DARE to be a hero

Herlik selected as 2018 Folk Fest Hero

MANISTIQUE – Heroes are often hidden in plain sight, as is the case with this year's Folk Fest Hero, Dianna Herlik. After years of spending each day simply doing what she believes to be standard, Herlik is being honored for her commitment to the community.

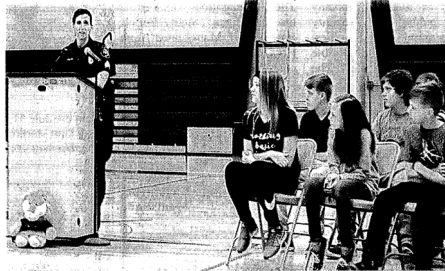

Born in the northern Upper Peninsula near Calumet, Herlik was adopted by Manistique residents Dan and Donna Barber. Growing up in Manistique, Herlik attended St. Francis de Sales School and eventually graduated from Manistique High School in 1987.

After graduation, Herlik acted on her interest in law enforcement, taking a few Lake Superior State University courses in corrections. She then married her husband, Jeff Herlik. The couple has been married for 30 years and have two children together – Robert and Becca, and three grandchildren: Ryleigh, Lhea, and Tanner.

Dianna and Jeff spent a few years in the Escanaba/Gladstone area managing apartments before moving back to the Manistique.

"I worked at First Northern National Bank," Herlik said. "I just worked a brief stint there, and I've been at Schoolcraft County Sheriff's Department since 1992."

She served as a deputy and corrections officer for three years, then attended a downstate police academy in 1995 to be certified as a law enforcement officer.

Dianna Herlik, a Schoolcraft Sheriff's Department sergeant, is well known for her role as the administrator of the local DARE program. MDOT approves $4M in loan to Houghton County

Funds will be used to repair flood damages

LANSING — The Michigan Department of Transportation approved a $4 million no-interest loan from the Michigan State Infrastructure Bank this week to help fund repair of flood-damaged Houghton County roads. The loan requires approval by the State Administrative Board and is scheduled to be reviewed at its July 17 meeting.

Houghton County, along with Menominee and Gogebic counties, was declared a "state of disaster" by Gov. Rick Snyder in June. Numerous roads were heavily damaged by extreme runoff and flooding following intense rain on June 16-17.

The Houghton County Road Commission would receive the funds on a five-year, no-interest term. The loan is expected to be repaid with Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) funding. The loan will allow the road commission to expedite numerous road projects to repair flood damage. Without the SIB loan, construction will be delayed until federal aid is available.

The SIB loan program, created in 1995, has a limited amount of money for low-interest loans to accelerate the delivery of transportation projects, especially during emergency situations. The loan program is available to any Act 51 public entity (county road commissions, cities, villages, or MDOT) for eligible transportation projects. The SIB complements traditional funding techniques and serves as a tool to meet urgent project financing demands.

Gov. Snyder declared a state of disaster for Houghton and Menominee counties on June 18 and for Gogebic County on June 21 due to severe weather and widespread flooding on June 16-17, making available state aid and assistance to communities in the disaster area. By declaring a state of disaster, the State of Michigan makes available all state resources in cooperation with local response and recovery efforts in the disaster area as outlined in the Michigan Emergency Management Plan. The declaration authorizes the Michigan State Police, Emergency Management and Homeland Security Division to coordinate state efforts.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

A Californian in Manistique
It was a cold morning on April 9, 2018 in Manistique, Michigan. The temperature was 38 degrees Fahrenheit and clear skies gave promise to another great day to travel.

Little did I know, Manistique was my stop for a while during my Bucket List trip of 1,042 miles around the perimeter of the continental United States.

Filling my truck with gas that morning, changed this Californian's life. While pumping gas into my truck, I slipped and fell on the ice and broke my knee cap.

It was just the next day, April 10, 2018, at the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital, just down Highway U.S. 2, the professionals reconstructed my knee cap so I could eventually resume my drive back to California, but ... fortunately for me ... seven weeks later!

It was in that time, I met Manistique. Its community provided medicinal professionals, religious worship, restaurants, groceries, senior care, lodging, and public transportation that helped me through the lonely weeks and allowed me to feel at home.

So, thank you for all your assistance, friendship, and time making my stay in Manistique one of my fondest memories. I will always remember you all:
Pat and Al at the Econo Lodge on U.S. 2
Arny, Amy, and Ann at the Econo Lodge
From Schoolcraft Memorial: Cleo, Dr. Galey, x-ray staff, finance lady with dark, curly, black hair, general services staff, maintenance man who parked my truck in rear for a week, lady that arranged the walker and wheelchair, and cafeteria people helping carry my food to tables.
Connie F., Karen M., and Doris L. from the senior center
My primary outpatient nurse
The Corner Cut beautician
Public transportation personnel with the wheelchair truck
The local grocery store staff and personnel making my 70th birthday cake

Meals and Wheels staff and delivery lady
Kushi, my rehabilitation physical therapist
3-Seasons and Main Street
Pizza restaurants for food deliveries
Tap 21 for showing me the wheelchair entrance

The local dollar-store staff
The local Post Office staff
The local drug store and staff
Saint Francis de Sales Church, staff, and community
On May 31, I arrived safely back to San Jose, Calif.

