were a bridal bouquet of gardenias, lilies of the valley and sweet peas.

The matron of honor was gowned in bottle green velvet, fashioned with green lace, and with it she wore a long sleeved jacket and a velvet turban of the same shade. She carried a bouquet of golden shaded roses and snapdragons, tied with chiffon. The bridesmaids wore gowns which were fashioned alike, of coral velvet, with short sleeved jackets and ankle-length skirts, and with them, turbans, gloves and sandals of aquamarine blue velvet.

They carried bouquets of coral roses and snapdragons, tied with aquamarine blue chiffon. The little flower girls were both attired in Kate Greenway dresses of aquamarine blue velvet. Mrs. Cuthbert, mother of the bride, wore a gown of French blue crepe trimmed with Valenciennes lace.

Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as the recessional at the close of the service.

A reception and tea at the home of the bride's parents for friends and relatives followed the ceremony. Mrs. A. J. Daley, Mrs. Albert Ellsworth, Mrs. Herbert J. Rushton and Mrs. A. T. Hoffman poured.

The young people left immediately after the reception by motor on their honeymoon trip. They will be at home after Dec. 1 at 511 South Sixth street.

Guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Purdy, Appleton; Dr. and Mrs. Chester I. Perschbacher, of Appleton; Miss Kathleen Turner, Milwaukee; Miss Marguerite McCully, Milwaukee; Miss C. A. McLaughlin, Chicago; Mrs. Dorothy Shipman and John E. McCarthy, Manistique, and Clark Cuthbert of Milwaukee.

Cotterill Sisters Open Engagement At Arizona Hotel

Escanabans will be interested in the announcement that the Cotterill sisters of Iron Mountain, noted entertainers, have signed a contract to play for the winter season at the Arizona Biltmore hotel.

The Biltmore, owned by the William Wrigley, Jr. estate, is built in the desert, at the foot of the Camelback mountains, eight miles from Phoenix. It maintains an 18-hole golf course, swimming pool, terraced gardens and a bridal path.

Miss Florence Cotterill left Iron Mountain Wednesday and is joining her sisters, Bess and Alice, who have been in the west since early summer.

Church Events

Christian Science Churches

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, November 27.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Matt. 7:21): "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 206): "Will-power is capable of all evil. It can never heal the sick, for it is the prayer of the unrighteous; while the exercise of the sentiments—hope, faith, love—is the prayer of the righteous. This prayer, governed by Science instead of the senses, heals the sick."

British Laughter Brings Big Pay

London (P)—Gracie Fields, the Lancashire girl who makes millions of English people hold their sides in laughter, gets the biggest film salary of any British actress—2,500 pounds sterling a week during production.

At par that would be $12,500. With Britain off the gold standard it translates into $8,250. But Gracie doesn't worry about that.

Madeleine Carroll, 25-year-old blond who was a school teacher until she took up acting five years ago, has been given a film contract which ranks her second. She is to get $3,300 a week.

Don't Be Misled! Insist On Michigan Made Beet Sugar

Let's begin by tackling that old prejudice against beet sugar. Like as not your mother or grandmother told you that beet sugar is inferior to cane sugar. At the risk of getting too "deep" or scientific, let's first take the simplest reference book in the world—a dictionary. Look up the word "Sugar." You find the following: "A sweet crystalline compound derived from the juice of the sugar cane or sugar beet. See Sucrose."
 Now, look up "Sucrose" which is the scientific term for sugar. You'll find this—"The white crystalline compound known as cane sugar or beet sugar—according to its origin, but identical chemically, having the composition C<sub>12</sub>H<sub>22</sub>O<sub>11</sub>."
 With the composition identical how could the cooking or sweetening results differ? Pure water is H<sub>2</sub>O no matter where its source or location.
 It makes no difference where it comes from—sugar is sugar.
 And that brings us to the main point. Michigan is one of the large sugar beet States in the Union. 35,000 Michigan wage earners raise and prepare their crops for you.
 If you buy cane sugar those needy Michigan farmers are robbed of your support.
 Buy Michigan Made Beet Sugar. It is 100% pure sugar. Don't be misled! Insist on Michigan Made Beet Sugar.

