LEAVING THE PAST BEHIND

VOTERS ASKED TO FUND NEW JAIL AS CURRENT JAIL DETERIORATES

MANISTIQUE - Area voters will have an opportunity Nov. 6 to determine the fate of the Schoolcraft County Jail. The General Election ballot includes a millage request for the retrofitting of an area building to serve as the new jail.

In July, the Schoolcraft County Board of Commissioners voted to place the request on the ballot. The millage request reads: "For the purpose of constructing, operating, furnishing, and equipping a new county jail and to continue the sheriff's road patrol, shall the constitutional limitation upon the total amount of taxes which may be assessed in one year upon all property within the county of Schoolcraft, Michigan, be increased by up to three mills ($3 per $1,000 of taxable value), for a period of 20 years (2018-2037) inclusive? If approved and levied in full, this millage will raise an estimated $1,078,563 in the first calendar year of the levy based on taxable value."

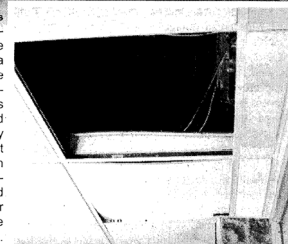

The millage would provide funds for an approximately $7.1 million retrofit of the former armory building to serve as the new Schoolcraft County Jail. Additionally, $899,000 is included in that amount to construct a holding area at the Schoolcraft County Courthouse for inmates being transported for court hearings. Along with estimated construction costs, the millage is expected to cover an increase in operational expenses at the facilities.

In a previous commission meeting, Commissioner Dan Hoholik stated the building project equates to 1.38 mills, which equals $7,127,000, and additional operations equate to 1.62 mills, which equals $580,000 annually for the next 20 years. Additional operations are expected to include Schoolcraft County voters will be asked to approve an up to three mill request to fund the retrofit of the former armory building to serve as a new jail. The millage would also fund the increase in operations of the larger jail, as well as the continuation of road patrol. Above, the current jail has been in operation since 1957, when it first opened as a lock-up. Sheriff Paul Furman says the facility has received all of the "band-aids" it can to keep it operational, but the threat of continued Michigan Department of Corrections violations loom overhead. Above, one of the cells in the jail is pictured with paint peeling from the walls and visible water damage. At right, the ceiling at the entrance of the jail is exposed after water damage.

four new, full-time positions, including a jail administrator.

The building is expected to be 18,641 square-feet with 44 beds. The current jail was built in 1957 as a home for the sheriff and a small lock-up. Throughout the years, additions have been constructed, creating the facility existing today. The jail has 24 beds - down from 28 after the Michigan Department of Corrections eliminated four beds following an inspection last year.

The operating budget of the new jail is anticipated to jump to approximately $1.6 million per year, compared to the current 2018 operating budget of approximately $983,000. With $580,000 supplied by the millage annually, the county would still need to supply approximately $1 million from its general fund for operations.

Commissioner Hoholik pointed out figuring out the operational expenses of the jail is difficult.

"The jail budget is the hardest thing to budget because there are so many variables," he said. "There will be opportunity, in a new jail, for efficiencies and possibly other revenues by taking other county's inmates. These items could lessen what would come from the general fund."

In July, the county board voted to increase the budget and place a spending freeze on any purchases made by the sheriff's department without prior approval from the board. During the Sept. 27 meeting, the board voted to rescind the purchase restrictions placed on the of the Manistique Farmers' Market. I am not perfect, but I do seek to do what is right for the residents of Schoolcraft County, and consider each issue based on serving our communities and growing our economic opportunities. We need job creation throughout the county – good jobs that people can be proud of, with good wages that allow them to care for their families. I am running unopposed in the 2018 election, but I would still appreciate your vote of support. Thank you in advance.

Schoolcraft County Board of Commissioners, District 3

Corey Barr

I live in Hiawatha Township, where I raised three children with my wife, Laerie. I am running for Schoolcraft County commissioner, District 3. I have a strong belief in civic duty and participate in local government. I currently sit on local boards, including: Schoolcraft County Housing Commission, Hiawatha and Habitat Construction Board, Manistique Youth Football Program, First Baptist Church deacon board, and Boy Scouts of America – assistant scoutmaster and committee member. I have been an active member on the Hiawatha Volunteer Township Fire Department for 17 years. The city of Manistique has been my employer for more than 17 years (currently the water/wastewater superintendent and zoning administrator); 28 years total in local government. I understand all aspects of governmental financing. It's time for a change. I will dig for the truth and apply it to common sense decision making in our county government. I would appreciate your vote. Thank you.