Everyone, stay well, safe, and healthy. Hope to see you soon.

Dear Editor,
I urge Democrats to vote for Matt Morgan for U.S. Representative from the First Congressional District in the Aug. 7 primary. Matt, if elected, will make government work for the citizens of our community, not the other way around.

Matt Morgan lives in Traverse City and is the only Democrat running for the seat to replace Louisianian Jack Bergman.
Due to a technicality, Matt has been kept off of the primary ballot. To vote for him, you have to write his name in, and fill in the little bubble next to the blank line where his name goes.

Victoria Gutowski
Traverse City

Dear Editor,
Calling all Democrats! And Independents!
Can't abide Jack Bergman? Want a U.S. Congressional Representative who will represent you, not the Koch brothers? Then, you must vote in the Aug. 7 primary; you must!

Vote on the Democratic side of the ballot; write in Matt Morgan in the appropriate box for the U.S. First Congressional District; and be sure to fill in the little oval box (or else they will disqualify your vote, like they did the signatures on Matt's petitions).

Or else, no Democrat will be on the November ballot, and our Repugnant incumbent will be running, essentially, unopposed.

Larry Hauser
Lake Leelanau, Mich.

Dear Editor,
My name is Richard G. Johnson and I was born and raised on the Old Fox Farm north of Manistique on M-94 back in the 1940s. I made a nine minute documentary on the fox farm and some of my recollections of that time.

I've posted it on YouTube located at https://youtu.be/dWl1f_gw5d.

It can also be found on YouTube by searching for "Remembering Manistique's Fox farm".
It includes stories of how the foxes were raised, some of the workers at that time and members of my family. My father's name was Alvin Johnson, who was the foreman on the farm and, along with my mother Bernice Johnson and my brother Donald Johnson, we lived in the white house during the 1940s while the fox farm was in operation.

Yours truly,
Richard G. Johnson
Flint, Mich.

Dear Editor,
Being a member of the Schoolcraft County Veterans Affairs Board, I had the honor again to help carry our American Flag for the parade Saturday. This year, it was especially noticeable to witness the large crowds and seeing them stand up, clap their hands, salute the flag, showing respect honoring the colors and making positive comments.
Looking back when we were done it was a very rewarding experience and we thank you for your participation in your parade.

Hiring of three new teachers for next year was approved by the Manistique Area Schools board of education at their regular meeting Tuesday night, but two vacancies remain to be filled before the start of school in September. The new hirings include John LaPointe of Stephenson as head football coach. David Lantz of Olivet, who had been hired for the past several months ago, was released from his contract at his request. LaPointe attended Michigan State University in 1959-60, and was graduated from Northern Michigan University in 1965 with a bachelor of science degree. His major is physical education, with a minor in biology and conservation. Also hired was Betty Newlin of Stephenson. She received a bachelor of arts degree in 1966 from North Park College in Chicago, with a major in speech and a minor in English. She has taught in Stephenson the past two years. Miss Newlin and Mr. LaPointe will be married this Saturday. The board also approved a contract for Mrs. Nancy Brown. She is a 1963 graduate of Evangelical University in Springfield, Mo. The board still has vacancies in the 5th and 6th grade posts at Germfask, and for a school librarian.

A resolution permitting the sale of liquor on Sunday in Schoolcraft County will be considered by the Board of Supervisors next Tuesday at their 7 p.m. July meeting in the court house. Under new legislation counties have the option to allow sale in establishments where more than half of the business comes from sources other than liquor.

A total of 18 candidates — nine Republicans and nine Democrats — have filed for the new seven-member County Board of Supervisors. The field will be reduced to 14 in the August 6 primary election, with contests slated in three of the seven districts. Hiawatha-Inwood District No. 3 has a three-man race for the Republican nomination between John Hartman of Cooks, Merwin White of Indian Lake and Joel J. (Jack) King of M-94. Two Democratic primary contests are slated. In District 4, part of the city plus Thompson Township, Ernest Hohlolik of Thompson and Jack Roemer, 140 S. Second St., will compete for the Democratic nomination. The other contest comes in District 5, in the city, where Democratic Harold O. Carlson, 537 N. Houghton Ave. and Homer Weber, 219 N. Houghton Ave., will clash. All of the other candidates are without primary opposition.