Buy, Use and Boost Michigan Made Beet Sugar
 Michigan Made Beet Sugar is available in 5-10-25 and 100 lb. sacks. For sale at all grocers.

HOME WRECKED BY LANDSLIDE

Gladstone Women Have Narrow Escape When Earth Slips

Mrs. C. W. Lightfoot, who recently left Gladstone for Concrete, Wash., to make her home with a daughter, Mrs. Dudley I. Green, narrowly escaped death on Friday of last week in a landslide that swept down the mountain-side carrying before it four homes, including that of Mr. and Mrs. Green.

In letters to friends here, Mrs. Lightfoot and Mrs. Green have written of the tragedy which completely wrecked their home and buried all their belongings under tons of rock and gravel. Mrs. Lightfoot and Mrs. Green were in the home when they heard the approach of the onrushing slide.

"We barely escaped with our lives," Mrs. Lightfoot stated in a letter to Mrs. Eli Easton. "We heard a most terrible crash and Frances (her daughter) grabbed me and we ran for our lives. We had just reached the bottom of the steps when the house slid across the railroad tracks, carrying everything before it."

When the street was reached, Mrs. Lightfoot and Mrs. Green were assisted to safety by two men who also were racing to escape the avalanche. Gravel was striking their heels at every step and large trees were literally brushed by the slide.

All clothing, furniture and personal effects belonging to Mrs. Lightfoot and the Green family was destroyed or buried. The house was completely demolished. The slide was caused by heavy rains that had continued for several days.

Miss Emma Plautz visited in Marinette, Wis., over Thanksgiving.

ASSAULTS WIFE; GIVEN 15 DAYS

Pitiful Tale Unfolded in Court Here Yesterday

A pitiful tale of a home wrecked by liquor was unfolded in the court of A. D. Aiguire yesterday morning, when Lars Pearson was arraigned on complaint of his wife who charged that he had been drunk and disorderly and had assaulted her. Pearson pleaded not guilty to the charges and defended a trial, but offered no defense to the case as presented by the state. He was found guilty and sentenced to 15 days in the county jail.

According to the testimony of Mrs. Pearson, her husband had come home drunk on the day before Thanksgiving. He was in an ugly mood and she left the house to visit a neighbor. He came there later and a quarrel resulted. He left and a half hour later she went to her home, accompanied by their three small children, only to find the house locked.

Police were called and Pearson, after some argument permitted them to enter. He made a promise to the policeman that he would behave and go to bed. The policeman left and later in the night Pearson went on a rampage smashing furniture and burning it in the stove. He continued his antics in the morning and again police were called. When they arrived he was retired and he was sleeping. Believing he would be sober and calm when he awakened the police again left.

Mrs. Pearson related that when he awakened he was still in an ugly mood and, when he found her using an electric iron, cut the cord and kicked the ironing board and chairs about. He also kicked her in the shin she said. Pearson said that if she was struck it was not intentional.

Questioned by Prosecutor Glenn W. Jackson, Mrs. Pearson stated that when he was sober her husband was kind and never had abused her. Drinking, she said, had cost him several good jobs and that at the present time it was without work and that there was neither fuel nor food in their home. For Thanksgiving Day dinner the family was compelled to be content with dry bread.

State Ferry Revenue Is $3,391 Less Than In 1931

Hunting traffic across the Straits showed a decrease of 1,520 passengers and 1,065 vehicles this year as compared to 1931 (from November 10-15 inclusive, according to figures compiled by state ferry officials. The number of lower peninsula and out-state hunters was lower this year than in many years past.

Figures taken from the time the invasion started until it was practically over show that the greatest amount of traffic occurred on Sunday, November 14, when passenger travel reached the peak of 2,716, an increase of 351 over the same date last year. Vehicles crossing on this date numbered 1,671, an increase of 134 from the number registered on that date a year ago.