John Shiner

I am running on a simple platform: I feel our community could be more prosperous and I want to be part of the solution. I have no personal agenda and my political affiliation is secondary to my desire to see a prosperous county. I have worked in public education for 25 years and, therefore, have a solid understanding of the families that makeup Schoolcraft County. I have logged many hours of volunteer service. I have served as a Big Brother, United States Peace Corps volunteer, and a volunteer fireman in Ontonagon County. I hold degrees from Central Michigan University and the University of Michigan. I feel my education and work/volunteer experience make me a solid candidate for a seat as county commissioner in District 4.

Paul Walker

My name is Paul Walker, and I'm running for Schoolcraft County commissioner, District 4.

Isaac Swisher

Robin LaCroix

My family roots to the area can be traced as far back as the late 1800s. I believe my family and community of friends are one of God's greatest gifts. I served with pride in the U.S. Marine Corps, Michigan National Guard, and worked many years as an officer for the Michigan Department of Corrections. I care deeply for Manistique and its future, I take pride in volunteering locally by giving back and inspiring to make a difference. I currently serve on city council, vice president of the Schoolcraft County Historical Society, co-chair Folkfest Committee, Manistique Recreation Board, chair of the Schoolcraft County GOP, and the Manistique Fourth of July committee. My pledge is to always listen, and work hard for you. Please remember, your vote is your voice; please vote on Nov. 6.

Dan Hoholik, incumbent

I was born and raised in Manistique and graduated with the class of 1992. After graduating, I attended Ferris State University and graduated with a degree in HVACR Technology. I returned to Manistique after school and worked for my family's business for 14 years. I have now been employed at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital for nearly 10 years and have resided in Thompson Township for the last 24 years. I have two sons, Colton who is a sophomore at Central Michigan University and Joey, who is a junior at Manistique High School. I have been a county commissioner for almost two years and it has been a pleasure to work with other county officials, managers, and staff. I appreciate the opportunity to be a part of making good decisions for the county and also the support I have received when working to solve issues. Please remember to vote on Nov. 6.

Schoolcraft County Road Commission Isaac Swisher

My name is Isaac R. Swisher and I'm running for Schoolcraft County Road Commissioner. I'm married to Crystal (Strasser) Swisher and we have one daughter. I'm an eighth generation resident of Schoolcraft county previous owner of a small construction business, and currently serving as a Manistique Precinct delegate. I have 10-plus years of experience in local politics; certificates in the constitution, American history and government, statesmanship and economics. My goal will be to explore new ways to expand and grow services, as well as explore new and different ways to possibly reinstate other services in order to better serve our community. My goals are simple – to find solutions to and fix as many problems for our residents as possible.

Robin LaCroix

I am Robin LaCroix and have lived most of my life in Schoolcraft County. I am semi-retired and would like to start giving back to my community once again. I am a community-minded individual, having volunteered in Cub Scouts, Little League, and founding Manistique Area Youth Soccer. As a business owner, I was co-president of the chamber of commerce and understand the importance of working with a balanced budget while trying to implement improvements. I was a seasonal employee of the road commission for three years, which allowed me to see the job from that perspective. I have been attending the board meetings all summer and fall, which has helped me to position myself to be able to step in and do the job required. I realize that a board member needs to listen to both the employees, as well as the community and find a compromise for everyone.

Dear Editor,

Folks continue to ask me if I have been recalled from office as clerk of Fairbanks Township. No, I continue to hold that office – as Ron Collins, James Dalgord and Morgan Tattow continue to hold their offices – unless and until I am voted out of office in the November election.

Efforts to recall each of us began early last year with claims of conflict of interest in regard to voting to allow Heritage Sustainable Energy to place power lines in the county road right of way. A conflict of interest means a financial interest.

I had no financial interest in anything Heritage does when the vote was taken, not then, nor at any time since then. My property is not leased to Heritage, and in fact, it's in the area Heritage has agreed not to develop in the future.

Nevertheless, an advertisement was recently promoting Jim Peasley, who is running against me in November, stating "I will do what's best for the community, not what's best for my pocketbook". If Mr. Peasley means that I have received some financial benefit, he should be more specific about what that is and how it happened.

Any accusation that my pocketbook has benefited is false, and he knows it. The ad was paid for by "Citizens for Local Control", an assumed name not registered anywhere – which says the anonymous accuser is not willing or able to stand behind the accusation.

When the original recall petition language claiming conflict of interest failed, a new petition was filed demanding my recall for having made a motion to allow Heritage to place power lines in the county road right of way without requiring Heritage to pay compensation to the township. That motion failed, but the same motion, made by someone else, passed later.

No compensation was requested when the motion passed, and that's as it should be. A township cannot charge a fee, except in the amount necessary to reimburse actual costs incurred by the township. The township incurred no expense for the permission and the township won't incur any expense for use of the right of way, so there is no cost to pass on to Heritage.

Evidently the petition's supporters don't understand how these laws apply to townships – or they don't intend to follow the law. Maybe they do understand, but are trying to confuse you.