Five years have passed since Detroit and Northern Savings and Loan Association first revealed plans to build a local branch in Manistique. The passing years have not brought the Association any closer to actual construction than they were at the time the company originally purchased the Triangle Park property from the city. In fact, the firm seems to have drifted further away from taking any action towards the establishment of a local branch. Detroit and Northern purchased the Triangle Park area, located across from the Manistique Post Office, in 1978 for $22,500. At that time, the city agreed to remove a building on the property and to level the area in anticipation of immediate construction. The proposed branch was a 1,300 square foot building with a drive-in window. The Savings and Loan operation would employ five people.

The elevation for Lakes Michigan-Huron at the end of June was about 13 inches above what it was one year ago and about two inches above one month ago. The end of June level of the two lakes was at 580.08 feet above the mean water level at Father Point, Quebec. The June monthly mean level was about 17 inches above the long-term average and about 10 inches below the all-time monthly mean high for June, which was set in 1973, and about 50 inches above the all-time low June monthly mean set in 1964. The six-month forecast of levels for Lakes Michigan-Huron, as contained in the Monthly Bulletin of Lake Levels shows that the lakes are expected to be above the long-term average level during the next six months. The forecast shows that at the end of July, Lakes Michigan-Huron will be about 1 inch above what they were at the end of June. The lakes are expected to complete their seasonal rise in July.

A historic Manistique building has restored to new life as a six-unit lodge for hunters, snowmobilers and other travelers. The Elk Street Lodge building at 906 W. Elk St. most recently housed the Manistique Manor Adult Foster Care home. Prior to that, it served as the Schoolcraft Poor House among other uses in its 100-year history. Owners Barbara Lamb and Jack Nelson opened their lodge Memorial day weekend. It has four single rooms and two suites and offers guests a continental breakfast and space to relax in two lounges. Lamb said the building, which came back into her possession after the previous owner declared bankruptcy, may eventually be declared a historical landmark.

The annual 5K and 10K Manistique Paper Chase races attracted 138 runners and walkers to downtown Manistique Saturday morning, July 11. Overall winners in the 1998 Manistique Paper Chase were Jake Denkins of Cooks, men's 5K; Andy Ozanich of Manistique, men's 10K and Lucy Olson of Manising, women's 10K.
If Fr. Peter Minelli was concerned about the reception he would receive as new Pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, those worries have quickly been put to rest. Since taking over as the Manistique church's new Pastor July 1, Minelli said he has been overwhelmed by people's friendly attitude and helpfulness.

The City of Manistique will officially welcome the public to its new Central Park recreation area this weekend. An all day grand opening celebration is set at the site for this Saturday, July 19, beginning at 8 a.m. The event has been many years in the making. Sketches and concept plans dating back decades lay out the idea of developing the old quarry area as a municipal central park with trees, walking paths, benches and other amenities. In 2001, a group of local stakeholders developed a master plan for the 40-acre area, calling for everything north of the County Fair property, including the quarry, to be reserved for recreation.

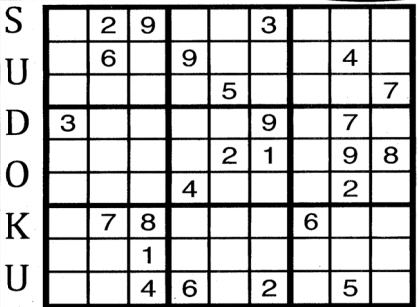

Some local residents recently had a successful fishing trip with Gulliver-based professional angler Nick Provost of U.P. Pro Charters. Ella Carley celebrated her 83rd birthday by catching two fish, including a 23-inch walleye. Marcie Chandler, 74, caught her very first fish ever, a walleye measuring 27 inches.

The two-time District 10 champion Lady Cardinals will compete in the state tournament at Kalamazoo this weekend. Team members include: Courtney Dibble, Christie Hyland, Erin Holmberg, Jami Ferrebee, Carlie Kangas, Brooke Bontekoc, Abby Wood, Kayla Bosen, Melanie Neddow, Christine Kemper, Brandy Gould and Millie Weber. The team is coached by Dave McNeil and Lance Neddow.

The statue "Urania" has been reinstated in the public eyes after years at a private home. Above, the group who helped move the statue to its current location at the historic Manistique water tower poses for a photo. At right, Urania is shown.

Statue finds new home at water tower

MANISTIQUE — It has been almost 100 years since "Urania" made her first appearance at Manistique High School. From information garnered, it has been ascertained that the Class of 1922 donated the statue to the school. She stood in the main hall south entrance for more than 50 years.

The old school was demolished and "Urania" made a comeback to the new school library in 1976 as a "bronzed" woman after undergoing refurbishment. In an area newspaper article from 1997, it states that "Lady Liberty" (Urania) had been donated to the Schoolcraft Historical Society by Ken Groh and Jack MacFarlane was the recipient. However, the statue never made it to the water tower and sat on the back loading dock of the school for so long that one of the school employees, Rick Wodzinski, took pity, paid the school to acquire it, and took it home.