All other days showed a marked decrease, however, over last year's figures and the total revenue for the six days was $11,561.50, or $3,391 less than 1931 for the corresponding period.

Traffic statistics for each of the six days were as follows:

Thursday, November 10, 378 passengers and 260 vehicles; Friday, 700 passengers and 444 vehicles; Saturday, 2,067 passengers and 1,267 vehicles; Sunday, 2,776 passengers and 1,671 vehicles; Monday, 654 passengers and 412 vehicles; Tuesday, 176 passengers and 129 vehicles.

Conservation department figures showed that 105 deer, a bear and a coyote were taken home by lower peninsula hunters during the first three and one-half days during the deer season. Conservationists are pleased that the deer hunting army is not as large this year as in former years, but what is one's gain is another's loss and merchants are bemoaning the slump in business which the red-coats supply annually.

NO CLUES FOUND TO IDENTITY OF ROBBERS

Investigation made in the looting of the safe at the Soo Line freight station by W. E. Irish, state fingerprint expert, and Merlo Peck, state detective, failed to disclose any likely clues as to the identity of the safelockers. Officers believe, however, that the robbers are the same ones who recently cracked up two safes at Gwinn.

The Soo Line safe was robbed here early Wednesday morning, the robbers using nitro-glycerin in doing the job. They obtained only $18.73.

ROLL CALL RESULTS PROVE ENCOURAGING

Although complete figures on the Red Cross membership drive will not be on a par with that of last year when the largest number of members in the history of the county organization was secured, local Red Cross officials are exceedingly pleased with the results secured in the recent drive. Incomplete returns on the membership drive which ended Thanksgiving show 202 persons enrolled with a few more solicitors still to be heard from. Last year's membership totaled 321, but general conditions were better at that time.

The drive this year was handled by the local Business & Professional Women's club which also conducted the solicitation last year. Members of the organization worked hard and Red Cross officials are giving unstinted praise for their splendid accomplishment. Mrs. Antonio Weber, secretary of the Red Cross, was chairman of the drive.

Army Betting Favorite Over Notre Dame Today

80,000 CROWD WILL SEE GAME

Spectacular Rivalry to Be Renewed 12:45 Escanaba Time

New York, Nov. 25 (AP)—Army and Notre Dame renew their 20-year-old football rivalry for the 18th time in the Yankee stadium tomorrow with the invaders from South Bend on the short end of the betting for the first time in many years.

Despite threats of cold and rainy weather, a capacity crowd of 80,000, the largest of the season, was expected to turn out. Most of them will come to see the collision between two high-class, well-matched teams but a few also because of the pageantry that surrounds this spectacular rivalry.

Game time will be 1:45 E. S. T. but most of the crowd will be in the stands fully an hour earlier to make sure they do not miss the complicated maneuvers of the corps of cadets.

Army, gaining steadily in power and versatility since its early season 18-3 beating by the Pitt Panthers, is favored at 7 to 5 in the betting although these odds may shorten by game time to close to even money.

Melinkovich is ill

The advantage in condition probably will rest with Army although the soldiers suffered one serious loss when Dick King, star end, broke an ankle in the Harvard game. Otherwise the squad, headed by the sensational "Pick" Vidal in the backfield, and big Milt Summerfelt in the line, is in perfect condition.

Seven "key-men" in Notre Dame's lineup, on the other hand, have come down with illness or injuries although all are expected to play at least a part of the game. George Melinkovich, generally rated the rambler's best back, Jim Harris, lineman, and Emmett Murphy, reserve quarterback who called the plays that scored two touchdowns against Navy, have been reported suffering from influenza. Ray Brancbeau, halfback, Joe Kurth, ace tackle, and the regular ends, Captain Paul Host and Ed Kosky, have been suffering from injuries that have destroyed at least a part of their effectiveness.

"We hope to hold them to three touchdowns," says Coach "Hank" Anderson of the Ramblers as he reached for a handkerchief. "This Vidal is a sparkplug. I'm afraid he'll light up that Army team and will hit us like a cavalry charge of poor boys."