I was one of three board members who voted to allow Heritage to place power lines in the county road right of way. The other two are not on the ballot for recall, even though they are the ones who moved and seconded the motion that passed.

If Heritage and its windmills were the issue, there would be petitions for their recall. If Heritage and its windmills are not the real issue, then what is?

Gloria A Rogers

MANISTIQUE — On Saturday, Oct. 13, 2018, Gloria Ann Rogers, surrounded by loved ones, peacefully joined her Lord. She often looked at a picture of Jesus and said, "Remember God, you're up there and I'm down here." Now they are together in Heaven.

Gloria was born in Detroit, Mich., on May 18, 1931. Growing up with her parents, Edward and Helen (Lulu) Zerbes, Gloria was very active in the Catholic Church and choir, had volunteered at local hospitals as an aid, and enjoyed ballroom dancing. After high school, Gloria gave serious thought to becoming a nun.

She was also recruited by a New York choir to sing as she was a coloratura soprano. Tempting as they were, these choices would have taken her away from her family, whom she adored. She opted to remain in Detroit with her parents, where she worked for Packard Motors and Burroughs Adding Machine Company.

When her parents retired, Gloria moved with them to their family cottage in Grayling. She treasured the times there, and was very proud to share that the Michigan National Guard Training Center was just down the road from their home.

After her parents passed away, she moved to the Upper Peninsula, where she lived in Garden for several years and then in Manistique, where she spent the remainder of her days. Gloria was active with the Catholic Church, sang in the choir, participated in events at the Senior Center, and was a Senior Companion for many years. Until this past June, she had lived alone, but then her health required more round the clock care. She was fortunate and appreciative to have spent her remaining days at Hidden Estates in Manistique, which she called her home. She was here at her home when she

Gloria's life was guided by her faith; her love for her family and friends, and her many pets. She often said that all animals are God's creatures. Throughout her 87 years, she had many dogs and cats that were kindred spirits with her. Each one was loved as a part of her family. She had a special way with all that she met, man or beast, and she could never turn away any person or animal in need.

In addition to her parents, Gloria was preceded in death by an infant brother. She is survived by her cousins Geraldine Egan, of Center Line, Mich., Mark (Wendy) Anderson of Grand Rapids, Mich.; her special friend, Shirley Young of Manistique, whom Gloria referred to as her adopted daughter, her everything; and the many friends who touched her loving soul.

Gloria often said how blessed she was to know so many caring people. She was very appreciative to anyone who did anything for her or said a kind word to her. She was oblivious to how she touched those who knew her, and how she always put a smile on their faces - and in their hearts. There are many words to describe Gloria, but the best word is unforgettable!

On Tuesday, Oct. 23, a celebration of life and love of our friend will begin with visitation at 11 a.m. at St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church, 330 Oak St. in Manistique. A Mass will follow at 12:30 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, her wishes were for memorials to the Eva Burrell Animal Shelter, to local chapter of HOSA (Future Health Professionals) at the Manistique High School, or to the St. Francis Catholic Church.

Messier-Broullire Funeral Home is assisting with arrangements.

Letters

common sense dictates that Line 5 be decommissioned and removed without delay.

Michigan is the Morgan family home. Unlike Bergman, Morgan's campaign contributions come almost exclusively from individuals within the First District, not from outsiders and corporate PACs.

Jack, go home to Louisiana. Michigan needs Matt Morgan.

Brenda Rusch
Traverse City

Dear Editor,

There are some people whose full-time job is working for the people of Schoolcraft County. Although I haven't seen any signs etc., I expect there are some whose job will be on the line in the upcoming election.

It would be smart for us to reflect all of them unless we think they aren't doing a good job. I haven't heard one negative word about any of them. It's nonsense to vote party at this level, what we need is competence. If the person is incompetent, leave him/her on the job. It makes no sense to train someone else who may not do as well.

Now, in the U.S. representative race, I see it differently. I was appalled to see Bergman's disgusting depiction of Morgan as a wild, bug-eyed, psychopath. Bergman knows that's not Matt, but scaring people may be his only way of painting a negative picture of Morgan.

Matt is a hunter, gun owner, and has a concealed carry permit so Jake can't use the old, "take our guns away" lie that people seem to believe.

A year or more ago, the Pioneer Tribune printed a letter that I sent to Bergman asking him to explain why single payer wouldn't work here while it works everywhere else in the modern world while providing better care at half the cost. I asked him to reply via a letter to all the newspapers in the first district.

I saw no reply in the Pioneer Tribune, nor did I get an answer. Probably can't blame him, it was a sucker question because there is no creditable answer. However, since there is a lot of money being spent to make us believe single payer is bad, people still believe it would cost more money and provide less care. So, it's not a stretch to conclude that if Bergman lies about how scary Morgan is he could also lie about health care.