Urania sat in Wodzinski's garage for 20 years. Sherril Krause, of the SCHS, discovered Wodzinski had the statue and asked him to donate it to the SCHS for the re-opening of the water tower. Between the two of them, Jeff Letson, Joel Krause, Larry Mersnick, and some visitors to the water tower, Urania is in place once more for the public to enjoy and to reminisce about their days at MHS. If anyone has information about Urania's history, they are asked to stop by the water tower or contact the SCHS via schs.cityofmanistique.org.

Mia Tavonatti, founder of The Power of Words Project, has been working diligently with other local and visiting artists on Manistique's "discover" mural. Above, she poses while working under scaffolding recently.

Power of Words project progressing 'in secret'

MANISTIQUE — What's the secret downtown?

When traveling downtown lately, some may have noticed a beehive of activity on the south side of the Peoples Store. First, the entire wall got painted white; then, scaffolding was erected, and now, parts of the wall are mysteriously shrouded.

Residents are asked to be patient as what will emerge in August will be an amazing installation of art, created just for Manistique with the input of more than 1,300 citizens.

Part of the Power of Words Project, the piece is sponsored by Manistique's Lake Effects Arts, Schoolcraft Tourism and Commerce, the Svetlata Foundation, and a grant received by CUPPAD from Artplace America. The goal of these grants is to spur economic growth throughout the arts.

Originally from Iron Mountain, Mia Tavonatti, founder of The Power of Words Project, at the time was teaching mural creation at Laguna College of Art and Design.

This mural process begins with an invitation to the community to suggest words they feel represent their hopes for the future of their community. The 20 words receiving the most support at the time this part of the process ends are presented to the community to vote for their favorite. Manistique selected "discover".

At that point, Tavonatti began creating the design for the mural, incorporating well-known parts of the community and area. The finished design was blown up to a piece approximately two by four feet in size and grids were drawn over the design, each square representing a square foot of the finished wall mural.

Gridding was also placed on the wall itself, and artists are now in the process of painstakingly transferring the design from the scale copy to the wall.

At a size of 23 by 83 feet, Manistique's mural will be the largest mural created by The Power of Words Project.

In addition to Tavonatti and three other visiting artists, four competitively selected local artists, and three Manistique High School students who competed and won scholarships are participating in the project.

To be a part of this project, local businesses, organizations, and individuals are supplying lunches for all the artists. Contact Jennifer Watson at (906) 286-1588 if interested.

Residents may also "participate" by walking through downtown to check out business window displays and vote for their favorite by making a donation at that business. The displays focus on the word "discover". All proceeds will go toward future art projects in Manistique.

To discover more about The Power of Words Project, the mural creation process, the 20 words picked by Manistique this year, or to see the murals in place in Iron Mountain, visit powerofwordspoint.org/about-us.

Plans are in process for another mural in Manistique next summer.

'Guiding Good Choices' workshop returns to area

MANISTIQUE — Guiding Good Choices, a series of workshops being offered in Manistique, teaches parents how to strengthen their bonds with their children and reduce the risk that their children will use drugs.

The free, five-session program is being offered by Great Lakes Recovery at the Manistique School and Public Library. The program will be held July 19, July 26, Aug. 2, 9, and 16 from 5:30-7:30 p.m.

The program is interactive for all parents of children in fourth through eighth grades. In a lively and open atmosphere, parents will learn specific strategies to help their children avoid drug use and other adolescent problem behaviors, and develop into healthy adults.

Parents will learn to set clear family guidelines on drugs, as well as practice skills to strengthen family bonds, helping their children develop healthy behaviors, and increase children's involvement in the family.

Guiding Good Choices was developed by Dr. J. David Hawkins and Dr. Richard F. Catalano of the University of Washington. Their research shows that when children are bonded to their parents, school and non-drug-using peers, they are less likely to be involved with drug use or other problem behaviors.

To register for the program, call (906) 286-0159.

Happy birthday wishes to all.

Even though I was out of town for the Fourth of July, I heard several comments from those that saw the float that the senior center had in the parade. A huge "thank you" goes out to Amber and Gary Hill and their family for volunteering their time. Kay Hinkson, Margaret Besaw, Sally Staszak, and Jean and Ron Brown were recent candy donors.

The monthly potluck is scheduled for Thursday, July 19. Entertainment will be provided by John Gore and will begin at 4 p.m. Dinner will begin at approximately 5 p.m. Bring a dish to pass, an empty tummy, and invite a few friends to join us!

One last reminder - if you are interested in possibly saving a little on your car insurance, you still have a chance to sign up for the AARP Driving Course. Classes will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., with an hour free for lunch. John Batcheider is the instructor. The cost is $15 for AARP members and $20 for non-members.

If you are interested, please call the center and get on the waiting list.

Be sure to share your telephone number, as we will be calling everyone as soon as we get the date. We currently have seven signed up.

Deadlines are fast approaching on some of our upcoming bus trips. If you are interested, we encourage you to get your money in, which confirms your seat. Let's start with the Players de Noc Play.