Army will not be deceived by Anderson's warnings. They'll come prepared for their hardest game of the year and probably will get it. This is one game that always is close.

Pertinent Comment

The annual controversy relating to the "one-buck" law is in full swing as hunters return from the woods with tales of scarcity of bucks or with reports of numerous does are being killed by over-anxious hunters.

There is some merit to the proposal by some of the sportsmen that changes be made in the deer laws to permit the taking of one deer, regardless of sex or age, and that the season be closed one year out of two. It is, however, a proposal that should be carefully considered before the step is taken.

It must be remembered that the greatest inroads into the deer herds are not made by licensed hunters or during the legal season. Hundreds of deer, does, fawns and bucks, are killed each season by poachers, who have no regard to the present laws, and likely would be no more observant of the laws suggested by those advocating a change.

One of the loudest complaints made by those who "violate" is the high license fee for resident hunters. This cry has increased in volume during the present period of unemployment.

The writer is of the opinion that the high license is an excuse rather than a reason for violating the game laws. In the boom period, violation was little less common than it is today and if there were less deer killed it was because the men had less time to go to the woods.

But, if a lower license fee and a change from the "one-buck" law will bring about observance of the game laws, these changes should be made. The wholesale slaughter cannot continue without reducing the deer herd to such an extent that the upper peninsula will lose one of its greatest assets.

Regardless of what may be done with the game laws, however, a program of education

Aged Former Resident Here Dies Sunday

Funeral services for James Young, 94, who died last Sunday, were held Wednesday at Gillette, Wis., where he had lived for the past 15 years. Interment was made in the Gillette cemetery. Three Gladstone sons, John, Geo. and Chester attended the final rites.

The death of Mr. Young has removed one more of the old pioneer residents of Gladstone. He came to this section more than 45 years ago and for 30 years lived in Gladstone. He left here for Gillette 15 years ago following the death of his wife.

Surviving are eight children and a host of grandchildren. Besides the sons at Gladstone, one son, William, lives at Iron Mountain, and his daughters are Mrs. Eva Shepley, Treonary, Mrs. Edward Gillette and Mrs. Albert Gillette, of Gillette, and Mrs. Frank Richter, of Washington Island. All of the children were present at the funeral.

Clothes Needed By Many Poor

Clothes, especially those for men are in great demand among the poor of the city according to the welfare agencies of the city. An appeal has gone out to the better situated asking that they bring any discarded apparel to the city hall where it will be made available to those in need. Every article of clothing should be put to use, a welfare worker declares, and closets should be searched for items that are of little value to the owner and would be of great benefit to some person who is insufficiently clad.

Detroit Halfback Hurls 57-Yd. Pass Against Oregon

Detroit, Nov. 25 (AP)—University of Detroit sports followers proclaiming young Douglas Nott, Detroit halfback, as the man who made one of football's ten longest forward passes.

In the Oregon State-Detroit game Thursday, Nott fell back to his own 47-yard line, as if to punt, and hurled a pass that carried 55 yards and dropped into the arms of Howard Young in the Oregon State end zone for a touchdown, and a 14 to 6 victory over the western team.

Sports writers and fans who delved into the record books said the pass was one of the ten longest in football. The longest they report was a 70 yard heave by Brick Miller of California in a 1920 game with Ohio State.

The pass, however, was not the longest ever made by a Detroit eleven. In 1929 Lloyd Brazil completed one of 65 yards to Herman Young in a game with DePaul.

Nott is playing his first year on the U. of D. varsity.

New York, Nov. 25 (AP)—A crowd of 30,000 persons saw the champion Green Bay Packers score a 7 to 0 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers in a National Professional Football league game at Ebbets field Thursday.

The Packers scored in the second quarter when Arnold Herber tossed a 25-yard pass to Bruder on the Dodger's three-yard line. Bruder falling across the goal line for the touchdown. A fumble by Jack Grossman paved the way for the score, Rudy Cernock recovering for the Packers on the Dodger's 15-yard stripe.