Shortly after taking office, Bergman voted to take away our protection from pre-existing conditions and lifetime limits that the ACA provides. He voted to repeal and replace the ACA but with only a plan to repeal and not to replace. Again, when I wrote and asked him how he voted, I got no answer.

I believe we need someone in congress who would be a check on Trump. I hope we can all agree that Trump shows signs that he would like to be like all the other despots around the world that have total control and have no one to answer to.

I want someone in congress who wishes to preserve our democracy and would be willing to stand up to Trump and his apparent goal of king-like power. I don't see Jake Bergman doing that.

Jude Collins
Manistique

Dear Editor,

Open letter to Jack Bergman. Once, when I visited your office in Traverse City, you told me the ACA was collapsing and that we couldn't afford to fix it. So you voted to end it and replace it with the AHCA, which would have thrown millions of people off health insurance.

Since then, you also voted to give the wealthiest Americans and corporations a $1.5 trillion tax cut. So we can't afford healthcare coverage for Michiganders, but we can afford to give tax cuts to the top 1 percent?

You talk about civility, but at the town hall in Traverse City last fall, when your constituents implored you to protect their healthcare, you condescendingly called them "children". When we try to get an appointment with you, your staff says, "We don't have his calendar".

You talk about reaching across the aisle, but you nearly always vote the way your party cadres tell you to. You've voted the way Trump wants you to even more often than Speaker Ryan has — 96.7 percent of the time. At your $174,000 a year salary, we could save money by replacing you with a photocopier. In Washington, the saying goes, when two people vote together that often, one of them is unnecessary.

V.M. Gutowski
Traverse City

Dear Editor,

Being "pro-life" can mean more than just being opposed to abortion. The organization we are part of, Michigan Democrats for Life, supports policies that respect human life and dignity for each person's whole life, both before birth and after birth until natural death.

The Republican Party offers good rhetoric about respecting life before birth, but Democrats support policies that actually reduce the number of abortions such as universal access to health care, maternity leave and sick leave, affordable childcare, and a higher minimum wage. Many Republican policies leave low-income women feeling that abortion is their only viable option.

Other Republican positions fail to protect human life after birth, such as rolling back environmental protections and worker protections, inhumane treatment of immigrants and refugees, attempts to deny health coverage for pre-existing conditions, and failure to address poverty and gun violence.

The choice for pro-life voters is not as simple as it may appear to be when one considers that pro-life continues after a child is born.

UPHP plans add 'LIVE FIT' fitness benefit

MARQUETTE — Upper Peninsula Health Plan is excited to announce a new fitness benefit, "Live Fit", to its two Medicare Advantage plans: UPHP Advantage (HMO) and UPHP Choice (HMO). Both UPHP Advantage and UPHP Choice cover hospital insurance (Part A) and medical insurance (Part B) as well as prescription drug coverage (Part D). In January 2019, "Live Fit" will be available at no additional cost to members enrolled in eligible UPHP Medicare Advantage plans. The benefit will be available throughout Michigan's Upper Peninsula across a large network of participating fitness centers. Plan participants will have access to the same services, privileges, classes and programs as the fitness centers' standard members, including a waiver of all traditional enrollment fees. receive this new fitness benefit. "Live Fit" offers people enrolled in UPHP Medicare Advantage plans an opportunity to stay active and improve their health. ### Scouts welcoming new kids to growing ranks

MANISTIQUE — The Hiawathaland District of the Boy Scouts of America is serving four percent more youth in Cub Scouts than last year. More than 850 youth are served in the Cub Scouting program in the Upper Peninsula.

One out of ten new elementary aged kids joining scouting is female. Cub Scout Packs around the U.P. are continuing to welcome young people and their families into the character-building and outdoor programs.

The Hiawathaland District kicked off its annual popcorn sale in September. All proceeds raised through this important fundraiser will help cover costs associated with operating camps, holding community service projects, and providing leadership training for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Venture Scouts.

In 2017, $300,000 in popcorn was sold in the U.P., with more than 70 percent of sales benefiting local scouting programs.

Scouting started welcoming both young men and women into its Venturing and Exploring high school-aged programs in 1971. This welcoming tradition continued in the spring of 2018 with Cub Scout Packs welcoming the whole family.

In February 2019, the Boy Scouts of America's showcase program "Boy Scouts" will change its name to "Scouts BSA" and will welcome all genders into single-gender troops.

Each child may earn the rank of Eagle Scout and join the full tradition of adventure in the Boy Scouts of America. The Scouts are forming troops for middle and high school aged students today.