The bus will be departing from the senior center parking lot on Friday, July 27th at 5:30 p.m., allowing us to stop for dinner before going to the 8:30 p.m. show.

The cost is $23, which covers the transportation and ticket to the show. At the time of writing my column we do have enough to go, but would like to fill a few of the empty seats that are available.

Tickets will only be held for us until Aug. 1 for the Larry

They also surprised us with a new flag.

Village Artisans of Garden to host home tour and luncheon July 21

GARDEN - The Village Artisans of Garden will feature a home tour and salad luncheon July 21. These luncheons and tours have been a popular fundraiser for 15 years. The proceeds are used to support the Artisans' art enrichment programs for the community - especially for children.

This year's tour will feature a new home on the south side of Garden Bay just outside the village. It will then proceed to the east side of the peninsula with three homes on Kregg's Bay. The tour will end at Portage Bay Campground, where a tent will be set up and volunteers will welcome attendees with information on the many wildflowers growing. Plan to spend a day or the Garden Peninsula with family and friends enjoying a luncheon served at the St. John Parish Hall. Add in a tour of homes on the water and complete the day with a nature stroll among beautiful wildflowers.

Tour/luncheon tickets may be purchased at the Village Artisans/Garden Gallery in Garden. Donation is $10.

as a part-time deputy to bring DARE into the community," Herlik explained. "I watched him (Erickson) do this. I say he's my DARE hero. I really wanted to do it because I wanted to help kids make good choices and not make the bad.

After what I see in the jail — it's always reactive, you're always reacting, so I like to be proactive and try to help them make good choices and think about it before they do it," she added.

When asked if she has one memorable moment or class in her 15 years of running the program, Herlik said it's like comparing apples and oranges.

"They're all different," she explained. "Every year they are different and challenging and fun."

Herlik began by working with only the fifth and seventh grades, but a NorthCare Network grant allowed her to expand the DARE program approximately two years ago.

"I started going in to the first and third grades," she said. "I've expanded that to what I can."

During the last school year, the seventh graders used a prep hour to learn Botvins LifeSkills. Since the program overlapped some of the themes of DARE, Herlik said she "rolled with it" and instead helped teach that program.

"DARE was a little more involved. When I would go in and talk to the kids — they have questions," she explained. "Once we build the rapport and they realize I'm not the big, bad, mean cop ... they'd ask about things."

Instead of trying to compress the lessons of DARE and Botvins into a short period of time, Herlik said she went in during Botvins to make contact and be available to the students.

This year, during the DARE conference, Herlik is hoping to be trained to bring the program to the high school.

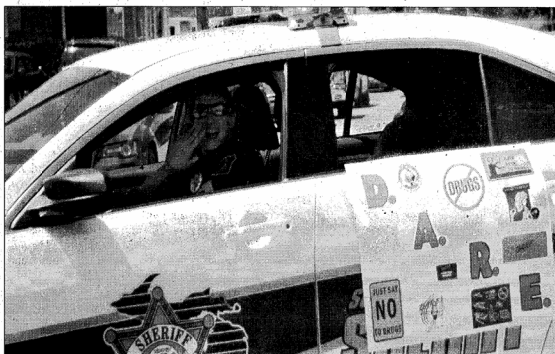

DARE, including any wages Herlik receives for administering the program, is completely grant and donation-funded.

"I fundraise and go to the community," she said, noting that the county had previously funded the program, but had cut it from the budget a few years ago. "The school assists and donates money, too."

Herlik added that the NorthCare Network grant is flexible and has helped her cover any additional costs, such as T-shirts for the fifth grade. Each year, Herlik holds a DARE essay contest and graduation for fifth grade students.

She pointed out that though the grant has been "wonderful," DARE funds are beginning to dwindle.

"I have people who will

randomly send me checks. St. Francis will sometimes do fundraisers and donate money," Herlik said. "My dad does the craft show during the car show and he donates all that money to the DARE program."

In addition to the DARE program, Herlik spends some of her free time working as an advanced emergency medical technician for the Manistique Emergency Medical Services Ambulance. She had previously been certified as basic EMT, but made the jump to advanced EMT a few years ago.

"I did it and passed the test — Jeff and I studied really hard for that," Herlik said. "That was three months of just every night reading a thick book and studying."

Herlik is also a member of the Critical Incident Stress Team. "You get call outs where you have a major incident and they need de-briefings," she said. "It's giving back to first responders because you go and help them after they've been through a traumatic incident."

You go and you get them talking — it's a model format and you work through it so they can heal themselves, get past the trauma of it and get back to their job," Herlik added.

Additionally, Herlik is part of another trauma team newly formed by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services.

"In our community we have a lot of homes where children are raised in what we would consider a 'trauma' situation — where the parents are addicts," she explained. "We will try to identify the at-risk homes or children and try to get services to them to help them."

Studies have proven that children in that environment are a product of that environment and usually continue on that path," Herlik added.