Chicago, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Chicago Bears, convinced they still have a chance to break into the National Professional league championship, walloped the Chicago Cardinals, 34 to 0, Thursday in their thirteenth Thanksgiving day battle. The victory gave the Bears the professional championship of the Chicago, their fourth victory of the season and their second in a row.

In the third period, players from both teams engaged in a free-for-all fight. It started as a private affair between Johnny Sisk, of the Bears, and Creighton, of the Cardinals. Doehring, of the Bears, and Williams and Tinsley, of the Cardinals, got into the battle and it required the united efforts of the officials and Ben Grange, who came from the bench to stop the fight.

New York, Nov. 25 (AP)—Stapleton played the New York Giants to a 13-13 draw in a National Professional Football league game at Stapleton, Staten Island, Thursday.

A pass, Molenda to Flaherty, brought the Giants' first touchdown in the opening quarter, but the Stapes came back to tie the count at 7 to 7 when Hansen broke off tackle for 35 yards and a touchdown. The Giants marched from their own 35-yard line to score again in the second quarter. McBride going through center for the score. The try point failed. Again Stapleton came back to deadlock the count. Wilson counting on a pass from Ken Strong. The latter missed the try for point which would have given Stapleton the game.

Pittsburgh Faces Real Test in Stanford Tilt

BY ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York, Nov. 25 (AP)—Amid a scant dozen outstanding games left in a college football campaign fast drawing to a dramatic finish, the stand of two of the east's most rugged regiments, Army and Pittsburgh, against famous inter-sectional rivals features tomorrow's scattered warfare.

The Soldiers will play Notre Dame before a sellout crowd of 80,000 in the Yankee stadium, the biggest of the season, while Pitt's Panthers close their spectacular season at home against Stanford in an east-west struggle of Warner formations. Both eastern teams, reversing the usual circumstances, are favored to win and round out a football season in which the ancient sector of the gridiron battlefront has picked up more prestige and points than it has known in many a harvest moon.

Colgate Record Good

Both games not only should add their quota of color and thrills to the closing stages of the season but figure to have a distinct bearing upon national honors.

Army's "Pick" Vidal and Captain Milt Summerfelt as well as Notre Dame's Joe Kurth and Geo. Melinkovich, if he recovers from the "flu," will be given critical inspection by the experts charged with the heavy responsibility of handing up the all-star verdicts of 1932. Similarly, Pittsburgh's Warren Heller, Mike Sebastian and Steve Skladany will be up for final tests on their season's work.

Colgate's bid for the classic tournament of roses game on Jan. 2, as an eastern standard-bearer, already has been put conspicuously on file with a flawless record of achievement but the honor may go to Pittsburgh again if the Panthers score a decisive victory over Pop Warner's Stanford boys.

Speculation has included Auburn, Michigan and even West Point in the list of possible choices for the opposition to Southern California, in the Rose Bowl game, but the real race is between Colgate and Pittsburg, both so far unbeaten, although Pitt twice has been held to scoreless ties.

Stanford, after an unimpressive season, does not figure to have the stuff to stop Pittsburgh but it's never safe to select a Warner-coached team to lose an inter-sectional engagement, especially in the east. The Indians in recent years scalped Army and Dartmouth after mediocre performances on the west coast. Warner, even if he had no other urgent incentive, will be especially anxious to assert this mastery over a famous pupil, Jack Sutherland, the Pittsburgh head coach.

The most impressive items in Pittsburgh's record are defeats of Army and Notre Dame. These two teams all season have yielded only six touchdowns altogether, five of which were tallied against them by the Panthers. No other team, except Pittsburgh has scored on the Army.

Army's superb defense, coupled with the offensive fireworks generated by Vidal, combine to make the Cadets favorites to whip Notre Dame as decisively as they did last year but this also is one of those games in which the advance does is apt to be scattered all over the premises. Notre Dame was the favorite last year, despite its sudden setback by Southern California, but was overwhelmed.