For more information on the popcorn sale and local scouting, visit www.BayLakesBSA.org, email jon.martin@scouting.org, or call (920) 638-3432.

department for budgeted items and agreed to monitor the department's purchases monthly at the audit/finance committee meeting. According to Schoolcraft County Sheriff Paul Furman, the jail has outlived its functionality - a fact that was pointed out in both a 2010 jail feasibility study and the most recent feasibility study completed earlier this year. Specifically, he noted that the plumbing in the building frequently backs up and leaks, there are leaks in the ceiling throughout the building, the ventilation system is broken, and the sole employee bathroom is also used by residents visiting the facility for court ordered drug testing.

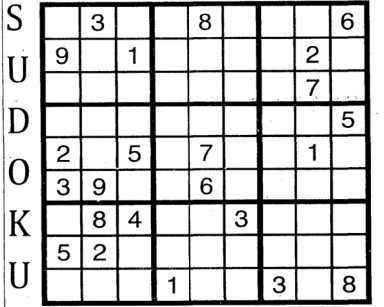

Above, a portion of the Schoolcraft County Sheriff's Department office section is shown with broken counter tops and dented and peeling walls. Damaged ceiling tiles, poor ventilation, substandard plumbing, and security woes are among the issues prevalent inside the jail. The county is currently seeking a millage to fund a new jail at the former armory building.

people to do it. It's the same people working the jail who are running these programs. The county is constitutionally mandated by the state to have an elected sheriff and, under state law, they are required to have "charge and custody of the jails... and of the prisoners in the same, and shall keep them himself, or by his deputy or jailer." If the jail were to close, a holding cell established, and inmates were transported to another facility, the jail feasibility study, created by Byce and Associates, an engineering and architecture firm out of Kalamazoo, Mich., indicated that: "The 20-year cost of this option is approximately $30,923,115, including the inevitable renovation of the existing jail to allow its continued use. This would equate to approximately $1.5 million per year - approximately $970,000 of which would fund employee, travel, vehicle, and vehicle maintenance costs.

"We've had two jail inspections - one for 2017 and then one for 2018," Furman said. "The one for 2017, there was like eight pages. We've managed to clean that up. We're down ... to two items. So, we're doing everything we can do, to keep it going. We really are."

"This is question and answer, because they (the public) haven't been able to ask the questions at any of the (county) board meetings," Furman said. "So now if you have a question, we'll try to answer it. It's up to the people - we're just trying to inform them," he added. "If the millage does not pass, the next actions planned by the county are unknown at this time, but Furman says he fears the failed millage will lead to layoffs and a cessation of services provided by the sheriff's department. "If people get laid off, that hurts all of our programs," he said. "It just does because I don't have

GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

A piece of history was lost last Thursday when the Blaney Lodge Bed and Breakfast was destroyed by fire. The lodge, located on Highway M-77 in Germfask, was not occupied at the time of the fire and no injuries were reported. The lodge had been part of the Blaney Park Resort in the early 1900s. Multiple area fire departments responded to the blaze.

Toxic stress, trauma, adverse childhood experiences (ACEs). These terms are becoming all too familiar in education today and reasons why student trauma needs our attention.

In the most recent Michigan Behavioral Risk Factor Survey from the Department of Health and Human services, research revealed that 38 percent of Michigan children were verbally abused; 29 percent lived with someone with substance abuse; almost 27 percent had parents separated or divorced; more than 19 percent lived with someone with mental illness; 19 percent lived in homes where adults were physically violent to each other; 18 percent were physically abused; 16 percent were sexually abused; and more than eight percent lived with someone who served time in jail.

Research such as this is finding that toxic stress brought on by ACEs affect brain development in children. The fight-or-flight response that allows children to adapt to and survive in a stressful environment causes neurodevelopmental changes in the brain that can be long term. The stress can also manifest itself in long term health issues including an increased incidence of heart disease, lung disease, diabetes, cancer, and depression.

It has also been suggested that people who have experienced toxic stress have a life expectancy that is 20 years shorter than their peers. Many of the behavioral and learning struggles that we see in school are often a result of living in a stressful environment.

Adverse childhood experiences are common, but for obvious reasons, are rarely talked about and are often generational and impact grandparents, parents and children. When an individual has been identified as having experienced trauma help is available.

Scientists have been studying the brain and child development and have discovered interventions that can help. Support and treatment is available in Schoolcraft County through several agencies including local medical providers, community mental health, private practice counselors and the school. A team approach to support, interventions and therapy can help build resilience and coping strategies to mitigate the effects of trauma.