Other than the extras, residents will usually be able to spot Herlik performing the duties of a sergeant — responding to emergencies, patrolling, and handling complaints. Within the walls of the sheriff's department, she spends time on paperwork and still works as a corrections officer.

"I find doing reports the hardest — finding the 'quiet' time to do it," she said. "I'm a certified corrections officer, so I might be booking people, taking people to court — helping out wherever I can in the jail."

With so much activity to fill her days, Herlik said she was taken aback by the call that she was selected as this year's Folk Fest Hero.

"I was shocked — I didn't see that one coming," she said. "I just do things where I see there's a need and try to volunteer and make the community a better place. The kids are a big focal point to me — to try to get children making good choices and help them be successful."

It's funny, too, because my dad was Folk Fest Hero quite a few years ago and I was so proud of him," she added.

Beder will appear at NTA convention in Escanaba

ESCANABA – Nick Beder from the neighboring state of Wisconsin will be presenting at the 59th annual NTA Convention/Outdoor Expo. This event (expected to draw at least 6,000 people) will be held at the U.P. State Fairgrounds in Escanaba July 26-28.

Hours are 8 a.m.-6 p.m. each day.

Admission is $10 per day or $20 for a three-day pass. Children under 12 are free.

Beder enjoys passing on his outdoor knowledge. He has taught Trapper Ed, fur handling, and trap placement/selection and setting in his home state. Starting trapping at age 9, he taught himself how to trap beaver under the ice.

Local trappers will be interested in Beder's techniques as the environment and conditions of winter trapping in Wisconsin are similar to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

Beder now enjoys an annual trapping trip to Mississippi where he traps December-March with his trapping partner (wife Christie) harvesting a variety of land/water furbearers.

In a recent 46-day trip to Mississippi, they harvested 121 beaver, 64 bobcats, 302 raccoon, 72 coyotes, 62 otter, 633 opossums, and 28 grey fox.

Beder also traps in Arkansas, Tennessee, and Oklahoma. He uses all of his harvest, not only the fur, but other parts for food and lure making materials.

For further information, contact Convention Coordinator Vickie Wright at (231) 907-0977, or vwright@nationaltrappers.com or Roy Dahlgren (906) 399-1960 or visit www.uptrappers.com.

Fish Report

Ret. Sgt. John Walker

we just take for granted up here because it has always been that way in the U.P. But let some relative come up for a visit and see our U.P. small town way of life and they soon see that there is something special about all we have to enjoy up here.

Stop and think for a minute when for a couple of months you may come to one of the main intersections in town and have to wait for a dozen or more vehicles and you say, "Man! Give me a break where did all this traffic come from!" You have to laugh when we up here think this is roughing it.

Like I said once before when a lady from southern Texas asked me what the U.P. was like and I told her that they have more cars at an intersection down there than we have in the whole county.

Wife, our daughter and her girls, and I took a ride through a couple of campgrounds to see how the people that were camping were roughing it.

As I said a few weeks ago you soon see there is a whole new meaning to the phrase, "We're going camping." To see someone using a tent is rare but some of the campers and motor homes are something the average Yooper could only dream about.

Back in the "Good-Old-Days if you went camping you roughed it and only took a couple of changes of socks and underwear because you were just going for a week to 10 days not planning on being gone forever. And that was only because dad made you take a change in case something happened you ended up in the hospital you just maybe should not be wearing 10 day old socks and underwear.

This was just one of those life changing lessons taught to youth back when life was a whole lot more interesting.

There just might be a reason for all these nice comfortable campers and motor homes and the answer may be the age of those using them. I hit the three-quarter of a century mark last week so the following which someone sent me really makes sense to me seeing I am there and ate them all the time before those so called "Golden Years" hit me.

Warning to all Parents: Immediately!! Stop feeding your kids all those Rice Krispies! It is not absorbed in your body in a healthy manner! It is stored in your system and the effect of them being stored there becomes more and more visible the older you get.

I used to eat a lot of Rice Krispies and now that I am older I can truly testify to the effect they have. Every morning when I wake up and get out of bed, everything in my body snaps, crackles, and pops! Please pass this message on to everyone to hopefully stop others from eating Rice Krispies and paying the snap, crackle, and pop price later in life.

I have a little bit of garden where I play around trying to grow a few things and as life would have it up at camp where I would like to see a few deer in my food plots there may be a few using the word loosely.

But guess where I find the evidence of deer both by their nibbling and tracks it is here in town in my little garden patch.

I have observed some of the nicest bucks I have seen in the area within the city limits. In fact some of the closest calls to almost hitting a deer have been when going down Houghton Street here in town. Don't deer know they are supposed to be out in the woods not city dwellers?

Remember enjoying life does not have to be a big stressful project just take a picnic lunch and get out there and sit on the beach or off the Boardwalk and enjoy being able to get out and enjoy things while you can.