West Point is without one of its key men, Dick King, star end who broke an ankle in the Harvard game. Army's head coach, Major Ralph Sasse, feels this cuts away 25 per cent of his team's defensive strength but Captain Milton Summerfelt still leads a stalwart Soldier line. Notre Dame, in addition to a somewhat erratic season, marked by shakeups in the first-string team, goes into the game with the condition of its high-scoring fullback, Melinkovich, in doubt. He is not listed in the

Delta County Boxers to Compete for Belts

Golden Gloves Next

A team of amateur boxers from Delta county will enter the Championship Belt Tournament to be held at Menominee Dec. 15 and 16. Elimination bouts will be held Dec. 15, and on the 16th the Upper Peninsula championships will be decided in each of the eight classes: the flyweight, bantam, feather, light, welter, middle, light heavy and heavyweight. Two belts will be awarded in each class, a gold belt for the winner and a silver belt to the runner-up.

Boxing Commissioner R. V. (Bob) Russell of Escanaba has received samples of the belts, and the handsome trophies will be on display in the window of the City drug store for a week, starting today.

Entry Blanks Here

Commissioner Russell also has a supply of entry blanks on hand for the Menominee tournament, and Delta county boys wishing to enter the championship battles are requested to get in touch with him at his residence, 623 South Eighth. In order to fill out the necessary forms, boxers must bring their amateur registration cards when making their entries.

The championship tournament is sponsored by the Upper Peninsula Boxing Association, which is affiliated with the M. A. A. U., and has active clubs throughout the western half of the peninsula. Delta county is expected to have at least four entrants in the championship belt event.

Golden Gloves Next

Another amateur boxing event to which Upper Peninsula boxers are looking forward is the "golden gloves" tournament to be held at Detroit in March under the auspices of the Detroit Free Press. Added interest is given to the event by the prospect of entering an Upper Peninsula team. Word has just been received from Detroit that $350 has been set aside to defray the expenses of bringing an Upper Peninsula team to Detroit.

Following the tournament at Menominee, a series of bouts will be held in the peninsula to select the team which will make the Detroit trip, and a strong representation of amateur boxers from this part of the state is assured.

Prisoner Caught On Bar Trying To Escape from Jail

Coldwater, Nov. 25 (AP)—On account of Joseph Helwig's coat being a size too large for him, he is back in the Branch county jail today, as is his partner, Lewis Vernon. They saved their way through the bars, and Vernon climbed out and set forth on the run. Helwig followed, but his coat caught on a fragment of the bars and he dangled until deputies returned him to another cell. Vernon was caught by another deputy, who overhauled him and used a flying tackle. They are awaiting trial for the kidnaping of a Allin station proprietor.

JORDAN LOSES TO NOTRE DAME

Rambler "B" Team Romps to 32-9 Victory at Menominee

Menominee, Mich., Nov. 24 (Special)—Upper peninsula football fans were given a treat of real Notre Dame football here today when Notre Dame "B" swept through the Jordan college freshman on a wet, slippery field to set the score final at 32 to 9. Danny McFadden, backfield ace for the "Irish," shared honors with Layden, brother of the great Elmer Layden of the Notre Dame Four Horsemen, who furnished some of the greatest thrills of the afternoon with his spectacular cut backs and long runs.

Although out-weighted the stubborn Jordan squad fought back every play with great resistance. Jordan held Notre Dame on even terms for a time but the Irish set in fresh reserves often and each time Notre Dame repeated the substitutions a touchdown was scored.

Notre Dame scored in the first quarter after McFadden picked up his own fumble to score on a 23 yard run. Layden missed the kick for extra point.

The Irish scored again soon after the start of the second period on a pass. Pahlman to Howell, both reserves, for 20 yards. Bloeman kicked goal.

Jordan scored their safety when St. Louis tackled Pahlman when he attempted to kick from behind his own goal.

McFadden scored early in the third period on a 61 yard run after evading and out-running the secondary defense. A forward pass, Layden to Allen was good for the extra point. Layden scored about two minutes later on a 59 yard run through the center of the line. Layden's kick went wide for the point.