Over the next few months there will be a concerted effort among local providers, the school, and vested individuals in creating a system to support families and individuals who experience trauma. The goal of the group will be to move beyond simply identifying individuals experiencing trauma to offer interventions and support to build skills and resilience.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENTS

The Emeralds' junior varsity football squad added another one to the win column last Thursday when they hosted the Norway Knights. Due to the cancellation of the varsity program, they will be back on the Ron Rubick Memorial Field this Friday when they host Gladstone for the annual homecoming game. Pregame festivities include the homecoming parade at 5 p.m. The parade begins at the Manistique Post Office intersection on Cedar Street and ends at the Manistique Middle and High School parking lot for a tailgate to follow. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. Coronation will take place at halftime. Pictured above, freshman Cale Dykes (44) attempts to keep the Knights at bay as Mason Miller (24) looks to gain some ground. At right, with the ball tucked firmly at his side, Wyatt Gierke runs for yardage.

Homecoming Week

Your Participation Makes it Great!

"SEUSS" IT UP FOR HOMECOMING

It's been a crazy week at Manistique High School with plenty of homecoming activities in the works. Using the theme of Dr. Seuss for the week's attire, students dressed up to "1 Fish, 2 Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish" Monday - including red, blue or fishing gear apparel. On Tuesday, the story was "Fox in Socks", which included incorporating crazy socks or a crazy outfit. On Wednesday, the title was "If I Ran a Zoo". Students could dress up as zookeepers or an animal of their choice. Thursday's story, "On the Places You'll Go!" will have students dressing up as their future occupation. Friday's dress up day is "Green Eggs and Ham", which is, of course, green and white day. Coronation will take place at halftime of Friday's junior varsity football game against Gladstone. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. This year's court includes, from left to right: Mason Sanni, Kylie Johnson, Catherine King, Maddie McAlpine, Ashley McDonald, Erica Carlson, Mackenna Ozanich, Matt Wood, Igor Marine Ivanova, Levi Lakosky, and Sydney Peterson.

Athletes offered concussion baseline testing

MANISTIQUE - Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital Rural Health Clinic is partnering with Manistique Area Schools to conduct baseline concussion testing Oct. 22-26.

In recent years, there has been a significant amount of research performed concerning sports-related concussions in high school student-athletes. Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital is committed to the health and safety of the student-athletes, and has partnered with Manistique Area Schools. This partnership will allow Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital to provide an optional iMPACT test for our students at no cost.

iMPACT (Immediate Post-Concussion Assessment and Cognitive Testing) is a research-based software tool utilized to evaluate recovery after a concussion is suspected. iMPACT is currently being utilized by many professional, collegiate, and high school sports programs throughout the country. The exam is used to properly diagnose and manage concussions.

The test is non-invasive computerized exam which is set up in a video game format. The test takes approximately 25 minutes to complete. It tracks information such as memory, reaction time, speed, and concentration. Essentially the iMPACT test is a preassess physical of the brain, it is not an IQ test.

Manistique Area Schools' students, aged 12-19, will be able to take a baseline exam during the school day the week of Oct. 22-26 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

If a concussion is suspected at any time, the student will then retake the test. Both the baseline test and the post injury test data will be evaluated by the student's Healthcare Provider of choice or our iMPACT team. Through this process these healthcare professionals will determine when return to play is appropriate and safe for the injured student.

Scholar-Athlete Award applications available

EAST LANSING - One of the Michigan High School Athletic Association's most popular programs, the Scholar-Athlete Award, will again present 32 $1,000 scholarships to top student-athletes at member high schools during the 2018-19 school year.

The MHSAA-Farm Bureau Insurance Scholar-Athlete Award highlights the value extracurricular activities play in the total education of high school students, often improving their academic achievements in the process. The Scholar-Athlete Award is in its 30th year. Since the award's inception in 1988-89, Farm Bureau Insurance has presented more than $764,000 in scholarships through this program.

The first 30 scholarships will be presented on a graduated basis across the MHSAA's traditional class structure. From Class A schools, six boys and six girls will receive scholarships; from Class B schools, four boys and four girls; from Class C schools, three boys and three girls; and from Class D schools, two boys and two girls will be honored. The final two scholarships will be awarded at-large to minority recipients, regardless of school size. The scholarships, may be

Through wind and RAIN

Last Wednesday's rain didn't make things easy for the Manistique Emerald Youth football eighth grade team as they battled for the win over Gwinn. Above, with a Modellowner in tow, Evan Middleford attempts to gain some turf. Both the youth football teams will play in Marquette Saturday for their final games of the season. Sixth and seventh will play at 2 p.m. and the eighth grade will play after those games end.

Upper Peninsula
Lac Vieux Desert: The cool wet weather did not hamper muskie anglers hoping to land a big fish. A handful of fish 32-47 inches were caught on suckers or artificial baits. A few small pike were caught right along with fish ranging 30 inches or so. Walleye and panfish anglers were few and far between however some decent size perch were caught on minnows. Anglers had to sort through a lot of small ones to get them.