Adopt-A-Highway clean-up set

LANSING – Motorists should be on the lookout beginning Saturday as thousands of Adopt-A-Highway volunteers fan out along state roadways from Calumet to Kalamazoo picking up litter. Participants in the Michigan Department of Transportation program will clean highway roadways from July 14 to 22 during the second of three scheduled pickups this year.

Every year, Adopt-A-Highway volunteers regularly collect 65,000 to 70,000 bags of trash. The popular program began in 1990 and has grown to involve more than 2,800 groups cleaning 6,300 miles of highway.

Getting involved in the program is straightforward. Volunteers include members of civic groups, businesses and families. Crew members have to be at least 12 years old and each group must include at least three people. Groups are asked to adopt a section of highway for at least two years. There is no fee to participate. Adopt-A-Highway signs bearing group names are posted along the stretches of adopted highway.

When working in a highway right of way, Adopt-A-Highway volunteers wear high-visibility, yellow-green safety vests required by federal regulations. MDOT provides free vests and trash bags, and arranges to haul away the trash.

Sections of highway are available for adoption all over the state. Interested groups can get more information on joining the program at www.michigan.gov/adoptahighway.

Several landfills in southwestern Michigan are also chipping in to help the Adopt-A-Highway program. Westside Landfill in St. Joseph County, C&C Landfill in Calhoun County, Orchard Hill Landfill in Berrien County, Southeast Berrien County Landfill near Niles, and Republic Services Gembrit Circle Transfer Station in Kalamazoo have all agreed to accept trash generated by the three annual AAH pickups at no charge. In exchange, these businesses will receive a sign recognizing their support.

The year's final Adopt-A-Highway pickup is scheduled for the fall, from Sept. 22 to 30.

MAS foundation hits milestone

RECENT DONATION ALLOWS ORGANIZATION TO SURPASS $1M MARK

MANISTIQUE – Just 35 years after its inception, the Manistique Area Schools Scholarship Foundation has reached its $1 million goal. The organization catapulted to the milestone after a recent $75,000 donation.

According to MASF Board Member Sherry Varnum, the foundation was created in 1983 by Richard Bonifas, a former superintendent at MAS. Originally, Bonifas envisioned a $100,000 endowment – the principal held untouched, the interest used to fund local scholarships.

“He had this idea that we should raise money and never spend the principal and always just spend the interest on scholarships for our young people,” Varnum explained.

The original board consisted of Margaret Cain, Dorothy Hoholik, Phil Villemure, Billie Doyle, Eleanor Broullire, Dan Malloy, John Males, Marvin Frederickson, David Vaughan, Katherine LeBrasseur, Betty Newman, Helen Johnson, Varnum, and Bonifas.

Within the first year of its inception, the MASF amassed $11,000 from area businesses, individuals, and MAS alumni.

“The first $100 that was ever put into the foundation was from Bonifas himself,” Varnum said. “Then we all began to follow suit.”

In 1985, the group selected the first scholarship recipient – Kristine Knuth. To date, MASF has paid out $562,000 in scholarships to graduating seniors. Students are selected for a scholarship award based on grade point average and ACT (American College Testing), as well as leadership in school and community activities.

According to Varnum, each student awarded a scholarship throughout the years has gone on to use it.

“That’s remarkable,” she noted.

After Bonifas died in 1988, Phil Villemure Sr. served as foundation chair. During his time at the helm, MASF continued to grow, receiving steady contributions and an increasing number of scholarship awards.

2018 scholarship recipients

The Manistique Area Schools Scholarship Foundation awarded 10 $2,000 scholarships to qualifying graduating seniors during the 2018 Senior Honors Night in May. Recipients this year included (top right going clockwise) Anthony LeMaster, Kyle Seeley, Zach Matchinski, Madison Kraatz, Renae Schuetter, Alexis Russell, Samantha Rethman, McKenna Golat, Tessa Powell and Isaac Anderson.

2013 recipients... Where are they now?

In 2013, the Manistique Area Schools Scholarship Foundation awarded 16 scholarships for $2,000 each to qualifying graduating seniors during the Senior Honors Night presentation. Below is a little information as to how some of the scholarships were utilized.

Benjamin S. Holbrook

In May of 2013, after receiving the MAS Foundation Scholarship, Ben Holbrook attended Michigan State University to major in their Electrical Technology Program.

In April 2014, he received an internship with Sky Electric in Lapeer, Mich. While working for Sky he was able to apply for an receive his electrical apprenticeship license as well as learn a tremendous amount from his coworkers. At the end of August 2014, he returned to MSU to finish his final semester of classes. Upon completion of the program he was offered a full time position with Sky Electric which was bittersweet for him. It was nice to have a career opportunity, but sad to know it meant he would be unable to return to the Upper Peninsula, which had always been his plan.

Thanks to the scholarship from the Foundation, he was able to save on schooling, and in April of 2015, he closed on his first home.

On Aug. 19, 2017, he married his wife Natalie. In March 2018, he had accumulated enough hours to apply to take his journeyman electrician exam for the State of Michigan which he passed on May 4, 2018, officially becoming a licensed electrician.