Jordan scored their lone touchdown after Referee Davey ruled interference on a pass giving Jordan the ball on Notre Dame's 25 yard line. The ball was worked by McWilliams, and Corst to the seven yard line and on the fourth down McWilliams tossed a short pass over the line to Wherry who down the ball over the goal line. McWilliams kicked goal for the point.

Jordan threatened soon after on a 64 yard drive down the field only to lose the ball on a pass over the goal.

The last touchdown came after a 43 yard drive down the field to the Jordan 6 yard line from where McFadden carried the ball over through the center of the line. Pliney failed on the kick. Score 32 to 9. Ockstadt, Miresal, Snyder and Shaver held their own against the strong Notre Dame line but because they had fresh material placed against them in every quarter they had a harder battle to fight. About 3,000 people attended the game.

Retzlaff and Wine Bout Is Stopped

Detroit, Nov. 25 (AP)—The scheduled 19-round bout between Charles Retzlaff of Duluth, Minn., and Frankie Wine of Billings, Mont., was stopped in the sixth round tonight by Referee Bob Sage, and declared no contest.

It was Referee Sage's expressed opinion that Retzlaff was not trying, and Boxing Commissioner Al E. Day of Detroit approved the action.

After Sage had warned both fighters for their actions near the end of the sixth round he stepped between them and ordered them to their corners.

FIRE DESTROYS STOCK, BARN

Heavy Loss Caused by Blaze in Farm Near Nadeau

Powers, Nov. 25 (Special)—A large barn and considerable livestock were destroyed by fire a quarter mile south of Nadeau this evening. The barn was owned by Joseph King of Powers and cost $7,000 when it was built 14 years ago by August Gene of Nadeau. A large tile silo was also destroyed. King's loss is partially covered by insurance.

The stock consisting of nine cows, one bull, one calf, and two pigs which was destroyed was owned by Moses Christian of Nadeau. There was no insurance on the stock.

The fire started in a corner of the hayloft and spread rapidly throughout the barn. The origin has not been ascertained.

A house 200 feet from the barn and a large hen coop were saved.

Rock Woodsman Called by Death

Abel Minkinen, 44, of Rock, died at the Delta county infirmary Thursday night after an illness of about ten days duration.

Minkinen was born in Finland, and had been a resident of Rock for about eight years. He had been employed as a woodsman for Dan Suomil of Rock for several years. Surviving are his mother and brother in Finland.

The body was taken to the Anderson Funeral Home to be prepared for burial. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

U. P. Briefs

Mrs. Hatch Dies
Marquette—Mrs. Francis K. Hatch, 55 years old, died early Thursday morning in St. Luke's hospital after an illness of one week.

Mrs. Hatch has been a resident of Marquette for the last 25 years, living at 215 East Michigan street. She leaves her husband, one daughter, Mrs. T. A. Pascoe, of this city, and one son, Theodore Hatch, a student at the Northern State Teacher's college. She also leaves one granddaughter, Donna Elizabeth Pascoe, four years old; a niece, Mrs. Hilja Anderson, of this city; one sister living in Vermont; two sisters living in Europe and a brother in New York.

School Bus Struck
Iron River—Bernard Zastrow, 23, of Felch, pleaded not guilty when arraigned yesterday morning before Justice Papin, on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident.

He was arrested by Hugh Campbell, deputy sheriff, on the complaint of John Hodak, manager of the Northwestern Motor Bus company. Zastrow denied that he knew a loose log on the truck he was driving struck the school bus late yesterday afternoon, when three small children were injured by flying glass.

Ladies' Society Gives Aid On Thanksgiving

The Ladies' Aid society of the Norwegian - Danish Lutheran church followed their usual custom of distributing Thanksgiving baskets to families suffering privation through the present hard times, thereby lending a hand in helping where help is needed.

Births

A son was born Thanksgiving Day to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeGrand, Stephenson avenue, at the Maternity hospital.