Marquette: The weather has once again limited fishing. The few boats heading out did catch a couple Chinook, lake trout and steelhead just outside the breakwall. Overall catch rates were low with most getting just one or two fish. Shore anglers had some luck catching coho and steelhead on both the Carp and the Chocoyay Rivers. The Dead River is still producing a few Chinook, but the fish are beginning to die off.

Little Bay De Noc: Walleye anglers fished mostly in the southern waters as they were looking for bigger walleye. Try the Minneapolis Shoals area and off Seagull Point. Further north, the best areas were along the Second and Third Reefs in 18 to 28 feet or the mouth of the Escanaba River in 20 feet. Some trolled stick baits as fewer anglers were using a crawler harness. Perch catches were fair to good mostly around the head of the bay in 10 to 24 feet when using minnows.

Big Bay De Noc: Had low angler

Weekly U.P. Fish Report

Department of Natural Resources Oct. 11

participation. Smallmouth bass were in and around the Garden Bluff area and around Snake Island. Best catches were in 25 to 35 feet with minnows or plastics with drop-shot setups. Perch are showing up in the deeper waters of Garden Bay so try minnows in 40 feet or so.

Manistique River: Anglers were still getting salmon including some pinks and some Chinook which were turning dark. Walleye have also been caught.

An Train: A few anglers picked up the occasional steelhead, brown trout, and coho in front of the mouth of the Rock River and Au Train River when trolling spoons in 50 feet. Within the next two weeks, the Forest Service will be removing the dock a bit early to make some repairs, so anglers may not have too many chances left to get out.

Munising: Heavy rain and strong winds have made fishing difficult. Surface water temperatures are in the 50's. Fishing in general was poor with only a few coho caught when casting. Very few splake were caught.

Grand Marais: Had very slow fishing with most anglers catching one or two coho and steelhead. Very few anglers were surfcasting at the mouth of the Sucker River because of the strong winds. The river was extremely high with a strong current.

Two Hearted River: Continues to produce some coho. The action did slow with the warmer weather but should pick back up with the cold front.

Drummond Island: Anglers reported good pike catches on the south end. Try Pike Bay which is east of Whitney Bay with black bucktail spinners with yellow spotted blades. For the bigger fish, try drifting the weed beds with a south wind. A few perch were caught on the north end at Grape Island which is west of Maxton Bay. Pike were found on the southeast side of Grape Island. Some smaller perch were taken on the south side of Ashman Island. Try shiners and worms just off the bottom in 10 to 14 feet.

Cedarville and Hessel: Many have not been able to get out. At Cedarville, a few perch were caught in Musky Bay. Anglers may also want to try off Connors Point with worms and minnows in 12 to 14 feet. Off Hessel, no yellow perch were caught at the marina. Splake were caught at the finger docks however that season is closed. Some pike were caught when trolling crank baits throughout Mackinac Bay. Try from Hessel Point to St. Ledgers Island and on to the edge of the channel at Les Cheneaux Club Point with orange and chartreuse body baits with black ladder marks along the belly.

Concussion testing

Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital and Manistique Area Schools are continually striving to keep student health and safety at the forefront of any athletic experience. ImpACT program is expected to provide the best available means of managing concussions and preventing potential brain damage that can occur with multiple concussions.

All students must have a completed permission slip and have appropriate signatures before any ImpACT testing can be performed. ImpACT testing will be provided each year.

The permission slip can be downloaded from the hospital's website home page. Scroll down and click on the "ImpACT Concussion Testing" link.

While there, view the full presentation on "What is a concussion?" and "What is ImpACT testing?"

To register for testing, or for further information, contact Jessica Rochefort NP-C at 341-2153.

Fish Report

Ret. Sgt. John Walker

Well, I figured with a good chance the DNR is going to ruin hunting as we know it next year. I should warn you out there that like your venison, not to try this method.

Titled why we shoot deer in the wild: (A letter from someone who wants to remain anonymous, who farms, writes well and actually tried this)

I had this idea that I could rope a deer, put it in a stall, feed it up on corn for a couple of weeks, then kill it and eat it. The first step in this adventure was getting a deer. I figured that, since they congregate at my cattle feeder and do not seem to have much fear of me when we are there (a bold one will sometimes come right up and sniff at the bags of feed while I am in the back of the truck not four feet away), it should not be difficult to rope one, get up to it and toss a bag over its head (to calm it down) then hog tie it and transport it home.

I filled the cattle feeder then hid down at the end with my rope. The cattle, having seen the roping thing before, stayed well back. They were not having any of it. After about 20 minutes, my deer showed up - three or four. I picked out a likely looking one, stepped out from the end of the feeder, and threw my rope. The deer just stood there and stared at me. I wrapped the rope around my waist and twisted the end so I would have a good hold.