Although many of his accomplishments can be attributed to his hard work and God's grace, he is very appreciative of the scholarships he received and the head start they gave him in his post high school life.

Kyra Lauzon

Kayra Lauzon was honored and incredibly appreciative to have been selected as one of the recipients of the 2013 MAS Foundation Scholarships. Receiving the scholarship was meaningful to her for a number of reasons, it aided in the financial aspect of attending college and it gave her a true sense of pride knowing the foundation recognized the importance of hard work, community involvement and dedication to academic success.

Lauzon attended Grand Valley State University where she received her Bachelor of Science Degree in clinical Exercise Science.

Her time spent at Grand Valley allowed her to grow both personally and professionally. During her undergraduate studies she was involved with various clubs and organizations, including but not limited to, Pre-Physical Therapy Club, Exercise Science Club, GVSU Exercise Science Research, Intramural Sports, Kids in Motion and Special Olympics- Unified Sports.

She also had the opportunity to work at GVSU's Admissions Office as an Admissions Visitor Information Personnel and also had the opportunity to work at Achieve Physical Therapy as a Physical Therapy aide.

She is currently enrolled in the GVSU Doctor of Physical Therapy Program and will begin classes in the fall.

Melinda S. Hoholik

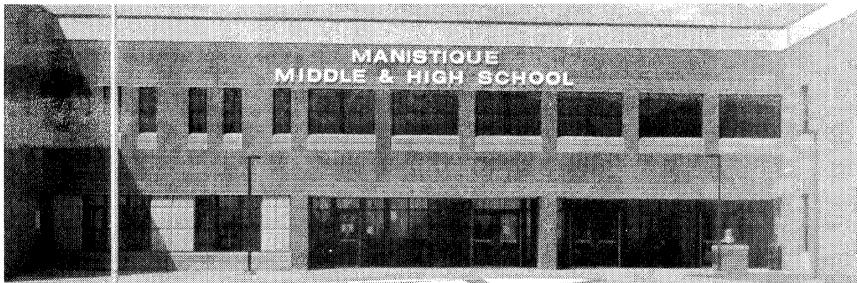

After graduating from Manistique High School, Melinda Hoholik made use of her MAS Foundation Scholarship attending Grand Valley State University. In December 2016, she graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Allied Health Sciences and a minor in psychology.

While attending school she gained professional experience in the following positions: community integrated skill building lead mentor, community living support aide, and as an enhanced skill building mentor at IKUS Life Enrichment Services and as a personal care assistant at GT Independence.

She was also a therapy in-

MANISTIQUE AREA SCHOOLS FOUNDATION DONORS

The following contributions have been received from October 1983 through April 2018

In August, 1983 the Manistique Area Schools Scholarship Foundation was created with a goal in mind to offer financial scholarships to Manistique High School college bound students. The organization set a lofty goal of someday reaching $1,000,000 in principal donations to the organization with interest received on investments going to fund the scholarships.

It is with great pride and sincere appreciation that they announce the Foundation has reached it's $1,000,000 goal and have now set their sites on the next $1,000,000.

It is with equal pride they announce the Foundation has awarded over $550,000 in scholarships since their inception.

All contributions to the Foundation are treated as a principal investment and the interest received on those investments is used to provide the scholarships distributed each year to the graduates. Contributions are tax deductible and all donations are acknowledged.

this money all came in hundreds and twenties and small amounts, and then the big ones," Varnum said. "We really appreciate people who list us as a place to send their memorial. It's wonderful."

By 1991, a mere eight years after the foundation was established, board members announced that Bonifas's initial goal was achieved – the endowment had reached $100,000. Then, in 2000, the fund surpassed the quarter-million dollar mark and was on its way to a half-million dollar – a milestone achieved in the fall of 2001.

"Every penny is accounted for – I think that is so unique," Varnum explained.

She added that MASF keeps a log of every donation received – a record published each year as part of a special tabloid inserted in the Pioneer Tribune.

"I think the whole town should be very proud, because they're the ones that did it," Varnum said. "They're the people who gave their money."

MASF continues to welcome tax-deductible contributions of any size. All donors are recognized by having their name listed in various contributor categories. Checks may be sent to: Donna Winkel, Manistique Area Schools Foundation, 100 North Cedar St., Manistique, MI 49854. For more information, call Winkel at 341-4326 or Lois Hoholik at 341-5437.

Following graduation from Manistique High School, Demers furthered her education at Northern Michigan University. She graduated in 2017 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management.

She is currently employed as a Deposit Operations Specialist at mBank in Manistique.

Additional recipients included: Andrea Miller, Hannah Bryant, Carolyn Mool, Harley Troxler, Kenner Broullire, Shanel Bosanic, Hunter Ashbrook, Trevor Thill, Jared Edwards, Samantha Stoll, Monica Giles and Bryson Lawrence.