The deer still just stood and stared at me, but you could tell it was mildly concerned about the whole rope situation. I took a step towards it, it took a step away. I put a little tension on the rope, and then received an education. The first thing that I learned is that, while a deer may just stand there looking at you funny while you rope it, they are spured to action when you start pulling on that rope.

That deer exploded. The second thing I learned is that pound for pound, a deer is a LOT stronger than a cow or a colt. A cow or a colt in that weight range I could fight down with a rope and with some dignity. A deer - no chance. That thin rang and bucked and twisted and pulled. There was no controlling it and certainly no getting close to it. As it jerked me off my feet and started dragging me across the ground, it occurred to me that having a deer on a rope was not nearly as good an idea as I had originally imagined. The only upside is that they do not have as much stamina as many other animals.

A brief 10 minutes later, it was tired and not nearly as quick to jerk me off my feet and drag me when I managed to get up. It took me a few minutes to realize this, since I was mostly blinded by the blood flowing out of the big gash in my head. At that point, I had lost my taste for com-fed venison. I just wanted to get that devil creature off the end of that rope.

I figured if I just let it go with the rope hanging around its neck, it would likely die slow and painfully somewhere. At the time, there was no love at all between me and that deer. At that moment, I hated the thing, and I would venture a guess that the feeling was mutual. Despite the gash in my head and the several large knots where I had cleverly arrested the deer's momentum by bracing my head against various large rocks as it dragged me across the ground, I could still think clearly enough to recognize that there was a small chance that I shared some tiny amount of responsibility for the situation we were in. I didn't want the deer to have to suffer a slow death, so I managed to get it lined back up in between my truck and the feeder - a little trap I had set before hand...kind of like a squeeze chute. I got it to back in there and I started moving up so I could get my rope back.

Did you know that deer bite? They do! I never in a million years would have thought that a deer would bite somebody, so I was very surprised when ..... I reached up there to grab that rope and the deer grabbed hold of my wrist. Now, when a deer bites you, it is not like being bit by a horse where they just bite you and slide off to then let go. A deer bites you and shakes its head - almost like a pit bull. They bite hard and it hurts.

The proper thing to do when a deer bites you is probably to freeze and draw back slowly. I tried screaming and shaking instead. My method was ineffective.

It seems like the deer was biting and shaking for several minutes, but it was likely only several seconds. I, being smarter than a deer (though you may be questioning that claim by now), tricked it. While I kept it busy tearing the tendons out of my right arm, I reached up with my left hand and pulled that rope loose.

That was when I got my final lesson in deer behavior for the day.

Deer will strike at you with their front feet. They rear right up on their back feet and strike right about head and shoulder level, and their hooves are surprisingly sharp... I learned a long time ago that, when an animal-like a horse - strikes at you with their hooves and you can't get away easily, the best thing to do is try to make a loud noise and make an aggressive move towards the animal. This will usually cause them to back down a bit so you can escape.

This was not a horse. This was a deer, so obviously, such trickery would not work. In the course of a millisecond, I devised a different strategy. I screamed like a woman and tried to turn and run. The reason I had always been told not to try to turn and run from a horse that paws at you is that there is a good chance that it will hit you in the back of the head. Deer may not be so different from horses after all, besides being twice as strong and three times as evil, because the second I turned to run, it hit me right in the back of the head and knocked me down.

Now, when a deer paws at you and knocks you down, it does not immediately leave. I suspect it does not recognize that the danger has passed. What they do instead is paw your back and jump up and down on you while you are laying there crying like a little girl and covering your head.

I finally managed to crawl under the truck and the deer went away. So now I know why when people go deer hunting they bring a rifle with a scope.....to sort of even the odds!!

All these events are true so help me God...an educated farmer.

DNR: 'What in the Wild' tabletop game available

LANSING — Match it, connect it, slap it, group it or build it — there are plenty of ways to “go wild” with “What in the Wild”, the first commercial tabletop game just released by the DNR Wildlife Division.

A unique five-in-one card game experience, “What in the Wild” is designed to help children and families learn about and appreciate local wildlife, ideally exciting kids about wildlife while they’re learning and inspiring a new generation of conservationists.

Meecle Mountain, a Nashville-based tabletop gaming media/events company that reviews new games, said: “What in the Wild could easily become a family go-to because it plays quickly, which allows different people the opportunity to win, is easy to play some games as a team (especially if you have very young players), and travels well in a small box.”

In addition, the game may be used as a tool for teachers using the DNR-developed “Go Wild for Michigan’s Wildlife” curriculum in their kindergarten through fifth grade classrooms.

Visit michigan.gov/dnreducation to learn more about this teaching opportunity.

The game is available for purchase at thegamecrafter.com/games/what-in-the-wild.

Support a favorite teacher or school by purchasing a classroom pack for them at thegamecrafter.com/games/what-in-the-wild-classroom-pack-1.
